NUMBER 36, IN OUR 26th YEAR Ruidoso, Lincoln County, New Mexico—Zip Code: 88345 FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1972

By HUGH STILES

A couple of Ruidoso favorites, Liz Devine and Murrell Holbert, both of whom have withdrawn from the Ruidoso municipal political scene, are in truth tremendous Ruidoso Ambassadors and in all probability would serve the area as champions regardless of the position or title they might hold. At the time the two officially signed their name to the withdrawal document of the village, it was learned that Liz would be in Kansas City on election day attending to business and wouldn't even get to vote. One of those in the room overheard her remark and said "I sure hope you have a good time while in Kansas City." To which our illustrious devine dignitary replied, "Have a good time? — I have a good time where ever I go. I have fun just going to H and J!" Liz in truth is one of those rare individualist who will make the under-taker cry when her time comes, which in all probability will out last thirty-five more seasons of her favorite Oakland Raider quarterback.

While on the subject of municipal elections, the question has come up as to what a voter should ask a candidate seeking a municipal office. Here are a few simple but hopefully legitimate questions that are motivated with the best interests of Ruidoso and the Ruidoso area at heart.

1. Are You familiar with the New Mexico State Statutes regarding the powers and privileges of the elected office you seek?

2. How up to date are you on current municipal programs and general village procedures?

3. How many times in the past six months have you attended a village council while in session?

4. Seriously, do you really know the village procedures, regulations, rules of conduct, voting powers of one council member and the village ordinances, or is what you know about what your village is accomplishing or not accomplishing based on office shop hearsay or real valid information.

Elections are extremely serious and for people to run for an elected position to serve the people of Ruidoso, they must have their heart in Ruidoso. Anyway you look at it—it's a serious responsibility!

Am told that there is a new organization forming to town called, "The Brothers of the Bush." Seems as though mugs are in for a spell although the rumor has it that the men are some secret organization. Truth is, it may one day be tax deductible because of the special care required.

One more word about the candidates, looks like a Candidate Basketball Team, composed of all of the municipal political hopefuls, would be willing to go an extra mile and raise some money for the Ruidoso High School Athletic Department by challenging maybe the RHB Girls' basketball team to a charity basketball contest. Perhaps it wouldn't help the physical image of the candidates but it would give a lot of other exposure. There is some great names among the sixteen Ruidoso candidates basketball team. "Shorty" for center, VA for veterans' medical aid, at least one who can make the Farrar shots, plus one you could count on to guard the opposing team like Elmer's glue, then there would also be a "Doc" around for necessary Paynes, someone to sing your alma mater in Miner key. Fact of the matter it would be really mighty while those candidates who would like to participate, and might just be as popular as the former "TV show "The Life of Riley."

The Ruidoso High School Warrior basketball team is making both school and team history and stand just a pretty good chance of making a tremendous mark upon the New Mexico State Basketball competition. The winning Warriors play their last home game of the season here Saturday night and if you want to see a history making hustling Warrior state champion hungry high school team in action be at the Warrior Gym around 7:30 p.m.

Plans Modified For Nob Hill Remodeling Job

Considerable discussion was held by the Ruidoso School Board, at their regular monthly meeting held Tuesday evening, concerning the remodeling of portions of the Nob Hill School to allow the use of the open classroom concept of teaching. The board did agree to the change of plans by a 2 to 1 vote. Superintendent Pat Vaillant noted the move did not mean that the school would go to the system, but would be constructed in such a way that the change could be made if required.

The four rooms on each end of the old building would have partitions removed in the remodeling to form a large pod with the additional space in the halls being incorporated into the pods. The pods will be carpeted and, hopefully, if money is available, get acoustical ceilings to provide sound control.

Bid date for the project has been set for March 14 with bid openings April 11 and beginning of remodeling May 1.

One visitor was present for the meeting to protest the smoking lounge at the high school. Vaillant said that the school administration was considering the requirement of notes from students' parents for permission to allow the students to use the smoking room. He stated that a teacher was always present to supervise the students, Dave Parks noted that the board did not condone smoking but was simply trying to control it.

In other business, the board:
* Heard a letter from the school fire insurance company pointing out corrections to be made in the gym boiler system.
* Were told that final approval had been received for special budget increases previously announced.
* Heard Rem Alley report that the new construction program was on schedule.
* Approved the hiring of Merri-Beth Ries as girls' high school physical ed. teacher and Cheryl Hensch, 7th and 8th grade teacher.

* Scheduled a short meet early each month to approve warrants and vouchers for the building contractor.
* Noted that the Johnson-O'Malley budget proposal for 1972-73 had been drawn for presentation in the amount of $31,785.
* Learned that the Nob Hill Cafeteria folding tables and new Junior High lockers had been received and are now in use.
* Were told that a new student handbook and policy and procedure proposal was being prepared and copies would be submitted to board members before the next regular meet.

* Heard a request from teacher Dick Damagan on behalf of the Nob Hill teachers for a physical education teacher for the school. The board affirmed the need and noted that plans were being made for such a teacher in next year's budget.
* Rev. John Miner, visitor to the meet, suggested that students wishing summer jobs should sign up at the school before the school term ends and be available through calls to the school during the summer.
* Bucky Morrison stating that in visits to various school lunch rooms; he had noted a shortage in silverware.
* Accepted the resignation of Harold Longan as high school principal at the end of the school term.
* Renewed the contract of Sid Miller as elementary school principal.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held at the high school administrative offices March 14, 7:00 p.m.

Figures Released For RD Sewer Bond

Facts and figures have been released this week on the Ruidoso Downs sewer bond issue slated for a vote in the March 7 election. The $300,000 bond would increase property tax by $27 per $1,000 of assessed valuation if the entire amount is used. The $300,000 raised by the general obligation bond issue would be the village's share of the $1,200,000 project, with the balance coming from federal grants.

According to Quentin Daniels, engineer for the project, the monthly sewer rate would be approximately $3.00. This amount could vary slightly, but is considered a fairly accurate estimate.

Officials of the Village have been urged by State Environmental officials to provide the facility and they note that, if the sewer is not built, existing anti-pollution laws could force the building of the sewer plant by court action.

Under state law, it is no longer necessary to be a property owner to vote in bond elections. The only requirement is that the voter be registered in the village.

Council Names Ten Election Officials Thurs.

Ten Ruidoso residents were appointed by the Ruidoso village council, Thursday, Feb. 10, to serve as election officials for the March 7th municipal election. Their appointment, recommended by Ruidoso village clerk-manager James L. Hine, was made during the council's last regular business session.

Named as Election Judges were Mrs. Carl Jorren and Mrs. Dale Wynn with A. A. Pritchett named as Alternate Judge. Election Clerks are Mrs. Doris Sheemaker, Mrs. Dolores Gaston, Mrs. Edith Beall and Mrs. A. W. McCellan. Alternate Election Clerks include Mrs. Leon Blackwelder, Mrs. Howard Tate and Mrs. L. F. Jennings.

Village engineer Jack Kannady, Sr. reported to the governing body that he was making a feasibility study of land in the Boggs Springs area as a possible site for the off-river raw water storage reservoir, a part of the voter approved million dollar water expansion and distribution improvement project.

