Council reverses P&Z decision

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

Ruidoso Mayor Lloyd L. Davis Jr. lashed out at the Planning and Zoning Commission during a meeting Tuesday of the Ruidoso Village Council.

In a repeat of several past discussions on property line setbacks, Davis lambasted P&Z's denial of a 9-foot side lot line variance requested by John and Hitomi Greening.

The council overturned P&Z's denial but not before a heated discussion on setbacks.

John Greening showed pictures of his home on Lot 6, Block 3, 3rd Addition to Cree Meadows Heights Subdivision, and said slope and angle of the lot necessitate building a corner of his proposed carport into the setbacks.

Davis said P&Z has for five or six years misinterpreted the setback requirements established in a 1976 zoning ordinance. That ordinance constrains property owners from building within 10 feet of either side lot line and 20 feet from the front or back lines.

"It was the most screwed up deal that I can remember," remarked Davis of the enforcement of that regulation.

While structures built before 1976 are automatically granted variances, P&Z has discouraged building into those setbacks. But Davis has said over and over that the setbacks simply don't apply at all in subdivisions established before the ordinance was adopted.

"If it's not a part of the restrictive covenants I think we should ignore it," insisted Davis.

But Village Councillor Victor Alonso recalled a past instance when the council overturned a denial in spite of the restrictive covenants in Town and Country Subdivision.

"This council doesn't have a very consistent record on either," remarked Alonso. "We've got a law on the books whether we like it or not," added Alonso, reminding the council of the law's purpose: "to protect, enhance and create a certain environment."

Alonso worried that the council is setting a precedent that could allow people to build right up to neighboring property lines even in newer subdivisions.

John Greening said his house is in a subdivision that was established in 1972, before the current zoning ordinance was adopted.

"Half the houses are this way," noted Greening.

Enforcement officer Sandy Hall said an objection filed by an adjacent property owner was one reason for P&Z's decision.

"I don't care about neighbor's objections," said the mayor. He said he is tired of the same question appearing before the council time after time.

"I'll go down fighting and screaming about it," Davis warned.

Grand jury begins probe

A grand jury empaneled Tuesday by District Judge Richard A. Parsons in Carrizozo began its deliberations behind closed doors according to the judge.

"They had their first session," said Judge Parsons Wednesday. He said the grand jury proceedings are closed to him as well as to the public.

Fred Smith, Chief of Special Prosecutions for the Attorney General's (AG) office and Assistant Attorney General John Paternoster are presenting the evidence according to Judge Parsons.

The 12 jurors, seven women and five men along with four alternates are apparently reviewing evidence in the murders of Picacho ranchers Thomas P. Cotton and Judy McKnight.

Parsons said ordinarily a 12-member grand jury with ... alternates is called, with just the regular members sitting in unless an alternate is called in an emergency. Judge's order blocks county from moving district attorney office

District Judge Richard A. Parsons has ordered the Lincoln County Commission to "cease and desist" efforts to move the district attorney from his current office in the Lincoln County Courthouse.

In a writ of mandamus signed August 22, Judge Parsons ordered commissioners to certify they have complied or appear at 9 a.m. Wednesday, September 17, to show cause why they shouldn't comply with the order.

Twelfth Judicial District Attorney James J. Weldon (DA) petitioned for the writ, naming Commission Chairman Bill Elliott, Commissioner Ken Nosker, Commissioner A.W. Gnatkowski and county manager Suzanne Cox as respondents.

Elliott and the county attorney Gary Mitchell contacted on Wednesday, confirmed the court action. Both were surprised at the new development over an issue they thought was resolved in a recent hearing before Judge Robert Doughty.

"Judge Doughty has already ruled on most of these issues," said Mitchell. He found in favor of the County Commission when the DA filed to postpone moving his office until after January 1, 1987.

Elliott said the commission has filed a motion to dismiss the matter. He said he also filed a peremptory challenge as provided by New Mexico law asking to have Judge Parsons barred from proceeding further in the case.

The only new issue in the current writ is one of handicapped access, with the DA contending that the second floor office in the annex doesn't provide adequate access to the handicapped, thereby violating Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1974.

Assistant District Attorney Harry Wilcox Jr. attached a letter from Pat Serna of the Governor's Committee on Concerns of the Handicapped to the petition.

"Moving the 12th Judicial District, District Attorney's Office to the second floor of a building with no access to the handicapped prohibits the handicapped from using the DA's services, and prohibits employment as handicapped individuals cannot get to the second floor to work," said Serna in the letter.

Wilcox said his office filed the petition to compel the County Commission to provide "adequate office space."

"We're alleging that (the new offices) discriminate against handicapped individuals," added Wilcox.

Mitchell disagreed, saying a first floor conference room is available to the DA to answer those very concerns. He said the annex is closer to handicap ramps, and the first floor ... more accessible than the present DA's office.

"It's very ... noted Mitchell, explaining that more people use the assessor's office ... they need more space and the DA was warned from the time the present office was occupied that it was only temporary.

"It's ridiculous that Lincoln County taxpayers are having to be ... so much money to fight another ... agency," said Elliott. He said the ... could be in the thousands by the time the whole thing is complete.

"... county's asking that the DA ... for all this nonsense," said Mitchell.

"... state statute says that the county commissioners manage ... county property," remarked Elliott. "... said that's just what they plan to ..."

He said the office space ... is adequate and comfortable ... required by law. Wilcox ... agreed reiterating his belief that ... would be a violation of the Governor's executive order and the Human Rights Act.

Wilcox opined ... parties currently using the second floor offices should consider if they are liable for discrimination charges. He said he hasn't had the building evaluated to see what would bring it into compliance.

"We feel that the current action by the County Commission is arbitrary, capricious and without merit," remarked Wilcox Wednesday.

Elliott recounted the present dispute started when Wilcox asked the county to provide larger quarters for his Carrizozo office located in the Lincoln County Courthouse.

In a memorandum dated May 20, Wilcox asked the commission to install a wall partition in his office, enclosing a floor plan for the wall.

"Also, we are in need of the adjacent office space which is currently being occupied by the county assessor," continued the memo.

Since the county assessor, too, had indicated a need for more space, and the DA's office was placed in its present location on a temporary basis, Elliott said the commission identified new space for the DA in the annex and allocated the DA's present office for the assessor.

Elliott said Wilcox was notified on June 18 that his office was to be moved to the second floor of the annex, with a first floor conference room to be made available for conferences and meetings.

Wilcox then notified the commission that his office would be unable to move until after January 1, 1987, and the commission responded on July 22 by setting a 30-day deadline. The DA took the question of the move to court, and Judge Doughty upheld the County Commission's jurisdiction over county property.

"I went to Harry Wilcox and I asked him to reason with me on this," said Mitchell. "The ... they're not moving," he added.

Elliott, Mitchell and Wilcox ... said they'd prefer to negotiate and discuss the dispute in a gentlemanly way.

"We've always been open to discussing the possibility of staying in our present office space," said Wilcox. He said he would now be willing to forego his request for the adjacent space.

He said the space he asked for has apparently been used for storage and isn't part of the assessor's actual office space.

"We're just trying to maintain the status quo," said Wilcox. He said the DA has occupied its present quarters since 1982.

Mitchell said the question now is less of office space than "politics and bullheadedness."

He said the DA started the whole thing by requesting more space, he has been allocated more and quieter space. Mitchell said the present arrangement, with the DA just a few steps away from the district courtroom, is very unusual.

"We gave that office to the assessor and the DA's going to move," stated Mitchell emphatically.

Planning and Zoning to meet

The Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission will meet at 3 p.m. Tuesday, September 2, in council chambers of Village Hall. Items on the agenda include:

Consideration of commercial development plans submitted by Dorothy Kimsey for a barbeque restaurant on lots 2A and 38, Block 3, Riverside Addition.

P&Z meetings are preceded by a 2 p.m. workshop. Both the workshop and meeting are open to the public.

TODAY

Today's issue of The Ruidoso News is jampacked with information, especially on the Ruidoso schools. A special in Section C outlines the upcoming football season, and in Section B, the yearly school special tells the what, where and when of the school season, school-by-school.

In observance of Labor Day, the next issue of The Ruidoso News will be Tuesday, September 2.

World's richest quarter horse race is Monday

Nearly $2.8 million in prize money is up for grabs at Ruidoso Downs over the Labor Day weekend as the mountain track presents the final five programs of the 1986 racing season. Heading a list of 10 stakes races scheduled Thursday through Monday is the 28th running of the $2.53 million All American Futurity - the nation's richest quarter horse race.

Racing gets under way at 1 p.m. Thursday through Sunday, with an early 11 a.m. post time set for Monday's Labor Day card to allow for the national telecast of the $2.53 million All American Futurity by Winner Communications Inc.

Here's a preview of the events highlighting Ruidoso Downs' final weekend of racing:

THURSDAY - Hondo Valley Handicap winner Sparkling Blade totes high weight in the $16,725 Road Runner Handicap. The 6-furlong test for New Mexico-bred sprinters brings out Dance Trainer, Capitan Smokey, Damascus Champ, Sam's Wish, Song For A Lady and Unfurl's Princess. Thursday's Pic-Six wagering opens with a carryover of $5,824.

FRIDAY - Short Shrift fires back off a convincing victory in the Gene Hensley Handicap to head a field of eight sprint specialists in the $16,400 Brigand Handicap. Facing the likely choice in the 870-yard stakes race are Financial Aid, Valid Request, Fols Bid, La Paint, Poly's Director, Shawne Bug Dancer and Natayo Prospect.

SATURDAY - Ruidoso Downs presents the richest thoroughbred event of the season as Riley Allison Futurity winner Big Bold Boz seeks his third black-type victory in the $141,400 Ruidoso Thoroughbred Futurity.

Sharing the marquee on Saturday is the $65,000 3rd Consolation of the All American Futurity.

SUNDAY - Southwest stakes star Curribot heads the list of nominees for the prestigious Ruidoso Mile Handicap, which offers a guaranteed purse of $50,000. Also nominated for the mile-long test are Jockey Club Handicap winner Forever A Ruler and Flemish Slipper, winner of two stakes events at Ruidoso this summer.

Also carded Sunday is the 2nd Consolation of the All American Futurity. A strong field of 2-year-old quarter horses meet in this 440-yard event, which offers a gross purse of $145,000.

MONDAY - The season is capped with an exceptional program featuring the Ruidoso 550 Championship Handicap, the Countess Blade Handicap, and the 1st Consolation and final of the $2.53 million All American Futurity.

The 1986 renewal of the All American Futurity features one of the most powerful fields in the 28-year history of the Labor Day classic. The owner of the winning horse accepts a certified check for $1 million.

Here's the field for the 1986 All American Futurity in qualifying order: Jet Go Chick, winner of the $100,000 Rainbow Futurity Consolation; Some Power Play, runner-up in the $586,000 Rainbow Futurity; Will Be Easy, winner of the $81,000 Trinity Meadows March Futurity; Sompinlikaglass, winner of the Delta Downs Firecracker Futurity; Ronas Ryon, who captured the $398,000 Kansas Futurity; Rainbow Futurity champion Lil Bit Shiney; Jet OJ, winner of the $87,000 Rocket Bar Futurity; Kansas Futurity runner-up Marthas Six Moons; Bunny Rockette, who accounted for the Early Bird Futurity at Ross Meadows; and Biddy Bye.

Skeen seeks reelection; speaks of airport funds

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

Congressman Joe Skeen, in Ruidoso all day Tuesday, said the prospects for identifying more funding for the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport (SBRA) are "bright."

Skeen, who is seeking his fourth term in the United States House of Representatives, has been influential in getting the regional airport project to its present stage—with land on Fort Stanton mesa and $3.75 million in federal funds allocated so far.

"There's all sorts of funds—but we want to do it the right way," noted Skeen. He said even in today's tough economic climate some funds for key projects can be found.

"The secretary of the Department of Transportation is still very much dedicated and interested," said Skeen.

"We want to get an operational airport in a reasonable time," he added.

"This is still one of the very most dangerous airports in the country," noted Skeen, who has flown in and out of the present facility many times. He operated a flying service in Ruidoso for several years.

A Picacho rancher and lifelong New Mexican, Skeen was only the third person in history elected to Congress on a write-in campaign when he was successful in his 1980 bid to represent the Second Congressional District of New Mexico.

"I love the work I'm doing," said Skeen with a big smile. He wants to continue in that job, and is asking the people of his district to give him that chance.

Skeen was unopposed in the Republican primary, but will have a Democratic challenger, Lieutenant Governor Mike Runnels, in the general election in November.

"I take pride in being accessible to the people I represent," said Skeen. He said he has a great staff that helps him respond to the many individual requests he has from his constituents.

Representing one of the largest and probably the most diverse districts in the nation is a challenge that Skeen feels he has met. He said his district is undergoing severe economic problems that call for mature leadership.

"We were hit hard," noted Skeen of drastic drops in oil and gas prices. He said agriculture in the area is also undergoing tough times.

Skeen advocates a policy that would offer some individual relief by removing "ineffective burdens" such as the windfall profits tax on oil and gas. He said he favors trade policies that are both "open" and "fair."

Another problem Skeen shares with much of the New Mexico delegation is a Texas-New Mexico water suit that threatens to appropriate much of the state's water to repay water that Texas claims has been misappropriated over the years.

"We can't allow them to tap into our water resources," said Skeen. He said he monitors the progress of the water case all the time.

"We'll forfeit our whole future," warned Skeen. He said New Mexico has stayed far ahead of Texas in water conservation, and hopes the court won't allow New Mexico's vital resource to be taken by her neighbor.

Skeen said his subcommittees—the Treasury, the Postal Service and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS)—did very well in budget hearings. He said he was pleased to help get more funds for the IRS to use in collecting unpaid taxes.

He was also proud of getting increased funding for customs officials to help put a stop to illegal drug trafficking at the nation's borders.

"We're losing our greatest national resource—our young people—to drugs," said Skeen. He favors addressing the problem within the U.S., at the borders and at its source in other nations.

Congressman Skeen is a strong proponent of Vice President George Bush's Southwest Initiative drug interdiction. He said such a unified cooperative effort among all law enforcement groups should lessen the serious problem.

"We need an all-out drive to put some stoppers along the U.S.-Mexico border," said Skeen seriously.

Although he was happy with gains in some areas, Skeen said defense "took a pretty bad beating."

Defense spending is of particular interest to New Mexico and to the Second Congressional District, noted Skeen. He favors the President's Strategic Defense Initiative or "Star Wars" as well as other high-tech systems, especially for their possible impact on the economy of New Mexico.

"We have such a high dedication to defense in this state and in my district," remarked Skeen. He said many New Mexico jobs are tied to defense spending.

The 59-year-old congressman said his family has always had an interest in politics. He served 10 years in the New Mexico Senate before making unsuccessful bids for lieutenant governor and governor in the 1970s.

The representative is proud of his 98 percent voting record as a member of the House of Representatives. He said it shows he is committed to representing the views of his district in Washington.

During the current 99th Congress, Skeen said he has been instrumental in obtaining funding for an extensive agriculture research project on plant productivity and water use in the arid region of the Southwest. He said he also fought successfully for an extension of federal grazing fee formulas allowing ranchers to hold down production costs.

Congressman Skeen is a member of the House Committee on Appropriations, and is the ranking minority member of the subcommittees on Treasury, Postal Service and General Government and the Subcommittee on Agriculture. Skeen is vice-chairman of the House Border Caucus.

While in Ruidoso Tuesday the congressman spoke to the Federated Republican Women's Club and the Rotary Club. He conducted a town hall meeting Tuesday evening in Capitan.

representative to the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission (SBAC), reported the SBAC has received $3.75 million in federal funds.

"We don't feel that the $3 million is enough," noted Morris. He said $6.1 million is needed to go to bid on the first phase of the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport. Morris said the commission is counting on the Village of Ruidoso's $2.6 million obligation to make up the difference needed.

"I thought you were expecting $14 million," said Village Councillor Jerry Shaw.

Morris said other sources are being sought, but the $3.75 million allocation is the amount authorized from the Southwest Region of the Federal Aviation Administration.

Councillors approved a revised joint powers agreement authorizing the SBAC to negotiate for a Farmer's Home Administration loan on behalf of the village. Village manager Jim Hine said the Village of Ruidoso cannot borrow funds except through the issuance of revenue bonds.

"They're not going to loan it if there's no way to pay it back," noted Mayor Davis. He said it appears from media reports that "there are at least 300 people who sure as hell don't want a new airport."

Davis was referring to a negative referendum petition that organizers say has 300 signatures of citizens opposing the .50 cent gross receipts tax passed last month by the village council to pay back a loan or bonds to acquire the $2.6 million needed for the airport.

But Alonso disagreed with the mayor, saying some citizens who want the airport favored a smaller, "less painful" tax increase to finance the airport land.

"It needs to be something that is palatable," remarked Alonso.

In other regular business Tuesday, the council:

—Approved a conditional use requested by Terry Lee Houk who plans to open a paddle boat operation across the street from Panorama Golf Course in Ruidoso Springs Subdivision. Approval is contingent upon the State Water Engineer's approval.

—Adopted a resolution providing for participation in federal and state aid that will bring the Parks and Recreation $15,000 in government funds.

—Heard Bobby Bailey, Parks and Recreation director, report on the Eagle Creek Sports Complex. Bailey said the complex was designed on a five-year schedule, and is currently being used by 27 softball teams—nine women's and 18 men's. He said a Labor Day weekend tournament will bring 500 people into town.

—Heard from village engineer Mike Davalos that the Grindstone Canyon Dam is 95 percent complete, and still projected to come in under budget. Davalos said the village can probably begin filling the structure with water in November.

—Approved the mayor's appointment of Jeanie Anderson Morriss as Ruidoso's judge in the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission logo contest after hearing Commissioner Tim Morris's report. Each of the five members of the SBAC will one judge, said Morris.

—Turned down three bids on a standby generator for the Ruidoso Police Department. Hine said the bids came in over the cost estimate.

—Heard Village Councillor William A. "Dub" Holt "throw verbal bouquets" to Newt Page for his work on water studies, Walterine Hughes for beautifying an area of Sudderth Drive near the Stagecoach Motel and Garland and Karen Moore for their work with youth athletic teams.

