

Increased ski ads proposed

Discussion of possible measures to counteract the expected slump in winter tourist trade from Mexico occupied part of Wednesday's meeting of the Lodgers' Tax Committee (LTC).

LTC member Clark Carpenter stated that Christmas business in Ruidoso could be off by 35 to 40 percent because of Mexico's currency situation, and suggested that lodgers' tax money now in certificates of deposit be used to advertise for tourists.

"I think we need to tap those funds and put them to work for us," said Carpenter. Ed Hyman noted that the funds are held in reserve for an emergency. Carpenter said this may be Ruidoso's emergency year. He suggested that the present ski season advertising budget ($24,000) could be supplemented by $10,000.

The advertising would be aimed at non-Mexican skiers, he added.

Hyman said such an increase should be well thought out, and not a federal government-type "throw money at the problem" approach.

Slover Cape indicated there is a misconception in the community that enough money poured into advertising would fill every lodging room in town.

Archer Wilson pointed out that this summer's visitors were "a new breed of cat," and that he was amazed at the change in the crowd of tourists from last year to this. Hyman said the supplemental advertising should be put on the drawing board to use if needed (it had been pointed out that snow will be the big factor in winter tourism). He added that one sector which Ruidoso has not advertised itself to but should be areas with a high concentration of military and civil service personnel.

There are people at Holloman Air Force Base (near Alamogordo) who do not know Ruidoso is here and do not know it has skiing nearby, Hyman claimed.

Carpenter proposed that the matter of increasing ski season advertising be taken up by the Chamber of Commerce advertising committee. Chamber director Ed Jungbluth said the committee will study the proposal.

The possibility of advertising Ruidoso in a Sunday supplement to newspapers in Mexico was also discussed at Wednesday's meeting. Jungbluth reported that the supplement, called Ventana USA, has a circulation of 230,000 throughout Mexico.

It was noted that the publication has indicated a story on Ruidoso will be run if a full-page ad is purchased. Jungbluth said he will investigate advertising options with the supplement.

In other business, LTC approved expenditure of $4,000 for advertising for the Ruidoso Motorcycle Festival. Jungbluth said the organizers of the event are doing a "super job," and that numerous inquiries about the September 29-October 2 festival are coming into the Chamber daily.

DEMOLITION IS UNDER WAY on a Ruidoso landmark—the Chapparal Motor Hotel in Ruidoso Downs. The hotel will make way for The Triple Crown Condominiums—a 104-unit townhome project planned for the site overlooking Ruidoso Downs Race Track.

Parks and recreation push on

by DAVID SHEPPARD
Staff Writer

"We've got to have a parks and recreation director, and we've got to establish a department—those are our priorities."

With those words, Parks and Recreation Commission (PRC) chairman Bill Morrison summed up the request his commission will make to the village council Tuesday night.

The commission also decided to ask the council to authorize PRC to conduct a feasibility study on acquiring the Sierra Swim and Racquet Club for a public recreation center.

Morrison, who apologized for not having the commission pursue the department idea earlier in the summer, said the prime goal of PRC must be getting a department off the ground. He advocated putting the department under the control of a full-time director who can finally "put some teeth" into establishing an organized recreation system for the village.

PRC member Dub Holt said he felt ashamed that Ruidoso does not provide more recreational facilities.

"We've failed our kids miserably in not having more places they can play ball ... and not at midnight," he said.

Audience member Mark Paz suggested the commission needs to present a strong public showing to the council Tuesday, and he recommended that PRC advertise the proposal with posters to ensure persons are informed of the meeting.

PRC member Dave Anderson said the poster idea was good, but he advised that the best method to get a strong turnout is through word-of-mouth advertising. Anderson said the commission has done all it can in promoting the department concept.

"Now it's up to the people of Ruidoso to do it," he suggested.

Anderson also noted that a petition drive initiated two weeks ago by citizens advocating the department has received tremendous support. He said the petitions will be presented to the council to demonstrate community interest in parks and recreation.

In the event the council requests input from a broader cross section of Ruidoso before considering the department, Paz suggested PRC ask permission to send out questionnaires with utility bills.

But Morrison said he thinks the council will be favorable to creating a department. "Those guys are ready for this—we know," he said. "They're just waiting for someone to say 'Let's do it.'"

Morrison said money has been budgeted this year for the commission that could fund establishment of a department. He added if the money is not adequate, the council could operate a department with General Fund revenues the first year.

Dave Warren pointed out that a department can generate its own operating revenues by sponsoring athletic tournaments. He said an example of a self-supporting parks and recreation department is one in Telluride, Colorado, which acquires most of its funds from an annual softball tournament.

Concerning a director, PRC member Ken Moore said the commission will offer its services to the council for screening of applicants. He said the commission also should work with village manager Jim Hine in drafting a job description outlining the criteria for the position.

On the racquet club issue, Moore said the village is missing a "once in a lifetime opportunity" if it does not examine the possibility of purchasing the facility. In August, the District Court held a hearing to establish priority of holders of liens against the club. Once the final order is ascertained, a decree of foreclosure will be filed, with a sale date on the facility to come within a month after the filing.

Moore stressed that time constraints make it necessary to authorize the feasibility study immediately. "We've got to emphasize that the timing factor has us backed into a corner," he said.

Lucky Mulqueen, a local boxing coach, agreed. He said the village is "sitting on a gold mine—the opportunity is sitting there looking at us."

Morrison said PRC could study the feasibility of selling several tracts of village-owned land that has been suggested for future park space. He said the sites include land near School House Park, the Lions Club, Chester's Trailer Park, Two Rivers Park and a parcel near the Cousins' complex.

When an audience member asked if the village could afford the club, Morrison said if the facility becomes public, the community would utilize it more than in the past.

"It's the most complete facility this town has," Moore said. "It is a workable idea."

P&Z okays Grindstone plan, tables annexation

by DAVID SHEPPARD
Staff Writer

The Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission (P&Z) Wednesday approved the master plan of the Grindstone Canyon Resort Community, but tabled consideration of a request from Grindstone developer Don Dorman for annexation of 152 acres of the development until a meeting scheduled for September 24.

The commission also approved two residential to commercial zoning changes and plans for four residential developments at its regular meeting.

P&Z also tabled several items on its agenda and rescheduled them for the special meeting in two weeks, because it was announced on the local radio station that yesterday's meeting was postponed, which may have caused persons with items on the agenda to miss the meeting.

The idea to postpone Wednesday's meeting apparently came about because it was known that chairman John Schuller would be absent, and member Mike Mulholland was called out of town suddenly.

P&Z member Milt Alcorn said Wednesday night he called KRRR at the suggestion of village councilman Al Junge. It was later determined that postponement in such a manner is illegal, said Alcorn, so the meeting went on as scheduled.

Member Tom Kelham said at the meeting he knew nothing of any postponement until he arrived for the meeting. He expressed displeasure about use of the radio to announce postponement of a meeting.

P&Z approved the Grindstone master plan, which calls for development of 300 acres in an area south of the post office, but the commission tabled annexation of half the development after member Tom Kelham suggested the public be given adequate notification of the annexation hearing.

In August, P&Z approved the preliminary plat for phase one of the project. The first phase lies in land zoned for single family residences and is entirely in village limits.

Plans for the community include 222 single family homes, 88 townhomes, 220 condominiums, 32 stacked apartment units and 90 group lodging units. Also included is a conference, center and a family recreation area with a performing arts center and entertainment village.

George Shoemaker, who was acting chairman in the absence of John Schuller, asked if P&Z should consider as part of the master plan request the means of supplying water to Grindstone. Engineer Tim Collins said he felt the water supply issue had been solved with approval in July of Grindstone reservoir, which is proposed in the middle of land Dorman plans to develop.

Water board member C. Newton Page asked Dorman how many housing units would need to be supplied with water if the annexation were approved.

Dorman said plans call for 252 housing units in the 152 acres he is requesting for annexation. (After the meeting, he said he made a mistake, and the actual figure is 323 units.) Using the estimate that one acre foot of water per year will supply four housing units, Dorman said total use for the annexed property would be 81 acre feet per year. An acre foot equals 325,826 gallons.

Dorman also said the usage would be much less than if the entire property, including land being condemned for the water project, were developed into single family lots, which is allowed under present zoning for the area in village limits.

He also pointed out he is asking that less land be put into use than is legally possible according to village ordinances. He said his single family lot sizes will average three-quarters an acre, but that P&Z codes allow for 4.4 lots per acre.

Page noted that the water board recommended almost two years ago that developers wishing to have land annexed be required to include sufficient water rights to supply housing on land they request for annexation.

During discussions on the Grindstone water project before the July bond election, the village council committed itself publicly to controlling annexations by requiring the areas to have a water supply.

P&Z member Tom Kelham moved that the commission approve the master plan, and table consideration of the annexation until the special meeting later this month. Kelham indicated P&Z should not be concerned with the water issue in considering the master plan.

Collins noted that in approving the master plan, P&Z would be agreeing only with the concept of the development. He said Dorman subsequently will have to submit certified plats for approval of designated areas in the community.

P&Z approved the master plan, and scheduled the annexation request to come up on September 24.

In other business, the commission approved two residential to commercial zoning changes and four residential development plans.

Bob Johnson asked for P&Z approval for rezoning from R-1 (single family dwelling) to C-1 (light commercial) on property in Paradise Canyon that is next to the Braosted Chicken cafe.

The commission approved the request after Shoemaker noted that other commercial enterprises already exist in the area.

The second rezoning request was for about 20 acres that Camelot developer Salvador Vela proposes for a lodging complex. Collins said Vela owns land surrounding the area requested for change—from R-2 (multi-family dwellings) to C-1—which is near the Vista Del Lago Subdivision on Camelot.

THE REALTOR OF THE YEAR award was presented to Wayne Whitlock (right) by last year's recipient John Winniford at Wednesday's installation of new officers and directors for the Ruidoso Board of Realtors. The award is presented to a member who has been active both in real estate and community pursuits during the year.

Kelham moved that P&Z approve the request because it is preferable over narrow strip zoning of commercial areas that now exists.

P&Z also approved the final plats of Lost Mountain Estates and Deer Park Woods Townhomes, a preliminary plat for Town and Country North Unit 3, and the master plan for Tiara Del Sol condominium development.

Bill Blaney of the Blaney Land Company submitted the Lost Mountain plat. Blaney plans development of eight acres with a total of 20 lots. The area borders the Grindstone tract on the northwest and Black Forest subdivision on the east. P&Z member Martin Rose moved for approval of the plat because it had been okayed by village department heads.

Deer Park Woods Townhomes is a county subdivision in Alto Village. Collins said the development will comprise 39 acres and include 180 lots.

Town and Country North was the second development plan submitted by Blaney.

The plat was tabled at the June P&Z meeting because the commission was told lots were sold previously for the development before it was approved by the commission. Wednesday, Blaney assured P&Z he had deeds to all the lots. P&Z approved preliminary plans for the area, which is north of Forest Lawn Cemetery, and gave its recommendation for a sewer line easement across cemetery property.