Kannady told the group that the Boggs Spring site, under consideration only, would provide around thirty-six acres of surface area and would include a fifty foot high dam. Storage capacity was estimated to be around 120 million gallons of water.

The village engineer also stated, regarding the priority phases of the village water expansion project, that bid specifications for construction of the overall project, with the exception of the water reservoir, would be published in three weeks.

The council also approved the recommendation of Ruidoso Mayor George P. White's appointment of Wayne Bates to serve as Ruidoso Municipal Judge, March 1, until the newly elected municipal judge, following the March 7th municipal election, assumes his duties. Current Municipal Judge Austin A. Pritchett will be on vacation during the period Bates will serve.

In other village matters the council agreed to try a new oil savings device for village vehicles as presented by representatives from the Perlin Fuel Co., and also agreed to fully support the passage of current New Mexico House Bill 54, a measure regarding the transfer of earnings from village utility accounts to the village general fund. The council also agreed to enter into a suit with the New Mexico Municipal League at a cost of approximately $12.50 regarding a New Mexico municipality being sued for transferring utility funds.

The governing body voted unanimously to adopt a Ruidoso Flag as presented to the council by Mayor White. The flag, designed by Rev. John Miner and sewed by Mrs. Robin Byrd, both of Ruidoso, was selected by a special committee of the Ruidoso American Legion Post following a flag contest sponsored by the Legion. There were reportedly fifty entrants in the contest.

The council also approved a call for bids on a new back hoe machine for the village water department, approved the purchase of new office equipment, and approved the replating of lots 24 and 25, Block 2, in Hamilton Terrace.

Engineer Explains Sewer Plans For Ruidoso Downs Council Area Certified For Federal Grants-Loans

Mayor Pro-Tem Charlie Carpenter chaired the regular meeting of the Ruidoso Downs Village Council Monday evening in the absence of Mayor Clovis Perry.

The village clerk, Hazel Lawing, noted that she had received correspondence from Darrell Fowler, village fiscal agent, stating that detailed voter information was being compiled for the sewer bond election slated for March 7 and that the information would be available in about one week.

Members of the council discussed the replacement of a bridge near Thompson's Trailer Park that was washed out earlier this year by flood waters and noted that repairs should be made as soon as possible.

Approval was given for regular monthly bills of the village. Quentin Daniels, Daniels Engineering Co., reported on progress made in plans for the proposed village sewer system and presented a contract to be signed upon passage of the bond issue. Tentative plans call for a $1.3 million modified-activated sludge treatment plant with necessary laterals and main lines and a capacity of 3 million gallons per day. Eighty percent of the cost of the plant and main lines would be paid by federal grants and a portion of the plant and main line would be paid by the Village of Ruidoso Downs. Daniels noted that the requirements for treated waste had been raised and that under the new regulations the Ruidoso sewer system was nearing capacity. He also stated that, with the passage of the bond issue, the Ruidoso system would be used only as a primary treatment plant, with waste going to the Ruidoso Downs system for final treatment. He said that there would be no odor from the plant and that water coming from the plant would be pure.

Daniels stated that private hook-ups to the sewage system would probably run from $50 to $300, depending on length of lines needed.

The trustees asked that Daniels, Fowler and Wright be present for the next regular council meeting and stated that a public meeting would be held concerning the sewer bond.

Mayor George White Is Guest Speaker For Garden Club

A talk on "Proper Pruning" to increase the beauty and life span of a plant, shrub or tree was given by Ruidoso's Mayor George White for the meeting of the Ruidoso Garden Club held Tuesday, Feb. 15, at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Les Crews. White said plants, shrubs and trees should be pruned when they are planted in order to make them healthier and more beautiful. He said pruning should be done to stimulate growth, particularly the roots; to improve the health of the plant; to control size; in order not to over crowd stems or branches; to cut damaged, or those parts hurt by winds; and to give shape, either natural or desired shape. He stated that shrubs like lilacs should be trimmed after the blossoms have died, and others, like apple trees, before the sap comes. He further stated that shade causes mildew here in this region and mulching should be done gradually. He said flowers, like roses, should be cut above the five leaves of the stem, and three canes should be left, if possible. White brought potted roses and a pine tree branch and demonstrated how to prune them.

During the business meeting, the new year books were distributed to members. During the Capsule Talk on "New Flower I Gaze This Year", several new flowers were discussed. In keeping with the club's theme this year of "Flower Arranging", the club president, Mrs. Louella Counts, explained two design displays. One was a composition using a madonna, showing "Rhythm and Contrast" in design.

The hostesses, Mrs. Crews, Mrs. Frank Adams, and Mrs. Dale Dodds served two kinds of cake, coffee and tea at the close of the meeting. Mrs. E. D. Vickers, a guest at the meeting, joined the club as a member.

SKI INSTRUCTOR OF WEEK—Gary McDonald was named Ski Instructor of the Week by the Sierra Blanca Ski School. The school specializes in instruction for skiers from "first timers" to the most advanced. With excellent facilities for the beginner, the resort has become a popular spot for newcomers to the sport.

McDonald Chosen Instructor of Week

Sierra Blanca Ski School has chosen a new instructor of the week. As always, the choice is based on an instructor's enthusiasm for his job, class turnout rate and his cooperation.

Succeeding last week's winner, Bob Vincent, is Gary McDonald. This is Gary's fourth year as an instructor at Sierra Blanca. His association with the area goes back much further, however. Gary has been skiing at Sierra Blanca since he was nine and was once a part of the Junior Racer Program. Gary was born in Texas but has lived most of his life in Alamogordo. Besides skiing, Gary has long been interested in swimming and aquatic sports. He has worked at the Ruidoso pool in the summer. Gary also was the coach of the Alamogordo Swim Team for one of its best seasons.

Gary is to be congratulated on the fine job he is doing as an instructor at Sierra Blanca.

Candidates Corner

GERTRUDE A. HUEY

Candidate For Municipal Judge
I have been a resident of Capitan for 25 years and have put seven children in school in Capitan.

I have had 12 years' experience in helping Judge Huey in his Justice of Peace and Magistrate Offices, so I feel that I am qualified for this office. Your support will be appreciated.

Mrs. Gertrude A. Huey

"DOC" SAVAGE

This photograph portrays a 16 year resident of the Village of Ruidoso who has operated food establishments and still pays real estate taxes in the village. He has become known to several hundred local residents, who know and respect him, as "Doc" Savage, their friend.

He is now offering his wide experience in life's complex existence to the residents of Ruidoso as their municipal judge for a tenure of two years.

"Doc's" integrity and intelligence will be applied to the functions, as allowed by statutes, of the office of municipal judge.

"Doc" will cooperate with all departments of Ruidoso's municipal government.

You, the voters, are assured that by casting your vote for "Doc" you will get "all my time, all of the time."

"When I am dispensing justice on a law violator, God, who is not dead, will be my assistant," says "Doc." "All persons accused of violating statutes of the Village of Ruidoso, and caused to appear before the municipal court, will receive from me (as judge), the same consideration regardless of age, creed, color or sex."

"The dignity of the court will be maintained at all times."

"My name appears first on the voting machine opposite municipal judge."

