

Monteine Baird indicted for 'murder two'

The Lincoln County Grand Jury Friday — in action stemming from a July 30 shooting incident in Ruidoso — indicted Monteine McNatt Baird on charges of murder in the second degree.

James W. Baird, 47, formerly of Ruidoso and recently engaged in construction, was reportedly found dead in the living quarters of Fiesta Courts by officers of the Criminal Investigation Division (CID) of the Ruidoso Police Department. Death was attributed to a single .22 caliber bullet hole.

It was reported that Mrs. Baird allegedly directed CID officers to the weapon, which was in a vehicle parked at Fiesta Courts.

The indictment was returned at 5:10 p.m., Friday at which time District Judge George Zimmerman set bail at $5,000 with ten per cent acceptable. Mrs. Baird, who reportedly has retained Atty.

Anthony Avallone of Las Cruces as counsel, posted $500 cash bond and is free on bail awaiting further action at a date to be set.

The charge on which Mrs. Baird was indicted is: that she did unlawfully kill a human being with malice aforethought, contrary to and in violation of Sec. 40A-2-1 (b) NMSA 1952 Comp., [murder in the second degree].

Murder in the first degree requires charging a suspect with "willfully, deliberately and with premeditation" killing a human being.

The Bairds were involved in a divorce action at the time of the shooting incident.

The investigation leading to the indictment was conducted by the Ruidoso CID and the District Attorney's office of the 12th Judicial District.

Runnels - Hobbs set record Pony Express Race Time

BENNY RUNNELS set the pace for the Pony Express Race in taking the lead, right after the pistol shot, in a record setting time run in which the Runnels-Hobbs team were never behind. At one point in the race Runnels and Hobbs had a 15 minute lead.

The fastest time in the eight year history of the White Oaks — Lincoln Pony Express Race was set Saturday when the team of Benny Runnels of Bonito and Waddle Hobbs of Albuquerque, riding for Bobby Dan Crenshaw of Fort Stanton, covered the 41-mile course in two hours, five minutes and 20 seconds.

Runnels took the lead when the riders left White Oaks at 8:07 a.m. and Hobbs rode the last half of the race. At one point in the race the team of Runnels-Hobbs had a 15 minute lead.

Second place was won by Virgil Smith and Ted Clements of Picacho with a time of 2:10:15, third was won by Johnny Patterson and David Cunningham of Picacho in 2:15:27 with fourth to Milo and Jamie Hindi of Duran in 2:15:35.

"This is the first race," Ralph Dunlap, Lincoln County Agent, said at the trophy presentation Sunday, "that only five minutes and 15 seconds separated the first and fourth place finishers. When you consider the race covers 41 miles, this tells us a lot about the skill of the riders and quality of the horses entered in our annual Pony Express Race.

"More than 3,100 pieces of first class mail were handled and received the official Pony Express Race seal, which set a record for volume."

At White Oaks the first annual Pony Express Race breakfast, with proceeds earmarked for school house roof repairs, attracted about 300 persons to witness the start of the race.

The celebration at Lincoln included the presentation of the pageant, "The Last Escape of Billy The Kid" and though official attendance figures were not immediately available Friday's crowd set the record for paid admissions over the more than 20 years the pageant has been presented.

In other action at Lincoln Saturday the Old Time Fiddler's Contest also attracted the largest audience in the history of this free event.

Curra Call romps to Jockey Club Stakes win

Curra Call, a 9-1 longshot, raced to a stunning upset in Sunday's sixth running of the Jockey Club Stakes at Ruidoso Downs.

The sophomore gelding got the job done with pure speed leading from start to finish. He ended the 7-furlong tussle with a length lead and clocked the distance in 1:25 4-5. This was only four fractions short of the track record.

Curra Call was ridden by Gordon Weaver under a 120-pound load. Cliff Lambert does the training for C. B. Bogle of Dexter, N.M. Gross purse of the Jockey Club Stakes was $8,350. The winner's share amounted to $5,010.

All of the well-backed contenders went down the drain, thereby sparking a set of generous tote prices. Curra Call returned $21.60, $9.80, and $4.40. Freedom To Be, off at 14-1, turned in a persistent closing move and finished second. The payoffs were $14.20 and $9. Billy Burres was up.

The show slot was taken by Infinite Traffic, who packed sky high odds of 27-1. Clifton Detiege brought the gelding out of the fifth place in the upper stretch. The show payoff was $7.80.

Curra Call got the upperhand from the first jump and had about three lengths of daylight going into the first turn. Crazy Frills took up the early chase. Tracy Dias, the even-money choice supporting a stiff 124 pound load, was at the end of the pack at this point.

In the stretch, Freedom To Be made up ground in big hunks but Curra Call, refusing to quit, had enough in reserve to grab the victory in an all-out effort. Jockey Weaver applied plenty of stinging leather in the final furlong.

Sheswright, an 8-5 favorite, turned on a strong late rush and swept to a 1 1/4-length victory in Saturday's Three Bars Handicap at Ruidoso Downs.

But the race was marred when Chicory Moon, one of the greats in Ruidoso quarter horse history, broke down.

The gelding, owned by Betty Shebester of Wynnewood, Okla., appeared to take a bad step early in the race. Jockey W. R. Hunt tried to pull him up, but Chicory Moon continued on and shook Hunt loose near the finish line.

Chicory Moon appeared to suffer a serious break of the right front leg. He had won 28 races in his long career, including numerous stakes, and had earned close to $180,000.

Sheswright, ridden by J. C. Wiley under the top load of 123 pounds, toured the 400 yards in 19.97 seconds and collected $5,910 out of the $9,850 gross purse.

The filly returned $5.60, $3.60 and $3.40. Jet Pool, a 13-1 longshot hauling Johnny Cox, reached the wire a head in front of Mr. Breakthru and collected $2,167 for second. The payoffs were $10.40 and $5. The show price on Mr. Breakthru was $8.20.

The highest Big Q payoff in Ruidoso Downs history — and possibly the highest ever in New Mexico — popped up on Friday's program.

The lone ticket was worth $19,017. Holder of the ticket did not show up to collect his winnings during Friday's program.

