TOTAL LOSS—Only the lamp posts, with lenses melted from the heat, were left standing after fire destroyed six units of the Alto Alps Condominiums near Ruidoso Sunday morning. Bonito and Ruidoso Volunteer Firemen were helpless to save the structure which totally collapsed only moments after they arrived. No one was at home in any of the units when the fire occurred but the damage estimate was high.

Fire Destroys Condominiums

A raging fire swept through and destroyed a six-unit building of the Alto Alps Condominiums Sunday morning, about six miles north of the airport on N. M. 37.

Bonito and Ruidoso Volunteer Fire Departments, arriving soon after the alarm was turned in, were helpless to save the structure which collapsed only minutes after they arrived.

No one was at home in any of the six units when the fire started, only one was occupied over the weekend and the occupants were skiing at the time the fire broke out.

John Hall, chief of the Bonito firefighters, said that he was one of the first to arrive at the fire and when he got there, all they could do was save the adjacent building.

Another witness to the fire said that when the flames broke outside of the building, it appeared to have started at both ends and in the middle at the same time. The entire building was engulfed in flames.

The fire appeared to have burned inside the building for quite some time before it broke out on the outside. A strong southerly wind also kept the smoke from the fire from rising into the sky. The wind apparently blew the smoke into the trees behind the building, delaying detection and reporting of the blaze.

It reached a very high intensity while burning inside and underneath the structure because firemen reported that it was only a matter of minutes after the fire broke out and the entire building "collapsed like a string of dominoes."

Mike Larkey, manager of the complex, said that he had driven by the building a short time before the alarm was turned in.

"The fire had to be burning inside when I went by," he said, "but I didn't notice any smoke or anything unusual. The wind must have been blowing the smoke into the trees."

Once the blaze broke outside, it sent clouds of black smoke billowing into the sky, easily visible from anywhere in the village of Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs.

Four fire departments, Bonito, Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs Volunteers, and the U. S. Forest Service, responded to the alarm but could do little more than watch as the building burned in a heap below the plings it had been built on.

Larkey said that he and Jim Wimberly, one of the owners of the development, figured the damage at $300,000 to $325,000 for both the building and its contents. He noted that the corporation has a group policy for the building and that the contents were covered individually by the owners.

The state fire marshal investigated the destroyed structure Monday morning and Larkey said that he found no indication of wrongdoing in his investigation. He could find little indication of the source of the fire from the charred remains.

Larkey noted that the fire marshal said the condominiums were structurally sound and the fire did not seem to be caused by any construction error or building code violations.

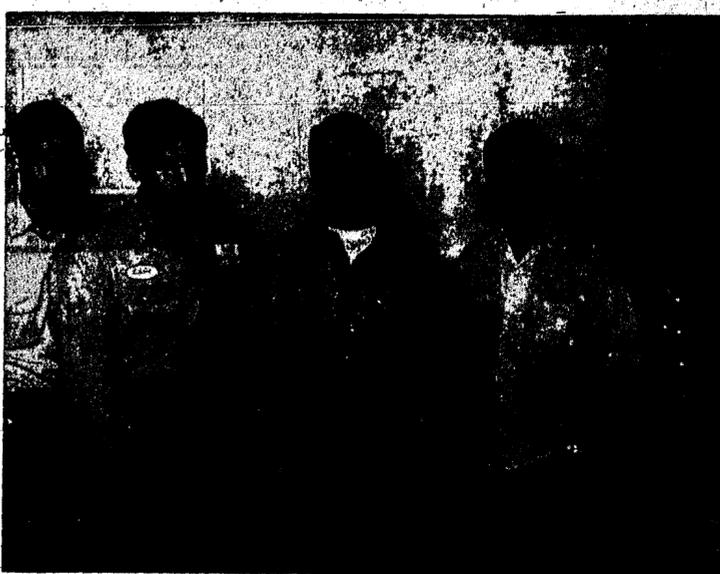

Residents of the six units, all from El Paso and Albuquerque, will suffer little inconvenience because of the blaze. Larkey said that two had already signed to apply their insurance to the purchase of another unit. The model home at the complex has been transformed to a guest house for residents who lost their condominium, and summer users of their homes had volunteered them for the use of skiers who were displaced by the fire.

Larkey said that clearing and rebuilding of the structure had begun as soon as the fire marshal completed his inspection.

HARLEM STARS

The Harlem Stars didn't have much of a chance last Saturday night to put on their famous show when they met a group of local ex-Ruidoso High boys.

The local team of Gordon Howell, Mel Patton, Bunker Perryman, Filbert Montes, Danny Wimberly, Craig Horton and Sonny Candelaria led the entire game until the final buzzer when the Harlem Stars tied up the game with a shot as the buzzer sounded. In a 5-minute overtime, the Stars crowded over the Ruidoso team, 80-70.

City Elections Set for March 5

Election of village officials in Lincoln County will be held March 5 this year with filing set for only one day, Jan. 29 from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Voter registration books for the election will be open until 5 p.m. Feb. 4 for registration of new voters in the various municipalities. A recent Attorney General's ruling notes that only residents of the village may vote in the elections and that village property owners living outside the village limits may not vote. Registration of voters who voted in the last municipal elections in their respective villages will not be necessary.

Seats open for the Village of Ruidoso in the election will be: the Municipal Judge, now held by Sam Nunnally; Mayor, held by Leon Farus; and councilmen's seats, held by Warren Tucker and Earl Allison.

In Ruidoso Downs, offices open will be: Municipal Judge, appointee B. E. West; Mayor Jake Harris; and councilmen's seats held by two appointees, Ken Geaslin and Albert Richardson.

So far, no announcements for any of the seats have been made. It is assumed that most of the incumbents will re-run for their offices.

1974 will also be election year for various county and state offices. The general election will be held in November.

Taylor, Cummins Earn Athletic Honors

From Publishing Co.

By Pauline McGarry

Ken Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor of Lincoln, and Bronson Cummins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Cummins of Capitan, both made honorable mention All-American by the Coach and Athlete Publishing Co.

Taylor played defensive end, averaging 13 unassisted tackles per game. High game was 21 against Vaughn, playing pulling guard. He is not only a National Honor Student with an A-average, but is president of the Let-terman's Club.

Cummins, playing fullback, rushed for over 1,300 yards for the year. He averaged 146 yards per game. His high game in rushing was against Cloudcroft for 236 yards. He also played middle linebacker on defense.

Cummins has excellent speed: 9.8 in 100 yard dash; 4.5 in 40 yard dash. He is a straight A student.

Coach Lykins commented, "Physically speaking these men are the smallest I have seen at their position played in a high school but their size doesn't measure the size of their heart." Lykins feels Capitan had a very successful season — not a win or loss game but the great attitude. "Projection for next season will be a loss of eight seniors but a gain in a lot of desire in returning lettermen."

State Police Identify Ft. Stanton Skeleton

New Mexico State Police Sgt. Jack Johnson announced Tuesday that the skeleton found near Ft. Stanton on New Year's Eve had been positively identified.

Johnson said that teeth found near the bones had positively matched dental charts of Manuel B. Aragon, a Silver City resident who had spent about six weeks at the then tuberculosis hospital before wandering off Sept. 13, 1964. Aragon was 60 years old at the time of his disappearance.

Dr. John Sears of Ruidoso identified the eight teeth that were found with the body against nine shown on Aragon's dental charts sent from Ft. Stanton. Dr. Sears made positive identification based on the comparison with these charts.

Johnson also noted that a hat, brown dress shoes, brown dress slacks and a red and white print shirt, also matched with a clothing inventory for Aragon which had been transferred to Ft. Stanton when the tuberculosis facility in 1968-67.

Both Sgt. Johnson and a newsman who had been at the scene noted that the skeleton had been fairly well exposed and they were surprised that it had not been discovered sooner. Johnson noted that at the time of Aragon's disappearance, his family had written to the governor requesting that the state intensify the search for the man.

Aragon's niece, Beatrice Aragon of the home in Silver City and his daughter, Febrina Saliz of Santa Ana, Calif., have been notified of the discovery. A son could not be located.

Pageant Plans Made By Ruidoso Jaycees

The annual Miss Central New Mexico Pageant was discussed by the Ruidoso Jaycees at a meeting held last Tuesday evening at Mitchell Motel and it was noted that no date had yet been set for the event. The Pageant will probably be held in early spring and local talent will be featured as entertainment.

Entrants for the 1974 Pageant are now being accepted and advertisers for the program will be contacted shortly by members of the Jaycees. All funds raised from the pageant and the program, after pageant expenses, will be used for the scholarships to be given the winners in the pageant.

Luncheon Slated To Hear Energy Talk By Sen. Domenici

It has been announced that a no-host luncheon will be held Monday, Jan. 14, 1:00 p.m. at the Holiday House Restaurant to hear Senator Pete Domenici speak on the subject of the energy crisis. Sponsoring the event will be the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce and the Ruidoso Innkeepers' Association.

