DEATH CAR — Warren Second was pronounced dead on arrival at Ruidoso Hondo Valley General Hospital early Thursday evening, in this one car accident near the Inn of the Mountain Gods. He was taken to the hospital by the Mesalero ambulance. The car was registered to Milton Sanchez and Elvira Lopez. [Ruidoso News photo]

Traffic survey underway here

Action to find a solution to Ruidoso's hectic traffic problem is underway with Chief of Police Paul Lukens Jr., directing the survey.

One phase of the study concerns the location of traffic lights on Sudderth Drive and Mechem Drive. Trouble spots indicated include the "Y" at Sudderth-U. S. 70; N. M. 37-Sudderth at the caution light; Cedar Creek Road (Paradise Canyon) at Sudderth and at Sudderth or at one of two streets just east of "the dip."

"The problem with locating traffic lights," Lukens said, "is to arrive at a working agreement with the NM Highway Department, and to conduct a traffic count survey during periods of heaviest use."

Proponents of additional traffic lights in Ruidoso have suggested that they could be operational only during periods of peak use and put on blinking setting when traffic is substantially reduced.

Of prime importance in the study will be the determination of an alternate traffic control route with the two present options, to the east of Sudderth, being Cedar Creek Road and Gavilan Canyon Road.

West of Mechem and south of Sudderth there is, at present, no road, or series of streets, that could lead traffic directly to Hwy. 70 and on to Alamogordo.

"This will be an in depth study," Lukens said, "and poses many problems. But action is being taken and in due time recommendations will be made to the village council."

"I will be happy to receive, in writing, suggestions from our concerned citizens to help arrive at a workable solution to our traffic problem."

Trio to face charges of aggravated battery

Following an early Friday morning incident in a Ruidoso Downs residence three local men were arrested by Lynn Martin, Ruidoso Downs chief of police, and charged with two counts of aggravated battery each.

Arrested were Joseph F. Friberg Jr., Lionel A. Aguilar and Nathaniel Winters. After being held in the Ruidoso jail the trio was transferred to Lincoln County jail at Carrizozo by sheriff's deputies early Friday. They were to appear before Magistrate Bill Payne on the charges.

Admitted to Ruidoso Hondo Valley General Hospital were Michael Speck and John William Kuntz who were treated for multiple lacerations in the emergency room prior to being admitted as patients.

Friberg and Aguilar, a police spokesman said, were on probation from previous incidents.

Local police thanked by three ladies

Chief of Police Paul Lukens received a letter of appreciation from three Las Cruces ladies, reading:

"On the evening of August 22, 1975, we arrived from Las Cruces to Ruidoso and found we had a flat tire. No service stations were open. Police officers No. 14 and 15 came to our assistance and changed our tire for us. Courteous and helpful officers like these are truly a credit to your police department."

Signing the letter were Karen Duran, Loretta Sosa and Diane L. Haley.

Police solve theft cases

Five burglaries and a case of larceny were solved late last week with the arrest of a juvenile by Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs PD personnel.

Recovered were three CB radios, an AM/FM tape cassette player taken from a car, an electronic level and a bass amplifier stolen from Ruidoso High School last year.

Cooperating in the arrest were Lt. Jerry Russell, CID, Ptl. D. Harris and Lt. M. L. Simon of Ruidoso PD with Chief Lynn Martin and Lt. Fred Bernard of Ruidoso Downs PD.

ASPENCADE PARADE FLOAT RULES SET

Early fall activities readied for Ruidoso

Plans have been completed for a series of early fall activities in Ruidoso from Oct. 1-6, Richard Cothrun, manager of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce announced today.

The events include:

Antique car show, Sept. 27-28;

Aspencafe Motorcycle Convention, Oct. 1-4;

Million Dollar Motorcycle Show, Oct. 4-5;

Youngster's fishing derby, Oct. 4;

Motorcycle baseball game, Oct. 4;

Aspencafe street parade, Oct. 4;

Aspencafe Bar-B-Que, Oct. 4;

Aspencafe bus tours, Oct. 4-6

The Aspencafe festivities will get underway Sept. 27-28 with an antique, classic, streetrods, street machines and vans show.

Registrations will be at School House Park the morning of the 27th with all registrants scheduled to make a tour of the Mesalero Apache Tribe reservation at 3 p. m.

The program includes cruising and dancing the night of the 27th with a picnic the 28th at 11 a. m., and trophy presentations at 2 p. m.

This antique car show is sponsored by the Valley Vintage Motor Car Club of Roswell with all entries open for public viewing.

