Ruidoso, Lincoln County, New Mexico—Zip Code: 88345

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1972

WOULD YOU BELIEVE IT? FROM THIS

TO THIS

FANTASTIC—The magnitude of the Ruidoso downtown improvement project has been multiplied in mini-multiples with the current construction of the Casa Loma Center and its many mini A-frame type buildings. The before, above, and after, below, reveals the absolute welcomed change in the area located in the Midtown section of Ruidoso on Sudderth Drive. The new mini shopping center, owned and designed by Olin Wooldridge of Ruidoso, reportedly is anything but mini in retail outlets and customer services. The first stage of the new shopping center will have six mini shops when completed and long range plans call for several additional unique structures. It is really more than a welcome sight . . . it is an appreciative change with an atomic-like accepted acclaim. (Ruidoso News Photo)

Tentative Approval Given Budget For Ruidoso Municipal Schools

In opening the annual school budget hearing Tuesday at the Chaparral Motor Hotel, State Finance Director Harry Wugalter noted that the Ruidoso Municipal School budget was the 72nd heard of the 89 districts in the state and that only one budget had been rejected. State officials present for the meeting included Bill Lemons, State Department of School Transportation; Bill Caperton, Title I; Frank Ready, Director of Secondary Education; Wugalter; Grady Mayfield, State Department of Education president, and Ted Sanders, Districts in Depth.

Representing the Ruidoso district were: Dave Parks, board chairman; Howard Tate, vice-chairman; Dan Griffith, board secretary; Gayla Pearson, Bucky Morrison, Pat Valliant, school superintendent; Sid Miller, elementary principal; Tom Hansen, new high school principal; M. B. McGuire, counselor, and several teachers.

The Mescalero Apache Tribe was represented by Clarence Fermin, Virginia Kinnecole, and Clarence Buurma, BIA representative.

Wugalter began the meeting with a series of questions to board members and members of the school administration. The questions were followed by a lengthy discussion of a contract between the All-Pueblo Indian Council and the Ruidoso School Board concerning Johnson-O'Malley funds. The federal funds had heretofore been distributed through the State Department of Education but will now be distributed by contract directly from the Council to school districts. The change in the Johnson-O'Malley funds required a change in the proposed budget, with the deletion of those funds until a contract can be signed.

In giving tentative approval to the budget, Wugalter commended the board on many of its programs in the Ruidoso schools and the earning of interest on investments of school funds.

The proposed budget shows a total of 74 persons employed and the amount of $825 expended for each student. Expected enrollment will be 910 with 27 special education students for a total of 937. The Ruidoso School system has 48.33% of the students in Lincoln County enrolled.

Tax rates for the district are $14.23 per $1,000 valuation as compared to a state average of $16.08 per $1,000. Average salary for teachers in the district is $9,090.

Downs Council To Study Bids

Opening of bids was the major item on the agenda of the regular meeting of the Ruidoso Downs Village council meeting held Monday evening in the village hall. Two bids were submitted for a new garbage truck for the village, one for $12,000 from Milne International of Alamogordo and the other from the Border Machinery Co. of Albuquerque for $18,192. Due to the wide spread in bids, the council reserved their decision pending study of the specifications for the truck.

Two bids were also received for a police car, with both bids coming from Southwest Dodge of Roswell. $3,450 was bid for a Corvair specially equipped for police work and $3,760 for a Polara with the same equipment. This bid was also held for study.

Mayor Jesse Harris announced that he had hired George Gupton as Deputy Village Marshall on a temporary basis to assist Marshall Harold Willingham.

In other action the council:

- Voted to pay village bills.
- Employed Lee Lawing for the village street department, to begin work June 13.
- Named Tony Craig head of the village water department.

The next regular meeting of the council will be held June 27 at the Village Hall.

NM RACING COMMISSION Agenda Doesn't Include Sale of R. D. Race Track

A spokesman of the New Mexico State Racing Commission, Albuquerque, stated Wednesday, that the proposed sale of the Ruidoso Downs Race Track is not on the agenda of the Racing Commission's meetings scheduled to be held at the Ruidoso Downs Race Track Friday and Saturday.

The proposed sale, as previously announced, of the local track to Kodak Industries of San Diego, Calif., was to be considered by the commission during their June 16 meeting in Ruidoso. It was noted early this week that, although not definite, it is possible that the sale would be considered during the Racing Commission's July meeting.

Items on the official agenda

Resources Group Holds Annual Meet

The South Central Mountain Resource Area held its annual meeting in Ruidoso Tuesday, June 6.

"Doc" Dean of Claunch was elected Chairman, Bill Galacher of Carrizozo was elected Vice-Chairman, and Johnson Strans of Carrizozo was elected Treasurer.

David King, Director of the New Mexico State Planning Office, was speaker for the afternoon meeting. He emphasized the importance of local people initiating local projects and not the bureaucrats coming in and telling the people what they need. This has long been the concept of the RC&D as well as the State Planning Office.

Mr. King also explained the many services from the State Planning Office. These include both technical and financial assistance.

Progress was given on various project measures. These included paving Highway 10, Lincoln Domestic Water, Capitan School Beautification Plan, Pinon Water Supply, and others.

The next South Central Mountain Resource Area meeting will be held in Alamogordo July 18. All interested people are urged to attend.

Four New Teachers Employed by Ruidoso Municipal School Board

The Ruidoso Municipal School Board, at a special meeting Monday evening, agreed to contracts for the coming year for four new teachers. Tom Hansen will serve as High School Principal; Mrs. Lois A. Tezak, Title I for grades 4, 5, 6; Miss Pauley Swafford, special education; and Mrs. Terry Bender will teach remedial reading and reading enrichment for the 7th and 8th grades.

