Warriors on warpath for Wildcats

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

The 1986 Ruidoso High School football season has been almost a carbon copy of the 1985 campaign.

Ruidoso's 1985 squad won the state AAA-division championship, defeating Silver City, 21-19, in the finals and finishing with a 12-1 record. Ruidoso had lost to Silver City, 17-13, in the regular-season game.

The 1986 squad also has just one loss going into Saturday's championship game with Lovington at Roswell.

And like 1985, the Warriors' only loss this season has been to the team they will play in the finals: Lovington.

All the Warriors have to do to make history repeat itself is to beat Lovington Saturday.

And Ruidoso has shown steady improvement all season. Here is a game-by-game look at the Warrior season.

Ruidoso 43, Artesia 23: The Warriors opened the season with an awesome offensive display, crushing the always-tough Bulldogs.

Quarterback Jeff Willingham and split end Brian Davis showed right off the bat why they are considered among the finest prospects in the state.

Willingham passed for 287 yards and two touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns. Davis caught eight passes for 241 yards and two touchdowns.

Ruidoso 19, Lovington 28: This was the Warriors' only low point of the season.

Ruidoso traveled to the Wildcats' den and could only gain 131 yards total offense.

Davis caught a touchdown pass from Willingham and ran back a kickoff for another score. Willingham added the third Ruidoso touchdown on a run.

Ruidoso 7, Goddard 6: The Warriors won the defensive scoring battle on a 63-yard pass from Willingham to Davis in the third quarter.

Ruidoso gained 355 yards total offense to the Rockets' 288.

Ruidoso 29, Tularosa 7: The Warriors outfought a stubborn Wildcat team for the victory.

Willingham completed 10 of 18 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown (a pass to Davis). He also scored twice while Chuck Daniels scored once.

Ruidoso 34, Portales 7: Ruidoso played one of its best all-around

Block Sudderth now? No! Say merchants

Sudderth business operators didn't mince words when they got together last night (Wednesday) to air complaints about a road repair job they fear will have an adverse impact on their shops.

Apparently just learning of plans to rework drainage on Center Street, which crosses Sudderth Drive, a rowdy group told village engineer Mike Davalos and Police Chief Richard Swenor they'd rather see the project abandoned than disrupt traffic during December.

After heated discussions, the group agreed to a plan proposed by Don Shaw and Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce executive director John Jeffers. The two agreed to contact state officials in efforts to get an extension on funds for the project that Davalos warned will be lost if not spent by December 31.

If Jeffers and Shaw are unsuccessful in gaining time so that the project won't occur during the merchants' busiest season, then the group plans to attend a meeting of the Ruidoso Village Council Tuesday, December 9, and ask for relief. Plans for that presentation and a report from Jeffers and Shaw are scheduled for a meeting Monday.

Early in the Wednesday meeting, Davalos explained a process that began with a public hearing last July. He said plans then called for doing the Center Street work between September and Thanksgiving, as part of a large bridge construction contract.

Complaints on the bridge designs taken to the Village Council by a few Upper Canyon residents delayed the entire project, bumping the Center Street work to December, said the engineer. He said State Highway Department cooperative funds, totaling about $60,000 will be lost if Center Street is not repaired by the end of this year.

Swenor explained that traffic and parking will continue along Sudderth Drive, but the four-lane road will be squeezed into two lanes during about 10 days of the work. He said barrels will be positioned 25 feet apart so that shoppers may still businesses.

But many of the 40 to 50 people who crowded into the All American Deli at Four Seasons Mall were not appeased. During an hour of discussions peppered with loud comments and interruptions, many of the people on hand said they preferred losing the state funds to losing the business.

"Leave the damned thing—it's been that way for 20 years," said Robert Donaldson.

Jay Freeman complained that orange detour signs and barricades are already in place along the street. He said those warnings cause drivers to automatically look

Airport first phase low bidder $2 million below estimates

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

The low bid on Phase I, PAC 1 of the multi-million dollar Sierra Blanca Regional Airport (SBRA) project is just over half the engineers' estimate.

When the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission (SBAC) opened the seven bids Wednesday afternoon, Tricon Kent Co. was the apparent low bidder at $2,354,964.50. Design engineers with Leeds Hill-Herkenhoff had estimated $5,539,449 for the 240-day contract. "I'm shocked," said Commissioner Conrad Buchanan, whose sentiments were echoed by other members of the group. "Pleasantly shocked," noted Commissioner Benny Coker.

SBAC attorney Steve Sanders said he, airport engineer Earl Cook and airport administrator Fred Heckman will carefully review the bid documents before Cook makes a recommendation on accepting a bid.

Cook said Tricon-Kent, a Castle

Rock, Colorado-based company, has the equipment and resources to complete the airport job.

"This spreads our financial resources farther into the project," said Cook.

"If the city electorate does pass this 50 percent sales tax—with this savings we've made we're assured of getting the airport operational by November," said Heckman.

Members voted to take action on the bids at a special meeting called for 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, December 9, at the Lincoln County Sub-office.

The other bids for Phase I, PAC 1, which is mainly an earthmoving contract, include:

—James Hamilton Construction Co., Silver City.....$4,681,681.
—J.D. Abrams Inc., El Paso, Texas.....4,559,465.
—Kirkland Construction Co., Rye, Colorado.....3,916,589.

—Kiewit Western Co., Peoria, Colorado.....3,501,825.
—Nielsons, Inc., Cortez, Colorado.....3,922,460.

—Tectonic Construction Co., Englewood, Colorado.....4,079,948.

Also during the special meeting, Sanders reported the State Engineer has scheduled a hearing in a water dispute between the SBAC and the City of El Paso for January 8.

Since rights to the water at the Fort Stanton Mesa airport site are not secured, contractors were notified before bids were opened that water will not be available from the well at the site.

Commissioners also approved writing letters of thanks to many people who have helped get the project this far.

Nosker said it is very unlikely

Parks and Recreation Department crews deck the village with tinsel Christmas trees adorned with multi-colored lights.

Tree lighting is Sunday

Mayor Lloyd L. Davis Jr. will flip the switch to light up the village Christmas tree at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, December 7.

Christmas caroling, under the direction of Churchill Cooke, will precede the lighting at 5 p.m. Sunday, beside the village's giant tree at the traffic "Y."

"This will be an annual thing," promised assistant village manager Frank Potter. He said the Parks and Recreation Department has decorated the tree and planned the special lighting ceremony.

Potter said everyone is invited, not only to watch, but to come early and join the choir in presenting special Christmas music.

"Everybody has a tendency to forget how dramatic Christmas is for kids," said Potter. He said that's why this ceremony has been planned—to add to the joy of Christmas for area youngsters.

The arrival of Santa Claus will be heralded with jingling bells, and the old fellow will bring candy for the youngsters.

And after the singing and the lighting of the tree, K-Bob's will provide cookies and hot chocolate in the warmth of the restaurant across U.S. Highway 70 from the Christmas tree.

Edith Coe Rigsby is dead at 90

by LINDA PONDER
News Staff Writer

Edith Coe Rigsby of Ruidoso passed away Sunday.

She was born October 31, 1896, on the Coe Ranch in Glencoe. She was the last daughter of Frank B. and Helena Tully Coe.

Growing up on the ranch, she was involved in the ranch operation, breaking horses and working stock.

As a young woman she participated in a five mile horse relay race at the Roswell Fair. Riding five matched, black horses, owned by the Diamond A Cattle Company, trading horses every mile, she won the race and met her future husband, Robert L. Boyce, Sr.

She and Boyce were married in 1917. He died in 1944. She then married Thomas Rigsby in 1948. He died in 1966.

EDITH COE RIGSBY

She founded the Navajo Lodge in the '20s, operating it for 30 years. Before there was an Episcopal church in Ruidoso, there were services at the Lodge. She was instrumental in the establishment of the Episcopal Church of the Holy Mount in Ruidoso, and was a charter member of Saint Anne's Church in Glencoe. In all the work toward progress in Ruidoso, Edith had a great share.

In the late 1920s or early 1930s, she founded the first Woman's Chamber of Commerce in the U.S. with Madeline Burdette. Within that organization they began a garbage removal service in Ruidoso at a cost of 25 cents a week. Another project, was the first mapping and platting of the streets in town and they worked to bring in the first electric company.

She traveled all over Texas, promoting Lincoln County as a tourist area.

Edith was the co-founder of the Ruidoso Woman's Club and one of its first presidents.

Dan Storm remembers Edith as a person who "always spread cheer among folks, she was grateful for everything."

Her musical accomplishments included the piano, organ and several stringed instruments. As a youngster she enjoyed playing accompaniment to her father's fiddling.

One of the first residents of the Ruidoso Care Center, she was responsible for forming the residents council and getting the patio built.

Survivors include her daughter, Betty Boyce Lee of Yakima, Washington; step-daughter, Mary Sloan of Roswell; step-sons Lowry Rigsby of Roswell and T.P. Rigsby of Aurora, Colorado; seven grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and 10 great-great grandchildren. Also surviving are six step-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her two sons, Frank Coe Boyce and Robert L. Boyce, Jr.

The family suggests memorial contributions be made to St. Anne's Chapel, Glencoe, or to the Ruidoso Care Center.

Memorial services were December 2, in St. Anne's Chapel in Glencoe.

ANTHONY AND GINA CARAPEZZA

Carapezza, Coln are wed

Gina Duvall Coln and Anthony Carapezza were united in marriage November 1 at the Carrizo Lodge in Ruidoso. Kent Watson of the Northside Church of Christ of Hobbs, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Eugene Duvall of El Paso, Texas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wojtas of Addison, Illinois.

The bride wore a turn-of-the-century styled, two piece dress made of linen. The long-sleeved, ivory blouse featured a Venetian lace collar. At the neckline, the bride wore a brooch-encircled with pearls. The fitted, ankle length skirt had a high waist coming to a vee in the center, buttoning down the front into a pleated panel. Her ensemble was completed with a coordinating plumed hat featuring grograine ribbon and carriage veiling.

The bride carried a burgundy throated, cymbidium orchid with a stephanotis and trailing ivy garland attached to a Venetian lace handkerchief and white Bible belonging to her grandmother. Cynthia Suzanne Moore, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. She wore a burgundy, two piece dress with a Milan lace collar and cumberbund. She carried a single, long stemmed rose.

Jack Lane, of Artesia, served as best man.

The couple exchanged vows, in a double ring ceremony, before an altar flanked with two large baskets of white snapdragons, white daisies, burgundy carnations, roses and gypsophylla. The room's windows were arched with garlands of ivy, complimented with white doves and burgundy ribbon.

Denis Duvall, the bride's sister-in-law, and Betty Tanner of El Paso, Texas, were vocalists. W.R. McKinsey was the organist. He provided music for the ceremony and throughout the reception that followed.

Following the wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Ruidoso where both are employed by Western Sun Corporation.