Registrations for the motorcycle convention, Til Thompson said today, "are coming in fast and indicate that the convention will be even bigger than last year."

Plans for the Million Dollar Motorcycle Show, scheduled for convention center in the Chaparral, haven't been finalized, Thompson said, "but the advance information requests from representatives desiring to have display areas tells me that this will be our biggest show ever."

A special treat for all youngsters 12 years of age and under, Cothrun said, is scheduled for Two Rivers Park Oct. 4 from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m., with prizes to be awarded to the luckiest trout fishermen among them.

"We'll have a prize for the child catching the largest trout, another for the child catching the smallest and finally, a special prize for the youngest child catching anything."

No fishing licenses are required for the youngsters, Cothrun said, "but the NM Game and Fish regulations limiting each angler to catching but four fish will be enforced. Wonder what'd happen if some toddler actually landed four trout?"

The Ruidoso Little League baseball teams will benefit from a motorcycle (ala donkey ball, but on cycles) baseball game scheduled for 3 p. m., Oct. 4 at the Little League ball field, near the high school.

"The Texas Travelers Motorcycle Club of San Antonio and Houston areas," Thompson said, "have accepted a challenge from the International Retread Motorcycle Club for this ball game. The Texas club is the undefeated champions of the game and this should be a special interest spectator event."

Members of the Little League will be at the field to accept donations to support their summer program, Thompson said, "and every penny they collect will be used for Little League baseball this season."

The Aspencafe street parade will begin at 11 a. m., Oct. 4, with the areas for the units to form in to be designated later, parade chairman Tuffy Wilson said today.

This year's parade theme, Wilson said, "is 'America's Best Kept Secret — Ruidoso', and we're anticipating many outstanding floats."

Registrations will close at 5 p. m., Sept. 28 and entrants may register at Tuffy's Ski Shop or by dialing 257-2918.

No fee is being charged for parade entries.

As in the past, there will be a special division for bicycles, with registration rules the same as for parade floats.

Judging of all entries will be at 10 a. m., at the assembly areas with a second judging during the parade. Out-of-town judges will base their decision on 50 points for theme, 25 points for workmanship and 25 points for originality.

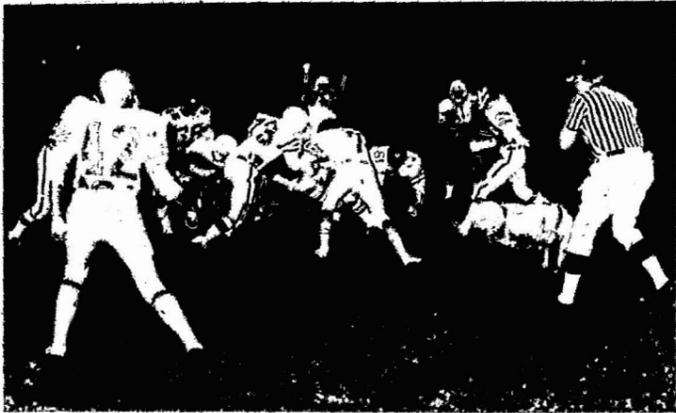

The parade route will be east on Sudderth Drive, ending near School House Park, Wilson said.

"We feel that this year's parade theme: 'America's Best Kept Secret — Ruidoso', in view of the tremendous national publicity given Ruidoso this year over TV and in publications with nation-wide circulation should result in one of the largest, and best, parades in Ruidoso's history," Wilson said.

All business houses, organizations, clubs, churches and individuals are, Wilson said, "encouraged to enter their floats at the earliest possible date so that parade positions may be assigned to eliminate the problems arising from last minute entries."

Serving of the annual Aspencafe Bar-B-Que, Cothrun said, "will begin about 11:30 with the Chuck Wagon Gang of Odessa, Tex., again catering this special attraction. The feed, at $3.50 per plate, is open to the public."

The awarding of three turquoise jewelry prizes is scheduled for 2 p. m., in school house park. Members of the C-C Ambassadors are in charge of this special attraction, Cothrun said.

FIRST TOUCHDOWN — Ruidoso Warrior fans went wild Friday, as the team scored the first touchdown of the 1975-76 season in the opener with the Carrizozo Grizzlies. The Warriors came home with a 26-0 victory from the action. [Ruidoso News photo]

Ruidoso police dispatcher jailed on theft charge

Gayle Knapp, Ruidoso police dispatcher, remained in Lincoln County jail late Sunday in lieu of posting a $1,000 bond on five counts of unlawfully taking of a vehicle.

