Around Town
 -By Nosey Waters-

Roy Parker, Sierra Blanca Ski Area manager told the Ruidoso News this week a well known ski instructor from Germany was due to arrive here early this month to join the staff on the local slopes. He is Peter Shober, from Bayreuth in Germany. Parker said skiers trying the slopes here the last college mid-semester week-end totaled more than 2,000—a check of ski lift ticket sales revealed. He said many hundreds more people visited the area, not to ski but to ride the gondola and to watch the activity.

Our thanks to D. L. Harguess, minister of the Church of Christ here, who wrote in his church bulletin last week concerning the printed message: "There is no media available to us that is more powerful. The printed page has long since been the best means of conveying thought." Did you notice the enclosure in your bill from Community Public Service Co. this month? The company mailed 110,000 leaflets with a photo from our Sierra Blanca Ski Area and a description of the winter sports fun found here. Every metered customer C. P. S. has in Texas and New Mexico received the same piece of advertising.

Bill Boone, manager of the municipal airport, says air traffic is already considerably above last year here, which may point up the greatest summer yet, alrwise, for Ruidoso. He added that additional weather data is now being provided the U. S. Weather Bureau by the weather observing station at the airport, which will—in time—enable the weather bureau forecasters to come up with some pretty accurate guesses for this immediate region. He said the weather observing that has been done at the radio station in the past is now all being done plus some more information being added to it at the airport. "As we build a history on our weather, it will mean forecasters can, from experience, give us a better idea about what might be getting to occur," Boone declared. . . Mrs. Lem Sallee writes in from Phoenix that she is writing a history of Sallee's Riding Academy. We'll probably print some of her story of this pioneer Ruidoso recreation in a future issue of the News. . . State Police were reported checking automobiles returning from the Sierra Blanca Ski Area last week-end, on the watch for stolen skis being packed out of the region.

831 Votes Cast In School Race

Parks, Jennings, Petty, Tate Win

An all-time record number of votes were cast here Tuesday in a school board election, giving the incumbent ticket of four men a four to one majority for elective terms. Three of the four men, Dave Joe Parks, Ralph Petty and L. F. (Jack) Jennings, had been appointed to the board following a wholesale resignation of school trustees a year ago in a school squabble here. The fourth man, running with them to fill out an incumbent ticket, was Dr. C. H. Tate. He sought to fill the position left by Earl Hickam's term expiring.

The spirited campaign prior to Tuesday's voting saw newspaper ads in two communities expounding tickets, circulars, boxholder mailing, telephone solicitation and radio advertising used to "get out the vote." Snowed under in the balloting were members of the Economy Platform Ticket who had promised to spend less money for needed extra classrooms here on the school's present site. The incumbent group was for building a new school on a site purchased near the airport. There were other issues—but the school building project seemed to be the major discussion.

Here are figures on the Tuesday vote as announced about 10 o'clock Tuesday night here:

For Two 6-Year Term Trustees—
 Dr. C. H. Tate 647
 Dave Joe Parks 618
 Wm. Leitwisch 160
 James F. Lackey 128

For One 4-Year Term Trustee—
 L. F. Jennings 438
 Al Pearson 433

For One 2-Year Term Trustee—
 Ralph Petty 431
 George Westfall 177

Election Judge Ed Lane said 831 votes were not counted due to technical errors—omission or extra marks.

The electees will begin their new terms on March 1, at which time the board will be reorganized. Hold-over member and president is Mrs. Gerald Tully.

Mr. M. E. Stewart is recuperating from a broken ankle, suffered in a fall at his home two weeks ago. His doctor placed a cast on his leg, which is to remain for six more weeks.

New Date Set For Bond Vote

The omission of a legal notice from the Ruidoso News last week, a resolution calling for a proposed $275,000 school bond election on Feb. 10, has caused a called meeting of the Ruidoso board for Friday night this week for rescheduling the resolution. Supt. George White and finance officer Darrell Fowler of Stern Bros., Albuquerque, said the new date would likely be Tuesday, March 9, three weeks from the initial vote setting. The notice must be published two weeks prior to the election, according to state statutes.

The omission was because of an oversight on the part of the News, school officials have been informed.

McBride, Runnels Win At Capitan

In the school trustee election held at Capitan Tuesday which saw five candidates in the race for the two 6-year term posts, George W. McBride and Mrs. Louise Coe Runnels were top vote getters. Results of the balloting, in which 203 persons voted, were as follows:

George W. McBride 112
 Louise Coe Runnels 98
 Joe Escobedo 74
 John Schuster 63
 Robert Gates 44

Terms of Hollis Cummins, board president, and Herman Otto expired this year.

Pilot Group Arrives To Start Research Work

First truck load of equipment and some personnel for a manufacturing research project here arrived this week in Ruidoso—a pilot group for what may be several more workers in time for an industry which may make Ruidoso permanent headquarters for a branch of its production work.

Wagner Sprinkler Pipe Mover, Inc., a Brownfield, Tex., concern headed up by L. V. Wagner, president, and Bryce Wagner, manager, has been working with Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Chamber of Commerce officials and Village of Ruidoso officials for several days in working out preliminary plans for a move here.

An official announcement from the Wagners is expected shortly to report on what may be a part of Ruidoso's industrial future.

POVERTY LOAN BUYS EQUIPMENT—Charles W. Moore and wife are shown with five of their eight children, beside truck loaded with firewood he was able to acquire with assistance of a loan in 'anti-poverty' program. Truck and chain saw were among items he bought with loan, and he has a hydraulic log splitter on order. The Moores live in Capitan and were among first in New Mexico to receive poverty loan. In photo, from left, Moore, Ruben, aged 8; Steven, 7; Mrs. Moore with Vivian, 3; Wesley, 12, and Boyd, 9.

Esprit de Corps Is the Spark Plug Of Ruidoso Junior Racing Team

By BARBARA ISHAM

"Who are these kids wearing blue uniforms with a white stripe . . . Where are they from? They're certainly out on a masse!"

This is the question that has been asked the past month at the New Mexico area junior races. Who are they? These young people, ranging in age from six years to 16 are the Ruidoso Junior Racers, representing the Sierra Blanca Ski Club.

The Ruidoso junior skiers have competed in races at Cloudcroft, Red River and Taos and have brought home honors from all three. They have competed against Vall, Durango, Broadmoor and Denver teams from Colorado and Taos, Los Alamos, Santa Fe, Albuquerque and Cloudcroft teams.

These young people have done more than win honors, however, for our area. They have won the admiration of many New Mexico and Colorado people at these races, including Pete Selbert, manager of Vall which is one of Colorado's top ski areas. It was quite impressive to watch about 15 to 18 blue-clad, helmeted youngsters follow Ray Heid, the team coach, down the super-expert slopes at Taos Ski Valley. And the parents who travel with these boys and girls are proud to say, "Oh, they're from Ruidoso, N. M."

What are these junior racers? These are boys and girls who began working out at the park in September with Ray and Jim Isham and several mothers to get their legs and bodies in shape for the ski season. The townspeople might have seen them jumping rope, walking the fence, scampering about the mountain and playing soccer. When it became too cold to work outside, the group moved inside to tumble and exercise until the snow came. That was a happy day . . . when they left dry ground, strapped on their skis and began running gates and packing snow on the slopes to condition their legs. They met once or twice a week to practice running through gates and learning how to get through different kinds of gates in slalom races. They listened carefully, often with knitted brows, to what Ray had to say . . . and asked questions when they were in doubt.

The first race, held in Cloudcroft, held many heartbreaks. Some of the racers lost skis on the icy slopes, and lost minutes getting them back on. Some of the younger ones missed gates which disqualified them altogether, but made them more watchful for the next one. From Cloudcroft, five youngsters brought home trophies. Danny Estes won a first place, Carey Horton, Mary Estes, Karen Campbell and Beverly Seed won a second.

Red River rolled out a welcome carpet to the young people. They were up early to catch their chair car to the top and come down with their coach, listening again and questioning. At the end of a long day, and over 100 ski contestants later, Ruidoso racers had won a first, Kathryn Campbell, and a third, Danny Estes.