Mincemeat Pie

December is the month that you will find goodies galore in The Country Gourmet column. With company coming and lots of parties to attend and to have! ... scrumptious sweets are really fun this time of year. It is so special to make edible gifts and nothing is more enjoyable than sampling the fare at a Christmas buffet where many have contributed. Two special candy recipes will follow, but this week's recipe is one for a special mincemeat pie (my grandfather's favorite). Cherry preserves add a unique touch to this recipe and the topping for this pie is Chantilly cream flavored with Sherry.

Mincemeat Pie

2 10-inch pie crusts, unbaked
3/4 cup chopped apples
3/4 cup raisins
1 1/2 cups mincemeat

1 cup whole cherry preserves
4 Tbsp. lemon juice
2/3 cup sugar
1/2 stick butter, cut into small pieces

Combine all ingredients. Pour into the unbaked pie shell. Top with other crust, decorative or plain. Bake at 400 degrees for 40 to 50 minutes. Cool. Serve with Chantilly Cream below.

Chantilly Cream

1 cup whipping cream
3 Tbsp. sifted confectioner's sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 Tbsp. Sherry

Whip cream until stiff. Fold in sugar, vanilla and Sherry.

Around Sports

with Gary Brown

Well, it's down to the last week in high school football, and practically everybody in Ruidoso is wondering if the Ruidoso Warriors can win two state titles in a row.

The Warriors' opponents are the Lovington Wildcats at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in Roswell's Wool Bowl.

Lovington is the only team to defeat Ruidoso this year (28-19 in the second game of the season).

However, I think the Warriors can turn the tables on the Wildcats this Saturday.

Ruidoso's running game has improved over the course of the season, and while Lovington has an outstanding defense, the Warriors should be able to get a balanced attack.

If Bloomfield can hold Lovington to 20 points in the semi-finals, Ruidoso should be able to do better.

Look for the Warriors to win, 17-14, and come home with their second straight state AAAA-division championship and a 13-1 record.

The AAAA-division championship game between Roswell and Highland also will be played Saturday at the Wool Bowl, starting at 2 p.m.

Roswell should be an easy pick in this game. The Coyotes have a balanced offense and have been the bridesmaid too many times not to pass this opportunity up.

Roswell should win easily, 28-7.

Ruidoso girl hoopsters to open against Portales

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's girls varsity basketball team will open the season today (Thursday), December 4, playing Portales in the Goddard Tournament in Roswell.

The game will start at 5:30 p.m.

The Warriors will go with a small, quick lineup against the Rams.

"We hope shooting will be our strong point this season," Warrior head coach Sergio Castanon said. "We've looked OK in practice this week."

"But in the scrimmage (last Saturday in Alamogordo), we didn't shoot enough. We need to shoot the ball around 60 to 80 times a game."

Castanon will go with a starting lineup of three guards and two forwards.

Junior Tammy Osborne (5-7) and freshman Ardena Comanche

(5-9) will be the forwards.

Senior Berdine Smith (5-4), senior Veralynne Platta (5-1) and sophomore Jennifer Jimenez (5-4) will be the guards.

Amy Osborne (5-6), who started along with her twin Tammy last season, also could see a lot of action.

Castanon and assistant Dennis Davis will take an 11-player squad to the tournament.

If Ruidoso defeats Portales, the Warriors will play at 8 p.m. Friday against the winner of the Roswell-Artesia game.

If the Warriors lose to Portales, they will play at 6 p.m. Friday against the loser of the Roswell-Artesia game.

The finals will be Saturday, December 6.

Ruidoso's junior varsity will open the season Friday, December 12, against visiting Lovington. The Warrior varsity also will play the Wildcats.

Wright top manager

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Phillip Wright has been a common sight around most Ruidoso High School sports events the past three years.

The senior Warrior head football manager has had the job for three years after playing freshman football his first year of high school.

He can be seen at the Warrior football games, taking care of equipment and encouraging the players, or at basketball or volleyball games yelling for the players, or even at bonfire rallies.

Wright led the Warrior students in cheers at a rally before the Artesia playoff game two weeks ago. He then threw an Artesia dummy into the fire, igniting a roar from his fellow students.

"Being manager gives you the satisfaction of knowing that your assistance is of value to the team," Wright said.

Wright and assistants Billy Chadwell, Scott Thornton, Andy Orrantia, Randall McCoy and Simon Simms do a variety of duties.

Chadwell and Thornton are seniors, Orrantia and Simms are freshmen and McCoy is a sophomore.

They take care of the equipment, repairing it and washing the football uniforms. They also keep the equipment room in order.

Wright plans to attend West Texas State College and major in agriculture. He is a big fan of country-western recording artist George Strait.

"I may even manage in college if the opportunity presents itself," Wright remarked.

But you can be sure Wright's thoughts this Saturday will be on one thing, a Warrior victory over Lovington in the state championship AAA-division game.

Tiger cagers play Carrizozo

Brave cagers split games

Ruidoso Middle School's girls A basketball team won, but the boys A team lost in action against host Chaparral Junior High School of Alamogordo Tuesday.

The girls won easily, 41-19. Ruidoso's boys lost, 45-41, to Chaparral's A team. It was the first time Ruidoso's boys had ever played Chaparral's A team.

"I thought we played exceptionally well," said Brave boys coach Dean Hood. "We shot 46 percent from the field and made 50 percent of our free throws. It was the best we've played by far this year."

"If anything hurt us, it was turnovers."

Hood had praise for all the Brave players, especially Mashon Swenor, who he said "played exceptionally well."

The Brave boys will host the Capitan freshmen Tuesday, December 9.

Football winner

Craig Hipple, an employee of the Roswell Office of the State Engineer, correctly chose 15 of 20 contests in last week's football contest. Hipple, who said he has entered the contest several times, was awarded a $25 check for his winning entry. Hipple said he plans to attend this weekend's AAA championship game in his town.

Four separate requests got the go-ahead Monday from the Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission (P&Z).

During a regular meeting P&Z approved two property line variances and two commercial developments.

A request by William Dyer for a 4'6" east side property variance in addition to a previously allowed 7'6" variance was approved by the group in spite of commissioners' concern over building within three feet of the property line in a new subdivision.

Bill Smith, agent for Dyer, explained plans to build an "RV" garage on the property located on lots 12, 13 and 14, Block 3, Golf Course Estates. He said the structure must be big enough to shelter a 25-foot long recreational vehicle.

Commission Vice-Chairman Pete Thompson, presiding in the absence of Chairman David Smith, voiced concern during the workshop over granting such a variance in a new subdivision with new houses where "everything is up to snuff."

"He's going to be crowding the street back—that's just two steps from the pavement," said Thompson.

But when the question was called Commissioner Ellen Long cast the lone "no" vote.

"I think it's too close," said Long. Plans by Virginia Tingley to operate a donut shop with a drive-up window on lots 26, 27 and 28, Block 8, Palmer Gateway were approved on the condition that she clearly mark the entrance and exit and also place barriers to discourage motorists from making "U" turns on Thomas Drive after leaving the drive-through area.

Ruidoso Police Chief Richard Swenor explained an arrangement that would be acceptable, and recalled the "Thomas Road Wars" of a few years ago when he got many complaints about trucks parking on that narrow side street.

Tingley agreed to the stipulations and said a State Highway Department representative will be reviewing the parking lot entrance and exit in relation to Sudderth Drive—a state road.

"We're not against donuts," said Thompson.

In other regular business P&Z: —Approved a west side variance for new construction on the west half of Lot 29, Block E, Singing Pines. A 5.95' east side variance was also granted for existing structure.

—Approved commercial development plans for a snack shop and gas pumps on lots 4 and 5, Block 12, Palmer Gateway.

Absent from the meeting were Smith, John White and Eddie Nichols.

The Silver Lining

by Daniel Agnew Storm

Edith Coe Riggsby
After a cold night, now today, the morning of December two dawned clear and mild, filling the valley with warm and sunny weather—bringing us a day of special joy. The whole mountain world is rejoicing.

Surely Edith Coe Riggsby, who was called Home by Our Lord on November thirty, is sending down from Heaven some of her special sunshine which she lighted across our pathway during her ninety years here among us.

And now just as the sun is going down in the still and quiet evening, the memories of her service at Saint Anne Church in Glencoe earlier in the afternoon, bring a peaceful reverence to the sunset colors.

Edith was one of the founders and a faithful member of the church, and this brought special meaning to the services.

Father Burdette Stampley described Edith as "Our beloved companion on life's pilgrimage of faith." And he offered a prayer from the Prayer Book:

"We praise you, God, for all your servants, who having lived the life in faith, now live eternally with You." And then some words of his own:

Especially we thank You for Your servant, Edith; for the gift of her life, for her grace You have given her, for all in her that was good and kind and faithful."

Priest Ann Gaddy read from Saint John:

"Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection and the life..."

And also from the special service: "Remember thy servant, Oh Lord, according to the favor which thou bearest unto thy people; and grant that, increasing in knowledge and love of thee, she may go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in thy Heavenly kingdom, through Jesus Christ Our Lord, Amen."

Lay reader Pat Delhotal read from the Book of Lamentations:

"The Lord's unfailing love and mercy still continue, fresh as the morning, as sure as the sunrise. The Lord is my portion; says my soul. Therefore I will hope in Him."

Pat also read the one hundred and twenty-first Psalm:

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, whence cometh my help..."

Lay reader Dan Storm read from Saint John:

"See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called the children of God."

Also the twenty-third Psalm:

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want..."

Special favorite organ music was played by Bob Huckins.

Thirty Days After

Ninetyeth Birthday
Edith was born on the Coe Ranch in Glencoe, October thirty-one, 1896, to Frank Benjamin Coe and the former Helena Tully. She was the last of seven children to be called Home, the others being: Sidney Bonnell, Anne Tittsworth, Winnie Hunt, Agnes Bonnell, Wilbur Frank Coe and Helena LeMay.

A true pioneer ranch girl, she was always in the forefront of progress in her native community.

In 1917 she married Bob Boyce, and they raised three children, Bobbie, Frank and the one surviving child, Betty Lee of Yakima, Washington. Betty's daughter, Jan Dean Rlordan of Fort Sumner, was at the services.

Ninety years this beloved lady has blessed our lives with her cheerful kindly nature. And now as we begin December, The Sacred Month, she will send down a special blessing upon us from Heaven. And we all rejoice that she is in the loving care of Our Lord whom she served so well while here among us.

A New Grandchild
For Helga Haake

"The Lord giveth, and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord." As He takes loved ones from this world, The Lord sends new little angels to us.

The other day, Helga "The Nordic Queen" told me that on November twenty-six, a little daughter Mattie Ely Crownover, was born to her daughter, Nancy Haake Crownover, in El Paso. The child is named partly for Helga's mother, Ely Nolopp. Nancy and her husband, Hugh Crownover, have an older child, Melvin Lee Crownover.

Helga's son Terry and his wife Gaylen have three children: Jack, Heather Alice and Beau Daniel. We congratulate Helga on this new little blessing in her life.

"I JUST MADE MY FAMILY FEEL BETTER."

This holiday season my family is giving me a Lifeline® locket.

It's a tiny transmitter that weighs about an ounce and is given to people who might need emergency help at home.

