Voter registration totals for 1964 show Lincoln County can outvote Sierra County, with whom we are paired in the new reapportioned state legislative district, and in which Bill Shrecengost, incumbent Republican legislator from here, seeks re-election. Totals for '64 (remember that's two years ago) show we have 5,259 voters on the books and Sierra County has 4,628. We'll print the '66 totals as soon as they are available . . .

Favors at the woman's luncheon at the New Mexico Bar Ass'n. convention here last week-end for the women who attended and the models who appeared in the style show were small flacons of Amen Wardy perfume given by Mr. Wardy, owner of the Amen Wardy boutique in El Paso. His store was shown on a recent national TV show about El Paso attractions. Mr. and Mrs. Wardy are frequent visitors here and during the winter season they spend almost every week-end on the slopes of Sierra Blanca ski area . . . Deputy Sheriff Ernest Sanchez now has a telephone at his home and you can reach him when he's there by calling 653-4480. But, he says the best way to contact him is to dial the Ruidoso police dispatcher, dialing 257-4333 here, and ask him to call the deputy on the radio. You might want to write Sanchez' home phone in your directory . . .

We hear that Joe Moore of Ruidoso has been elected cheerleader for Lobo athletic events at the University of New Mexico . . . Say, a local business concern will provide free subscriptions to the Ruidoso News for your college student from here if you'll give us his or her name and address. More about this later . . . Visiting with W. G. (Bill) Shrecengost last week-end we learned that he will be the senior Republican member of the state legislature if he is re-elected to that post in the November balloting. Serving originally as Lincoln County's own state representative, he is now running for the position which serves two counties—Lincoln and Sierra—since the state Senate and House of Representatives both had their districts realigned by the last legislature to reapportion representation. Shrecengost said if elected he will introduce two bills that should prove of interest to Ruidosoans, particularly. One would earmark a definite part of the appropriation for the State Department of Development for tourism promotion, and the other would increase from two-tenths of one per cent to four-tenths of one per cent the gas tax money that is earmarked for state park long term improvements. He notes that in the new district in which he is now a candidate, there are three state parks, including Caballo and Elephant Butte in Sierra county and Valley of Fires (the malpais) in Lincoln county, which he helped establish . . .

New Ski Facilities Under Construction

IN PARADE—One of visitors to ride in Aspencade parade is Schrenia Clark, Brownfield, national queen of the American Association of Sheriff's Posses and Riding Clubs.

Construction work is already underway on some of the improvements at the Mescalero Apache Tribe's Sierra Blanca Ski Resort 16 miles northwest of here, and materials are on the ground ready to go to work on still other new facilities which will mean the capacity of the fast growing winter sports area will be almost double its potential of two years ago. Approval by the U. S. Forest Service on final plans on the added facilities is expected in a day or so so work can begin.

Manager Roy Parker said last week-end that a new entrance way has been bladed into the area near the business offices, dining room and ski shop, which will allow one-way traffic into and out of the park, and which will leave additional parking in one lane of the paved road. Another parking area has been opened up and Parker said about 150 additional vehicles can be placed nearer the offices with these changes.

A large dining room, to be of the same square feet in size as the present dining area, is to be constructed at the upper gondola terminal on the roof of the terminal building, but final O. K. before construction can start is expected this week.

A new Poma lift for the use of beginners is underway now with foundation already laid and materials on the ground for erection. It will have a capacity of 600 persons per hour, is 360 feet long and has a vertical rise of 45-feet. It is located below the Capitan slopes. The ski school will be held in this region, also being enlarged for the coming winter.

With the double chair lift put in use last winter, and with the added dining and beginners facilities in operation, the ski area can accommodate almost twice as many people as it did two winters ago, Parker said. The crowds of skiers are dispersed better, and the flow of traffic in and around terminals and the two dining rooms should move much smoother, he declared. Two new trails have been cuit and will be in use—Terrible, a mile long and going into Apache Bowl, will prove a real challenge to the experienced skiers, and Geronimo, also almost a mile long, gives easier access to East Meadow, which is much wider than West Meadows.

New color maps of the ski area, drawn by Hal Shelton, will be used on 5,000 posters this year, and on 35,000 brochures for distribution throughout the Southwest. Five hundred posters will be plasticized for framing and for permanent display by ski shops and in businesses in Ruidoso and other places, Parker said. First skiing is expected to get underway at Thanksgiving in the 1966-67 season.

News' Want-Ads Work Wonders

HUNDREDS EXPECTED FOR '66 ASPENCADE

A three-day program for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, has been arranged by the sponsor, the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce, for the annual fall festival, the Aspencade.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. South and daughter and Mrs. Fred Reams and children, all of Hobbs, visited in the L. Z. Tate home this past week-end and while they were here the Tates took them fishing up above the Bonito at the South Fork. They reported they came home with their limits in three hours' time.

Mrs. Allen Jost left last week-end for Portales to pick up her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Danny McDermid, for a trip to the northern part of the United States. They plan to attend two family reunions, one at Green Bay Wis., and the other at Ishpaming, Mich. They plan to be gone about 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McCowen, Elida, visited with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCowen last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Douglass are on vacation for a week. They plan to visit in Arizona and in California.

Dr. and Mrs. James A. Beall were in El Paso early this week attending an International dental conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hegwer and daughters are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Wood and family, this week. Jack is attending Sunset School of Preaching, Lubbock.

Mrs. Barney Spears, her daughter, Bonnie, and Teresa Eckert went to El Paso Monday afternoon to meet a plane and bring another daughter, Sarah, home. Sarah has been living in California for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Brecheisen returned to Ruidoso Monday from San Antonio, Tex. where they visited her father, J. S. Phillips who is ill. They received a message from Parson, Kans. that Brecheisen's only brother had died, and Mr. Brecheisen left for Parsons. Mrs. Brecheisen was called back to San Antonio as her father's condition has become critical.

Harry Fillere from San Rafael, Calif., who formerly operated and owned Furry's Cafe in upper Ruidoso, was in Ruidoso early this week on business. He returned to El Paso Wednesday where he was to board a plane for California Thursday.

Plan to retire in Ruidoso!

"What Do You Think of LSD?"

(Each week the reporter will ask a different question of current interest to high school students and publish their answers.)

LSD, when used by a licensed doctor who knows what he is doing, can be a very useful medicine. When used by a student or anyone else, it is as deadly as a gun and more than likely would be taken by a misled psycho who isn't responsible for his actions. —Bill Chitwood, freshman.

It's the same effect you get from eating too many morning glory seeds.—Virginia Reeves, junior.

I think its very wrong. It should never get started in any place. People who take LSD must either be a drug addict, or they just take it for kicks. People who make LSD don't really know what they're doing to mankind if they distribute it around. Personally, I wouldn't take it, but if someone is crazy enough to try it, let them have it.—Mike Allen, junior.

Maybe it's kicks, but it becomes an injuring and dangerous habit! It's nothing to play with unless used under experienced advice or in controlled treatments. —Jane Cochran, senior.

I think if anybody is stupid enough to try it they should pay the consequences. —Cathy Massey, senior.

I think it's awful and very dangerous. Anyone who uses it is crazy and a fool. —Georgette Hansen, junior.

