

'Good Sam' fund drive receives $1,001 boost from Nob Hill students

Nob Hill Elementary students took on the role of real life Good Samaritans Friday as they raised $1,001 for the Good Samaritan Nursing Home.

The fund-raising project began two months ago with an embroidered quilt handmade by 4th, 5th and 6th grade students at the school.

Donations on the 64-square quilt were set at $1 and Nob Hill students descended on Ruidoso with a $1,000 fund raising goal in mind.

"We wanted to raise at least $1,000 so the students could get a plaque put up in the Good Sam home for their efforts," fifth grade teacher Bonnie Coe said.

Five minutes before the assembly to award the quilt, a student ran up to Mrs. Coe to add a donation from his mother and put the school over the $1,000 goal.

Picked as recipient of the quilt was Mrs. Luigi Scirocco of Ruidoso Downs.

"This was a tremendous effort on the part of these children," Charlotte Jarrett, Advisory Committee Chairman for Good Sam, said. "If the rest of the community would get behind the Good Sam home the way these Nob Hill School students have, we would have raised all the money needed to finance it by now."

The Ruidoso area needs to raise $350,000 as its share of the Good Samaritan project. According to Ms. Jarrett, the fund raising committee has collected about $48,000 so far.

"The Good Sam fund-raising committee is going to award a free ticket to our Womanless Wedding event (to be held later this summer) to all the children who helped with this project," Ms. Jarrett said. Students were also awarded $5 for the top money collector and $2 for the runner-up in each grade.

Top collectors were:
Sixth grade — Jean Marie Howden, sold $25 for first place; Wanda Baker; Wanda Baker, $13.
Shannon Barbee, $21.
Fourth grade — Lisa Howell, $15; Willie Dean, $13.

THIS HANDMADE QUILT made by 4th, 5th and 6th graders at Nob Hill School was awarded to Mrs. Luigi Scirocco of Ruidoso Downs Friday. The quilt raised $1,001 for the Good Samaritan Nursing

Donna My Dear runs today

Donna My Dear, a filly who's found allowance competition right up her alley recently, takes another crack at the company in this afternoon's headliner.

The feature, geared for older allowance specialists, will be decided at 5 1/2 furlongs and boasts a $3,400 purse.

Donna My Dear took her Ruidoso bow in a feature last week. The four-year-old jumped to an early lead as the favorite and remained there during most of the 5 1/2 furlong trip. But Livemup, an 11-1 outsider, put in a determined stretch charge and caught the filly in the last jump.

The lineup in today's feature: Lucky Dee Dee, 112; Speedy Spirit, 104; Swiss Rich, 117; Country Run, 114; Jimmylin, 119; Donna My Dear, 117 and Special Dip, 115.

Campaign fever reaches its first peak tomorrow as New Mexico voters go to the polls to cast ballots in the June 1 primary election.

In Lincoln County the major interest of the 4,588 registered voters seems to hinge around the races for county commissioner and sheriff.

Of the three vacant commissioner seats, two are being sought by incumbents John Sudderth (District 3) and R. C. Nunez (District 1).

Nunez is opposed by Democrat George

Stoneman and Republican Paul Pacheco, former commission chairman.

Appointed to the commission post left vacant by W.A. (Bill) Hart last January, Sudderth faces two Democratic opponents in the primary — Ruidoso's Elmer Pirelli and Leon A. Farrar. There are no Republican candidates for commissioner in District 3.

The hotly contested race for commissioner from District 2 centers on Ancho rancher George "Lee" Straley and Eddie O'Brien from Carrizozo on the Democratic side. The post was left vacant by Carrizozo's Bud Payne (who has served two terms and is ineligible to seek reelection) and is up for grabs to the two Democrats and Elias H. Otero, the single Republican candidate for the office.

In the race for county sheriff, the battle on the Democratic side is between two Ruidoso residents. Bill Elliott was narrowly defeated by the current sheriff, Leandro Vega Jr. in his bid for the post last election. He is opposed by Vega's present undersheriff, Rafael (Ralph) Romero.

The lone Republican candidate for the position is Vega's brother-in-law, Ernest Sanchez. Vega, who is ineligible to run for reelection this time around, has not endorsed any candidate as his successor.

Another close county race is for the position of clerk. Left vacant by the ineligible Barbara Lovelace who has served two terms, the job is being sought by one Republican candidate, Jane McSwane, who is currently employed in the clerk's office.

On the Democratic side the primary nomination for clerk may fall to either Aurelia (Dolly) Luera, employee of the county assessor's office, or Ruidoso's Sunny Hirschfeld.

Other county races include: County Treasurer — Michael A. Kim-

Hotly contested races highlight county primary

Tracy Dias wins Handicap

Tracy Dias and Freedom To Be captured their respective divisions of Sunday's Memorial Day Handicap at Ruidoso Downs.

Both gave the holiday turnout of 6,680 fans a run for their money. The two came from well off the pace to get the job done.

In the first division of the 5 1/2-furlong spin, Tracy Dias really turned in an awesome performance. The colt made his first outing since Oct. 19, got away as an even-money favorite under a stiff 123 pounds, and picked off his foes one-by-one while rallying out of sixth place.

Jockey Leroy Coombs had little more to do than steer Tracy Dias in the right direction, and tap him a few times in the upper stretch. He pulled away with great authority as the game Trukin' Louie, who was close to the lead down the backstretch, found himself spent in the final yards.