"But I'm the picture of health, so why do I need it?" I asked.

"Because it will make us feel better," said my family.

"How so?" said I.

"Because Lifeline can electronically alert the police, or an emergency service, or a neighbor, in case anything ever happens. You'll feel a lot more secure. After all, you do live alone, you know."

"If that makes you feel better," I said, "then I feel better. Matter of fact, at this moment, I never felt better in my life."

Historian reports progress to commissioners

by LINDA PONDER
News Staff Writer

Lincoln County Commissioners were given a guided tour through the courthouse basement by Dr. Donald Lavash on Tuesday.

"Lincoln County is one of the greatest historic areas in New Mexico," Lavash said, as he began his report. "As a historian I can say this truthfully. I have enjoyed my work here, going through the records that have been stored in the basement and deciding what is historical and what is not."

All pre-statehood records are automatically historical, according to Lavash. Records from 1889 to 1912 are currently being microfilmed. The original copies will be returned to Lincoln County.

Records for destruction must be approved by Santa Fe before destruction can take place. It is an additional step to ensure only non-essential records are destroyed. Lavash suggested some of those records be shredded because of their content.

He explained the very old records must be kept in acid-free containers to protect them from further deterioration.

Lavash was granted permission by the commissioners in September to work with County Clerk Fran Siddens to establish a procedure for the preservation of pre-statehood records and documents. Also included in the project were documents and records generated by the clerk's office after statehood. The procedure was accomplished with the use of the Records Retention and Disposition Schedule established by the New Mexico State Records Center and Archives and the County Retention Schedule, according to Lavash. Alice Blakested and Siddens had been working on the records prior to that time.

Lavash commended Blakested and Siddens on the work they had done, adding that Blakested had done a good job and would continue with her work.

"In 1889 Lincoln County was formed from Socorro County," Lavash said. "My hopes are that next I will be able to go into Socorro County Clerk Fran Siddens and historian Dr. Donald Lavash conduct a tour of the basement rooms in the courthouse. Commissioners and commissioners-elect were interested in historic documents that will be microfilmed and the originals returned to Lincoln County for safe keeping.

County and explore their records. Their records, pertaining to Lincoln County, can be copied and those copies placed here, so there is a more complete historical record. The Socorro records could have vital information to help in the water rights suit."

Following Lavash's report commissioners Bill Elliott, Ken Nosker, A.W. "Gnat" Gnatkowski and visitors were invited to the courthouse basement to review the work accomplished.

games of the season.

The Warriors gained 397 yards total offense. Willingham had 164 yards passing and the running game picked up 146 yards.

Fullback Billy Harrison led the rushers with 55 yards in 10 attempts.

Ruidoso 47, New Mexico Military Institute 6: Ruidoso warmed up for the District 3-AAA race by crushing the visiting Colts.

Willingham completed eight of 16 passes for 157 yards and three touchdowns.

Garret Henson kicked two field goals and five extra points. He also did a good job catching the ball.

Ruidoso 57, Hot Springs 0: Things got even more one-sided the next week as the Warriors crushed the host Tigers in the district opener.

Ruidoso gained 399 yards total offense to just 114 for the Tigers. Harrison led the Warriors with 121 yards in just five carries.

Ruidoso 34, Los Lunas 12: The Warriors intercepted four passes in taking an easy non-district victory over the Tigers in the Homecoming game.

Ruidoso gained 378 yards total offense.

Ruidoso 43, Cobre 0: Ruidoso returned to district action with a big win over visiting Cobre, one of the Warriors' best performances of the season.

Willingham had three touchdown passes as the Warriors rolled up 415 yards total offense to just 127 for Cobre. Tailback Kirk Taylor scored three touchdowns.

The offensive line had one of its best games and the defense gained a shutout against the Indians.

Ruidoso 34, Silver City 5: The Warrior defense rose to the occasion in the battle for the district championship.

Ruidoso only gained 136 yards total offense, but held the Colts to 131. Senior defensive back Toby Rue intercepted two passes.

Taylor and Davis each scored twice while Willingham threw for one touchdown and scored another.

Ruidoso 58, Deming 14: Willingham threw three touchdown passes to Davis in the first quarter and Ruidoso was on its way.

Davis ended with four touchdowns on the night and Willingham threw four touchdown passes. His other touchdown pass going to wingback Bubba Miller.

Ruidoso outgained the hosts, 369 yards to 190.

Ruidoso 24, Artesia 21: Ruidoso opened the playoffs with a hard-fought win over the host Bulldogs.

Harrison scored the winning touchdown on a seven-yard run in the final quarter. The other Warrior touchdowns were a six-yard pass from Willingham to Davis and a run by Taylor.

Henson had one of his best games, kicking a field goal and three extra points.

Ruidoso 42, Belen 20: The Warriors qualified for the state title game by crushing the Eagles at W.D. Horton Stadium.

Willingham threw three touchdown passes and completed 10 of 20 passes for 227 yards.

The Warriors quarterback also led the Warriors in rushing with 56 yards.

Davis scored on a punt return and a pass from Willingham.

Tight end Bryan Richardson caught two touchdown passes, one from Willingham and the other from reserve quarterback Rod Wright.

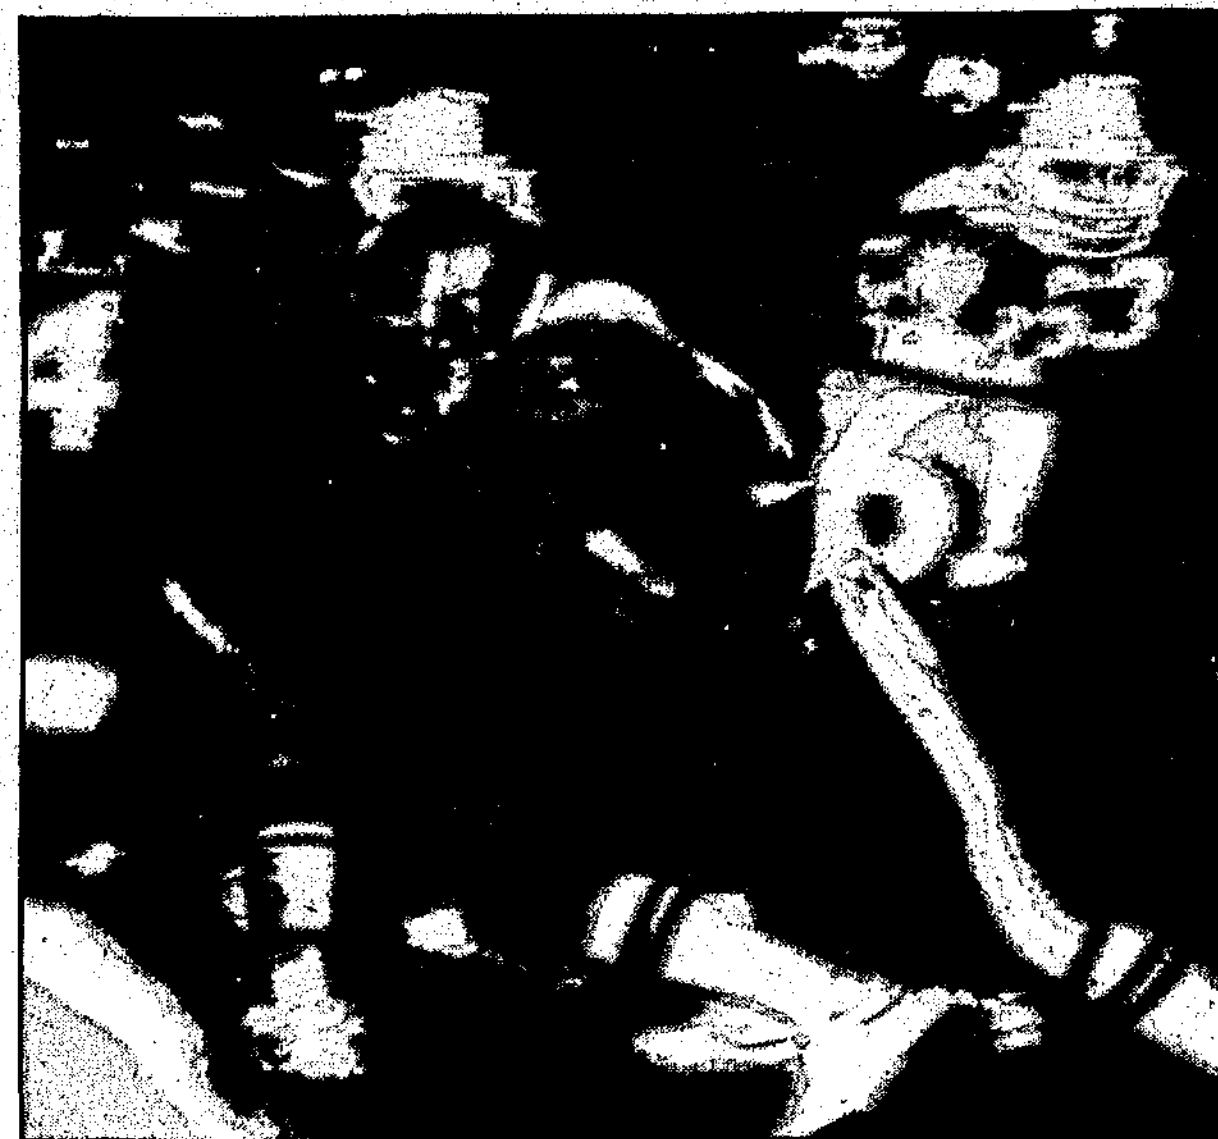

The other Warrior touchdowns were on a pass from Willingham to Miller and a run by Taylor.

Willingham intercepted two passes and Rue picked off one to lead the Warrior defense.

Ruidoso outgained the visitors in total offense, picking up 450 yards to Belen's 290. Much of Belen's yardage came in the final quarter.

So the Warriors have come a long way this season, and they hope to repeat last season's success with a victory Saturday.

The game will be in the Wool Bowl in Roswell at 6:30 p.m.

Chuck Daniels has been a big force for the Warriors, running and catching the ball and playing middle linebacker.

Lights up

The Ruidoso Financial Center's outdoor Christmas trees will soon light up December nights. The trees are being professionally decorated by J & T Electric of Midland, Texas. Workers are Jeff McVey (top), Mike Smith (on ladder) and Tammy McVey (behind Smith).

Fire consumes Gavilan home

The Kenneth Hudson residence on Gavilan Canyon Road was destroyed by fire early this morning, according to a spokesman for the Bonito Volunteer Fire Department.

Pam Vile of Alto Ambulance said Hudson suffered some minor burns and smoke inhalation and was given oxygen at the scene. She said his wife was apparently unhurt.

Undersheriff Charlie Cox said the call came into Carrizozo about 1:11 a.m. and all available volunteers from the Bonito and Alto fire departments responded. Alto Ambulance volunteers also were dispatched to the fire.

The Ruidoso Fire Department also aided at the scene with equipment and firefighters.

