Bar raids result in 13 arrests

The District Attorney's office in Alamogordo, acting upon a series of complaints, organized a raid of four bars in Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs Saturday night, resulting in the arrest of 18 individuals between the ages of 18 and 20.

All of those arrested were charged with "allowing self to be served", Lt. Jerry Russell of the Ruidoso Criminal Investigation Department said, "with five being released when it was determined they were not served alcoholic beverages.

"In addition to the alcohol charges, two of those arrested were also charged with possession of marijuana."

Those charged appeared before Judge Austin Pritchett Saturday night, in Magistrate's Court, where fines of $25 plus $10 costs were assessed against each guilty of "allowing self to be served."

District Attorney personnel, with members of the NM Liquor Control Board, Ruidoso PD, Ruidoso Downs PD, Lincoln County Sheriff's office and NM State Police, conducted the raids.

Liquor Control Board officials notified each of the bars following the raids, that separate citations would be issued for each violation.

Of the 18 arrested, 11 were in Friar Tuck's, three in Hollywood Inn, three in Chris Lounge and one in the Buckaroo Lounge.

Village Board meets tonight

The Ruidoso village council will meet at 7:30 this evening in the village hall council chambers.

Included on the agenda are the following items:

- Purchase of outstanding revenue bonds issued by Eagle Creek Association.
- A report on proposed jet fuel service at Municipal Airport.
- A report on the need for additional sanitary sewer interceptor lines.

Boyle Engineering Co., personnel will be in Ruidoso next week to study the pressure and volume situation in water transmission lines serving the Gateway, Pinecliff, Pinecrest and Camelot areas and, Potter said, "We expect to have full service to users in these locales operational by approximately July 1."

Potter noted, as of Tuesday, that "about 90% of the new waterline has been installed in the Upper Canyon" and that "within the next 15 days the lines will be tied into the 500,000 gallon storage tank above the pumping station."

Repaving and repairing of the Upper Canyon Road from the Sherwood Forest turnoff to the reservation line, Potter said, is expected to be completed within the next 15 days.

The Cherokee Well is in full operational condition and following the examination of transmission lines by Boyle Engineering Co., inspectors water service to users should return to normal in about two weeks.

The water problems currently being encountered in the Ponderosa Heights subdivision should be solved, Potter said Tuesday, "by next week."

Water grant received

The Eagle Creek Water Association, president Tom Jones advised village manager Jim Hine Tuesday, has received $36,000 or 90% of a total $40,000 planning grant in connection with the 1,100 million gallon water storage dam to be built on Ski Run Road.

Mann Engineering of Roswell is currently conducting core drilling tests at the proposed dam site, Jones said.

The grant was received from the NM Water Quality Division of the Environmental Improvement Agency at Santa Fe.

Catalytic converter warning

Pending the completion of testing of the catalytic converters installed on 1975 cars and trucks at San Dimas Equipment Development Center in California, Chas. Mook, Fire Prevention Officer with Smokey Bear Ranger District, is cautioning all drivers of vehicles equipped with catalytic converters against driving on US Forest Lands or any place where there is tall, dry grass or other combustible material.

"It has been established in USFS tests at Missoula, Mont." Mook said, "that many catalytic converters could possibly start grass fires.

"We're asking that drivers of 1975 cars and trucks, with catalytic converters, travel only on hard-surfaced roads on Forest Lands, or on gravel roads that have little, if any, vegetation.

"It is especially important that drivers of vehicles with this equipment do not drive cross-country."

The Smokey Bear Ranger District has ordered a supply of dashboard stickers reading:

"CAUTION: Do not operate this vehicle over or upon vegetation. The hot catalytic converter exhaust system could readily ignite grass and other fires."

The stickers, Mook said, will be available at garages and service stations in this area shortly.

DeBord's statement on Ruidoso's growth filled with optimism

During the year of 1954 the Navajo Lodge Hotel stood out as one of Ruidoso's larger industries. An average of 15 permanent employees were paid a total of $32,060.79 in wages for the operation of the Lodge. There were nine employees carried during seven months of the year in the off season, and up to 26 employed during three months of the peak season.

Other items of expense which were paid direct to Ruidoso residents and business firms were maintenance and repair, $6,334.89. This item was for labor and material which was used for painting, cleaning, plumbing and general repair. There was $405 paid for rent of a cabin to house employees of the Lodge. For lights, gas, water and telephone, $6,713.57 was paid to the local utility companies. Insurance premium of $2,010.01 was paid to local insurance agents for insurance on the Lodge. $4,980 was paid for entertainment. Part of this amount was paid to local talent and part to professional talent who spent the money here for clothes, automobile upkeep, rent, food, etc. $6,341 was paid out for taxes and licenses, of which over $1,200 was paid direct to the City and the balance of over $5,000 was paid for other City, County and State taxes of which the City and schools got a share.

To promote good will and to publicize both the Lodge and Ruidoso, a total of $4,875.12 was spent for various kinds of advertising.

A grand total of $63,720.38 was spent with local people and business firms for the operation of the Lodge. In addition to this a capital expenditure of over $8,000 was spent on remodeling, for labor, material and equipment.

Looking ahead, to keep pace with the growth of Ruidoso, architect's drawings have been completed for a new wing to the main hotel building, 20 deluxe cabin units, large convention hall and swimming pool. The pool is designed to meet the needs of Ruidoso as a public pool.

'Ginny' needs you

The Ruidoso Motel Owners Association is spearheading a fund drive... a "$$$ for Ginny" fund drive... and if you can spare a $5 or $10 or $... ?

"Ginny?" You say you don't know "Ginny". Just ask any motel or hotel or cabin operator hereabouts. They'll tell you what a great gal she is... how pleasant... cooperative... efficient... helpful... cheerful... always a kind word... never bad-mouthed anyone... even when she would have been justified.

Ginny's been taking reservations at the Chamber of Commerce office for the past 18 months or so.

And now... after helping so many... Ginny needs your help... $$$$$ wise, that is.

Seems... late Friday night... somehow... her nightie brushed against the heater in her home... blammo!... instant fire. Ginny is now fighting for her life... 50-50 chance... suffering from third degree burns over 65% of her body... and, with those odds, facing from four to six months in a hospital.

Where to send your $$$? To Harry Ray, Apache Motel, Box 3914 Hollywood Station, Ruidoso, NM, 88345. If more convenient, stop in at the C-C office on Sudderth... they'll see Ray gets your $$$ for Ginny.

