Bonds squeak by

The Ruidoso Municipal Schools (RMS) bond issue passed. But bond issue voting last Tuesday was close.

RMS officials had some anxious moments as the votes were unofficially tabulated after the polls closed at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The final results—250 for the $2.6 million bond issuance and 232 against the bond issuance.

Eighteen "for" votes will allow RMS to make additions and improvements to all school sites, including W.D. Horton Stadium.

It was one of the closest votes on a school bond issuance in the history of RMS, according to some longtime area residents.

Lincoln County Clerk Fran Sidens said no absentee votes were cast. The official canvass of the election concluded at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the clerk's office.

RMS superintendent Sid Miller said he was "pleased" that voters passed the bond issuance.

Miller said the economy made the final vote close, in his opinion.

An area rancher, who asked not to be identified, said he voted against the bond issuance because he was experiencing economic difficulties.

"You can't expect people around here to tighten their belts, especially ranchers with good size mortgages, and then just hand over money to the schools," the rancher said.

"With things so uncertain no one knows how many people are going to stay here. I'm for good schools, but until things straighten out a little with the economy, I think we ought to hold off on any tax increases," the rancher said.

Bonds will be sold in two installments. One series of bonds will be sold in 1986 and the second series is scheduled for sale in 1987, according to school officials.

For the most part, lines to vote were short in the school bond election last Tuesday at Ruidoso Middle School. The bond issue passed by 18 votes. A total of 482 votes were cast in Tuesday's election.

Council consumed by compactor concerns

by FRANKIE JARRELL

Trash was a major item of discussion Tuesday for the Ruidoso Village Council as members heard that the new trash compactor is in operation, talked of who may use the system and endorsed plans for a clean-up campaign.

Al Junge thanked Mayor Lloyd L. Davis Jr. for getting the new village trash compaction system operating "four years and four months" after the previous council approved its purchase.

Junge estimated the system, budgeted to cost $290,000 in 1982, actually cost the village in excess of a half-million dollars counting installation and down time.

"Should the council come up with another impossible project that you want to get handled, folks, all you have to do is whistle," said Junge.

The trash compactor was also discussed later in the meeting when Sue Taylor, chairman of the Keep Ruidoso Beautiful Committee, announced plans for a city-wide clean-up campaign on April 26-27 and May 3-4.

Although Taylor only asked that the normal municipal landfill usage fees be waived on those days, Councilor Elmer Pirelli suggested that the public also be allowed to use the new trash compactor because of its convenient location on Gavilan Canyon Road.

Village manager Jim Hine said the sanitation department is "still working out the bugs" on the system, and Mayor Davis added that restrictions on what the system can handle might complicate opening it for public use.

"It's a little too early," added Junge from the audience. He added that two staff members would be required to open the compactor on those days—one to operate the system and the other to check for items that shouldn't be dumped.

Village Councilor Victor Alonso urged the council not to dismiss the idea too lightly since the system is "there to serve the public."

Alonso's suggestion to offer free soft drinks at the trash compactor during the clean-up campaign, was greeted by laughter, with Pirelli adding a suggestion to serve enchiladas.

The council voted unanimously to waive fees at the landfill, open the trash compactor and issue a proclamation for the clean-up campaign.

Further discussions on the trash compactor occurred near the end of the meeting when village engineer Mike Davalos asked the council to formulate a policy for public utilization of the system. He said several private companies have already asked about using the system.

"I don't see that that place can be open to the public," said Mayor Davis. "It's a transfer system for the Village of Ruidoso," he added.

Councilor Alonso disagreed, suggesting that the service be provided for a fee.

Village Councilor William A. "Dub" Holt asked Davalos to solicit recommendations on utilization from the head of the Sanitation Department.

In other business Tuesday, the council:

—Approved a beer and wine license for Dan Kelley of Kelley's in Sierra Mall.

—Was thanked by Harry G. Storey for acting to alleviate problems caused by traffic on the unpaved Grindstone Canyon Road. Storey gave Mayor Davis and Mayor Pro-tem Jerry Shaw each a hand-made juniper gavel.