Bonito Fire Chief Howard Puckett was not available for comment since he was back at the scene early this morning. His wife reported that the structure was "gone" by the time the firefighters arrived. She said they will remain on the scene at least part of today to be sure that all sparks are out.

Vile said the residents told firefighters the fire started when a spark from the woodburning stove chimney landed on the roof and ignited some pine needles.

Airport

he'll be on the commission after January 1, and fellow commissioners encouraged him to remain until the County Commission appoints a replacement. Nosker said he'll indicate to the three new commissioners his willingness to serve. Commissioners then discussed the upcoming tax referendum to be decided by Ruidoso voters on December 18. Funds from the .50 percent gross receipts tax increase are to be earmarked for purchasing the Ruidoso Municipal Airport land.

"Looks to me like it would be a bargain," said Coker. He said Ruidoso voters should make their decision based on whether they want to keep the airport land.

Nosker said the village has a city hall, two fire stations and some public roadways on land it has never paid for.

"They'd better buy it at the price it's appraised for," he added. Nosker said two people are just waiting to purchase the land at that price if the village opts to sell it.

Engineers review airport road plan

The third and final Sierra Blanca Regional Airport access road public hearing was conducted Tuesday.

A small group of people listened to a recap of previous meetings in a presentation given by Mel Dahlberg and Andres Aragon-Viamonte, of Bohannon-Huston, Incorporated, engineers on the project.

Lincoln County Commissioners approved, at the October 21 meeting, of the road plan to be used. Dahlberg, again, explained the path the road will take.

The environmental study was released on November 12. Copies of it have been distributed within the county, at the library and village halls in Ruidoso, Ruidoso Downs and Capitan for anyone wishing to read the study.

The engineering and environmental studies have been completed, with just a few additional soil samples needed to complete this phase of the work.

Fair value will be place on the land in the path of the road, according to Dahlberg, and Dan Swearingin will do the right of way appraisals. Frank Brooks, Santa Fe, will contact owners with the appraisals and discuss dedications with them.

On January 10 the reports will be presented to the Legislature for appropriations.

"Everyone along the roadway has cooperated," Dahlberg said, "except for one parcel we may have to begin condemnation proceedings on. However, this should not slow us up."

Option 2 was chosen at 7.3 miles from the future airport site to Highway 37, at a cost of approximately $5 million.

Parks and Rec to seek lodgers' tax $

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

Members of the Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Committee voted Monday to ask the Ruidoso Village Council for lodgers' tax funds.

After reading in state statutes that parks and recreation programs and facilities are high on the priority list for utilizing such funds, members decided to have the committee chairman ask for parks and recreations' "fair share in accordance with state statutes."

"When the Chamber of Commerce can come and get $142,000 to pay postage and hire another employee for a business that only stays open five days a week, parks and recreation should surely be able to get lodgers' tax funds," said committee member Dick Shaw.

"Until we start asking we're not going to get it," noted Bobby Bailey, director of the department and a member of the committee.

Members also voted to ask the Adult Recreation Advisory Board (ARAB) to meet with the Parks and Recreation Committee.

Shaw said the ARAB has had problems making a quorum and hasn't met for the past several months. Since the new organizational chart places the Adult Recreation Center within the Parks and Recreation Department, Shaw said perhaps the two groups should unite.

Committee secretary Rick Davis said he would like to know more about the function and duties of the ARAB before "jumping in."

Bailey said he would talk to center director Bette Romans about meeting together at ARAB's regularly scheduled meeting Thursday (today), December 4.

The Parks and Recreation Department was successful in obtaining a Bureau of Outdoor Resources grant, said Bailey. He said village engineer Mike Davalos presented a request for $41,000 to be used for a sprinkler system, domestic water system and curbing at the Eagle Creek sports complex.

The Village was granted $7,500 in federal funds and $3,250 in state funds, and will be expected to match the state monies with a local contribution.

Bailey said the adult basketball program is under way with open gym Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays at White Mountain School gymnasium. He said the men's basketball league will begin in January.

Members learned that by-laws they adopted at the last meeting do not have to be presented to the Village Council.

Bailey also reported that revenues from the softball complex can be entered into the village computer in a separate line item. He said he can make a case for putting those funds in the department budget during annual budget hearings.

Chairman L. Ray Nunley was absent from the meeting.

Football game to be televised live

Television station KENW Channel 3 of Portales, will televise live the football game between Ruidoso and Lovington in Roswell.

The game will start at 6:30 p.m. and will be played in the Wool Bowl. Administrators at the public television station said they'll cover the game live as a service to their viewers in both team's hometowns.

for ways to change their routes.

Janet Goodwin said some tourists might detour through Paradise Canyon and miss Sudderth Drive businesses altogether.

"You're doing this during the one month that the majority of us have to make our winter season," said John Raulerson.

Budgie Green, critical of the village administration's planning, reminded Davalos and Swenor that business is not that good.

"We're not on a salary like you folks," he added.

Carol Carter finally offered a "simple solution" to the whole problem.

"Our city fathers that don't seem to know what's going on could go down there by the old Gibson's and put up barbed wire with a 'no trespassing' sign and just close the son of a — down," suggested Carter.

Village manager Jim Hine noted that Jeffers and Shaw might want to talk to the outgoing governor who has lately commuted some sentences.

"We want him to take Ruidoso off death row," said Jeffers.

"And let us remind the city council that there's enough power in this room to elect or de-elect any of them," said Raulerson.

Water main break leaves some waterless

A village water main on Mechem Drive near the Sudderth Drive intersection broke Tuesday night leaving many village residents without water for a short time. By the time it was repaired late Wednesday the problem was complicated by a broken sewer main.

"We lost water all the way to Reservoir Road," said village engineer Mike Davalos. He said most of the service disruptions were in the area behind the Ruidoso Police Department.

Davalos said Wednesday morning most water users were back in service, but about 15 meters had been out of service most of the day. After the first water leak was found and repaired another leak developed in the line, but that, too, was repaired by 5 p.m. Wednesday, said Davalos.

Richard Sanchez, head of the Water Department said the break was in cast-iron pipe buried 10 feet deep.

Village crews worked well into the night to repair the sewer main, and Davalos said the line should be repaired sometime today (Thursday).

Village crews search for a water leak that left many villagers without water for a few hours.

Local stockmen to attend convention

There will be a joint Stockman's Meeting in Albuquerque today (Thursday) through Saturday, December 4, 5 and 6, at the Albuquerque Convention Center.

A large group of Lincoln County ranchers are expected to attend the annual event.

This joint meeting is a reunion of the New Mexico Cattle Grower's Association and the New Mexico Wool Growers' Association, according to Peter Mocho, president of the New Mexico Cattle Growers' and Mike Casabonne, president of the New Mexico Wool Growers', after 69 years.

Both presidents said early indications are that a record crowd will be in attendance. The two organizations have put together a program they said will be interesting, educational and fun for all members of both organizations.

Governor-elect Garrey Carruthers, Albuquerque Mayor Ken Schultz and other dignitaries will be present to help kick off this event at Thursday evening's "Welcome Party."

Friday morning will begin with a Family Breakfast. Shirley Lueth, from Nebraska, will be the guest speaker. She is an author, syndicated columnist and humorist.

In addition to committee meetings and breed meetings on Friday, a Tax Reform Seminar is scheduled to help ranchers learn more about the new tax law.

A panel discussion on Weed Suppression on New Mexico Rangelands will be Friday afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

Also Friday evening is Casino Night to help the Young Cattlemen's Scholarship Fund and to start a Legal Defense Fund.