"Should you desire to learn more about my accomplishments in life, such as could be used or applied in relation to the municipal judgeship, send me a certified check or express money order in the amount of $100 and I'll give a history of the Savage family dating from 1050 AD as recorded in England, continuing to the land in the USA and exploits of myself from 1800 AD to the present. Lists will reveal — education, success in endeavors, failures, earned degrees, conferred fraternal degrees, membership in old and famed organizations, honorable mentions, financial success, great Americans I have associated and walked with, or, if you can control your curiosity for a few years, you can purchase an autobiography of H. G. (Doc) Savage at a moderate price."

EARLENE PHILLIPS

"I am very, very serious regarding my candidacy for one of the Ruidoso Village Trustee positions," Earlene Phillips stated in formally announcing her intention of seeking the Ruidoso Village municipal elected position in the March 7th election.

The candidate continued, "I definitely believe that our village council and our village itself could profit from a woman's point of view and from a woman's opinion."

Mrs. Phillips, 48, is an 11-year resident of the Ruidoso area and has owned property in Ruidoso for four years. She has been a registered voter in New Mexico for ten years.

Prior to her association with the Chaparral Motor Hotel during its first six years of operation, she owned and managed the 200 room Ross Hotel in Amarillo, Texas, and also the Jim Hill Hotel and office complex in Hereford, Texas. She has over twenty years in the business field.

"With my background in the business world and since I am now self supporting without local business attachments, or obligations," she remarked, "I honestly feel that I can intelligently and unbiasedly devote the needed time to the trusteeship in a conscientious manner."

Regarding Ruidoso's future growth, Mrs. Phillips stated, "I am interested in an intelligent growth program for Ruidoso's future, one that assures Ruidosians of protection and continual economic stability."

"I believe in the rule of the majority," she concluded, "and assure all Ruidoso residents that I will always respect the voice of the majority vote on the village council if elected."

My wife and I opened El Paraiso Cafe in Capitan in 1961 and have been in business ever since.

I have served with the Capitan School Board a four-year term and also was elected by the board to fill-in an unexpired term of one of the members who had to leave.

Very much interested in the progress of Capitan, I am now a candidate for councilman in the coming city election with the team that has the progressive plan for Capitan.

Elmer Pirelli, Ruidoso resident since 1954, and whose elected four-year term as Trustee of the Village of Ruidoso expires next month, will seek the elected position of Mayor of the Village of Ruidoso in the March 7 Municipal election.

In his formal announcement to the news media, Pirelli stated, "I have decided to run for the office of Mayor of Ruidoso because I honestly and sincerely believe I have the qualifications, background and experience to serve the people of Ruidoso."

"Pirelli has served, in official capacities, the Village of Ruidoso for the past 12 years, eight

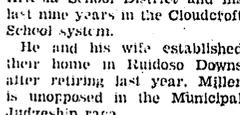

H. O. MILLER

H. O. Miller, Ruidoso Downs resident since 1971, formally announced his candidacy for the Ruidoso Downs Municipal Judge position in the Ruidoso Downs Municipal election, March 7, 1972.

Miller retired last year after thirty-three years of teaching in public schools. Born in Nebraska, the municipal judge candidate taught two years in his native state, one year in Colorado, twenty-one years in the Artesia School District and his last nine years in the Cloudcroft School system.

He and his wife established their home in Ruidoso Downs after retiring last year. Miller is unopposed in the Municipal Judgeship race.

HERMAN C. OTERO

I am a life-long resident of Capitan, attended Capitan schools, and married the former Toni Padilla, also a native of Capitan. We graduated two daughters from the local school and our youngest daughter is now attending high school here.

After serving three and a half years in the U. S. Air Force as an airplane mechanic during the Second World War, and being discharged, my father and I supplied fuel wood by contract to the U. S. Marine hospital in Ft. Stanton.

My wife and I opened El Paraiso Cafe in Capitan in 1961 and have been in business ever since.

I have served with the Capitan School Board a four-year term and also was elected by the board to fill-in an unexpired term of one of the members who had to leave.

The SILVER LINING

By DANIEL A. STORM

This is just a little rush message. I am writing here on Ash Wednesday, 1972, while I am waiting for the Rev. John Miner to come by and help me load up my things and go home from the hospital.

A whole lot of the weight is made up from the many-gewell cards, Christmas, New Year's and Valentine remembrances which have come to me from you blessed friends during the three months and eight days I have been here.

I leave this great little hospital with a heart overflowing with gratefulness to the folks here inside and to all of you on the outside. As I get around the county and the Mesajero Reservation, I will get a chance to thank you all personally.

It was certainly thoughtful of the First Baptist Church to send us pretty Valentines on our breakfast and supper trays. While I think about it, I want to thank Mrs. Charlie Elam of Bonito City for the beautiful message. And Johnson Stearns—many thanks for the flowers.

We are now well past the half-way ground of winter and are headed toward green grass with a down-hill pull. February is the little bridge between winter and spring—with only a few more steps left on the bridge.

The last of my many roommates is Mr. Robert T. Parker of Ruidoso Downs. Mr. Parker is in good hands and is recovering slowly but surely. A few days ago, I got a letter from Charlie Culver out in California. I have misplaced his address, but will send it in next time.

I want to send out a little sketch on two of my friends—after I get down to my "Wee House on the Hillside."

These two friends are Arrell Posey, alias "Wild Horse" Posey, pride and joy of the Sacramento Range; and Arvel Rumlens, the panther hunter, "Last of the Mountain Men."

You will be hearing from me and Shady Logan. Adios for now, and God Bless You.

DECA Has Active Year

By LINDA WEBB

Distributive Education was a new course initiated into Ruidoso High School this year. The purpose of having a D. E. course is to develop future leaders in the field of marketing, distribution, and management. Every member of the D. E. class is also a member of D. E. C. A.—Distributive Education Clubs of America. Participation in this organization teaches cooperation, ambition and a competitive spirit. Terry Bender, teacher-coordinator for the class, gives the students guidelines and helps them but lets them do their work on the most part by themselves. He lets them learn by their mistakes. Harold Longan, who was himself a D. E. coordinator, gives the program his full support.

D. E. C. A. has participated in many activities so far this year. Their first project was a bake sale held in September, the proceeds of which went to pay expenses for the Southwest Leadership Training Conference which was held in Ruidoso. The club helped work the concession stands at the motorcycle races held during the Aspenade festivities in October.

D. E. C. A. has assisted the Chamber of Commerce in conducting several surveys. Several D. E. C. A. students conducted a survey on the extent and reasons of Ruidosians doing out of town shopping. Speeches have been given to several Civic Clubs including the Elks Club and Rotary. An open house was held in December in which all interested were invited to visit the D. E. lab and view the several displays which were set up by D. E. C. A. members. Some of the displays had such imaginative titles as "A Mod Christmas" and "Dad's Christmas."

DECA held its first annual Employer-Employee banquet Feb. 8, at the Elks Lodge. All 7 of the employers of D. E. students were invited and each was presented a certificate acclaiming them as qualified training stations for D. E. students. Several deserving persons were presented with certificates of appreciation and service. Herb Brunell was presented an outstanding service award for being selected as the Outstanding Employer of the Year.

