VOLUNTEER FOREST FIRE TRAINING CLASSES BEGIN APRIL 28—150 ABLE BODIED MEN NEEDED

10c Per Copy

Disaster Control Center Organized - Going

A disaster control center, operating out of the Ruidoso Police Department, has been organized by the Ruidoso Disaster Defense Unit Task Force and, in the event of disaster, the center is functional.

The Task Force needs manpower.

A minimum of 150 able bodied men, under age 55, are wanted, immediately, for 16 hours of disaster training.

The first session, four hours, will be held Sunday, April 28, at White Mountain School at 1:30 p.m.

The initial course will be devoted to forest fire fighting techniques.

At the end of 16 hours of fire fighting training, the minimum at which Forest Service personnel can put men on the line, trainees will know how to handle shovels, McClouds (rake-hoe combination), Pulaskis (axe-grub hoe combination), other equipment and will be versed in forest fire fighting basics including line holding, mop up techniques, care of equipment and safety precautions.

This program, including training, equipment and operation of the disaster control center, has been developed at no cost to the taxpayer.

Following the indoctrination lessons Sunday . . . and all the volunteers need do is show up at White Mountain School at 1:30 p.m. . . . Forest Service fire suppression personnel will work with trainees to combat a "fire" in a simulated fire line.

Once crews are formed, to work as a unit, fire line safety will be stressed including the proper interval between fire fighters, what to do in case of blowups and how to move out of a danger area.

Due to the imminent danger of forest fire, the Disaster Defense Unit Task Force's initial efforts are being directed towards fire. The unit, however, is set up to handle any disaster situation including tornado, flood, hail or any other violent disturbance or emergency condition requiring evacuation of area residents and/or property protection.

IN THE EVENT OF FOREST fire the communication center will be the dispatcher's office of the Ruidoso Police Department . . . and command HQ, to which all personnel must report, will be the Forest Service office.

All fire school trainees and other personnel involved will receive orders from the command HQ. Fire fighting personnel will be instructed as to the proper clothing to wear and where to report when called.

The need for this organization was evident in the recent School fire, covering 200 acres at the end of the airport runway, in which mass confusion among the volunteers attempting to assist trained personnel did not, but could have had, disastrous results.

THE TRAINING COURSE will be informal to instruct the volunteers in what to do, where to go and how to do it to the end that the crews will operate at maximum efficiency.

The Disaster Defense Unit Task Force is comprised of members of village officials, police, fire departments, county commissioners, state police and volunteers in Ruidoso and vicinity working in conjunction with Forest Service Personnel.

Should there be a forest fire, or other disaster, the Ruidoso Police Department will be the sole communications center with all orders and requests being handled by the police dispatcher. If the disaster is a fire, all communications between the Forest Service and the PD will be coordinated.

In addition to state, county, federal and municipal offices and personnel, members of the White Mountain Jeep Club will be working with state and municipal law enforcement agencies in traffic control.

A HOT LINE, IN CASE OF fire, has been installed between the Ruidoso PD and the local Forest Service.

Coordinators of the Ruidoso Disaster Defense Unit Task Force program include Fritz Menninghaus, Smokey Bear District Ranger; Bob Wagenfehr, Recreation and Land Staff with the district; Chuck Mook, U. S. Forest Service; Paul Lukens, Ruidoso Police Chief; Bill Seelbach and Jack Kannady of the Ruidoso Fire Department; Derald Waltrip, Ruidoso Fire Marshall; Don Rash of the White Mountain Jeep Club and Bonito Volunteer Fire Department; Ron Strassburg and Phil Yost.

Animal Ordinance Enforcement Ordered by Downs Village Council

The Ruidoso Downs village council noted last Monday evening that animal ordinances and ordinances pertaining to residents keeping property clean would be strictly enforced and urged citizens of the village to comply with the regulations. It was stated that anyone having old car bodies that they wished to be picked up and disposed of, without charge, could do so by calling the village hall. May 4 and 11 were set as clean-up days for the village and any trash that is placed in the normal pick-up areas for garbage will be hauled away by village crews.

Two appointments were made by Mayor Jack DiPaolo and approved by the council. They were: Guy Bowers to the Police Department and Will Talley to the Water and Street Department.

DiPaolo and Trustee George Hancock reported on a trip to Artesia to look into the possible purchase of a surplus storage tank for village water. They noted that a 42,000 gallon tank could be purchased for the sum of $5,000. The cost would include delivery and sand blasting of the tank. Approval of the purchase was made on an emergency basis. DiPaolo also reported that a grant for water improvement had been approved by the state on the condition of supplying plans and engineering data for final approval. Discussion of the purchase of Denton Field was held and it was pointed out that the irrigation well on the property would qualify for the purpose for the grant, if the property can be bought. Attorney Richard Parsons was asked to look into ways that the property could be purchased.

DiPaolo reported on a meeting of the New Mexico Municipal League in Albuquerque to discuss grants and grants for matching funds. He said that federal officials had agreed to streamline methods of application to speed the process. Changes in regulations are one of the major causes of the delay in the proposed joint sewer project. The board voted to pay Attorney Jack Whorton, former village attorney, for work on the sewer project, with a small payment being made now and the balance when funds are available in the next fiscal year. It was reported that village funds for payment of legal charges was almost out of money and that this is the reason that the fee was not being paid in full immediately.

Linda Posey, chairman of the beautification committee, reported on progress on the program. (See other stories in this issue of The News).

A report by John Lewis, state environmentalist, concerning the disposal of solid waste was discussed and it was noted that the village would attempt to follow his recommendation as closely as possible. A total of 14 sites were studied for the replacement of the present land fill and a decision will probably be reached in the near future on the site. After a report that the sanitation department has lost about $2,000 in eight months, the board discussed raising sanitation charges for village residents. A study will be made of rates charged and recommendations acted upon at the next meeting.

DiPaolo reported that he had asked several officials to be present at the meet to clarify the ceding of a 2¼ mill levy to the Ruidoso Municipal School District, but none were in attendance at the meeting, therefore, no action was taken.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held May 13 at 8:00 p.m. in the village hall. The meeting is open to the public.

Beautification Committee Sets Completion Date

The Ruidoso Downs Beautification Committee is well underway with its project of landscaping the highway median through the village in the Red, White and Blue of the All-American theme. In an attempt to meet a challenge by Al Rosa, Race Track president, for the committee to raise $3,000 which he would match, a fund raising campaign has now begun and in the first one-half day had raised $745.

Preliminary plans and drawings for the project are now complete and have been submitted to the state highway department for approval. Low growing shrubs, cacti, rocks and trees with branches trimmed to the proper height will be used for the project.

Completion date for the project has been set for June of 1974.

The next meeting of the committee will be held at the village hall May 2, 7:30 p.m. All interested parties are urged to attend and it was noted that donations to the project could be made at the village hall.

Hondo Dancers Set Annual Fiesta Show

The nationally known "Hondo Fiesta Dancers" will present the 22nd Annual Fiesta Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4, at 8:00 p.m. in the Hondo School Gymnasium.

The Fiesta is the annual presentation of the extremely colorful performance of Spanish, Mexican and New Mexican folk dances. Seventy junior and senior high school students in beautiful costumes perform the many graceful and difficult steps.

In addition to their extensive travels throughout New Mexico and Texas, these nationally famous dancers have traveled and danced at the National Folk Festival of Arts in Tucson, Arizona in 1951, the National Folk Festival in Nashville, Tennessee in 1959, Mexico City and Acapulco in 1965, Disneyland and San Juan Capristrano in 1966, the Hemisfair in San Antonio in 1968, Chihuahua City and Los Mochis in 1970. The dancers were forced to refuse an invitation to the National Folk Festival in Washington D. C. in 1960 due to the students' school commitments. Twenty seven dancers traveled to Mexico City for ten days last May.

Many of the old favorite dances will be presented again by popular request. They include La Varsaviana, El Jarabe Patene, Jesusita En Chihuahua, El Jarabe Michoacano, Jota Tapatia, Lagarteranas, Vals De Los Panos, Jarable Del Valle, El Naviellero, and the always popular two, Danza El Aguascalientes and El Jarabe Tapatio.

Among the new dances being taught by Mrs. Fermin S. Montes will be the dance of the State of Jalisco, Guadalajara and a polka — El Calambre

The Mexican Dinner will again be served by the mothers of the valley. Many people prefer to arrive early for the dinner in order to have a better selection of seating for the dance performance. Dinner will be served from 5:00 p.m. until the dancing begins at 8:00 p.m. Price for the dinner will be $1.50 per plate.

Admission to the Fiesta performance will be $1 per person.

Williams Named Activity Director By Ruidoso School Trustees

The Ruidoso Municipal School Board of Trustees met at a specially called meeting Wednesday and immediately went into executive session, where they remained for about 1½ hours. Upon their return, Dub Williams was voted Activities Director and it was explained that Williams would handle funds to the various sports departments with Doyle Howell handling the scheduling of athletic events in his post as Athletic Director. It was explained by Superintendent Pat Valliant that the board members certainly did not wish to discredit Williams by the appointment of Howell as Athletic Director, but merely wished to give him assistance in his duties as Activities Director for the entire high school. It was pointed out that the high school had reached a size where both an activities director and an athletic director were needed.

The board voted to accept the grant for a Career Education Mobile Unit by a four to one vote. Trustee Dan Griffith stated that he felt that the 35 minutes or so required from students to work in the mobile unit was unnecessary since the subjects could be covered in classroom work just as well. The mobile unit will spend 9 weeks in each of four school systems.

Bids on a high school sound system were reconsidered and the contract was awarded to Sound and Signal Systems of Albuquerque.

A call for bids on office machine maintenance was issued and bids will be opened at the next regular meeting May 14.