—Heard Davalos report plans to pave Grindstone Canyon Road as soon as Carrizo Creek Road is paved.

—Approved the mayor's appointment of Tim Morris, Ruidoso Municipal Airport manager, to the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission (SBAC).

—Approved Davis's appointment of Arnold Cantu to the Personnel Board, and heard from Hine that village employees will complete their election of a representative to the board on April 15.

—Received a report on the SBAC from Morris, and accepted his thanks for confirming his appointment.

—Accepted the low bid on leasing a paver/finisher for the Street Department after hearing that the one owned by the city is old, out of service and could cost $30,000-$40,000 to repair. The council voted to approve a four-month lease at $4,957.51 a month, and consider a long-range solution during upcoming budget hearings.

—Accepted Navajo Refinery's low bid on asphalt for the Street Department, and heard purchasing agent Terri Deason report that the cost of asphalt is lower this year than last.

—Approved recommending to the State Auditor that John Varley's audit proposal of $11,300 be accepted.

—Heard that Councilor Shaw was elected a district director during a recent meeting of the Municipal League.

—Postponed formulating policy for department heads to use in preparing budget requests for the next fiscal year. Hine said department heads have been asked to submit proposals by April 25, since a preliminary village budget is due in Santa Fe on June 1.

Village groups to meet

The Ruidoso Village Council has set three special meetings as part of their plan to meet with various village committees and boards.

A workshop meeting with the Planning and Zoning Commission is planned for 4 p.m. Friday, April 11, in council chambers of Ruidoso Village Hall.

The council will conduct two workshops on Thursday, April 17—the first at 3 p.m. with the Lodger's Tax Advisory Board, and the second at 4 p.m. with the Economic Development Board.

and zoning ordinance for Ruidoso.

The Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission along with BRW, Inc., an Arizona planning firm, has spent hundreds of hours on the documents and maps they hope will serve as guidelines for village growth into the 21st century.

Meetings set for 3 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. today (Thursday), April 10, in council chambers will provide the opportunity for members of the public to become familiar with and comment on the proposals.

Although planners have stressed that no property will be rezoned with the passage of the new ordinance, they have encouraged the public to be on hand to hear details of proposed changes.

A Village of Ruidoso employee operates the newly installed trash compactor and transfer system which opened over a week ago. The new garbage truck, specially designed to be operated from either the right or the left side, is part of the transfer system which is expected to save the village thousands of dollars a year.

Late payment eases tight lodgers' tax budget

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

The Ruidoso Lodgers' Tax Advisory Board got good news Wednesday when village clerk Leon Eggleston announced that $2,720.02 in past due lodgers' taxes were collected in February.

Although a treasurer's report was not presented because March figures were not yet available from the village computer, it was learned at the meeting that the overdue collections brought total taxes collected through February to $109,500.

"Unless people just flat quit coming to Ruidoso and staying in our lodgings, we should meet our budget," said Budgie Green, board chairman. He said the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce Advertising Committee has purposely left out a $15,000 line item, contingency funds and a carryover from last year because of shortfalls in tax collections during the first part of this fiscal year.

Eggleston reported that an agreement was reached on a disputed billboard invoice from advertising agency Epstein Enterprises, and that $3,000 in carryover funds will be used to settle that account.

He explained that the agency was able to produce a contract signed by Tommy Morel, formerly with the chamber, authorizing the billboards, however the chamber was unable to prove when the contract was cancelled.

He said the original bill was for $4,200, and the village attorney recommended paying the $3,000 compromise.

Members questioned John Jeffers, executive director of the chamber, on how the problem occurred, and were assured that the current Advertising Committee is "sensitive" to that kind of problem.

"We're so much better organized than we were last year," said Jeffers, who said disorganization within the State Department of Economic Development and Tourism complicated recordkeeping on the local level.

Eggleston said the state has recommended that the village enter into a written contract with the chamber since that body allocates money collected.