Knapp was arraigned Saturday before Magistrate Bill Payne in Carrizozo on the charges. Knapp was arrested early Saturday morning, while on dispatcher duty, by Ralph Romero and Lucas Gallegos, sheriff's deputies, following their investigation.

The vehicles were taken from the Bontio Lake area between Sept. 2 and 3, the sheriff's deputies stated, with some of them being located on property owned by Knapp near Carrizozo.

Dice, vice raid made

Charges of gambling and prostitution have been filed against 10 persons arrested in a Sept. 4 raid by Ruidoso Downs and Ruidoso PD personnel and members of the Lincoln County Sheriff's department of a residence in Ruidoso Downs.

Gambling with dice charges were filed against Edward Moore, Ed Marshall, John White, James Hicks, Eldridge Peat, W. C. Simmons, John Faterbach and Michael Fish; prostitution charges were filed against Jane Perrault and Leetha Clark. All were to appear before municipal judge Briscoe West.

Conducting the raid were Chief of Police Lynn Martin, officers Mike Graham and Debbie Russell of Ruidoso Downs PD, Lt. Jerry Russell, Lt. M. L. Simon and photographer Hugh Stiles of Ruidoso PD and Ralph Romero and Lucas Gallegos of the sheriff's office.

'LAKE MESCALERO' stretches past the Inn of the Mountain Gods, the Mesalero Apache Tribe's posh resort complex just south of Ruidoso. Portions of the fairways of the golf course,

Postal service petitions available for signatures

Plans to petition the Ruidoso Post Office to provide daily carrier mail delivery to professional and business establishments and to residences are available for signing at:

The Ruidoso News

The Pancake House

Chamber of Commerce

The petitions also call for the installation of mail drop boxes at frequent intervals along Sudderth Drive. Ruidoso's Post Office is a First Class Post Office and, with streets named and lot numbers assigned, the petition is designed to request that carrier service be instituted. One factor in the request is that some postal patrons have to drive up to five miles to obtain their mail.

Delivery of mail, and pickup from the drop boxes, would be made by drivers over motorized routes.

Ruidoso Hospital Auxiliary

Twenty-five members and one guest met at the Whispering Pine Restaurant Tuesday, September 2, at noon, for the regular luncheon meeting of the Ruidoso Hondo Valley General Hospital Auxiliary.

Roland Walsh, Hospital Administrator; Jean Morgan, Director of Nurses; Charles W. Martin, Acting Administrator, and Thural Simmons, L.P.N., were special guests.

Mrs. Y. W. McCammon was also a special guest. She presented the Auxiliary with a $50.00 donation.

Mr. Martin gave a talk on the Medic Alert Foundation International.

For the 1975-76 year, Isla McLeod was reelected President; Jodie Keyes, Vice President; Helen Montgomery, Secretary; and Ellen Sanders, Treasurer.

500 hour pins were presented to Bernice Wood and Nellie Vickers.

Peggy Nobles and Exa White were appointed to the membership committee. It was noted there is always a need for more workers — especially those who can spare three hours a week to work in the Pink Shop.

Nellie Vickers was appointed chairman for Project 1975-76, with Exa White and Era Jackson to serve on the committee.

The Pink Ladies will serve orange juice to blood donors again September 18, from 1:30 to 7:30 p. m., when the Blood Services unit will be here.

Harry M. Whiteley

Funeral services for Harry M. Whiteley were scheduled for today, at the Ruidoso Church of Christ at 1:30 p. m. with Arthur Judd, minister of the church, officiating. Interment will be at 4 p. m. in South Park Cemetery in Roswell.

Mr. Whiteley passed away Friday at St. Mary's Hospital in Roswell, following an extended illness.

Bernie Baur, former minister of the Ruidoso Church, will assist with the services. Arrangements are by Clarke's Chapel of Roses.

Sr. Citizens appreciation dinner

There will be an "Appreciation Dinner" at the Lincoln County Senior Citizens' Center, Friday, September 12, 6:30 p. m., hosted by Sarah Lea Beumer, chairman, Lincoln County Senior Citizens' Advisory Board.

Those people of Ruidoso, Lincoln County, and the State of New Mexico, who have had a part in bringing about the Senior Citizens' complex and its program will be honored.

All Lincoln County Senior Citizens are urged to bring a covered dish and join in a very special occasion.

Your Social Security

"Students 18-22 getting social security checks should report changes in their earnings, school enrollment, and marital status to social security," Tim Hassen, social security field representative, stressed.

"Over 680,000 students 18 and over get monthly social security payments because a parent gets disability or retirement benefits or has died. Students can continue to get payments to age 22 as long as they remain full-time students and unmarried."

