'MONEY MARKET IS VERY FAVORABLE' — FOWLER

Trustees OK bond sale

Upon being advised by Darrel Fowler of Stern Bros., of Albuquerque, that "The money market is very favorable", the Ruidoso trustees Tuesday called a special meeting for Aug. 24 at 2 p.m., at Ruidoso village hall for the sale of the final $2 million of the $5 million water bond issue to finance Eagle Creek Dam.

Bill Wolf of Mann Engineering, Roswell, reported that exploratory and bar area work at the dam site are "on schedule" and said "We'll have core drilling completed in six more weeks."

Mann Engineering is presently locating material for dam construction. "The water flow gives us no concern," Wolf said, "and exploratory work toward ultimate dam design is proceeding satisfactorily. The basalt at the site will make an excellent foundation for the dam."

The U. S. Forest Service notified the trustees that the Draft Environmental Statement is to be written this September.

The question of a by-pass road will depend, Wolf said, on "which route will cause less damage to the environment, though we're attempting to settle on a location that will cost the village the least money."

The trustees unanimously approved naming the Eagle Creek Dam for the late Tom W. Jones Jr., pending acceptance of the proposal by the Eagle Creek Intercommunity Water Supply Association.

"This would be a fitting tribute to Mr. Jones," mayor Lloyd L. Davis Jr. said, "to express our gratitude for his 20 years of unselfish service to the Eagle Creek association."

The trustees, subject to concurrence from the Federal Aviation Administration, awarded the contract for taxiway and ramp improvements at Ruidoso Municipal Airport to Armstrong and Armstrong of Roswell who submitted the apparent low bid of $231,084. Other bids received were $282,466.12 from Con-Con, Inc., and $312,500.40 from Brown Construction, with both firms located in Albuquerque.

In other business, the trustees: — Granted a straight five-cent a gallon discount on aviation fuel to Air Ruidoso and Ruidoso Aviation. Taken into consideration were hangar and office rentals paid the village and the need for charter air service.

— Accepted the petition for annexation of approximately one-half acre of land contiguous to Black Forest and Plume Canyon, owned by Tom Gentry, contingent upon acceptance of the petition by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

— Authorized administrative assistant Frank Potter to pursue the offer of Mrs. Carlos Carrmona to provide acreage and facilities for an animal control shelter on the former Coe Ranch.

— Were advised by village manager Jim Hine that the Forest Service "is receptive" to the idea of a land exchange of "some 40 acres" for future landfill use. Hine also noted that the village can continue to operate the present landfill, on Gavilan Canyon Road, through Feb. 24, 1977, under existing arrangements with the State of New Mexico.

— Authorized Jim French of Boyle Engineering, Ruidoso, to re-apply for grants approximating $17,000 to facilitate the study for new jail facilities.

— Were advised by Hine that final figures "on the last leg of the study on the Regional Wastewater System" will be presented at the Aug. 10 board meeting.

— Authorized Hine to comply with the Tort Claims Act and insure all village employees, elected officials and board members for the maximum of $500,000. Police Professional Liability is to be continued at the present rate of $50,000 for each person and $100,000 for each incident.

— Authorized Boyle Engineering to handle engineering in the Second Addition to Paradise Canyon assessment district, in which owners provide their own water and sewer facilities, and the sewer expansion program in Ponderosa Heights.

— Were advised that Lincoln County has granted the village permission to install water mains, as needed, on Gavilan Canyon Road.

— Will name three members from P & Z to serve on the Extra Territorial Zoning Commission with three county residents, not of Ruidoso, to be named by the county commissioners at the Aug. 10 meeting.

— Approved a Ruidoso Volunteer Fire Department request to dispatch men and equipment to Ruidoso Downs and to the race track for fire control when necessary, with the application subject to council approval every two years.

— Appointed mayor Davis to serve the unexpired term of the late Tom Jones on the Eagle Creek Intercommunity Water Supply Association and also appointed trustee George White to a six-year term as an association director, replacing Elmer Pirelli. Davis' term continues through 1980, White's through 1982.

— Upon complaints registered from Town and Country North residents on alleged violations of restrictive covenants, agreed to instruct P & Z to make the restrictive covenants of each subdivision a part of the P & Z Code.

— Authorized a special meeting of the trustees with the P & Z and Ruidoso Board of Realtors for 7:30 p.m., Aug. 11 in the Ruidoso Library.

— Expressed no opposition to a request from the Senior Citizens Center to hold an Oktoberfest fishing tournament at Alto Reservoir, pending clearance of the event through the Eagle Creek Association.

Johnson named Downs trustee

W. R. "Pappy" Johnson was named Monday to the Ruidoso Downs board of trustees by mayor Norman Wheeler, with the appointment confirmed by the board. Johnson was immediately sworn in by mayor Wheeler and took his seat.

Johnson was named to replace Wheeler, who resigned as trustee to assume the post of mayor following the resignation of former mayor J. J. DiPaolo. The terms of Johnson and Wheeler are, Wheeler said, to continue until the village election of March 1978.

Mayor Wheeler named Jack Parnell, two-time former Ruidoso Downs building inspector, as village inspector contingent upon Parnell's approval by the NM Construction Industries Commission.

The trustees took no action on Planning and Zoning Commission appointments but authorized Parnell to "talk to possible appointees".

In other action the trustees: — Acknowledged a request from Ray Reed for village cleanup of an area adjacent to the Mule-O-Rama track, with that event scheduled for Oct. 8-10.

— Authorized $500,000 in combined coverage for police personnel to provide Tort Claims Insurance at a premium of $98 per year for each of the four officers.

— Approved mayor Wheeler's appointments of trustee Albert Richardson as water commissioner and trustee Johnson as street commissioner.

— Authorized mayor pro-tem Richardson to sign checks in the mayor's absence.

— Approved advertising for bids for a new half-ton pickup truck for the water department with trustee Don Clark to prepare the specifications.

— Authorized Municipal Judge Briscoe West to meet with the Ruidoso village trustees July 27 regarding a location for an animal shelter.

— Approved occupational licenses for Lou's Barbeque, Grubstake Grocery, Triple Crown Turf Supply, Slumberland and Stewart Hay and Grain.

Gerald Cady arrested on drug charges

NM State Police narcotics agents Friday arrested Gerald (Jerry) Millis Cady of P. O. Box 153, Alto, at the Inn of the Mountain Gods on drug charges.

Cady, manager of the Artesia Municipal Airport, has been indicted by a Taos County grand jury on charges of possession of marijuana with intent to distribute.

Taos County assistant District Attorney Cliff Johnson Tuesday confirmed Cady's arrest and that he is free after posting a $25,000 cash bond.

SHERI DENNIS — SOAP BOX DERBY WINNER

Sheri Dennis in Akron Soap Box Derby race

Eleven-year-old Sheri Dennis of Ruidoso — winner of El Paso's Soap Box Derby Sunday — will drive her car "Miss Guided Missile", that took her about a month to build, in the national Soap Box Derby finals at Akron, Ohio, Aug. 14.

At El Paso Sheri won the championship and fastest heat trophies on the Fort Bliss track.

"I practiced on the streets near Innsbrook Village," she said, "and only had one practice run at El Paso before the race."

The Ruidoso Optimists Club, Sheri's sponsor, is accepting contributions to help her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Dennis, accompany her to Akron. Bill Shaffer at Gene Brock Ford, or any Optimists Club member, will accept donations.

Sheri follows in the footsteps of her brother Ricky who won last year's derby at El Paso.

County eyes road woes

Wash outs, caused by recent heavy rains and individual use of county roads received attention by Lincoln County Commissioners at their regular meeting Tuesday in Carrizozo.

Jim Wimberly and Wayne Townley appeared before the Commission to request county maintenance of a dedicated road in Fort Stanton Ranchettes subdivision. They objected to a gate installed across the county road by J.J. Di Paolo stating the road was made impassable. Wimberly asked, "How can the county afford to put in a new road with four culverts for just one individual when it's not maintaining the existing road now?" County manager Les Olson was instructed by the commissioners to notify Di Paolo to remove the gate and repair the existing road his equipment has allegedly torn up until such time as easements are traded and realignment of an access road is completed.

Commissioner John Sudderth said he had received "at least 40 calls" on wash outs and discussion was held on priority spots within the county as it operates only six blades with which to repair roads.