—Heard Shaw welcome her parents to Ruidoso. Shaw described problems she had with the Lubbock, Texas, city hall. "We're (Ruidoso) not so screwed up," she said.

—Adjourned into executive session to discuss pending litigation.

—After the closed session, the council instructed the village attorney and engineer to pursue replacement for the Hollywood well with a facility with like quality and similar quantities of water. The council action stipulated that all costs of the replacement will be borne by McCarty Construction Company.

Grand jury

Although the petition also asked for a special prosecutor, the State Supreme Court agreed with Judge Parsons' contention that state law had no provisions for making such an appointment.

According to published reports, Parsons helped question 45 people from among 75 called for the panel.

He said a grand jury is not limited to review any one case, and noted that as district judge he may empanel a grand jury at any time.

Parsons said Wednesday he also has called an "ordinary grand jury" to sit for 90 days. District Court Clerk Margo Lindsey said those jurors will appear on September 10 to be qualified.

That group will meet at regular intervals to "inquire generally into the violations of law in Lincoln County," Parsons was reported as saying.

Ruidoso area events continue during fall

The ending of the race season Monday with the running of the All American Futurity certainly won't signal the end of activity in the Ruidoso area as fall approaches.

Autumn brings a full slate of activity to the mountain playground. The thunder of hooves will continue here less than two weeks after the ponies stop running. The Ruidoso Downs Muleskinners' Mule Races, set for mid September, are just the first major event in a long line of activities that includes the motorcycle festival, aspen festival, a square dance jamboree and Wurstfest in October.

Sunday liquor sale question subject of Downs election

After complaints from some restaurant and lounge owners in Ruidoso Downs that they were losing business to Ruidoso restaurant owners because they could not sell hard liquor on Sundays, Village of Ruidoso Downs officials took the steps necessary to conduct a special election to let Downs residents decide the liquor on Sunday issue.

The election will be conducted Friday, August 29, from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Village Council Room (in the Downs municipal building).

After notifying state officials of their intent to conduct a special election on August 29 to decide the alcohol related issue, the trustees conducted a special meeting to discuss the issue with the public in June.

At that time, no one who opposed liquor being available in the Downs on Sunday voiced their opinion to the trustees at their special meeting, but several people were in favor of allowing establishments to serve hard liquor.

If voters grant establishments the right to sell liquor on Sunday, Downs officials said there might be a short waiting period before restaurants and lounges could begin to actually serve liquor to their customers Sundays.

Welcome set for injured jockey Harris

by STEVE STEIN
News Staff Writer

Horseman Roy Browning will fly jockey Steve Harris into Ruidoso Saturday so he can participate in the festivities of the All American Futurity weekend.

Harris was paralyzed from the chest down during a race in Oklahoma earlier in the year.

Browning, owner of the racehorse Heavenly, said Harris would arrive at Ruidoso Municipal Airport at 10 a.m. Saturday, August 30, via Browning's personal plane.

Browning said most of the people associated with Ruidoso Downs Race Track will be at the airport to greet Harris, and he would like the people in the area to give him a rousing welcome as a show of support and friendship.

Browning contacted Ruidoso Mayor Lloyd Davis to ask him to help plan some sort of celebration for Harris at the airport which would include bands, cheerleaders and other organizations.

A benefit will be conducted Saturday for Harris in association with the All American Futurity race Monday, September 1.

Harris will try to attend Saturday through Sunday's races, Sunday night's special All American Futurity party and of course the running of the All American Futurity on Monday.

The Sunday night party, the "Racing Revelry" has historically been put on by Joan Dale and Dee Hubbard to honor the 10 qualifiers to the All American Futurity.

This year, the dinner will be a benefit for Harris as well as honor the qualifiers. Some tickets, at $100 per person, are still for sale. The dinner will be at the Ruidoso Super Select Sales Arena in Glencoe. Tickets may be purchased by calling 653-4244, Dorothy Faye Kimsey at 257-4748, Myrna Rheudasil at 258-4305, or Gerald and Pete Blue at 258-3238.

On Sunday Harris will worship at Community United Methodist Church at 8:30 a.m., and after their main services, at First Christian Church of Ruidoso.

Browning said Harris has been doing well lately.

After Labor Day he will enter the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville as a business education major.

Browning donates 10 percent of every purse that Heavenly earns to aid in Harris' rehabilitation.

He hopes the people in the area will come to the airport Saturday to show Harris they are glad to see him and show they support him in his future choices in life.

Negative success

Village Clerk Leon Eggleston (left) Wednesday accepts a negative referendum petition from petition organizer Al Junge (right). Eggleston said the 34 petition sheets contain 342 signatures, which he'll begin checking against voter registration rolls today. Since only 135 valid signatures are required to call a special election on the .50 cent gross receipts tax increase implemented by the Ruidoso Village Council, both Junge and Eggleston expressed the belief that such an election will be called. Eggleston said voters will probably go to the polls December 22 to decide the tax question.

Welcome back!

Altrusans Janet Goodwin (left) and Conl Foster put finishing touches to a table of fresh fruits and breads during a Wednesday morning breakfast honoring the teachers and employees of the Ruidoso Municipal Schools. Altrusa's teacher appreciation breakfast is an annual event.

THE COUNTRY GOURMET

TRASH

I admit that this is a terrible name for a recipe, but it fits! There are a million variations of this recipe, but I believe that this one is the best. It's chock full of the good things. Party Mix is probably the name you'll recall for something similar that you've tasted or prepared. This recipe evolves quite differently and you won't end up with a lot of the less desirable ingredients left at the bottom of the bowl after everyone has picked out the "goodies."

Trash

2 cups rice chex
2 cups corn chex
2 cups wheat chex
2 cups pecan halves
2 cups pretzels
6 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1 tsp. seasoned salt
4 tsp. worcestershire

Combine first five ingredients in a large bowl and mix. Melt butter and drizzle over ingredients. Sprinkle with seasoned salt and worcestershire sauce; mix thoroughly. Put mixture in a large shallow baking pan. Bake at 250 degrees for 45 minutes, taking out to stir every 10 to 15 minutes. Let cool and store in an large airtight container.

Healthful Hint

When your bunch has the "munchies" this is an excellent alternative to candy bars and chips. Whenever we take a trip I always make this to take along. It's a real family favorite.

Warriors open season against always-tough Bulldogs Friday

by GARY BROWN
News Sports Writer

The defending champions will meet the 1984 champions when the Ruidoso High School varsity football team hosts Artesia in the season opener Friday, August 29.

Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Ruidoso won the 1985 state AAA-division crown and Artesia took the 1984 state title. Last season the Warriors edged Artesia, 14-13, in the season opener at the Bulldogs' field.

"I think the kicking game and turnovers will be the key to the game," said Warrior head coach Cooper Henderson. "I think both teams are a little bit ahead on defense compared to offense."

Henderson has respect for the Bulldogs.

"I think they're better than last year," he remarked. "They're quick and they've got that real good running back (Michael McPherson)."

Ruidoso is healthy for the game except for second-string quarterback-linebacker Rod Wright, who will not be able to play.

The Warriors impressed in a scrimmage with defending AAAA-division champion Clovis last week, particularly on defense.

Jeff Willingham will start at both quarterback and safety for the Warriors. He was second-string quarterback last year, but was an all-state safety.

Other members of the Warriors' starting backfield will include returning starter Billy Harrison at fullback, Bubba Miller at wingback and either Kirk Taylor or Chuck Daniels at tailback. Taylor started at wingback last season.

Jason Hill is the most experienced member of the Warriors' offensive line. Hill, a 6-4, 205-pound senior tackle, started two years ago and played a lot last season.

All-state split end Brian Davis could be Willingham's favorite target. Tight end Bryan Richardson also could catch a lot of passes.

On defense, Willingham, Daniels and Matt Evans won all-district or all-state honors last season.

Daniels will be the starting middle linebacker. The 6-2, 205-pound Evans will be at end.

Artesia head coach T.W. Harvey also thinks the game should be close.

"That old cliche which team has the fewest turnovers would win could apply here," Harvey said. "Our players are always pretty enthusiastic about the season opener, particularly if it's against the defending state champions."

The 6-1, 180-pound McPherson, a junior who played last season, should be the standout of an all-junior Bulldog backfield.

Clay Foster is the quarterback, Louis Gabaldon the fullback and Robert Boyce the wingback.

McPherson will be the kicker and punter for Artesia. Senior Garret Henson will be Ruidoso's place kicker and Willingham will be the punter.

McPherson makes about 75 percent of his extra point attempts, according to Harvey. Henson was the Warriors' place kicker last season and made a 30-yard field goal against Clovis.

Following are the starting lineups for Ruidoso (including weight and class.)

Offense: Quarterback, Willingham, 165, senior; tailback, Taylor, 157, senior, or Daniels, 165, senior; fullback, Harrison, 165, senior; wingback, Miller, 160, senior.

Tight end, Richardson, 160, senior; tackles, Hill, 205, senior, and Gene Mowdy, 230, senior; center, Sean Parker, 165, senior; guards, Eric Eastep, 155, senior, and Carl Bowden, 230, senior.

Defense: Middle linebacker, Daniels; outside linebackers, Dusty Beavers, 185, sophomore, and Jef Sherwood, 160, junior.

Tackles, Shawn Mowdy, 170, junior, and Colby Day, 155, senior; ends, Evans, 205, senior, and Sean Moore, 167, junior; cornerbacks, Alan Kirgan, 148, senior, and Taylor; safeties, Willingham, and Miller or Toby Rue, 130, senior.

Ruidoso High School head football coach Cooper Henderson (foreground) talks to his players this week. Ruidoso opens the season against Artesia Friday night.

Softball

At least six Lincoln County teams will compete in an open softball men's tournament at Eagle Creek Sports Complex Friday through Sunday, August 29-31.

The Beavers Sand & Gravel Crushers, Merchants, Amigos, Scorpians, Ruidoso Bowling Center Nads and the Inn of the Mountain Gods will compete in the tournament. Some other local teams also may compete in the tournament.

A number of non-local teams also will compete in the tournament.

In Lincoln County Men's Softball League play Tuesday night, the Nads gave Roybal Electric its first loss of the season, 13-12. Trevor Giles had five hits for the victors.

Other games saw Roybal Electric top the Cut Above Clippers, 18-2; the Clippers club the Ginks, 20-4; Aspen Pharmacy belt the Scorpians, 25-2; and the Pumas beat the Mountain Pest Control Terminators, 14-6, and outscore Alto Construction, 21-16.

Roybal Electric still leads the Black Division with a 22-1 record. The Pumas are 19-6.

Aspen Pharmacy has a 17-5 record and the Clippers are 18-6.

Around Sports with Gary Brown

Well, it's about to start again.

That season of cool Friday nights, countless picture-taking and stat-taking, and constant decisions on which team to pick.

It's the football season, and it begins Friday, August 29.

The Ruidoso High School varsity football team will open defense of its state AAA-division title with a game against visiting Artesia, the 1984 state champion.

The game figures to be a close one. Ruidoso won last year, 14-13, and the Warrior defense could decide this one.

I look for the Warriors to prevail, 14-8. Artesia has one excellent running back, but has a lot of juniors on its squad, in contrast to the senior-dominated Ruidoso team.

Regardless of the outcome, the game should be one of the best (if not the best) in the opening week of New Mexico prep action.

Capitan also opens its season Friday, hosting a strong Eunice team.

The Tigers are hoping to improve on their 1-9 record of last season. They have some excellent talent, particularly in the backfield with two excellent quarterbacks.

So for the next few months (and possibly longer) local sports fans will get to watch plenty of exciting gridiron action.

★★★★★★★★

Former Warrior all-state quarterback Russell Easter is now the second-string signal caller at New Mexico State University.

The Aggie freshman is playing behind Jim Miller, a former Roswell High School all-state player.

Look for Easter to do well at the Aggie campus.

Former Warrior receiver Mike Smith also is a member of the Aggie squad, so Warrior fans probably be following NMSU quite a bit this season.

The Aggie games will be season-long selections in The Ruidoso News' weekly football contests.

Ruidoso spikers scrimmage Saturday at Portales

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's varsity and junior varsity volleyball teams will participate in a scrimmage in Portales Saturday, August 30.

Competition will start at 9 a.m. and last all day.

The Warriors will compete also with host Portales, Melrose, Roswell and possibly Artesia.

It will be a round-robin scrimmage with each team playing the other at least once.

"I think Portales will be the favorite in the tournament," said Warrior head coach Pixie Arthur. "Our team has looked great in practice except for one day."

Warrior players scheduled to play in the varsity scrimmage include Ashley McIntosh, Lana McClure, Kerry Gladden, Shannon Lee, Dari Stierwalt, Mikki Roller and Hillary Heid.

Warrior junior varsity players will include Ellen Graham, Lori Walker, Stacy Mobley, Ginger Parker, Misty Parker, Kristin Tidmore, Chantel Bowen and Tara Miller.

Walker, Graham, Mobley and the two Parkers may also suit up for the varsity action. They are all juniors.

"I think the junior varsity team has been working really hard," said Warrior assistant coach Jim Hofstad. "They're really looking better than ever before."

Ruidoso will open the regular season Thursday, September 4, at Tularosa. The Warriors will open the home season Saturday, September 6, against Artesia.

McBride shoots 80 to lead in Alto womens' tournament

Joyce McBride has the lead going into the final round of the Alto Ladies' Club Championship Golf Tournament today (Thursday), August 28.

McBride shot an 80 in Tuesday's first round, giving her a five-stroke lead over Joyce Vanlandingham in the championship flight gross competition.

Wednesday's second round was cancelled because of heavy rains.

Kaki Schwettmann was in third place with an 87. Karon Petty, Cindy Carroll and Melba Draper each shot an 89.

Pat Walter carded a 95 to lead the first-flight competition. Helen McDaniel and Jean Riddett each had 96s for a second-place tie.

Ella Clegg has a one-stroke lead in the second flight, with a 104 to Dorothy Burgess's 105. Peggy Wheaton is third with a 107.

In nine-hole competition, Juanita Pipkin is leading with a 53. Phyllis Long is second at 54.

About 35 women are competing in the tournament.

Soccer signups set tonight

Final soccer signups for the under-14, under-12 and under-10 divisions will be from 5 to 6:30 tonight (Thursday), August 28, at White Mountain School.

People also can sign up by calling Dean Hood at 257-5579, or Carolyn Henson at 258-5568.

The Silver Lining

by Daniel Agnew Storm

Summer Look Over Toward Fall

This is being sent to you just before high noon of August twenty seven, and all outside throughout the hills and vales and glens of this Pinon and Cedar land there are only two colors: the grey of the soft, rolling clouds overhead, and the green of every shade and hue shining through the misty rain which is a silvery half-world of its own between earth and sky.

Right here at Stormvale, as I think I said once before, is where the rolling hills give way to the high hills or small mountains. And when you consider the plains of the Pecos Valley, and come on up through the prairies and foothills and mesas; and finally end up at the White Mountain, then this spot here is what you might call the "Half Way Ground", or the beginning of the mountain land.

Oftentimes this is a division point between the seasons — that is sometimes you may look down and see summer still in the land, and look up and see a patch of snow on the mountain, telling you winter has arrived in the high country.

Today you have the feeling that here in the vale you are just between summer and early fall. Although the land is shining green some of the Pinon cones have turned bronze, the acorns are all on the ground under the Oak trees, the gramma grass is beginning to go to seed, the Autumn sunflowers are in full bloom, and down by the riverside, all of a sudden the Box Elder leaves are touched with light Autumn gold.

All night the slow rain has been falling, and now there is nothing outside to tell you that it is almost mid-day. In all directions you can look, South to the high hills and West up the valley especially, you can see the gray and silvery curtains of slow-falling light rain, showing the small mountains beyond all soft and dimly green like something in a dream.

There is a cool breeze drifting steadily out of the North and the early Autumn song of the Pinon Jay comes echoing from his shelter among his trees high on the hillside. The notes are softened as they sound clearly through the falling light rain and drifting mist.

September, you see, has paid us a little early visit here in the latter few days of green and flowery August; and we are in an enchanted little interlude of mingled summer and early fall.

Apple Harvest Begins

In speaking of the orchards, August is the peach month, September the pear month and October the apple month.

A rainy summer, especially slow rains and mist extending over a day or'so, cause the fruit to begin ripening early.

So it is that in Riverside, Picacho, San Patricio and the lower area of Glencoe, the pear harvest is in full swing, and the apple harvesting well begun.

It has long been known that our old friend, the apple, is one of our best friends since way back in time out of mind. Here of late years, the scientists have been proving, point by point, the great health qualities of the apple — bearing out what our forefathers have known and handed down to us.

To be at its best for us, the apple should be fresh. So here we have a great advantage with some of the finest apples to be found anywhere right in our midst.

Years ago there were fifty or one hundred popular varieties of apples nationwide. Locally they have simmered down to five or six: Red Delicious, oldtime Stark's Delicious, Golden Delicious, several kinds of Winesap including Stayman Winesap, Jonathan and Rome Beauty.

Here and there you can find some of the old favorites, notably the Arkansas Black, and Black Twigg. So plan to make a visit to our local apple raising neighbors.

School teachers prepare for next week's opening

The first day of school for students in the Ruidoso Municipal Schools will be Tuesday, September 2, except for Middle School students.

Middle School students will begin classes Friday, September 5, because Ruidoso Middle School teachers will have special in-service training in the "Skills for Adolescence" program Tuesday through Thursday, September 2, 3 and 4.

School begins at 8:30 a.m. for all students.

All parents of students attending Ruidoso High School are invited to meet with principal Tom Hansen at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, August 28, in the public meeting room at Ruidoso High School.

Topics for discussion will include registration procedures, graduation requirements, rules and regulations and policies in general.

Hansen considers the most important part of the evening the question and answer session at which time he will try to answer any parents' questions regarding their children.

Hansen will also introduce Denise Hawthrone, the new counselor at Ruidoso High School and Rosemary Swanson, the new counselor's secretary.

He will also introduce Rhonda Spaulding, the new secretary in the principal's office.

Hansen feels the public should know the people they will have the most contact with at the schools.

The night is for parents only.