The trip to Taos was one of quiet thought to many . . . the slopes are steep, the competition rough . . . but it's good practice. These others have been racing longer than we. The trip home was laughter, excitement and proud smiles. Eight skibones had been won, and Ruidoso racers had popped out the eyes of many fine ski men that afternoon as Ruidoso continued to be posted on the board.

The winners here were, first places: Dale Pearson, Steve Wimberly, Kathryn Campbell; second: Alan Campbell; third places: Danny Wimberly and Karen Campbell; fourth places: Beverly Seeds, Joe Bob McGuire. The enthusiasm of these junior skiers was lifted to the top of the finish flags for the races to come.

The Junior racers have three workouts a week now. On Wednesday, during the school program, they work on techniques while on Saturday and Sunday they either run gates or free-ski with their coach, Ray Heid.

Their next race is Saturday at Sierra Blanca, a sanctioned race sponsored by the El Paso Ski Club. Following this race, there are races at Santa Fe, Albuquerque, Los Alamos and again at Red River.

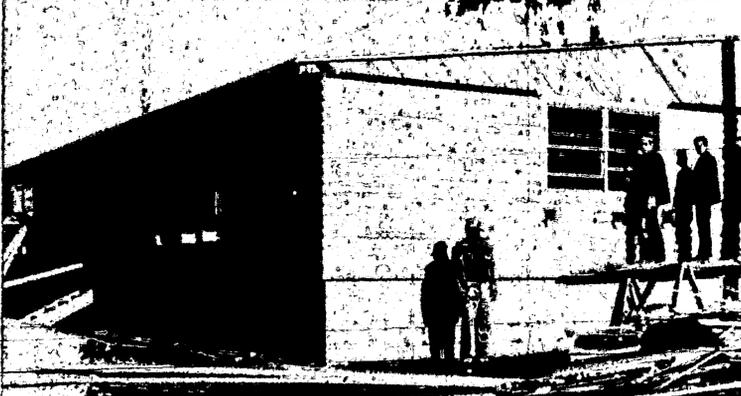

So perhaps Ruidoso will soon be on the map as another Ski Town, USA, as Steam Boat Springs, Colo. was by its young racers.

There is a total of 27 youngsters on the Sierra Blanca Junior Racing team with all but two of the group from Ruidoso. King Todd of El Paso is racing with the local team as is Christopher Bancroft of Carrizozo.

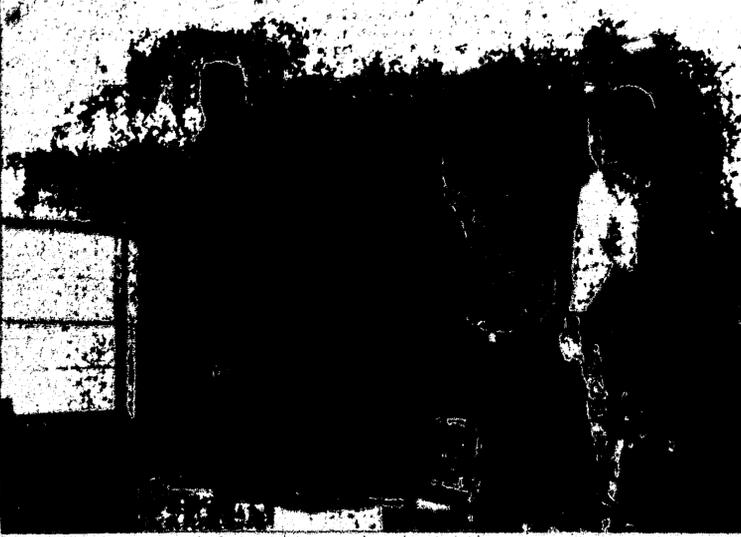

Ruidoso youngsters on the squad are Linda and Lorie Starkey, Ken Knapp, George Pearson, Mary Estes, Monique Vanderstok, Bob Palm, Karen Campbell, Jim Peebles, Alfred Pearson, David Estes, Carey Horton, Dan Wimberly, Marshall Peebles, Retvas McGuire, Scharbauer Ward, Steve Wimberly, Charles Seeds, Kathryn Campbell, Beverly Seeds, Lisa Boyer, Craig Horton, Danny Estes, Alan Campbell, Dale Pearson and Joe Bob McGuire.

Charles W. Moore of Capitan is one of the first to make a living for himself and his wife and their eight children with funds from an "anti-poverty" loan he secured last week, and with which he has already accumulated some equipment to work at his job of woodcutter. The loan amounted to $2,500 and with the money so far he has bought a two-ton 1961 International truck, with a log splitter, a new chain-link saw he bought and is now using. On order is a hydraulic log splitter. The $2,500 was spent as follows: he paid $1,000 cash for the truck, which he must add 50 cords of firewood as the balance of payment to be delivered to the party from which he bought the truck; $200 for the chain-link saw, and the hydraulic log splitter on order, $1,300. He had to buy four tires for the truck costing $109.94, making his total expenditure $2,439.94, leaving him an operating capital of 31c of the loan of exactly 31c.

Moore said he made an application for the loan last November through the Farmer's Home Administration office in Roswell, and was aided in processing the loan by Gerald Gordon of the Soil Conservation Service office in Capitan, as well as Frank Floyd in the P. H. A. office in Roswell.

Moore said he received his loan on Jan. 20.

The new business was in operation in only a few hours after the loan was in hand, Moore said. Last week he had begun bringing in truck loads of fireplace wood from the nearby hills and mountains in the Capitan area. Previously Moore was employed as fence post cutter in business for himself he had at present the market is $10 a cord for unsplit logs in Capitan but when his splitter is put to work, he can get $18 a cord for the firewood.

Moore says his truck will carry three cords of wood. He cuts pine, juniper and cedar and sometimes he cuts pine and oak. The family moved to Capitan in September of 1964 from Metcalf Gap, Tex., where he had been working at cutting cedar posts.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore married in 1937 in Gunnison, Colo., where Mrs. Moore was a junior in high school. Moore said he didn't complete high school either. He was left an orphan at the age of 12, Mrs. Moore said.

In recognition of his work with young sheep breeders of the county, Lincoln County Extension Agent Ralph Dunlap was named County Agent of the Year by the New Mexico Wool Growers in their annual convention last week-end in Roswell.

New Service For 200,000 Readers Of Ruidoso News During This Year

A new service for the 200,000-plus readers of the Ruidoso News this year is to be offered with the beginning of the publication shortly of a feature called "Guidepost." It will be a combination tourist guide, information service and listing of places to stay, eat and shop.

The News prints 52 issues a year, with an average circulation of 2,000—of which the bulk is newsstand sales. The newsstand sales here, and samples mailed to people throughout the nation, provide a readership of a conservative number figured at 200,000 people or more for this period of time.

Winter sports season and the summer vacation time bring people here who buy the News on newsstands up and down the Ruidoso canyon. The number of papers sold in this manner figures from at least 500 a week to 1,500 a week—and every week's buyers are new buyers—the great majority of them buying only one or two issues during their visit to this community. Each paper is read by an average of three persons—thus a readership of 200,000 people is a conservative figure when you count in our regular "mail" subscribers in Lincoln County and elsewhere. The latter are our steady subscribers who take the paper for a year or more—many of them for 10 years—the length of time the News has been published.

To further publicize the Ruidoso Playground area, the News has had a standing policy now for many months of sending sample copies of the paper to prospective vacationers, visitors or settlers here. We are continually getting letters from these "extra" readers saying how much they enjoy reading about Ruidoso, and that their interest has been whetted in this place by reading the affairs of the community in our columns.

Local motel owners, restaurant operators, service station people and other related businesses may find it very profitable to reach these 200,000 prospective customers with an ad in the "Guidepost" for a long-time period. The ads that remain for a long time in the "Guidepost" will provide the most effective results, we can assure you.

The visitors to Ruidoso, or the prospective visitor, will be able to find a place to stay, to eat, and other services fast in our "white page" "Guidepost."