The final development plan approved by P&Z was a master plan for Tiara Del Sol on Camelot Mountain. The condominium project is located on the eastern side of Camelot, overlooking Apache Park Subdivision near Carrizo Creek Road. Phase one of the project was approved in August.

In other action, P&Z:

—Tabled front, east and west lot line variances on a request from Jack Yates.

—Tabled replat of Lot 5, Block 4, in Hamilton Terrace on a request from Todd Beckman.

—Approved a request from W. T. Parker for a lot line variance on rear of Lot 45, Block 3, in White Mountain IV.

—Tabled a rezoning request from Roger Allen for a change from C-1 to C-2 (general commercial) for Lots 9, 10, 11, 24 and 25, Block 2, in Wingfield Subdivision.

—Approved vacation of a part of Fir Drive on Lots 9 and 10, Block 11, in Ponderosa Heights 2 for Jim George.

—Tabled final plat of Apache Village Townhomes.

—Approved a vacation of right-of-way for Lot 1, Block 1, in Wingfield Homestead for Floyd Buckley.

—Denied the final plat of Redbud Condominiums. Owners of the Redbud Cabins and Apartments on Main Road requested permission for conversion of the cabins into condominiums.

Horses-of-the-meet announced

MR MASTER BUG WITH JOCKEY JACKY MARTIN

SCS sets workshop

The Soil Conservation Service (SCS) will conduct a pasture management and irrigation workshop at 9 a.m. September 10 at the Calvin Wesch farm, located behind the Glencoe post office.

Louis Figueroa, from the SCS Lincoln County field office in Capitan, said topics will include pasture management for increased yields and soil erosion protection.

SCS also will discuss irrigation water management using sprinkler and surface irrigation systems; and conversion from surface to sprinkler systems using gravity pipelines. The final topic will be pasture fertilization.

All area farmers are invited to the workshop, as is the general public.

Mr. Master Bug, a colt who equaled and perhaps surpassed trainer Jack Brooks' expectations, was named top quarter horse-of-the-meet at the recently concluded Ruidoso Downs race season.

Sundays Payday, who won the biggest events at the mountain track for thoroughbreds, copped thoroughbred-of-the-meet laurels.

Mr. Master Bug showed his power early, winning his first four starts at Ruidoso Downs for veteran trainer Brooks. His biggest win in that streak was taking the Kansas Futurity First Consolation.

He then suffered his first setback in New Mexico when he finished third, but was placed second due to a disqualification in the Rainbow Futurity.

He then won his last three starts at Ruidoso Downs, including the $1 million winner's share of the 24th running of the All-American Futurity on Labor Day.

Overall this year, he gained eight wins with one second and one third in 10 outings. He earned $1,138,798 for owner Marvin Barnes of Ada, Oklahoma.

Mr. Master Bug was also named best two-year-old quarter horse colt or gelding.

Although the brilliant Master Hand colt was the only quarter horse to gain two seasonal honors; Ruidoso Downs saw an array of champions earn other awards.

Higheasterjet, quarter horse racing's all-time leading money-maker, took best older quarter horse awards; Special Effort, the only horse to win a two-year-old Triple Crown, was named best three-year-old; the swift Rule The Deck won best New Mexico-bred honors; and Denim N Diamonds earned best handicap laurels.

Sundays Payday, meanwhile, established his dominance in two-year-old thoroughbred circles.

The brilliant Loom colt won the two richest thoroughbred races this season at the mountain track — the $158,787 Norgor Thoroughbred Futurity and the $146,801 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity.

He won the Norgor by three lengths and the Futurity by two and one-half lengths in complete control under regular rider Mike Lidberg.

Overall this season, Sundays Payday won six races with two seconds in nine tries for trainer Bob E. Arnett. He collected $188,894 this year for owner Hugh C. Preston Jr. of Burkburnett, Texas.

Sundays Payday also captured best two-year-old colt or gelding honors.

Pop's Spirit and Copper Case also captured double thoroughbred honors.

Pop's Spirit was named best three-year-old colt or gelding and most improved thoroughbred.

The Red Viking gelding, who won his Ruidoso Downs debut in May against $5,000 claimers, won six races this season, including the $28,889 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Derby by three lengths in a front-running performance.

Trained by Clifford C. Lambert, Pop's Spirit is owned by the Double B Ranch of Anthony, New Mexico.

Although Copper Case made just one appearance this season at Ruidoso Downs, his performance was sensational. Facing the finest older routers in the area, the five-year-old Hopeful Venture gelding drew out for a convincing three and one-half length victory in a rapid 1:43 2-5 clocking over the mile. He collected best router and best New Mexico-bred laurels.

Owned by Jinx Graham of El Paso, Texas, Copper Case is trained by Clifford C. Lambert.

The complete list of honorees:

QUARTER HORSES

Horse-of-the-meet — Mr. Master Bug.

Best two-year-old colt or gelding — Mr. Master Bug.

Best two-year-old filly — Yankee Win, a Windy Ryon filly, who tragically injured herself during the running of the All-American Futurity. She won the Rainbow Futurity and 10 of 12 starts and earnings of almost $400,000. Trained by C. Dwayne Gilbreath, she's owned by Jerry Rheudasil of Lewisville, Texas.

Best three-year-old colt or gelding — Special Effort, a Raise Your Glass colt, who is truly one of quarter horse racing's greatest runners. He won the Kansas Derby and ran third in the All-American Derby. Trained by Johnie Goodman, he's owned by Dan and Jolene Urschel of Canadian, Texas.

Best three-year-old filly — Justanold Love, a Dash For Cash filly, who captured the All-American Derby, thus handing Special Effort his first setback after 13 victories. Trained by Charles Casco, she's owned by J. E. Jumonville Jr. of Ventress, Louisiana.

Best older quarter horse — Higheasterjet, a magnificent Pine's Easter Jet gelding, who became quarter horse racing's all-time money-maker when he captured the inaugural running of the All-American Gold Cup. He has not lost a race on the track, although he was disqualified from a trial race win this season, since an All-American Futurity elimination race in 1990. Trained by Johnie Goodman, he's owned by G. D. Highsmith of La Grange, Texas.

Best New Mexico-bred quarter horse — Rule The Deck, a Scout Leader mare, who won the Rainbow Silver Cup and won, and was placed third in the World's Championship Quarter Horse Classic. She's trained by R. D. Hay for owner Dirk Jones of Lubbock, Texas.

Best handicap quarter horse — Denim N Diamonds, a superb Timeto Thinkrich mare whom many consider the finest mare in quarter horse racing history. She won the Go Together Stakes in May and was placed second in the World's Championship Quarter Horse Classic. Owned by R. D. Hubbard of Wichita, Kansas, she's trained by Sandy Farris.

Best 870 horse — Special Hank, a Special Secret gelding, who won three 870 races, including the Brigand Handicap and the Flying Charm Stakes. Trained by George H. Cosper Jr., he's owned by Lowell F. Hankins of Rocksprings, Texas.

Most improved horse — Joseys Gallant Jet, a Gallant Jet gelding, who began the meet running for a $8,000 claiming price and ended by running against the ground's toughest allowance runners. His best effort may have been running second, just a length behind Higheasterjet in a 350-yard allowance race on July 30. Trained by Coy Hendrix, Joseys Gallant Jet is owned by Gerald R. Roberts of Lamesa, Texas.

Best three-year-old colt or gelding — Special Effort, a Raise Your Glass colt, who is truly one of quarter horse racing's greatest runners. He won the Kansas Derby and ran third in the All-American Derby. Trained by Johnie Goodman, he's owned by Dan and Jolene Urschel of Canadian, Texas.

Best three-year-old filly — Justanold Love, a Dash For Cash filly, who captured the All-American Derby, thus handing Special Effort his first setback after 13 victories. Trained by Charles Casco, she's owned by J. E. Jumonville Jr. of Ventress, Louisiana.

Bowhunting season to open

The latest in camouflage suits and painted faces may be observed on the Lincoln National Forest for the next two weeks, as Bowhunting Season in this area begins September 11 and continues until September 24. Bowhunting is increasingly popular on the Lincoln, with the Guadalupe District receiving the heaviest use, and the Mayhill and Cloudercroft Districts having growing numbers of enthusiastic bowhunters every year.

For good places to hunt and camp, and for fuelwood and weather information the numbers to call are: Smokey Bear at Ruidoso, 257-4095; Cloudercroft, 682-2551; Guadalupe at Carlsbad, 885-4181; and Mayhill, 687-3411. Fuelwood areas have been receiving heavy use. All fuelwood areas on the Lincoln National Forest require fuelwood permits.

All campgrounds on the Smokey Bear District will close on September 15, except Three Rivers, which remains open year-round. Bonito Lake is full and streams are running normal. Some roads are muddy due to thunderstorms. Trails in the White Mountain Wilderness are open; however, a severe windstorm with resulting blowdowns has blocked Trail number 19 (South Fork) to horse travel.

On the Cloudercroft District, all campgrounds except Sleepy Grass will close on September 15. Recent rains have caused muddy spots in secondary roads and trails. District personnel remind all persons that it is illegal to shoot firearms near residences or buildings, and that the area around Sunspot is posted.

Fuelwood gathering has been heavy on the Guadalupe District, and with a large bowhunter turnout expected, personnel are urging everyone to be especially careful. Roads and trails are open and in good condition. Sitting Bull Falls Picnic Area is open with heavy use on weekends.

Roads are in good condition on the Mayhill District; however, construction continues on NM 581 between Weed and Sacramento. The ORV closure for Mule, Hunter, and Agua Chiquita Canyons is still in effect. Check with the District for information on good undeveloped camping sites. Fishing is improving on the Penasco River at Mayhill.

THE STATE PRESIDENT and president-elect of the Realtors Association of New Mexico both attended the local Board of Realtors installation of officers ceremony at Cree Meadows Restaurant Wednesday.

Jones, Ogden exchange vows

Cathy Jones of Glencoe and Dan Ogden of Alamogordo exchanged wedding vows the evening of August 14 at Holy Mount Episcopal Church in Ruidoso, with Father Burdette Stampley conducting the traditional ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Jones of Glencoe. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Anna Ogden and the late Dennis Ogden of La Luz.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white gown of antique lace with empire waistline and chapel train.

Altar bouquets of blue carnations and white daisies decorated the church, and the bride carried a mixed bouquet of blue carnations, white roses and baby's breath. Debbie Jones of Glencoe, sister of Cathy, served as maid of honor. Annette Jones Whipple was a bridesmaid for sister Cathy.

Jimmy Tucker of Tularosa was best man. Groomsman was Teddy Eldridge of Alamogordo. Ushers were Craig Whipple and Joel Mitchell.

Vanessa Lucas, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Candlelighters were Jim Paul Whipple, the bride's nephew, and J. K. Mitchell, the bridegroom's nephew.

A reception at the Paul Jones home in Glencoe followed the ceremony. Hostesses were Sandy Gladden, Marge Mitchell, Jane Tully, Phyllis Lucas, Martha Lucas, Debi Allison and Jeanine Perry.

Ruth Guthrie and Kayla Payne registered at the guest book. Following a wedding trip to El Paso, Texas, the couple is at home in Glencoe.