Jim Hine, Ruidoso Village Clerk, requested the commission to appoint three members to a special extra-territorial committee for authority over plotting and planning within the three-mile limit bordering Ruidoso. The request was necessary to comply with state statutes, Hine said. The commissioners stated they would make the appointments at the August 10 meeting.

Man arrested for car theft

Thomas Dale Bentley, lately of Ruidoso, was arrested Sunday in Lincoln County by members of the Ruidoso Criminal Investigation Division and Sheriff's Department on a warrant issued by the Flagstaff, Az. Police Department charging grand theft auto.

Bentley appeared before Magistrate W. A. Hart in Ruidoso Monday and was ordered held in Lincoln County Jail pending extradition and in lieu of posting a $10,000 bond.

Commission chairman Roman Nunez made a second request for information on the number of arrests in Corona as the deputy there recently resigned and Nunez wants to apply for Law Enforcement Assistance Administration grants with which to pay a law officer.

In other action, the commission: — Presented an award for first place float to the Lincoln County Bicentennial Commission on its entry in the recent Smokey Bear Stampede.

— Granted permission to Ruidoso to install approximately five miles of pipeline through Gavilan Canyon Road.

— Deferred action on a McKinley County request to lobby at the next session of the NM legislature to change property tax collections from twice a year to once a year.

— Requested a resolution proclaiming "Mollie Bosch Day" in honor of the Lincoln County resident who will be 100 years old August 31.

— Accepted Fidelity Insurance of Roswell tort liability bid of $11,501 subject to the company meeting county minimum coverage specifications. Richard M. Cottrill Agency of Albuquerque bid $12,866.

— Awarded the solar energy bid to Sigma Energy Products of Albuquerque in the amount of $6,900 contingent upon written approval from the District Attorney assuring the Commissioners of the legality of the bid based on added cost for 10% duty time which was originally omitted from the specifications. Southwest Communications bid $9,405 and Southwest Communications and Electronics bid $9,875.

— Agreed to prices set by the state for minimum bids on delinquent tax properties to be auctioned August 31.

— Will recommend appointment of two provider members to a sub-area health planning council.

— Voiced no objections to possible environmental impact on the $5 million Eagle Creek Dam project.

— Dissolved the Lincoln County Municipal Hospital Board due to St. Joseph's Hospital of Albuquerque leasing the facilities and appointing its own advisory board.

— Denied a request from Otero County Electric Co. that $1,200 be paid by the county for moving three utility poles on Gavilan County Road.

Rainbow Futurity Sunday's big race

Sunday's action at Ruidoso Downs will be highlighted with the running of the 13th annual Rainbow Quarter Horse Futurity, a 400 yard sprint that offers a thumping $121,140 to the winner. Post time will be 1 p.m.

Four horses running in June's Kansas Futurity qualified for the Rainbow Futurity. In the June sprint My Easy Credit finished eighth; Swinging Breeze, ninth; Megahertz, fourth and Flight Director, fifth.

"The fact that they qualified is a very good sign for them," Thad Sandstrom, All-American Network president and host of Sunday's regional telecast of the race, said. "These quarter horse races are so fast and over so quickly that the slightest mistake coming out of the gate can cost a horse the race."

"Thoroughbreds have two or three minutes to recover from early mistakes, quarter horses only have about 20 seconds. These four returning horses have obviously been running consistently good to come out as among the ten fastest of a couple of hundred horses that ran in the Kansas and Rainbow Trials."

"They've certainly got as good, if not a little better, chance than the other qualifiers. But, like I said, all it takes is one little mistake and that chance is gone and it becomes somebody else's race."

Specially designated advance wagering windows for Sunday's futurity opened today and will remain open through Sunday's fifth race.

Sunday's Rainbow Futurity slate, with name of horse, time in trials and winnines to date, includes:

- Real Wind, filly, 19.92, $3,815.
- My Easy Credit, colt, 19.93, $19,717.
- Roll A Coin, colt, 19.98, $11,580.
- Kid's Rib, filly, 19.99, $17,533.
- Topless Dancer, filly, 19.99, $20,546.
- Swinging Breeze, gelding, 20.02, $34,823.
- Cutie Kiss, filly, 20.02, $38,248.
- Megahertz, colt, 20.05, $37,680.
- Faint's Deck, filly, 20.07, $34,851.
- Flight Director, colt, 20.13, $16,545.

Trial winners were Real Wind, My Easy

Credit, Swinging Breeze and Roll A Coin.

Betting favorites in the trials were Real Wind, Roll A Coin and Megahertz. In addition to the $121,140 to the winner of the futurity, second pays $58,205; third, $30,194; fourth, $18,006; fifth, $14,551; sixth, $14,187; seventh, $13,823; eighth, $13,460; ninth, $13,096 and tenth, $12,368. In addition the winning breeder will receive $5,000.

The Rainbow Futurity consolation will be run Saturday, with $11,277 to the winner; second, $8,003; third, $6,184; fourth, $5,820; fifth, $4,456; sixth, $4,729; seventh, $4,365; eighth, $4,001; ninth, $3,837 and tenth, $3,274.

Pony Express mail missent

Much of the mail meant for Pony Express delivery via Carrizozo is being sent via Glendale, Arizona, because somebody in New York City goofed.

The New York Times, in an article on the Pony Express run, printed an erroneous Zip Code for Carrizozo thereby causing mail to be sent to Arizona and subsequently forwarded to Carrizozo, according to Ralph Dunlap, Lincoln County Extension Agent.

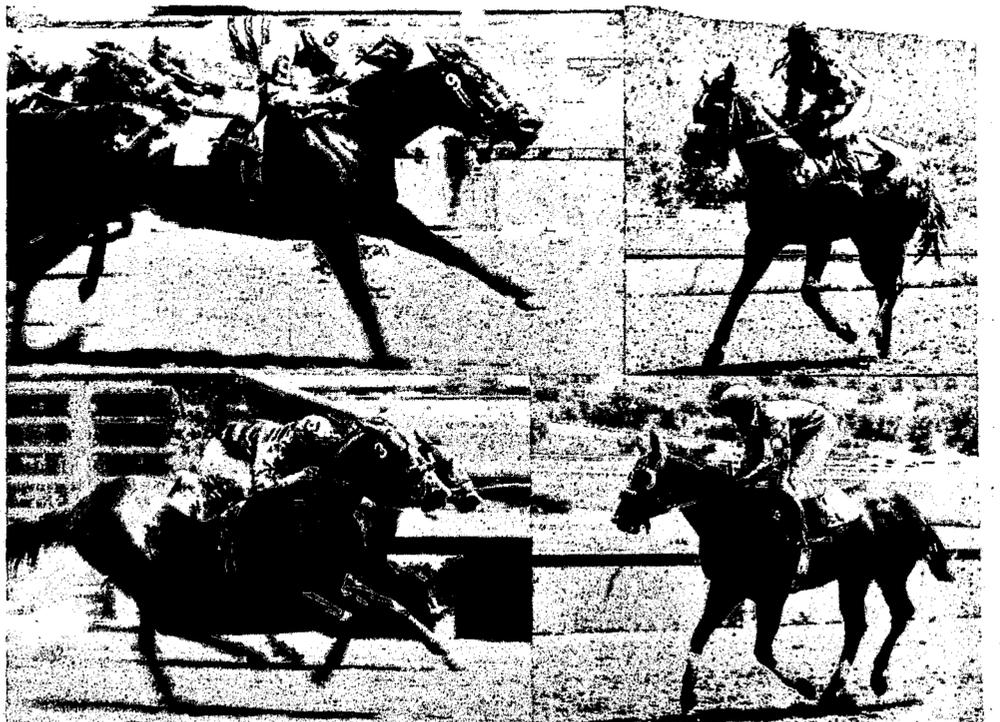

Letters to be carried by Pony Express must bear 13 cents postage plus 25 cents for the official Pony Express Seal. Letters may be mailed, or delivered, to the postmaster at Carrizozo, Zip Code 88301, through Aug. 4.

As of Tuesday, Dunlap said over 1,000 pieces of mail have been received from 19 states and five foreign countries for the 41-mile Pony Express ride.

Express riders will leave White Oaks at 8 a.m. Saturday, August 7 and arrive in Lincoln at approximately 10:30 a.m.

The White Oaks Historical Society will sponsor a chuck wagon breakfast preceding the express run from 8:30 to 7:45 a.m.