In the first half of the Big Q (8th race), Nuther Boogie, a 15-1 shot, and Let's Get Started, off at 3-1, ran one-two. That left 47 live tickets.

In the second half, the survivors were trimmed down to one when Flying Indi (15-1) and Flying Leader (7-2) finished in that order.

The previous Big Q record at Ruidoso was set at $16,380.20 in 1973.

Serene Princess, a 13-1 outsider, romped to a bulging 5 1/4-length win in Friday's headliner at Ruidoso Downs. Mike Hiding was aboard.

Serene Princess took command with authority at the turn for home of the six-furlong run, and was galloping easily when she swept under the wire in a clocking of 1:15 flat.

The filly, owned by the Rose Ranch of Hondo, N.M., returned mutuels of $29, $10 and $6.80. Kristi's Lark ended up second with Gordon Weaver and refunded $5.20 and $3.80.

Net Set came in third and dished out $3.60. The sprint was one of three qualifying heats for the upcoming $35,000 (est.) Rio Grande Futurity.

Keq of Nalls, racing as a cool 9-2 fourth favorite, had little trouble with two-year-olds in Thursday's allowance headliner at Ruidoso Downs.

The colt, owned by Mack and Jadeanne Yates of Cherokee, Texas, took early command of the four-furlong affair after some slight urging from jockey Henry Urieegas. From there it was just a loose home to the six-length win. The Bill Leach-trained sophomore returned mutuels of $10.80, $4 and $3. He clocked the yardage in 47 seconds flat.

WADDIE HOBBS, with his eyes on the finish line, was sweat and dust covered as he prepared to dismount to deliver his sack of

Pony Express Mail in the record setting time of 2:05:20 for the 41-mile run. "Winning, let me tell you, is a real big thrill."

Purse boosts set at Downs

A sweeping purse increase goes into effect Thursday at Ruidoso Downs, and will extend through the remainder of the season, according to General Manager Al Rosa.

The minimum purse has been hiked from $1,800 to $2,000, all non-stakes races have been increased $200-$500, and the two stakes on the weekend schedule were fattened up. Saturday's Ruidoso Speed Handicap now offers added money of $8,000 (instead of $6,500), and Sunday's Rio Grande Futurity, which originally offered $9,000 added, is now pegged at $10,000 added.

"The current strong business trend at Ruidoso Downs necessitated a purse increase," Rosa said. "If the same trend continues, further increases might be in the offing."

During the four-day period of Thursday through Sunday (Aug. 12-15), a total of $139,500 will be distributed to horsemen. That's an increase of $16,000 over the previous four-day period.

The average overnight purse (not counting stakes) now stands at $2,600, as compared to the previous average of $2,300.

Rosa added it was decided to extend the purse hike over the four remaining weeks, thereby giving all horsemen ample opportunity to run at the increased purses.

The current daily betting average is now over $361,000, and that's a gain of nearly 10 percent over the same period last year. The '75 pace, Rosa pointed out, produced a seasonal daily average of $367,000. The current meeting figures to wind up with an average of around $400,000.

NEVER LOOKED BACK — Club Stakes at Ruidoso Downs and hit the tape a length in front of the hard-charging Freedom To Be. Gordon Weaver rode the winner, who ran at 10-1 odds.

Eagle Creek Association meets tonight

The first meeting of the new fiscal year of the Eagle Creek Association is scheduled for 7:30 this evening in the all-purpose room of the Ruidoso Public Library.

Election of officers, re-organization of the directors and future plans are on the agenda.

At the July 27 Ruidoso trustees' meeting, mayor Lloyd L. Davis was appointed to serve the unexpired term of the late Tom Jones, through 1980 and trustee George White was named to succeed Elmer Perilli to a six year term through 1982.

State Forestry aiding area fire departments

The New Mexico State Forestry Department is financially assisting 16 volunteer fire departments in southeastern Lincoln County on a 50-50 basis, according to Jerry Longbotham, District Forester in Capitán.

Under the Rural Fire Protection Program, the average cost per department is currently $1,161. Bonito and Hondo are among the fire departments receiving funds through Title IV.

"Volunteer fire departments are efficient and effective and involve no large tax base for the citizens," Longbotham said.

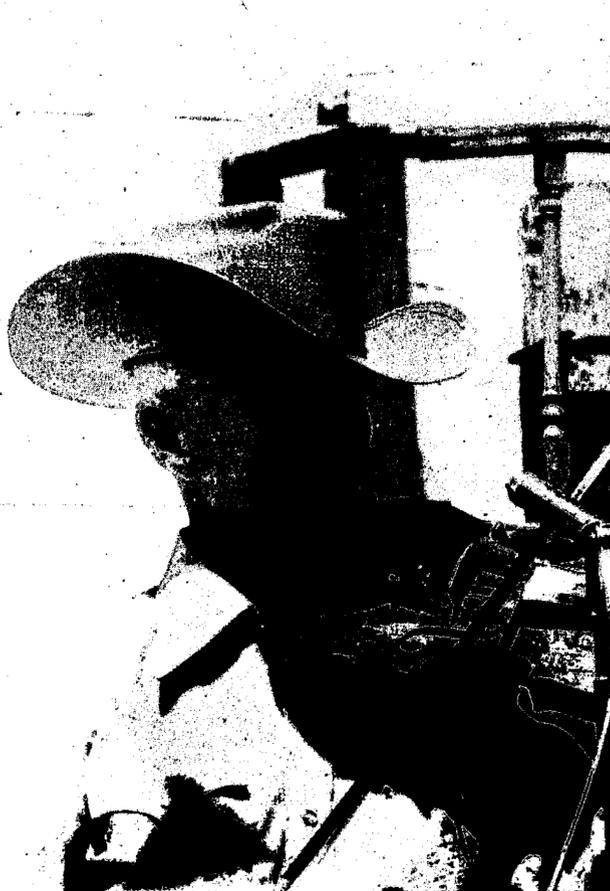

The Forestry Department this week received 30 five-quarter ton, four-wheel drive surplus vehicles from Biggs Air Force Base. Longbotham said these trucks are being "worked over" and will be donated to volunteer fire departments throughout the state for small tactical units in fighting wild fires.