It was noted by the board that, in the future, any student put off of a school bus for a stated period of time would not be allowed to ride the bus again until the prescribed time had expired. This ruling is in accordance with existing school regulations, and will be strictly enforced.

A service contract for the maintenance of typewriters and adding machines for the school system was awarded to Western Office Equipment in the amount of $1179. The award was given for the low apparent bid from three firms.

Warrants to the building contractor were approved for the completed portion of the building and remodeling program now underway. Work is continuing on the project at Nob Hill School, the Junior High School and the High School, at this time.

Although the value of school property and buildings has been raised 5% each year for the past several years, the board noted that, upon completion of the building program, insurance for the entire school district would be reviewed and replacement values considered for the insurance. At present, the cash value of buildings and contents is placed at $1,368,000 and is felt that, by the beginning of the next school year, the actual replacement value should be around 2 1/2 million dollars.

Bids for fencing of the school storage buildings were opened June 14 and the contract was awarded to Montgomery Ward of Albuquerque for their bid of $1653.

The board reviewed a contract for Johnson-O'Malley funds with the Mescalero Apache Tribe, which will now come directly from the Bureau of Indian Affairs instead of through the State School System, as they had in the past. Under terms of the new one-year contract, Ruidoso Schools would receive $28,240 for special use by Indian students in the school.

Board members attended the budget hearing conducted by State Department of Finance held Tuesday at the Chaparral for County Schools, where the budget for 1972-73 was approved.

The presentation was made during a meeting of prospective members for the local chapter, held June 8, in the Hospitality Room of Ruidoso State Bank. Mrs. Forrest Lindamood, hostess for the evening reported that lineage applications for four more members have been sent to the National DAR Headquarters.

Mrs. Lucia Pfingsten conducted the DAR Opening Ritual, and possible names for the local Chapter were discussed. Three were voted on to be submitted to the National Organizing Secretary for consideration. These were "Lincoln Territory", "Sierra Blanca" and "White Mountain".

Mrs. Thompson told the ladies about the Resolutions on National Defense passed each year by delegates to the National Convention, and discussed at length the stand of the DAR on the Equal Rights Amendment. During this meeting the Board voted to support the National DAR Bicentennial Project of the current President General, Mrs. Donald Spicer, to restore the second floor of Independence Hall in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to its original 18th century style. The New Mexico Society hopes to provide an 18th century Pennsylvania Pine table and bench as its part of the project.

Mrs. Pfingsten discussed the current New Mexico State Project, which is planting seedlings on the Bonito Burn near Ruidoso.

Additional applications for members for the local group will be submitted during the summer, and tentative date for the official organizational meeting was set for October 13. Those present for the meeting were: Mmes. Mary Thompson, Mary Dean, Marie Burns,

Ruidoso Students Score High In Statewide Basic Testing

The following table show results of testing in the Ruidoso School District for grades 5, 8 and high school. In the test for grades 1, results show a score of 95.1 and compare to the state average of 95.7. The test was given at the beginning of the school year and readers should note that only a private kindergarten was available for pre-school children.

Over-all, the fifth grade was above national average and the ACT test shows students above average in some fields.

These figures were released by the State Department of Education and it was also noted that all three schools in the district are approved without serious deviation from state standards.

Science Training Draws C. Pacheco

Forty high school students from throughout New Mexico will participate in the first session of the Summer Science Training Program at New Mexico Institute of Mining & Technology, June 12-30.

Sponsored by the N. M. Academy of Science, the students are selected on the basis of academic performance. Efforts are made to represent as many counties as possible. This year students from thirty New Mexico towns and cities will have an opportunity to familiarize themselves with modern laboratory techniques.

This summer's program is coordinated with the "Physical Aspects of the Life and Earth Science" Exposure to college-level chemistry, physics, biochemistry, and the "new" biology will be given the students. Today's "new" biology deals more with the molecular structure of life and chemical genetics rather than with animal and plant classification and external nature observations.

In addition to glass and laboratory programs, two field trips: to Langmuir Laboratory and the Lovelace Foundation in Albuquerque; are scheduled. Six guest lecturers have been invited to speak.

Tuition, housing, meals and round-trip transportation are provided for the students from funds delegated to the Academy of Science by the State Legislature. A second group of forty students will be enrolled July 17.

Participating in the program is Cecelia Pacheco of Tinnie.

DIETARY SUPERVISOR— R. Baca Awarded Certificate Upon Completing Studies

Raymond Baca, Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital Dietary Supervisor, had the distinction of being the only male student among eleven individuals who recently were certified following a year long study under the direction of the New Mexico Food Services Supervisor's Training Course.

Ten other graduates, all women, were awarded the honors during a special ceremony, June 8, held in Carlsbad. Of the eleven, ten were New Mexicans and one a resident of Arizona.

Baca, employed with the local hospital for over two and one half years, is now eligible, and has been endorsed by the New Mexico Hospital Association, for both state and national memberships in the Hospital Institutional and Educational Food Service Society.

To receive the official certificate Baca completed the course, sponsored jointly by the New Mexico Dietetic Association and the New Mexico Hospital Association which included correspondence studies and three one week each state level training workshops.

The three workshops, held in Albuquerque, Roswell and Carlsbad, included formal studies covering 12 hours of Nutrition and Diet Therapy; 5 hours of Purchasing and Menu Planning; 32 hours of Food Preparation, and Service; 12 hours of House-keeping, Sanitation and Safety; and 25 hours of Supervision.