OES to host sale

The Order of the Eastern Star chapter of Ruidoso will hold a bake sale and garage sale at the Eastern Star Building Tuesday through Thursday, September 14-15. The sale will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Money raised at the sale will be put in a scholarship fund.

CATHY JONES AND DAN OGDEN

Spanish classes offered

Adult education classes in Spanish are being offered at the Ruidoso Public Library beginning Monday, October 4.

Friends of the Library are sponsoring the classes. Beginning and intermediate classes will be offered if the minimum of 20 students per class is met.

Lynda Sanchez, who has taught eight other sessions of Spanish in Ruidoso, will be the instructor.

Classes will be tailored to the students. For example, if the majority of the class is real estate or business people, vocabulary and dialogues appropriate to those fields will be emphasized.

Basic helpful phrases and common everyday expressions will be stressed, so that students will be equipped to handle business or emergency situations.

Cultural awareness is also an important part of the 12-week series, as Sanchez feels this helps the language to be more easily understood and makes the classes more fun.

"We really have some fun times in class, especially when my students work out their own work situations or travel experiences," said Sanchez. "Getting to know why a certain people see the world differently than we do is part of it."

A note book and dictionary are required materials for the course. Registration is open now at the Ruidoso Public Library.

More information is available by calling the library at 257-4535.

THE CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD was presented to Gordon Snidow by the Ruidoso Board of Realtors Wednesday. The award is for outstanding achievement in the community by a person not in the real estate profession. Snidow (center) and his wife Sue accepted the award from Realtor Gary Lynch.

Support for cystic fibrosis campaign urged

Every day five new lives begin with cystic fibrosis, and every day three lives are lost to the tragic disease, according to local Breath of Life campaign chairman Wayne Townsend.

The incurable disease causes complications mainly in the lungs and digestive system. It takes the lives of half its victims before age 19.

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation sponsors research to find a cure or control for the disease. The Breath of Life campaign raises funds for research and patient care and education programs.

"Research is the key to the future for children and young people with CF, and care and treatment are the necessities for the present," said Townsend. "Our community's support will help buy time through care and give hope through research to children and young adults for whom time is running out."

whom time is running out."

During the week of September 19-26, the New Mexico chapter of the national foundation will conduct its Breath of Life campaign in Ruidoso. The support of everyone in the community is urged.

New Thought meets tonight

The Ruidoso New Thought group will hear a lecture by Dr. Robert Waterman, president of the Southwestern College of Life Sciences in Santa Fe, during a meeting tonight at 7 p.m. at Ruidoso village hall.

STEVENS OUT INDEFINITELY

Warriors face tough Socorro

Around Sports with Gary Brown

Followers of the University of New Mexico (UNM) football team could hardly have hoped for a more enjoyable season opener.

The Lobos rolled over host Wyoming 41-20 last Saturday and immediately established themselves as title contenders in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC).

What was particularly impressive about the Lobos' victory was the strong offense they showed.

Last season, defense was UNM's strong point while the offense struggled all year. However, this season the Lobos appear to be as strong as ever on defense and much improved offensively.

Quarterback David Osborne ran the UNM offense well as the Lobos scored in streaks of 21 points in the second quarter and 20 in the final period.

The UNM defense was as potent as ever, with All-WAC end Jimmie Carter sparking the effort.

This Saturday UNM will host Texas Tech University of the Southwest Conference.

The Lobos don't really have any weaknesses on defense and that should be a big help the rest of the season.

The WAC is generally an offense-oriented conference with Brigham Young University (BYU) leading the way.

BYU has always been a pass-oriented team and that has been enough for it to win the conference title in recent years.

However, the Lobos' balance on both offense and defense should be enough to keep them in the thick of the championship race all season.

Even if they don't win the conference championship, the Lobos could get a bowl bid if they have a winning season.

That would be a big lift for the UNM program.

Former Ruidoso High School football standout Lon Nunley didn't make the trip to Wyoming with the UNM team.

Nunley is a linebacker on the UNM squad but the Lobos are loaded with talented people at that position.

The 6-1, 205 pound Nunley, who is only a freshman, should get some playing time later in the season in Lobo home games.

Lon's twin brother, Don, is currently a member of the West Texas State University freshman team along with another former Warrior, Byron Wright.

Three other members of last season's 8-2 Warrior team are currently attending four-year colleges.

Scott Neal, a star running back and quarterback for the Warriors, is attending UNM and carrying a full load of classes. He may go out for the football team next season.

Darrius Rad, a standout linebacker on the Warrior 1981 team, is attending North Texas State University but not playing football.

And of course, let's not forget Darin Smith, a wide receiver and defensive back on last year's Warrior team.

Smith is attending New Mexico State University's Alamogordo branch and is also an assistant coach for Ruidoso High's football team this season.

Year after year Socorro High School football teams have been big, physical and run-oriented.

This year's Socorro team that will host Ruidoso High School Friday night is no exception.

"They're big and they like to run right at you," said Ruidoso head coach Darrel Siterwalt. "They've got an experienced team and some hard running backs. They're similar to Lovington but their backs are bigger and not quite so fast."

Lovington topped the Warriors 39-18 in the season opener for both teams last week. Last season Ruidoso defeated Socorro 21-12.

Ruidoso will be without the services of junior offensive tackle-defensive end Tony Stevens for the Socorro game and perhaps the rest of the season.

Stevens, who also did the Warriors' kickoffs and place kicking, tore some ligaments in his right knee against Lovington. He was operated on today and will be in a cast for at least six weeks.

"We haven't decided who'll take Tony's place at his three positions," Siterwalt remarked. "Other than that, we probably won't have any changes in the starting offensive lineup."

Senior Billy Woodul, who started at quarterback last week, will probably share some playing time with junior Cyrus Simmons against Socorro. Woodul completed five of 16 passes for 118 yards against the Wildcats. Simmons, who also starts at tough safety, is a good runner.

The rest of the starting offensive backfield will include halfback Eric Strobel, wingback Grady Williamson and fullback Kyle Flack. Strobel, a junior, scored all three touchdowns for the Warriors against Lovington, two on runs and one on a 51-yard pass from Woodul.

David Swalander will start again at center. Craig Carson and Chris Sanchez will go again at guard while Chris Wynn is scheduled to go at one tackle position. Stevens' spot is still up for grabs. Mike Douglass, who caught a 40-yard pass from Woodul against Lovington, will start at tight end and H. R. Luera will go at split end.

On defense there will be quite a few changes from last week as the coaches hope to get a look at more players.

Gary Burgess and Robert Swanner will start at the ends while sophomore Manuel Montano and Tracy Morlack will go at tackle.

Jessie Reynolds will start at middle linebacker while George Gresham and Tommy Crow will play the outside linebacker spots.

Simmons will start at tough safety, Russell Easter at strong safety, Steve Sndow at tough cornerback and Curtis Palmer at strong cornerback.

The Warriors may pass the ball more than they did last week.

"We hope by passing that it will also open up our running game," Siterwalt said. "We also think they might blitz us pretty hard."

Ted Reynolds will lead the Socorro attack at quarterback. He's a 6-0, 175 pounder.

Lon Sandoval, a 5-10, 185 pound fullback, along with halfbacks Bob Aragon and Mike Jogoles and flanker Steven Vallejo, are other Socorro offensive threats.

Derry Wade, a 6-1, 225 pound tackle, anchors the Socorro line both ways. E. P. Diggs, a 5-10, 203 pound noseguard, is another solid player.

"We've got some pretty good size and have some experience from last season," said Socorro head coach Eddie Castanada.

Socorro is in the same district as Los Lunas and Saint Pius and is usually a title contender in that loop.

The game will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Ruidoso junior varsity opens at Carrizozo Saturday

The Ruidoso High School junior varsity will open the season at Carrizozo High School Saturday at 11 a.m.

Jim Ramsey is the head coach and Ron Geyer the assistant.

The Warriors finished with a 3-3-1 record last season and hope to improve on that this year.

Ruidoso beat Goddard of Roswell twice last season and tied Roswell High School once. Both of those schools are AAAA division teams while Ruidoso is a AAA school.

The Warriors' first home game is against the Roswell freshmen Thursday, September 16, at 6 p.m. The second home game will be against Goddard October 7 at 6 p.m.

Braves open at Dexter

The White Mountain Middle School football team will open its season with a 6 p.m. game at Dexter today.

The Braves will meet a Dexter team made up of seventh, eighth and ninth graders. Most of the White Mountain players are eighth graders with a few seventh graders also involved.

White Mountain had a 4-2 record last year and coaches Terry Wharton and Mike Crocker are hopeful the team can improve on that this season.

Jeff Willingham is the starting quarterback. Kirk Taylor will be at halfback and also back up Willingham at quarterback.

Brian Davis and Texas transfer Billy Harrison will share the fullback duties. Harrison, a 5-8, 165 pounder, will also play at linebacker. Davis is a 5-8, 140 pounder and has good speed. He was a standout pitcher on the Little League baseball All-Star team this past summer.

Billy Chadwell, also a Little League baseball All-Star, is a returning veteran from last year and will play at halfback and defensive back. Other returning veterans are lineman Corey Garner and flanker-defensive back Mike Keeton.

The Braves have more depth and size than last season. A total of 33 players will make the trip to Dexter but about 45 have been working out with the team at practice.

WHITE MOUNTAIN MIDDLE SCHOOL football players work on the blocking sled Tuesday afternoon in preparation for tonight's opening game with host Dexter. White Mountain had a 4-2 record last season and has a good chance of improving on that this year. The game will begin at 6 p.m.

Nunley will play for Lobos against Texas Tech Saturday

Former Ruidoso High School football standout Lon Nunley will play on the starting punt return team for the University of New Mexico (UNM) when the Lobos host Texas Tech University (TTU) Saturday afternoon.

Nunley, only a freshman, didn't travel with the Lobos when they played Wyoming in Laramie last Saturday in the season opener. Nunley is a linebacker on the Lobo roster but UNM has five experienced linebackers and another one who is injured.

Nunley made the All-State AAA team last fall and played for the South in the state All-Star game during the summer.

Wilson wins drawing

Anne Wilson was the winner of a half side of beef in a drawing held Tuesday by the Ruidoso Junior Skiers.

The Attic and Friends heavy tourney favorite

The Attic and Friends, undefeated regular season champions, will be the heavy favorite when the Lincoln County Women's Softball Association Tournament begins Saturday.

The Saturday games will be played at All-American Park Field in Ruidoso Downs and Fort Stanton Field. The first round games will begin at 9 a.m. Sunday's games will start at 10 a.m.

The Attic and Friends finished the regular season with a perfect 18-0 record, the first time in the history of the association that a team has gone undefeated. The Attic and Friends will play its first game at noon Saturday at Fort Stanton, against the winner of the Country Blues-Rebels contest.

Coached by Dave Warren and Tim Eckerdt, The Attic and Friends used strong hitting, pitching and plenty of depth to win the regular season championship.

"Team play was the key for us this season," Warren said. "The players played well together and we also had good talent."

Vicki Eckerdt, J. D. Yoakum and Lori Joyner have been the pitchers for The Attic and Friends this season. Most of the team's victories were by wide margins.

