BUSINESSMEN DONATE $3,300

'Good Sam' fund tops $70,000

Area businessmen contributed approximately $3300 during last week's concentrated two-day fund raising drive for the proposed Good Samaritan nursing home, "The drive is continuing. We were unable to contact many of the businessmen," fund raising committee spokesmen said.

Cash contributions, pledges and gifts now total over $70,000. "More money has been brought in during the last two weeks, proportionately, than during the entire fund drive," Preston Isaacs, treasurer of the fund raising committee, said.

The Rotary Club has scheduled an enchilada buffet to be served at noon and in the evening October 19 at the Elks Club with proceeds to go to the Good Samaritan fund. Dances and other activities, sponsored by local organizations, will be scheduled in October and November to benefit the proposed home prior to the cut off date of midnight, December 31.

It was reported by Sarah Lee Beumer, committee member, that St. Mary's hospital in Roswell is closing the fourth floor to nursing care patients. This floor has, for some time, been used exclusively for people requiring care and supervision, but not necessarily around the clock treatment. Rising costs have allegedly made the arrangement too expensive to continue the facility. Closing of this floor eliminates one of the few nursing care centers available to people in the Ruidoso area.

Greg Russell of KBIM-TV in Roswell spent Monday afternoon, accompanied by Isaacs and Charlotte Jarratt, completing a photographic tour of the Good Samaritan building site donated by Camelot. He also taped and filmed Monday night's meeting of the fund raising committee at the Ruidoso State Bank.

"Anyone planning to visit the building site is required to check with the Camelot office because the road is under construction and there is some dynamiting in the area. A four-wheel drive vehicle is necessary to get to the site at this time," Jarratt said.

Barney Waldrop, committeeman, reported that a local doctor had suggested he speak at a doctors' staff meeting to inform them of the proposed nursing facility and to ask their support. Waldrop said his request to meet with the doctors was denied by Jim Burns, hospital administrator, who said, "You would be wasting your time and ours" unless the fund raising committee can guarantee the staff that 24-hour registered nursing care will be provided at the proposed center and that it will qualify for patients using Medicare.

Jarratt said it is yet to be determined whether registered nurses will be on duty around the clock or a portion of the day. She said the Good Samaritan home in Alamogordo does not have an RN on 24-hour duty as it would make room rates and other costs prohibitive. She also discussed home health care as a possible avenue to alleviate care required by patients needing assistance after they leave a hospital or a nursing home.

Downs trustees initiate action on 'MJ' ordinance

The Ruidoso Downs trustees Monday introduced a proposed ordinance making possession of one ounce or less of marijuana unlawful, with certain exemptions; and, providing penalties for violation. The ordinance will come up for final adoption at the Oct. 11 meeting of the trustees.

The trustees will pursue all legal means to enforce Ordinance 78-9, pertaining to cleanup of properties deemed a menace to health on private properties, including, if necessary, jail terms and fines levied against any person or persons not complying with the provisions of the ordinance.

The low bid of $4,583 on a pickup truck for the Village, submitted by Sierra Blanca Motor Co., was accepted. Other bidders were Gene Brock Ford, $4,719.87 and Horizon Ford, Roswell, $4,603.56.

In other action, the trustees:

— Agreed to make final payment to

The Ruidoso trustees were advised Tuesday that three improvement projects are underway, with contracts totaling $551,619.20.

— A rubberized asphalt coating on Hwy. 37, through Ruidoso and to the north, will be "shot" and coated with chips. The work is to be completed by the end of next week, village officials were advised. Preparatory work, repairing of sections of Sudderth and Mechem, is virtually completed and the coating work was scheduled to begin today.

"All drivers are advised to exercise extreme caution when driving past the crews applying the coating," village manager Jim Hine said, "to avoid accidents and to permit the work to continue without interruption."

This will be the first coating work done on Hwy. 37 through Ruidoso since completion of the surfacing in 1961, Hine said.

— Taxi strip and parking area blacktopping is underway at Municipal Airport under a project funded $243,900 by the U.S. Department of Transportation and $9,000 by the village. The project will enable the airport to handle the heavier aircraft that have started using the Ruidoso facility. Ninety working days have been allotted for completion of this project.

— Ten-inch pipe has been laid out along the 16,000-foot stretch of Gavilan Canyon and grading on the road edge, preparatory to ditching and installation of the pipe, is underway. The $298,719.20 contract calls for completion within 120 days.

In other business the trustees:

— Accepted the bid of $4,170 from Sierra Blanca Motors, including two trade in units, for a 1977 1/2-ton pickup with automatic transmission for the sewer department. Also bidding was Gene Brock

Ford in the amount of $4,693.29.

— Accepted the bid of Sierra Blanca Motors in the amount of $6,275 for a 4-wheel drive one ton pickup, cab and chassis only, for the Ruidoso Volunteer Fire Department. Also bidding were Jerry Pritchard, Roswell, $6,391.31 and Gene Brock Ford, $4,772.88, who could not provide the 4-wheel drive.

— Accepted a request from Air Ruidoso Inc., to obtain fuel through village storage tanks at a charge of five cents a gallon payable to the village, with the stipulation that Air Ruidoso Inc., service their own vehicles and that they supply only their own aircraft or be subject to loss of their charter. The firm was also authorized to obtain direct service from the village supplier, placing the village under no obligation, if they desire.

— Accepted the bid of Fidelity Insurance Agency Inc., of Roswell, the only one received, in the amount of $8,258 for one year to provide vehicle liability insurance for village vehicles. The coverage will cost $152.92 per unit. Under the three-year contract, the premium will be adjusted 60 days prior to the end of each year's coverage.

— Were advised by Jack Kannady Sr., that his engineering firm has determined that a utility easement only exists at Lot 6, Block 4 of Pinecliff, and that there is no dedicated alley between lots.

— Advised Town and Country North residents that legal counsel had instructed the village that the village should have "no involvement with restrictive covenants in the sub-division."

— Were notified of, and invited to attend, the Planning and Zoning Commission's public hearing Oct. 20 pertaining to the Comprehensive Plan 1976, set for 7:30 p.m., in the multi-purpose room of the Ruidoso Library.

— Accepted the final plat of Airport West Unit 4, submitted by Lloyd Absher, with the provision that street paving, for which a cash bond has been posted, be accomplished within the time period called for in subdivision planning. On a poll of the trustees, George White and Ab Gunter voted "aye", Sherman Atwood, "no", with mayor Lloyd Davis Jr., requesting his "in favor" vote be recorded.

— Approved dividing Lot 30, Block A, of Navajo subdivision, 23,000 square feet, into two lots.

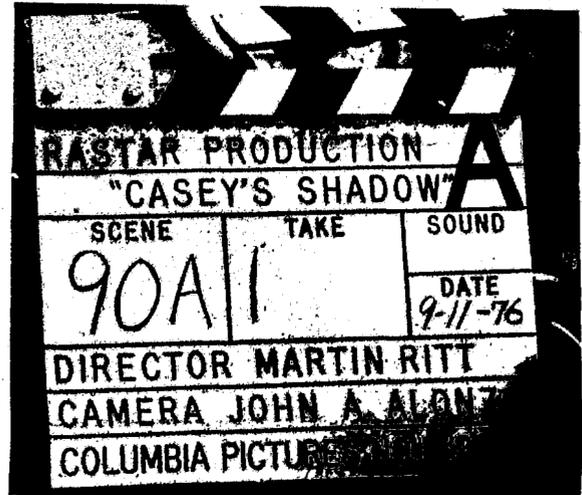

— Authorized Hine to advise petitioners for annexation of Paradise Canyon, Second Addition, that assessments on water, sewer and paving would total $490,000 to property owners. Water and sewer would have to be installed within 12 to 18 months and street paving completed within 24 to 30 months. Frontage foot costs were pegged at $27 for the three improvements and at $21 without streets, with the second option totaling $373,000. The oiginal estimate of the per front foot cost, for all three improvements, was $18.

— Tabled action on a request from Cablevision of Lincoln County for a new franchise pending compliance with Section C, Article 4 of the existing franchise, pertaining to restoring areas involved in Cablevision's expansion work to original condition, and ordered Hine to so notify Cablevision of Lincoln County. Hine also advised the trustees that the village was continuing the investigation into the franchise request to determine the extent of Federal Communications Commission requirements.

— Were advised by administrative assistant Frank Potter, upon question by trustee White, that plans for an animal shelter location are still pending with the U.S. Forest Service and the possible location at the former Coe Ranch.

— Took no action on a proposal by Elmer Fox, Westheimer and Co., of Roswell, Certified Public Accountants, to conduct a fiscal control study of village operations.

The next meeting of the Good Samaritan fund raising committee, open to the public, will be held at the Jarratt home during an old fashioned ice cream social September 27, beginning at 7 p.m.