Felix d'Entremont, Ruidoso-Hondo Valley General Hospital Administrator, stated that he was extremely pleased with Baca's accomplishments and highly complimentary of his work at the hospital. Baca has three cooks and three tray ladies under his supervision as well as the responsibility of planning all menus, food purchases, special diet preparations, work schedules and a host of other related responsibilities.

A native of Lincoln County, Baca attended the Capital High School and has been a resident of Ruidoso for over six years. He and his wife, Jane, the former Jane Sanchez of Hondo, have two children and make their home in Ruidoso.

A Head Start For A Green Summer

The recent rains are a special gift from the weatherman being as how we do not as a usual thing get rain until July.

And with the hill sides turning green I think of one of Shakespeare's verses:
"What is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever come perfect days,
And Heaven tries earth, if it be in June."
Heaven in tune with mother earth for a while, just to keep up our hope and faith.
And this brings to mind The

Price Freeze Questions and Answers

Q. Do "wages and salaries" under the stabilization program include employer contributions to pension or profit-sharing plans?

A. No. The recent amendments to the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 exclude from the definition of wages and salaries contributions by employers pursuant to:

- 1) a pension, profit sharing, or annuity and savings plan considered "qualified" under the Internal Revenue Code;
- 2) any group insurance plan; or
- 3) any disability and health plan;

unless the Pay Board determines that such contributions are unreasonably inconsistent with Pay Board standards.

Q. Are tips taxable?

A) Yes. All tips you receive are subject to Federal income tax. In addition, cash tips amounting to $20 or more that you receive in a month while working for any one employer must be reported to that employer so that income tax and social security tax may be withheld.

Q) My grandfather died last year and left me 200 shares of stock he purchased at $10 per share. The stock was worth $20 per share when he died. Do I have to pay tax on this inheritance or the amount the stock appreciated?

A) No. Bequests or inheritances you receive are not taxable. The amount the stock appreciated up to your grandfather's death is also not taxable as income. However, you are taxed on any further appreciation in the stock from that point when you eventually dispose of the stock.

Q) Are the costs of work clothes and uniforms deductible as employee business expenses?

A) Generally you may not deduct the cost and maintenance of work clothes. However, if your occupation requires special apparel or equipment as a condition of employment, its cost and maintenance are deductible if it is not adaptable to general or continued use in place of ordinary clothing. Examples are special apparel and equipment required of firemen, police officers, letter carriers and nurses.

Q) I work for a department store which gives employees courtesy discounts on items purchased from the store. Should I be taxed on the amount of these discounts I received?

A) Courtesy discounts on purchases from employers are not income if they are of relatively small value and are offered to employees generally as a means of promoting their health, goodwill or efficiency.

Q) I have two jobs. Can I deduct transportation expenses between one place of work and the other?

A) If you work at two places in a day, whether or not for the same employer, you may deduct the expense of getting from one place to the other. However, if for some personal reason you do not go directly from one location to the other, you may deduct only the amount it would have cost you to go directly from one location to the second. Transportation expenses incurred in going to and from a part-time, Saturday job are commuting expenses and non-deductible.

Q. Will the IRS give me an immediate ruling on a policy decision of the Price Commission that has not yet been published in the Federal Register?

A. No, because policy decisions of the three stabilization policy boards do not become effective and legally binding until they are published in the Federal Register, you should wait until the regulation based on the policy decision is published before requesting a ruling.

In addition, the IRS suggests that individuals and businesses should not call with a question based on such policy decisions or news stories on policy decisions until the decision is clarified and implemented by being published in regulation form in the Federal Register.

But it doesn't stop there. We know how important savings are to young couples just getting started. To families with children to educate. To couples entering retirement years.

And we know how much hard work and effort every dollar you save represents. That's why we offer a variety of savings plans. And why we try to make every savings transaction a very special, very pleasant occasion.

Check Labels Well Before Using Pesticide

By Ralph Dunlap
Before using pesticides, read the label to be sure you have chosen the right chemical for the job, and follow directions exactly.
When using pesticides, be sure no children, pets or birds are around.
When emptying the pesticide container, wrap it in several layers of newspapers and tie them securely with a string. Put the wrapped container in the trash can and put the lid on the can.
If the pesticide container is still partially filled store it out of reach of the children. Store it in a closet or a tool shed that you can keep locked.
After using pesticides, wash your hands and face with soap and water.
Protect yourself and your environment by using pesticides safely.

Rain—The Mountains Are Green

And the rain came down... After the drought of 1971, area residents were again in luck. This year, until last week when the rains started, almost a month earlier than last year, we have, to date, received 2.32 inches. The wild flowers have already burst into bloom and the whole area is a brilliant green.

The early morning mist rising from the mountains and the valleys, is a sight to gladden the heart and make one appreciate the scenic beauty of our area.

The typical mountain showers last only a short time and make a fresh, new world after each storm. Lightning fires, the fear of the Forest Service, now can't get a start because of the wet trees.

The "Noisy Water" (Rio Ruidoso) is now truly noisy and promises a full season of beauty in the mountains of Ruidoso.

Manuel Badillo, Jr. Attends Aviation Technical School

Manuel Gomez Badillo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel G. Badillo, Sr., Ruidoso, is now attending the aviation technician school at Northrop Institute of Technology, Inglewood, Calif.

Studying airframe and power-plant maintenance, Badillo is preparing for a career as an aviation technician. Canyon Cowbells Suggest Recipes For Father's Day

Wish that this Father's Day you could do something extra to let Dad know he really is appreciated? No problem! Just treat him to a special meal featuring two of his table favorites — steak and cake. Gild the lily — make the steaks beef rib eye (Delmonico) and the cake a moist strawberry delight.