GOLD OF THE RAINBOW — The Rainbow Futurity, the second leg of quarter horse racing's Triple Crown, will be run Sunday at Ruidoso Downs. The gross purse is a lucrative $368,784, with $121,140 earmarked for the winner. Here's a composite look at four key candidates: Real Wind (upper left), an undefeated filly who set the top qualifying time of 19.92 seconds for 400 yards; Cutie

Kiss (upper right), who's made $28,248 so far; My Easy Credit (lower left No. 3), who set the second-best qualifying time; and Megahertz (lower right), a winner of almost $38,000 to date.

Continental Telephone announces promotions

CHAMBERS DACY MISNER

M. L. Terry, Division Service Manager for Continental Telephone Co., of the West, has announced the following promotions:
 Cecil Chambers, central office repairman, to outside plant supervisor in Ruidoso;
 Margie Dacy, from state service manager's secretary to administrative assistant in the Ruidoso office.
 Danny Misner, assistant engineer in Ruidoso, to outside plant supervisor at Truth or Consequences;

Gerald Cady arrested

[FROM PAGE ONE]
 Johnson said Cady's arraignment has been tentatively scheduled for 9 a.m., Monday, in Taos and that no trial date has been set.
 The arrest and charges stem from an incident of Oct. 3, 1975, when a drop of a substance alleged to be marijuana was made near Tres Piedras, north of Taos.
 An airplane was seen making an alleged marijuana drop on U. S. Highway 285 just inside the NM border from Colorado.
 The suspect airplane was confiscated and pilot Billy Howard Potts arrested the morning of Oct. 3 at the Fort Sumner airport. Potts, of Salinas, Ca., was charged with possession of marijuana with intent to distribute.
 According to Johnson the grand jury charges against Cady simply say that Cady possessed the marijuana that Potts is alleged to have dropped on the highway.
 Approximately 1,500 pounds of alleged marijuana are involved in the case.

On being a jockey agent

BY JERRY SHAW
Staff writer

Escobar will go on to Sunland as he plans to make a career as a jockey.

Will he continue as Escobar's agent during his career? As long as an agent continues to get good mounts for a jockey this is possible. An agent and jockey stay together through a jockey's career many times.

Richards has been an agent for nine or ten years. Ever since he retired out of the army he has been involved in the race business. He has also been a clocker.

About this time during our interview, Richards jumped up from the table in the horseman's cafeteria, excused himself, and bounded off. A trainer who had joined us explained that it was time for the draw for Saturday's races and that the agents have to be there to see what position the horses drew that his jockey is riding. Another reason for his being there is that any of the horses drawn have "no boy" listed on the scratch sheet, then Richards would start negotiating to get one of his jockeys on the horse.

Knowing the horses is an important phase of being an agent. He watches the horses as they are being galloped and gets to know them because as he said, "Certain boys fit certain horses," and that helps in getting those wins. After all, he works on a commission and the more that jockey makes — the more he will make!

It helps to be a politician and it is important to know the horses. There is no salary, it is strictly commission. These were observations made by Bob Richards, a jockey agent.

What does an agent for a jockey do? He negotiates with the trainers to get mounts for the jockeys he handles. In New Mexico, an agent is allowed to handle two jockeys. This rule is set by the Racing Commission.

Richards handles Victor Escobar and Billy Burress. Escobar is an apprentice but has been winning plenty of races — so many, in fact, that as of next month he will no longer be an apprentice jockey. An apprentice is given a weight allowance and rides lighter, which is an advantage, especially in the thoroughbred races.

"The weight allowance can make a difference," Richards said, "but in Escobar's case I don't think it will make a difference in his wins because he such a good jockey." Escobar is from Mexico and began his career a little over a year ago on the Juarez Race Track. "He is a good boy and sends money back to his folks in Mexico," Richards stated.

Escobar only rides thoroughbreds but Burress, the other jockey handled by Richards, is a quarter horse jockey. Burress will finish out the season here and probably ride the bush tracks in Texas.

Curfew will be enforced

Curfew ordinances in Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs are being enforced, Jane Parnell, Children's Probation Officer, has announced.

The curfew in both villages applies to all children under the age of 18, she said.

The Ruidoso curfew hours are 10 p.m., Sunday through Thursday and 12 midnight Friday and Saturday. The curfew extends to 5 a.m.

In Ruidoso Downs the curfew is effective at 10:30 p.m., each night of the week and extends through 4 a.m.

"The only exceptions are for juveniles in the company of their parents or legal guardians," Parnell said.

Parnell also noted that the Ruidoso ordinance specifies that the parent or legal guardian is liable for curfew violations and that charges can be filed against them if a child in their care is found to be in violation of the curfew.

SCMRC & D meets Tuesday

Linda Carol Roberts-Billy Warren McClellan exchange vows

Before a basket of pink, blue and mint green gladiolus flanked by two fifteen branch candelabra, two baskets of palm greenery and a unity candle, Linda Carol Roberts and Billy Warren McClellan exchanged nuptial vows. The ceremony was held July 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Tahoka, Texas, with Rev. Tommy McKeppen, uncle of the groom, from Grants, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts of Tahoka, Texas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. McClellan of Ruidoso.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown designed and made by her mother. The gown was of Mirormist and Chantilly lace accented with seed pearls with a matching lace hat scattered with pearls.

She carried a French Cascade bouquet of miniature white carnations, white daisies, white sweetheart roses, baby's breath, and French leather greenery trimmed in white satin, with a white gardenia detachable corsage. Along with her bouquet she carried a white inlaid mother-of-pearl Bible which was brought from the Holy Lands by her grandmother.

For something old, the bride wore her great-grandmother's wedding band and something new was her gown. She wore the traditional blue garter and something borrowed was a string of pearls belonging to her grandmother. Her father placed pennies minted in the year of the couple's births in her shoe for good luck.

Maid of honor was Connie Pierce and bridesmaids were Teresa Harrell and Robin Stark, all of Tahoka. They wore long gowns in the bride's chosen colors of pink,

Ricky Stark of Tahoka served as best man and groomsmen were Jory Perea and Colley Parks of Ruidoso.

Traditional wedding music was provided by Mrs. Clay Bennett, organist, who accompanied J. W. Hawkins as he sang "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer" and Buddy Hawkins who sang "Color My World". Both vocalists are uncles of the bride.

A reception in Fellowship Hall followed the ceremony with the couple's parents assisting them in greeting guests.

The serving table was covered with a mint green cloth with a white lace overlay and featured a Victorian candelabrum, holding an arrangement of mint green, pink and blue carnations with blue cathedral-length tapers centering the table which featured a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with pink and blue wild roses.

Teresa Hawkins and Tol Bragg served the guests. Guests were registered by Gwen Sterling and rice bags were distributed by Sherry McClellan, sister of the groom, and Cheri Bragg.

Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. J. A. Peabworth, Jr., Mrs. Jimmy Bragg, Mrs. Roy Stevens and Terri Peabworth.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a mint green gabardine pant-suit and white accessories.

Mrs. McClellan is a 1976 graduate of Tahoka High School. McClellan is a 1975 graduate of Ruidoso High School and is employed by Ruidoso Printing Company. The couple will make their home in Ruidoso.

COLLEGES, PREACHERS AND POLITICS

After the Continental Congress declared the colonies independent and George Washington attempted to prepare for immediate hostilities in New York, various citizens wondered about the men who had taken the drastic step of separation. As so often is the case, many of them were virtually unknown outside of their own states.

One exception was the Rev. John Witherspoon. As president of the College of New Jersey (now Princeton), he had traveled widely and spoken in many Presbyterian churches in his successful efforts to raise money for the college. Even so, the rank and file American knew nothing more of him than they did of most of the other signers of the Declaration.

Witherspoon had come to the colonies from Scotland in 1768. He quickly was sold on the potential of North America and became one of its leading champions.

Since the Presbyterian Church discouraged ministers from engaging actively in politics, Witherspoon concerned himself with his church and college duties. However, his personality was such that he could not stay out of the fray for long; by 1774 he was actively involved. On one occasion he attempted to convince an assembly in New Jersey to declare independence unilaterally; his effort was stopped only by the intercession of Elias Boudinot, also an up-and-coming young New Jersey politician.