Ruidoso hospital holding chapel dedication Sunday

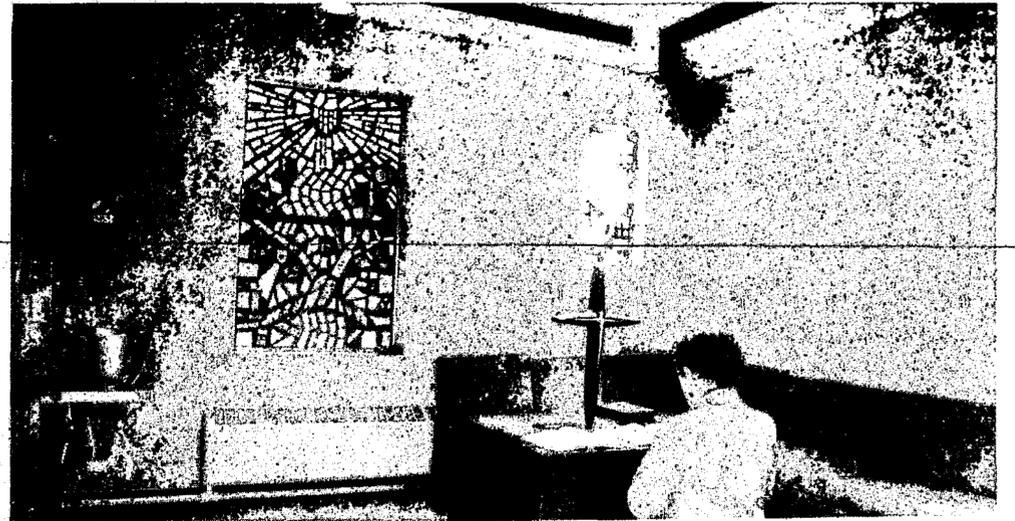

The Chapel of the Beloved Physician, of the Ruidoso Hondo Valley Hospital, will be dedicated in garden ceremonies at the hospital Sunday at 4 p.m.

Participating clergy include Fr. Flavio Santillanes, St. Eleanor's Catholic Church; Fr. Delbert Achuff, Episcopal Church of the Holy Mount; The Rev. Mr. Ken Cole, First Christian Church; The Rev. Mr. Frank Crown, First Presbyterian Church and Dr. E.W. Campbell, First Baptist Church. Hospital officials and representatives of the advisory board will assist at the dedication.

The program will be under the auspices of the Ministerial Alliance of the Ruidoso area, sponsors of the chapel which is available for use by the public. "This dedication is a significant event in the life of our community," hospital administrator James Burns said, "and an open invitation is extended to everyone to attend the ceremony and to view the Chapel of the Beloved Physician, an addition to our services, that, we've been told, is very much appreciated."

School sells $700,000 bond issue

The school board awarded the sale of $700,000 in general obligation bonds Tuesday to E.F. Hutton & Co. Quinn & Co. who bid a 5.125 effective interest rate.

Three other bidders quoted 5.510, 5.628 and 5.941 in interest rates. The first $650,000 in school bonds were sold at 5.31 per cent.

Pat Vaillant, superintendent of schools, and Dave Parks, school board president, commended Darrel Fowler, bonding agent of Stern Brothers & Co. for "a very fine job" and said they were pleased with the low bid.

Fowler said he anticipates the interest rates to remain stable until after the November presidential election and that the balance of $300,000 in bonds will be sold upon certification of the school district valuation — within the next two months. "We're right on target for the tax rate we quoted to the residents prior to the bond election. We're within a few cents per thousand," Fowler said. The rate originally quoted to property owners was $6.95 per thousand in assessed valuation. Stormy Edwards, board secretary, quipped, "If we wait until after the election, we may be paying these bonds off in peanuts."

Final approval of the $3.4 million school budget was received and valuation for the school district was set at $30,654,744 representing a $4.5 million increase over last year.

Vaillant reported that total school enrollment is 1,239, 15 short of the projected figure, but that he expects enrollment to increase within the next two to three weeks. In 1975, the board estimated enrollment at 1,166, but the registration figure at the beginning of the last school year hit 1,220.

In other action the board:

— Granted permission to Jack Kannady, bus contractor, to purchase a new 66-passenger school bus for the 1977-78 school year.

— Eliminated a portion of Board Policy Number 4.24 which will now give no credit for less than two-thirds year teaching experience. This action will affect teachers' pay scale only, not retirement or service schedules.

— Approved extension of the national school lunch program.

— Passed a resolution accepting $53,000 in revenue sharing to be used for teachers' salaries.

— Approved budget revenue increases and one minor transfer.

The school board will hold its next regular meeting, open to the public, October 12 at 8 p.m., in White Mountain elementary school cafeteria.

Boiled Peanuts Bring Big Profits

nuts would have to be boiled under pressure if they were to live up to her standards, so she went to the county canning kitchen to experiment.

Through trial and error, she hit on the correct amount of water, salt and time needed to produce the perfect boiled peanut. When she was satisfied, Mrs. Eubank tested them in the laboratories of the Florida Department of Agriculture, then obtained permission to market them and even registered her trademark — "Mrs. Eubank's Boiled Shelled Peanuts."

She set up her own canning plant in Atlantic Beach, Florida, and with the help of Dr. Richard Matthews of the University of Florida, began producing small quantities of peanuts which she canned and marketed herself.

In 1975, a Florida food company bought her business and started developing the Southeast as a market for Mrs. Eubank's peanuts. Initially they were sold only in Florida. Now, the peanuts are available in Georgia, North and South Carolina and Alabama, and distribution is being discussed with concerns in Chicago, Cincinnati and Buffalo. With all the hard work behind her, Mrs. Eubank collects a royalty on every can of boiled peanuts the company sells.

Even though Mrs. Eubank and her late husband owned a small grocery store for many years, this is the first product she ever developed and marketed. And if she'd been aware of the complications involved in canning boiled peanuts, she might never have gone ahead with her idea.

"I guess I'm just lucky I didn't realize how many people tried to can boiled peanuts and gave up," Mrs.

Eubank said. "I didn't know they'd said it couldn't be done."

The financial success Mrs. Eubank is beginning to realize would be enough to satisfy other people of any age, but not Mrs. Eubank. She's already "fooling around" with another project that she's reluctant to talk about right now.

As long as Vera Eubank has a new kind of nut to boil and can, she'll keep right on experimenting, because it's a sure thing she'll never run out of ideas or energy.

LAST MAY, Leonard Davidson of Ogden, Utah, achieved a remarkable goal — 6,000 hours of service as a volunteer in the pediatrics division of the McKay-Dee Hospital of Ogden. The day after he retired 14 years ago, Mr. Davidson began spending Tuesday and Saturday mornings at the hospital, and has also been a substitute teacher in the Ogden school system.

"I have told thousands of children in their classrooms and many of my children at McKay-Dee that I consider them the cleanest, finest, smartest (not always wisest) generation I have ever known. And I have urged many of the Junior Volunteers with whom I have worked to consider a career in nursing or health care technology.

"I wouldn't take $100,000 for my experience as a Volunteer," Mr. Davidson said.

GOING STRONG is going on television. Station KUAT in Tucson, Arizona, has a series called "Going Strong," which features older, active people, such as "Oliver" Pop" Saul, 86, who still teaches riding and roping to youngsters at a local ranch.

Clipped Comment

WE DON'T WANT THE GADGETS

The State's ripoff of the taxpayers continues on the public highways of New Mexico.

A total of $209,000 in traffic fines came through the magistrate courts in July of this year, an increase of 26% over last year. The money came from about 30% more traffic citations issued for the same comparative period. The State Police admit that the increase is entirely attributable to the new mobile radar equipment the state cops bought with federal assistance.

Federal or not, the money comes out of our pockets, of course, and has been used to obtain devices to extract yet more money out of us.

The month of July thus produced $43,000 more than last year for the state's general fund. That may not be a whopping amount of money on the scale of a state budget — but the point is that it is extracted directly from citizens for no good reason other than revenue collection.

point A to point B for business or personal reasons.

During the period from July 1, 1975 to July 31, 1976, State Police issued more than 280,000 tickets, and said 70% of them were for speeding. Most of the stepped up police effort is admittedly aimed at catching those citizens who transgress the dumb federal 55 miles per hour speed limit.

The 55 mph limit is a fraud. The public knows that and the police know that. Our own legislature only adopted the limit because the feds threatened to cut off all highway funds otherwise.

The 55 mph limit only serves to allow Detroit to sell more gas guzzlers for a few more years. There's no other reason for it. In fact it's counter-productive, as it tends to discourage the design and manufacture of cars which can get better gas mileage at higher speeds (that's what we need in New Mexico).

