Friday, Feb. 11, is the final day for municipal election candidates to withdraw their candidacy for an elective position in our municipal government. In other words, the hour has come for those eighteen residents who officially filed their candidacy to re-affirm their intention to seek public office and, like the filing schedule, candidates have until 5:00 p.m. Friday to decide.

Monday, Feb. 14, Valentine's Day (really appropriate), all candidates will meet at the Ruidoso Municipal Building and draw lots to see how the names will be positioned on the ballot. It could be, if the spirit of Valentine's Day prevails, that hearts and flowers will saturate the balloting room but on the other hand it might be like another day many years ago that was named The Valentine's Day Massacre. One hopes for the hearts and flowers.

Needless to say, since the eighteen local political hopefuls officially declared their intention to enter the political race, politics has been the prime topic for discussion throughout the village. One of the noted concerns of the local populace is endeavoring to distinguish between those who are running for office and those who are not running, with eighteen it does present some sort of problem.

Perhaps it would be a good idea if all of the candidates were something special to distinguish or set themselves apart from the voting populace. A badge, a hat, a flower or a cane, that might also serve as a persuader regarding political issues, is in order.

Since it is traditional that political candidates buy the coffee during their campaign trail and with so many who have entered the race, seems as though fourteen of the eighteen are going to be out of fifteen cent vote-getters. Guess the truth is that about the only ones, percentage-wise, who will really profit from this year's pre-election campaign will be the restaurants and the coffee drinkers.

Proselyting. I am sure, comes in many forms and fashions but in the case of three Lubbock, Texas ladies trying to persuade one of our local restaurant owners to relocate in Lubbock is going too far. The case in point happened last weekend, as after eating several meals in Margaret's Cafe, the three "restaurant stealers" did their best to talk Mrs. Jack Parlette into really moving to Lubbock. Apparently watching their meal schedule, as one waiting for payday, while the husbands were on the mountain skiing, the three ladies developed a desire for good New Mexico cooking and tried to consume comparable to a blissful anti-diet blow-out, all the food they could in their allotted time here on earth.

In the event that you haven't attended any of the Ruidoso High School Warrior basketball games you are really missing a sporting treat. The local high school club, all most certain to achieve the statewide championship, will take on the Jai Panthers here Friday night. The last home game for FHS head basketball coach Phil Hood's championship hungry Warriors will be held in the Warrior Gym, Saturday, Feb. 19, against Dexter. That just gives you two home games to observe YOUR CHAMPIONS IN ACTION.

School Board Meet

The Ruidoso Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Feb. 15 at 7:00 p.m. in the board room on the High School campus. The public is invited to attend the meet.

SM-7 Mobile Alcoholic Breath Test School Sponsored by RPD

An SM-7 Mobile Alcoholic Breath Test School was held Thursday at the Ruidoso Municipal Building under sponsorship of the Ruidoso Police Department. The special school, held in conjunction with the recently adopted New Mexico Implied Consent Law, was attended by all Ruidoso Police Officers and Lincoln County Sheriff Department law enforcement officers.

Ruidoso Chief of Police O. S. Montes, certified since August by the New Mexico State Public Health Laboratory, Albuquerque, as an Instructor to train law enforcement officers in the new SM-7 Alcoholic Breath Test, conducted the school. Chief Montes was assisted by Ruidoso Police Officer Paul Lukens.

Law enforcement officers who attended the special school and passed the written examination will be qualified by the State Public Health Laboratory to administer mobile alcoholic breath tests to drivers to determine the alcoholic level if the driver is suspected of driving while intoxicated.

The school included training in the use of the SM-7 kit, question and answer sessions, oral and written examinations. Chief Montes will grade all examination papers and forward them to the Public Health Laboratory for final qualification of the respective law enforcement officer.

The NM Implied Consent Law automatically requires a driver to give his consent to a chemical test for alcohol at the request of a police officer. The law includes consent on private property as well as public roads.

According to the Implied Consent Law, if a person under arrest for DWI refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to chemical test designated by the law, none shall be administered but could result in the revocation of his privilege to drive and shall revoke his New Mexico's driver's license for a period of one year.

School Board Meet

Democratic Woman's Club Has Guest Speaker Feb. 8

Jack A. Darnell of Alamogordo, Ranger with the U. S. Forest Service, was the guest speaker for the meeting of the Democratic Woman's Club of Lincoln County held Feb. 8 at the Paisano Restaurant in Capitlan. Following the luncheon, the group moved to the Smokey Bear Ranger Station in Capitlan where Darnell spoke to the group and showed colored slides of forests and lands under the jurisdiction of the U. S. Forest Service. Darnell stated his aim is to show these slides in order that people can better understand the Lincoln National Forest and appreciate it. He stated further that most people consider the Lincoln National Forest a recreation area, but he said, it is valuable to many people in different ways, such as, the ecologist, botanist, geologist, artist and poet, for its color texture; to the horticulturist and rancher for its grass potential; it is valuable for its history, how the early logging was done, the early railroad trestles and old water pipes which are found today; for its environment from the desert to the highest timber lines; and for the wild animals, birds and plant life. It is also valuable, he said, for its utility side such as powerline poles, ties, lumber, etc., and also for its source of water in many areas.

Darnell said it takes land management to keep the forest in continuous production, and the forest is a wilderness area to be enjoyed anytime of the year by everyone.

Mrs. R. C. Nunez, club president, presided in the short business meeting. A nominating committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Dale Dodds, Ruidoso; Mrs. Nina Nelson, Tinajas; and Mrs. Rachel West, Carrizozo, and which will present a slate of new officers for the next meeting, March 14, place to be announced later. The club voted to go on record as opposing the transfer of certain portions of Lincoln National Forest lands to the Indian Service.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

The National Safety Council advises motorists to put their winter snow tires on before the snow falls. "Studded tires are even better (where legal)," NSC says, "especially on ice. For severe conditions, tire chains are best." If stuck in the snow, NSC said, turn your wheels from side to side a few times to push snow out of the way. Start in drive, or second gear with a manual transmission, and a light touch on the gas. Fast acceleration will spin your wheels. Prolonged spinning can cause overheating and transmission damage.

The grandfather clock, found somewhere in the East, was fully restored and ran like new but was reputed to have been 120 years old. A slatted coffee table and a copy of a scroll seat Boston rocker completed the pieces. All were hand rubbed and in a Silver Fox finish. These pieces on a braided rug of bright colors with just the right amount of Early American wall decorations and contrasting drapery of green hues made the room lovely and easy to live in.

