Big plays give Warriors state championship, 21-19

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

STATE CHAMPIONS!

Ruidoso High School's varsity football players are probably repeating those two words over and over again in their minds after defeating Silver City, 21-19, Saturday at New Mexico State University for their first-ever state AAA-division title.

The 12-1 Warriors combined a clutch defense and some big plays on offense to down the Fighting Colts and avenge their only loss of the season.

Quarterback Russell Easter connected with split end Brian Davis for two scores and another long pass that got the Warriors out of bad field position in the final quarter.

The defense forced four Silver City turnovers and was tough in the clutch.

"It's just great," said Warrior head coach Cooper Henderson as he was being congratulated by happy fans at the conclusion of the game. "I can't think of anything else to say."

But the win did not come easy. Ruidoso's defense rose up in the final two minutes to stop a Silver City drive and preserve the win.

After stopping a Warrior drive at the Colt 30, Silver City drove down the field behind the passing of Cameron Doan.

The Colts reached the Warrior 27 with the help of an official's call that many people questioned.

On fourth down, a pass seemed to drop out of a Colt receiver's hands but the official ruled the play was already dead.

No matter, the Warrior defense stiffened and Doan was called for intentional grounding.

That put the ball back on the 42.

With 10 seconds left and no timeouts left, Doan completed a short sidelines pass to tight end Joe Quintana but he was stopped at the 25 and time ran out.

That started a huge celebration on the Warrior side of the field, that saw the players and coaches cheered by Ruidoso fans.

Earlier in the fourth period, Warrior safety Jeff Willingham knocked down a pass for a two-point conversion that would have tied the game at 21-21.

Silver City had just scored on a 10-yard pass from Doan to Quintana that ended a 77-yard drive in 10 plays.

The Colts led, 13-7, at halftime, but the Warriors came out in the third period and played one of their best quarters of the season.

Just two plays into the second half, Easter connected with Davis on a 57-yard pass play that tied the game at 13-13. Davis got behind two Colts at the 20 and sprinted in for the score.

Garret Henson kicked the extra point and Ruidoso had a 14-13 advantage.

Then the Warrior defense got tough. In the latter stages of the third period, Ruidoso's Kyle Jameson and Matt Evans tackled the Silver City ballcarrier and the ball rolled free.

Ruidoso's Gene Mowdy recovered the fumble at the Colt five and the Warriors were in business.

Easter got two yards to the one and two plays later, tailback Michael Williamson banged over for the score.

Henson kicked the extra point and Ruidoso had a 21-13 edge.

Then Silver City drove for the touchdown that pulled them within two points.

Ruidoso opened the game's scoring with a 45-yard pass from Easter to Davis on the Warriors' second possession.

Henson kicked the extra point and Ruidoso led, 7-0, with 4:11 remaining in the first quarter.

However, the score was tied just 12 seconds later.

On the ensuing kickoff, Silver City's Robert Rydeski took the ball at the 15, cut through a hole on his right and darted 85 yards for the touchdown.

Shane Stevenson kicked the extra point and the score was tied, 7-7.

On the Warriors' next possession, Easter was intercepted at the 50. Silver City then drove 35 yards to the Warrior 15.

There, Ruidoso's defense stiffened and Silver City was forced to go for a field goal.

However, holder Mike Mares took the snap, ran to his right and threw a pass to Quintana in the end zone for the go-ahead touchdown.

Then Willingham made another big play he has become known for.

The Warrior junior blasted in to block Stevenson's extra point kick and Silver City had a 13-7 lead with 9:58 left in the first half.

Ruidoso drove to the Silver City 27 before time

Ruidoso High School varsity football players celebrate after beating Silver City, 21-19, for the state championship Saturday.

The Warriors received the state trophy right after the contest. Ruidoso finished with a 12-1 record.

ran out in the first half.

Another big pass from Easter to Davis occurred in the fourth quarter after Silver City scored its final touchdown.

Faced with a third-and-eight situation from his own 22, Easter faked back and found Davis at the Colt 35. The Warrior junior finally went down at the 31 with a big first down and more time for Ruidoso to run off the clock.

The Warriors had 280 yards total offense, 173 on four passes from Easter to Davis.

Ruidoso gained 107 yards on the ground, with Williamson picking up 86 of them on 17 carries. Easter was held to five yards in 10 carries, but his passing kept the Colt defenders off guard.

Silver City gained 272 yards total offense, 186 passing and 86 rushing.

Mares led the Colt rushers with 49 yards in eight carries and was outstanding on defense from his linebacking position.

Willingham again played a great game on defense. Besides blocking the extra point and knocking down the conversion pass, he intercepted his 10th pass of the season.

Besides teaming with Evans to force the second-half fumble, Jameson also recovered two fumbles himself.

After the excitement of the win gradually wore down, Henderson discussed the game.

"It's definitely the biggest victory of my career," he said. "Except for their late passing, our defense did a tremendous job."

"They did a few things different, but we adjusted in the second half and our running game picked up a little bit."

But it was those big plays on offense and a ball-hawking defense that led the way for the Warriors to win their first-ever state AAA-division title.

NOTES—Ruidoso's last state title was in 1972 when the Warriors won the AA-division crown. Ruidoso also won several titles in the late 1940's and early 1950's when the Warriors were in the now-defunct C-division. Clovis won the state AAAA-division title for the fifth straight year, dumping Alamogordo, 36-12, Saturday.

Village organizations schedule meetings

The Ruidoso Village Council will meet at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, December 10, in council chambers of Village Hall.

Discussion by Councillor Karn on Lorimar Productions.

All meetings of the village governing body are open to the public.

Planning and Zoning members weigh comprehensive plan ramifications

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

No one is going to wake up one day and find out that the zoning on their land has changed," said Ruidoso Planning and Zoning (P&Z) Commissioner Martin Rose recently.

Rose, P&Z chairman Mike Callaghan and commissioner David Smith were reflecting on progress toward a new zoning ordinance for the Village of Ruidoso. That ordinance, still in the draft stage, is part of a proposed comprehensive plan prepared by BRW, Inc., a professional planning organization.

The three explained that Ruidoso "outgrew" the 1976 Master Plan, and that prompted village leaders to contract for a new plan designed to carry the village into the 21st century.

"If we'd have followed that (the 1976 plan), we'd have been in better shape than we are now," noted Callaghan.

Rose said BRW was hired because it was felt that professional help was needed to get the new plan started.

"The document that BRW prepared is a marvelous vehicle to carry us into the year 2010," he noted.

Reviewing the zoning ordinance portion of that document has occupied P&Z for the last several months, and Rose said a great deal of progress has been made. Information in the zoning ordinance will then be applied to a land use map, he said.

Commissioners stressed that the plan will basically be for future development, and reiterated the fact that no zoning will actually be changed without going through a public hearing process.

"We're changing some of the possibilities," said Smith, who explained that although zoning will remain constant in developed areas, the zoning designations may be changed.

One proposed addition the men described was a new zoning designation for low-density mobile home neighborhoods.