Domenici is a member of the Senate Energy Study Group. The meeting is open to anyone interested in hearing about the energy crisis.

1974 All-American Futurity Heads For Another $1 Million Purse

The 1974 All-American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs Race Track is moving solidly on course toward another gross purse of $1,030,000.

This is the report from Liz Devine, Ruidoso Downs nomination secretary, after tabulating the box score from the fifth eligibility payment for the world's richest race.

A total of 575 juveniles cleared the fifth payment. "The cash now on deposit for the 1974 All-American is $646,400," Liz reports. "Last year at this time, the total stood at $603,750."

The '73 All-American actually topped out at $1,425,290, but under the current fiscal, all money in excess of $1,020,000 is diverted into the following year's All-American Derby.

"From the way things now look, the 1974 All-American Futurity will easily reach the ceiling of $1,030,000, and the 1975 Derby should surpass $500,000," Liz pointed out.

The remaining eligibility payments for the '74 All-American are $400 due March 15, $500 due June 15, and $750 due on the date of entry into the trials. According to current projections, about 470 two-year-olds are expected to make the March 15 hurdle.

Included among the current crop of hopefuls are six "pre-pays" at $2,000 each. The owners of the six are Harriett Peckham of Roswell; A. R. Lewis of Tucson, Ariz.; Sharon Kay Dean of Ft. Worth, Texas; Joe R. Bassett of Globe, Ariz., and Leo O'Quinn of Houston, Texas.

The winning owner of the '74 All-American Futurity, if present estimates hold up, will collect a staggering paycheck of $330,000. The 440-yard thriller will be run on Labor Day and will again serve as the main jewel of the "Triple Crown" of Quarter Horse racing. The two other Triple Crown events are the $375,000 (est.) Kansas Futurity and the $300,000 (est.) Rainbow Futurity.

Pending approval by the New Mexico State Racing Commission, the '74 Ruidoso meeting will get underway on Saturday, May 18, and conclude on Labor Day.

The All-American Futurity will again be beamed live from coast-to-coast by the All-American Network, while both the Kansas and Rainbow Futurity will again be televised on a regional basis.

Driver Gets 20 Days And Large Fine After Two Hit and Runs

Tommy F. Trujillo, 18, of Ruidoso appeared before Municipal Judge Sam Nunnally in Ruidoso Tuesday morning facing eight charges after a drive Monday night that included two hit and run accidents and a drunk driving citation.

Following the court session, Trujillo was transferred to the Lincoln County jail to serve 20 days in addition to fines totaling $365.

Trujillo was found guilty of charges of driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, driving left of center, running a stop sign, two counts of failure to give immediate notice of an accident and allowing himself to be served. One charge of reckless driving was dismissed. Before police arrested Trujillo, he had struck cars belonging to Fermin Chavez and Jodi Kenmore of Ruidoso, leaving the scene.

A meeting of the Ruidoso-Sierra Blanca Sports Club will be held Monday, Jan. 14, 7:30 p.m. in the Conference Room of The Ruidoso State Bank, according to club secretary Betty Bruten. The meeting is open to the public and members of the club. Junior Racer parents and other interested parties are invited to attend.

Burglars Hit Ski Shop Monday

Burglars hit the Ski Skeller ski shop in the Gateway Shopping Center sometime Monday night taking $334.64 in cash and mostly personal property of the shop and employees.

Rotary BB Tournery Slated For February

According to Dick Mound, chairman of the tournament committee, the annual Ruidoso Rotary 7th, 8th and 9th grade invitational basketball tournament has been scheduled for Feb. 6, 7, 8 and 9 this year. Games are slated to begin at 2:30 p.m. each day with trophies to be awarded on the last day.

SCHOOL BOARD MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Ruidoso Municipal School Board of Trustees will be held Tuesday, Jan. 15, 7:00 p.m. at the Administration Building of the schools.

The meetings are open to the public.

Burglars Hit Ski Shop Monday

Burglars hit the Ski Skeller ski shop in the Gateway Shopping Center sometime Monday night taking $334.64 in cash and mostly personal property of the shop and employees.

Ruidoso police were notified of the burglary about 1:40 a.m. when someone noticed the back door to the shop open and reported it to them. According to Ron Taylor, manager, the burglary could have occurred any time after 7 p.m. that evening.

Also taken in the burglary besides the cash were eight track and reel-to-reel tape decks, an adding machine, two old jackets and costume jewelry valued at about $15.

is in need of volunteers to assist with gate watching and other details at the races and will welcome help from anyone.

Rotary District Governor Billy Holder, publisher of the Alamogordo Daily News, will present the trophies to winners of the tournament.

The Ruidoso Downs Village Council will hold its regular meeting at the Village Hall Monday, Jan. 14, 8:00 p.m.

The council will probably discuss the proposed purchase of the Denton Field property and decide if the proposition will appear on the ballot in the Municipal election slated for March 5. A straw vote held previously had shown that citizens of the Village approved the measure but the property could not be purchased because bonding capacity of the village would not allow. Since re-appraisal, the bonding capacity has now been raised.

Holy Mount Church Setting For Wedding

Holy Mount Episcopal Church in Ruidoso was the setting for the wedding of Miss Nell Hays Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Sanders of Las Cruces, and David Lohr Wing, son of Mrs. Wilson Wing of Baltimore, Maryland, and the late Dr. Wilson Wing, on Friday, Dec. 21, at twelve noon. Officiating at the double ring rites were Rev. John Miner assisted by Rev. Evan Davis.

The church was decorated with pine branches and poinsettia plants. Mrs. John Miner was organist and played 18th Century French carols. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of off-white linen trimmed in cotton lace, an original design by Betty Goodrich of Santa Fe. She carried a bouquet of red rosebuds and holly. She also wore aquamarine ear rings bordered by rubies and diamonds, a gift from the bridegroom's mother.

Miss Ann Sanders, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Deborah Wing of Lovell, Maine, was bridesmaid. Dr. Daniel Wing, New York City, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Aaron Levin was groomsmen. Charles Sanders, III, brother of the bride, and Tom Gutierrez served as ushers.

The bride's mother was dressed in a wool dress of autumn colors, on red background and wore a corsage of red roses and holly. The bridegroom's mother wore a long blue knit dress with a pale green center panel, and a corsage of red roses and holly.

A luncheon was held in the Sanders cabin in Ruidoso at 1:00 p.m. with friends from Las Cruces and Ruidoso and neighboring communities attending. The table was laid with an off-white linen cloth, embroidered in many colored yarn with the living tree and doves. The wedding cake was four-tiered and also served were Mexican fruitcake and "Biscochos", typical Mexican Christmas cookies.

Following a wedding trip to Baltimore, Md., the couple is now at home in Lahti, Finland.

25 Years Ago

January 14, 1949

In spite of the weatherman throwing Ruidoso a curve ball Saturday night and providing the highest temperatures in months so that the snow on the Cedar Creek Ski Run started melting (which had been in perfect condition until Saturday night) there were many skiers over the week end. The two new tows were operating Saturday, perfectly but Sunday conditions at the run necessitated taking them down.

One group of almost thirty boys from the New Mexico Military Institute came up Sunday by chartered bus to spend the day. They couldn't make Cedar Creek in the bus so Kiel Bonnell took them out and brought them back in relays in his pickup.

Beginning the second semester, thirty children from the Mescalero Apache Indian Reservation enrolled at the Ruidoso Elementary School with several of the boys and girls going into each of the grades.

A school bus driver brings the children each morning from the Carrizo community.

There are those still here that can really spin the yarns about the old days in Ruidoso, but it takes those who come back to visit to tell all. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heicher, former residents, were visiting here during the holidays with their two children and were telling of the 30's.

The Heichers came to Ruidoso from Chicago in the fall of 1931. They purchased a house on deeded land, with 4 rent cabins, and the mail contract, for the large sum of $3,000.

After this they rapidly became involved in the community life of the canyon. All of 200 people lived here in the winter time. There was one mail a day, and not over two pouches. Ike Wingfield was postmaster. Dr. R. S. Sutton was the "Family Doctor" for the entire population.

MRS. DANIEL H. PIATT

Spencer-Piatt Vows Read In Albuquerque

Wedding vows of Miss Roxanne Marie Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Thompson of Ruidoso, and Daniel H. Piatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Piatt of Albuquerque, were read in the Hoffmantown Baptist Church in Albuquerque on Friday, Dec. 28, at 7:30 p.m. with Dr. James Bryant officiating at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her step-father and wore a Victorian gown of white velvet enhanced with Venice lace which also edged her veil of illusion which extended into a chapel train. For something old she wore a locket, something new was her gown, something borrowed was her hose, and she wore the traditional blue garter.