"Students getting checks should notify social security immediately if they marry, leave school, or start attending on a part-time basis, so we can stop their monthly payments as required by law," Hassen said.

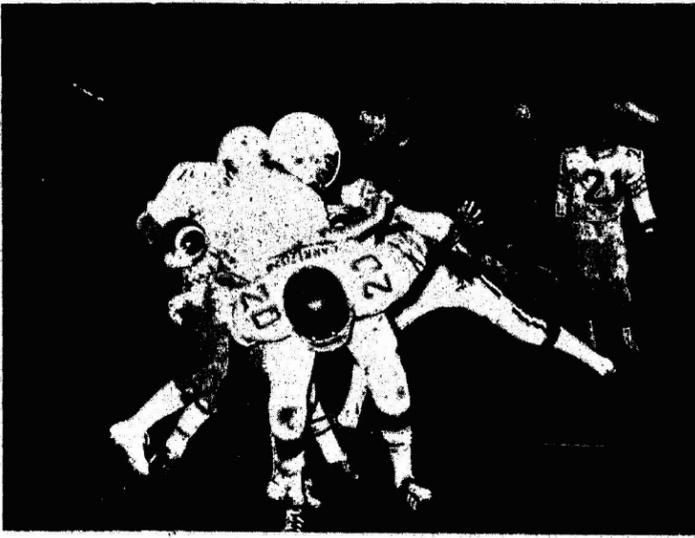

"Changes in total yearly earnings from part-time or temporary jobs can also affect social security payments to students. If you're a student getting payments and expect your earnings for 1975 will be over $2520, you should report that to social security. Otherwise you might get benefits you'll have to pay back later."

"Social security payments are reduced by $1 for every $2 earned over $2520 in a year. No matter how much they earn for the year, people can get their full social security payment for any month in which they neither earn over $210 nor do substantial work in their own business," Hassen concluded.

Mr. Hassen may be contacted at the Lincoln County Senior Citizens' Center, in Ruidoso on Tuesday, September 9, between the hours of 10-12 and 1-2.

FIRST FOOTBALL WIN — a large crowd of Ruidoso Warrior fans traveled to Carrizozo last Friday for the opening game of the season. Warriors trounce Grizzlies

BY H. B. FLANNAGAN

Coach Doyle Howell of the Warriors installed a new offense for the '75 season and it paid off as the Tribe opened the new season with a 26-0 win over county rivals, the Grizzlies of Carrizozo.

Running out of the Houston Veer, the Ruidoso offense showed the versatility of the Veer as it blasted the Grizzlies, both on the ground and through the air.

With the help of a 15-yard penalty on a fourth down punt try, the Warriors' first TD was set up on the Carrizozo 20. Hard driving Frankie Montoya blasted for 19 yards as he bulldozed his way down to the Grizzlies' 1 yard line. From there he was called on again and he came through as he put 6 points on the board for Ruidoso. Montoya's number was called for the 2-point conversion as the Tribe took an 8-0 lead.

Ruidoso's defensive linemen showed their hard-nosed football as they put the stopper on the Carrizozo ball carriers. In fact, the Tribe's defensive linemen kept the Grizzly backs in check so much that Ruidoso's secondary had little work on defense.

Ruidoso's second touchdown came early in the second quarter on an exchange of fumbles. After forcing a Carrizozo punt, the Warriors moved the ball from their own 48 yard line, behind the hard running of Montoya and Halfback Danny Bown, down to the Grizzly 2-yard line, only to have their drive stopped via fumble. The grizzlies fumbled the ball right back as Montoya really put the stop on a Grizzly to shake the ball loose. On the first play Danny Brown found daylight as he hit into the end zone, but a flag on the play nullified the play and sent the Warriors back to the 5 1/2 yard line. This time Quarterback Steve Williams crossed up the defense as he hit Jim Low-rance for 6, to up the score to 14-0.

Ruidoso's defense set up the third TD of the night when a bad snap from center to the Carrizozo kicker was really pounced on by a host of Warriors to put the Tribe on offense on the Grizzly 25-yard line. After picking up 14 yards through the air, Williams hit Mike Seelbach for another Ruidoso TD from 19 yards out.

Ruidoso's fourth TD in the third quarter was put in play by the defense as they once again jarred the ball loose that allowed the offense to set up business on the 39-yard line of the Warriors.

Quarterback Williams kept the Carrizozo defense guessing, as he mixed up his play calling well. With Brown picking up 12 yards in two carries, Williams kept for 13 yards. Then he hit Clifton Neal for 11 yards for a first down. Again he hit Neal for another first down on the Carrizozo 10-yard line. Williams called Montoya's number and he blasted over for the Tribe's fourth touchdown of the night.