Tracy Dias, the property of Latane Stevens of Lamesa, Texas, circled the course in a brisk 1:07 1/5 seconds and paid $4 to win, $3.20 to place and $2.80 to show. His share of the $5,200 purse came out to $3,120, and this boosted his career income to $74,138.

Trukin' Louie, piloted by Tony Trujillo as an 8-1 shot, dished out mutuels of $8.20 to place, $5.60 to show. Maggie Burner came from well off the pace to nail down third and return $4.40.

In the second installment, Mist A Dance had the makings of a sure winner as she flew down the backstretch with a fat lead of about three or four lengths. Coombs was aboard the gray filly. The public choice, Curra Call, had plenty of lick going around the first turn, but was obviously in no position to hang onto Mist A Dance's burning pace.

The latter suddenly lost all chance of victory by taking a wide turn into the stretch and breaking stride. Freedom To Be, directed by Willie Lovell, came flying out of the pace and took command early in the straightaway. Henow, an 11-1 outsider, also rushed up to bicker for the lead.

Freedom To Be dug in grimly and fought off the assault, winning by a neck in a clocking of 1:07 4/5 seconds. The payoffs were $18, $7.40 and $4.20. The gelding is owned by June Allen of La Mesa, N.M.

Henow refunded $9.80 and $5.20. Mist A Dance recovered well enough to take third, paying $3.60. Curra Call, much to his credit, raced evenly in the second half of the sprint and salvaged fourth.

Polls open 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Polling places for tomorrow's primary election will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. according to county clerk Barbara Lovelace.

Members of precinct boards will be at each polling location to assist registered voters with the voting machines. Those wishing to know what precinct they are registered in, should contact the county clerk's office, 648-2831, in Carrizozo.

Polling locations are as follows:

- Precinct 1 — Capitan, Capitan Fair Building
- Precinct 2 — Nogal, Nogal Fire Station
- Precinct 3 — Carrizozo, Otero County Electric Co-op Bldg.
- Precinct 4 — Carrizozo, County Commissioner Room at the courthouse
- Precinct 5 — Corona, Corona Village Hall
- Precinct 11 — Ruidoso, White Mountain School
- Precinct 12 — Angus, Bonito Fire Station
- Precinct 13 — Ruidoso, Ruidoso Village Hall
- Precinct 14 — Ruidoso, Municipal Airport
- Precinct 15 — Ruidoso Downs, Ruidoso Downs Village Hall
- Precinct 16 — San Patricio, San Patricio School
- Precinct 17 — Hondo, Hondo School

According to Ms. Lovelace, ballots should be counted and results of the election determined by 9:30 p.m. tomorrow.

There are a total of 4,588 voters registered for the election — 2,520 Democrats, 1,651 Republicans and 207 No Party's.

Nonresident fishermen game warden's nightmare

The biggest problem with trout fishing in the Ruidoso area facing Game and Fish officers is nonresidents buying resident fishing licenses.

"The law stipulates that a person must live in New Mexico a minimum of 90 days to qualify for a resident license," Tim Barracough, resident G & F officer, said, "and there is no way around that."

"As unpleasant as it is to arrest a summer resident here for fishing with a resident license, and the animosity it creates, the residency requirement will be totally enforced."

Temporary, or summer residents, are persons who maintain their home, and are registered voters, in a state other than New Mexico.

Even those who live in Ruidoso and area for six months of a year and who list a residence in another state as their permanent residence are required to buy a nonresident license.

"A nonresident fishing license is $10," Barracough said, "while the resident fee is $5.50. A nonresident fishing with a resident license can be fined up to $300 and the law puts the minimum fine, for any fishing violation, at $25 plus the usual $10 court costs."

In case of any doubt, Barracough said, "We follow certain procedures to determine if a person is a resident of New Mexico." These steps, he said, were infallible.

Confusion exists among many nonresidents who own homes and pay taxes in New Mexico, who, without checking the regulations, are of the opinion that they are entitled to resident privileges.

"If a person can't immediately prove residency," Barracough said, "he is a suspect. All bona fide state residents have this proof and usually carry it with them."

Recent fishing violations brought to Magistrate's Court in Ruidoso include:

Willie Mandellin, Ruidoso, fishing at Alto Lake with 2 poles in one pole water. Fined $15 plus cost $10; William Russ, Ruidoso, false statement to secure resident license. Fined $15 plus $10 cost; Lance Fasnacht, Ruidoso, false statement to secure resident license, fined $30 plus cost $10; Jim Knight, Ruidoso Downs, false statement to secure resident license, fine suspended, cost $10; Roy Black, Ruidoso Downs, false statement to secure license, fined $15 plus cost $10; John F. Frye, Ruidoso, false statement to secure resident license, fined $25 plus cost $10; Victor Baca, El Paso, Tx., fishing with 2 poles in 1 pole water, fined $25 bond forfeited; Ernesto Avalos, La Mesa, N.M., fishing in closed water area posted, $25 bond forfeited; Luis Chavez, Roswell, attempting to exceed bag limit, posted $25 bond forfeited; Sammy Saavedra, Albuquerque, fishing with 2 poles in one pole water, posted $25 bond forfeited; Hector Lucero, Albuquerque, allowing a minor to fish without a license, $35 bond forfeited; James Hpalito, Ft. Bliss, Tx., allowing a minor to fish without license, $10 bond forfeited; John Ramsey, Roswell, fishing without valid NM license, fined $5 and cost $10; Samuel Williams, Holloman

Let's show our colors urged by garden club

For several years the Ruidoso Garden Club has collected hanging baskets from local businesses, repotted them with petunias and delivered them to owners. It will be impossible for the club to do this again this year but they would like to urge the owners of these baskets to fill them with flowers and rebag them. Many visitors and local people have expressed pleasure because of the lovely addition they made to our main street. Since this is our Bicentennial year, the club suggests that you decorate your home or place of business with red, white and blue flowers to carry out a patriotic theme. If you purchase bedding plants already in bloom you can have instant beauty and color in your hanging baskets. For reds try cannas, geraniums, petunias, phlox, poppies, anemones, sweet william, verbena and zinnias. For whites use Alyssum, Chrysanthemum, candytuft, daisies, petunias, phlox, poppies, verbena or zinnias. For blues use ageratum, asters, canterbury bells, cornflower, delphinium, larkspur, lobelia, salvia and scabiosa.