Our legislature stipulated the 55 mph offenders would not have "points" attached to their licenses until they exceed if the state wants to collect money, it should raise taxes, not harass selectively those citizens who are trying to get from the old 70 mph limit. The clear intent of our legislature was to enforce the federal limit as little as possible.

Thus the state cops are in violation of the legislature. And the average taxpayer doesn't appreciate it either. The governor should call in the State Police and tell them to sell those gadgets to some other state which wants them. New Mexico does not want them.

MATTER OF SCALE

The man from Rolls-Royce did not exactly say that some Americans would be buying the $90,000 model this year. He did intimate that it might happen.

Some may feel outrage at the idea of anyone's paying that kind of money for a car, when such a sum could do so much good. But doesn't that apply, in principle, to a great many of us in this affluent land?

The multimillionaire buys a $90,000 Rolls instead of, say, funding a poverty-area jobs center. A salaried man cuts his charity pledge to make budget room for his new-car payments. Are they so different, except in the matter of scale? It's a thing to think about when one's feeling excessively virtuous.

— Alamogordo Daily News

To a Northerner, boiled peanuts would probably make good chicken feed. For 72-year-old Vera Eubank of Jacksonville, Florida, they make money. Boiled peanuts are eaten in the South as regularly as the roasted variety are in the North, and Mrs. Eubank has come up with a method for canning them.

It all started about three-and-a-half years ago, when Mrs. Eubank was sitting down to shell two 50 pound bags of peanuts that a farmer cousin had given her.

"That was way more peanuts than I needed," she said in a recent interview with a writer from The National Council on the Aging, "and I got to wondering what I could do with them."

Boiling and canning them seemed like a good idea, so Mrs. Eubank put a potful on the stove. The results were not to her liking.

"I knew what I was looking for," she said. "A plump, tasty, boiled peanut and that first batch definitely wasn't right."

She decided that the pea-

Methodist church 30th anniversary

Community United Methodist Church of Ruidoso has set September 24, 25 and 26 as the time to commemorate their 30th Anniversary and to dedicate their buildings.

Former pastor Dr. Buren Stewart of St. John's Methodist Church, Albuquerque, will open the celebration by preaching Friday evening at 7:30, after which a reception for all former pastors will be held.

Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon former pastors will speak in the sanctuary. A covered dish dinner will be served at noon.

Sunday, Bishop Alsie Carleton and District Superintendent Dr. Richard Whitam will be present for the dedication services at 10 a.m. and Bishop Carleton will preach.

All former members and friends are invited to participate in the anniversary celebration and the dedication services.

Garden club

The Ruidoso Garden club will meet September 21 at 2:00 p.m. in the multipurpose room of the Library.

The program will be on Dried Wild Flowers — Local Sources — and will be presented by Madeline Murray. The exhibit will be dried arrangements.

Hostesses will be Patsy Lyle and Nora Luallin.

American Legion to meet

The Ruidoso American Legion and Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting Thursday, September 16, at 7:30 p.m.

The boy and girl stagers will be honored and will give a report on their activities. Their parents and sponsors are also invited to attend.

Two important future events are to be discussed at the meeting — the fall District 5 meeting to be held in Ruidoso in October and plans for sponsoring a dance with funds going to the Good Sam Nursing Home.

All members are urged to attend.

Walker-Allen vows

Patsy Nell Walker and William Niel Allen, both of Roswell, were united in marriage August 21 at 8:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Capitan. Rev. Hugh M. Stiles officiated at the old fashioned ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Walker of Capitan and the groom is the son of Mrs. Clema Phillips of Dora.

Mrs. Joyce Manz played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Hugh Stiles who sang "If".

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Jack C. Walker, in absence of her father, who was ill. She wore a long white dress of dotted swiss and silk organza featuring a high neckline, with a deep yoke and puffed sleeves with elbow cuffs.

For something old she carried a wedding handkerchief belonging to her great aunt and for something new a string of pearls given to her by the bridegroom. She wore the traditional blue garter for something blue and borrowed.

Betty Bernice Jones of Capitan, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a light blue dotted swiss dress with matching picture hat and carried a yellow candle.

Cathy Mast, Portales, was bridesmaid and wore a pale yellow dotted swiss dress with matching picture hat and carried a yellow candle.

Serving as best man was Jimmy Dean of Roswell. Ushers were Carol Allen, brother of the bridegroom, from Oklahoma City, Okla. and Terrie Atwood of Roswell.

Nieces of the bride, Missy Jones and Shannon Walker, were flower girls. Jack Walker, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a cream colored gown trimmed with ecru lace. She wore a corsage of blue carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a dark blue crepe gown and a yellow carnation corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony in the meeting room of the Lincoln County Fair building. The bride's table was covered with a lace tablecloth centered with a bouquet of yellow and white dahlias and daisies and graced with a silver punch bowl and candelabras.

Yvonne Jones attended the guest book. Hostesses were Mrs. H. T. Fillingim, Mrs. Ray Provine, Mrs. Bill Rundle, Mrs. Virgil Loomis, Mrs. Sam Cox, Joan Pumphrey, Judy Provine, Claudia Jones and Alice Fillingim.

The couple are at home in Roswell where the bride is employed by Holsum Bakery and the bridegroom is employed by the U. S. Post Office.

MR. AND MRS. ERIC
MORRISON

Cynthia Wynn, Eric Morrison

Cynthia Ann Wynn became the bride of Eric Morrison in a ceremony performed at the First Christian Church in Ruidoso at 8:00 p.m. August 24 with the Rev. Ken Cole officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dale H. Wynn of Ruidoso. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Morrison of Hobbs.

Organist Mrs. Lynn Willard played traditional wedding music.

Natural wicker baskets filled with white daisies, stock and yellow roses and candelabras with white candles accented with greenery and daisies flanked the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's original gown of white chantilly lace and tulle over satin, styled with a fitted bodice and scoop neckline, edged with scalloped lace appliques. The long sleeves formed petal points over the hands and the full tulle skirt, inset with lace panels, extended into a chapel length train. Her short illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls.

For something old, she wore pearls worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Henry I. Pederson, at her wedding and something new was her veil. She carried a small white Bible belonging to Mrs. Ken Cole for something borrowed and wore the traditional blue garter which was given to her by her sister.

Maid of honor was Catherine Marie Wynn, sister of the bride, who wore a floor length gown of yellow matte jersey, overlined with yellow organza. The dress featured a scooped neckline and long full sleeves of sheer organza.

Serving as best man was the bridegroom's brother, Alfred Morrison of Linexa, Kansas.

Ushers were Dale Randal Wynn, brother of the bride, and Roy Conner of Hobbs. The bride's brother, Christopher Wynn, served as candlelighter.

The mother of the bride wore a long gown of blue polyester knit with lace bodice and a corsage of yellow roses and daisies.

The bridegroom's mother wore a green floor length gown with long sheer sleeves and carried a corsage of yellow roses and daisies.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth overlaid with a lace cloth made by Mrs. Trousdale, great aunt of the bride. Hostesses were Mrs. LeRoy Gooch, Julie Gooch, Mrs. Ken Buckley, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Sally Buckley, Joanne Brillante and Francine Brillante.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Ruidoso High School and attended New Mexico State University at Las Cruces. The bridegroom is a 1975 graduate of Hobbs High School and is a sophomore at NMSU where he is majoring in Electrical Engineering.

The couple is at home in Las Cruces.

District 5 picnic

The American Legion posts and Auxiliaries of District 5 will hold their first annual picnic at Cedar Creek campgrounds Sunday, September 19.

Those who wish to camp out over night Saturday are invited to do so. Each family should bring a picnic lunch and be at the shelter by noon.

There is to be a trail ride for those who enjoy horseback riding.

All members and prospective members are invited to attend.

New pastor

Brother Young Tucker has accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist Church in Ruidoso Downs. He will hold his first service Sunday, September 26.

Brother Tucker and his wife, Robbie, moved here from Port Arthur, Texas, where he was pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church. This is to be his first New Mexico pastorate after having served several churches in Texas and Oklahoma.

The Tuckers have one son, Scott, who is an artist, attending Howard Payne College in Brownwood, Texas.

DAR to meet

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet at 7:00 tonight at the Ruidoso State Bank.

A program entitled "Some Thoughts About the Constitution" will be presented by Tom Loudon, which will include the formation and processes by which our constitution was created.

High school creative writing

The New Mexico University English department is now accepting entrants for the 16th annual Southwest High School Creative Writing Awards Program.
 The program is divided into two categories: short stories and poetry. The contest is open to high school students in New Mexico, Arizona, southwest Texas, southern Colorado, southern Colorado, southern Utah and Nevada.
 Entries should be typed on 8 1/2 x 11 paper with the student's name, school, city and teacher's full name on the first page. Entries must be accompanied by a note from the teacher verifying the entry as the work of a student.
 Entries will be judged by a panel of professors and students from the NMSU Creative Writing Center. The best 60 - 70 poems and short stories will then be published in a special magazine printed at NMSU. The magazine has a circulation of 2,500 and is sent to every high school library and English department in the Southwest.
 The program is funded by the New Mexico Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts. Entries and requests for further information should be sent to Dr. Tom Erhard, Creative Writing Center, English Dept., Box 3-E, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, N.M., 88001.
 Entries must be postmarked no later than Feb. 1, 1977.