D. E. C. A. has been active in supporting the school and the Warriors. They made signs with their new sign press supporting the team and urging them to victory. DECA students presented a skit in the Christmas program and a skit at the pep assembly for the Ruidoso-Tularosa football game telling the team they could beat the Wildcats with "no sweat at all."

The D. E. classes has had some very distinguished guests including Etta Shier, a former Ruidoso student who now lives in Roswell and is the State D. E. C. A. secretary this year. Also visiting was Marc LaChey of Roswell who represents National Cash Registers. Mr. LaChey taught the classes how to use National Cash Registers.

D. E. C. A. has had a very successful year thus far and hope to make it better. Several students will be traveling to Truth or Consequences Feb. 24 to compete in various areas of competition, and hopefully will be going on to state competition in Roswell and National in Los Angeles, Calif.

Your Social Security

People who employ household workers have an important job to do themselves this month, according to Mrs. Christine Graves, social security field representative.

"If you employ a household worker covered by social security, you're required to send a wage report and social security contributions to the Internal Revenue Service by January 31," Mrs. Graves said.

The wage report and the social security contributions are for the last quarter of 1971.

Homemakers are required to report if they pay a household worker $50 or more in cash wages in any 3-month quarter — January-March, April-June, July-September, or October-December. They must send in a report of wages, along with the social security contribution, within one month after the end of the quarter.

The report should be made on a form available at any Internal Revenue Service office — "Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees (for Social Security)."

Information on the return includes the employer's name and address; the household employee's name and social security number; and dates the employee worked in the home; the wages paid that are subject to social security contributions; and the amount of social security contributions enclosed for both the employer and the employee. The employee tax contribution is 5.2 percent of earnings. The employer pays a matching 5.2 percent.

News Accused of "Americanism"

The News received a letter to the editor this week, which was unsigned, regarding a recent article in the Washington Post. As we have said in the past, we feel that everyone is entitled to their opinion and, as long as the letters are signed, we will print them regardless of the stand of the writer.

The writer of a letter who does not have the courage to sign his letter, we feel, betrays the strength of his convictions.

This anonymous writer has inadvertently complimented us by referring to the "pseudo 'Americanism' you so love to print". We note here that we have not felt restrained from signing our editorials, which express our feelings on a number of issues.

We still feel the hair on the back of our necks rise when we hear the National Anthem and see the flag go by and are proud of the feeling. We cannot help but think that there are still many who feel respect for our country as we do.

In reference to the Washington Post article, we note that many facts in the story were incorrect and that the local courts have made decisions through proper legal channels. We still feel that our courts are quite capable of deciding cases.

We in Ruidoso do have our faults, just as any other group of people, but we feel that it is our responsibility to correct these faults, and it would appear that we have had some measure of success in so doing.

We resent the fact that others, completely dis-associated with our area, should attempt to tell us what to do. Our village is composed of some of the finest people in the world and we are sure that this fact will be reflected in our officials.

SOME COMMENTS ON LAW AND ORDER

What does law enforcement mean to a community like Ruidoso? It means not only protecting local citizens, but also protecting a widely fluctuating population during peak tourist seasons and protecting the vacant cabins and homes entrusted to the care of the village during off-seasons.

OUR POLICE FORCE

Even though Ruidoso has a fluctuating population from season to season, we cannot afford to have a transient police force. The turn-over in police personnel is one of our most pressing concerns in the upcoming Village elections. In the last eight months at least five persons have come and gone in the Ruidoso Police Department. It's not these persons' merits that are questionable, but rather the reason why we have such a large turn-over in such a short period of time. Does our Department appeal only to the transient, to the man who is out of work or to the man who likes to wear a gun? Has our Police Department become a supplement to private protection agencies when the reverse should be true? Has our Village in fact admitted that we cannot protect the people and property entrusted to our care?

A POLICEMAN'S SLOT IS NOT A HAPPY ONE

Ruidoso at this time has six patrolmen. These men work six days a week. Their starting pay is $600 dollars a month. The Chief has been with the Force for nineteen years and yet earns only 600 dollars a month. During any one shift two patrol cars are responsible for more than 300 miles of streets, many homes, empty cabins, and places of business. Two patrol cars per shift can be expected to maintain traffic safety only if no one violates the traffic laws; only if no one is murdered, robbed, or complains about a stray cat in his yard, and unfortunately, much of a patrolman's time is spent running non-police errands for city hall.

FRINGE "BENEFITS"?

Out of his own meager salary a patrolman must buy most of his own equipment, such as weapons, belts, holsters, handcuffs, and ammunition for both practice and duty. The Village does not provide false arrest/false imprisonment/liability insurance for police personnel. If an officer desires such protection, he must pay for this very expensive insurance out of his own pocket. The Department is alleged to have no incentive promotion program. And, if a tragedy does occur, the Village provides no legal aid for the officer.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION IS WORTH A POUND OF CURE

Our Police Department has no investigative division. Arrested suspects often go free simply because the arresting officer has not been trained in how to get and present adequate evidence. Because fingerprinting equipment is primitive and because there is no police laboratory, less than 3% of the breaking and entering cases reported last year were solved. At present, the patrol cars are not equipped with up-to-date first aid equipment. Patrol cars need to have first-aid kits, blankets, spill kits and oxygen equipment to meet emergency life-saving situations that occur when there may be a lack of adequate and rapid ambulance service.

WE MAY GET OUR MAN, BUT IT'S HARD TO KEEP HIM!

There is usually only one patrolman per car. If a dangerous person is arrested, there is no wire partition between front and rear seats to protect the officer. Last, but not least, there are times when there is but one man on duty. Then the safety of our streets is in the hands of one untrained, but dedicated, policeman. Thank God there are some men with such a high degree of dedication.

JUST WHAT IS A POLICEMAN?

The word "policeman" means different things to different people. To a small child he is a friend; to the average citizen he is a protector; to the criminal he is an enemy. The policeman's image is too often that of a gun-toting schizophrenic. Policemen all over the U. S. are trying to change their image from the head-busting, red-neck cop to a professional law enforcement officer. What, as citizens of Ruidoso, are we doing to encourage the formation of a professional police force? The Police Department is a part of our community. The members of that Department should be supported and encouraged to have a vital part in the development of our community.

SPECIAL PROBLEMS OF RESORT AREAS

A resort town presents special problems not encountered elsewhere. One problem is that our community of 3500 permanent residents is responsible for the protection of the vacation properties of 20,000 people. This puts a great financial burden on the permanent residents if adequate protection is to be provided.

Many American resorts have imported from Switzerland a very practical and workable solution to this problem. Police protection is operated and financed as a utility or public service. Each property owner pays a use fee for police service in the same manner as he pays for his water and sewer month by month. The fee might range from 50 cents per month for owners of unimproved property to $3 dollars per month for non-resident owners of dwellings and for permanent businesses.

OTHER SMALL COMMUNITIES HAVE SAVED MONEY AND INCREASED EFFICIENCY BY ORGANIZING A DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY, WHICH INCLUDES THE POLICE DEPARTMENT, THE VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT AND RESCUE SERVICE (PUBLIC AMBULANCE). ONE CALIFORNIA RESORT TOWN HAS DEVELOPED A FINE POLICE DEPARTMENT BY SETTING BOTH HIGH STANDARDS AND COMPETITIVE PAY.