Witherspoon's political activity probably prevented the College of New Jersey from being torn apart by internal factions as occurred in other colleges. His prominence in the revolutionary movement also seemed to have a beneficial impact on the attitude and conduct of the 150 men at Princeton. However, when war became widespread, Princeton also faced disruption, as did the other institutions. Even so, during the dark days when Congress had to abandon Philadelphia in the face of British pressures, Congress temporarily moved the capitol of the new nation to the campus of the College of New Jersey.

Witherspoon was one of the few ministers and educators to sign the Declaration of Independence. As such he took a personal risk and involved his college in the struggle. He remained in the Congress from 1776 until 1782 and became one of its most important members. During this period he sat on over 100 committees, including the Board of War and the secret Committee on Foreign Affairs.

In the Spanish Southwest the participation of churchmen in the affairs state was not uncommon. Since the contrast between Spanish colonies and the new American nation was striking, comparison is hard to make. In Spanish New Mexico the Church was simply another arm of the state. The expedition of Dominguez-Escalante to open a land route was a good case in point.

Parsons landmark barn destroyed by fire

BY BILLIE SURMICK
Staff Writer

The old barn at Parsons, one of the last remaining landmarks in Tanbark Canyon near Bonito Lake, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night.

Members of the Bonito Volunteer Fire Department responded to the call at approximately 9:45 p.m. "The fire was man-caused and it was too late by the time we received the call. We stopped it from spreading and stayed on the scene until five o'clock Wednesday morning when it began to rain," John Hall, fire chief, said.

The aged, rustic barn was the meeting place in the early 1900's for dances and community activities for inhabitants of Parsons, New Mexico. More recently, it had been an artist's delight and a haven from the rain used by passers-by.

The Parsons hotel, a few hundred yards west of the barn, burned in 1973. The mill and other buildings which once housed several hundred Parsons residents have crumbled with the passage of time.

During the height of mining activity, Parsons Mining Co. offered $40 round trip excursions from Chicago to Carrizozo to people interested in the mine. The trip included conveyance from Carrizozo to the Parsons hotel where guests could stay for a 15-day limit before returning home.

The Hopeful Open Cut, better known today as Parsons Mine, was opened in 1914 by a 300 foot tunnel to mine silver, gold and lead. At that time, combined assay value was more than $25 per ton.

Today, a deserted two-story lodge, said to have once billeted miners, is the only remaining landmark standing in silent testimony to Parsons — a bustling New Mexico mining camp that is no more.

It's peaceful. It's exasperating. It's anticipating. It's disappointing. It's fishing.

The bait varies as much as the people who use it. Garlic cheese, fire balls, canned corn, Velveeta cheese, salmon eggs, worms and grasshoppers.

A two-inch catch brings whoops of excitement from some and a limit haul brings dead silence from others.

Hook wetters include doctors, writers, housewives, kids, businessmen, retirees and truck drivers.

Angling is done standing up, sitting down, one handed, two handed, no handed, laying down or squatting.

Barring all other differences, fishermen seem to be the same when handing out huge portions of patience and friendliness.

Mescalero Apaches set cattle camp trip, auction

The Mescalero Apache Cattle Growers Tour and Contract Auction Aug. 14. Cattlemen from many areas are expected to attend this unique contract auction sale, says William A. Ljungdahl, Extension livestock specialist at New Mexico State University.

At 7 a.m. buyers and tour visitors will gather at the Association Headquarters in Mescalero for coffee and doughnuts. By 8 a.m. a caravan car will tour representative groups of cattle at three different locations on the reservation. At 11 a.m. everyone will return to the school auditorium for the auction which will be completed before noon.

Steer and heifer calves will be sold in separate lots of 125 head, with delivery starting in October. The buyer of the first lot gets the first 125 steers that are rounded up. Each contract lot will be filled in order until the round-up is completed in early December.

Approximately 1500 steers, 875 heifers, 300 old cows and 30 old bulls will sell. These are fresh mountain cattle and weighing conditions will be favorable for the buyer. The calves are dropped late in the mountains so the steers will probably weigh a little over 300 pounds and the heifers a little under 300 pounds, Ljungdahl says.

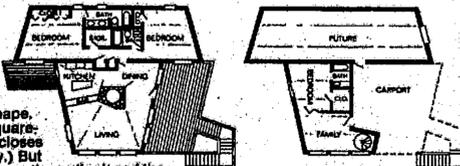

Present home matches view to a "T."

This original design takes full advantage of both a waterfront view and factory engineering.

The primary living area of this unique cedar home angles forward with view windows on all sides — forming the vertical in what is basically a T-shape. (That distinctive, square-topped roof peak encloses the fireplace chimney.) But the bedrooms also share the outlook and the drama, with ceilings that angle upward to a peak of 13 ft. on the view side.

Access is via a lower-level family area and spiral staircase, or an outside stairway to the upper-level deck. Total living area: 1,856 sq. ft., plus 515 sq. ft. of deck. For some 70 other cedar-home designs, send $2 for our Planbook

Inside the Capital by Fred Buckles

SANTA FE — Gov. Jerry Apodaca asked the Rio Arriba County grand jury to investigate the unsolved 1968 murder of jailer Eulogio Salazar of Tierra Amarilla.

Salazar's badly beaten body was found in a car in a ravine west of Tierra Amarilla Jan. 2, 1968, 10 days before he was to testify about being wounded in the 1967 Rio Arriba County courthouse raid. Retes Lopez Tijerina was convicted of assaulting Salazar in the courthouse raid. Gov. Apodaca said no one had asked him for a fresh inquiry of the Salazar murder. He said Tijerina has asked only for the investigation files to be made public. Apodaca said State Police files on the murder will not be made public.

Atty. Gen. Toney Anaya said he will present information to the grand jury. Dist. Atty. Joe Castellano of Santa Fe challenged this move and said it is his responsibility. Apodaca supported Anaya. The governor said his motive in calling the probe is to clear the air. "There is no new evidence," Apodaca said. "I don't think any of us should hold our breath about any new discoveries."

Range caterpillar spraying was finished Friday on 757,000 acres in Union, Colfax and Harding Counties at $1,135,035 cost. The cost was $448,345 for the federal government, $343,345 for the state and $343,345 for the 150 participating ranchers. Also sprayed were 63,000 acres for grasshoppers north of Cimarron between the Cimarron River and the Colorado line north of Folsom in Union County. Cost was $1.20 an acre. Ranchers paid 40 cents each for their share.

State Agriculture Director William P. Stephens said: "There are hot spots in Northern Lincoln County and several thousand acres in Southeastern Union County south of Clayton near the Texas line in the Sedan area." The range caterpillar infestation affected 10 counties in varying degrees — Union, Colfax, Harding, Lincoln, Guadalupe, DeBaca, Chaves, Mora, San Miguel and Torrance.

A Public Service Commission hearing is set August 19 in Santa Fe on the application of Sierra Electric Cooperative, Elephant Butte, for a general rate increase. The Sierra cooperative filed exhibits with the PSC.

The Sierra proposed general service rate: A service charge of $6 a month plus an energy charge of .021 cents per kilowatt hour for the first 500 KWH per month and .021 cents per KWH for all KWH over 500 per month. The present Sierra general service rate: A minimum charge of $4 a month; first 40 KWH per month at 11.5 cents per KWH; next 60 KWH per month at 7 cents per KWH; next 200 KWH at 3.2 cents per KWH and over 300 KWH per month at 2.5 cents per KWH.

A PSC hearing is set Aug. 17 on Lea County Electric Cooperative's rate increase request. It would boost revenue $502,000 a year. The PSC reserved a decision on a rate increase for Southwestern Electric Cooperative, Clayton. A hearing was held June 29 in Santa Fe. Farmers Electric Cooperative, Clovis, sought PSC approval of a $901,000 loan from the Rural Electrification Administration (REA). A hearing had not been set. The money would fund plant expansion and improvements.

Eddie Mendoza, Hachita, Hidalgo County, filed a complaint with the PSC

Columbus Electric Cooperative, alleging overcharges in billings for electricity for irrigation pumps. Columbus Electric Cooperative denied Mendoza was overcharged and said billing errors were corrected. The PSC set a hearing in Santa Fe on Mendoza's complaint.

The highest bid for oil and gas leases in

New Mexico in the State Land Office monthly sale in regular sale oral bidding was $44,000 on a 320-acre tract 16 miles west of Eunice by Belco Petroleum Co., Midland, Tex. The highest bid per acre in regular sealed bidding was $221.24 on a 160-acre tract 26 miles west of Hobbs by Griffin and Burnett Inc., Midland.

