—BY NOSEY WATERS—

Visiting in our office last weekend was Louise Coe Runnels who had with her petitions signed by more than 100 people who had traveled over the rough road up Bonito canyon to Bonito dam and who were as angry as she was about the road's terrible condition.
She is campaigning to get the route improved—and it certainly should be. As it is now, it's keeping folks
OUT of the beautiful country up there—and one of the things they come to our area for is to see Bonito Lake . . .

More about Louise Coe Runnels and her campaign to get Bonito dam road improved, she notes that there are traffic counters on several roads in the area—State Road 37, into campgrounds and on U. S.
70, and she wonders why there isn't one on the road up her way . . .
Fat Lamb goes to Albuquerque in a few days to begin work in the state bureau of United Press International—leaving Grace Arnett to sit in for him, with others of the News staff to help, in producing the popular little Ruidoso News Round-Up now in its fifth week.
He'll be back a couple of days a week to help how he can, he says.

One of our readers suggests some lives might be saved if a step sign were erected on 1/4 St. where it crosses D St. in the upper canyon. "This is true, especially if officers will see it is enforced," our visitor stressed . . .

A folder has just been printed by New Mexico Department of Game & Fish and Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce is helping distribute it, with a map on fishing areas in this country along with other information on wildlife, hunting and fishing . . .

Saw an interesting article recently in the Tucson paper about a Ruidosoan, Duncan Williams, Holsum bread salesman . . . About the most enthusiastic person we've ever seen concerning Texas' Hemlock at San Antonio is Mrs. Kermit Marshall of Crystal City, regular summer visitor here, who says she's attended the event 12 times and finds it more fun and more exciting each time. "I don't hesitate to guarantee you'll like the Hemlock," she declares. It ends in early October so, if you haven't been, she says there's still time to attend . . .

Fifth St. at Sudderth has a new look. Struts taken from the grounds at the Chamber of Commerce location have been set out in the Y there. The plants were donated by the Chamber of Commerce and the city contributed three loads of fill dirt to build up and make the area level. The village has put in a water tap so the shrubs can be watered and the maintenance work will be done by the Tom Hoberts and the Van Willes. Plans are underway now to set out blooming plants next spring and make this one of the beauty spots of Ruidoso, Mrs. White reported. She also stated that everyone should work together to make our town more attractive to the homelinks as well as our summer and winter guests . . .

Rev. Hugh Miles, minister, says in reporting about the Ruidoso Downs First Baptist Church Bible school there were 126 enrolled as of the third day this year, compared to 67 enrolled on the third day last year . . .

Couple of Hams Jim Hine, Ruidoso village clerk-manager has called to our attention is the need for property owners across whose property sewer main easements are needed can do the area a favor by granting the easements, since the village has no funds for purchasing such right-of-way, and also, the federal Water Quality Control Act goes into effect in July two years from now, which pertains to making sanitary sewer systems available and requiring that all

SERIOUS BUSINESS—The two ladies pictured, representing Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital Auxiliary didn't smile for our News camera because they were engaged in very serious business when we took this photo—they were touring the business area putting out tickets that will sell for $1, good for the second August racing day added to Ruidoso Downs racing program this year. The auxiliary will receive all of the money from advance ticket sales and the fund will go to buy an obstetrical table for the hospital. Many local stores have the tickets for sale—and you're invited to buy some. In photo are, from left, Mrs. Hugh Swingle and Mrs. J. W. Pierce.

Hobby Thomas, former Ruidoso resident, underwent surgery in a Plainview, Tex., hospital early this week, and is reported as coming along fine. He's in Room 19 at the Nichols clinic there . . . Pilots Cancel Ruidoso Visit

Frank Potter, manager of Ruidoso municipal airport and Bob Bryant of Sierra Blanca Aviation last week-end received letters from William Outley, executive director of the National Pilots Association reporting that a tentatively planned national gathering of members of the association here in mid-October has been cancelled, that the meeting will be held instead at El Paso. Outley said the association's committee members planning the event, which would have brought as many as 200 to 400 private planes here possibly, decided the elevation of 7,000 feet might prove a problem for the many small plane owners who would be coming from the East coast and would not be used to the mountain altitude here.

Ruidoso All-Seasons, Inc. was hosting the fly-in and the group's board of directors had already held a couple of meetings with Outley and others of the national group to discuss plans for the fly-in here.

Coming Monday—The Round-Up

Extra Day In Final Week Also Talked

The first of five extra Thursday race days, all slated in the month of August will be run next week with the New Mexico Society for Crippled Children and Adults to be beneficiary of advance ticket sales at $1.

Other Thursdays are also to be earmarked for community benefits, with the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital Auxiliary to gain from advance ticket sales for the second Thursday, Aug. 8. Tickets are now on sale at a number of stores in Ruidoso for the Aug. 8 benefit. An obstetrical table for the hospital is to be purchased from money raised in the race benefit day.

Other local organizations to benefit include Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce on Aug. 16, and the Ruidoso Little League baseball program, now seeking additional equipment for the playing field on one of the later Thursdays.

Unofficially, an extra day, probably to be held on the last Wednesday of August, may be asked for by Ruidoso Racing Assn. More racers are needed because of the large number of horses on the grounds this season.

Don Driver, who is co-chairman with Ed Hyman for the benefit Thursday for the chamber of commerce, said this week plans are moving forward to have buses bring business leaders from several communities in Southeastern New Mexico to Ruidoso as guests to attend the races on the special day, Aug. 15.

For the benefit for Little League's needs for facilities in a diamond, Driver, who is also chairman for that benefit day on Aug. 22, says plans are developing for a community wide drive for advance ticket sales to boost that fund.

Village Pumps 17 Million Gals. Water In June

During the month of June a record amount of water, 17 million gallons, was pumped through the village water meters. July will probably see more water used, Jim Hine, village clerk-manager, reported, as there was 14 million gallons used through July 22.

Lincoln County May Lose Several Post Offices

Under an economy move now in effect in the U. S. postal system, and as ordered by Congress, seven of Lincoln county's 16 postoffices may be closed this year.

There is a possibility that more might be closed down.

The seven are fourth class offices and include Nogal, which will be closed next week, and Ancho, Lincoln, Tinnie, Picocho and Glenoco. The others face closure at different times later on in 1968.

Third class postoffices, which the hours of window service on Saturdays, in Ruidoso, postmaster L. P. (Joc) Dryden said the window service on Saturday would change from being open at 8:30 a.m. until noon to opening 10 a.m. until noon beginning this week. This is to provide general delivery service and some other forms of the service. Dr. patching of mail on Saturday will follow the pattern of Sunday dispatch, he added. He said that for the exception that there will be a loss of an hour and a half for the window service being available on Saturday, there will likely be little change in all other work of the office here. "It certainly won't shorten the hours our employees work, and it will mean our Mondays will see us work harder than ever," he opened.

Further changes in the economy drive to be ordered by the postal department include shortening the postal department has indicated "may be closed" include Corona, Capitan, Ft. Stanton, Honda and Alto. The latter two were raised from fourth to third class in recent months. All other offices in the county, Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs, Hollywood and Carrizozo are second class.

On Saturdays at Hollywood, the window service will be available for general delivery and for delivering packages from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and as in other such offices there will be no stamps sold, no box rent collections, nor boxes received according to Mrs. Mabel Wimblerly, postmaster. She said all mail will be dispatched at their regular schedules, and also mail will be put in boxes as usual.