McFall, Cathy Teske and Sandi Dugan. Mickey Eaton attended the guest book.

Following an overnight trip to Corrales, the couple is now at home at 7407 Southern Ave., SE, Albuquerque. The bridegroom is a senior in Eldorado High School and is employed at Anna Kaseman Hospital. The bride graduated from Highland High School in Albuquerque.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Piatt of Edmond, Okla., grandparents of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. E. Wayne Brunner of Chama, uncle of the bride.

Garden Club Meet Scheduled Jan. 15 At Cherokee Village

The Ruidoso Garden Club will meet Tuesday, Jan. 15, at 2:00 p.m. in the community center of Cherokee Mobile Village. Mrs. John Spall will present the program which will be on Marguerite. All members are urged to attend.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Rick Williams and Melody Watts, and included "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song".

Miss Sandra Piatt, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Andrea Thompson, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Douglas McKillop was the ring bearer.

Randal Piatt, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers included Jimmy Thompson, brother of the bride; Danny Walters, Tony Ulibarri and Gary Straquadine.

The bride's mother wore a pink floor length gown and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a floral on beige gown and her corsage was of pink carnations and red rosebuds.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church with approximately 150 guests attending. The table was laid with a net cloth over white and held the silver punch bowl and candelabras surrounded by evergreens. Lois Beirne attended the punch bowl and others assisting with the reception were Vivian Pierce, Georganne

Charles Culver, co-operative observer for the U. S. Department of Commerce.

Total precipitation for the 12 months in 1958 was 26.45 inches. The year 1949 came close to that with 25.42. In the 14 years Culver has kept records, he said the lowest precipitation was received in 1947 when only 14.50 inches was received, and also in 1956 when only 14.71 inches was marked up.

Total snowfall for 1958 was 68.25 inches, he declared. Highest temperature recorded came on July 13 when the thermometer went up to 94 degrees, and the last day of 1958 saw the lowest mark, 13 degrees below zero.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wimberly from Alamogordo spent New Year's Day here with Jim's parents, the Lee Wimberlys. They have just returned from a trip to Mexico City and stopped in Phoenix to visit the Overstreets who are the parents of Mrs. Jim Wimberly.

Wayne Joyce is opening a new church here in the Parson Building, which once housed Borrum Hardware, in downtown Ruidoso.

When a person builds or modifies a car for drag racing, he usually designs it for one particular class. This allows him to take advantage of every possible modification allowed in the class, without having to run in a higher class because of just one change which isn't allowable in the lower class. Many would like to gradually change from a slower class to a quicker class without being forced to run in the quicker class before they can get the right combination of parts and everything working together for the best results. Also, many newcomers to the sport of drag racing would rather not compete in any particular class until they get the "feel" of competition. For these people, and there usually are quite a few, most drag strips include a separate class, called the ET class. This ET category isn't any part of the seven categories referred to when talking about the regular drag racing classes, however it is usually very popular at all weekend drags. ET is an abbreviation for elapsed time, which is what the "class" is based on. There are no records. Everyone decides before the competition begins the elapsed time his car can run most consistently. The time he selects is written on his windshield and is used for that day only. When the eliminations begin, all ET cars run in pairs, like the regular class cars, but instead of using national records to determine the amount of handicap start, the times written on the windshields are used. Of course, only ET cars run against ET cars, and not in the other classes. If each ET car runs the identical time written on its windshield, the race would be a dead heat or tie. However, driver skills play an important part, because a driver is allowed to go only one-tenth of a second quicker than the time he selects. If he runs quicker than this time, he "breaks-out" and loses, even if he crosses the finish line first. This is why the car's running consistency is so important. One club member who expresses a desire to run in the ET class is Don Boone III. He is a newcomer to the sport as far as driving is concerned. He has attended quite a few races, as a spectator, but finally got the "bug" and decided to try it as a competitor.

His car is a 1964 Chevelle with a 230 cubic inch, six cylinder engine. He uses an after-market tachometer to know when to shift the four-speed transmission. 4.11 gears in the differential add to the quickness of the car, and chrome slotted-dish wheels add to the appearance. Headers aid the performance, and a fire extinguisher insures added safety. This car could run in Stock Eliminator, but Don wishes to gain some experience in drag racing before entering class competition other than ET class.

With Don's car added to the list of local competitors, the total now stands at seven, with two more possibly entered by March. I'll have a complete rundown of these local cars in a month or so. For more information on the club or any part of legal drag racing, contact me or the club president, Red Forus at 257-4022.

FLORIDA VACATION (?) — Six Ruidoso young men recently signed up for a hitch with the Navy. They enlisted under the "budget plan" under which they will take their basic training in Naval Construction (Seabers) together and be stationed together afterwards.

Roswell to Host Reading Association

Plans are completed for the Third Annual State Conference NM-IRA to be held in Roswell, Jan. 11-12. In addition to three major speakers, there will be four time periods devoted to five special topics. Leaders, discussants, and paper presenters will be from all ranks of New Mexico teachers. Each of the four time periods will be divided into five small group sessions under the following themes: Learning Disabilities, Remedial Instruction, Reading Programs, Secondary and Adult Basic Education. General theme of the conference will be Magic Is Reading.

Art Heilman, author of "Principles and Practices of Teaching Reading", will be the keynote speaker at the opening session on Friday at 1:30 p.m. Bill Durr, author of the Houghton-Mifflin "Reading for Meaning" series and immediate past president of N.A., will be keynoter for the Friday night banquet at the Roswell High School. Letter to Editor

In a recent story in the Ruidoso News, it was stated that the Village Council had voted to purchase 2,000 acres of irrigable land in the Rio Ruidoso stream system. The article stated that the money for this purchase would be raised by a tax on the property in the area. I am writing to express my concern over this proposed tax. The area in question is currently used for agriculture and is a vital part of the local economy. A tax on this property would likely result in the loss of these lands to other uses, possibly residential or commercial, which would be detrimental to the community. I urge the Village Council to reconsider this decision and to explore other funding sources for the water storage project.

A few points that were mentioned in the 1972 election campaign can be reiterated here for the benefit of those not aware of the proposals. The Village of Ruidoso and the Apache Tribe should take a look at methods of joint co-operation on use of available water. It is a fallacy to assume that we can solve our recreational needs by following our water statutes to the letter of the law from now until eternity. The time has run out when our village must necessarily purchase more water rights to fulfill their needs for water. STORAGE is our problem, and to date we do not have ample storage for the rights previously purchased. Why should we try to purchase and dry up 2,000 acres of fertile irrigable acres in the Rio Ruidoso stream system, when the waters we need rush wildly by during the periodic wet spells, finally winding up in the Gulf of Mexico, a waste for all? "What we are trying to say is that our farmers, the Village of Ruidoso, and our friends, the Mesqueros should be united. Not only in area, but in purpose as well." Another thought, in passing—perhaps if our village councilmen attended more of their regularly scheduled meetings, maybe some of these problems could be solved.

Thank You, Ted Bennett

School Lunch Program Outlined for Patrons

(Editor's Note: The following information is for school patrons and is not a part of the poverty program but is under the provisions of PL 83-150.)

The Ruidoso School serves nutritious meals every school day. Students may buy lunch for 40¢ beginning Monday, Jan. 7, 1974. Children from families whose income is at or below those shown on the scale below are eligible for meals at the reduced price of 15¢ for lunch. If your income is greater than those shown, but you have unusually high medical bills, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of your income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, or disaster or casualty losses, your children may still be eligible.

To apply for reduced price meals for your children, at any time during the year, complete an application and return it to the school. The school will let you know whether or not your children are eligible within seven days of receiving your application. If you do not agree with the school's decision you have a right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling the Principal of your child's school:

- White Mountain — 257-4109;
- High Elementary — 257-2200;
- High School (grades 7-12) — 257-7324.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If you have such children, please notify or indicate on your application.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his race, sex, color, or national origin.

Guidelines for Reduced Price Meals

Family Size	Income
1	$ 3,830
2	$ 5,040
3	$ 6,250
4	$ 7,440

5	$ 8,540
6	$ 9,640
7	$10,640
8	$11,640
9	$12,550
10	$13,440
11	$14,330
12	$15,220

Each additional family member $ 890

"Income" includes the following:

- (1) Monetary compensation for services, including wages, salary, commission or fees; (2) net income from non-farm self-employment; (3) net income from farm self-employment; (4) social security; (5) dividends or interest on savings or bonds, income from estates or trust, or net rental income; (6) public assistance or welfare payments; (7) unemployment compensation; (8) Government civilian employee or military retirement or pensions or veterans' payments; (9) Private pensions or annuities; (10) alimony or child support payments; (11) regular contributions from persons not living in the household; (12) net royalties; and (13) other cash income. Other cash income would include cash amounts received or withdrawn from any source, including savings, investments, trust accounts, and other resources, which would be available to pay the price of a child's meal.