The Ruidoso Garden Club hopes you will be inspired to try one of these ideas to make our main street beautiful and colorful again this year.

Cub Scouts meet

The Cub Scouts held their final pack meeting before the summer break on May 29th. In conjunction with the theme for May, "Save Our American Resources", Jim Paxon, from Smokey Bear Ranger Station, gave a slide presentation on Wildlife Conservation and Forest Fire Prevention.

An awards ceremony followed the program. The following boys received awards: Craig Carson, one year pin; Richard Ankian, Gold Arrow; Keith Pipkin, Naturalist; Shane Watts, Athlete; Willie Dean, two year pin; Bobby Dominguez, Sportsman; Barry Miller, Wolf and Chuck Leeling, Bear.

Two boys also received the Arrow of Light award which is the highest award in Cub scouting. They were Keith Pipkin and Ezelle Clarke.

Den flags were made and presented by Sylvia and Larry Roberts. The Honor Den Award was won by Den Two.

A skating party will kick off the summer activities on June 28th at 1:00 p.m.

LORETTA [POLLY] MILLER, a nurse at Mescalero Hospital, receives service award.

PHS nurse receives award

Loretta (Polly) Miller was honored at a ceremony in Washington, DC, on May 14 when she received the Public Health Service Superior Service Award.

Only five other nurses in Public Health Service received the award. The plaque read: "For lifelong dedicated service to the Indian people and the Public Health Service in the field of clinical nursing."

Ms. Miller has been a nurse at the Mescalero Hospital for more than 29 years. When she first began her career at the hospital they were still in the old facility which was more than 50 years old at the time. A new hospital was built eight years ago at a cost just under a $1,000,000.

Ms. Miller is still going strong in her career as a nurse and said that she is a long way from retirement. Her expense paid trip to Washington to receive her honor was her first trip there.

The honor bestowed on Ms. Miller brought this comment, "It is good to know that you haven't been spinning your wheels all those years."

Australian makes tour

Australian Jack Brown chose this year to make his first visit to the United States because it is our Bicentennial year and also the 100 year anniversary of Little Big Horn.

Brown has been avidly interested in American Western history since his childhood and can put most Americans to shame in his knowledge of our western history. He won a car on an Australian quiz show because of this knowledge.

Brown hails from Brisbane where he is with the Queensland State Health Department. He took American History while he was in college but has pursued his interest in our western heritage over the years.

His tour is a two month tour and he is visiting many places of interest. On his schedule was a tour of Lincoln. His main interest in Ruidoso was because of our quarter horse racing. Racing is a big sport in Australia and they do have quarterhorses there but there is no quarterhorse racing at this time because of a law that a race must be at least a half mile in order to bet on it.

Brown said that when legislation can be changed in Australia, he feels quarterhorse racing will become a big sport there.

He is also interested in having museum pieces pertaining to our western history brought to Australia for the fair that is held in Brisbane each year and draws over one million people.

"Bonanza" is one of the most popular TV shows there. There has also been an interest in Dude Ranches or what is called stations there. Brown said that he found them to be too expensive and luxurious. His feeling is that people would like them to be more authentic so that you really could "rough it" while there.

The first half of Brown's two month tour is nearly over and he is looking forward to the next month and the other places of interest on his tour.

MAN FROM DOWN UNDER. Australian Jack Brown visited our Senior Citizen facility here while on a Bicentennial tour of the U.S.

Dresses come in many lengths these days. A recent shopping spree proved this to me. From several inches below the knee — to the knee — to above the knee. It's frustrating! No wonder women wear pants or long skirts and hide their legs — they can't decide what length a dress or skirt should be.

Pants may not be as feminine and some men still like to see women's legs, but they sure are comfortable and you don't have to worry about what length to wear.

Saw Margie and Jim Hine at lunch the other day and Margie is bubbling because her grandbaby is coming to see her this week. Pam, their daughter, is bringing Jason for a week long visit. Jason is eleven months old now and Margie says the visits just aren't often enough. The Hine's have two daughters, Pam, who is married and teaches school in Sudan, Texas, and Cathy, who is following a career in the Navy.

Cathy is stationed in Western Australia now.

Mary Watts was by the News office the other day. After many years as a nurse at the Ruidoso Hospital she is busy opening a shop here. The shop will be unusual as she will be selling women's and children's clothing that has been worn — cast offs — tired of's — outgrown items of apparel that will be sold on consignment. Mary and husband, Tll, will be off to the Lions convention in Roswell May 3rd, 4th and 5th.

Bobbie, the bookkeeper at the News office, has decided to get her head out of the books. We have a new bookkeeper joining us, George Hansell who retired from the oil business and moved to Ruidoso with his wife, Hazel, two-years ago, will have "his head" in the books now.

We will miss you, Bobbie! Welcome to the "Funny Farm" George!