Some of the visitors at the meeting expressed their views on actions taken by the board, but due to the length of the meeting, it was adjourned at about 3 p.m.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held in the school administrative offices at 8 p.m. May 14.

The figures show $622.79 for motels, $999.99 for restaurants, $619.76 for ski shops, and $629.20 for the ski area.

Fire Damages R. D. Drive-In Theatre

Fire of undetermined origin Tuesday night damaged the Ruidoso Downs Drive-In Theatre to an extent not determined Wednesday afternoon.

The fire was reported about 11:20 p.m. Tuesday by an off-duty Ruidoso policeman and Ruidoso Downs firemen confined damage to the south side of the building with some smoke and minor water damage to the projection booth.

The State Fire Marshall is expected to investigate the fire this week.

Drama Club Slates "The Miracle Worker"

The Ruidoso High School Drama Club has now entered the homestretch of their rehearsals for the, forthcoming local production of "The Miracle Worker," the outstanding stage and motion picture success by William Gibson. "The Miracle Worker" recounts the inspirational true-life saga of the child Helen Keller and of her compassionate young tutor, Annie Sullivan. It tells a simple but deeply stirring story about a young woman who is hired to take care of a child who cannot hear, see or speak — a girl who is buried alive within her small self.

When the play opens, Helen Keller is virtually living the life of an untamed wild animal. Sightless and deaf and mute but with a stubborn will, she has been running unchecked, and no one has ever been able to communicate with her. Then Annie Sullivan is engaged as her tutor, to try to teach her the rudimentary discipline necessary for a civilized existence. In the climactic second act is a scene of rough-and-tumble brawling, a bruising physical encounter with the result that Annie is for the first time able to get through to the unruly young Helen.

The local production of "The Miracle Worker" will be at 8:15 p.m. on the evening of Friday, May 3, in the Ruidoso High School Gym. The doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and no one will be admitted after curtain-time at 8:15 p.m. Tickets will be 75c for students and children and $1.50 for adults and may be purchased at the door.

In this production, there will be a minimal amount of stage scenery used with the main emphasis being upon the acting and the lighting effect. Mr. Newsom, Drama Instructor, and the cast are very excited about using the new set of stage lights that were recently purchased by the high school. The lights were installed by members of the Drama Class.

Art Association Meets Saturday

John E. Wyant, Executive Director of the New Mexico Arts Commission, will speak at the Lincoln County Art Association meeting Saturday at 2 p.m., at the Artisan's Shop and Gallery in Ruidoso. He will explain how the local association can work through the commission to obtain grants and matching funds for various art projects. All artists and interested persons are invited.

Wyant is also interested in obtaining paintings to place in state offices in Santa Fe on a loan basis.

He is a graduate of Harvard University, where he majored in Latin American Studies and art appreciation after which he studied art and Spanish at the National University of Mexico City and traveled in Central and South America. Prior to assuming his present position he was vice-president and director of one of the nation's largest florist-nurserymen companies headquartered in West Virginia and Ohio.

Nob Hill School Kids Will Donate Prize To Weed School

Nob Hill School youngsters, from Mrs. Keeton's and Mrs. Coe's classes, have been named the winners in a contest sponsored by the Ruidoso State Bank for collecting aluminum cans from throughout the village in a clean-up contest and have voted to give the $50 first prize to the Weed School, which was recently destroyed by fire. Although a weight figure is not yet available, it was obvious from the number of sacks of cans that the Nob Hill youngsters had won the contest.

Second place winner of the $30 savings account was the Ruidoso Rambler 4-H Club; third place winners of the $20 savings account were Eloy Alwager and Phil Richardson. Although no fourth and fifth place awards were planned, Laura Stirman and the Flower Power Club, the other entrants in the contest, will be given $15 savings accounts also.

Point System Reminder for State Drivers

Municipal Judge Sam Nunnally, in noting the impending arrival of the 1974 horse racing season in Ruidoso Downs, reminds motorists of the generalities of the State of New Mexico's driving law point system.

If 12 points are accumulated in any 12-month period, the penalty is loss of driver's license for one year, dated from the date the license is received by the Driver's Services Division (DSD) in Santa Fe. If the driver's license is not received by DSD within 20 days after the driver is notified by DSD to relinquish his license, the State Police are ordered to obtain the license and transmit it to DSD.

The more common violations, and points assessed against the driver's license, include:

Most moving violations, two points.

Failure to yield to a school bus, six points.

Reckless driving, six points.

Driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages, automatic one year revocation of driver's license.

Speeding over the posted limit, 1-9 m. p. h., two points; 10-19 m. p. h., four points; 20 m. p. h., or more, six points and speeding through a school zone above the regularly posted limit, six points.

Empty Trailer Burns In Ruidoso Downs

The Ruidoso Downs Fire Department was called to an empty trailer home behind the Ruidoso Downs Lounge near the Mitchell Motel at 1:30 a.m., April 21.

Fire Chief Ray Walker told The Ruidoso News Monday that the fire was brought under control by 7:30 a.m., after it had spread to a nearby antique store, destroying the floor. Department members, Walker said, moved all of the antiques out of the threatened building before they could extinguish the fire. The store also suffered smoke damage.

The cause of the fire is being investigated.

Race Set to Honor Residents of Ruidoso And Ruidoso Downs

Ruidoso-Ruidoso Downs Day at Sunland Park Race Track is scheduled to be held Saturday, April 27. Residents and village officials from the two villages will be honored by the track on that day with a feature race.

Chamber Manager Richard Cothrun reported that anyone wishing a lapel tag could pick them up at the chamber of commerce office.

The guests will come from Midland, Odessa, Brownfield, Snyder, Plainview, Lubbock, Lamesa and El Paso, Texas and from Holloman Air Force Base, Roswell and Alamogordo, New Mexico.

The letters of invitation to the various chambers of commerce suggested that members of the respective chambers be given the tickets.

Be Friendly To Our Visitors – They're ALL we've got.

In Passing . .

By AL LANE

We would seriously recommend that citizens of our area make it a point to occasionally visit the meetings of the various governing bodies from the village hall all the way to the County Commission. It sometimes gets discouraging to sit in a meeting that is seldom attended except by those having complaints. Most of the elected boards and councils are served by members that are not paid and in which a good deal of time is required. If citizens are to truly have a representative government, their comments and advice are often needed. The right of the citizen was in the mind of the legislature when the open meeting law was passed — and in some cases it is most definitely needed. Everyone has the right to know what action is taken at such meetings and, if mistakes are made, the citizens should also have the right to see that they are rectified. This we will say — take an interest, and we will all get a better job done . . . In the matter of the ceding of the 2¼ mill levy that the villages voted to give the school district, with the full amount of the tax collected in the village returned to the respective village. We will attempt to give you the facts accurately when we can find someone who can explain it to us simply enough to truly know what is going on. We only know that the Ruidoso District is the only one in Lincoln County that does not have the levy ceded to it by the villages and is one of the few in the state that does not. This does not necessarily mean that such a levy is right. . . .

15 YEARS AGO

April 17, 1959

An announcement was made Wednesday of plans to begin immediate construction of another drive-in theatre, to be located in the Hollywood area, by Ken Newton and Ed Wimberly, owners and operators of the Mt. Vue Sho-Dyn Drive-in.

Wimberly said in making the announcement that the new drive-in would accommodate about 200 cars.

Two pieces of property advertised for sale by Ruidoso Municipal School were all purchased by partnerships of local people.

Fred L. Richardson and Jack DiPaolo purchased the Ruidoso gymnasium and auditorium with about a tenth of an acre of ground. Richardson said their successful bid was $6,666.66, and that they would begin immediatedly remodeling and renovating the place. "We hope to make the building into a center for many activities — including conventions, athletic events, etc."

For the Stetson school building and acreage on U. S. Highway 70 east of Ruidoso Downs, there were seven bidders, with a trio, composed of Tommy Perteet, Dr. W .D. Horton and Dr. James A. Beall buying the offering with a high offer of $12,785. Dr. Horton told The News he did not know just what use the property would be put to. Included in the sale was about 2½ acres of land with some 500' of frontage on the highway.

Bill Moore of Apache Summit Lodge says Robert Geronimo, son of the famed Apache chief, will be here and in Indian costume throughout the summer, at the Summit Lodge, for persons to interview and photograph.

Soybean Cookery: The highly lauded soybean is cooked like any other humble bean or pea. Dry soybeans are cooked in the same way as other dry beans. Soak overnight or use the quick-soak method. After soaking, drain; add six cups of fresh water for each cup of beans put to soak; and two teaspoons of salt. Cook for one-and-one-half to two hours. Season and serve.

Cooked soybeans may be used in casseroles, soups or salads. Soybean puree can be added for foods, especially to extend meat dishes and supplement the protein. Puree soybeans by pressing soaked soybeans through a coarse sieve or grind.

Soybeans are a good source of high-quality protein, but the beans are not a complete protein. Soybeans and soybean products are relatively expensive on a per pound basis. Other extenders may be just as nutritious and more economical. A cook could add dry milk to a meatloaf, for example, and get as much protein and a better-tasting meat dish at less cost.

In many successful recipes using soybeans as an expander, the economy and ease of preparation of the recipe is lessened because of adding spices or other ingredients to mask the flavor of the soybeans.

Since soybeans absorb fat and moisture, extra liquid must be added in many dishes or the finished product will be dry.

Beef Recipe Fair

The Canyon Cowbelles held the Lincoln County Beef Recipe Fair March 24, 1974 in Capitan. The contestants were Lisa Ferguson, Elaina Cantrell, Maurita Lovelace and Mona Payne of Carrizozo, Shannon Dobbs of Ruidoso, Roby McDaniel and Karen McDaniel of Claunch. The girls competed in two age categories, 9 thru 13 and 14 thru 19.