A Ruidoso Downs, Postmaster Mrs. Dorothy Parnell said hours there will also be 10 a.m. until 12 noon for window service on Saturdays, with dispatch of mail as per the regular schedule.

The economy move as ordered by Congress is to lower the number of federal employees in all branches by retiring three persons for every four who resign, or who die or who leave postal employment for any other reason. "This rule will affect larger post offices such as Albuquerque much more than it will ever affect offices like ours," he said.

Eight New Mexico postoffices are included in the first closing order. To be closed effective Aug. 4 are offices at Amistad, Canones, Cordova, Crossroads and Nogal. To be closed effective Aug. 30 are postoffices at Dora, Horse Springs and Lajolla.

Milestone for State, Ruidoso Area Sen. Skeen Describes Eldorado

State Senator Joseph Skeen, in speaking at the groundbreaking program at Eldorado Villa Estates here last Saturday morning, said the beginning of construction of this fabulous housing development was indeed a milestone in the progress of the Ruidoso area and of the state of New Mexico. He paid tribute to Robert L. Windham and his associates in their planning and vision for such a tremendous project.

Skeen was introduced by Mayor Lloyd L. Davis, Jr., Ruidoso, who also introduced Mr. and Mrs. Windham and others working with them in the large complex which has had Federal Housing Authority approval in its several phases.

Work of opening another street to provide encirclement for the development was underway last week to herald the groundbreaking program, postponed from two weeks ago because of inclement weather.

Muscle by a Carlsbad group, the Radicles, and serving of refreshments preceded the turning of shovels full of dirt by Sen. Skeen. Four newspapers and two area television stations had cameras at work for the latter action.

Among others introduced at the program by Davis were G. H.

Davis, Swanson, vice-president of Eldorado corporation and general manager, and his wife, Norman Maxon, Tucson, architect, Jim Schumacher, sales and public relations director and James C. Scott, superintendent of the golf course.

Davis also called attention to the four local and area contractors doing work on Eldorado Villa Estates, including Bill McCarty of McCarty Construction, who is doing the dirt removal and street shaping; Jim Wimblerly, Wimblerly Electric handling electrical contracting work; John R. Emde, local building contractor, who begins soon remodeling of the former Buckner residence and Eldorado office into a clubhouse, and also to construct a recreation building, and Dick Gestling of Alamogordo, whose firm will install a sprinkler system.

Work is to begin very soon on erecting ten of the variety of model homes for showing in the near future. Laying of underground utility facilities, installing sewer mains, chipping up the golf course, around which the homes will be constructed, installation of at least two swimming pools, and many other of the luxury services will be done over a period of weeks and months as the development grows.

Ruidoso Firms to be Subjected to Internal Revenue Compliance Survey

William M. Coard, district director of Internal Revenue for New Mexico, announced today that a "compliance survey" of many Ruidoso business firms will be conducted during the months of July and August.

Coard said the purpose of the survey is to determine if business firms are aware of and are complying with Federal tax return filing requirements of the law.

The survey is not designated to audit returns, but is to determine if all required tax returns are being filed. The survey will also be used to check the completeness of the IRS Master File of business taxpayers.

Coard said IRS recognized that most delinquencies found will be the result of honest mistakes. The rare instances of flagrant abuse which may come to light will, of course, be dealt with according to laws are complex, some business taxpayers may not be fully aware of all the tax requirements that apply to their individual cases.

Revenue officers will contact and assist these businessmen by informing them of the various income, withholding, social security and excise tax requirements.

Coard said that "compliance surveys" are conducted periodically to maintain high levels of taxpayer compliance. Ruidoso taxpayers are assured that the Internal Revenue Service's usual high standards of fairness will be followed in their city.

Chas. A Jones Is Commissioner Candidate

Charles A. Jones, Democrat, who filed for Lincoln County commissioner for District 1, visited in Ruidoso last week-end in the interest of his candidacy. He and Mrs. Jones are the parents of two children, a son and a daughter. Both have been very active in Democratic party work for many years. Jones said he would campaign on his record of public service in the many offices he has held . . .

Removal of eye make-up seems to present a delicate problem for many women with sensitive eyes. The use of cream with even gentle astringent qualities may cause a burning of the eyes and eyelids in the dissolving off process. There are, of course, special mascara removal cleansers on the market, however, a cotton swab moistened with baby oil is very effective and non-irritating.

Home Youngsters Guests at City Pool
All 98 of the youngsters staying at the Southwest Children's Home in Ruidoso were guests at the Ruidoso municipal pool Monday morning.

The city council extended the courtesy of use of the pool in a council meeting four weeks ago. The motion was made at the suggestion of City Utilities Manager Don Hart.

The children used the pool from 10 to 11 a.m. It was first believed that a problem would arise for most of the youngsters who wanted to go swimming, but did not have bathing suits.

An article in the Round-Up about the home for children apparently spawned some community action and resulted in the home having enough suits for the group.

An official at the home said they hoped to be able to use the city facility again next Monday.

Ruidoso was assured of a bank this week when the state bank examiner, Alfred W. Kaune, signed a certificate granting approval for organizing it. Members of the bank board are Jack Hull, Ralph Brown, L. I. Butler, C. A. Eiland, Ernest Blood and Kenneth Watt. Chairman Mr. and Mrs. H. E. The Fort Stanton Medical Center has started operating for the state of New Mexico with Indian TB patients being flown in daily. The Fort Stanton Medical Center is the old Fort Stanton Marine Hospital opened 53 years ago for the care of American seamen and saved for the state by Governor Edwin McComb and Welfare Director Alva Simpson Jr.

Dr. E. F. Gough of Waxahatchie, Texas, and C. H. "Dad" Gough of Ruidoso Saturday completed a deal whereby they became owners of the Cree Meadows Golf and Country Club. Only a week ago it had been bought by Malco Products Co. of Roswell in a foreclosure sale at Chiricahua for $45,000.

Almost 75 people Sunday attended the dedication and consecration of the Church of the Holy Mount, the Episcopal chapel built here last year by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crump of Midland, Texas, and others. The church is a memorial built by the Crumps in honor of the late Rev. Martin, first vicar here.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

7-17-58

Dear Editor:

In four days about half of the cars that went up or down past Bonito Gate stopped and I got their names on thinking the same as I that these roads are a disgrace to the county and the county government. Of the number of cars who stopped 164 signed their names to a list saying they thought these roads need improvement to and above Bonito Lake.

Here are comments that tourists and natives make to me often:

"Who are your Commissioners? Looks like they'd get these roads fixed for all the tourists."

"This is the third time we have started to the camp ground and chickened out when we got to the foot of the dam on account of our camper." (These tourists are from Ft. Worth, Texas).

"We think the campground is just beautiful, but the roads scare us away." "We like to come to Bonito to fish and camp but why don't you get them to work your roads?"

I might mention a Scoutmaster, Jack Knox, was here recently. He has been on scouting trips all over New Mexico and said this Bonito Campground in South Fork was one of the prettiest he had been in and clean, but the roads the worst.

All I can answer is, "Promises, promises!"

Mr. Vic Lamb,

Editor Ruidoso News,

Ruidoso, New Mexico

I have had a summer home in Ruidoso for seventeen years and have just returned from a stay there. It is so beautiful there this year. Therefore I am very interested in your continued growth.

I was disturbed, on my return by the enclosed item which appeared in your Amarillo paper. (See below). Believing you to be the one to see it, I am making same to you for your attention. I think this is bad publicity for any resort town.

