FIRST TWO-YEAR-OLD IN QUARTER HORSE HISTORY TO PERFORM FEAT

Special Effort Triple Crown winner

BY DICK ALWAN

Special Effort glided over a sloppy track like a speedboat and roared into quarter horse immortality in Monday's 23rd staging of the All-American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs.

At the finish of the rain-drenched 440 yard journey, it was Special Effort in control by a crushing four lengths and richer by a tremendous $528,000.

The brilliant victory made Special Effort the first horse in history to win the Triple Crown for two-year-old quarter horses.

The colt also upped his earnings record to $1,028,723, which made him the richest quarter horse of all time. The previous mark was set a week earlier when Higheasterjet won the $1 million All-American Derby and lifted his money line up to $1,009,382.

Suitably enough, both Special Effort and Higheasterjet are trained by Johnnie Goodman and piloted by W. R. Hunt. In an incredible turn of events, Goodman and Hunt have combined talents to win four straight $1 million races.

Last summer, the two knocked off the $1,431,850 All-American Derby with Native Gambler and the $1,280,000 All-American Futurity with Higheasterjet.

In winning the All-American Futurity, Special Effort logged his eighth straight win against no defeats. Earlier in the Ruidoso meeting, Special Effort set up his Triple Crown assault by rolling to a length win as an even money favorite in the $787,350 Kansas Futurity at 350 yards.

The second leg in the Triple Crown trail was the $699,370 Rainbow Futurity at 440 yards on July 26. Special Effort won by one and a half lengths as a 1-3 favorite. In doing so, he became the first horse since Tiny's Gay (1974) to win both the Kansas and Rainbow futurities.

Special Effort dominated his competition mercilessly during the season, scoring the top qualifying time for the Kansas Futurity (17.90 seconds), the top qualifying time for the Rainbow Futurity (20.02) and the top qualifying time for the All-American Futurity (21.78).

The colt was clocked in 21.69 on Labor Day.

Special Effort is owned by Dan and Jolene Urschel of Canadian, Texas. Bred by Allen Moehrig of Seguin, Texas, Special Effort was purchased as a yearling for $20,000. The buyer was Allen Taylor, a pipeline contractor from Beeville, Texas.

After setting the top qualifying time for the Kansas Futurity, Special Effort caught the attention of Dan and Jolene Urschel. After some hurried wheeling and dealing, The Urschels bought Special Effort for $1 million.

Prior to the All-American trials, Special Effort was syndicated for $15 million. It was the biggest syndication package ever put together for a quarter horse. The deal was the brainchild of Don Tyner, the well known horse agent from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

In the syndication package (which takes effect upon the retirement of the colt), 150 shares were offered at $100,000 per share. A hundred shares were quickly marketed, and Urschel retained 50 shares.

During the press conference following the All-American, Tyner was asked how much the colt's value had soared after the All-American victory. "I haven't had time to figure it out, but I can tell you this—when I was in the winner's circle a few minutes ago, someone came up to me and offered $250,000 for a share, if one were available," Tyner said. "I'd say that $250,000 figure is a good projection. That puts the total value of the colt at around $37.5 million."

Urschel, who admitted to being pretty "anxious" on the day of the All-American, called the victory one of the greatest moments of his life. He said it was a great relief when Special Effort opened up easily near the finish line, and when the colt hit the wire, the first thought which occurred to Urschel was the following: "Praise the Lord!"

Jockey Hunt had this view: "The only thing I was worried about was that something might happen because of the mud. When it rains as much as it did, anything can give. But everything went perfectly, as always. When we got that good start, I was sure we had the race. We were bumped a little by Exclusive Roula as we were getting out of the gate, but it didn't amount to much."

Trainer Goodman observed: "I felt I was ever going to win a Triple Crown, Special Effort would be the horse to do it. In this business, the competition is tremendous. The odds of a horse staying unbeaten are stacked against you."

Asked what he thought of Special Effort when he first saw him as a yearling, Goodman recalled his observations this way: "He looked like a runner... I sure thought he was worth $20,000."

Goodman, 41, who hails from Lockhart, Texas, also noted: "This is the fastest horse I've ever trained. The biggest thrill I've ever had was the winning of this All-American."

Special Effort is by the thoroughbred stallion, Raise Your Glass, out of the quarter horse mare, Go Effortlessly.

Special Effort was made a heavy 1-5 favorite in the All-American and returned $2.60, $2.40, $2.20.

Go For Bugs, a 17-1 longshot owned by Cleo Graham of Wynnewood, Oklahoma, finished second and collected $213,600. Go For Bugs was piloted by Nicky Wilson. The trainer is Kenoth Grimes. The payoffs: $5.60, $3.20.

The runnerup purse in the All-American lifted Go For Bugs' career earnings up to $364,223.

Classy Native, a filly owned by L. V. Bell of Wichita, Kansas, finished third, a head behind Go For Bugs. Harley Crosby was up. Classy Native earned $99,600 and returned $5.20. The filly went off at just over 20-1.

Here's the remaining order of finish, with purse-money earned: 4th — Cute Investment, $70,000; 5th — Arrows Request, $54,000; 6th — Viva El Seis, $51,600; 7th — Spectacular Rhythm, $49,200; 8th — Exclusive Roula, $46,800; 9th — Greybon, $44,400; 10th — Summer Encounter, $42,000.

The 12 race Labor Day program, which closed out the most successful season in Ruidoso history, accounted for a handle of $1,170,954. It was the biggest handle ever recorded at Ruidoso, but not by much. The previous mark was the $1,167,635 recorded on Labor Day a year ago.

Total handle for the 70 day season finished up at a record $40,080,694. The SPECIAL EFFORT ROARS to victory in Monday's 23rd All-American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs. The colt finished four lengths ahead of runnerup Go For Bugs. It was the biggest victory margin in All-American history. Jockey W. R. Hunt was superb in getting the colt going following a shaky start in the 440 yard chase.

Special Effort became the first two-year-old quarter horse to win the Triple Crown of the Kansas, Rainbow and All-American Futurities. He's trained by Johnnie Goodman. It was the second straight year Goodman and Hunt won an All-American Futurity. They won in 1980 with Higheasterjet.

Alleged car stripper shot in right leg

A youth was shot in the right leg shortly after midnight Thursday, while he was allegedly in the act of stripping an automobile in Ruidoso Downs, police chief Ray Garner said to The News Friday afternoon.

Garner said Brent Blair, address unknown, about "17 or 18" was taken to Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital after he was shot by Wade Shumway, 21, of Ruidoso Downs, an employee of Owens Texaco, across Highway 70 from Ruidoso Downs Race Track.

Garner said Shumway had just returned to the station from a gasoline run, parking the station semi-rig next to a fenced area, when he noticed four men climb the fence and enter the impoundment yard.

Shumway told police the men immediately proceeded to a Ford LTD parked in the yard. He went back to the semi-rig, got his Magnum .44 and yelled at the four to "freeze." Garner said Shumway fired one round from his pistol, striking one of the men in the right leg.

The chief said the other three men fled, two going over the fence and across the highway, and the third going over the fence and into the pine trees behind the station.

Garner said he was told by the doctors treating Blair at the hospital that there was considerable damage to Blair's leg just above the knee, including a fractured femur, a clipped artery and nerve damage.