The winners in the Junior category were: 1st — Lisa Ferguson, 2nd — Mona Payne and a third place tie between Roby McDaniel and Maurita Lovelace.

The Senior first place was won by Karen McDaniel.

Lisa Ferguson and Karen McDaniel represented the Canyon Cowbelles at the State Cook-off in Albuquerque on March 31, at the State Cattle Growers Convention.

A golden opportunity for education is offered each year by New Mexico State University Cooperative Extension Service at Homemakers College. Homemakers College will be held June 11 thru 14 on the New Mexico State University Campus. All women in the state are invited to attend these three days of informal, stimulating fun and education at this special "Mini-College."

Just a sampling of the classes are:

1. Landscaping With Native Plants: How to use our own New Mexico plants in the most effective ways to enhance the surroundings of the home. Which plants to use. How to transplant and locate native plants. Techniques of landscape principles.

2. Magic Fashion Methods: New fabrics and improved sewing machines have enabled the home sewer to take many shortcuts in garment construction. Quick and easy techniques of sewing garments of single and double knits often eliminate almost all hand sewing. Discussion and demonstration of many of these shortcuts as well as ideas on fabric care will be discussed.

3. Home Vegetable Gardening: Stretch your dollar. Learn how to grow your own vegetables the right way to achieve better quality.

4. The American Indian Today: Members of New Mexico Indian Tribes will discuss native American cultural awareness focusing on language, political system, education, and family structure. A highlight will be a display of Indian crafts and dress.

For more information on classes, travel arrangements, and costs see the County Extension Office in the Courthouse Annex, Carrizozo.

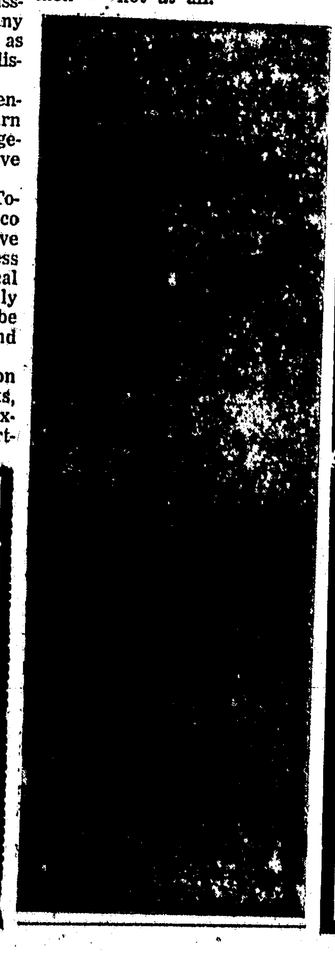
ANTIGO, WISC., JOURNAL: "There are sharp differences between the approaches of congressmen and legislators generally to economic issues. One type is much more disposed to place the blame than it is to develop solutions, and since spotting someone to blame has broad appeal among the voters it can be good politics until the time comes that workable solutions are needed. That calls for constructive efforts, the sifting of facts and judgment based upon them. Those who can see nothing but conspiracy behind every economic evil eventually are recognized as politicians first and statesmen — not at all."



CARD OF THANKS

We are so grateful to everyone who was so kind and thoughtful while Harry was a patient in the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital. We especially want to thank the members of the Elks Lodge and members of the First Christian Church who sat with Harry, and special thanks go to the nurses at the hospital. Also we want to thank everyone for the flowers, donations, food brought to the house, and for visits at the hospital.

Girls' State Delegates Set

The Ruidoso Post 79 American Legion Auxiliary in Ruidoso announced this week that delegates to the 1974 Girls' State have been chosen. The junior class girls include Vickie Veater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Veater, and Ann Petroni, ward of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams. Alternates are Anita Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Klein, and Becky Padilla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Padilla.

Delegates and alternates are chosen to represent Ruidoso High School in June at Highlands University at Las Vegas, N. M. They were elected on the basis of leadership, citizenship, character, scholarship and service to the school and community. Girls' State is a national program sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Donations to help pay expenses for the girls are made yearly by the Ruidoso Woman's Club and the three chapters of Beta Sigma Phi in Ruidoso.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Foreign Matter

Foreign matter in your food, like a pebble in a pie or a tack in a taco, is clearly good grounds for complaint. If you suffer injury, you are entitled to collect damages from whoever is to blame.

But the court may have a hard time deciding, in a particular situation, what matter is foreign and what is "natural." Take three actual cases:

A man bit on a turkey bone in a dish of roast turkey that he had ordered in a restaurant.

Another man encountered a hard grain of corn in a bowl of corn flakes.

A woman was injured by a chicken bone in chicken fricassee.

In each case a damage claim was filed by the victim. But each time, the claim was turned down because the item in question was not considered foreign. As the court in the turkey case put it:

"Bones which are natural to the type of meat served cannot legitimately be called a foreign substance, and a customer who eats meat dishes ought to be on his guard against the presence of such bones."

In recent years, however, courts have been putting less emphasis on what is natural and more emphasis on what a consumer might logically expect to find in his food.

Not long ago a man damaged a tooth by biting on the olive in his martini. The olive had not been pitted, although the usual hole in the end led him to think it had.

Of course, the pit was "natural" to the olive. Nevertheless a court ruled that the jury could reasonably reach a verdict in the man's favor.

"Because a substance is natural to a product in one stage of preparation," said the court, "does not mean necessarily that it will be reasonably anticipated by the consumer in the final product."

School Scoop . . .

Once again, just as in years past, we have come to the final weeks of another school year. For some this means the end of a life style and the promise of many new adventures. For others it completes one more step in their high school education bringing them closer to their goals.

As always these last weeks will be hectic with much more to do but the same time in which to do it in. If you still can't figure out what I'm getting at then consider this:

The All-Sports Banquet will be April 30. From there on it's busy, busy, busy, with the Prom on May 11, which is preceded by Twirp Week. The 17th of May marks the last day for the seniors with Baccalaureate scheduled for the 19th of May and commencement exercises on the 24th.

With all this in mind let's remember to get it together and make these last few weeks worthwhile.

Tuberculin skin tests and other immunizations that are needed by Seniors will be given soon, by Mrs. English, Lincoln County Health Nurse and Mrs. Primer, School Nurse. Date is to be announced.

The Girls' Track Meet will be this Saturday, the 27th, in Hagerman. Ruidoso and several other girls' teams from southern New Mexico will compete in track and field events.

April 21-27 is National Library Week. This week will be used to promote libraries, with Ruidoso High doing its part.

Posters are being placed all around school and everyone who checks out a book will receive a National Library Week bookmarker.

Refunds will be made by Student Council members starting next Wednesday to people who have bought sweatshirts from the council. The Universal Publications and School Supply Co. was unable to fill the order because of a shortage of material.

Merit Scholarships Offered to Girls' State Delegates

Columbia College in Columbia, Mo., is offering scholarships to high school girls elected to Girls' State. These scholarships may be applied to one year at Columbia College and are renewable each year.

A $500 merit scholarship will be presented to any girl elected to her Girls' State Convention; a $1,000 merit scholarship to girls elected Governor or Lieutenant Governor of their Girls' State Convention, and a $1,500 merit scholarship to girls elected President or Vice-President of their Girls' Nation.

For more information contact Mr. James Sanchez, Ruidoso High School Counselor.

Students and Teachers Enjoy Backpacking

Two backpacking trips were taken by Mr. Phil Yost and several of his students over the recent holidays. The first expedition, an over-nighter, ended on top of Gavilan Ridge, better known for the whitewashed "R" at its crest. The second trip was planned for 3½ days in the Gila Wilderness.

The over-night hike was headed by Mr. Yost and included Mr. and Mrs. Farrington. The six students on the outing were: Royce Wilson, David Shira, Scooter Driver, Carl Duncan, Bobby Hamlin and Phillip Onsrud.

Mr. Yost planned this hike as a trial run for the bigger backpack excursion over the Easter holidays to the Gila Wilderness Area.

The Gila Wilderness Area, north of Silver City, was the very first of its kind in America. In 1924 this expanse of over 438,000 acres of mountains and canyons was set aside by an Act of Congress to remain forever in its natural, untouched state. Travel in Wilderness areas is limited to only horseback, or by foot. So as school let out, Mr. Yost, Mr. Strassburg, (the automotive teacher), and five students headed by car for the Gila Cliff Dwellings—the jump-off point for 3½ days of fun and camping. Student backpackers were: Mark Strassburg, Royce Wilson, David Shira, Carl Duncan and Bobby Hamlin. Arriving after midnight Wednesday, the party quickly rolled out their sleeping bags and hit the sack. "Rolling out" at sun-up was not done nearly as quick, however, since it was the first of four nights in which the temperatures reached sub-freezing degrees each night.

Due to extreme fire danger in the Gila Naitonal Forest, campfires were not allowed but each member of the group carried small containers of "canned heat" which was used for cooking. One of the most important points of backpacking is keeping the pack and equipment as light as possible. Therefore, practically all the food carried by the hikers was dried or dehydrated. Even at that some evening menus included such tasty dishes as: fillet of trout (caught in the Gila River), beef stroganoff, creamed corn, mashed potatoes and gravy, and lots of rice. The hike covered a distance of about 35 miles, an average of about 12 miles per day. Hiking was done over rather good trails except that about 22 miles was tramped off along two streams which meant fording the streams every hundred yards or so. If you were lucky, and sure-footed, you might be able to last a couple of hours without wet feet, but that was not an easy task!

Mr. Yost noted that there has been a tremendous increase in interest in backpacking over the past four years. Five years ago he visited a portion of the same area at the same time of year and saw a total of four other persons. This time the group met about 70-80 other campers.