PRIVATE PROTECTION AGENCIES

Most resort areas rely on private protection agencies to supplement the public police force. The towns that seem to gain the most from this are those communities that require the private patrolman to meet the standards of the public police force and, in addition, require the private agencies to be directly responsible to the public police chief.

A SUMMARY

A discussion of public protection would not be complete without these words of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Warren E. Burger. "We judges can hear arguments, read briefs, study, consult with each other, read the old cases on the subject, before we pass on whether there was probable cause for a particular police act. We know, of course, that the policeman often has only seconds to decide and act, and in some circumstances his life or safety may be at stake. "Hence, there is a need for carefully devised basic standards and study to guide the exercise of this discretion; and second, the training must be a continuing process. The training is very important before we thrust officers into situations that would often baffle the wisest judge."

In summary let us say that there is no intent to discredit any member of our Police Department. Quite the contrary, we owe these dedicated men a debt of gratitude. But let's show our gratitude by giving these men a decent salary, good equipment, personal and liability protection, more patrolmen and most important the support of our citizens. Any such improvement program is going to cost money. We must take a look at various ways to finance a professional police force, but like any investment, a police department pays dividends in proportion to the amount of money invested. Let's hope that our investment reflects favorably on our community and its visitors.

As candidates seeking public office in the Village of Ruidoso, we feel that we must speak to the concern of our citizens for the betterment of our law enforcement agency.

BROWNIE TROOP I

By Karri Sears

On Feb. 9 we practiced our dance for the March dinner for our parents, and learned a new part for it. Later we made Valentine pins and then had refreshments of punch and cookies.

Thursday, Feb. 17 we are going on the activity bus to Roswell where we will go through the Planetarium.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 4

By Karri Sears

On Feb. 11 we discussed the upcoming trip to Roswell to see the Planetarium. We plan to take a sack lunch and eat in the park.

There will be a sing-in March 22 in celebration of Girl Scouts' 60th birthday.

We had refreshments of donuts and pop brought by Patti Neal.

If a teller ain't been planted in the past few days he missed some awfully good weather. Its been so nice that we cut off everything but the top of our heads. We will get a good job up here visiting and this weekend we should have some fun more. (Sister) I hope the Birdies will be around so we can see them. I been sick of the same old mind which one to pick.

Kathy Campbell Wins 8th In Roch Cup

Kathy Campbell, local Ruidoso skier, has been notified that she finished 8th overall in the famed Roch Cup races at Aspen February 4 and 6. Kathy came in 14th in the downhill held Feb. 4 and took 12th in the slalom. She faced competition in the Roch Cup races that rank just below the Olympic team.

The U. S. National Downhill held Feb. 5, gave Kathy a 19th place, but only 5 seconds out of first place.

Kathy was in Casper, Wyo., Feb. 9, and captured a 9th place in the slalom there.

All of the above races are in the Can-Am circuit and draw the top skiers in the United States and Canada.

Brian Skinner and Kathy participated in the Werner Cup races at Steamboat Springs Feb. 15 and 16, but results were unavailable at press time.

Scabies Inspection Slated For County

County Agent Ralph Dunlap reported Wednesday that seven special employees will be assisting the local livestock inspector for evidence of scabies about Feb. 25. All cattle in the County must be inspected for the disease and livestock owners are urged to contact Butch Allen in Capitan or Ralph Dunlap in Carrizozo to schedule the inspections.

S. Ward Wins Three Trophies At Taos Races

The Ruidoso Junior Racers had a successful weekend on a trip to Taos for the Taos Invitational Slalom held Saturday and Sunday.

Sawyer Ward won a second place in the giant slalom Saturday and captured a first on Sunday in the slalom. She ended on Sunday by winning the top honors in combined time for all events for the ladies. Kevin Crawford took second place in the slalom in class 4, and although he had the fastest time in the giant slalom, he DQed on his second run, and was therefore out of the running.

Linda Mobley, class 2 skier, brought home a second place in the slalom on Sunday. James Feuille, El Paso member of the racers, won third place in the giant slalom.

There's no heavier burden than a great potential. —Charles E. "Bud" Gammell, the Poteau Valley (Okla.) Times.

SATURDAY — LAST CHANCE TO SEE WARRIORS PLAY AT HOME!

Warrior's In Final Victory Stretch!

It's all over but the shouting for the Ruidoso High School Warrior basketball team as they go into their final stretch of the 1971-72 regular season of play. The Warriors, number one in District 5AA, rated as one of the finest basketball teams in the history of the Ruidoso High School, have two games remaining to play and have compiled a spectacular seven wins and no loss record in District 5AA. Their season record to date stands at 16 wins and 0 losses.

The Tribe's slow start, losing their first four games, has no ill effect on their winning ways as since their stormy beginning they have lost but two games and both to Class AIAA Tularosa. Included in the Warrior wins are two invitational tournament championships, the Ruidoso Basketball Classic and the Tri-Cities Annual Invitational Tournament in Santa Rosa.

Last week the Warriors skulled both the Jal Panthers and the Lake Arthur Panthers, 84-79 and 83-63, respectively. This weekend the Winning Warriors are hosted by Clondoroff Friday night and then play their last home game of the season here in Ruidoso against the Dexter Demons.

Although the Warriors had difficulty in hitting the basket in the last two periods of play during the Jal-Ruidoso contest the Tribe out defended the visiting Panthers throughout the game. Blane Miller, Reeves McGuire and Ken Perryman led the Tribe's defensive efforts. Perryman had better than a dozen rebounds and stole the ball from Panther players at least four times.

Miller intercepted or took the ball from the Panthers eight times as teammate McGuire was credited with four steals. To add to the Panthers' woes Miller dropped in 13 field goals and one free throw for a game scoring high of 27 points.

Other Warriors in the double figure scoring bracket included Perryman with 21, Howell 17, and McGuire 12.

is averaging better than 20 points per game played this season. Gorden Howell of the Warrior starter squad collected eighteen points in the Tribe's twenty point edge over the host Lake Arthur team.

Many Chevrolet dealers are announcing the most complete warranty ever put on a used car. Count your blessings. First, you're protected where it counts most: on the major mechanical parts of the car you buy. And that lasts a healthy 30 days or 2000 miles, whichever comes first. Second, you get special savings on any parts or labor you need. From the day you buy for 24 months. Third, the special savings are good all across the country at most Chevrolet dealers. Say you're on a vacation trip and find you need service. You just get in touch with a participating Chevrolet dealership. All you do is show an OK warranty identification card you receive when you buy your used car.

371 FOR MILLER—Blane Miller, No. 10, Ruidoso Warriors' leading scorer, dropped in 27 points during the Ruidoso win over Jal here last Friday night. Miller collected a total of 371 points during the season and added 32 additional points to his total as the Tribe defeated Lake Arthur, 83-63 Saturday night. Ken Perryman, No. 44, is pictured positioning himself for the rebound. (Ruidoso News Photo)

BEAL'S BINGLE—Darwin Beal, No. 40, right, although completely harassed by a Jal Panther, got off a jump shot for two points as the Ruidoso Warriors dumped the Jal Panthers, 84-79, here last Friday night. Also getting into the act were Warrior players, Ken Perryman, No. 44, and Corky Conley, No. 66. (Ruidoso News Photo)

Cattle scabies has been found in Lincoln County. Cattle owners must have their cattle herd inspected by a state or federal inspector, before they can move any cattle. This is being done so that if any cattle have scabies it can be found before it spreads. The Federal quarantine includes Lincoln, Guadalupe, Torrance and Harding counties. The effects of the quarantine are:

1. All known scabies infected cattle require two official treatments in toxaphene solution.
2. All exposed cattle one treatment.
3. Inspection of all herds in county.