All wild fires on state and private land are the responsibility of the State Forestry Department which works hand in hand with the various local volunteer fire departments, Longbotham said.

NERVOUS CONCENTRATION — Robin Fox of Mesilla was outwardly unconcerned as she competed against old time fiddlers — some who have been fiddling for 60 and more years.

CALM CONCENTRATION — Joe Graham of Ruidoso kept a foot tapping as he fiddled, in obvious oblivion to everything except the music, in his contest stint in the Old Time Fiddler's competition.

THE SKILL THAT COMES with years of experience in fiddling contests was evident as Ted Clark of Rogers, left, Joe Graham, center, and Troy Eavenson of Seymour, TX, played together for the first time in an effort that won them loud applause from an appreciative audience.

BEING INTERVIEWED on television, following the record setting time of 2:05:20 over the 41-mile Pony Express Race course, were the winning team of Benny Runnels of Bonito, left, Waddle Hobbs of Albuquerque and team sponsor Bobby Dan Crenshaw of Fort Stanton. "This was," Runnels said, "the greatest race ever run here."

TENDING THE DRIP PAN, as Saturday, before the Pony Express Race started, "Where are all of these people coming from?"

Village councils to meet

The Ruidoso Downs trustees will meet at 7:30 tonight in the village hall and the Ruidoso trustees will meet at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday in the all-purpose room of the Ruidoso Public Library.

The agenda for Ruidoso's trustees meeting includes action on bids for the Gavilan Canyon Water Improvement project; a report on the inquiry regarding cuts in Revenue Sharing funds; a progress report on Eagle Creek Dam; a report on the comprehensive plan by Shafkind of Boyle Engineering and budget changes included reducing Fire Department funding by $15,578 and advertising from the Lodger's Tax by $231 and an increase in the Solid Waste income of $3,594.

Library increasing services

Great Books, puppets for children and a genealogy workshop are among the programs the Ruidoso Public Library will offer beginning in September, according to Monese Barron, librarian.

Circulation in July was considerably higher than for the same period a year ago. Adult books circulated numbered 1618 and junior books checked out were 993. Other activities in July included 17 reference questions, 14 inter-library loans, four films and five story time sessions.

Shafkind of Boyle Engineering; budget approval and a call for bids on a new pickup truck for the water department.

Artist, 18, holds one man show

Scott Tucker, 18 — who has never had an art lesson — held his first one man show last month in Port Arthur, Texas.

Of the 29 paintings he presented — 27 sold.

He graduated with honors from high school last spring and will attend Howard Payne College this fall. "I plan to go there for two years and then attend an art school in California," Tucker said, "but since you have to starve to be a fine artist, I may go ahead with history in college since I am interested in it and I could always teach history for a while."

After seeing his paintings it is doubtful he will have to teach. He employs both water colors and oils and has several commissions for paintings. He recently finished his first bronze sculpture, a bust of Moses, and it is sold.

Tucker was making clay figures as a child and began sketching in grade school. About two years ago his mother, who had planned an art career before she married, encouraged him to quit "just sketching" and placed some water colors in front of him.

Most artists specialize in one technique or medium but Tucker likes more than one. "I don't get burned out on either one," he said. He will continue to paint and plans to expand his sculpturing. "I want to do a life size bronze figure," he said, "but funds are limited."

Although he hasn't had formal art training, he did spend a day with Laos Markos of Houston, Texas, who is a renowned artist. "It was like meeting Rembrandt," Tucker said, "seeing his life size paintings and sculptures."

Tucker has also met with Lincoln County sculptors Lincoln Fox and Tom Knapp. He has moved to Ruidoso and will make this his home base.

Tucker is not hung up on one subject, but paints sea scapes and boats, as he lived on the coast, animals and people, and is now doing some southwestern subjects.

He has completed one painting of the Coe ranch and has commissions for two more. He also has commissions for a portrait of a sea captain, two shrimp boats and several tankers.

Many artists find it hard to part with some of their paintings or want to keep some for reference. "I have never wanted to keep one of mine," Tucker said. "My mother has one of my paintings but everything else I've done is sold or in galleries."

He never wastes canvases. If he starts a painting and is not satisfied with it he will flip it over and use the other side. He works from sketches or photographs. He just returned from Utah and Montana where he took many pictures to use for subject matter. A highlight of the trip was visiting the museum in Cody, Wyoming, where he saw the displays of Russell and Rembrandt and a large collection of western art.

Tucker has won many first place awards at shows in east Texas. His paintings can be seen at Scofield Gallery in Orange, Texas, Southwest Gallery in Houston, and at End of the Trail Gallery in Ruidoso.

Scott Tucker is making a name for himself in the world of art.

Altrusa club elects delegates

At the regular monthly meeting of Altrusa Club Wednesday evening Jane Deyo and Barbara Duff were elected as delegates to the District 10 Conference of Altrusa International to be held October 1-3 in Denver, Colorado.

Duff outlined the club's programs and projects for the coming year and reported on plans for the Annual All American Florcade to be held at the All American Sales Arena September 1. The members are selling tickets for this annual event which is to raise money for Altrusa grants-in-aid.

The next luncheon meeting will be at noon August 18 at Cree Meadows Country Club.

Gospel group to give concert

Asian, a gospel folk-rock musical group, will present a program at the Community Methodist Church Friday, August 13 at 7:30 p.m., co-sponsored by the First Christian Church.

Everyone is invited to attend the concert to hear an important message in testimony and song.

Happenings

Some traits remain with women throughout their years and vanity is one of them! When Mollie Bosh was honored at a tea celebrating her 100th birthday last week and presented with a picture of herself taken by the News several months ago she said "guess I'll burn it with the rest of them — it shows my wrinkles."

When we approached her earlier to take her picture she smiled and said "don't get too close — it makes me look too old." Mollie is quite a lady and doesn't look her 100 years. There will be another celebration in honor of her birthday in Claunch in the middle of the month. Mollie lived there before coming to Nogal.

CeCe Sudderth attended the tea although she was suffering from wedding withdrawal! Seems daughter Linda decided to cancel her wedding plans scheduled two days away and CeCe was looking for Emilie Post to find out how to notify guests. Well, it's better to cancel a wedding before it takes place than to have to cancel it afterwards.