Mrs. Cobby McKinney, 36, Clovis, a Reagan delegate to the Republican National Convention, says of Reagan: "I'm attracted to him because of the work he did in California, because he brought the state out of debt and because he put so many people to work that were on welfare." She said Reagan "would delete all of those giveaway programs." Mrs. McKinney's vice presidential choice is ex-Texas Gov. John Connally. "He would help pull some of the Democrats, particularly from this area, the Southwest, since he's a Texan," she says. She predicts Reagan would run well on the East Side if he is nominated for President.

Reagan delegate Sam Laughlin, 73, of Artesia, called Democratic presidential candidate Jimmy Carter "a Southern Pride George McGovern." Laughlin also favors Connally for vice president with Ford or Reagan.

Gov. Apodaca named Delbert Garcia of Santa Rosa, co-owner of Santa Rosa Builders, as Santa Rosa magistrate. Garcia replaces Robert Serrano, 46, of Santa Rosa who was removed by the State Supreme Court on recommendation of the State Judicial Standards Commission. Garcia and Serrano are Democrats. Garcia was at the governor's office Thursday.

A $100,000 suit filed against Rio Arriba County Sheriff Emilio Naranjo and four deputies was settled out of court for $3,000, according to a lawyer for Tomas Velasquez, who filed the suit. The suit alleged negligence and brutality. It alleged four deputies beat Velasquez near Espanola.

OPINION PAGE

editorial

If Gov. Jerry Apodaca is serious about running for a second four-year term, his first campaign step is obvious: wheedle or cajole the next session of the legislature into establishing a tax rate on minerals taken out of New Mexico that will give the State a fair return for the depletion of our resources. — CD

More about the New Army . . . It does offer alternatives. If a GI cannot cope with the system, he can be court-martialed and placed in solitary confinement. If he cannot cope with solitary confinement, he can be "strapped" until he does cope. If he shows sufficient pain tolerance to "settle down," he can be transferred to retraining. Retrained into what is the question. If he cannot cope with this phase of "rehabilitation," reported to be considerably more severe than basic training, he has the option of taking an undesirable or dishonorable discharge . . . to cope with the rest of his life. Remaining time of enlistment eventually has no bearing on retraining placement. One stays in it a minimum of eight weeks — regardless. No doubt GIs can be retrained, but at what price to themselves and at what cost to the tax payers and for what valid reason for short-timers? The defense of our country goes on . . . and on . . . and on . . .

If you run out of cigarettes, don't expect to restock at Modern Grocery. The owner, Floyd Sims, kicked the habit and went out of the cigarette business some time ago because he wants "customers to live longer." Said he loses over $2,000 a year through banning cigarettes from his stock and muses, "as we get older and time draws nearer, we all want to hang on a little longer." Instead of getting a pack of cigarettes, I got read to by Mr. Sims — a recent Reader's Digest article on the horrors of smoking. Long live the man with convictions and the courage to back them up!

During the race crowd rush last week, Norman's Pizza reversed their Open sign for a little breath-catching. Seems the ice machine went out — the cook's arm went out — a non-paying customer went out — the drain system went out — the owners almost went out. While mulling over the wisdom of running this type business, Rose Norman related another memorable day: A man walked in during rush hour and asked to use the phone. Rose said, "Okay, just go ahead and move the dishwasher to get to it." The man was soon-to-be-elected Governor Jerry Apodaca. Some days are like that.

Old friend of mine, Julie, who lives in Colorado Springs recently moved to a house with a yard that had grown like Topsy. After much moaning, groaning and struggling, Julie managed to complete one squiggly swath across the lawn with her push-mower. A young neighbor boy appeared and asked if he could try that "funny looking" mower. Within 20 minutes, kids had lined up down the block to take their turn. Julie allowed each volunteer one round trip across the lawn. The yard was soon neatly mowed and the kids asked if they could come back to do it again next week. Anyone offering odds on Julie's answer?

About four years ago, I was in the pits at the motorcycle races in Erie, Colorado, and witnessed a rider losing control, crashing into the metal railing and having his leg cut off. Throughout each racing season, I heard rumors of Joe Pierce's recovery from the accident, but never did hear what happened to him . . . until last week. A service station manager in Alamogordo handed me a flyer on motorcycle races in La Luz. I asked if they ever had flat track races there and off-handedly inquired if he knew a racer from La Luz named Joe Pierce. "Sure," he said. "he's got his bike rigged up with hand brakes and is racing again. Come on out and see him. . . I sure will."

It's nice to know you're doing a good job and nicer to be told so. Members of the Ruidoso Downs police department were recently complimented on their "courtesy and congeniality" in a letter written by a Texas lawyer who had received a traffic citation on his way through the Village. Officers Mike Graham and John Works investigated the death of a Texas man in Ruidoso Downs and received letters from his widow . . . "You made the moments much easier to bear and I shall always remember you for your concern and thoughtful attention. . ."

WEIRD REACTION

I was surprised to read, in The News' story of the WATS poll, where several business owners felt, since they weren't in the motel business, that the WATS information/registration service did not affect their business.

Gadzooks . . . If the Chamber of Commerce only booked one reservation a day . . . for one family of four . . . or a couple . . . or even a single . . . and said guest was from out of state, that'd be just that many more potential customers that might drop into any business place in town . . . and maybe spend a dollar, or fraction thereof . . . and whatever he spent could just as well have been spent in some other resort area offering a WATS information/registration service.

If a person thinks the WATS doesn't help his business . . . and that the Texans and Oklahomans don't spend any money in town . . . or that the skiers don't spend much . . . I can't help wondering what the reaction would be from the businesses the WATS doesn't help, if the Chamber of Commerce closed . . . and the race track buttoned up . . . and the Apaches decided they'd have less headaches if they closed the ski area.

About the only ones in town that'd benefit from one, or all, of the above would be the Ruidoso Police Department . . . 'cause without all of our visitors keeping the grass from growing through the pavement on Hwy. 37 . . . they'd have more opportunity to make Ruidoso residents more law abiding. . . which reminds me, it's strictly nip and tuck as to who is getting picked up more for speeding . . . our residents . . . or our non-residents . . . and even with such impartiality, drivers still holler.

"Course there's this much about the whole ruckus . . . everyone is entitled to a personal opinion . . . and that's not only good, but will probably eventually lead to solutions for almost any problem . . . from stray dogs to the need for street improvements.

Everyone in Ruidoso is involved . . . everyone from retiree to the newest business man . . . and the whole proposition concerns money . . . with the money, in this case, being the salt that covers up some of the taste that is objectionable in food, to make that food palatable.

PICNICKING FUN TIME

Me 'n m' bride . . . and surely, by now, you know her name's Kay and that she's a Finnlander . . . decided to frequent the Noon Lions Park Sunday afternoon . . . for a moment's respite from whatever it was we needed a moment's respite from . . . and we did pack a picnic lunch for sustenance . . . and for our immeasurable pleasure.

It was while we were unpacking our repeat that we did indeed become the center of attraction for a young couple who pulled onto the parking slab just across the then roily Rio Ruidoso, from the table we'd selected.

Selecting the table wasn't much of a chore . . . seeing's there is only one.

Anyhow . . . from within our cooler we took out . . . a jug of wine, loaf of bread, cheese, wurst and some fruit . . . victuals like that don't take no sweating over a hot stove.

As we spread our rardier upon the newspaper covered table, we could see them seeing us as we were.

Along about the third nibble on the victuals and the second sip from the jug, their curiosity got the best of them . . . and from their vehicle they did disembark . . . and unobtrusively did they amble across the bridge . . . all the time discoursing upon the wonders of nature they were eyeballing.

Once on our side of the stream they did angle off . . . kinda slonchwise . . . so as to pass our table . . . close enough to observe our feast. . . of a sudden they stopped . . . gaped. "I can't believe it," she said. "Must be some kinda kooks," he said. They angled away for a better viewing angle. "There oughta be a law against that," she said. He looked closer. "Why they're drinking . . . right out in public on a Sunday afternoon."

My bride's impish nature came to the fore . . . and rescue. Sweetly . . . oh so sweetly . . . she invited them to sup with us . . . break bread and savor the wine . . . and perhaps discuss the quatrains of Omar the Tentmaker . . . and within a moment . . . we did indeed continue our picnic . . . just the two of us . . . in peace.