Warm Regards,

Kathryn Barnhill

Mrs. J. R. Barnhill

From Thomas Thompson's column in July 16 Amarillo Globe-Times:

"Our sportswriters are coming in with reports of exorbitant hotel rates in Ruidoso, N. M. Tommy Bryant, sports editor, stopped in Ruidoso for a round of golf and paid $14-plus for a 'fair' motel room. He talked to other Amarillo people who report that the rates double on week-ends, and for the 4th of July (and probably Labor Day, too?), the rates are triple."

Dear Mr. Lamb and friends:

Our trip started off with a bang. The bus trip was a huge success and we all had a good time.

We went through nine states reaching Philadelphia June 26th.

After a good night's sleep we went to the airport only to have a six hour lay-over but after we boarded the plane, everything went smoothly. We arrived at the Gatewick Airport just outside of London about mid-day of the 26th. We then transferred to the Atlantic Hotel in the center of London. During our nine day stay at London we toured many interesting sights. Among these were the famous cathedral of Westminster Abbey; the Houses of Parliament, which included the House of Commons and the House of Lords; the summer home of Queen Elizabeth, Windsor Castle; the Tower of London, which houses the crown jewels; the world famous changing of the guards; the many attractions of Hyde Park and St. Paul's Cathedral. This is to say nothing of the Bobbies, the double-decker buses, and the English Subway—the "tube". We took several excursions to Stratford-on-Avon. Here we saw a famous play, Dr. Faustus in the Royal Shakespearean Theatre. Afterwards we visited the birthplace of Shakespeare and his wife, Anne Hathaway.

In addition to visiting many interesting spots, we attended English and lectures concerning English history. We had the privilege of having an English professor as one of our teachers. After our classes each day, students were allowed to travel about and ride the tube to the local shopping areas and tourist attractions.

Our stay in London was a huge success, but we are looking forward to moving on to France, our next country.

Yours truly,

Mary Estes and Susan Conley

To Mr. Lamb, Editor:

Politics — Police — Can't it be a mess?

Who can we vote for?

Has gotten so our federal elections about face as soon as elected and do not give the people that elected them what they want and expected of them but instead what they want them to be.

They get to Washington on how Washington operates and what is far from the will of the people. The majority of all U. S. Citizens want our cost of government cut half.

This going in the red more and more is not what we, the people want. We don't want any foreign aid sent out at all and go deeper in the red. Cut it all off and keep it out. We want all branches of our government curtailed to the bone. We don't want Uncle Sam to be known as our brother's keeper. Do away at once treaties or agreements to help fight anybody's battles besides our own. Get our men back in the U. S. as soon as practicable and learn a lesson from meddling in Korea and Vietnam. "You can't make a silk purse out of a cow's ear." Put some laws on the books whereby our peace officers can stop all this lawlessness. Seems the Supreme Court needs the rug pulled out from under it and let them know what the people want and expect of them. If the Constitution needs working over to give the general public what they want then let's work it over too.

For president—There is not a candidate out that won't continue the give away policy and we, the people are sick of it. There is no better way to end a beautiful country than to sink it in debt and make us to split and come to blows at home. Let's wake up and let the candidates know we are tired of their promises and reverse action after elected.

Our U. S. is at stake. We don't want our money and products and young men given away any more. Can't we send a committee to Washington to tell our Congressmen and Senators they must pay a week-end to their advantage. Like their people want and not go off on every tangent some egghead has dreamed up.

Think about the mess we are getting in and the chance of blowing up our government. Let's get to thinking and find a solution if we have to elect an entire new lay out.

B. H. Williams

Alto, New Mexico

P. S. There is a lot more I could say but let's see what reception this gets.

Dear Editor:

I usually write about beautiful things, but I am so full up of ugly thoughts, I feel I must unload it somehow. I see in the Round-Up talk of more recreation facilities in our school house park. I think it would be good.

But sometimes I think some people are so beastly they get more enjoyment out of destroying nice places of recreation than enjoying them. (It is a shame and disgrace) how some people destroy public places, or could one class them as humans, or people?

I was vacationing in one of New Mexico's State Parks last week, in the ladies' restroom, and men's all the latrines were wide open in the lavatory, water was running over the top of one. The showers were on full, the place was flooded.

The attendant told us things all most unbelievable people would do, until I saw this. Weak beer bottles in the men's urinal, stop up toilets with newspapers, put gravel in the wash basins, step them up, so they must be taken apart to unclog.

Now just what can be done about such vandalism? Can the attendant work day and night, too. No, there should be a night watchman to catch the vandals and throw them in a dungeon for a long time for punishment. Then when they come out they may enjoy nice places. If it could only be stopped, the ones who love clean and beautiful places could enjoy them even more.

And if it is not stopped it will soon get where the attendants cannot be hired to take care of these places.

Pearl Gilbert

Ruidoso

(Editor's Note: The letter below has been printed in several Texas newspapers, including the Big Spring Herald, also was mailed to Governor David P. Cargo and to the American Automobile Assn., as well as to the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce. When read at the C. of C. meeting, several comments were made, including the praise of local policemen that their long hours and extra shifts during the Independence Day holidays resulted in no fatalities in this area due to the officers' diligence. "The letter writer should be thankful the state police were responsible in some way for protecting him from possible death by accident," was the summary of the reaction by C. of C. board members.)

To the Editor:

The wife and I just returned from an enjoyable week-end in Ruidoso, N. M. — very enjoyable except for one incident. After talking with several of the local residents it seems as if my experience was fairly common with out-of-state visitors to Ruidoso.

It seems as if the State of New Mexico deliberately used the July 4th week-end to their advantage. After the races Sunday my wife and I immediately began the trip home and we were detoured onto a highway from Ruidoso to Capitan because of construction on the highway normally used. After following a slow line of traffic for about 18 miles we reached a stretch of highway that afforded passing (the only one between the two cities at that point). Naturally everyone began passing the slow traffic and in doing so several of us (tourists) exceeded the 55 MPH speed limit. It was at this point the state of New Mexico elected to hide their radar.

We were motioned to the side of the road behind a line of a half dozen cars (all bearing Texas plates).

We were given less than two hours to appear before a justice of the peace in Capitan and when we arrived found that there was already a half a dozen ahead of us. It was taking the judge an average of 30 minutes to dispose of each case, and out of desperation to be on his way, one thinking Texas reduced his time to about 20 minutes by waiving his Constitutional rights and pleading guilty. Natural everyone followed suit and even so it was just under three hours before the wife and I were on our way again. This time we were careful not to exceed the speed limit and in doing so probably saved an additional three hours. About 10 miles west of Roswell (a highway used by virtually every tourist returning to Texas and Oklahoma) the New Mexico State Highway Patrol had set up their final farewell party, and this time they were reallyyyy successful.

I am not now, nor did I then deny that I had exceeded the speed limit but I can't help wonder if my crime and that of the other tourists warranted such large-scale arrests, especially after considering the fact that most of us, if not all, had just spent most of what we left home with in New Mexico. I do not believe that the leaders of the state of New Mexico are aware of this situation or they would do something about it. I know, after discussing this with several people here in Big Spring that I am not the first caught in this situation, and I am not the only person in Big Spring who feels that this is unjust treatment. But it is far sure that this kind of treatment will continue until enough people write enough protests to the State of New Mexico that they will change their policy, if for nothing else but economic reasons. After all who keeps Ruidoso alive?