September 2-4 teachers at Ruidoso Middle School and other area school faculty will participate in an in-service on "Skills for Adolescence," a program developed to encourage healthy drug-free lifestyles among sixth to eighth-grade students by The Quest National Center in Ohio. The program is underwritten by national and area Lions Clubs. Lions Club members, area school officials and other area substance abuse organizations gathered Tuesday at the middle school to promote the program. Officials from The Quest National Center will conduct the in-service. The middle school will offer the program to students as an elective.

Teachers, administrators and staffmembers in the Ruidoso Municipal Schools met Wednesday at Ruidoso High School for their first in-service of the school year. School begins at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, September 2, for most area students. Ruidoso Middle School students will not begin classes until Friday, September 5, because of a special program being conducted for middle school teachers which deals with life skills for sixth to eighth-grade students.

Ruidoso teachers were guests of honor Monday at a back-to-school party and fashion show presented by Mary Parsons at Mary's Fashions in Jira Plaza. Chamber plans production of 25,000 Ruidoso maps

Members of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors Wednesday were updated on the production of a chamber map of the Ruidoso area, heard committee reports and discussed new business.

The board agreed the map committee should pursue the production of 25,000 Ruidoso maps and that the committee should call for local bids for the map printing. Committee chairman Harvey Foster said the maps would cost approximately $2,200. The maps would be sold to interested area businesses.

New Mexico State Chili Cookoff organizer Paul Crown requested the use of the chamber's public address system and fencing for the event. The chamber granted the request and made a new policy for future requests of chamber facilities. The policy now states that the use of chamber facilities will require a deposit in the amount of the replacement value of the materials. In the past, the policy stated no facilities would be loaned out.

The cookoff, scheduled for October 4, will feature 160 to 175 chili cooks, bluegrass music and great tasting chili, Crown said.

Board members also heard a Presidents Club was formed under the Organizational Development Division. Division Vice President Roy Crocker said the group will work at recruiting new chamber members including non-resident property owners.

The Community Development Division has organized a scholarship program where a Ruidoso High School student will be awarded a college scholarship. The deserving recipient will have proven active involvement in various community activities, division Vice President Becky Durham said.

"We hope this will help get students involved in lots of activities throughout the year," Durham said.

A Ruidoso Press Day has been scheduled for Thursday, September 18, at the Swiss Chalet. Representatives from various Dallas media will conduct a seminar on "how to get your story in the media."

"This has never been done before in the state. I think it's a good opportunity for people to find out how to get their stories out," chamber executive director John Jeffers said.

The chamber's Advertising Committee, in conjunction with the state, is sponsoring the event.

Ruidoso Valley Greeters representative Fran Barton informed the board of the upcoming Ruidoso Centennial Banquet featuring area celebrity waiters and waitresses dressed in turn of the century attire. Entertainment will include performances by The Out of Hand Band, a style show and strolling musicians, Barton said.

The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. at Cree Meadows Country Club Thursday, September 11. Tickets are $16 and are available at the chamber.

Offices close for Labor Day holiday

Ruidoso Village Hall will be closed Monday, September 1, to observe the Labor Day holiday. The Lincoln County Sub-office also will be closed Monday.

Offices will be open for business at 8 a.m. Tuesday, September 2.

To Morgan, nature photos are a snap

by DARRELL J. PEHR
News Editor

From the basics of a Brownie box camera to the sophistication of shooting oryx in the wild with a Nikon camera and 600 millimeter lens, avid amateur photographer Barry Morgan has done it all.

Morgan, who earns his bread and butter as a Fort Stanton pharmacist, says the real icing on the cake for him is his love of photography.

Morgan came to Ruidoso several years ago and worked as a real estate salesperson, then recently made the move to Fort Stanton. His real career roots go way back in pharmacy, he says.

He goes way back in photography, too, especially the photography of nature.

Morgan's eyes brighten as he tells the story of camera-hunting bighorn sheep—patiently crawling in an increasingly smaller circle around a photo-trophy animal—just to get that one good shot.

One achievement he is particularly proud of is an astounding closeup of two prairie dogs. Taken of zoo animals? No way. That shot was made of wild prairie dogs—the kind that scoot underground at the first sign of danger—in the New Mexico desert. The photo, "Just the Two of Us," is currently entered in an international competition sponsored by Nikon.

Morgan's success in shooting nature continued recently on an expedition to capture on film the herds of oryx that roam White Sands Missile Range.

A bout with bureacratic red tape was the first hurdle, but Morgan and his photography cohort Dr. Roger Beechie finally gained permission to enter the range for the shoot. They met a guide at the Tularosa gate the morning of July 21.

It was midday before they spotted an oryx, one of the 600 or so giant tan, white and black antelope descended from a herd of 50 imported to the range from Africa as an experiment in 1963.

Morgan used the automobile top as a base for his camera, and snapped several photographs of the majestic beast browsing less than 100 yards from his position.

The White Sands trip also afforded encounters with tarantulas, feral horses, pronghorn antelope, golden eagles and turkey vultures. Morgan was in his element.

Morgan said photography is a continuous learning process.

"It isn't just snapping the shutter," he said. "I don't care how good you are, you have to have good equipment ... and work from a knowledge of the basics. You have to take the failures to get the successes."

Whatever his newest piece of equipment, or latest project, one thing is for sure. Barry Morgan is going to take some pictures.

"This thing ... it's fun!"

PROFESSIONAL TREE CARE and PEST CONTROL

Spruce Trees are turning at this time and you might have problems with moths or caterpillars. I am sure you know that spruce trees are very valuable in this area and should be checked regularly.

Aphids winter in your spruce trees. Normally they move to fir trees during the summer, but if the tips or new growth on your spruce are turning brown, which a lot are in this area, they need to be sprayed.

If your Pine trees are turning brown this early, it could mean some kind of beetle infestation. If you have Yellow Pines and the limbs are brown, you could have an IPP infestation.

Pine or Pinon needle scale starts on your needles, turning tips brown, causing a lot of shedding. It seems this year needle scale is more prevalent than in previous years.

Pine or Pinon needle scale weakens trees, giving the beetle a chance to enter.

These trees need to be checked regularly, please call us for a Professional Diagnosis.

Friends, Fun & Flexible Hours.

Sure, a job at McDonald's is work. But it's also a chance to meet people, make lots of friends, and take part in McDonald's-sponsored activities. And, while most companies make your schedule to fit their needs, we'll do everything we can to give you hours that are best for you. In addition, we offer:
- Regular Wage Reviews
- ½ Price Meals
- FREE Uniforms

So, if you'd like to put some friends, fun and flexibility into your life, stop into McDonald's. Talk to the store manager and find out more about our openings on the Crew team.

Always, An Equal Opportunity/ Affirmative Action Employer.

Opinion

Editorial

Summer ends this weekend with a fitting crescendo of activities to cap three months of action in Lincoln County.

Everything from the Ruidoso Gun Show, at the old Gibson's, to the Ruidoso Downs Arts and Crafts Fair, at Triple Crown Condominiums, is happening this weekend along with area staples, like fishing, hiking, camping, golf and all the other things one can do during a summer in the pines.

Something for nearly everyone's taste is happening during the Labor Day holiday in the Ruidoso area.

The weekend certainly is highlighted by activity at Ruidoso Downs Race Track, especially this year's running of the $2.53 million All American Futurity Monday afternoon.

So whatever makes you happy, be it guns or horses, a stroll through fair exhibits or a stroll along the Rio Ruidoso, enjoy. It's Lincoln County at its summertime best.—DJP

Inside the Capitol

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—To solve problems, they must first be looked squarely in the eye.

A governor flitting about the country giving speeches or a legislative leader preoccupied with the demands of his own hungry ego doesn't have time for that sort of analysis of the state's needs. Neither does a member of Congress, where the workload appears to grow each year by geometric progression.

Nevertheless, somebody ought to be taking the kind of steady, frank and extremely close look at what New Mexico's problems are that may, with the application of a little wisdom, lead to some solutions to them.

That's what that new organization called New Mexico First, started at the behest of our two United States Senators, plans to do.

If, as an individual, you'd like to be part of the group, annual dues will hit you for $50. Corporations may contribute to the good work up to a maximum of $2,000, but they can't be full members; only individual New Mexico citizens can. The 21-person group doing the start-up work hopes to interest 1,000 to 1,500 citizens in signing up.

"New Mexico is so diverse," one of those initiating members said, "that unless we get large numbers of our people involved, we won't have the mix of ethnic, economic and geographical backgrounds that such an organization requires."

In response to criticism that the organizing members were heavily weighted with Albuquerqueans, this person replied, "Everybody has to come from somewhere. But these folks were just chosen by Senators Bingaman and Domenici to be the drumbeaters. They aren't either the stockholders or the board of directors of the corporation; all they are expected to do is organize things. After that's done, the membership will select its own officers and choose its own directions."

Certain points have had to be agreed upon in advance. For instance, if it is to work at all, the group has to be rigorously nonpolitical and totally nonpartisan. It has to operate, unfettered, at the intellectual level—that is, it can't even lobby as an organization for any of the proposals it puts forth to be turned into law. Defining the exact nature and scope of the state's problems, and then suggesting optional solutions to them has to be its only aim.

The title of the group tells the story: New Mexico has to be the first consideration of all those who participate, not any partisan or personal gain.

The group doesn't want to start by reinventing the wheel. "We know certain places, particularly our universities, have much information of the kind we will need," its proponents say. "We just want to bring that information together and put it to more use."

Present plans call for the organization, once rolling, to take up two issues a year. That, it is felt, should give time for the kind of in-depth analysis that will be required if such an "academy" of thought about government is to function profitably.

As everywhere these days, heavy bucks will be required. The initiating members, led by Bing Grady, of Sunwest Bank in Albuquerque, hope to have $100,000 in the treasury with which to begin operations.

At least two things are necessary to make this whole proposal work. One is, obviously, membership by a sufficiently diverse group of New Mexicans committed to what the organization plans to do. Those who join things only for the pleasure of reading their names on the letterhead should not bother to apply. The second requirement may be tougher to come by. It's for people who will pursue the truth wherever it is to be found, without looking to shape it to anyone's benefit.

That latter quality is a rare one. Politician, businessperson or housewife, we are all motivated principally by self-interest. It takes a particular, almost monastic act of will to make us lay aside our search for personal benefit (if not for ourselves, for some business or group to which we belong) and act in a totally scholarly fashion. If New Mexico First is to do what it plans to do, lots of New Mexicans will have to do that.

There's no doubt about the need for serious study of the very subjects this group will take up. If it succeeds, all of us will benefit.

Reporter's Round

By Steve Stein

With all the recent sightings of bears in the Ruidoso area, our editorial staff has bear fever.

At one time or another each of us has been hiding in bushes, dropping honey near trash cans and dousing our bodies with gallons of synthetic uni-sex bear aphrodisiacs.

Each of us secretly longs to hear the roar of the newsroom crowds as a unique photograph of an actual bear comes to the light of the darkroom day, or the best spot on the front page of "THE RUIDOSO NEWS."

With merely a traditional compact or mid-size vehicle, our intern, Dr. Shari Lewis, sacrificed her car, insurance policy and medical career to drive up and down and all around the hills and mountains of the area in hopes of snapping the golden trophy—the bear photograph that may one day lead her to the halls of "The New York Times."

And even though she tore through the forest in the spirit of her great, great, great Uncle, the great, great, great explorer-Miriam Lewis, of the famed Lewis and Clark expedition, it was all for naught.

I am not an honest person like our intern, and I tried to doctor up a picture of a Saint Bernard to look like a bear in hopes of pleasing our readers, but my hoax was discovered.

Oh, and we have heard so many tales of sightings of bears. Oh, the woe of it all!

But not one bear has been seen by a single reporter on our staff.

However, I am reminded of one of my favorite bear stories that concerns my Uncle Joe of Omaha.

Old Omaha Joe.

Now Omaha Joe is a bit on the rich side. And among the many things he owns, is a television production company that produces wrestling shows in the Midwest.

About 10 years ago when Joe was 65, he invited me to Omaha for a visit.

He had set up a big night of wrestling at the Omaha Arena and Cow Palace. My 65-year-old, deaf uncle, who had already had a couple of strokes, had planned to wrestle a huge grizzly before Omaha's most refined audience.

Old Uncle Joe made his fortune manufacturing vitamins, and it seemed he had a scheme to sell even more.

"See Steve, if a 65-year-old man can wrestle and defeat a gigantic grizzly bear, people will figure it is because I use my own vitamins. Now that is good marketing, don't you think?" he said.

I went to "bear" rehearsals to keep an eye out on my uncle—but things actually went ok.

This Hungarian bear trainer, who spoke no English, assured my uncle he had the bear in check at all times. I guess my uncle read lips in Hungarian.

Later that evening a limo came to my uncle's house to take us to the big match.

It came equipped with two attractive, but kind of muscular lady wrestlers, our dates for the night.

When we got to the arena I got nervous for my uncle.

I found out my uncle was the main event!

There he was, a 65-year-old man with little blue bikini briefs, a sweatshirt that said the name of his vitamin company, and a grizzly bear with a muzzle.

I was in the audience with the lovely "Tiger" Schwartz and the tempting "Wild Claws" Laverne.

The match started—but things did not seem to go like they did in rehearsal.

The male bear (female bears are too vicious to be good actors) pinned my uncle immediately and kept licking him all over his face.

I began to panic when I noticed the Hungarian seemed to be panicking.

He jumped into the ring and kept hitting the bear on the nose, but he couldn't get him off my uncle, to the jeering delight of the audience.

Finally, a crew of Omaha firefighters drove their fire truck through the huge arena doors, spread out their mechanical crane, slipped a kind of a truss around the bear's middle, hoisted the bear a few feet into the air and then pulled my uncle away from the bear.

The Hungarian said the bear had been neutered and was obviously attracted to my uncle's cologne.

That happy bear had fallen in love—and left my uncle with a set of bruised ribs.

It made the papers folks, it made the papers.

With that bear story I must write my swan song and say goodbye to Ruidoso.

On Friday I leave for parts unknown.

I would especially like to thank Ken and Mary Green for running one of the finest newspapers in the state.

I would also like to thank Darrell Pehr for all his patience and guidance. The area is lucky to have a young, talented professional as the editor of a first class bi-weekly. I envy the career he has ahead of him.

Of course it was a pleasure and a learning experience to work with an award-winning reporter and photographer like Frankie Jarrell. Believe me—her goal is to give 100 percent all the time to keep area readers informed.

And who could forget Gary Brown? You have to meet him to enjoy him. He has won so many awards for sports writing in his five years at the paper, the New Mexico Press Association puts his name in first place before the contest even begins.

Our intern, Shari Lewis, whom I teased earlier in the column, is about to return to Albuquerque to pursue a promising career and hopefully a life of happiness.

Many of the beautiful photos of sylvan scenes she took this summer are on display in the visitors center at the Smokey Bear Ranger Station.

I'll miss Linda Ponder and all her stories of the Capitan Range. Of all the stories on the McSween Dig that were written by area reporters, Ponder's were the most informative.

To all the other staff members at The News, I say thanks for all the fun and friendliness.

Well, as they say in Hawaii, see you at the races.

Letters to the editor

DEAR EDITOR:

Concerning Mrs. Compton's letter, I would like to ask a few questions which have been overlooked by her and the American branch of the "Free South Africa" crusaders.

Mrs. Compton, have you ever been to South Africa? I spent some time living there under apartheid. I didn't like it then and I don't now. But the system is too deeply ingrained in society to permit the rapid change other countries are attempting to force upon South Africa. You state that if we adhered to my logic, women would have never received the right to vote, the slaves their freedom, nor Hitler stopped. Mrs. Compton, women's suffrage and the abolition of slavery were strictly American internal affairs and as such were not the business of any other country. Hitler did not remain a German internal affair, but was spreading Naziism and had to be stopped. We did so by stopping the Axis powers of which he was a member and only after Germany declared war on America. Apartheid is not spreading, Mrs. Compton, and is strictly a South African internal affair.

Has any of the rhetoric being flung down from capital hill included a workable alternate plan to come into play when apartheid is abolished? I've heard of none.

Has Desmond Tutu, the Mandelas, or any of their followers presented a plan for government to replace the present one? A plan that will ensure a more prosperous, stable and fairer South Africa? I know of none.

The Zulus, who are the majority nation in South Africa, are comprised of 16 different dialects. These have been feuding among themselves for generations. They can't get along with each other, and shall we now hand them South Africa?

Mrs. Compton, have you noticed how reports from South Africa merely state that a particular number of Blacks have been killed and then continue on with the next item? The reason for that is that Blacks are being killed by other Blacks. Why should we think that the killing will stop when the Blacks gain power?

As for not being able to prove life begins at conception I ask, What does then, death? It must be one or the other.

Concerning AIDS, perhaps we'd better ask the "gay" community how it began and spread. They obviously have some idea as they are discouraging promiscuous sex and the intake of bodily fluids. No matter how one tries to blur the issue by spreading the blame, it remains that AIDS began and remains predominantly in the male homosexual community.

Mrs. Compton finds "the general intolerance" of my letter "both confusing and frightening." On my part, I find the ideas of a woman who claims to be a Christian and is so apparently tolerant of abortion-on-demand and deviate sexual behavior both confusing and frightening.

TOM KENYON

DEAR EDITOR:

Your subscribers have read Pat Hume's version of all my alleged misquotes in The El Paso Times. Now I would like to set the record straight.

Hume states as fact that I misquoted judges Grisham, Doughty and Parsons in a story on the McKnight case, and that they all wrote me demanding corrections. Judge Parsons never did. And The Ruidoso News never reported that Parsons was misquoted, as Hume claims.

I ask you, Mrs. Hume, how could Judge Grisham have been misquoted in the story, when she never was quoted? The story referred only to her ruling on a special prosecutor. If Hume were interested in accuracy, she could have compared the story to the actual order (which was printed verbatim in The Ruidoso News) and found that references to the order were correct.

Because of the concerns of Grisham and Doughty, we did print a correction to further clarify the order and to correct an error in a comment attributed to Doughty. Yes, I did make a mistake and admitted it publicly. So much for Hume's charge that "Sheppard stands by his opinion of what he thinks (the judges) meant."