"Ginny can't have flowers," Ray said, "but she needs money because she'll have a hospital bill you wouldn't believe. If you want to know about Ginny, just ask me... or any one in the motel business."

Ginny's condition was reported as "improved, but still critical" late Tuesday... 50-50 chance.

If you want to send her a card: Ginny Kelsey, Intensive Care Unit, Bernalillo Medical Center, Burn and Trauma Ward, 2211 Lomas Blvd. N.E., Albuquerque, NM, 87106.

WHEN OPERATED ON FOREST SERVICE LANDS

Motorcycle, chain saws must have spark arrester

Operators of motorcycles and of chain saws on National Forest Lands are required to be equipped with a US Forest Service Spark arrester, Chas. Mook, fire prevention officer with Smokey Bear Ranger District, has announced.

"Operators of either," Mook said, "may receive a free inspection at the Ruidoso Ranger Station and if the spark arrester passes this inspection a sticker will be provided to affix to the motorcycle or chain saw."

Field personnel with the FS will routinely examine all motorcycles and saws found operating on Forest Lands, Mook said, "and not having the approved arrester is punishable by a heavy fine."

In case of fire, started because of no arrester, he said, "The guilty party could be liable for suppression costs."

GEBOOR GETS IN — Geboor got away as a 3-5 favorite in Monday's Memorial Day Handicap at Ruidoso Downs and romped home with a two-length lead. He hauled Boyd Morris in the top load of 124 pounds and returned $3.20 to win. The classy colt is owned by Marvin Warner of Cincinnati, Ohio. His career earnings are now up to the $52,000 level.

Geboor wins Memorial Day Handicap

There was no holding back heavily-favored Geboor in Monday's 20th running of the Memorial Day Handicap at Ruidoso Downs.

The powerful colt looked like well-oiled machinery while slicing up a collection of Southwest three-year-olds in the 5 1/2-furlong sprint.

Everything unreeled according to plan as Geboor, ridden by Boyd Morris for Marvin Warner of Cincinnati, came from just off the pace to win just-as-he-pleased.

Although Morris used the whip late in the stretch, just to keep Geboor from losing interest in the affair, the winner was obviously under little pressure.

He covered the distance in a crisp 1:06 flat — which was only three ticks off the track mark — and handed his mutual backers $3.20, $2.40 and $2.80. The soft romp enriched the colt's bankroll by $3,360 and beefed his career income up to $52,887.

It was his first appearance in the high country since his bangup win in the lucrative Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity last summer.

Geboor ended the Memorial Day spin with a two-length gap over the hard-charging Arran Dunce. The latter, piloted by Carlos Rivas, handed out $2.20 and $2.40. Geboor, tutored by John Kelly, hauled the highweight of 124 pounds. Arran Dunce packed 122.

Mama Minnie, who was coupled with Arran Dunce in the betting, turned in a commendable job under Jerry Nicodemus and held on for third.

The race evolved in cut-and-dried fashion with little switches in position. Mama Minnie flashed her typical quick speed and held the lead slot at the first turn. Geboor moved up steadily to get within range, and the two were neck-and-neck down the backside. Arran Dunce, obviously afraid of getting left behind, was in hot pursuit but couldn't wipe out much of the deficit.

As Mama Minnie made the turn into the stretch, Geboor suddenly got her number and took command. Mama Minnie tried to force the issue, but it was apparent she was no match for the Eastern invader.

Now it was Arran Dunce's chance to challenge the public choice and the courageous colt responded to heavy urging from Rivas and began a desperate stretch move. He was making headway until Morris, aboard Geboor, glanced over his shoulder to check the situation. Morris applied a little leather to the favorite, then waved the whip next to his head a few times, and the favorite got the message. In the final half-dozen strides or so, Arran Dunce's challenge was neutralized.

Arran Dunce, trained by E. Jolly Driskill for William Gardenhire of O'Donnell, Texas, collected $1,232. Mama Minnie had to be content with a $560 slice of the pot. The total purse of the Memorial Day Handicap was $5,600.

Here's the way the rest of the compact field checked in: 4th—Tamalie Pie, 5th—Rain Boots, 6th—Report Card, 7th—Miss Flurry.

The six-furlong co-feature went to Livemup, who was put to the acid test by the 27-1 darkhorse, Chals Honor. Livemup, with Robert Thompson aboard, got the early lead but was dogged all the way by Chals Honor. Livemup didn't cave in under the unyielding pressure and poured on the coals in the stretch and won with a neck to spare.

The winner paid $8.60, plus $5.80 both to place and show. Chals Honor returned bountiful payoffs of $20.40 and $11. Martha Custis, who also had plenty of early lick, wound up third. The show price was $7.80.

The upward business trend at the mountain track continued as Sunday's crowd of 4,880 wagered $280,563. Racing resumes Friday at 1:30 p. m.

Baha'i Community of Ruidoso

On May 29th, Baha'is all over the world will commemorate the ascension of Baha'u'llah, Prophet-Founder of the Baha' Faith.

It was on this day in 1892 that Baha'u'llah died. He was born in 1817 and because of His teachings He spent forty years of His life in exile, banishment and prison. Baha'is believe that He is the Promised One of all religions, and that His coming ushers in the Age of Fulfillment mentioned in all the prophecies of the past. They see His teachings and laws as those necessary to bring about world peace, world unity, and the Kingdom of God on earth.

The final years of Baha'u'llah's life were spent as a prisoner near the prison city of Acca in the Holy Land. The tomb of Baha'u'llah is considered a Holy Shrine and a place of pilgrimage by Baha'is.

Baha'is do not have pictures of Baha'u'llah. He wished the Baha'is to worship God and not Himself, the Messenger of God. Baha'u'llah, when translated, means "The Glory of God."

FREDONIA, KANS., CITIZEN: "Being particularly conscious of the cost of paper, our main contribution to economy is trying to conserve paper and gasoline. There are a lot of things you can carry home under your arm without a paper sack—or those little string carryalls are dandy. After all, Ben Franklin hit Philadelphia carrying a bun in his pocket, and made a fortune preaching 'a penny saved, is a penny earned'."

Home sales up for February

Sales of existing single-family homes rose sharply in February, a survey by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS' Department of Economics and Research has revealed.

The seasonally adjusted index of existing home sales activity slipped to a four-year low of 87 in January (1972=100), but rebounded to 97 in February, the department reports.

"This turnaround — the largest month-to-month gain ever posted in the seven-year history of the index — is the first hopeful sign that a housing recovery may be in progress," said Ken Kerin, department director.