But the most interesting room I have been in was a collection of Early American pieces. Some were copied by hand and others were collected; as the organ which was somewhere near one hundred years old. The owner had installed a radio in the upper part, with the loud speaker hidden where the pedals were; with all openings enclosed in museum fabric, matching the re-made and re-upholstered, cured high back couch. I was most interested in this organ as I played on it when just a girl, and it brought back many fond memories.

Charles Von Broske Dies In California
Friends in this area learned last week of the death on Feb. 3 of Charles Von Broske, 60, in the T. L. C. Hospital in El Cajon, Calif. Von Broske left the Ruidoso area about two years ago. While here he was associated with the Chaparral Hotel for a time and also operated the restaurant at the Villa Inn for a short period of time.

Other games scheduled: Feb. 10, Here — Tigerettes vs. Dexter. Dexter is coached by Pam Hall Daubert. Game is scheduled for 4 p.m. NOTE — The time could be changed to 6 p.m. —The Tigerettes will be in Ruidoso beginning Wednesday of next week for the district tournament. —The 7th and 8th grade teams play Hondo, here, Saturday morning, Feb. 10.

This is the first announcement of the Senior Play to be given in about five weeks in March. The title of the play is "I Was A Teen-Age Dracula" by Gene Donovan. The title leads me to believe this will be a fun evening of entertainment.

This is another poem from the 3rd grade. It's a little late but we still like it. "January Fun" by Stuart Daniel: I like January when it snows, I like the moon when it glows, When it snows I have some fun, When it snows it's hard to run.

When it snows I can sled, I like to stand on my head, In the snow you can make a man, Have fun with me if you can.

Vocational Education Week, Feb. 13-19, will be emphasized in the Home Economics Department at Capitan High School by showing films on careers. "Food Service" will give an overall view of the school lunch programs and job opportunities for students of home economics.

"Careers in Home Economics" will stress the clothing, child development, home management, and the field of dietetics and the all important occupation of being a housewife and mother.

At the present time there are 54 students enrolled in home economics classes, seven of these are boys in the family living class. These classes are directed by Angelina Rovine who also sponsors an active FHA chapter.

Late score: "B" game — Hagerman 26, Tigerettes 25. "A" game — Hagerman 63, Tigerettes 35. These two games were played Monday night in Hagerman.

Godinez 3. High point men for Dexter were Freeland 19, Sosa 18. The Tigers will be in Carrizozo this Friday night and return home Saturday evening to play host to the Hagerman Bobcats. The first game is slated for 6:30 p.m.

SOME COMMENTS ON WATER-

The subject of water has inflamed citizens of the Southwest for many years. Many times tempers rise without much consideration as to what the facts are. The recent controversy over the possibilities of the Mesalero Apache Tribe's expansion of the Sierra Blanca Ski Area facilities should be a lesson to all. Much misinformation surfaced, especially relating to water, lands involved, and the Apache Tribe.

Here in the arid Southwest, we are subject to periodic droughts and alternating floods; times of bone-dry streams and times of tropical rains.

In order to understand some of our problems, we must obtain a true picture of our particular watershed. Our area lies in what is known as the Hurricane belt. This climatic belt extends from our particular watershed down into the coastal area bordering the Gulf of Mexico. Especially during the September period of the Vernal Equinox we find tropical storms, usually arising amid hurricanes in the Gulf, pushing inland as the hurricane blows toward the coastline. During this period rains fall along the Gulf, reaching deluge proportions, 10 to 20 inches being common. About a decade ago, the small town of Ozona, Texas felt the teeth of one of these tropical storms that spilled some 40 inches of water in a 24 hour period. Strange as may seem, the same thing could happen here, if conditions are right.

In 1941, one such storm dropped over 20 inches of moisture on Sierra Blanca that resulted in the largest runoff in the history of local weather records. The three streams, Rio Ruidoso, Eagle Creek and the Rio Bonito, dumped over 150,000 acre feet of water into the Pecos River in the short span of ten days.

The result of this catastrophe was construction of the Twin Reservoirs near Roswell, which have a capacity of 168,000 acre feet, to prevent another such flood. What we must realize is—when it is wet here, it is usually wet throughout the entire area from here to the Gulf. Our flood waters flow in that direction with huge amounts of unused-unproductive waters finally coming to rest in the sea. At peak water periods, everyone has more water than can be used; during June and July, no one has enough water.

The farmers in the Rio Ruidoso Valley are blessed with several advantages not enjoyed by either the Apache Tribe, or the Village of Ruidoso. In the forties, after power found its way into the area, an underground system of supplemental wells was developed. Now when the Rio Ruidoso goes dry, the pumps come on. No such wells are possible in the porous rock formations of the highlands. Storage in this area must necessarily be surface.

Contrary to general belief, including many in the legal profession, our water laws were not written all at once. They were developed through trial and error, or were added as the occasion arose, a step at a time, to protect the people who were using the waters. It is not a simple procedure, but involves the complex procedure of jurisprudence. Let's take a look at our own Rio Ruidoso Stream System. In general, priority of use constitutes the better right; a village or city is given the first priority of right. Our stream, taken as a whole, has priority of right as against the Pecos water users. Down through history they have challenged our priority to the use of flood waters, surface waters, and the rights to the use of the farmers' underground waters, and lost. Individual rights to the uses of these same waters construct an entirely different mold. The valley farmers down through the years have valued priority of use and each takes the water in turn as it comes to his heading, or ditches. They have done this because during dry times their surface flow gradually reduces to nothing, and when it rains flood waters rush down the valley. With 45 ditches catching these waters everyone makes use of those waters at the same time, where-in if they practiced use of available waters on a priority basis, only those headgates open at that particular time would benefit from the flood waters. In short, they would be passing flood waters on downstream to other users which they, the farmers, were entitled to use. The farmers have employed a system of water usage through what is termed "customs and usage", which is a matter of record in the courts and is upheld by these courts.

The village of Ruidoso and the Apache Tribe should take a look at methods of joint cooperation on use of available water. Anyone desiring to use the waters of our stream system must necessarily file an application with the State Engineer explaining the purpose, method of use, etc. There being no unappropriated waters it is a simple matter to determine the legality of the proposed rights to the use of the water applied for. The Village of Ruidoso has purchased irrigable lands in the valley, and is regulated by a permanent injunction as to time and rate of taking, and by doing so, in the manner proposed, has taken the status of a farmer, and is in an entirely legal position.

What the people of the Village fear, is that under the proposed works by the Apache Tribe, no application for use of the water involved is forthcoming. They are going to dip into the stream for what they need. The Village purchased their rights. Many people feel the Indians do not propose to do so. Let's take a look at their proposal.