Re: Fed. Reg. of Firearms

Dear Senator Anderson:

It is astounding that any member of your committee or any member of congress could be so naive that any move should be advocated restricting the constitutional guarantee to our citizens to "keep and bear arms." Such proposed action is in close cooperation with the infamous mandate of the Supreme Court which gives more aid and comfort to self-confessed criminals than to the protection of law-abiding citizens.

Any student of recent history of the principles, activities and progress of communism knows that depriving the public of the unrestricted possession and legitimate use of firearms is the first step in communist take-over of country after country.

Unless more of our elected officials promptly get such communist principles out of our heads and get busy in helping law-abiding citizens protect their own lives and property, we will be headed soon for a totalitarian dictatorship in the U. S. — or is that what you want?

It seems high time that we retire from public office those who show less concern for law-abiding citizens than for criminals who would destroy our society.

Any intelligent office holder knows (or should know) that no criminal or gangster will ever abide by any law that he chooses to ignore.

Unless more consideration is given to the protection of decent citizens we COULD have a real revolution to restore the rights guaranteed by our U. S. Constitution, which, little by little have been nullified and distorted to mean nothing more than a meaningless jargon of words.

Unless criminals are promptly and adequately punished by those in authority, individual citizens will be forced to act in their own defense.

The proposed firearms regulation would inflict heavier penalty

Dear Mr.:

I have been visiting Ruidoso for the past twenty years, and I know how hard everyone worked to get a swimming pool. I cannot understand, however, why in the months of July and August when the town is full of people that this pool does not open until approximately 1:00 p.m.

I have checked several pools here in Albuquerque, and they open at 10:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. It would also be convenient if the pool hours were posted on the door. Anybody wanting to swim and go to the races has to give up one or the other.

Appointments Are Made In Council Meet

Mrs. Vaden McCray, Rufus Sanchez and Jack Parnell were appointed to serve on the Ruidoso Downs Planning and Zoning Commission. The appointments were made at the regular Ruidoso Downs council meeting Monday night at the village hall by Mayor Jack DiPaolo.

Mrs. McCray will take the place of Rev. Hugh Stiles who is now serving as a member of the council. Sanchez takes the place of Dr. Mark D. Hall and Parnell succeeds himself. His term would have expired in August.

Albert Richardson was appointed by DiPaolo to serve as village building inspector. He will take the place of Jack Parnell who was serving temporarily.

A request by Otis H. Booher for an occupation license for both a garage and a fruit stand was tabled until the next meeting. A village official said the council would like Booher to clean up his place of business before the license is granted.

The council agreed to post a notice on the Old Craig building that the building would be demolished in ten days. The members also agreed to remodel the clerk's and marshal's office in the village hall. Beale Sewell, village clerk-manager said the remodeling would cost around $400 to $500.

Mayor of Ruidoso Downs Jack DiPaolo reported to council members on plans to improve village streets. Much of the equipment will be donated, and DiPaolo feels that about $2,000 for the improvements will go a long way in grading and graveling the village's roads.

Mark Storm Western painter, illustrator and author, will return the first week-end in August to the beloved scenes of his boyhood, and youth to take part in the Billy the Kid Pageant and display some of his best paintings on the main floor of the Chaparral.

Although a native of Valdez, Alaska, and now living in Houston, Mark grew up in Glenwood on the Five-S Ranch which he owns along with his brothers, Lynn and Dan. They talk of someone being born with a silver spoon in his mouth. In the larger sense, Mark was born with a paint brush in his hand, having started drawing pictures before he could talk. It was here in Lincoln County that Mark stepped into the world of his dreams which he had known in the books and western movies of his childhood. As ranch hand, horse breaker, rodeo rider and western ballad singer here in the land of the pinon and piñe, Mark breathed deeply into his soul the cowboy life which lives forth once again so vividly in his paintings.

Billy the Kid Picture
A feature of Mark's exhibit at the Chaparral, which will begin Aug. 3, is a full color oil painting of a famous scene from the life of Billy the Kid. In the picture, The Kid, in iron band and foot, is playing cards with his guard Bell; and just in the act of dropping a card on the floor "accidentally on purpose" moments before his dramatic escape from captivity.

This scene leads into the high point of the action in the now world famous annual historical pageant, "The Last Escape of Billy the Kid" to be held in Old Lincoln the evening of Saturday, Aug. 3, and the afternoon and evening of Sunday, Aug. 4.

It is the artist's plan to have the picture bought by an individual or group and presented as a gift to the Lincoln Historical Museum. The painting, along with four or five others, will hang for several days at the Chaparral.

The Dog That Stepped Out of A Picture
One snowy day in January of 1962 a tiny toy collie puppy wandered up to the door of the Five-S Ranch at Glenwood. "A little gray and all alone" like Little Joe The Wrangler.

The following summer when Mark first saw the half grown dog, he said:

"Where have I seen this little fellow before?"

Then after thinking a while he said,

"Why, this is the little dog I have been painting all my life."

Sure enough, going back through his picture, the artist found this came little dog again and again, feature for feature, marking for marking. So here was the little picture dog come to life.

And now, in the August issue of the Quarter Horse Journal, what little dog do you think appears on the cover picture. You guessed it: Shady Logan.

Mark plans to have the original painting on display at the Chaparral.

FEED THEFT BRINGS CHARGES

Charged on alleged theft of feed from Ruidoso Downs Feed Concession operated by Virgil Welch, were Elly Candelaria Jr., Elito Herrera and Eugene Rivall, who plead guilty before Justice of the Peace, Alton Gray in Ruidoso Downs July 18. SOMETHING NEW A County Commissioner Candidate WITH A PLATFORM!

Presenting Ideas For All the Voters to Study—
CAMPAIGN PLATFORM FOR DON STARK
CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER
DISTRICT 3 — REPUBLICAN PARTY

If nominated in the August 27th primary election, I pledge to all of Lincoln County honest and efficient government and continual effort to promote growth and prosperity to Lincoln County. I want to be county commissioner for district three to serve Lincoln County for the following reasons:

Recently I met with a group of Lincoln County residents to discuss the possibility of an advisory road planning commission. I feel this method is an excellent solution to building more and better roads in our county. Many of our school bus routes need more and better maintenance.

The re-appraisal program should be speeded up. This is a must if our taxes are to be paid on an equal basis. More effort should be expended in expiration of the possibilities of secondary road construction.

I have worked diligently with the Interstate 70 Association trying to secure an interstate designation for highway 70, and would continue to do so.

I feel that much could be done to further promote Lincoln County both as a tourist and retirement area.

Being a proven administrator I feel I can help in administering the monies of Lincoln County.

Having spent my entire adult life in and around construction, I feel that knowledge would be an asset to Lincoln County if I were elected county commissioner for district three.

Father Labreche Being Transferred To Socorro Church

Father Laurier Labreche who has been serving as pastor of St. Eleanor's Catholic Church here for the past six years, is being transferred Aug. 1 to San Miguel Church at Socorro. Father Molloy, retired priest, who has also been making his home at St. Eleanor's here for a number of years, will also be moving to Socorro. Father Ronald Roth who has been serving as assistant pastor here, is being transferred to St. Anne's Church at Tucuman. Serving presently here as pro-tem pastor is Father Michael Stosiek who came to Ruidoso on June 1, this year and who is originally from Chicago. The name of the new pastor for St. Eleanor's Church has not yet been announced. Father Labreche reported.