Ruidoso managed to put 2 extra points on the scoreboard, that coming after the first TD, as the Grizzlies stopped all other running plays for the PATs.

Coach Howell began substituting freely in the third and fourth quarters as he gave many of his reserves much needed experience and, although they didn't put any points on the board, they proved capable of going in and doing a good job.

Deserving a lot of praise and bringing the fans to their feet was the defensive line for the Tribe. With aggressive, hard-hitting, the defense dogged the Grizzly ball carriers all night with jarring tackles and gang pursuit and tackling.

In 1974 the average consumer bought 15.7 pounds of apples.

Army Notes

An Army submarine attack on Fort Dodge and the Star Spangled Banner were involved in history this week.

On September 7, 1779 Army sergeant Ezra Lee attempted the first submarine attack in the history of warfare. The submarine named the "American Turtle" was built by David Bushnell. It submerged when ballast tanks were filled with water. Sergeant Lee set off powder charges against British ships off Governor's Island, New York. Unfortunately, the copper bottoms were too thick to be damaged. Sergeant Lee had a good idea, but its time had not yet arrived.

General Douglas MacArthur entered Tokyo on September 8, 1945 - six days after VJ Day. The Stars and Stripes was flown over the American embassy. It was the same flag that had flown over the Nation's capitol on Pearl Harbor Day.

Fort Dodge, the present site of Dodge City, Kansas, was established as an Army post on September 9, 1865. Fort Dodge held a strategic position on the old Santa Fe Trail and afforded protection to westward travelers. Dodge City was the inspiration for many a western saga from the galloping typewriters of our fiction writers.

The first coast to coast paved road was declared open on September 10, 1913. The Lincoln Highway crossed 13 states from New York to San Francisco. The first portion of the highway was built by the United States Army Engineers who had surveyed the entire route.

On September 11, 1777 General Washington and his beleaguered Army faced superior British forces at Brandywine Creek. Although defeated in battle, Washington retreated skillfully and rapidly toward Philadelphia saving his Army from possible disaster. Those were difficult days for the ragged Continentals and it would be some time before the tide would turn.

Henry Knox became the first Secretary of War on September 12, 1789. Knox was one of General Washington's most trusted officers. During the Revolutionary War Knox was in charge of the Continental Army Artillery. He played an important role in the famous crossing of the Delaware. Even more importantly, as Chief of Artillery, it was Knox who brought much needed guns and ammunition in the dead of winter, 1776, from Ticonderoga, New York to the Continental Army outside of Boston.

On September 13, 1814 Fort McHenry was bombarded by the British. Francis Scott Key was on a diplomatic mission aboard a British warship in the Chesapeake during the bombardment. From there Key wrote the "Star Spangled Banner" which soon became the unofficial National Anthem. It was officially recognized as the National Anthem by Congress in 1931.

RANGE AND LIVESTOCK:
Range conditions varied from good in the northern portion of the state, to mostly fair in the southern portion. Many isolated areas were extremely short of moisture. Approximately 53,000 acres of rangeland in Lincoln County were sprayed for range caterpillars according to the Division of Plant Industry of the New Mexico Department of Agriculture. Livestock were in mostly good condition throughout the state. The Division of Plant Industry reported a total of 93 cases of screwworms in the state since January.

WEATHER SUMMARY:
Scattered showers, mostly light, first half of week and dry thereafter. Gradual daytime warming last half of week with temperatures mostly averaging a little above normal. Chill nights mountain sections with numerous readings in the thirties.

The Automotive Parts & Accessories Association recommends that you change your car's engine oil more frequently as the car gets older.

Oil tends to contaminate more quickly in aging engines.

The Dreamer

Late Summer Evening

As we come into the dreamy season of late summer, when the tree frogs along the river blend their chorus with the crickets, and the evening star appears in the west, a twinkling little beacon of silver high in the green-tinted sky, you are lulled into a twilight reverie, all peaceful, calm, and full of memories.

This is not the rapid march of Autumn with every day a different glorious pattern on the mountainsides and a new mood of rapture in your soul.

It is not the light-footed, eager pace of spring with each day a new surprise in blossom bud and leaf.

After the lightning, the thunder and the rapid-flying cloud on high, the year is standing still, catching its breath, meditating a while between seasons. In evening more than any other part of the day, you are in the spell of the world's restful mood.

