Car Accident Claims Life of John K. Ball, 17

Word has been received here of the death of John Kirk Ball, 17, former Ruidosoan, who died at 1 p.m. this Thursday morning in a Childress, Texas, hospital, as the result of injuries sustained in a head-on accident.

Ball was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Ball of Monte Vista, Colo., who resided in Ruidoso from 1954 until January of 1963 during which time Mr. Ball was administrator of the Ruidoso hospital.

The youth reportedly was returning to his home in Childress from a rural community late Wednesday night when a rear tire blew out, causing him to lose control. He was thrown clear of the vehicle as it flipped over twice and burst into flames.

Funeral services will be held at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the First United Methodist Church at Childress, with Dr. J. E. Shewbert officiating. Burial will be in the Childress Cemetery.

Young Ball had graduated this spring from the Childress High School with honors, and had received a scholarship to attend a Texas university. His parents had been in Childress to attend his graduation and had just returned to their Colorado home three days ago.

Gov. Cargo Visits, Addresses R E A

Ruidoso hosted the state's top dignitary today (Thursday) as Gov. David Cargo spent several hours visiting with local constituents and addressing the annual meeting of the New Mexico Rural Electrification Cooperative Association, in progress at The Chaparral Motel.

Reminder Issued On Curfew Law

A reminder that the Village of Ruidoso has a curfew law effecting minors under the age of 18 years was issued today by Police Chief O. S. Montes.

Chief Montes said although the law had been in effect since its passage in July of last year, newcomers to the area and especially families now arriving to spend the summer months probably are unaware of the restrictions.

With the seasonal influx of residents and upswing in activities, the chief noted the necessity for more strict enforcement of the curfew, and asked that parents keep the rulings in mind.

The curfew goes into effect each night at 10 p.m. Sundays through Thursdays, and at midnight on Fridays and Saturdays of each week. Minors found on the public streets or in a public place, unaccompanied by a parent or guardian, after these hours may be apprehended and taken into custody.

The regulation places the responsibility upon the parent or guardian for any infraction of the curfew. It further exempts any minor in public after curfew if he is on an errand of necessity, attending religious services or any legitimate show or athletic event.

As specified by the regulation, the taking into custody of a minor found in violation of the curfew is not termed an arrest. The parent or guardian will be notified at the earliest possible time, and only in event such notification cannot be made within a reasonable period will the minor be remanded to the custody of the juvenile authorities.

The regulation further stipulates that the parent or guardian of a minor violating the curfew shall be deemed as the guilty party, and held accountable for the actions of the minor.

Chief Montes asked for the cooperation of parents in making sure their children observe the curfew regulations.

The regulation further stipulates that the parent or guardian of a minor violating the curfew shall be deemed as the guilty party, and held accountable for the actions of the minor.

SEARCH AND RESCUE—

Jeep Club 'On The Ready'

What first began as an organization formed just for fun has matured into much more than that. Its members now are on constant call for search and rescue operations, and numerous are the persons who, in recent years, can credit their lives to the efforts of this group of volunteers.

For members of the White Mountain Jeep Club, it's their way of channeling their special knowledge of this area and their years of experience into a well-organized effort to aid their fellowmen. They serve without pay, using their own vehicles and two-way radios.

Working always under official direction, members respond immediately to the many diversified emergencies which can and do arise in an area such as this. Local persons account for many of the club's operations. Forest or grass fires also will find them on duty, relaying crucial messages via their radios. Sometimes they serve as "good-will" helpers, as at the recent Also Hospitality Day when they furnished transportation for visitors.

The club currently has 14 vehicles "on the ready", and this number will be increased when vehicles now on order arrive. All are of the 4-wheel drive variety which can take the rough trails and steep inclines with ease.

Typical of the alerts which members can expect was flashed recently after a 3-year-old girl, vacationing here with her family, wandered away from an older brother as both were playing along the banks of the Ruidoso River in the Upper Canyon just beyond the first bridge. Among members responding was Herb Brunell, who was able to locate Bonnie and return her to most appreciative parents.

Club members have their own radio band for communications and are quick to point out that the system is used only for the serious business of search and rescue. "There's no tying up the radios with horseplay", a member declared. "We know that in an emergency."

Roundup on the field will be Vernon J. Moran, Trusty Malden, Pete Drypschitz announced past time for the first race Friday will be 1 p.m. instead of 1:30 p.m.

Searchers Find Four Lost Boys

Four youths from Texas, here for a brief outing, were located just before dark Wednesday night after a several-hour search by local peace officers and members of the White Mountain Jeep Club.

The boys, ranging in age from 15 to 18, were among 11 from the Marble Lodge Foundation of Hudda, Texas, vacationing at a cabin in the Upper Canyon near Whispering Pines to company with two adults. They became separated from their group while on a walking trip up Perk Canyon.

The younger of the four was located by Don Stark and Police Chief Montes some three miles up Brady Canyon about 7:30 p.m. The other three, who apparently became confused as to directions, were picked up by a passing motorist on a gravel road in Cedar Canyon, and brought into Ruidoso.

Search Continues For Dog Killers

Fear-stricken and aroused residents of a Ruidoso Downs trailer park are continuing their vigil in hopes of finding clues to the person or persons who is believed to have poisoned at least a dozen dogs, all belonging to families in the park, last Friday night.

All of the animals were found on or near their owner's property in the park, located immediately east of the race track. Poisoned meat was believed to be the cause of the dogs' deaths.

Meanwhile, R. E. Stoops, village marshal at Ruidoso Downs, said he was investigating the incidents, but admitted it would be difficult to track down the responsible parties.

Another resident, Mrs. Gayle Miller, remarked, "You should have seen the pitiful expression of the faces of those kids, and heard their crying as they watched the men load up their pets, one by one, into the back of a pick-up truck. It was whatever contained the poison."

GALLERY III PRESENTS . . .

Stoneware by William Merchant

High above the heat and bustle of Tucson, Ariz., a long, lanky young man watches the fiery blaze of his kiln against the outline of dark mountain brush.

And in the morning young Bill Merchant rises to unload the pottery that he has turned on the potter's wheel the day before. There may be an oven full of small weed pots or there may be three exquisitely sculptured centerpieces.

After the one-of-a-kind pieces have cooled it is time to glaze. The glazes Bill uses sometimes look like the frosting on a winter's hill and sometimes they evoke the feelings of iridescent coolness of mountain evenings. He glazes in the blue, rust, green, rose and yellow tones that surround his southwestern homeland.

The young artist's father is his business manager, assistant, and promoter.

The beautifully turned, glazed pottery ranges in price from $4 for a lantern to $70 for an 18 or 20-inch sculptured vase.

Other prices are:

- AMTRAYS, $4 — PITCHERS, $14 — TEAPOTS, $10
- BOWLS, $15 — CENTERPIECES, $32 — VASES, $14
- WEEDPOTS, $6

YOU MAY BE NEXT!

Apologists for rising civil disorder in the United States like to remind us that an infinitesimal percentage of the overall population is involved in any form of lawbreaking. No one should be fooled by this sort of look-the-other-way reassurance.

According to late FBI reports, "Serious crime in the United States increased 17 per cent in 1968 when compared with 1967." Further, FBI Director Hoover reports that in 1968, "Crimes of violence were up 19 per cent, led by robbery up 29 per cent, murder and forcible rape up 14 per cent each, and aggravated assault up 12 per cent. The chances are growing from month to month and year to year that your number will come up and your person or your property will fall prey to the criminal who respects neither."

HAIL TO SUMMER!

Every season of the year has its special features—blossoms in spring, autumn colors in fall, the magic of Jack Frost in winter and the azure skies of summer. However, summer, which begins its tour of the Northern Hemisphere on June 21, also features the full blooming of our national curse—the litterbug. And this year, as on each succeeding year, there will be more evidence of this blight than ever before.