Rotary Assembly Discusses Projects

Rotary reporter A. E. Hunt reported to those present Tuesday night at Rotary meeting at the "Cafe on a Rotary Club Assembly" attended by Austin Pritchett, O. C. Shields, Frank Crown, Les Crews, Jim Wimberly, Howard Cooper and Hunt.

The assembly was held in the home of local president Austin Pritchett on the evening of July 17. The group present agreed to discontinue the student guest program but continue the Interact Club. They voted also to discontinue the Job Corps guest program.

It was agreed at the meeting that all programs involving an expenditure of money should come before the Board of Directors before being submitted to the club as a whole.

In other business Pritchett was asked to appoint a committee to work with the Forest Service on publicity on nature walks. They agreed that the club should attend a Little League game in a body and that the Rotary Anna should give the Rotary sponsored Little League team a picnic at the close of the season.

The Rotary committee in charge of programs will be directed to arrange for a Rotary Information program each quarter. The secretary of the club was authorized to purchase 1,000 make-up cards for $35 and Pritchett was authorized to spend up to $50 to have the club's movie projector repaired.

A discussion of the limited representation of business and professional men was held, and a number of prospects were named. It was agreed that when a member sponsors a prospect he should fill out a proposal card to submit to the classification committee before the guest is introduced as a prospective member.

The secretary was asked to make a list of absentees each week for the president so that he might arrange for make-ups. The secretary also asked to notify members after three consecutive absences because they will be dropped from membership after the fourth. It was also explained that Rotary regulations required members to be present at 60% of the meetings to retain membership.

Guests at the Tuesday noon meeting were: Nash Tucker, Odessa, Tex.; Robert Lawson, Midland; William Davis, Waco; W. L. McLondon, Ft. Worth; R. S. Curles, Jr., Dallas; Bob Brummal, Lubbock; Don R. Marples, Longview, Tex.; W. M. Childers, Tulsa, Tex.;

Edward A. Banner and A. B. Hayes, El Paso; George Ferrell, Olney, Tex.; Jack Fox, Childress, Tex.; Tony Sealey, Blythe, Calif.; W. L. Minton, Livingston; J. A. Rivas, Belen; Ed Fickany, Ft. Sumner; Pardue Bunch, Artesia, and Ford Abbey, El Paso. John H. Jagoe and Wes Walker, Alamogordo.

Hall Construction Low Bidder On NMSU Job

Hall Construction Co. with a bid of $116,032, was determined successful low bidder last week on a concrete block building, the first of several expected to be erected on land north of town where New Mexico State University is building a biology field station. Site for the station was given by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Montgomery of Ruidoso.

Duane Dorsey, architect for N. M. S. U. said work on the Ruidoso branch will get underway about Aug. 1, with the structure planned to be very simple in design, but which, after its initial use as a headquarters for biology studies, can be adapted for other needs later.

Dr. William Dick-Peddie, of the NMSU biology department, said he expected research work to be started at the first building as soon as it was completed.

"We'll handle our entire research operations out of the building," Dick-Peddie said. "One of the rooms will be used for a kitchen and a bunk house and the other will be for classes."

Dick-Peddie said the facility here would be used mainly as a central base from where research operations were initiated.

"We will do the actual research out in the field," he explained.

The biologist said that the building would be of great use to the University because there are no forest types of growth in the Las Cruces area.

Using science laboratories offered by Ruidoso High school, some classes were held this spring and summer here under New Mexico State U. instructors.

Other classes will be offered again in the near future, with announcement to be made from the university headquarters at Las Cruces regarding dates and tuition.

Stocking of Fish
 In Nogal Halted
 Stocking of fish in Nogal reservoir has been stopped by the New Mexico Dept. of Game and Fish because the water level has gone down, raising the temperature of the water.
 Charles Cockerell, Game and Fish conservation officer here, said the state had stopped stocking the reservoir about two weeks ago. He said that some of the fish were being killed by the increased water temperature.
 "We won't put any more in there until we can get some more water in there," Cockerell said.
 In other fishing waters around Ruidoso, Cockerell said the state had been stocking about

Romero Resigns As Grid Coach At Capitan

Melvin Romero, coach at Capitan high school of the fightin' Tigers, who have been contenders twice for the state's Class C title on the gridiron, has resigned.
 He will continue to be on the Capitan faculty, teaching history and serving as high school counselor.
 During his tenure as coach, since 1963, the Tigers have racked up 33 wins to 13 losses and two tied games.
 The Capitan gridgers have always been one of Ruidoso Warriors' hardest to-put-down foes — the scrappers give the local team every ounce of fight they have and it's one of the best games, usually on the Ruidoso schedule each fall. Through the years they have scouted the Warriors on several occasions, and hold an almost even win-loss record with Ruidoso.

every two weeks, "give or take a day or two."
 He said places now being stocked were the Ruidoso River, Alto Reservoir, North Eagle Creek, the South Fork of Bonito, the main fork of Bonito and Bonito Lake.
 He said they would be stocked again this week.

SWEET VICTORY—at Ruidoso Downs Sunday went to Tudor Peace in the first running of the Rio Grande Futurity. Making the presentation of the Rio Grande Futurity trophy is, from left, Sherm Anderson, Albuquerque, president of the New Mexico Thoroughbred Breeders' Assn.; Tex Barron, track general manager; M. R. Prestridge, El Paso, winning owner, and trainer Nell Mangum. Tudor Peace collected $22,104 for first place out of $49,120 purse in race designed to bolster thoroughbred breeding industry in New Mexico.

Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity Is Down's Sunday Feature

The finest field of two-year-old thoroughbreds ever put together in one race is offered fans at Ruidoso Downs on Sunday when ten youngsters try for high prizes in the Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity, which has a purse of $50,000. Ken Terrill, turf writer for the Downs said without qualifications this mid-week. "This line-up is extremely outstanding," he stressed. "Any one of six or seven of the entries is a top prospect for winning."

In the race will be Tamara's Jet, who holds the half-mile record; Rebel Roan, winner of a stakes race at Ak-Sar-Ben at Omaha; Wombley Blue, winner of three races here this year; Doyle G., also a winner here in two races; Battle Bound, Hookkull, Uncle Links, Girl Patrol, Rose's Trouble and Dancing Jacket.

Forty-seven of the nation's finest three-year-old quarter horses will clash here Friday in trials for the $100,000 (estimated) Ruidoso Rainbow Derby. The trials have been split into five divisions with all starters carrying 120 pounds over the 400 yard distance. The fastest ten qualifiers will compete in the Ruidoso Derby Sunday, Aug. 4, while the second ten fastest qualifiers will race in the Derby Consolation Aug. 5.

The Rainbow Derby trials have attracted such outstanding runners as Laico Bird, Turf's Best, Jet Smooth, Sea Nymph, Barne's Lady Bug, Bar Adams and Go Three Deep.

Laico Bird, Floyd H. Jones' tiny filly who became the world's richest quarter horse racer as a two-year-old, is certain to be the stand-out in the trials. Last year, Laico Bird won eleven races and earned $406,369 by taking such outstanding races as the All-American Futurity, the Raton Futurity, the Texas Futurity, the Columbus Futurity and the Los Alamos Futurity. Laico Bird will be ridden in the trial by Larry Byers.

Sure to rate highly also is Sea Nymph, second in last year's All-American Futurity. The swift daughter of Jackstraw won the Sunland Fall Futurity last year and recently finished second in the Oklahoma Quarter Horse Derby at Raton.