THANK YOU

We are indeed grateful for the very fine expression of confidence in our work as your school trustees last year as shown in the wonderful vote total at the polls Tuesday

We shall strive to merit your continued support in the balance of our terms. Most pleasing of all to us in the election Tuesday was the large amount of interest manifest. The big turnout of voters is a healthy support of our Democratic processes. We are grateful to everyone who worked so hard to get out the fine vote.

Paul Vance Picked As Top Lion of Year

Paul Vance was named Lion of the Year for the second year straight by Ruidoso Lions Club, and he was given a present along with the recognition as a part of the program for the club's 25th anniversary dinner and dance at the Chaparral Motor Hotel Tuesday evening. There were about 100 persons in attendance at the affair, which saw W. C. (Dub) Williams as master of ceremonies.

Main speaker was Third Judicial District Judge George L. Zimmerman of Alamogordo, a former Ruidoso resident, who gave a humorous listing of the various "snobs" who fall in numerous categories, ranging from the "regional snob" whose own land is far superior to any place he visits, to the "dress snob," the female species who is the very, very earliest to wear the latest in fashions or who caters to fashion's whims not at all. He had the crowd in an uproar of laughter for most of his address. The tongue in cheek remarks finally encompassed everyone in his audience, including those who are "quit smoking snobs" and haven't "touched the filthy weed in 89 days," to the bragadocio species who couldn't care less if smoking might be injurious. Health fadists, sports car owners and ordinary car owners, were the types he was talking about also in his range from A to Z in the "snob" categories.

Accomplishments of Lions International in world affairs and in service to people in many lands was recounted by 40-M District Governor Lionel Haight from Las Cruces. He remarked on the success of the establishment of an eye bank in New Mexico, brought about through efforts at state conventions to put the program in motion.

Other special guests included members' wives and Lion Boss Hollis Cummins and his wife of the Captain club, several other members and their wives from Captain and from Alamogordo and Roswell, as well as John Tillotson, Alamogordo, Dale Dodds of Ruidoso and Don Sark, now of Ruidoso, but formerly of Amarillo, were international Lions councilors introduced, with their wives. Deputy District Governor L. J. (Duffy) Fraundorfer, Roswell, and O. K. Neal, Roswell, district governor of 40-X, and Bert Jones, cabinet member, Artesia, were other officials on hand with their wives.

Invocation was given by Lion Tom Cook and a pair of vocal solos was presented by Mrs. Sidney Miller. LeRoy Gooch led the group in singing and in the pledge to the flag. Ruidoso President C. H. Tate and his wife were introduced by Toastmaster Williams.

TV Cable Franchise Extension Asked

At the regular meeting of the Village of Ruidoso Jan. 28, M. W. Knox made a request for 180 days extension of his existing TV cable franchise.

Present for the meeting were Mayor G. H. Stoneman, Trustees Bill McCarty, Jodie Filleman, G. M. Whitlock and Guy Robertson. Also present were Jim Hine, Manager-Clerk; Don Hart assistant; and Quinton Daniel, engineer.

In other matters coming before the Trustees, Hine presented a request for annexation of tracts X and Y, known as the school tract, located near the airport, containing approximately 43.336 acres. Trustee Whitlock made a motion, seconded by Filleman, that the land in question be approved as soon as the legal instruments are presented. The motion carried with a vote of all "ayes". Daniel gave a report on the waterworks improvement program and stated that the job is complete with the exception of the re-location of a 100,000 gallon steel tank and a few minor items.

Hart presented each trustee with a report from Ralph Smith, district highway safety engineer. The report contained traffic counts and surveys supporting the traffic device at Mechem and Sudderth. The trustees authorized Hine and attorney Thompson to update and revise, etc., those village ordinances needing same. Annexation of approximately 26.13 acres was approved by resolution 270 and vacating of a portion of right-of-way in Palmer Gateway Addition was approved by Resolution 269.

The Roy Anderson and the J. D. Locke properties on U. S. Highway 70 west are the parcels included in the annexation.

Mayor Stoneman, vice-president of the Municipal League of New Mexico Hine and Thompson were authorized to review pending State legislation pertaining to municipalities in Santa Fe, Feb. 10-17.

cause it is just, And this be our motto: 'In God We Trust'."

The first printing of this was in The Baltimore Patriot under date of September 29, 1814.

In 1861 a Pennsylvania minister, the Rev. W. R. Watkins, wrote to the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Salmon P. Chase, suggesting that God be recognized in some form on our coins. The Secretary, thinking well of the suggestion, ordered such a motto prepared, saying, "No nation can be strong except in the strength of God or safe except in His defense. The trust of our people in God should be declared on our national coins." Congress in 1864 passed an act authorizing a two-cent coin, and it was on these coins that the motto, "In God We Trust" first appeared. Some in President Lincoln's cabinet proposed that the same motto be placed on paper money as well as coins. The President said that if a legend was to be engraved on greenbacks he would suggest what Peter said in Acts 3: 6: "Silver and gold have I none, but such as we have give I thee."

Later Congress authorized the proper officials to place the motto on all coins that would admit of the inscription. But when in 1907 a new design with the eagle and double eagle was created, the motto was omitted. President Roosevelt had objected to use of the motto on the coin because he felt that such use of the motto tended to cheapen it. But there was a storm of objection from all over the country, and Congress quickly acted to restore "In God We Trust" on the eagle and the double eagle. This act of 1908 provided that the motto which had heretofore appeared on certain coins of gold and silver, should hereafter be inscribed upon all such gold and silver coins of said denominations. One of our first states, Florida, has as its state motto, "In God We Trust". Unquestionably, from the founding of our nation, it has been the conviction of the majority of its citizens that we should build upon a recognition of God as the giver of every good and perfect gift and the ultimate source of all law and order.

Ain't it funny how things will happen, how the preacher will just happen to be going by as you leave the Pool Hall or your mother-in-law will just happen to be there when you are hauling some young blonde widdler to work or how it just happens there is a Cop watchin when you are jes' a little late to get some place, I don't know what it is but don't it always happen that way.

Not too many days ago such an experience happened to a couple of young lady friends of mine that are a wee bit on the other side of forty. They happened to be out drivin' an decided to visit the graveyard and were driving around out there and decided to stop and park their car and visit and thought they should park their car against a tree so it wouldn't roll off or up either when they got ready to leave. No matter how hard they tried they couldn't get the car to budge. After much effort on the part of friends they finally got the vehicle back on the road.

Next time you are out drivin' happen to see two young ladies walking don't bother to pick them up they will jes be out gettin their exercise and seein the beautiful view of our village.

also in that you are able to meet broadened to cover other fields such as guidance and counseling, social studies and language arts.

Since education is a changing thing, to me it is extremely important that teachers do return to college periodically during the summers to keep up with the changes and new ideas being suggested. Such financial assistance as that offered by the NDEA make possible and exchange ideas with people from other areas. The one I was in had participants from at least 15 different states.

Four Ruidoso educators have had the opportunity to attend these institutes. I hope with the broadening of the act others from our system will be selected for attendance.

ART NOTES

Dear Mr. Lamb:

Many activities in our town are geared for the young people of high school age. This is fine. Games, dances, sports, school activities, music and dating are all a part of those "Mad-mad-mad" days of growing up. Placed together in the right amounts and in the right environment, these activities—at best—make up only a part of the "Balanced Formula" for teen-age development.

"Where are the other ingredients?" One might ask. "Isn't there a lack of opportunities for our young people to have Christian Fellowship and spiritual direction?" Another might ask.

Now our community can be proud to know that such a program is offered... the Inter-Church Youth Fellowship.

What the Inter-Church Youth Fellowship is:

1. It is an outgrowth of the fact that too few of our churches have a sufficient number of young people to maintain the interest and enthusiasm that is demanded in an effective youth program.

2. It is an effort on the part of interested individuals and churches (four at present), to sponsor a city-wide, Christ-centered program of fun, fellowship, training and worship.