Anyone interested in taking more weekend trips throughout the local area this spring should check with Mr. Yost.

Four Members of RHS Track Team Place In Tularosa

Four members of the RHS Varsity Track Team and the relay teams placed in the meet held last Friday at Tularosa. Danny Brown ran 3rd in the 100-yard dash; Mike Brown received 3rd in the javelin; Dick Underwood received 3rd in the broad jump and low hurdles; Clifton Neal ran 5th in the low hurdles; the 880 relay team ran 3rd, while the 440 and 1 mile relay teams ran 4th. The next track meet will also be at Tularosa. It will be larger than the one last Friday.

Extreme Fire Danger Haunts Forest Lands

by Mark Egbert

Once again, at this time of year, there is a persistent fire danger prevailing in the woodlands and forest surrounding our community. The annual spring weather, which brings dry winds and little moisture contributes heavily to the extreme fire danger. We have already witnessed two tragic forest fires in the past couple of months complimented by smaller brush and home fires. All fires cannot be prevented, but we can do our share to prevent invaluable wildlife and woodlands from being destroyed or marked for life. The woods are dry and considerable amounts of trash have blown up against natural wind fences. Just a drop of a match can turn into tragedy. Here is a plea from the journalism class to do what you can to help the situation, and please be careful with fire!

WINNING COMBINATION — Toney Raven, left, coached his son Jonathan to the 1974 New Mexico State Judo championship trophy they are holding. Jonathan is competing in the National AAU Judo Champions Tournament in Phoenix this week.

WITH A AI-AI-AI-AI! Toney Raven flips Jonathan to the mat as he demonstrated a Judo ploy Jonathan might have an opportunity to use in Phoenix this week.

NM Judo Champ In National Championships

Jonathan Raven, 17, of Ruidoso, New Mexico State Judo champion, is fighting at the 154 pound weight in the National AAU Judo Champions Tournament in Phoenix, which will end April 27 with the awarding of trophies.

Jonathan, holder of the Black Belt First Degree after only 33 months in Judo, was also the 1973 Texas State Judo champion.

He is coached by his father, Toney Raven, a nationally recognized coach and developer of eight national champions and one Olympic contestant during his 18 years in the field. He also served on the Gulf Coast Olympic Committee, that selects Olympic entries, in 1973.

The Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce, Jonathan's mother said, "provided some of the money to send him to the national tournament and we want the C of C to know we appreciate it."

County Agent's Column

By RALPH DUNLAP

I attended the Beef Information Session sponsored by the Chaves County Livestock Feeders at the Wortley Hotel on Monday evening.

Bill Langenegger emphasized that beef is a bargain. Prices of live animals are below a year ago, yet we are buying less beef over the grocery counter. The beef cattle feeders troubles started with government intervention and the beef industry has been in trouble ever since that time. The feeding industry cannot compete for grain when it is used as food. A considerable portion of our grains go into human consumption. If the consumer has only grass fat beef to buy we are in trouble.

Bill Langenegger pointed out that 1.67% of the people raise 80% of the food and fiber in the U. S. The feeders need the public to better understand their problems. They are losing about $100 per animal now being sold out of the feed pens.

John Bruson, Security National Bank in Roswell, gave a typical cost break down on one pen of cattle, and the losses on the pens. His bank has 15 million dollars in feedlot loans and unless they can do better we are all in trouble.

Sid Boodboe was in charge of the evening meeting. It was brought out at the meeting that agriculture is a price taker not a price setter. In that, the cattle feeders ask "what will you give me?" Most manufactured products are price setters as they ask a given price and will not sell for less.

R-R-D

The Hondo Valley fruit crop was heavily damaged by the cold weather about two weeks ago. It was 18 degrees in the Lincoln area on Sunday morning. Any temperature of 28 degrees or lower usually kills the fruit blooms.

It is too early to get an accurate estimate of the damage, as there may be some late blooms on the trees, at least some of them. Also, we are still having cold nights in the Hondo - Bonito - Ruidoso Valley.

Services Slated Saturday, April 27 For Johnny Williams

Funeral services will be held Saturday, April 27, at Clarke's Chapel of Roses Funeral Home in Ruidoso for W. J. "Johnny" Williams, Jr., well-known area businessman and longtime Ruidoso resident who died at his home here early Thursday morning, April 25. The time of the services had not been set when The Ruidoso News went to press Thursday, and those wanting more information can call Clarke's Chapel of Roses. The body will be taken to Albuquerque for cremation following the services. The News will have a more detailed article on Mr. Williams in next week's issue.

POTEAU, OKLA., LEFLORE COUNTY SUN: "It is a bit frightening and hairy when you think how close to totalitarianism this country is when the government decides to tell you what time to get up in the morning, how many days a week you can work and whether your automobile is important to your business or a way in which to get to work. In a country based upon the free enterprise system created under the Constitution these proposals are something else."

MUTT'S & JEFF'S — A new business recently opened in Ruidoso Downs is Mutt's & Jeff's, a combination furniture and feed store. Shown above are the owners of the business, left, Bob Peed, and right, Gene Dennis. The store will be open from 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. daily. It is located just east of Hancock Shopping Center. (Ruidoso News Photo)

BARBARA MUELLER, resident professional of the Four Seasons Tennis Club of Breckenridge, Colo., will become head pro at the Alto Alps Ski and Racquet Club. The Mountain Ski Shop's full-line pro shop is adjacent to the courts. See next week's Ruidoso News for details.

Mescalero Man To Be Baha'i Delegate

Delegates from throughout the United States will gather in Wilmette, Illinois this month to elect the National Assembly of the Baha'is of the United States. the 65th annual National Baha'i Convention will be held from April 25-28 at the celebrated Baha'i House of Worship, situated on Lake Michigan.

Among the 176 Baha'i delegates will be Richard Gurinsky of Mescalero to represent this district.

The National Spiritual Assembly administers the affairs of the Baha'i communities in the United States. It is one of the 114 such nine-member Assemblies throughout the world. The National Assembly is elected each year by delegates selected by the membership at large.

The Baha'i Faith originated last century in Persia. Its founder, Baha'u'llah (meaning "the Glory of God"), announced Himself to be God's Messenger for our time. As a consequence for the widespread interest His countrymen exhibited in the unifying theme of the new religion, Baha'u'llah was jailed, tortured, and ultimately banished from His homeland. The final destination of His exile was the prison of 'Akka, in what is now Israel. Baha'u'llah died in the Holy Land in 1892.

Fifteen Million on Welfare

At this time almost 15 million Americans are on welfare at an annual cost of around $20 billion dollars (One billion dollars is 1000 million), so if you are wondering where your tax dollars are going, now you know. We, of course, encourage expansion of families on welfare by allowing more money for each new child born — probably to be raised to expect that they too should be on welfare. We now have families that have been on handouts for as many as four generations.

We were always taught that every citizen should make some contribution for the advantage of living in this country, but obviously this philosophy is now a thing of the past. We are tired of hearing that you must not embarrass people who are on welfare by requiring information on their marital status, income, and other personal pertinent facts, but we can see no way that an honest effort can be made for eliminating the deadbeats from stealing from the public except by these means. If a person's pride will not keep him working, if he possibly can, then he does not deserve to be taken care of. If you don't think that jobs are available, just ask the farmers and many of the small businesses in this country.

Is it any wonder that we are having shortages in this country when a large segment of our population are consuming but not contributing anything to the economy? An honest, hardworking citizen is forced to part with a good-sized chunk of his paycheck to help support these parasites on society.

There are a good many people who can't, for one reason or another, support themselves — and it is our duty to help them, but a healthy person that is on welfare should be required to give something in return for what he receives.

ELKS CLINIC HERE SUN.

The Ruidoso Elks Lodge will host the District Deputy Clinic, with 75 delegates expected from the nine lodges in the southern part of the state, Sunday, April 28, beginning at 9 a.m.

Scheduled speakers include Greely Myers, DDGR, and Robert Feeney, PGER, both of Las Cruces.

At the conclusion of the state convention in Carlsbad April 20 the local lodge was presented the first place trophy for the most miles traveled by members in visitations to other lodges.

"BPO Elks Lodge 2086 was especially honored," Bill Taylor, ER, said today, "by the appointment of three of our members to state committee posts . . . Van White, chairman of Inter Lodge Activities, Dan McCowen to the National Foundation and Bill Taylor to Youth Activities.

"This is a direct tribute to the quality of service being rendered Elkdom by our members and a singular honor to our lodge because it is highly unusual for any one lodge to receive three state appointments, much less with a membership of 150."

Happy endings begin with us.

PIG STY

Ruidoso — our present Little League facility meets all the requirements for a pig sty. In fact, it's so bad pigs won't come around. But we as parents send our kids out to this pig sty all summer and forget about them. Come by and see for yourselves what our boys have to put up with.

Ruidoso — we need to rise up and join forces with our young men and give them something to be proud of and part of. We need to form a committee of interested parents and start pushing for our young men in Ruidoso.

Some suggested improvements for our Little League Park — 1. grass playing field; 2. lights for night games; 3. concession stand; 4. score board; and 5. rest rooms.

Valley Plumbing has offered to furnish all the plumbing for the restrooms and concession stand. We need someone to plan and help build these.

Range Condition Given For Lincoln County

Range and pasture conditions are short throughout most of the state and windy conditions successively deplete moisture supplies. Range conditions are poor to fair in most areas with the exception of the northeast and extreme northern areas, where range conditions are good to excellent. The southeast and the extreme southwest areas are in very poor condition. Grassland fires in the southeastern portion of the state have burned approximately 540 square miles of rangeland.