Hume also states as fact that I misquoted Don Samuels before the primary and later refused to correct the statement. She claims I told Samuels that I sometimes write what I think a source "meant" in a statement, and not what the source said. Hogwash! Why would I tell Samuels something that absurd, when the story accurately quoted him?

Samuels did indeed ask for a correction, but he was denied by my editors. Why? Because the story was accurate. Samuels did say in the interview he would bring professionalism and honesty to the sheriff's office. I then asked him if he thought the current office lacked those qualities, and he said yes. For Hume's information, I can prove it in my notes. If Samuels was distressed reading the statement, he should never have said it.

It seems to me, that Hume should start holding herself up to the same standards of accuracy that she rightfully demands of the media. Her failure to base her letter on easily discernible facts represents irresponsible "opinion" writing at its worst.

Sincerely,
DAVID SHEPPARD

Brigand Handicap kicks off weekend of holiday action

Ruidoso Downs kicks off the holiday weekend on Friday with the $16,400 Brigand Handicap highlighting a 12-race program that gets under way at 1 p.m.

Racing Secretary Harold Payne has assigned top weight of 121 pounds to Gene Hensley Handicap winner Short Shrift for the Brigand, which features a field of eight sprint specialists at a distance of 870 yards. Facing off against the stakes winner are Financial Aid (119), Valid Request (118), Fols Bid (117), La Paint (116), Poly's Director (116), Shawne Bug Dancer (116) and Natayo Prospect (114).

Short Shrift loads into the No. 4 post position for Friday's Brigand Handicap with veteran rider Luke Myles at the reins. The 7-year-old son of Sold Short has finished no worse than second in three appearances under Myles' able guidance. He steered Short Shrift to a first and second over allowance horses in two starts last month, before taking home an $8,550 winner's check in the Gene Hensley Handicap on Aug. 16 aboard the Oklahoma-bred.

Short Shrift was dismissed at more than 9-1 odds in the Gene Hensley breaking from the disadvantageous nine hole. Myles left the sprinter running room racing just off the lead to make a strong bid in the final furlong. He won the 870-yard test by a half-length in a good time of :45.52.

Short Shrift will be going up against five of the contenders he faced in the Gene Hensley in Friday's Brigand Handicap. His biggest challenge could come from Financial Aid, who finished a close second to him in the Gene Hensley.

Laboring for Labor Day

The 28th running of the $2.53 million All American Futurity—the world's richest quarter horse race—will be contested on Labor Day at Ruidoso Downs featuring what industry observers say is the most powerful field of 2-year-olds ever assembled for the prestigious event. More than 100 horses faced off in final time trials for the All American Futurity last week at the mountain track, with the 10 fastest contenders over the quarter-mile course advancing to the Labor Day Classic, which makes its winner an instant millionaire. Pictured at the top are jockey Rudy Bustamante and Jet Go Chick after stepping off the top qualifying time (21.470) for the Grade I stakes race. In the bottom photo, rider Jeff Williams pilots Rainbow Futurity winner Lil Bit Shiney to an impressive qualifying run for the All American Futurity even though facing a strong headwind.

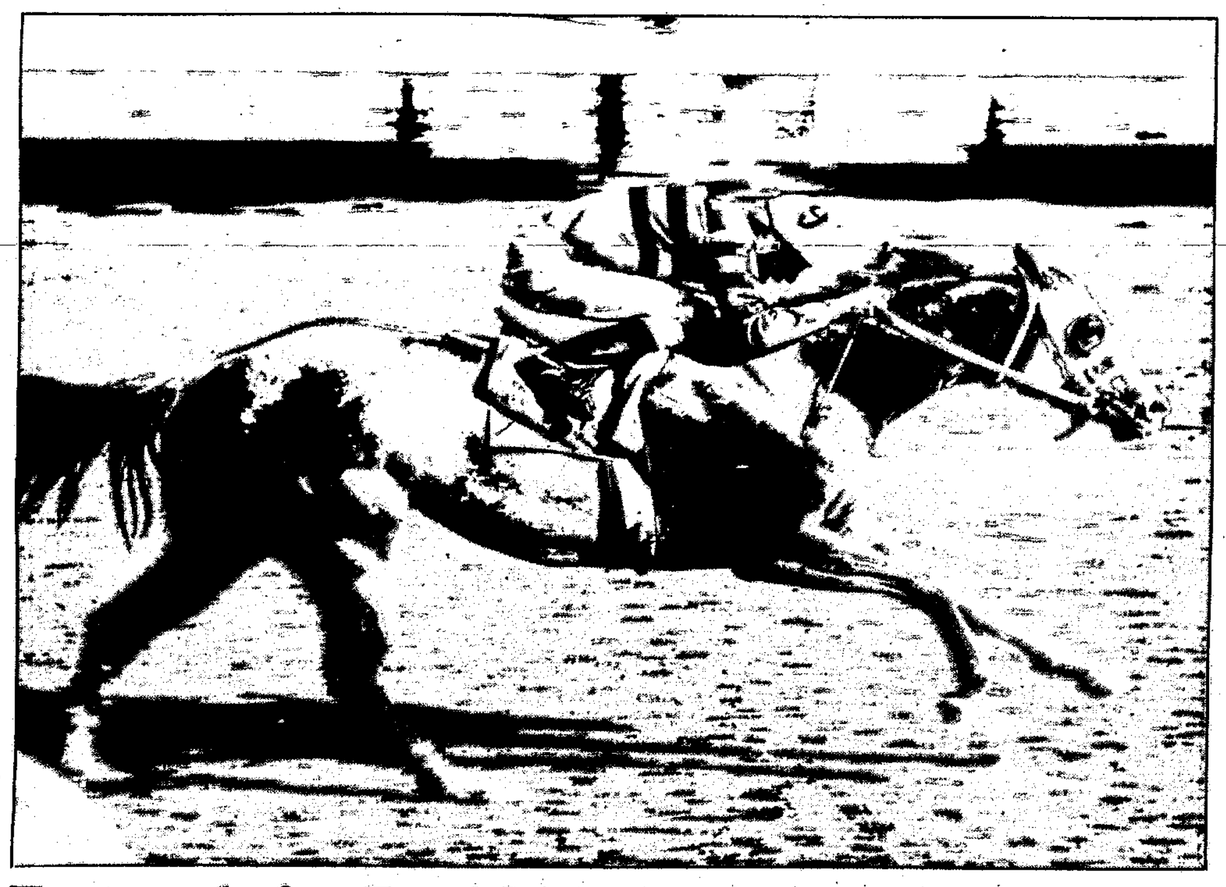
California 'Gold

West Coast rider James Lackey takes Digging For Gold to the winner's circle after mining the field for a first place victory in Saturday's running of the $160,931 All American Derby 1st Consolation at Ruidoso Downs. It was the first of two wins for world class trainer Blane Schvaneveldt. Digging For Gold took home $24,250 for owner Ray Hoover of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.



Fast cash for Rapid Dash

West Coast invader Rapid Dash and jockey James Lackey post a two-length romp in the $83,773 2nd Consolation of the All American Derby August 22 at Ruidoso Downs. The daughter of two-time World Champion Dash For Cash earned a winner's check of $11,109 for owners Bob Payne and Dick Copeland of Marietta, Oklahoma. Blane Schvaneveldt, the No. 1 trainer in the nation, tightened the girth on Rapid Dash. It was the filly's first big-money stakes purse. Sparkling Sands finished second under rider Rudy Bustamante. Pancho Native, who was piloted by Tim Williams, was another head back for third.

Handle Hotline

The current handle at Ruidoso Downs, after 62 race days and 753 races, is $27,409,788. The current daily wagering average is $442,093 with current wagering per race at $36,401. At the same time last year, after 65 race days and 785 races, the total handle was $29,498,286. The wagering average at this time last year was $453,820 with average per race wagering at this point last year $37,577. The daily wagering average is down 2.58 percent and the wagering per race is down 3.13 percent when compared to last year at this time. Average attendance at the track is down 1.69 percent below that of last year.

Track Talk

The field was set for the richest quarter horse race in the world Wednesday when 107 juvenile sprinters faced the track's electronic timer to determine the 10 fastest horses to compete in the $2.53 million All American Futurity to be run on Labor Day.

Here's the field in qualifying order: Jet Go Chick, 21.470; Some Power Play 21.480; Will Be Easy, 21.565; Sompinlikaglass 21.565; Ronas Ryon, 21.600; Lil Bit Shiney, 21.605; Jet OJ, 21.625; Marthas Six Moons, 21.625; Bunny Rockette, 21.675; and Biddy Bye, 21.685.

Seven owners elected to pay the $50,000 supplemental nomination fee to enter their horses in the All American trials and six of the seven came away qualifying. Jet Go Chick, Some Power Play, Ronas Ryon, Lil Bit Shiney, Jet OJ, and Marthas Six Moons forked over the fifty-grand late penalty payment and the gamble payed off. Only Rainbow Futurity finalist Solid Policy missed the finals, qualifying for the $65,000 third consolation.

Jockey Jerry Nicodemus was the only rider to qualify more than one horse for this year's futurity. The two-time All American winner was aboard Ronas Ryon, Will Be Easy and Bunny Rockette in their qualifying efforts. The legendary rider will most likely take Ronas Ryon to ride back in the finals with Danny Cardoza in the saddle on Will Be Easy. It is not known who will handle Bunny Rockette.

Lil Bit Shiney was perhaps the most impressive of the trial contestants. The recent Rainbow Futurity champ faced the only headwind of the day (while the other trials had a tailwind), stumbled at the start and got a good bump at the gate and came on very impressively to qualify under Jeff Williams.

All-time leading quarter horse conditioner Blane Schvaneveldt went two-for-two over the weekend as his charges won both of the All American Derby Consolations. On Friday, it was Rapid Dash setting the pace in the 2nd Consolation and Saturday's 1st Consolation had Digging For Gold in the winner's circle. James Lackey was up on both scores.

The 25th edition of the All American Select Quarter Horse Yearling Sale concluded four sessions Aug. 23 with the filly Six Spanish Angels (Six Fols - Hempen's Ballerina, by Hempen) bringing the top price of $55,000. The yearling was consigned by Blakeman Farms of Fort Worth, Texas. She was purchased by James T. Lewter, of Clovis.

Once again, this year's All American Futurity will be simulcast to other race tracks. This year both Blue Ribbon Downs in Oklahoma and the newest quarter horse track in the country, Canterberry Downs in Minnesota, will also bet on the Labor Day Classic. At press time, Hollywood Park was still a possibility for the broadcast.

Last year's $50,000 Ruidoso Mile winner, Energetic King, will again be one of the contestants in this year's renewal of the stakes race, according to Racing Secretary Harold Payne. In last year's route, Energetic King broke Cutarusty's 12 year-old track record rewriting the record books while stopping the clock in 1:38 4 and winning by over 5 ½ lengths.

Field set last Wednesday for 'All-American' Labor Day

A powerful field emerged for the 28th running of the $2.53 million All American Futurity following time trials for the prestigious race Wednesday at Ruidoso Downs.

The afternoon program spotlighted the 108 survivors from first-round eliminations going against the clock. The 10 horses posting the fastest times advanced to the Labor Day classic, which traditionally closes out the season at the mountain track. Billed as the world's richest quarter horse race, the winner of the All American Futurity earns $1 million.

The owners of seven horses who raced in Wednesday's time trials each paid a $50,000 late penalty to make them eligible for the All American Futurity. Six of those contenders won their heats to qualify for the Grade I race.

Jet Go Chick turned in the top qualifying time, stepping off the 440-yard course in 21.47 seconds under rider Rudy 'Bustamante. Owner George Houser of El Paso wrote the $50,000 check on the Chicks Go Man filly after her decisive victory in the $100,000 consolation of the Rainbow Futurity last month. She's conditioned by Johnny Bustamante, Rudy's father.

Some Power Play, second-place finisher in the $586,000 Rainbow Futurity, grabbed the No. 2 berth in the All American with a 21.48 clocking. Jacky Martin had the riding assignment for trainer Jack Brooks, who will be seeking his fourth million-dollar winner's purse. Some Power Play is owned by a partnership of Oklahoma breeder Melvin Hatley, leading thoroughbred trainer D. Wayne Lucas and Eugene Klein, former owner of the San Diego Chargers.

Ronas Ryon made short work of his division, drawing out to a 3-length margin under Jerry Nicodemus in 21.60 seconds. The Windy Ryon colt accounted for the $397,000 Kansas Futurity at Ruidoso Downs this summer for trainer Arnold Simmons Jr. He's owned by Ben Benham and James Plummer of Anthony, Florida.

Not many horses garner the confidence of handicappers as did Lil Bit Shiney in Wednesday's final All American division. A crowd of 3,600 fans backed this summer's Rainbow Futurity winner down to the 1-9 choice and watched talented rider Jeff Williams steer the colt to a 1 ½-length victory. The final time was 21.605 into the stiffest headwind of the day. Trainer Hugh Tucker is looking for his first All American trophy with Lil Bit Shiney, who is owned by Shelley and Lodie Stapleton of Bellaire, Texas.

Jet OJ, the Easy Jet colt who won a division of the Twin Futurity at La Mesa Park the weekend before the opening round of trials for the All American, went wire-to-wire on Wednesday to post the seventh-fastest clocking of 21.625. Barbara Waters is the regular rider for trainer Lee Jones. Jet OJ flies the colors of James Wells of Iowa Park, Texas.

Marthas Six Moons, the last of the $50,000 supplements, earned the eighth-fastest time when Larry Layton steered the Six Fols colt over the quarter-mile course in 21.625. Robert Dimmitt saddled the colt to a second-place finish in the Kansas Futurity earlier this summer. He's the property of Donald Jackson and Sam Tyra of Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Trainer Charles Cascio qualified Will Be Easy and Sompinlikaglass with seconds in Wednesday's trials. Will Be Easy, fastest qualifier to the Kindergarten Futurity at Los Alamitos Race Course, finished three-quarter lengths behind top qualifier Jet Go Chick. Nicodemus rode the filly for owner Kenneth Keeling of Huntsville, Texas.

Sompinlikaglass, winner of the Firecracker Futurity at Delta Downs, trailed No. 2 qualifier Some Power Play by the same distance with Bruce Pilkenton aboard. Sompinlikaglass is owned by Louisianna Senator J.E. Jumonville Jr.

Bunny Rockette made the final field with a runner-up finish to Marthas Six Moons. Nicodemus piloted the Sail On Bunny filly for trainer J. Rodney Reed. She's owned by Mark and Wilford Miller of Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

The final berth for the All American was taken by Biddy Bye, a Roy Marcom trainee ridden by Nicky Wilson. Biddy Bye took the bottom qualifying time of 21.685.

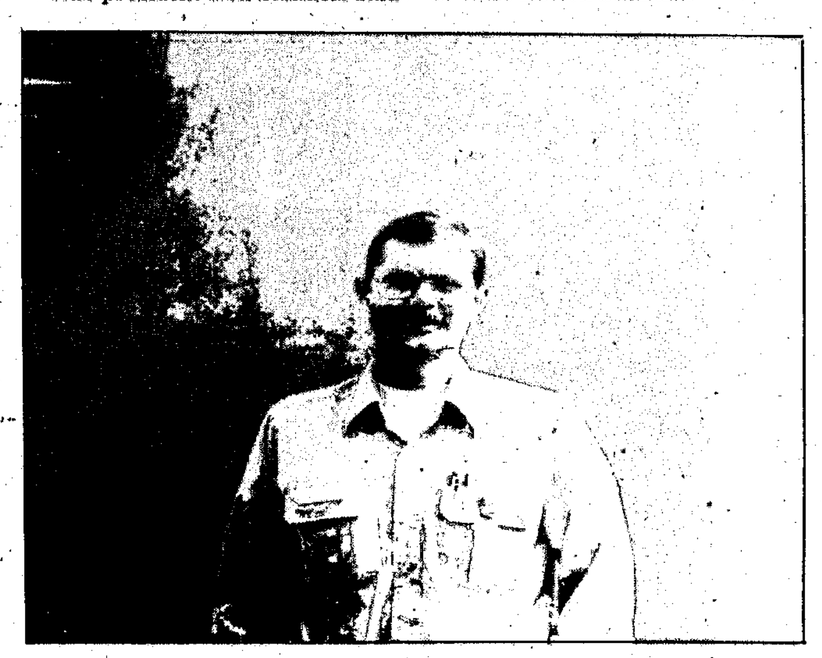
Booster Club says 'Wear blue and gold!'

The Ruidoso High School Booster Club is encouraging all those attending Ruidoso Warrior games this year to wear blue and gold in a show of support.

Club president Don Samuels said the club hopes a trend of blue and gold spirit starts with this Friday's varsity football game with Artesia.

That contest begins at 7:30 p.m. at W.D. Horton Stadium.



RANDY RUSSELL

Range Officer Russell receives promotion

Randy Russell, a range conservationist for the Smokey Bear Ranger District, was recently promoted to district range staff officer.

He has been acting range staff officer since January, when former staff officer Larry Anklam retired.

Russell's responsibilities concern wildlife and watershed management.

Russell has been an employee for the U.S. Forest Service since 1972, when he was hired as a temporary employee on the San Juan National Forest near Durango, Colorado.

He has also served the Forest Service in Payson, Arizona, and the Tonto Basin also located in Arizona.

Russell and his wife, Debbie, have been residents of Ruidoso for more than five years and have a one-year-old daughter, Morgan Lee.

Library closes for weekend

The Ruidoso Public Library will be closed Saturday, August 30, through Monday, September 1, for the Labor Day holiday.

The library will reopen Tuesday, September 2.

The library will resume its regular hours, which are Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturday 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The library is closed Sunday.