Those who value and respect natural beauty can't but watch in helpless outrage as the veritable scum of the human race strikes swiftly and usually unseen—throwing beer cans and pop bottles from speeding cars or vanishing without a trace from bagged dumpgrounds and picnic sites. Often this creature we have dubbed the litterbug passes unobserved in the night, leaving in his wake whole boxes of garbage, as well as cases of cans and bottles. Laws are becoming increasingly stringent but to little avail. What is threat of a $500 fine to those despoilers of the countryside that no law can catch, except in the rare instances when their brassiness overcomes their natural cunning.

The scourge of the litterbugs will get worse each summer, judging by recent estimates that put the production of 12-ounce cans by 1982 at a possible 900 million gross. Since a gross is 12 dozen, it is not hard to figure out what the landscape will look like in the summer of, say 1985, if litterbugging continues unchecked.

BENTON, MO., DEMOCRAT: "No wonder it's so hard to attain peace and understanding in the world. There are more than 700 million adults who can neither read nor write. Think of it! One third of the world's population is still illiterate!"

Opinion Voiced by Ruidosoan

(Editor's Note: Due to the nature of the topic, its interest to Ruidosoans, and the exhaustive research expended by the writer, The News is relaxing its policy of limiting the length of Letters to the Editor in this instance.)

The Editor, Ruidoso News, Ruidoso, New Mexico

Dear Mrs. Snyder: Help!

Personally, I believe in zoning for Ruidoso (and in fact for all of Lincoln County)—but am skeptical of the 70 page proposal for Ruidoso coming up for a hearing on the evening of Wednesday, June 18. (It's embarrassingly like wanting a doctor for someone, and then being afraid that the immediately available doctor may be some sort of a nut! That the treatment may be worse than the condition!)

Hopefully, some other citizens, and with more extensive Ruidoso background than mine, will get to the Village Offices before June 18 and study the proposed ordinance. A few copies are available there for study there. If there are some serious questions that night, the matter may merit more than a quick yes or no then by the city fathers. Public communication and reaction and ideas take time.

A chief architect of the present proposal is Ray Chambers of Chambers & Campbell, Albuquerque planning consultants. On March 14, 1969 here he rather proudly said that yes, "The State Planning Office thinks I'm nuts."

After studying his proposed zoning ordinance—getting pretty bewildered by it, over several months—either the State Planning Office is right, or they can substitute the understated, for Chambers!

The proposed ordinance seems not to be really zoning, or with any sort of certainty. Rather the local authorities of the then moment will decide on many things, from time to time in the future, as requests to build come up from property owners! This approach is a philosophy of government that should be thoroughly considered by Ruidoso. It is far more than a question of nipping at some details in the proposed ordinance (although there may be some debatable details).

This technique of uncertainty as to what a property owner can do is sometimes called the "floating zone" approach. Like "spot zoning"—it sometimes leads to court decisions of unconstitutionality for lack of a comprehensive plan, for lack of uniformity, for lack of due process.

Until a short time ago, no zoning map was contemplated for the proposed zoning, no division of Ruidoso into districts so "you could tell what zone you were in!"

Now, a map (?) is enclosed with the ordinance copies, at the back thereof, and is referred to on Page 10, B, of the proposal. However, this map does not divide the Village into the 5 districts spoken of in the immediately preceding paragraph on Page 10! Instead it shows 3 districts: 1) Sudderth Drive and the Gateway Area, and a little of Mechem Drive, as a "General Commercial" ribbon; 2) three small areas on the Upper Canyon, 1 small area off Sudderth, and 1 narrow strip along center Mechem, as "Planned Development Comm"; 3) The rest and by far the larger part of Ruidoso as "Planned Development".

All of which means (as best I can understand the 70 page ordinance) that "Planned Development" for residential, commercial or industrial use, can go anywhere, anytime someone conceives the then city fathers' (see pp. 24, 25). For such programs there needs to be at least 1 1/2 acres (maybe at least 3 acres, there is some contradiction, see pp. 24, 26 and 34) for residential and commercial use, and at least 5 acres for industrial use.

Not only can the intrusion of commercial or industrial use be had anywhere, but what can be erected is "flexible", and with only general criteria, see pp. 24 and 25, and the recent remarks of Ronald Chaplin of the Chambers office, who mentioned "... liberal flexibility for ... developers ... and imaginative development ..."

Query—where is the individual lot owner supposed to go, what is he supposed to do, if he has less than 1 1/2 or 3 acres, and just inflexibly wants to build an unimaginative house or store, and not be forced to sell out to a "Planned Development" project?

Another major matter is that in most zoning ordinances, the handling of non-conforming uses—building or land uses that antedate zoning—can be helpful in upgrading some areas. Some non-conforming uses are almost inevitable, in any true zoning of developed areas.

There is said to be nothing non-conforming under the present proposal, according to Ronald Chaplin, recently! (Which seems an odd kind of zoning—maybe an attempt to forestall objections?) I see no specific disclaimer to this effect in the 70 pages. However, it is seen (pg. 42) that any structural alteration of existing buildings will put them under the necessity of furnishing off-street parking in full compliance with the proposed ordinance. Stores up and down Sudderth Drive take note, and beware of doing anything to prolong the life of the supporting parts of your building, including painting porch posts (see pg. 8 for a "structural alterations" definition). Actually, not only stores, but any type of building, anywhere, including residences, are covered by this particular "non-conforming use" catch-up requirement! As I read it.

Another major question is that Ruidoso may be a place of all places where many "home and business" operations exist, and are desirable, and should be encouraged for the future.

But here, our "rather unique" proposal (per Chaplin) does not depart drastically from the standard rigid ordinance of the past three decades (despite Chaplin to the contrary) but instead reverts to what may truly be a major flaw in many old zoning ordinances—it copies their stereotyped discouragements of the "home and business" way of life. In fact, it may discourage it in some respects even more in existing properties than it does in future "Planned Development"!

(Compare the home occupation definition on pg. 5, allowing no "outside help", with the Planned Development Residential provisions, pg. 27, which allows 3 outside employees. But the occupations, and scope allowed, are frustratingly uncertain.)

A major question as to readability and having to jump back and forth, is having some 12 pages of "Supplementary Regulations" (pp. 42-53), with 7 sections thereunder. Some of these sections, such as Parking Requirements, necessitate cross referencing from one part of the proposed ordinance to another. Under the "Supplementary Regulations" there is a section as to "Special Signs", but also scattered

Letter to the Editor

Thanks Extended ...

Editor: First we want to extend to you our best wishes for your success and at the same time a great deal of gratification as the new owner and editor of the Ruidoso News. You have a fine crew to work with, especially Elsie Williams and Harry Eckert, whom we have known for many years.

In the last issue there were two short thank you notes from Dutch Cunningham and from the Cunningham family. I thought this was most unusual. However, having known the Cunningham family from the time they first moved to Ruidoso and having been associated with them in many different capacities, including the schools, business, church and other categories, I cannot help but send a note of appreciation of them and glad to bear the expense. In the opinion of many people, the Cunninghams—Dutch, Heavy and Sidna—have been a tremendous asset, always living and working with integrity and the sincere desire to help other people and to be good friends and citizens to all people as they have gone about their daily responsibilities. In short, we want to say: "THANK YOU, DUTCH AND HEAVY, FOR HAVING BEEN A FINE EXAMPLE OF CITIZENSHIP IN HELPING TO BUILD A BETTER COMMUNITY AND FOR BEING A LOYAL FRIEND TO THOSE WHO NEEDED A FRIEND IN TIME OF NEED!"

We would like to have this go into your paper and you may bill us for whatever the expense might be. We are still subscribers to the Ruidoso News, even though we have been away from Ruidoso since 1960. Also, you have our permission to edit this in any manner that you see fit.

Thank you.
/s/ J. Emmett Reese and Sally Reese

(Ed. Note: No charge, friends, for this fine testimonial to such deserving people.)

Expresses Thanks ...

Editor: Thank you for your invaluable help to our band fund. With the help of people like you we will be able to buy our new uniforms this fall. Thank you again.

Mechem Backed For Court Post

New Mexico Congressman Ed Foreman has contacted some fifty Congressmen, Senators and other officials seeking support for the appointment of former New Mexico Governor and U. S. Senator Ed Mechem of Las Cruces to the United States Supreme Court.