What's so special about rib eye steaks? They are made by cutting thick slices across the grain of a rib eye roast which is the tender and meaty heart of the standing rib roast. There's great eating in every bite of these boneless steaks. Although delicious from the oven broiler, a sunny June day invites the cook to move outdoors. There is something especially man-pleasing about the aroma of steaks cooking on the grill. Time and temperature need be carefully checked so that Dad's steak will be done just the way he likes it. He'll claim it the best Father's Day ever.

Then with the first bite of cake, he'll say it again. Strawberry pink marbling of the yellow or lemon cake is revealed when this cool and pretty dessert is sliced. To achieve this effect, the cake, made from a package, is drizzled with hot fruit-flavored gelatin. Mounds of whipped topping and strawberries offer the crowning touch.

Broiled Beef Rib Eye Steaks
Beef rib eye (Delmonico) steaks, cut 1 to 1 1/2 inches thick, Salt, Pepper.

Allow charcoal to burn until covered with gray ash. Place steaks on grill. If an adjustable grill is available, steaks cut 1 inch thick should be placed 2 to 3 inches from the heat; steaks cut 1 1/2 inches thick should be placed 3 to 5 inches from the heat. When one side is browned, turn, season and finish cooking on the second side. Season.

Steaks cut 1 inch thick require 10 to 12 minutes for rare and 15 to 20 for medium. Steaks cut 1 1/2 inches thick require 20 to 22 minutes for rare and 23 to 25 minutes for medium.

Strawberry Dessert Cake

1 package (18 1/2 ounces) lemon or yellow cake mix
1 package (3 ounces) strawberry-flavored gelatin
1 cup boiling water
1/2 cup cold water
Whipped cream or non-dairy topping
1 pint strawberries.

Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Grease and flour a spring form tube pan. Pour batter into pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 minutes or until done. Remove from oven and cool ten minutes. Do not remove from pan. Add boiling water to gelatin, stirring to dissolve. Then add cold water. Pierce entire top surface of cooled cake with a fork. Slowly pour hot gelatin liquid over cake surface, evenly. Chill in refrigerator 4 or more hours. Cover with whipped cream and strawberries.

Kennecott Unions Seek Governor's Assistance

Employees Want Clean Air, But Oppose "Unnecessarily Strict" Standards

The following letter was sent to the Honorable Bruce King, Governor of New Mexico. Its publication in the New Mexico press was requested by officials of the eight unions which represent the employees of the Chino Mines Division, Kennecott Copper Corporation.

Honorable Bruce King, Governor
State of New Mexico
Santa Fe, New Mexico 87501

June 7, 1972

Dear Governor:

During the past few days we have noticed several news stories in the local press dealing with New Mexico's air quality standards. Such developments are somewhat alarming and we think you should know our feelings.

We are vitally concerned with the future operation of the Kennecott smelter because of its direct economic impact on the 1200 employees we represent and the other thousands of people who are equally affected. We want clean air, but we have to protect the income of our people. Both can only be accomplished with reasonable standards. We, therefore, oppose unnecessarily strict regulations.

The item in these early reports that concerns us is the part dealing with sulfur oxide emission standards along the southern border of New Mexico. The newspapers say that this concerns only one installation, and that is the Kennecott smelter at Hurley.

Kennecott's planned expenditure of 18 plus million dollars for new pollution control equipment has been reviewed in detail with us. In fact, the company received bids and was preparing to let contracts before the Federal Government stepped in.

It is our understanding that our present regulations were subjected to a detailed examination at public hearings. We feel it is unreasonable for New Mexico to change now that pollution control projects are getting under way, and urge that as a state we stand firm behind the decisions of our agency and the Environmental Improvement Board.

We know there are pressures by so-called "environmentalists" to make the laws as strong as possible — in some cases, unreasonably so. We think it is time to give equal weight to the opinions of the people who live and work here.

In this connection, we believe that the employees we represent should at least be afforded the opportunity to participate directly in future hearings which affect the Hurley smelter. This has not been possible in the past since hearings have always been held in Santa Fe. We, therefore, request that any future hearings concerning the smelter be held in Grant County, possibly Hurley or Silver City.

We know you will appreciate our concern about these current developments. We also know we can count on you to see that our interests are taken into consideration in future deliberations.

Yours very truly,

Byou Bird Wins Kansas Futurity In World's Second Richest Race

Byou Bird, the brilliant filly owned by Walter Merrick of Bayre, Okla., turned in a mighty surge on the final jumps and snatched a heart-throbbing head victory in Sunday's grand finale of the Kansas Quarter Horse Futurity at Ruidoso Downs.

Byou Bird was relegated to the role of 7-2 shot in the 350-yd. dash which included probably the finest two-year-olds in the nation.

In the early going, it was any body's race with a wall of horses lined up struggling for the lead. Found Worthy, ridden by Willie Lovell for Bess Fish of Houston, appeared to inch ahead as the field thundered toward the half-way point of the lucrative speed-burst which carried a winner's purse of $92,873 out of a whopping gross pot of $283,903.

Fly Lalco Bird, the 6-5 betting choice, got away cleanly and ran her heart out in a futile attempt to overtake the pacemakers.

In the final steps, it appeared Found Worthy would get the win. But this was where Byou Bird really poured it on. The filly's last jumps were motivated by an extra burst of energy and she stuck her head out to nail the courageous Found Worthy.