I try not to think about it. I've met kids who have tried it. Maybe for them it is kicks, but it wouldn't be for me. I can think of safer ways to have kicks. —Sharon Alvis, senior.

I think it is a very dangerous drug and should never be used unless under an expert doctor's supervision and only when it could help your health. For those who use it for kicks, they are fools and are holding their lives in their hands. —Cindy Harris, freshman.

If you can take it without harming others, OK. —Mike Stevenson, junior.

The last time I tried LSD, I decided parents should use it as a means of punishment. Actually, I feel that anyone who uses it for just kicks is punishing himself severely. —Karon Petty, senior.

LSD as any drug can be dangerous if misused. No one should use it unless they are certain of its effects or in a controlled laboratory experiment or treatment. —Mr. Whittington, science teacher.

County Agent's Report

Don't panic if you find meat from your freezer has a brownish discoloration on the surface. The meat is not spoiled. Though it may not be as flavorful as it should be.

This discoloration is called "freezer burn." It is caused by a loss of moisture from the surface of the meat. It is an indication that the wrapping has been punctured, or that the material used to wrap the frozen meat was not moisture-vapor proof.

One of the most important ways to protect the quality of the meats you put in the freezer is with a good wrap. Be sure the one you select is both moisture and vapor resistant. Then be sure you seal the package tightly.

Lamb contracts were from $22 to $24.50 per hundred weight, in the area. There seemed to be some very active bidding for the lambs. The wether lambs were contracting for $22 to $23, and the ewe lambs from $23.50 to $24.50.

Columbia sheep sold last week at the best price in ten years. Yearling ewes went for $35.00 per head and Solid Mouth ewes for $26 per head.

Buy your fall and winter supply of apples now. The apples are at their flavorful best.

Lincoln County-grown Red Delicious are of excellent quality this season. The weather has provided the conditions growers need to produce bright red apples with just the right sugar content. These sparkling apples are in good supply in many markets.

Winesaps, good for eating out of hand and excellent for sauce and pies, are readying for market. Rome Beauty, the apple that holds its shape so beautifully when baked, is on the market now.

High-color for variety invites shoppers to buy generously. For good eating apples, take a peek beneath the eye-appealing color though. When growing conditions are favorable, some varieties develop bright colors—reds especially—long before the sugar content rises and the acid content falls to the desired levels. The ground color tells the stage of ripeness. Somewhere, even on a highly colored apple, there'll be a spot sheltered by a leaf where the ground color shows through. The ground color changes to a pale green, then a yellow-green, and later to a pale yellow to signify that the apple is reaching full maturity and its top flavor. A deep yellow or brownish-yellow signals that the fruit is past its top quality.

Keep apples cool to keep them crisp! Apples lose quality rapidly at room temperature in low relative humidity.

Any variety of apples can be served in any way. But differences in texture, flavor and juice content will give different results. The Delicious apples—Reds and Golden—are excellent for using raw, eating out of hand, salads and with cheese. Rome Beauties bake well, they're good for slicing and frying, thinly sliced they make scrumptious pies. Winesaps and Jonathans make excellent pies and tasty, attractive sauces. They're good raw for those preferring a more tart, firm apple.

Come Back To See Us . . .

The Playground of the Southwest this week-end is hosting lots of visitors from several states in our annual autumn festival, the Aspencade. There is considerable more activity this year for all to enjoy as the yearly event grows in interest and participation.

Foremost is the troupe of Vicente Romero's flamenco dancers, who appear here in the first of a series of performances in New Mexico cities under sponsorship of the Lincoln County Art Association, of the New Mexico Arts Commission and the federal government's cultural program. Then there is an art exhibit, a tennis tournament, Aspencade trail tours by horseback and chartered bus, the parade in which riding groups are featured, square dancing all over the place, gondola rides, football, a chuckwagon dinner, whisker growing contest, enchilada supper, dancing for adults and teenagers, horseshoe pitching competition and the first year for the Old Timers get together.

But, after you've tried one or several of these fun filled activities, you'll probably wonder what else is doing in Ruidoso in the fall and winter. Come back and see us for some rest, recreation and relaxation such as winter sports — including skiing and sledding, hunting and fishing and golfing — the latter two sports which may be enjoyed many, many hours during our beautiful autumn and winter days.

You'll enjoy the holidays here, too, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. Ask those who live here — they'll be glad to make you understand it's great to live here all seasons.

Tribute To Joe Palmer . . .

Some of Ruidoso's longtime residents got together last week-end and wrote this tribute to Joe C. Palmer, who died in Ganado, Ariz., last Wednesday. We are printing it as a guest editorial:

"Joe Palmer came to Ruidoso for reasons of health in 1931. He had lived in Charleston, Tenn. moving to Roswell. After living in Ruidoso for eight years, Mr. Palmer, his late brother-in-law George McCarty and M. S. Hamilton formed the White Mt. Development Company to sell land purchased from the James Ed Cree Estate.

"Then began the task of building Ruidoso and in that capacity Joe Palmer excelled perhaps as no man before or after. He was instrumental in seeing that land was donated for the hospital, the first elementary and the high school, also the land for runways at the airport. The churches, too, owe him a debt, for he donated land for several churches.

"It was he who early thought, that to progress, Ruidoso must have a golf course. With his unusual ability for seeing the difficult through, Joe did build the golf course, naming it the Cree Meadow Golf Course. This succeeded the one Mr. Palmer had maintained in Palmer Gateway in the late '30s.

"Joe Palmer envisaged the true potential of Ruidoso, present and future. Ruidosoans owe to Joe Palmer a debt of gratitude for perseverance and ability to set Ruidoso on its course."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Leawood, Kans.
Sept. 29, 1966

Ruidoso News:

A cousin of mine living in New Mexico recently sent me a picture from your paper dated July 22, 1966.

It was a picture of the scaffolding used in the building of the railroad from Alamogordo to Cloudcroft in the 1890's.

My father, who is now 89 years old and lives in Texas, worked in a railroad gang and helped build the scaffolds, I have heard him speak of them many times.

In the caption on the picture you mention that a special article about the railroad appeared in the May 20th News, page 5 of Sec. C. If possible, I would like very much to obtain a copy of this article and would gladly pay for the paper and the mailing. Sincerely hoping you have an extra copy of the paper. Thanking you in advance.

Dear Mr. Lamb:

Please refer to your editorial of Friday, September 16, 1966, entitled, "No Progress Here" which was mailed to the Public Service Commission concerning telephone service for Deputy Sheriff Ernest Sanchez within the territory served by Penasco Valley Telephone Cooperative, Inc.

This matter has been handled with Mr. Frost and he advises that Deputy Sanchez will be provided with rural party telephone service next week.

Mr. Frost further advises that his company will construct a private line to Mr. Sanchez' residence provided that Mr. Sanchez is agreeable to paying aid-to-construction costs over $500. Also, Mr. Frost advised that they anticipate a general upgrading of service in this area, although he could not give me a definite date when the upgrading would be completed. In State Corporation Commission vs. Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company, 55 NM 260 at Page 283, the Supreme Court of New Mexico stated:

"Obviously, the company is not required by law to furnish telephone service to some individual who chooses to settle in such a remote spot that the income from service furnished will have no relation to the investment of the company."