Had a nice visit with Frances Poorbaugh at the tea. Frances used to be the bookkeeper at The News office and now lives in Roswell. She said she still keeps up with Ruidoso by reading the paper each week.

Carmen Edwards, our ad gal, is busy selling tickets for the Altrusa Club Florcade coming up September 1. Proceeds from the Florcade will go toward scholarships and community projects.

Visiting with the George Bonals is cousin Ruby Chandler of San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. Chandler managed the El Rancho Motel for the Bonals prior to their selling it in 1974. Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. Bonal grew up in Waco, Texas, but Mrs. Bonal is truly a New Mexican, having been in this state for 44 years — and a resident of Ruidoso for 27 of those years.

100th birthday tea

Nogal's 'First Lady', Mollie Bosh, was honored at a 100th birthday tea sponsored by the Lincoln County Senior Citizens and held at the Jarratt home Wednesday, August 4. Mrs. Jarratt is the director of the Senior Citizens Center.

A bicentennial theme was featured in the decorations. Punch was served by Lucy Luck from a wishing well decorated with happy birthday greetings. A red, white and blue color scheme was used on the serving table which was centered with a birthday cake and a picture of Mollie. The cake was baked especially for Mollie by Barbara Dickinson who bakes the birthday cakes for the Center.

Jarratt gave a brief address congratulating Mollie on reaching her 100th year and presented her with several gifts.

Refreshments of strawberry punch, cookies and nuts and mints were served to the more than 100 guests attending the tea.

ALL-AMERICAN FLORCADE plans were being finalized Thursday by, from the left, Altrusa Club president Jan Deyo, Vera Quinn, Louise Boffler and Florcade chairman Barbara Duff. The annual event is

IT'S NO LONGER A MAN'S world at the track — these two Ruidoso girls spend their summers working as grooms. They are Jackie Tully, left, and Harla Kay Webb. The girls can make as much as $100 a week as grooms but it's a long day beginning at 6:00 a.m. — and it's seven days a week.

THE GIRLS JOIN THE BOYS in many areas of employment these days. Patricia Reaves, Ruidoso High School student fills the tank of this car at a service station. She will also check under the hood, wipe your windshield and check your tires. When asked if she had any problems in being a girl service station attendant she grinned and said that sometimes a man will insist on double checking the oil stick — just to be sure!

WHAT USED TO BE considered "man's work" is enjoyed by Ruidoso High School student, Tammy Isaacs as she cleans the windshield of a car. Other than waiting on customers — she washes cars — changes the oil — delivers — even sweeps the floor at this station. When asked how she liked working at a station she said, "It pays good — and it's really easy but don't tell my boss!"

CHICKEN JAMBOREE

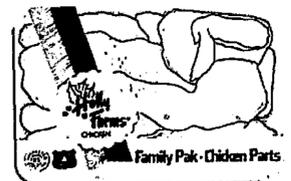

Now's the time to buy chicken during our big Chicken Jamboree. And Holly Farms is the chicken to buy. It's bred and fed to be plump and juicy. It's always U.S.D.A. Inspected. And every piece is always Grade A (or it doesn't reach our store). Shipped chilled, never frozen or packed in ice, so you're not paying for a lot of absorbed water. And it's dated for freshness right on the package. If you haven't tried Holly Farms Chicken before, now's the time. Look for the bright red and yellow ribbon emblem that identifies every package of Holly Farms Chicken. It's the one to pick to be sure.

SALUTE TO CHAMBER MEMBERS

This is a regular feature in the Monday edition of this newspaper to introduce the members of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce

BILL PIPPIN came to Ruidoso 22 years ago to teach school and did just that for seven years but the real estate business lured him away and he opened his own real estate office in 1961. When asked how long he had been a Chamber member, Bill replied, "I don't know for sure but quite a number of years." Bill Pippin Real Estate handles general real estate and carries the slogan of "The Guy With The Buy."

SINCE 1953, the Ruidoso State Bank has been offering banking services to the people of Ruidoso. The bank has grown tremendously since its organization both in capital and facilities, and has been a long time Chamber member. You will find, besides the main bank on Sudderth Drive, branches in Ruidoso Downs, at the "Y" in Hollywood and at Capitán. Ken Cox is the president of Ruidoso State Bank.

Sunland season set

The 1976-77 season at Sunland Park Race Track will cover 87 race days, according to General Manager Al Rosa.

The racing dates, as approved by the New Mexico State Racing Commission, will consist of a 30-day fall season, and a 57-day spring meeting.

A dark weekend during Christmas will again separate the two meetings. Rosa reports the format is pretty much the same as the one used successfully in recent years.

The fall session will kick off Saturday,

With only slight exception, Friday programs will be staged under the lights, beginning at 7:30 p.m., and all Saturday and Sunday cards will be at 1:30 p.m.

The two exceptions will consist of the program Saturday, Jan. 1, which was switched from afternoon to night to avoid conflicting with major televised football games, and the program Sunday, Jan. 2. In order to avoid a conflict with the Sun Bowl Game in El Paso, the Jan. 2 racing card will get rolling at the special first-post of 5 p.m.

In October, the new season will get underway with Saturday-Sunday programs Oct. 9-10 and 16-17. Friday night racing debuts Oct. 22 and continues through Dec. 10 (the next-to-last weekend of the fall meeting).

Starting the second week in January, it'll be the regular pattern of night racing Fridays, and afternoon racing Saturdays and Sundays.

 A cocktail hour precedes dinner and dancing. Tickets can be purchased at the Chamber office.

Allison Futurity — one of the richest two-year-old thoroughbred races in the nation. The upcoming version carries a projected purse of $275,000.

Preceding the Allison in the spring schedule are Sunland's two major quarter horse classics — the $225,000 (est.) West Texas Futurity, and the $175,000 (est.) Sun Country Futurity.

A new wrinkle this year will be Sunland's first annual Thoroughbred Two-Year-Old in Training Sale. Entries close Nov. 10. The venue will be held Feb. 5.

State's traffic death toll down

New Mexico's traffic death toll for the first 6 months of 1976 shows that 12 fewer persons died in traffic accidents as compared to the same time period in 1975, Department of Motor Vehicles Commissioner Jerry Manzagal has announced.