The latter ended up second, a nose in front of the 13-1 longshot, Magnolia Jet. Fly Lalco Bird, a neck back, finished fourth.

Byou Bird, by Good Bird out of Delta Rose, returned $9.00, $4.80 and $3.40. Supporters of Found Worthy got back $11.80 to place and $5.40 to show. Magnolia Jet fished out a show price of $4.40. The winning time was 17.77 seconds, not far off the track mark of 17.59.

Here's how the finalists looked in order of qualifying times: 1-Fly Lalco Bird, 17.65; 2-Byou Bird, 17.63; 3-Found Worthy, 17.78; 4-Callmemyoh, 17.83; 5-Miss Stray Cause, 17.91; 6-Blue Sheep, 17.91; 7-Magnolia Jet, 17.92; 8-Miss Moon Bug, 17.92; 9-Thymus Jet, 17.94; 10-Red Bee Dewey, 17.95.

In addition to the giant winner's purse, Merrick also collected a breeder's award of $5,000. Byou Bird - who now stacks up as the standout for the upcoming $200,000 (est.) Rainbow Futurity and the $25,000 (est.) All-American Futurity - sports a record of 7-1-0 out of nine starts. Byou Bird has now earned $176,780.

The victory was Merrick's third in the 22-year history of the Kansas Futurity. He won with Jet Smooth in 1967 and Easy Jet in '69. Immediately after the running of Sunday's Futurity, Merrick flashed a broad smile as he approached the winner's circle and was surrounded by well-wishers.

This was Minchey's second Kansas conquest. The previous triumph came aboard Easy Jet.

Found Worthy (Go Man Go Ruby Charge), acquired at the Haymaker Sale for $60,000, picked up a paycheck of $44,624. Magnolia Jet, owned by Lester Goodson of Magnolia, Texas, earned $23,148. Lary Byers was up. Fly Lalco Bird had to be content with a fourth-place paycheck of $12,211.

Here's the remaining order of finish: 5th - Callmemyoh, owned by Dr. Donald Strome of Abilene, earning $11,150; 6th - Miss Siraw Cause (William Whitehead of Del Rio, Texas), $10,877; 7th - Miss Moon Bug (Clary Spencer and John Holton of Edmond, Okla.), $10,598; 8th - Thymus Jet (Doyle Matthews of Bristol, Okla.), $10,319; 9th - Blue Sheep (L. E. French of Odessa, Texas), $10,040; 10th - Red Bee Dewey (Red Bee Ranch of Wichita, Kans.), $9,482.

The Futurity was witnessed by a crowd of 5,054. Business continued to soar as the total handle for the afternoon jumped up to $294,966. On the same day last year, the handle was $252,897.

Fly Lalco Bird, the property of Floyd and Jimmie Jones of Norman, Okla., earned the role of futurity favorite on the basis of a neck triumph over Byou Bird in the trials. A total of 180 quarter horses were entered for the 19 trial heats.

MRS. B-

By CECILIA BARRON

"And what is so rare as a day in June? — He sings to the wide world, and she to her nest — In the nice ear of nature which song is the best?" wrote James Russell Lowell.

Then these are Shakespeare's words: "Look down, you Gods, and on this couple drop a blessed crown".

The bride month is here and it is the beginning of many emotional conflicts. I do not know if there are more brides in June than any other month; but it is so called throughout the nation. I saw a beautiful butterfly light outside my window—all gold with flecks of brown like the earth and dots of blue as the sky. I thought: how lovely, for it is not to last any longer than it does. It is so with many flashy weddings.

When you attend a wedding with lovely flowers, prettily dressed bridesmaids and so many beaming faces; as they look upon the darling bride, just how could anything go wrong here—you think—but this is all superficial. Many things go wrong as the years pass and the true value comes to the front.

Colley Cribber wrote: "Oh! how many torments lie in the small circle of a wedding ring." I think some of the things which interrupt or terminate this happy event are: the daughter-in-law never once thinks about the mother-giving up part of her life; for in the mother's mind, he truly is a jewel and her lifeblood. No matter if mothers deny it; there is always about half of her wanting her boy to stay a lovely baby and the other half wanting him to grow up and become famous, so she can be proud of him. "There is no friendship, no love, like that of the parent for the child," wrote Henry Ward Beecher.

They let mail, newspapers, and even milk pile up at the door, just inviting break-ins."

Burns noted that a burglar may run a test, he will break a window or door panel to see if it is repaired in a day or two. If it's still broken when he returns, he helps himself.

The insurance spokesman offered the following tips to local residents planning to be away for several days or weeks:

- If possible, have someone actually occupy your home.
- Stop all deliveries or make arrangements with a neighbor to pick up your mail, newspapers and milk.
- Give a neighbor a key and ask him to make a regular check to see that everything is in order.
- Automatic timers for turning lights on and off are available in most hardware stores. They are effective and inexpensive sentinels.
- One timer might well be used to turn on a radio at night. Police say that thieves won't enter where they hear any sounds of activity.
- Do not pull window shades down. That's a clear indication of an empty home.
- Check with your local police to see if they will check your home periodically, particularly at night.
- Arrange to leave your itinerary with a neighbor, including where you can be reached in case of emergency.
- Make an inventory of valuable items. In case of a break-in, you can quickly describe missing property.
- If you have a lawn, make arrangements to have it mowed weekly. A neat lawn and grounds will deceive the potential thief.
- If you leave a car in the garage, make sure the keys are well hidden. Some people have found that thieves have carried property away in their own car.