Running scared

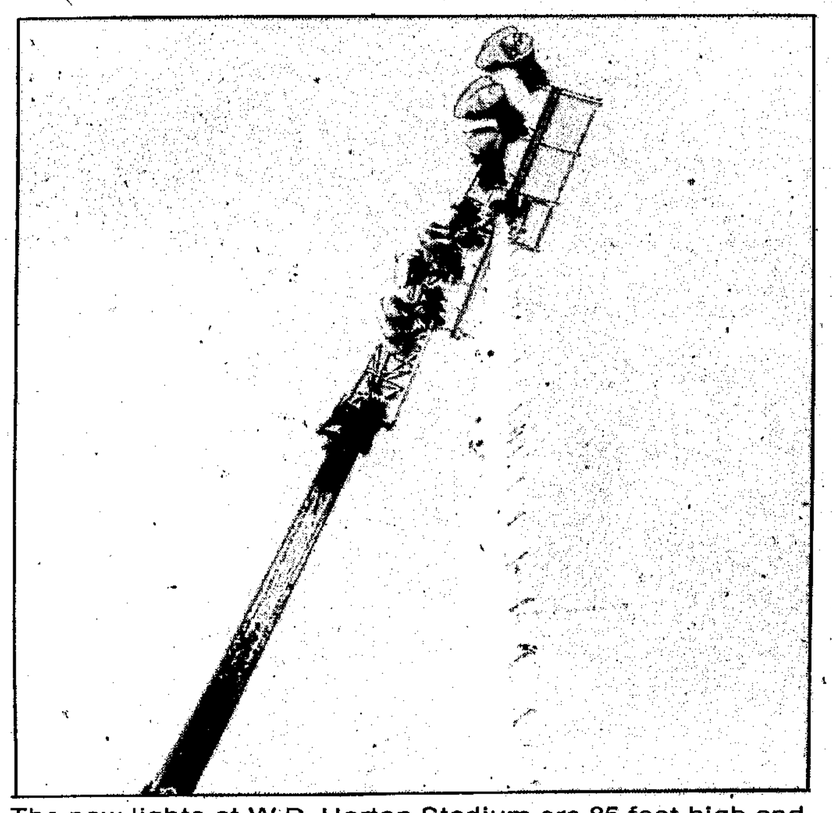
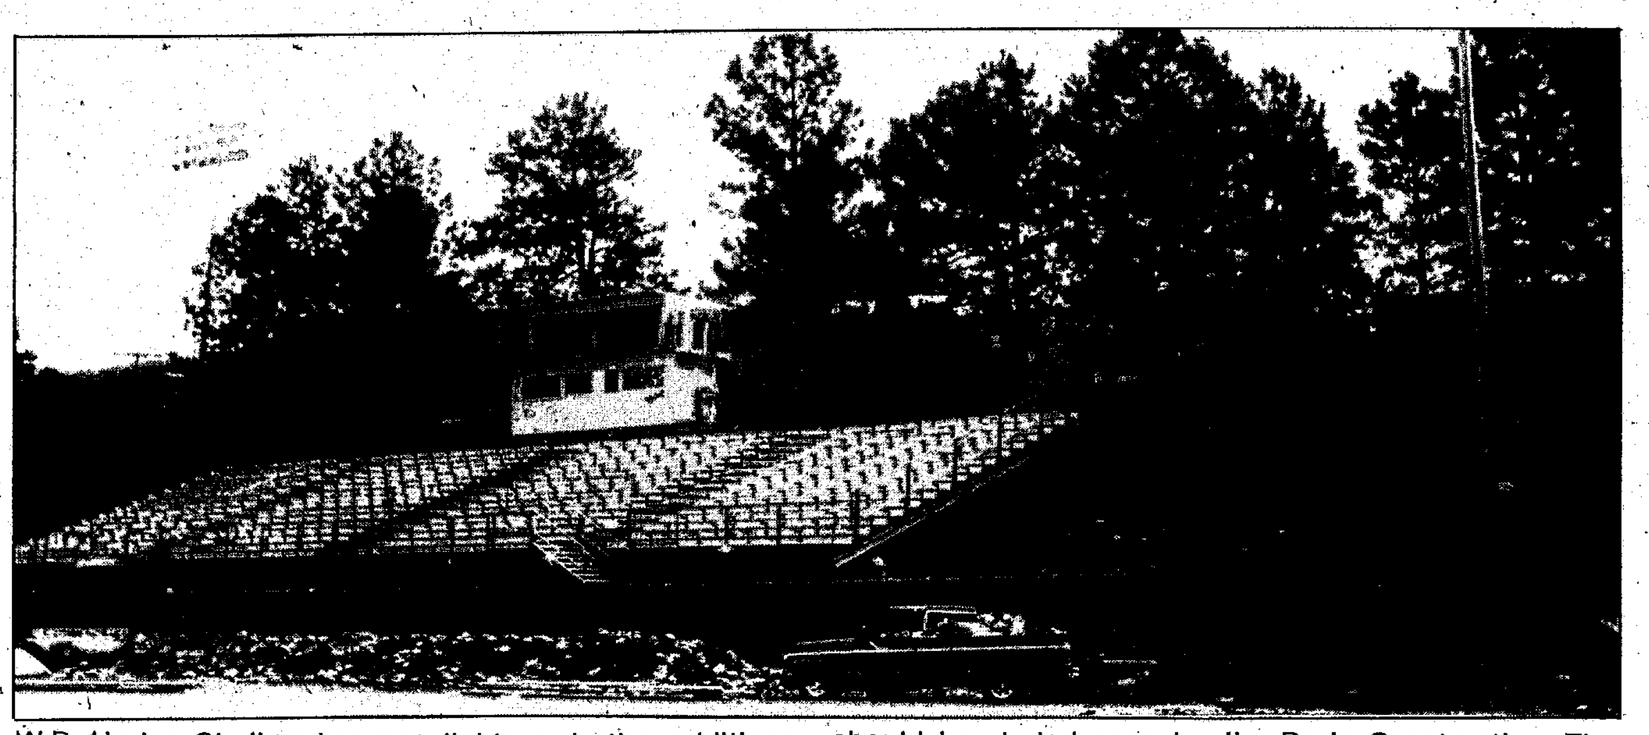
W.D. Horton Stadium will have a new look this fall



The new lights at W.D. Horton Stadium are 85 feet high and have much more power than the old ones. The lights and new scoreboard were installed by Dial Electric of Ruidoso.



W.D. Horton Stadium has new lights and other additions this season. Construction of additional home-side seats should be started soon by Jim Davis Construction. The football season starts Friday, August 29.

The visitors' side of W.D. Horton Stadium will have more seats this season. The present seats also are being remodeled. Pioneer Western Construction is doing the work on the visitors' seats.

Cajun affair

We're Serious About Power Line Safety

Power lines are essential to deliver the electric service that makes possible most of the conveniences we take for granted. Texas-New Mexico Power Company takes great care to construct each power line safely, but these safety measures alone can't prevent accidents. Here are some important rules to remember about power lines.

When working around your home or business, be certain to avoid any contact with power lines...always take extra care when using ladders or tree pruning equipment. When at the lake, be sure to keep sailboat masts away from power lines. Overhead and underground power lines are constructed to be safe, but it is up to you to treat them with respect and avoid them at all times. Remember, electricity is your safest power choice, but contact with power lines can result in serious shock. We're here to help with information about power line safety. Contact us today.

Signs of the past in White Oaks

The Gumm House (above), built in the 1890s, is a landmark in the tiny town of White Oaks. The house attests to the town's once booming population, and long ago claims of having the potential of becoming the largest city in New Mexico. Open cisterns dot the landscape surrounding the town, other scenes of past activity. Lincoln County Lodgers' Tax Committee member Bob Finley (left) and Soil Conservation Service officer Richard Ramsey discuss the cistern during a recent visit of the committee to White Oaks. Downs Trustees to study drainage

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

The Ruidoso Downs Board of Trustees Monday discussed drainage but delayed adopting a plan to solve the village-wide problem until a full-scale drainage study is complete.

"We've got a drainage problem all over town," said Mayor Jake Harris, who predicts it will get worse as the municipality completes more paving projects.

Trustee Conrad Buchanan agreed, but reminded the group that application has been made for a $25,000 grant for a city-wide drainage study.

"I think we better look at an overall plan instead of doing it piecemeal," said Trustee J.L. Wilson. Trustees agreed to put off any construction or redesign until the results of a complete study are available.

Discussions were in response to a report by village engineer Barrett Atkins of Roswell on his review of a citizen's complaint. Joe Wheatley recently blamed the village for flooding problems at his residence.

Atkins said the best solution he could propose would cost $8,000 to $10,000.

"It's quite involved," noted Atkins in recommending a 1,200-foot ditch be widened to handle heavy waters. Barrett agreed with the trustees' decision to hold off until after the drainage study.

Trustees also decided to ask the State Highway Engineer in Roswell to help correct the drainage problems where Wheatley's land is adjacent to State Highway 70.

"Mr. Wheatley knew very well what he was getting into when he moved in there," remarked Buchanan. He introduced Jim Hunt of Muleshoe, Texas, the owner of the property, and said Hunt already has spent about $2,000 to alleviate water problems on the land.

"Mr. Wheatley asked to move onto that property knowing it's a flood area," noted Buchanan, adding the problem was apparently used by Wheatley to bargain for cheaper rent.

Trustees unanimously approved a consent agenda including accounts payable items and the resignation of communications detention officer (CDO) Janet Willis and the hiring of CDO Danny Feuerstein.

However, they questioned several payments, including an invoice for computer-generated utility statements. Finance officer Dana Cary explained the large payment was for an order placed during the term of former Mayor J.C. Day, but received after Mayor Harris took office.

In a telephone conversation Tuesday, Cary said the village purchased 11,500 forms, or about a year's supply, for the invoice total of $2,372.05. During the meeting trustees asked Cary to compare prices to see if the forms could be acquired at a lesser cost.

In other regular business Monday, the board:

—Was thanked by the Ruidoso Downs Ladies' Auxiliary for providing a meeting place. The auxiliary also sent thanks to all who helped clean the Triple Crown Condominiums grounds that will be used for an Arts and Crafts Fair this weekend.

—Adopted a resolution transferring $50,000 from the general fund to the Street Department, after wondering if the act is a repeat of an earlier transfer. Mayor Harris said the funds previously were invested in a certificate of deposit (CD) which was subsequently cashed and placed in the general fund. He said Monday's action was to get them into the account where they can be spent.

—Opened bids on purchasing two village vehicles advertised for sale, but failed to act on the bids. Offers on a 1974 Ford 4x4 truck included:

-Raymond Montano—$281
-R.A. Villanova—$252
-Melvin Means—$216

Bids received on a 1978 Plymouth included:

-Albert Montes—$256
-Joe Almadges—$210

—Adjourned into executive session regarding acquisitions and litigation.

Helping hands...

Smoke in the hills

Smoke could be seen throughout the area last week as Ruidoso Downs resident Ronnie Reed burned away some stumps from his property located in the upper hills of the Downs off DiPaolo Hill Road. Area officials granted him a permit to burn debris as part of the landscaping project for a house Reed plans to build high in the hills of the Downs.

Women professionals in community are achievers

SUSAN MILLER

Susan Miller

In an area where making ends meet depends heavily on investors, tourists, weather conditions and oil prices, one can surmise that it is a difficult task to become successful in the business and professional fields.

The task gets more troublesome when you add tough competition, slumping oil revenues and few tourists.

Five area women have proven success is possible through hard work, determination and dedication.

Real estate broker Susan Miller, 46, of Susan and Associates Inc., began her professional career as a school teacher. She became involved in real estate, after 19 years of teaching, on a dare.

"Dave Parks (of Perteet-Parks & Associates, Inc.) dared me to try it. He thought I would do well in real estate," Miller said.

Although it was a hard decision leaving teaching, Miller has no regrets.

"I have loved it from the day I started," she said.

Miller attended the University of New Mexico and Eastern New Mexico University, and earned a master's degree in Education and a reading specialist certification. She came to Ruidoso in 1962 and began teaching grade school. During the summer of 1978, she started working for Perteet-Parks & Associates, Inc. By 1981, she was working in real estate full time.

"People need new challenges, it is good for them to try new things. How are you going to know if you don't try. Besides, I'm competitive; that's what made me do it," Miller said.

Having competition in the real estate business in Ruidoso is no secret.

"It is highly competitive in this town. I have a lot of respect for other agents, and I think we all work real well together," she said.

Miller has attained many real estate sales achievements. She made the "Million Dollar Sales" club in 1981, her first full year in the real estate business. She repeated that in 1982, made Multiple Listing Service's "Sales Person of the Year," and received her broker's license that same year.

In 1983, she opened Susan & Associates, Inc., and made the "Multi-million Dollar Sales" club. She did the same in 1984, made the "Million Dollar Sales" club in 1985, and has had over $2 million in sales so far this year.

What is her secret?

"To succeed in my field is probably no different than in most walks of life. You have to love what you do, work hard and surround yourself with other positive people. Attitude is the key," she explained.

Miller's company currently has eight agents who work under the "family concept."

"Our philosophy is to represent a small, sleek, well trained and professional staff that can handle any kind of property. We do this by a constant sharing of information and responsibilities," she said.

She said she would like to see the company grow, but not too much.

"The neat thing is we really are kind of like a family; large enough to handle things and small enough to care about each other. I don't want it to get so big where it becomes impersonal," she said.

If Miller has her way, she will never stop working.

"I enjoy work and have always been very competitive. I am in the process of building my company to a point that in a few years, my younger, strong people can basically run it, giving me more time for other pursuits. I never intend to quit working, though," she said.

Flodie Wilson

Flodie Wilson, owner of The Roadrunner gift shop, has lived in Ruidoso for 15 years. Originally from Austin, Texas, Wilson has raised five children, graduated from the University of Texas, was employed as a genetic research scientist, owns and operates a successful business and is actively involved in the community.

Wilson's parents opened The Roadrunner some 16 years ago. She and her husband, Archer Wilson, bought the store a year later and have operated it ever since.

"The store has specialized in handcrafts since it first started. Knowing most of the people who make the crafts ... that's the fun part," Wilson said.

Wilson said she did miss research work, but has enjoyed having the gift shop.

"I missed research terribly at first, but it has been fun living and working here," she said.

The Roadrunner has expanded over the years. It is now twice as big as it was when it opened, Wilson said.

What is the key to success in business?

"Working hard ... that's the key. It also helps to run the business yourself; to get to know your customers personally," she said.

How do gift shops handle competition in a tourist-orientated town?

"For a long time, before there were so many shops, we tried not to overlap our stock. Now, it is competitive, but we are a little different from other shops. We carry all handcrafted items," Wilson said.

Although involved in various organizations, Wilson is probably best known for her extensive contributions to the Ruidoso Arts and Crafts Festival. She was originally a participant in the event with her music box creations. Wilson was chairman of the art festival for a number of years and has been involved in the event for the past 10 years.

"The art festival keeps me busy six months out of the year. I am very pleased it has gotten a good reputation," she said.

Wilson plans to continue working with festival organizers.

"I imagine I will be helping; they always need some help," she said.

Wilson's plans for the future include travel and relaxation.

"We will probably mostly travel and relax. We'll go to see our children in Texas, Denver and Montana. We have a son in Montana ... that's a favorite place of ours," Wilson said.

Wilson said she would like to organize a special group.

"One thing I'd really like to do is start a diabetes support group, to help people with diabetes and families of people who have diabetes. I have gotten some information from the state already," she said.

KAREN TILLMAN

Karen Tillman

Karen Tillman, White Mountain Elementary School principal, has been involved in the education system for 19 years.

Tillman came to Ruidoso from Clovis nine years ago and is beginning her second year as principal. She is also the district's special education director and is actively involved with the state department.

"Working with the schools is the best place to be if you enjoy working with children. I just can't imagine doing anything else professionally," Tillman said.

Tillman earned a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education/Special Education in 1967, a master's degree in Counseling in 1972 and an Education Specialist's degree in Educational Diagnosis/Administration in 1979.

"I have a very broad educational background. Each area is helpful to the others. The experience teaching in both special education classrooms and regular classrooms is very beneficial," she said.

Tillman said one of her strongest points is a strong, positive attitude.

"Lots of kids say to me, 'Why are you always smiling?' The school is a good place to be happy. I am a very positive person. I'm realistic when I have to be, but I do not like being around negative people," she said.

As principal, Tillman says she expects a great deal of her colleagues.

"I do expect a lot of the teachers, and don't expect to change that. There is not a single child that deserves any less than that," she said.

The dual role of principal and district special education director makes for numerous hours in the work place.

"I do put in a lot of hours. I think it is the extra effort people who get the extra results," she said.

Long hours, hard work and enjoying one's job all coincide, Tillman said.

"If I didn't want to spend that much time working, I could get out of it. But, I want to work here. I do not think we should have anyone in this district who doesn't want to work," she said.

Although having worked in the education system for many years, Tillman says she continues to learn new things each year.

"I suppose my goals include improving. I am amazed at how much I learn every year. I hope I can put it all to good use," she said.

Tillman is strongly committed to her work.

"My sense of commitment is very high. I was brought up with a strong sense of responsibility to other people. I feel very strongly about that," she said.

Tillman's plans for the future include remaining in the Ruidoso area.

"I don't plan to leave this area. I think we have the best of many worlds. We have the natural beauty of the area and fantastic community involvement in the schools. There couldn't be a better situation," she said.

In her spare time, Tillman enjoys cooking, reading, swimming and horseback riding.

MARY PARSONS

Mary Parsons

Mary Parsons, owner of two Mary's Fashions stores in Ruidoso, has been in business for herself for 20 years.

She came to Ruidoso 10 years ago from Oklahoma.

"I came here to take an art class and just fell in love with it," Parsons said.

Parsons sold her flower shop in Stratford, Oklahoma, and moved to Ruidoso in 1976.

She opened Mary's on Sudderth Drive in March 1982, and her new store in the Jira Plaza in May 1986.

As a businesswoman, Parsons is very optimistic about the economy in Ruidoso.

"I know it is bad in Texas and Oklahoma, and we depend on those people, but I feel good about Ruidoso. I feel it is going to grow," she said.

What does it take to have a successful business in an area dependent on tourists?

"I feel service, friendliness, honesty and trust are important with customer relations. I care and develop a trust between my customers and myself. That's the key to success," she said. "You have to be very dedicated to make the customers want to come back to see you."

Although she attended junior college in San Bernadino, California, and studied business law, Parsons enjoys the line of business she is in.

"I am doing exactly what I want to do. The one exception would be having more time to paint," she said.

Parsons enjoys painting with oils and watercolors.