We trust that the service provided to Mr. Sanchez next week will be adequate for his needs at this time; however, if he should desire the one-party line and is agreeable to paying the aid-to-construction costs, please advise and the matter will be handled further with Mr. Frost.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Lamb:

I believe you will truly approve of the Federal Food Stamp plan when it is extended to Lincoln County. It has met with almost unanimous approval of the press, local officials and grocers in the 15 counties of the state where it is already in operation.

In your issue of September 9, U. S. Senator Joseph M. Montoya was given credit for including Lincoln County in the Food Stamp program. The fact is, if any members of New Mexico's Congressional delegation deserve such credit, all four should get it.

This is a program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It supplants the distribution of Surplus Commodities to needy families, both on and off the welfare rolls. Family income in ratio to family size determines eligibility, in both programs. However, the resemblance pretty well ends there.

The Commodities program, though it undoubtedly serves a good purpose, is in effect a free handout program. The Food Stamp plan is a self-help program. By formula, each participating family must invest most of their food budget money in Food Stamps. Plus which, they receive a bonus of additional Food Stamps, averaging around 75 per cent of the purchase price.

They can then spend those stamps for food only, but for the food of their choice at the store of their choice. (Imported foods, excepting non-competitive items such as coffee, tea and bananas, may not be purchased with Food Stamps.)

Thus the supplemental distribution of foods to the needy is put into the normal, tax-paying channels of trade, removing the sponsoring agency from direct competition with your grocers.

Applicants are certified for participation solely on the basis of net income and size of family. In fact, a family can have an income of $300 per month and still qualify for Food Stamps if they are feeding 10 at the table.

Latest figures show that in the 15 present Food Stamp counties, the plan is serving 2,627 welfare families containing over 9,000 members, young and old. It is also serving 1,810 non-welfare, low income families comprising over 10,200 men, women and children.

The state welfare department has long administered the Commodities program in New Mexico for the Department of Agriculture. We also administer the successor program, the Food Stamp plan, under rules and general supervision of that Federal agency.

Incidentally, the Commodities program will continue to serve school hot lunch projects and various public institutions. However, the Food Stamp plan is due to replace the Commodities program completely insofar as providing more and better food for low-income families is concerned.

Just about everyone familiar with the Food Stamp plan, including Conservatives, deems it sound. I believe that once you know of its details, you will, too.

Sincerely,
/s/ Leo T. Murphy,
Director

Dear Mr. Lamb:

In last week's issue, you had a clipping for the most courteous person in Ruidoso.

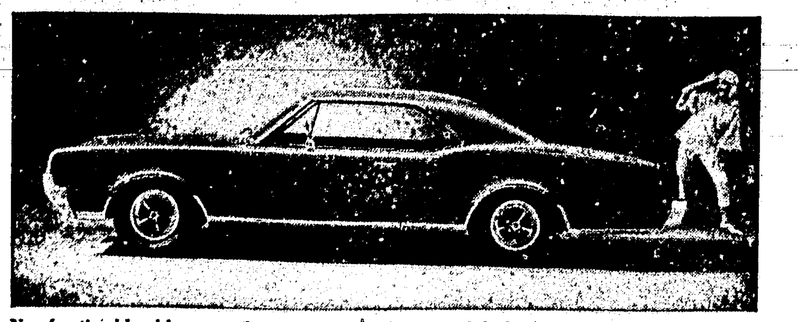

After giving this a great deal of thought, I am afraid that your space provided would not begin to hold the names of people that I have come in contact with in my four Ruidoso years that I feel should be nominated.

Ruidoso has some of the finest folks I've ever met and to leave any one of them out just would not be fair.

Very Truly yours,

For 1967, Oldsmobile is introducing the new Delmont 88 in four-body styles. This car may be ordered with either a 330 cubic inch or a 425 cubic inch V-8 engine, each with its own drive line and rear axle. When ordered with the larger engine, the car is physically identified with a "425" insigne on the front quarter.

New functional hood louvers and specific markings in several areas identify the 1967 Oldsmobile 4-4-2, an option available on Cutlass Supreme 2-door models, including the convertible. The equipment comprises a 400 cubic inch V-8 engine, 4-barrel carburetor and dual exhausts. A new option with the 4-4-2 in 1967 is Oldsmobile's 3-speed Turbo Hydra-Matic transmission. Axle ratios available with the 4-4-2 range upward to 4.33:1.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY . . .

It didn't take my wife but one year to discover that quaint but costly custom of gifty-giving on wedding anniversaries.

Fortunately, however, she never had run across that little list of traditional anniversary gifts—you know first anniversary paper gifts, fifth wood, tenth tin, fifteenth crystal and so on.

Our first was the Leather Shoe Laces anniversary. (Listen I was poor in those days. And well, she needed shoe laces, so why not leather ones that would last a while.)

A really big anniversary that I remember with nostalgia was the Match Book Cover and Playing Card anniversary. (The fifth).

It was quite a wrench giving up all those match book covers I had worked so hard to acquire all through high school, but what the heck, I thought, they were still in the family.

When I handed over my match book cover collection, a little cry of gladness rose in her throat and there was a tiny tear in her eye.

She loved those match book covers, yes sir. She was especially fond of one from Echneider's Drug in Lubbock, Texas that had across the front, "Right on the Corner, Right on the Price and RIGHT ON YOUR WAY HOME!"

I won't bore you with all our happy anniversaries. There was the String and Twine anniversary (our sixth), and there was also the Whale Tooth anniversary. (I had an uncle who was in Alaska once and he had given me a whale tooth, which I presented as a real treasure to my bride of eight years. Again that little cry of joy and tiny tear.)

I really thought the ninth anniversary should be New Ironing Board anniversary, but what the heck, I'm a romantic so I made it Fresh Flowers anniversary. That was my undoing. I didn't know the florist would send along one of those little books that lists birthstones, flowers of the month and wedding anniversaries.

This year was going to be Magazine Renewal anniversary. (I had planned to sneak in a couple of my own for renewal, you know "Sports Ahunting" and "Creek and Cranny".)

But guess what the tenth anniversary at our house turned out to be?

Lots and lots of New Clothes, Candy, Flowers and A Champagne Supper anniversary.

STARTS CAMPAIGN — Roman C. Nunez, Democratic candidate for Lincoln County Commissioner in District 1 was a visitor in Ruidoso early this week, and reported he is at work now campaigning for the office he has served in for two terms in years past. Prominent in Democratic affairs, Nunez has served as county central committee chairman. He is a rancher and owns a spread in the Picacho area. Bus Load of Educational Facilities To Visit Ruidoso Every 3 Weeks

A pair of converted school buses, loaded with special instructional materials, departed Albuquerque late in September in an effort to provide educational assistance to 25 small school districts around the state in the first three week tour.

The "mobile instructional materials centers," as they are called, are part of a 3-year, $1.3 million federally funded project under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

The project is being operated by the Educational Service Center, which is headquartered in offices at 120 Vassar SE, Albuquerque.

Purpose of the mobile instructional units, according to Dr. James Porterfield, ESC director of curriculum development, is to take to teachers in small school districts, "instruction and assistance in using non-textbook materials not usually available except in the large districts."

Interiors of the units have been remodeled to contain shelving, cabinets and drafting and work tables. An extensive variety of audio-visual materials and equipment, as well as printed materials such as catalogs and unit plans, have been placed in the units.