However, Kerin cautioned against reading too much into a single monthly change in the index. He acknowledged, however, that the magnitude of the gain nationally, and the fact that healthy advances were posted in every region of the nation, "is encouraging."

By region, existing home sales in February were up 19 per cent in the Northeast; 11.8 per cent, North Central region; 11.9 per cent, Western; and 9.7 per cent, Southern.

"Perhaps we have seen the end to the year-long slump which has plagued the existing home market," he said.

"A primary reason for improved sales figures is that mortgage funds are flowing back into the credit-starved housing market."

The department's mid-March mortgage market survey found that virtually every area of the nation was experiencing improvement in the availability of mortgage credit. This was accompanied by modest to substantial reductions in interest rates, with keen competition developing among lenders in many areas.

Furthermore, the department noted, downpayment requirements and interest rates were being relaxed almost on a weekly basis, with 90 and 95 per cent conventional mortgages reappearing.

These had almost disappeared from the market according to a department survey six months ago.

"Borrowers seeking a conventional loan to finance a new home found ample or moderate supplies of mortgage money in more than 90 per cent of the nation's market areas," Kerin said. "And only 8 per cent of the areas surveyed still were saddled with tight or virtually unavailable mortgage resources," he added.

This is a marked reversal from the situation six months ago, when reports of ample or moderate supplies came from just 14 per cent of the areas surveyed.

The existing home sales series is based upon data submitted monthly to the Department of Economics and Research by about 140 boards of REALTORS' across the nation.

Taxes Go Up Fastest
Your food bill and every other bill seems to be constantly increasing, but did you ever wonder what expense has gone up the fastest in recent years? The answer is taxes. According to a private institution doing research on economics and business management, federal, state and local taxes have increased a total of 65 percent between the spring of 1967 and the fall of 1973. No other expense category increased at such a rate. The overall inflation rate for the period was 40 percent. The figures were based on government data for an urban family's income and expense.

Letter To Editor

[Editor's note: The following is an advertisement reprinted in part, with the permission of the Wauwatosa Realty Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, that we felt might be of interest to our readers.]

Check one:
Recession Over!
Recession Continues!
Here's your chance to change the economy of an entire nation.

...because whichever headline you check, that's the economy you're going to get. You don't think your opinion is that important? Then maybe you don't realize how influential opinion really is.

For example, take the 'opinion' of the Nation's press. While it's the job of a free press to inform, expose and educate the public, it is virtually impossible to do this without some 'opinion' entering in. You see, there are an estimated 2,000 men and women in the Wisconsin Press Corp alone, and each one can't help but report the news through his or her own point of view.

And don't kid yourself! News gathering is a ferociously competitive business, so when in the opinion of the press something becomes newsworthy, like an alleged sagging economy, this army of reporters immediately sets about digging up 'exclusive' stories to offer proofs and reproofs...and to gain recognition and bylines for themselves.

We're all witness to the current results. Daily front page headlines and stories dealing with layoffs, business failures, lowered retail sales, trade deficits, and scores of 'authoritative' quotes. You name it. If it's recessionary, it's news! Yet unfortunately, for all the real information the press reports, it also contributes misinformation — no matter how unintentional.

For instance, what about all the businesses that prospered in 1974 and are prospering in 1975? Why not report their successes? Well, the sad truth is that for an informational item to be qualified as newsworthy, it must first be uncommon, rare, unusual, often negative and often sensational. And brother, a U.S. recession is sensational. Therefore, the sensational news winds up on page one or in the lead broadcast story, while news of offsetting value winds up buried on page twenty or lost in the time squeeze of radio and television journalism.

The end result is unavoidable. With sensational news being played up more and more, the public loses a clear picture of just what is really occurring. Just to prove the point, retail sales slumped this past November before jumping again in December. The main reason for the slump was that Thanksgiving fell on the 28th, that's late compared to most years, which pushed half of one of the heaviest retail weeks into December. Now, depending on what news attitude was prevalent at the time, one of two headlines could have led the same story.

Check one:
November sales off sharply!
Retailers expect record sales!

You guessed it. Headline number one ran. Accurate? Yes. But misleading? Absolutely!

See the danger? A negative headline encourages negative thinking. Give the public enough negative business news, and soon the negative mental attitude of the people is worse than the actual state of the economy.

It's true that there are segments of our economy that are experiencing real sales declines — that our economy is up against the effects of inflation. But then, hasn't our economy faced the same obstacles in some form or other for the past thirty-five or forty years?

Let's face it, if business is down, the most logical place to look for blame is in the services or products offered. Let's start exercising a positive attitude! Don't just sit there...

Haven't you heard the news? The recession is over!
Haven't you heard the news? Things are getting worse!
Check one... the choice is yours.

F. W. Sadler

F. W. (Ferd) Sadler died Wednesday morning, May 28, in the Ruidoso Hospital, following a heart attack. He was 74.

Mr. Sadler was born February 27, 1901, in Crumbly, Texas. He farmed in west Texas for many years; moved to New Mexico in 1934 where he farmed for 12 years. He served as postmaster in Dexter for 22 years before retiring. He and Mrs. Sadler moved to Ruidoso in 1969. They celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary in Sept. 1974. He had been a deacon in the Baptist Church 25 years; and will lie in state from 11:00 a. m. until 2:00 p. m. Friday, May 30, in the First Baptist Church of Ruidoso.

He is survived by his wife, Gladys; two daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Stone, Dexter, and Mrs. Tom McNeil, Ruidoso; grandchildren, Mrs. Pat Courter, Roswell; Captain Bill Stone, U.S. Air Force, Aviano, Italy; Tom W. McNeil, Las Cruces; Cindy McNeil, Ruidoso; Cadet

Home Fire Extinguishers

Due to its versatility, the multipurpose dry chemical fire extinguisher is an essential device to have around the house. This "jack-of-all-trades" can combat the three major types of household fires: class A (ordinary combustibles, such as wood, paper, or cloth), class B (flammable liquids, fats, and greases), and class C (energized electrical appliances and equipment). However, a safety device must function in a safe manner to be of any use. That's why extinguishers submitted to Underwriters Laboratories take such a beating. UL technicians heat, freeze, drop, vibrate, and otherwise "manhandle" these extinguishers. To earn a UL label, an extinguisher must perform its task, regardless of varying climatic conditions and stress situations.

The heat treatment can be more than stifling. The unit is conditioned for thirty days in an oven set at 120°F. An extinguisher can get pretty chilly laying around in a -40°F freezer for 24 hours. Another temperature test subjects the unit to alternating 24 hour cycles of heat and cold.