Turf Club pleasing spa

BY BILL WILSON
Staff Writer

Whether your horse wins, places, shows or also runs... you are sure to pass a pleasant afternoon viewing the races from the All-American Turf Club at Ruidoso Downs Race Track.

The semi-private club, operated by manager Bill Thomas, with Ron Rosa as assistant manager, is open to the public on a limited basis. Holders of season box tickets and their guests occupy their assigned areas with excess seating available to the public daily.

When asked why the Turf Club was built, president and general manager of Fortuna Corporation, Al Rosa, said, "The demand for this type of facility was so great that it became necessary to build finer accommodations for the public."

Opened in 1972 as part of a $670,000 renovation of the grandstands, which quadrupled the seating capacity at the track, the club is located on the upper level with a seating capacity of 575. Approximately 200 more seats are in the dining area, served by closed circuit television. Food preparation is headed by Jesus (Coco) Hernandez, chef at both Ruidoso and Sunland Park. "We're proud of the food served in the Turf Club," Rosa said, "and we have had some wonderful comments from our patrons."

In addition to the box seats and quiet dining area, bars and wagering windows are located on both levels of the club area for the convenience of patrons.

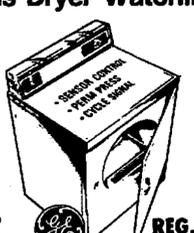

"We have an extensive waiting list for box seats," Rosa said, "and we also have plans for expansion, depending upon financial conditions."

Future plans call for additional seating for 800 in the area over the paddock, a sundeck, closed circuit TV viewing room, additional wagering windows, box seats and enlarged kitchen and dining areas.

Should you have the opportunity to visit the Turf Club, you will be greeted and escorted to your table by hostess Sandy Gladden.

A far cry from the old leaky-roofed grandstands that existed prior to 1972, a beautiful spot for an enjoyable afternoon of racing in the cool pines, the All-American Turf Club is an important part of the warmth, congeniality and hospitality existing at the Ruidoso Downs Race Track.

Turf Club pleasing spa

BY BILL WILSON
Staff Writer

Whether your horse wins, places, shows or also runs . . . you are sure to pass a pleasant afternoon viewing the races from the All-American Turf Club at Ruidoso Downs Race Track.

The semi-private club, operated by manager Bill Thomas, with Ron Rosa as assistant manager, is open to the public on a limited basis. Holders of season box tickets and their guests occupy their assigned areas with excess seating available to the public daily.

When asked why the Turf Club was built, president and general manager of Fortuna Corporation, Al Rosa, said, "The demand for this type of facility was so great that it became necessary to build finer accommodations for the public."

Opened in 1972 as part of a $670,000 renovation of the grandstands, which quadrupled the seating capacity at the track, the club is located on the upper level

with a seating capacity of 575. Approximately 200 more seats are in the dining area, served by closed circuit television. Food preparation is headed by Jesus (Coco) Hernandez, chef at both Ruidoso and Sunland Park. "We're proud of the food served in the Turf Club," Rosa said, "and we have had some wonderful comments from our patrons."

In addition to the box seats and quiet dining area, bars and wagering windows are located on both levels of the club area for the convenience of patrons.

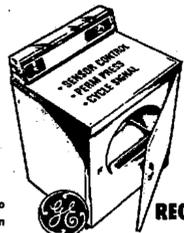

"We have an extensive waiting list for box seats," Rosa said, "and we also have plans for expansion, depending upon financial conditions."

Future plans call for additional seating for 800 in the area over the paddock, a sundeck, closed circuit TV viewing room, additional wagering windows, box seats and enlarged kitchen and dining areas.

Should you have the opportunity to visit the Turf Club, you will be greeted and escorted to your table by hostess Sandy Gladden.

A far cry from the old leaky-roofed grandstands that existed prior to 1972, a beautiful spot for an enjoyable afternoon of racing in the cool pines, the All-American Turf Club is an important part of the warmth, congeniality and hospitality existing at the Ruidoso Downs Race Track.

Gary Myers — a saddle painter — and more.

BY JERRY SHAW
Staff writer

MYERS relaxes beside one of his paintings — a watercolor of the Polar Bear.

Known as saddle painter, Gary Myers now finds the Pueblo Indian to be his favorite subject. He likes human subjects and chose the Pueblo Indian because they haven't changed their identity and their own culture.

"Their simplicity is what is beautiful about them. In their dances they are not flamboyant and fancy but simply wear an old blanket," Myers said.

Painting saddles consumed Myers for several years. He found a saddle to be an interesting subject because each one is an individual. "Saddles are like people," he said, "and they have many different planes of leather."

One of his more recent saddle paintings is featured on the cover of the current Quarter Horse magazine. It is a painting of a jockey saddle.

Water color is his favorite medium. He finds it to be a spontaneous medium and fun to work with. He also does oils and sculpture.

Myers works mostly from photographs. He does his own photography so that he will know his subject. He prefers working by this method so that he can invent, change and create his own composition.

Moving here about a year ago, Myers chose Ruidoso because of its beauty and its proximity to the things he likes to paint.

Prior to their move here, Myers and his wife, Mary, and two daughters lived in Oklahoma City where he was an art director for an ad agency.

"We moved here as typical Okies," Myers said. They sold their home, cars and furniture and with a pickup, U-haul trailer and $500 moved to Ruidoso. When asked if they had regretted giving up a secure job and comfortable home to come here, Myers said, "Not one bit."

After receiving his degree from Oklahoma State Tech in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, he taught art there for five years. Then he was an illustrator and designer for seven years. After free lancing for awhile he became the art director for the ad agency.