Rose said the ordinance will strengthen municipal control over the placement, location and anchoring of mobile homes.

Another zone proposed in the document is a multi-family high density area to allow for low cost housing, said Rose.

Rose said the proposal addresses the central business district and adds neighborhood business zones for small businesses that service certain geographic areas and do not generate a lot of traffic.

Smith mentioned that several options will be considered for the revitalization of the central business district. Those options will be closely tied to whatever transportation plan is eventually proposed.

BRW is preparing a transportation report, and P&Z will recommend one of the options they've prepared. Plans under discussion range from eliminating off-street parking to closing Sudderth Drive.

"It's going to be up to the citizens to go to Village Hall and study the plans," said Rose. "We can only do what the people want," he added.

"Since our forest is our main attribute, we're going heavy into forest protection," said Rose. "With the forest hillside protection zone we'll have some control over what people do on the side of the mountain," he added.

The proposal includes provisions for site plans for some lots and replacement of trees over 60 inches in diameter.

For the first time the village will include the flood plain in a municipal ordinance, said Callaghan. He said Ruidoso will spell out requirements to abide by the federal Corps of Engineers rules regarding the Rio Ruidoso.

Parking lots regulations also are included in the proposal, with parking required on lots with 14 or more spaces. Callaghan said that the state requires handicapped parking spaces for lots that size, too.

Rose said parking lot landscaping also will be proposed.

Commissioners said they're working to identify suitable areas for industrial developments. They agreed that the village economy needs industrial development, but haven't agreed upon where it should be located.

Although they aren't yet at the stage where zoning designations will be plugged into the land use map, the commissioners agreed that no more commercial zoning will be approved for the Upper Canyon.

The main consensus of the discussion was that more public input is needed to complete the zoning ordinance and comprehensive plan.

P&Z has debated more than once the effect of outside merchandising on the atmosphere of Ruidoso. Since that can be allowed to continue as it is, limited to certain times of the year or disallowed in the final ordinance, commissioners have specifically asked for citizen input on that issue.

"Send a letter or postcard to Village Hall, call or whatever," said Rose. He, as well as other commissioners, wants to know how villagers feel about the outside displays that were seen throughout Midtown during the summer.

Rose said people can expect fair and equitable treatment under the ordinance being proposed.

"We'll be asking the citizens," he added.

SKI REPORT

Ski Apache Resort: The skiing conditions are good and the surface conditions are machine groomed and machine made snow. No new natural snow fell last week.

Lifts and trails that are open daily include chairs 2 to mid-way, 3, 4 and 5. Trails that are open daily include the east side of Capitan, Deep Freeze, Smokey Bear, Snow Park and novice slopes on chairs 3 and 5.

CARMAN MUSE, REVEREND DALE BEEMAN AND GUS ALLRED.

Muse, Allred are wed

Carman C. Muse and Augustin (Gus) G. Allred, both of Capitan, were married November 23. Minister Dale Beeman of the Trinity Southern Baptist Church in Capitan performed the ceremony. Carman is the daughter of Gerald and Virginia Martin of Baytown, Texas, and Allen Muse (deceased). The groom is the son of William and Jane Allred of Capitan.

The groom wore a blue suit with a white rose boutonniere.

Best man was Joel Darby of Capitan. Darby wore a light tan suit with a white rose boutonniere. The groom's brother, Anthony Allred of Albuquerque, was the usher.

Flower girl was Misty Muse, daughter of the bride. David Collins of Capitan played the guitar and sang Bob Dylan's "The Wedding Song."

The bride wore a tea-length rosette gown with lace overlay, a pearl necklace given by the groom, pearl earrings and a flower hair comb.

The reception was at the home of the groom's parents. Turkey and a Mexican food buffet were served. The wedding cake, made by the bride's aunt, Kaye Reynolds, was single-layered with fall-colored roses.

The bride carried a bouquet of pink silk and dried flowers and three red roses.

The bride is a 1983 graduate of Capitan High School. Currently, she is working for the Capitan Mart.

Matron of honor was Sherry Darby of Capitan. She wore a powder blue tea-length gown with lace overlay, a flower hair comb and a bouquet of blue and pink silk and dried flowers.

The groom, a former U.S. Air Force serviceman, is a 1980 graduate of Capitan High School. He is self-employed.

The bride was given in the ceremony by her aunt, Cheryl Mark, for the family.

The couple is planning a future trip to Disneyworld in Florida and will make their home in Capitan.

Church sets special services

Boy hoopsters beat Portales

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Last season it took the Ruidoso High School boys varsity basketball 10 attempts to win the Warriors' first game.

This season it took the team just two games. Ruidoso evened its season record at 1-1 with a 40-39 victory over host Portales Thursday night.

Ruidoso led most of the way before Portales took the lead with about two and a half minutes left.

However, Ruidoso's sophomore guard Kirk Ryan hit a bucket to give the Warriors the lead for good. With about 10 seconds left, the Warriors had possession but lost the ball in the backcourt.

The Rams took over and called time out with two seconds left. Portales tried a shot from the outside but the ball bounced off the rim as the buzzer sounded.

Ruidoso jumped off to a 13-8 first-quarter advantage and led, 23-19, at halftime.

The Warriors led, 35-27, at the end of the third quarter, before the hosts began their comeback.

Junior Carl Lueras and Ryan each had 13 points to lead the Warriors.

Ruidoso had 18 rebounds, 14 of them off the defensive boards. "We did a good job on the defensive boards, but our offensive rebounding stunk," said Warrior head coach Gene Segura.

"But these kids never quit. They just keep playing. We only played six players."

The Warrior junior varsity lost its second decision in as many tries, falling to Portales, 57-33.

Tuesday, December 10, the Warriors will open the home season, taking on Goddard. The junior varsity game will start at 5:30, with the varsity contest following it.

Some of the Warrior football players are coming out for basketball, but will not play until Saturday, December 14, against the visiting New Mexico Military Institute Colts.

Valenzuela, Yeatman lead Warrior matmen

Mike Valenzuela and Scott Yeatman came through with the top performances as the Ruidoso High School wrestling team opened the season Saturday in the Los Lunas Tournament.

Valenzuela took third in the 112-pound class and Yeatman was fourth at 119 pounds.

Ruidoso was eighth in the eight-team tournament, but the Warriors only had eight wrestlers entered in the competition. Ruidoso scored 27 points.

Valenzuela, a transfer, won three matches and lost just one. He won his first match, 12-4, lost his second, 7-2, won his third, 7-2, and took his final match, 4-1.

Yeatman had a 2-2 record. He took his first match, 13-8, lost his second one by a pin, won his third one, 13-5, and lost his final one, 7-4.

Jeff Schmidt at 105 pounds, Bubba Lane at 138 pounds and Clint Bob at 145 pounds each won one match and lost two. It was the first time Lane and Bob had ever wrestled in competition.

Cory Garner at 135 pounds, Brian Harris at 126 pounds and Jeff Harvey in a junior varsity 155-pound match lost their first two matches and were eliminated.