UL allows for butter-fingered individuals, as well. The unit is dumped from a three-foot height onto a concrete surface, and must then put out a gasoline fire. It is fastened to a vibrating machine and bounced around continuously for 12 hours. Another test subjects it to a burden of five times its fully loaded weight for five minutes. The extinguisher's casing, hose, valves, and gauge must withstand abnormal amounts of pressure without rupturing and impairing performance. Corrosion can affect an extinguisher. At UL, a sample is immersed in a salt spray for 240 hours to see if a corrosive atmosphere will take its toll.

These are some of the tests that are conducted so that you can safely take aim at fire.

"Yes, it was nice of the railroad to give you a retirement gift...but..."

Harley Stone, Dexter; two great grandchildren, Gregg and Kelly Courter.

Funeral services will be at 3:00 p. m. Friday in the First Baptist Church, Ruidoso. The Rev. Harry D. Brooks, Pastor, will officiate, and the Rev. Ken Cole, of the First Christian Church, will assist.

Pallbearers will be: O. J. Ford, J. E. Riddle, Barney Waldrop, Bill Elliott, Claude Rose, Guy Warnica. Honorary pallbearers: Rae Luck, Lineol White, Charles "Chuck" Brown, Mickey McGuire, Howard Tate, Bill Jarratt, Al Geiger, Al Lane, George White, Dr. James Seal, Dr. W. D. Horton, George Sisson, and Norman Butts.

Memorial contributions may be made to The First Baptist Church, Ruidoso, for choir robes, or to the church for Boys Town, Amarillo.

Vary With Variety

Variety meats include liver, brains, heart, kidneys, sweetbreads, tongue and tripe. These meats are usually good buys because they are excellent sources of many essential nutrients, are often economical and offer interesting variety for the menu. Since variety meats are more perishable than other meats, they should be cooked and served soon after purchase.

Crop-Bearing House Plants?

Green-thumb apartment dwellers may soon be able to eat their ornamental plants and enjoy them.

A new cherry-type tomato that can be hung like a vine from a flower basket has been developed by horticulturists at South Dakota's Agricultural Experiment station after eight years' research.

Plant developers say the new variety can provide apartment dwellers with fresh tomatoes almost every month of the year. While the new plant is not yet on the market, it is expected to be tested in homes this year.

So far, it has only been grown in greenhouses although horticulturists say it is not a true greenhouse tomato. Unlike greenhouse varieties, it doesn't need stimulation or vibration to pollinate.

It also has a shallow root system which makes it suitable for pot-growing. And sunlight from a nearby window will be enough to keep the plant healthy.

Mass For St. Isidro At St. Jude's, San Patricio

It all began when several parishioners decided to start a Novena to San Isidro and pray for rain. This was years ago, and it did rain!

This year the Novena started May 7th and ended with a Mass at which time Father Santillanes installed the new officers for the St. Jude's Rosary and Altar Society on Thursday, May 15. The very impressive installation was followed by a reception. Also, Mrs. Cleo McTeigue, quite a figurehead in the Valley, was honored as Honorary Member for May.

A little bit about San Isidro as quoted from Father Santillanes: "St. Isidro of Madrid, Laborer, Patron of Madrid, was born at Madrid of poor but very devout parents. He was christened Isidore from their Patron Saint Isidore of Seville. He did not have the means to procure an education; but, by word and example, his parents infused into his tender soul the utmost horror and dread of sin, and the most vehement ardour for every virtue, and especially for prayer. By directing his attention according to the most holy motives of faith, he made his work a most perfect art of religion. He considered it a duty to God; therefore, he applied himself to it with great diligence and care in imitation of the angels in Heaven. The more humbling and more painful the labor, the dearer it was to the Saint. While his hand held the plough, he in his heart conversed with God, with his Guardian Angel, and other blessed spirits, some times deploring the sins of the world and his own spiritual miseries. It was by this perfect spirit of prayer, profound humility and spirit of mortification that St. Isidro gained such a degree of sanctity and admiration of all Spain. He also inspired his wife with the same confidence in God, the same love for the poor, and the same disengagement from the things of this world. He made her the faithful imitatrix of his virtues and a partner in his good works. She is honored in Spain among the saints. The piety with which he received the last sacraments drew tears from all that were present. He died on May 15, 1170 at the age of 60, and his death was glorified by miracles."

AKRON, OHIO, SUMMIT COUNTY LABOR NEWS: "A cattleman in Tyler, Texas, was paying $50 a truckload to have manure hauled away before the current energy slump. The SILVER LINING

By Daniel Agnew Storm

Serving The Lord In All That We Do
Last Sunday at the Church of The Holy Mount, The Reverend John Miner in his sermon brought to us the message that we can and should serve The Lord in All that we do.

And then last Monday in the Hollywood Food Mart who should I meet but Gerald Bloss, a man whom I have always admired because he spreads sunshine and friendship wherever he may go and because he puts his heart into his work. Mr. Bloss had a large plastic bag of carrots in his hand, and explained:

"These are for my horses. I try to get carrots for my horses especially in the winter when the green feed is scarce."

I said that this was good of him to take such care of his horses.

"Well," said Mr. Bloss, "these horses were put into my hands, and they are under my care. I feel that in looking after my horses the best I can that I am being a good Shepherd for The Lord."

I thought to myself, "Here is a man who follows the teachings set forth in Father John's sermon."

Then Gerald Bloss added, "I feel the same way when I am working on my yard. The Good Lord gave me the beautiful yard on the bank of the river with all of the growing things. And I feel I am serving the Lord as I take care of this beautiful place."

So you see, we can take a cheerful lesson from our friend, Gerald Bloss and the Reverend John Miner. Truly we are serving the Lord in all that we do.

All The Signs of Summer Except One Or Two

Really and truly it is not summer until the twentieth of June. Yet here in the last one third of Spring, we are seeing a green and flowery world you see once in a lifetime.

The main signs of summer are here, except one or two that I can think of right now. The mocking bird, that feathered troubador who comes up every year from Texas is here singing through the day. The crickets are beginning to chirp at an evening, and the leaves are rounding into full size on the trees.

Still, the nights are still cool. And down by the riverside I have not heard the "Song of Mid Summer." This is the voice of little Mister Frog singing beside his little river pond late in the evening.

Get out and enjoy each day that you can for this is a glorious summer season.