The Apache Tribe's Clenegita project is much misunderstood by village residents. The Clenegita watershed has been studied by the Tribe for twelve years, and they have determined that this watershed will keep a 100-acre lake full. The Tribe proposes to use flood water (i. e. waters that are above normal flow and thus not adjudicated by the state engineer) for construction of their project and initial filling of the dam. When the dam is finished the watershed will maintain it and no Rio Ruidoso water will be used. Their use of the waters will be entirely recreational, and by doing this in the particular manner involved, will create no hardship on anyone, but will be using only those waters that normally would run into the Gulf of Mexico. This is a correct step which will make use of our watersheds to create the maximum, multiple use of the waters arising. By following this procedure, another use right will work its way into water laws, a principle which is good, not bad. It will arise just as previous use rights have arisen. The maximum use of our waters arising here to fulfill needs of the people is necessary for development of a resort area.

It is a fallacy to assume that we can solve our recreational needs by following our water statutes to the letter of the law from now until eternity. The time has run out when our village must necessarily purchase more water rights to fulfill their needs for water. STORAGE is our problem, and to date we do not have ample storage for the rights previously purchased. In the future, we need only to follow the procedure of use proposed by the Mesalero Apaches. Why should we try to purchase and dry up 2,000 acres of fertile irrigable acres in the Rio Ruidoso Stream System when the waters we need rush wildly by during the periodic wet spells, finally winding up in the Gulf of Mexico, a waste for all?

If both the Village and the Mesaleros owned all the water rights existing in the Rio Ruidoso Stream System, some 2,000 acres, what would we have without storage? Last summer should prove once and for all that accumulated water rights mean nothing without storage. We would gain nothing by buying all the rights available, and would do irreparable damage to our great recreational area. Why even consider such an idea when a small amount of storage, filled only during the wet periods, would remedy many of our problems?

What we are trying to say is that our farmers, the Village of Ruidoso, and our friends, the Mesaleros should be united. Not only in area, but in purpose as well. It would be a disservice to state that our Mesalero Apaches would intentionally damage those whose water usage rights lie below. When they fill their small storages, along with the Village, they will serve thousands of visitors who come to our area for recreational purposes. All will prosper, and not at the expense of any rights, but at the economic gain of those who prepare these multiple uses. This type of multiple use is in keeping with the policies of the United States Forest Service, The Department of the Interior, and private interests.

Nothing would be sadder than legal entanglements, at which time the courts enter into the controversy, and after many delays through state and federal adjudicates, and much expense, the courts would dictate our rights. But the farmers, the Village and the Indians working hand in hand, could dictate fairly our continued use rights and put our hard-earned dollars into productive use, instead of into the pockets of the legal profession. No water flow has ever been increased in a courtroom. The courts can't solve anything that couldn't be solved better by mutual agreement.

In summary, we could say that the Village has first prior use rights, but let's not use our rights at the expense of the Indians' rights and the farmers' rights. Let's all work together to store water for the Village, keep the farmers' valley green, and let the Indians support themselves by building recreational areas.

-RUIDOSO FACULTY REVIEW-

Bonnie Murray is teacher for the Fifth Grade at Nob Hill Elementary School in Ruidoso where she has been teaching for two years. A native of Ruidoso, she earned her BA at New Mexico State University and has completed some graduate work. She taught the second grade for two years in Hatch before moving to Ruidoso and she has two children.

Bonnie Murray has helped organize an art program at the school covering all types of creative art on a volunteer basis. The students are encouraged to create art objects from all sorts of odds and ends. The class is presently working in paper mache and expect to have an exhibit later in the year.

Since the art program is not funded in the school budget, local residents having materials to donate to the school are urged to bring them to the teachers.

All phases of art—from drawing to sculpture—are covered in the program and the children are encouraged to choose the form most suited to their talents.

BONNIE MURRAY stands before a blackboard covered with paintings completed by students in the classes' voluntary art program. All forms of the creative arts are covered by the program with a special emphasis given to the use of discarded items. (Ruidoso News Photo)

Price Freeze Questions and Answers

Q. My landlord has just raised my rent, but won't show me any records justifying the increase. Can I refuse to pay?

A. Tenants may refuse to pay added rental charges unless the landlord makes available records showing the base price for the units, and the reason for any increase between the base price and the maximum price he was allowed to charge during the freeze: The IRS has cautioned landlords against raising rents—even within Price Commission guidelines—unless they keep complete records on rental practices and make the records available to tenants whose rents are to be increased.

Q. Do wholesalers have to comply with the base price posting requirements applicable to retailers?

A. No.

Q. Does an employer have to apply to the Internal Revenue Service for permission to make retroactive payments for service performed during the freeze by employees receiving less than $2 per hour straight time or for one-time fringe benefit increases which came due for employees during the freeze?

A. No. In these cases, employers may make retroactive payments on their own determination, subject only to compliance checking by the Internal Revenue Service.

Q. Are state unemployment compensation payments subject to controls in Phase II?

A. State unemployment compensation payments are not wages or prices within the meaning of the governing statute and are not controlled. This is true whether or not a particular state's program is funded in whole or in part by employer contributions.

Q. Do the economic controls apply to college tuition charges?

A. Yes, tuition, as well as room and board are covered.

Q. Do preofficers and reporting firms use the same form to notify the Price Commission of price increases?

A. Yes. Form PC-1 (PC-1R for retailers and wholesalers) should be used by both firms with annual sales of $100 million or more to notify the Price Commission in advance of price increases and file quarterly reports and those firms with annual sales between $5-100 million that are merely required to report quarterly. The Price Commission will process requests for price increases only if submitted on those forms or facsimile copies. These forms are available at Internal Revenue Service offices.

All other manufacturing, service and professional firms who do not have to file Form PC-1 to validate their price increases, but must maintain records of such increases in their files may find the form useful for computing and recording in the files any price increases put into effect.

Postoffice To Sell Federal Tax Book

A booklet that gives information on how to fill out Federal tax returns is on sale now at all Postal Service facilities in Lincoln County, Ruidoso Postmaster Manuel G. Badillo announced today.

"Your Federal Income Tax" was written by the Internal Revenue Service and contains many examples to illustrate how the tax law applies to actual situations. A special feature of the booklet is the sample, filled-in return, Form 1040, keyed to pages where explanations can be found for each entry on the return.

The 160-page booklet is on sale now and costs 75 cents a copy. It is available at all local and area Post Offices.

"By selling this booklet at Postal facilities in the area we are offering a convenient service to our customers," Postmaster Badillo said. "We are participating in a nationwide program to make the tax booklet available to the public in 15,000 postal facilities."