"Income" as the term is used in this notice does not include income received by volunteers for services performed in the National Older Americans Volunteer Program as stipulated in the 1973 amendments to the Older Americans Act of 1965, Public Law 93-29 (87 Stat. 30); nor does the term include income used for the following special hardship conditions which could not be reasonably anticipated or controlled by the household:

- (1) Unusually high medical expenses; (2) shelter costs in excess of thirty percent (30%) of income as defined herein; (3) special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child; and (4) disaster or casualty losses.

In applying guidelines, school food authorities may consider both the income of the family during the past 12 months and the family's current rate of income to determine which is the better indicator of the need for reduced price meals.

Ruidosoan Who Fought Medicare in 1967-70 Dies in Texas

David F. McNutt, 73, who fought court battles with Medicare and the U. S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare in 1967-70 and won, died in Methodis Memorial Hospital in Lubbeck, Texas Sunday, Jan. 6. McNutt suffered a heart attack in January 1967 while living in Ruidoso and was a patient in the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital for a number of weeks. As a certain amount had been withheld from his Social Security check each month, he expected Medicare to take care of his hospital bill. But Medicare officials refused to pay the bill, giving the reason that the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital did not meet Medicare requirements. McNutt, with the assistance of Joe Truitt of Ruidoso, asked for a hearing before the Bureau of Hearings and Appeal, but with negative results. After filing suit against the U. S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, it was the decision of the Hearing Examiner that Medicare pay McNutt's hospital bill, and in February 1970, McNutt received payment in the amount of $1,156. Much publicity of the case was given in various Texas newspapers, in Ft. Worth and Houston, among others.

Funeral services for McNutt were held Wednesday, Jan. 9, in Terrell, Texas where McNutt was born in August 1900. Burial was in Terrell. He is survived by his wife, Bonnie McNutt and one brother. The McNutts came to Ruidoso about 12 years ago from Bronco, Texas where they owned and operated a cotton gin. They bought the Ruidoso Lodge and later sold that business. They sold their home in Ruidoso about 6 months ago and moved to Lamesa, Texas.

'SKI RACING NOTES

The Ruidoso-Sierra Blanca Sports Club, in its effort to minimize lengthy trips for the youngsters involved in the junior racing team, is pleased to announce that a series of informal weekly races has started. The races are held each Sunday at Sierra Blanca for club members and Ray Heid's Ski Shop is providing prizes for the top finishers throughout the season. In addition to this, Ray Heid is donating a watch to be given to the most consistent finisher throughout the season.
The winners of the races to date have been Dale Pearson, Kevin Crawford, Linda Mobley and Patricia Reeves, in their respective classes. Two weeks ago, and last week, the winners were Jody Cascio and Greg Mobley.
On the 12th and 13th of January, nine of the racers will travel to Purgatory, Colo., to compete in a giant slalom and one of the highlights of the season will be the following weekend when the top racers in the Southern Rockies will be racing here at Sierra Blanca. The date of the event is Jan. 19 and 20 and everyone watching will see some skiing talent.
Anyone who would like to help the club in staging this event should call 257-7438. A great deal of manpower is needed to host a ski event of this type, but it does raise some funds for this worthwhile racing program. You don't need to be a skier to lend a hand!

Fuel from Barnyard Manure—
Pennsylvania extension workers demonstrated a device with which to turn cow manure into fuel at the 1973 Agricultural Progress Days at Hershey.
Lebanon County Agent Glenn Miller and Assistant Agent Newton Blair built the converter from an old refrigerator compressor and a hydraulic fluid tank. Blair runs his garden tractor on methane gas generated by the converter.
The methane gas is odorless, colorless, burns cleanly, and is relatively pollution free. The potential for converting manure to methane is large. Organic waste from 100,000 cattle could supply the natural gas needs of 30,000 people. It is being used to power cars in some cities, and India is using these processes.

School Scoop

Nine weeks and semester tests will be given Jan. 14-18 at Ruidoso High School. Tests can not be given earlier than this date. New semester classes will begin Jan. 21.

Report cards will be given out Jan. 23. One-half day teachers' work day is scheduled for Jan. 25.

Pegasus was the band chosen to play for the Junior-Senior Prom. Prom committee members are busy planning the theme and ordering favors.

The 1974 New Mexico state student council convention will be held in Albuquerque, Feb. 14-16. Several delegates from R. H. S. student council will be attending. These delegates will be selected at the next meeting.

Two students have been added to the Ruidoso High School Band. They are Leslie Primer and Jay Wier.

These students, along with the entire Band, are preparing for the Pop Concert which is scheduled for Jan. 30, at 8:00 p.m.

Retakes for senior pictures will be made on Feb. 19 in the library. All seniors that have not had their pictures taken should contact Mr. Montes before the 19th.

Organization pictures will also be taken at that time.

Warrior Pennants are being sold by NHS members. They cost $1.00 each and all money goes toward scholarships.

Members include: Tracie Anderson, Belinda Ball, Britt Beal, Joni Blank, Mark Egbert, Karen Hyman, Darlene Joyce, Wayne Owen, Daje Pearson, Teresa Rateliffe, Kelly Perryman, Weldon Scrivner, Dick Underwood and Jon Wrye.

Immunizations Required at RHS

Many students in R. H. S. are in need of Diphtheria, Tetanus and Polio Boosters. Notes have been sent to students and will have to have a parent's signature so that they may be given in the clinic. Senior students will be immunized first since the respective colleges will require them. These boosters will be given at a special clinic this month by Mrs. Primer and Mrs. English, Lincoln County Health Nurse. The date of this clinic will be announced later.

New Mexico immunizations were changed in October 1971 and the recommended schedule for active immunization and Tuberculin Testing of Normal Infants and Children in New Mexico is as follows:

2 months, D. T. P., TopV.
4 months, D. T. P., TopV.
6 months, D. T. P., TopV.
1 year, Measles 3, Tuberculin Test 4.
4-6 years, D. T. P., TopV.
14-16 years, TD5, and thereafter every 10 years.

Eight New Students Enrolled In RHS

Eight new students have enrolled for the second semester at Ruidoso High School.

Seventh Grade: Pamela Bowhay, El Toro, Calif.

Eighth Grade: Dana Rhoten, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Ninth Grade: Richard Garcia, El Paso, Texas; Steve Hirschfeld, Midland, Texas; Fred Ingram, El Toro, Calif.; Larry Robinson, Tularosa.

Tenth Grade: Billy Lovelace, Lubbock, Texas.

Eleventh Grade: Debra Card, Allison, Iowa.

Junior High Slates Basketball Games

Basketball got underway once again this week for the Junior High players after vacationing during the Christmas holidays. The 7th and 8th graders traveled to Cloudcroft Tuesday afternoon with the first game scheduled for 2:00 o'clock. The 9th grade team is scheduled to play Socorro at 3:00 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Ruidoso gym.

Amoco Foundation Offers Scholarships

The Amoco Foundation, Inc. awards scholarships to graduating seniors of Ruidoso High School each year. These scholarships are for students who plan to study petroleum engineering, geophysics or geology. Scholarships start at $700 for the freshman year and progress $100 each year to $1,000 the senior year with a maintenance of a B-average. Each scholarship provides $3,400 for the four-year period.

Universities administer all phases of the scholarships. They select winners on the basis of demonstrated ability and potential without regard to need. Extra-curricular activities are also considered. To apply, the applicant must fill in the Request For Scholarship Application and mail it to the university of his choice. This scholarship application and a list of universities which offer courses of geology, petroleum engineering and geophysics may be obtained at the counselor's office.

RHS Wrestling Team Loses To Carlsbad

The Ruidoso High School wrestling team lost to the tough AAAA Carlsbad Mid-High wrestling team, Friday evening, Jan. 4. Their entire wrestling team consists of 100 wrestlers as compared to 12 RHS wrestlers. They were a recent winner of an eight-team tournament in which Ruidoso participated earlier this season.

Scotter Driver has shown tremendous improvement and desire as a wrestler, in spite of his late-season start. However, at least for the rest of this season, Scotter will have a definite handicap... he only weighs 87 pounds, yet most of all his opponents will weigh their allowed maximum of 100 pounds. Although being outweighed by 13 pounds, Scotter managed to fight off the pinning combinations of his opponent and lost by only a decision.

Jimmy Bennett held out well against his aggressive Carlsbad opponent at 112 pounds, but finally was stacked up and pinned. Jimmy is showing improvement in his matches.

Mark Strassburg has wrestled an exceptional opponent at 119 pounds... a Carlsbad wrestler who has wrestled since the fourth grade. Mark lost twice by decision against this boy but is picking up experience fast and should emerge as one of the team's best competitors.