Manning the mobile facilities are two instructors—Eugene Shepherd and Barney Nobles—who have had varied and lengthy experience and training in the teaching and administrative areas of education.

The two instructors will be on the road continuously during the school year, taking the mobile facilities to each of the 25 school districts involved in the project.

Shepherd during the first week will visit Grants, Gallup, Los Lunas and Belen. Monday of the second week his unit is scheduled to be at both Encino and Vaughn, and on succeeding days of that week in Fort Sumner, Santa Rosa and Moriarty.

The third week he will be at Estancia, Mountainair, Ruidoso and Corona. The first visit here will be Oct. 12.

The fourth week the two units will begin over again on the same routes, so that approximately every third week one of the units will be at each of the 25 school districts. The scheduling will be readjusted as necessary in accordance with school holidays.

ESC Director Patrick Lynch, who is on leave from the College of Education at University of New Mexico, stressed that the services offered by the mobile units are subject to requests of teachers, principals and administrators of the various districts.

The unit instructor, he said, "is always a service person with the obligation and commitment to improve educational services to the child, primarily through assistance to the teacher and other professional personnel."

Types of services that will be offered by the instructors include planning units of instruction, procuring prepared instructional materials, preparing instructional materials, use of audio-visual appliances, and utilization of instructional materials.

BANK DIVIDENDS TOTAL $4,062.50

One hundred stockholders in Ruidoso State Bank received $4,062.50 in dividends on their 16,250 shares in the fall dividend declared for Oct. 1, President T. B. Hood reported this week.

CAR DAMAGED BY FIRE

On Oct. 4 a car caught fire one mile from town in Carrizo Canyon. The car was being pushed and backfired, setting the wiring on fire, a member of the Ruidoso Volunteer Department said. The fire truck was sent out to extinguish the fire and the car was brought in by Luallin's Skyland Auto Service. Reported damage was loss of wiring burned out. There was no interior damage to the car.

The ESC project was developed by the New Mexico Research and Study Council, an agency which was organized under direction of UNM in 1959 to enable New Mexico small school districts to cooperate toward improvement of education.

The project was funded in February for a first year's operation with $371,000 in federal monies. Since then ESC has been in the process of organizing its services program and a staff of 17 persons to implement it. Dr. Lynch said the project is scheduled to run at least two additional years with a minimum of another $1 million in federal funds.

Other areas in which ESC will begin offering assistance during the next year are special education, guidance services and counseling, comprehensive library services, in-service education for staff, adult education, psychological services, remedial reading instruction, and broad vocational offerings.

GEORGETTA AND MELANIE HANSEN

Ruidosoans Have Fond Memories Of Stay In Norway Two Years

By ELSIE WILLIAMS
(Ruidoso News Staff Writer)

Chief Warrant Officer Charles G. Hanson and his wife and their twin daughters, Georgette and Melaine, age 16, who moved to Ruidoso in August from White Sands Missile Range, spoke of their stay in Norway during 1963 and '64 with fond memories. Chief Warrant Officer Hansen, who was stationed in Norway for 18 months, retired following 21 years of service with the U. S. Army in April this year. He and his family had been stationed at White Sands Missile Range for approximately two years when he retired.

During their stay in Norway they lived at Avlos near Oslo (the capital of Norway) and Georgette and Melaine attended the Oslo American School, which is a school for the children of American Service personnel there. A required subject in the school is Norwegian language, and both girls became quite proficient in that language.

They also had the opportunity to ski, mainly cross-country, as the winter is long and there is usually an abundance of snow. There were fields with slopes near the Hansen home and Mrs. Hansen could watch the girls skiing without leaving the house.

A tragedy hit the family during the latter part of their stay in Norway. The Hansen's son Charles, then 16, slipped and fell down a flight of stairs and was killed, hitting his head on one of the stairs, while the rest of the family was out one evening. Charles was one of a pair of twins. His brother died as a young child. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen also had a set of triplets, two boys and a girl, who died shortly after birth.

The Hansen family made their home in many different states in the U. S., during Hansen's 21 years in the service. Georgette and Melaine were born while Hansen was stationed at Ft. Bliss in El Paso, and later the family lived in Virginia, Connecticut, Pittsburgh, Pa., Kansas City, Oklahoma City and also for a couple of months in Roswell. Georgette and Melaine are juniors in Ruidoso High School and said they are looking forward to the snow here so they can go skiing.

Palmer Funeral Is Held Friday

Funeral services for Joseph Campbell Palmer, pioneer Ruidoso land developer were held at 2:00 p.m. Friday afternoon from the First Presbyterian Church of Ruidoso with the Rev. Frank Crown, pastor, officiating. Special musical selections were under the direction of Carmon Phillips and Mrs. Marie Rooney. Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Palmer died suddenly on Wednesday afternoon at Ganado, Ariz., where he had made his home for the past three years. At the time of his death he was engaged in fruit and vegetable produce retailing and wholesaling. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Born in Charleston, Tenn., on Jan. 28, 1903, he was the son of Joseph Palmer and Lula McGill Palmer.

Coming to Ruidoso in 1928, he became a land developer and engaged in the real estate business.

A person with vision, in association with the White Mountain Development Co., he donated land for most of Ruidoso's churches; the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital; the junior and senior high school and the school gymnasium; he built the Cree Meadow Golf Course and donated land for the airport.

Palmer moved to Arizona in 1954, and for the past three years had made his home at Ganado, where Mrs. Palmer is a teacher in the Presbyterian Mission School.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Gough Palmer, whom he married in Carrizozo on Nov. 10, 1947; two sons, John Cree Palmer of Ganado and Joe McCarty Palmer of El Paso; two daughters, Sarah Louise Harriman of Roswell, and Dorothy Ellen O'Dowd of Elizabeth, N. J.; two grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Douglas Blair of Pulaski, Va., and one brother, McGill Palmer of California.

Lincoln County District Court Salaries Cut

Almost all employees of the Third Judicial District Courts in three counties, Doña Ana, Otero and Lincoln, suffered salary cuts in an order from Judge Geo. L. Zimmerman, who became the senior judge of two in the district when longtime jurist W. T. Scoggin retired. Zimmerman's order gave pay raises to only two persons, both of them in other parts of the district, but three people in Lincoln County received decreases in pay and/or positions, as follows:

District court clerk Eugene Vega, from $7,200 to $6,000; R. E. Hedgecoke, juvenile probation officer, from $7,800 to $6,000; Edward Penfield was dismissed as deputy clerk at $5,400 a year but then was appointed as an assistant juvenile probation officer at $2,400 a year.

These and other Lincoln County adjustments, the judge said, pared the county's share of the court payroll from $20,400 to $14,400.

Judge Zimmerman, whose elective term ends in 1967, said the total savings in his sweeping salary reduction order would amount to $20,000 annually in the Third Judicial District.

Edward Triviz of Las Cruces was appointed by Gov. Jack Campbell to fill the post left vacant by Judge Scoggin's resignation.

In addition to Realtors present for the Ruidoso Board of Realtors meeting Tuesday morning for breakfast at Wattie's, Village and County officials, representatives from schools, ranchers and businessmen were on hand to hear representatives from Lon E. Nelson Associates explain the property reappraisal process now underway in Lincoln County.