The crickets and the tree frogs - their rhythm is light and airy, down along the river. Not the slow pounding drum-beat of early autumn. It is ever so easy on the sense of hearing, this chorus - a gentle twilight sound. A serenade of dreamy dusk.

The heat of the day fades into the sky in waves, carried upward by the cool, moist air currents rising from the river. As you and the little coyote dog walk along the road just by the river, you walk through banks of air now hot, now cool, as night and day change places in this late evening of late summer.

One sound is missing from it all - as the evening star brightens and the last of the sunset pink and gold have almost faded. Where is the evening song of the little frog sitting on the edge of his little mossy pond. He is beside the river somewhere, but not singing. His songs are for the times the river is quite low, running from pond to pond. The river has been too active, too full of water this year for any little quiet ponds to form and stand full of moss.

They say the little frog, sitting by his pond, and singing is calling for rain, for more water in the river. Now he does not need to call.

Shady, The Spirit Dog
Night settles quickly this time of year, and before you can get home, it is nearly full dark. Little Shady Logan blends into the twilight and is lost in the near-dark despite his bright golden color and his gleaming white markings. Only when he moves can you see him. When he is still he is completely hidden in the gloom.

He seems a little spirit creature, a little dog in a dream, some little figure of the imagination. Where is he there on the dark road? You call, and is that the little fellow coming toward you out of nowhere? Not until he is right up to you are you sure. His little coyote trot is silent, absolutely soundless. Are his little feet really touching the road as he glides through the night? My little dog from the spirit world! If he could only talk. And yet he does talk in his silent way. He knows your every thought; your world is no mystery to him. And yet he is in touch with things you do not know.

The Indian called the coyote his Medicine Dog, or Manatou Dog, a seer into the Spirit World. And now with your own

A Few More Thoughts Of Fidel Trujillo
Last time it came to mind that Fidel Trujillo was a great story-teller, horseman and humorist.

Andy Haddix, the ex-boxer and present day artist in leather, who works out with bears as sparring-partners, might take note to two vest pocket bear yarns.

I forgot who it was. Was it Samuel Sanchez? Anyway, someone told me of his grandfather and the way he killed bears. It was easy if you knew how.

The way the fellow told it, a bear is a tough customer but he does have one soft spot, his nose. He can be killed by a sharp, hard blow across the bridge of his nose with a club or other hard instrument. Not many of us want to take a crack at Mr. Bear's nose, and the bear is pretty good at protecting this part of himself.

Anyway, this grandfather would wrap his left arm, and mainly the forearm, with stout clothing, canvas or quilting, and with a heavy club in his right hand, would walk up to the bear. As the bear stood up on his hind legs to make this fight, the grandfather would take the quilled forearm and make a bear took this in his teeth, down would come the club full force across the bear's snout, laying him in the shade.

I told this yarn - which I did not think was a yarn, but the truth, to Fidel. Fidel did not crack a smile or change his expression.

"I will tell you a story of my grandfather," said Fidel: "This grandfather used to have a team of bueyes (oxen). You have seen a team of oxen working? One of these was black and the other white.

One morning when it was still dark, Grandfather went looking for his oxen. He wanted to start ploughing early. On the hillside, there they were. But the black one wanted to run away, so grandfather roped him and dragged him down by the field.

"What was the matter with this black ox. He did not want to work. Grandfather had to beat him into the harness. 'What a head-strong ox is this that does not want to work,' thought my grandfather.

"After a while it began to get light and it was then my grandfather found that it was a bear working at the plough with the white ox. These grandfathers, they know how to tell stories! No?"

Divine Veal Entree Treats Guests to Gourmet Dinner

Treat dinner guests to a taste of gourmet dining with an entree that subtly mingles the flavors of breaded veal round steak, thinly sliced ham, mushroom sauce and cheese. This delicately flavored meat provides a divine culinary treat when prepared by this recipe, says Reba Staggs, home economist, National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Veal Divine
1 1/2 to 2 pounds veal round steak, cut 1/2 inch thick
1 egg beaten
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup commercial bread crumbs
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) condensed mushroom soup
1/4 cup water
3 slices "boiled" ham
1/2 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese
Paprika
Pound steaks on both sides.
Cut steaks into 6 servings.
Mix together egg, salt and pepper. Dip veal in egg mixture and then in crumbs.
Brown in lard or drippings.
Add water to mushroom soup and mix well. Pour soup over veal. Cover tightly and cook 15 min. on top of range or bake in slow oven at 325° F. 30 min.