IRS Inaugurates Toll Free Service

If you call your local Internal Revenue Service Office and you are asked to call another number, don't think the office has been closed. It is simply a new toll-free telephone system which IRS has installed to give you better service.

It's now about as easy to get a response to your IRS tax or economic stabilization question as it is to call about the weather. Just pick up the phone and call IRS in Albuquerque. There are no long distance charges, no matter where you live in New Mexico.

The new state-wide telephone tax information service provided by the Internal Revenue Service is available each business day during regular working hours. It's designed to give immediate help to taxpayers who have questions about tax returns, bills, notices, letters, or the economic stabilization program.

To reach the IRS, in Albuquerque call 843-3101 and in Roswell call 622-1670. Residents elsewhere in New Mexico should dial the access code for their area, and then dial 800-432-6880.

Andy Rue, announcing his candidacy for the Ruidoso Village Council, noted that he was born and reared in Lincoln County and that the Rue family moved in Ruidoso in 1947.

He and his wife, Ola, have five children, Elizabeth, 11; Theresa, 9; Connie, 7; Tammi, 4; and Whitney, 7 months.

Rue noted that he stood for no more taxes for residents of the village and feels that the water bond issue recently passed was poorly represented to the people and he would like to see the money from these bonds used only for further developing the water system of Ruidoso and nothing else.

Rue completed his high school education in the Hondo School system.

"Having lived in the area since 1947, a resident and former Village Clerk, and my husband and I living here, I am interested in the growth and welfare today and the future of Ruidoso Downs."

Homer Allison, Norman Wheeler and myself, are "Citizens for Progress. If we have the opportunity, by being elected to the positions filed for, we will work to the best of our ability towards the growth of Ruidoso Downs."

BESSIE NICHOLICH

NORMAN WHEELER

My wife and I and our two small children moved to Ruidoso Downs four years ago and have owned and operated the Ruidoso Downs Liquor Store since then.

We are delighted to settle in Ruidoso Downs because we think that it is a fine village with friendly people, and most important, with a great potential for growth and progress.

I am running for trustee under the slogan of "Citizens for Progress" with Homer Allison and Bessie Nicholich because I believe that together we can help to direct the growth and progress of Ruidoso Downs in a positive direction while striving toward better public service for all its residents.

Staubach To Speak At Runnels' Dinner

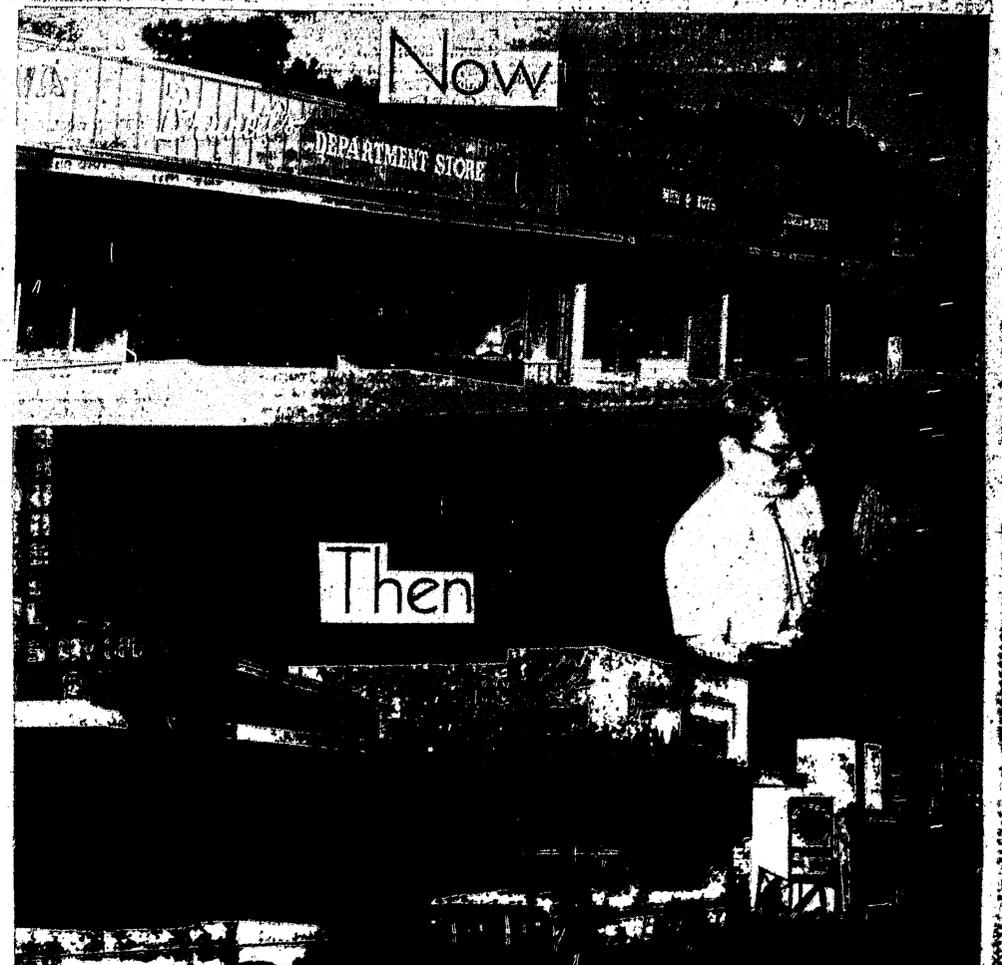

Robert Staubach, quarterback of the Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys, will speak at a $100-a-ticket fund-raising dinner Friday night at Hobbs on behalf of Congressman Harold Runnels, D-NM.

Staubach will be pinch-hitting for Congressman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, who has been advised not to travel because of a back ailment.

Sponsors of the Runnels' dinner said they felt it would be better to go ahead and have the dinner Friday night, with a substitute speaker rather than postpone it again.

Harry Eaves, chairman of the dinner committee, said ticket sales have been good and that a crowd of 500 to 600 people is expected. A reception is scheduled at 6:30 at the Hobbs Holiday Inn, with the dinner to follow at 7:30.

"We regret very much that Congressman Mills will not be able to join us, but we are pleased that Staubach will be

HUSTLING WARRIOR AWARD

NOTE: Each week basketball fans who attend the Ruidoso High School Warrior basketball games will have the opportunity to vote on the Warrior player they consider to have "HUSTLED THE MOST" during the respective game. Ballots will be available in the lobby of the Warrior Gym following each game. Fans are requested to name their choice and place their ballot in a designated ballot box. The "HUSTLING WARRIOR AWARD" will be presented during the half-time of the next home game. Warrior head basketball coach Phil Hood stated that the award is not based upon high scoring, rebounding or foul shooting, but strictly on the overall effort and hustling of the player.