Shumway was unable to give police a description of the three men who got away except they were tall and one had a beard, Garner said.

Garner said this morning that Blair, 17, has been referred to juvenile court and will be charged with commercial burglary.

The case is still under investigation, Garner said.

Ruidoso Hondo Valley Hospital listed Blair's condition as stable Monday morning.

daily average of $572,501 was a gain of 11.98 percent over the $511,339 average last year.

SHOGOTOBADANDY enjoyed an easy romp around the Ruidoso Downs oval and wound up richer by $56,005 in Sunday's renewal of the Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity.

The filly, owned by Virgil Callaway of Hobbs, and Michael Stinson of Ft. Worth, Texas, ended the six furlong dash with an expanding two and three fourth length lead.

The duel was viewed by a standing-room crowd which pumped $114,246 through the betting windows on the Futurity alone. On the day, the 12 race handle finished up at a resounding $1,050,036.

That was the highest handle of the season. It was also the seventh time the handle topped the $1 million plateau in Ruidoso history.

In Sunday's Thoroughbred Futurity, Shesgottobeadandy quickly got her foot in the door by breaking alertly out of the No. 6 post and establishing a beach head on the

Special Effort first two-year-old to win quarter horse Triple Crown

Western Series, the people's choice at 6-5, also moved up briskly to stay within easy reach of the pacemaker.

As it turned out, none of the other eight contenders was able to threaten the two leaders.

Shesgottheadandy, perfectly ridden by the savvy reinsman, Larry Byers, kept a slight advantage over Western Series during the scamper down the backstretch. For a few strides, it seemed Western Series was ready to take control. The colt inched toward the front, but Shesgottheadandy fended off the attack without wasting much effort.

At the turn for home, Byers settled down to serious business and asked Shesgottheadandy to begin pouring it on. From that point on, the race was in the bag.

Shesgottheadandy tossed a one and a half length lead at Western Series and the latter, knowing his cause hopeless, gradually lost interest in the affair.

The winner, trained by Billy Hitt, came out of the Futurity with career winnings of $78,914 with a 3-1-2 scorecard from six starts. It was her third Ruidoso win in three spins. The gross purse of the Futurity was $112,010, a gain of some nine grand over last year's version.

Shesgottheadandy covered the distance in a slow track clocking of 1:17 one fifth seconds and returned $6.40, $2.80, $2.80.

Western Series, owned by Dell Akin of Versailles, Kentucky, earned $24,642 for his runner-up effort and served up tote prices of $2.80 and $2.60. Danny Summerow was at the helm.

Big Bad Tune, a 15-1 outsider handled by 16-year-old Casey Lambert, advanced well enough in the final stages to take third. The colt is owned by Ralph Shebester of Wynnewood, Oklahoma. Third was worth $13,441. The show price was $3.60.

BANQUERO, a four-year-old gelding owned by Margaret Miller of El Paso, Texas splashed to an easy victory in Saturday's rain-drenched running of the $28,515 Ruidoso Mile.

Banquero exerted himself only at the start, jumping into a quick lead from the No. 10 post. Once he settled on the rail, there was no catching him.

During most of the journey, the gelding galloped along easily, tossing mud on his foes. The only thing approximating a challenge developed at the turn for home when Double B. Express, a 3-1 shot ridden by Casey Lambert, made a brisk move out of fourth place.

At the midway point of the turn, Double

B. Express appeared to have enough momentum to overtake Banquero. But Willie Lovell, the pilot on Banquero, let out a few notches and the people's choice (at a lukewarm 5-2) quickly piled up his lead.

During the stretch run, Banquero romped away handily, finally winning by four and a half lengths in 1:47 4/5 seconds. Margie Renfro trains the gelding. The victory clearly stamped Banquero as the probable Thoroughbred Horse-Of-The-Month.

Banquero collected $17,109, which lifted his 1981 money line up to $36,224 and put his career earnings at $116,004.

Fans who supported Banquero in the wagering raked in mutual payoffs of $8.80, $4.40, $3.40.

Round Table Top, a 6-1 shot handled by Joe Martinez, made a big move in the stretch to nail down second place money of $8,273. Third was taken by Captain Double, who was just under 6-1 in the betting. Third was good for a $2,851 paycheck. The show price was $4.40.

Double B. Express couldn't generate sufficient stamina in the final half furlong and faded to fourth.

SPECIAL HANK took an early lead in Friday's renewal of the $16,495 Brigand Handicap at Ruidoso Downs and cruised to a coasting one and one-half length win.

The gelding enriched himself by $9,881 and picked up his third 870 yard victory of the season.

Special Hank was piloted by Salustio Burgos for Lowell F. Hankins of Rocksprings, Texas. The payoffs were $10, $4.80, $3.60. The Brigand was run under falling rain, but the track was still fast. The winning time was 46.91 seconds.

Bartonville, the favorite at 8-5, was a bit sluggish in getting out of the gate. The gelding moved into third place, was unable to make any headway against Special Hank, then dropped out of the picture.

My Going Jesse, a 5-1 shot directed by Vickie Smallwood, closed with strong strides in the final yards and finished second. The gelding collected $3,615. The payoffs: $6.20, $5. My Going Jesse is owned by Hugh C. Preston Jr., of Burkburnett, Texas.

Draconic's Loom, a 24-1 outsider, ended up third after holding onto second during the early portions of the sprint. A show ticket on Draconic's Loom was worth $11.80.

ALMOST A YEAR AGO to the day, Dynamic Sessenta won the $98,900 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity at Ruidoso Downs. Since then, the gelding's value has dipped drastically — so much so that Ruidoso patrons made Dynamic Sessenta a 7-1 shot in Thursday's Roadrunner Stakes.

The Roadrunner, a six furlong sprint for New Mexico-breds, carries far less prestige than the Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity. But Ruidoso patrons didn't pay much heed to Dynamic Sessenta in the Roadrunner and made Mr. Powder River an odds-on favorite.

But Dynamic Sessenta showed a lot of his previous flash, getting off to a quick start and leading all the way. The gelding cruised under the wire with a three length lead. His foes never had a fighting chance.

The Roadrunner offered a gross purse of $10,500 and directed $6,300 into Dynamic Sessenta's account. The gelding is owned by W. A. Kennedy Jr., of Odessa, Texas. The mutuel returns: $16.20, $5.30, $4.

Danny Summerow was the winning jockey, guiding Dynamic Sessenta over the course in a clocking of 1:15 4/5 seconds.

Draconic's Lady, a filly owned by Lynn Dubose of Hobbs, moved well in the final furlongs to nail down second. Larry Byers was at the controls. Draconic's Lady collected $2,310 and refunded tote payoffs of $3.40, $3.60.

Careless Bet, a 20-1 outsider piloted by Casey Lambert, dropped back to third after stalking Dynamic Sessenta in the early going. Careless Bet was good for a show price of $5.80. The gelding toils for LeRoy Spires Jr., of Snyder, Texas.

Mr. Powder River, after showing some early initiative, conked out in the stretch run and faded to sixth.

Eight become CPR instructors

Eight people have recently acquired life-saving skills and are prepared to pass those skills on to others, Kathy Barnett said Friday.