Precautions Told For Vacation Time

Many vacationers arrive home to find not only the cupboard, but the house bare. While they are away, they advertised their absence and the not too friendly local burglar helped himself to their prized possessions.

"Burglars are a very observant breed," according to Thomas E. Burns, president of the New Mexico Association of Independent Insurance Agents. "People don't realize how they let thieves know they are away."

On the other hand: the mother hardly ever thinks the bride is taking her son off her hands and will have to care for him 'until death doeth part'. 'No one will care for him as she has and he will be terribly neglected.'

Then the daughter-in-law may think: the mother must be perfect to have reared such a wonderful son. Woe be unto the poor girl, when she finds out mother and son have as many faults as anyone else. This so often occurs when the couple tries to start their union, living with one of their parents. This should never, never happen.

I once knew a couple who: when the mother refused to take them into her home and business; resented it and did not speak to or visit her for many years. Eventually they had a child but did not notify the mother—she found out through other sources. All of this truly hurt her and I know the couple had a lost, void feeling; not seeing a grandmother's glowing face, when she looks at her grandchild.

You can see all of the wasted years and the pleasure they could have had; watching the child grow up. They were not only hurting themselves but were depriving the child of a grandmother. Every child needs a grandma, grandam; granny, mee-ma or whatever they choose to call her. 'Hatred is self punishment,' so wrote Hecia Balou.

Well the years went by and somehow they got together after the child was grown and enjoyed each other's company. But the granddaughter always seemed reserved around grandmother. She could not quite forget that grandmother used to be some kind of ogress—even if she is not now. A child picks up a word, or remark here and there. Life should be give and take. I once heard a man say that he and Alice had "nary a cross word". Well she took what was offered her and not once asking for anything or mumbling an objection. She was truly an angel without wings on this earth. She has passed on now; waiting for the Lord to give her those wings. Wayne Bunning wrote: "But in perfect happiness you will abide if God's blessing rests on you, dear little Bride!"

Hondo FFA Boys Attend State Meet

The Hondo Chapter for Future Farmers of America attended the State Convention in Albuquerque June 4-6. Members attending were Jack Zurnwalt, Larry Thomas, Thomas Montes, Gilbert Chavez, Bobby Booky, Freddy Romero, Aaron Miller, Ray Sisneros and James Racher, advisor. Ray Sisneros received the State Farmer Degree.

"These are fairly simple suggestions," Mr. Burns concluded, "but they can help people prevent having a great vacation ruined on their return."

Editor's Note: The following is a creed we saw hanging in the Ruidoso Drug. It expresses our sentiments well, and we felt that we should share it with our readers.

I do not choose to be a common man. It is my right to be uncommon—if I can. I seek opportunity—not security. I do not wish to be a kept citizen, humbled and dulled by having the state look after me. I want to take the calculated risk; to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed.

I refuse to barter incentive for dole. I prefer the challenge of life to the guaranteed existence; the thrill of fulfillment to the state calm of Utopia. I will not trade freedom for beneficence nor my dignity for a handout. I will never cover before any master nor bend to any threat. It is my heritage to stand erect, proud and unafraid, to think and act for myself, to face the world boldly and say, "this I have done". All this is what it means to be an American.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"YOU DIRTY CROOK!"

Baseball umpires and football referees take it in stride. But there are times when the cry "You dirty crook!"—or words to that effect—can amount to slander. How the courts look upon such outbursts tells a great deal about the law of defamation of character.

Take this case: During an argument at a golf course, one player called another "a lousy crook." The latter filed suit for slander, charging that the epithet had branded him as a common criminal.

But the court disagreed. At least in this situation, said the court, the words were no more than generalized bluster.

Oliver Wendell Holmes once expressed the law's attitude as follows:

"A word is not a crystal, transparent and unchanged; it is the skin of a living thought, and may vary greatly in color and content according to the circumstances and the time in which it is used."

Accordingly, another court found it was indeed defamatory for a jeweler to say of a rival jeweler that he was "a crook . . . mixed up in some crooked deals."

This time the comment made during a business conference, was clearly meant to be taken literally.

Even in a non-business setting, this kind of language may be defamatory. At a club meeting, one of the members denounced the club president as "a cheat and a fraud." In short order, the president filed suit for slander.

In a court hearing he pointed out that the remark had been made not merely as a general insult but as a specific comment on his performance in office. The court decided that, since the office was one of trust and honor, the words were weighty enough to support a suit.

"Those words," said the judge, "cannot but impair confidence in the president's ability to hold the office."

Your Social Security

Medicare like Ecology, has become a household word, but how much does the average person know about it? Who is eligible? How much does it cost? When does it become effective after application? What medical services and supplies are covered? These are just a few of the questions asked daily of social security representatives in southeastern New Mexico.

Mrs. Christine Graves, social security field representative, suggests that anyone who is interested in the answers to these questions should pick up a copy of "Your Medicare Handbook", a very helpful booklet available free of charge from any social security office. This handbook explains the basic benefits offered by Medicare. Complicated circumstances involved in illness or injury should be discussed with a social security representative.

A visit or telephone call to the nearest social security office will provide solutions to most Medicare problems.

Mrs. Graves may be contacted at the Council Room in the Ruidoso City Hall, the second Wednesday of each month from 10 to noon and 1 to 2.

Budgeting Guide For Retired Couples

Money is often the biggest worry of retirement because it often means living on less. As an aid to making retirement income cover needs the U. S. Department of Agriculture offers a bulletin, "A Guide to Budgeting for the Retired Couple."

The guide offers suggestions on listing expenses and income. In addition, it realistically points out the need for an emergency fund. While helpful to those already retired, the bulletin offers planning advice for those who will retire within the next few years.