INTERVIEW by Ed Hymann

There's a movie

BY CALE DICKEY
News editor

While attending the filming of two sequences of "Casey's Shadow" at Ruidoso Downs Race Track Saturday last, I had occasion to assume a sta... er, I filled an important posit... during some of the filming my august presence was much in de... well ... I saw some of the players.

At one point I was in a position to closely observe Walter Matthau. He's the big star. Plays a Cajun horse trainer. His aplomb ... in the midst of all of the excitement of the Winner's Circle bit ... was astonishing. He just kept chawing on his big "chew" ... expectorating at will ... and will ... that's with a small "w" ... kept ducking. Even at the tensest moment ... that's when the dramatic highlight occurred ...

Walter acted just like he'd lost his gun and quit traveling.

Then there was Harry Caesar ... portrays a character name of Calvin LeBec ... the owner of Casey ... the quarter horse that ups and overcomes all kinda obstacles to win the All-American Futurity ... by a nose or so. Harry's been kicking around the entertainment field and in the movies for quite a spell. He was cool. Knew his lines, too. I like to watch a pro work.

Alexis Smith ... that's Mrs. Craig Stevens ... has been for the past 32 years ... was in evidence. As Sarah Blue ... a much moneyed race horse enthusiast ... who plies her wiles in the movie ... she didn't get into the act with me. A fact I'll have to live with. And regret.

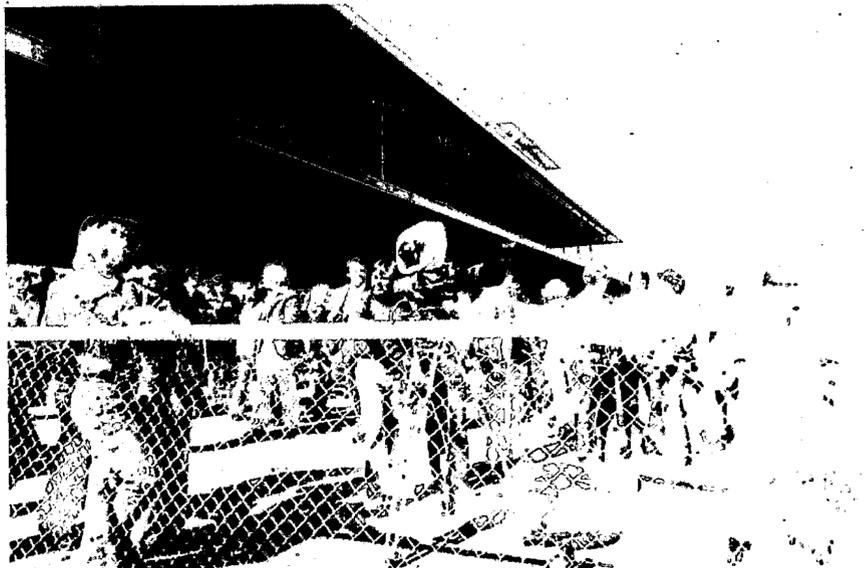

Anyhow ... there I was ... all determined to perform my role to the nth degree of perfection ...

which I eventually did . . . after director Martin Ritt got all the others straightened out . . . to his satisfaction. I had to stoop, squat and squint while snapping and shooting. 'Twas great sport . . . and all the time . . . right there in front of me . . . were these good actors . . . and director Ritt . . . and John Alonzo, directing the photography . . . but I noticed he didn't pay much attention to mine.

There must have been 75 to 100 of us . . . all making that movie possible . . . 'cause without us, the scene'd been missing something . . . like people . . . and Tom Seedman . . . he's the man in

ENM State Fair opening Tuesday

Some big things are in store for visitors at this year's Eastern New Mexico State Fair.

The fair, the oldest in New Mexico, has added a whole new line of activities to its program. For instance, at this year's fair, there will be:

- A nightly rodeo, as in previous years.
- Cutting horse competition, sponsored by the Greater New Mexico Cutting Horse Association, for the first time.
- Performances by the colorful Hondo Festival Dancers.
- A square dance jamboree on the last three nights of the five-day fair, featuring some of the top callers and dancers in New Mexico.
- Selection of the Chaves County Rodeo Queen, the first queen contest held in conjunction with the fair in years.
- The richest junior livestock sale in the state of New Mexico which for the first time this year will be a terminal sale, meaning that livestock will receive carcass grading.

— One of the biggest and brightest fair parades in the state.

— Nightly guest appearances by Walt Garrison, Dallas Cowboy football star and rodeo champion.

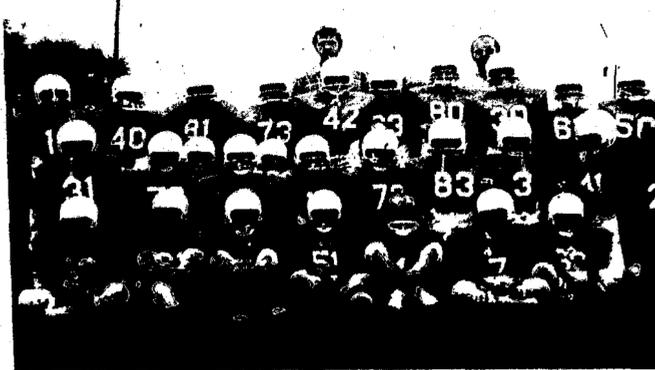

This year's fair will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 28, with a parade through downtown Roswell.

The fair will end on Saturday, Oct. 2, after the Eastern New Mexico State Fair Junior Livestock Sale and Show, rodeo and square dance performances.

In the interim, of course, the fair will feature such normal fair-type activities as a carnival, arts and crafts, rabbit and poultry judging, baking, riding competition and much more.

CAPTAIN'S FIRST Little League football team and their cheerleaders have spent three weeks in practice preparing to do battle with the Cowboys this Saturday at the Ruidoso High School football field in their opening game of the season.

Not too long ago we were rolling down the Sandia slope east of Albuquerque. The wind was at our back, Moriarty lay ahead, and everything was smooth. Except for the trucks.

Clipped Comment

CB'ERS ROAD WOES

A local citizen was sticking an envelope through the slot at the post office when we were in the other day. He was sending in his fine for voluntarily pleading guilty to a speeding violation. You know how that works.

But he was grumbling, and we sympathize. "I was clocked at 57 miles an hour," he says, "and I got a ticket, I think, because I happened to have a CB radio."

He says the cop, who was near Artesia working traffic, made the remark at the time he wrote the ticket, "Your CB radio didn't help you this time, did it?" indicating a possible bias against CB'ers. The radio wasn't even on.

As most people have by now found out, the ubiquitous citizens band radio has its good points and bad. Mostly, how it is used depends on whether it is a blessing or a curse. Sometimes, however, it gets you into a spot when you are an innocent bystander, as in the case cited.

Not too long ago we were rolling down the Sandia slope east of Albuquerque. The wind was at our back, Moriarty lay ahead, and everything was smooth. Except for the trucks.

The big 'uns that had strained up the grade through Tijeras Canyon had now topped out and they were feeling their oats on that downhill Interstate 40. Naturally they had all the highway gendarmes spotted and as a result were passing us like we were running on three flats.

After having about 15 of these behemoths overtake us at about 80 MPH while we were good-guying it along between 55 and 60, we got tired of being nearly blown off the road when they went by and so kicked it up to about 75 to keep from getting trampled.

By running with them we stayed in the left lane and avoided the bothersome "mousetrap" problem of getting behind someone slower but being unable to pass because a truck was running up behind us at a tremendous rate of overtake.

Perhaps because we had no CB we were not accepted as members of the fudging fraternity. What they were saying about us as we trundled down the hill with them we can only guess.

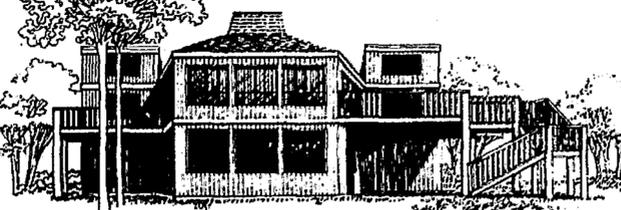

At the foot of the grade when the floor of the Estancia Valley came up, the trucks eased back and so did we. Matter of fact, we resumed legality and went through Moriarty at a dead 55. From experience we knew that was a good standard practice anyway.