Barnett, one of the newly certified Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) instructors who just completed the 15-hour course sponsored jointly by the Lincoln County chapter of the American Red Cross and the American Heart Association, said the program provides "the tools needed for a person to react in an emergency situation to possibly save a human life."

Anyone in the community interested in becoming active in a CPR class can call her at 257-5424, Barnett said.

Adult Recreation Department provides senior citizens' needs

BY BILLIE LARSON
Staff Writer

The hand-written message on the green chalkboard reads, "Flu shots will be given here September 16, 9 a.m., for those 65 and over, or High Risk."

The message represents only one of the many services Ruidoso Adult Recreation Department provides to the Community's senior citizens.

As she watched five lively women exercise to nickelodeon music, Angella Garms, secretary at the center, sipped coffee and spoke of others.

"Every Thursday is 'shopping day,'" she said. "About 12 people are picked up in the center van and transported to appointments within the city limits—to the bank, supermarket, doctor, post office, pharmacy or hairdresser." This service provides the only transportation some of them have, Garms said.

The "reassurance calls" made every single morning to about 20 or 25 people, is another vital service. If the person being called does not respond to the ringing telephone, Garms said, someone from the center goes to their home to check on them.

The center will also check, on days they are open, the blood pressure of any senior citizen, on a walk-in basis. They sometimes get as many as 40 people in one day, she said.

They will fill out state income tax low income rebate forms on request—a service many of the community's elderly take advantage of year around, she said.

Never mind those most basic needs some take for granted—the center also plans a wide variety of recreational activities for senior citizens. The Thanksgiving and Christmas potluck dinners bring out good crowds, Garms said, as does the real biggie, The Biscuit and Gravy Day held in March. Members go all-out on this one, she said, bringing homemade bread and jams, sausage, bacon and other edibles.

Other fun events worth mentioning are the Hawaiian Luau dinner-dance held in August and the Hobo potluck supper held last Wednesday evening.

A Halloween potluck is the next activity in the works at the center, so everyone is busy putting a costume together, Garms said.

Birthdays are very special occasions at the center, she said. Once a month there is a birthday cake — sometimes coffee, punch or homemade ice cream, too—but always a cake and a small gift for every senior celebrating his or her birthday for that particular month.

The center, behind the Ruidoso Public Library on Sudderth, is open three days a week one week and four the next. Many happy hours are spent by members at card games, dominoes, pool and ceramics, Garms said.

A bazaar held at the center each November gives Ruidoso seniors an opportunity to make some extra Christmas money, as they keep any money made from the sale of items they have made.

The five women, exercising to the rhythms of "Put Your Little Foot", appeared a bit winded—but still going strong.

Warriors romp over Estancia, 41-6

The first play of the game pretty much gave an inkling of what was to come as Ruidoso High School's football team opened the 1981 season with a smashing 41-6 victory over visiting Estancia Friday night.

Chris Lopez took the opening kickoff for the Warriors, received a couple of good blocks, and sprinted down the left sidelines 85 yards for a touchdown. Lon Nunley booted the extra point and that proved to be all the Warriors needed to win the game.

Ruidoso struck again with 6:50 left in the opening quarter when quarterback Billy Woodul hit tight end Darin Smith on a 54 yard scoring play to put the Warriors up by a 14-0 score. The touchdown culminated an 84 yard, five play scoring drive that started out on the Warrior 16. Scott Neal and Lopez had runs of 13 and 10 yards to set up the bomb from Woodul to Smith.

The Warriors were held scoreless in the second quarter but a "pep talk" at halftime gave them impetus to score 27 points in the second half.

"We gave the players a chewing out at halftime and that helped them play better in the second half," said head coach Darrel Stierwalt. "Some people weren't putting out. I think the quick start perhaps lulled our players a bit and that's why we didn't do so well in the second quarter."

Whatever the coaches said to the players at halftime worked, as the Warriors were in high gear in the second half.

Neal opened the second half scoring with an eight-yard burst up the middle. Lopez had set up the third Ruidoso score with a 16 yard run.

Lopez added the fourth Warrior score with 48 seconds left in the third quarter on a 13 yard run. Woodul put the Warriors in scoring position with a 25 yard pass to Dan Nunley that brought the ball down to the Estancia 13. Lopez drove over for the score one play later. The Warriors concluded their scoring with a three yard run by Lopez for one touchdown and a six-yard burst by Neal for another in the final period.

Woodul, who completed seven of nine passes for 235 yards on the evening, set up the final touchdown when he found Grady Williamson on the sidelines and the speedy junior rambled 48 yards to the Bear 10. Two plays later Neal sped in for the final score.

Estancia scored its only touchdown of the night when Troy Schmidt hit Adolph Morales for a 25 yard pass over the middle with 46 seconds left in the contest. A mixup in the Ruidoso defensive backfield allowed Morales to get behind the defenders.

Ruidoso dominated the statistics as well as the final score. The Warriors rolled up 425 yards total offense to just 114 for the losers. Lopez ran for 116 yards rushing and Neal added 85 for the Warriors. Neal also added one completion in three attempts passing for 10 yards. Ruidoso had 17 first downs to five for the losers.

On the whole Stierwalt was pleased with the team's performance.

"Once we got rolling our offense played really well," the head coach said. "On defense we got a chance to play everybody."

RUIDOSO HIGH SCHOOL football players now have a new "hot tub" to relax their muscles in, thanks to several local businesses. Businesses which contributed to the cost of the tub included Dale's Furniture, Whispering Pine, Dial Electric, Village Hardware and Western Auto. Kenny Whipple of Fantasy Island gave the school a discount on the original cost of the tub.

TAILBACK SCOTT NEAL confers with offensive coordinator Barry Nelson and head coach Darrel Stierwalt (with cap) during the second half of Friday night's Ruidoso High School football game with visiting Estancia. Neal scored two touchdowns and played well in the defensive backfield as the Warriors topped Estancia 41-6.

Capitan wins

Capitan and Carrizozo each opened their 1981 football seasons Friday night but with different results.

Capitan, which made the state A division playoffs last season, topped Cloudcroft 20-8. Grady Eldridge scored two touchdowns on runs of six and two yards for the winners. John Wolf scored the third Capitan touchdown on an eight yard run. Carrizozo fell to Texico 22-6 in its opener.

Romero captures nine-mile race

For Roger Romero the second time around was the charm. Romero, of Alamogordo, won the second annual Inn of the Mountain Gods nine-mile run Saturday after finishing second the year before.

He recorded a 53:06 time. Romero beat by 3:09 the winning clocking last year by Roger Wood, also of Alamogordo. Romero's second place time last year was 57:15.

"I just tried harder," said Romero when asked how he improved his time over last year's. "I worked out a lot more and the results show that."

Complete results of the race will be in Thursday's paper.

Falconry season begins

Falconry season for ducks, mergansers, coots, gallinules and lesser sandhill crane will be October 17-January 17. Falconry season on geese will be October 31-January 17. Hawking for these species will be permitted in open season on La Joya State Game Refuge and a portion of Bernardo State Game Refuge lying south of United States 60.

Bag limits for falconry seasons are two birds (in aggregate) and two squirrels daily per falconry hunter. Possession limits are four birds (in aggregate) and four squirrels per falconry hunter.