— THIS WEEK —

KEN (BUNKER) PERRYMAN

BUNKER BUREAU—For the second consecutive week Ruidoso Warrior Ken Perryman has been voted as the "Hustling Warrior of the Week" by Ruidoso area basketball fans. Much to the delight of the fans, the scrappy 6' 3" Warrior starter seems to have set up an office under the basketball backboards as he pulled down his share of offensive and defensive rebounds plus he has been able to consistently remove the lid on the basket. Perryman tallied 24 points against the visiting Hondo Eagles here last Friday night. (Ruidoso News Photo)

PULVERIZE HONDO—107 TO 54

Warriors On Warpath-Win 2

The Ruidoso High School Warrior Basketball Team, last week, went on the warpath resulting in their completely pulverizing Hondo, 107-54, here Friday night, and totally demoralizing Eunice, 80-54, in Eunice Saturday night. The Tribe's District 5AA record is unmarred, 6-0, and their win over Eunice gave them an undisputed first place in District competition. The state champion-eager Warriors have four district games remaining before entering the District 5AA Tournament.

Friday night's game against the visiting Hondo Eagles was all-Warrior from the first tip of the ball to the last second of play. The Tribe dominated every phase of the contest and passed the century figure in scoring as Warrior Ken Perryman dropped in a fifteen foot shot late in the final period of play. Perryman led the Warrior scoring with 24 points, his highest single game scoring in the season. The 6 foot, three inch RHS Junior hit successfully on a dozen field goals before he fouled out of the game in the closing minutes of play.

The Warriors, Perryman, Corky Conley and Gordon Howell, controlled the backboards as Blane Miller and Reeves "Dynamo" McGuire harassed Hondo's front men. Both Miller and McGuire were credited with a number of ball steals from the visitors.

Local roundballers in the double figure scoring bracket included all of the starters, Perryman, 24; Howell, 19; McGuire, 18; Conley, 17; Miller, 10, and Steve Wimberly, 10.

The Ruidoso JV five walked away with an easy win over the Hondo JV club, 63-36, in the preliminary game Friday night. Joe Bob McGuire, JV quarterback, led the junior varsity scoring for the fourth consecutive week with 20 points. McGuire is averaging around 20 points per game. Harlon Butts dropped in a cool 17 for the winning Ruidoso JV team.

Saturday night RHS basketball Coach Phil Hood's Warrior team completely outclassed the Eunice Cardinals as they dumped them, 80-57 as both teams battled for the District 5AA top position. The Warriors, from the start, took charge of the contest and led at the close of every quarter of play.

Gordon Howell and Ken Perryman, both RHS Juniors, pulled down 20 and 19 rebounds respectively controlling both the offensive and defensive backboards for the visiting Tribe.

The Warriors face Jal here in the Warrior Gym Friday night as they near the close of the regular 1971-72 season of play.

Three Tribesmen collected double figures in the Warrior-Eunice game including Blane Miller's high game scoring of 22 points, and with Gordon Howell and Ken Perryman totaling 20 points each.

CENTURY'S TANGO — Warrior Ken Perryman appears to be doing a little high footed tango as he dropped in the 100th point for the Tribe as they white-washed the visiting Hondo Eagles here Friday night, 107-54. It would appear that part of the Century Tango includes "Hold hair and pushing with hand" as you kick your foot. Anyway Perryman collected on the shot as Warrior Corky Conley, No. 10, readies himself to join in the Tango. (Ruidoso News Photo)

"ENOUGH'S ENOUGH" — Mel Patton, No. 24, Warrior reserve, was not satisfied with the Warriors' 100 points against the visiting Hondo Eagles as he netted a 2-pointer following the above pictured twenty-foot jump shot. An unidentified Hondo player seems to be saying to Patton, "Ah, com-on, enough's enough." The host Warrior team racked up the Hondo five, 107-54 before the game ended. (Ruidoso News Photo)

DYNAMO DELIVERS — RHS Tribesman, Reeves "Dynamo" McGuire, left, makes a lay-up shot look easy but the truth is that just prior to his collecting on the above two points he literally wormed, plowed, drove, and squeezed through a host of visiting Hondo Eagles to make the shot. The five foot, six inch Warrior starter collected on 18 points during the Warriors' trouncing tactics over the Hondo team, wiping them out, 107-54. (Ruidoso News Photo)

News 'N Notes

By MARY ELLEN PAYNE
(Lincoln County Extension Home Agent)

There has been a marked drop in the per capita consumption of potatoes in this country since 1950. One reason is the growing concern of the public with calorie intake and the mistaken belief that potatoes are high in calories.

Although potatoes are higher in calories than most vegetables, they are considerably lower than many other foods in the daily American diet. A baked or boiled potato has fewer calories than the same amount of avocados, lima beans, bran flakes, prunes, rice or sweet potatoes. Potatoes prepared without butter or cooking oil and served without gravy also have fewer calories than most fruits canned in heavy syrup.

Starch, often considered the reason potatoes are fattening, and other nutrients make up only 20 per cent of the potato - 80 per cent is water. If potatoes had to be your only source of nutrients, they would provide all of the riboflavin, 1 1/2 times the iron, three to four times the thiamine and niacin and more than 10 times the vitamin C you need. Potatoes also contain many important mineral elements and supply a significant amount of protein as well. In fact, a diet of whole milk and potatoes can supply almost all the food elements necessary for the maintenance of the human body.

Potatoes are also convenient. They come in more than 50 forms that can be prepared very quickly. Processed potato products include dehydrated instant, canned potatoes, ready-to-eat chips, a variety of frozen and packaged potatoes and prepared potato dishes. A popular casserole for family or company is "Cheese Scalloped Potatoes".

5 cups sliced raw potatoes.
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup.
1 cup American cheese.
1/2 cup milk.
1 medium onion, minced.
1 pimento - finely chopped.
Mix the soup with the milk, onion and pimento. In a buttered medium casserole arrange layers of potatoes, grated cheese and soup mixture. End with cheese. Cover and bake 1 hour, 15 minutes. (Or until potatoes are tender) in a 375 degree oven. Uncover and bake an additional 15 minutes. Serves 6.

Since the inception of the Crusade, branches have been established in high schools, the military and the field of athletics.