3. Guided by an official council made up of representatives from each of the participating churches.

4. Well chaperoned and sponsored.

5. A program of religious emphasis but not overlooking the need for recreation.

6. Open to all of our high school students.

7. Inter-denominational.

8. Designed to aid the growth of and interest in each of the churches by the young people of Ruidoso.

9. All churches are encouraged to participate and help sponsor by sending a representative to the official policy-making youth board.

We hope that a substantial number of parents, other churches and individuals will support and encourage the program of the Inter-Church Youth Fellowship.

The extreme enthusiasm of our high school students is evident—and very gratifying.

The first meeting of the CYF will be this Sunday evening, 6:30 at the Methodist Church. A banquet for only 25¢ is planned with lots of singing, entertainment and a speaker of considerable note. A youth choir is being formed as a part of the ICYF is planned, also.

Thomas W. Cook
Sincerely,
Jan. 11, 1965

Dear Vic:

After my last foray on the public I should have learned my lesson but I seem some of the readers cannot understand my opinion on year round legalized gambling and not throw a few bricks at the race track more or less for good measure, I assume.

I will either answer this to the point of satisfaction of all or I will confuse every one to the point that they will give up.

Most native Texans have a soft spot in their hearts for horses and I am no exception. I have been told that the soft spot was in my head but horses to early settlers often meant life and death. Usually a slow horse could mean death under the primitive conditions that prevailed in the early days of Texas history and every one tried to own a good fast horse readily available in case of attack by Indians.

It soon happens that I am about as native as a Texan can be and have any Anglo blood at all. I am three-generations Texan by the weakest link, my grandfather Russell, who was born in Missouri. The rest of my ancestors were composed of people one generation before grandpop, or they had been around all the time. There was Grand Pa Chief - Two - in - a - Shuck. (Several names removed). He has no particular place in history except he did assist some ladies down a gang plank when a group of immigrants landed down in northeast Texas at a place later known as Plymouth Rock.

It will be necessary to go into considerable detail to build a suitable background to show the importance of horses to my particular family but without this effort I don't feel any one would fully understand.

My great grandfather and three of his brothers started from South Carolina by wagon train west in the very early part of the last century and my great grandfather and one of the brothers split away from the other two in Arkansas and went into Missouri settling near Joplin. The other two traveled on into Texas. One acquired a plantation in Bell County along with all the fringe benefits, slaves, mint juleps and good horses. The remaining brother settled on the coast and became a soldier in the war and he some as having shot the first Mexican. My wife having heard of some of the turbulent history of my family has suggested that he might be due credit for starting the war in the first place.

Now it so happened that my grandfather owed his career to a fast horse able to maintain a number one position and my soldier uncle gained his fame with a fast horse that maintained the number two position.

Since a number two position rarely means much insofar as fame is concerned I will explain. My uncle and the commandant of a fort on the Gulf of Texas got the idea about the same time that they were about to be encircled by Mexicans and they decided to run for it and at about ten mile intervals the commandant, hoping to induce my uncle to stop and make a stand, would holler over his shoulder at uncle and raise his rank as an inducement to get him to stop and fight.

His first promotion was to sergeant, then second lieutenant, first lieutenant, captain, and by the time they had reached temporary safety some 60 miles from their starting point the commandant introduced uncle as Commandant of Fort Anahuac. Some have intimated that had uncle been riding a horse that could have outdistanced his superior's he would have likely been shot as a deserter.

The other major debt to horses was incurred by grandfather. When he was 20 years of age he was tending her at the Longbranch in Joplin and he got into a rickety wagon with a prominent man of the area that was consumed by said party sticking a knife in grandpa's gizzard that eventually caused his death some 64 years later. However, when the smoke cleared there was no one in the saloon with a gut in his hand except grandpa and there was a very prominent person spread out eagle like on the floor. According to grandpa things looked very suspicious to the others in the saloon but grandpa doubted that he would be convicted but due to the prominence of the party involved, he was afraid that he would be acquitted, posthumously so he saddled up his best horse and hit the trail for Uncle John's in Central Texas. You will hear many discount the endurance of a quarter horse but grandpa's nine hundred pound pony outdistanced three posies from Joplin to Red River.

Over the years there were many instances that endeared our tribe to good horses and I and many more Texans will not easily forget. There are many reasons why I did not lambast the track in my last article as follows:

The track is legal, like it or not.

It was delivered to me second hand that gambling was gambling and a sin of the first water.

Their product is salvation and they cannot prove a single instance of it being anything but a gamble, I know a lot of people that have won at wagering on horses. I can also get some intelligent answers from a horseman about horses but when I fangle with all the preachers I have known they beat around the bush like a turkey in a paper sack. I and a lot of other folks are entitled to some intelligent answers instead of a lot of bocus pecus. I would not make this statement if I did not think the answers were available.

Insofar as I am concerned in recent years since science has been able to offer proof relative to various elements and periods of time involved I believe the men of the cloth should update their thinking. There were many at one time that considered the radio as an instrument of the devil and would not preach over the air and according to my thinking refusing to accept scientific facts has no more basis of fact.

The sin of gambling and drinking alcoholic beverages is in leading some one, knowingly or not, into following suit only to find they cannot or will not control themselves. The way I read the specifications is that all men of christian principles owe a debt to their neighbors to set an example of clean living that will not induce others to attempt things that might overcome them.

On this basis of thinking there is no safe way but to stay completely away from both drinking and gambling and while I do stay away from drinking I do not abstain from many things completely that I am aware that I should. Do you?

I feel that in condemning any one or thing that I should be able to offer a reason for so doing and the reasons are as follows and are made without recourse, I hope.

I believe most people educated or otherwise refuse to accept any time but that of the earth and since science has been able to time many things connected with the earth's life and elements I think here is the breakthrough.

Most folks think Adam was created in at least a few eight hour shifts. Why I don't know. I know that my body is composed of millions of single cells and there had to be a cell number one.

I doubt very much that God went out into space and created a small speck of dirt called earth and then set his watch to the movements of this body.

We have only a few thousand years of recorded history and in my opinion not enough time changes to realize that the universe is a mobile unit with cycles of its own but I am a firm believer that this is the case and it's very likely that a day of the universe is millions of earth years in length.

With this thought there is no fight with scientific thinking. I believe when God mentioned the creation of earth and the things on it being accomplished in a day that he was referring to days of the universe rather than earth-time.

I don't think God was in any particular hurry in creating Adam and it was a million years between the creation of Adam's cell number one and two I refuse to get excited. There was no one on earth keeping his dinner warm awaiting his arrival.

To date I have given the creation of Eve very little thought but at times it has occurred to me that Adam might have been just as last article as follows:

I was not on a conversion kick and while I might be opposed to the track if I was crowded into a firm yes or no position I see very little comparison insofar as general legalized gambling versus the track is concerned.

It is true that some undesirable characters show up that neither the track nor the town wants but the short season involved does not offer them an opportunity to get firmly entrenched. Imagine a safe cracker busting up a safe in Ruidoso in the winter and finding his reward in I. O. U.'s and promissary notes?

While being a firm believer if not a follower of christian principles I have gradually become disgusted with a lot of preachers. Not for what they stand for but because I believe their needles are stuck. They are afraid generally to get into deep water for various reasons and the results speak for themselves.

Most of them fight scientific facts rather than try to understand them. It may be true that I am all wet from that deep water but I have answers that satisfy me and they don't.

It was delivered to me second hand that gambling was gambling and a sin of the first water.

Their product is salvation and they cannot prove a single instance of it being anything but a gamble, I know a lot of people that have won at wagering on horses. I can also get some intelligent answers from a horseman about horses but when I fangle with all the preachers I have known they beat around the bush like a turkey in a paper sack. How To Be Successful Without Really Trying . . .

Well, really now, you can't do that. You can't hardly be a success without really trying you know. So, here are some observations we have of successful business folks in Ruidoso we've known. We're known quite a few who weren't. They came here undercapitalized and not quite so earnest in their desire to give service, and with not so much pride in their work. That's the secret here Ruidoso has nothing to sell but service. The tourist business thrives on that. Our town exists on tourist business. We're not like a west Texas agricultural community, a northern industrial center, nor a mining community, nor a shipping center. We've got climate, relaxation and/or recreation, scenery and service as our stock in trade.