Foreman met this week, for the second time, with President Nixon to recommend consideration of the native New Mexican. Mechem served as Nixon's State Campaign Chairman during the 1968 elections.

In a letter to the President, Foreman noted that Mechem is the only individual ever elected to four terms as Governor of New Mexico. Foreman also pointed out to the President that the Las Cruces attorney, whom he described as "... One of the best loved and most respected citizens of the Southwestern United States", ... served as Chairman of the Western States Governor's Conference.

In his letter to the President, Foreman stated, "I believe you'll agree that Ed Mechem has all the qualifications: health, youth, knowledge, ability, experience, temperance, integrity and sterling, impeccable reputation ... to be one of the finest Justices ever to serve as a member of the United States Supreme Court."

Asked if he thought Mechem would accept an appointment by the President, Foreman said, "Ed Mechem is an honorable, dedicated gentleman who would not turn down a request of the President to serve his country in these trying times."

Sen. Montoya Urges Expansion of Food Assistance Plans

In testimony May 23 before the United States Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry, Senator Joseph M. Montoya (D. - U. M.) spoke strongly of the need to expand and extend the Food Stamp Commodity Distribution Programs.

Poppy Day Sale Termed Successful

Poppy Day conducted in Ruidoso was said to be an outstanding success, with an estimated 850 of the bright red symbols being purchased.

Mrs. Robin Byrd, Poppy Day chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, said she was "well pleased" with the fine acceptance given the annual project, and expressed the appreciation of the Auxiliary for the excellent support received.

Eight volunteer workers sold the poppies in downtown Ruidoso Saturday. They included Mrs. W. L. Bake, Mrs. Ed Lane, Mrs. Ruth Turner, Mrs. A. F. Hart, Mrs. Don Stark, Ernest Hulse, M. and Mr. Byrd.

Poppy Day Sale Termed Successful

"There is hunger in New Mexico," Montoya told the members of the Senate Committee, "just as there is hunger throughout this rich nation of ours." And in New Mexico, Montoya noted, the problems of hunger and malnutrition are far more serious—and much more prevalent—than the national average.

"According to the accepted Federal definition of 'poor,' Montoya pointed out, 'the number of families in New Mexico living in poverty is nearly twice the national average. And the situation in the more economically depressed counties is far more serious than this comparison would suggest.'"

Montoya said he intends to continue in his efforts to improve the Food Stamp and Commodity Distribution Programs. "I have introduced two bills which would strengthen these important programs. It is absolutely necessary that the needy individual who live in this affluent nation receive adequate nutrition."

Committee Named To Review Request For Road Closing

A three-man committee was appointed Tuesday by the county commissioners' court to review the request of a Corona rancher to close to the public an estimated 15 miles of county road.

Named to the committee were Rand Perkins, Smith Peters and Carl Hiner, all of the Corona area. They are to report back at the July 8 meeting of the commissioners with a recommendation.

James Woods has requested that parts of County Road 60 and 61 and all of CD 67, traversing ranch land which he owns, be closed to the public and that he assume responsibility for maintenance of the road. Part of the road involved currently is used for school bus routes.

In other action the commissioners acted on the recommendation of the Extension Service that Mrs. Mary Ellen Payne, Carrizozo, be employed as Lincoln County Home Demonstration Extension Agent, to begin duties as of July 1. Mrs. Payne is a graduate of the University of Missouri with a B. S. degree in home economics. The position has been vacant since 1962. The county will assume one-third of the salary and office expense, with the remainder to be funded from state and federal sources. Mrs. Payne's office will be located in the annex to the courthouse in Carrizozo.

Marvin Craig of Ruidoso was appointed as civil defense director for the county, and a low bid from Deason, Crocker, Singleton and Peters, Roswell, auditing firm, was accepted to audit the county funds for the fiscal 1968-69 year, including the Lincoln County Hospital in Carrizozo.

STAFF SHORTAGE CRITICAL

Empty Beds at Fort Stanton

Forty beds stand empty at Fort Stanton Hospital—but a critical shortage of staff makes it impossible to admit patients who are on the waiting list.

Rebecca Manning, administrator, Tuesday said efforts so far have proved futile to find the necessary 10 staff members required before a newly remodeled wing of the hospital can be opened.

"We've run out of available housing," Manning said, "and we've simply exhausted the labor market around here. If we had places for people to live, we could go outside the immediate area for employees, but at the present time we're pretty well stymied."

The administrator said the hospital, a state facility for the mentally retarded, has a long waiting list of patients. "Some are desperately in need of the help and care we can give them, and it's very difficult to try to explain to families that we simply cannot accept their loved ones because we haven't the staff to care for them."

Manning, however, isn't just sitting around waiting for something providential to solve the problem.

Under consideration is the remodeling of an existing building for housing, but funds are short. There's also the possibility that room can be made for a few additional house trailers.

The administrator also has been in contact with the Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation in his search for possible employees.

"I'm hopeful that something will develop with either of both agencies in the near future," Manning reports. "Our work here is well within the ability of some handicapped persons. We could help the DVR provide gainful employment for some of their people, and they in turn would be helping us to solve our personnel shortage."

The Fort Stanton Hospital has been in operation as a facility for the care of the mental retarded since April of 1960. Prior to that time, it was devoted to treatment of tubercular patients. Five wings or "cottages" are in full operation, with a two-story building recently being remodeled to expand facilities. The second story now is under construction but the main floor with its empty beds remains closed.

Staff members desiring to serve as attendants, nursing aides or use the term "house parents" must qualify under the state Personnel Board examination. "But," he hastens to add, "it's not a difficult task to qualify for the rating of an attendant."

At the present time, the hospital has 196 patients, with varying degrees of retardation, and ranging in age from eight to 58 years. Thirty families are employed and living on the grounds. Because of the location and nature of the work, it's almost necessary that staff members reside at the hospital.

Sen. Anderson Co-Sponsors Bill For Extended Indian State Aid

New Mexico and Arizona—the only states receiving additional Federal reimbursement for public assistance payments to Indians—would be joined by other states under legislation introduced.

Senator Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., who is co-sponsoring the proposal with Senator Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., also helped to pass the Navajo-Hopi Rehabilitation Act under which the two states presently qualify.

The Metcalf amendment, Anderson said, deals with a basic question never answered under the 1955 Social Security Act.

"It is whether Indians living on reservations under Federal jurisdiction are the major responsibility of the state or the Federal Government," the Senator said.

The Navajo-Hopi Act, according to Anderson, responds in a limited sense to this problem. Section 9 of the law provides for the Federal Government to contribute 80 percent of state costs in behalf of the Navajo-Hopi, in addition to other Federal matching funds.

New Mexico could expect an additional half a million dollars under the bill, which also extends coverage of Medicaid and other Social Security programs enacted since 1950. This extra reimbursement would include the Pueblo Indians, who could qualify under the amended bill.

"It does not seem fair to provide this additional benefit to only two states, although at the time it was proper for Congress to act as it did," Anderson said. He referred to the refusal of New Mexico and Arizona welfare departments in 1947 to pay these costs for Navajo Reservation Indians.

"It was a critical situation because both states faced severe financial limitations," the Senator said. "Now other states are having similar problems because of large Indian populations which pay no state tax."

Housing remains the acute problem, if the new wing is to open. Manning is working on it. Dave Parks, representing Dan

Centennial News

An important event on the Lincoln County Centennial calendar was the Fiesta to honor St. Rita which was held at the parish in Carrizozo Saturday and Sunday, May 24-25.

Father Kevin Moynahan and parishioners planned an interesting program of events starting with vesper services at 6 p.m. Saturday for crowning of the fiesta queen. Candidates were Margaret Monreal, Elizabeth Ortiz, Rosalie Fortillo and Yolanda Hernandez. There was a benediction and adoration after the crowning ceremony.

A queen's march opened the fiesta ball at the Nike, led by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vega. Music was by the Knights from Alamogordo. The queen and her court reigned at the dance.