After a short business session, Tommy Perteet, president of the Ruidoso Board of Realtors, turned the meeting over to Dan D. Swearingin, chairman of the Realtor Tax Committee, who introduced the speakers: Jim Wheelock, State supervisor for the State Tax Commission, explained House Bill 33, passed by the last legislature, which gave the State authority for a property tax reappraisal in counties requesting such a program.

Lincoln County was among the 19 counties in New Mexico requesting the program, Wheelock said. He also said that legislation was now being prepared to force the remaining counties in New Mexico into the reappraisal program. The reappraisal program which is now being completed in Bernalillo County has increased the county's property tax valuation over $80,000,000 and added 12,000 to 14,000 properties to the tax rolls there, which previously have never been assessed, Wheelock said.

Lon E. Nelson, who heads the real estate appraisers consultants firm of Lon E. Nelson Associates of Santa Fe, the firm that has the contract to reappraise Lincoln County properties, was then introduced who, with H. H. Cornell, supervising appraiser, explained the reappraisal program now under way here. Cornell said that he has established an office in his residence here and has five enumerators working under him to measure and code all property in Lincoln County.

"The $30,000 homes will require other financing (mortgages) unless the purchaser desires to pay $12,500 down, with which then he will qualify for the top Fannie Mae (FNMA) loan under their new Special Assistance Program 14.

"We will still have FHA insurance on the $30,000 homes and will be able to sell them with as little as $3,500 down, but the loan will not be as favorable to the purchaser as the Fannie Mae $17,500 loan will be.

The first application submitted is for the land development, FHA Title X Land Development. The total estimated cost of this development work has been estimated to run $1,205,555. This will be the first phase of the (project) work, which I hope to get under way by early spring. Along with this work, we will construct a few models of the townhouses which will allow us to proceed with a pre-sale program during the land development construction phase."

clude the first annual Old Timers reunion and the initial performance here of the Vicente Romero flamenco dancers who are on a tour of New Mexico, the recreation, entertainment and relaxation will also include tennis and horseshoe pitching tournaments, an outdoor chuckwagon dinner, a parade of more than a mile in length, horseback, Jeep and bus rides through the colorful woods surrounding our community, square dancing for a couple of days, judging of whisker growing contest, a three-day art show, a football game, rides on gondolas that rise to an altitude of 11,400 feet—and just plain visiting and mingling with crowds of folks.

The detailed program for the Aspencade is given elsewhere in today's News and should provide enough action to please the most blase'.

Dozens of trophies are offered in several divisions in the parade, headed up by Chester Gable, parade marshal.

General program chairman for the Aspencade, Howard Carruth, and Ruidoso Valley C. of C. president Dr. James A. Beall and manager Don Stark, and Lions club officials who will lend a hand in staging the big outdoor meal in School House Park, have all indicated as the Aspencade drew near, that the many details for a successful observance are being worked out to insure a most successful and enjoyable event. Sierra Squares dance club is also engaged in many preparations for a successful program for do-si-do fans.

Queen for the Aspencade will be crowned in a halftime ceremony at the football game which matches Ruidoso and Hatch in a District 3-B conference battle starting at 7 p.m. Friday. Vicente Romero will do the honors by crowning the young lady, picked from a field of seven whose names were entered in the competition.

Since last week's report of expected parade entries, another band has been added to the list, that of Goddard High School of Roswell. Also, two additional drill teams will be on hand, to include Holloman AFB and Goddard High School. Already reported as due to march are the New Mexico Military Institute band and drill team from Roswell, the Capitan school band and girls' drill team, two Ruidoso school bands, and five riding groups, to include clubs from Alamogordo, Roswell and Carlsbad, in New Mexico and Morton and Ropesville in Texas. There will be at least 20 floats, plus decorated cars and bicycles, and a host of mounted riders.

The tennis tournament will begin at 9 a.m. and will be held on the High School courts and also at the courts at High Country Lodge, Max Loya reported. Tennis players are expected from Carlsbad, 6; Alamogordo, 5; Las Cruces, 6, and El Paso, 4, in addition to local players, Loya reported. Invitations have also been extended to Deming and Socorro to enter players in the tournament, Loya said.

GATE CLOSES ROAD—

lation of a locked gate by Saturday of this week.

Oliver said the road, in use for many years as access from Ruidoso to the Sonney Wright ranch and others of that area, besides being access to an emergency air strip near Ft. Stanton and to Ft. Stanton hospital, also, was to be improved to give better service for all concerned, including a new real estate development, Lincoln Hills Country Club, which lies northeast of Ruidoso on a mesa between Eagle Creek and Little Creek.

Oliver said he believes the road can and should be maintained and left open to the public because it has been in use constantly for more than half a century. The road goes from State Road 37 to the east at a point near the original entrance to Lakeside Estates, through the former Lord Cree ranch headquarters site to intersect with Devil's Canyon road into Ft. Stanton.

The letter from the attorneys, Garland, Martin & Martin of Las Cruces, received by Oliver is as follows:

October 3, 1966

"Dear Mr. Oliver:

"This will acknowledge receipt of a letter dated September 27, 1966 from the Lincoln County Commissioners in regard to the road which crosses Mrs. Pat Dunning Turner's ranch. The action of the County in arbitrarily widening this road without obtaining an easement or the consent of Mrs. Turner has caused our client to determine that she must take action to protect her rights in this matter. There is no easement on this road in favor of the County and you did not have authority to take the additional land which was bladed off by the County's equipment. It is the position of our client that this is a private road and the same will be closed at the Little Creek Bridge to all traffic except those persons who have permission to use the same from Mrs. Turner. A gate will be erected and locked within five days from the date of this letter. The state will be expected to prosecute any person who damages or destroys the private property of Mrs. Turner; and as a public official of Lincoln County, we shall expect your cooperation in protecting her rights. This advance notice is given to enable you to bring any legal proceedings which you feel appropriate should you object to the erection and maintenance of a gate which will block all vehicles in the vicinity of Little Creek Bridge.

"It is unfortunate that this action is necessary, however, we feel that a determination must be made in regard to Mrs. Turner's property rights. All future correspondence in connection with this matter should be addressed to James T. Martin, Jr., of the firm of Garland, Martin & Martin."

Ruidoso's Aspencade is Oct. 7-8-9.

SCOUTERS PLAN TWO MEETINGS

Boy Scout leaders and boosters, and parents of boys interested in the three phases of Scouting—Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers, are to have two meetings Tuesday next week, Oct. 11, in which expansion of the program here will be the main aim. A noon luncheon at Whispering Pine restaurant is set to bring together men interested in seeing Scouting grow here—to form local troop committees and work for securing leadership for the packs, troops and posts. Marvin Craig, assistant district commissioner for the Rio Hondo Boy Scout District, is spearheading the local push. He will be assisted in the two sessions Tuesday by Bill Tarter, assistant Scout executive. A Nob Hill school cafeteria Tuesday evening next week, parents and boys interested in Cubbing, Boy Scout work and Explorer post programs are urged to attend to plan for activities this fall and winter. Main topic to be talked Tuesday night is the need for leadership.

"We have plenty of boys, but we need leadership," Craig summed up the project in his announcement of the conferences.

Lions Make Plans For Aspencade Meal

Bill Dean, secretary, Ruidoso Lions Club reported that last Tuesday night's meeting was largely taken up with preparation for organizing the serving of 1,250 for the Aspencade barbecue and chuck wagon dinner Saturday noon.