Around Sports with Gary Brown

Last weekend's youth soccer matches between the Scorpions and Strikers of the Ruidoso-Sertoma Soccer Association and the Red Rangers of Lubbock, Texas, may have been disappointing as far as the scores were concerned but it was a valuable learning experience for the local teams.

Despite the fact that the Red Rangers and Strikers the Ruidoso squads gained experience playing against one of the better under-12 squads in Lubbock.

Lubbock has one of the better youth soccer programs in Texas, if not the country. Most of the players on the Red Ranger squad have played together for two or three years. In Texas soccer teams form when the kids are eight or nine and they play together well into their teenage years.

Texas high schools also have soccer programs so the soccer-oriented youth has a choice of playing on either his high school team or a teenage youth soccer club. Ruidoso doesn't have a high school soccer program so kids are restricted to playing in the youth soccer program.

Lubbock's program is also much larger than Ruidoso's, the main reason being because the Texas city has a population of over 175,000 compared to 5,000 for Ruidoso.

Competing against a rugged Texas team like the Red Rangers will only make squads like the Scorpions and Strikers tougher when the Ruidoso-Sertoma Soccer Association season begins Saturday.

Ruidoso may never have the large scale soccer program that Lubbock has mainly because of population limits. However, soccer teams from Ruidoso should soon be able to more than hold their own with other youth soccer teams in New Mexico.

Mike Crocker is a busy man these days.

Mike is the tennis director at Sierra Swim And Racquet Club (SSRC) and is also an assistant coach with White Mountain Middle School's football team.

Although Ruidoso High School doesn't have a tennis program now Crocker is hopeful that one will be started in the near future.

Meanwhile Crocker is competing in various tennis tournaments around the state. This past weekend he and SSRC club pro Alex Dorato competed in the Michelob Tournament in Albuquerque. Dorato is a student at the University of New Mexico.

One of the added features of the tournament was the giving away of free beer by the tennis courts.

Maybe that should be tried at every tennis tournament.

The pre-season Associated Press New Mexico high school football polls are out and if they are correct Ruidoso High School faces a tough schedule.

The Warriors are ranked eighth in the 3A poll, one position behind defending 3AAA champion Silver City. Socorro, who Ruidoso hosts Friday night, is tied for third with Robertson.

Tularosa, New Mexico Military Academy, Deming and Truth or Consequences are teams on the Warriors' schedule that were given honorable mention.

Artesia, with perhaps the state's top quarterback in Scott Runyan, is ranked first in the 3A poll with Bloomfield second.

Defending state champion Eldorado is rated first in the 4A poll with Clovis second and Carlsbad third. Carlsbad dumped Silver City 61-0 last week.

Pre-season polls are purely subjective, of course, but Artesia, which won the 3A crown last year, seems the logical favorite again. Eldorado lost a lot of players at the "skill" positions but has won 19 of its last 20 games.

Money market fund explained

Many small investors would like to get the high interest returns of money market funds, but hesitate to invest in them because they are not sure what a money market fund is, or how it works.

First, a money market fund is a mutual fund, a form of investment that pools the money of several people and invests it in stocks, bonds or other securities, according to Jackie Martin, Extension family finance specialist at New Mexico State University.

This is one way the so-called little guy can participate in investments that might otherwise be available only to the well off, Martin said.

Money market mutual funds specialize in pooling people's money to buy money market instruments, also called short-term securities. Most money market funds require a minimum $1,000 investment by each individual. Some require $2,000 to $5,000 for the initial investment.

Money market funds are popular when interest rates are high because they earn higher rates than passbook savings accounts or fixed-rate savings certificates. Most money market funds are paying 16 percent interest, or slightly higher, now.

Money market mutual funds really can't be compared to money market certificates. The money market certificate is purchased by an individual, usually at their bank or savings and loan association. These require a minimum $10,000 investment.

Money market certificates also carry a considerable loss of interest, as an early withdrawal penalty, if the certificate is cashed before its maturity.

The interest on money market certificates changes every week, currently more than 15 percent, and the interest rate is fixed or guaranteed for the six-month term of the certificate. This investment is also insured.

Money market instruments, on the other hand, is a term used to cover the overall market where big corporations, government, banks and other agencies borrow and lend money for short terms.

They are generally defined as loans for less than a year, but money market instruments can be made for 30 days, 10 days, or even one day. These money market instruments are bought and sold by investment firms, among which are the money market mutual fund companies.

Examples of specific money market instruments are United States Treasury bills and notes, short-term corporate IOUs sometimes called commercial paper, and $100,000 (or more) bank certificates of deposit that have no interest rate ceiling like consumer certificates of deposit.

It is sometimes hard to define whether the money market mutual funds are long-term or short-term investments. Actually, they are more of a place to deposit savings than an investment.

They were originally developed as a place for temporary cash to earn interest between longer term investments. They still serve that purpose for many people.

More recently many people have been using them as a second savings account when money market fund rates are higher than the passbook savings account rates at their bank or savings and loan.

Some people question money market fund safety. These funds are not insured like other investment certificates, and the interest rate is not guaranteed over a set period of time. Interest actually varies on a weekly basis.

However, most financial experts consider money market funds reasonably safe. How well each fund performs depends on the management decisions made by executives of each fund. Like any mutual fund, there is some risk for the investor.

There is usually no commission paid to the money market fund broker when a person buys into a fund or takes their money out. Instead, the fund charges a small management fee. The cautious investor will compare a fund's performance over the past year or so, and also compare the management fees charged by individual funds.

Money market funds are usually purchased directly from the mutual fund company. Many stock brokerage firms operate their own money market funds for the convenience of their regular investment customers.

One of the biggest advantages of the money market fund is that it has no fixed maturity. A person can convert part of all of their money market fund holdings to cash at any time. They can also make additional investments in the fund at any time, usually in increments of $100 or more.

Withdrawals can be made on a form like a check, without going to the money market fund broker for the transaction. These money market fund checks are accepted by almost all financial institutions, but some funds require that checks be made for $500 or more.

The requirements of all money market funds vary to some degree, so it's worth checking with more than one broker before making the first investment.

First World Food Day planned October 16

The first observance of World Food Day will be October 16, with about 120 nations around the world taking part. The date is the anniversary of the founding of the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) in the United Nations.

World Food Day will focus attention on the continuing shortfall between world food production and world food needs.

Dr. John Oren, director of Cooperative Extension Services at New Mexico State University, said, "New Mexico's farmers and ranchers have always been dedicated to the basic concepts of agriculture — providing good quality food for everybody — but World Food Day will remind us at least once a year to take a look at the agricultural problems the world still hasn't solved."

Dr. Oren said World Food Day has special significance for the United States and Canada. "These two countries alone hold more than 40 percent of world grain reserves and account for two-thirds of world grain exports and two-thirds of all food aid."

"The abundance of North American agriculture is, literally, the world's last line of defense against famine," he said.

The international food crisis of the early 1970s dropped out of the headlines when the world's developed countries had good crops in the last half of that decade.

However, 1980 and 1981 crops in these countries were far below expectations, mostly the result of bad weather. The worldwide food shortage would have reappeared except for the fact that underdeveloped nations had good crops to offset the losses in larger, more developed countries.