Showing his usual excellent form this year is Turf's Best. The fleet-footed son of Rebel Cause accounted for the George Dohan Allowance Stake earlier this season and appears sharp with an impressive win in last week's Rainbow Derby Prep.

Last year's Kansas Futurity winner, Jet Smooth, appears back in top form. The Jet Dock colt won easily in his last outing and should fare well in his trial under Boyd Morris.

Also on tap Friday is the featured "New Mexico Sportsman" at six furlongs. Such crack sprinters as Phil's Time, Sena Vee, Rana-gong and Despatch have been named in the event. The race honors the "New Mexico Sportsman", the state's first sports weekly. The weekly, published in Albuquerque, is devoted to complete local and regional coverage of sports events in New Mexico.

Louis Schaefer's Mystic Victory heads an impressive line-up in Saturday's featured "Texas State Invitational Saturday.

RUIDOSO DOWNS, NEW MEXICO

Network Purse. The top invitational allowance will be contested at a distance of one mile and carries a purse of $2,000.

Mystic Victory, a four-year-old gelding, will be after his fourth win of the year and his third straight. In an allowance event earlier this season the improved runner upset Dobro Boy among others and came back July 4th week-end to capture the Governor's Handicap in another sparkling performance. Mystic Victory must tote 120 pounds under Gate Mower.

Sure to rate much interest also is the vastly improved Ratliff and the classy William D. Ratliff has started here on six occasions this season and finished worse than second only once. Last week the J. Montes colorbearer finished an excellent second to Dobro Boy in near track record time. Ratliff gets in under a light 119 pounds and Frank Cazares. William D. made his first local appearance this season in the Governor's Handicap and wound up seventh in sloppy going. However, the speedy son of Indian Hemp equalled the track record for six furlongs here last year and should fare better here under Darwin Howell and 115 pounds.

Others in the top field include Tack's Lad, 117, J. Cox; Rock Island, 113, K. Hart; Unanchored, 118, W. Rook; Gendries Echo, 117, L. Byers, and Selerico, 113, W. Hodges.

The feature event honors the Texas State Network, a news network serving some thirty-four radio and television stations in the Lone Star state.

Saturday's co-feature honors the popular livestock and horsemen's magazine, the "Western Livestock Journal." The mile claiming event includes such good runners as King Akabli, Dino Straw, None At All and Felice Man.

DOWN AT THE DOWNS

Six horses were claimed at Ruidoso Downs last week-end as follows: Roman Devil by Bob Arnett (Arnett, N.M.), for $5,000; Adler Class by Billy E. Frank (W. T. Walker, Tex.), for $1,750; Felice Man, by Joseph B. Shamas (Clifford Lambert, Jr.) from Clarence M. Bogie, Dexter, for $2,500; Star Serie by Jay H. Palmer (Lloyd Phipps, Jr.) from Londo Posoliro & Irene Wade, Scottsdale, Ariz., for $1,500; Six Spot by Joe H. McWilliams, (McWilliams, Jr.) from C. M. Kennedy, Phoenix, for $4,000, and Hyper Star by Peggy J. Wolf (Nick Wolf, Jr.) from Rella K. Weise, Ruidoso, for $1,250.

Larry Byers apparently is out to make a shambles of the jockey ranks at Ruidoso Downs this season. The clever reinman continued his domination among riders by booting home eight winners last week and extending his lead over second place Walter Hodges to 17 wins. Hodges moved up into second place over the idle James Curry. The trainer standings remained practically intact this week, with Clifford Lambert assuming the lead from Bob Arnett and Paul O'Neil. Lambert and Arnett were tied last week, but Lambert posted two wins while Arnett failed to bring home a winner. Oliver posted three wins and moved into a second place with Arnett.

The field for the $50,000 (col.) Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity to be run this Sunday could rate with any two-year-old race in the country. This year's crop of juveniles is truly outstanding. Last week's Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity is surely one of the swiftest races ever taken to improve the Thoroughbred breeding industry in New Mexico. Such winners as Lasso Bird, Ben Nymph, Jet Smooth and Bar Adams make Friday's program appealing to all who like to watch GREAT horses in action. Some 70 percent of horsemen have won so far this season. This is very impressive indeed. Purse size being increased for the remainder of the season thanks to a healthy

Swim Team Meets Zo

Ruidoso's swim team is to get its feet wet this week-end at a swim meet at Alamogordo. In addition to the host team, Carrizozo, Ruidoso, Alamogordo Air Force Base and Alamogordo will have teams there.

The Ruidoso team is composed of nine members: Doyle and Terri Walker, David Durio, Corky Collier, Brad Baker, Danny Price, Alan and Katherine Lewis and Alex Chism. They are coached by Michael Kennedy and practice every Wednesday morning from 7:30 until 9.

There are two more swim meets on the agenda for the local team at this time. They will attend a swim meet in Alamogordo Aug. 2, where they will compete against Alamogordo's team. They will attend the regional Invitational tournament at Silver City Aug. 10, where they will compete against teams from all over southwestern New Mexico.

increase in attendance and handle this year. Recent heavy rains have helped make the track surface in great shape, possibly the best ever.

No one can remember a starting gate falling twice as it did two weeks ago. Interest is mounting in the "Lasso Dash" to be run the second week-end in August. There should be a lot of competition among the women looks. . . . and a lot of fun too. . . . Go! Fight! . . . Very impressive in his easy win Sunday in the Rainbow Futurity Prep. . . . Larry Byers has several excellent mounts this week that should put him completely out of reach in the jockey standings this year, although a real race for second place honors is developing among Walter Hodges, Jim Curry and Kenneth Hart. . . . This year's All-American Futurity Sale looks like a real winner with the emphasis on Quality Plus! . . . Last week was a chalk player's nightmare with longshots hitting regularly. . . . AWARDED BRONZE STAR —

SP/4 Richard L. Denton was awarded bronze star for heroism while serving in U. S. Army in Viet Nam. He received award for valorous action during savage rocket attack on petroleum and ammunition dump at Thon Son Lam. He braved ominous dangers of exploding rockets and used an earth-moving machine to extinguish blaze, thus saving many lives and vital equipment. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Denton of Alamogordo and is grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton of Ruidoso Downs. His wife Wynona lives in Alamogordo. Denton attended Ruidoso schools from 1960 through 1962.

Tudor Peace Wins Rio Grande Futurity

The first running of the Rio Grande Futurity for New Mexico-bred two-year-olds was captured Sunday by Tudor Peace, a flashy juvenile owned by the M. R. Priel ridge Estate of El Paso, Texas. The daughter of Thorny Peace-Tudorita was reserved off the early pace and made a bold move in the stretch run to win going away by eight lengths. Victory was worth $23,104 to the winning owners who saw their youngster cover the six furlongs in an excellent 1:14.

Second in the Rio Grande went to outsider Jim's Fool, owned by Sam Vaughn of El Paso, while Doe Bowman, owned by A. B. Mosey of Alamogordo, held on for third after setting a fast pace. Jim's Fool collected $9,824 for his effort while Doe Bowman took home $6,864.

This picturesque mountain track enjoyed another banner week-end, with an estimated 17,000 racing fans wagering $672,648 over the three-day span. Total handle for the year now shows an increase of $417,738 over a comparative 24 day period last year.