Sure enough, just outside of town a highway patrol car was monitoring traffic and to our surprise he left his station and pulled in behind us, red lights winking. We pulled over but honestly could not guess what he had in mind.

"Fella, I don't have the goods on you," he said with a trace of disdain, "but those trucks told me you were coming down the hill west of town like a bat out of hell."

Dirty pool, if you ask us.
—Hop Graham, Loyington Daily Leader

Prevent home matches view to a "T."

This original design takes full advantage of both a waterfront view and factory engineering.

The primary living area of this unique cedar home angles forward with view windows on all sides — forming the vertical in what is basically a T-shape. (That distinctive, square-topped roof peak encloses the fireplace chimney.) But the bedrooms also share the outlook and the drama, with ceilings that angle upward to a peak of 13 ft. on the view side.

Access is via a lower-level family area and spiral staircase, or an outside stairway to the upper-level deck. Total living area: 1,856 sq. ft., plus 515 sq. ft. of deck.

THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

Yes, Unless you know something we don't, it's impossible to do everything you like to do at the same time. Or all the time, for that matter. And anyone who tells you different speaks with forked tongue. That's why, in choosing a resort condominium, you should consider Interval Ownership.

A PLAN FOR ALL SEASONS
Interval Ownership (or "Time sharing") is a plan by which you pay only for the time you use. And what you pay reflects a proportion of ownership in both the building and land. If your thing is swimming through the white stuff, purchase a week or two in Winter and ski Sierra Blanca. Or, if the green stuff is more your cup of tea, you might want some time during racing season at Ruidoso Downs. Or both, or for all seasons, forever. Well, we could go on and on. But why belabor a point? There are lots of these time sharing things around. It's just that ours is the best.

Fully maintained and equipped, elegantly appointed Townhouse Chalets. Private supper club, game rooms, golf, tennis, fishing, and a partridge in a pear tree.

Library group names officers

Friends of the Library elected officers Friday to head the newly-formed group.
Dave Travis was named president; Raymona McAdams, vice president and Nellie Vickers, secretary-treasurer.
Plans are being formulated for an installation of officers and programs to be scheduled throughout the next few months at the library.

JAMES R. ABBOTT has been named Supervisor of Lincoln National Forest, succeeding John Hafferson. He will assume his new post in Alamogordo Sept. 28. He has been with the USFS fire management staff in Washington.

Mexico tough on CB radios, car insurance

If you're one of the more than 15,000 citizen band radio owners in New Mexico and are planning a car trip to Mexico, here is a big 10-44 (message). If possible, leave your CB at home.

Mexico officials contacted in Albuquerque report that the government of Mexico has stopped issuing CB operator permits to tourists traveling in that country. They report applications for permits have far exceeded the limit allowed and therefore tourist CB buffs have been placed 10-7 (off the air).

"Failure to adhere to the rule may result in confiscation of your radio," says Peter DiGangi, chairman of the Insurance Information Institute's Committee in New Mexico.

DiGangi advises that the best thing to do, if possible, is to remove your CB radio and leave it at home. He warns, "If your CB is confiscated, it may not be covered by your insurance policy."

Vacationers can obtain full details on CB radio permits by writing the Secretaria de Comunicaciones, Mexico City, D.F.

There are other pitfalls to be aware of if you're planning a trip South of the Border. Make sure you have liability insurance required by the government of Mexico. Only insurance policies written by auto insurers located in Mexico, however, are recognized under Mexico law.

DiGangi states that you need a Mexico insurance liability policy with limits of $30,000/$60,000/$10,000. "These limits are higher than that required by New Mexico law," he said, "and without the Mexico coverage a motorist may face four unwelcome options if he is involved in an auto accident which results in only minor personal damage."

1. Post a cash bond with local officials.
2. Contact a U.S. insurance agent, via telephone or telegram (but under Mexico law, it is illegal for the agent to settle a claim in Mexico. The agent may, however, advance the cash necessary to post bond).

3. Post a commercial bond from a Mexican bonding company.

4. Face legal detention and impounding of the automobile.

If you are planning to tow a boat, make sure you take owner and registration papers for the boat and trailer.

If you plan to drive a borrowed car, make sure you take a letter from the owner stating that the car is borrowed and permission to drive the car into Mexico is granted by the owner.

"Anyone planning a trip by car to Mexico should contact his insurance agent before leaving. Your agent will be happy to fully discuss your needs and will be able to write a Mexico auto insurance company policy for you, or advise you where to obtain one," DiGangi said. "Of course, if you have any further questions concerning your trip, it may also be a good idea to write the government of Mexico and get complete details."

Swine flu information

The Health and Social Services Department of New Mexico has prepared the following questions and answers about "swine influenza" vaccine, prior to the statewide effort to immunize all residents against the disease.

(Information on times and places for free clinics will be released by HSSD's Health Agency as schedules are developed.)

Q: What is "swine flu"?

A: In 1918-19, an influenza virus caused a worldwide epidemic. In the United States alone, more than 500,000 persons died of influenza or its complications. Within a few years, however, this particular strain of virus disappeared from humans and was found only in swine—hence the name, "swine influenza." Then, last winter, an outbreak of influenza at Fort Dix was found to be caused by the "swine flu" virus. About 500 cases were recorded, one of which resulted in death.

Q: Can we be sure there will be an epidemic this winter?

A: No. But if one does occur, the death rate could be appalling.

Q: How is swine flu different from regular flu?

A: Influenza—popularly called flu—is a disease caused by a virus. There are several strains of this virus. The swine flu, as it occurred in 1918-19, was a particularly severe type and had a greater tendency to cause complications, including pneumonia or death.

Q: Is influenza a dangerous disease?

A: Yes. Although mild in most persons, even the mildest strain of influenza can cause a number of complications. Most common of these is pneumonia, which may be fatal, especially in the elderly and chronically ill. The Asian flu was blamed for about 80,000 deaths in this country in 1957-58 and the Hong Kong variety for about 40,000 deaths in 1968-69. Swine flu was blamed for about 500,000 deaths in 1918-19.

Q: Who is "high risk" from influenza?

A: Several groups in the population have been found to be more susceptible than others to influenza and its complications, and have a higher death rate from them. These include persons aged 65 or older, persons with heart disease of any type and persons with a number of chronic diseases, including lung disease, diabetes, kidney disease and cancer.

Q: Why should I be immunized?

A: The purpose of any immunization is to protect the person against a specific disease. To protect as many people as possible against the swine flu, the state's Health and Social Services Department will conduct a massive immunization campaign this fall.

Q: Should all persons be immunized?

A: No. Since the vaccine is produced in eggs, persons with an allergy to eggs should not be given the vaccine. Neither should young children.

Q: How effective is the vaccine?

A: The field trials found persons 24 years of age and older had an 80 to 85 per cent level of antibody protection against the swine flu after vaccination. Vaccinated persons who do develop influenza tend to have the disease in a milder form than if they had not been immunized.

Q: Are there "side effects" from the vaccine?

A: Some individuals experience mild side effects. But there is no danger of contracting the disease from the vaccine since it does not contain the live virus. A small percentage of persons—1 to 4 per cent in the field tests—develop a mild fever of short duration. Tenderness and a mild swelling in the arm occur more frequently and are related to the "shot" in the arm. For many of the free immunization clinics, however, a "jet" injector will be used. This injector sprays a mist of vaccine through the skin. Sometimes a burning sensation will be felt for a few minutes after the vaccine has been sprayed into the arm.

Q: How much does immunization cost?

A: The vaccine is being furnished free of charge by the federal government. Immunization will be free at county health offices and the clinics. Private physician will make a small charge for administering the vaccine.

Q: Where can a person be immunized?

A: A person can be immunized by his private physician, at county health offices or at special clinics which will be set up in a number of locations in all areas of the state. Times for vaccinations at the health offices will be announced, as will times and places of the special clinics.

Q: When can I be immunized?

A: Special vaccine for "high risk" persons should be available in early September; that for other persons two or three weeks later.

Q: Who do I call for more information?

A: Your private physician or county health office.

A $500 reward is being offered by Wayne Gee for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who stole property, of undetermined value, from his Ruidoso Downs home Sunday.

A partial list of the stolen items include: a color television, a mink coat, nine or ten ladies' and men's leather coats, six chokers, one gold and turquoise ring, one gold and diamond bracelet (diamonds spell Gee), a squash blossom necklace and six other bracelets of various descriptions.

Gee, a jockey, was in Albuquerque for the State Fair race meet when the burglary occurred and will make a complete inventory of the stolen property and value upon his return, he said.

The Gees' former residence was destroyed by fire last March and they recently completed a new home in Ruidoso Downs. Entry into the house was gained through breaking a west bedroom window, according to the police report, and the thieves searched the entire house.