Now he devotes all of his time to the world of art. When asked if he missed teaching, Myers said, "No, teaching was a part of my growth, but I am doing what I really want to do here."

About 60% of an artist's income is spent in traveling and promoting his works. He will show at the Nebraska Land Days Professional Art Show next month. His next show will be the Best of the Southwest Show in Austin, Texas.

Another show he participates in is the Saddleback Western Art Show in Santa Ana, California. He will send 15 or 20 good paintings to that show. There are others but he does try to be selective in the shows he attends.

Another endeavor that keeps an artist busy is commissions. Myers is presently working on a commission from Kerr-McGee. They have commissioned him to do eight paintings of people who work for them. He has traveled over 3000 miles taking photographs of his subjects. One of the paintings is of an eight year old Indian girl whose father works in a uranium mine owned by the company.

Another recent commission, that he is enjoying, is for a company in Ardmore, Oklahoma. They commissioned six artist to do two paintings each of an Indian headdress. Myers has done the Klowa, Roach and Eagle Feather War Bonnet. The paintings are being toured around the country and shown in different museums. They are presently hanging in the museum in Ft. Sill, Oklahoma.

Another means of exposure to an artist is to reproduce an original. The prints are signed and numbered and enable people to have a piece of an artist's work at a much lesser price. Myers recently reproduced a four foot painting called "Dance of the Mountain Spirit" in a smaller size print.

Mary, his wife, has now opened an art gallery here. Myers has just completed a studio at his home so he may spend more time with his painting and sculpturing. His major interest is to promote art in Ruidoso.

For recreation the family enjoys fishing in our nearby lakes and the river. Recently, Myers stepped out on the deck of their home and called to his wife to join him. She was puzzled until he told her he just didn't want her to forget how much beauty we have to enjoy here.

He doesn't forget. They have no regrets. Ruidoso is where they want to live.

THIS PAINTING is on the cover of the current issue of the Quarter Horse Magazine.

Restaurateurs meet Tuesday

Restaurant owners in the Ruidoso area are invited to attend a special meeting tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. in the Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce building.
 Guest speaker for the meeting will be Howard Cowper, executive vice president of the New Mexico Restaurant Association. Cowper will speak on minimum wage laws, sanitation regulations and general topics pertaining to the restaurant business.
 "One of the main purposes of this meeting is to see how local restaurant owners feel about joining together to form an association," restaurant owner Pete Keegan said.
 Keegan said he will introduce a plan for a bad check and counterfeit money alert system among restaurant owners and broach the subject of a possible volume buying program.
 "Because Ruidoso is such a small town many suppliers feel they have the restaurant owners over a barrel when it comes to prices," he said. "If we can band together, maybe we can get a little more bargaining power with suppliers."

Designed around a "4-story" garden.

This natural-cedar custom home provides separate levels for each of 4 basic family activities. But its most striking feature is a large central atrium — a 22-ft.-high, year-round garden court which faces the entry-level foyer, but can be seen and enjoyed from every level.
 The entry level also includes garage, large game area, storage room and half bath. Four steps up are the dining area, kitchen, laundry and family room. Level 3 is devoted to a formal living room, located in the center of the illustration above; 4 bedrooms and 2 baths occupy the 4th-level quiet zone.
 Containing more than 3,000 sq. ft., plus garage, this made-to-order plan is a dramatic example of the design flexibility inherent in our pre-cut, engineered homes. Send $2 for Planbook and design kit.

THE MAKINGS OF A GOOD JUDGE

MEET THE BILL PAYNE FAMILY:

The American people have shown their concern for leniency in the courts. Although all men are innocent until proven guilty, the rights of the aggrieved must also be protected.

Bill G. Payne is dedicated to the firm and faithful observance of the law. In his many years of experience as judge, assistant district attorney and lawyer, Mr. Payne has acted as a prosecutor and defense attorney. The job of District Judge is too important to be given to just anyone.

On Tuesday, June 1, you can make a difference. Vote for Bill G. Payne. Dedicated to serving all of our people.

CARLSBAD — Maybe a State Department of Overlap should be created. No less than 23 state agencies — court, health, natural and economic resources planning. Among big agencies in the overlapping group are the Highway, State Police, Health-Social Services and Hospitals-Institutions Departments.

The State Planning Office is the umbrella agency for human, natural and economic resources planning. Its boss, Grace Olivarez, brought the 23 agencies together twice to try to create order out of the wasteful hodgepodge. "We discovered a lot of the agencies are doing duplicate planning," she says. "In human resources the HSSD, DHI, Commission on Aging and Human Resources Commission are doing planning in some aspect of services for the aging."

She envisions a depository for all state plans. A retreat to ponder state planning was suggested by an agency, Dr. Olivarez says: "We're toying with the idea of a series of statewide public hearings. People would come in and tell what kind of situation they want to see the state and themselves in in the year 2000 in economic, natural and human resources."

The State Planning Office, a governor's staff agency, was created in 1959. But Dr. Olivarez discovered at a March meeting no one had ever brought together the big group of agencies working in planning. She says: "Everybody wants to reorganize but they want to reorganize the other agencies. The purpose of coordination is to get the most bang out of the buck. Planning should really start at the local level."

SPO Acting Deputy Director Ralph Fraiber said 18 agencies with planning units turned up at a follow-up meeting last week. SPO community development specialist Jim Ray said: "It became obvious that more direction is needed." Some agencies said the SPO should provide the direction.