CAMPUS CRUSADE-This portion of the 250 college students of the Campus Crusade For Christ is lined up for lunch on the final day of their meeting Saturday at the Chaparral Motor Hotel. It gives one an idea of the true picture of the youth of our country that seldom make news. The young people enjoyed a day of skiing at the Sierra Blanca Ski Resort Saturday. The group is from the West Texas district of the movement. (Ruidoso News Photo)

Crusade for Christ Met Held in Ruidoso

Two hundred and fifty college students from throughout West Texas were at the Chaparral in Ruidoso last Friday, Saturday and Sunday for a meeting of the Campus Crusade for Christ. The skiing and general get-together met featured Jim Craddock of Oklahoma City speaking on the subject of "God's Principal for Living the Abundant Life."

The non-denominational organization is represented on 400 major campuses in the U. S. and 45 foreign countries and was organized in 1951 at UCLA by Bill and Vanette Bright.

Phil Price, West Texas Director, has announced that a possible fall meet is being planned for Ruidoso with about 500 students present.

Texas Tech Graduates Three County Youths

A total of 888 students in the six colleges at Texas Tech University received bachelor's degrees at the conclusion of the fall semester.

The College of Business Administration graduated 273 students; Arts and Sciences, 205; Education, 130; Agricultural Sciences, 109; Engineering, 94; and Home Economics, 77. Fall enrollment at Texas Tech in the six colleges and Graduate School and School of Law totaled more than 21,000. No commencement exercises are conducted for fall graduates, but students completing requirements for graduation in the fall are invited to participate in the spring commencement ceremonies May 13.

County recipients of bachelor's degrees during the fall semester by college were: College of Agricultural Sciences - S. Kent Glenn, Ruidoso, Animal Science (with honors). College of Education - Carol Ann Honig, Hondo, secondary education (with high honors). College of Home Economics - Zana Hall Segovia, Captain, Home Economics Education.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

A North Carolina magazine, "The State", observes some upside down logic: "We have courts that protect criminals and condemn law officials; public officials who advocate violence instead of order; artists who win prizes for ugliness instead of beauty; moralists who condemn ethics and exalt license; ministers who preach against a Divinity and 'patriots' who aid our enemies. About all we need now is to try to cure people of sobriety, jail citizens for saving money, and paying their taxes, and award degrees for ignorance."

Now is a good time to check how well you are prepared to fight and hold in check a fire on your farm until the fire department arrives. First and most important rule to follow, is for you and your family not to take any unnecessary chances in attempting to deal with a fire - lives are irreplaceable, property is not. But it's good sense to be equipped with "first aid" fire fighting tools, and for you and everyone on your farm to know how to use them.

One important tool is the fire extinguisher - of adequate size and proper type for the kind of fire expected. Your local fire department can advise you on types and sizes; the most reliable ones are those approved by nationally recognized testing laboratories.

Extinguishers should be placed strategically in all fire danger areas - in home kitchens, barns, machine sheds, storage tanks of gasoline and kerosene. The best extinguisher in the world won't be ready to go into action when needed most, unless it is checked and recharged regularly. Follow the manufacturer's instructions on this. And don't wait for a fire emergency to read the directions on how to operate the extinguisher - know how to use it and make sure everyone on the farm knows how. Another good fire fighting tool is a garden hose sprayer. Filled water buckets are also useful in spots in and around buildings.

Particularly for home safety ladders to reach the highest roof tops and windows should be quickly available at all times. Be prepared for field and brush fires - with pump tanks, or sprayers, fire swatters, brooms and burlap bags and water to wet them.

This release was made by Charles Wood, Lincoln County Chairman. He reported Lincoln County sales of $68,730. Sales in this County in 1970 totaled $47,756.

Two Out of Five New Mexico Residents Have Spanish Heritage

Two out of five residents of New Mexico are of Spanish heritage, according to a report from the 1970 census by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce. It shows that of the State's 1,016,000 total population, 437,286 were of Spanish language or had a Spanish surname. The population of Spanish language is composed of (1) persons who reported Spanish as their mother tongue, that is, the language spoken in the home during childhood, and (2) all members of a household related to a head or wife reporting Spanish as mother tongue.

The census report, released by the Department's Social and Economic Statistics Administration (SECA), shows that two-thirds (261,411) of New Mexico's population of Spanish heritage lived in urban areas. Among the 15 cities of 10,000 or more, Albuquerque had the greatest number, 85,032, or 35 per cent of the city's population. However, South Valley, with 21,512 persons of Spanish heritage, had the highest proportion, 73 per cent.

Fewer than one in five of New Mexico's 145,875 rural population of Spanish heritage lived on farms.

Ninety-seven percent (394,037) of the State's Spanish heritage population was born in the United States; 34,311 were of foreign or mixed parentage (26,337 had one or both parents born in Mexico). Of the 13,189 persons of Spanish heritage who were foreign born, 11,027 were born in Mexico.

The median age of the Spanish heritage was 19.8 years, compared with 23.9 years for the State's population as a whole.

About 60 percent of the Spanish heritage population 5 years and older was living at the same address in 1970 as in 1965, compared with 50 percent for the total population over five.

Persons of Spanish heritage 25 and older average 9.7 years of schooling compared with 12.2 years for the total population 25 and older.

Among the 11,697 persons of Spanish heritage 16 and older who were employed in 1970, 11 percent held professional, technical, or similar jobs; 16 percent were clerical or kindred workers; 14 percent were in crafts; and 19 percent were service workers other than private household.

The median income in 1969 of the 87,858 families of Spanish heritage amounted to $6,057, as compared with $7,849 for all families in the State.

Tabulations in the report show that 6 percent of the Spanish heritage families had incomes of $15,000 or more, while 15 percent of all New Mexico's families were in this income bracket. At the opposite end of the scale, 22 percent of the Spanish heritage families and 15 percent of all families had income below $3,000.

Similar detailed statistics for persons of Spanish language or surname in the other four southwestern States (California, Arizona, Colorado, Texas) will be available in forthcoming reports for these States.

Copies of the report, "General Social and Economic Characteristics: New Mexico," PC (1)-C33, are available for $1.75 each from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., 20402, or any Department of Commerce Field Office.

SANTA FE - Sen. C. B. Trujillo, D-Taos, predicted the truck tax-fee bill would pass in the Senate. Trujillo is Senate Finance Committee vice chairman.

The SFC voted a "do pass" 10-4 to the truck tax-fee bill at a $4.2-million level. The bill cleared the House 49-20 after a hot floor fight. Sen. Trujillo said of the bill, "It has to stand on its own merits."

Trujillo, an insurance agent, sponsored a bill creating an added Taos County magistrate in the Penasco area with a $4,200 annual salary. The bill was in the Senate Judiciary Committee. Taos County magistrates are located now at Taos, Questa and Tres Piedras. They would be retained.