Other members of the team include Cindy Pollock, Cathy Thein, Jenny Pollock, Bonnie Mattson, Sandy Marshall, Nancy Fleharty, Sonja Mulligan, Sue Keeton, Melanie Chrisman, Chris Mulqueen and Susan Buch.

Most of The Attic and Friends' players played for Back to Nature last season. The team's name was changed to The Attic and Friends this season. Back to Nature finished second in the association last season with an 8-4 record. Country Blues won the championship in 1981.

However, this season the blues were reversed with the Country Blues finishing second in the nine-team association.

The Attic and Friends is sponsored by The Attic, Back to Nature and the Daily Planet.

Warrior spikers meet Carrizozo in opener

New Ruidoso High School volleyball coach Elmer Chavez is optimistic about his team's chances when the Warriors open the 1982 season Saturday at Carrizozo.

"We've been working well as a team in practice," he said. "Last year's team may have had more individual stars but this year's team works well as a unit. They've come along well in practice."

The junior varsity match will begin at 4 p.m. with the varsity encounter immediately following.

Members of the Warrior starting varsity lineup for Carrizozo include Laurie Morel, Lillian Lopez, Laura Trapp, Claudia Branum, Kody Taylor and Dody Bardonado.

What about Carrizozo?

"I don't know much about them," Chavez said. "I heard this is supposed to be a down year for them but other than that, I'm not sure. I haven't seen them play."

There are currently 27 players on the Ruidoso varsity and junior varsity squads. The junior varsity has also shown improvement in practice.

"We've been teaching them to bump, set and spike," Chavez said. "We're trying to get them better for the future."

Ruidoso's first home match is against Cloudcroft Saturday, September 18. The Warriors will compete in the Captain Tournament Saturday, September 25.

Capitan hosts Texico, aims for second victory

Hoping to make it two victories in a row, the Capitan High School varsity football team will host powerful Texico in a 7:30 p.m. game tomorrow in Capitan.

Capitan is coming off an impressive 27-4 victory over Cloudcroft last weekend. Texico is rated as one of the favorites to win the state A division title this season. Texico defeated Carrizozo 29-0 last weekend.

The host Tigers will throw one of the best backfields in the A division at the Texico defense.

Capitan quarterback Grady Lee Eldridge is a returnee from last season. The 6-0, 180 pounder scored one of the Tiger touchdowns against Cloudcroft and is also a fine passer. He played tailback last season.

John Todd Aguilar is the fullback while Eddie Cummins and David Beavers will go at halfback. Cummins scored two touchdowns and Beavers one last week.

Todd Proctor and Paul Sullivan anchor the Tiger offensive line. Proctor is a 6-0, 190 pound tackle and Sullivan a 5-11, 170 pound guard. Both players also start on defense. Ron McDaniel is the starting tight end for the Tigers and is a good receiver and blocker.

Capitan suffered no major injuries in the Cloudcroft contest and is healthy for the Texico encounter.

Carrizozo, another Lincoln County A division team, is idle Friday. The Grizzlies will resume action Friday, September 17, at AA division power Estancia. That contest will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Youths can still sign up for Little League football

Youths interested in playing Ruidoso Little League football can sign up for the league up to Saturday, September 18, the first day of competition.

There is an entry fee of $20 per family, regardless of how many youths from the family want to play.

Those interested in playing football can contact league director Dr. Lynn Willard at 257-4827.

IT'S A HEADER. Ruidoso-Sertoma Soccer Association director Butch Grantham heads the ball into the net over goalie Carl Lueras. The fall youth soccer season begins Saturday morning at White Mountain Middle School with matches in the under-eight, under-12 and under-16 age divisions. Lueras is a goalie on Grantham's under-16 Celtic team. Grantham has been offered a coaching position with the El Paso soccer team of the new United States Indoor Soccer League. He hasn't yet decided whether he will take the job.

EL PASO SOCCER TEAM

Grantham offered pro coaching position

Ruidoso-Sertoma Soccer Association (RSSA) director Butch Grantham has been offered the head coaching job for the El Paso, Texas, franchise in the new United States Indoor Soccer League (USISL).

"I've been offered the head coaching job or almost any other job I wanted with the team," Grantham said Tuesday afternoon. "I'll probably decide whether to take it or not within the next 90 days."

Grantham was approached about the position while conducting a summer soccer camp in El Paso.

As of right now, there are six franchises in the new league, which will play in a five-month period during the winter and early spring. There are already two other major professional soccer leagues in the country—the North American Soccer League (NASL) and the Modern Indoor Soccer League (MISL).

"As to whether I decide to take the job or not, it will probably depend on whether they decide to play mostly Americans," Grantham said. "Their goal is to have 75 percent of the players be Americans. People who come to the matches would want to see our boys play."

Grantham played on the NASL Dallas Tornado B team in the early 1970s before being injured in an automobile accident. He and his wife Suzanne, who coaches a youth team in the RSSA, moved to Ruidoso in 1975.

Is Grantham optimistic about the new league making it?

"Indoor soccer is really catching on in this country," he commented. "There's a lot of scoring in indoor soccer. A score like 9-8 is fairly common. People like to see a lot of scoring."

If Grantham got the El Paso job, would he continue as RSSA director?

"Probably not," he said. "It takes a lot of time to run a pro team. I may have to move down there. I'd still probably continue an association with youth soccer in some way, however."

Under Grantham's leadership, the RSSA youth programs have prospered and grown the past three years.

Grantham and Bob Gregson, the head chef at Cree Meadows Country Club, started having clinics at the local schools in the spring of 1979. The response was good and the first youth season was started in the fall of that year with 120 youths coming out.

The program has grown gradually since then and the fall youth season will begin its third campaign Saturday morning at White Mountain Middle School.

Johnny Williams tournament set for Cree Meadows

The fifth annual Johnny Williams Memorial Partnership Golf Tournament will be September 24-26 at Cree Meadows Country Club.

Tommy Hornbuckle and Ted Martinez are the defending team champions.

There is an entry fee of $250 per team. The entry fee will include carts, cocktail party, dinner, dancing, ladies luncheon, practice round and prizes. The fee must be paid by September 18. The field will be limited to the first 80 teams which sign up.

Mrs. Johnny Williams has donated the winners' trophies for all flights and will provide wine for the dinner.

For further information, contact Cree Meadows golf professional Bob Hickson at 257-5688.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB got its own clubhouse in 1950, thanks to the influence of charter member Madeline Burdette, who had earlier resided at the house. The property was owned by a realty company of New York and was deeded to the village of Ruidoso for public use. The Woman's Club signed a 10-year lease for $1 per year for use of the facility.

PAST PRESIDENTS of the Ruidoso Woman's Club were honored during the 50th anniversary celebration Wednesday. Mrs. R. K. Gladys Knox (standing) tells the group about the accomplishments of the club during her tenure as president from 1960-62 as (from left, seated) charter member Delsie Palmer and past presidents Mrs. Bernard Rooney, Mrs. Aline Knox, Mrs. E. M. Ellen Sanders, Mrs. W. D. Patterson and Mrs. Tillie Daubs listen attentively.

A PROGRAM celebrating the first 50 years of the Ruidoso Woman's Club was organized and narrated by Barbara Minnick.

THIS YEAR'S PRESIDENT of the Woman's Club, Genevieve Duncan, opened the new business year of the club Wednesday by hosting a celebration of the club's 50 year history.

Ruidoso Woman's Club celebrates first 50 years

The Ruidoso Woman's Club Wednesday kicked off its new business year with a 50th anniversary celebration honoring past presidents.

The local Woman's Club was organized in 1932 with 18 members, and was the first civic club in this area. The local club joined the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which was organized in 1890 and is now the largest organization of women volunteers in the world.

Among the many accomplishments of the Ruidoso Woman's Club are beginning the first library, which was originally housed in various members' homes with a 25 cents charge per year for checking out books; sponsoring the first garbage collection in Ruidoso; and establishing the first Women's Chamber of Commerce in the United States.

The Women's Chamber of Commerce was organized by the women. It was reported at the anniversary meeting Wednesday, because "the men start out full tilt and by Christmastime they quit doing anything."

The first Girl Scout troop and Parent

Teachers Association in this area were begun by the Woman's Club. The club was also responsible for decorating the traffic circles on upper Main Street with mosaic tiles, and for the first paved street in Ruidoso.

The Woman's Club has also encouraged education in the community, purchasing a school bell and playground equipment during its early years of organization and more recently establishing a scholarship program which continues today.

The preamble adopted by the group at its initiation was, "We the women of Ruidoso and vicinity have bonded together for the promotion of harmony and sociability to encourage higher intellectual and moral conditions in our community and a spirit of helpfulness among our members."

Mayor George White proclaimed this week Federated Women's Club Week in honor of the golden anniversary of the local club.

The theme for the club for the next two years is volunteerism, it was reported Wednesday.

CHARTER MEMBERS of the Ruidoso Woman's Club present at Wednesday's anniversary celebration included Delsie Palmer of Roswell (left standing), Vera Travis of Roswell, and Madeline Burdette of Ruidoso (seated).

Night on the town

A Mexican comida is entertaining at Ole Tacos

OLE TACOS, located at the corner of Sudderth and Mesalero Drives, has been owned by Benjamin and Luzelva Chavez for four years. The restaurant is open Monday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. and in the evening on Sundays.

Photos and text by David Sheppard

An entertaining twist to spending a night on the town is introducing newcomers to some of your favorite haunts. The fun is reflected in the comments you elicit from the initiates as you escort them around the community and let them experience local customs.

A particularly delightful way of exposing greenhorns to the Southwest is taking them out for their first Mexican meal.

The perfect opportunity for partaking in such entertainment came last week. I thought what an unique experience it would be to invite a Polish family to a Mexican restaurant in this American mountain resort town. On Friday night, we invited the Richard and Grace Kolaczek family out for a hot time at Ole Tacos.

When I asked the family if they ever had eaten Mexican food, or even had heard of it, George Chrzanowski, the Kolaczek's son-in-law, indicated that he had heard of Mexican cuisine and the hot rumors associated with it.

I don't know why, but Westerners feel a sense of sadistic glee when they get a chance to expose someone to torturing hot chilis. A twinge of that emotion tickled me as I heard George's response.

The drive to Ole Tacos in itself was entertaining, as five members of the family, plus my wife and I, cramped into my little Fiat. What fun it will be, thought I, on the way back.

We arrived at the restaurant on lower Sudderth Drive, filed out of the car, and promptly settled into the unassuming atmosphere of the tiny eatery.

Ole Tacos has become one of my favorite Mexican food restaurants in only a few short months. The service is always prompt, and the meals are prepared to perfection. Owner Benjamin Chavez told me the basis for the cuisine is an uncompromising insistence that everything be made from scratch, with the freshest ingredients.

Chavez said he has owned the restaurant four years, and in that short period he has acquired a dedicated following that includes diners from far reaches of the country who have been referred to the restaurant.

"We have the best Mexican food in town," he said.

Our expectations ran high as we glanced at the menus and thought of recommendations for our Polish guests. To our chagrin, however, the family said they had eaten only a few hours earlier, and were too satiated to order complete dinners.