The six month figures for 1976 show that 256 persons have died in traffic accidents this year as compared to 268 for the same time period last year.

In addition, the figures show that 14 fewer pedestrians and five less motorcyclists have been killed in traffic collisions.

Other figures in the report show that 214 persons have died in non-pedestrian/motorcycle collisions this year as compared to 208 during the same time period in 1975.

D. K. Kelly, chief of the DMV's Traffic Safety Division, the division that compiled the report, noted that New Mexico is one of the few states in the nation that has shown a decrease in the number of traffic deaths occurring during the first 6 months of this year.

"National figures," Kelly said, "show that an estimated 20,457 persons — a deduction of 137 below the six month corresponding total in 1975 — have died in traffic collisions this year."

Kelly said, "We're hopeful that we may be seeing the beginning of a trend by New Mexico highway users that indicates that safety is being more widely observed."

Additional figures in the report indicate that 91 per cent of the fatal accidents have occurred during dry or clear weather conditions; that 64 per cent of the fatal accidents involved only one vehicle; and that 37 per cent of the fatal accidents occurred during the hours of daylight.

In addition, excessive speed and alcohol involvement are listed as major fatal accident factors. "However," Kelly said, "driver inattention accidents which may include any kind of accident from driver error to distractions outside the vehicle are on the increase."

Kelly also noted one major change for the first 6 months of this year as compared to the same time period in 1975 is that there had been 25 fewer deaths in the 24 and under age group.

"It's especially tragic for our youth to be so heavily involved in motor vehicle accidents," Kelly said, "but so far this year the under 24 year age group has accounted for just under half of our 256 fatalities."

Other major conditions that lead to fatal accidents include: driving left of the center line, speed to fast, asleep at the wheel and improper driving.

The report also shows that there have been twice as many one vehicle fatal accidents as accidents involving two or more vehicles.

"What's difficult to believe here," Kelly said, "is that unlike two or more vehicle accidents that might leave the driver with no control over the situation, a driver in a one vehicle accident has direct control over both the operation of his vehicle and his safety."

Kelly, whose division administers traffic safety programs statewide, said in summing up the report, "motorists should especially stay within the posted speed limit. Not that much time is gained by going over the speed limit and there are too many accident causing factors that increase dramatically with higher speeds."

Yokoso, (welcome)

Chiaka

BY BILLIE SURMICK
Staff Writer

(The following interview was accomplished after much shy giggling and mouth-covering on the gracious Japanese girl's part, much slow, deliberate speaking and synonym-searching on the writer's part, and much leafing through an English-Japanese dictionary on both parties' part.)

Until she arrived in Ruidoso last week, Chiaka Nakane had seen cowboys only on television or in the movies.

She got her first real taste of western lore over the weekend during Old Lincoln Days and had already read the saga of Billy the Kid while in high school. She will see her first horse race and visit Carlsbad Caverns, Mexico, White Sands and other local points of interest during her one month visit here.

Chiaka is a 19-year-old student who lives in Okazaki City, Japan, and attends the Sacred Heart University in Tokyo. In 1974, Laurie Norman was an exchange student to Japan and lived with Chiaka's family. The Larry Norman family is hosting Chiaka's visit in Ruidoso.

"The main differences I first noticed were the structure of the houses, the vast countryside, the American friendliness and that they eat a lot," Chiaka said.

She likes American food and considers it "very delicious" but expressed her distaste for the milk in this country and for celery.

Chiaka is majoring in English and hopes to be a ground hostess — interpreter at Tokyo International airport. Although there is little chance to travel in this work, Chiaka hopes to visit many countries and has already been to Guam.

Her required subjects for the first year in college included French, English, development of chemistry, Japanese classic literature and religion. Tuition is approximately $2400 a year, not including books, room or board. "Inflation has affected everything in Japan — not just a few items," Chiaka said. The grading system, loosely translated, is structured on a 1 to 5 point basis with 5 being the highest. Students attend classes approximately 10 months of the year.

Chiaka's favorite musical group is America's "Carpenters" and she plans to buy record albums while in this country, along with American clothes. She said although some Japanese women still wear the kimono, their western dress is similar to American designs.

While in Japan, Laurie Norman taught Chiaka how to play the piano, English and about Americans and their life style. Chiaka, in return, taught Laurie Japanese and Mrs. Nakane gave Laurie samisen lessons. Chiaka has studied the Japanese Tea Ceremony and Ike Bano (flower arranging) and plays the koto, a 13-string instrument. She prefers "love stories" to classic Japanese literature and likes "all kinds of movies".

Japan has its own version of women's lib, but it is not as publicized or popular as in the United States, Chiaka said. "The men don't think it's right and most of the Japanese wives stay at home and do not have outside careers or jobs."

She compared her hometown of 220,000 to Ruidoso: "The air here is so clean and cool. It is a very beautiful place."

County fair set

The Lincoln County Fair is slated for August 27 - 28 at the fair grounds in Capitan, featuring a livestock exhibition and auction.

Members of 4-H and Future Farmers of America will show farm and ranch animals which have been in their care since last year's fair. The auction is expected to bring premium prices which can help finance next year's project, a youngster's education, or a foundation for a member's future herd.

THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

Yes. Unless you know something we don't, it's impossible to do everything you like to do at the same time. Or all the time, for that matter. And anyone who tells you different speaks with forked tongue. That's why, in choosing a resort condominium, you should consider Interval Ownership.

A PLAN FOR ALL SEASONS

Interval Ownership (or "Time sharing") is a plan by which you pay only for the time you use. And what you pay reflects a proportion of ownership in both the building and land. If your thing is schussing through the white stuff, purchase a week or two in Winter and ski Sierra Blanca. Or, if the green stuff is more your cup of tea, you might want some time during racing season at Ruidoso Downs. Well, we could go on and on. But why belabor a point? There are lots of these time sharing things around. It's just that ours is the best.