EXPLANATION NEEDED

It seems reasonable that court officials who join in plea bargaining that results in reducing a criminal charge owe an explanation to the public.

A case at hand involves the shooting death of an elderly Los Chavez man, T. G. Castillo, last Dec. 30. Daniel Gallegos, 20, was immediately charged with first degree murder.

Now, after nearly six months, Gallegos pleads guilty to a reduced charge of second degree murder. All officials involved, including the district attorney's office, the presiding judge and others involved in the plea bargaining have declined to tell the public why the complaint was reduced. We don't think it is too much to ask for an explanation. —The News-Bulletin, Belen

State Medical Society supports flu program

Dr. Walter Hopkins, President, New Mexico Medical Society, has announced that the Medical Society formally supports the Swine Influenza Program in New Mexico. "The Program to immunize New Mexicans against a potential epidemic of the Swine Flu is well-founded and well-designed," stated Dr. Hopkins. "The Medical Society is urging its members to assist the Swine Flu Program in several ways. First, private physicians are being asked to immunize their private patients with the Swine Flu vaccine. Secondly, physicians are asked to volunteer their time to assist in mass and community clinics in their area."

According to Dr. Hopkins, the first phase of the New Mexico Swine Influenza Program is extremely important. This phase, scheduled to begin in late August, is aimed at protecting the "high-risk" members of the population against influenza. "The high-risk group should be vaccinated each year against influenza," Dr. Hopkins said. "Although this year, with a potential major epidemic of influenza, this protection is especially important to the high-risk population." The high-risk group includes all persons 65 years of age and older, as well as those with heart, lung, kidney disease, diabetes, and other chronic diseases including cancer.

The second phase of the NM Swine Influenza Program is an unprecedented public health effort to prevent an epidemic, or to minimize the illness and death of an epidemic before it strikes," Dr. Hopkins said. "We urge New Mexicans, especially those in the high-risk groups, to obtain their Swine Flu shot when vaccine becomes available."

Flash flood really stocks Red River

A flash flood in a normally dry arroyo swept from 15,000 to 20,000 catchable sized rainbow trout from their hatchery ponds and into the Red River last week.

Richard McCleskey, hatcheries chief for the N. M. Department of Game and Fish, said that the arroyo couldn't handle the minimum one inch of rain that fell in the hatchery area within about a half hour.

"We're estimating that when it went over the ponds that it took about half the fish there with it," McCleskey said. "It may be less, or more, but we won't know for sure until things clear up."

The flood covered 10 ponds, washing out one completely.

"People who have lived there for many, many years can't recall this arroyo's running that high before," he said, "Its drainage only runs for about a mile northwest of the hatchery."

He said it didn't appear that most of the ponds were damaged severely, although they are silted and large rocks were rolled into them, but that questions remain on the piping that feeds and drains them.

"We don't have a dollar damage estimate yet," he said, "and won't until we can dig the pipes out from under the mud. Equipment's there now."

The washout may put a crimp into stocking plans for August, McCleskey said, but unless the loss runs higher than currently estimated it probably will not.

Because of damage to roads and parking areas in the hatchery, anglers should park on the hill above the hatchery and use the south trail into the Red River box.

The fish probably washed from one-quarter mile to three or four miles downstream.

Trainer Gene Tefertiller was all smiles over the weekend. He got the word from one of his owners, Mike Rutherford of Houston, that he'd picked up a major acquisition in the July Selected Yearling Sale at Keeneland, Ky. The colt (as yet unnamed) is by Secretariat, the Triple Crown winner of $1,316,808 and two-time Horse-of-the-Year. The dam is Levee Night, a Royal Charger mare and winner of over $111,000. "Mike told me he had two yearlings in mind when he went to the sale," says Tefertiller. "But I never expected this. He said when he saw this colt he fell in love and it was just something he had to have."

He paid $275,000. Southwest fans will probably get the first peek at the colt in action, according to Tefertiller. "He'll be aimed at the Riley Allison Futurity at Sunland Park next year and then we'll be thinking about the Land of Enchantment Futurity at Raton."

That wasn't all Tefertiller had to crow about. Another Rutherford property, Native Lovin, (this year's $238,000 Riley Allison Futurity winner), took a trip to Raton for the $185,000 Land of Enchantment Futurity trials. The filly romped to a 15-length victory as the heavy favorite. Her 5 1/2-furlong time was 1:04 3/5 seconds — best of the day. "She performed like a dream," says Gene. "Willie (Lovell) said she acted like it was just a morning workout and she wasn't even breathing hard after the race. If she does well in the finale we're thinking about supplementing her to the Arlington-Washington Lassie Stakes at Chicago in September."

Sunday's sixth race produced the third deadheat for win of the season. Five O Five and Dial Jester matched noses on the wire after 550 yards and created a rare double Exacta. Dial Jester and Five O Five, in that order, paid $35.60. Reversed, they paid $47.

Gary Sumpter was returned to duty over the weekend. Gary has been out of commission since June 6 when he suffered a shoulder injury in a fall. But he hasn't been all that inactive. He's been riding some rodeo bulls for the past couple of weeks just to keep in practice. Gary says you only need one arm to ride the bulls.

Hot riding J. C. Wiley picked off a win from two rides on Thursday, scored a win and a second from three trips on Friday and collected two wins from three tries on Saturday.

Special visitors to the track over the weekend included Kathy Danley of Anthony, N.M. Kathy was recently named Miss Rodeo New Mexico and will represent the State in the nationals this fall in Oklahoma City. A couple of city leaders were also present. Mayor Roy Bass of Lubbock came out Saturday and Mayor Don Henderson of El Paso was on hand Sunday.

Mito Wise Dancer still knows the way to the winner's circle. The classy colt came from far behind to potch a length victory at 350 yards in Friday's allowance 10th race. It was his first time on the track since winning the $127,000 El Primero del Ano Derby at Los Alamitos in January. The win stretched his victory string to six. J. C. Wiley did the riding for Trainer H. C. Werner, Jr.

Owner-trainer Coy Hendrix, trainer Carl Wooten, owner-trainer Jake Caselo, owner-trainer George Williams and trainer Margie Renfro all picked up $25 fines for being late to the paddock for the first race Thursday. Jockeys Jerry Burgess and Jerry Nicodemus both got $50 fines for their riding on Thursday — Burgess on Pub's Princess in the fifth race and Nicodemus aboard I'm Swinging in the third race.

I'm Swinging looked like an old pro the way she handled maidens at 400 yards in Thursday's third race. The filly notched a 1 1/2-length victory over Jerry Nicodemus as the favorite — her first time in competition.

Azure Bug, a 1 1/2-length winner of Thursday's 400-yard allowance seventh race, was more popular in the quiniella than as a winner. The filly returned $56.40 on a $2 win ticket and coupled with Pinball Wizard in the quiniella paid $46.80.

Sunlow, a maiden filly in the hands of Apprentice Jockey Victor Escobar, made short work of Thursday's feature allowance foal at 5 1/2 furlongs. She broke on top as a 14-1 outsider and stretched the lead to seven lengths for the finish.

Escobar and another "Bug Boy", Stuart Dolphus, took the top of the cake in Friday's four-furlong maiden first race for $5,000 claimers. Dolphus piloted Mixanstr to a 2 1/2-length victory as a 5-1 shot. Escobar pulled in second aboard Becky's Flapper at over 11-1.

Horses to watch: Southern Cause for his continued success on the claiming ladder (he copped a $4,000 victory on Friday and won over $3,500 claimers two weeks ago); Win Cap for a 7 1/2-length score over $3,250 competition on Saturday (last week he finished fourth to $4,000 company); Rosie Rey for a 4-length wire-to-wire win as a 33-1 shot in Friday's last race; Go Greg Breeze for a good claiming step and a neck victory over $10,000 company in Saturday's fifth race (earlier he whipped up on a $7,500 class).

Jockey/Trainer of the week

Jerry Burgess picked off his first Jockey-of-the-Week crown of the '76 season at Ruidoso Downs.

He racked up seven wins from 27 rides for a near 26 percent on top. He didn't do so badly in the place and show column, either, getting three of each.