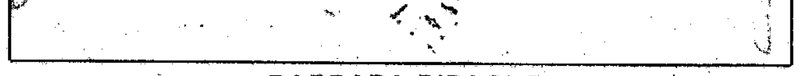
In the future, Parsons would like to slacken her pace and eventually own and operate only the new Mary's Fashions.

"In the future, I would like to slow down and travel. My husband, Don, and I like to travel in the fall and winter. We are celebrating our 10th anniversary this year," she said.

Parsons is a former nine-year member of Altrusa and is a member of the Methodist Church.

"Ruidoso is the greatest place in the world to live and I don't plan on leaving," Parsons said.

FLODIE WILSON



BARBARA DIPAOLO

Barbara DiPaolo

Barbara DiPaolo, of DiPaolo Real Estate, came to Ruidoso from St. Louis, Missouri, in January 1961. Her parents built the Lazy T Motel, now the Whitlock & Lyle Real Estate building.

DiPaolo has her own real estate company and shopping center, and is actively involved with community projects and groups.

In 1969, DiPaolo purchased a National Homes franchise and went into the home building and selling business. The construction part of the business was shut down and DiPaolo began working in general real estate in 1978.

By 1982, DiPaolo had her broker's license and was actively selling commercial real estate.

"I enjoyed it very much. I was always fascinated with commercial real estate," she said.

DiPaolo wanted to locate her office in a larger structure with various sized spaces available to rent.

"When I decided I wanted to have my own company, I began looking for a site. I decided it made more sense to locate somewhere where I could have income coming in at the same time that I ran my business," DiPaolo said.

DiPaolo Real Estate is located in The Paddock shopping center on Mechem Drive. The Paddock was completed in 1983, and DiPaolo Real Estate opened in May of that same year. DiPaolo also owns an Ice Cream Churn franchise and store in the center along with Country Time Western Wear.

How does an individual cope with so many obligations?

"It takes hard, hard work and long, long hours. It also helps to have a nice supporting family and staff. My husband, Jack, takes care of The Paddock, and I have fantastic employees that are real dedicated," DiPaolo said.

DiPaolo achieved the "Million Dollar Sales" club award in 1980, received "Outstanding Record of Sales" recognition in 1982, completed the Graduate Realtors Institute in 1983, and achieved the "Realtor of the Year" award in 1985.

DiPaolo Real Estate currently has six associates.

"I look for the market to be steady. Not a boom, but a steady, healthy growth," she said.

One key to success is planning, DiPaolo said.

"I like to do a lot of research before I go into a business. People wanting to open a business in Ruidoso need to have projections, sell something needed year round and have the capital to get through the hard times," she said.

Aside from business obligations, DiPaolo is involved in various community activities. She is an Altrusa charter member, a member of the Spirit of Ruidoso and the chamber Economic Development Task Force, and has been elected Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors president for 1987-88.

"I wanted to give something back to the community because the community gave a lot to me. I enjoy chamber work immensely," she said.

DiPaolo has many goals for Ruidoso she would like to see achieved.

"I would love to see a broader economic base in Ruidoso to fill in the gaps. A corporate training center or convention and events center would be ideal. I would also like to see us expand the tourist attractions in the way of recreation so that people with families can enjoy it here. I think the village needs to pursue more areas for parks and picnicking. I would love to see a Wet 'n Wild park, a zoo and a sledding area for people who don't ski," DiPaolo said.

DiPaolo's own future plans include some relaxation.

"I hope the economy picks up and it gets to where I can spend more time traveling," she said.

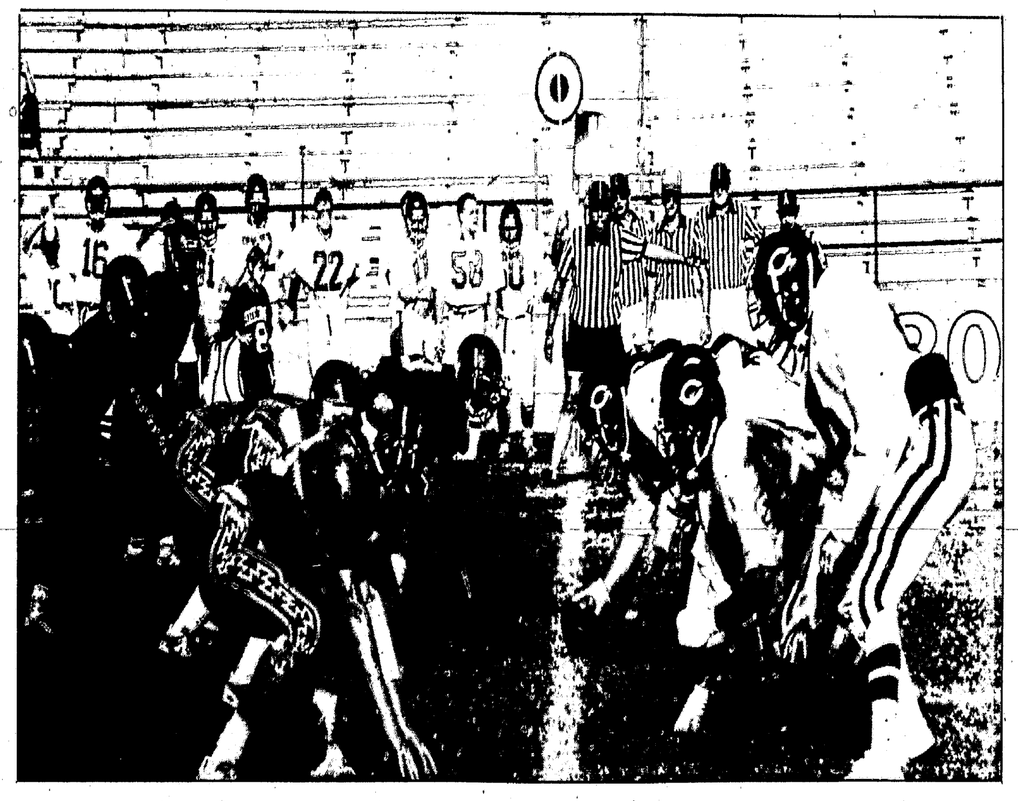
1986 Football Preview

FOOTBALL!

It's the opening of another football season in Lincoln County. Teams from Ruidoso High School, Capitan High School and Ruidoso Middle School are getting ready for another great season. At right, Ruidoso's Jeff Willingham is the heir apparent to all-state standout Russell Easter at quarterback. At bottom, Ruidoso battles Clovis in a scrimmage of defending state champions; the Warriors winning the 1985 AAA-division title and Clovis taking the AAAA-division crown.



Ruidoso players battle at the line of scrimmage during a recent practice. The Warriors should be tough again this season, particularly on defense. Ruidoso has five defensive starters and three offensive starters returning this season.

This is the 1986 Ruidoso coaching staff. Back row (from left) are assistant coach Ronny Maskew, assistant coach Gene Segura, assistant coach Ridge Bowden and assistant coach Mike Speck. Front row (from left) are head coach Cooper Henderson, assistant coach Rocky Willingham and assistant coach Clendon Kirkpatrick.

Defending champs have big act to follow

Okay, guys, what can you do for an encore?

The Ruidoso High School varsity football team enters the 1986 season as the defending state AAA-division champions.

Ruidoso finished last season with a 12-1 record and a 21-19 state championship game win over District 3-AAA rival Silver City.

The thrills and cheers of the Warriors' first-ever state AAA-division title were great, but now the players must concentrate on a new year.

Ruidoso returns five defensive starters and three offensive starters from last year's team.

Returning are all-state first team players Brian Davis (split end) and Jeff Willingham (safety). Willingham also will start at quarterback for the Warriors.

Gone are such outstanding performers like quarterback Russell Easter, tailback Michael Williamson, guard James Herrera and middle linebacker Jeff Maxwell, all first-team all-state picks.

But Warrior head coach Cooper Henderson is optimistic the players who are replacing the above all-stars will do well.

"When their teammates get behind them, I'm sure they'll do a good job," Henderson said.

Willingham has proven in the past he is a good quarterback.

He took over for an injured Easter two seasons ago and helped the Warriors into the state playoffs.

The 5-11, 165-pounder has a good throwing arm and can also run with the ball.

Kirk Taylor and Chuck Daniels will share duties at Williamson's old position. While they may not have the graduated Warriors' great quickness, they have good speed.

Billy Harrison returns at fullback and also is a good blocker. This will be his third year as a starter, having been an offensive guard his sophomore season.

Bubba Miller will be the starting wingback. He started as a safety on defense last year and will play there again this season.

Needless to say, Davis will be the starting split end. He is probably among the best three receivers in the state (in all divisions) and is a definite college prospect.

Garret Henson, who will handle the Warriors' kicking duties, also could see some action at split end.

Bryan Richardson will start at tight end. Gene Mowdy, a 230-pounder, and Jason Hill probably will start at tackle. However, Hill has an injury and his immediate status is uncertain.

Sid Garcia and Carl Bowden will go at guard and Sean Parker will start at center. Bowden started at defensive tackle last season.

Defense is where the Warriors appear to be strongest.

Even with Bowden starting in the offensive line this year, the Warriors still have some excellent defensive talent.

Matt Evans, a 6-2, 205-pounder who ran the sprints in track and made all-state honorable mention in football, will be one starting end. Junior Sean Moore will be the other end.

Shawn Mowdy and Colby Day will go at tackle. Daniels, a second team all-district linebacker last season, will go at middle linebacker.

Sophomore Dusty Beavers and junior Jef Sherwood will be at the outside linebacking posts.

Alan Kirgan, Taylor and Garcia will see a lot of duty at cornerback. Willingham, Miller and Toby Rue will share time at safety.

"Yes, the defense is ahead of the offense right now," said Henderson. "They showed that in the scrimmage (with Clovis last week)."

Another area where the Warriors should be strong is the kicking game.

Henson was the place kicker last season and kicked a 30-yard field goal against Clovis in the scrimmage.

Willingham will handle the punts, as he did last season.

"We don't think our kicking game was that strong last season, and we hope to improve this year," Henderson said. "We're also hoping our kicking coverage improves.

"We had four touchdowns scored that way on us in the Artesia game and the Silver City games.

"Garret and Jeff have been doing pretty good in practice."

Henderson sees Silver City as the team the Warriors must beat in District 3-AAA. Ruidoso, Silver City and Deming shared the district title last year.

"I think Silver City would have to be ranked first in the state now," Henderson said. "They have all those linemen back and their junior group was undefeated.

"Deming and Cobre also could be tough. I think Deming has a real good program now."

The Warriors open the season Friday, August 29, against visiting Artesia. Artesia won the 1984 state title, but Ruidoso knocked the Bulldogs off, 14-13, in last year's opener.

Braves hope for bigger turnout this year

Ruidoso Middle School football coach Terry Wharton discusses a play with his athletes at a recent practice. The Braves went 3-3 last season and hope to improve on that this year.

Ruidoso Middle School's football team hopes to improve on its 3-3 record of last season.

The Braves currently have 21 players out for the team, but head coach Terry Wharton hopes to have more players out with school now in session.

"We need more players," he said. "But all the players are now doing real well."

Ruidoso opens against Dexter Thursday, September 11, on the latter's field. Dexter usually plays ninth-graders against the Braves, so the opener should be a tough one.

However, Ruidoso defeated Dexter, 18-6, last season.

Most of the Ruidoso players competed in school intramural play or the Ruidoso Little League program last season.

Positions on the team are wide-open at this early date.

Jamie Candelaria and Cody Willard are vying for the quarterback spot.

"It's real close, it's hard to tell," Wharton said about the quarterback position. "It's close at some other positions, too."

Mike Chavez is the biggest Brave player. The defensive tackle-offensive tackle is a 180-pounder.

The Braves will open the home season Thursday, September 25, against Hagerman. The game will begin at 3:30 p.m at W.D. Horton Stadium.

Ruidoso also will have a B game against Capitan October 2, in Capitan.

Go, Braves, go

Capitan gridders have talent, lack depth

Team hopes to improve 1-9 mark

Capitan's varsity football team may be lacking in numbers, but not in quality.

The Tigers only have 18 players out for the squad, but most of them played a lot in 1985's 1-9 campaign.

"We've got good size and we're a lot stronger than last season," said Tiger head coach Zale Woodward. "We've been working in a weight program."

Capitan should have its best talent since 1983, and possibly even since 1982, the Tigers' last A division championship team.

Capitan has talent and depth at quarterback with Troy Padilla and Ronnie Sanchez, both seniors.

Both are about 5-10 and weigh around 135 pounds. Padilla started last season and Sanchez was injured.

"Padilla passed for a lot of yardage last season," Woodward said.

However, Sanchez was impressive in last weekend's scrimmage against Carrizozo and the New Mexico Military Institute junior varsity. Padilla has been injured recently.

Doug Eckland will go at fullback. He is a 6-1, 185-pounder who played in the line last season.

However, he showed enough speed in track to be switched to the backfield this fall.

Jay Eldridge probably will start at tailback and Kerry Clements will go at wingback. Other backfield candidates are wingback Johnny Castillo and tailback Anthony Sanchez.

Capitan's strength in the line should revolve around tackles Clay Layher and Jeremy McCarty.

Layher is a 5-11, 225-pounder and McCarty goes 6-2, 235 pounds.

Randall Joiner and Clay Guck are vying for the starting center job. Joiner (140 pounds) is a senior and Guck (155 pounds) is a sophomore.

William Beckley (160 pounds) and Mike Lunn (165 pounds) probably will be the starting guards.

John Parker (145 pounds) and Greg Smith (165 pounds) are vying for tight end. Will Griggs (155 pounds) and Mike Shanks (155 pounds) will go at split end.

Julian Romero is a versatile player who could see action at fullback and tackle.

Lunn is scheduled to handle the kickoffs and place-kicking duties. Parker probably will handle the punting.

Blane Miller, Kendal Lawlis and Jim Bizzell will assist Woodward in the coaching duties. Bizzell will coach the junior high team.

What will be the key to the Tigers' season?