What Bobby Arnett (126 lbs.) lacks in brawn, he makes up for in willingness to work and by not being afraid to shoot moves. Bobby was caught in a bad situation by a tricky opponent and was pinned in the closing moments of his match, Friday.

Clay Warren lost by decision Friday night, but he is also showing improvement. Clay has dropped down to the 132 pound weight class where he should prove to be more competitive as the season progresses.

Bill Clair (138 lbs.) wrestled an exciting match against his Carlsbad opponent, and was ahead on points throughout most of the match until his opponent was able to clamp on a tight pin hold and hold him down for the two second count.

Robert Todd (145 lbs.) will lose wrestling experience because of a present knee problem. Mike Grant will drop down to the 167 pound weight class where he should be more confident in later matches.

Charles Duncan (185 lbs.) has now won 5 out of 6 matches, including a pin in the first period over his Carlsbad opponent. As Charles gains experience and picks up more skill, he should definitely develop into a fine wrestler.

Danny Francis will move into the 185 pound class with Duncan which will leave Mark Potter to wrestle in the unlimited weight class. Mark, a newcomer from an Arizona team, lost his match in the first period to a more experienced Carlsbad wrestler.

Lincoln County 4-H members concluded a successful year with the Annual 4-H Awards Program. The program held in the Carrizozo Recreation Center was attended by approximately 160 4-H members, leaders and parents from all areas of the county.

Karen McDaniel, Claunch, president of the County 4-H Council presided at the program. The opening ceremony was the salute to the American and New Mexico Flags led by Ricky Richardson and Joan Alford. The 4-H pledge was given by everyone present, and led by Leslie Carnell.

Cecelia Pacheco, Arabela, was the Keynote Speaker for the program, talking on "What 4-H Means To Me". Cecelia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pacheco, is a freshman student at University of New Mexico and a 9 year 4-H member. Cecelia has attended the National 4-H Club Congress as a Scholarship winner in the Leadership program. At National 4-H Club Congress she was selected one of eight young people to the "Report to the Nation" team. She has appeared in Washington, D. C., at National Leaders' Forums, met with Secretary of Agriculture Butz and other key National figures to tell the 4-H Story.

Joan Alford, Corona; Nancy Hunter, Capitan, and Amy Foster, Corona, presented a slide series and report on their trips to National 4-H Citizenship Short Course held this past summer in Washington, D. C. They traveled with a 50-member delegation from New Mexico and viewed Citizenship in action in our nation's capital.

Following these presentations a representative from each 4-H Club in the County gave the leaders in their club a gift. The leaders receiving gifts were: Sandra Alford, Corona — Mrs. Paul Pacheco, Arabela — Wanda J. Carnell, Corona — Marion Spencer, Carrizozo — Gerald R. Bonnell, Ruidoso — Knowlene McDaniel, Claunch — Helen Richardson, Nogal — Mr. and Mrs. Gene Parker, Capitan — Myrtle Davidson, Corona — Royce Washburn, Corona — Anne Ferguson, Carrizozo — Miss Yolanda Salcido, Hondo — Mary K. The SILVER LINING

By DANIEL A. STORM

On The Safe Side child is safe in his mother's arms. All safe and blessed we shall meet at last . . .

"Safe at home from the war. The principle of safety runs safe on land after being shipwrecked on the stormy sea. The mortal existence and in the life of our immortal soul.

Safety is the first thing we think about when we get in our car and hit the starter. And it is the same central thought that is uppermost in our mind all along the road. We do everything we can for our own safety. But we know that this is not enough.

Time was when most of us lived in small settlements and rural areas; and in that day neighbors looked after each other and helped one another in all ways. We were truly "our brother's keeper."

And today — just stop and think how we depend upon each other by the hundreds, the thousands, and the millions! In each car we meet, the driver holds our life in his hands — we have his life in ours.

The old-time Spanish-speaking people I have known, during almost an entire life-time among these good folks, had a little prayer that they always recited aloud — crossing themselves as they spoke the words — when they were about to begin anything in which there was the least bit of danger:

"En el nombre sea de Dios." (May this be in the name of God.)

Many Spanish-speaking people still practice this little ritual to this day and hour.

We could learn a lesson from our friends of Spanish origin. When we begin something — a journey, a job, or a venture of any kind, we would be on the safe side to stop, and with calmness and reverence in our hearts, repeat the words: May this be in the name of God.

I hope you will forgive me for bringing up this idea of safety again. I was going to let it go for a while and go into some safety pointers later on during dangerous, icy times.

But several little safety ideas were just outside my mind and kept pounding and beating on the door, until here they are, in this message to you, Lincoln County — A Safe Place To Live.

Here we do not have earthquakes, mud slides, typhoons, hurricanes, tornadoes, cyclones. In all Lincoln County we have a tradition of safety. We need to make greater efforts and be more alert and watchful now than ever before.

Way back when I first thought of sending you a message in the newspaper, I had a whole bushel basket full of titles, like: Little things that count; Flowers to the living, and On the safe side.

This last title still haunts me very much. I see so many places along life's way where we need to be wide awake and careful.

Several years back, Mrs. Floyd Haake (Helga) gave me a nickname "The Dreamer." And I have often thought that this would be a good title for a message written by an old Ridge Runner.

But, "thinking it over slowly" as the Spanish say, dreaming is all right as far as it goes — in bed, before the fireplace in the evening, or walking along the hillsides. Dreaming has its place in life, all right.

But remember this: When you get in the car and take hold of the steering wheel, all dreaming is over. You are wide awake and alert.

Come out and enjoy —

"Yet, While The Morning Star is Bright"

And this brings us to daylight saving time in Winter—a brand new experience for us all. If daylight saving time helps somebody, fine and dandy.

But in the darkness of the early morning, we need to be doubly careful in driving, more wide awake than ever — watching out for bicycle riders, people on foot, and especially children waiting for the school bus. Our precious little ones are sometimes hard to see in the very early morning standing by the wayside.

So let us be very, very careful through the winter and on through the rest of the year, and all years to come. Let us always be on the safe side. Keeping Warm Through The Winter

All my life I have been kind of a snow bird, with the cold weather always welcome. But here the last couple of years, I have been studying ways to keep warm in winter time. Outside, I mean. Native people of Alaska, Lapland and Northern Russia have figured out how to dress warmly for their climate.

I watch the snow birds feeding and playing out in the snow in near zero weather and I have wondered how they keep their little feet warm. The main principle about winter clothing is that it should be loose-fitting. Especially foot wear, like the Indian moccasins. Your feet should have plenty of room inside your shoes in the winter. Those feet of yours are two of the best friends you have. Later on I will give some more pointers on the care of your feet in the winter.

The Little Mohican

Speaking again of Snow Birds and other little bird visitors of the winter time, my friend Austin Bryant, the other day asked me for the name of a little bird that is feeding around his home along with the Snow Birds. This little fellow is distinguished by a black marking on his head extending evenly from front to back. Austin calls this little bird "The Mohican." (You remember the picture in the story books of the Mohican Indians with their scalp lock evenly trimmed.)

If any of you know the name of "The Mohican" would you please pass the word on to me for Austin?

Rich In Fire Wood

At Hollywood junction, Lee Wimberly showed me a great stack of cord wood in his back yard.

"Do you see that," said Lee. "As soon as the first snow flies, I am going to go out to that stack of wood and fall on my knees and thank the Lord that I will be able to go through the winter. Then I want somebody to take a photo of me and my wood. So I can send it up to Washington, D. C. and tell them not to worry about me."

I told Mrs. Wimberly about this and she said, "That reminds me of years ago when we were on the ranch up near Fort Sumner. In mid-winter we would have wood stacked around the door and near the stove. Lee would come into the house, and prop his feet up warming them at the stove, and glancing at the pile of wood he would say, "We're rich!"

And sure enough, we were," says Mrs. Wimberly.

Chatter from the Lanes

By Gutter Gus

We had a wonderful Christmas and hope all bowlers and bowlers did also. A you know only two leagues bowled this past week, so we went to take this opportunity to get better acquainted with some of the good sponsors.

Morris Redmann of Redmann TV has sponsored for several years. His TV service is located on Sudderth in the Skyland area.

Ruidoso Home and Auto, operated by Jay Click, is on Sudderth near the stop light at Mechem Drive.

Ruidoso National C. S. Co. is a new sponsor this year, and is on Highway 70 in Hollywood.

"Bones" W. J. C. & L. Lumber has been a sponsor for many years and he and his wife were very avid bowlers a few years ago. This lumber company is on Highway 70 toward Ruidoso Downs.

Sponsors and teams this week are, on the Monday Nite Mixed League: Team No. 8, sponsored by Ballard's Meat Market. Team members are Kay Ross, Gary Ross, Diana Ballard and Weaver Ballard.