The Sketch At The Top of This Column Must Be Me

Every so often I am delighted that someone stops me and asks:

"Aren't you Dan Storm?" When I tell them that I am, they say, "I recognized you from your picture in the Ruidoso News."

So, Brother Mark, take note. You have done a good job on the sketch, although I always figured the little drawing does me more than justice.

A day or so ago, down at Alma Ellis' Texaco Station a tall handsome Texan came walking over to the pick-up. He asked me, "Aren't you Dan Storm?"

He told me he recognized me from Mark's drawing and said, "That must be Shady Logan in the pickup." Shady got out of the pickup and we made the acquaintance of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Phillips of Vernon, Texas, two very wonderful people.

Storm Clouds
All morning a tall white cloud has been growing just south of the house. It is now eleven o'clock, Tuesday, May 27. And the thunder is beginning to roll.

Just now I thought of my late uncle, Jerome Vincent Storm, one of the most successful moving picture directors of all time. He directed more than sixty silent pictures in the pioneer days of the film industry, every one a hit.

After he retired, he became editor of a little newspaper in Desert Hot Springs, California. He wrote a little column called "Storm Clouds."

Well "Storm Clouds" are flashing with lightning and booming with thunder. This can mean only one thing.

Shady and I had better cross the creek while the crossing is good, and get this message off to you.

Say a prayer for all of us and keep smiling.

Clipped comment

Tax rebate checks are now appearing in mail boxes all over the country. Designed to stimulate the economy, some 78,000,000 rebate checks are scheduled to have been mailed by the Treasury Department by June 15th (when another income tax payment comes due).

The tax rebate was a political as well as an economic reaction to the current recession by Congress. Rebates were limited to $200, so more people could get them and the wealthy wouldn't get more than the average citizen.

Perhaps this will prove a successful effort but one wonders how much the economy will be stimulated by a one-time $200 payment, which will probably go toward debts and bills in most families in a recession.

Since the cost to the Treasury may be as much as $18 billion, the rebates will be a primary cause of the heavy deficit for the current fiscal year — ending June 30th. That will, of course, add inflationary pressure to the economy, which is just now recovering (via recession) from near-ruinous inflation.

Only time will tell, but one suspects the tax rebates will have little effect on the economy and add much to inflationary pressure by unbalancing the budget. Congress, in an effort to do something quickly to combat the recession, threw taxpayers this tidbit, while continuing to spend excessively in other fields. The answer is probably not that simple.

Politicians being a special breed, usually eager for publicity, they are susceptible to that dread disease, "Instant analysis."

Therefore, dear readers, keep in mind that reporters in Washington dash to the offices of Congressmen and Senators with every sensational news break. The politician running for reelection is even more eager than usual to get his name in the headlines. So reporters visit him, or her, first. As a result, he usually says something, even if ill-informed, concerning the facts. Since a Congressman or Senator speaking out on a public issue is always news, his remarks, whether or not they contribute light or darkness to the issue, are prominently circulated.

Taking into account, also, the politician's constituency — which also affect his remarks — one can account for much of the otherwise unexplained and unnecessary political gas which rises daily over Washington.

Uncle Sam had acquired the title "Chicken of the Sea", local residents say, before U. S. Marines and Air Force reclaimed our vessel, the Mayaguez, from communist Cambodia last week.

This action by President Ford, with Congress' blessings, was welcome.

Finally we exhibited a little backbone and recaptured some measure of lost prestige by telling the world that Uncle Sam is tired of being shoved around by pipsqueak countries.

Border Patrol seeks agents

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announced that the Border Patrol Agent examination will be open for receipt of applications from May 19, 1975 through June 19, 1975. In order to receive early consideration, applications should be postmarked no later than May 30, 1975. Border Patrol Agents enter on duty with the Immigration & Naturalization Service at grade GS-7 ($10,520 per year) and have promotion opportunities to grade GS-9 ($12,841 per year).

Persons selected for appointment participate in a 3-month intensive training course in the Border Patrol Academy where the agents study immigration, and nationality laws, Spanish, marksmanship and undergo physical training. Assignments after training are along international boundaries and coastal area of the United States and in some locations in the interior of the country.

No prior law enforcement experience or education is required; a written test must be passed for eligibility. Candidates must be 21 years of age or older; however, candidates who have reached their 20th birthday may apply but cannot be appointed before age 21.

Recently a survey was made by the Navajo Lodge management to determine the growth of Ruidoso from 1945 to 1975. It was this survey that determined what the Navajo Lodge should do in terms of expansion to meet the needs of Ruidoso in the foreseeable future.

In 1945 the permanent population of Ruidoso was 350, in 1954 it was 3,000. The summer population in 1945 was estimated at 2,500 — in 1954 it was 20,000. Population figures both summer and winter indicate an increase of nearly nine times in nine years. Other comparative figures made are as follows:

Churches	1945	1
	1954	9
	1975	16
Ruidoso Municipal Water System	1945	187 customers
	1954	834 customers
	1975	3,339 customers
Community Public Service Co.	1945	418 customers
	1954	1420 customers
	1975	about 5,500 customers
Ruidoso Gas Company	1945	192 customers
	1954	538 customers
	1975	abt. 1,500 customers
Ruidoso State Bank	Deposits
	12-1-53	$132,000
	12-1-54	$1,315,000
	4-16-75	$16,371,868.72
Security Bank	4-16-75	$11,940,329.42
Ruidoso Schools	1945	72 students
	1954	652 students
	1975	abt. 1,000 students
Assessed Valuation	1945	$437,000
	1954	$2,380,500
	1974	$17,883,000

These comparative figures prove that Ruidoso may well claim to be the fastest growing community in the southwest, if not in all of America.

Tour New Mexico

El Morro National Monument is in western New Mexico on State Highway 53, 63 miles southeast of Gallup. Leaving U. S. Highway 66 at Grants, the visitor then follows State Highway 53, or turns south at Gallup on State Highway 52.

Road conditions to the Monument are variable and inquiry should be made as to the state of the roads.

El Morro contains the famous Inscription Rock on which are carved dates and inscriptions done by early Spanish explorers and travelers through the Southwest. The earliest date on Inscription Rock is 1605.