Sunday activities started with a fiesta high mass at 11:00 a.m. in Saint Rita Church. A Mexican dinner was served in the parish hall at 2:00 noon followed by games for children, refreshments and entertainment and a bazaar held outside the hall.

The most famous dancing group of southern New Mexico was a special attraction at the St. Rita Fiesta. This group, known as the Hondo Fiesta Dancers, and trained by Mr. and Mrs. Fermín Montes, performed at 8 p.m. in front of the parish hall.

The popularity of the Hondo Fiesta Dancers has grown each year since their first fiesta was presented in 1948 and the group receives more invitations for out-of-town performances than it can accept each year.

The tempos are lively and the costumes colorful. Many of the dances performed Sunday were brought back from Old Mexico by Mr. and Mrs. Montes and were new to this area.

The dancers are all Hondo school students and include: Becky Monreal, Lyora Gomez, Vicki McTelgue, Betty Jo Maes, Cathy Sanchez, Patricia Montes, Lynda Fresquez, Christina Pacheco, Maria Torres, Helen Fresquez, Virginia Sedillo, Patsy Abeyta, Lucy Herrera, Jo Ann Villegas, Carol Cooper; Filbert Sanchez, Michael Kimbrell, Ellie Gutierrez, Fernando Gonzalez, Ernie Sanchez, Pepe Chavez, Danny Salas, Donald McTelgue, Pressy Torres, Mohroy Montes, Simon Polaco, Freddie Herrera, James Sanchez, William Kimbrell and Sisto Sedillo.

Lt. Gov. and Mrs. E. Lee Francis were present at the dedication program for White Oaks Cemetery Friday as an historic site.

The program, held at the cemetery, was a project of the Carrizozo Woman's Club and Clara Snow as chairman.

Truman Spencer, Jr., grandson of New Mexico's first governor, was master of ceremonies. Lincoln County American Legion units furnished the color guard and raised the flag.

The Carrizozo band, under direction of Arnold Boyce, played "America the Beautiful" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic". Introduction of honored guests was by Mr. Spencer.

Following the address by Lt. Gov. Francis, "Flanders Field" was recited by a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

A short history of the cemetery was given under direction of W. T. "Bill" Keelin of Corona, a member of the Knights of Pythians since the early 40's. Grand Councillor John-John and Loyal F. Craig of Belen, Knights of Pythians, also participated in the program.

Roy Harmon and Clara Snow of Carrizozo and John Kell of Tucuman were called upon for remarks. At the close of the program, a reception honoring Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Francis was held in the Hoyle House with Mrs. Larrie Wetzel and the Carrizozo Woman's Club as

In 17 divisions fans will see the David, in the 14th, who might, may- very finest racing blood in the world be possibly throw a run.

Go Bug Go is the Go Man Go. F. L. Lady Bug colt that Marvin Barnes turned down $200,000 for. He ran third in a schooling race here, and will bear watching.

This racetracker broke the social barrier over the weekend, and first trial, in the opinion of this was invited to the swank Ruidoso Downs Guest House. What an electrical but the Futurity itself. This wonderfully bred son of Jet Deck —Lena's Bar comes from a stakes winning family that won't quit. Merrick, the dean of horse breeders, whose name is linked with Three Bars, Good Bird, and in the early days of Quarter Horse racing Grey Badger II, has brought forth a colt with bloodlines people dream of.

Lena's Bar, as you may recall, was one of the great mates at Ruidoso Downs in her day. She was there for part of it when the great stakes were run. Although Walter bred both Easter Rose and Lena's Bar it was just a slip of the coin to see who could outrun when they were in the same race. Dub Phillips later acquired Easter Rose and, incidentally, two of her offspring will go in the Kansas Futurity.

I do not wish to dwell upon notes on pedigrees, but only to point out the merits of this colt. I think he will also make a great sire upon retirement from racing. He has already won $75,000 and if he runs last he's still a good horse.

Hospital Needs 16 Staff Members

SANTA FE—At Fort Stanton Hospital in Lincoln County there are 40 empty beds and no employees to staff them. Beds are in a newly remodeled wing of the hospital, a state facility for mentally retarded. Beds are ready and patients are available, but the hospital cannot fill the 16 staff members needed to manage the wing. Roscoe Manning, Fort Stanton administrator, says: "We have simply exhausted the labor market around here. There aren't any people available to fill the positions." The hospital has 193 patients with varying degrees of retardation.

Printing Industry of New Mexico, Inc., will sponsor a statewide seminar July 11-12 at Ruidoso. "Get ready to Change: An Industry Ultimatum" was the program topic, at the group's meeting in Albuquerque.

Ruidoso Downs voters were set to vote Tuesday on a $140,000 general obligation bond issue to fund a sewage disposal system. Currently Ruidoso Downs residents use septic tanks for sewage disposal. The State Health Department is in the process of inspecting facilities.

Chairman Wendell Chino of Mesquite Apache Tribe quit as chairman of the New Mexico Commission on Indian Affairs after Gov. David M. Cargo replaced him on the State Judicial Standards Commission.

Chino had criticized Cargo's role as a cavalry colonel attacking Apaches in a movie, "King Oun," filmed in Santa Fe County. Cargo, a Republican, replaced Chino with Santa Clara Governor Juan Chavarría on the Judicial Standards Commission. When Chino resigned as Indian Affairs Commission chairman, Cargo named Preston Keevama, a Hopi but a San Juan Pueblo resident and ex-San Juan governor, to succeed him. Keevama is a long-time active Republican. Cargo charged Chino campaigned for his Democratic opponent, Fabian Chavez of Santa Fe, in the 1968 general election.

Special Session Expected To Call Liquor Election

County commissioners are expected to meet in a special session later this month to formulate plans for calling a county-wide election on general dispenser sales of liquor on Sundays.

New liquor laws passed by the state go into effect June 20, making Sunday sales possible if approved by county vote. Commissioners earlier had been petitioned by a Ruidoso delegation to call such an election.

Commissioners, meeting Tuesday, were advised by Bill Payne, assistant district attorney for Lincoln County, that information from the state attorney general's office indicated no official action could be taken regarding an election until after the June 20 date.

With the next regular meeting of the commissioners not scheduled until July 8, it is probable that a session will be called for soon after June 20 to arrange for an election. Don Stark, chairman of the commissioners' court, said today.

If the proposal is approved by the voters, Sunday sales of liquor would be allowed in Lincoln County from 12 noon until 11 p.m. These sales would be by the drink only for consumption on the licensed dispenser's premises.

Another law also effective June 20 will allow Sunday liquor sales at New Mexico horse racing tracks, including Ruidoso Downs, during the track season, also between the hours of 12 noon and 11 p.m. No election is needed for the tracks to commence sales.

The average better at New Mexico's four race tracks gets back 23 per cent of what he antes up at the pari-mutuels. As for those individuals who get back for more than that and those others who lose more—there's no law guaranteeing who will pick the winners.

Many fascinating facts are disclosed in "The Sport of Kings Under the Sun" in New Mexico Magazine's annual vacation edition, now on the newsstands.

Leader Joe Skeen, R-Plecho, is a prospect for governor in 1970. Skeen represents Lincoln and Otero Counties. House Minority Leader Stephen Hedberg, R-Roswell, is also a GOP governor primary possibility. Both are conservatives and both have registered good records in Santa Fe. Hedberg has been in the House since 1965 and Skeen, a sheep rancher, in the Senate since 1961. Both are subject to re-election next year. It is unlikely they would oppose each other for governor.

In the Democratic column the likeliest prospects are Speaker David Norvell, Clovis attorney; ex-Speaker Bruce King, Santa Fe County rancher, and Rep. Jack Daniels, Hobbs businessman.