However, Garner lost to the top two wrestlers in his weight class. It was the first time Harvey and Harris had ever competed. Harris drew the defending state champion in his first match.

"I think we did all right, overall," said Warrior head coach Gerald Ames. "We're still taking it easy. We have some more wrestlers coming out from the football team."

Ruidoso will host the Roswell Coyotes in the Warriors' home opener Wednesday, December 11.

There will be varsity and junior varsity matches. The junior varsity match will start at 6:30 p.m., with the varsity one following.

Girl cagers lose three tilts in tourney

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's girls varsity basketball team finished eighth in the Goddard Invitational in Roswell over the weekend.

The Warriors lost Thursday night to eventual runner-up Roswell, 54-43, were edged Friday afternoon by Goddard, 48-44, and lost a 43-20 decision to Portales Saturday.

"We played two good ball games," said Warrior head coach James Sanchez. "In the third one, we just didn't play well."

Against Roswell, the Warriors rallied from a 14-6 first-period deficit to take a 21-16 halftime lead.

However, the Coyotes converted five straight turnovers into points at the start of the third period and led from then on.

Katherine Sanchez led Ruidoso with 23 points on eight field goals and seven free throws.

Collette Waconda added six points. Ruidoso had a late rally against Goddard and almost pulled the game out.

The Warriors trailed, 40-26, entering the final period, but outscored the Rockets, 18-8, with an effective full-court press.

Sanchez led a balanced scoring attack with 14 points.

Waconda and Veralyn Platta each had eight points. Berdine Smith scored six, and Zeba Morris, Jennifer Jimenez, Amanda Samuels and Louwana Simmons each scored two.

Against Portales, Ruidoso fell behind, 15-6, and was never really in the contest.

Sanchez played three quarters and led the Warriors with nine points.

Platta scored four, Stacy Gear had three, and Morris and Samuels each scored two.

Ruidoso will be idle until Tuesday, December 17, when the Warriors will travel to Goddard. Ruidoso will host Roswell Thursday, December 19.

"We've got to work on our outside shooting and getting a balanced attack," Sanchez said. "Also we need to press more. We just have to work hard."

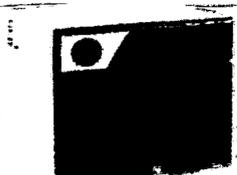

Ruidoso's Katherine Sanchez (12) puts up a shot against Roswell in the Goddard Invitational girls basketball tournament last Thursday. Ruidoso lost to Roswell, 54-43.

with Gary Brown

Well, the 1985 New Mexico AAA-division football title now belongs to the Ruidoso Warriors after their thrilling, 21-19, victory over Silver City Saturday.

It was a fitting end to the Warrior football season, with the defense rising up to stop a last-minute Silver City drive.

And now memories of a brilliant 12-1 season, a co-district championship and the state championship trophy will stay with the Warrior teams, coaches and fans until those warm August days next year.

Then, it's back to the practice fields for most of the 1986 Warrior team. Only 15 members of the state championship squad are seniors. But those 15 players did a great job in leading the Warriors all season. Some of them probably will be playing college ball.

They'll be missed by Warrior fans. But Ruidoso has a solid nucleus returning next season, and the Warriors should have a great chance to successfully defend their title.

Let's have a big hand for the Warrior coaches and players.

And let's not forget three people who were a part of the Warrior success this season.

Trainer Richie Sanchez and managers Phillip Wright and Sam Whitey all did great jobs this season.

Richie took care of the Warrior players' injuries while the trainers handled the equipment chores.

Richie graduates this spring, but Phillip and Sam will be around next year to continue helping the Warriors.

Good job all around.

Trainer Richie Sanchez (left) and managers Sam Whitey and Phillip Wright have been hard workers for the Warrior football team this season.

So now basketball and wrestling are upon us.

The boys varsity basketball team and wrestling team should show improvement this season.

The girls varsity basketball team lost all its starters from last season's team, but has some promising young players and transfers. Ruidoso's home winter sport season begins in earnest this week.

The Warrior boys varsity and junior varsity basketball teams will host Goddard Tuesday and New Mexico Military Institute Saturday. The wrestling team will host Roswell Wednesday.

Another season is here.

Brave cagers unbeaten in Ruidoso tournament

Ruidoso Middle School's boys and girls A basketball teams were undefeated in a tournament hosted by the Braves Thursday and Friday.

The Ruidoso boys team Thursday beat Tularosa, 38-20, topped Capitan Friday, 51-15, and rallied to defeat Holloman, 38-34, Friday night.

The Brave girls A team beat Capitan, 41-23, topped the Ruidoso B team, 21-3, and beat Tularosa, 37-18. The Brave girls B team fell to Tularosa, 37-34.

Ruidoso's boys win over Holloman was the most exciting game of the tournament.

The Braves overcame a 20-13 halftime deficit to win the game. Ruidoso outscored Holloman, 13-6, in the third period and, 12-8, in the fourth period.

Rusty Silva led the Braves with 17 points. Ira Sago added eight and Alfred Rue scored six.

In the win over Capitan, Silva scored 10 points, Cody Willard had nine, Rue had seven and Abraham Chee scored six.

Silva scored 15 points to lead Ruidoso to its victory over Tularosa.

Tara Miller hit 15 points and Ardena Comanche scored 12 to lead the Brave A girls past Tularosa.

Miller added 23 points in the win over Capitan. Miller also scored 25 points in the B loss to Tularosa. Comanche scored 10.

The Brave boys A and B teams will travel to Capitan Tuesday, December 10, to play the Tiger freshmen. The first game will start at 5:30.

Ruidoso's next girls game is a B game against visiting Carrizozo Thursday, December 10. A boys B game also will be played. The first contest against Carrizozo will start at 4.

Sports banquet scheduled Thursday

The Ruidoso High School fall sports banquet will be Thursday, December 12, in the school cafeteria.

The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. The volleyball, cross-country and state championship football team will be honored.

Each family attending the banquet is asked to bring a main dish, vegetable or salad, and a desert.

Basketball loop starts next week

Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Adult Basketball League play will begin Monday, December 16, at White Mountain School's gymnasium.

Team fees are $150 and are due Wednesday, December 11. The roster deadline also is December 11.

Final additions to team rosters are due by Thursday, January 2.

All checks should be payable to the Village of Ruidoso. Turn all checks and roster forms in to the Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Department office at the swimming pool on Sudderth Drive.

Checks and rosters also may be mailed to Parks and Recreation, Village of Ruidoso, P.O. Box 769, Ruidoso, New Mexico, 88345.

For information, call Bobby Bailey at 257-2795.

Manager Alicia Hammond models one of the pre-owned furs available at Designer Secrets. The shop sells pre-owned designer clothing taken on consignment.

Shop sells pre-owned designer clothes

by SHARON MAKOKIAN
News Staff Writer

Designer Secrets, a new store in The Paddock at 1009 Mechem Drive, sells pre-owned clothes for women who want to "look like a million bucks" without spending it.

The store is a second location for owner Laveda Boggs, who has had a shop in Midland, Texas, for two years. Her daughter, Alicia Hammond, manages the Ruidoso store.