On the Tuesday Ladies' League: Team No. 8, sponsored by McCarty Construction Company. Members are Phyl McCarty, Alta Waltrip, Sue Blackwelder and Wanda Shaw.

On the Wednesday Nite Mixed League: Team No. 8 is sponsored by Sierra Development Company. Members are Georgia George, Sue Reeves, Phil Walizer and Howard Hassell.

On the Thursday Men's League: Team No. 8 is sponsored by Wimberly Electric and the members are Roger Marshall, Ronald Buckner, Herb Ford, Wes Clark and Rick Coy.

Flames of The Lanes

MEN — Jim Clements, a 246 game and a 635 series on the Thursday Men's League bowling for John's Standard.

WOMEN — Georgia George, a 187 game and a 521 series on the Wednesday Nite Mixed League, bowling for Sierra Development Co.

We would like to congratulate Wes Clark for converting the difficult 6-7 split on the Thursday Men's League, just before Christmas. He has now been awarded the Special Awards patch from the A. B. A.

In the two leagues bowling last week splits were picked up by George Brooks, the 5-6. Jim Clements and Walt Hughes both converted the 5-10.

WINNING PIN — Charles Duncan, first year wrestler for the Ruidoso Warriors, was the only Ruidoso grappler to win his match against powerful Carlsbad Mid-High Friday

Cavemen Crush Warrior Matmen

The matmen from Carlsbad Mid-High handed the Ruidoso's inexperienced wrestling team a solid loss Friday night in the Warrior gym, winning all but one of their matches.

Included in the 59-6 win by the Cavemen were 24 points for forfeit wins in four classes in which Ruidoso could not field a competitor.

The one bright spot of the match for Ruidoso and only points, came in the 185 pound class when first year grappler Charles Duncan pinned his opponent in the first period at the 1:55 mark.

In the 145 pound class, Bill Clair of Ruidoso was leading in points until a mistake in the second period cost him the match by a fall.

Carlsbad had four pins and won three decisions along with the four forfeits on the way to their solid victory over the Warriors.

RESULTS —
98 Pratt (C) dec. Driver, 14-0.
105 Ybarra (C) won by forfeit.
112 Ybarra (C) pinned Bennett, 5:00.

119 Salazar (C) dec. Strassburg, 11-2.

126 Yancy (C) pinned Arnett, 5:48.

132 Hinds (C) won by forfeit.

138 Chaverra (C) dec. Warren, 13-2.

145 Duran (C) pinned Clair, 3:00.

155 Green (C) won by forfeit.

167 Patten (C) won by forfeit.

185 Duncan (R) pinned Hester, 1:55.

Unlimited Anderson (C) pinned Potter, :50.

night here. The sophomore pinned the Caveman in only 1:55 of the first period but Ruidoso lost the meet, 59-6.

RHS Loses 3 In Tournament

The Ruidoso Warrior varsity suffered one of their worst weekends yet last week traveling to Deming for their tourney and dropping three straight games for a last place finish.

The Warriors' troubles started with a first round match-up against tournament favorite Deming. Deming had little trouble getting past Ruidoso by a score of 104-35.

Ruidoso never did get an offense rolling as Deming ran up nearly three points for every one by Ruidoso throughout the game and held them to less than 10 points in each of the final three quarters.

Clyde Reynolds, normally the leading Warrior scorer, managed only six points as Joe Bob McGuire was the only Ruidoso player to break into double figures with 13 for the night.

Reynolds, shut out for two quarters by Deming, wasn't the only one to have troubles as only five of the nine Warriors to play were able to score.

Meanwhile, Deming had five shooters in double figures and ten of their 11 suited out were on the score-board. Deming, a power in New Mexico AAA basketball, went on to win their own tournament with a win over St. Michael's of Santa Fe Saturday night.

Ruidoso had more trouble Friday night against Artesia and again wound up on the bottom of the 99-63 score at the final buzzer, with Artesia pulling away.

McGuire again led the scoring for the losing Warriors with 18. Reynolds was able to break the tournament hex on him for one game as he tallied 14 on Friday. Dick Underwood also popped in double figures with 11.

Their efforts fell short though as Artesia, bouncing back from a loss to West Las Vegas Thursday, beat the Warriors in all but the second quarter and closed with a 30-14 fourth quarter effort to open the final margin to 36 points.

The hapless Warriors had no better luck Saturday afternoon going against twice-beaten Fabens, runner-up in the recent Ruidoso Classic here, in the consolation game for seventh place. Ruidoso made it three straight for the tourney losing 43-33 to the larger, El Paso area school.

No Warriors scored in double figures Saturday as Underwood and David Stiles took the scoring honors with nine points apiece. McGuire was held to seven and Reynolds connected only once in the first and third quarters for four points.

The tourney losses brought the Warrior record to 3-9 for the season as they head into district play against Cloudercroft this weekend. Though their record is not impressive, the Warriors have yet to lose to a team in the same class as Ruidoso. To date, all nine losses have come at the hands of AA New Mexico or larger Texas teams.

Medical Improvements Deductible
 Home improvements are generally not tax deductible, but they can be — if they're a medical necessity. For example, a swimming pool to provide treatment for a polio victim; a chair seat elevator for a heart patient; central air conditioning for a child afflicted with cystic fibrosis.
 But you'll need two documents to support this claim. A letter from a doctor stating that it is a medical necessity and a written opinion from a competent real estate appraiser stating the amount (if any) the improvement adds to the value of your property.
 How much of the expense is deductible? The amount over which it increases the property value. For example, if an elevator costs $5,000, and the property value is increased by $1,000, the $4,000 excess is deductible. If there's no increase in property value, it's all deductible.
 If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at BUCKLEY REAL ESTATE, Sudderth Drive, Ruidoso, Phone: 257-4632. We're here to help!

HOLIDAY FUN AT SIERRA BLANCA — The Christmas-New Year holiday drew record crowds to the clean, clear air of the Sierra Blanca Ski Resort, which had the best ski conditions in New Mexico after a 24 inch snowfall Dec. 23. The resort is becoming increasingly popular as more and more skiers learn of the excellent facilities available at the area.

Deadline Nears For Smokey Bear Contest
 Less than one week remains for submitting entries in the annual Smokey Bear and Woodsey Owl Poster Contest. Entries must be received by January 15, 1974.
 Posters should be sent to State Junior Gardening Coordinators; they are —
 New Mexico: Mrs. June Ballag; 4717 Comanche Road, N. E., Albuquerque, New Mexico 87110.
 Arizona: Mrs. E. R. Bayless, Jr.; 3801 North 21st Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona 85015.
 Young people from kindergarten through high school are eligible to compete by creating original posters that use either Woody's anti-pollution or Smokey's fire prevention message. Judging criteria are: originality 40% and 20% each, for message effectiveness, artistic quality and neatness. All entries must be identified by NAME, AGE, ADDRESS and school grade of the contestant.
 Winning posters at the state level will be forwarded for regional and national competition.
THE FAMILY LAWYER
 Dissenting Opinion
 News stories about split decisions by the United States Supreme Court must surely bewilder many a reader. What the majority confidently asserts in Paragraph One, dissenters just as confidently deny in Paragraph Two.
 What shall the ordinary citizen make of all this? If even the experts cannot agree on what the law is, how can plain folk be expected to know? Of course, the law is what the majority opinion says it is. A dissenting opinion has no legal force.
 In fact, in many countries, dissenting opinions are simply not allowed. Once a majority decision is reached, dissenters are expected to keep their views to themselves.
 But on our Supreme Court, public dissent has a long and respectable history. It has been a regular feature of the Court ever since 1806, when a hold-out justice voiced his disagreement with Chief Justice John Marshall.
 One great virtue of this right of dissent ("the only thing that makes life tolerable," said Justice William O. Douglas) is that it may help shape the law of the future. Major changes in the law, including even amendments to the Constitution, have had roots in earlier dissenting opinions from the Court.
 Still, dissents, if overdone, can needlessly weaken both public understanding and public acceptance of a Court ruling. At least, say critics, a judge should not dissent merely because of minor disagreement or personal pride.
 Statistics do show that relatively few of the dissenting opinions — even those of Oliver Wendell Holmes, the "Great Dissenter" — have ever become the law of the land.
 Is it surprising that dissents occur so often? Not when one considers the kind of questions the Court must answer. Almost always, they are questions on which even the wisest and fairest of men may differ. The easy ones just never reach the Court, at all.

Help Conserve Energy
 A fuel shortage could mean an inconvenience to you. Hopefully we can all work together to conserve the energy supply which we have and thereby minimize any inconvenience. Here are things you can do to save energy.
 (1) Use only the amount of light you actually need. Turn off all lights in unoccupied rooms.
 (2) Plan meals which require a minimum amount of cooking.
 (3) Use as few rooms as possible and turn down the thermostat.
 Your assistance in conserving power will enable us to provide electric service with the least amount of inconvenience to all.