So the SPO asked agencies to supply these items: A summary of state planning law on each agency; an organizational chart of the agency's planning unit, the agency's annual report and a map of its planning districts." Ray said: "We have the maps but we want to verify if they are correct."

When the data of doubtful use is assembled, Ray said, "We will publish it for anyone who wants it but principally for the planners involved." Planning officers have tried for 17 years since the SPO was created to coordinate wasteful, overlapping state government planning with mixed success.

Dr. Olivarez says: "The Highway Department may have a set of plans for a roadside rest stop. The Forestry Department has ideas for a rest stop in another area. Coordination is needed." She adds: "The next step is to collect plans from the Councils of Government to see that their planning is coordinated with state level planning." Seven area Councils of Government and a San Juan County citizens committee function in planning in New Mexico.

Concerned with bureaucratic red tape, a spokesman says: "If you can point out at least two agencies dealing with the same program area, there is room for inter-agency coordination and cooperation to improve efficiency, cut costs and increase meaningful services to people.

"Don't you think it's time we tried pulling together for a common cause rather than trying to build independent empires?"

Disturbed by the SPO operation, the 1976 Legislature ordered its staff cut to 80 July 1. The peak payroll was 69 a year ago. Personnel total 66 now. Some staffers will be given different titles and kept on the SPO roster. Others will be moved to Gov. Jerry Apodaca's payroll. Still others will be terminated. Lawmakers lowered the SPO budget $70,000 to $1.23 million for next fiscal year. Federal money accounts for two-thirds of the total.

The legislature also directed the SPO not to accept new federal grants after July 1 without express, written approval from State Finance Director Vincent Montoya.

US Rep. Harold Runnels, D-Lovington, told us at Carlsbad Jimmy Carter will not clinch the Democratic presidential nomination before the New York convention. But he says Carter will amass so many delegates before the convention starts that he will move on to cop the top ballot spot. Runnels says Reagan would be the toughest GOP candidate for Democrats to beat in New Mexico but Gerald Ford as the incumbent would be the most formidable Republican choice for Democrats to whip nationwide.

All village fathers in the county should take their budgets, meet with county commissioners and see, if collectively, they can't shave enough dollars from present allocations to insure ambulance service. Not to support private business, but to provide a vitally needed service.

'BIG DADDY' TEDDY

The Hon. Edward M. Kennedy, U.S. Senator, can now claim, among his accolades, the distinction of being "Father of the Year", in this, our Bicentennial Year. . . an honor, it is highly doubtful, that will overshadow his self-professed performance as a swimmer in the tides of Chappaquiddick.

MONTOYA'S BIG EDGE

Whatever it is that Little Joe Montoya has going for him . . . other than dieting . . . in his quest to be returned to the U.S. Senate to enjoy the fruits of his seniority . . . isn't of monumental importance when you consider the voter registration in NM. . . gadzooks, outside of repercussion from muzzling reports of his financial status, he can't lose . . . if he minds his p's and q's.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Capital punishment, as demonstrated in the Philippines, hasn't resulted in any material lessening of crimes so punishable . . . but the shooting of offenders does serve the good purpose of keeping court calendars from being jammed with repeaters.

TO AN OLD MAN

A friend is someone who sees what you really are — all your faults and shortcomings as well as your good side — and still accepts you and loves you.

TO AN OLD MAN

A friend is someone who sees what you really are — all your faults and shortcomings as well as your good side — and still accepts you and loves you.

TO AN OLD MAN

Scuttling around town in a crunched-up Bicentennial Hippie Bug . . . weaving in and out of the traffic like a fly trying not to get stuck in a spider's web, he brings donuts and advice to the people he meets on his route whether they be wealthy, long-haired, hard up, beautiful or poor.

TO AN OLD MAN

His message is simple — just encouragement and faith. "Trust in God . . . hang in there . . . something better is just around the corner and if you need any help, just ask and I'll be there."

TO AN OLD MAN

"Naive? Foolish? Senile? He's been called all these things and yet, when he gives you that secret wink of his across a room of people laughing at his antics, one glimpses a light of deep understanding in his mischievous eyes.

TO AN OLD MAN

If only more people could be that kind of "senile."

GOOD WEATHER BLUES

There's absolutely no truth in the rumor . . . that sunny skies, siestas inducing mid-day temperatures and delightful moisture-free days are upon us. . . that A. A. Pritchett looks out of his living room window every morning and says: "Phooey . . . another beautiful day."

GIRL WATCHIN' TIME

All of us guys whose amorous proclivities are more relegated to memory than to actually can look forward, in the coming weeks, to having our recollections jogged . . . but good.

Now . . . and I don't want you rushin' up to Folly and spillin' the beans . . . comes to mind Al Dillingham . . . who keeps a sharp eye peeled for details . . . and attributes . . . being displayed by some of the fair sex. Al was . . . from a vantage point against a cafe wall, on a breezy day, enjoying the scenery . . . so to speak . . . provided by the plentiful pulchritude passing. Al didn't say much . . . his expressions alleviating the need for verbal interpretation . . . until one blabbed . . . there's than simply endowed in all regions . . . included neither . . . blossomed by AF's opinions . . . as he ogled the expanse of flesh . . . visible and ill-concealed . . . was shook . . . shook to the point where he took his cigar from his mouth . . . shook his head . . . and muttered: "Why?"

Which, for a guy who spends a lot of time pondering imponderables, is somewhat surprising . . . in order to maintain his status quo as a man of discernment . . . the least he could have said was: "What's that?"