Hammond sells a variety of pre-owned apparel, including furs, coats, sweaters, dresses and evening wear. She takes designer fashions in very good condition (less than two years old) on consignment for sale in the store. She said she especially is looking for additional furs to add to her present stock.

The store will feature clothing for a 90-day period, after which the owner may either retrieve the item or have it donated to charity and receive a tax receipt. The consigner receives half of the sale price for items that are sold.

"Everyone gets what they want," said Hammond, explaining that the consigner receives money for unwanted items and the buyer gets designer clothing at a fraction of the cost.

Hammond said many of her consigners are women who fill their closets and don't wear everything they buy. She said she gets a lot of unworn items, with the original price tags still on them, and original-design dresses that have been worn only once or twice.

Hammond keeps a file of her customers and notifies them when items of their size and preference come into the store. She also sells new costume jewelry.

Designer Secrets is open from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

RAS offers computers and services

RAS...Computer Entrepreneurs is a new business that offers secretarial and computer services and sells computer hardware and software.

Located in The Attic and Friends complex on Mechem Drive, RAS is owned by Cindy Lynch and managed by Paula Sowder. Lynch said the acronym RAS came from "rent a secretary." She said her business now encompasses more than secretarial services, so she expanded the name to reflect the changes.

RAS offers full secretarial and bookkeeping services. It also offers computerized data processing, including general ledger, accounts receivable, payroll, quarterly tax reports, mailing lists and Medicare and insurance billings.

Bill Clem, an Apple computer dealer from Southeast Business Systems in Roswell, handles computer support services. RAS sells computer hardware and software and all the necessary supplies such as labels, form-feed paper, ribbons and diskettes. RAS also has a variety of computer programs.

The store is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday. The phone number is 258-5337.

Sowder said she welcomes everyone to stop by and become acquainted with the business.

RAS office manager Paula Sowder works at a computer as owner Cindy Lynch and computer dealer Bill Clem hold computer programs.

Many athletes are awarded at fall sports banquet

by DORIS CHERRY
News Capitan Bureau

Parents and coaches recognized Capitan players and cheerleaders at the first annual Fall Sports Banquet Thursday night. The event was sponsored by the Capitan Sports Booster Club.

The coaches gave awards to outstanding players in each sport and recognized each player with a certificate. Varsity football coach Zale Woodward thanked the parents of the players for their support during the season. Despite the losing season, Woodward complimented the team for their accomplishments.

Two new school trophies were presented to Chris Peralta, as outstanding 1985 back, and to Doug Eckland as outstanding 1985 lineman. The trophies will remain in the school trophy case, with additional names to be added in the future.

Woodward awarded personal trophies to his outstanding players. Peralta received trophies for being the team's leading scorer, with 45 total points, and the leading rusher. Troy Padilla received a trophy for being the leading Class-A passer, with a total of 120 successful passes out of 230 attempts. The leading 1985 Class-A pass receiver, Troy Keller, was given a trophy for his 60 successful catches.

Defensive tackler Doug Eckland and hitter Kerry Clements received trophies for their outstanding 1985 varsity.

Varsity volleyball coach Bill MacVeigh thanked his team for the successful season which included a trip to the state games. MacVeigh also thanked the booster club for the contributions that made two overnight out-of-town game trips possible.

MacVeigh awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy to Becky Huey. MacVeigh announced that Huey was selected to the south team for the Class AA State Volleyball North-South Game, scheduled for the summer of 1986. Only three Class-A players are selected in the state to participate in the game, MacVeigh said.

Huey also received trophies for outstanding defensive play and for spiking. Jana Harris received awards for being the highest point server of the season, with 195 points, and for her outstanding blocking. Tracy Herd was awarded for her 88 percent successful sets during the season.

MacVeigh recognized graduating seniors Leslie Guck, Harris, Herd, Huey, Joan Leslie, Michelle Nevarez and Stephanie Stowe for their outstanding play and influence on the team.

The varsity cheerleaders received certificates from their sponsor, Sonnie Silva. Silva thanked Wendy Tate, Michele Holmes, Valerie Garner, Corina Sedillo, Paul McClain, mascot Jody Scott and elementary cheerleader Veronica Roybal.

Junior high volleyball coach Jim Bizzell recognized his 30 players. He complimented the students for showing so much interest, saying that his team was twice as large as some teams of the bigger schools in the state. He gave special recognition to Karie Cox and Shannon Harris for their outstanding play.

Junior high football coach Woodward also recognized his 33 players for their interest and enthusiasm during the season.

Sherry Ford, the junior high cheerleader sponsor, awarded certificates to cheerleaders Marsha Nevarez, Kim Eckland, Sonia Sanchez, Sheila Montoya, Kerri Runnels, Nanette Boyd, Cindy Castillo and Lashauna Tiltonson for their team and support.

Booster club president Don Eckland presented every player with a participation medal, donated by the club. Eckland said the overwhelming response by parents to the club helped sponsor the awards and the banquet itself.

Eckland said the club was encouraged by the large number of students who participated in the fall sports program this year.

Commission reviews Oscuro road

by DORIS CHERRY
News Capitan Bureau

Road closures brought some concerned Oscuro-area residents to the Lincoln County Commission meeting Tuesday. Glen Ellison, a landowner whose property is accessed by the recently closed Water Canyon Road, protested the closure.

The commissioners decided to close the road at their last meeting at the request of the Stephenson Ranch, whose property the road crosses. The county and the ranch had a prior agreement to allow access to the road with a key kept at the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office.

Commission chairman Bill Elliott said the county's main concern is with Sheriff Tom Sullivan not wanting to keep the key. At a recent meeting, Sullivan told the commissioners that he did not want his department to be responsible for the key.

Ellison said the road has been a county road in the past. He requested that a 1977 court case dealing with the ownership of the road be reviewed.

The commissioners directed county attorney Steve Sanders to research the records of the case and minutes of the 1977 commission meetings to determine if the road was legally closed. Sanders will give a report at the next meeting.

Bill Stephenson also requested a closure of another county road—C001—that crosses his ranch. Stephenson said the New Mexico Game Commission is planning a new access road to the western side of the White Mountain Wilderness area, bypassing the old road which presently is the access for the wilderness.

Some Oscuro residents objected to the closure before the new road is completed. Elliott pointed out that the road crosses some state land and cannot be closed in those sections.

The commissioners reappointed Frankie Silva, Israel Miranda and George Beaudry to a road review committee to study the closure and report back at the next commissioners' meeting.

In other business the commissioners:

—Approved the transfer of the liquor license from Tinnie Mercantile Company to the Tinnie Corporation.

—Tabled a request for $2,237 from the Lincoln County Fair Association to fence the north side of the fairgrounds, until the association receives a written agreement from the Village of Capitan approving construction of the fence in the village right of way.

—Rejected the bids for the annual fuel supply requirement contract and agreed to rebid with a specification that the cost of fuel be based on market fluctuations.