Dean said that the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce had raised the estimate of the number to be fed from 750 to 1,250. The chuck wagon dinner is to be served Saturday noon following the Aspencade parade and the Lions are making plans for the increased number and for the serving to run smoothly. The Lions will also place the flags along Sudderth Drive on Saturday, Dean said.

Support of Plans For Interstate 70 Given By Officials

Don Stark, manager of Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce said this week he has letters from the villages of Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs, statements from county officials and from the Chamber of Commerce, also, in support of plans to get federal Interstate designation of U. S. Highway 70 which traverses the southern part of Lincoln County east and west. The papers will be turned in to the newly formed Interstate 70 association, headquartered at Roswell, to use in pushing for the more important designation, which would lead to realignment and further improvements.

Hoods' Home Especially Designed To Exploit Ruidoso's Sunshine

Editor's Note: This is another in a series of articles on Ruidoso's beautiful and interesting homes.

By JOAN LAMB

Amid a grove of pine trees on Barcus Street just a block off Mechem Drive is the attractive, very livable and tastefully decorated home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hood. The house was built in 1955 by Charlie Martin and Wes Russell for the Hoods when they moved here from California in 1953 when Mr. Hood assumed the presidency of the newly established Ruidoso State Bank.

The house, built of redwood with deep blue trim, was designed by Ted French of Roswell, a close friend of the Hoods, who also designed the Episcopal Church here and the one in Roswell. The Hoods' main request in the designing of their home was that it should contain many windows, to take advantage of the view and to also use to full advantage the sunlight both summer and winter so that in either season sunshine would flood the house yet not cast a glare. This request has been fully justified. At no time of the year is the need felt to draw the drapes.

The house sets well back from the street and although it is close to a busy street, it has an air of complete privacy, so much so that it is hardly seen by the passing traffic.

One enters the home via a foyer, thence down the living room or hall that leads to two bedrooms and bath. This plan makes for privacy for guests from the living area of the home.

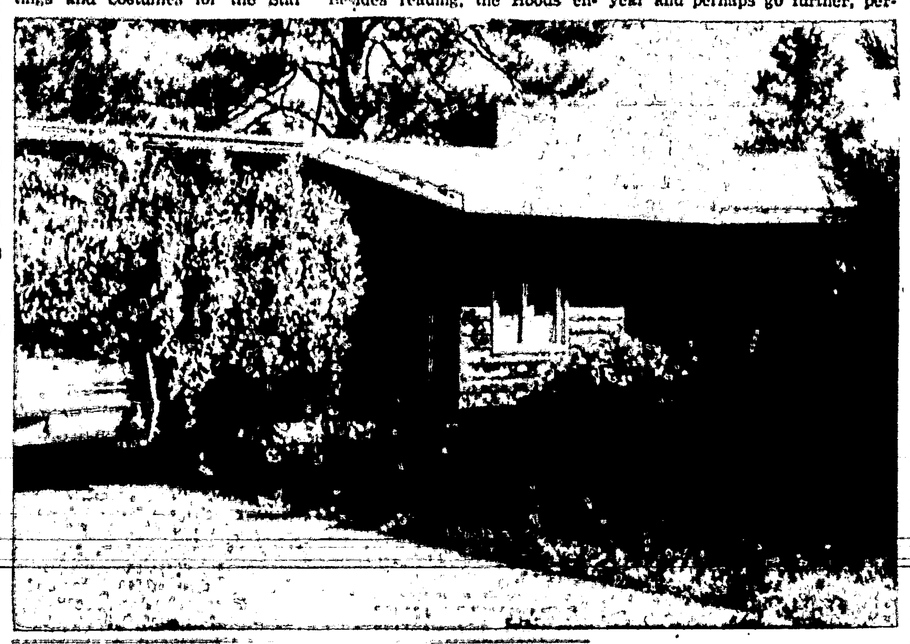

The living room with windows on three sides is decorated in muted colors of rose, blue and beige, these colors being picked up from a Victorian needlepoint covered chair that belonged to Mr. Hood's family and being one of their most cherished possessions.

The U-shaped fireplace wall contains bookshelves and cupboards of pecky cyprus and the fireplace itself is of Arizona sandstone of a shade that was chosen to blend with other colors of the room. Over the mantel are some beautiful antique hand painted bird prints, an antique clock, two extremely rare and beautiful Irish Ballzue stemmed goblets and an unusual brass candelabra made by Phil De Roster, a very good friend of the Hoods who designs the stage settings and costumes for the Star Light Theatre in Kansas City.

The Hoods' library contains several hundred volumes. Mrs. Hood, who is a lover of Dickens, has the start of a very handsome set of blue leather bound books by the famous English author. Mr. Hood's favorite writer is R. L. Stevenson. Their wide selection of books attests to their enjoyment of many writers.

Hanging over the antique piano is a most lovely picture of Medea, done by Phil De Roster as a study for stage settings while attending Yale University. Mrs. Hood is the musician in the family.

Besides reading, the Hoods enjoy travel and have made many interesting trips. Last year they made the train trip to Los Mochis and enjoyed it so that they hope to make the same tour again this year and perhaps go further, perhaps as far south as Mazatlan. They are very fond of Mexico and Mrs. Hood spent several years as a young girl near Guaymas. Because of the Mexican Revolution it became impossible to secure an education in Mexico so she spent the years until her marriage in Douglas, Ariz.

The Hoods are parents of two daughters, Mrs. P. J. Short of Las Cruces and Mrs. John Denny of Riverside, Calif., and the grandparents of six children, who take turns in the summer months spending a week at a time here with their grandparents.

Just off the living room is the dining room and its main feature is a very lovely marble topped antique burled walnut sideboard, with beveled mirrors, that the Hoods discovered in California. Displayed on it are several lovely pieces of cut glass that have been handed down from both families.

The kitchen is Mrs. Hood's delight for she loves to cook and entertain and their home has been the setting for not only social affairs but church benefits and other occasions. Back of the kitchen is the master bedroom, which is actually a bed sitting room. Lovely linen drapes curtain the windows and an extra added comfort is the corner fireplace, also of Arizona sandstone and with a hearth of Mexican tile. Over the mantel they have recently hung an extremely beautiful Peter Hurd reproduction. A large dressing room, with large closets and bath complete this area.

From the living room, the dining room and kitchen one looks over a very lovely and colorful patio. Here the Hoods spend many happy hours. Hanging from the trees in planters and edging the patio are some of the most beautiful tuberous begonias one can find. So prolific are they that when in bloom the area has an almost exotic feel. Hanging also from the trees are bird feeders and houses and in winter and summer birds of all species, native to this area, are to be seen. It is truly a little world apart and peace and serenity can be felt deeply in this very lovely home.

CLOVIS ARTIST HAS WATERCOLORS ON DISPLAY HERE

Al Jones, a state policeman of Clovis, and a frequent Ruidoso visitor, has 15 watercolors on display in the Lincoln County Art Association's continuing show of Southwestern artists on the mezzanine floor of the Chaparral Motor Hotel. The show was hung last week by David Hall Travis, president of the local art association who reported one picture was sold as the exhibit was being arranged. Jones' paintings are all of Southwest scenery and are in water color. He has just completed a show in Roswell.