To reduce expenses, retired couples may have to change their style of living. For some it may require a second career. For many it means moving to an area where living expenses are less expensive. Small cities are usually less costly than large ones, and the South is generally less expensive than the North.

It is available from the Bulletin Office, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, N. M. 88001. Ask for Home and Garden Bulletin No. 194. The guide may also be found in the county agent's office.

NASA Slates Test Over Ruidoso Area

A series of three very high altitude flight tests of the parachute system that will lower NASA's Viking Lander gently to the surface of Mars in 1976 will take place this spring and summer in New Mexico.

In two of the tests, test spacecraft simulating the Mars entry vehicle will be carried to approximately 36.6 kilometers (120,000 feet) by a large helium-filled balloon.

The spacecraft will then be released from the balloon and rocketed at a high velocity to an altitude of 44.8 kilometers (147,000 feet).

In the third test—at subsonic conditions—a smaller balloon will be used to carry the test spacecraft to 28.1 kilometers (92,000 feet). From this position the spacecraft will be allowed to free-fall to the desired subsonic test conditions.

In all three tests the parachute system will open on ground command.

Successful completion of three tests—one at supersonic speed, one transonic, and one subsonic—will qualify the Viking parachute system for use on the missions to Mars.

First flight in the series was planned for not earlier than June 11, with balloon launch from Roswell. The parachute test will occur some 160 kilometers (100 miles) to the west, over the White Sands Missile Range.

Downs, New Mexico. THE BONDS will be awarded to the highest and best bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any, and subject to the right of the Village to reject any and all bids and readvertise. The highest bid for said issue will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid, if any, from the total amount of interest which the Village would be required to pay from the date of the bonds to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the proposal, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the Village. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. None of the bonds will be sold for less than par and accrued interest, and no discount or commission will be allowed or paid on the sale of the bonds. The Village reserves the privilege of waiving any irregularity or informality in any bid.

ALL BIDS shall be sealed and except for the bid of the State of New Mexico, if one is received, shall be accompanied by a deposit of five per cent (5%) of the amount of the bid, i.e., the principal amount of the bonds plus any premium, either cash or certified check drawn on a solvent bank or trust company, which shall be returned if the bid is not accepted; and if the successful bidder for said issue shall fail or neglect to complete the purchase within thirty (30) days following the acceptance of the bid, or within ten (10) days after the bonds are offered for delivery, whichever is later, the amount of the deposit shall be forfeited to the Village, and in that event the Governing Body may accept the bid of the one making the next best bid, or if all bids are rejected, the Board of Trustees of said Village shall readvertise said bonds for sale. If there be two or more equal bids for said issue and such bids are the best bids received and for not less than par and accrued interest, the Governing Body shall determine which bid shall be accepted.

THE GOVERNING BODY will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids for said issue not later than twenty-four hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of bids. Delivery of the bonds of said issue will be made to the successful bidder at the Ruidoso State Bank, Ruidoso, New Mexico, or at the successful bidder's request and at his expense, delivery will be made elsewhere as requested. Any successful bidder will not be required to accept delivery of the bonds if they are not tendered for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date herein stated, for opening bids; and the good faith bidder will thereafter be returned to the successful bidder upon his request.

Regulations Set For '72 Hunt

The State Game Commission established seasons, bag limits and regulations for 1972 big game hunting at its regular May meeting in Santa Fe recently. Species on which seasons were set included deer, turkey, bear, elk, antelope, cougar, Barbary sheep, Rocky Mountain and desert bighorn sheep, grouse and squirrel.

Regular deer seasons are very similar to what they have been in the previous several years with the general northern season open 16 days from Nov. 4 through Nov. 19; the southwestern season open nine days Nov. 18-26 and the southeast season open 16 days Nov. 18-Dec. 3. Bag limits will be one fork-antlered buck in the north and one antlered buck in both the southern areas.

A total of 7,900 either-sex validations will be available in five areas around the state. These are allotted by public drawing and authorize those holding them to take one antlerless deer during the regular season in the area for which the validation is issued.

The Department recommended that license buyers be required to have their licenses validated for hunting in the north or the south and limiting each hunter to hunting in only one half of the state. This was in an effort to cut down on the deer congestion in the field, but it was rejected by the Commission by a 3-2 vote. It will, however, be considered at a later date for the 1973 season.

In addition to the regular deer rifle and bow seasons, the Commission also approved an experimental muzzleloader season in three areas of the state. The seasons, all open Oct. 21 through 29, are set for the Department's Urraca and Marques Wildlife Areas and for the west side of the White Mountains in southeastern New Mexico. During the White Mountain season, hunters also will be allowed to take a bear and a turkey with muzzleloaders.

The general bull elk season was set for Oct. 7-15 with a limit of one mature bull elk. The Department also recommended that the herd control cow hunt be held in conjunction with the bull hunt on a validation basis similar to the method used for the deer either-sex validation hunts. This was turned down by the Commission and the Tres Piedras, Taos, Black Lakes and Tres Ritos antlerless elk hunts were set for Oct. 9-17 and the Pecos antlerless hunt set for Nov. 25-Dec. 3.

The Commission set the first spring bear hunt, with dates of April 1 through May 1, 1973 in a north central portion of the state. Dogs will be allowed and the limit will be one bear, except cubs less than a year old or any female followed by cubs.

Other changes from last year's seasons include the addition of a northeast cougar season, Dec. 1, 1972-March 31, 1973, the opening of a Barbary sheep season in the Largo Canyon area of northwestern New Mexico, Feb. 3-11, 1973, with 10 licenses; and the availability of one non-resident Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep license in each of the Pecos and the Glenwood areas.