—Accepted the lease-purchase bid from Rust Tractor Company for two articulated motorgraders, with an option for trade-in on two old graders, and no dealer maintenance fees.

—Postponed a request by Jerry Carroll to amend the Lincoln County Solid Waste Ordinance until the next meeting.

—Approved a resolution for the closed-bid sale of a wrecked Cessna aircraft and a 1983 Chevrolet truck, which became county property after being seized in a 1984 marijuana raid.

—Approved a resolution designating Lincoln County polling places, all of which meet the requirements for unobstructed access to limited mobility voters.

—Approved the request from the Village of Corona for assistance with school bus routes within the village and directed county manager Suzanne Cox to coordinate the project.

—Rescinded the prior approval of the plats for Starlite and Cedar Hill subdivisions because the plats were not signed by all present property owners.

Tigerettes win their first two games

by DORIS CHERRY
News Capitan Bureau

The Capitan varsity basketball teams began their regular season this week, with wins for the girls and losses for the boys.

The Tigerette girls varsity team beat Tularosa in a close game, 47-46, on Tuesday in Tularosa. Friday night the Tigerettes beat Carrizozo, 23-17, on the Grizzlies' home court.

Tigerette coach Zale Woodward said he felt it is too early in the season to predict how well the team will do.

The Tiger boys did not fare as well this first week, losing to Carrizozo Friday night with a score of 40-51. At their first home game against Magdalena Saturday night, the Tigers lost, 53-51.

Coach Kendal Lawlis said that Troy Keller was the only player to score in the double digits. Keller scored 15 points in the Carrizozo game and Doug Eckland scored eight in that game. Keller scored 23 points in the Magdalena game.

Lawlis said that the team played "like it was the first two games in the season."

Historic Lincoln Town to have tours

Historic Lincoln Town will open its doors to national, state and local dignitaries for an evening of tours on Saturday, December 14.

New Mexico State Monuments Division director Tom Caperton planned the tours to show the work that is being done in Lincoln, said Lincoln Monument ranger Jack Rigney. Caperton's office sent invitations to the dignitaries, said Rigney.

The tours are scheduled to begin at 5 p.m. on Saturday. The evening includes a one-man melodrama, "The Trouble in Lincoln County," about the Lincoln County Wars. The show will be staged by Boyd Barrett at the Visitor's Center.

Shops, Doctor Woods' house, the Tunstall Store and other historic structures in Lincoln will be open to visitors. Guests will finish their tours at the Wortley Hotel for drinks and hors d'oeuvres at 7 p.m.

Rigney said the courthouse, now in a state of restoration, will be open to those who wish to see the work in progress on the historic structure. Guests will be guided through the building in small groups because of the construction, Rigney said.

Around Town

The CORRIENTE COWBELLES will meet for a Christmas party and installation of 1985 officers at 11 a.m. Tuesday, December 10, at the Pat Ward home in Lincoln.

Arby's opening

Ready for a scheduled opening today (Monday), December 9, are Arby's assistant manager Sherry Darby (left) and cashier Janie Deweber. The restaurant staged a "mock grand opening" Saturday evening, with local officials and townspeople enjoying complimentary Arby's specialties and a champagne toast.

Two wounded in weekend shooting

One man remains hospitalized and two are in police custody after a shooting that apparently began as a family fight early this morning, according to Sergeant Mike Lovelace of the Ruidoso Police Department.

Police responded to a call to 102 Cedar Place at two minutes after midnight, said Lovelace.

J.C. Day Jr., 28 years old, of Ruidoso Downs remains in Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital (RHVH) with shotgun wounds he suffered in the confrontation, according to police. Hospital spokesman Katie Wickware reported early today that Day is in stable condition.

Riley Sloan, 44, of the Cedar Place address, and his son-in-law Jerry Dwight Blaney, 22, are in police custody on charges stemming from the incident, police said. Sloan is being held on aggravated battery charges and Blaney, who was treated and released from RHVH, has been charged with violating the terms of his probation, said Lovelace. Lovelace said other charges are pending as the investigation continues.

Two killed in wreck

Two Roswell women were killed in a traffic accident about 10 p.m. Sunday, December 8, according to Lieutenant Bob Miller of the New Mexico State Police.

Linda Morales, the 25-year-old driver of a Harley Davidson motorcycle, was apparently traveling east in the westbound lane of U.S. Highway 70 near mile marker 311 when the accident occurred, said Miller.

She and a passenger, 24-year-old Jo Ann Nieto, were apparently thrown under the trailer of a Peterbilt tractor and trailer rig driven by John Chaves, 44, of Las Cruces, said police.

According to police reports, Chaves swerved to avoid a head-on crash when he saw the motorcycle coming, and the cycle crashed into the side of the trailer.

The Dreamer

by Dan Storm

Thomas Jefferson Short
 Services were held December six at the Ruidoso First Christian Church for Thomas Jefferson Short, affectionately known as T.J., who was called home by Our Lord on December four. Services were under the direction of the Reverend Mr. Ken Cole.

Inspirational prelude numbers were played on the piano by Donna Willard. Among the selections played was "When They Ring Those Golden Bells For You and Me."
 The congregation sang, "What a Friend We Have In Jesus," and Bill Braudt sang, "I Will Rise Again."

Reverend Cole described T.J. as a devout christian gentleman whose love for his family and friends, and all mankind was patterned after the love of the Lord for us; that this love was whole hearted, not lessened the faults or failings of anyone.
 "T.J. had many favorite passages of scripture," said Reverend Cole, "and he often brought them forth in his day to day friendly ministry to friend and family." Two of these favorites were: "Whatever you would like that a man do unto you, do also unto him" and "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."
A Life Time Of Music
 For many years during his youth in the neighborhood of his home city, Brady, Texas, T.J. had a band, composed of himself and cousins. T.J. played mostly the saxophone, but could also do well on guitar, violin or piano.

 His gift for music and his devout nature went well together and he played many of his favorite hymns on the saxophone, among which are: "Just A Closer Walk With Jesus" "When They Ring Those Golden Bells For You and Me," "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Nearer My God To Thee."
 Some of his folks, by happy presence of mind and foresight, had recorded some of T.J.'s saxophone numbers. And as the church service was brought to a close and the congregation filed out of the church, the strains of "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," one of T.J.'s recordings, echoed through the church.
 At the graveside services, Danny Flores, just up the hill from the gathering, played some of the old favorite hymns on a golden saxophone.
Tribute Offered
By Daughter, Denese
 A loving tribute to her father, was ready by T.J.'s daughter, Denese Watkins. A few words follow:
 "God was good to Daddy in taking him from his pain and suffering; and in his death he found victory.
 The things we remember most about Daddy were his love and acceptance of everyone. Daddy never criticized or said anything bad about anyone. He seemed to have the great gift of seeing people through God's eyes. In him the love of God was perfected. It was unconditional. We were really blessed to have a father who gave us this kind of Christian love. It was Daddy's love that taught us about God's love.
 "It was his kindness and calmness that has helped me face life straight on and not fight it. Thank you, God, for our Daddy."
 T.J. was a worthy namesake of Thomas Jefferson; author of The Declaration of Independence.
 And the spirit of his services was rejoicing at the blessing this man has been in our lives; and his gratefulness that our beloved friend has been taken to his heavenly home by our Lord.