(a) Interstate movement of any cattle from the county requires inspection of the animals to be moved and a one time herd inspection before movement.

(b) Inspection can be performed by a federal or state inspector (official federal inspection forms to be used) Form 25.

4. When all herds in county have been treated if they are exposed or infected, and when non-infected or non-exposed herds have been inspected with no further outbreaks of scab, the quarantine will be released.

If you notice an abnormal scratching, itching and loss of hair in your cattle, let the livestock inspector or County Agent know. There is also a quarantine on cattle entering New Mexico from Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Kansas and Georgia. Cattle from these states must be sprayed or dipped within 10 days prior to entry. This treatment must be supervised by a state or federal official or an accredited veterinarian. Cattle for immediate slaughter can obtain a special permit from the Albuquerque office of the New Mexico Livestock Board.

With a new year having just arrived, it would be good for all cattlemen to stop a moment and contemplate his business. Here are some points brought out during a symposium at Cheyenne, Wyoming recently.

1. Thanks to the swift rise of the commercial feedlot, and other developments, the cowman may be in the best position in his history, if he does a proper job of maintaining his product.

2. Crossbreeding is one of the best tools available to the rancher, if he remembers it is a tool, not a magic wand.

3. The cow-calf man had better stop looking at ancestors and study performance — data when he's buying bulls.

4. Each breed has its own valuable contributions to make to beef production and it is to their benefit to accentuate those assets rather than to copy those of another breed.

5. That old beef cow is still a jewel but she can be made to do a much better job with better care and improved management.

6. The day may be not too far off when a steer will be finished for market at one year, and probably right on the place where he was born.

7. A rancher must remember he's a gross grower as well as a cowman.

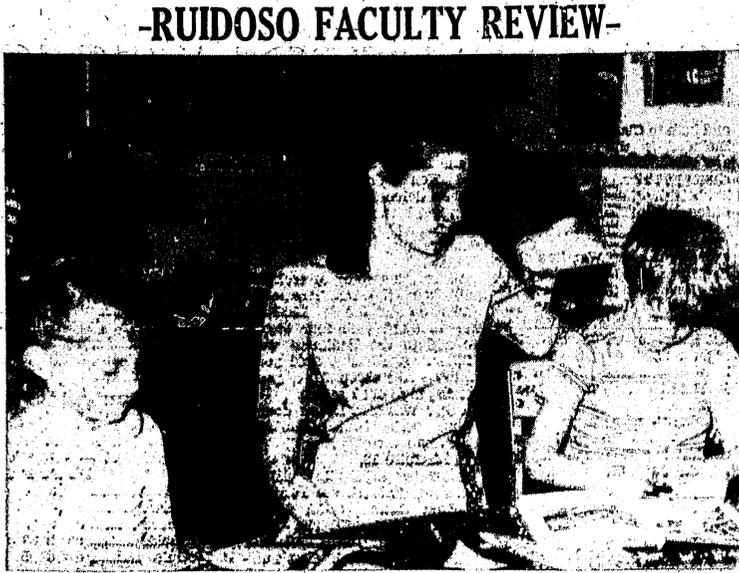

8. Management is still the key to profits, and each individual must realize that no general formula will fit his case exactly because of different terrain, different weather or other conditions.

Those are the points, and good ones at that. It's something every cowman should clip, save and remember during the coming year.

You can "get the jump" on spring by starting your summer-flowering annuals indoors. Some of our common flower bedding plants such as petunias, calendulas, snapdragons and larkspur, will tolerate light frosts but growth is slow when temperatures are low. Strong plants can be produced indoors during the late winter time in half the time required to grow them in the flower bed. Other flowering plants such as marigolds, zinnias, celosia and portulaca cannot be planted outside until danger of frost has passed.

By starting these plants indoors, you can get plants that are almost ready to flower in your garden the day following the last killing frost. You may

READING FOR TEACHER—Debra White and Danny Carpenter take turns reading for second level teacher, Mrs. Ken Cole, who has been chosen for Faculty Review this week.

The relaxed atmosphere is demonstrated by the teacher sitting at one of the student tables in the classroom. (Ruidoso News Photo)

A seven and one-half year teaching career stands behind second year teacher Mrs. Ken Cole of the White Mountain Elementary School. Mrs. Cole received her BS in elementary education at TCU and is now working on her Master's at NMSU with an emphasis on reading.

Mrs. Cole was born and reared at Roaring Springs, Texas, and has lived in Ruidoso for about 4 years. She and her husband, Ken, Christian Church minister, have two children in the Ruidoso Schools.

The four level class taught by Mrs. Cole is handled on an informal basis with the children studying in small groups to allow a more relaxed atmosphere and encourage children to their maximum effort.

start plants by one of two methods. One of these methods involves the use of a seed flat in which vermiculite, perlite or coarse sand is used as a planting media. Or potting soil may be used with 1/2 or 3/4 inch covering of one of the above materials. First lugs (boxes), pans, or trays may be used to start plants. Containers should be three to six inches deep and have openings in the bottom for drainage. Soak planting media thoroughly, then remove surplus water by squeezing or draining. Open tiny furrows (rows) 1/4 inch deep two inches apart. Distribute seed 1/8 to 1/4 inch apart in these furrows and level surface. Cover seed flat with clear plastic bag, using small wire hoops to hold the plastic off the young seedlings. Place flat in sunny window. If plastic bag is closed tightly, no additional water will be necessary.

When the second pair of true leaves have developed, the seedlings should be transplanted to small pots. One to two inch plant bands, peat pots or "jiffy pots", or small plastic pots filled with potting soil may be used. Transplant one or two seedlings to each container, soak thoroughly, and again cover with a plastic bag. Open the plastic covering slightly the fourth day following transplanting. Spread the opening slightly more on the fifth day, and still more on the sixth day—remove it completely on the seventh day. If the plastic is removed suddenly, the seedlings will die due to the drastic change in humidity. Plants remain in these small containers until they can safely be planted outside.

The second method of producing seedling plants in that of planting two to five seeds directly into the small containers in which they are to grow. The depth of planting, watering management and covering with plastic is much the same as when planted in seed flats or trays.

A 20 cent packet of seed can produce an abundance of color in your flower border, planter, current programs of major corn or window box. In doing so, you earn, namely: pollution control, will be participating in three community beautification, and.

The legislature raced toward adjournment of its regular 30-day session late this week after the House passed 39-26 a $289.6-million fiscal 1973 General Appropriations Act.

The lively session's major bill was pending in the Senate early this week. Gov. Bruce King had signed seven bills at the week-end. Included were the 64.2-million tax-free increase and the $160,000 added horse race track bills.