OPINION PAGE

Yours and Ours

ON THE DULL SIDE

U. S. Senator Joseph M. Montoya isn't missing a lick in letting everyone know that his ox is getting gored... but good.

Why his ribs even went so far as to take personal exception to an editorial in a daily newspaper... to the extent that he wrote the editor a letter to complain about the content of the editorial... which is surprising because Little Joe's been in politics long enough to know that what is said about him isn't nearly as important as having his name spelled right.

However it's possible that our senior Senator has been smitten with a heretofore unknown and insidious campaign disease affecting campaign to continue his Senatorial career... Schmittis.

Can't help wondering just how much time Sen. Montoya will devote to campaigning for Jimmy Carter... especially outside of New Mexico.

ON THE DULLER SIDE

If you've been reading the newspapers lately you know that censorship of the news... especially news concerning violating the law... is a fact in New Mexico.

The rights of a person accused of a wrongdoing far supercede the rights of a person, place or thing wronged.

Whether this suppression of news of criminal activity is the result of one man's personal vendetta against the press isn't nearly as important as the fact that information can only be obtained, concerning arrests or charges, after they have been filed with a court... upon which move they become public record.

Take the case of a crime wherein a person's life is lost... there can be no report of investigation facts leading to arraignment or other legal action, until the case is duly filed in a court... because the rights of the accused can be placed in jeopardy through having prospective jurors influenced... or prejudiced... by pre-trial publicity.

But once a person is arraigned... or indicted... even though the trial be days, weeks or months away... it's perfectly OK with defense attorneys to have the filled charges disclosed to the public.

Which is a crock... and you know it... 'cause any defense attorney worth his salt wouldn't let one word out about any case until it was over... and he'd won... and he wanted the publicity to help spread his fame as a defense attorney.

Kill somebody's dog and you've a bushel of problems... kill the dog's owner and you might not have a worry in the world. Obviously, a dog has rights.

ON THE BRIGHT SIDE

While reflecting upon the enigmas of life... mine... I happened to pause for a moment's respite beside the Rio Ruidoso... one bright and sunny afternoon.

I sat beside the babbling waters... close enough that there were no sounds of traffic... just the twitter of birds... and the incessant gurgling of the stream.

And I thought of the source of that stream... and how quiet and peaceful it must be there... and I concentrated upon the rushing and noisy water... and my world was encompassed within that narrow domain... and I relaxed... and I did see a trout, lazily moving his tail from 'neath the projecting bank... taking things in stride... waiting to collect his just due... dependent upon no man.

There was no strife within my view... or, perhaps one bird chased another... but there were bounds within which the pursuit was contained.

In the few moments I'd set aside to reflect upon nothing in particular... and everything in general... it slowly dawned upon me that a person can get more thinking done in five minutes beside the Rio Ruidoso than can be done in five hours when you're busily engaged in going about your business.

Exactly what I learned from my all too brief respite from the actualities of life isn't clear to me... but I do know that whatever insurmountable obstacle had arisen to confront me before I paused stream side, didn't seem nearly as important... and at last I know how Thoreau felt about Walden Pond.

BRIEF BIT: There's a strange lack of predictions as to how many cotton pickers in the deep south may become goober diggers... CD editorial

All the Congress has to do in again taking over, management of the Postal Service is reduce postage rates to build volume and increase revenues — give patrons service instead of lip — and fund the service, as they do the other services, even if it means slashing some pork barrel projects that insure reelection. — CD

What's Your Opinion?

QUESTION: What Do You Think Of The Good Samaritan Nursing Home Project?

"It's a good project. Elderly people need a place where they can feel safe and secure and where they can get extra care if they need it. I hope they can raise the money to get the home in Ruidoso." — Gwen Di Paolo, student

"It's a good idea, but seems like it will take a long time. The community needs to get behind it and a lot of people are not interested." — Richard Woodul, student

"I think it's a great idea although I am not actively involved." — Marge Garner, buyer

"I know someone who owns several of these homes that are equal in every way to the proposed Good Samaritan home. They can build one, land included, for $500,000. I feel there's something wrong that this one is costing much more and people are having to contribute at least a third of the price." — Harold Perry, carpenter

"I think it's wonderful and I think they're making a mistake if they don't put it over." — Gladys Knox, retired teacher

"I'm 100% for it. There isn't a phase of it that I disagree with and I've donated over a three-year period to the project." — Gilbert Chancellor, retired cattleman

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In your issue of Thursday, July 29, 1976, in what you call "Reflections" by Billie Surrnick, was an item concerning the New Army. I have never read such unadulterated lies, misrepresentation, and anti-government propaganda in even the most widely known 'filth rags' and 'underground press'. I am shocked and surprised that a paper such as yours would publish an article such as this.

I am retired army, and at the present time work with the Adjutant General's Office, Fort Bliss, Texas, in the enlisted separations branch. I am completely familiar with the problems of those who cannot cope with the Army. I will be the first to agree that the Army, as with many other government agencies, is not perfect; however it is nothing like the pack of lies you published.

There are at present two programs for specifically handling problems of men and women who cannot 'cope' with the system. They have been in effect for approximately two years, and handle the problem very efficiently. One is called the "Trainee Discharge Program". If a trainee during his or her first six months in the Army cannot for any reason 'cope' with the new life, he or she is counseled and informed that discharge proceedings are contemplated. The individual may accept the proposed discharge or may rebut and present evidence in his own behalf. The discharge must be "honorable". No punishment of any kind is involved.

The second program is for personnel with more than six months and less than three years, service. It is handled in a manner similar to the Trainee program, however in this instance either an "honorable" discharge or "under honorable conditions" discharge may be issued. Once again, the individual may accept or rebut, and once again, no punishment of any kind is involved. These are strictly Administrative actions.

There is of course punitive action in the army as in civilian life for those who commit crimes. Even those, however, are not dealt with in the manner described by Billie Surrnick in your paper.

I believe that you should review the article in question and obtain the 'facts' upon which she based her remarks. Knowing full well that she had no facts I feel that a complete apology should be published in her next column. It is articles like this one which you published that abuse the rights of a "free press" and will ultimately lead to the loss of that right.

Dear Editor:

Does Ruidoso realize the tremendous assets available to the community in time of an emergency?