Gov. Cargo held a long, closed session with legislative leaders in Santa Fe on the state's Medicaid issue. Among legislators on hand were Norvell, House Appropriations Finance Chairman John J. McElahod, D-Clovis; Senate Finance Chairman Harold Rannels, D-Lovington; House Majority Leader George Terrell, D-Alamogordo; House Minority Whip Brackford Prince, R-Albuquerque; Rep. Eugene Peirce, R-Albuquerque; Senate Minority Whip John P. Eastham, R-Albuquerque; Rep. Quentin B. Rodgers, D-Loving; Senate Majority Leader Tibo Chavez, D-Belen; Senate Majority Whip Mack Easley, D-Hobbs, and Skeen. Cargo said afterward progress was made. Rep. Marchon said little was accomplished. A delegation of legislative leaders went to Washington on the Medicaid problem. The prevailing attitude was wait and see what Congress does with pending legislation that would ease New Mexico's problem.

The Joint University Investigating Committee was told instructors and students were threatened with reprisals, even firing, if they testified before the committee. Sen. George Koran, R-Albuquerque, a committee member, and Robert Poague made the assertions. Poague is vice chairman of an Albuquerque citizens group concerned about operation of the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque. R. p. a. Peirce, Daniels and Lenton Malry, D-Albuquerque, said they believed allegations of reprisal were unfounded.

Sen. I. M. (Ike) Smalley, D-Luna-Hidalgo-Sierra, the chairman, said the committee is taking a "kid gloves" approach in the investigation so no person or institution is unjustly harmed. Sen. Smalley said: "We're not after a witch hunt but we're not going to shut off information to the committee. Free speech works both ways." At present, Sen. Smalley said, the inquiry appears to reflect smaller university system schools operate without serious problems but UNM regents may have delegated too much authority to administrators, faculty and students without reserving final decisions to themselves. Sen. Smalley said: "We will investigate, evaluate and make recommendations. We may hire an investigator to check allegations."

An ambulance service crisis arose at Santa Rosa. Rudolph Johnson, operator of the Santa Rosa ambulance service, told the State Corporation Commission he must discontinue service because he is losing money and is on call 24 hours a day. Johnson serves Guadalupe, De Baca, Quay, San Miguel and Torrance Counties. The ambulance service nearest Santa Rosa is in Tucuman at 80 miles away.

Later Anastasio Silva, operator of Mac's Wrecker Service in Santa Rosa, told Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce and city officials he would provide the ambulance service. Silva indicated he would be able to provide a partially equipped station wagon for emergency service only after Johnson's Santa Rosa Ambulance Service stopped operations. Silva planned to fly to

Chips from the Rangers Log

There have often been conflicts between grazing and other resource uses in the Multiple Use Act of 1960, Congress passed into law that your National Forest Lands will be managed for Range, Wildlife, Watershed, Timber and Recreation.

Your National Forest Range Lands contribute significantly to the economy of the State of New Mexico. In 1965 the grass value of cattle and sheep was 162.2 million.

On the Ruidoso Ranger District some 75,800 acres of suitable range land have been divided into 24 grazing allotments. There are 33 Permits, with an average permit size of 52 head of cattle, 1753 head of cattle and horses were permitted to graze in 1968 on the Ruidoso District. With continued range improvement practices and permittee co-operation the number of cattle grazed and the pounds of beef produced will increase.

On each grazing allotment on the Ruidoso District the permittee in co-operation with the Forest Service will develop a management plan. Each management plan is set up to maximize the resource utilization, while minimizing its effects on other resources. Over 250 miles of fence, 73 stock tanks, 23 developed springs, 8 wells and 3 truck tanks have been put in the National Forest with co-operation from the permittees.

Report of Plane Crash In Area Prove Unfounded

Search for a reported crashed plane in the vicinity of Apache Summit was called off at mid-afternoon Tuesday when it was determined passing motorists apparently had seen a plane dropping fire retardant.

Several reports were turned in about noon that a plane had been spotted "on fire" before it disappeared around a mountain. It was later assumed that those seeing the plane mistook the red slurry released by the plane as flames.

Two Ruidosians, Frank Potter and John Andrews, took to the air in a L-19 spotter plane from the municipal airport to search the area for about an hour, but failed to find any indication of a crash. An Alamogordo rescue plane also joined in the search.

Reports said the search was called off by the Federal Aviation Administration about mid-afternoon.

Local Forest Service personnel said a Forest Service contracted B-26 out of Alamogordo was in the Pecos Creek area making a drop of red slurry about the time of the report. The pilot, new to the area, was making a practice run on his own time and at his own expense to familiarize himself with procedure, they said.

Members of the White Mountain Jeep Club were alerted and on stand-by basis while the search was underway.

Fall Big Game Hunting Seasons Set At State Commission Meeting

A 16-day deer season in southeastern New Mexico was the major change in the state's 1969-70 big game hunting seasons and regulations as set by the State Game Commission in its May meeting held in Santa Fe.

The southeast season will be open Nov. 8 through Nov. 23, with a nine-day season in the southwest to be open Nov. 8 through Nov. 18. The regular deer season in the north will be Oct. 25 through Nov. 9.

A concurrent nine-day deer season was open in both the southern areas last year.

In addition to deer, the Commission set seasons on elk, antelope, turkey, bear, Barbary sheep and squirrel and grouse.

Deer bag limits in all three areas will be one-fork-antlered buck with the exception of the Zuni Area in the north and the Sacramento and Guadalupe where some either sex validations will be available by drawings. A total of 11 special deer seasons were set for various dates.

The general bull elk season will be Oct. 4-12, with unlimited number of licenses available. Limit will be one mature bull and the season will be open only in northern New Mexico. Seven special hunts will be held. They include the Taos, Pecos, El Vado, Roque, Southwest, Guadalupe and Tres Piedras hunts, ranging in dates from Sept. 27-Oct. 5, in the southwest to Jan. 10-18 in the Tres Piedras area.

Seven antelope seasons were set with up to 4,000 permits. Five will be 11-day hunts and there will be one two-day rifle hunt and a special two-day bow season, both in the Tres Piedras area. There will be 100 permits available for the bow hunt, to be included in the 4,000.

The bow hunt will be Aug. 30-31 in the Tres Piedras Area, the Clayton hunt Sept. 4-5; the northeast hunt Sept. 6-7, the Tres Piedras gun hunt Sept. 13-14, the southeast and northwest hunts Sept. 27-28 and the southwest hunt Oct. 11-12.

Bear season in a variety of areas around the state will vary in dates from Aug. 9 through Dec. 28. Turkey seasons will be concurrent with deer seasons in areas where turkey hunting is allowed.

Two barbary sheep seasons were set. The Honda season will be Jan. 10-Jan. 18 with up to 60 permits available and the Canadian Canyon season will be Feb. 7-15 with up to 50 permits available. The limit on the Honda hunt will be one sheep of either sex, while the limit on the Canadian hunt will be one sheep of either sex with horns at least 15 inches in length.

Grouse and squirrel seasons were set for the northeastern and southwestern parts of the state with the seasons to be open Sept. 13-21 in both areas. Limits for the northeast hunt will be three grouse per day and six per season with the exception of the Pecos watershed where the limit will be three per season. Limit in the southwest will be three per season. The squirrel limit will be five per day and 10 in possession in both areas.

The Commission also voted to change the permanent opening date for the regular deer seasons, starting with the 1970 seasons. The permanent opening dates have been the last Saturday in October in the north and the second Saturday in November in the south and will remain that way for 1969. In 1970 the permanent opening dates for the regular deer seasons will be moved back one week to the first Saturday in November in the north and the third Saturday in November in the south.

Hunter should see the 1969 big game Hunting Proclamation which will be available in early July. Season dates, regulations, open areas and application deadlines will be fully covered in the proclamation.

When found, they were following the river to their cabin.

Ed Lane, president of the Jeep Club, said a request had been made for horses to aid the search just prior to the lost boys being found, and that four horses were being readied at Sallee's Stable but were not needed.

The boys were identified as Chris Miller, Malcolm Hildman, Bruce Harrison and Roger Robinson, all of whom are residing at the Foundation which is a home for retarded children.