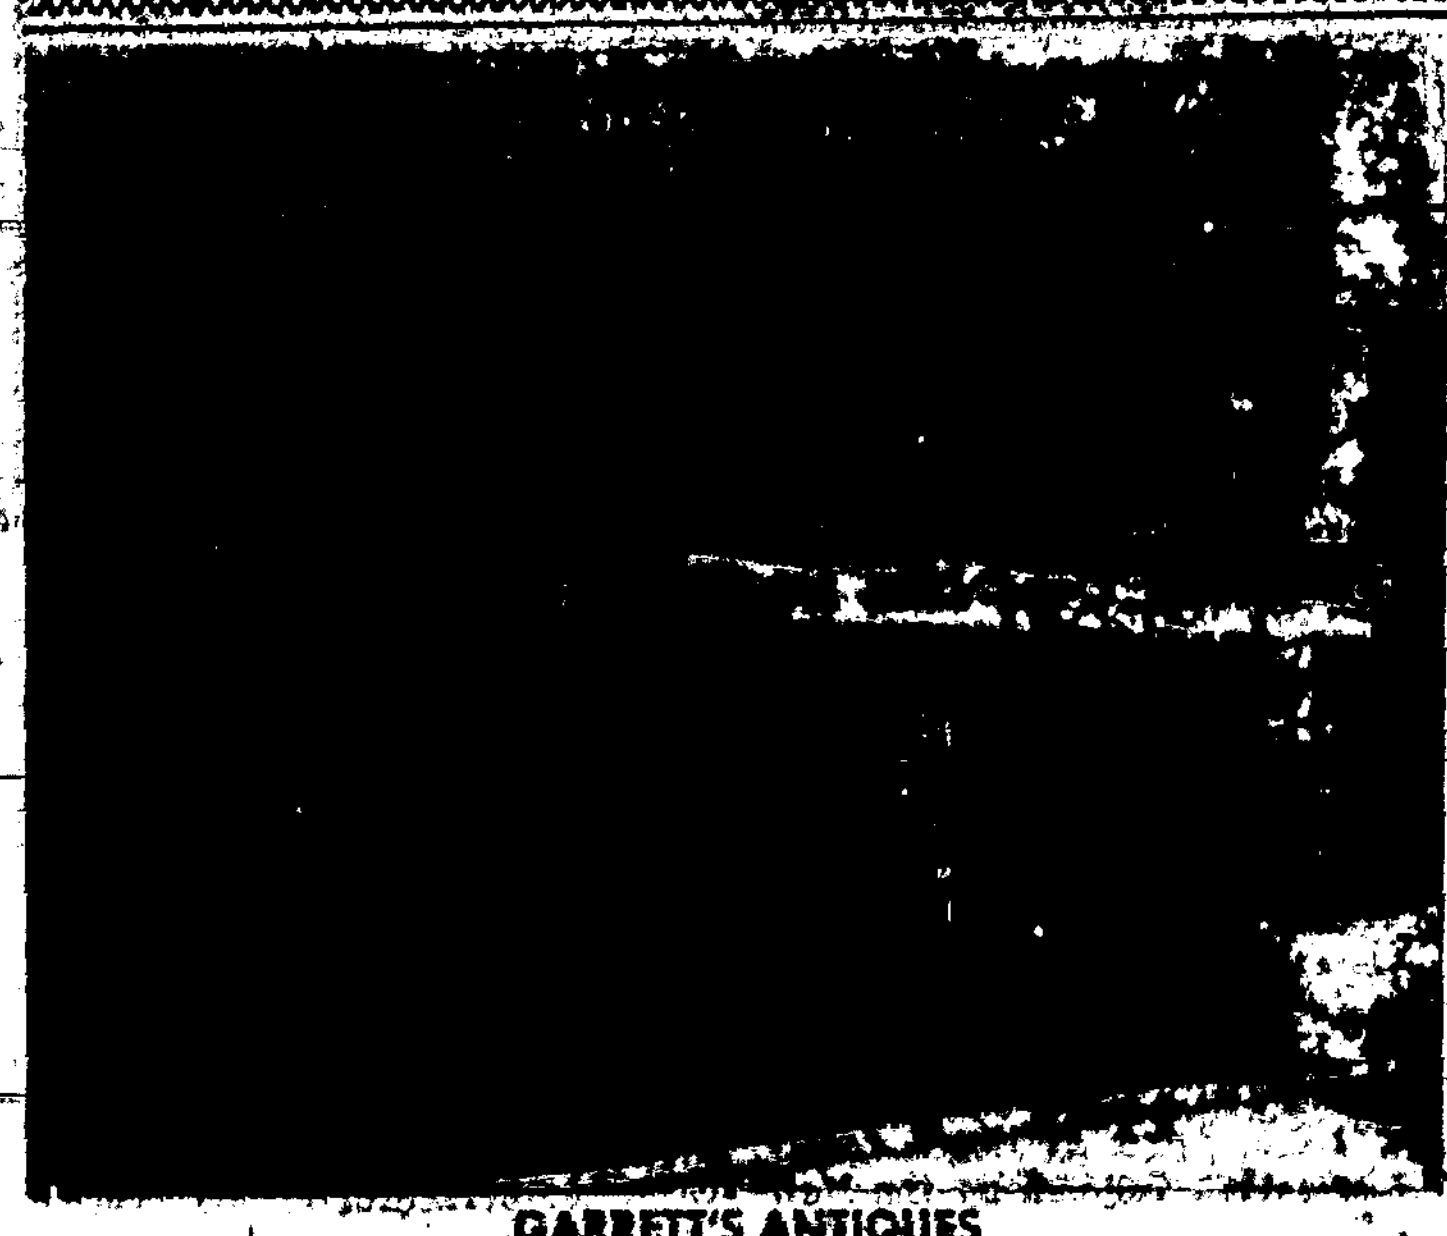

More exceptional racing programs are on tap this week-end, with an anticipated five trials for the rich Ruidoso Rainbow Derby and the New Mexico Thoroughbred Futurity set for Friday; the Western Livestock Journal Purse and the Texas State Network Purse, Sunday; and the race everyone's been waiting for, the $50,000 (estimated) Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity on Sunday.

DOZEN YEARS AGO. More than a dozen years ago, this photo was made of one of Ruidoso's first Aspendace parades, with high school band of that time in line of march. Picture was made at junction of Sudderth & Maghem Drives, looking east. Old Club House is at left, tinge torn down, and one of few buildings you can recognize is shown with arrow—then it was Community Public Service Co. office, now is office for Ruidoso Cable TV. Note narrow traffic paved strip on what was then Main Road renamed for John Sudderth, former highway commission chairman. Real estate sign was for Luther Bynum's realty office. Parade marched up canyon in early years, soon was directed to go down canyon as marching distance was lengthened.

Coe Family Subject of Book
The Coe family, pioneers in New Mexico and prominent in the history of the Lincoln County War, found itself in the middle of the fight during the person of Billy the Kid. Times changed, and the West became less wild, and the Coe ranch flourished. Frank Coe stocked the ranch with fine blooded beef cattle and set out an apple orchard. Then the ranch passed into Wilbur Coe's hands, and now almost 100 years later it was founded. It is one of the great fruit ranches of the Southwest.

El Paso's Carl Hertzog has designed the book coming from Knopf in November, by Wilbur Coe, telling the story of "Ranch on the Ruidoso," according to Paula Leibson, book department editor of the El Paso Times. She says the book should be a treasure to old-timers living in that area who have known the Coe family for many, many years. Wilbur Coe is the son and nephew of the brothers who staked out the ranch after coming from the East over the Santa Fe Trail.