A panorama of action fills Aggie Memorial Stadium at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces as the Ruidoso Warriors and Silver City Colts battle for the state AAA-division championship. The victorious Warriors (on the near side of the field) and the Colts were well-supported by large hometown crowds.

Players celebrate victory

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Joy was abundant in the Ruidoso High School lockerroom after the Warriors won their first AAA-division state football title Saturday.

Players joked with each other and waved towels with the words "state champions" on them. A 12-1 season had been culminated with an exciting 21-19 victory over District 3-AAA rival Silver City, avenging the Warriors' only defeat of the season.

And the seniors especially were pleased with the victory.

"I think it was one of the greatest things I've ever experienced," said offensive guard James Herrera. "I think we (the seniors) with our leadership gave another building block for the guys coming up next year."

"It was worth all the dedication we put into the season," said offensive tackle Phillip Herrera. "It's the best way to go out our senior year."

Senior quarterback Russell Easter also was happy about the victory, one in which he threw two touchdown passes to junior split end Brian Davis.

"I don't think it was one of my best games, but it definitely was one of the most exciting," the 6-2 athlete said. "Winning the state title made it especially nice."

Kyle Jameson, another senior who probably played his best game of the season, was modest about his own play. He recovered two fumbles and forced another one from his defensive end position.

"I guess I played pretty good," he said. "It was probably my best game of the season. Those fumble recoveries were my only ones of the season."

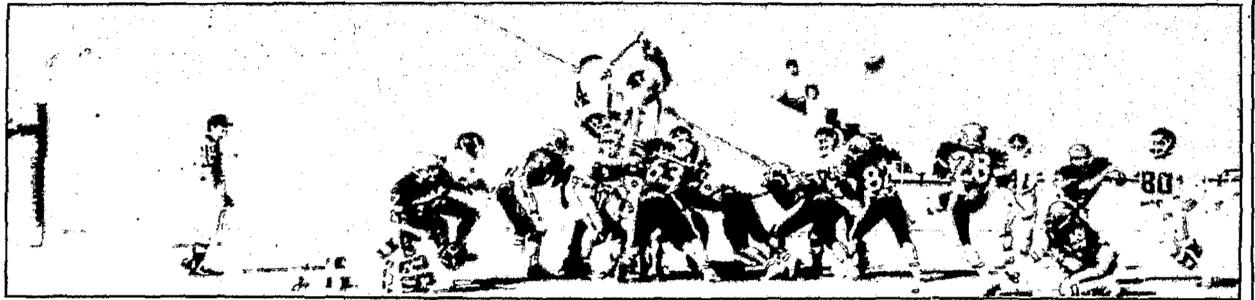

Another senior, tailback Michael Williamson, saw both happiness and sadness in the state championship and the end of the season.

"It feels great," he said. "But I'm sad it's over. It was great being a part of this."

So the Warrior seniors leave the team with a winning tradition, one that should continue next season with three offensive starters and six defensive starters returning.

Ruidoso's Brian Davis runs for yardage after catching a pass in the state championship football game against Silver City Saturday. Davis caught four passes, including two for touchdowns. Ruidoso won, 21-19.

Ruidoso's Garret Henson (28 in dark jersey) kicks an extra point during the state championship football game with Silver City Saturday. Henson kicked three extra points as the Warriors won, 21-19.

Ruidoso Greeters plan benefit ball

The Ruidoso Valley Greeters will ring in the holiday season with their First Annual Benefit Christmas Ball on Saturday, December 14, in the Wendell Chino Ballroom at the Inn of the Mountain Gods.

The festivities will begin at 8 p.m. and last until 12:30 a.m., with continuous entertainment throughout the evening. The Quin-Tikis, a band known for its variety of musical styles, will be the main entertainment and source of dance music.

Other local groups will perform when the band takes its breaks. Danny Flores will direct a madrigal group; Churchill Cooke will lead a Christmas sing-along; and Ruidoso Little Theatre will present a comical look at "The Night Before Christmas."

The benefit ball is a fundraiser for the greeters, an organization of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce. The group of local businesswomen serve as Ruidoso ambassadors at events and promotions.

During the summer, the greeters sponsored receptions for Governor Toney Anaya and New Mexico congressmen and senators. They currently are planning a reception in Austin, Texas, to present the chamber's winning family of the year.

Greeter president Melody Vuolch said the greeters plan to continue their promotional efforts and that the money raised will be used for that purpose, specifically for the Austin reception.

Tickets to the ball are $35 for couples and $20 for singles. The cost of the ticket is tax deductible because it is a charitable donation. Tickets are available at the chamber office, Ruidoso State Bank, First National Bank of Lincoln County and from any greeter.

Adult Recreation Committee considers senior citizen activity upgrades

The Adult Recreation Committee for the Village of Ruidoso heard Thursday that funds approved for a directional sign for the Adult Recreation Center (ARC) were lost at the end of the fiscal year.

Bette Romans, ARC director, reported that village administrators have postponed placing a sign until more funds are available.

Village Councillor Jerry Shaw reminded the committee that the funds were available when the sign was approved, but were eventually lost when the administration failed to order the sign.

"Everytime I would mention the sign to them they (village administrators) would say they were working on it," said Romans.

Romans also reported that she was advised by administrators to include the center's lapidary equipment in a March auction, although proceeds from the sale will go into the general fund rather than the ARC budget.

Charlotte Jarratt, a visitor to the meeting, suggested that since the equipment was originally purchased with federal funds, the disposal might be accomplished another way, so that the money would return to the center.

Burdette Stampley suggested that the Village Council be petitioned to sell the equipment and return the proceeds to the center, and the group passed a motion to that effect.

Romans reported on the new transportation plan in which the van and driver are available on Tuesdays and Thursdays. She said six citizens utilized the service Tuesday and eight Thursday. She said 11 people were provided transportation to a dinner at the Elks Lodge. Romans said she had contacted local doctors and reminded them of the transportation available to senior citizens needing to go to the doctor those two days.

She said members of the ARC are collecting food for the Happy Holidays drive. They have also completed a quilt on the recently purchased quilting frame, she said.

When Waldrop asked for program suggestions, Stampley, the committee secretary, expressed surprise at the change in a meeting agenda. He and committee member Verna Adams said they were expecting to discuss the newsletter.

Waldrop still wanted to discuss programming, and Stampley suggested that the center plan trips to other towns for special events such as the Albuquerque balloon festival.

Adams said the local group might also visit other centers.

Shaw told of summer field trips planned for children by the Parks and Recreation Department, and offered to find out details and report back to the committee. She said the trips didn't cost the village any money.

"The biggest hurdle is the apparent opposition of the city," remarked Stampley.

Although Shaw said that leasing transportation instead of taking the village-owned van outside the city would take care of that problem, Adams said she questioned the validity of not allowing the van to go out of town because of insurance costs.