"We are much too close to another worldwide food crisis again," Dr. Oren said. "The short term future looks like a continuing cycle of surplus and then shortage, but the long term outlook appears to hold more shortages, more bad news."

Worldwide agriculture continues to expand, but it can't match worldwide population growth. In some countries, population growth will be four times as much as the growth in food production.

"At the same time we are facing the pressures of more people to feed, we are running out of prime agricultural land at a faster and faster rate," Dr. Oren said.

"We're losing millions of acres of fertile land needlessly through soil erosion and urban sprawl and, at the same time, pollution threatens the quality of ground water that agriculture depends on," he said.

Dr. Oren believes there are some key areas of concern that should be the center of discussion on the first World Food Day.

"We have to be concerned about how we are using our land resources, and whether we are protecting the land so it will feed future generations. We should try to answer the constant question of why there is still hunger in countries like ours, a nation with food surpluses. And if we still have hungry people here at home, how much food aid can we afford to give hungry people in other nations? Finally, how do we find the balance between fair prices for the food farmers grow, and fair prices for consumers to buy the food they must have to live?" he said.

The importance of answering these questions is underscored by the fact that 100 of the 147 countries that are FAO members produce less food than their people need, Dr. Oren said.

"We have some serious questions that need answers soon. We understand the problems and everybody is working on some sort of solution, but the real danger is when we come to another World Food Day two, five or 10 years from now with these problems still unsolved," he said.

Focus on Small Business

by E. Maine Shafer

Dear Mr. Shafer: Much is being written and said about product safety and product liability. Any helpful advice?

If your concern is solely for your product, your concern is misdirected. Your concern should be people — and you should ask:

Do I feel safe using the products I make and sell? Would I unreservedly let my own family use them? Unless you can answer each with an unqualified yes, then maybe you had best write down every single reason why not.

There are many things you should learn about product safety and liability. First, product safety goals should be included in your overall company plans. You should see an improved cash flow with an effective program because it can help decrease accounts receivable, inventories and reserves necessary to pay for product liability.

You should know about product liability laws wherever your products are sold and the fact that most product liabilities stem from product design and lack of warnings of the dangers involved in product use. Liability insurance, too, is a costly matter and a cause for financial concern.

SBA has prepared a publication, MA 244, "Product Safety Checklist," which can be helpful in anticipating problems, setting up a quality assurance and insurance program, training employees and making them aware of the necessity for a safe product, and keeping written instructions and records.

You can get a copy of this pamphlet, free of charge, by writing SBA, P.O. Box 15424, Fort Worth, Texas 76119, or by calling toll-free 800/433-7212 (in Texas call 800/782-3801).

Dear Mr. Shafer: We were a two-wage earner family — my wife and I — until she got laid off. Now we are thinking of starting a small business in our home. What can we do?

When economic times are hard, more and more people look towards their homes as places of starting new enterprises. There's much to be said for it — and some things to say against such an endeavor.

Advantages are obvious: extra income, the convenience of working where you live, watching over the kids while at work, no more rush hour commuting, and that great feeling of being your own boss.

But there are disadvantages, too: people need discipline to work at home, the work subtracts from available living and playing space, there are disruptions of family life, financial problems, and the inevitable fact that there's little or no net return until sometime after the business gets going.

You should have some special skill or interest — the home shouldn't be a training ground for a fledgling. It's best to stick with some business-related operation in which you've had experience. You should know your potential market, have some advertising — and marketing — savvy, and shouldn't underprice yourself because of a lack of business know-how or ignorance of tax and business licensing laws that affect the price of your product.

Your local library is a good source of help in getting advice. Your local SBA office at 5000 Marble, NE, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87110 can help, too.

NEW YORK LIFE

Inside The Capitol

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE — You expect an old horse-trader to keep his word.

Most of us think of Bruce King, a thoroughly rural governor, as a kind of horse-trader.

So we were shocked to hear that the state was demanding renegotiation of that major contract to act as manager of construction for the massive new penitentiary we plan outside Santa Fe.

After all, this particular contract — between the State of New Mexico and Morrison-Knudson, a large contracting firm — had been signed, sealed and delivered.

Put simply, Roger Crist, Secretary for Corrections, had chosen this company from others who also bid on the project; and Felix Rodriguez of Corrections and David Harris of DFA had signed a contract as representatives of the state.

Then, for reasons not yet very clear, the Secretary for DFA, Kay Marr, got tardily involved in the project.

Her timing could hardly have been worse.

Here are the people of New Mexico, still wondering, after more than a year and a half since the riots at the pen, when we are going to get on with some new construction, and Ms. Marr is slowing down the procedure.

What's worse, just as she is demanding further discussions with the company which thought it had a firm contract, the pen blows up once again and another life is lost there.

That makes any retroactive doubt she and her department may have about an agreement already committed to sound like sheer scrupulosity.

It would appear that on this point New Mexico can't afford scrupulosity. (Senator Jack Schmitt, in a conversation with this writer during the past week, suggests that maybe we ought to shut down the pen in Santa Fe completely and ask the federal government to take control of all our prisoners.)

Yet here is Finance and Administration trying to beat Morrison-Knudson down on its price.

DFA isn't, it will be noted, trying to argue with or decrease fees for the architectural firm the state hired to design the new prison. That firm is from New Mexico.

In their fight with M-K, they appear to be arguing from a brief prepared by two losing firms who wanted to handle construction management on this project themselves. Those firms are also from New Mexico.

So DFA ends up looking like a chauvinistic place.

And Bruce King, with all the things he has on his mind, probably barely aware all this was taking place, gets the benefit of the bias from those of us who are inclined to suggest he cares more about local votes than any other single thing.

Ms. Marr, who probably should have stayed out of a deal that was already cut, did little to expand the prestige of her boss in this instance.

Even if she saved the state a few bucks, which wasn't clear at the time these lines were written, she may have cost a lot more psychologically than she gained.

New Mexico doesn't want to be known as a welcher or as a state which hame-towns out-of-New Mexico firms who legitimately earn contracts with it.

That Corrections Department, which entered into the contract discussed above, put out a press release last week which talked about conditions under which it would shoot to kill inmates in the state penitentiary.

The next paragraph, in a purported quote from Corrections Secretary Crist, says, "We will attempt to treat inmates in a human manner."

That's what we need more of: humane shooting to kill.

Letters to the Editor

Dear editor:

Advocates of the Ski Pack idea are forgetting two important facts: 1) Ruidoso, with its natural beauty and environment, doesn't have to be advertised with give-away gimmicks such as Ski Pack. 2) The Ski Pack idea of providing free or discounted services has never worked successfully in the past.

The competition in the lodging and ski-related businesses is sufficient to keep rates and prices attractive enough for economy-minded skiers and tourists. There are hundreds of lodging facilities and more than 20 ski rental locations. All of these businesses try to survive in a very competitive business situation. This is not always easy in a "poor snow-bad winter" season such as the last one.

If snow conditions are good, Ruidoso will have the skiers and the tourists. There will be no need to discount our services in an already competitive ski/lodging industry.

If snow conditions are not good, business people need every dollar they can earn. Competition and a lack of demand for skis, motel and cabin accommodations and other services will provide a lot of good "deals" for skiers.