Jerry started off slowly. He picked up only one winner for both Thursday and Friday. But he got the ball rolling Saturday, adding two more. Sunday was the big day. He boasted three winners from eight rides. His work boosted him into a tie with Stuart Dolphus for fifth place. Both have 25 winners — Burgess from 183 rides and Dolphus from 200.

Carlos Rivas was inactive this week but held enough cushion to hold down the leader's slot. He stands at 44 wins from 205 mounts.

There was a four-way deadlock for the trainer honor. Gerald E. Marr, William Thompson, H. C. Werner, Jr. and Buffalo Wooten sported four winners apiece. But the honor was awarded to Gerald Marr on percentage. He collected his from only seven starters. Werner is on top with 27 for the season.

A big weekend is in store. Quarter horses take over the spotlight for most of the feature action. Thursday's offering is a 400-yard allowance affair for fillies and mares. Chica Barbara, Rebel Rainbow and Talking Picture head the cast.

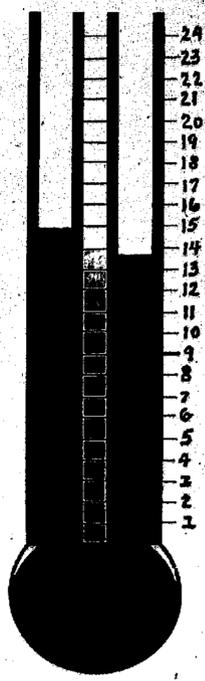

Saturday the second fastest qualifiers will settle a $56,750 dispute in the Rainbow Futurity Consolation. In addition, there's the $5,000 added First Lady Handicap at 5 1/2 furlongs. The weekend finale is Sunday's 400-yard Rainbow Futurity dash. The winner collects a cool $121,140 from the $368,748 purse. The regular 1:30 p.m. first post remains in effect Thursday through Saturday. But, in deference to the regional telecast of the Rainbow, there's an early starting time of 1 p.m. on Sunday.

"Lady, I asked your age... I don't care to take a guess."

WINNING WEEK — Jerry Burgess guided in seven winners to nail down his first "Jockey-of-the-Week" crown of the '76 season at Ruidoso Downs.

THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

Yes. Unless you know something we don't, it's impossible to do everything you like to do at the same time. Or all the time, for that matter. And anyone who tells you different speaks with forked tongue. That's why, in choosing a resort condominium, you should consider Interval Ownership.

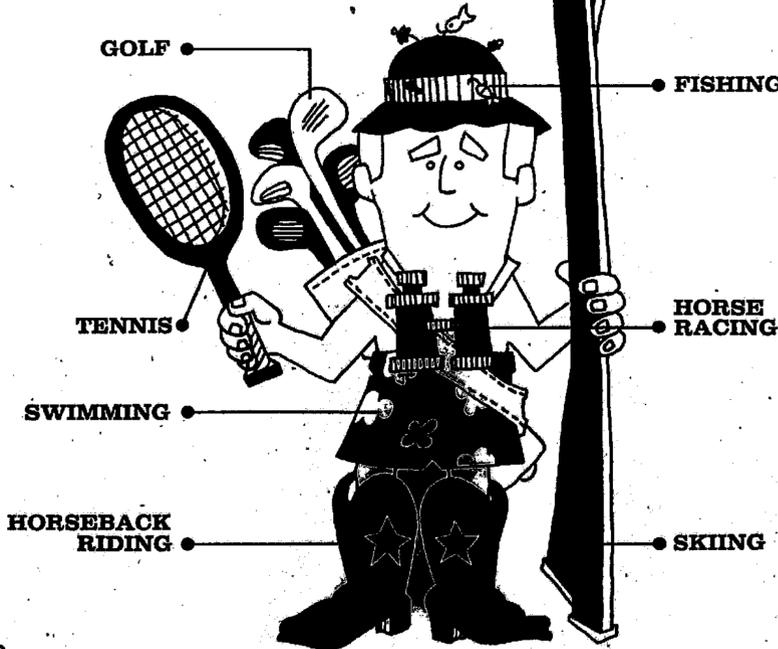

A PLAN FOR ALL SEASONS

Interval Ownership (or "Time sharing") is a plan by which you pay only for the time you use. And what you pay reflects a proportion of ownership in both the building and land. If your thing is schussing through the white stuff, purchase a week or two in Winter and ski Sierra Blanca. Or, if the green stuff is more your cup of tea, you might want some time during racing season at Ruidoso Downs. Well, we could go on and on. But why belabor a point? There are lots of these time sharing things around. It's just that ours is the best.

Fully maintained and equipped, elegantly appointed Townhaus Chalets. Private supper club, gamerooms, golf, tennis, fishing, and a partridge in a pear tree.

Sonny's Bar-B-Q

A drive in the upper Post Office block of Ruidoso will delight your sense of smell as you pass the stop light in that area. The delectable aroma of good ole fashioned barbecuing is in the air and a quick look around you will see the smoke curling out of the chimney at Sonny's Bar-B-Q.

Walk on in on the sawdust covered floor, see the red plaid table cloths and the general old fashioned atmosphere. You will find Ross or Jerry Bigham, the owners, behind the serving table awaiting to heap your plate with a choice of beef brisket, ham, ribs, sausage or fresh pork, along with a generous helping of beans and a choice of three salads. On down the line there is homemade cheese cake or pound cake to top off your meal, and what a meal it is!

Ross and Jerry use only the finest meat and it is smoke-cooked for a minimum of twelve hours over a green apple-wood fire. The pit has a capacity of 250 to 300 lbs. of meat and it is loaded twice a day during the summer season. Each customer is treated as an individual, with respect and courtesy, and judging from the portions served there will never be any complaints on the amount of food served nor the quality.

Sonny's is open seven days a week from 11 A.M. and if barbecue is your desire then you have found the best, either to take out or enjoy in the dining room.

Commission on Aging urging swine flu shots

Flu shots for the elderly will be the top health priority for the State Commission on Aging during the upcoming months.

Roberto Mondragon, director of the Commission and a member of the Governor's Committee on Influenza, stated that the Commission is working closely with the State Health Agency to assist in the New Mexico Swine Flu Program.

"It's very important that the elderly receive protection this year," Mondragon said. He added that last year's flu season was long and serious for the elderly and other high risk groups.

"We contacted the health agency about free flu shots about two days before President Ford announced the nationwide swine flu inoculation program. The timing was perfect," Mondragon said. The Commission is helping the health agency coordinate volunteer groups in the inoculation program which is scheduled to begin for the elderly and other high risk groups in late August or early September.

Dr. Jonathan Mann is director of the New Mexico Swine Influenza Program. Senior citizen centers and Area Agency on Aging directors throughout the state have started to work with county health agency flu coordinators to set up community clinics and mobile outreach teams to reach the elderly.

While some controversy exists in the medical community regarding the inoculation of the entire population, eminent authorities, including Drs. Saben and Salk, agree that immunization of the elderly and people with diabetes or heart, lung or kidney diseases will save lives this winter.

DR. THEODORE T. PUCK, Director of the Eleanor Roosevelt Institute for Cancer Research at the University of Colorado Medical Center and a leader in cell research, has a theory as to why women live longer than men. Women's longevity is due to their having one more X-chromosome than men, Dr. Puck says. The doctor also feels that in a number of years, scientists will be able to control the health of cells and thus reverse the aging process. If Dr. Puck is right, future actuaries will be putting in many hours of overtime revising longevity tables.

A MODERN PARABLE
A girl was sent home from college with an emotional disturbance. Her symptoms took a religious turn. She didn't want food, she wanted religion; and she refused to eat the chicken soup her mother fixed for her. Her brother said to her: "You are missing out on every single religious action going on around you in this house. You don't even have sense enough to drink when someone brings you a consecrated bowl of chicken soup." God used all kinds of experiences to make His will known. The Presbyterian Church of Ruidoso is a place where people gather to learn more about God's will for our lives. You may join them Sunday at 11:00 a.m. on top of Nob Hill.

struck a responsive chord when he said, "We thank God for the life of Tom Jones."

A descendant of Lincoln County pioneers, Tom lived a life of service to his country and his home community.

During World War II Tom was attending the New Mexico Military Institute, and was going to graduate in the class of '43. But before they graduated, the entire class left school and joined the war. All were awarded their diplomas later. Tom entered flight training, and then went overseas to the Pacific as a combat pilot.

His plane was named "Available Jones" from the L'I Abner comic strip. After completing his missions, he became a flight instructor.