King loaded too much work onto legislators. He sent 100 executive messages to lawmakers. A total of 331 measures were introduced in the session, including 257 bills.

The Senate passed 30-8 a completely revised children's code, sponsored by Majority Leader Tibo Chavez, D-Belen. Senators voting against the bill included Fins Heide, D-Lovington; John Morrow, D-Colfax-Union-Harding; John Conway, R-Lincoln-Otero, and Aubrey Dunn, D-Lincoln-Otero. Handing children many legal rights already assigned to adults, the bill was moving through the House early this week.

Gov. King's interim appointments of Mrs. A. N. Spencer of Carrizozo and Alvin Stockton of Raton to the State Corrections Commission were confirmed by the Senate 34-0.

Rep. John Bigbee, R-DeBaca-Guadalupe-Torrance, said: "It's obvious to me that we're going to have a future tax increase." Bigbee, an Encino rancher, is on the House Appropriations-Finance Committee that wrote the General Appropriations Act. He noted proposed state general fund fiscal 1973 spending is $25 million or 0.4 per cent above the fiscal 1972 total.

But Rep. Bigbee said: "We're adequately funding education now, especially in relation to projected enrollment, compared to what we have done in the past."

Bigbee said the House reapportionment plan pending House action early this week "is a very workable plan." The plan places Bigbee and Rep. Ralph Petty, D-Lincoln-Sierra, in the same new district.

The district: All of Guadalupe County, western DeBaca County, Ruidoso, Corona and Captain in Lincoln County and Encino, Moriarty and Estancia in Torrance County. The 14,585 total population is close to the ideal population for a district in a 70-member House. Bigbee has not decided whether he will seek re-election.

Another proposed new House district combines 6 Lincoln and 14 Otero counties precincts. Carrizozo is in this district. The county population split: Otero, 12,818; Lincoln, 1,920; total, 14,738.

Three DeBaca County precincts and 29 Chavez County precincts are in another proposed new House district. The only incumbent in the district is Rep. Colin McMillan, R-Roswell. Chavez County outnumbers DeBaca County 9-1 in population in the proposed district.

Senate President Pro Tem I. M. (Ike) Smalley, D-Luna-Hidalgo-Sierra, guided the King administration's capital improvements bill through the Senate 31-0 but the total was cut from $5 million to $2.9 million.

A $140,000 academic classroom at Carrie Tingley Hospital for Crippled Children, Truth or Consequences, was removed and reinserted in the bill in Senate maneuvering. Also included were $236,500 for Los Lunas Hospital and Training School file. Every time a steer belches he gives off a small amount of methane gas. This is high-energy gas energy that is wasted by the animal. However, a group of researchers are working with a group of compounds called methane inhibitors. They could be the next additives put into feedlot rations.

In a report, the researchers said that when the compounds were fed to sheep, feed efficiency went up as much as 11 percent and daily weight gains rose 5.5 percent. The men feel the compounds will do the same for cattle. Extensive field tests will be needed before the compounds become available on the market. The company expects to begin clearing the compounds with the Food and Drug Administration later this year.

skilled nursing facility a $457,000 to remodel State Hospitals-Institutions Department facilities. The bill was in the House.

Rep. Alvin Castillo, D-Colfax County, said: "The truck tax law is significant. It's one of the few times in the legislature's history that a big lobby like this pushed hard to kill a piece of legislation and did not prevail." Castillo strongly supports a bill to buy the huge W-S Ranch in Colfax and Taos Counties with a $26 million general obligation property tax bond issue. If the legislature clears the bill, it would be subject to voter approval Nov. 7 in a statewide referendum.

Castillo regretted defeat of a modified no-fault insurance bill. He was vice chairman of the interim committee that wrote the controversial bill.

Rep. Hoyt Pattison, R-Curry County, predicted controversial voter reaction to the House reapportionment bill finally introduced Feb. 11. For Curry, Roosevelt and Lea Counties—which count enough 1970 population for seven representatives—two plans were written into the bill.

A plan calls for six districts and one at-large member. The at-large or electoral member would be elected from all of the three counties. Its legality is questionable. The alternate plan carves up the three counties into seven separate districts.

The alternate plan spans 3 Jan. 2 Emice and 5 Hobbs precincts in one district that includes incumbent Reps. George Blocker, D-Jal, and Robert Moran, R-Hobbs. Rep. Pattison, senior House Republican with service since 1943, would be in a district spanning 13 Curry, 2 Roosevelt and 4 Lea County precincts. Republicans prepared a series of proposed amendments to the controversial House apportionment plan. Less infighting affected the pending Senate redistricting bill.

A House Appropriations-Finance Committee member, Pattison predicted the General Appropriations Act, "will tend to lead into a tax increase because of sizeable increases in appropriations in the bill."

A Washington settlement conference failed to produce agreement on a major natural gas price increase in Southeastern New Mexico's Permian Basin. Ex-Atty. Gen. Earl Hartley said the Federal Power Commission will set a formal hearing later in the vital case. Producers and pipeline companies could not agree.

Rep. Blocker predicted defeat of the W-S Ranch bond issue if it lands on the general election ballot. He pushed a bill appropriating an added $35,000 to Atty. Gen. David Norvell, to fight for a FPC Permian Basin gas price hike.

A bill by Rep. Fred Luna, D-Los Lunas, to boost minimum state employee pay from $300 to $330 a month cleared the House, 55-7. It would cost $1.1 million.

CONWAY from the CAPITAL

STATE SENATOR JOHN E. CONWAY

By the time most of you read this column, this Legislative Session should be near completion. It is rumored that there will be a special session, but if we keep working at our present rate, I doubt that we will need one.

The truck tax bill passed the Senate this week by a surprisingly large majority of 36-6. The bill should generate approximately 4.2 million dollars in new revenue for use by the State road fund.

The Senate adopted the adverse report from the Senate Judiciary Committee on the controversial no-fault insurance bill. At the Judiciary Committee hearing no consumer organization spoke in favor of the bill, only the insurance industry. The Albuquerque Insurance Federation, a Farm Bureau group, and a secretary of one of the unions spoke against the bill as not being good for these groups.

The State of Massachusetts is the only state which has any experience with no-fault insurance, and that State also has compulsory insurance on all vehicles. The testimony in the Committee was that 30-40% of the cars in New Mexico are not insured. Massachusetts reportedly had the highest insurance rates in the Nation, and with no-fault reduced the cost of liability insurance by 25% but the cost of collision coverage increased by 30%. The testimony in the Committee was that a 15% reduction in the cost of liability insurance could be anticipated or on a premium of $40, a $6 reduction.

With more experience in other States, no fault may prove to be good consumer legislation, but the feeling was it was too soon and there were not enough comparable statistics.

Two bills of interest to our senior citizens are Senate Bill 60, which establishes a legislative interim committee to study the problems of the aging and to coordinate the various Federal and State programs, and secondly, Senate Joint Resolution 6, a constitutional amendment, which allows the legislature to exempt up to $3,000 in assessed value for ad valorem tax purposes for persons over 62 years of age or who are totally disabled. Both, I think, have a good chance of passing the Session.

The Senate Conservation Committee passed a committee substitute on the subdivision bill. It now goes to the Senate Judiciary Committee. In its present state, the bill places most of the control over subdivisions in the County Commissioners. I will summarize the bill in its final form in one of my later columns.