Gov. Bruce King signed into law two bills by Rep. Alfonso Vigil, D-Ranchos de Taos. The bills appropriate $30,000 for the balance of the present fiscal year ending June 30 and $150,000 next fiscal year for irrigation ditch dam repairs. The appropriations are funded from the irrigation works construction fund. Trujillo managed the bills in the Senate.

Sen. Trujillo said the SFC would hear the bills this week with a major impact on the state general fund. Included will be a House-passed bill granting income tax credits for excise taxes paid to families below $4,000 annual income. The bill would reduce revenues $3.5 to $4 million.

Trujillo says: "Municipalities are hurting for revenues. Cities have no real way of getting operational money. We need to give them property tax millage or something." Trujillo is sponsor of a bill appropriating $75,000 to the State Board of Finance to renovate the Mora County courthouse. The money would be a one-year loan. It is needed to generate federal funds.

The Senate passed 32-0 a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Emmett Hart, D-Quay. DeBaca-Guadalupe, exempting Vietnam veterans from tuition at state universities. Sen. Hart said about 29,000 veterans would be eligible for benefits. The amendment is subject to voter approval.

The Senate passed 31-0 a major drug abuse act sponsored by Sen. Odie Echols, D-Clowry, for the interim Drug Abuse Committee. Echols was committee chairman. The bill applies a penalty of $25 to $50 for simple possession of less than one ounce of marijuana. The offense is a misdemeanor.

The Senate passed 34-0 a coal surface mining act sponsored by Majority Leader Tibo Chavez, D-Belen, for the administration of Gov. Bruce King. The bill requires reclamation of strip-mined lands by mining companies.

Sen. Chavez also sponsored a completely revised children's code that won a unanimous "do pass" recommendation from the Senate Judiciary Committee. Juveniles' legal rights are broadened sharply by the bill.

The Senate Finance Committee heard arguments for the administration's $5 million capital improvements bill from the sponsor, Senate President Pro Tem I. M. (Ike) Smalley, D-Luna-Hidalgo-Sierra. Action was reserved until the SFC can review over-all state money requirements in fiscal 1973.

The bill includes $140,000 to build and equip an education facility at Carrie Tingley Hospital, Truth or Consequences.

Rep. William J. Upton, D-Luna-Hidalgo, voted for five House floor amendments that watered down a land subdivision bill. Then Rep. Upton voted against the bill cleared 43-26 by the House.

Upton says an interim legislative committee should be created on land subdivisions. He says: "A man should be able to use his land as he sees fit so long as he does not harm himself or his neighbors. Further, if a man has a 2 1/2-acre tract-330 feet on each side-he should be able to do what he thinks should be done with the land. With anything less he is going to harm himself or his neighbors."

Rep. Upton says: "We should have more vocational training. Because there is considerable additional appropriation for vocational education, I will support the Legislative School Study Committee-administration bill."

House Majority Leader David Salzman, D-Union-Mora-Harding, is LSSC chairman. Rep. Upton received about 100 letters from his district from school employees pushing for a $25 million boost in state support for public schools.

Joe Ortiz's Son Visits In Ruidoso

Gale Ortiz, son of Joe Ortiz, arrived in Ruidoso last week for a visit with his father. Ortiz lives in Oxnard, Calif., and is business manager for the Ventura County United Farm Workers Organizing Committee. His duties with the committee include negotiations, administration of contracts and organizing new groups. He holds a MA in social science from Sacramento State College.

Ortiz was born in Houston but has lived in California for 18 years.

A retired banker, Upton was pleased at Gov. Bruce King's decision to omit branch banking legislation from the law-making session. Upton opposes general branch banking.

Upton voted for the $160,000 horse race tax bill and for the $4.2 million compromise truck tax-fee bill.

The House passed the race track tax bill 36-9 and the Senate concurred in House amendments, sending the legislation to Gov. King. The effect of the pari-mutuel tax increase alone, applied to 1971 business: Ruidoso Downs, $9,400 increase; Santa Fe Downs, $6,400 increase; Sunland Park, $477 increase, and La Mesa Park, Raton, no increase.

The state would receive money from all unclaimed paying tickets. Tracks would keep all "breakage"-money remaining after winning tickets are paid to the nearest 10 cents. The 10-cent state admissions tax would apply to everyone entering the gate. The House defeated two floor amendments by Rep. Ralph Petty, D-Lincoln-Sierra. Action was on voice votes.

Sen. John Morrow, D-Union-Harding-Colfax, says: "The only way I'd ever be for the purchase of the W-S Ranch is that they make it comparable to some of our national parks. That way make it a game preserve like Yellowstone National Park." Sen. Morrow said the federal government should acquire the 480,000-acre W-S Ranch in Colfax and Taos Counties by selling some of its land. A $1 million bill by Rep. Fred Luna, D-Los Lunas, to raise state minimum pay from $300 to $315 a month was set for a House committee hearing.

Your Social Security

Mrs. Christine Graves, social security field representative, announced a new premium rate effective July 1, for Part B of Medicare, the voluntary doctor bill insurance program for older people. The new rate will be $5.80 per month, up from the current $5.00.

Provisions of the Medicare law require an annual review of the cost of the medical insurance program. The law requires that a rate be set which would be sufficient to cover estimated expenses incurred during each premium period.

The premium increase is the lowest in recent years and reflects savings attributed to the new Price Commission guidelines and to administrative actions taken by the Social Security Administration.

Many aged beneficiaries have been inquiring about the total Part B premiums they paid in 1971. This information will be needed when they file their 1971 income tax return. Most persons over 65 paid $66.40 for this medical insurance last year.

93 years of progress ... better living electrically

When Thomas A. Edison introduced the first successful electric light bulb he contributed more than better lighting. He showed that electricity was a valuable tool for man. Just as electricity has played an important role in the achievement of almost a century, it is now an important factor in clearing up pollution... helping provide a cleaner, healthier place to live today and tomorrow.

Instructor of Week Chosen By Ski School

Sierra Blanca Ski School is now choosing an Instructor of the Week. Each week an instructor will be chosen for the award. Several of the ski school personnel will submit their choices for the award and the winner will be selected from that list. An instructor's enthusiasm for his job, class return rate and cooperation are all important factors taken into account when the choice is made.

This week's choice is Bob Vincent. This is Bob's first year as a full time instructor at Sierra Blanca, although he and his wife have taught while visiting in the past.

Bob comes to us from Otis Ridge Ski School in Massachusetts, where he was a part-time instructor for fifteen years. He has just recently retired as a physical education teacher in Massachusetts.

Bob and his wife, Helen, are not strangers to Sierra Blanca Ski School. Their son, Rick, is a supervisor in the ski school, and Bobbi, their daughter, is an instructor. Both Bob and Helen have taught here while visiting Rick and Bobbi.