Ruidoso Hosts Hatch Bears

With the kick-off time moved up half an hour to 7 p.m. instead of 7:30, Ruidoso's Warriors play host to a District 3-B team, the Hatch Bears, here Friday night. Ruidoso's record this year is 2-2, the locals having won over Ft. Sumner last week and Socorro, and having lost to Tularosa in a conference match, and to Carrizozo. Hatch won their opener 13-6 over Mayfield B, tied Las Cruces B last week 12-12, and lost to Cobre and to Canutillo.

Coach Ken Newton said Mike Payne will probably be the only Warrior not in uniform for the game here this week-end, all others are in good shape for the conference battle. He added that a couple of backfield boys, halfback Mercy Garcia, whose number is 20 and who weighs 135 pounds, and fullback Primo Banehas, number 30, and 150 pounds, will have to be the defensive Warriors' targets to hold the scoring down by the visitors.

As an added feature, the 1966 Aspencade Queen will be crowned at halftime, and the Ruidoso school band will perform, it has been announced.

Shows Winner In Guessing Grid Contests

Lawrence I. Shows correctly picked 15 winners out of the 20 high school, college and professional football games played last week-end in the fourth week of the Ruidoso News' fifth annual grid guessing contest. He gets a first place prize of $10 and his check is waiting for him at Ruidoso Drug. This was his first time in 1966 to get a prize.

Second place went to Kathy Dean —the fourth week in a row she has been a winner, and her check for $5 is waiting for her at Ruidoso Cable TV office. She guessed 14 winners and came closer in predicting the tie-breaker score between Wisconsin and Iowa. Third place check for $2.50 is being mailed to Robert Read, Bovina, Tex., who also has been among the winners for several seasons.

The sixth contest page appears in today's News and it should be marked and turned in to one of the three places named in the page ad by 5 p.m. Thursday next week; or fans living elsewhere must mail their contest pages to the News to reach us much earlier in the week—please note the rules.

Capitan Undefeated in 2-C Play

CAPITAN HOSTS MELROSE IN HOMECOMING BATTLE

Capitan's Tigers put down Tatum 18-7 at Tatum last week-end to hold a four win, no loss record this season in District 2-C play. Friday night this week in a Homecoming match at Capitan, Capitan takes on Melrose, with a 3-1 record.

In the game last week-end, Capitan scored in the first three quarters, with Don Crawford and Dee Chesser putting together a scoring play of 70 yards with a pass and run in the first quarter. In the second frame, Crawford had Capitan fans screaming with a 20-yard dash to the goal, and in the third quarter, he went over from two yards out to score the final six points for the Tigers. None of the point after touchdown attempts were successful. The Tigers had been stopped cold on the 1-foot line as the half ended, preventing the Capitan crew from scoring another possible touchdown.

Tatum's lone score came in the third frame on an end sweep.

Chris Najar played a fine game, setting up two of Capitan's touchdown's with nice runs. Fred Provine, guard and center Fred Torres turned in excellent defensive performances, but Coach Mel Romero insists, again, that it was a team effort all the way.

Capitan's Tigers will be host to the Melrose Buffaloes Friday night this week, with kick-off time set for 7:30 p.m. in Capitan High School's annual Homecoming program. Melrose has a record of three victories and one loss while Capitan stands tied with Dexter with four wins and no losses in District 2-C. Coach Mel Romero said this week it's bound to be a real battle.

Activities for the Homecoming will include crowning of a queen, to be selected from these class nominees; Patsy McDonald, freshman; Cynthia Pounds, sophomore; Kay Wright, junior, and Lynn Williams, senior.

A pep rally during Friday at school, and a dance at the school following the game will be highlights of the Homecoming week-end.

Team standings in district 2-C after last week-end's games, is as follows:

	W	L
Capitan	4	0
Dexter	4	0
Melrose	3	1
Carrizozo	2	2
Corona	2	2
Cloudcroft	1	3
Vaughn	0	4
Tatum	0	4

Besides Melrose, Capitan has Dexter and Corona yet to play, which means the season is not over yet for the plucky, fighting Tigers.

Warriors Scalp Ft. Sumner 19-8

by H. B. Flanagan

Ruidoso's Warriors invaded the stronghold of the Ft. Sumner Foxes last Friday night, with sharp tomahawks and scalped the Foxes with a hard fought battle, 19-8. In this game there was no one outstanding player, either on offense or defense, as every Warrior who saw action had his share in the win.

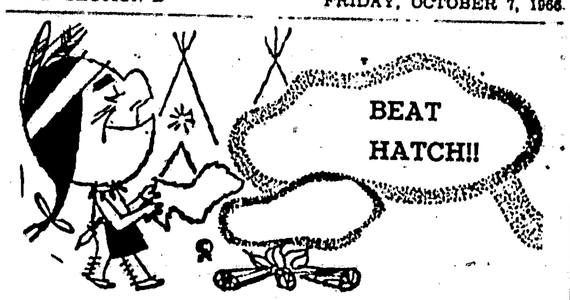

The Foxes started the scoring in the second quarter, driving 95 yards after Ricki Scott got off a tremendous quick kick of some 45-yards that died on the Foxes' 5-yard line. Staying on the ground the Ft. Sumner crew went to work through the middle of the Ruidoso line with Pat Andreas biting off good gains. The try for extra point was no good and the Foxes led briefly, 6-0.

Ruidoso's Warriors came storming back, with the help of a 15-yard penalty assessed against the Foxes on the kick after their TD. Running from the mid-field stripe the Warriors' offense began to click with Pearson and Scott lugging the leather for most of the yardage. The Warriors drove down to the Ft. Sumner 7-yard line only to be penalized back to the 12. With a second and goal, quarter-

Braves Smother Dexter 26-6

The Ruidoso Junior Hi Braves defeated the Dexter Junior Hi eleven 26 to 6 at Dexter last Thursday. Season record for the locals is 3-1. Neale Williams scored in the first quarter with a 15-yard run for the touchdown. In the second quarter Pat Farrar scored after a 20-yard run. In the third quarter Peso Hull dashed 20 yards to score; and in the fourth quarter Carey Horton ran the ball for 30 yards for a TD. The two extra points were scored by Pat Farrar.

Coach Dub Williams reported that all 30 members of the team making the trip were able to play in the game.

Line coach Jack Pickens reported that he was more than pleased with the defensive work of all linemen. The backfield this year is made up of three seventh graders and one eighth grader. The seventh graders are: Steve Halladay, Bradley Baker and Alan Payne; Schar Ward is the eighth grader in the backfield this season, Williams said.

This week the Braves play Carrizozo Thursday afternoon here with the game beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Corona Defeats Carrizozo, 7-6

Corona's Cardinals defeated the Carrizozo Grizzlies 7-6 at Corona Friday night for the first time in 10 years.

Mike Petty scored the Grizzlies only touchdown when he went over from the 8-yard line in the second quarter.

The Grizzlies held Corona scoreless until the fourth quarter when Emry Owen returned a Grizzly punt 75 yards for the tally. Dick Batley converted the extra point to give Corona the victory.

Tularosa Cops Jal Tilt, 33-7

Tularosa humbled Jal 33-7 Friday night in Tularosa.