The call for the search was received shortly before 6 p.m. at the Ruidoso police station. Members of the Jeep Club were called into action, with 11 members joining the

The club has 38 paid members, including husbands and wives, and while there is the serious side of rescue, the original aim of "fun" is not forgotten. Socials, group trips and outings are still much a part of

A check indicates there is no local ordinance which specifically spells out a penalty for poisoning of animals. However, Joe Trull, head of the Lincoln County Humane Society, said the society could and would bring charges if sufficient evidence is secured. "And I can assure you there'll be a substantial fine if there's a conviction," he added.

WORK STARTED

Installation of four new drainage structures along Sudderth Drive got underway this week by the State Highway Department's maintenance crew of Diseno.

Work is being done in cooperation with the village of Ruidoso, which is furnishing some personnel as well as materials and equipment.

The structures are expected to alleviate the drainage problems in those areas which exist following sudden and heavy rains during the summer season.

Appreciation to the Department was voiced today by village officials for their assistance in this project.

Meanwhile, folks in the Ruidoso area rest a little bit better because they know the White Mountain Jeep Club is "on the ready."

Four Selected To Attend Ski Camps

Three junior racers and one senior racer from Ruidoso, together with two from Taos have been selected from the state of New Mexico to attend the U. S. Ski Association's National Training Camps this summer, according to Wayne Estes, Ruidoso, president of the Southwest Ski Council.

Tagged Fish Worth Money To Fishermen

Fishermen should examine closely the dorsal fins of the fish they catch from New Mexico waters this summer. There will be 50 fish swimming these waters that will have outon tags in the dorsal fins, making them worth $17 each to the lucky fishermen who catch them.

The Department of Game and Fish is cooperating with KOAT-TV, Channel 7 in Albuquerque, in this "Fish New Mexico" contest. KOAT is furnishing the tags and the prize money. The Department fisheries personnel will tag the fish in their normal stocking operations and in research projects when fish are netted and returned to the water.

Fishermen who catch fish with these tags will be able to collect their prizes by presenting or mailing the tags to KOAT with photos of their fish.

Waters which possibly receive tagged fish during the contest include the San Juan, Chama, Pecos, Cimarron, Red, Rio Grande and Jemez Rivers and Bluewater, Bonto and Ato Lakes.

One Day Permits

One-day fishing licenses now can be obtained by anglers who are in the area briefly and have no need for a permit covering a greater time period.

Charles Cockerell, district wildlife warden, Ruidoso, said the permit costs $1.25 and may be secured at the Ruidoso area at Pat's Sporting Goods, Columbus, House of Gums and Fish, County Lodge. The one-day permits are available during June, July and August.

Five or ten-day permits, as well as annual licenses, also are available at the same places, Cockerell reported.

Judge Pritchett Attends Conference

Judge Austin Pritchett was to be in Albuquerque June 4-7 to attend a Management Training Conference at the University of New Mexico Law School.

The four-day session will include a review of pertinent 1969 legislative action, discussion of court cases and a mock trial with jury and court.

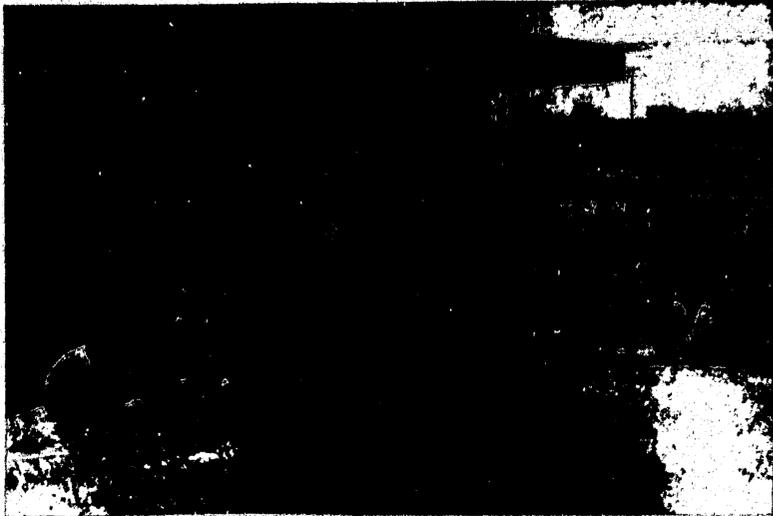

The attending will hear representatives of State Police, Game and Fish Department, Motor Transportation and the State Labor Commission with the conference to conclude with a session devoted to the future of the law.

Damage Slight In Two-Car Collision

Damage was reported as slight in a two-car collision last week at the intersection of Sudderth and Lincoln.

Involved was a 1968 Olds, owned and driven by Virgil O. Reynolds, and a 1969 MG, driven by Gary W. White. Both are of Ruidoso. Damage to the Olds was confined to the left rear of the car and estimated at $75 while the MG received about the same monetary damage to the right rear.

Reynolds was cited by the local investigating officer for following too closely and for vehicle too closely.

THEY'RE OFF—A special day for the Nob Hill pre-first and two first grade classes was held recently, and those youngsters have their own kind of race—just ask any of their teachers. The group of 64 students made a trip to the Mescalero Apache Fish Hatchery on the reservation, then returned to the advance up the ladder, with those who survive eliminations eventually selected for the U. S. team in the 1972 Olympics. He explained the determining factor was the accumulation of FIS points through ability to hold to certain required levels of performance. Those who do not measure up to the increased requirements are eliminated through the series of camps, and places filled by newcomers on the "way up."

Dairy Queen for refreshments. Accompanying them were their teachers, Miss Kathleen Thompson, pre-first grade, and Mrs. Nellie Ruth Jones and Mrs. Carrie Lois Godley, first grades. Dudette Scott was driver of the Ruidoso school's activity bus.

It also was reported that David Estes had been invited to a second national boys' training camp at Mammoth, scheduled to start July 2.

Five members of the Sierra Blanca Ski Club also will leave Saturday for a 10-day summer racing camp at Taos. They include Mark Wimberly, Allen Campbell and Danny Estes, all of Ruidoso, and Schaar Ward and Sawyer Ward of Lincoln.

News of Quarter-Century Ago Recalled Through 1940 Papers

The pages are yellow with age, but copies of The Lincoln County News, printed more than a quarter of a century ago, bring back memories to old timers of the area.

The Ruidoso News is indebted to Sam Montgomery for bringing in the copies of the newspaper, published at that time by Mrs. Era B. Smith.

The paper reflects the activity of a political year in which primary elections and the candidate received extensive news coverage. John Miles was the successful Democratic candidate for governor, and Seth Abston was Republican candidate for that office.

Louise Coe was seeking the nomination of the Democratic party as U. S. Senator and Diego Salazar was announcing his candidacy in the Democratic primary for the office of state auditor.

County primary election returns on the local level for the Democrats included Wayne Zumwalt, county treasurer, L. H. Dow, assessor, Holey Ward, Alex Jenkins and John Walker for sheriff, polling votes in that order; Felix Hamey and Harry Miller for county clerk and Marcela C. Est. John as private judge.

Primary returns in the Republican election, published on an inside page listed last names only, such as Hart for county clerk, Glover, Bowman and Smith for sheriff, Vega and Barrett for assessor and Key for treasurer.

News content, other than political, was rather limited, but readers were treated to a continuing serial "Trailer Girl" by Vera Brown, then in its 18th chapter.

The Lyric Theatre advertised "tickets" for its patrons, such as Roy Boners and Mary Hart in

Capitan Legion Contribute To Torch Memorial

The Flame of Freedom Torch, gift to the State of New Mexico by the American Legion, Department of New Mexico, was made possible in part by the support of the Capitan Post 57, which contributed $25 toward the cost of the memorial.

The Torch, commemorating 50 years of service to God and country by the Legion, was dedicated at special services Memorial Day at the state capital building in Santa Fe.

Presentation of the torch was by Secretary of State Ernestine Evans and Mrs. J. Fernandez, mother of a deceased Vietnam veteran. It was accepted by Gov. David F. Cargo, and the dedicatory address given by Merrill L. Norton, Lovington, apartment commander of the American Legion.

Chaplain Alfred S. Kline of the Capitan Post offered the prayer of invocation, and the benediction was by Archbishop James P. Davis of the Santa Fe Archdiocese of the Catholic Church.