"They don't have a break for staying in the village," said Adams. "The insurance covers it to Timbuktu," she added.

Adams also suggested a more formalized liaison with the state Agency on Aging, in order to keep up with the many activities, and members voted to invite an agency representative to come to the next committee meeting.

Waldrop wondered what "communications," the next agenda item, was meant to cover, and was reminded by Stampley that Waldrop himself had chosen that word, since the minutes called for a discussion on the newsletter.

It was learned at the meeting that the newsletter consists solely of a monthly calendar, and Shaw suggested that an invitation to come to the center be included next time.

"It bothers me to come into the center and find nobody out there using it," said Shaw. "I'd like to see us get more for our money," she added, noting that the building, salaries and operations are paid with taxpayers' dollars.

Jarratt, after learning that 200 calendars are being mailed, wondered why they are mailed in envelopes bearing first-class postage. She suggested that the cost be cut from 22 cents to six cents each by using a bulk mail permit.

"This is what Mr. Hine (village manager) worked out for us," said Romans.

Stampley said he'll check on the bulk mailing requirements and report back to the committee.

In spite of Waldrop's suggestion that "we need to let a little time go by for reasoning and consider the pros and cons," the committee approved Stampley's motion to expand the newsletter with articles and an invitation to readers to come to the center. The group also voted to offer a prize in the newsletter.

Members then worked on a redesign for the newsletter and came up with a new format for the next mailing.

Committee member Cleve Kirby was not present for the meeting.

Christmas ballet

Members of the Ballet Renaissance West of Albuquerque perform "The Nutcracker Suite" at the Ruidoso Middle School Saturday evening. Spirit of Ruidoso sponsored the performance. Above, ballerinas dance as snowflakes. At right, Clara and the nutcracker prince (Lara Turner and Jesse Everett) dance a pas-de-deux. Turner and Everett are two of seven dancers from the Cornish Dance Theater and Institute in Seattle, Washington.

Village Board of Appeals may disband

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

The Board of Appeals, Abatement of Dangerous Buildings, will ask the Ruidoso Village Council at Tuesday's meeting to disband them.

"I have enough liability, I don't need any more," said chairman Bennie Coulston, during a Friday board meeting.

Coulston said if the village governing body isn't going to take action on the board's report of dangerous buildings, the committee has fulfilled its role and should be released.

"I'm a little disappointed in the lack of direction," said Jimmy Neeley, building inspector. "It is my understanding that the village is going to go on with it," he added.

During Friday's meeting members reviewed their actions over the past six months. They have reviewed eight cases on buildings deemed to be unsafe, notified property owners of their intent to take actions, presented those cases to the Village Council, called for bids on removing the unsafe structures and asked the council to act on the bids.

The group heard Friday that the council rejected the bids and instructed the board to "proceed with the hearings."

Since property owners have been properly notified, sometimes over a two-year period, Coulston opined that the appeals board has completed its work.

Jim Hine, village manager, told Coulston that the council wanted individual bids on the demolition proposals, and was shown that the bids were itemized by project.

"I think they (council) were a little confused," said board member Lori Griffin.

Coulston suggested that plans to set a calendar for 1986 be abandoned until further instructions are received. The board instructed Neeley to speak on their behalf at the next council meeting.

Editorial

Congratulations are in order for all those who decorated for Christmas this year.

A drive through the village at night is a spectacular experience of white and multi-colored bulbs and ornaments illuminating the outlines of Christmas-ready storefronts, pine trees and village homes.

Again this year, a huge, colorful Christmas tree welcomes visitors to the village at the "Y", a village tradition we are pleased to see has returned. Even more pleasant is knowing that the majestic tree is alive, a living and growing symbol of our mountain home.

Another heart-warming holiday sight is the cross on the tower on Lookout Mountain. The powerful white lights of the cross are visible from almost every part of the village.

Like ribbon and bows on a Christmas gift, the Village of Ruidoso's telephone-pole-mounted Christmas-tree-shaped decorations help wrap together all the Sudderth Drive holiday trimmings.

Helping to promote Christmas decorating this year are lighting contests sponsored by the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce and Spirit of Ruidoso.

So to all who participated in a community-wide effort to make the village the most spectacular of Christmas greetings to those who live and visit here, we say congratulations on a job well done!—DJP

Letters to the editor

DEAR EDITOR:

I would like to thank you for sending The Ruidoso News to me all the way to Austria. It gives me great pleasure to read about Ruidoso and especially the Sports Section, as I am a fan of the Warriors still.

I receive the paper twice a week. They are seven days late, but for a distance of some 15,000 miles or more that's not too bad. I would like to say thanks again, and wish all my friends the best over the holiday season, and to congratulate the football team.

Sincerely,
MIKE SMITH
1985-86 Exchange Student

DEAR EDITOR:

Each year we write to you asking that the people in your community remember the children of Assurance Home when mailing out Christmas cards. The response from your area is always so overwhelming that we would like to do the same thing this year.

Assurance Home serves abused and neglected children from all over the state with priority given to children in Southeastern New Mexico. These children often find the holiday season an especially painful and lonely time of year.

By receiving Christmas cards, our children receive comfort in knowing that others care and it helps make the holidays brighter for us all.

Cards may be addressed to:
The Children of Assurance Home
Rt. 3 Box 125
Roswell, New Mexico 88201
Thank you for caring.
With kindest regards,

DEAR EDITOR:

My wife and I would like to acknowledge what good medical care we in Ruidoso are fortunate enough to have.

First, about the hospital. A great place to be if you must be in a hospital.

The cost—higher than a cat's back—but we understand that this is necessary to make up for the many who are unable to come up with the wherewithal to pay, but are in need of hospital care.

You could spend a couple of weeks at the St. Moritz Palace for less. God bless Medicare and the taxpayers.

The great care given by the nurses in a big way makes up for this.

If everyone had the compassion and concern for their fellow man or woman these nurses do we would never need Star Wars. The doctors can't be miracle men, but they come as close as possible. These people don't have the privilege of saying "call back when we aren't so busy" as do other services.

How many of us would trade places with these people, even if it paid as good as playing football? This also goes for the anesthetists who had the responsibility of taking my wife out of the world and safely bringing her back twice this year.

Our thanks to all who make this kind of care available when needed.
TOM WILLIAMS

DEAR EDITOR:

Please pass this along: Play it again Hall! I don't care to become embroiled in another controversy; but, not being one to back down from a challenge, here we go again! (Ruidoso News May & June 1983.)

In its attempts to save time and money to ensure the continuation of good police work in our community, the Ruidoso Police Department is again trying to adopt new policies regarding alarms in our city. However, once again Mr. Jack Halbrooks of Mountain Alarms is protesting. (Ruidoso News 10-17-85.) This is in regard to the question of the authority of security companies to answer their own alarm calls.

In addition, Mr. Sam Vest (letter to editor 10-31-85) states "... according to the law, a licensed security company does not have any more authority than a private citizen, and that's next to nothing."