Not allowing the Kolaczeks to wiggle entirely off the hook, we ordered an Ole guacamole dip for the table. At $2.20 for a heaping portion, the dip is a real bargain as an appetizer.

I ordered a pair of chile rellenos a la carte, while my wife, betting on the chance everyone would want to try a bite, ordered the Ole Special Combo—a colorful blend including two enchiladas, one taco and one chile relleno. At $5.50, the combo is one of the most expensive items on the menu.

Other Ole dishes cost in the $4 range. Dinners include combinations of tacos, burritos, tamales and enchiladas. And if a dinner is too much, almost everything is available a la carte. For meat and potatoes eaters, Ole even offers steak dinners and hamburger meals.

When the guacamole was served, the looks of curiosity around the table brought the first inclining of a smile to my face. George was so perplexed by the green color, he refused to dip a chip into the substance. But the rest of the family was a little more adventurous. Richard and Grace Kolaczek dug in with vigor, and they thoroughly enjoyed the novel taste.

While the guacamole was making the rounds, our piping hot dinners were served. More glances of bewilderment greeted the plates and the unusual and colorful concoctions they carried.

Charlotte and I savored every bite of the dinners. I especially like the way Ole prepares chile rellenos—with fresh peppers and a light, crepe-like wrapping.

The Kolaczeks seemed content to observe us eating. Despite our prodding that they should try the enchiladas or rellenos, they remained steadfast in their refusals.

But young Anna Chrzanowski saved the day. Her mother Margaret acquiesced to her curiosity and let her experiment with our dishes. She took a bite into an enchilada and immediately proceeded to fan her mouth. The long-awaited chuckles overcame the table.

The laughter seemed to encourage the little tyke, however, and she delved further into the meal. That was a mistake. With the next bite, she pierced something hot. Tears began rolling down Anna's cheeks and she let out a bone-wrenching scream.

Nearby patrons must have thought we were torturing poor Anna. "Give her something hot," they advised, and I thought they were more cruel than we.

But the advice was well-meant. Their suggestion was to neutralize the spicy-burning with some hot coffee. We tried it, and it was successful.

Anna's encounter with a chile was the end to our Mexican restaurant foray. Although it didn't work out quite as planned, I will continue to recommend Ole Tacos to anyone in search of a good Mexican meal.

The next time I invite newcomers for a night out, however, it may be only for a hamburger.

TIME TO EXTINGUISH THE FLAME, after three-year-old Anna Chrzanowski got her first taste of Mexican food. The taste was a big surprise for Anna, but she quickly overcame her brush with a hot ingredient in a Special Combo from Ole Tacos.

Favorites did fine

Wagering favorites enjoyed a fine season during the 77-day horse race meet this summer at Ruidoso Downs.

A total of 371 public selections captured wins for an average of 39.1 percent. That's far better than the national average of around 32 percent.

In addition, 660 of the fans' picks finished first, second or third for an average of 69.6 percent.

The final Labor Day weekend saw 19 of the 60 favorites win for a 31.6 percent average. Forty-five of the 60 favorites finished in-the-money positions for 75 percent.

The best weekend for favorites was over the eighth weekend of racing when 38 of the 66 choices won for 54.5 percent and 65 of 68 finished in-the-money for 83.3 percent.

Purses top $10 million

Gross purse distribution for the 77-day 1982 season at Ruidoso Downs topped out at $10,772,512, an all-time record by better than $2.3 million, according to general manager R. Wood Erwin.

The current figure consists of $3,245,000 put up by the track, and $7,527,512 generated from nominating and sustaining fees, and interest.

Last year, the net purse distribution was $3,200,420, while the gross distribution was $8,396,388. The current purse distribution represents a remarkable increase of 28.30 percent.

Here's a look at the growth pattern reflected in recent gross purse distributions: 1982 — $10,772,512; 1981 — $8,396,388; 1980 — $7,342,122; 1979 — $6,638,714; 1978 — $6,347,585; 1977 — $5,668,515; 1976 — $4,995,323; 1975 — $4,597,431; 1974 — $4,326,358; 1973 — $3,523,770; 1982 — $3,237,154.

Jockey/Trainer of the week

Jacky Martin survived a stretch run with Joe Martinez to win his second consecutive jockey championship at Ruidoso Downs.

The 27-year-old native of Huntington, Arkansas, became the first rider to win back-to-back titles since Carlos Rivas turned the trick in 1976 and 1977. He is the first rider at the mountain track to win a championship strictly riding quarter horses.

Martin won two races in a courageous performance on Labor Day to break a tie with Martinez. He won the All-American Futurity aboard Mr Master Bug after surviving a hard fall during the third race.

Martin finished with 66 victories, 46 seconds and 31 thirds from 286 mounts. His winning percentage was an excellent .248.

A year ago, Martin posted 70 victories with 58 seconds and 37 thirds from 291 mounts. His winning percentage was a superb .240.

Martinez, meanwhile, made a big late move, but finished second for the second straight season.

The young rider won 64 races with 65 seconds and 61 thirds from 417 mounts. His winning percentage was .153.

Other top ten rider included Steve Harris, Leroy Coombs, apprentice Casey Lambert, Mike Lidberg, Larry Byers, Gary Sumpter, Vickie Smallwood and Willie Lovell.

In the trainer standings, William F. Leach won his first trainer championship after maintaining his lead for most of the 77-day meeting.

Leach, who finished second in 1981 at Ruidoso Downs, posted 53 triumphs with 30 seconds and 32 thirds in 233 starts. His winning percentage was a fine .227.

Jack W. Brooks, who made a big move during the final weeks, finished in second place.

The Edmond Oklahoma, conditioner won 49 races with 27 seconds and 26 thirds from 183 starts. His winning percentage was a superb .253.

Brooks finished fifth in last season's trainer charts.

Bob E. Arnett finished third for the second straight season, yet still enjoyed a fine meet. He won 46 races with 35 seconds and 21 thirds from 220 starts. His winning percentage was a fine .209.

Other top ten trainers included Clifford C. Lambert, Jimmie D. Claridge, Gerald E. Marr, Fred I. Danley, Jack W. Dube, C. Dwayne Gilbreath and R. Frank Thompson.

IT WAS NO JINX. Jinx Graham (with sun glasses) of El Paso smilingly accepts the victory trophy after his impressive gelding, Copper Case, knocked off the $31,600 Ruidoso Mile, Sunday. The memento was presented by Richard Worley (left) of the Ruidoso Downs board of directors. Trainer Cliff Lambert (center) and jockey Gary Sumpter were also on hand.

COPPER CASE WINS THE MILE. Copper Case, owned by Jinx Graham of El Paso, Texas lugs 126 pounds across the finish line in Sunday's $31,600 Ruidoso Mile. The gelding won with a mighty stretch move. Gary Sumpter is up.

Closing day handle huge

The closing day handle of $1,250,384 at Ruidoso Downs on September 6 (Labor Day) was the biggest handle in track history, and the second biggest in the history of racing in New Mexico.

The previous one-day record at Ruidoso Downs was the $1,273,451 recorded on Labor Day a year ago.

The all-time high in New Mexico was the $1,273,451 recorded at the New Mexico State Fair on September 29, 1981.

During the current five-day Labor Day weekend, a total of $4,369,353 was wagered—a gain of 7.72 percent over the same period last year. The daily average during the closing week was $873,872, the wagering-per-race, $72,823.

Attendance during Labor Day weekend was a record 35,209, up 13.75 percent over last year's comparable 30,954.

It was the biggest Labor Day weekend in Ruidoso history.

The Sunday handle of $1,123,883 was the third best (at that time) ever chalked up at Ruidoso.

Other mutual records registered during Labor Day weekend were $109,782 wagered on Sunday's Big Q and $73,777 wagered on Sunday's Trifecta. That Big Q Pool was the largest in the history of Big Q wagering in New Mexico.

Wagering-per-race on Labor Day was a remarkable $104,199. The Labor Day crowd of 10,008 was one of the largest in recent years. The 1982 season covered 77 race days and produced a total handle of $41,612,788—the largest seasonal handle in Ruidoso history. Last year, 70 race days accounted for $40,080,694.

The current daily average of $640,425 was a decrease of 5.61 percent from last season's $572,581. A key difference between the racing format this year and last year's was the scheduling of six Wednesday programs.

Attendance during the '82 meeting totaled out at 360,737, an average of 4,665. Last year, 334,516 fans attended the races for a daily average of 4,779.

RALLYING TO WIN. Painted Bug, 1A, rallies in the final strides to pass stablemate Rare Jet, 1, during Monday's All-American Futurity's Third Consolation at Ruidoso Downs. Nicky Wilson rode the winner to a 22:34 clocking for the 440 yards.

HITTING THE ROAD. Sena Road cruises to a one and one-fourth length win over Luckily Smashed in the 11th running of the Roadrunner Stakes Thursday at Ruidoso Downs. The sprint for New Mexico-bred three-year-olds covered six furlongs. Sena Road earned $6,705 out of the $11,175 purse.

Bold Ego sets track record

Bold Ego, perhaps the finest thoroughbred to race in New Mexico, shattered one of the oldest track records when he won the seventh race on Labor Day at Ruidoso Downs.

The four-year-old Bold Tactics colt zipped to a blazing 1:05 while tallying a one and one-fourth length win over Sunday's Night over five and one-half furlongs. That eclipsed the 1:05 1/5 track record set by Barlaris on June 12, 1971.

Bold Ego was sensational as a two-year-old, winning the Riley Allison Futurity at Sunland Park, the Rio Grande Kindergarten Futurity at Ruidoso Downs and the New Mexico Futurity at the New Mexico State Fair meeting in Albuquerque. As a three-year-old, he competed in the Triple Crown races, finishing second to Pleasant Colony after leading throughout in the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico.

Trained by Clifford C. Lambert, Bold Ego is owned by the Double B Ranch, Dr. Joe Kidd and Dan and Jolene Urschel. Casey Lambert rode Bold Ego in Monday's smashing performance.

PAYDAY AT THE RACES. Sundays Payday delivered a big closing attack and rolled to an impressive win in the $146,631 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity Saturday at Ruidoso Downs. The colt earned $73,315 in the six-furlong spin. He's the property of Hugh C. Preston Jr. of Burburnett, Texas. The rider is Mike Lidberg.

The Silver Lining
BY DANIEL AGNEW STORM

A Visit With The Queen of Wild Flowers
Mrs. Effie Mehlhop of Dexter is one of the first to have a summer home in Ruidoso. And no one more deeply appreciates the children of Mother Earth than this pioneer lady age ninety-four.

So food is she of all the growing things of the Ruidoso area that years ago she had a dream of having all the wild flowers and many of the trees and shrubs of our area in her yard. She said that she would give a home to all those native plants in return for those she displaced when she built the house.

Amongst the thick growing pines in her yard she has a show place of native wild flowers.

On Labor Day I went up to Effie's Ruidoso home and we had a fine visit and a great dinner with dessert of strawberry ice cream and cookies. We talked about early days in the Pecos Valley, and early people in Ruidoso. And I was delighted at the good memory and mental clearness of this great lady.