IRS Gives Revised Regulations
Beginning with January, 1974 gasoline dealers may charge for gasoline, one cent per gallon in excess of the amount otherwise allowable under former regulations according to Acting Stabilization Officer, Nestor Griego. The one cent is designed to compensate dealers for increases in non-product costs since May 15, 1973. This rule also applies to retail sales of No. 2 heating oil and No. 2-D diesel fuel. Mr. Griego explained that a one-half cent per gallon is allowable for non-retail sales, i.e. sales by jobber or wholesaler. This one-half cent is of course passed on to dealers as part of product costs. Price increases can only be implemented once during any calendar month just as before. Therefore in the case of a dealer, if in January a one cent increase is passed on to the consumer for non-product cost increases, no further price increases may be made until February. Per Mr. Griego these are the only changes effective for petroleum products at this time. Future changes are contemplated however to compensate those individuals operating under reduced allocations. Further information may be obtained by calling 766-3371 in Albuquerque. Calls from out of Albuquerque may be made toll free by dialing 1-800-432-6880.

SANTA FE — A difficult, 30-day legislative session centered on money will open Tuesday (Jan. 15).

The election year powwow could be a disaster. House Democrats who elected Rep. Walter Martinez, Grants, as speaker in 1971 and 1973 are warring among themselves.

Four announced or prospective Democratic candidates are Democratic senators. They are Majorly Leader Tibo Chavez, Belen; Majority Co-Whip Odil Echols, Clovis; Jerry Apodaca, Las Cruces, and President Pro Tem I. M. (Ike) Smalley, Luna-Hidalgo-Sierra.

Gov. Bruce King is supporting Sen. Chavez as his successor. Many senators have already pledged their support to a Democratic governor candidate. King's position could endanger his legislative program.

Political maneuvering could affect the lawmaking session deeply. A rash of election year tax relief bills is expected. But the energy crisis and economic uncertainties will make assessment of state revenue 18 months ahead a tough job.

Gov. King will send a series of tax relief measures to legislators. But King says resistance to tax relief has risen among lawmakers because of a tenuous money outlook.

GOLDEN AGE CLUB

Meets first and third Thursdays at noon for covered dish lunch and games at the Eastern Star Hall. Visitors are welcome.

Coe-Curry Chapter 23, Ruidoso, of Disabled American Veterans, holds regular meeting on the first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the American Legion Hall, Ruidoso.

RUIDOSO INKNEPERS ASS'N. — Meets first Tuesday of each month, 7 p.m. at the Chaparral Motor Hotel.

Differences may be strong in the House Appropriations Finance Committee which will write the big General Appropriations Act. The 15-member panel is considered almost unmanageable.

Sen. Chavez is leading the Democratic governor race. Sen. Echols is ranked in the top three candidates. Sen. Apodaca has the best organization at present. Apodaca is also among the leaders.

The Democratic governor primary poses a thorny problem for U. S. Sen. Joseph M. Montoya. Montoya has ties with former Atty. Gen. Boston Witt, Santa Fe; Chavez and Apodaca. So far Montoya says he is not considering a governor candidate.

Montoya could be hurt if he backs the wrong horse. He must seek re-election himself in two years.

Former State Sen. Joe Skeen of Picoacho, Lincoln County, is the front runner in the Republican-governor primary. Many Democrats assume Skeen, a rancher, will be the GOP nominee.

Former Gov. David F. Cargo, Albuquerque, is expected by many Republicans to enter the party governor primary. Some capitol observers say the lineup in the primary and general election favors Cargo's chances for another term.

Legislators will be pressed to complete their work in the limited 30-day session. But they will also observe governor's races in both major parties that will gather steam while lawmakers meet.

Gov. King will meet Friday with Democratic and Republican members of his campaign reform committee to shape final decisions on recommendations he will send to the legislature. King is committee chair-

If you have not attended a Senior Citizen's meeting, you have been missing a pleasant time. The Brattsons, Riddles, and McPhersons are always very nice to take me.

I enjoyed their Christmas party very much, at the Cherokee Village Recreation Center. It was nice seeing old as well as new friends. Coffee, punch and many delicacies were served to about forty 'young' seniors.

The 1973 Legislature voted $45,000 for an outdoor swimming pool at Los Lunas Hospital and Training School. The pool has not been built. Now a proposal is pending for a $130,000 appropriation for an indoor therapeutic pool. King may send the project to the legislature.

Also on the capital improvement list is an added $229,161 for enlargement and cost increases for a state office building in Clovis. The 1973 Legislature appropriated $600,000 for the building. The additional money is subject to legislative approval.

The State Museum proposes $330,000 in state money for Dorsey Mansion in Colfax County. Gov. King and State Finance Department aides deliberated on a host of capital improvement projects. King wants to hold projects within $25 million. Lawmakers will consider the list he sends them.

Republican State Chairman Murray Ryan will set goals and objectives of the New Mexico GOP Saturday (Jan. 12) in Albuquerque. A state representative, Ryan represents Sierra and Grant Counties.

Republican county chairmen were invited to the workshop. Ryan says: "We intend to outline plans for our 'Follow the Leader' drive to increase Republican registration."

Rep. Ryan will tell party officials "where I feel the party should go in this election year." Republican elected officials will report on their activities in talks.

Colfax County Democratic Chairman, Alvino Castillo says a fundraising spaghetti dinner will be held Thursday night (Jan. 10) in Raton at the Spur Supper Club. The cost is $5 a plate. Castillo said all Democratic candidates are invited. Many contenders for major offices were expected.

Jal Democrat John W. Blocker resigned as magistrate in Lea County Division 3. Blocker was appointed May 18, 1972, by Gov. King. Blocker told Court Administrator Larry Coughenour: "Other demands make it necessary for me to vacate the office Jan. 1." A successor had not been named by King. The part-time magistrate's salary is $3,800 a year.

After which, we heard the Senior band render some Christmas songs and Mr. Graham played one of his hand-made violins. Their toys and fun gifts were distributed, to go in a basket for the needy.

The most amusing and delightful gift was drawn by Mr. Barney Waldrop. A little pair of pants made of dish cloths, to wash his dishes with. All officers and helpers made a very enjoyable evening in the lovely decorated center, and as someone said, "it was far more fun than sitting at home watching TV."

Charlotte Janzen called and it was good to chat with her. She keeps busy with her real estate business as well as caring for her home and family.

It was so nice to see Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Everett from Pecos and Odessa, Texas, while they were here. They have gone back to their homes for Christmas.

Mrs. David, in the upper canyon, fell and injured her hip; therefore does not get around too well. I hope she recovers soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler from up 'Little Denton' way, brought me some groceries, for which I am very grateful. It is nice to have these young folks among us.

James Russell Lowell said: "He who would write and can't write, can surely review"; but Epictetus said: "If you wish to write, write"; while Nietzsche said: "A good writer possesses not only his own intellect, but the intellect of his friends as well." I surely belong to one of these.

Since I have been trying to write, words have been bothering me somewhat. (I suppose I am a reviewer). These words are not pertaining to the language, rhetoric or English I studied in school. They are the ones, I have heard when a child; in the particular style or expression of people. They must be between Old and Middle English. I have often wondered where such words get started; as they are not to be found in the dictionary today, or have a different meaning. I know most of you have heard some of these words or expressions at times. Here are a few: fashionator or fastenator — a shawl toboggin — a long knitted cap — larruping — the food is good — biscuit — a hair style.

get a 'hump' on you — hurry snaffoo — to hold tight squee gee — a hair tie underskirt — petticoat — hope — to help — he 'hove' in last night juberease — careful of lollypolusa — a dandy Purgatory — Christmas — Easter are words not explained in the Bible, as we know them today.

Then some other words in the dictionary bear thinking about, as there are many definitions that are not too precise in their meanings: Wisdom, art, beauty and love. Some say doubt is the beginning of wisdom, while Dr. Frank Crane says: "The art of living is the richest of fine arts — the richest lives are those that get as many pulsations as possible into the brief interval between birth and death. The desire of beauty is the highest wisdom and the desire of beauty is that much misunderstood thing called art. Art does not mean only paintings, statues and stuffy collections; it means the laying out of the soul upon beauty, the hunger and thirst after beauty — and blessed are they that have it, for they shall be fulfilled."

And do not forget, John Keats said: "Beauty is truth, truth is beauty" and "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Edgar Allan Poe said: "Art is the reproduction of what the senses perceive in nature through the eyes-of-the-soul."

While Nina Franks says: "Love is like magic. It glows with such tenderness and beauty — it's unselfish and kind, and goes above the call of duty. Love is mercy in action."