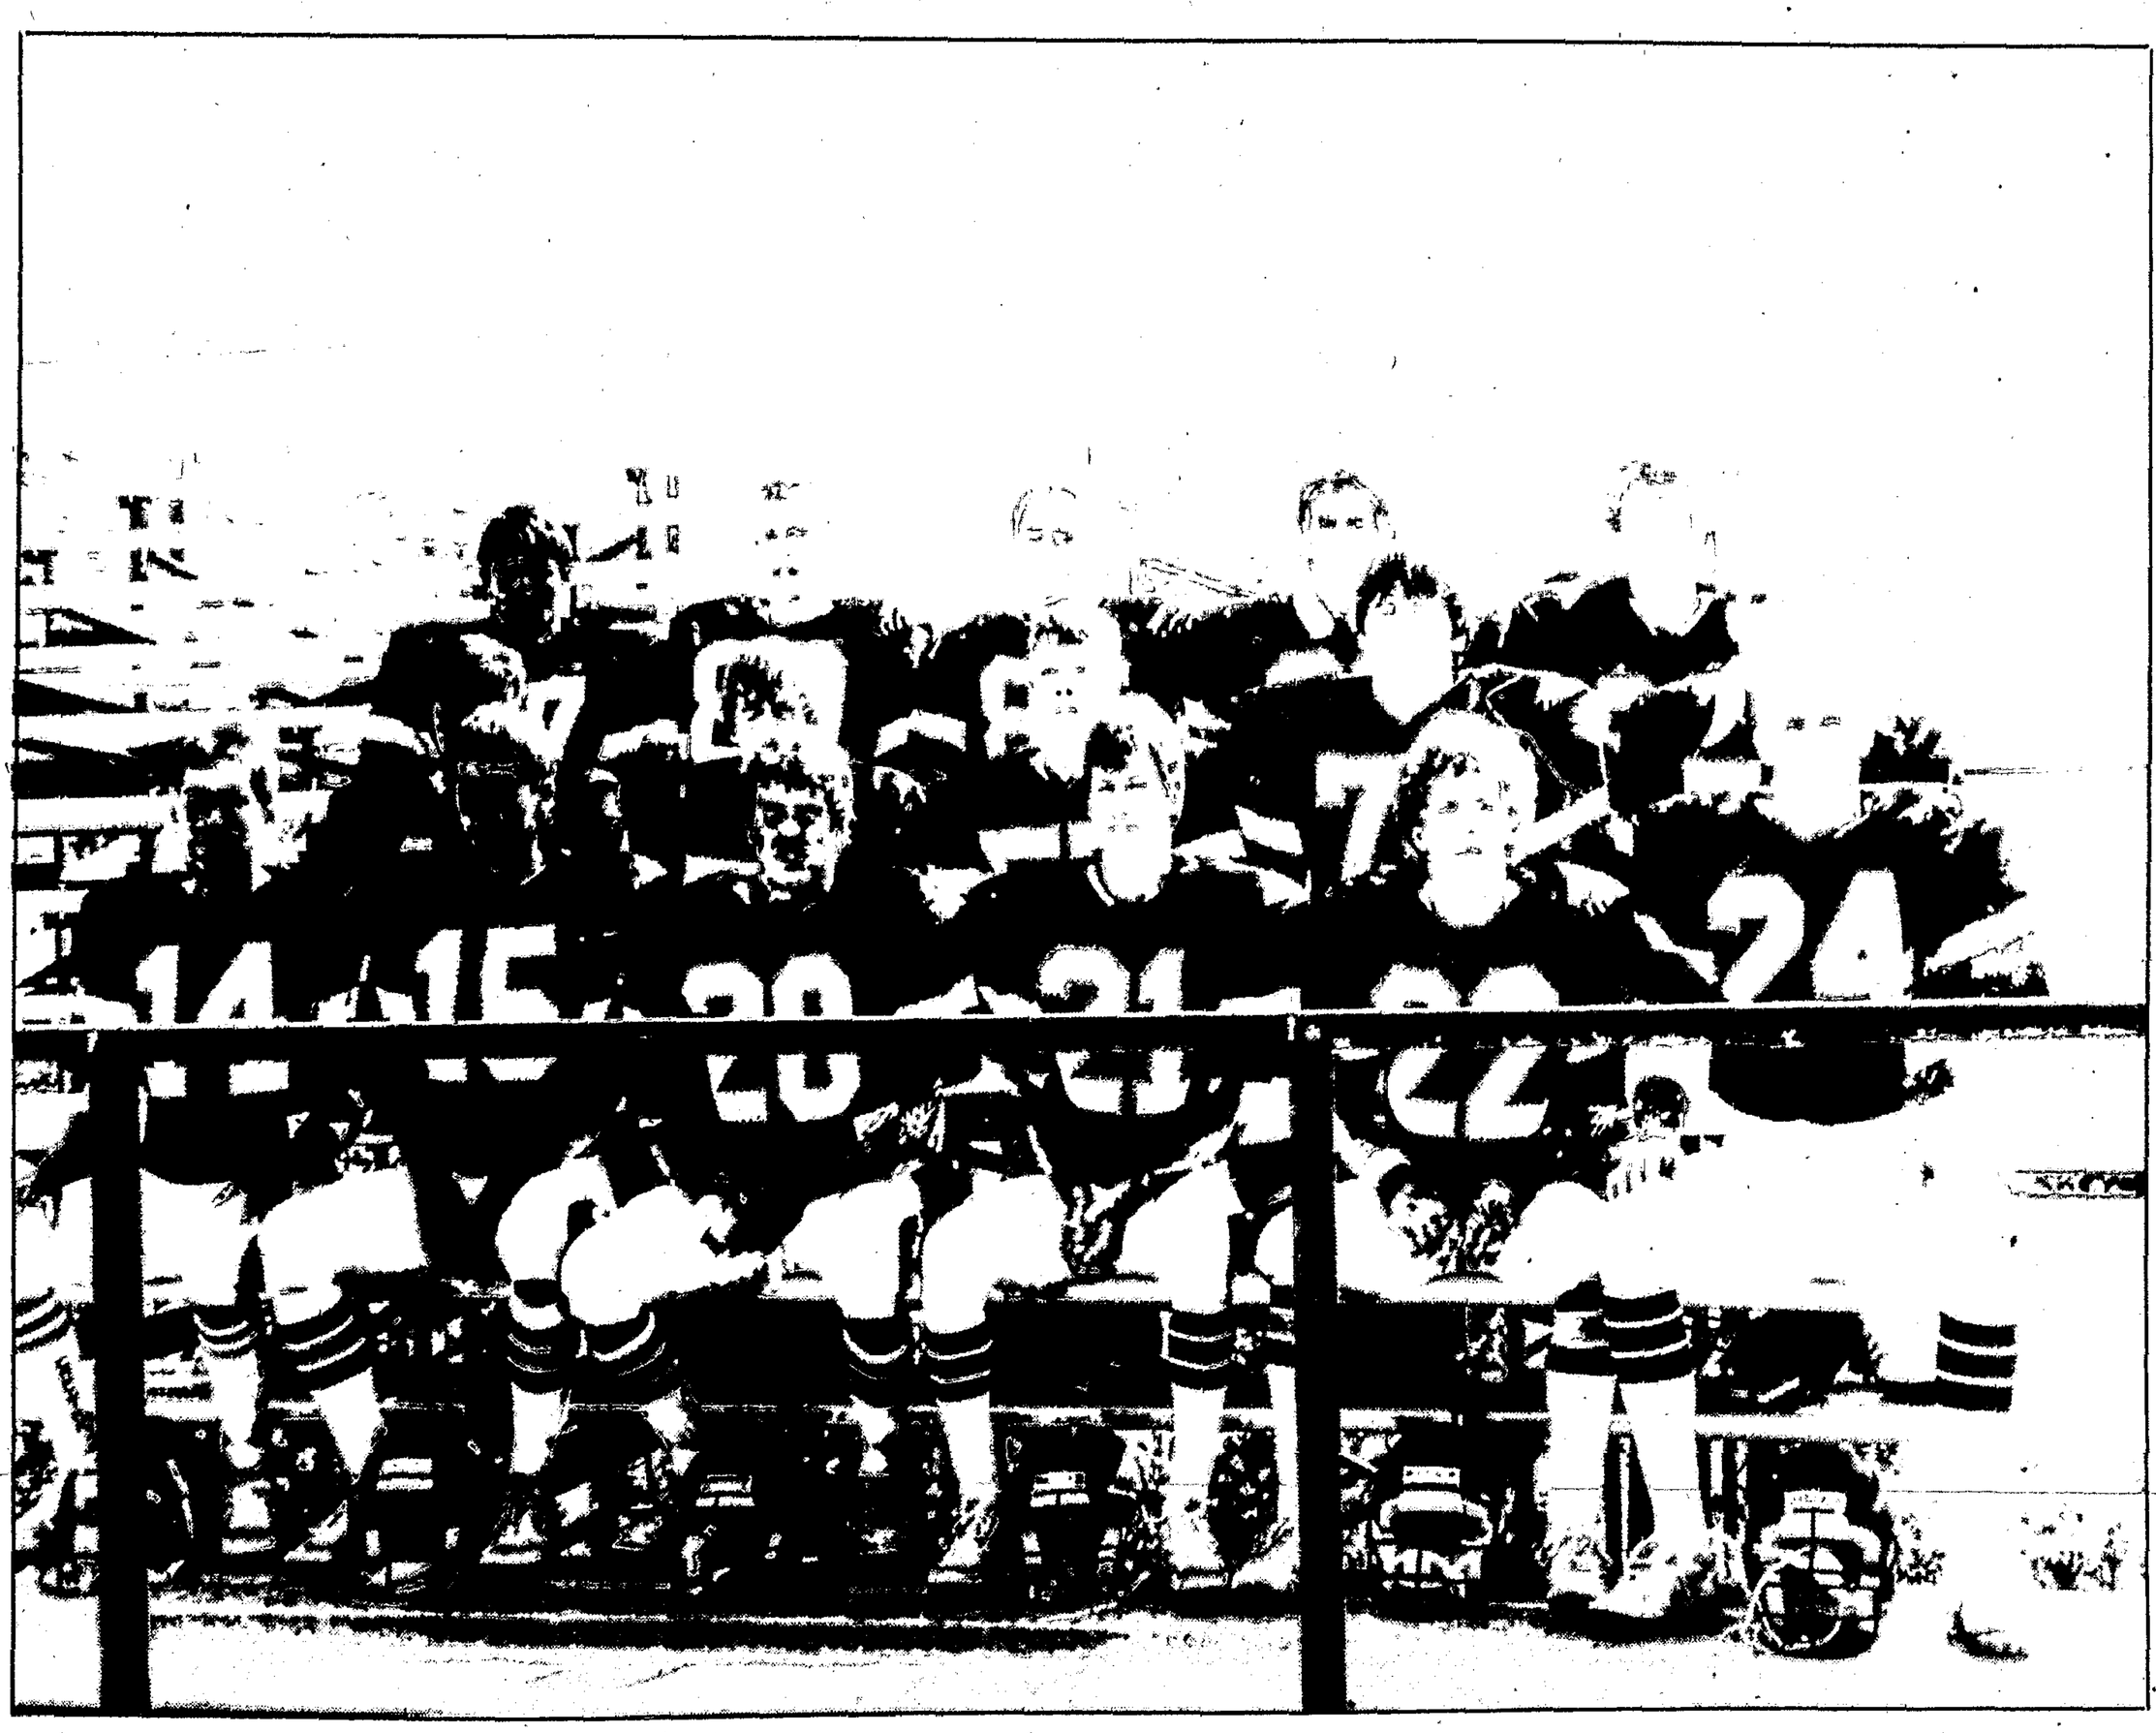
"We have to be able to win early in the year," answered Woodward. "We have to get experience winning."

The Tigers will open the season at home Friday, August 29, against Eunice. The game will start at 4:30 p.m.

Besides the Eunice game, other home contests on Capitan's schedule are against Texico, Springer (homecoming), Santa Rosa and Carrizozo.

All of Capitan's home games will be in the afternoon.

Go, Tigers, go



This is the 1986 Capitan varsity football team. Back row (from left) are Julian Romero, John Parker, Mike Shanks, Gregg Smith and Will Griggs. Middle row are Johnny Castillo, Clay Guck, Ronald Joiner, Jeremy McCarty and Clay Layher. In the front row are Ronnie Sanchez, Troy Padilla, Jay Eldridge, Anthony Sanchez, and Kerry Clements. Not pictured are Mike Lunn and William Beckley.

RUIDOSO HIGH SCHOOL

Tom Hansen, Principal
Rhonda Spaulding, Secretary
School Hours 8 a.m. to 3:40 p.m.

REGISTRATION:

Registration will be in the Ruidoso High School cafeteria.

Students will register by grades:

Seniors	9:00 a.m.
Juniors	10:00 a.m.
Sophomores	1:00 p.m.
Freshmen	2:30 p.m.

CAMPUS POLICY:

Ruidoso High School has a closed campus except at lunch. This means that students may not leave during class time unless they check out through the office. If they fail to do so, they will be considered to be truant and will be subject to disciplinary action.

The campus is considered "open" at lunch, from 11:44 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. daily. Students are free to leave, but must be back by 12:40 p.m.

TARDIES:

Students will not be allowed to be tardy at Ruidoso High School. If they are not in class on time, they will report to the Attendance Counseling Center (ACC) and will be counted absent from their regularly scheduled class.

ABSENCES:

Students are allowed 10 absences per semester. Starting with the 11th absence, credit is lost. The school does not differentiate between excused and unexcused; if a student is not in class, he or she is absent unless her or she is on a school trip.

Exceptions may be granted by the principal in case of extended illness.