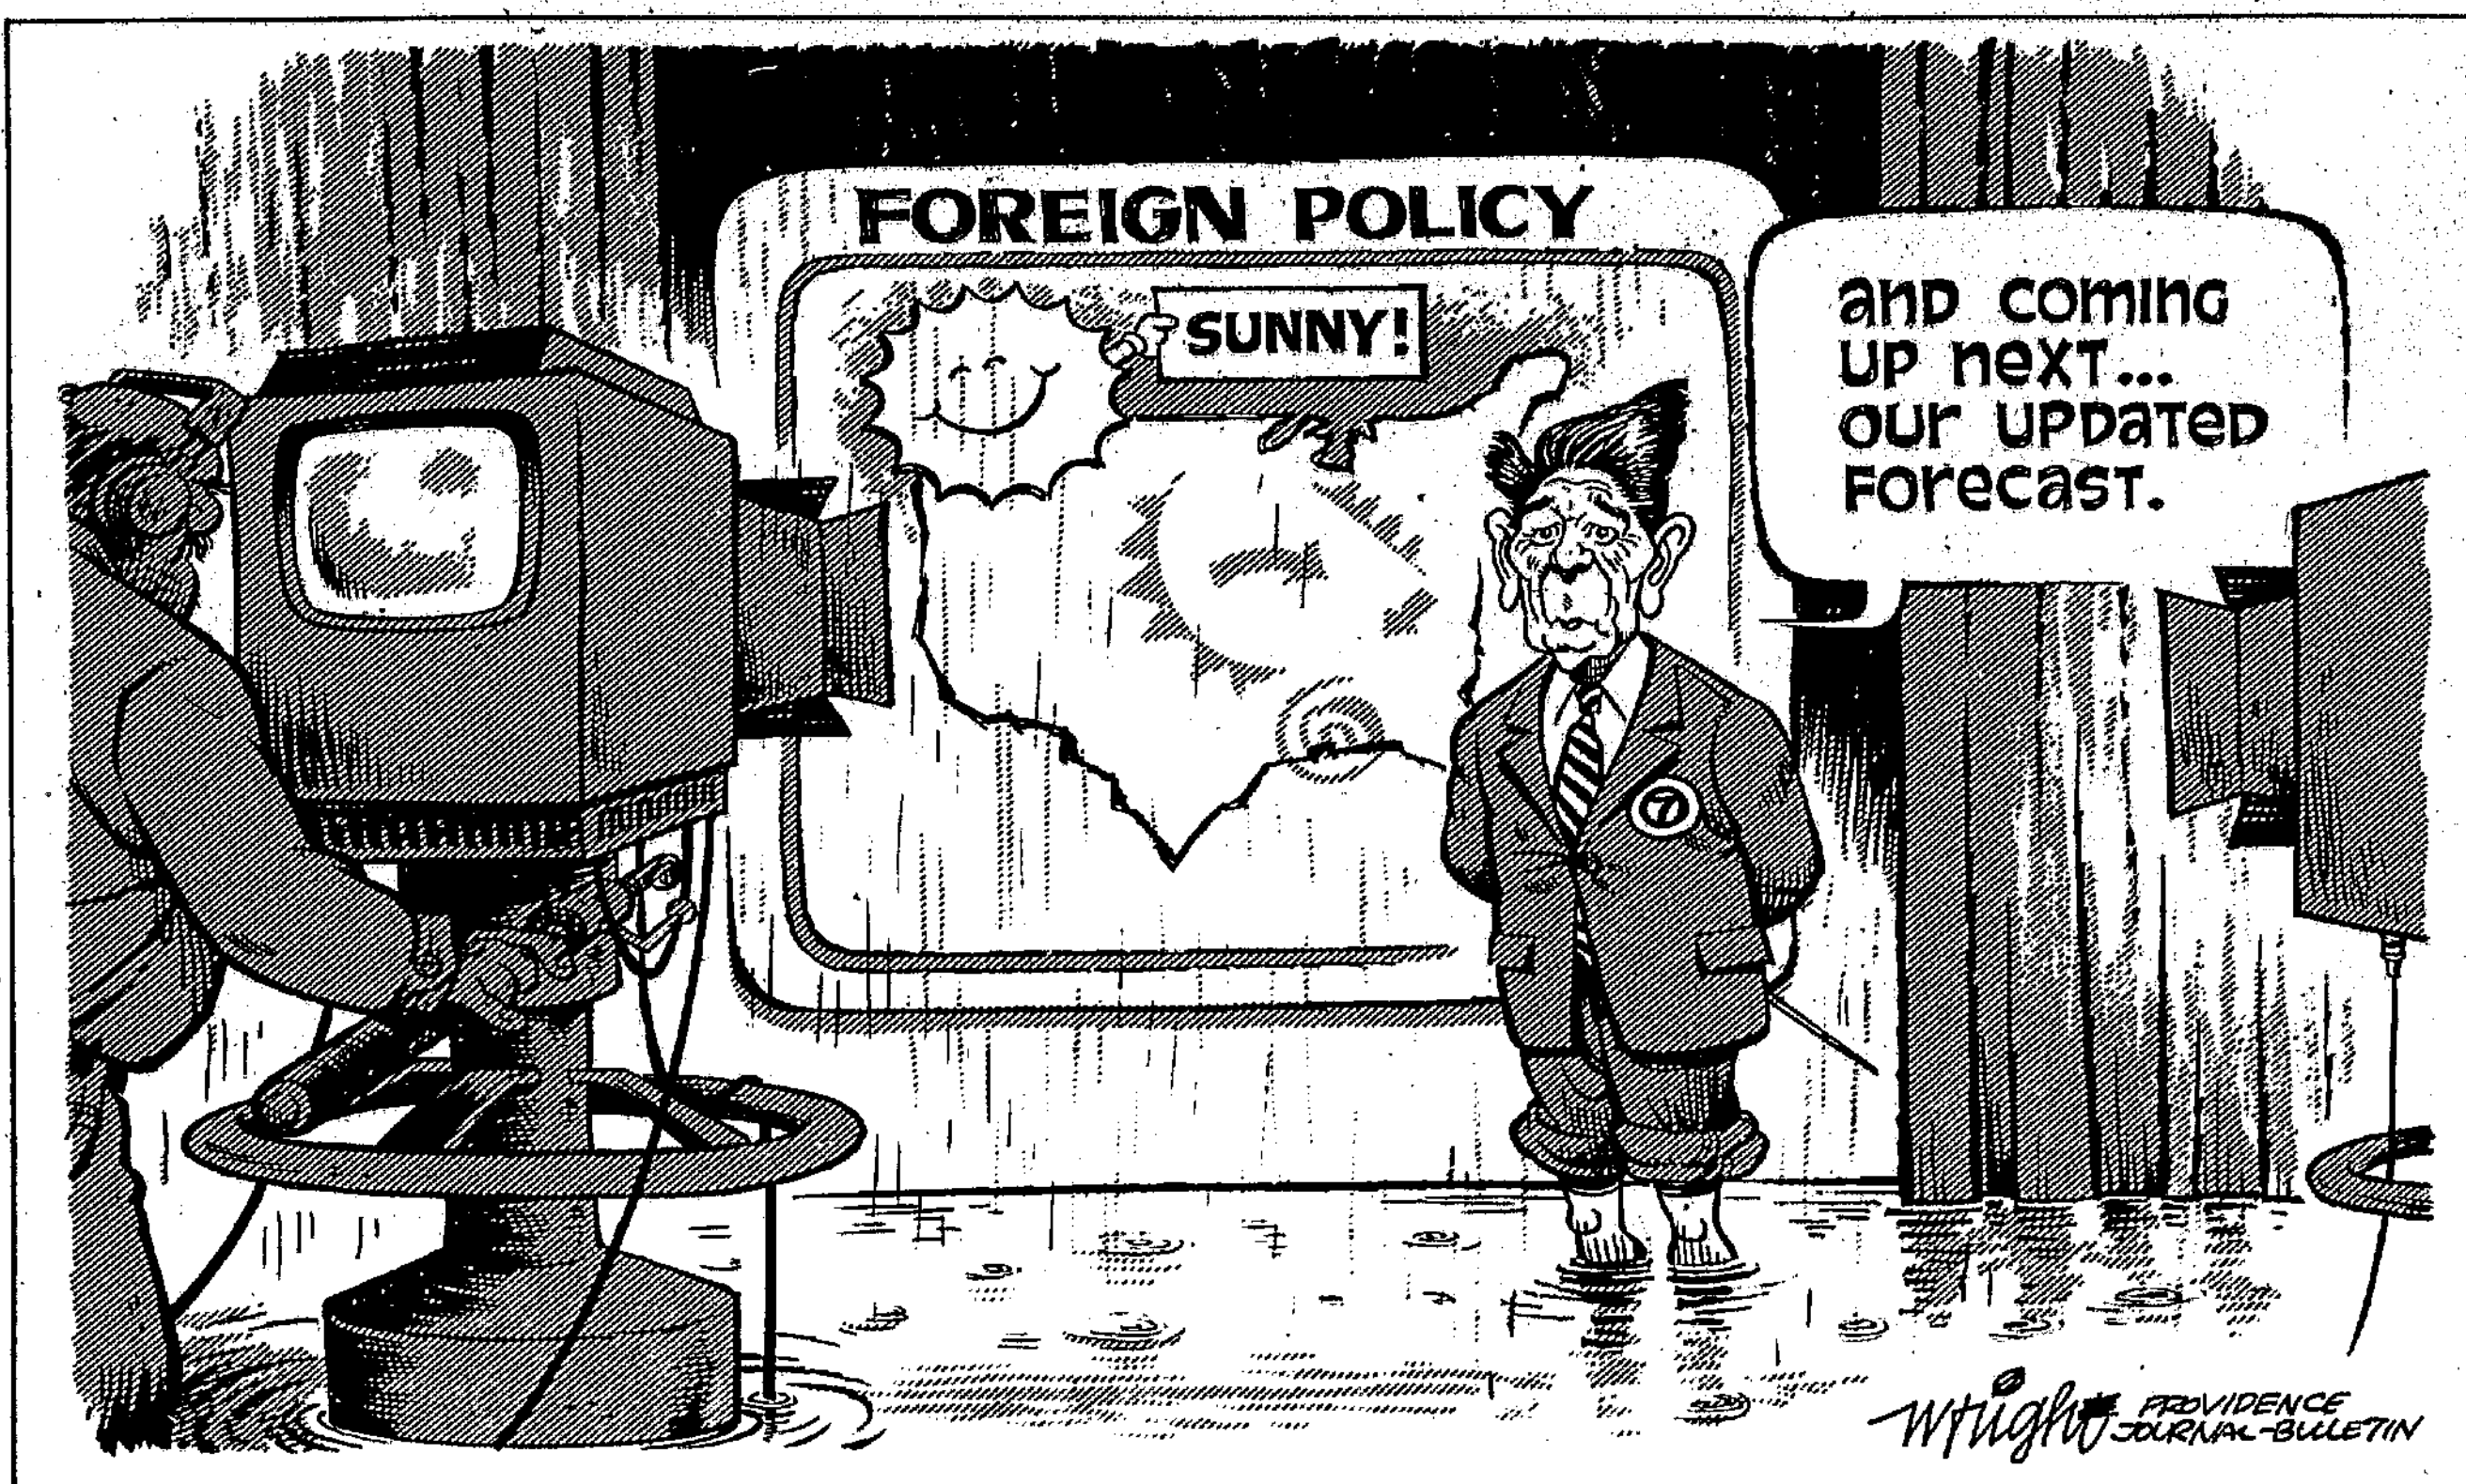

Saturday morning will begin with more committee meetings, and the traditional Men's and Children's Lunch and Ladies' Luncheon and Style Show will begin at 11:30 a.m.

Dale L. Minnick, from Edmond, Oklahoma, will be the guest speaker at the General Session on Saturday beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Saturday evening will be the grand finale of the joint meeting with the Cattleman of the Year and the Sheepman of the Year being named. A dance will follow.

The New Mexico CowBelles, Feeder Committee and various breed associations will be having their meetings in conjunction with the joint Stockmen's Meeting.

The Ruidoso Warrior football team will defend their state title this weekend in Roswell in what is expected to be a very tough game with the Lovington Wildcats.

The gridgers will battle for the state crown at the Wool Bowl, a neutral site, at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

Neither team will have the home field advantage. Followers of football, especially high school football, know what a difference a charged up home crowd can make for a team.

Tickets for the championship game are available at the Ruidoso High School main office for $3 and $4.

By attending this championship game, local sports fans can bring a "home field advantage" to Roswell. Let's give the team all the support we can. Get charged up!—DJP

GO WARRIORS!

Inside the Capitol

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—In the capital city, this is the time of year for what Washington calls "mark-up sessions." They are an interesting example of government at work.

These are the kind of sit-down meetings at which legislators review the drafts of bills their committees have requested to have drawn, so the texts can be changed and corrected to say as exactly as possible what the group wants said.

To get to this point, of course, there has already been a lot of give-and-take, and as the discussions go on and revisions are made, there will be more. Now, give-and-take, though remarkably many public servants don't appear to understand that fact, is what representative government is all about. If certain of our local leaders had a firmer grasp on that concept, the recent political history of New Mexico would have run a whole lot smoother, and we would all be happier citizens today.

There is much quiet pleasure in sensing that some of that sensible spirit is already creeping back into the Roundhouse, where there has been far too much of a take-it-or-leave-it mood among those who had the power in the last few years.

A good example is the interim legislative committee that was named to look at the state's investment policies and practices.

This group was assigned its job by the iron-fisted men in charge then, Senator Les Houston and Speaker Gene Sambers. At the time of its naming, everyone expected that this gathering, like all such interim committees, had pretty well been told what its conclusions were to be. That's the way the Houstonites especially ran the ballgame in those days.

But in the time since the group was appointed, certain changes took place. In the Senate, the Houston machine ground to a halt, when Senator Ike Smalley of Deming was selected to replace Houston as top dog in the upper chamber. What's more; it's now clear that those who were in charge on the House side will be replaced, and Republicans, always in a minority there, will have to learn once again to act like a minority.

That change in the status of power did not fail to impress Senator Joe Carraro and Representative Stu Hill, both of Albuquerque, who co-chaired this committee. As a result, there was much more openness in the matters considered and much more receptiveness in the minds of all parties by the time conclusions had to be arrived at than has been seen in committee rooms in our capitol in some time.

We will all benefit from that change.