Anyone having information on the burglary may contact the Ruidoso Downs police department at 378-4421.

Inside the Capital by Fred Buckles

SANTA FE — The State Park and Recreation Commission approved a proposed $11.5 million, 5-year capital improvements program for 31 state parks. The ambitious program will go the 1977 Legislature meeting Jan. 18. It would be financed with state severance tax bonds. Within the total these improvements are proposed: Belen State Park, $100,000; Caballo, Truth or Consequences, $527,000; Clayton, $125,000; Elephant Butte, Truth or Consequences, $843,000; El Vado, $177,000.

Also, Heron, $265,000; Kit Carson, Taos, $178,000; Los Esteros near Santa Rosa, $85,000; Percha, $50,000; Rio Grande, $85,000; Smokey Bear, Capitan, $300,000; Valley of Fires, Carrizozo, $109,000; and Sumner near Fort Sumner, 0.

Meeting at Elephant Butte Lake State Park, the state commission approved a $108,200 contract with Bixby Builders, Fort Sumner, for a fresh water system at Elephant Butte and a sanitary dump station for trailers at Caballo. The commission refused to extend for one year a two-year contract allowing New Mexico Sailing Club to use a sailboat marina at Heron Lake State Park.

The big $11.5 million bond proposal includes $1 million for the Central Rio Grande park system from Bernalillo south to Belen.

The Federal Highway Administration approved a temporary moratorium on removal of New Mexico billboards at a meeting with State Highway Department officials in Albuquerque. The moratorium will be in effect until new FHA regulations are adopted. The U. S. Department of Transportation is reviewing rules. Among them are conditions allowing an area to seek exemption of certain billboards. Three suits, including one by a motel-owning Santa Rosa firm, are pending against the SHD. They challenge the legality of the billboard removal law.

District Judge Filo Sedillo of Belen says the 13th Judicial District (Valencia-Sandoval) caseload "has been reduced by 500 cases in the last two years." Sedillo and Judge George Perez, Bernalillo, serve the district. Judge Sedillo says: "In District 13 once a case is at issue, if a case is two years old and no action has been taken, it is dismissed."

Judge Sedillo said he and Judge Perez dropped the regular grand jury procedure in the district. He said: "In 1975 about 180 defendants were indicted by a grand jury but only 60 were brought before a district court for arraignment." He added: "Instead preliminary hearings are held. Defendants have an opportunity to face their accusers before a magistrate. The district attorney must establish probable cause. If he does, the magistrate binds the case over to the district court for trial."

In another move to expedite disposition of cases judges in District 13 set cases for trial and notify attorneys, Sedillo said. Lawyers are not allowed to delay disposition of cases indefinitely. No pending case is more than two years old, Judge Sedillo said. He said cases 10 to 15 years old were cleared from the docket.

The Legislative Criminal Justice Study Committee proposes to build a new 500-inmate minimum security facility at Los Lunas with the $23 million state severance tax bond issue. The 30-year-old Los Lunas Honor Farm barracks style buildings and headquarters are in poor condition and deteriorating. The State Corrections Department has begun a successful pre-release program at Los Lunas to Albuquerque to training facilities and jobs to prepare themselves to return to civilian life with salable skills.

Mr. Carter says he wouldn't go to China. Says he wants them to come here first. Said it the day after Mao's death and before he even knows who Mao's successor will be. If that kind of shoot-from-the-hip foreign affairs diplomacy is going to be Mr. Carter's style, especially with a country that we're trying to ease tensions with, we'll pass on Mr. Carter. — kg

Produced by Taos sculptor Frank of Lyon and his painter wife, Shirley, a miniature statue of Roy Clark will be presented to the famed western singer when he headlines a State Fair rodeo show Wednesday (Sept. 22) at Tingley Coliseum in Albuquerque.

Lt. Gov. Bob Ferguson, Artesia, and Andy Vigil, Taos, were named to the Jimmy Carter presidential campaign 23-member New Mexico executive committee.

The U. S. Health-Education-Welfare Department designated 13 New Mexico counties as "critical" medical shortage areas. Guadalupe, Hidalgo, Lincoln, Rio Arriba and Taos were among them. Needs were based on number of residents to physicians, inaccessibility of health care services and other factors.

Gov. Jerry Apodaca renamed Truth or Consequences lawyer Roy Hill to the State Public Defender Board for a term ending in 1979. New Mexico School Boards

Association will push for a law in the 1977 Legislature with specifics on recall of local school board members. Penasco, Questa and Ojo Caliente are among nine New Mexico school districts with activity on recall of local school board members in the last year. The NMSBA says present law is vague and subject to abuse.

New Mexico Municipal League elected Mayors Bobby Allen of Truth or Consequences and Santiago Martinez of Espanola as NMML directors. The State Court of Appeals held state environmental officials may seek civil penalties against MolyCorp. Inc. for allegedly failing to report three spills of tailings from its open pit mine near Questa.

Famed Taos painter Andrew Dasburg will receive a Governor's Award for excellence and achievement in the arts Oct. 2 in Las Cruces.

LINGUISTIC JOB

Comes now the US Army Recruiting Command of Albuquerque, with whole bunches of goodies... including bonuses of $1,500-$2,500... to stimulate first-time enlistments.

In addition to a long list of professional... in a soldier's sense... positions for which bonuses are paid... there's one as Cryptologic Interceptor for three languages... pays $2,500 sign-up bonus... in Arabic-Syrian, Czechoslovakian and Polish... and if'n you're fluent... and knowledgeable... in those languages... the Army can use you.

Offering that enlistment enticement in New Mexico seems akin to offering Eskimos north of the Arctic Circle lessons in weaving African grass huts... but you can't say that the US Army isn't an equal opportunity employer... and it'll be left up to our Spanish speaking prospective enlistees to say equal to what.

PECKING ORDER

Biologists, among other things, have discovered that how a wolf carries its tail shows status... leaders of the pack carry their tails high in the air... the underlings drag along behind, with tails drooping or tucked between their legs.

Too bad Homosapiens have no tails... 'cause it'd sure make speech interpretation by members of The Congress easier... and it just stands to reason that not all of the Congressmen and Senators are the leaders they'd like to have us believe they are... which'd be another criteria over and above voting records.

HARD TOP ROAD

Me 'n m' bride... that's Kay, you know... had occasion Sunday to have a bouncy outing along Route 57... eyeing the south side of the Capitans... and ogling the preponderance of stunted tree life... which interferred in no way with viewing the forest.

We learned a lot about roads... and I learned my bride's opinion of Route 338, before we got to 57... and learned further, that next junket's going to find her at home... and me, too... 'cause on a couple of those stretches... bearing little resemblance to I-25... she did seriously question my mental stability... and that of my ancestors and their ancestry... and she didn't use her native F'inn.

'Bout time for lunch... with the USFS map indicating a spring at the upper end of Route 536... and beings we were a mite thirsty... being out of ice tea... and all... up that hard top road we swung... but we didn't swing long... 'cause we were real bouncy... all of a sudden... why those rocks were so hard... and there ain't a trace of mud in those truck springs nowhere... in fact, I'm ain't dead sure there's springs left.

'Bout a mile... maybe two... of that hard top road and we came to the end... and not a moment too soon, 'cause the road and m' bride's patience ended at the same time... which was a boon... for me. Kept me from having a head full of knots to keep covered all this week. If'n I coulda found a ten-gallon hat tall enough.

Well... there twern't no spring nohow... leastwise that could be found in a short hike... but we lunched anyhow... and as I chewed my victuals... she chewed on me... but between chews, she did allow as it was quiet and peaceful... 'cause there weren't no traffic... for which she defended at length the judgement of other drivers not venturing up 536... and small solace did she take when I pointed out, in case of deluge, we couldn't get stuck... 'cause there ain't enough dirt the whole length of 536 you make a mud puddle deep enough to keep a buncha four-year-olds happy for more'n seven seconds.

So... back down the road we meandered... keeping the blue stones on the left, red ones on the right... and, to whomever painted those rocks, my everlasting gratitude... 'cause staying in the channel they form keeps holes from appearing in the old oil pan... and two miles up 536 isn't the place to be caught without oil... being up there with no ice tea was bad enough.

BRIEF BIT: The man who says he'll solve the nation's labor ills by forcing employees to actually work 40 hours a week isn't going to get elected president... CD

by billie surmick

Bored with life? Wonder what it's all for? Can't afford a painting for your wall? Begrudge your neighbors' new carpeting? Dread having to cook dinner tonight? Kids getting on your nerves? Need a vacation? Take a trip to the dark side of the border. There you will find many people too busy trying to survive to be bored with life. They aren't concerned with paintings for their walls because they have no walls. They need no new carpeting to lay on dirt floors. The women would be glad to cook dinner if they had any food to cook. And the kids aren't underfoot getting on their mothers' nerves because they're out begging a living in the streets.