However, her eyesight is failing, so that much of her work in preparing the meal was from memory of the kitchen and dining room. And she does remarkably well, cheerful and encouraging in spite of not seeing too well.

Because she needs the aid of a cane to walk, she thought it best not to go outside where much of her yard is steep-sloping hillside.

So she asked me to go out and see how many of the beloved flowers, and shrubs and trees were growing, pointing out that she had not been up to watering the things, and that it had been unusually dry two seasons in a row.

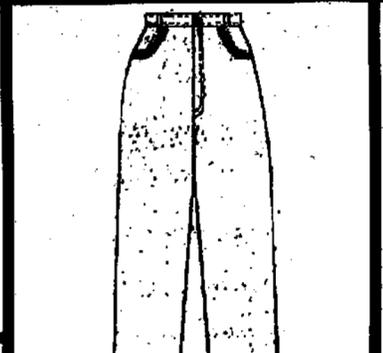

I was happy to see that, under the gently-moving shadows of the pines overhead the wild flowers, planted through the years, were all thriving on their hillside home, surely as a reward and in thankfulness for their patron and benefactor, Effie Mehlhop.

Out in their cheerful best blender, the New England Large blend with the Alpine Golden Rod. And the crimson Gillis gave the message that summer is still here.

The wild strawberries had covered quite a good bit of ground, blending with the Scotch Blue Bell plants, and Golden English Buttercup. Pinon trees planted several years ago, are out in their shining Christmas-tree green.

All the plants I remembered from visits of other years are doing well, none having fallen by the wayside, and new ones have moved in by themselves, to join the happy little flower family around this mountain home.

In many ways it was a great inspiration to visit this Queen of the Wild Flowers, with her Christian character and cheerful and uplifting spirit.

The beauty and sweetness of the mountain flowers and all God's growing things abide in the character of Effie Mehlhop.

Sampsonia, Pride Of The Vale

Sooner or later I give everybody a nickname. Some time back when the Church of Saint Anne at Glencos got flooded and a bunch of us were cleaning out the mud, Debbie Jones, middle daughter of Paul and Nellie Ruth, was handling large buckets of mud up to the window to someone outside. I asked to give her a hand, and I could not lift the bucket halfway up.

Debbie looks as delicate as a little mountain flower, but she has the strength of a giant. So I called her Sampsonia (after the Biblical strong man, Sampson).

The other day there was a bunch of folks down at Saint Annes working to dig up the drain pipe and re-set it so the water would flow out of the church yard. Dannie Allison did a fine job of digging up the pipe, lifting it out and lifting it back. Gerry Tully and Paul Jones were surveyors of the new grade; Danny Davis and Dave Bonnell were great help all round. And Father Burdette Stempley was an untiring and devoted worker in all departments.

When it came time to put the pipe back, Dannie lifted it with a chain with his backhoe.

Paul and Debbie took hold of one end, guiding the pipe back into the new ditch. It was a sight to see this father and daughter pipe-line team at work. Debbie man-handled this large pipe with the ease of a two-hundred-and-fifty-pound man.

Back through the years I remember an old cowboy song, "Platonia, the Pride of the Plains." It was either a heroic lady rider, or her horse, I forget which.

Anyhow we have as our neighbor, "Sampsonia, the Pride of the Vale."

GIBSON'S DISCOUNT CENTER, RUIDOSO, NEW MEXICO — SERVING THE MOST ENCHANTING PART OF THE LAND OF ENCHANTMENT

GIBSON'S DISCOUNT CENTER, RUIDOSO, NEW MEXICO — SERVING THE MOST ENCHANTING PART OF THE LAND OF ENCHANTMENT

Inside The Capitol

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE — New Mexico's 1982 primaries are at last over.

The two parties have now officially chosen their candidates for the November election.

So maybe it's time to take a cool and honest look at the major candidates.

Who are these guys? What are they like?

Herewith, some observations about the big guns on the ballot later this year — one man's honest attempt to report what he sees and hears.

TONY ANAYA: Likely to be a winner. Not nearly so likely to be loved by the citizens of New Mexico two or three years after he takes office. Presumed by many not to be totally dependable. Makes even those who support him a little edgy.

JOHN IRICK: Big and clean, though not too smart. Many think those around him have put a net over his head; those who may have done so are by and large interested in capturing control of the state's permanent funds. They couldn't care less about Irick. What they want is money power.

MARJORIE BELL CHAMBERS: Would make a fine Congressperson. There are only three things working against her: she is intelligent; she is relatively independent; she is female. She will get dumped, mostly because the party to which she belongs (Republican) does not hunger for those who ask it embarrassing questions.

BILL RICHARDSON: He will beat Chambers, which will not be enough to satisfy his macho impulse. He will be the Congressman from the North, so we all have to learn to get along with him. Old-timers tend to resent people like him from the Big East who think they can come out here and buy an office in Washington, using our votes to get there.

MANUEL LUJAN: For long thought to be one who could do no wrong. Has learned, however, that the reputation of his father, Manuel Lujan Sr., will no longer sustain him. Many people in his district, though they admit he has settled such things as their Social Security problems, are beginning to wonder about what else he has done while he has been in Congress. Could lose, though not likely to do so.

JAN HARTKE: For a tough political family — in the sense in which "tough" seldom applies in politics in our benighted state. Talks too much; is too glib; seeks too much public approbation. He might just squeak by, though the voters will probably tell him to wait till next time. One of those Middle Westerners who wants to "save" New Mexico.

JOE SKEEN: Home free. He ran for office from the whole state for so long, and finally achieved Washington as an improbable write-in candidate, that there is nobody who can beat him at this moment. (Later, possibly, Joe; and so you might be a tad humble... But not today.) Lots of folks in the agricultural trades have found his performance in D. C. less than outstanding. They could hassle him later, but probably not this year.

CALEB CHANDLER: A man who cares about what goes on in New Mexico. He may be a generation or more behind the trend in the state as a whole, but law-and-order and such important things truly matter to him. He will be badly hurt if he is not elected. He genuinely believes most New Mexicans believe as he does.

This column is being written on September 3, 1982.

Between now and the election on November 2 — or even between now and the time you are reading it — things may have changed.

If so, that's the breaks. At any rate, the words you read here are the honest expression of this writer at the time he put them down on paper.

Would you like to trade your observations for these?

Harrison Schmitt Reports To NEW MEXICO

A GYM OF A PROBLEM

(or: The Hart of the Matter)
 Early in my Senate career I had an opportunity to vote on funding for the Hart Building, a new Senate office building. This building was authorized back in 1972 and funding for construction was appropriated that same year.

Most of my freshman Senate class supported my opposition to the new building just as we were opposed to new pay raises for Members of Congress. Although I and others worked to stop funding for the Hart Building and to turn it into something more useful (like a parking lot and save millions of taxpayers dollars), in 1977 the Senate as a whole voted to finish construction as well as to give themselves a pay raise.

Well, I could turn my pay raise over to New Mexico schools for scholarships, and I have, but I never figured out how to move my share of the Hart Building to New Mexico where I'm sure we could have found some better use for it.

Thus, since 1977, the best of a bad deal for the taxpayers has been to finish the Hart Building and get the most out of it we can. However, few realized that "the most" included a third and obviously unnecessary gym.

Someone at some time thought it would be a good idea to spend more than $700,000 to outfit a new gymnasium in the Hart Building. Were they kidding? We already have an adequate gymnasium in the old Russell Building and there is a "mini" gym in the Dirksen Building used largely as a shower room by Senator Proxmire. These old facilities are more than adequate, and with out economy in a downturn this is not time to spend money on frills for Members of the Congress.

Although the sponsor (Proxmire) knew better, an amendment to delete the $700,000 gym was offered on an appropriations bill, a move that is procedurally out of order in the Senate. The President of the Senate so ruled from the Chair. So, the Members voted 50 to 49 to uphold this ruling. Soon, after upholding the ruling of the Chair, the amendment to delete the funding for the new gym was properly attached to the Debt Ceiling Bill and it passed unanimously.

As a matter of fact, we scored an even bigger victory for common sense by voting to delete not only the money for the new gym, but in addition, funds to buy new equipment for Senator Proxmire's "mini" gym were also deleted.

We are stuck with the Hart Building, but with proper legislative procedure (and some good old New Mexico horse sense) the taxpayer is not stuck with the price tag for outfitting a new gymnasium in the Hart Building, or even the tab for new equipment in the "mini" gym in the Dirksen Building.

Eliminating these "little gyms" does my "heart" good.

Ruidoso stands to benefit from a $50,000 advertising campaign conducted by the Travel and Tourism Division of the New Mexico Commerce and Industry Department.

But a phone call from the state agency to our Chamber of Commerce would have increased the campaign's value to Ruidoso even more.

The campaign was something of a one-day blitz. It consisted of placing an eight-page color brochure promoting New Mexico in the Sunday, August 22 editions of the Dallas Morning News and Dallas Times Herald newspapers.

Those two papers have a combined Sunday circulation of 470,000.

The brochure contained several skiing photographs, including one of Sierra Blanca Ski Resort.

It also included a calendar of events statewide for the months of September through December. Unfortunately, the calendar is out of date as far as Ruidoso is concerned.

According to a Tourism and Travel spokesperson, the brochure lists two now defunct events, while making no mention of Aspen Festival.

The October mule events are listed.

Chamber director Ed Jungbluth said he was given no opportunity to give the state the correct information—a situation he described as "aggravating."

We're glad the state is promoting New Mexico tourism in Texas, our biggest market. But we hope next time they check on the accuracy of their information.—TP

Reporter's Round by Barby Grant

This country, it sometimes seems, has become a society of court-crazed individuals and corporations. Every time an unfortunate incident occurs, the party or parties negatively affected immediately threaten a lawsuit against whomever else happens to have been involved.

"I'm going to sue" has become a much overused phrase, along with "you'll be hearing from my lawyer," albeit to the utter delight of the practicing attorneys of this nation.

Wouldn't it be wonderful—for the rest of us, anyway—if folks could settle their differences without the expense and delay of the judicial system? But on the other hand, courtroom battles of legalese are by far a more civilized means of solving disagreements than duels with swords or pistols.

In any case, courts of law are heretofore the most just system we have been able to devise for settling matters which people are unable or refuse to settle themselves. Thus, our courts are overused and overcrowded and cases remain pending for much too long.

Partly because of this problem, the New Mexico Judicial Council's District and Appellate Courts Committee is examining the possibility of establishing a division of the Court of Appeals in the southern part of the state. A bill was passed by the Legislature in 1979 providing funding for a study of the feasibility of establishing a Court of Appeals in Alamogordo. The bill was vetoed, however, so the study was never undertaken.

The committee is currently working on establishing guidelines for such a study, for which another effort for funding will be made through the Legislature. The proposed locations of the court have changed to Roswell and Las Cruces.

It has been suggested—by Mal O'Reilly, president of the local bar association—that perhaps Ruidoso should be considered as a site for a division of the Court of Appeals to serve southern New Mexico. Dr. James Beall of Ruidoso, who serves as co-chairman of the District and Appellate Courts Committee, said that such a proposal has not been considered by the committee.

Both O'Reilly and Beall admit that such a proposal would probably have little chance for serious consideration, but that the location is at least feasible if not likely.