Among the truly innovative proposals this group will now put forward for legislators to consider are these:

—A bill to professionalize the Investment Council by setting high standards for those who may be named to it, removing all elected officials, including the governor, from it and giving it the power to hire and fire the Investment Officer who runs the day-by-day activities.

—A bill to end legislative "Christmas trees" once for all by insisting that all projects for capital construction and issuance of bonds be approached on a one-at-a-time basis. This would require that a separate bill be introduced for each such proposal, so that each may be considered on its own merits, rather than having them grouped into one massive presentation with something in it for almost everybody, as has been the custom here for years.

Now, it is perfectly obvious that merely having drafted bills is only the start of the process; there still a long distance before such measures get to the desk of the governor for his consideration. Still, it is clear that this group, with the help of some outstanding advisory members from outside the legislative community, has done an extremely good job. All its members can be proud of their accomplishments.

It would be hard to predict whether the end product of that committee named to look at the workers compensation system will come to much or not. It doesn't seem likely that much of what has been drafted by the committee to study higher education will ever see the light of day. But many of the proposals of this investment committee will most likely be enacted during the coming legislative session. If so, the state will be the better for it.

Letters to the editor

DEAR EDITOR:

A small group of Ruidoso residents gathered at the Casa Blanca Restaurant last Friday evening for what might be termed "a happening."

Several days prior to the gathering one member of the group announced to a few friends "I want to give an art lecture; it could be the first of a series. Am I crazy or do you think it might work?"

"Well, what do you want to talk about?" one friend replied.

"I'd like to talk about the role of the artist in society, and his contributions to civilization. Perhaps start with the cave-drawings of early man...why he made them and what purpose they served...and eventually include the contributions of artists to the technical, scientific, and religious segments of society. Maybe even the role of artists in Ruidoso."

Many people in Lincoln County are familiar with the works of Stephen Long the artist. Only the few, 20 more or less, who gathered at the Casa Blanca last Friday have seen and heard Stephen Long the lecturer.

It was an evening to be remembered; an evening that should have been enjoyed by many more. They would have been proud of Stephen's emergence as a speaker.

The preparations were more impressive than polished. His opening was somewhat rough and disjointed including some temporary difficulty with the sketch-board and felt marker...even the lighting left much to be desired...but those in attendance witnessed a dedication, a sincerity of purpose, an integrity of spirit, and an ever-present sense of humor which, in combination, provided more than sufficient support for the historical perspective he presented. It was an excellent and beautiful beginning.

The community of Ruidoso can only be that much richer if Stephen Long does, indeed, invite us to share other evenings while he explores the artist and his role in society.

BILL MOORE

DEAR EDITOR:

I've lived in Ruidoso 30 years and can honestly say there has never been a dull moment (or very few, anyway.) The Council meetings seem to be upholding the Ruidoso tradition admirably and Frankie Jarrell's accounts of the meetings make wonderful reading. I really regret that business takes us out of town and we have to miss these outstanding shows. They must be the best entertainment in the area.

In spite of the "everybody hates everybody" sort of thing, it seems to me that much is being accomplished. There are not platoons of police speeding up and down main street now, harassing the tourists—We are finally getting some safety measures at the 37-70 junction—Lots of new businesses opening (even as lots of others are closing!)—Was ever thus in Ruidoso.

In spite of everything, Ruidoso is a great place to live and we never hesitate to defend it—and we get the opportunity often. Am reasonably sure that we have the most colorful Mayor and Council around and they do a good job with what they have to work with—the people of Ruidoso. The very thing that attracts most people to Ruidoso—a freer, looser lifestyle—not having to conform to "Yuppie" standards, etc., is also the thing that makes it difficult for them to get along together. They are, by and large, a bunch of individualists and great people to have as friends.

I feel SURE that Ruidoso is going to make it this fine—Maybe we aren't "Harmony Valley", but neither are we "Dullsville" but a super little town.

Reporter's Round

By Frankie Jarrell

"Don't mess with Texas."

We read it on road signs, we heard it on the radio and we saw it on television when we visited the Lone Star State last weekend.

It sounded kind of mean, and as Texans transplanted to New Mexico, we were glad to learn that those words are a slogan for a state-wide anti-littering campaign, not a new attitude.

When a couple of Dallas Cowboys teamed up to sing the "Don't Mess with Texas" song on TV it was obvious they meant business—but it still sounded mean.

And maybe that rude slogan is about as much as Ruidoso is allowed to say about the lovely Texas highways. By the time we got back to this peaceful mountain we knew the little jungle really meant, "don't mess with TEXANS."

We didn't want to go to Texas, but when Texan friends get married they insist on having the ceremony in their hometown. So it was off to El Paso last weekend.

Driving across the border between New Mexico and Texas, we had the right of way for the very last time.

As Texans sped past on the freeway entrances, we didn't mess with them ... as Texans pushed us aside to be first on and off the elevator of our hotel, we didn't mess with them ... as Texans stomped our feet and shoved us aside in the crowded shopping mall, we didn't mess with them.

Airport at El Paso International Airport on Sunday, we certainly didn't mess with anybody. We tried to be small, and we tried to stay out of the way.

It seemed that we had made it through without being trampled or pushed out a window—we waved goodbye as our daughter boarded a plane bound for San Francisco. We joked that she would land in California before we got out of the parking lot.

As it turned out it wasn't such a funny joke—nearly an hour later we were still waiting our turn in the line exiting the airport parking lot.

My motto was beginning to be, "don't mess with me! ... don't even think about it."

But that was not to be, for after our car was finally maneuvered in to the long exit line, one aggressive Texas driver headed the nose of his big car into the very spot filled by our vehicle.

We had had enough—don't mess with us, mister! It was a stand-off only for a moment, for a woman jumped from a nearby car and stood right in front of us while the driver of her car and the aggressive man pulled smoothly into line ahead of us.

The woman gave us a smug look, as if to say, "don't mess with me!" It's probably a good thing we didn't.

For tempers flaring in crowded traffic streets and freeways can lead to violence and even death. A boy was shot to death in Los Angeles, California, just last week over a traffic-related incident.

But why don't these people realize we're Texans, too—we talk like Texans, we wear boots and even walk like Texans? Why can't they be nice to us and be mean to Yankees?

And that's when we saw the light—this frantic hurry-up attitude on streets, freeways and shopping centers of big cities has nothing to do with Texas or any other state. It's just something that happens when thousands and thousands of people live, work and play in one city.