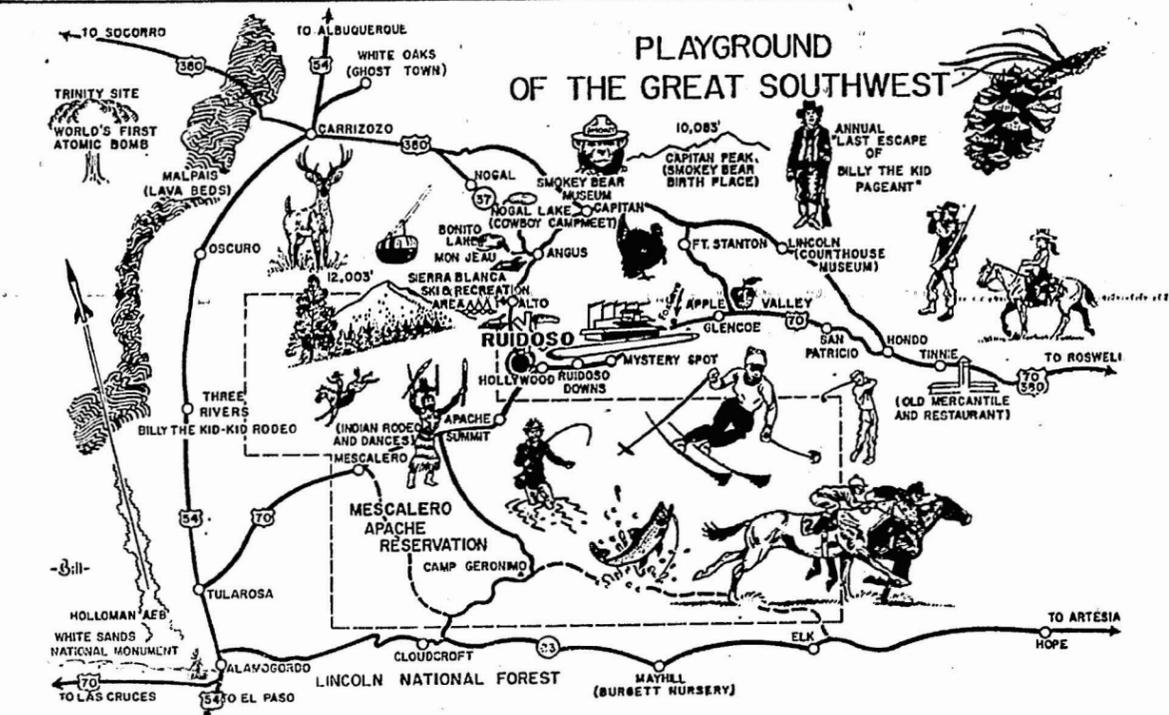

A resident superintendent provides guide service. There are no accommodations available. There is a 25 cent fee for guide service.

One of the most impressive ruins in the state is Chaco Canyon National Monument, which is located in northwestern New Mexico on State Highway 56. The Monument is 64 miles north of Thoreau.

There are 18 major pueblo ruins at Chaco Canyon National Monument. The ruins were occupied until sometime during the 13th century, at which time the Indians deserted them. The Monument is open every day of the year and a picnic area is maintained. A resident superintendent is on duty at the Monument. No accommodations are available here and once again, inquiry as to road conditions during the rainy season should be made at Thoreau. A guide fee of 25 cents is charged.

Twenty-nine miles east of Raton in northwestern New Mexico on U. S. Highway 64-87, the Capulin National Monument is to be found. This Monument consists of the cylindrical cone of an extinct volcano surrounded by lava beds and other evidences of violent activity. There are small picnic areas here and leaflets and information can be obtained from the ranger at the town of Capulin. Admission is free.

During the 12th and 13th centuries an extensive Indian village was located at what is now Aztec Ruins National Monument. This Monument is in the northwest corner of New Mexico on U. S. Highway 550. Here are the remains of an unusually large kiva or ceremonial chamber, which has been restored. Walking tours through the ruins are conducted by the national park ranger guides. Accommodations and supplies are available at the nearby town of Aztec. There is a guide fee of 25 cents.

Terry Haake graduates military institute

Cadet Floyd D. Haake, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Haake, Sr. of Ruidoso, graduated from the High School Division (as a mid-year graduate) of New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, N.M., in ceremonies held on campus Saturday, May 17th, at which 237 cadets received A.A. degrees or high school diplomas.

As a member of this year's graduating class, Cadet Haake participated in the Institute's traditional final week activities, which are noted for the color of their military pomp and circumstance as well as for their emphasis on academic achievement. Highlights of the activities included the ROTC and academic scholarship awards assembly, the annual alumni/cadets polo games, the final review, final ball, and the final formation on Saturday morning for Commencement Exercises.

The band concert last week was a pleasure and it pointed up the improvement in the progressive bands of the school system. The concert was attended by the largest crowd that we have seen at such events recently. If the beginners and junior band members continue with the program, we should have a top-notch band for the next few years. . . . A pat on the back to the city road department for a great improvement in the Paradise Canyon Road where it meets Sudderdth. You now have room to see both ways before pulling into traffic. Now, all we need is a traffic light there. . . .

We hate to brag, but we feel that we have the greatest volunteer fire department in the state—if you don't believe us, just ask the Forest Service people. The department has a training program that continues year around, and the volunteers turn out for meetings. . . .

Indian Paintbrush is now blooming, if you haven't been out for a drive recently. Generally the wild flowers are late blooming here but with the above-normal precipitation early this year they are putting on their display now. . . . Our congratulations to the Tom Loudons. They are celebrating their 52nd year of marital bliss. We predict that the marriage will last. . . .

Featured speakers for the graduation exercises were Brigadier General Franklin Miles, Mr. Sam Donaldson, and Mr. Harold Palmer II. The Very Reverend Robert T. Gibson, Dean of Christ Church Cathedral of Houston, TX, delivered the Baccalaureate address and presided at the dedication of the newly-completed Memorial Chapel as a debt-free gift by the Institute and Alumni Association.

The noted news commentator Donaldson was joined on the speaker's platform by New Mexico's Adjutant General, Brigadier General Miles, who represented the military career perspective of Institute graduates, and Mr. Palmer, who was the regimental commander of the Corps of Cadets in 1964-65.

Cadet First Sergeant Haake was a President's List scholar, Secretary-Treasurer of the National Honor Society in 74-75, German Club Chairman, Colt Football letterman, Assistant Academic Advisor, and December Cadet Rotarian, as well as receiving many other honors for his accomplishments.

May is Older Americans Month by proclamation of President Ford, and social security representatives are available to talk to groups and organizations interested in senior citizens programs, according to Gordon Lunsford, social security field representative.