What politician has not professed, in one way or another, to be the next savior of the people. Some do well to save face.

A Denver bank now offers curb service. A motorist wishing to cash a check drives up to a device which has a two-way telephone, periscope and conveyor. He telephones the cashier, sending his check via the conveyor. By aid of the periscope, the two can see each other. If the check is good, the money comes back by conveyor. So reported the Wall Street Journal... in December, 1936.

Men of the Tarahumara Indian tribe in southern Mexico are best known as foot runners. They are barrel-chested, scantily dressed and run miles from village to village in competitive games and races. Their women, babies on their backs and children in tow, leave the mountains afoot to go beg in the cities. Their costumes and headbands are colorful and traditional, but they wear no shoes. They walk faster than most people can run. We tracked a Tarahumara woman for three blocks and at a dead run before catching up with her strolling pace. They have an absolute terror of the camera and there is no way which we could determine that they will agree to have their picture taken. We've read that Geronimo and his people once feared the "black box", referring to the camera, because they believed it would capture their souls in the image it reproduced. And the Chinese believe that to have a picture taken of all the family members together is bad luck. They usually make a point to omit at least one relative from the photographs. Does anyone know if the Tarahumara Indians have similar superstitions about photographs?

Discovered some interesting realities in Mexico. One of the hotels advertised "24 Hours Hot Water and English Spoken Here." Well, it probably took about 24 hours for the water to get hot as nothing was happening during the hour we had the shower turned on. And indeed, English was spoken, as touted, but it was not understood too well. We asked one waiter if No. 3-son, Chad, could have his remaining steak bagged to take with him. The first waiter smiled, agreed and spoke with a second waiter who smiled, agreed and spoke with the captain. They promptly picked up the plate and promptly returned it — with the remaining steak neatly cut in bite-sized bits. They probably thought Chad has a lazy mother and Chad's mother thought they had probably tried very hard to please so she smiled and agreed. We then asked what was for dessert and were told, "It's what you Americans call funny tubes." Taking a risk on popicles, we said okay. We tried very hard to be calm cool and collected when we were served cream puffs.

Odd, isn't it, that when people ban together for a common cause — such as the Good Samaritan nursing home — a handful does all the work. This handful is not composed of the nothing-better-to-do group. They are all working people involved in jobs, families and various other responsibilities. Another example which supports the adage: "If you need something done, give it to a busy man." On the other side of the coin, another handful of people would rather use their time and energy tearing down rather than building up or shutting up. Inquiry and controversy can be good, if used constructively. If not, they can be as deadly as apathy. The towns of Aztec and Grants had their share of problems in getting nursing home facilities off the ground, as did other towns. They faced not only fund-raising obstacles, but internal personality clashes and differences of opinions. However, they resolved their problems and got the job done. If Ruidoso denies this proposed nursing care facility, it will have the dubious honor of being the first community in Good Samaritan's history to fail...

Independent or no party affiliation voters used to comprise some eight per cent of the registered voter population. That figure has now jumped to over thirty per cent. Can this be indicative of disillusionment with one specific party, a better informed voter, a more sophisticated viewpoint, a disenchantment with politicians or a combination of all these things? b.

Our kind of people
Your kind of people
Make us a better bank

Diana opens new accounts at the Ruidoso State Bank in Ruidoso. When you come in she'll tell you what type of accounts are available. And help you decide which one is the right one for you. She also handles collections items. For instance, should you move to this area from another locale, she'll handle all transfers of funds and finalize your business with your previous bank. Or help you collect on draft items.

Assisting and counseling you is Diana's job. A job she truly enjoys, because she enjoys people. Answering your questions. Taking time with you. Making you feel at home in your bank.

The Ruidoso State Bank is a better bank because of Diana... and others like her... throughout our Lincoln County Banking family. They made our bank what it is today. A bank full of interested, professional people... whose ultimate goal is your banking friendship.

The Silver Lining

BY DANIEL AGNEW STORM

Telesfor H. Silva
It was a blessed sight to see so many of the services of Telesfor R. Silva, held last Friday in the church yard of The Church of San Patricio.

Friends and relatives gathered from near and far in fond and sacred tribute to this beloved patriarch, at the church which stands less than a mile from the ranch where he was born, and at which he worshipped faithfully throughout the ninety-one years of his life.

Much of the gathering of the faithful attendants at the services were his own kin. He has eight children, seventy-seven grand children and great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Telesfor and his family have been my life-long friends, and I was delighted to see many of my boyhood friends and their children and grandchildren.

Born with a sunshiney disposition, Telesfor has always spread happiness wherever he might go, always smiling, kind and helpful in sunshine and in shadow.

We know that the friends and loved ones of our dear friend will take comfort in knowing that Telesfor is safe and happy with Our Lord in Heaven.

The life of Telesfor brings to mind the words of the one hundred and twenty-seventh Psalm of David:

... Lo, children, the fruit of the womb, are a heritage and gift that cometh of the Lord.

"Like as the arrows in the hand of the giant, even so are the young children.

"Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them."

God's Cathedral
From El Paso came a letter addressed to the Silver Lining in care of The Ruidoso News from Mrs. L. M. Stradley calling attention to a poem, "God's Cathedral", which appeared in the bulletin of the Amsbury United Methodist Church. I am pleased to bring this poem to you and I thank Mrs. Stradley for her kindness:

"Whoever walks a mountain trail
Has never walked alone;
Or lifted eyes unto the hills
But inner strength has known,
Whoever seeks communion sweet
In God's cathedral there,
Will find the angels very near
And joining him in prayer.

The trees and flowers, the acolytes,
Will fling their incense sweet,
The feathered friends will join in song
And make the day complete.
The flowing streams whose melodies
Are never known to cease—
The giant crags that tower above—
Bring quietness and peace.

The wind will whisper through the pines
The sky will smile above,
And everything seems unified
Enshrined in God's pure love,
Whoever walks the mountain trail
Or kneels upon the sod,

Has been so near to Heaven's gate
He touched the hand of God."

Pears moving fast
And Apples ripening
Pears start ripening all of a sudden, and when they begin to ripen they do not look back. That is why the pears are moving fast now during September, the pear month. So now is a good time to be out in the beautiful late summer weather and have a look at the orchards and bring home pears and apples. The apples are ripening all along the slopes of the white mountain, and the early fall varieties, Jonathan, Golden Delicious and Red Delicious are ripe at the lower ends of the fruit valleys, in such places as San Patricio, Hondo, Picacho and Tinnie.

From the vale of Glencoe and all up the valley, the apples are rapidly putting on the color and size; and with each day the magic of the ripening rays of the sun works the Autumn miracle.

Local Apples
Hold Some Ace Cards

Several years ago, the Late Lawrence Stark of Stark Brothers Nurseries — developers of Golden Delicious, Stark's Delicious, and the Double Red Varieties — paid us a visit here in Lincoln County. He was much pleased with the land of the pinon and pine and he said, "This part of the country has as great a potential for apple growing as any place I have ever seen."

The apple country on the slopes of the Sierra Blanca is further south than most apple belts. By the time they ripen, the fruit has absorbed a generous share of the magic elements of the sunshine. During the ripening season the warm day, followed by the cold nights add an extra flavor and health quality to the apple.

This mountain soil is very rich and replenishes itself year by year as soil elements wash down from the mountain sides. The ground is also very well drained, and the irrigation water brings down nourishment for the trees from on high.

These and many more reasons add up to a great apple here in the land of the pinon and pine.

So remember our old friend, the apple tree. It is a joy just to see a tree full of ripening apples; and it gives your spirits a lift as well as a boost to your health, to eat a shining golden or a ruby red Lincoln County apple, grown by your neighbors and fresh from the tree.

Child Born To Les and Sharon Bentley
All the folks up at The Ruidoso News are rejoicing at the great blessing in the life of Les and Sharon Bentley, who are the proud parents of a baby girl born Friday September 10 in Ruidoso-Hondo Valle General Hospital.
The child's name is Christle Rene and she is certainly a little darling.
Sharon is employed at The Ruidoso News in the composing department as a typesetter. Named after the beloved flower of Ireland, "The Rose of Sharon" she is a true flower of happiness blooming among the people of this world, always cheery and kind with her bright blue-eye smile.
All of us are happy along with Les and Sharon, and we wish the proud young couple and their child, little Christle Rene all God's blessings and all the happiness in the world.

A MODERN PARABLE

Do you remember a few years ago, men were saying "God is dead"? You don't hear it so much anymore. Now men are more apt just to think He is indifferent.

The other day I heard a surprising theology expressed. A man said: "God is crazy." It was said by a crazy man.

Dead men say God is dead. Indifferent men say He is indifferent. Crazy men say He is crazy. Loving men say He is Love.