Along with service goes pride. The service station owner who has pride in that station by keeping it neat and clean, and who gives service above and beyond what's asked for in a TOURIST town, is the one who succeeds. The restaurant that gives good food and has pride in the way it is prepared and served, and ENJOYED by the customer, is also a success in a resort town. The motel and cabin owner who has pride in appearance and service in his place is a success. There are related businesses in a resort town that will thrive and grow when service and pride in appearance are given in exchange for the visitor's dollar.

Ruidoso is a wonderful place to live. Its climate and its natural beauty attract newcomers all the time. That's why each year finds more permanent residents here than the year before. The more who come to make their home, the more opportunity there is for the rest of us to make a better than average living here. But, to accomplish that, we still must remember that it is service and pride in our appearance in a RESORT town that brings repeat business and continued patronage.

ing as far as possible all references to God in our national life. How did it get on our coins, and whence did it come? It is not specifically in the Bible, though David said, "In God have I put my trust", and Job said of God, "Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him". Of Jesus it was said He hung on the cross, "He trusted in God; let Him deliver him now". But the origin of the expression on our coins seems to be in a couplet of Frances Scott Key's "The Star Spangled Banner". "Then conquer we must, for our

The Teachers' Corner

Having been fortunate enough to receive an institute for the study of modern mathematics through the National Defense Education Act this past summer, I should like to explain a little about this program.

It was first started about 1957 after the "Sputnik scare" to strengthen the subject-matter competence of science, mathematics and foreign language teachers. Since that time the act has been the attendance of many teachers who would otherwise need to supplement their income from summer occupations not related to their profession.

The typographical error is a slippery thing and shy. You can hunt till you are dizzy, but it somehow will get by. Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps; it shrinks down in a corner and it never stirs or peeps. The typographical error, too small for human eyes.

Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size. The boss he stares with horror, then he grabs his head and groans; The copy reader drops her head upon her hands and moans— The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be. But that typographical error is the only thing you see.

TAXES

Now, he's a common, common man.
 Tax him. Tax him all you can.
 Tax his house, and tax his bed,
 Tax the bald spot on his head;
 Tax his bread, tax his meat,
 Tax the shoes clear off his feet;
 Tax his pipe and tax his smoke,
 Teach him government is no joke.
 Tax him, brother, tax his gas,
 Tax the road that he must pass.
 Tax the farmer, tax his fowl,
 Tax the dog, and tax his howl.
 Tax his plow and tax his clothes,
 Tax the rags that wipe his nose.
 Tax his pig and tax his squeal;
 Tax his boot, run down at heel,
 Tax his cow, tax his calf,
 Tax him if he dares to laugh.
 Tax his hair and tax his lands,
 Tax the blisters on his hands,
 Tax the water, tax the air,
 Tax the sunlight, if you dare;
 Tax the living, tax the dead,
 Tax the unborn before they're fed.
 Tax them all, and tax them well,
 And do your best to make life hell.

QUESTION: What do you think is Ruidoso's greatest asset as a place to live?

Jim Littlefield: "I think Ruidoso's climate and natural beauty are the two greatest assets. Of course there are many other factors too that make Ruidoso an interesting place for year 'round living."

Dr. James A. Beall: "Our climate is Ruidoso's foremost asset for year 'round living. The climate, the scenery and the people make Ruidoso an ideal place to live."

NEAL LOGAN: "I think climate and scenery are the two greatest assets we have here in Ruidoso which make this a nice place to live."

E. L. Faubion: "I've been coming to Ruidoso since 1939 and I chose Ruidoso as a place to live because of the climate and the advantages of raising a family in a small town environment."

happy with a new jack knife, a chomp of tobacco and a soft pine board to whittle.

I do not believe that man descended from an ape even though at times our actions might so indicate. My main reason for discounting this theory is, we still have apes and people and I fail to see any evidence of a missing link and I doubt that had there ever been any such progression that it would have stopped.

If there is such a thing as universe time this fact will throw a lot window but to the best of my knowledge of christian's theories out of the ledge it changes nothing relative to the commandments of God and man's duties to God.

TEACHERS STRIKE BACK AT CRITICS OF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY

(Editor's Note: Ruidoso faculty members, through their Ruidoso Education Association, met last Friday to discuss an answer to charges coming from a slate of candidates running for the school board on an Economy Ticket Platform in which it was said they believed the statements from the candidates were misleading, and giving people who were not acquainted with the facts a false image of Ruidoso school's graduates and teachers. The R. E. A. meeting was attended by all but four of the teachers. Paul Vance was in the chair in the absence of LeRoy Gooch, school music director and R. E. A. president, who was in Albuquerque attending the All-State music festival. President Gooch said, on his return, he concurred fully in the statement issued from the meeting. It was further reported that the statement was approved unanimously by all teachers. The statement in full is reprinted below.)

"These statements are made by the Ruidoso Education Association, an organization composed solely of your teachers and administration, in answers to statements made by candidates of the so called Economy Ticket of possibly by some of their supporters.

In general:

1. The statements and implications in the printed platforms of the so called Economy Ticket are obviously designed to malign and destroy the character and morale of the administration and faculty of Ruidoso Schools.
2. The statements and implications in the printed platforms of the so called Economy Ticket deliberately if not viciously convey a false impression of the organization and operation of Ruidoso Schools.

3. The statements and implications in the printed platforms of the Economy Ticket are obviously based upon misinformation, if not the personal vindictiveness of the persons responsible for them, in particular:

1. Members of the so called Economy Ticket promise: "We will achieve the proper academic level of our graduates." This may be an intention to become students since only students achieve academic levels. On statewide test scores for juniors, our students compile a median score above the median for the nation; they have done so over a period of the last ten years.
2. The Economy Ticket states, quote, "We will seek the best possible moral environment . . ."; the plain absurdity of this plank in the platform is self-evident. It accuses both faculty and student body of practicing and promoting immorality. Everyone knows that morality begins at home.
3. The Economy Ticket states "We will lay the necessary foundation and build the school system to a point where we will be accredited by the North Central Association." The foregoing statement is most absurd in that for several years we, your teachers and administration have been laying the foundation for North Central accreditation. Other than a few deficiencies such as our barracks buildings and a time element, we would have been accredited long before this. Ruidoso High School has been accredited by the New Mexico State Department of Education since the beginning of the high school in 1947, without interruption. Incidentally, the North Central Association and the New Mexico State Department of Education's standards of accreditation parallel rather than oppose each other.
4. Concerning the progress of our past graduates, a study has been started by the present administration. The study has not yet been compiled due to the difficulty in locating some graduates.
5. Statement: "Our Economy Ticket will seek to build in the most economic manner the additional classrooms required at the old sites." We are already substandard because of crowded conditions. Additions to these present sites would only increase our problems and would eliminate our chances of becoming accredited by the North Central Association. It is interesting to note that the purchase of the airport site was unanimously endorsed by all concerned. Only after a deed had in fact been delivered were any objections expressed. By deed restriction the land acquired can only be used for school purposes, and if not used, which is the position of the Economy Ticket, the entire purchase price is wasted. Some economy!
6. "We of the Economy Ticket will not bow to conspiracy designed to create hate with the purpose of stampeding public opinion . . ." We feel that this is both an incorrect and irresponsible statement in that the faculty and administration have always been positive and ethical in approaching all issues concerned with Education. The Economy Ticket demonstrates conclusively that the Economy Ticket candidates' actions contradict their statements.
7. "We of the Economy Ticket pledge ourselves to the sincere dedication of our duties in behalf of the tax-paying citizens who are after all, the employers of our teachers and administrators." We are already dedicated to our duties and responsibilities. It is our common belief, as teachers and administrators, that any board of Education should be a policy making body and employ the administrators to execute these policies.
8. Members of the Economy Ticket propose "to eliminate complacency in the administration of our school affairs." Complacency in our school consists of recognition of our achievements and progress, but does not exist where current problems are concerned. Members of the Ruidoso Education Association know their administration to be competent and direct in dealing with school problems.