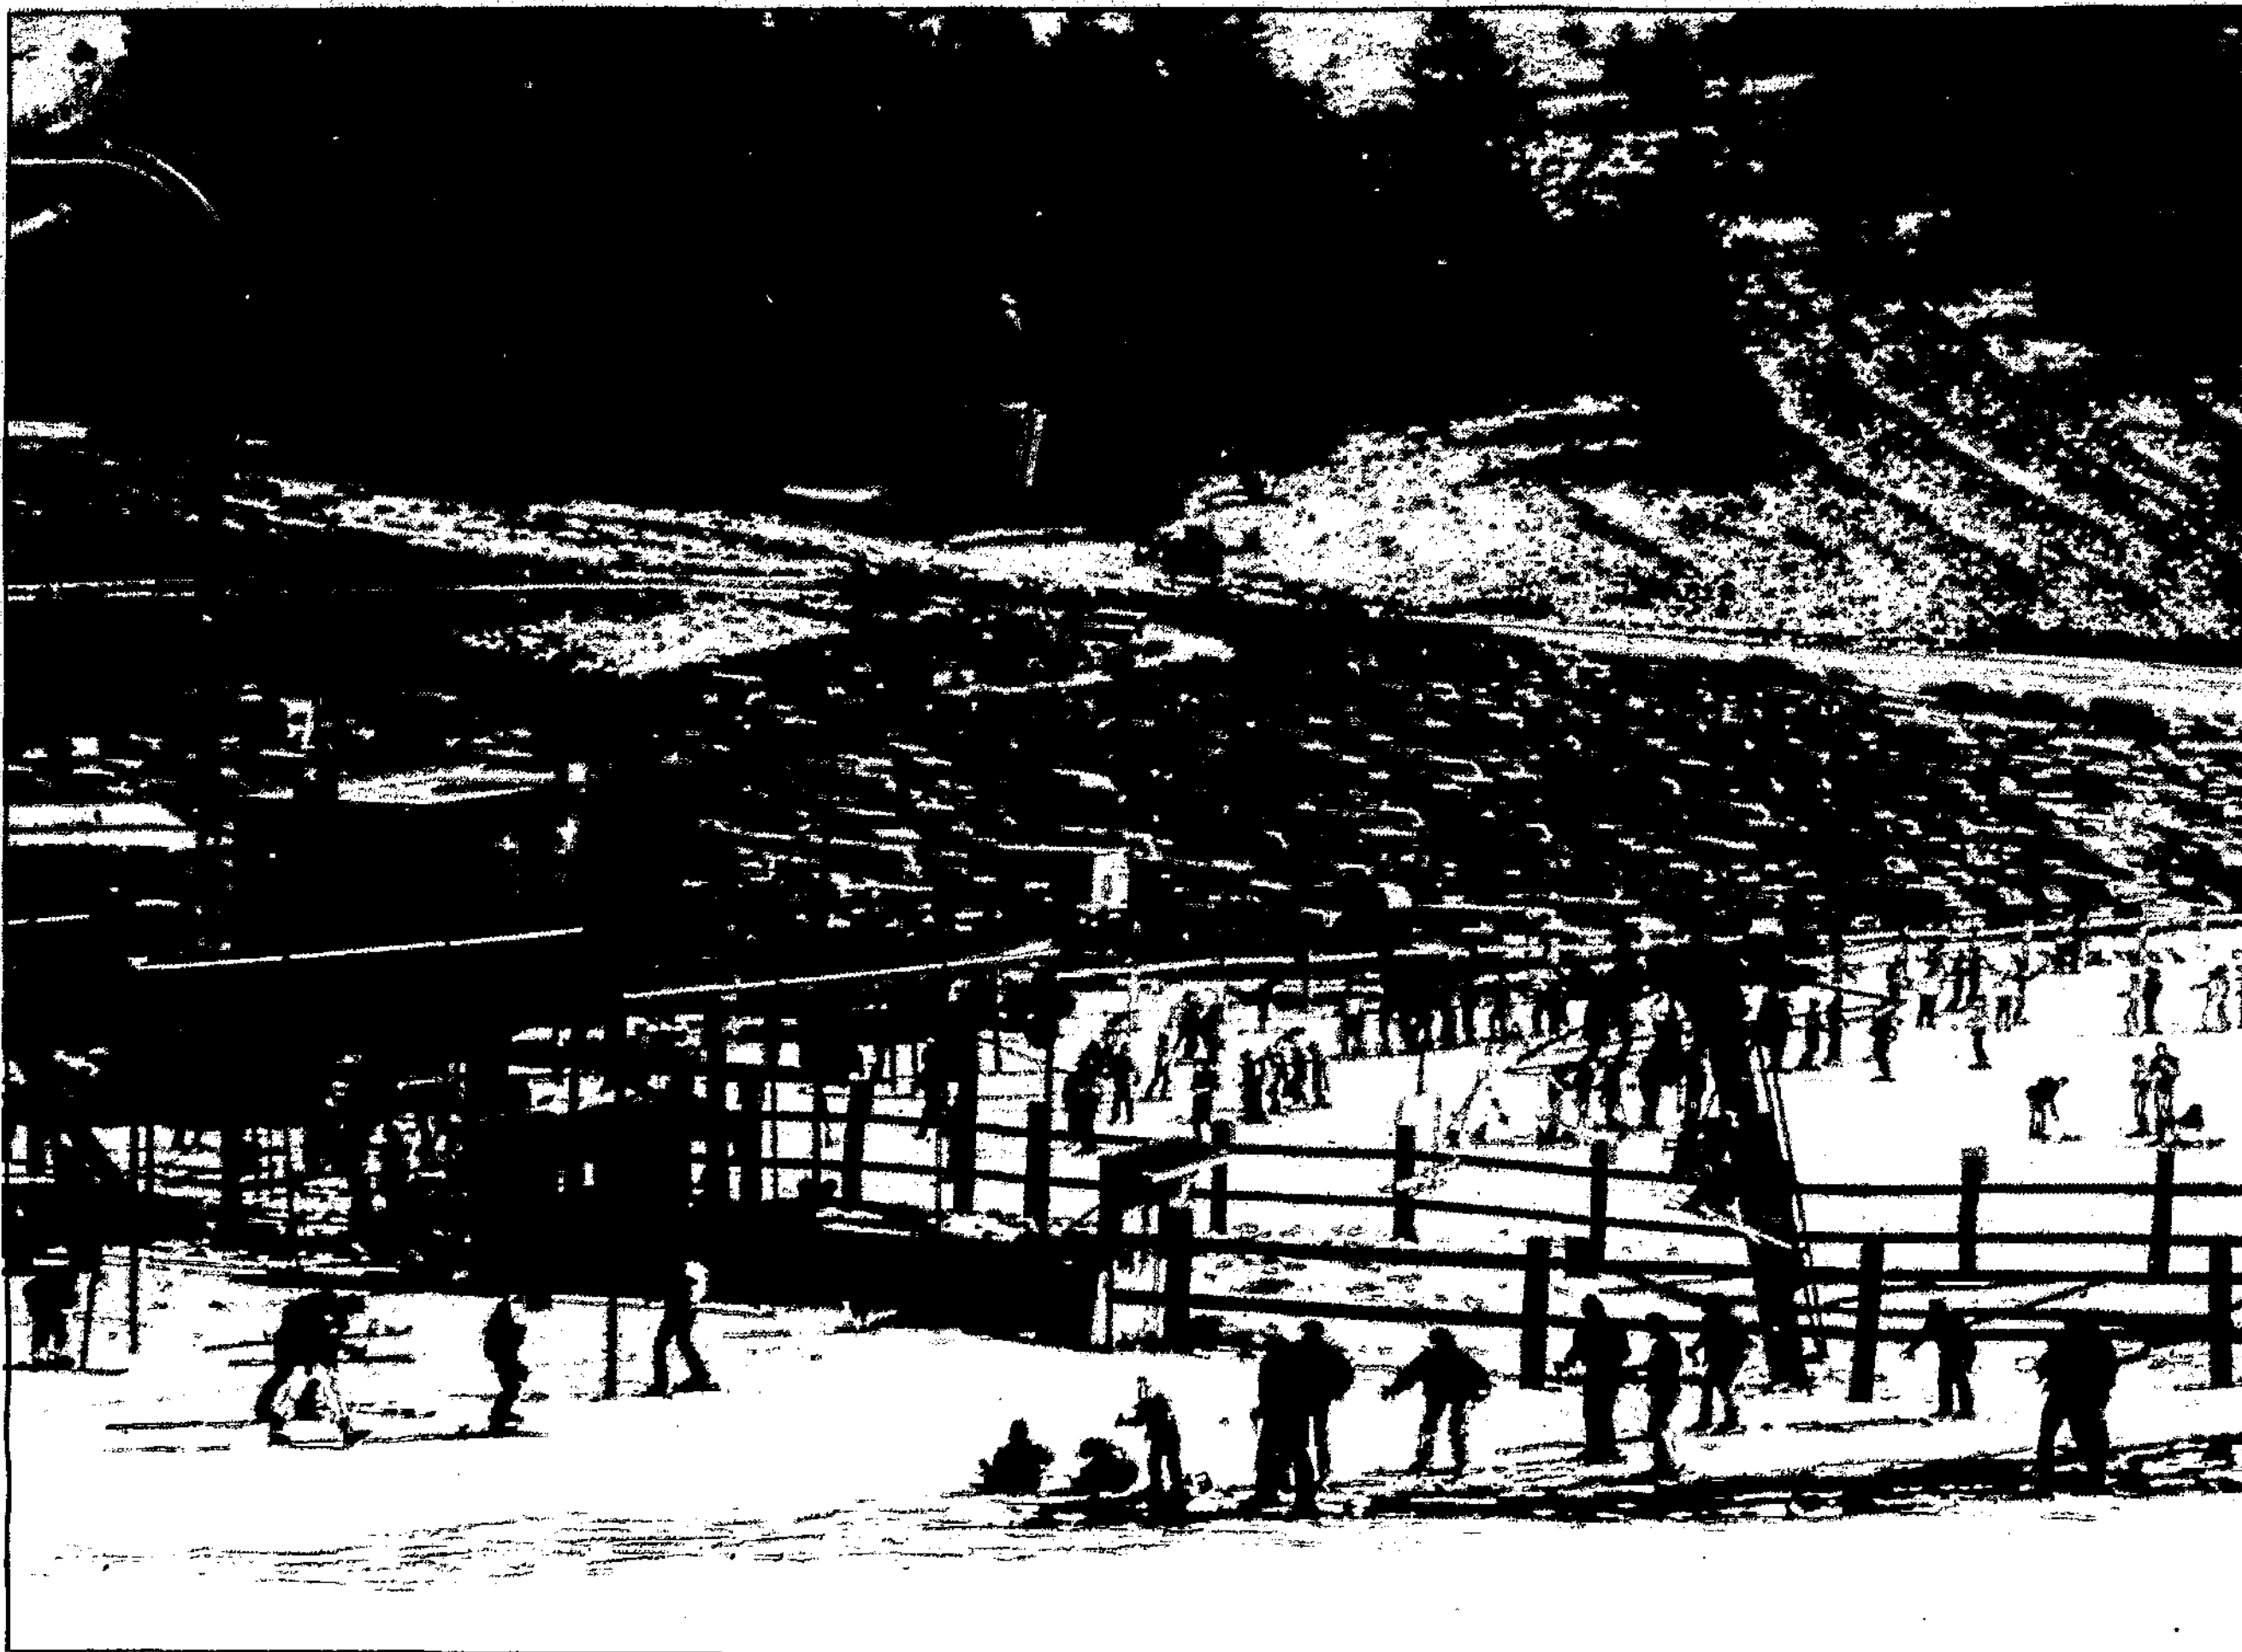

It seems, then, to become an attitude—one of protecting even the smallest space from being invaded by another person. We were overcome by that attitude by spending just two days in that huge city. When that woman stood in front of our car, I was ready to shoot her!

So, when you go to any big city, don't mess with anybody!

Or better yet, do what I plan to do—stay home where the air is clean and there's enough for everyone.

And, dear Texans, you're cordially invited to Ruidoso, we won't mess with you.

Blulady Chick, a Chicks Go Man filly, recorded the fastest clocking of 19.970 in the trials for the Sunland Park Fall Quarter Horse Futurity last Friday. Other trial winners include La Milagrosa (20.145), The Cartel (20.555) and Dash Buster (20.435).

The qualifiers for the $75,000 event include Blulady Chick (19.970), La Milagrosa (20.145), Shy Gringo (20.210), Titanium Lad (20.245), Raise A Count (20.27), Love Me Again (20.270), High Pressure Area (20.290), Captive Crickett (20.950), Im On The Money To (20.385) and Sompinikaglass (20.435).

J.E. Jumonville paid the $5,000 supplemental nomination to enter Sompinikaglass in the Fall Futurity trials and it nearly went up in smoke. The multiple stakes winning filly turned in a disappointing effort in the trials, but won a shake for the 10th qualifying spot. She should be the one to beat in the final if she returns to her form.

Jockey David Lidberg returned to Sunland Park's riding circle last Saturday to win two races. The young reinsman is Sunland regular Mike Lidberg's "little" brother and in between meetings, Dave plans to head to Oaklawn Park in Arkansas for the Spring meeting in February and is a regular rider at Canterbury Downs, Ak-Sar-Ben and The Downs At Santa Fe and Albuquerque.

The 10-year-old quarter horse Biscuits And Gravy continues to improve after a long lay-off. The son of Go Man Go finished third in an allowance test on Saturday and was closing sharply at the wire.

Five lucky bettors managed to win the Twin Trifecta Saturday after the carryover had climbed to over $21,000. The winning combination of 7-3-2 exchanged for 7-8-3 returned each ticket holder a hefty $6,089 for a $1 ticket.

Jockey Mike Charles, trainer Benton Zworschke and owner Ronald Orr combined to win their second consecutive stakes race after Cola Diabla took the $30,000 Sunland Fall Derby on Sunday. The threesome also teamed up to win the $117,000 All American Sale Futurity earlier in the month with Raise A Count, who also qualified for the upcoming Sunland Fall Futurity.

There was only one claim in last week's action. Jimmie C. Collier claimed Bright Investment on Sunday after the gelding finished 7th in the seventh race. The claim ticket was signed for $3,200.

Salustio Burgos continues to top the local rider standings again this week after the veteran helmsman recorded four wins over last weekend's card, including three winners on Sunday. His total for the season is now 24, just two ahead of Mike Lidberg and three in front of Pedro Benitez.

Trainer Fred Danley continues lead the trainer standings. The conditioner saddled two more winners last week to bring his count to 18. The Anthony resident holds a seven-win margin over Doyal Roberts and is eight tallies ahead of Lewis Germany and Jake Cascio.

It's Cola Diabla by a neck in Derby

Jockey Mike Charles breathed a sigh of relief after the troublesome filly Cola Diabla pulled off a narrow victory in Sunday's Fall Quarter Horse Derby at Sunland Park Racetrack.

"I was worried about her standing in the gates," the young rider said after the win, adding that Cola Diabla had knocked herself out of contention many times by flipping in the gates. "She's a fractious mare, but she stood there perfect today."

Cola Diabla lined up for the $30,000 Fall Derby with the second-fastest qualifying time among the 10 finalists. Charles had the California-bred miss out alertly on the break and took the lead a short distance from the gates in the 440-yard showdown.

She held off a strong bid from 9-1 outsider Timeto Get Tuff to win by a neck with a final time of 21.68 seconds. It was the second big win this month for trainer Benton Zworschke and owner Ronald Orr, who pocketed $59,000 two weeks ago when Raise A Count won the All American Sale Futurity at Sunland. Charles also had the riding assignment for that stakes race.