You are invited to join the Presbyterians of Ruidoso in worship any Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. We believe in and worship a God of Love.

"I'm always proud to serve Safeway beef"

Here are some excellent reasons that so many homemakers choose to serve the fine beef from Safeway:

USDA CHOICE Every beef steak and beef roast we cut at Safeway is USDA Choice beef. This grade is awarded by United States Department of Agriculture experts who are recognized unbiased authorities in grading beef. USDA Choice is the grade that assures you of fine flavor and great eating! We cut our short ribs, plate beef, brisket, boneless stew, and beef shanks, too, from USDA Choice beef.

CLOSE-TRIMMED FOR BETTER VALUE At Safeway, you do not pay for a lot of waste you can't eat. Our famous close-trim method removes excess fat and bone before weighing so you can get more meat to eat for your money. This method also helps assure you each cut will cook just right.

GUARANTEED TO PLEASE We spare no effort in bringing you the finest beef. But we go beyond that. We unconditionally guarantee your satisfaction in every way or your money is promptly and courteously refunded.

STOCK UP NOW FOR THE WEEKS AHEAD

It's Freezer-Stocking Time!

What's more convenient than a well-stocked freezer? When the menu calls for peas, green beans or other favorite vegetables, it's handy to reach in and fill the need immediately. Same thing holds true if someone gets hungry for pizza, tacos, waffles, apple pie, ice cream or another treat. This week, we're making it easy to stock your freezer with a tremendous variety of good things. Check your available freezer space and head for Safeway to "fill up" for weeks ahead.

Meet the Safeway Stars

They let you know... "You're the one that counts at Safeway."

You're the one that counts at Safeway—and our people at Safeway are giving you that "extra" effort everyday, to make sure you know this.

You'll notice people at Safeway who have been given special awards from the El Paso Division Office and the National Safeway Offices in Oakland, California. These people will be wearing gold insignias on their name badges. These gold stars are in recognition of that "extra" effort—given to customers, to fellow employees signifying an overall attitude that makes it easier for all of us to work together for you.

Other Safeway employees—and some of those wearing gold stars—will be wearing silver stars on their name badges. This award is given by a Mystery Shopper who shops Safeway, just as you do. This mystery shopper asks questions, directions—seeks assistance within the store and it's the employees who give that "extra" effort, going out of their way to make sure you find everything you need at Safeway... that receive this award.

The silver and gold stars on Safeway name tags are our way of letting you know... You're the one that counts at Safeway. And—You ARE the one that counts at Safeway. Our people are proving it everyday.

Apple Harvest, Market Fair set at Lincoln

The Apple Harvest and Market Fair in Lincoln will be October 16 and 17. Included in the plans are sales of apples, apple cider and baked apple products, a Lincoln

Nancy Servin at Lincoln. There is no charge for any booth reservation made before October 13, 1976.

County Art Show, gold panning, old fashioned auction, apple identification contest and nursery tour along with arts and crafts booths.

Apple growers are invited to participate in the Apple Harvest and Market Fair with a display of their apples for sale along with apple cider and baked products using

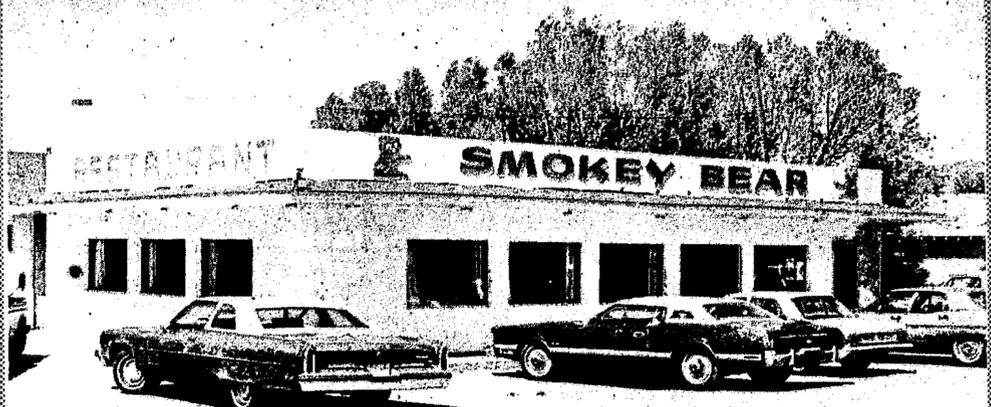

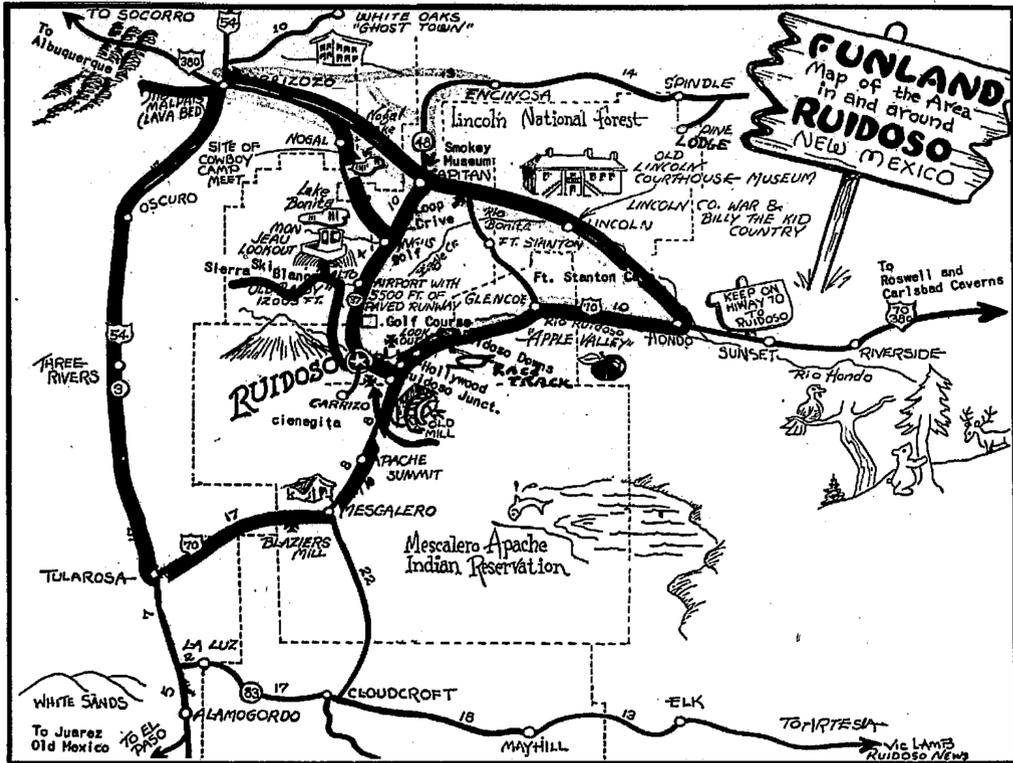

Anyone wanting to have a booth at the Apple Harvest and Market Fair should send in applications to Rosalie Dunlap or apples. John Ferguson of Roswell will have a daily auction starting at 3:00 p.m. He will sell anything that is on display at the Apple Harvest and Market Fair.

The art show is for Lincoln County school children from the first to sixth grades with the theme being "A Lincoln County Poster". Leota Pflingsten is in charge of the art show. Ribbons will be awarded on the Danish system with every entry receiving a ribbon.

Ralph Forsythe has agreed to have a gold panning booth with buckets of gold-bearing soil from the Nogal area for people to use.

Smokey Bear

Capitan, Home of Smokey the Bear and that's not all... it's also the location of Smokey Bear Motel and Restaurant. Irene, Marla and Norm Renfro offer 28 air-cooled rooms in the motel, clean, neat, comfortable and very convenient to get in and out as they are situated on Highway 380 in the heart of Capitan. There is also cable color television in each room.

In the coffee shop, which is open from 6 a.m. until 10 p.m. seven days a week, you will find your favorite items on the breakfast menu. For lunch and dinner they offer pizza, Mexican food, steaks and fried chicken. Of course this isn't all on the menu as you will find all kinds of sandwiches as well as luncheon specials. Your stay at the Smokey Bear Motel puts you close to many side trips in the area... Old Lincoln town, the Capitan mountains, Sierra Blanca Ski Area and many other points of interest, all within just a few miles. Take the scenic drive to Capitan for a delightful meal, or stay with the Renfros a day, week or whatever your pleasure... the hospitality is great!!

BOTTOMLESS LAKES State Park, on a warm and partly cloudy afternoon, nestles as an oasis in the desert flatlands just east of Roswell. White spot, in cove, extreme left, is adventurous "sailor" exploring the lake kayak. The spa offers a large swimming pool, shaded lunch tables and loafing areas and is frequented by family groups on a day's outing.