I urge all of you who want to talk to me regarding any legislative matters to call my office in Alamogordo, 37-1840, or my office in Ruidoso, 257-4078, and they will give your message to me.

"Beware of those who fall at your feet. They may be reaching for the corner of the rug."

Enforcement Credited With Death Reduction

New Mexico State Police issued 131,675 traffic citations during 1971—an increase of 11.4 percent—but the increased traffic enforcement was credited with giving the state the lowest traffic death rate in 30 years, said State Police Chief Martin Vigil.

The new statistics were revealed as Governor Bruce King announced approval of a federal grant of $4834 for the purchase of five traffic radar systems for use in rural areas of the state.

Chief Vigil said that rural accidents have doubled, and that an analysis indicates that speed is a contributing factor to the cause of 39 percent of these accidents.

Purchase of the five traffic radar systems is needed to continue the improvement of the State Police speed program, Chief Vigil said. The department now owns 12 of these timing devices, but this number of units is inadequate for the vast number of rural roads that must be covered. The five additional units will provide the coverage necessary.

MRS. B—
By CECELIA BARRON

I made a quick business trip down to my old home town by bus. I am not much on traveling but sometime duty calls and we have to leave the fireside. The bus would be a fair way to travel (as I have quit driving) if it were not for the dense smoke we have to breathe and the fact that my eyes will be almost out by the time I reach my destination.

I dislike going down out of the cool, soft green of the pines to the bright tawny yellow of the prairie; with nothing to break the distant view but bushes of cacti and yucca. The few abandoned houses along the way make you wonder what the land is good for. But I suppose God has His plan. All the good-I see:

It makes one appreciate the mountains more.

It was near zero temperature when I left; but when I arrived in Portales it was near 80 degrees. I saw a lady remark that she heard a butterfly in her yard that morning. The sun was so hot it would blister your face. I walked around the entire square before finding a place to get a cold drink. The pedestrian just does not have a chance any more, since everything they moved out in the suburbs. They are trying to solve most every problem at Washington; I would like to see them solve that little detail.

Anyhow I was glad to see some of my old friends: especially Miss Joanna Black, who is associate professor of English in ENMU. She was moderator for the American Association of University Women's Creighton Writing Group, when I lived there. I always enjoyed the meetings and Miss Black was a great help to me.

I also learned an old friend, Mrs. James Christoe, was celebrating her 91st birthday. She seems to be much, much younger; walks several blocks to town; attends the city council meetings and can play a mean hand of dominoes or cards. She makes long trips to foreign countries and writes about them in the Portales News. I said the only thing that might tell her age was: her hearing aid; someone else said they did not believe she walked quite as fast as she used to. Happy Birthday Mrs. Christoe.

I don't know how I did it, but I finished my business and was soon on my way to Lubbock, Texas. After a long delay in Clovis, I reached there at 2:30 that night. You would think I was going around the world as it took so long. But my folks met me, thus: I had a nice rest and visit in their lovely home. If anyone mentions another trip to the Plains, I will say, "No thanks, I prefer to stay where the air is cool and free of sand."

Now I will end with Reinhold Neibuhr's prayer:
Dear God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change. Courage to change the things I can, and Wisdom to know the difference.

Lujan Supports End To Federal Automatic Raises

Congressman Manuel Lujan, Jr. (R-NM) announced he is sponsoring a bill aimed at ending automatic pay raises for top government executives, Senators and Congressmen. His bill would put pay raises back into the hands of Congress for a vote.

Present law permits Congressional and executive salary increases recommended by a Presidential commission to take effect unless either the House or Senate votes to disapprove them. Resolutions of disapproval in the past have been bottled up in Committee until the time limit expired.

"When all of us are asked to control salary increases and many are doing with the raises they had anticipated, I believe Congress should take firm control over the salaries of our highly paid government officials. These men, who already have high incomes, should conform to the same rules the rest of us are living by. This bill permits any Member of Congress to force a Resolution disapproving a recommended salary increase out of Committee and bring it to a vote on the House Floor. This way we in Congress who have opposed back door pay raises can at least force the matter to a vote," he said.

New Mexico WEATHER

Week Ending Feb. 13
Temperature: Max., 55; Min., 0. Precipitation: normal for Feb., 1.1. Accumulative: Jan. 1-Feb. 13, 0; Normal Jan. 1-Feb. 29, 2.22.
Weather Summary—
Light showers in North Central and Northeast in mid-week. Continued dry elsewhere. Fluctuating temperatures averaged near-normal over much of the state, but much below normal in Central and extreme Southeast portions. Maximum temperatures mostly on Sunday. Minimum temperatures Friday and Saturday.

D. K. Kelly, Director of the Traffic Safety Commission, and approving agency for the grant, said $2665.50 of additional funds toward the purchase will come from the State Police budget.

In commenting on the record low death rate, Chief Vigil said, "The specter of 535 lives needlessly destroyed is horrible to contemplate, but statistically the 34 who did not die during 1971, that died in 1970 indicates considerable improvement in the safety of highway travel in New Mexico.

"In 1941, the death rate was at its highest at 16.2 deaths for each 100 million miles of travel. As highway, vehicles, drivers, enforcement and various other factors improved, the death rate declined to a low point in 1963 of 6.8 deaths for each 100 million miles of travel. By 1969, however, the rate had again climbed and stood at 8.0.

The rate declined 2.5 percent to 7.8 persons killed per 100 million miles in 1970, but 1971 saw a resounding decrease of 12.8 percent to 6.8, or one person less who did not die for each 100 million miles traveled in 1971."

Chief Vigil said, "Since there were no major changes in highways, vehicles or drivers during 1970 and 1971, the one factor that did not change appreciably can probably be given a large measure of credit for the reduction in the death rate. That factor is enforcement."

The number of State Police patrolling the highways was the same in 1970 and 1971, but traffic law enforcement increased 1.6 percent in 1970 over the previous year, and an additional 15 percent in 1971 over 1970.

"In other words," Chief Vigil said, "the erring driver stood roughly a 50 percent better chance of being apprehended in 1971 than he did in the peak rate year of 1969."

Many a man is ready to serve his community if the people of the community will do what he tells them to do. —N. DeVane Williams, Holmes (Fla.) County Advertiser.

Do you really want your brother-in-law to know how much you earned last year?

Of course not. It's nobody's business but your own.

However, annually millions of taxpayers bear this kind of personal information to people who really shouldn't know. For what? Just so they can save a few dollars doing their income tax.

That's some price to pay.

You see, for only a few dollars more than it costs to do it with any amateur who might not know that work clothes in some instances are deductible, or that income averaging might save tax dollars, you can have your tax returns done by a specially trained member of the H & R Block team with complete confidentiality. There are thousands of them in over 6,000 conveniently located offices. H & R Block's fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for the 7 million families we served last year.

Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.

This means that H & R Block is ready to offer you year-round tax service for just one low fee a year, with no extra charge for audits and estimates. Yes, we cost a little bit more than your relatives or friends or neighbors, but when you think of what we deliver, you can't afford anything less than H & R Block.

DON'T LET AN AMATEUR DO YOUR TAXES!