At this point, the beginning of actual construction of a court is a minimum of two years away, Beall estimated. The committee has established several guidelines for a study and is seeking suggestions and viewpoints from local bar associations. A bill will then have to be introduced and passed by the Legislature—and not vetoed—to fund a study on the feasibility of establishing a division of the Court of Appeals in southern New Mexico.

The study will then be conducted, following which a bill will have to be passed to actually establish a court.

One of the guidelines for the study which the committee has thus far created is to estimate costs of site acquisition and building construction in Las Cruces and in Roswell, the most appropriate sites for a southern district headquarters. This guideline would create the biggest obstacle to the establishment of a court in Ruidoso, Beall indicated.

Las Cruces and Roswell were chosen as most appropriate sites on the basis of convenience, population and facilities, Beall explained. "The expense of having to put court facilities here would be prohibitive," he noted, because there is no court building already erected.

Beall did agree, however, that the location is suitable for serving the southern part of the state and that attorneys would most likely be very pleased to have to come here to attend court.

Another guideline that has been established for the study is to survey the need and desirability for a southern division of the Court of Appeals as perceived by the various bar associations and the appellate judges and justices. O'Reilly, as president of the local bar association, has expressed his interest in having the court constructed in Ruidoso and said he encouraged other local attorneys to do the same.

He said there is a need for a division in the southern half of the state due to the heavy caseload of the Court of Appeals and that Ruidoso is a perfect compromise between putting it in Las Cruces or Roswell. Also, Ruidoso "is a well equipped resort community to accommodate out-of-town lawyers," O'Reilly pointed out.

"It could result in a good law library; it would be good for the economy and may attract and will attract other attorneys and businesses and overall employment," O'Reilly noted as benefits to the community from a Court of Appeals here.

"My opinion is that Ruidoso is a progressive community on-the-move and would be a likely choice," the attorney concluded. "It's just one more way of helping our community grow."

The only chance O'Reilly's suggestion has of becoming reality, however, is in the committee's being made aware of the possibility. Since the proposal is still in the pre-study stages and a site has not been finally decided upon, it would seem that the possibility at least exists for a Court of Appeals to be built in Ruidoso.

Perhaps if citizens of the community let their state Legislators and/or District and Appellate Courts Committee members know that Ruidoso would be a good location for such a facility, the idea would be found worthy of serious consideration.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC AUCTION
 SALE OF REAL PROPERTY
 FOR DELINQUENT PROPERTY TAX
 PROPERTY TAX DIVISION OF THE TAXATION AND REVENUE DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the provisions of 7-208-67, NMSA 1978 the Property Tax Division of the Taxation and Revenue Department will offer for sale at public auction beginning on September 14, 1982 at 9:00 a.m., in the Lincoln County Courthouse in Carrizozo, New Mexico, the following described real property, the sale to continue until all of the described property has been offered for sale:
 The terms of the sale are as follows:
 1. A sale properly made under the provisions of 7-208-67 constitutes full payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties and interest that are a lien against the property at the time of sale, and such property shall be sold to the highest bidder subject to the lien for property taxes for the year of the sale, provided those taxes are not yet delinquent. The buyer at public auction, or his successor in interest, will be liable for those property taxes when they become due.
 2. The description of the following real property is required by 7-208-67, to be sufficient to permit the identification and location of the real property by potential purchasers. The State of New Mexico warrants no title to property purchased at public auction.
 3. Section 7-208-74, NMSA 1978, prohibits officers or employees of the state or of any of its political subdivisions engaged in the administration of the property tax laws from directly or indirectly acquiring an interest in, buying or profiting from any property sold by the Property Tax Division for delinquent taxes, except that an officer or employee may purchase property sold for delinquent taxes if he is the owner of the property and was the owner of the property at the time the taxes became delinquent. Any officer or employee violating 7-208-74 is guilty of a fourth degree felony and shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisoned for not less than one year nor more than two years, at the discretion of the court, or both, and he shall also be automatically removed from office or have his employment terminated upon conviction. A real property sale in violation of 7-208-74 is void.
 4. Successful bidders are required to make payment in full of the amount bid before leaving the premises on the day of the sale. Payment is required to be by money order, certified check, cashier's check or personal check which is accompanied by bank letter or credit card, and the amount of or in excess of the amount of the personal check drawn to the order of the Property Tax Division of the Taxation and Revenue Department.
 5. Upon receiving payment for the real property sold for delinquent taxes, the Property Tax Division shall execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser. The deed conveys all the former property owner's interest in the real property as of the date the state's lien for real property taxes arose in accordance with the property tax code, subject only to perfected interests in the real property existing before the date the property tax lien arose. The property tax lien against real property arises on January 1st of each year for which the taxes are imposed.
 6. After two years from the date of sale, neither the former real property owner shown on the property tax schedule as the delinquent taxpayer nor anyone claiming through him may bring an action challenging the conveyance. Subject to the year time limitation stated above, in all contracts involving title to real property held under a deed from the state issued under this section, any person claiming title adverse to that acquired by the deed from the state must prove, in order to defeat the title, that he or she persons through whom he claims had title to the real property at the time of the sale, and that either: (1) the real property was not subject to taxation for the tax years for which the delinquent taxes for which it was sold were imposed; or (2) all taxes, penalties, interest and any cost due for the years involved were paid by him or the person through whom he claims title prior to the sale.
 7. The sale price of real property at this public auction sale is not to be taken or considered as being the value of the real property for purposes of the property tax code.
 8. All persons intending to bid upon property are required to register and obtain a bidders number from the auctioneer and to provide the auctioneer with their full name and address. Deeds will be issued to registered bidders only. Consignees or other parties will be the responsibility of the buyer at auction. Persons acting as "agents" for other persons will register accordingly and must provide documented proof as being a bona fide agent at time of payment for property purchased.
 9. The auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw from sale any of the properties listed below; to sell any of the properties listed below together; to sell only a portion of any of the properties listed below. If any dispute arises between or among the bidders, the auctioneer's decision with respect to the bid, and the auctioneer, the auctioneer may auction the property again, in his discretion. The real property listed below may not be sold for less than the listed minimum price.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC AUCTION
 SALE OF REAL PROPERTY
 FOR DELINQUENT PROPERTY TAX
 PROPERTY TAX DIVISION OF THE TAXATION AND REVENUE DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the provisions of 7-208-67, NMSA 1978 the Property Tax Division of the Taxation and Revenue Department will offer for sale at public auction beginning on September 14, 1982 at 9:00 a.m., in the Lincoln County Courthouse in Carrizozo, New Mexico, the following described real property, the sale to continue until all of the described property has been offered for sale:
 The terms of the sale are as follows:
 1. A sale properly made under the provisions of 7-208-67 constitutes full payment of all delinquent taxes, penalties and interest that are a lien against the property at the time of sale, and such property shall be sold to the highest bidder subject to the lien for property taxes for the year of the sale, provided those taxes are not yet delinquent. The buyer at public auction, or his successor in interest, will be liable for those property taxes when they become due.
 2. The description of the following real property is required by 7-208-67, to be sufficient to permit the identification and location of the real property by potential purchasers. The State of New Mexico warrants no title to property purchased at public auction.
 3. Section 7-208-74, NMSA 1978, prohibits officers or employees of the state or of any of its political subdivisions engaged in the administration of the property tax laws from directly or indirectly acquiring an interest in, buying or profiting from any property sold by the Property Tax Division for delinquent taxes, except that an officer or employee may purchase property sold for delinquent taxes if he is the owner of the property and was the owner of the property at the time the taxes became delinquent. Any officer or employee violating 7-208-74 is guilty of a fourth degree felony and shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisoned for not less than one year nor more than two years, at the discretion of the court, or both, and he shall also be automatically removed from office or have his employment terminated upon conviction. A real property sale in violation of 7-208-74 is void.
 4. Successful bidders are required to make payment in full of the amount bid before leaving the premises on the day of the sale. Payment is required to be by money order, certified check, cashier's check or personal check which is accompanied by bank letter or credit card, and the amount of or in excess of the amount of the personal check drawn to the order of the Property Tax Division of the Taxation and Revenue Department.
 5. Upon receiving payment for the real property sold for delinquent taxes, the Property Tax Division shall execute and deliver a deed to the purchaser. The deed conveys all the former property owner's interest in the real property as of the date the state's lien for real property taxes arose in accordance with the property tax code, subject only to perfected interests in the real property existing before the date the property tax lien arose. The property tax lien against real property arises on January 1st of each year for which the taxes are imposed.
 6. After two years from the date of sale, neither the former real property owner shown on the property tax schedule as the delinquent taxpayer nor anyone claiming through him may bring an action challenging the conveyance. Subject to the year time limitation stated above, in all contracts involving title to real property held under a deed from the state issued under this section, any person claiming title adverse to that acquired by the deed from the state must prove, in order to defeat the title, that he or she persons through whom he claims had title to the real property at the time of the sale, and that either: (1) the real property was not subject to taxation for the tax years for which the delinquent taxes for which it was sold were imposed; or (2) all taxes, penalties, interest and any cost due for the years involved were paid by him or the person through whom he claims title prior to the sale.
 7. The sale price of real property at this public auction sale is not to be taken or considered as being the value of the real property for purposes of the property tax code.
 8. All persons intending to bid upon property are required to register and obtain a bidders number from the auctioneer and to provide the auctioneer with their full name and address. Deeds will be issued to registered bidders only. Consignees or other parties will be the responsibility of the buyer at auction. Persons acting as "agents" for other persons will register accordingly and must provide documented proof as being a bona fide agent at time of payment for property purchased.
 9. The auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw from sale any of the properties listed below; to sell any of the properties listed below together; to sell only a portion of any of the properties listed below. If any dispute arises between or among the bidders, the auctioneer's decision with respect to the bid, and the auctioneer, the auctioneer may auction the property again, in his discretion. The real property listed below may not be sold for less than the listed minimum price.

BUILDING LOT DELUXE - In White Mountain Estates, Unit 4, this lot has much to offer. Good assumable loan, paving and city utilities available, with natural gas nearby.

SEEING IS BELIEVING - Extremely well-built 3 bedroom, 2 bath home in a doll house! Located on a corner lot in Country Club Estates, it enjoys a cedar fenced back yard and covered back deck that beckons you out to enjoy our Ruidoso weather. Lots of nice touches including stained glass windows and door fronts in the kitchen make this so inviting and comfortable. I could go on and on, but you should see it yourself. Please call for an appointment.

SPACIOUS HOME ON 2 1/2 ACRES - Cathedral ceiling in the living area, open floor plan is so very comfortable. Bigger than you'd first think, there are two bedrooms, and two baths, plus attached double carport and back deck. Acreage is fenced and ready for those horses of yours.

MOBILE HOME LOTS - We have several, some with trees, some without, some with assumable loans, some without. Let us help you find what you're looking for.

NEARLY AN ACRE - In town, zoned for mobile homes if that's what you need. Located on a cul-de-sac so it is ever so quiet. National Forest boundary common with your north lot line. Good owner financing available to the right purchaser.