Through the grace of God, Tom lived through his war experiences and came home to the Ruidoso Valley.

Shortly after I came home from the War in the Pacific, there was an incident in my life I will long remember.

Our brother Joe, (Joseph Duffield Storm) had fallen in battle in Germany in World War II in 1945.

Mother and I had prepared a little cemetery here on the place. Early in 1946 came the time for Joe's services. The hill up to the cemetery was steep in those days, and the hearse could not get up the hill.

Tom and his brother Paul brought their truck and pulled the hearse up the hill and we had the graveside services for our brother Joe.

MAGIC OF THE RAIN
 Everywhere you can see the magic touch of the recent rains. The berries on the algerita bushes have suddenly turned a light red color. And the fruit in the orchards is coloring rapidly. It is wonderful to see how the rain puts color in things overnight.

There is a pet horned toad around the house. Before the rain he was just a solid tan-gray color but now he wears a coat that is a tapestry of red and green.

The mid-summer wild flowers are out in full glory. Especially delightful in their fresh new colors are the Scotch Blue Bell, the English Buttercup, the Rocky Mountain Gilia, and the wild Snapdragon.

The Scotch Bluebell, sometimes called the Hair Bell, can be seen in clusters of heavenly blue ringing their elfin music across the fields. Sometimes at a distance the bells seem to be ringing in the thin air, without stems. When you get closer you find the stems are very thin, and you understand the name "Hair bell."

The wild snapdragon has blue and purple and lavender blooms on spires from two to three feet high and resemble the bluebell at a distance. These two flowers can be seen along the sidewalks in Ruidoso and on vacant lots among the pines and in yards and along the highways.

The English Buttercup, which grows all across the fields catching the rays of the sun on their silken petals.

The Rocky Mountain Gilia is the little red trumpets on the spires about three feet high. These are the pride and joy of the Ruby Throated Hummingbird. This is a typically American flower, dearly beloved all through the West.

DECORATING SHADY'S GATE
 For reasons best known to himself, the Storm Ranch little spirit dog, Shady Logan, lifted the wires next to the front gate and made a gate of his own. He did this years ago. When I go out the gate, he goes out his own gate, and the same coming in. I do not know his reasoning. Maybe he wants in or out at an instant's notice and does not want to wait for me to open the gate. He has worn a little pathway through the west end of the flower garden to his gate.

The other day I dug up some Scotch Bluebells and planted them at the entrance of his gate and along the path. Shady is surely proud of his new landscaping with the Bluebells.

VA medical team uses rare method to save human life

In an eleventh hour decision, a Veterans Administration medical team successfully used a rarely tried procedure to save the life of the driver of the bus involved in the tragic accident May 21 on an off-ramp of a freeway near the Martinez, California VA Hospital.

The VA surgical-medical-radiology team used bus driver Evan J. Prothero's own clotted blood to stop the massive bleeding in his pelvis, a procedure tried only six times before according to available medical literature. Four persons, including driver Prothero, are known to have survived the procedure.

In a state of shock and suffering from severe multiple injuries, patient Prothero was given 24 pints or units of blood from the time he was brought into the Martinez hospital at about 11:30 a.m. until the decision was made at approximately 1:00 a.m. the next morning to inject the patient's own clotted blood in an all-out attempt to stop the hemorrhaging in his crushed pelvic area.

The decision was made by Daniel C. Merrill, M.D., Chief of Urology at the Martinez VA Hospital, who had previously alerted fellow team members Theodore N. Finley, M.D., and Chief Radiologist Albert Weinschelbaum, M.D., that the procedure might have to be tried if the profuse bleeding was to be stopped and the patient's life saved.

At about 1:00 a.m. May 22, Radiologist Weinschelbaum injected a plastic tube into the patient's femoral artery, passing the tube above the site where it was thought the bleeding was occurring.

Weinschelbaum then injected about two ounces of contrast material into the tube, and with the aid of both fluoroscopy and a rapid film changer, located the bleeding in the obturator branch of the left hypogastric artery. The normal flow of blood downward carried the contrast material to the point of bleeding.

Next, using the drug Amicar that adds more body or substance to clotted blood and makes it more difficult to dissolve, Radiologist Weinschelbaum, with fluoroscopy, slowly, with multiple injections, injected the patient's clotted blood into the point of hemorrhage in the obturator artery. The bleeding stopped almost at once.

The risk involved, according to team members, is that the clotted blood can overflow into the artery which carries blood to the legs and feet. If this occurs, the affected extremity may become gangrenous.

This happens if the procedure is not very carefully monitored by fluoroscopy or if the clotted blood is injected at too rapid a rate, causing the clot to surge into a healthy artery.

The procedure took about an hour and a half.

Previously, an exploratory operation was performed on the severely injured Prothero by Staff Surgeon Yousuf Mahomed, M.D., who found a profusely bleeding spleen which he removed.

The team members agree that Prothero, who was losing blood at a rate of two milliliters a minute, could not have lived much longer if they had not tried the procedure of using his own clotted blood to stop the massive bleeding in his pelvic area.

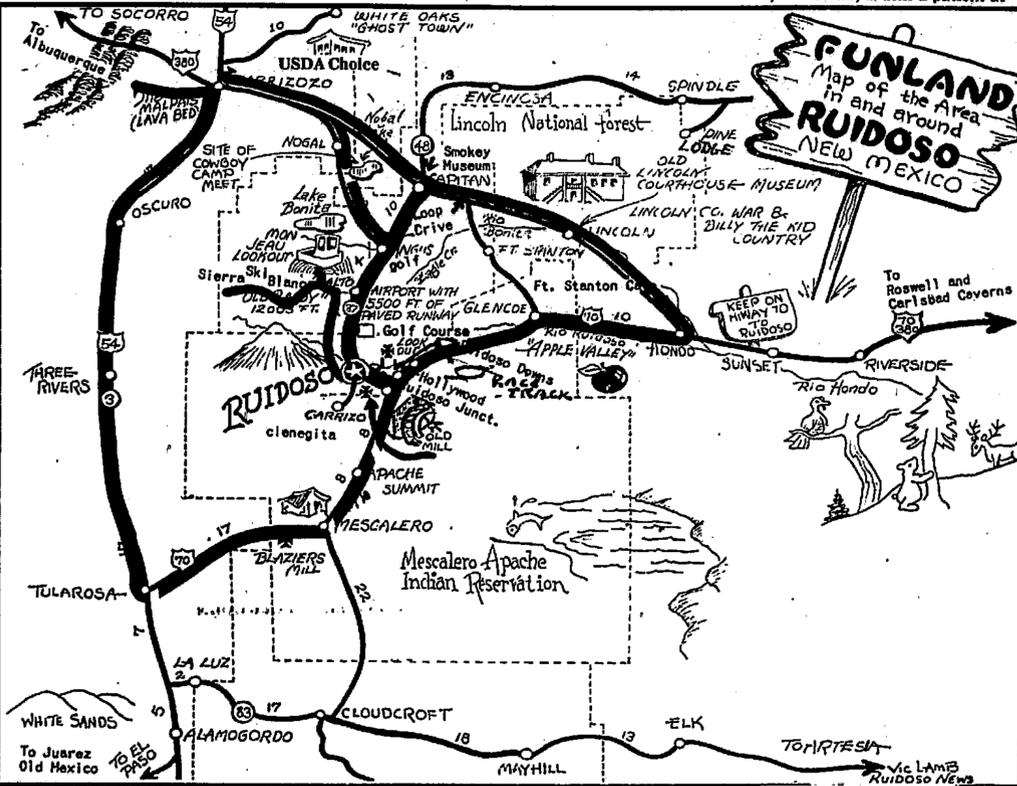

Prothero, a veteran, is still a patient at the Martinez hospital. He was originally admitted, along with other victims of the disaster, as a humanitarian medical emergency desperately in need of surgical and medical care.

Also assisting in the total team care given patient Prothero was William T. Choctaw, M.D., a resident at the Martinez hospital and a group of skilled intensive care nurses.

In addition to being on the staff of the VA Hospital, the team members hold faculty appointments at the University of California at Davis Medical School, now in the first stages of an emerging affiliation with the Martinez VA Hospital.

Urologist Merrill is an Associate Professor in Residence; Dr. Finley, a Professor in Residence, and Radiologist Weinschelbaum an Assistant Clinical Professor.