The torch of eternal flame was lit Friday during the dedicatory service when Commander Norton quoted the words of Jesus, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

Capitan News

Extra effort is being made to send two girls instead of one from Capitan to Girls State, the year The American Legion Encinitada Supper for Boys. State delegates back in more than enough to send the three boys selected to go this year. The Legion members have voted to offer money to send a second girl. It is possible that the alternate may be sent as an additional delegate. Two delegates bring back more than twice as much leadership as one. The girl delegate is Myra Plangsten. The alternate is Paty Greenham. Lack of time to train them, but it is possible that a late selection, by some disabled delegate, may provide an opportunity to send Paty along with Myra.

Plans for a Sunday afternoon lunch and reception in June for Rev. and Mrs. Jim Reynolds and family in Capitan United Methodist Church was discussed right after worship last Sunday.

Chaplain Kline attended the three-day Promenade held by the seven central states, Forty and Eight of The American Legion in Fort 13 at Albuquerque, last week. He offered the prayers as Grand Altarman (State Chaplain) for all events including the one-hour Memorial

Early Filing Urged By Disabled Workers

Disabled workers should file their social security applications early, according to Bob Noble, social security field representative. Although benefits for disability cannot be paid until after a worker has been disabled for six months, an application can be filed any time after a disability begins.

Noble explained that the process for determining eligibility for disability benefits can sometimes be rather long and complicated. Therefore, no one should delay applying until the six months waiting period expires. Applying early permits the claims process to begin so that a decision can be made early enough to mail the first check on time.

Noble reminded Ruidoso readers that social security benefits are payable to workers when they have become too disabled to do any substantial work. The disability must be expected to last at least 12 months. A disabled worker's children under 18 (and those 18 to 22 who are full-time students) and his wife may also qualify for benefits.

Disability claims may be filed with Noble June 5 at the Council Room in the Ruidoso City Hall. He will be there from 10 to noon and 1 to 2.

Savings Bond Sales Reported

Charles K. Johnson, district chairman of Lincoln County released Treasury figures for April 1969 reflecting an investment of $9,132 by residents of this County. In 1968 the April sales were $4,505.

Statewide sales for April according to Mr. Johnson were $1,697,665, a modest increase over April 1968 when sales were $1,570,986.

New Mexico sales for the first four months of 1969 totaled $9,533,714. During the same period in 1968 the total was $9,304,234.

Rob Cox Explains Stand On Constitutional Revision

Rob Cox, rancher near Winston, N. M., in the Black Range Mountains, visited in Ruidoso last Thursday in connection with his bid as delegate to the state constitutional convention from Lincoln-Sierra counties.

Cox, who characterizes himself as a conservative, asserted he was in favor of retaining restrictions in the constitution, setting up and retaining guidelines in which the government must operate.

Indications, he said, are that attempts will be made to liberalize the state's constitution. Should he be elected a delegate, he would oppose such a move, the candidate declared.

Cox stressed that he also would favor restricting by constitutional law, the authority of the legislature to require local government to become indebted beyond its ability to pay. He cited the recent election law, which requires use of voting machines, as an example.

"In sparsely populated communities, voting machines are just too expensive for many counties to purchase without having to go into debt or forego improvements that are badly needed," he explained.

"The law as it now stands makes it mandatory to use the voting machines in state and federal elections, and many precincts are having to be consolidated in order to meet the requirement. This means voters in some areas must travel a considerable distance to cast their ballots, which in effect results in less votes being cast."

Cox opposes centralization of government, strongly believing that officials on the local level know problems of their area much better than do those at the state capital.

The rancher said he anticipated a great deal of pressure to remove the 20 mill tax limit on property, currently established by the constitution. "This I will also strongly oppose," he asserted.

In discussing the overall legislative picture, Cox stated the "one man, one vote" ruling by the Supreme Court actually is defeating the very purpose for which it was instituted. "It is, in effect, disenfranchising the vote from the small area, with legislative control going to the population centers; as a result of the steady trend towards urbanization."

The non-partisan election will be June 17. Other candidates for delegate include Ralph Petty, Jr., and John Thompson, both of Ruidoso.

New Municipal Judge Is Named

C. A. von Broeke has been appointed Ruidoso Downs municipal court judge by the village council.

It replaces Alton Gray who resigned the post last month when he was named village clerk.

Mr. von Broeke has resided in Ruidoso Downs for the past five years and has been active in public affairs for the race track. A former newspaperman, von Broeke said his only legal experience was as a reporter covering the courts.

"However, I do have a daughter who is a lawyer in California," he said.

The new judge is an active member of All Seasons, Inc., and has worked to promote an airport at Fort Stanton.

Forest Awakening Takes Weekly In State

GANTA FE — Traveling from south to north and from lowlands to high country, you can watch New Mexico's forests awaken for weeks on end.

In "The Forest Awakens," an article in the April issue of New Mexico Magazine, writer Nelson T. Bernard describes the sequence:

"The first signs of life in New Mexico will vary depending on whether you live in the north near Teos or in the desert close to Alamogordo. Reacting to environmental factors of soil, slope, precipitation and how far north or south, each hillside has its own personality."

The article is illustrated with pictures of desert flowers, the pines of higher altitudes and the aspens and pines on still loftier terrain.

VISIT FOX CAVE

Located seven miles east of Ruidoso Downs race track on U. S. Highway 70, Fox Cave was once used as a hide-out by Billy the Kid and roving bands of Apache warriors. The store offers a wide variety of curios, novelties, jewelry and other items, plus the historical atmosphere of the Old West.

County Agent's Column

Two Selected For Teen Conference

Carol Cooper and Bill Tyres were chosen as delegates from Lincoln County to the Teen Leader Conference at New Mexico State University June 23 to 27. These 4-H members will receive training in more effective ways of working with younger 4-H members and share their experiences with other 4-H members.

this time of year. If a dog is free to roam in uncultivated fields and brushlands, he may pick up hundreds of ticks a day. That many ticks can lower the animals' vitality and spoil his disposition. Check your dog for ticks periodically. Look for ticks around the dog's neck, in and around his ears, under his legs, and between his toes.

There have been a few calves contracted in the area for 33 to 35 cents for steer calves and 30 to 32 cents for heifer calves. There is a considerable inquiring into calves to contract.

To treat a tick-infested dog, the owner can dust the animal with an appropriate pesticide, such as five to ten percent malathion (malathion). The dust should be thoroughly rubbed through his hair, especially on his back and neck. Be sure to carefully read the directions on the label of any pesticide you use.

Lambs are contracting for fall delivery in Wyoming and Montana at 25 to 29 cents for ewe lambs and 25 to 27 for wether lambs expected to weigh around 75 pounds.

To learn more about treating tick-infested dogs, yards and homes, contact the county extension agent.

The Lincoln County Development Association will meet June 10 at Red Cloud Canyon for a basket supper starting at 7 p.m. with a program on developing the Red Cloud area to follow.

Changes In Student SS Benefits Should Be Reported Here

Mr. Russell and Mr. Wyche of the U. S. Forest Service will outline the plans for developing the Red Cloud Recreation area. They indicate that the Red Cloud area is top priority for development in the Cibola National Forest when funds are available. Anyone interested is invited to bring their picnic basket and join the group.

Many school children between 18 and 22 whose parents died, retired, or qualified for social security disability benefits, have been eligible for monthly social security checks during the last four years, Bob Noble, social security field representative, said today.

The American dog tick, often called a wood tick, is most common at "Monthly social security checks have made the difference in higher education for thousands of children when tragedy struck or a parent retired," Noble continued.

Student benefits end when the student reaches 22, marries, dies, quits school, reduces school attendance to less than full-time, or is paid by his employer to attend school.

Other events affecting student benefits include his legal adoption, changing schools, leaving home, or working for over $1600 for the year.