Cut ham slices in half. Place 1/2 ham slice over each veal serving. Cover and continue cooking 15 minutes, or until veal is tender. Sprinkle cheese over ham. Cover and continue cooking until cheese is melted, about 10 minutes. Sprinkle with paprika. 6 servings.

GROWING GREATER

Going Strong

Nutritious Food for Thought

High costs drove Mrs. Esther Robinson out of one occupation and a mandatory retirement age may force her to change her present job by next year, but do not expect her to slow down.

"I can stand still and get myself involved," Mrs. Robinson said.

Presently Mrs. Robinson is a nutrition aide with the University of Arizona Extension Service. She began her career with the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program in 1969 when she was 63. She will be 70 next year and face the program's mandatory retirement age.

"I won't quit, though," she declared. "I'll just continue as a volunteer."

Mrs. Robinson and her husband live in Somerton, Arizona, which she describes as a suburb of Yuma, "although there is a lot of open space between the two."

The Robinsons moved to Arizona in 1949 when, as she related, "we fell heir to a citrus grove." From 1949 to 1969, she managed 200 acres of citrus trees.

"We came here from the central part of Kansas. My husband had worked for Southwest Bell for 25 years."

"By 1969 there was so much red tape and production costs were getting so high, it just wasn't worth it. We retired from the citrus business. I kid people and say the tractors just got too big for me to drive," she said.

As for her work as a nutrition aide, she calls it "delightful."

"I go into different homes and tactfully try to find out what kind of food they have been buying. Then, if they have been buying things that aren't good for them, not nutritious, I suggest food for them to buy, food that will save them money and make them feel better," Mrs. Robinson said.

Mrs. Robinson said that she may visit four or five families a day. It is clear from her conversation that she winds up doing more than the minimum requirements of the job and is obviously putting in more hours than she is getting paid for.

In addition, she is busy with other activities. Mrs. Robinson is immediate past president of the Yuma Business and Professional Women, is corresponding secretary of the Yuma Pilot Club, Inc., treasurer and secretary of Phi Sigma Alpha and a member of several other organizations.

Basically a good natured person, there seem to be two subjects which arouse Mrs. Robinson's anger. One is the high costs of producing the citrus and the other is the stereotype view of older people as sedentary, incapable of working or doing much else.

"Things on television just cement in the idea that older people can't work. We've got to change people's way of thinking about older people; let people know that there are a lot of things we can do in this world," she said.

FROM JAPAN comes the report that there are about 700 Japanese who exceed 100 years of age. Eighty per cent of them are women.

TODAY'S LOGIC

AN OPEN LETTER
Dear Communists Slave:
About 2,000 years ago, Christianity began sweeping over the civilized world. The rulers tried to suppress it and sentenced converts to death.

Each time a Christian was fed to the lions, many more were converted to take his place.

Why? Because he had friends. Because people knew and loved and respected him. They knew he was good, so they were convinced that the power that destroyed him was evil.

Now, in your country, some of your friends have been seized. They spoke some truth that your rulers didn't want to hear or didn't want you to hear. To be eaten by lions would be merciful compared to the treatments given your friends.

Years of torture, hard labor, solitary confinement, starvation and mind destroying drugs are horribly terrifying.

You admire those with the courage to speak out and give their lives to the cause of freedom and truth. But knowing what happens to them strikes fear to your heart.

Should you speak out too? Some of you will no matter what anyone says. My heart cries for you, for I know the terrible price you will pay.

Your sacrifice is not in vain. There are those who know you and love you. They will be strengthened by your heroism. For each of you who is taken away, ten converts will spring up in your place.

Eventually the horrors perpetrated by your rulers will engulf them and sweep them away. Their evil carries within it the seeds of its own destruction. Some day you will be free.

You look to us for hope and help. But we cannot even defend our own freedoms. We are fat and lazy. We freely vote into power those who steal from the productive and give to the unproductive. We foolishly trade our freedoms for government handouts.

Stop looking to us. It is we who look to you for help. When you win your freedom you will love it and guard it and defend it as has no other people before you.

You will know its value. You will teach it to all generations to come. And you will make sure that freedom never again loses to the forces to evil.

Overthrow your masters before we are lost. Teach us your lessons before we are forced to learn them the same way you did.

Loyalists Come Under Attack

Two hundred years ago as the possibility of a full-scale war became more a reality, American thought began to divide more distinctly between those who supported resistance and possible independence and those who remained loyal to Great Britain. Of course, there was always a large number — possibly as many as one-third according to John Adams — who never took sides in the conflict.

The belief that not many people supported the British is another myth that still lives. In fact, probably another third of the population was Loyalist or Tory. These were the ones who took much abuse from the radicals.