Livestock are in mostly fair condition and supplemental feeding continues in some areas. Some cattle are on irrigated circles. Lambing, shearing and calving continue in the state.

Lincoln County: We still have old grass from last year, but very dry — maybe 1 inch moisture since January 1. Stock in good condition — are feeding. No great death loss this winter. No bad storms this winter. Hay and cake very high. Lambing will be tough if we don't have some moisture in April. About done calving ... Very dry winter pasture getting short, 100% supplemental feeding. Cattle in fair condition, death loss very light.

Car Restraints for Children

As a parent, one of your major concerns is protecting the life of your child. Did you know the number one child killer is automobiles?

A child under 14 is more likely to die as a result of a highway accident than from any disease.

What can you as a parent do to protect your child from this number one health problem? You certainly can't immunize your child against it, but you can make your child safer by installing good restraining devices in your car.

Shopping for such devices can be both confusing and expensive unless you know what you are looking for. Naturally you want a device which is the most effective and doesn't cost a great deal.

Several types of restraining devices have been recommended for infants. Perhaps among the safest is the infant carrier which is a molded plastic shell. It is similar to infant carriers which many mothers use in their homes. The seat for the car is deeper, has more padding and has holes in the sides for the seat belt to pass through and hold the child firmly in place. With this device, the child is in a semi-sitting position facing the rear of the car. This carrier has a high back that helps to further protect the baby's head. Parents will be wise to bring their babies home from the hospital in this.

The safest device tested for kids ages one to five is a tot guard. In consists of a large plastic padded shield which curves over the child's legs and up over his chest area. Children can see over the shield and it distributes weight over a large surface in case of an accident. It also is held in place by a regular car seat belt.

The standard lap seat belt is acceptable for children over 40 pounds. A shoulder harness should be added when the child is 55 inches tall.

There are dangers to beware of in makeshift car seating arrangements with a child. A mother's lap is never a safe place since a child will become a "flying object" in a crash and can hit the windshield or dashboard.

Another danger is the common practice in New Mexico of letting children ride in the open back of a pickup truck. This is very unsafe because there is no way to secure a child in the open back of a truck.

Although sold widely, the tubular hook-over-the-back-of the-seat device is inadequate. While these devices meet government standards, they have proved unsafe in simulated crashes.

Car manufacturers apparently can't afford the expense of making cars safer for children. It's up to you then, as a parent, to protect your child against this number one killer.

NORTH VERNON, IND., SUN: "A lot of talk in Russia, for those who dare, about who will eventually succeed the present party leader, Leonid Brezhnev, as head of that nation. Well, if we lived in that country we'd be giving serious consideration to whomever it was that negotiated that wheat deal . . with the United States."

MRS. B—

By CECELIA BARRON

Spring brings on many moods; love, joy, laughter, delight, pleasure, drowsy under a shade tree and giddy — such as: Edward Lear's "Calico Pie."

The little birds fly
Down to the tree:
Their wings were blue,
And they sang "Tilly-loo"—
The little mice ran
To be ready in time for tea;
Flippity flup, They drink it all up
And danced in the cup —
The grasshoppers come,
The butterfly, beetle and bee,
Over the ground,
Around and around,
With a hop and a bound —.

Couper said, "Young heads are giddy, And young hearts are warm, And make mistakes for manhood to reform."

While William Yeats said: "We must laugh and we must sing, We are blest by everything —."

Spring is the time when most new ideas are developed and new things are born. We should cherish all happy moments; they make a cushion for us in our old age.

Franz Kafka said; "Youth is happy because it has the ability to see beauty. Anyone who keeps the ability to see beauty never grows old."

And Pearl Buck wrote, she was so absorbed in the wonders of earth and the life upon it, that she could not think of heaven and the angels.

Then Carl Sandburg put down the very words we know in our hearts to be true: "A baby is God's opinion that the world should go on".

John Clare remembers the new born things in his verse, "Young Lambs:"

"The spring is coming by many a sign —
The early buttercups unfold a glittering star or two —
And then a little lamb bolts up behind
The hill and wags his tail to meet the 'yoe'."

Spring brings out the deepest words of love, beauty and wisdom in a poet, as Robert Frost's immortal wise words: "I am going to clean the pasture spring — (and wait to watch the water clear, I may)". This could mean many things to many of us, and we will do well to clean our 'springs' and 'watch the water clear'.

Rod Mckuen says of love: "It doesn't matter who you love or how you love but that you love."

And W. H. Davis said;

"Sing out, my soul, thy song of joy:
Such as a happy bird will sing,
Beneath a rainbow's lovely arch
In happy spring —
A small butterfly, whose happy heart has power
To make a stone a flower.

E. E. Cummings was at his best when writing on the beauty of spring, the redness of roses, the pleasures of love —

"You open always petal by petal myself as Spring opens (touching skillfully, mysteriously) Her first rose."

Then Edna St. Vincent Millay said: "God, I can push the grass apart and lay my finger on Thy heart."

William Wordsworth wandered about England's country-side and his observation of the common things intensified and preserved the poet in him, as:

"When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host of golden daffodils,
Beside the lake, beneath the trees
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze —
My heart leaps up when I beheld
A rainbow in the sky;
All bright and glittering in the smokeless air."

And in his poem of "March":

"There's joy in the mountains;
There's life in the fountains;
Small clouds are sailing,
Blue sky prevailing;
The rain is over and gone!"

While Helen Lowell Marshall speaks of April with:

"A promise of gardens blooming gay,
A promise of summer come one day,
A promise of warm sunny skies,
A promise that nothing ever dies".

Then a verse of Alfred Tennyson's "O Yet We Trust":

Behold we know not anything;
I can trust that good shall fall
At last — far off — at last to all,
And every winter change to spring—

Even though Edward Fitzgerald writes on a melange of subjects, in "Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam," he mentions eternal spring:

Yet Ah, that spring should vanish with the rose!
That youth's sweet-scented manuscript should close.
The nightingale that in the branches sang,
Ah whence, and whither flown again, who knows!

Browning's love for Elizabeth Barrett stimulated warmer poetry than either had written:

The year's at the spring,
And day's at the morn;
Morning's at seven;
The hillside's dew-pearled;
The lark's on the wing;
The snail's on the thorn;
God's in His heaven—

Mrs. Browning's sonnets were once considered the finest in any language since Shakespeare's, as lines from "The Portuguese":

How do I love thee? Let me count the ways. I love thee to the depth
And breadth and height my soul can reach, When feeling out of sight
For the ends of Being and ideal Grace.

Keats said: "Beauty is truth, truth beauty — that is all ye know on earth, and all ye need to know," — also: "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

In Margret Sangster's "Sunrise":

Though the midnight found us weary,

The morning brings us cheer;
Thank God for every sunrise
In the circuit of the year.

And Patience's Strong "Whispered Hint" —

I caught the first faint hint of spring — And became aware of something strange, Nameless magic that was stirring in the air.

For "The Song of Myself", Walt Whitman is a realist and a mystic. He describes each and every thing coinciding with God; and it is difficult to select only a few lines:

Why should I wish to see God better than this day?
I see something of God each of the twenty-four,
And each moment then,
In the faces of men and women I see God.

Sir Thomas Brown said, "Nature is the art of God."

Then a few lines by Norman Gale:

God comes down in the rain,
And the crops grow tall—
This is the country faith,
And the best of all!

And in "The Birth of the Flowers" by Mary Fenollosa,

God spoke!
And from the arid scene
Spring rich and verdant bowers,
Till all the earth was soft with green—
He smiled, and there were flowers.

But the loveliest garden of all, spring, summer, fall or winter is: "Mother planting the seeds of faith, truth and love that develops into the fairest flowers of character, virtue, and happiness in the lives of her children", so says J. Harold Guynne.

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN, PA., CALL AND ORWIGSBURG NEWS: "Surprisingly, all these fuel and energy saving measures are being put into effect with a minimum of griping. Maybe a little sacrifice, privation and toleration of uncomfortable conditions establish an identification with the early American pioneers, whose rugged life and endurance we like to recount. Maybe, too, upon reflection we realize that the easy life isn't necessarily the best, and, just maybe the spirit of cooperation is better than the every-man-for-himself attitude that has become so prevalent in recent times."

Ten Speed Shift

by Galen Farrington

(Held From Last Week)

Last week I enumerated four general classes of bicycles: the discount or department store bike, the hundred dollar bike, the $150 to $250 class, and the ultimate machine. Of these four categories, the hundred dollar bike is the one I recommend for most beginners and those with some experience but little cash. So, what key points should be considered when considering the hundreds of bikes in this class?

First let me lay to rest once and for all time the misconceived notion that the cramped looking, bent-over position of the ten-speed rider is not cramped or uncomfortable. It is the most efficient method of supplying power to the rear wheel and it actually relaxes the body when the body accustoms itself to this position. The upright riding position places the spine in a vertical plane which causes the back to act as an inefficient shock absorber which results in early fatigue. Consequently, if you anticipate more than an around-the-block ride, be sure your ten-speed has "dropped" bars.

Now you say, "What about that awful looking, hard leather saddle?" And I will say, "Try it, get accustomed to it, and you'll like it." Why? Because you will not have the all familiar saddle rash common to those who ride long distances on a soft, wide mattress saddle.

At the cost of being repetitious, the third point is to be sure and buy from a nearby, reputable dealer, thus ensuring prompt and desired service. After all, fun and economy are the prime elements in this game and be assured it is no fun nor economical to have to take your bike to Albuquerque to find that the part has to be special ordered from Uganda and will cost you a month's salary because you want the part shipped airmail today.