To spend the taxpayers' dollars advertising the Ski Pack is a waste of money. Ruidoso, yes, but Ski Pack, no! Let's don't sell ourselves short, Ruidoso. Say no to the Ski Pack . . . we don't need it this time.

moved the phone line on my roof over three feet using the same line and reconnecting it where it entered my home. Time was very short — possibly less than one hour. The cost was $52 for a job that I could have done myself but thought it best that the utility company do the work. When I complained to the telephone company I was shown a chart which specified the $52 charge. Apparently the phone company did not have a charge to fit the job which was done. Like dealing with the Federal Government — nothing can be done — you just have to take it. A little competition might help our utilities to do a better and less expensive job in the handling of their services. The saying that you get what you pay for certainly does not apply to the Continental Telephone Company.

Dear editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" to Mrs. Ingrid Schmitt and the other wonderful volunteers who, once again, have completed another successful summer program for the young people.

Being summer residents from Texas, we have been most grateful for this service. The classes our son has taken for the past several years have been varied, interesting, and rewarding. The kids always seem to enjoy whatever is offered and it must be because of the interest shown by the instructors. It is also because of these classes, our son has met many kids his own age and this makes his summers more pleasant too.

It just seems to me that these workers just don't get enough recognition for their hard work.

Ruidoso should be very proud of its library and its people. It is a very warm facility and we surely do appreciate being treated like "real people" and not like summer tourists.

Dear editor:

The Lincoln County Chapter of the American Cancer Society would like to acknowledge the help received in our recent fund drive. Our thanks go to Cousins' Incorporated, and especially Walt Lindborg, for their donation of Jerry Dale's and many other donations during August.

We appreciate the help given by the Clay Mac Band on all four crusade nights held in August, and we want to thank those business people in the community who donated door prizes and auction items. Our fund drive would not have been a success without the help of everyone involved in the chili cookoff — special thanks to LaMar Osborn and Frank Potter for their help.

We also wish to thank KRRR for their radio time and assistance in making promotional tapes and The Ruidoso News for their generous front page coverage of our crusade activities.

Dear editor:

The residents and staff of Ruidoso Care Center would like to extend our thanks to all the people from Ruidoso, Mescalero, and all out-of-town visitors who made our Patio Dedication a huge success. We would especially like to thank Mayor Lloyd Davis Jr., Evelyn Brauning, Carl Parsons, Charlie Spooner, John Schuller, Ray Reed, Teddi Sullivan, The Mescalero Indian Dancers, and Miss Mescalero Annette Lester for their guest appearances and entertainment. We would also like to thank Nottingham's for catering our buffet tables.

It is a great feeling knowing that there are so many people who have extended their friendship to our residents here at the Ruidoso Care Center.

Deborah Garcia,

Dear editor:

NUMBER — PLEASE?

Your editorial and a recent letter to your paper concerning the Continental Telephone Company brings to memory some matters I have been wanting to point out for sometime.

When I moved to Ruidoso several years ago one of the things I was told was not to expect too much from our local service when comparing the service to that of a large city. What I was led to believe was true — the service was not excellent — not even fair — but time takes care of most problems and it was assumed that service would improve over the years. But has service improved? Not when you look at the entire picture. I can't see any change or improvement in the shortcomings which are so aggravating to the phone users.

To be specific here are some of the things which are still with us and seem to happen almost every day. (1) You dial a number — you get nothing — you dial again — nothing — the third time you dial your number. This does not always happen — but too often. (2) You dial the same number several times knowing that the party you are calling is at the phone. The phone at the receiving end just does not ring — last week I called from out of state three times in one day with no answer — the party I was calling did not leave the premises the day of the three calls. I can assume that the phone simply did not ring. (3) Recently a new twist has been added — the phone rings continuously without a pause between rings — no harm is done except that it indicates a malfunction in equipment.

Recently in adding a porch to my home it was necessary to have the gas meter and the phone moved out of the way of the new roofline. The gas company spent three hours digging a new location for the meter, cutting new pipe, and installing the meter — the charge was under $40 which I thought to be very reasonable. On the other hand the telephone company merely editorial

The deplorable and unacceptable condition of the state penal system is a direct reflection of the incompetence of Governor Bruce King.

When he and his patron-riddled administration cry that they are the unfortunate recipients of their predecessors' mismanagement, they just shine more light on their inability to handle our state government. If a problem doesn't have a "political" solution, King and his administration have no answer.

A few years ago New Mexicans rejected an attempt by Jerry Apodaca to amend the State Constitution to allow successive terms for a Governor.

After the last three pitiful years under Bruce King, and one more coming that is certain to be as bad, it's surprising a movement hasn't started to change the governor's term to one year. —kg

A BANNER SUMMER

In case you've ventured out onto the streets today . . . or will tomorrow or the next day . . . you'll notice traffic has fallen off a mite . . . 'cause all those folks as has been helping make horse racing a success this year, are headed back to their homeland.

And this is the "Year of the —", rat, monkey, whatever, in China . . . but in Ruidoso this could be remembered as the "Year of the Horse" . . . 'cause horses were responsible for setting all kinds of records during the 1981 meeting.

For instance . . . there was the All-American Select Quarter Horse Yearling Sale . . . at the Ruidoso Downs Sales Arena . . . total sales hit $13.5 million . . . $2.5 million more than last year . . . which was the largest year on record . . . before this year.

And at the Sales Arena one colt, Easy Prince, brought $400,000 and another colt, Crimson Straw, fetched $300,000 . . . which ain't peanuts, and if'n it was, it'd be just some pile of peanuts.

Then there was the first edition of the Ruidoso Super Select Sale . . . one of the horses, Himilo Dancer, brought $510,000 . . . another, Hot For Cash, $500,000 . . . which is quite a bundle. This horse sale totaled $5,103,300 . . . which'd buy quite a pile of peanuts.

So . . . add 'em together and you got $18.6 million spent for race horses . . . which is just about as intangible a purchase as it's possible to make . . . 'cause there's diseases race horses are prey to . . . and they can slip and break their necks . . . and other things . . . and $18.6 million ain't peanuts . . . though it'd buy a bunch.

Ergo . . . this means there must not be any particular shortage of money among the horse types . . . 'cause, at the high cost of interest on borrowed money . . . it'd break up most anybody if'n they couldn't just up and pony up that much cash . . . no?

So . . . happy home returning all you horse types . . . and do come back and see us here in Harmony Valley next year . . . 'cause y'all done got a whole buncha records to break when you return . . . though putting more cars on Sudderth'll be a real challenge.

NO PEACE AND QUIET

So . . . you've just uttered a collective WHEW! . . . mopped your brow, taken a deep breath and sorta smiled . . . all relaxed . . . 'cause things is gonna quiet down a mite in Harmony Valley.

Well . . . you got a few days of breathing time . . . 'cause the Arabian Horse Show don't get off and running until September 18-20 . . . and that'll bring whole herds of Arabian horse people here.

And then . . . before you know it . . . it'll be September 30 . . . which'll bring thousands of motorcycle riders . . . and they'll be resulting in traffic . . . and things . . . through October 3 . . . that's the day of the big Aspencade street parade . . . and special goings on . . . and that'll likely find more visitors in Harmony Valley than at any weekend this year . . . including Labor Day.