Sunday's Derby victory added another $15,000 to Orr's bankroll. Zworschke said Cola Diabla would return to the West Coast for a well-deserved rest. The swift filly has spent much of her sophomore year traveling between Louisiana, Texas, California and New Mexico. Before shipping to Sunland for the Fall Derby, Zworschke campaigned Cola Diabla at Hollywood Park in Inglewood, California.

Timeto Get Tuff's surprising second-place effort earned $5,000 for Vincent Fister Jr. of Westerville, Ohio. Julie Jewson trains the son of 1973 All American Futurity winner Timeto Thinkrich. Favorite Heisabigboy checked in another half-length behind Timeto Get Tuff. Third was worth $3,000 to Juarez newspaper publisher Osvaldo Rodriguez. Albert Pina saddled the Pass Em Up colt, who was ridden by Jerry Rodriguez.

Here's how the rest of the field finished for the Fall Quarter Horse Derby: 4th - Real Moody, 5th - Miss Featurette, 6th - Doc Scott Jay, 7th - Sea Six, 8th - Princess Lady Bugs, 9th - Easily An Angel and 10th - Jetatta.

Pride of Charge marches to win in 'Cap Saturday

Jockey Danny Sorenson made a bold move aboard Pride Of Charge in deep stretch to post a decisive victory for Saturday's $9,000 Dona Ana Handicap at Sunland Park Racetrack.

Early in the afternoon program, Sunland's Twin Trifecta events were finally tagged as five fans held winning tickets that each returned $5,000. The payoff came after the wager opened with a four-day carryover of more than $21,000. Nearly 3,000 fans bet another $23,000 chasing the big payoff on Saturday.

In Saturday's headliner, Pride Of Charge was dismissed at more than 8-1 odds after drawing the far outside post position for the 870-yard Dona Ana 'Cap.

Rider Sorenson had the quarter horse away from the gates a bit slowly, racing just off the pace as the 10-horse field rounded the far turn. Bubba Who, who broke from the rail post, took the early lead under veteran Leroy Coombs, while

Just Another Jet pressed the leader with Joe Martinez at the helm.

As the field lined up for the final drive, Sorenson slipped through an opening as Bubba Who lunged toward the grandstand. He continued to draw away down the lane, stopping the timer in 46.63 seconds with a widening 1 1/2-length margin. Trainer Doyal Roberts Sr. saddled the winner, who earned $5,600 for owner Stanley Cornstubble.

"I was going to go right between them," Sorenson said of his strategy for the Dona Ana after Pride Of Charge caught Bubba Who and Just Another Jet at the head of the stretch. "Then the No. 1 horse lunged out, so I moved over to the rail."

Poly's Director closed strongly in the final furlong to steal runner-up money from Bubba Who by a slim nose. Laras Lovell trains the 4-year-old colt, who is owned by Dr. Sidney Zargas. Second was worth $2,000. Bubba Who earned $1,000 for trainer/owner Muri Smith.

Blulady Chick is top qualifier for Fall Futurity

Sunland Park Racetrack's Twin Trifecta carryover pool soared to more than $21,000 on Friday as 2,600 fans were unable to peg the exotic wager for the fourth straight program.

Lloyd Shelhamer, president of Nuevo Sol Turf Club, announced

Friday that Sunland Park will increase purses for its higher quality races from 15 to 20 percent.

"The increase will be reflected in our purse structure on Dec. 5," Shelhamer said, adding that the move "will offer more incentive for quality racing at Sunland."

Friday's card featured four trials for the $75,000 Fall Quarter Horse Futurity with the 10 fastest horses advancing to the final on Dec. 14.

Blulady Chick, a filly owned by Burl Master of Lubbock, Texas, stepped off the top qualifying time under rider Joe Martinez in the opening division.

Racing at 9-1 odds, Martinez piloted the Texas-bred miss to a 1 3/4-length victory to stop the electronic timer in 19.975 seconds - a seasonal best for 400 yards.

The Richard Nolen trainee will be gunning for the biggest jackpot of her young career in the Fall Quarter Horse Futurity, which hands its winner $37,000. Blulady Chick has earned only $6,500 in 11 appearances this year.

Qualifying in the same heat with Blulady Chick were Shy Gringo, Love Me Again, Raise A Count and Im On The Money To.

Sompinikaglass, the 6-5 favorite who finished sixth to the fleet filly, tied with Dash Buster for the final berth. A drawing Saturday morning will determine which of the two horses advances to the final.

Rounding out the field are La Milagrosa, Titanium Lad and High Pressure Area.

Jockey/Trainer Standings

Jockey Salustio Burgos nailed down the Jockey-of-the-Week honors and took the top spot in the local rider standings as the reinsman posted four wins last weekend including three on Sunday's card. Trainer Paul Smith recorded three wins over the weekend to take the same honors in the training department with three winners. While Burgos is in sole possession of the lead in the jockey standings, Mike Lidberg also had a good weekend and moved into second place in the standings with 22 wins. Pedro Benitez is third with 21 tallies and Joe Martinez and Danny Sorenson round out the top five with 13 winners.

Other riders in the top 10 are

Leroy Coombs (11), Jerry Rodriguez (10), Lewie Germany (10), Juan Arteaga (9) and Glen Lowry (9).

Defending champ Fred Danley continues his hold in the training department with a seven-win margin over Doyal Roberts. Danley has saddled 18 winners while Roberts has 11. Lewis Germany and Jake Cascio are next with 10 trips to the winner's circle, while Cliff Lambert Sr., Paul Smith and Richard Fry have recorded nine tallies.

Cliff Lambert Jr. (8), Gerald Marr (7), Frank Cappellucci (6) and Johnny Montes Jr. (6) are also in the top 10.

Visitors browse at Carrizo Lodge's First Annual Arts & Crafts Fair, in which 33 artists participated. Lodge management estimates approximately 500 people visited during the recent day-and-a-half fair.

A common question at the "Texas Turdles" table of the Carrizo Arts & Crafts Fair last weekend was, "Daddy, what are they made of?" Answers ranged from, "That stuff you have to be careful not to step on in the pasture," to "Don't ask." Left, young Scott Henderson's father explains.

One of the biggest draws at the fair was Capitan's Bessie Jones busily spinning yarn from locally produced wool. Janice Gnatkowski from Carrizozo keeps watch. The garments hanging on the racks behind were all hand-knitted from homespun yarn such as this.

Republican women elect new officers

Federated Republican Women of Lincoln County will be installing new officers on Tuesday. Outgoing officers, having served for two years, are (from left) Noema Page, 1st vice president; Fran Siddens, treasurer; Lois Aldridge, president; and Martha Proctor secretary.

Lincoln County Federated Republican Women (LCFRWC) voted in a new slate of officers for 1987 at their meeting Tuesday.

Accepted by acclamation, the 1987 officers will be President Inez Tanner, 1st Vice President Martha Proctor, 2nd Vice President Shirley Goodloe, Secretary Lois Hostetter and Treasurer Fran Siddens.

The officers will be sworn in at the Christmas party set for Tuesday, December 9, at the home of Opal Mills. Rhonda Johnson will install the officers at the covered dish party.

Treasurer Fran Siddens requested the club books be audited for the year. President Lois Aldridge appointed an audit committee. The committee will audit the books prior to Siddens resuming her duties as treasurer for 1987.

Members agreed to donate money to the food bank in the LCFRWC name; for ham and turkeys that will be given out to needy families by the Ruidoso Police and Fire departments on Thanksgiving and Christmas.

LCFRWC will furnish a light luncheon to new county officials and their guests after the swearing in ceremonies January 2, at the County Courthouse, Carrizozo.

Honored at the Pink Ladies semi-annual luncheon Tuesday were members whose volunteer hours reached specified levels over the past six months. Shown after receiving their pins are (seated, from left) Mary Ann Jennings, 2,500 hours; Sally Avery, 2,000 hours; Lorene Ross, 2,500 hours; and Jodie Keyes, 6,000 hours. Standing, from left are Helga Haake who received an 8,500-hour pin and Nell Trout who was awarded an 8,000-hour pin; Mabel Johnson (not pictured) has earned a 9,000-hour award for her volunteer service.

Members of the hospital auxiliary receiving volunteer pins at a Tuesday luncheon include 100-hour award winners (seated, from left) Fay Barnes, Thena Clarke, Dugan Horn-buckle, Inez Tanner and (standing, left) Louise Davis. Nadyne Brookings (standing, right) received a 500-hour service pin.

Hospital Pink Ladies have busy fall

Pink Ladies President Sally Avery reported an impressive list of accomplishments for the hospital auxiliary over the past three months.

During the group's semi-annual awards luncheon Tuesday, Avery reported the Pink Ladies have completely renovated the Pink Shop at the hospital, spending just over $3,000 and utilizing volunteer help and contributed materials worth twice that.

Other accomplishments Avery listed include starting a newsletter entitled the "Pink Page," purchasing a long list of badly needed hospital equipment, awarding a $500 scholarship and conducting two blood drives.

Avery said the Pink Ladies have gained 16 new members, including three "pink" gentlemen. She said the organization now has nine male members.

Pink Ladies have named Pinky Manier and C.L. "Bones" Wright lifetime members of the auxiliary. Avery said certificates have been ordered to give to all lifetime members.

Members of the hospital auxiliary have voted to aid in the renovation of the hospital, said Avery.

Members were awarded volunteer pins according to the hours completed over the past six months.

Earning 100-hour pins were Fay Barnes, Billie Clarke, Thena Clarke, Louise Davis, Chuck Hamilton, Dugan Hornbuckle, Peggy Livingston, Lois Squires and Inez Tanner.

Happy Holidays

350 reached for Thanksgiving; more help needed for Christmas

After distributing Thanksgiving baskets to 77 families that included 350 people, Happy Holidays organizers are looking ahead to Christmas.

"There are many, many families who just won't have a good Christmas if we don't help," said Danny Garcia of the Ruidoso Fire Department.

The Fire Department and the Ruidoso Police Department will be coordinating the annual food drive for the seventh year.

"But it's the people of the city who really help," said Garcia.

He said not all needy families whose names were on the list for Thanksgiving were provided with food because Happy Holidays just didn't receive enough food and cash to meet the great need. Garcia hopes that every family with a need will be helped during the Christmas Happy Holidays drive.

Food, cash and new or good usable toys are being collected at distribution points throughout the city. Garcia said clubs and individuals often volunteer to "adopt a family" through Happy Holidays.

He said he can provide information on families of all sizes if anyone wants to shop for a certain size family. Garcia may be reached at the Ruidoso Fire Department, 257-4116.

Happy Holidays will also sponsor a Christmas tree with information on area children who might otherwise be missed on Christmas. Garcia said more on the tree will be announced later.

Food and toy collection bins are located at all Ruidoso schools, the Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs police departments, the Ruidoso Fire Department, both Safeways, Bennett's Shur-Sav, Sierra Blanca Motors, KREE radio, Cablevision, Four Seasons Mall and Sierra Mall.

"We do the best we can," said Garcia.