Fourthly, check the bike for its personal appeal to you. Are the lines clean looking? Are the cables clipped on with those horrible devices designed to strip off all paint in five minutes? Or are there permanently brazed-on cable stops? Is the paint thick and glossy, or is it so thin that the metal can be seen through it? Are the joints smoothly finished and blended together so as to form a continuum (American)? Are the frame members joined by lugs (European — external sleeves which the frame tubes are fitted into?) Or does it look as if someone took a sledge hammer and pounded one frame member into another?

Now, take a detailed look at the components that are on the bike: brakes, pedals, wheels, derailleurs, handlebars, and so on. The more parts made from aluminum alloy, the lighter the bike. These alloy parts usually have a dull silver finish which doesn't shine like chrome. The most common alloy parts in this class are the brakes which come in two versions: side-pull (the cable is routed down one side of the brake) and center-pull (the cable is routed to the center of the brake). Both have advantages which counteract the disadvantages and in the end, it is personal choice.

Also to be included in the fifth step is a close look at the tires. A tire rated to at least 60 pounds of air pressure is absolutely necessary. The heavier you are the more critical this becomes. Tire damage usually occurs when tires are under-inflated. More important though, is the direct relationship between rolling resistance and tire pressure — the more air, the less work. Those of you who top the scales at 180 or better should have a tire rated to 75 pounds for maximum efficiency. Usually these high pressure tires have brown or amber sidewalls but don't be misled because there are some cheap-o specials rated at a mere 50 pounds which doesn't leave much of a safety margin.

The sixth item of immediate consideration is the fit of the bike. Ninety-nine percent of this class have 27 x 1¼ inch wheels fitted but the frame sizes range from 19 inches (usually a lady's bike) to a 25-inch frame for those over six feet, two inches. Men and women should be able to stand flat footed straddling the top bar. Women who must have a lady's version (and there are only two reasons for riding one: the young lady is 5' 2" or shorter or she insists on wearing a dress) don't have a great variety to choose from in any class because the step-through frame is not as strong as the "diamond" frame.

The handlebar to seat length is important also. Be sure that the distance between the nose of the saddle and the handlebar is approximately the same as the length of your forearm from your elbow to the tip of your middle finger (fingers extended).

These six points should enable you to make an educated purchase. If you have any questions regarding specifics not mentioned, please feel free to write me, care of The Ruidoso News.

Be sure and watch for next week's log of our three-day Easter bicycle tour.

SOCIAL SECURITY

People will now be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship to get a social security number when applying for the first time, acording to Mrs. Christine Graves, social security Field Representative. The proof is required under an agreement ot the social security law.

"Age can usually be proved with a birth or baptismal certificate," Mrs. Graves, said. "Identity can generally be proved with a driver's license, voter's registration, or similar evidence — preferably something that carries the applicant's signature.

"People born in the United States can usually establish citizenship with the same papers they use to prove their age and identity. A foreign-born individual must prove his alien or naturalized citizen status with such documents as his naturalization certificate, U. S. passport, Alien Registration Receipt Card, Non-Resident Alien Border Crossing Card, etc.

"The new proof requirement is intended to help prevent people from obtaining more than one social security number or obtaining or using a social security card under a false identity," Mrs. Graves continued.

"A fine of up to $1,000, imprisonment of up to one year, or both may be imposed for fraudulent use of genuine or fake social security numbers to hide true identity or to get benefits from Federally funded programs.

"Anyone needing a social security number should apply several weeks before the number will be needed," Mrs. Graves emphasized.

Mrs. Graves may be contacted at the Ruidoso City Hall on May 14, from 10 to noon or from 1 to 2 p.m.

Salcido Reports to USS Enterprise

Navy Gunner's Mate Technician Seaman Apprentice Albert Salcido Jr., whose wife Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sanchez of San Patricio, N. M., has reported for duty aboard USS Enterprise, homeported in Alameda, Calif.

A gunner's mate technician stores, inspects, tests, repairs and packages nuclear weapon components and associated equipment.

A 1972 graduate of Hondo High School, Hondo, N. M., he joined the Navy in June 1973.

Now's the time to pick out that freezer. We have a wide selection of chest type or upright. Come in and see. Gambles of Ruidoso.

Another record will soon be broken by our federal government. It is estimated that by June 30 the national debt will reach $480 billion — up 34 percent since January, 1969. Incidentally, this amounts to $2,262 for every person in the country, and it now costs about $29 billion every year to carry the debt. That is twice as much as just six years ago.

The point in mentioning this is merely to emphasize that when some member of Congress shouts to the high heavens that penny pinchers among his colleegues or in the present Administration should be tarred and feathered for crippling needed federal programs — don't you believe it. The federal government is spending more money than ever before, and the dollars in our pockets are depreciating in value at a faster pace than in almost anytime in our previous history. If we have problems, most of them can be traced to too much government spending and too many dollars — rather than too little of either one.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if our Senators and Representatives took a two or three year vacation from their congressional duties and let everything get back to normal? Wishful thinking only — they'll stay on the job. The pay and power are too good to miss.

Real Estate

BY KEN BUCKLEY

NEVER ARGUE WITH SUCCESS

There is a sound philosophy based on the premise: "Never argue with success." If you have the urge to invest in real estate, listen to what some of the most successful investors have to say about it.

Andrew Carnegie: "Ninety percent of all millionaires become so through owning real estate. More money has been made in real estate than in all industrial investments combined. The wise young man or wage-earner invests his money in real estate."

Marshall Field: "Buying real estate is not only the best way, the quickest way, and the safest way, but the only way to become wealthy."

John D. Rockefeller: "The big fortunes in the future will be made in real estate."

John Jacob Astor: (He's a little more specific.) "Buy on the fringe and wait. Buy land near a growing city! Buy real estate when other people want to sell. Hold what you buy."

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at BUCKLEY REAL ESTATE, Sudderth Drive, Ruidoso. Phone: 257-4633. We're here to help!

AN OPEN LETTER TO TAXPAYERS IN THE RUIDOSO SCHOOL DISTRICT

In The Ruidoso News of last Thursday, mention was made that a member of the Ruidoso School Board moved to rescind the additional 2.25 mill levy approved by our two villages, and that the motion died for the lack of a second. I made this motion and I think that The News owes its readers a better explanation of this tax than this.

The News, commenting on another action, complained that "no reasons were given." Well, several plain reasons were given for rescinding this unfair and possibly illegal tax, but The News chose to omit them.

One reason I offered for doing away with this tax is just this. Property owners outside of the two villages will pay DOUBLE the tax to the school as will those living within the villages.

If this tax is finally approved by the board in our May budget hearing outside property owners will be paying the same general mill levy as those within, without, of course, receiving many of the benefits of residents such as water, garbage and sewer service; police and fire protection and many others.

I hope this makes this issue clearer to those who wondered what it was all about. If you have any questions about this, please call me.

Sincerely,
/s/ Dan Griffith, member
Ruidoso School Board

Chino cares... about education

New Mexico's greatest potential resource is the alert minds of its college students. So this fall, ten college students in six New Mexico universities will share in a $5,000 scholarship program offered by the Chino Mines Division of Kennecott.

In addition, Kennecott Copper Corporation of New York will give two special scholarships in engineering, one at New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology in Socorro, and the other at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces.

This year will mark the 20th year that Kennecott has helped college students attain their individual goals.

Livestock Case Taken To Area News Media

Chaves County livestock feeders took their case to the news media April 15-16 with the hope that newsmen can help get them, and beef, back in the good graces of the American housewife.

The livestock feeders explained their business to newsmen and newswomen during an evening steak dinner at Old Lincoln, and during a panel discussion, feedlot tour and question and answer session the following day.

Feedlot operators and ranchers told newsmen that beef's image as seen by the American housewife suffered a major blow last year. The cattlemen also expressed the feeling that the consuming public has labeled them as "the bad guys" in the inflationary spiral. The beef information seminar for newsmen was a move to help restore beef's former image and dispel the "bad guy" label.

Coupled with the news media tour was a Chaves County advertising campaign by the feeders which stressed that a good supply of beef cattle is currently available for the consumer, and that prices at stores should go down.

Bill Langenegger, Hagerman, president of the New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau and a rancher and feeder, pleaded with newsmen for help in solving some of the cattlemen's problems. "We know we need your help. I implore you to help us," Langenegger told the news representatives.

"Cattlemen have been accused of causing inflation," Langenegger said, "when in reality we are the victims of inflation."

The New Mexico Farm Bureau president aimed a barrage at government controls, saying, "Our (the cattle industry) trouble all started with government intervention in the form of price controls on March 29, 1973." Ranging over a wide range of subjects, Langenegger emphasized that the current beef cattle industry situation " . . . is the worst situation I have ever faced in the cattle industry."

The beef price would have stabilized by itself without price controls, Langenegger maintained. The controls simply messed up the law of supply and demand and brought on serious problems for the entire cattle industry, he explained.

The price controls and associated problems led to the deflated image of beef on the part of the American housewife, Langenegger maintained. "At one point it was almost unpatriotic to buy beef," he said.

Langenegger and other cattle feeders maintained that the beef producer is not a price-setter. "The packer and the supermarket can generally establish margins," Langenegger told newsmen, while producers of agricultural goods cannot.

The feedlot operators answered newsmen's questions and went into their financial operations, with the assistance of a banker and their own records. Newsmen, during a feedlot tour, watched as truck-loads of cattle moved out of the lot for market. The feedlot operator said he was losing $140 on each head at today's market price.

After presenting figures depicting a $20,000 loss by one Chaves County cattleman, a Roswell bank representative said, "cattlemen can't take losses like this, back to back."

Dick Corn, a Roswell area rancher, said ranchers received an average of about one per cent return on their investments this past year. He noted that ranchers received about 65 cents a pound for their calves last year, but anticipate a calf price of 50 cents per pound or less this year. The lower price this year will be the result of the price squeeze on feedlot operators, Corn said.