Bob is to be congratulated on being chosen Instructor of the Week, and also on the fine job he is doing as an instructor at Sierra Blanca Ski School.

All-American Million Mark Will Be Hit For 1973

The 1973 running of the All-American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs drew a record total of 1,060 nominations, according to General Manager Richard Thompson.

The heavy response puts the estimated purse right on target at a staggering $1 million, as well as soundly supporting the projected purse of $200,000 for the '74 inauguration of the All-American Derby.

Starting with the '73 Futurity, all money in excess of $1,030,000 will be channeled into the following year's Derby. Both the Futurity and the Derby will be run at 440 yards.

The Derby is open to All-American Futurity eligibles of the previous year whose owners made the Futurity trial fee. According to present projections, the winner of the '73 All-American Futurity is a tradi-

American Futurity will earn a colossal paycheck of about $330,000—the biggest winner's purse in the history of racing. The $1 million gross purse, of course, will also be an all-time record in the history of the sport.

The All-American Futurity is the biggest jewel in Ruidoso's famed "Tres Coronas." The triple crown includes the Kansas Futurity, which carries a $750,000 estimated purse of $275,000, and the Rainbow Quarter Horse Futurity, now offering an expected jackpot of $200,000.

So far as this year's version of the All-American is concerned, all signals point to a gross purse in excess of the projected $910,000, Thompson noted.

The latest sustaining payment came due on Dec. 15. A total of 530 youngsters cleared the hurdle.

Only three payments remain: a $350 sustaining fee on March 15, a $500 fee on June 15, and $500 to enter the trials. The All-American Futurity is a tradi-courses. Students at Eastern are graded on a 4.0 scale.

INSTRUCTOR OF THE WEEK—Bob Vincent has been chosen Instructor of the Week by members of the Sierra Blanca Ski School as the first in a series to continue through the ski season. This is Vincent's first year of instructing for the school and he hails from the Otis Ridge Ski School in Massachusetts, where he has been a part-time instructor for fifteen years.

Census Bureau Tells Home Statistics

The 1970 Census of Housing counted 4,950 housing units in Lincoln County, and 1,628 households had at least one television set (401 UHF-equipped), the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce, announced today. The figures are from the first report for New Mexico which presents detailed statistics on housing for each county.

The report shows that in the county:

There were 277 housing units with air conditioning (223 with room units and 54 with a central system), 1,301 units with a clothes washing machine, 638 with a clothes dryer, and 192 with a dishwasher.

The 1970 population was 7,560, with an average of 3.0 persons per housing unit.

A total of 1,197 housing units were built before 1949, 846 during the 1950's, 679 during 1960-64, and 642 within the five years preceding the April 1970 census.

Utility gas was used to cook the meals in 872 households, electricity in another 548, and bottled, tank or LP gas in yet another 724.

There were 3,316 housing units with complete kitchen facilities and 3,019 with complete bathrooms, both for the exclusive use of the households. The number of bedrooms in all housing units ranged from none (in 18 units) and one (in 490 units) to four or more (in 195 units).

Owners occupied 1,797 units, renters 643 units, and a total of 1,224 units were vacant year 'round with 127 for sale and 213 for rent.

All probably will be amended further in the Senate committee.

Any of you who want to discuss legislation with me, please call my office in Ruidoso, 257-3678, or Alamogordo, 437-1840, and I will return your call.

CONWAY from the CAPITAL

Probably the bill that has given me my biggest shock this Session is Senate Bill 35, called the Control Substances Act. It is proposed by the Drug Abuse Study Committee which has been meeting monthly since the last Session. The bill follows the Federal Act and is about the same as the Act suggested by the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws with the exception of the penalty provisions.

The penalties for pushers, referred to as "trafficking" in the Act, is the same as we now have or increased the penalties. The shocker to me is the suggested penalty for possession of marijuana. If you have less than one ounce you are subject to a fine of between $25 and $50. For possession of more than one ounce and less than 8 ounces, a fine of $100 to $1,000, or imprisonment of 30 days to one year, or both. You will remember that last year I proposed an amendment for mandatory jail sentences for possession of marijuana.

I am told that one ounce of marijuana will make about 26 cigarettes, so 8 ounces should make 208. As one judge said, if these penalty provisions pass, we might as well legalize marijuana. I voted against the bill.

STATE SENATOR JOHN E. CONWAY

In the Senate Judiciary Committee but the vote there was 7 to 2. On the floor of the Senate I will offer an amendment to keep the penalty for possession of marijuana the same as it is now. I talked to several Senators and hopefully we will have enough support to get this amendment through. I can't vote for the bill with a penalty of only $25 for possession of marijuana.

Last year when I wrote in this column my feelings on the penalties for possession of marijuana, I received several letters, mostly anonymous, attacking me and my position. I imagine I will get the same ones again this year.

The mobile home bill that I wrote about last week passed the Senate with my proposed amendment to phase in the ad valorem tax. There were only two votes against the bill.

The truck tax and land subdivision bills were passed by the House and now are being considered by the Senate. Both bills were heavily amended, and in

And now a word about H&R Block's competition.

Because we think our competition represents more of a threat to you than it does to us, we're going to help you sort them out.

Your Family

The greatest people in the world. Most of the time. Unfortunately, most of the time doesn't include income tax time. Because the last thing you need when you're doing your taxes is an aunt who took an accounting course just before she dropped out of college. Or a father who thinks how much money you make and what you do with it is something the rest of the family should know about.

Your Neighbors

You know the type. The mild-mannered shoe salesman next door who suddenly turns into a mathematical genius just about the time income tax is due. He knows all the angles. Some of which even the Internal Revenue Service doesn't know about yet. And he's willing to share them with you, "just to be neighborly."

You

Your own worst enemy. All year long you can't balance your check book, but that doesn't stop you. Armed with your W-2's, a few reams of paper and a couple of gallons of coffee you bravely attack that stack of forms. You may be taking deductions you're not entitled to, and entitled to deductions you're not taking. So, should you be doing your own taxes?

Us

We're H & R Block, with over 6,000 conveniently located offices manned by thousands of specially trained tax preparers who eat, sleep, and drink income tax returns. People who set out to save you money and much of the time do it. The cost? Fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for over 7 million customers we served last year.

Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.

And everyone is eligible to receive our year 'round service which is covered by our one time fee. No extra charge for help with audits, estimates, or tax questions.

We know the people we've just told you about will do your income tax return for less than we can but we don't think you can afford them.

DON'T LET AN AMATEUR DO HAR BLOCK'S JOB.

H&R Block.

The income tax people.