Canapes, hors d'oeuvres and

ST. LOUIS, MO., LABOR TR. BUNE: "Twenty years ago or so, U. S. oil companies, searching for new areas of oil to supplement our U. S. oil needs, went to Arabia and there found oceans of oil through their expertise, technology and immense amounts of capital investment. They made the backward Arab rulers immensely rich. But today, the Arabs dictate to them the terms on which they will sell their oil glut. I, we go to Russia and Red China and use our superior technology to help them more effectively utilize their natural resources in a comparatively short period of years, less than 20, we will be relying upon Russia for essential natural resources as we now rely upon the Arabs, and the terms will be unconditional surrender."

petit fours have been bothering me. All the difference I see in them — the hors d'oeuvres are sweet; but I made some during the holidays that were not so sweet. Here is how:

Cut crusts from slices of white sandwich bread. (Save crusts for bread-crumbs). Soften butter all slices; spread half of slices with a mixture of jelly and peanut butter; top with other buttered slices; cut each sandwich in four squares. Cover each with icing made of powdered sugar, butter and a small amount of orange juice. Decorate with small roses made of rolled colored gumdrops and green leaves. These are very pretty and quicker than baking the cakes. But we can forget about the French word and just call them little sweet sandwiches, in plain English.

Emergency Speeds Set For State Vehicles

In conformance with the emergency national maximum highway speed limit act recently passed by the U. S. Congress, Governor King has directed that effective January 2, 1974, the maximum speed that state owned vehicles are to be driven is fifty-five (55) miles an hour.

It is further requested that travel be kept to a minimum and that state agencies share vehicles whenever possible. Information regarding scheduled trips can be obtained from the State Transportation Pool.

Vehicles shall be used for Official Purposes Only. Directive 61-7, November 3, 1973, is rescinded effective January 2, 1974.

Letter to Editor
 Dear Al and family,

Just thought I would let you know that our trip out here was OK. I am enclosing some clippings from the newspaper that are self explanatory (clippings of fuel shortage). Only they do not express the true facts — it's about twice as bad as the paper says it is.
 We ran into the shortages after we left Deming. The next stop after leaving would have been Safford, Arizona, but when we got there most of the filling stations were closed and those that were not didn't have gas. Well, that didn't bother us very much. I guess the reason it didn't is because we didn't know what was going on or what to expect. However, while going through Safford we noticed that at one service station just west of town that the cars were lined up waiting in line to get gas. But that is farm country and we thought that was people getting filled up at cut rate filling stations. Suppose we were just too dumb to realize what was going on. We knew where we were going. We knew we could make it to Globe, Ariz. and fill up at our next regular stop. But what a surprise we had coming! When we got to Globe it was the same as it was in Safford. All stations closed or blocked off. However, we went on to our regular stop to buy gas and they were open and doing business — but, cars were lined up all over the place. We got in line and about 30 minutes later we got to the pumps and, lo and behold, we could only buy 10 gallons. We got our 10 gallons and went on to Tempe. Same story — only worse. Well the clippings tell the story.
 So if you hear of anyone

In Passing...

by AL LANE

Would you like to have some official tell you exactly what you may do with your property? The threat is there in the proposed "Land Use Bill," now under consideration at both the state and federal levels. In warning against federal "land use" powers, Congressman John Rarick says, "Our founding fathers were so concerned over the possibility of a powerful federal government gaining control over the private lands that they adopted the fifth amendment. Under the "land use" proposal, big government will be able to dictate the purpose for which an owner can use his land. Effectively, the proposal takes away true ownership of the land, while leaving the occupant limited use and the task of paying taxes on it."

The Ruidoso Board of Realtors is now studying the proposal and several members of the group note their strong opposition to such a bill. Most people feel that present regulations are more than sufficient to control any abuse of lands in the country and that further federal intervention would only lead to complete governmental control of private lands.

The bill would affect every landowner — that means even owners of their homes — in the nation and could reach a point where permission from agencies would be needed just to dig a trench.
 We are already deluged with federal legislation covering us from birth to death (and even after death) and we feel that our own cities and counties are perfectly capable of setting their own standards without help from the state or the federal governments.
 Several meetings have been conducted throughout the state on the subject of land-use legislation by members of the State Legislature and representatives seem to have no strong opinions as yet. Perhaps it is time for us voters to let our representatives know how we feel about the issue, since it will affect every one of us.

coming this way, tell them DON'T — unless they bring enough gas to get back as far as Deming. Don't know how we will get home this spring with the trailer, but we will! We'll keep you informed as to what happens. Tell everyone hello for us. We'll see you when we can.
 Ted & Edna Toon

CAPITAN SCHOOL MEET — Coach Randy Lykins, discussing American Government classes of Bronson and Kenny Cummins with Mrs. Hollis Cummins.

Capitan News

PAULINE MCGARRY
 Despite the extreme cold weather last Thursday night parents of Capitan school children flocked into the primary, junior high and high school grades to talk with the teachers and to view their children's work. It was easy to feel the heart beat of the village as the parents visited with each other in the halls and then disappeared into "their particular teacher's room." Many displays embellished the walls in the rooms. There were very personal dialogues and discussions between the teachers and the parents and as Mr. McKay, principal, said, "This event will afford a better learning situation."
 Cindy Underwood, a teacher in the Reserve Room, which is a new program, has eleven students who come from their regular classes to her at certain times of the day. Miss Underwood works with the gifted children who have an I. Q. of 135 and up, and with children who have a block in the learning process such as visual perception or auditory perception. This is an individual situation and each child gets individual attention.
 Randy Lykins, coach, was proud to announce the four All-State football players. Picked from the first team were Bronson Cummins and Robert Abercrombie and from the second team were Mike Romello and Kenny Taylor. These players were appointed by the United Press. Two players who were honorably mentioned by the Prep All-American were Bronson Cummins and Kenny Taylor.
 The Boys' Basketball team will play Hondo Jan. 11 there, and Corona Jan. 15.
 Gene Baker, fire chief of Lincoln, and Mrs. Baker will inspect a fire truck at Laughlin Air Force Base in Del Rio, Texas to be used by the Lincoln Volunteer Fire Department.
 The "song is ended but the memory lingers on" for the Smokey Bear Ranger Station in Capitan, but a spokesman said the whole forest will be the Smokey Bear District and there would still be personnel stationed here.
 A pantomime of satire and comedy will be performed at the Capitan School Jan. 16, beginning at 8:30 a.m., sponsored by the National School Assembly. The name of the performer was not available at this time. Admission is 25c for children.
 "Don't be afraid to ask dumb questions. They're easier to handle than dumb mistakes."

Free Firewood Set
By National Forest

Letter to Editor

Due to the impending shortages of heating fuels and our overall energy situation, Forest Supervisor Kenneth L. Evans announced the establishment of personal free use fuelwood cutting on the Lincoln National Forest available to all persons without regard to race, color, sex, national origin, or place of residence.

We at Fort Stanton Hospital and Training School are grateful and deeply indebted to the citizens of Lincoln County and in particular to the residents of Ruidoso for the generous support given us for our Christmas 1973 program for our students. On behalf of the entire staff and each and every student, we wish to express our deep appreciation for making Christmas 1973 one of the best ever for our students. It is extremely gratifying to know that we enjoy the support of such fine and public spirited citizens.

All best wishes for a happy and prosperous 1974.
Jerald W. Myers Administrator

Mr. Evans stated that personal use fuelwood will be available on all National Forest lands within the Lincoln National Forest without a permit, except for those areas posted as closed to such use. Examples of areas which will be closed are the White Mountain Wilderness, Roadless Areas and Commercial Sales Areas.

Supervisor Evans emphasized that the cutting and taking of this fuelwood is for personal use only and is not for resale. Also, that standing trees whether green or dead are not to be cut. The taking of wood which is not dead and down requires a permit.

The new fuelwood policy is asking all individuals to cooperate in the following specific areas:

1. Use good fire safety practices.
2. Power saws are required to have a properly maintained Forest Service approved spark arrester. To assure your saw meets this standard, inspections will be available on weekdays (Monday thru Friday) at the Ranger stations located in Cloudfroft, Mayhill, Ruidoso, and Carlsbad.
3. Respect the land of others. Do not cut or remove wood from private land.
4. Leave gates open or closed, as you find them.
5. Do not cut fences.
6. Do not litter. Take your cans, lunch wrappings and other litter home with you.
7. Minimizing vehicle damage to the land. Damage results from cross country vehicle travel on soft ground and steep slopes.

Further information concerning the cutting and taking of personal use fuelwood is available at all Ranger Stations. You are urged to stop and obtain this cutting information. Mr. Evans wished to remind all individuals to be prepared for snow and cold conditions and that roads may be slick.