Tularosa of District 3-B fell behind 7-0 after the first quarter, matched the District 4-B Jal team 7-7 at halftime and took a 13-7 lead after three periods.

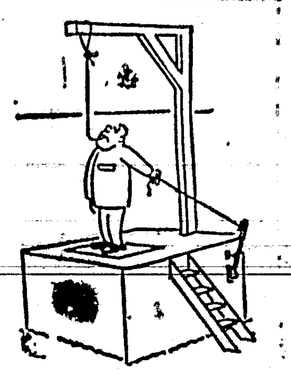

A 20-point final quarter effort crushed the visitors. Tularosa's Robert Walker scored two touchdowns from inside the five-yard line.

Jal's lone TD came on a 60-yard punt return by Ken Parrish.

Balance of Judgment Voted To Be Paid; Mayor Pro-Tem Named

Ruidoso Downs Trustees at the regular meeting Tuesday, Sept. 27, passed a resolution to pay off the balance of the judgment due to Matson and Associates of Albuquerque. The balance due on the original judgment of $6,170.56 was $1,179.15 plus interest at 6 per cent from July 1, 1966 according to Village records

The judgment was for engineering survey work done by the Albuquerque firm in connection with installing the Ruidoso Downs water supply system in 1963-64. The resolution to pay off the balance was forwarded to the State Department of Finance for approval, since the payment was not included in the Village budget for 1966-67.

Present for Tuesday's meeting were Mayor Zeke Scott, Trustees C. T Carpenter, Elvis Worden and J. A. Crockett. Trustee Homer Allison was reported absent due to other business.

In other matters, the Trustees increased the salary of Water Superintendent Claude Peterson $50 per month moved to have a building at Denton Field moved to the rear of the municipal building and converted to a work shop and storage room, and agreed to have water line installed at the Ruidoso Downs Fire Station Trustee Carpenter was elected to serve as mayor pro-tem in the absence of Scott The next regular meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 11.

WARRIORS WIN—
back Scott skirted the left side of the line and went in standing up, behind some good blocks by his team mates. Raymond Taylor split the uprights to put the Ruidosoans ahead, 7-6.

The defensive wall for the Warriors began to dig in after Ruidoso kicked, following the Warrior TD, forcing the Foxes to punt from their own 43-yard line. Elmer Adanandus brought the Ruidoso fans to their feet as he gathered the ball in on the Ruidoso 25 yard line and with the help of some timely blocks, twisted and turned downfield to the Foxes' 25-yard line, only to have the play nullified on a clipping penalty. The penalty put the Warriors back on their own 8-yard line. After a 'pass' was short, Scott scooted out to the 30. On a reverse, the Foxes came bursting through to pounce upon Scott on the 1-yard line. On fourth down, with Scott back to do the punting, the ball went over his head and gave the Foxes their other two points.

Trailing 8-7 just before the half, the defense of the Warriors came through when Edwin Miller intercepted a Ft. Sumner pass on the Warrior 25 and raced down the sideline to the 16-yard stripe in the Ft. Sumner end of the field. Scott threw two incomplete passes and the Warriors lost a yard on the ground. On fourth down, needing 11 yards for a first down and 16 for a TD, Scott calmly stepped back and hit Adanandus with a flare pass which he took and raced into the end zone standing up. The kicking try for the point after was no good and the Warriors left the field at halftime leading 13-8.

In the third quarter the Foxes completely dominated play as they drove up and down the field between the 20-yard stripes but the forward wall rose up when the chips were down to put down the scoring threats of the hard running Ft. Sumner backs. On one series the Warriors held on the 8-yard line and again they dug in to hold on the Ruidoso 21-yard stripe.

In the fourth quarter Adanandus showed his speed as he started on a wide sweep, broke inside end and outdistanced the Ft. Sumner defenders on a 60 yard TD jaunt that capped the scoring for both teams. Miller intercepted another Ft. Sumner in the waning minutes of the ball game to put down any further Foxes' threat. After driving to the Ft. Sumner 19, Raymond Taylor tried a field goal from that point that fell far short.

A large crowd of local fans, estimated at about 100, accompanied the team. Ruidoso's school band also was on hand to boost the Tribe.

SUMMER FUN, TOO—Besides being used to haul skiers up Lookout Peak (also called Signal Peak) the gondola lift in the Mescalero Apache's Sierra Blanca Ski Area is kept busy in summer taking vacationers on a scenic ride to the 11,400—ft. observation point from where they can see a large slice of Southwestern New Mexico. The gondola is in operation this week-end as added attraction for Aspencade visitors.

Davis Developments

DAVIS DEVELOPMENTS, the firm that developed PONDEROSA HEIGHTS (in five units), COUNTRY CLUB ESTATES, PINECLIFF (residential and commercial), and TOWN & COUNTRY NORTH, with combined sales of over 1500 building sites in these four beautiful subdivisions, now announces with great pleasure a new and exciting area development in partnership with Charles R. Rumbaugh.

LINCOLN HILLS COUNTRY CLUB and BUILDING SITES, located approximately 3 miles east of the Alto intersection and situated on the most beautiful mesa and rolling woodlands in any mountainous region. LINCOLN HILLS will offer an excellent 18-hole golf course with magnificent fairway building sites and many other equally beautiful building sites within a short distance of the golf course. A limited number of condominium and lodge locations will also be available. Lloyd Davis, Sr. and Lloyd Davis, Jr., of Davis Developments and Charles Rumbaugh of Charles Rumbaugh Real Estate, principals in LINCOLN HILLS, both through their respective reputations and by a clause in the sales contract and Warranty Deed that the front nine holes of the golf course and the club house will be completed within 18 months of this date and that the back nine holes will be completed within 36 months of this date (both with a 60 day inclement weather clause); and further guarantee that the water lines for a domestic water supply and the water will be completed based on the same schedule. LINCOLN HILLS COUNTRY CLUB, the golf course lay-out and the beautiful building sites must be inspected — you will be amazed by the vistas of the Sierra Blanca, Jicarilla and the Capitan Mountain Ranges all from this enchanted mesa which afford a full circle of grandeur. May we suggest, strongly, that you take the opportunity soon to treat yourself to a tour of LINCOLN HILLS COUNTRY CLUB. A call at our office will ensure you of a glimpse of the greatest single real estate value currently available in the Ruidoso vacation area.

Davis Developments in their previous four subdivisions have constructed over 35 miles of water lines and roads at a cost of over one half million dollars and we were the first in developers in Ruidoso to offer the lot buyer a public water supply with the cost of the lot. Charles Rumbaugh developed Sun Valley subdivision located north of Alto which contained over 200 building sites and also guaranteed and delivered water to the lots. Mr. Rumbaugh built the very successful High Country Lodge at Alto and is completing his second year of operation there.

As a bonus this is all located in "RUIDOSO, YOUR RESORT CAPITAL". Where else can you find the tall beautiful pines; a babbling mountain stream; Ruidoso Downs, an excellent race track with the richest horse race in the WORLD, the $500,000.00 All-American Futurity; Sierra Blanca Ski Area, a major ski area with fabulous snow conditions and miles of challenging trails; and marvelous golf courses; all with scenic grandeur unexcelled anywhere? Why . . . only in Ruidoso . . . OF COURSE!!!!!

On all Davis Developments properties, we attempt to establish terms to suit the individual buyer