We witnessed the cooperation of various units in the area in the rescue of Robert Chamberlin, Saturday night, July 31. At 10:30 p.m., we reported to the Ruidoso police that Bob had not come down from fishing on the South Fork of the Ruidoso River. Within an hour, Ruidoso Chief of Police Paul Lukens, Lt. Phil Waters and his officers of the Mesalero police force and the White Mountain Jeep Club started climbing the mountain. Bob was found with a broken leg, at 3:30 a.m., seven and one-half miles up the mountain. He was given first aid and carried down the trail, arriving at the hospital at 9:30 a.m. Sunday.

These men are to be highly commended for their prompt efficient rescue. Bringing Bob down in such rough terrain, and in darkness, shows the dedication these people have for others.

Our most sincere thanks and gratitude to everyone who had a part in this operation.
Mrs. Robert D. Chamberlin

AMIN'S THREATS

Uganda's President Idi Amin will have to be watched, lest he carry out his implied threat of drastic punishment for British nationals in the wake of the Israeli rescue operation at Entebbe airport. His ominous words may prove to be no more than that, but his record of brutality warrants little optimism.

There is a question as to what Britain or the international community might do to temper Amin's actions. There are many things he might get away with behind the facade of national sovereignty; he has perpetrated many cruelties and indignities, and worse, in the past. The West, against which he so often rails, may find it difficult to intervene.

All feasible effort must be made by the United States and other nations, however, to curb Amin's vengeful impulses. Economic and diplomatic pressures can be brought to bear. They should be, as intensively as possible. — Alamogordo Daily News.

The Dreamer Spot

A Place of Hope
Shady Logan and I have just come from the spot pictured in Mark's drawing just above. As I said before, this is up on The Knoll, a hallowed, sacred place. As we stood there in the shade of the two leaning trees, Shady was smiling happily. Like the Ridge Runner, he was going over his happy times. Every way we looked, up and down the vale, on the hill sides and hill tops and into the canyons — in every direction there were places of happy memories. Much of Shady's happiness was an echo of my own. Shady can read your mind and your spirit, as all dogs can, especially those which are part coyote. The Knoll is ever a place of hope. When you are on this spot you know that "God is in His heaven; and all is right with the world."

Another thought that came to me is how very fortunate I am. The rains turn the world into something like Heaven; and here we were surrounded by all these heavenly hills and vales, and mountain meadows.

I have been given wondrous blessings that you could not reach even in dreams — so good is God to us all.

And on this spot come not only wonderful dreams but also the hope and the faith and the lightness of heart to make them come true. I remember how so many back through life have helped make so many dreams of me and my loved ones come true. You, dear reader, have always meant and still mean ever so much to my happiness. Thank you and God bless you.

Let us all work and pray and help in every way to make the dreams of all of us come true. Bringing happiness is the greatest happiness.

Rain Water Gardens
The early Spanish people used to say that it rained in years back more than it does now and that you could have a "Cosecha temporal" (crops grown with rain water). I notice in the little garden that the vegetables have started growing rapidly since the rain.

It adds so much to the enjoyment of the rain to have something growing.

Today is August three, and we are right in the middle of summer, one of the most glorious I have seen in a long time. A little while ago I heard the cows on the hillside calling their calves, telling them it is time to go back to the higher ground to their rainy weather homes. And now the drops are pattering and here comes a rain from the West. The rains coming from different directions have their own personality.

The heaviest downpours come from the southeast without much thunder and lightning. They just move in quickly. The north rain is cold and sometimes brings hail. Sometimes the north rain comes driving with wind. The long, soaking rain that covers the whole world comes from the east out on the plains of Texas. At night you can see this rain approaching from a long way — illuminating the night sky with rosy colored and silver lightning.

The west rain is off the mountain and is usually a gentle shower with good-sounding thunder and beautiful lightning. Now with the shower the growing things are happy. In the little flower garden the Scotch Blue Bulls are delighted with their crystal drops of rain; and the purple wild snapdragon is shining too with the jewels of the rain, with the sun making rainbow colors on these gems from the sky.

Adding a touch of bright scarlet is a little row of Lady Slippers given to me by that great friend, the green thumb man, Wilbur Conley. His place looks beautiful after the rains.

I remember these Lady Slippers from Old Mexico where they grow wild. Out in the mountains you might see the remains of a home of years gone by, and the Lady Slippers would still be blooming cheerfully. Something like the way in this country where there used to be a dwelling a hundred years ago, you still see the old Apricot tree or maybe a pear.

Speaking again of rain water gardens. My dear friend Dr. Louis Boellner, pioneer Roswell resident who had a great gift with growing things, had an expression all his own that I liked. He would speak of a tree or plant of any kind having the early-bearing spirit, the drought-resistant spirit, or the late-blooming spirit.

Right now all plant life has the rapid-growing spirit. There is still time to plant summer squash, green beans, radishes, and other rapid-growing vegetables.

Earthquake, Flood and Fire
Earthquakes have pretty much let us alone here; and the rain has got us breathing easier about the forest fire. That leaves just the floods.

Most severe floods come when Mother Earth is dry and there is no ground cover. So here we are holding another ace. Far and near the ground cover is good and getting better every day. So that, when the rain does fall, much of it stays and goes into the ground instead of running down the draw.

Still, remember. The rain does not always let us know when it is going to fire both barrels or maybe bring up the artillery. Always respect the streams and canyons, especially during the rainy season. That way you will not be carried down to Texas, swimming in "the foaming brine."

Spirit of The Kid

I meant to bring you a little story of Billy the Kid; as it is the season when we turn back the clock to the time of early-day Lincoln County. But somehow the story fell by the wayside. I will bring it to you a little later.

I feel as if I know Billy the Kid. In my youth I talked to several of his friends. (This is as near as you can come to knowing someone without actually being acquainted with him in person.)

All these old timers say that he was welcome everywhere on account of his sunny disposition, his Irish humor, and his helpful ways. Hardly anything dampened the Kid's cheerful disposition. Like most all the pioneers of his day he could say the right thing or do something that would lift you out of your troubles. The old timers laughed and joked their way through life, mostly. When it came to the time you needed cheering up or comfort in your adversity, they were right there. People needed one another and depended on each other.

Let us all be cheerful, hopeful, faithful and helpful in the old time Lincoln County way.