These statements are endorsed by the Ruidoso Educational Association, your teachers and administrators.

IT'S GOOD NEWS

Headlines in the Ruidoso News lately have all been good news. Our bank report for last year shows a continued healthy growth, our school enrollment shows a continued increase, building permits were near a million dollars last year. Prominent Chicago Minister To Speak At Kick-Off Banquet Of Church Youth Organization

A kick-off banquet for a proposed Ruidoso Protestant Youth Fellowship will be Sunday evening, Feb. 7, 6:30 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall of Community Methodist Church. Every Christian Senior High Youth is cordially invited to attend. Cost of the meal for the youth will be 25c with various church groups supporting the rest of the cost.

The Protestant Youth Fellowship (exact name to be voted on later) is sponsored by the Methodist, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Christian churches of the community. Plans are being formulated by a board consisting of ministers, laymen and youth from each of these churches. "It is hoped that such a group will fulfill the need of our High School youth for a vital Christian fellowship, and that it will continue to meet on a regular basis on Sunday evenings. This meeting will provide fellowship opportunities for the youth of other churches, and will deepen our own. Our Senior MYF will, of course, retain its identity, and have meetings and projects from time to time," Community Methodist pastor Thomas E. Richardson wrote in his church bulletin.

"The program for the banquet will be a very interesting one, and will feature a talk by the Rev. James G. Jones, Jr., a minister of the Episcopal Church," he wrote. "Rev. Jones has achieved nationwide prominence, including recognition in several magazines and on the 'This Is Your Life' TV program, for his work with the rehabilitation of released prisoners in Chicago. He is a favorite speaker for youth meetings across the nation. Mr. Tom Cook is serving as the head sponsor for the group. The banquet will be prepared by the United Church Women, Mrs. Daisy Davis, president," said the article.

Four From Here Join New Club At Albuquerque

Four from Ruidoso became charter members of the New Mexico Chapter of American Public Works Association at the organizational meeting held at the Cole Hotel in Albuquerque Feb. 3. The Ruidoso members: Village Manager-Clerk Jim Hine; Don Hart, assistant; A. E. Nanh, water superintendent, and Blair Halladay, sewer and sanitation superintendent.

"The New Mexico chapter was presented to the new association by William E. Hughes, director of public works, of Oklahoma City, and Robert Bugher, executive director of A. P. W. A. John Sudderth, chairman of the New Mexico State Highway Commission, also addressed the new association. Other speakers at the meeting were Archie Westfall, chairman of the Albuquerque City Commission and Fred O. Baker, director of public works, from Hobbs.

FORMER RUIDOSOAN GRADUATES FROM TECH
Shelby Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Miller of Alamogordo, and a former Ruidosoan who graduated from the Ruidoso High School, has recently received his college degree from Texas Tech College at Lubbock, Tex. The Millers were the owners of the motel on Highway 70 near the race track entrance now called Mitchell's Motel.

Series of Wrecks Bring Citations

A series of wrecks in the area brought citations to several drivers last week-end as follows:
Sunday morning a two-car crash in Sunset along U. S. 70-350 produced no injuries, but two vehicles were reported damaged and one driver was cited.

Patrolman Paul Gibson said a 1960 GMC pickup, driven by David Morris, 36, of Tinnie, was traveling west along the highway and attempted a left turn into the Nestor Silva driveway.
As the pickup began to turn it was struck in the rear bumper by a 1962 Dodge, driven by Hershel Griffin, 59, 507 E. Cardwell, Brownfield, Tex., according to Gibson. The officer explained that the Dodge had been attempting to pass the pickup when the accident occurred.

Griffin was cited for failure to use due care.
A cow was killed but no people injured, according to State Police Patrolman Darrell Austin, in a one-vehicle accident 5.6 miles south of Captain on State Road 48.

Austin said a 1957 Ford, driven by Roy Padilla, Box 90, El Pevriner, N. M., struck the animal because the driver was blinded by lights of an oncoming automobile. The cow had walked over a hill into the path of the car, Austin said.

Officer Benavidez cited a Big Spring, Tex. man for failure to have his vehicle under control Friday afternoon after the driver's 1963 Mercury rammed into a ditch about a mile and a half east of Mesalero on U. S. 70.

Benavidez said Jack Edwin Irons, 20, explained that he had reached down to adjust the radio when the car ran off the right side of the road. It struck an embankment, slid 180 feet then struck the ditch with the right front fender, the officer said.

NONE IS INJURED AS CAB HITS BRIDGE

Robert E. Alexander of Portales was cited by Ruidoso police for failure to use due care last Thursday, Jan. 29, at 9:30 p.m. when his car failed to make a turn at the second bridge in the upper canyon and hit the bridge rail. Although Alexander's car and the bridge rail were both damaged there were no injuries reported.

Three Rotarians Given Award

Special service awards were presented to three Rotarians at the Tuesday noon meeting of the Ruidoso Rotary Club at Wattle's. Charles A. Morrison, chairman of the awards committee announced. Senior active service button awards were presented to Dwight Sharpe for 39 years of service, A. E. Hunt for 28 years, and Curtis Bell for 18 years, Morrison said.

Student Rotarian of the month, Larry Blizell was introduced by George P. White, superintendent of Ruidoso Municipal Schools. Junior, Senior Ski Racers Compete Here Saturday

Junior ski racers of seven teams from the ski areas of New Mexico, plus a possibility of two teams or more from Colorado slopes, are expected Saturday this week to compete in the five age divisions for boys and five for girls. On the same day, according to Manager Roy Parker of Sierra Blanca Ski Area, the El Paso Ski Club will sponsor its annual Falstaff cup races with competitors vying in the novice and Class C division.

Ray Held, one of the coaches for the junior team here, and Parker will lay out the course for the two groups of racers on the west slope of the Capitan, Parker said.

Teams of juniors are expected from Red River, Clouderoff, Sandia, Santa Fe, Los Alamos, Taos and Sierra Blanca of Ruidoso, with prospects of teams coming from Alamosa and Broadmoor in Colorado, Held said.

Also working with the junior racers here have been Mr. and Mrs. Jim Isham, who have been with parents of the youngsters and Held on junkets this winter sports season to Clouderoff, Red River and Taos where the locals have shown promising skill in almost every division. The locals ran up a remarkable list of wins at the last meet in Taos.

Getting special notice at Taos three weeks ago was Steve Halladay who won over all the competitors in his division with a 14-second lead, which is a record for the juniors.

The Sierra Blanca senior team of Ruidoso holds the Falstaff cup from last winter's senior ski races here, and will be defending it against some determined competition.

Mrs. Holbert said this week following a meeting of the ski club Monday night that a $15 professional membership would be offered to business firms in the community, with a decal to be posted in their window declaring the firm had contributed to the fund to support the junior racers.

Tribe To Play Hondo Here Friday Night

Only five more games remain on the schedule for the Ruidoso Warriors before district tournament time and the Tribe would like nothing better than to go the rest of the season undefeated.

Friday night the Redskins take on the Hondo Eagles here at 8:00 p.m. in the varsity game and 8:30 in a B team game. Saturday night the Warriors travel to Capitan for another district battle with the Tigers. Ruidoso already holds one victory over the Tigers.

Hondo had little trouble with Capitan last week-end in a 80-66 battle, but has lost a couple of close battles to St. Peter's by one point this season.

Friday night during the half-time intermission will be "Basketball Royalty Night" with a queen and king to be crowned. Other royalty to be named will be two princesses and two princes.

GAME AND FISH NEWS

A fishing report released by the Department of Game and Fish said this week fishing is good at Nogaal Lake when the wind isn't up. At Ruidoso Lake near Alto they're telling stories about some trout over 15-inches which have been caught recently. The report from this lake reads "good to excellent."

BOOSTER CLUB WILL MEET THURSDAY NIGHT

The Warrior Booster Club has scheduled its first meeting of the month for this Thursday night it was announced this week.