"A new movie about Medicare is available for showing to such groups. The 29-minute color film is called 'Medicare-how it helps you.' It explains how Medicare hospital and medical insurance work, and it spells out in some detail what Medicare does and does not cover," Lunsford continued.

"Medicare helps pay the health care bills of people 65 and over, of disabled people who have been entitled to social security disability benefits for 24 months, and of many people with chronic kidney disease.

"Organizations wishing to arrange for a film showing should contact any social security office," Lunsford concluded.

The 4-day school week in Cimarron Schools is popular with the 435 students and teachers. Students voted lopsidedly to continue the 4-day

MRS. B

By CECELIA BARRON

Well, I finally read the book on Health for Modern Living, by H. Fredrick Kilander; reading a little every day, when I rested and after I retired. I can not say I really devoured or absorbed it completely, but I marked passages and chapters I could go back to and study later. This is one of my granddaughter's books—who is now in college at Pasadena, California—and I imagine she studied it in high school, as it is written to young people, to prepare them for college and marriage. But we oldsters that have never had a chance at such informative literature, can learn many things, as so much has been discovered about life and diseases, since we were young.

The book covers all phases of life as: Your personality, adjusting to college; mental health and illness; dates and courtships; intelligently discussing marriage; the science of nutrition, activity, rest and recreational needs. Even the biology of reproduction, on through alcoholism, smoking, drugs and diseases. It just about covers everything young and old will encounter in a lifetime.

If your youngsters have a Kilander's, Health for Modern Living, it would do well for all parents to study and discuss it with them. If not, you will not go wrong to acquire one for them.

And I have also read, Thomas Hardy's, The Return of the Native; which is an enriched classic edition and has been rightly called 'a work of genius'. Seems he had a wider context of world literature and history than most writers. He is continually making comparisons in his scenes and events, to past history and the Bible.

Even though, written near a hundred years ago, the acts of the characters are very much the same as the modern young, today. Only they seemed to have more patience and endurance for their elders and were more inclined to forgive the sins of others. As when Grandier Cantle boasted: 'Why, afore I went a soldier in the Bang-up Locals (as we was called), in the year four, I didn't know no more what the world was like than the commonest man among ye. And now, jown it all, I won't say what I bain't fit for, hey? Never the less, he was always respected and admired in his circle of friends.

Hardy tries to show every phase of their lives in our minds eye; yet he was criticized by the Victorians which caused him to leave novels and devote his last quarter of life to writing lyrics and verse.

Those that were shocked and brought down so much abuse on him, are now regarded as queer and old fashioned.

The Return of the Native is a deep emotional story of warm sentiment and empathy as well as temperamental, in the setting of Hardy's beloved heath of Wessex, where he was born; and forms his background or environment relevant to event, personality or creation.

The rural folk lived a contented life on their dairy farms or grazing their sheep on the hills of the Downs; using the young tender shoots of furze cut for winter forage. Local tradition included mummer's plays, humming ballads of southwestern England; the lighting of bonfires on Guy Fawkes day, to commemorate the Gunpowder Plot against Parliament in 1605. In this country of ancient Druids, some had a belief of witchcraft and the novel in part is about physical and spiritual unrest. Hardy called it the 'disease of modern life'; just as our young people of today are affected with the 'disease'. It may be well for them to take notice that: they are not the first generation to rebel against the 'Establishment'.

Take the book as a whole, it is very enlightening and delightful reading for young and old. If one has read it before, there will always be some new thought come to focus, when read the second time.

Song leader for the school will be Larry Holly.

THE HOME FRONT

By SONJA HARTONFT

We see a trend to "naturals" — real wood, greenery, etc., all over the house — even in the kitchen. Join in. Grow something.

Make double use of small space with a loft bed. You need a 3-foot clearance above the bed; that's why a sit-down area (desk or seating unit) is most effective below.

Greenhouses are showing up all over, many installed by do-it-yourselfers. Some owners are avid gardeners; others just like a greenhouse as a nice room that happens to have plants.

Looking for a home with a garden (inside or out) for YOUR green thumb? See H & H Realty for a complete assortment of gardens of all sizes. Nice houses, too.

HORSE LOVERS —

Don't miss this excellent piece of property minutes from the race track.

3 Br. split level mobile home on 1 1/2 acres, all fenced and in excellent condition.

$23,500 will buy this 2 bedroom home outside the city limits. Close to the race track. Have financing available.

LOT ON TRACT —

We have a good selection of both with prices and terms to fit any budget.

BILL MACK DAY — Bill Mack [right], the nationally-famed country-and-western disc jockey of WBAP Radio in Ft. Worth, was hosted by the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce and Ruidoso Downs Race Track over the weekend. Mack and his wife, Cindy [with hat], were in the winner's circle for the victory presentation of the Bill Mack Purse. Another celebrity on hand was Jody Miller, the popular vocalist, who was in town to perform during the Chamber's annual banquet. Al Rosa [dark coat], Ruidoso Downs general manager, and Richard Cothran, Chamber manager, also took part in the winner's circle ceremony.

Hoofbeats

Women made their presence felt during the weekend. Tomey Murphy became the first woman to suit out in the silks this season in Friday's 13th race. Tomey was aboard Bobby Diamond who finished ninth. Former Trainer Betty Harless wasn't too far behind Tomey. Betty had a couple of mounts Saturday, then finished second on Lord Tyler, a 16-1 shot in the sixth race Sunday.

Trainers Marilyn Asmusen and Margie Renfor showed the boys how to do it in Saturday's first race. Marilyn's charge, Battle Bandit, won the maiden event. Margie's student, Honor Scout, was second.

Bugs Alive in 75 on Thursday and Go Fantacia on Friday set identical top qualifying times of 18.12 seconds in the first elimination trials for the Kansas Quarter Horse Futurity. Filling out Thursday's qualifying list were Kitaman's Gal, 18.27; Lela Barnes Bug, 18.32; Chicks Deck, 18.35; Maryons Rocket, 18.43; Girl O' My Dreams, 18.44; Mr. Breakthru, 18.44; Bingo Sugar Bars, 18.49; Masters Angel, 18.49; Mr. Roan Deck, 18.53; Jody Oh, 18.53; Felciana Flash, 18.53; Tru Tru Chick, 18.57; Hyjonijet, 18.59; Miss Love Machine, 18.60; Mr. Hyonmighy, 18.65; Azure Jet, 18.65; Surprise Package, 18.66; Ruby Red Fizz, 18.66; Jet On Sam, 18.69; Spy Glass, 18.69; Tall Cotton, 18.69; Jodies Flight, 18.69; Jet Charger 2, 18.70; Cheatin Heart, 18.70.