CAPTURING THE PAST

"I'm sure you've all seen the movies glorifying Pat Garrett for killing Billy the Kid . . . well, let me tell you, I've interviewed dozens of people who personally knew Garrett, and not one had a good word to say about him."

The speaker was Eve Ball, historical author and lifelong Lincoln County resident. Her captivated audience, a class of Ruidoso High School students who were studying the Lincoln County War.

For 45 minutes Ms. Ball spoke to the class on her childhood experiences and life in the early days of the area — her relationship with "Uncle John" Chisum . . . the fierce battle between Chisum's ranch hands and the Mesquero Apaches at the site where Nob Hill School now stands . . . the violent law of the West where only the strongest or best-armed men survived.

"Billy the Kid was just a ratchband pawn in the Lincoln County War," Ms. Ball remembered. "In those days if you worked for a man you were loyal to him . . . loyal to the point where you fought and died for him. That's how he got involved in the whole thing."

While she spoke to the wide-eyed crowd at the Ruidoso Public Library, librarian Monese Barron stood in the background recording the irrefragable tales of the past on tape.

The discussion was a first in what Ms. Barron hopes will be a series of talks by the area's older residents on what Lincoln County and the Ruidoso area were like in the past. She is currently trying to schedule other historical talks by long time residents . . . talks which will be open to the public and will be recorded and filed at the library for future reference.

generation are one of the few factual remnants of our past. Not only do their memories serve as a window into history, but their experiences provide a mirror for the present and the future.

Once they are gone, the past will be left to the distortion of second-hand historians. If their memories are not preserved today a vital page of history will be lost forever.

This lecture and recording project gives older persons the opportunity to share the wisdom of their years with the upcoming generation. We can all profit from their experience.

If you have a portion of history you'd like to preserve, or if you know of someone who does, contact Monese Barron at the library, 257-4335.

Dear Editor:
This letter is to the concerned citizens and members of the Ruidoso Hondo Valley Chamber of Commerce.

In recent weeks there has been quite a controversy among the motel owners and operators, concerning the reservation service through the WATS line, a toll free service.

Until a few weeks ago the WATS line was paid for by the participating motel and chamber members in the surrounding area, most of them paying $20 per month. It was subsidized with part of the 2% lodgers tax. This tax is levied on the motels by the state, at the option of the local city council, with a portion to go to the Chamber of Commerce for advertising and promoting the Ruidoso area.

Since the tourist foots the full bill for the lodgers tax, I feel they should have the opportunity to benefit from it. At present this is not the case, as I will explain later.

Getting back to the controversy, and the reservation service, a number of the motels began dropping their membership to the WATS line when it became obvious that few were benefiting at the expense of all.

At a recent board meeting the president appointed a committee of three, from the board, to contact the motel owners and gather information concerning their grievances about the reservation service. At the following meeting all three gave the report that there was a feeling of partiality being shown to a certain few motels. At the same meeting after a short discussion, the board voted unanimously to continue the reservation service, even though only about 25% of the motels were definitely for it. This gives us room for thought.

The motels wishing to continue the WATS line will pay for it, plus one-half the salary of the girl to answer the line. The balance of her salary is to be paid for out of Chamber monies. Chamber monies will also be used to advertise the WATS line. There are over 300 Chamber members, also there is a small percentage of the motels who collect the lodgers tax and pay it, even though they do not belong to the Chamber of Commerce. To me they should all be considered when it is their money that is helping to advertise the WATS number and to help pay the salary of the lady who answers it.

Our Chamber board (that you and I have elected) has passed a resolution that if someone calls in on the WATS line (a toll free number and advertised as such) and asks for a motel that is not paying directly to the WATS line, that person will be refused a reservation on the toll free number. They will be told to call the motel of their choice direct. These quite often are regulars to our area and in a roundabout way are helping to pay some of the cost of this number. These regular Ruidoso visitors are our best advertisement for the area. When they receive this kind of response from our Chamber of Commerce it is very poor advertising. These people are not altogether calling the Chamber of Commerce for a reservation. They are calling the Chamber partly because it is a free call, and justly so, since in a roundabout way they are helping pay for it, and should not be discriminated against for using it.

My reason for not participating in the WATS line and reservation service, is, in my opinion, it has been operating on a partiality basis, and at present I have no reason to believe it can improve much in the future with its existing rules.

I personally know most of the Chamber board members, and respect them. I am hoping they will take a long hard look at the existing situation, and in time find a suitable solution, that will be to the benefit of all concerned, or completely do away with the reservation service.

And doesn't have a cent to show for it!

And Carol is just a minimum wage earner. Earning far below what the people in Ruidoso earn.

But, let's take Carol's modest income of $4,784 a year. If, over the last four years, she had put only $30 a month into a Ruidoso State Bank Savings Account she would now have $1596.51 in savings. That's something to think about.

Carol's no different than you or I. Saving is something we put off, because it's more fun to spend. That's why it's so important to put a little away each month. So you'll have something when the important things come along.

And the place to watch your money grow is at the Ruidoso State Bank . . . where you get the most for your savings dollar . . . with the "Incomparable Five Savings Plan."

The Dreamer

BY DANNIE STORM

The Algerita Blooms
That little bush of solid golden yellow that you see flashing and shining amongst the pines and cedars, or standing all alone like a sentinel on a little rocky bluff, or maybe in an open space along the river — that will be the Algerita in full bloom. This year — like all the blossoms — the Algerita is putting on a special display. You have to look twice to believe your eyes. This is an extremely hardy plant, with strong roots able to reach deep for moisture in dry years. So now with the extra spring moisture the Algerita has sent forth as rich and full a display of blossoms as I can remember.