HOUSE ON THREE LOTS - This place just makes you want to kick off those darn shoes and prop up your feet. Quiet area off the Upper Canyon is perfect for getting away from it all. You can play pool on the regulation sized billiard table in the game room. Furnished down to the coffee pot, you can enjoy a fine home, quality furnishings, and tranquility all in one grand place. Appointments only please.

WATCH YOUR STEP - or you may cool your feet in the creek behind this log house. It has 3 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths, and is close to shopping. Completely furnished down to the linens.

ONE OF THE BENEFITS - of writing the ad is that I can put my listings in twice if I want to. You really should allow yourself to visit that Country Club place - my description doesn't really do it justice, I forget to mention that assumable loan only carries interest at 7 1/2%, like the icing on the cake. You'll love it.

JAMES CANYON RANCH

An alpine ranch in one of New Mexico's most beautiful mountain areas. A very unusual situation. Ranch surrounds Cloudcroft running to Alamogordo and north to the Mescalero Reservation. 80 deeded acres, 34,000 USFS acres, 146 animal units year long. Deeded land has water rights and is surrounded by subdivisions. Enough grass, in our judgment, for twice the permit. Live in the city and ranch in paradise. Excellent access. $650,000.00.

JAMES CANYON RANCH

An alpine ranch in one of New Mexico's most beautiful mountain areas. A very unusual situation. Ranch surrounds Cloudcroft running to Alamogordo and north to the Mescalero Reservation. 80 deeded acres, 34,000 USFS acres, 146 animal units year long. Deeded land has water rights and is surrounded by subdivisions. Enough grass, in our judgment, for twice the permit. Live in the city and ranch in paradise. Excellent access. $650,000.00.

Saint Eleanor's Catholic Church begins education emphasis

by BARBY GRANT
Writer/Photographer

"The Catholic Church is in the process of renewal and implementing Vatican Council II," according to Father Bernard Bissonette, parish priest and administrator of Saint Eleanor's Catholic Parish.

Implementing Vatican Council II involves a process of reeducation, Bissonette explained.

The Vatican Council was assigned the task of revising Catholic Church doctrine and educational material, which requires the local churches to update "from pre-Vatican Council to post-Vatican Council education," Bissonette stated. The updating involves a change from "pre-packaged" questions and answers to discussion of Biblical teaching and fundamental theology, the priest explained.

Father Bissonette was appointed administrator of Saint Eleanor's in September of last year. Since that time he has worked to redirect the priorities of the church from building renovations to spiritual renewal, he stated. He has done this by offering programs of education.

He began the first Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) classes to be offered at the church in 20 years. CCD classes teach students the Catholic creed. About 120 youngsters were enrolled in the summer CCD program, Bissonette reported.

He has also made available adult educational classes, the first of which was a study of the Apostles' Creed, with about 20 adults enrolled. A Romans 8 course is currently being taught, which is a "basic study in the process of conversion—of changing attitudes and heart and mind," the priest noted. He explained that Catholics believe "the conversion process is a daily decision for Christ and a deepening relationship with God and neighbor or the church community." Bissonette is also working on establishing supportive ministries for the liturgy, such as ushering.

He indicated that the purpose of the educational programs is to place "re-emphasis on basic religious reality."

"I want our people to be able to open the Bible and to know what the Lord's message is to them and that they need to make a decision to respond to the truth, the way and the life of Christ," Bissonette stated. "The church is not a building but is fundamentally people."

Bissonette feels that Saint Eleanor's has experienced spiritual growth since such matters have been given higher priority.

The priest said he felt a call to the ministry "at various stages from grammar school onward and made a decision during high school." Born in Connecticut, Bissonette attended seminary in upstate New York and then requested a transfer to the West.

Since then he has served as associate pastor in Santa Fe, administrator of a church in Mountainair, Newman chaplain at Highlands University at Las Vegas, chaplain at New Mexico Boys School in Springer and associate pastor in Albuquerque before coming to Ruidoso.

One of the differences the priest noted in serving a church in Ruidoso is having to accommodate the influx of tourists. He said this involves making services available at times convenient to visitors.

"Our time schedules on Saturday night wouldn't be the same if we didn't have to meet the conveniences of non-parishioners," Bissonette stated.

The church's schedule of services includes Saturday evening confessions from 7 to 7:50; anticipated Sunday Mass on Saturday at 8 p.m.; Sunday Masses at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.; daily Masses Tuesday through Friday at 5:15 p.m.; and office hours Wednesday to Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon and afternoons and evenings by appointment.

"It's an obligation on the part of pastors to meet the conveniences of the people it serves," Bissonette said. "This parish is serving people who come to Ruidoso either as visitors or summer residents."

Saint Eleanor's Parish first began serving its members and summer visitors in 1932, but at that time it was known as Saint William's Parish and occupied the present Lions Club building.

Threatened with foreclosure from debts to a lumber company, however, the church was "rescued" by the Catholic Extension Society in 1935. The society paid off the mortgage of the parish and changed its name to Saint Eleanor's.

In the 1940s the present site of the church on Junction Road was purchased and the church building erected there. The current church census shows 184 families registered as members of Saint Eleanor's and Saint Jude Mission in San Patricio, which is sponsored by the parish here.

Father Bissonette said that "while the Catholic Church is interested in proselytizing or evangelization, its primary function is to take care of the Catholics we already have."

He plans to do that by offering "more of the same," meaning additional educational programs for the adults and youth of Saint Eleanor's Catholic Parish.

FATHER BERNARD BISSONETTE has served as parish priest and administrator of Saint Eleanor's Catholic Church for about one year. He has been responsible for making education one of the top priorities of the parish since being assigned here.

SAINT ELEANOR'S Catholic Parish on Junction Road offers Masses Saturday evenings and Sunday mornings and has recently begun sponsoring CCD and other educational classes for the spiritual development of its members.

Past Labor Day weekend largest ever for mountain airport

by Debbie Owen

Each year the Labor Day weekend presents Ruidoso with its largest influx of visitors. And the amount of air traffic going in and out of Ruidoso Municipal Airport testifies to that.

Airport manager Tim Morris stated that in comparison to previous Labor Day weekends "this was the biggest we've ever had. You just have to have plenty of fuel and be careful."

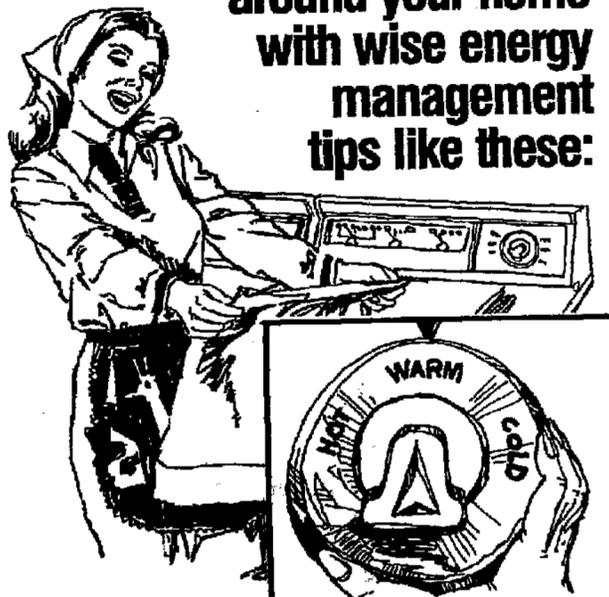

Morris noted that approximately 150 airplanes were parked at the airport this weekend. Due to the fact that there are only 98 actual tie-down spaces many single-engine planes were parked on the grass. "On Saturday at noon we closed to all operations. Sunday dropped down to only about 100 operations, but Monday totaled over 200. When asked how the weather cooperated during the weekend, Morris replied, "I was a bit worried yesterday (Monday) because of the rain. I was afraid some of the airplanes parked on the grass would get stuck, but luckily none of them did."

The Labor Day weekend is the largest weekend each year for the Ruidoso Municipal Airport. Business will slow down for a while now and pick up again during the Aspen Festival and at Christmas.

Energy Management . . . A Houseful Of Savings!

Save energy all around your home with wise energy management tips like these:

In Your Laundry Room: Wash only full loads, using cold water whenever possible. Dry full loads, but avoid overloading, overdrying.

In Your Living Room: Keep light-color, thermal drapes closed to reflect sunlight and heat. Set thermostat at 78° in summer, 68° in winter.

In Your Kitchen: Keep your refrigerator/freezer defrosted, make sure door seals are tight. Run dishwasher when full, let dishes air dry.

NESTLED IN THE MOUNTAINS, the Ruidoso Municipal Airport handles a large amount of air traffic, especially during the Labor Day weekend as horsemen and race fans journey to Ruidoso by air.

PROPELLERS LINED ALL EDGES of the parking area Monday and several single-engine planes parked on the grass due to a lack of tie-down spaces.

THERE WAS A TOTAL of approximately 690 operations (landings and take-offs) at the Ruidoso Municipal Airport this Labor Day weekend. That made for the largest weekend ever experienced by the airport, according to airport manager Tim Morris.

Select Yearling Sale tops $9 million

Final sales for the 1982 All-American Select Yearling Horse Sale at Ruidoso Downs accounted for $9,221,300 from 981 head.

That bids down to an average price of $9,411.

The sale was expanded to five sessions to the record total of 1,000 head which was catalogued.

The first session attracted sales of $2,720,000, the second drew bids of $2,920,000, the third accounted for $2,330,000, the fourth totaled out at $1,991,300, and the concluding round hit $1,071,000.

The top price of $300,000 was paid for Perfect Dash, a filly by the highly fashionable sire, Dash For Cash. The latter, a two-time world champion, is also the sire of Justanold Love and Dashing, the top finishers in the $1 million All-American Derby at Ruidoso Downs.

Perfect Dash is out of the mare, Perfect Fit, whose offspring include Deck 'Em, a stakes winner of $120,715, and The Brass, a stakes winner of $61,121. Perfect Dash was consigned by the Allred Brothers of Mesa, Arizona.

The winning bid was submitted by the partnership of Don Tyner, H. Graham, N. Hicks, Ivan Ashmen and B. Reed. The home base for the partnership is listed as Oklahoma City.

That $300,000 figure is one of the highest in the 21-year history of the All-American Sale.

The second-highest price in the '82 sale was the $230,000 for Go Cimmaron Lady, a filly by the brilliant stallion, Easy Jet, out of Go Galla's Lady. Go Cimmaron Lady is a full sister to the colt, Easy Prince, who brought $400,000 (a sale record) in last summer's All-American Sale.

Go Cimmaron Lady was purchased by Cimmaron Ranch of Houston, Texas.

The third best price was the $110,000 handed over by Nerrel Bruney of Dennis, Texas, for the filly, Gossamer Wing. She's by the thoroughbred, Duek Dance, out of Sunshine N Flowers.

The fourth best price: $79,000 for Up For Grabs, a filly by Mighty Te out of Sheez Mandy Jet. The buyers: S. Dunigan and J. Leonard of Abilene, Texas.

Other top prices:

- $70,000 for an unnamed filly by Easy Jet out of Take Me Freely. The buyer: Thomas S. Orr of Edmond, Oklahoma.