All members are urged to attend to finalize plans for the Booster Club - Harlem Clowns basketball game to be held Wednesday night, Feb. 10.

The meeting will begin at 7:00 p.m. at the high school library.

Sports Sputs

B. B. Lees, head football coach at Eastern New Mexico University, was in Ruidoso last week-end visiting some friends and also taking a look at films from last football season. While here Lees stated that the Greyhounds should go undefeated next year—quite a prediction!

CLASSY, COMICAL CLOWNS TO PLAY BOOSTER CLUB

Those merry madcaps of the hardwood, the Harlem Clowns, will be here to entertain local fans in a contest with the Warrior Booster Club next Wednesday night, Feb. 10, at the high school gym. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

This is the 20th year for the Clowns and during that time they have played thousands of games in the USA, Canada, Mexico and Hawaii.

The Harlem Clowns are unique in the fact that they never try to run up a huge score against opponents—it is their policy to keep the game close, devoting much of the time to comedy stuff and their many sleight-of-hand ball handling routines.

WARRIORS LOSE A PAIR TO ST. PETER'S, HAGERMAN

By EDDIE SIDDENS (Ruidoso News Sports Writer)

The home court advantage, if there is any, didn't seem to help the Redmen of Ruidoso High School last week-end as the Tribe dropped two important contests to visiting St. Peter's of Roswell, 63-47, and Hagerman, 68-64.

In Friday night's contest with the Crusaders of St. Peter's, the Tribe hit a miserable percentage of field goals, but actually lost the game from the free throw line. Both teams hit 20 field goals, but the Crusaders hit for 23 charity tosses while the Warriors hit for only seven to provide the difference in the game.

St. Peter's big Mickey, Wyatt scored half of the Crusaders' field goals with 10 buckets and eight free throws for 28 points and game high.

The Crusaders held a narrow, 14-10, lead at the end of the first quarter and outscored the Warriors by five in the second period to take a 32-23 margin going into the locker room at intermission.

The Tribe was still cold in the third period and the Crusaders continued to outscore the Redskins to increase their lead to 47-34 at the end of three quarters.

Only two Warriors hit in double figures. Charlie Morrison led the Tribe with 13 markers and was backed up by Jim Graham's 11 points.

The win was the seventh straight for St. Peter's and added to their lead in the 5B District.

Hagerman Wins Close One, 66-64

The Hagerman Bobcats got the scare of their life after leading nearly the entire game before the Tribe made its charge in the last minute and a half. The Bobcats held a 65-60 lead as the Tribe made a rush to take the game, but fell short on a shot to tie the game with only seven seconds left.

Hagerman's lead was never by more than seven points at any time in the game as the hustling Warriors stayed in the contest until the buzzer sounded.

The Hagerman crowd squeaked out a 21-20 first period lead and held the lead, 38-35, at halftime. In the third period Hagerman outscored the Redskins, 17-14 to take a 53-49 margin going into the final stanza.

In the scramble to take the game the Warriors' Darrell Silerwalt and Jack Garrett hit for a bucket each to cut the Bobcat's lead to 65-64. A free throw gave the Hagerman squad a two-point lead and the Tribe had one more chance at the tying points but the shot was off its mark.

Charlie Morrison led the Tribe's scoring for the second straight game with 17 points, while Jack Garrett popped the nets for 11 and Jim Graham collected 10 markers.

Rex Mann and Buddy Adair paced the Hagerman attack with 13 points each.

Bees Also Lose Two

Ruidoso B team Braves had the same luck as the Warriors in both week-end games. They lost a thriller to St. Peter's, 57-56, and then after losing a 17-point lead at halftime against Hagerman, they dropped the latter contest, 65-57.

Against St. Peter's, the Bees jumped off to a quick 17-8 first period lead and took a 31-24 lead into the dressing-room at halftime. At the end of the third period the locals still held a 47-43 advantage to go into the final period. In the final quarter the Braves went ice cold from the field and were able to score only nine points while St. Peter's dumped in 14 points to take the game.

Max Curtis and Craig Whipple led the Braves in scoring with Curtis leading the way with 14 points and playing probably his best game of the season. Whipple backed up Curtis with 13.

In Saturday night's game with Hagerman the match was almost a repeat of the night before as the locals once again took a 17-9 lead in the first quarter and held a 34-21 lead at intermission. The Bees went cold again in the last two quarters and were outscored 44-23.

Craig Whipple led the Braves in scoring with 15 markers while Jimmy Barcus followed with 13.

Hondo Defeats Capitan, Loses To Corona

In Week-End Tilts

Hondo's Eagles had little trouble with the Capitan Tigers Friday night at Capitan to win, 80-66, but on their own court Saturday night found the going a little tougher to lose to Corona, 69-50.

Against Capitan the Eagles led the entire game, but held a narrow 39-32 halftime margin before pulling away in the final two periods for the victory.

Robert Chavez and Harold Radcliff paced Hondo in the scoring column with Chavez scoring 18 and Radcliff 17. William Herrera held high point honors in the game with 23 markers and was backed up by Mike Randle with 24.

Saturday night the Corona Cardinals led at the end of every period to win a close contest. At the half Corona held a 30-27 edge and increased the margin to 51-35 at the end of the third period.

Sonny Sanchez ripped the nets for 26 points to lead the Eagles in scoring while Robert Chavez tossed in 17 points. McCloud of Corona paced the Cardinals with 23 markers and James added 13.

This week-end the Eagles play Ruidoso on Friday night and Carrizozo Saturday night in two road games.

Junior High Loses To Tularosa, 59-51

Tularosa Junior High squad came up with a big second quarter to pull away from Ruidoso's Junior High and lead on to take a 59-51 victory here Saturday.

The second period charge gave the visiting Tularosa a halftime lead of 20-21 and a margin which the locals were never able to whittle down.

Stacy Stevenson and Max Curtis led the locals in the scoring column with Stevenson hitting the bucket for 17 points and Curtis backing up his teammate with 14.

Juan Rocha of Tularosa held high post honors for the game with 26 rebounds.

St. Peter's Wins 8th Straight Trips 'Zozo, 65-39

The St. Peter's Crusaders galloped to their eighth consecutive win behind the scoring of Greg Franchini and Mickey Wyatt Saturday night at Elwell.

Waiting before the onslaught were the Crusaders' Crusaders, who showed little punch in going down to a 65-39 defeat.

The visiting Crusaders managed to stay close in the first two quarters as St. Peter's had shooting troubles. In a hot second half, Crusaders was no match for the likes of Wyatt and Franchini. Franchini paced the Crusaders with 20 points while Wyatt was close behind with 12.

Crusaders' big scorer, Gerald Peery, was held to only five points in the battle. Mike Ortiz was the leading Crusader scorer with 11 points.

Franchini paced the Crusader attack with 20 points while Wyatt topped the rest for 12 markers.

William Herrera and Mike Randle paced the Tigers' scoring attack once again with Herrera marking up 15 points and Randle 10. Robert Lopez of the Foxes totaled 17 points to lead his team.

High individual game men: Jodie Filleman, 20; Curry Reynolds, 20; Jodie Filleman, 19. High series women: Annie Keith, 515; Charlotte Hardister, 477; Elsie Williams, 445. High individual game women: Annie Keith, 263; Lancia Barnes, 187; Peggy Deal, 183.

Sale of K-RRR Under Contract

The sale of the facilities of Radio Station K-RRR in Ruidoso, founded about five years ago here, is under contract by the owner, Jack Crandall, to Ed Hyman, newcomer from San Antonio. Transfer of the license under the Federal Communications Commission is yet to be approved, but can likely be expected by the early spring, the two men said.

Crandall said he plans to continue to make his home here. Hyman is an experienced radio and television station operator, having worked in all branches of the business, from newscasting, announcing, selling advertising to management. In San Antonio he was with one of Texas' largest radio and TV stations, WOAI. He also was with stations in San Marcos and other south and central Texas cities.