The Algerita gets its name from the Spanish "Algritas" meaning "Little Sours" or "Little Sour Berries". This bush belongs to the holly family, having similar leaves with small spines on the corners like holly. When ripe, the berries are a bright scarlet-crimson red. They grow thick on the bush like the blossoms, and have a hollow space on the inside. On account of this, when the sun shines on the bush and you are on the other side, you can see the light shining through. And bright red berries look as if they are lighted from the inside.

These berries are very sour. When I first came here we made a sort of lemonade from the berries. With all their sourness, they have a grand flavor all their own, and are great for jelly. You can mix them with apple or other fruits.

It has always been a wonder to me how the berries can be so sour and the blossoms so sweet. Does it not seem that some of the sweetness of the blossom would find its way into the fruit?

Down on the lower slopes of the foot hills, the Algerita bushes grow in little groves, and you can smell the fragrance on the wind for miles. Something like acacia trees in Australia.

Usually, May is a dry month. Sometimes in years past when the world was powder dry, you would be walking on the hillside and suddenly the honey-like fragrance of the Algerita would drift to you and it was like inhaling a bit of sweet nourishment.

This year, the May air is balmy and moist and the Algerita fragrance is floating on the air and you can taste the essence of the blossom honey as it drifts in the breeze.

Three Cheers For Ruidoso High School

I have always been proud of Ruidoso High School. The teachers and coaches are dedicated and the students are all-around good young people. The athletes are true blue sportsmen, and I was pleased to see how well they did in the district meet. I see where my little next-door neighbor, Tony Carrillo, scored in the mile and the two mile. It takes a first class ridge runner to do that.

I wish the graduates all the happiness and success in the world. They have a good beginning in life now, and will go on to greater joy in serving our country and God.

Willie Magoosh

When I heard that my boyhood friend, Willie Magoosh Jr., had been called home by our Lord, many a happy memory came to mind. It seemed I could hear once again, the beautiful and sacred chanting of the Mescalero Apache Indians as they sang their all night songs to the beating of the drum. I used to stay at the celebration all four days and nights. Sometimes I would come home and go back, and a few times I just stayed all four days and nights. Sometimes I slept by the fire in one of the little oak branch arbors. But it can get chilly just before dawn at Mescalero, even in July. And Willy sometimes would take me to his house or the family teepee when the nights were cold.

I feasted on the barbecue, Indian bread, and other good victuals; and I would go home with the all night songs still echoing through my mind. After you have listened to this singing a night or two, there comes a most peaceful and happy feeling in your soul that lasts for days, and makes you look forward to next year.

I thank God for Willie and all my good Indian friends; and I know his friends and loved ones will take comfort in knowing that Willie has joined his father and mother and other loved ones in Heaven with our Lord.

Memorial Day
Remember to fly our flag in honor of those who have died in the service of our country in all its wars. And send up a prayer to them in Heaven. And pray that our beloved country may always abide in the grace and the guidance of Almighty God.

SALUTE TO CHAMBER MEMBERS

This is a regular feature in the Monday edition of this newspaper to introduce the members of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce

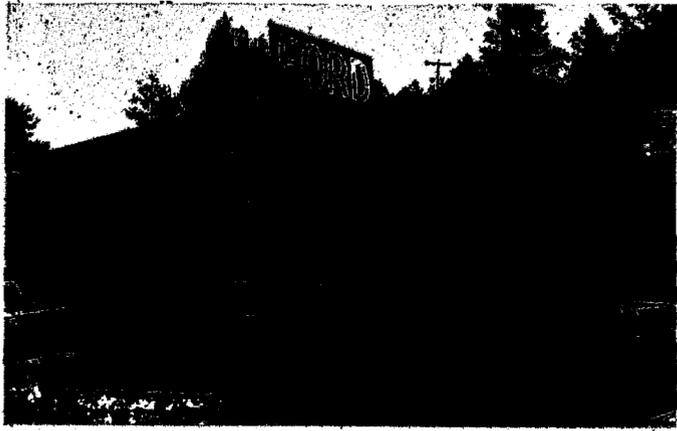

JANE AND ALDEN DEYO, owners of The Aspen Tree on Sudderth are three year members of the Chamber of Commerce, having joined upon opening of their gift shop. The shop features gifts, cards and candles but a visit will convince you there is a lot more. A new service just begun is the imprinting or monogramming of stationary, leather goods or plastic. They offer 24 hours delivery on this service.

GENE BROCK FORD, INC. opened its Ruidoso Branch some three years ago, offering Ford, Mercury and Lincoln automobiles and products and as most progressive businesses, became a member of the Chamber of Commerce upon their opening. Ralph Bellon came to the local Brock branch last July and is active in church and civic organizations. He was formerly Sales Manager at the home office in Alamogordo.

New Ruidoso business

LEONARD PLATERO at work in his craft of making turquoise and silver jewelry. The new business is open in the downstairs part of the Grub Steak on Sudderth. Leonard makes all types of Indian jewelry and also takes custom orders and repairs. He comes to Ruidoso from Canoncito, New Mexico.

Summer school plan announced

Summer classes for grades one through six are planned for July 6-30 at White Mountain School. Admission will be $45 per child, with rates considered for families with more than one child enrolled. Parents or guardians must provide transportation for students.

Students may select an 8-10 a.m., or 10 a.m.-noon class. "If your child has a need for a reading or math program," principal Mike Gladden said, "and you would be interested in this type of program, contact me at White Mountain School, telephone 257-4109."