NOTICE OF BOND SALE
VILLAGE OF
RUIDOSO, NEW MEXICO
GENERAL OBLIGATION
RECREATION BONDS
SERIES JULY 1, 1968 - $25,000.00

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Trustees (hereinafter sometimes designated as the "Governing Body") of the Village of Ruidoso, Lincoln County, New Mexico, will on Thursday, the 12th day of June, 1969, at the hour of 7:00 o'clock p.m., M. P. S. T., at the Village Hall, Ruidoso, New Mexico, receive sealed bids and publicly open the same for the purpose of one issue of the Village's negotiable, coupon, General Obligation Recreation Bonds, Series July 1, 1968, in the principal amount of $25,000.00. The bonds will be dated July 1, 1969, will be payable to bearer, shall consist of 5 bonds in the denomination of $5,000.00 each and numbered consecutively in regular numerical order from one upward, and will mature serially, without option of prior redemption, in the amount of $5,000.00 on the first day of July in each of the years 1971 through 1975.

The bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates of not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum, interest being evidenced until maturity by only one set of coupons payable to bearer and payable January 1, 1970, and semiannually thereafter on January 1 and July 1 of each year. Each interest rate specified and evidenced by any coupon must be stated in a multiple of 1/8 or 1/20 of 1% per annum. Subject to these limitations, it is permissible to bid different or split interest rates for the bonds of any issue without limitation as to the number of rates specified, provided that one interest rate only shall be specified for any maturity.

Both principal and interest shall be payable at the Ruidoso State Bank in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

No provision will be made for the registration of bonds for payment. The bonds shall constitute the Village's general obligation bonds and shall be payable from general (ad valorem) taxes levied against all taxable property in the Village without limitation of rate or amount.

Bidders are required to submit by unconditional written bid for all of the bonds of the issue specifying (a) the lowest rate of interest and premium, if any, above 6% at which such bidder will purchase the bonds; or (b) the lowest rate of interest at which the bidder will purchase the bonds at par. Proposals should be enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside "Proposal for Purchase of General Obligation Bonds," and addressed to James L. Hine, Village Clerk, Village Hall, Ruidoso, New Mexico.

The bonds will be awarded to the highest and best bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any, and subject to the rights of the Village to reject any and all bids and readvertise. The best bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid if any, from the total amount of interest which the Village would be required to pay from the date of the bonds to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the proposal, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the Village. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. None of the bonds will be sold for less than par and accrued interest, and no discount or commission will be allowed or paid on the sale of the bonds. The Village reserves the privilege of waiving and irregularity or irregularity in any bid.

By Order of the Governing Body of the Village of Ruidoso, New Mexico, dated this 21st day of May, 1969.

James L. Hine, Village Clerk

Ruidoso Council Votes Annexation of 1,722 Acres

Annexation of 1,722 acres of land north to and including the Alto Crest subdivision highlighted last Thursday night's regular meeting of the Ruidoso village council.

Action came on a 3-1 vote following a motion by councilman Dr. James A. Beall and a second by councilman Wayne Estes. Voting in favor of the action were Beall, Estes and Herb Brunell, while a fourth councilman, Elmer Pirelli, cast the opposing vote.

One of the largest areas to be annexed by the village in its history, it includes North Height Park, Alto Crest, Cedar Creek, Middle Cedar,

Red Cedar, Tall Pine, Alpine Village and an area involving the Mt. View Drive-In Theatre.

Brought out during the discussion was that 100 per cent of the persons in the majority of the land involved had petitioned for annexation, but that three specific areas had not petitioned, 10 acres of White Mountain Development Co., Inc., the Alpine Village subdivision and the area involving the drive-in theatre.

However, the council pointed out that in order to annex in a continuous line it was necessary to include these three areas which had not included in the village.

Preceding the vote, Pirelli voiced his objections to taking action on the annexation on grounds it was not on the agenda, had not been publicized and thus was unfair to persons who might want to object to the proposal.

The annexation, it was explained, does not go into effect until after formal approval by the council of the annexation ordinance. Any person directly involved who wishes to protest the action has 30 days after adoption of the ordinance to file an injunctive procedure in district court.

The move by the council apparently removed from consideration the other land which has been involved in the original annexation proposal of 2,915 acres. It was noted that with the action the additional acres was "deleted completely and totally and cannot be considered again."

In other action, the council approved the 1969-70 budget for the village. Estimated expenditures were listed at $673,242, an increase of $69,209 over the current budget.

The budget, which now has been submitted to the Local Government

Division office in Santa Fe for review, includes increases of $30,000 to retire revenue bonds (sewer and sales tax), $5,000 for increase in fire protection, $15,000 in salary increase and $29,000 in operating costs due to normal increase and extra supplies.

A public hearing on the budget has been scheduled for July 9 at the village hall.

The council was told that C. G. Stiles of Roswell had been contracted to repair walls of the municipal swimming pool. Earlier estimates had placed the work at $3,000, which included replacing of tile. However, it was decided to use plaster, essentially to expedite the repair so that the pool could be opened as quickly as possible.

Unanimously annexed was 40 acres of land in the Upper Canyon Area, known as Holiday Acres Unit, petitioned by James L. Kestley.

The council went on record as commending members of the Eight Canyon Job Corps Center for donating two pool tables, two color television sets and other items, all of which had been purchased by the boys themselves, to the Fort Stanton Hospital.

Border Patrol Seeks Applicants

The U. S. Border Patrol of the Immigration and Naturalization Service has an urgent need for physically fit young men desiring a career in federal law enforcement work, and has announced that applications now are being accepted for such positions.

Civil service examinations for immigration patrol inspector will be held Saturday, July 12, and those interested must submit their applications before June 10.

Full information is given in Announcement No. WAM-011 which may be secured from Interagency Boards of Examiners and from many post offices as well as any office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Applications should be submitted on the test-out application form on the announcement or CGC Form 5004AB and forwarded to the Interagency Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, for Washington, D. C. 1900 E Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20410.

The Border Patrol is the mobile, uniformed enforcement branch of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Its principle purpose is to prevent the smuggling and illegal entry of aliens into the United States. The border patrolman called Immigration Patrol Inspector, work along international boundaries, although their duties are not necessarily confined to these areas. They work in Jeeps, cars, on foot, in boats and even in airplanes. Officers investigate violations of the immigration laws and frequently make arrests. They are often required to work irregular hours, under all weather conditions. These duties demand mental alertness as well as exceptional physical vigor and stamina.

Local Soldier Earns Second Commendation

WITH U. S. COMBAT AIR FORCE, VIETNAM—Senior Master Sergeant Eugene M. Bishop, son of Mrs. Ruth Holder, Ruidoso Downs, has received his second award of the U. S. Air Force Commendation Medal at Phan Rang AB, Vietnam.

Sergeant Bishop was decorated for meritorious service as a supply systems superintendent at Malmstrom AFB, Mont. He was cited for his outstanding professional skill, leadership and initiative.

The sergeant, now at Phan Rang in a unit of the Pacific Air Force, served in the European Theatre of Operations during World War II and is a veteran of the Korean War. He is a graduate of Alamogordo High School.

Sergeant Bishop's wife, Helen, is the daughter of John A. Editt, 6830 Downing Road, Bakerfield, Calif.

The entrance salary of an Immigration Patrol Inspector is $6,001 a year (Grades GS-17), and it is expected that these salaries will be increased after July 1, 1969. There are promotional opportunities up to executive levels in the Immigration and Naturalization Service. On-the-job training offers splendid opportunities for promotion to positions of greater responsibility.

No experience is required for these positions. To qualify, applicants must pass a written test of verbal abilities, judgment, and aptitude for learning a foreign language. Candidates who pass the written test are called for oral interviews in the order of their standings on the list. The oral interview is designed to determine if the candidate has the personal qualities needed for the work. Applicants must also pass a rigid physical examination. Candidates who are selected for appointment are assigned to the Border Patrol Academy for a period of intensive training in such subjects as immigration laws, Spanish, physical training and marksmanship. Trainees receive full pay while in the academy.

Never run power lawn mowers, chain saws or snow blowers in an enclosed area such as a garage. Like automobiles, they too can cause carbon monoxide poisoning.