As more people moved toward independence they became more abusive of the Tories. We often read and hear of Tories being tarred and feathered. On the surface, this appears to be a rather innocent type prank. However, on closer examination, we find that it was a humiliating and possibly dangerous activity.

The victim was usually stripped of his clothes and covered with hot tar or oil which could result in serious burns if it were too hot. Then the victim was covered with feathers. Possibly, he was then ridden out of town on a rail.

One can easily understand how a person could become

Inside The Capital

By Fred Buckles
SANTA FE — Gov. Jerry Apodaca is reportedly pushing Wayne Gares for Eastern New Mexico University president. Gares, an ENMU dean, and Apodaca are former football teammates. Jerry picked Wayne's brother, Glen, as state personnel director. Reportedly some ENMU regents may not be reappointed if Wayne is not weighed heavily for ENMU president.

Terms of regents Ben McAlister, Clovis, and the Rev. John Ratliff, Albuquerque, will end Jan. 1, 1977. Gov. Apodaca has said repeatedly he is exerting no input on selection of any state universities' presidents.

Reportedly Alex Mercure, University of New Mexico community affairs dean, was Gov. Apodaca's preference for new Highlands University president. Highlands regents chose Dr. John Aragon, UNM cultural awareness director, on a 5-0 unanimous vote.

The motion and second to hire Dr. Aragon were by Alex Sanchez of Las Cruces and Benny Flores of Las Vegas. Apodaca named Sanchez to the Highlands board.

Besides Aragon and Mercure, other finalists for Highlands president were Dr. Sigfredo Maestas, Highlands academic dean; Peter Garcia of New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, and Jose Perea, Denver community college chief administrator and ex-Vaughn schools superintendent.

Gov. Apodaca said Wednesday he took no part in the Highlands president selection. But he said: "The board notified me privately before they announced it publicly and I appreciated that." Apodaca said of Aragon: "John is a very competent educator. I will visit with John to have a general discussion on problems on Highlands as I see them."

"He has demonstrated some abilities that will make him a good president. The important thing is for the regents and the Las Vegas community to get behind him and assist him in every way possible."

Apodaca was disturbed early this year because regents of New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology, Socorro, did not notify him they had picked Dr. Kenneth Ford as new president before announcing their choice. Failure to notify Apodaca reportedly cost regent George A. Cowan of Los Alamos reappointment to the board. Apodaca replaced Cowan with John M. Kelly of Roswell.

Dr. Aragon was hired as new Highlands president with the full support of San Miguel County Democratic Chairman Donald A. (Tiny) Martinez, Sen. Ray Leger and Rep. Sam Vigil of Las Vegas.

The influential Democrats also backed Apodaca in the 1974 primary and general elections. Martinez said of Dr. Aragon Wednesday: "He's energetic. He has initiative. He has perspective on what Highlands needs to do. We've got to do something that will not only attract young people of Northern New Mexico to school but to give them the initiative to want an education."

"Also, to give them an education relative to today's Northern New Mexico economy." Dr. Aragon was also pushed hard for president by Martinez and other Las Vegas Democrats in 1970 when Dr. Charles J. Graham, then president of Wisconsin State University at Whitewater, was chosen as Highlands president.

Protests by some Las Vegas groups were so strong against the choice of Dr. Graham that he did not occupy the post. Dr. Frank Angel was then picked to succeed Dr. Thomas Donnelly who retired.

Our soundings showed Gov. Apodaca, a UNM alumnus, exerted heavy input on the selection of new UNM president-designate William (Bud) Davis of Idaho. Davis will succeed Dr. Ferrell Heady Jan. 1. Dr. Heady, UNM president seven years, was honored Thursday night at a dinner in Albuquerque hosted by the Partners of the Americas.

Albuquerque Democrat Tom Wiley resigned from the Highlands board, effective Sept. 1. Tom said he sent his resignation to Apodaca "before I knew who the Highlands president candidates were."

Wiley was state schools superintendent 8 years and Bernalillo County schools superintendent 8 years. He will continue as chairman of a state-wide public schools committee of education leaders that functions quietly. He was a Highlands regent 4 1/2 years. Wiley was considered the key regent in the selection of Aragon last week and Dr. Angel in 1970.

Among prospects for appointment by Apodaca to the State Education Board to succeed resigning Albuquerque Republican George Elliott are Hank Willis, ex-Albuquerque Public Schools board president; Mrs. Evelyn Prentice, ex-New Mexico Parent-Teachers Assn. president, and Mrs. Elizabeth Margolis Hendryson, ex-state and national P-TA president.