The rest of Friday's qualifiers during their times: Easy Jet Doll, 18.19; Dellah Go, 18.22; Glittering Moon, 18.24; Speckled Trace, 18.24; I'm Sincere, 18.27; Masked Bug, 18.29; Rain Onya, 18.29; Frisco Floozie, 18.29; Stylish Jet, 18.30; Roan Savage, 18.30; Sender, 18.32; Confederate Jet, 18.34; Southern Gentleman, 18.34; Bid A Way, 18.38; The Easy Way, 18.39; Dedras Uh Oh, 18.39; Bugged Credit, 18.39; Rule The Roost, 18.39; Lady Afton Bug, 18.40; The Third One, 18.44; Tynys Miss Three, 18.44; Top Divi Doll, 18.44; Chicks Dimples 3, 18.44; Miss Going Bug, 18.45.

The final elimination trials for the Futurity are set for Saturday (May 31). The Consolation and Finals are slated for June 14 and 15. Liz Devine, Nominations Secretary at Ruidoso Downs, reports the gross purse for the Kansas Futurity will top out at a tremendous $403,646. That's a whopping $50,000 gain over last year's running.

Jockeys Thomas Straley and Roy Brooks both got three-day suspensions for careless riding. Straley was aboard Sena's Joy in the first race Saturday and Brooks rode Lady Afton Bug in the ninth race Friday. Jockey Wayne Gee was fined $25 for being late to the jockey room on Friday.

Weekend visitors to the track included popular country and western singer, Jody Miller; well-known country and western disc jockey Bill Mack of Radio Station WBAP of Ft. Worth; and Don Jones, Executive Secretary of the American Quarter Horse Association.

Nick Robinson came all the way from London to visit the mountain track this week. Nick, who publishes two turf magazines in Europe—The Horseman in Dublin and The Pacemaker in London—was gathering information for an article on the $1 million All-American Futurity.

George Bryant had a long walk back to the jockeys room after Sunday's third race. George was left afoot when his mount, Satin Smooth, unseated him on the first turn of the 5½-furlong event.

Jockey Denny Lujan was pretty happy after Thursday's sixth race. The young horseman won his first race on a recognized track aboard Mr. Hyonmighy and as an extra bonus, qualified the colt for the final elimination trials for the Kansas Futurity. Lujan rode his first recognized race at Ruidoso last weekend. Mr. Hyonmighy went off at 30-1 and paid $62.20.

Johnny Who had to be humanely destroyed as a result of injuries suffered following Thursday's second race. The colt, owned by Arthur Pike, Jr. of Palestine, Texas, hit the rail in the first turn after the running of the 350-yard event. Jockey Teddy Wolfe was thrown across the guard rail. Wolfe escaped with minor scrapes and bruises.

The Cascio family is making a habit of taking the top two places in trials at Ruidoso Downs. Father Jake and Son Bubba (both trainers) scored first and second in one of the trials for the Kansas Quarter Horse Derby last week. In Friday's fourth race trial for Kansas Quarter Horse Futurity Bubba fielded the winner — Frisco Floozie — and Jake was second with Confederate Jet. Then again in the 12th Bubba won with Rule The Roost and Jake had the second-finisher, Moon Escapade.

It took some doing to keep abreast of the outcome of Friday's ninth race. Lady Afton Bug finished third but was disqualified and placed fifth for causing interference. There was a deadheat for fourth between Dedra's Uh Oh and Bugged Credit. In the disqualification the two were moved up to third. It was the first deadheat of the season.

There were a couple of surprise payoffs in Thursday's trials. Fille Gumbo (22-1) won the second race and paid $46.20. The big one of the day came in the 13th race when Maryons Rocket (50-1) beat the field by a nose with the fifth best qualifying time of the day—18.43 seconds—and paid $101.80.

Trainer James Cox picked up a $100 fine for improper claiming procedure and for removing a horse from the grounds without proper clearance.

Jockey-Trainer of the week

WEEK'S BEST — Jerry Nicodemus nosed out Willie Lovell for jockey-of-the-week honors at Ruidoso Downs. Each had six winners, but Nicodemus had a three-notch edge in the second-place department.

Jerry Nicodemus took home Jockey-of-the-Week honors at Ruidoso Downs. But it wasn't easy.

Nicodemus and Willie Lovell both posted six wins, so the decision rested on seconds. Nicodemus had four to Lovell's three.

Nicodemus scored one win on Thursday and four on Friday. But he only got one victory in the remaining three days.

The sag allowed Lovell a chance to get in his licks. On Thursday he scored one and then added four more during Sunday's action. It wasn't until the last race on Monday that he added the sixth.

Gary Sumpter still hangs on to the slim overall lead. Sumpter rode five winners over the weekend, bringing his total to nine from 45 mounts.

Lovell and Nicodemus are tied for second with eight wins apiece. Lovell has 48 rides to Nicodemus' 40.

puted winner of the Trainer-of-the-Week honor. Bubba sent 14 to the track and walked to the winner's circle six times. Five of those were in the first elimination trials for the Kansas Quarter Horse Futurity.

The six wins also moved Cascio into the lead. His total stands at eight wins from 27 starts. Bob Arnett, who held the lead last week, dropped back to second.

Racing this weekend covers three days — Friday through Sunday — and kicks off at the usual first post of 1:30 p.m. On Saturday it'll be the final elimination round of the Kansas Futurity. Sunday's feature is the $5,000-added Mescalero Apache Handicap for three-year-olds and up.

"BARNESVILLE, MINN., RECORD-REVIEW: "Here's one that ought to make you taxpayers burn! Amtrak will receive $155 million federal subsidy this year to operate rail passenger service in the nation. Of that amount, $600,000 is spent to buy airplane tickets so that employees of Amtrak can make business trips, trips they could have made free on Amtrak. Maybe they don't even believe in their product."

See three days of great racing action this weekend at the Downs.

If you had any doubts about what you're going to do this weekend, we'd like to make sure you know where all the action is. It's at Ruidoso Downs this weekend.

Saturday's highlight is the elimination trials for the upcoming $375,000 [est.] KANSAS FUTURITY. Be sure you catch all the excitement as these great Quarter Horses battle for their positions in the big race.

Sunday's feature is the $5,000-added Mescalero Apache Handicap for 3-year-olds and up at 6½ furlongs. A great 3-day racing weekend . . . all just for you, neighbor.