Recently joining the staff of K-RRR was Don Thacker, whose professional name is Don Oran, who moved back to New Mexico from Oregon. He was in Carlsbad and other Southeastern New Mexico cities prior to going to Oregon, Hyman said.

K-RRR broadcasts on 250 watts power and has a frequency of 1340 kilocycles.

NEW BUSINESS—Painting aircraft may develop into a new type of industry for Ruidoso. Frank Landin and his son Frank, Jr., are shown preparing a Beechcraft twin Bonanza for a new paint job in the converted paint hangar at the Ruidoso Municipal Airport. The $1,250 paint job being done by the Landins is for the Thunderbird Aviation Agency of Gallup. W. D. Boone, airport manager, is shown standing in the foreground.

Landin said that it will take him, with the help of his son, about two weeks to paint the Bonanza, after which he has other planes scheduled for paint jobs. Boone, who is also a licensed aircraft mechanic, said that with Landin's popularity as an airplane painter among airplane owners, we may eventually build Ruidoso into a major modification center for aircraft.

MRS. BEULAH TINSLEY

Ruidoso Artist To Instruct In Louisiana

By FRIEDA BRYAN HYATT
Ruidoso is losing one of its outstanding personalities, artist Mrs. Beulah Tinsley. Mrs. Tinsley is moving to Shreveport, La., this week to accept the position of instructor in arts and crafts in the Edith Achley School, a private school for boys and girls through the sixth grade.

Mrs. Tinsley has a long and successful career as an artist. As she expresses it, "I always enjoyed painting but did not take it seriously until 1945 when I was a resident of Wink Tex. During this six-year period of my interest in art I devoted my efforts to pastels and watercolors.

In 1951 Mrs. Tinsley moved to El Paso and served as secretary to Robert J. Carson, maintenance director for the El Paso school system. For ten years she studied with the famed El Paso artist, Kate Krause Ball. More than 100 of Mrs. Tinsley's paintings hang in El Paso homes.

"Of this phase of her art career, Mrs. Tinsley says, 'I loved to paint the desert. Many of my paintings were desert scenes of the Organ Mountains, El Capitan and the Franklin Mountain.'"

Talented Mrs. Tinsley moved to Ruidoso in 1963. Her work has been well accepted in this mountain resort. The artist's versatility is shown in the change in subject matter and in the medium used. In Ruidoso Mrs. Tinsley has painted landscapes and still life, mostly in oils. She is especially adept in portraying streams, trees, and other basic details of the local scene. With this artist, the abstract type of painting is taboo. "I try to paint something as I see it," Mrs. Tinsley insists.

A fond memory for Mrs. Tinsley, as she leaves Ruidoso, is her participation in the program begun recently to develop interest in art in this area. Only illness prevented her from being a charter member of the newly organized Lincoln County Art Association. She is, however, a member of this successful movement and exhibited her work in the first showing held by the Association in Ruidoso last fall.

Commenting on her 20 years as an artist, Mrs. Tinsley states, "I started painting for the enjoyment of it. But demand for my work led to my selling many of my paintings. I always find painting a wonderful outlet for my tenacious that may arise. It is a marvelous recreation for me."

"In leaving Ruidoso I am leaving a large part of my heart in this unique community. The scenery in Ruidoso has lent itself to my art efforts and has been a great inspiration to me," she concluded.

IN MEMORY OF BUDDY
I cannot say, and I will not say that he is dead—he is just away! With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land, And left us dreaming how very fair it needs must be, since he is there. And you—O you, who the wildest yearn For the old time step and glad return. Think of his faring on, as dear In the love of "There" as the love of "Here". Think of him still as the same, I say: He is not dead—he is just away. Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Scott and family wish to thank all their many friends, neighbors, doctors, nurses and all who were so thoughtful, generous and kind during the illness and passing away of Wayne "Buddy" Emery Scott. We thank you all with our sincere love. Mr. and Mrs. Zeke Scott and Family

Angus & Bonito

By EULA CORDER

Mrs. Ethel Keathley, a resident of Lincoln County since 1904, recently underwent surgery for the amputation of a limb after being in the Eastern New Mexico Medical Center in Roswell for several weeks. This week she is moving to Montana to make her home with her nephew and family, the Garth Hydes. Her address will be 114-18th St., South Great Falls, Mont. 59401.

Mrs. Keathley took Garth as a small helpless child and gave him a foundation far above earthly riches. "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I do have, give I unto you." Acts 3:6. Garth has built well on this foundation. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold." Proverbs 22:1. There has never been a child grown up in our community who has been loved and appreciated more than Garth. His winning smile and lo-district dress revue at Clovis. At the Eastern New Mexico State Fair last year, upon completion of this year, she received the Clarke & Coats County "Honor Clothing Medal" for her outstanding achievement record. She is the present secretary of the Hondo Valley Club.

Celani is president of her class and on the student council at Hondo School. Her leaders are Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper and Mrs. Paul Pacheco.

ing ways have won the hearts of all who know him. Garth was born and reared and went through grade and high school in Captain. Although Mrs. Keathley has been in a wheel chair for some 10 or 12 years, she insisted on Garth going on to school and preparing himself for a place in the world. She has lived alone all these years. Garth went from here to Nazarene College in Pasadena, Calif. He worked his way through college and received his Master's Degree. During his college years he met and married a wonderful christian girl, who is helping him in his life's work, the ministry of the Gospel. Garth and Norma have two lovely children.

Upon completion of his college work he was called as a pastor of Grace Church of the Nazarene in Northside Los Angeles. He pastored there for three years. Last year he moved to Great Falls, Mont., where he is pastor of the Nazarene Church. Garth and Norma are doing a great work and Lincoln County is very proud of them. They have been here for two weeks taking care of business and preparing to take "Auntie" home with them.

Mrs. Keathley came from Mills County, Tex., in 1904. She was one of a small caravan consisting of three covered wagons, a one-horse buggy and a few head of load animals, also eighty grown chickens in a two double-deck coops. These were fastened in the rear of two wagons, landing in Captain a little more than a month later. Mrs. Keathley was telephone operator in Captain from 1915 to 1926. She worked on a commission basis. The first two months she received eleven dollars a month. Later she received as much as $90 a month. Being a widow with a baby son to support she had to do any work she could get. Her son, Oliver, now lives in Ft. Smith, Ark. While in the service he became the victim of polio. With the help of his wife, Dorothy, he runs a studio in Ft. Smith. Mrs. Keathley has spent several winters with them in recent years.

Mrs. Keathley's many friends are grateful for an opportunity to show their love and appreciation and just say thank you Auntie for your wonderful, unselfish christian example by helping finance her move to Montana. We want to give you your flowers while you can enjoy them. Anyone wishing to join in this love offering may leave your contribution at Cummins' Store in Captain, Corder's Store at Angus or Lindy's Store at Alto. Thanks a million to all who have helped.

The above article was written and submitted by Chloe Peters, a life-long friend of Mrs. Keathley.

Spending the week-end recently at the Odessa Camp above Bonito Lake were Mr. and Mrs. Kermit English. Also Mr. and Mrs. Olynn Rogers and children, Bobby Campbell, all of Odessa, Tex.

Recent visitors with the Corders were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sparkman of Lovington. Also Mr. and Mrs. Paul Luttrell and children of Odessa, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Doran of Portales were visitors in Ruidoso and Angus over the week-end. The

CELANI PACHECO

Celani Pacheco Is 4-H Clubber Of Month At Hondo

Celani Pacheco was voted outstanding 4-H Member of the Month from the Hondo Valley 4-H Club. This is her fourth year in 4-H. This year in addition to home living and baking of which she has completed four years, she is taking fat lamb textile painting and junior leadership. She has quite a collection of driftwood which she collects herself and with which she enjoys making floral arrangements. She is pictured here demonstrating a floral arrangement and wearing the jumper she made and which won second place at the recent "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest in Roswell.

In 1953 her Home Living II exhibit "Outstanding" at the Lincoln County Fair and again her 1964 Home Living III exhibit placed first in the county dress revue in the jumper division and was chosen to represent Lincoln County at the