Four Men Who Have Starred In Billy the Kid Role in Past

IN OLD LINCOLN PAGEANT—These four men have played the role of the notorious young slayer who gained world-wide fame and became a legend for his part in the Lincoln county war back in the 1870's and '80's are, above, left Tommy Taylor of Lincoln, who was in one production only recently, Johnny Thomas, who played the part for many years, and below, left, Johnny Davis who was The Kid in 1949-50, and artist Peter Hurd, who was the first Billy the Kid during New Mexico's quatercentennial observance.

back in the '30's. These men were main character in "Last Escape of Billy the Kid" pageant given first week-end in August each year at night the first day afternoon and night the second day, and which draws attendance from all over U. S. Dates for this year's pageant, with a new man in the outlaw's role—Earl Taylor, brother of Tommy, are Aug. 4-5. Many area residents play parts of the historical characters in production presented in outdoor amphitheatre.

What every car owner should know about engine service

? How does testwork benefit me, the car owner?

a. First, when testing equipment is used, by a trained mechanic, it insures you of a better repair or tune-up job. It means that you will get finer performance from your engine. Second, it means that you will usually save money on fuel consumption because the engine is more efficient. Third, it means that the job can be done faster, you avoid long waiting periods. Fourth, in most cases the job will last longer and save you coming back for repeated adjustments.

Numerous Events Scheduled in August In Area for New Mexico 'Fiesta Month'

From the Age of the Apaches to the Age of the Atom; from semi-desert country to the green and mountainous Lincoln National Forest; from the World's Championship Steer Roping Contest to the world's richest horse race; and from the United States' highest golf course to one of the world's largest underground caverns — the residents of southeastern New Mexico have a contrast of country and a wealth of western history with which to acquaint their visitors during Fiesta Month, August.

This section presents, for guests with a yen for history, remnants of the old Indian and Spanish cultures. Near Mountainair, Abo and Quarai State Monuments preserve the ruins of abandoned Indian pueblos and Spanish mission. Built in the 1600's the last two were abandoned after repeated attacks by the Apaches.

Situated in the Guadalupe Mountains, near Carlsbad, are ancient Indian burial grounds dating from the year 900. In this area, still for the finding, are Comanche and Apache arrowheads. A chat with Geronimo's descendants on the Mescalero Apache Reservation, near Ruidoso, will link history with the present.

Space age enthusiasts will find their visit to White Sands Missile Range and Holloman Air Base enlightening. This area, in 1945, was the location for the first atomic explosion. Today, research on modern warfare is being continued. Another space age first is the Abo Underground School and Fallout Shelter, located in Artesia.

For guests wishing wild Western excitement, the turbulent days of William Bonney, alias Billy the Kid, are recaptured with a visit to Lincoln, from whose courthouse he made his famous escape in 1881.

The first week-end in August, the citizens of Lincoln stage the annual presentation of "The Last Escape of Billy the Kid." Their courthouse, rich in western lore, has been restored and converted into a state museum devoted to frontier history. In 1968, cowboys and their horses are still an integral part of New Mexico.

The World's Championship Steer Roping Contest will be held during August in Clovis, the Cattle Capital of the Southwest. Visitors will want to test their branding IQ by identifying cattle brands displayed on the door of the Eddy County Courthouse in Carlsbad. They may wish to watch the branding themselves at one of the large cattle ranches prevalent in this country.

For those with only an eye for the horses, Ruidoso Downs Track will be their destination. Not only does it offer week-end quarterhorse and thoroughbred racing, but also, on Labor Day, the $600,000 All-American Futurity, the world's richest race.

No visitor can forget the majestic beauty of the Carlsbad Caverns National Park. Situated in the rugged foothills of the Guadalupe Mountains, these caverns are estimated to be over three million years old. While its visitors enjoy the lunch served 750 feet underground, they may marvel at the multi-colored columns formed by the stalactites and stalagmites or simply become absorbed in the archeological aspect of the caverns.

The panoramic view from the 12,000 foot peak of White Mountain, the interesting lava formations in the Valley of the Fires State Park, the ever changing gypsum dunes of White Sands National Monument will more than fulfill the visitor's desire for the unusual.

Certain to delight the youngsters will be a visit to Captain, "The Home of Smokey the Bear," and the golfer will surely take the opportunity to play nine holes on the highest golf course in the United States, in Cloudcroft. There are two golf courses in operation in Ruidoso, too.

For art collectors and admirers, a visit to San Patricio, the home of the famous artist Peter Hurd and his wife, Henriette Wyeth, as well as to the museums and art centers in Roswell and Carlsbad will further acquaint your guests with the unique works of the Spanish, Indian and contemporary artists of New Mexico. There are art galleries in Ruidoso, too.

For the fishermen, campers, picnickers and hikers, there is a never-ending supply of lakes and streams, camp sites, picnic facilities and rugged mountainous country. McKittrick Canyon, near Carlsbad, is a challenge to hikers, a delight to camera fans, and a paradise for fishermen. Nearby Guadalupe and Sacramento Mountains offer choice camping sites. Near Alamogordo is Lincoln National Forest, whose 1,200,000 acres can fulfill the wish of any nature enthusiast. Also beckoning to the outdoorsmen are Alamogordo State Park, north of Fort Sumner; the Pecos River flowing through Carlsbad and Roswell; Twin Lakes, near Lovington; Blue Hole, near Santa Rosa; Conchas Lake State Park, the Bottomless Lakes State Park northwest of Tucumcari; Bitter Lake National Wildlife Refuge and To make the stay complete, com-

County Agent's Report

— BY —
RALPH DUNLAP

Selling calves was discussed at the livestock meeting July 13 in Corona.

Each one of the panel members discussed their operation as it relates to marketing.

Bill Dinwiddie told the services available for pooling calves for sale through their marketing organization. They help find buyers for the calves. They charge $1.00 per head plus a membership fee for selling costs. They are in their second year of operation and sold 4,500 calves last year mainly to out of state buyers.

Walt Wilson, New Mexico director for producer marketing association, described the producers' marketing procedures. In selling they will take consignments charging 25c per hundred weight or they will try to sell for the growers. They prefer to deal with large groups or a pool of calves.

Ernest McDaniel described the operation in the Glencoe calf pool. They have been selling as a group for 15 years with each seller having the option to sell or keep his calves when a price is agreed upon. Now for a long feeding period as they have no dues membership requirement. Their big saving was trucking cost and lower shrink. They all deliver at the same day and place.

V. R. Barnett, custom feeder in the Pecos Valley, said that a feeder must be comparative to stay in business. The custom feeder is concerned with buying feeding and selling the cattle. Grain costs from 16 to 19 cents per pound on steer calves and from 17 to 22 cents on steer yearlings. The gain on heifers will be 1.5 cents per pound more than steers.

Animals on a growing ration gain about 1.75 pounds per day. Cattle cannot be kept on a high grain ration.

He would like to have cattle come into the feed lot knowing how to eat out of a trough and drink out of a tub.

Dr. Bob Bond said that the Food and Drug Administration proposes to stop the use of penicillin, streptomycin, aureomycin and chloromycin on all meat animals. The protest period was extended to Aug. 9th. The regulations are based on the antibiotics can be harmful to individuals. There is no information on how cooking, freezing and storage affect the antibiotics.

There are five major packers located within 30 miles of Corona and they use about 26,000 head a week. This is a big potential market that could help the cattle growers in the area.

The meeting adjourned with the 35 people present feeling that calves in the area could be pooled to the benefit of everyone concerned.