Prevent lawn diseases

Lawn diseases are appearing throughout New Mexico and the El Paso area. Cool season grasses such as bluegrass and rye have been hit the hardest. The fungi which cause these diseases are most severe during warm weather, says Emroy L. Shannon, Extension plant pathologist at New Mexico State University.

Although there are many effective chemicals on the market to control lawn diseases, the best way to grow healthy grass is to follow a few simple rules that will prevent disease from getting a foothold.

The most common cause of lawn disease problems is the result of poor watering practices. Some areas in the lawn simply do not get enough water because of poorly placed sprinklers. Droughty areas are usually the place where lawn diseases first appear.

Place your sprinklers so that the lawn gets uniform coverage and water to a depth of one foot or more. It takes about one inch of water on an average loam type soil to penetrate to a depth of one foot.

Coffee cans or similar containers should be placed in the area to be sprinkled so that the rate can be measured. Some sprinklers may require six hours to provide one inch of water, while others may apply one inch in 45 minutes.

When grass develops a deep root system, daily watering is not needed. Water applied twice a week or less often should be sufficient for most lawns. Some lawn areas must be watered to a depth of several feet in order to apply sufficient water for nearby trees, Shannon says.

Nitrogen fertilizers applied in the summer to cool season grasses, such as bluegrass and rye, often encourages lawn diseases. Apply fertilizers to cool season grasses only in the spring and fall.

Mow grasses before it gets too tall. Not more than one-half of the leaf surface should be removed at one time. One and three-fourths to two inches is the best height for bluegrass. Bermuda can be maintained at shorter heights, Shannon says.

Fungicides will help diseased areas to recover more rapidly. Turfgrass fungicides may be purchased from nurseries and other garden supply centers under various trade names.

A broad spectrum fungicide should be used since it is impossible to distinguish the fungus involved without a microscopic examination. Broad spectrum fungicides include Actidione RZ, Dyrene, Ortho Lawn and Turf Fungicide, Daconil and Fore.

New Mexico canners must adjust time

With high food prices, home canning has increased in popularity. However, canning will not save money unless high quality produce is used and reliable instructions are followed, says Mae Martha Johnson, Extension food specialist at New Mexico State University.

Don't experiment or take shortcuts with home canning. Use only approved methods from current food preservation books such as "Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables," USDA Home and Garden Bulletin No. 8, or books published by manufacturers of canning equipment.

Altitudes in New Mexico make it necessary to increase the time when processing fruits and tomatoes in a water bath. When canning low acid vegetables in a pressure canner, pressures must be increased, Mrs. Johnson says.

For a boiling water bath lasting less than 20 minutes, increase the time one minute per thousand feet. For processing times over 20 minutes increase the processing two minutes per thousand feet above sea level.

When canning low acid foods in a pressure canner, pressure should be increased one pound for every 2000 feet above sea level. At 2000 to 4000 feet use 12 pounds pressure, the NMSU specialist says.

Some pressure sauce pans and small pressure canners use a weighted gauge with only 5, 10 and 25 pounds of pressure indicated rather than a dial type gauge. In a cooker with a weighted gauge, use 15 pounds of pressure when canning at any altitude over 2000 feet.

Mayonnaise and peanut butter jars are not intended for use in home canning. These jars are manufactured for one time usage and are not constructed to withstand the temperatures and pressures of home canning.

Proper canning lids are also important. Metal lids with sealing compounds can be used only once and must be replaced each year. Instructions vary with brands, Mrs. Johnson says. Buy only those lids which have complete instructions and follow the directions carefully.

Vets benefit from bill

Increased guaranty on mobile home loans and extended eligibility to 250,000 peacetime veterans were among features of the Veterans Housing Amendments Act of 1976 signed into law by President Ford June 30.

The Veterans Administration pointed out that more than 9.3 million veterans have borrowed $122.9 billion under the Veterans Administration's Loan Guaranty Program since it was established in 1944. The guaranty is a substitute for investment protection sought by lenders through substantial down-payments and shorter terms in making conventional mortgage loans.

Mobile homes and mobile home lots were added in 1970, with a guarantee of 30 per cent. The new law increased this guarantee to 50 per cent, effective July 1, of an unpaid balance up to a maximum of $12,500 on single wide units. For a double-wide unit, the maximum is $20,000.

Veterans gaining eligibility for GI home loans for the first time, effective October 1, are those whose active duty occurred after July 25, 1947, and prior to June 27, 1950. They must have served for more than 180 days under conditions other than dishonorable or have been discharged with less service for a service-connected disability, it was noted.

Unmarried surviving spouses of veterans who served during this period also will be eligible if the veteran died while on active duty or as a result of a service-connected disability.

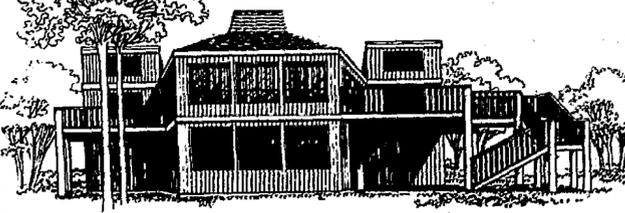

Veterans with service overlapping the peacetime service dates who derived entitlement from World War II or Korean Conflict service will not acquire new entitlement as a result of the new law, a VA spokesman said.

Also effective October 1 is an increase in the amount of direct loans that can be made by the VA to eligible veterans or servicemen from $21,000 to $33,000.

The direct loan program credit for purchase, construction, repair and alteration of homes and farmhouses in some rural or small community areas where private credit is not generally available.

Complete information on GI home loans is available from all VA offices or veterans' organization service officers.

Present home matches view to a "T"

This original design takes full advantage of both a waterfront view and factory engineering.

The primary living area of this unique cedar home angles forward with view windows on all sides - forming the vertical in what is basically a T-shape. (That distinctive, square-topped roof peak encloses the fireplace chimney.) But the bedrooms also share the outlook and the drama, with ceilings that angle upward to a peak of 13 ft. on the view side.

Access is via a lower-level family area and spiral staircase, or an outside stairway to the upper-level deck. Total living area: 1,856 sq. ft., plus 515 sq. ft. of deck.