Perhaps these learned authorities should "Rules and Regulations Private Investigators Act", dated February 5, 1985. I refer to New Mexico State Statutes 61-27-9 Article B, "A private patrol operator or operator of a private patrol service within the meaning of this act is a person who for any consideration whatsoever agrees to furnish or furnishes a uniformed or ununiformed watchman, guard patrolman, or other person to protect persons or property or to prevent the theft, unlawful taking, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation or concealment of any goods, wares, merchandise, money, bonds, stocks, notes, documents, papers or property of any kind; or perform the service of such watchman, guard, patrolman or other person for any of said purposes."

61-27-9 Article C. "A person licensed as a private patrol operator only, may not make any investigation or investigations except those that are incidental to the theft, loss, embezzlement, misappropriation or concealment of any property or any other thing enumerated in this section which he has been hired or engaged to protect, guard or watch."

Section 30: Code of Ethics; Article A. "A code of ethics for both private security management and private security employees have been adopted and area made part of the Rules and Regulations. These codes shall be disseminated to all personnel involved in the security profession and shall be complied with."

61-27-1 N.M.S.A. 1978 Rule # 1. "As managers of private security functions and employee, we pledge: I. To recognize that our principal responsibilities are, in the service of our organizations and clients, to protect life and property as well as to prevent and reduce crime against our business, industry, or other organizations and institutions; and in the public interest, to uphold the law and to respect the constitutional rights of all persons. II. To be guided by a sense of integrity, honor, justice and morality in the conduct of business; in all personnel matters; in relationships with government agencies, clients, and employers; and in responsibilities to the general public. III. To strive faithfully to render security services of the highest quality and to work continuously to improve our knowledge and skills and thereby improve the overall effectiveness of private security. IV. To uphold the trust of our employers, our clients, and the public by performing our function within the law, not ordering or condoning violations of law, and ensuring that our security personnel conduct their assigned duties lawfully and with proper regard for the rights of others.

Inside the Capitol

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—We New Mexicans have done ourselves wrong—and our chickens are now coming home to roost.

Don't be misled; that isn't the prologue to another of this corner's patented roastings of Toney Anaya. Instead, it's an attempt to say we citizens ought to keep a much tighter rein on what state government is up to, in governor's office and Legislature alike.

After all, it is the combined actions of those two groups that allowed our state to slide gradually into the fiscal mess in which we find ourselves. The exact dimensions of that mess, as you may have noticed, have not even yet been ascertained. At first, we were told the state stood to go into the hole something like $60 million in this fiscal year, but a "position paper" put out by Governor Anaya's office earlier this week speaks of $82 million as being the possible total. That's a 38 percent jump, as you can see, in just the few weeks we have been contemplating this possibility. Who knows where it will end?

Maybe what we should do here is take another look at how we got ourselves into this unpleasant situation—or, to be more accurate, how those who run our government got us into it.

The cause that lawmakers and the Governor could have most easily corrected was the habit they developed of spending more than we take in. That's been going on for each of the last three years, which is so long a period that any sensible observer would judge there has been a massive amount of irresponsibility, and enough guilt for both legislators and administrators to share.

What those folks between them created was actually "recurring expenses" that are more than "recurring revenues." They did that, as we have said, not once but three times. Recurring expenses, as you can understand, are for things like salaries to state employees, as distinguished from, say, building a building, which is a one-time shot. In the same way, recurring revenues are from taxes or royalty payments, not from things like settlements for lawsuits, which also occur only once.

What kept us from going deeper into the hole than we have is a happy run of one-time payments, of the kind we can't depend on again, and use of the reserves of untapped surplus built up in happier days.

But the root cause of the problem goes deeper. It is an overall tax structure that does not work the way such structures should. A well-designed tax program, as is immediately clear, is one that produces more money in the recurring revenue category as the number of citizens, and hence the need for recurring services, grows. That's not the kind we've got.

Our tax system depends far too much on sources that do not grow with population, and which are at present actually contracting.

Back in 1975, it was okay to have 15 percent of the annual recurring income generated by a combination of severance taxes and royalty payments. But over the years, we let other sources of revenue lag until now almost a quarter of our dependence is on these same sources. That happens at a time when demand for services is increasing (see, for example, the hue and cry for expensive "school reform") and the severance taxes and royalty payments are rapidly shrinking.

What we have to do, therefore, is "Band Aid" the problem for the last half of this fiscal year, probably by dipping into the $22 million we still have left in unappropriated surplus and the $92 million we have in operating reserves. That latter category is our "rainy day" money—and thanks to our Governor and our lawmakers, we now face a very rainy day.

Then we need a total revamping of our tax base to make it respond to growth in need for services so we do not have to face this same problem soon again.

Are we likely to get that kind of revamping? Now, that's the question, isn't it? And will it be what we need if it is done by the very people who got us into this problem in the first place?

You can see why this column began with a thesis that said we average citizens are going to have to force out of our elected officials the kind of action they should have been taking, but haven't, for too many years in a row.

We are the only ones who can make them do what they don't want to do, or make them do right what they want to do wrong.

"V. To respect the reputation and practice of others in the private security field, but to expose to the proper authorities any conduct that is unethical or unlawful.

"VII. To cooperate with recognized and responsible law enforcement and other criminal justice agencies; to comply with security licensing and registration laws and other statutory requirements that pertain to our business."

Local 61-27-49 N.M.S.A. 1978, "Local Regulations", "The provisions of this act (61-27-1 to 61-27-49, N.M.S.A. 1978) shall not prevent the local authorities of any city, county, or city and county by ordinance and within the exercise of the police power of such city, county or city and county from imposing local ordinances upon any street patrol special officer or upon any person licensed within the scope of this act, if the ordinances are consistent with the Private Investigators Act (61-27-1 to 61-27-49, N.M.S.A. 1978)."

A note, regarding lawsuits, all private security companies are required to retain a bond, in full force and effect, on file with the State of New Mexico, Section 5, Articles A-M. Also there is insurance, every other business (including city police) have to pay for insurance coverage.

So I suggest to Mr. Halbrooks, and to Mr. Sam Vest, to read a copy of these rules and regulations. If either of them does not have access to a copy, or if anyone else concerned would like to see a copy, contact me at the address below.

At this point I will quote the last three paragraphs of my letter to the Editor of 6-83, with just as much, if not more meaning now than then. "In our rapidly growing community of Ruidoso and surrounding areas, I feel the Ruidoso Police Department has more than enough to keep their hands full, contending with other aspects of law enforcement without subsidizing private business, and having the taxpayers of our area foot the bill. The money saved could be used in much more needed areas.

"We in Ruidoso are very fortunate to have one of the finest Police Departments in the country, but if they are spread too thin, how can they continue to do the great job they are doing.

"If Mr. Halbrooks wants to be in the security business, perhaps he should be the one to spend money and time to do so ... It seems that every other business in our area has to function on its own, be responsible for itself, or go out of business. Why should there be an exception to the rule?"

If you're going to be in business you must accept the liabilities as well as the assets.