V. R. Barnett, Hagerman, president of the Barnett Feed Yards Inc., and a feedlot panel member, reacted strongly to a newsman's question on destroying cattle to improve the market position. "The cattle industry is not going to destroy cattle," Barnett said. "As a matter of philosophy, you can't destroy yourself into prosperity. That's what those people (referring to those who destroyed livestock and poultry rather than market them at the going price) were trying to do."

Langenegger said during the discussion that "I believe rural people are much better informed about urban problems than urban people are about rural problems." The seminar was an effort by the cattlemen to correct that.

"We hope," said Rolla Hinkle, president of the Chaves County Cattle Corp., 'that this idea of meeting with newsmen catches on in other parts of the country. We feel we've made a start here today."

Forest Service Notes Closure Violations

Fire Control Officer Larry Allen notes that tracks indicate that numerous violations of the closure by motorcycle riders are occurring in the foothills near Alamogordo. An all out attempt to apprehend violators of the closure is underway. Forest Service personnel are utilizing light aircraft to locate violators. Patrolmen on foot, horseback, and in vehicles will be used when violations are discovered.

During the first weekend of the Forest Closure, nineteen "Forest Closed" signs were placed on roads and trails leading into the foothills from Alamogordo. Six of these signs were stolen the first day.

The cause of the blaze Saturday, April 13 near the "A", east of Alamogordo, is under investigation.

A spectacular truck crash near Highrolls, recently, resulted in an extremely hot wildfire. A fast cooperative effort of the Highrolls and Cloudcroft Fire Departments and the Forest Service confined the blaze to about one acre.

The Lincoln National Forest has had 29 fires to date. All but one were man-caused. Conditions remain critical, and the weather outlook is for more of the same.

Gambles of Ruidoso can supply all your yard and garden needs.

SANTA FE — Political campaigns hogged the spotlight as candidates set their sights on the primary election June 4.

Republican governor candidate Joe Skeen of Picacho, Lincoln County, campaigned recently in Truth or Consequences and Deming. In Santa Fe Skeen, a sheep rancher, said New Mexico's greatest economic expansion will come in energy production. He said coal gasification is the most immediate area of importance.

Skeen said his strongest areas are Southeastern and Southern New Mexico. He tabbed Curry County as a sector of strength.

Sen. Tibo Chavez of Belen, a Democratic governor candidate, issued an 8-point position statement. Chavez took stands on the energy shortage, taxation, crime and drug abuse, the quality of life, cost of living, good jobs, education and training and economy in government.

Campaign contributions to April 9 totaled $37,485 for Sen. Chavez, $23,015 for ex-Atty. Gen. Boston Witt and $22,573 for former Racing Commission Chairman Drew Cloud. All are Democratic governor candidates.

Pilar Sachs, Belen, contributed a total of $350 to Tibo's campaign. State Fair Board Chairman Karl K. Butt, Clayton rancher, contributed $250 to Sen. Chavez's campaign.

Fifteen individual $1,000 contributions were received by Drew Cloud's campaign. Among the Cloud contributions: Joe Tabet, Belen; Joe Torres, Eagle Nest rancher; Herman Tabet, Belen, Cloud's campaign co-finance chairman; Betty L. Tabet, Herman's wife; Bernie Stolzman, Rio Rancho.

Sen. Odis Echols of Clovis, also a Democratic governor candidate, says Sen. Chavez's campaign "is leveling off." Echols said: "Sen. Apodaca's campaign peaked in January, bottomed out in March and is coming back now." Apodaca of Las Cruces is also in the Democratic governor run.

Sen. Echols adds: "In May there is a good chance Sen. Apodaca and I will pass Tibo." Echols says the State Highway Commission's authority to issue debentures should be increased and used to improve New Mexico's primary and secondary road systems.

Echols, 43, a businessman, says his primary campaign budget is $129,000 and $50,000 of the goal has been raised. Famed entertainer Glen Campbell will perform in Albuquerque May 1, at an Echols fundraiser.

Echols claims strength in Lea, home Curry, Luna, Hidalgo and big Bernalillo among other counties. He is rated in the top three candidates by most observers with Sens. Chavez and Apodaca.

Sen. Apodaca campaigned in Tatum, Hobbs, Jal and Carlsbad.

Sen. Chavez was in Taos recently and also Belen for coffees and a speech.

Rep. William B. O'Donnell, D-Las Cruces, Apodaca's state campaign chairman, campaigned in Lordsburg, Truth or Consequences, Deming and Socorro for Sen. Apodaca. Former New Mexico State University vice president, Rep. O'Donnell concentrated on educators in his campaigning.

Sen. Bill Lee, D-Lovington, is not involved in the governor's race. But Sen. Lee is strongly supporting Sen. Bob Ferguson, D-Artesia, for the Democratic lieutenant governor nomination. Lee is not subject to re-election this year.

A rancher, Sen. Lee says: "The cattle industry is concerned over the squeeze feeders have been put in because of high prices." He cited high grain prices and the relatively low price of fat cattle.

Sen. Lee said prospects are bright for other segments of the Lea County agricultural industry in commodities — cotton, grains and alfalfa. Lee's district spans Eunice and Jal.

Sen. Lee said pending federal land use legislation "is certainly dormant at this time." Lee attended a meeting of the New Mexico Land Use Advisory Committee in Santa Fe. He says there is much optimism over the Lea County oil industry because of stepped-up activity.

The State Corporation Commission set a hearing May 23 at Red River on the application of Gene Addison, doing business as Red River Tours, to provide mini-bus service transporting passengers and their baggage.

Authority to provide service is sought between Red River and Raton, Lamy, Santa Fe County, and the Albuquerque airline terminal.

An SCC hearing is set May 21 in Santa Fe on the application of Rubel Lovato, doing business as Lovato's Shell Station and Automotive Shop, Cuba, to provide wrecker service within a 25-mile radius of Cuba.

Lovato also seeks SCC authority to tow vehicles disabled within this territory to Farmington and Albuquerque via NM-44 and Interstate 25.

Hearing is set May 16 at Raton by the SCC on the application of A&M Repair Co. Inc., Raton, to provide Class D wrecker service between points in Colfax, Union, Harding, Mora and Taos Counties. The firm also has Class A, B and C service authority now.

The State Highway Commission will open bids April 26 on an Interstate 25 safety and overlay project 5 miles long from Raton north to the Colorado line. The contract is set for completion in 200 working days.

The SHC will also open bids April 26 on a Guadalupe County seeding and revegetation project on NM-219 from Pastura north.

"In all the years," notes Nation's Business magazine, "between the founding of our republic and the middle of World War II, federal government spending totaled about $300 billion. The budget for the next fiscal year proposes $300 billion for THAT SINGLE YEAR. Does that make sense to you? If it doesn't, let your Senators and Congressman know you want spending brought under control."

Profits support the American Habit.

Americans are creatures of habits. Ours go back over two hundred years. We've become addicted to trying to do something better, faster, easier and less expensively than anyone else. And, expecting to be rewarded for doing it.

The free enterprise system provides the reward. No other does it so well.

In business, this reward is called "profits." And, it comes in the form of money. And satisfaction. And pride. Take away profits and you take away incentive, ambition and vitality. Take away profits and you take a lot of independence out of America.

At the Ruidoso State Bank we want to make it our business to help your business.

STUPH & JUNK . . . by Cale Dickey

Hello

I'm me. With that established . . . if'n you have the urge . . . tell me who you are. I'll probably forget . . . but maybe not.

Anyhow . . . Al Lane needed a news hound . . . and due to my ingrained habit of many years standing of liking food . . . Al and I got together . . . and, in due course, I hope to grow on you.

Home life

Pending the arrival of my bride from Fergus Fall, MN . . . which should coincide, and add to the confusion of the opening day of racing . . . I'm whomping up a few victuals on my own. Which poses the problem of dirty dishes. What I need is a dishwasher. And I'm knowledgeable about dishwashers, I had one once . . . used plenty of Calgon . . . with disastrous results. She got sicker'n a bloated cow in an alfalfa patch.

Ailing

If you see me wheezing . . . and stuff . . . there's a valid reason. Occasionally I come acropper with a real doozy of an attack of coryza. And I'm sure you do too . . . and if you don't . . . you should let medical science in on your secret of preventative measures to safeguard you against the common cold.

Food

Being as I'm a flat land furriner . . . and stuff . . . I dropped into Margaret's Cafe t'other night . . . got together with Dum-Dum (the precocious red head on the night shift) . . . and Henry . . . who was up to his ears preparing tostados, taco sauce, Spanish rice, tamales, beef enchiladas and frijoles . . . which I consumed with gusto . . . and too much taco sauce. But of this I state unequivocally . . . it's sure better'n lutefisk.

And I'd always thought that catfish was something that came in cans to keep cats happy between portions of catnip . . . until the other noon when I sampled the catfish at the Pancake House. Scrumptious!

The thing that bothers me about catfish is . . . if'n there are catfish farmers . . . how come they ain't all rich?

Friends

Scooted out to Mescalero last Wednesday . . . gabbed with Wendell Chino, No. 1 man on the Mescalero Apache Tribe's totem pole. Nearly fell out of my chair when I found out that Chino is a personal friend of a personal friend of mine from the Three Affiliated Tribes of the N. D. Fort Berthold Reservation . . . namely one Nathan Little Soldier . . . who gets around on Indian affairs. Gadzooks . . . it was almost like old home week.

Good guys

Take a gander at that whole herd of Ruidosoans on page 1 . . . that bunch sitting around the village council chamber. These good guys are donating their time . . . looking out for you . . . in the eventuality that you need looking out for . . . like if there's a fire . . . or something else requiring a few cool heads.