So . . . once you've recovered from Aspencade's festivities . . . you'll be looking at the mule races and related events . . . which'll be running at the same time as the Hunter/Jumper show . . . like from October 7-11 . . . and those events are likely to bring us as many visitors as most any weekend during the summer . . . which'll maybe mean lotsa traffic . . . and no vacancies . . . and waiting in line for eats . . . and all such good things as we can associate with having our town full of visitors . . . with one thought being . . . the visitors bring money.

But . . . then'll come a mite of a lull . . . and there'll be time to reflect on whatever you feel needs reflecting upon, until the skiers hit the slopes . . . which might be less than six weeks . . . 'cause, according to rumors I hear there'll be man made snow made on the slopes to have lotsa snow sooner than Mother Nature'd provide it.

Why, gadzooks . . . looking ahead to things as'll be happening, it do seem like our first real breather'll be betwixt Easter next and the beginning of the 1982 meeting . . . which don't leave much time for breathing . . . let alone scratching your itching left ear lobe.

BRIEF BIT: Having 100 pennies that a person can get $1.20 for brings a fast profit . . . and maybe even a faster shortage of pennies . . . CD

ALL-AMERICAN SALE TOPPER — Easy Prince, a colt by Easy Jet out of Go Galla's Lady, was purchased for a record $400,000 in the 1981 All-American Select Quarter Horse Yearling Sale at Ruidoso. Easy Prince, with new owners,

Yearling Sale record setter

A cascade of records was set during the 20th annual All-American Select Quarter Horse Yearling Sale.

Heading up the list of new records was the $400,000 paid for the colt, Easy Prince.

Earlier in Thursday's fourth and final session, $300,000 was handed over for the colt, Crimson Straw.

Going into the 1981 All-American Sale, the all-time record was the $277,000 paid last year for the filly, Sparkalark.

In Thursday's concluding session, 121 head were sold for total sales of $3,042,100. The average price in Thursday's session was $25,141.

That was the highest average price in any single session in All-American Sale history.

Total receipts in the 1981 Sale amounted to $13,546,950, eclipsing the previous all-time high of $11,026,300, set last year. The current average price of $14,969 was another record. The previous mark, set in 1980, was 14,880 from 742 head.

A total of 984 head was catalogued for the 1981 Sale, and 905 eventually passed under the gavel. Those figures of 984 and 905 were also records. The previous marks were set last year, when a catalogue of 800 head produced 742 sales.

From the standpoint of gross receipts, the 1981 Sale reflected a gain of 22.86 percent.

A total of 52 head brought $50,000 or more during the 1981 sale. Of these, a dozen traded hands for $100,000 or more; three brought in excess of $100,000.

Here's the way the sales piled up this year: in the first session, 265 head brought $3,412,600; in the second session, 259 head accounted for $3,391,190; in the third session, 280 yearlings lifted the bidding to $3,711,150; in the fourth stanza, the sales reached $3,042,100 from 121 head.

That all-time high price of $400,000 for Easy Prince was paid by Patricia Beck of Burnet, Texas. Easy Prince is by Easy Jet, the All-American Futurity winner (1989) and two-time world champion. Easy Prince is out of the mare, Go Galla's Lady, who'd made $19,814 in her running career. Go Galla's Lady is by Truton King.

Easy Prince was consigned by Classic Acres of Ocala, Florida.

The second high bid of $300,000 was submitted by Anne and B. F. Phillips of Frisco, Texas, for the colt, Crimson Straw. Crimson Straw is by the thoroughbred stallion, Mr. Crimson Ruler. The latter is a son of the great thoroughbred Triple Crown winner, Secretariat. The dam of Crimson Straw is the stakes winner, Fly Straw. Crimson Straw was consigned by Lewis J. Moorman and Dan Miller II, of San Antonio, Texas.

The third high bid of $210,000 went for Cash Balance, a filly by Dash For Cash out of Batumba. The filly was purchased by the partnership of Hall and Liston of Corona, California.

Sale Manager Robert Lewis reported the All-American Sale next year will be expanded to five sessions, starting on Sunday night, August 29, and extending through Thursday, September 2.

SECOND CONSOLATION — Rebelier dashes for the finish line of the All-American Futurity Second Consolation with a one length lead. The Dash For Cash filly collected $11,700 for owners Ann Freeman and Alice G. Fisher of El Paso, Texas. She is trained by O. S. Carlton III, and was ridden by Jerry Nicodemus. Turn Bugs Loose earned $10,200 for running second while Outa Control collected $10,000 for running third over the sloppy track.

THIRD CONSOLATION — Duplicate Six splashes across the finish with a one and three-fourth length lead in the All-American Futurity's third consolation Monday at Ruidoso Downs. The Easy Six colt earned $5,500 for owners Robert Hurst and Clay Neel of Dothan, Alabama. He's trained by L. E. Wyman and he was ridden by Jeff Holmes. Fort Four Rose earned $4,800 for running second while Our Easy Credit collected $4,350 for running third.

pride after the colt became the first two-year-old Triple Crown winner in quarter horse racing history with a four length win. That was the biggest win margin in the 23 year history of the All-American Futurity.

CRIMSON STRAW WAITS as the final bidding ends on him in the last day of selling at the All-American Select Quarter Horse Yearling Sale Thursday at Ruidoso Downs. The $300,000 paid for him by Anne and B. F. Phillips of Frisco, Texas, was the second highest bid of the yearling sale. Easy Prince sold for $400,000.

ALL-AMERICAN FIRST CONSOLATION — Seventy One South scores a one length victory in Monday's All-American Futurity First Consolation over 440 yards at Ruidoso Downs. The total purse of the race was $174,000. The Roulade colt earned $27,000 for owner David E. Riley of Uvalde, Texas. Trained by Johnie A. Goodman, Ruidoso Downs' leading trainer for the 1981 season, Seventy One South was ridden by W. R. Hunt. Mitos Money Maker collected $24,000 for running second while Johnny Vittoro earned $21,000 for his third-place finish.

YOU CAN BANK ON IT — Banquero, owned by Margaret Miller of El Paso, Texas, splashes to a four and one-half length win in the $28,515 Ruidoso Mile. Banquero led all the way as a lukewarm favorite and virtually sewed up the Thoroughbred Horse-Of-The-Meet honor. Willie Lovell was in the saddle. Banquero earned $17,109.

SHE'S A DANDY — Shesgottobeadandy, owned by Virgil Callaway of Hobbs, and Michael Stinson of Ft. Worth, Texas, sweeps across the finish line with a wide open lead in the $112,010 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity. The filly earned over $56,000. Larry Byers is up.

A Beloved Pioneer
Christian Lady
Is Called Home

It was a great comfort to see so many loved ones and friends at the services held in Roswell on September two for Mrs. Tommie Louise Dunnahoo, who was called home by Our Lord on August thirty-one. Widely known and beloved in Roswell, Mrs. Dunnahoo was born July twenty-one 1899 in Allen Reed, Texas, to Solon Owens and the former Henrietta Faye Mangum. As a child she was brought to Roswell by her parents and had lived in this city seventy five years. She was a graduate of Roswell High School in 1917, and along with her parents was prominent in the pioneer days of the Pecos Valley. She was also a graduate of New Mexico College in Silver City.