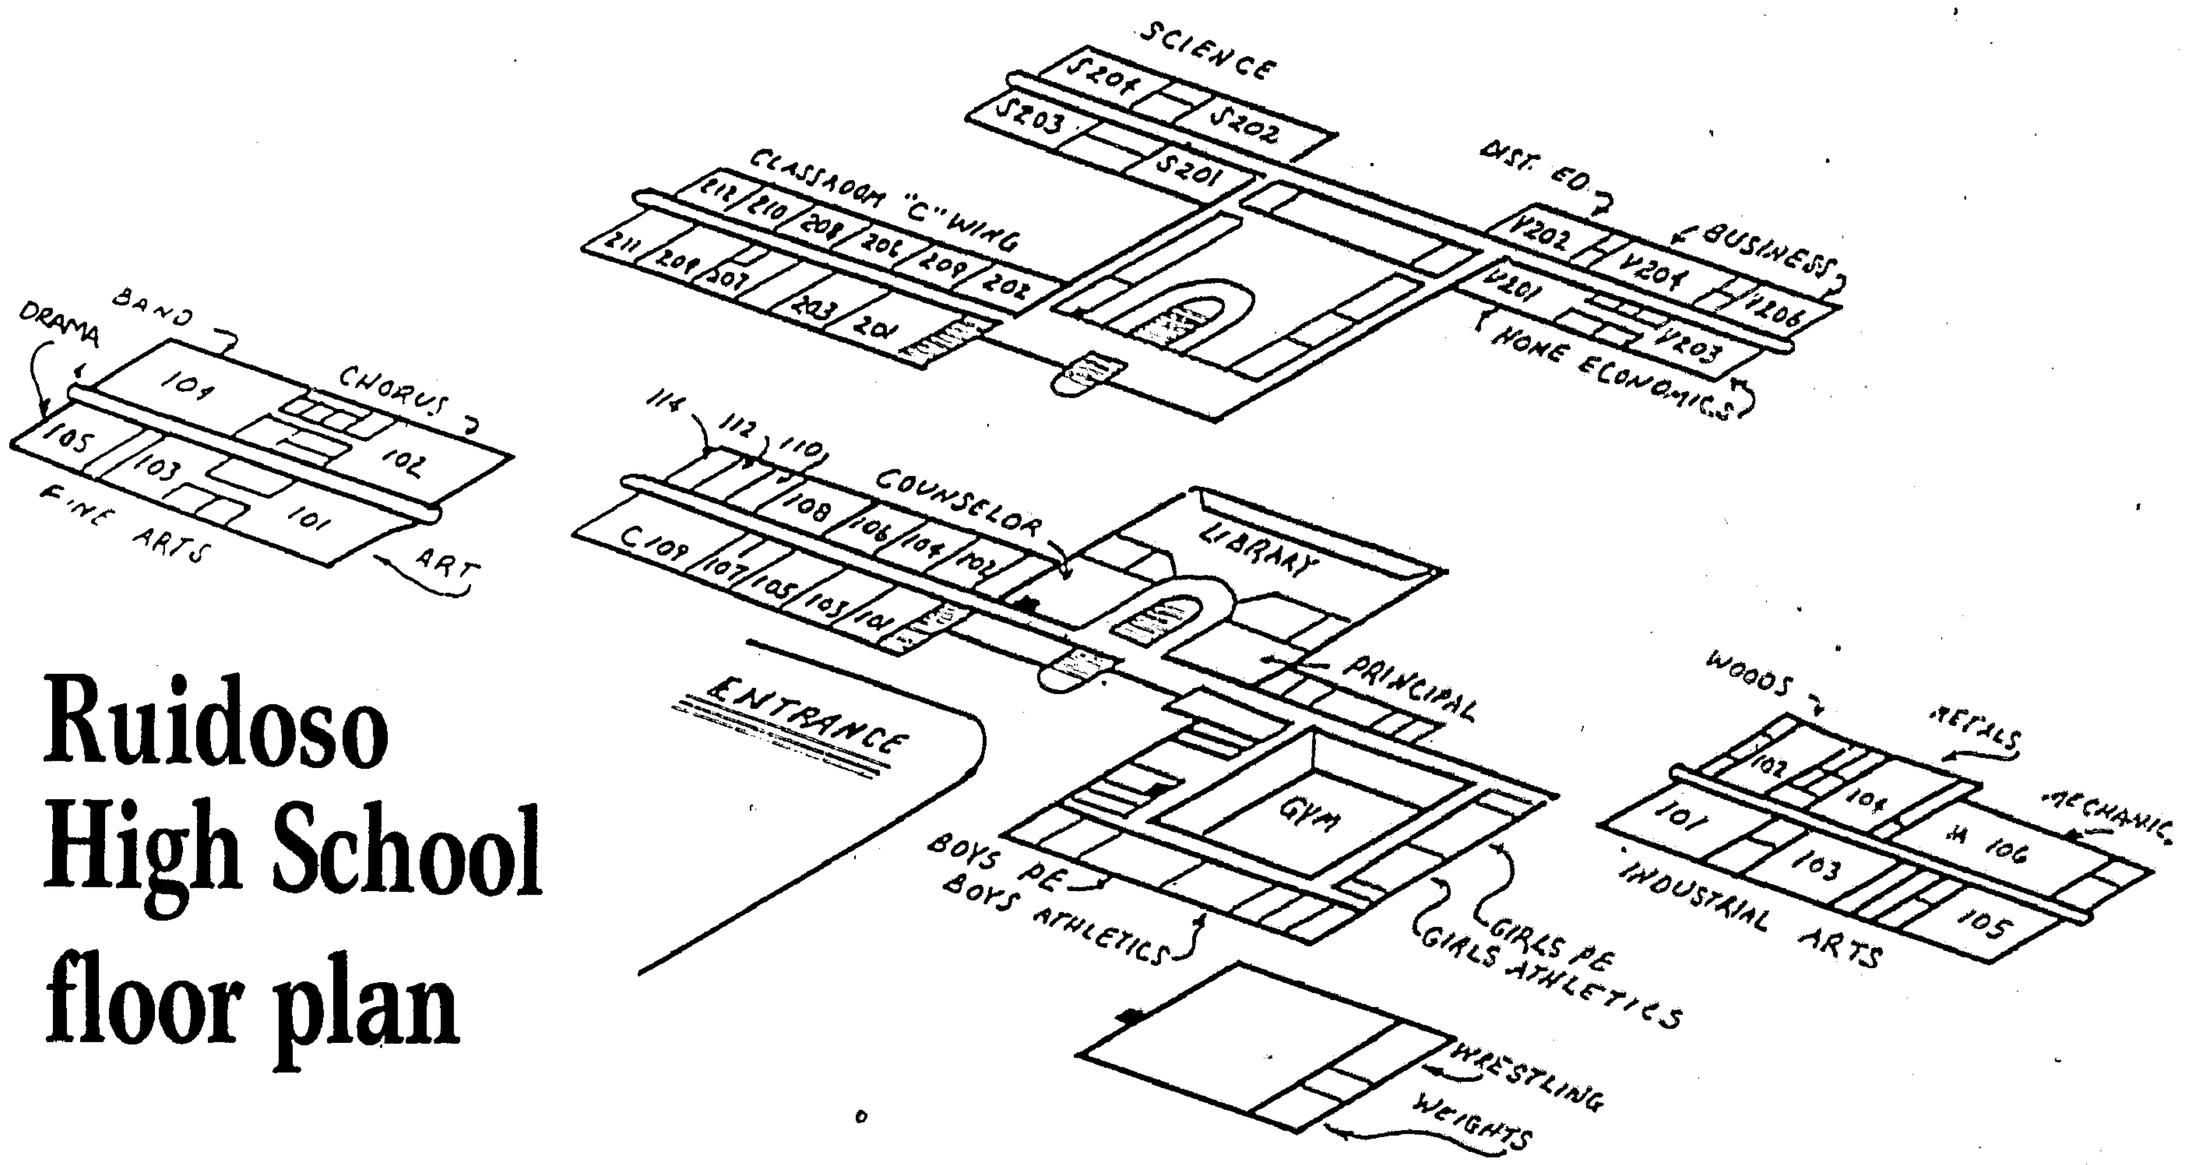
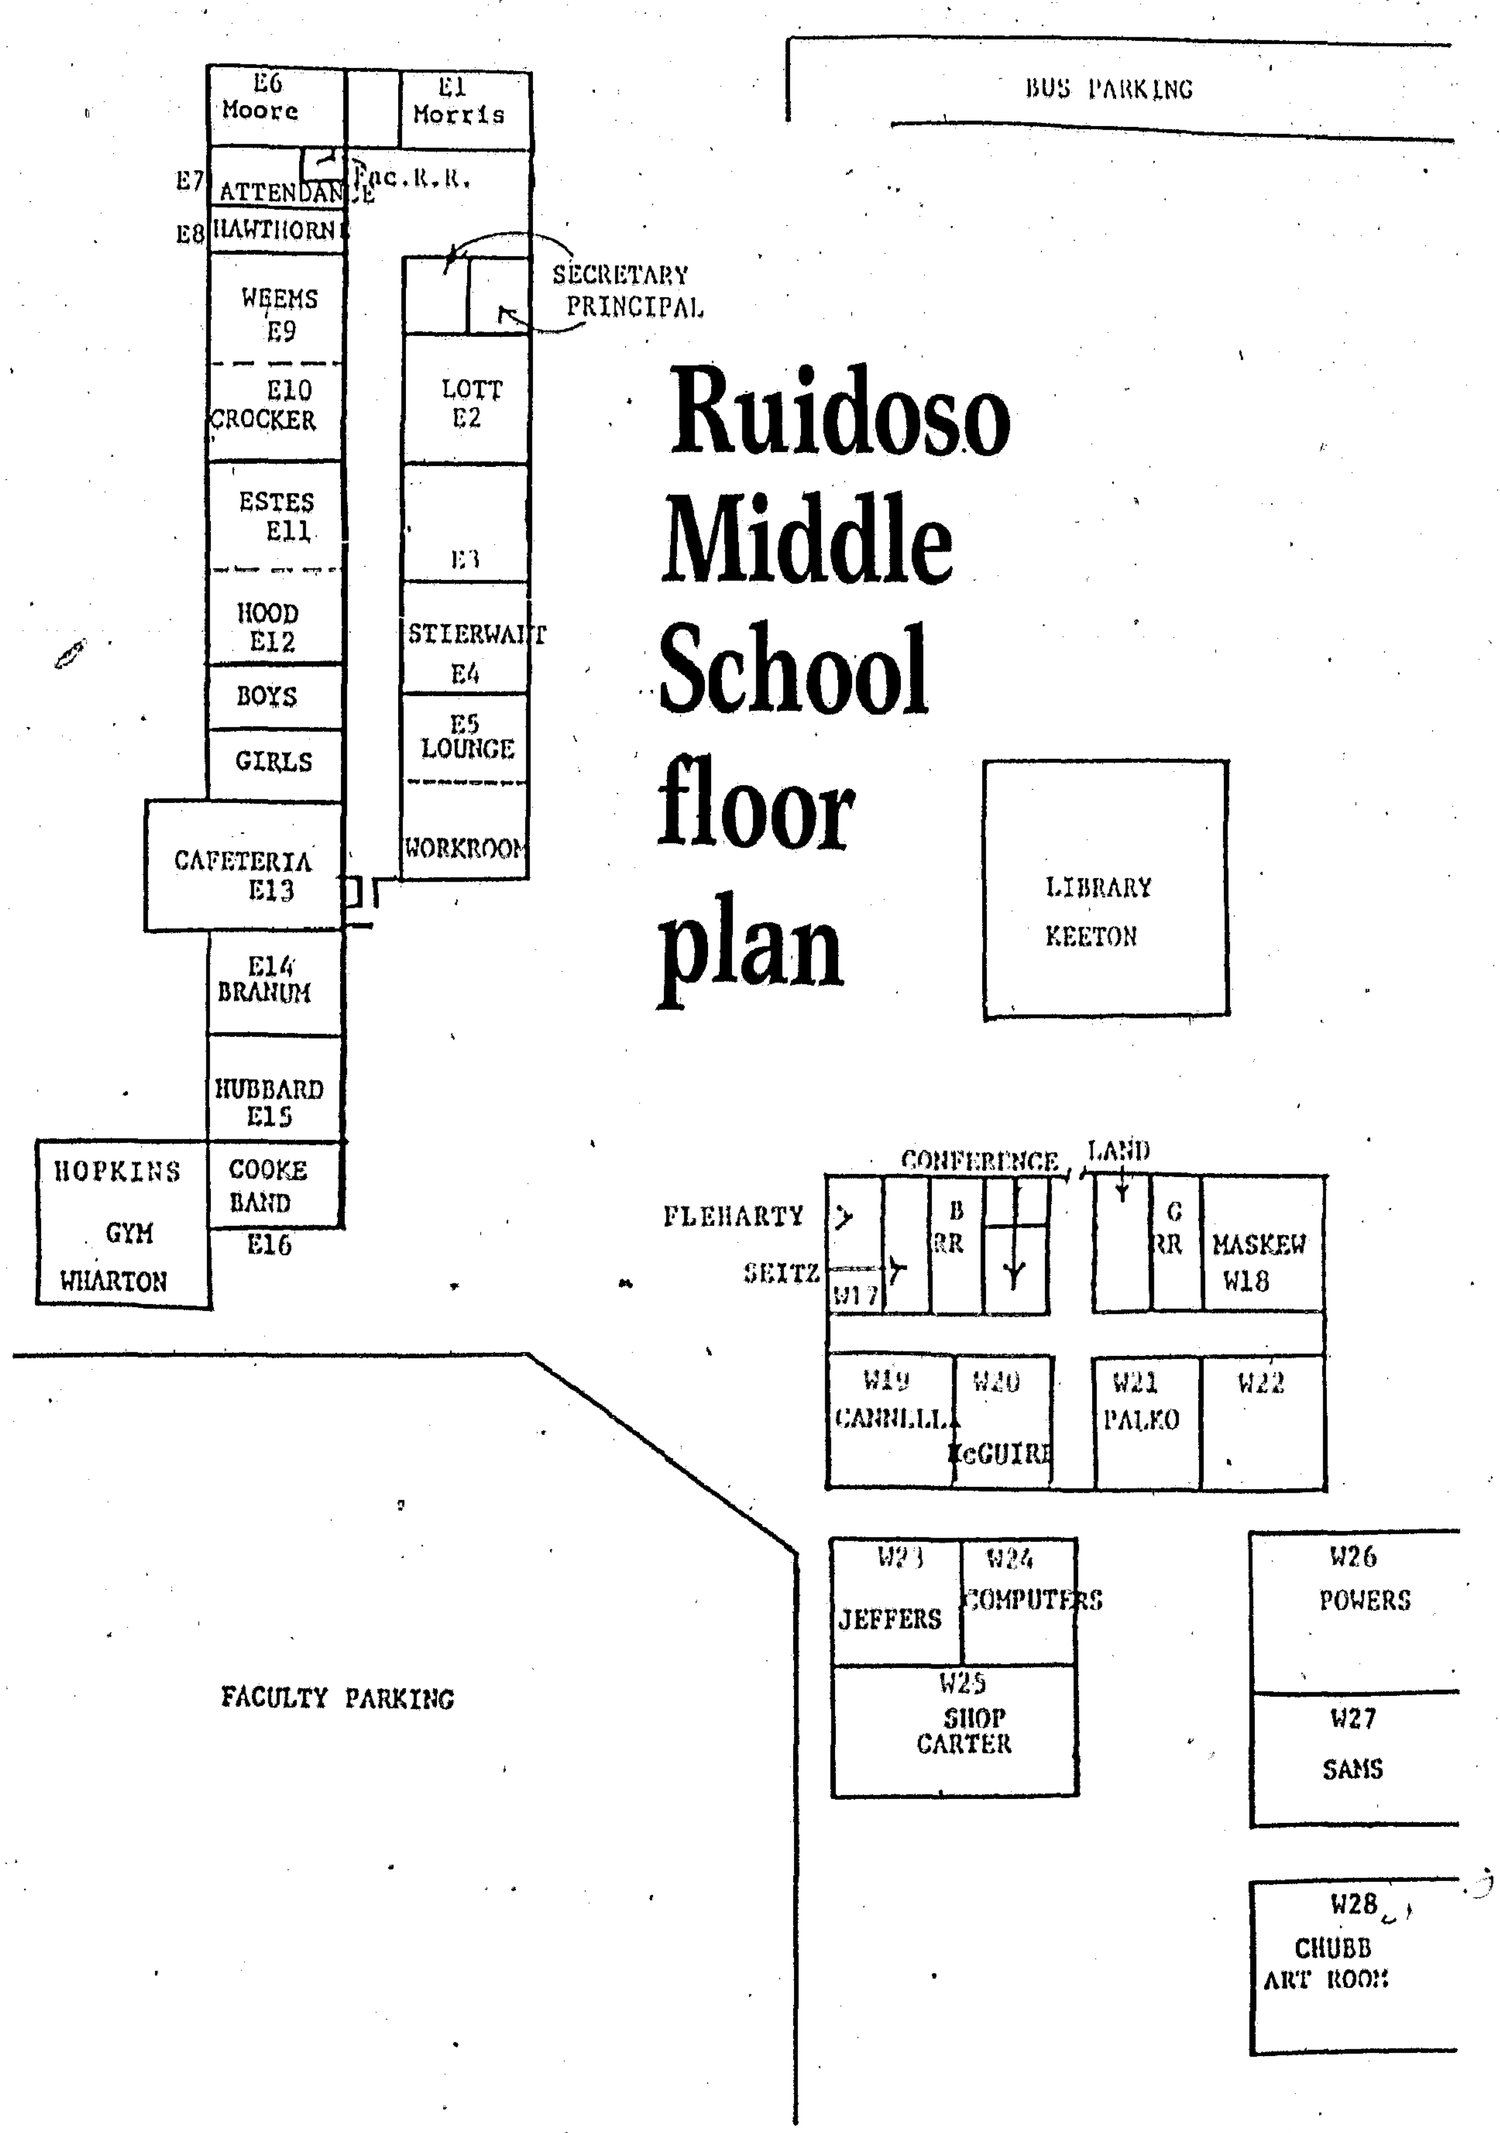
Ruidoso High School floor plan



Bus rules

1. The driver is in full charge of pupils when they are riding the bus. The pupils must obey the driver promptly. Pupils who do not obey rules and regulations may be reported to school officials. Transportation privileges may be revoked by school officials.
2. Pupils should never stand in the traveled portion of the roadway while waiting for the school bus.
3. Pupils who are compelled to walk a distance to meet the bus must walk on the side of the road to their left, facing the traffic, except on divided highways.
4. Pupils are not to carry on unnecessary conversation with the driver while the bus is in motion.
5. The use of tobacco in any form shall not be permitted.
6. Pupils shall not get on or off the bus or move about within the bus while it is in motion.
7. Pupils must occupy the seats assigned them by school officials or the bus driver. Pupils in less desirable seats may move into more desirable ones when the pupils assigned to the latter are not in the bus; any such moving may be done only when the bus is stopped with the driver's approval.
8. Pupils shall not at any time ride on the outside of the school bus.
9. Pupils must not extend their hands, arms, heads, or bodies through bus windows.
10. The pupils must not open or close the bus windows without permission of the driver.
11. Pupils will not be permitted to throw any item inside or outside the bus while riding the bus.
12. Rough or boisterous conduct will not be permitted in the bus. Pupils will be permitted to converse in a normal tone while in the bus.
13. Pupils shall stay out of the driver's seat and shall not tamper with equipment.
14. Any damage to the bus from any cause shall be reported to the driver.
15. Pupils will not be permitted to leave the bus on the way to and from school without the permission of a responsible school administrator in advance.
16. Pupils who must cross the road after alighting from the bus shall pass in front of the bus far enough so that the driver can see them (approximately 10 feet) and not behind the bus. Pupils shall cross the road only when the driver signals all is clear.
17. Pupils should look both ways before crossing the road.
18. Pupils must cooperate in keeping the bus clean.
19. Pupils should be on time as the bus must run on schedule. The bus will not wait for students.
20. Pupils shall be courteous to the drivers, follow rules, and obey the drivers.
21. Pupils shall remember that to be careless or to take a chance not only endangers their own safety but the safety of others as well.
22. Animals, firearms, explosives or other dangerous objects are not permitted on the bus. No item that will block the aisle or that will be tossed around in an accident shall be carried on the bus. Exceptions must be approved by proper school authorities.
23. Pupils shall not be permitted in front of stanchion and guard rail while bus is in motion.



Special Education

Special Education classes are offered at all grade levels in Ruidoso schools. Services are intended for those students who cannot function in regular classrooms. Services vary with the level of need, from one-hour-a-day resource rooms to full-day programs for those who require them.

Exceptional children served are:

- Behaviorally Disordered
- Communication Disordered
- Gifted
- Hearing Impaired
- Learning Disabled
- Mentally Handicapped
- Multiply Impaired
- Physically Impaired
- Visually Impaired

Sixteen full-time teachers work in special education programs. Support programs are provided on a contracted-service basis and include language therapy, physical therapy, occupational therapy and audiology.

Anyone having a legitimate interest in a student may make a referral for screening. This should be done through a principal, who will then refer the child to a screening committee. Formal evaluation will be initiated only with parent permission to do so.

Certified diagnosticians will determine whether students meet state regulations for placement, and a team of persons including the parent, teacher, diagnostician and building principal determine whether placement appears to be warranted.

Karen Tillman is responsible for supervising special education programs in the district. Any questions regarding special services may be directed to her at White Mountain Elementary School, 258-4220.

Because of the continued growth in the Ruidoso area, it has been necessary to re-route some school buses for the 1986-87 school year.

All beginning times will be about 7:30 a.m. These will be adjusted as students adapt to the new situation.

Feel free to call White Mountain Elementary School, 258-4220, or White Mountain Intermediate School, 258-4150, if you need more information.

Ruidoso Middle School

Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Grades
257-7324
Texanita Cole, Principal
Elaine McClure, Secretary
School Hours 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

OPEN HOUSE:

Ruidoso Middle School (RMS) will host an Open House for all parents of sixth, seventh and eighth grade students at 7 p.m. Tuesday, September 16, at the RMS gym. A brief orientation, introduction of faculty, visit to the classrooms and course descriptions will be presented for parents. A parent handbook will also be given at this time. We encourage each of you to put this on your calendar and attend. Many questions about teacher expectations, grading and homework will be answered.

SUPPLIES:

All students should bring a pencil, pen and some paper for the first day of school. Individual teachers will tell each class what supplies they require for the year.

ADVISOR—ADVISEE PARTNERSHIP:

Ruidoso Middle School continues the Advisor-Advisee Partnership (AAP) program for 1986-87 in response to a demonstrated need of easing a child's transition from elementary school through middle school and on to young adulthood.

AAP is designed to help students develop skills in studies as well as in making decisions, formulating values and interrelating with others. A major AAP goal is to provide an adult advocate for every student.

Students will attend AAP each morning. The program will be based on "Skills for Adolescence," a program designed specifically for students this age in developing skills and self confidence they will need through the teen years. It addresses causes of many adolescent problems and teaches basic life skills necessary in facing problems.

Linda Hawthorne is the AAP coordinator.

CLOSED CAMPUS POLICY:

The Ruidoso School Board passed a closed campus policy for RMS. All students are restricted to campus. No student may leave campus between the time he or she arrives on school grounds and the time he or she leaves by bus or with a parent or guardian.

Any student leaving campus during lunch or during the school day without properly checking out through the office with a parent note will receive an automatic school suspension for three days. Zeroes will be recorded for all grades during the three days.

If a second occasion should occur, the student will be referred to the Juvenile Probation Officer or the Social Services Center plus receive additional suspension.

FREE AND REDUCED-PRICE MEAL GUIDELINES FOR RUIDOSO AND CAPITAN SCHOOLS

Ruidoso and Capitan schools are publicizing their policy for free and reduced price meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Program.

Each school and superintendent's office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested person.

The following household size and income criteria will be used for determining eligibility. Children from households with income at or below the levels shown are eligible for free or reduced price meals.

YEARLY INCOME ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES
July 1, 1986 - June 30, 1987

Family Size	Free Meals	Reduced Price Meals
1	$6,968	$9,916
2	$9,412	$13,394
3	$11,856	$16,872
4	$14,300	$20,350
5	$16,744	$23,828
6	$19,188	$27,306
7	$21,632	$30,784
8	$24,076	$34,262
For each additional family member add:	$ 2,444	$ 3,478

Here is an example, based on a family of four:

1. If a family's yearly income is $14,300 or below, students in the family are eligible for free meals.
2. If a family's yearly income is between $14,300 and $20,350 inclusive, they are eligible for reduced-price meals.
3. If a family's weekly income is $20,350 or above, they are not eligible for free or reduced-price meals.

Application forms are being sent to all homes.

To apply for free or reduced price meals, households should fill out the applications and return them to the schools. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

The information provided on the application will be used to determine eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by school or other program officials.

For the school officials to determine eligibility, the household must provide the following information listed on the application: Names of all household members; Social Security numbers of all adult household members or a statement that the household members do not have the numbers; total household income or the household's food stamp case number if they receive food stamps; and the signature of an adult household member certifying the information is correct.

Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

Under the provisions of the free and reduced price policy, principals will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents or guardians dissatisfied with the ruling of the official may want to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. Parents who want to make a formal appeal may make a request either orally or in writing to Sid Miller, Superintendent, 200 Horton Circle, Ruidoso, or call 257-4051. In Capitan, contact Dr. Leonard Hays, Superintendent, Box 278, Capitan, 354-2238, for a hearing.

Households are required to report increases in household income of more than $50 per month or $600 per year and decreases in household size. Also, if a household member becomes unemployed or if the household size increases, the household should contact the school.

Such changes may make the children of the household eligible for reduced price meals or for free meals if the household's income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for school meal benefits. If a household has foster children living with them and wants to apply for them, the household should contact the school.

The information provided by the household is confidential and will be used only for purposes of determining eligibility and verifying data.

In the operation of child feeding programs administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, sex, national origin, age or handicap. If any member of a household believes they have been discriminated against, they should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

FEATURING JIM HENSON'S SESAME STREET MUPPETS!

Make learning fun for your children by collecting the colorful volumes of The Sesame Street Treasury.

In this great new series, Big Bird, Bert & Ernie, Cookie Monster, Oscar the Grouch, the Count and other Muppets will take your children on a delightful journey through the world of Sesame Street.

Through stories, poems, sign language, pictures, puzzles, Spanish words, riddles, recipes, games and crafts, these books will introduce your children to the letters A to Z, numbers, and many other important educational concepts.

So when you visit one of our stores this week, pick up Volume 1 for an amazingly low price. We think it will convince you to collect all the other 14 great volumes of The Sesame Street Treasury in the weeks ahead.