Other seasons, limits and regulations are very similar to those that were in effect last year.

Democrat Jack Daniels of Hobbs carried 19 counties in his march to victory in the U. S. Senate primary over 24 rivals. The Daniels counties were Bernalillo, Chaves, Colfax, Curry, DeBaca, Dona Ana, Eddy, Harding, Hidalgo, Lea by an overwhelming 5,969 votes; Lincoln, Luna, McKinley, Otero, Roosevelt, San Juan, Torrance, Union and Valencia.

Lt. Gov. Robert Mondragon won nine counties—Grant, Guadalupe, Mora, Rio Arriba, Sandoval, San Miguel, Santa Fe, Socorro and Taos. Bob topped Jack narrowly in Socorro County. Ex-U. S. Rep. Tom Morris carried Quay, his former home; Sierra, Catron and Los Alamos.

Atty. Gen. David Norvell and State Treasurer Jesse Kornegay did not carry a county. Albuquerque attorney Pete Domenici swamped ex-Gov. David F. Cargo and former Lt. Gov. E. Lee Francis of Cubero, Valencia County, in the Republican U. S. Senate primary.

Domenici carried 28 counties. Cargo won the others—Guadalupe, Mora, Rio Arriba and San Miguel. Francis did not carry a county. Francis' best showing was in his home Valencia County. He polled 568 votes to 905 for Domenici.

Santa Fe lawyer Eugene Gallegos, formerly of Tucuman, won the Democratic nomination in U. S. House District 1 with 27,222 votes. Gallegos carried Bernalillo, Colfax, Harding, Los Alamos, Mora, Quay, Sandoval and Santa Fe Counties.

Ex-Santa Fe Mayor George Gonzalez won Guadalupe, Taos, Rio Arriba, San Miguel and Torrance Counties. Santa Fe consultant Ted Wilson carried Union County. Coaklett waitress Sparkle Plenty finished last in the Democratic U. S. House District 1 race with 3,590 votes.

Ed Presson, 29, of Silver City upset Sierra County rancher Reuben Pankey of Monticello to win the Republican nomination for the U. S. House in District 2. The vote was Presson, 9,325; Pankey, 7,254.

Presson staged an aggressive, active campaign over the huge, 19-county district to top Pankey, a longtime active conservative Republican. Pankey is former president of New Mexico Cattle Growers' Association.

Presson will face tough U. S. Rep. Harold Runnels, Lovington Democrat, in November. Runnels will be a heavy favorite to win. Only a resounding sweep by President Richard M. Nixon in New Mexico would threaten Runnels.

Taos, defeated two Democratic incumbents, C. B. Trujillo of Taos, defeated two Democratic primary opponents—Carlos D. Lopez of Mora and Phillip G. Vargas of Taos.

Trujillo faces S. Pete Sahd, Penasco Republican, in the general election. Sahd is a former member of the State Parole Hearing Board. He is a past commander of the New Mexico Department of the American Legion.

Sen. Trujillo attended a 3-day meeting of the Legislative Finance Committee last week. He said the LFC had observed state revenue throughout the fiscal year and anticipated income one or two per cent over State Finance Department projections. State Finance Director Robert Kirkpatrick reported the July-May state general fund distribution was $253.1 million, topping the Finance Department estimate by $4.6 million or 1.9 per cent.

Sen. Trujillo says the legislature should consider legalized gambling as a revenue source. He notes some states have found various forms of gambling a lucrative revenue source.

Trujillo says some areas of state finance need improvement—municipal and school funding—and gambling revenue may be the remedy.

Trujillo says the veterans' exemption should be changed to afford Vietnam veterans the same advantages other veterans receive. Trujillo opposes increases in the three major taxes—gross receipts (sales), income and property—except to close loopholes.

Jack Underwood of Ruidoso lost a bid for the Democratic nomination for a 4-year term on the State Court of Appeals. Ration Lopez of Alamogordo won the nomination and ousted incumbent Ray Cowan of Hobbs, an appointee of Gov. Bruce King.

West Las Vegas Schools Supt. Ray Leger defeated ex-Las Vegas Mayor Fidel (Chief) Gonzales for the Democratic nomination for the State Senate in District 8 (Guadalupe, DeBaca and San Miguel Counties). Leger, allied with Dist Atty. Donald A. (Tiny) Martinez of Las Vegas, will face Republican incumbent Sen. Junio Lopez of Las Vegas in November.

In State Senate District 7 Sen. John L. Morrow of Capulin defeated ex-state Rep. Kelly Mora of Raton. The district spans all or part of Colfax, Union, Harding and San Miguel Counties. Morrow won a Democratic race.

In House District 6P rancher Dan C. Berry of Eunice won the Democratic nomination over Thomas Bernard Kennam of Eunice, a Lea County commissioner. Berry is unopposed in the general election.

Rancher Bill L. Lee of Lovington won the Democratic nomination for the State Senate in Lea County District 42. Lee defeated James McCrory, Ed Roberts and ex-County Commission Chairman Don Lanford, all of Lovington. The district includes Eunice and Jal.

State Rep. Clifton Moreland of Tucuman easily defeated Louis Gallegos of Logan for the Democratic nomination in House District 67—Quay and Union Counties. Moreland is unopposed in the general election. Rep. John Bigbee, S-Encino, defeated Antonio D. Sanchez of Santa Rosa for renomination in the GOP primary in a Guadalupe, Torrance, DeBaca and Lincoln Counties district.