Mrs. Dunnahoo taught school at LFD community near Roswell and also in Roswell. She was an accomplished musician and taught music for many years. And brought great happiness with this gift, playing for churches, and many other gatherings, and over the radio with her husband, Alex.

A devout Christian lady, Mrs. Dunnahoo was a life-time member of the Roswell Presbyterian Church, for years singing in the choir and also playing music for the singing. She was member of the United Presbyterian Women, and the Pythian Sisters.

She was often a visitor to the Storm Ranch with her husband, Alex, her daughter Tommie Sue, and her son, Patrick, who served as State Patrolman for the Hondo-Ruidoso valley for several years.

At the services a very beautiful message was given by the Reverend Rolland Armstrong who said that Mrs. Dunnahoo had made blessed use of the gifts God gave her in her music, her teaching, her church work, and the raising of a wonderful family of three sons and one daughter.

The sons are Owens of Albuquerque; Patrick of Las Cruces; and Rufe, of Roswell. The daughter is Tommie Sue, of Roswell, who is following in her beloved mother's footsteps, as an accomplished musician, and a life long member of the choir in the Presbyterian Church, and a great bringer of happiness into the world by her Christian character and kindly ways.

Mrs. Dunnahoo could tell many stories of the early days of Roswell when the Pecos Valley was a wonder of the world with great numbers of free-flowing artesian wells, and fruit orchards stretching in every direction from Roswell.

Affectionately known as "Tom" to her hosts of friends, Mrs. Dunnahoo will ever hold a fond place in our hearts, and we take comfort in knowing she is safe and happy in Heaven with loved ones who have gone on before. And we know Our Lord has said to Mrs. Dunnahoo, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

A Grand Labor Day
To One and All

This message will reach you on that especially American holiday, Labor Day, upon which we honor one of the cornerstones of this nation's greatness: work. On this day we take time out to honor all those who work, whether it be the "hardy sons of rustic toil" on the farms and ranches, the laborers in all walks of life, or the office worker, doctor, or those in the air and on the oceans.

In America it is an honor and a privilege to work; and we thank God for the useful tasks we find at hand to serve the Lord and our fellow man.

To those who will be leaving the mountain land for the winter, we wish to say we hope they have enjoyed their stay during one of the most beautiful seasons. And we wish them every happiness and God's blessings.

FOR THE HORSEMAN LOOKING TO THE FUTURE. A well known realtor from this area who has now passed on used to make this quote, "There will always be more people but there will never be more land." Truer words were never spoken. We have available over 1,800 acres of deeded land located in the beautiful Hondo Valley and priced at $460.00+ per acre. Included in the price is a beautiful 5,300+ square foot home, barns, corrals, water rights and more. The icing on the cake is the owner financing — which is negotiable. Owner would even consider some trade. We can show the land any time but would appreciate ample notice to show the home. RIGHT NOW is the time to call.

THREE FOR THE PRICE OF ONE. Yes, we've got three, pine covered lots located just off Highway 37 in Gavilan Canyon that are priced to sell! Paved road in front with lots of pine trees. All three lots are priced at a total of $12,500.00 with terms. A better deal for cash.

PBS in the spotlight

A fly's head magnified 150 times by an electron microscope.

"The Invisible World" concludes summer encores

A whole universe, smaller and larger than man can see, might escape his wonder if it were not for some extraordinary techniques. In "The Invisible World," a National Geographic Special, amazing cameras and imaging devices uncover microscopic life in minute detail, penetrate galaxies and atoms, freeze movements, and alter forever our perceptions of the world.

Produced by the National Geographic Society and WQED/Pittsburgh and made possible by a continuing grant from Gulf Oil Corporation, "The Invisible World" will be telecast Wednesday, September 9.

The eye, though a versatile organ, affords man a surprisingly narrow window on the world. Each moment worlds escape us because they are too small, too large, too fast, too slow for us to perceive. Sophisticated technology reveals many usually unseen events. One device is the scanning electron microscope, which uses a focused beam of electrons instead of light rays to magnify objects 20 million times and more.

Among highlights, "The Invisible World" takes an unprecedented look at uranium atoms in motion. Captured on film by one of the world's most powerful scanning electron microscopes, the atoms are magnified on the television screen roughly 10 million times. Elsewhere, time stands still as a strobe light "freezes" bullets in flight as they blast an apple and slice a playing card, and a dramatic time-lapse film essay stops a falling drop of milk in mid-splash.

"The Invisible World" has won an Emmy as well as the Houston, Chicago, and New York International Film Festival awards, and was one of the four 1980 National Geographic Specials, which as a series won the George Foster Peabody Award.

by Joey Sasso

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT: Being one of the notorious Ewings of "Dallas" fame isn't all fun and games. With the writers' strike now history, it's also two to three months of six-day weeks in the sort of heat only Texas can produce. "You look up the word 'hot' in Webster's dictionary and they've got a picture of Dallas," Victoria Principal told me. The cast of the biggest blockbuster in series television history ran afoul of the writers' strike with only five segments—including the one involving that mysterious body in J.R.'s swimming pool—in the can. But Principal said all will be ready when CBS decides to launch. Meanwhile, under the tutelage of boyfriend Andy Gibb and under the drive of her contract to peddle hair products on the tube, Victoria has not been idle. She has just released her first single, "All I Have To Do Is Dream," and the prospect of any Emmy wouldn't excite her more. All of which goes to show that nothing breeds stardom so well as stardom itself. Actress Jacqueline Bisset says she plans to make another film now that she's completed "Rich and Famous," but that she hasn't decided what it is to be. In an interview published in the current (September) issue of Ou magazine, Bisset says that her new film is "a fast-paced comedy/drama, a woman's picture." She made the film together with partner William Allen and with George Cukor as director. "I never expected being a producer to be easy, and so far, it isn't. On 'Rich and Famous,' I had to watch everything all the time. I had an acute sense of responsibility. But it was worth it."

TV BACKSTAGE: Michael Landon may be set to bury "Little House on the Prairie," but he's not through with television or the Wild West. "Little House" is now going into its eighth year, and its last as far as Landon is concerned. "If NBC wants to do something with the kids, we'll figure something out," he says. "But I don't want to be involved in it. Eight years is long enough. I want to do other things." The talented Landon has already created a new series, which will premiere on NBC this fall. It's called "Father Murphy" and will star giant "Little House" regular Merlin Olsen. The 6' 5" Olsen will play a gold miner who dons monk's robes to save an orphanage. The idea was inspired by Olsen's size, says Landon, who will write, produce and direct the show.

TV CLOSEUP: When doctors tune in to TV medical shows they're frequently amazed at the high standards of accuracy in the Hollywood-created hospitals. The actors who play TV docs owe their medical training to Dr. Walter Dishell, a Beverly Hills, California, surgeon who works as technical advisor to shows like "M*A*S*H," "House Calls," and "Trapper John, M.D." "I got into show business in a very strange way," Dr. Dishell told me. "I met the producer of the now-defunct show 'Medical Center' about 10 years ago in a delicatessen in Los Angeles. They were producing the pilot for the melodramatic 'Medical Center' at the time, but they weren't happy with the doctors they had working with them. I was a resident in surgery at the time and they gave me a try. I worked on that show for over seven years!" Because of his good work on that show, Dr. Dishell soon found himself being invited to help the writers of "M*A*S*H."