To this group of dedicated citizens is hereby presented Stuph & Junk's first Dirty Sox Award (for good guys only) . . . and if'n you don't want to come right out and say "Thank you" when you see one of them . . . think it. 'Cause they're on your side . . . more than I hope you'll ever know.

Jaycees Participate In Awareness Program

The Ruidoso Jaycees are now participating in a community project of VD awareness, with the cooperation of the HOPE Crisis Line. Anyone wishing to obtain information may do so by calling the Crisis Line — 257-7300.

Governor Bruce King has declared April State VD Awareness month for New Mexico to correspond with the national awareness campaign conducted by the American Social Health Association, National Association of Broadcasters and the Center for Disease Control.

Last year nearly 5,000 cases of one form of VD were reported for New Mexico, a 10% increase over the previous year. Over two-thirds of such cases occur among the 10 to 24 year-old age group.

The increase in rates of the diseases comes following the idea that VD had been brought under control in the 1950's, and therefore funds previously spent in this area were turned elsewhere.

Rep. Harold Runnels' Aide Slates Visit

U. S. Rep. Harold Runnels announced that his administrative aide, Audean Davis, will be in Ruidoso on Thursday, May 2, to meet with residents of the area. She may be contacted between 2 and 4 p.m. at the Ruidoso City Hall.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM YOUR FOREST RANGER

Forest fire danger is increasing in the Lincoln National Forest. Wildfires during the dry, windy spring season can be dangerous and destructive. Did you know that you can help prevent wildfires from starting right around your own home?

Can you answer yes to the following FIRE PREVENTION RULES?

1. We have removed all dead and combustible rubbish, leaves, grass, and debris from our yard and from 30 feet of buildings.
2. We do no outside incinerator or debris burning during fire season without permission from local fire and forestry authorities. (A permit may also be required from the State Environmental Improvement Agency).
3. We have cleared a 5-foot fire-safe area to bare soil all around our incinerator, barbecue, and fuel tanks and have cleared above them.
4. We have a 5/16 to ⅝ inch mesh spark arrester screen on each woodburning stove and fireplace chimney and on our incinerator. We keep them cleaned.
5. We keep the roof and gutters free of needles and leaves, and have removed all tree branches within 10 feet of each chimney.
6. We keep stove pipes, heaters and stoves two (2) feet from combustible walls, one (1) foot from asbestos or metal shielded walls and keep a metal floor cover under the stoves.
7. We use a serviceable fireplace screen on each open fireplace.
8. We store gasoline, paint and other inflammables in metal cans and not in or under our house.
9. We never use flammable liquids to start fires.

The SILVER LINING

by DANIEL A. STORM

Spring Comes Smiling Through

Through nights of frost, and days of flying dust—come drouth or cold, as it does most every year, Spring is smiling through. The sights, the sounds, the smells of the Queen of Seasons are everywhere around up and down the vale — with each day, and each hour too, almost, filled with some new Springtime charm.

The pink and white spring daisies everywhere smiling amidst the new grass, and many a tiny herb and early flower has appeared by magic. For just a little while you have not seen a certain spot along the bank of the creek, and when you return a new bush has put forth its blossoms and new light green leaves.

Just in the last day or two along the stream the Wild Cherry and the Box Elder have suddenly leafed out, not gradually but all at once. The Oak and Walnut have not shown the least sign of coming out. If I remember rightly, the Wild Cherry is usually last of all to leaf out. The mystery of when and why the leaves come out — this mystery deepens year by year.

One of the prettiest sights of Spring in Lincoln County is to be driving down through the community of San Patricio and see the cottonwoods all out in their new Spring green. There is no color exactly like it — so welcome, so refreshing to the sight — while all around on the hillsides and fields shines the soft gold of late winter.

The Return of The Swallows

"One swallow does not make a summer," the old saying goes. Yet surely a hundred and fifty of these friendly little visitors from Mexico — such a goodly company — must say something of the arrival of Summer.

Just this morning the entire colony was out on the REA wires, all lined up in three rows, softly talking in their bird voices, letting Shady and me know they are back. What a cheerful sight. After a bit they flew away circling in the sky and going over to re-make their little upside-down adobe houses in the highway culvert.

Season of the Little Calves

One of my fondest experiences of life is to lie down in the shadow of a pinon tree this time of year while Shady Logan lies down beside me, smiling his Coyote smile, as we both watch a little few-days-old calf drinking his milk.

It never ceases to be a miracle to me how the little things come into the world knowing just what to do. When Shady and I find a new calf, the little fellow looks first at us and then at his mother much as to say:

"What part do these guys play in the show?"

I have a way of naming cows. One I call Gentle Annie. The other day she came walking down the trail, looking first at me and then back at a tiny calf following, much as to say,

"I am sure proud of this child. Isn't she cute?"

When she reached the stream, the little calf began running and kicking up and down the green bank, just like a child. Do you remember as a child how you were delighted the first time you went down by the brook?

The other day I followed a young cow up the hill to see her first calf. Away on the top of the hill she just stopped. Where was the little calf? Disappointed, I turned to go when I heard a loud little calf voice, and there stood Shady Logan, touching noses with a little bull calf the image of his mother. I guess I will call him Shady's Orphan.

The Snow Birds' Farewell

One of the Snow Birds who was just getting ready to catch the North Star Cannonball for Alaska, handed me this — along with a warm word of thanks for the people of Lincoln County.

"Well, I guess we will be heading back up North
We thank you for the help extended forth.
Through the stormy winter days
You have kept faith always
And we hold your friendship dear
From year to year.
If you're ever up our way
We surely hope you'll stay
If you can at least a little while.
For the land of the North Star
Is known both near and far
As the land of the helping hand and smile.
Here life is always cheery
And friendship knows no end.
We will share our last blueberry
For everyone's our friend.
That's the true Alaska way
To be ready night and day
In the land where the Northern Lights abide
With the door of heart-felt welcome wide."

NMSU Schedules Honorary Degree For Mrs. Hurd

Three honorary degrees will be awarded at New Mexico State University's 81st Annual commencement exercises May 11. Mrs. Henriette Wyeth Hurd, noted painter of San Patricio, will receive an honorary doctor of fine arts degree. U. S. District Court Judge Edwin L. Mechem of Albuquerque and President of El Paso Natural Gas Company Hugh Steen will be awarded honorary doctor of laws degrees.

Fire Restrictions Tightened For Forest

Worsening fire conditions in the Sacramento Mountains of the Lincoln National Forest have caused a further tightening of restrictions on the use of the forest.

Forest Supervisor Richard Jourden announced that all campgrounds in the Sacramento Division are now closed to use.

The Lincoln Division, near Ruidoso and Capitan; and the Guadalupe Division near Carlsbad, remain open to public use with no fires or smoking permitted outside of designated campgrounds.

It's time to paint-up and fix-up. Let us show you our complete line of quality paints and supplies. Gambles of Ruidoso.

AUBURN, NEBR., PRESS-TRIBUNE: "Concerned with environment and ecology? Of course, but having recognized the problems and attacked them to some degree, the cause has passed the stage of a simple and unified approach. Rightly a public issue, but an individual responsibility, the cause is deeply enmeshed in politics and economics. Successful relief will come when a logical course can be outlined which all segments can support."

Ruidoso Faculty Members Complete Las Cruces Work

Tom Hansen, RHS principal, and three faculty members assisted with the North Central evaluation of Mayfield High School in Las Cruces early this week. The 3-day study of the school is designated to locate strengths and weaknesses and formulate plans for the school's improvement.

Mrs. Kathryn Williams, home economics teacher; Miss Linda Bates, distributive education teacher; and Miss Jean Spurlock, vocational business teacher were chosen with Hansen by the NVA State Chairman as members of a 19-member team selected for their competencies and high qualifications in their specific fields.

Team members were guests of the Mayfield High School Steering Committee at a dinner meeting held Monday night followng an orientation meeting in the afternoon. Classroom observations were made Tuesday and Wednesday with special attention to the teaching techniques, the nature and quality of the learning activities, and the range of instruction of materials being used. Following the classroom observations and study of the school's self evaluation, the committee members, headed by Dr. I. V. Payne, from ENMU, met with Principal R. W. Van Pelt and members of the Mayfield Steering Committee to make constructive recommendations.

The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools requires that every member school engage in an evaluation of this kind at least once every seven years.

Library Receives Additional Grant

A request for an additional Federal grant in the amount of $10,000 for the Ruidoso Library has been approved by the New Mexico State Library Commission, village manager Jim Hine announced Tuesday morning.

The formal announcement, Hine said, will be made later.

The total cost of the library, including the original Federal grant of $82,307 had been pegged at $103,000. The figure, Hine says, has now been adjusted to an estimated $200,000 including paving, parking facilities and equipment.

The tentative completion date for the facility is July 1, 1974.

Playground Items At Two Rivers Park

Playground equipment has been moved from School House Park to Two Rivers Park, behind the Chamber of Commerce, A. B. Chitwood, street commissioner, announced Tuesday morning.

The equipment, moved because of construction of the new library, is now ready for use.

The rest rooms, weather permitting, will be opened the first weekend in May.

Other work in the new location includes painting, which will be done as soon as possible.

HEATING/COOLING:
Energy Saving Tips

Insulation is an important factor in keeping your home comfortable and saving energy both in the winter and summer. You can save as much as 23% on fuel consumption if your home is insulated to FHA standards. And . . . fully insulated, with 6½ inches of insulation in the ceiling, 3⅞ inches for the outside walls, there can be a savings of 45 to 55 percent. What does insulation do? It restricts the quantity of heat which escapes during the winter or comes in during the summer. So check into the advantages of full insulation. The more you do to conserve energy . . . the more there will be for everyone.