The board reviewed a proposed budget totalling $150,000, down $15,000 from last year's budget. Line items deleted from the proposal were professional services

Announcement

The Serbian Pendant,
With been regret, is making plans to retire and be whatever it is that retired people do!

I would like everyone to know that nothing has given me more satisfaction than reuniting the old home on Ohio Street and creating, with all my time, effort and love, the charming little shops on our street. Some of these homes were built and occupied by pioneer families in the area. 1118 Ohio was once the old John Preacher home, and most of you know that the "old yellow" home on the corner has the distinction of being the former home of Eugene Stanton Shaded.

Sometimes, there has a way of not standing still, so it is now my turn to move on so that one of you and there can take over what I've begun and perhaps even improve upon what I call an "Amaretto Shop". My beloved America has many great craftsmen, but we cannot ignore the artisans of the "Old West", who for centuries have given us the treasures which are now beloved in most of our homes! In 1977 I began bringing these same treasures into your lives, and eventually into the lives of your grandchildren. Needless to say, I've enjoyed every minute of it.

To give the next lucky owners a fresh new beginning, I've decided to sell many of these much loved treasures at cost in order to reduce the inventory down to something minimal. Should you have a particular piece you've long admired, counting down may be in your advantage.

and council approved advertising. Media advertising was combined in one line item of $80,000 with a $20,000 contingency fund to be utilized if funds become available. A $500 Volksmarch allocation is the only new budget proposal. Green said he wants the proposal presented in a formal council meeting rather than as part of budget hearings. Jeffers displayed a mail-out and a picture of a billboard, both part of a co-op advertising program implemented by the Advertising Committee. In answer to a question by board member Phil Hamilton, Rawlins revealed that the Ruidoso Lodgers Association recently discussed a "situation at the chamber in which two office personnel are tied in with lodgers."

Although Rawlins admitted a concern among some lodgers on telephone referrals regarding lodgings, he said after the meeting that the subject should not have been a part of the board meeting. He said it was never his intention to introduce the subject at Wednesday's meeting. "I feel it should be between the lodgers and the chamber," said Green, but Hamilton suggested that with tax dollars being spent through the chamber the problem concerns the board. Jeffers asked to comment on the "veiled accusations" being made against his staff, but Green repeated that the meeting was not the "proper place" for such discussions. "We just want the chamber to set up a policy on referrals," said Rawlins after the meeting. "It's not a problem," he added, and said the lodgers did not discuss personalities or chamber employees at their meeting. Jeffers explained the process his staff uses on telephone inquiries, and stressed that no preference is given to any establishment. He said when time permits, a brochure is mailed to the inquirer. If time is short, Jeffers said his staff asks for specific desires of the caller as to location, amenities required and price-range. Chamber employees then list establishments fitting the caller's specific criteria—not in alphabetical order, but in alternating sequence to avoid any preferential treatment, he said. "I feel like it's very unfair for that allegation to be made," said Jeffers, adding that hiring anyone without some kind of ties to the tourist business in Ruidoso would be very difficult.

P&Z tackles Hull Road zoning question

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

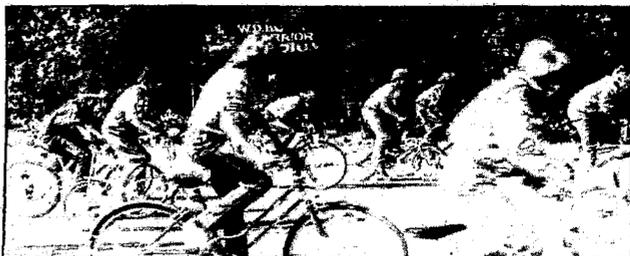

An administrative review ordered by District Judge Sandra Grisham occupied much of Monday's meeting of the Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission (P&Z). Paul Davis, village enforcement officer, told commissioners of an order by Judge Grisham to zone a tract of unzoned land on Hull Road near the Gavilan Canyon Road intersection. Davis said the land was previously owned by the Village of Ruidoso, and was traded to Wayne Dacy for land near the village hot mix plant at the "Y." He said a provision in the land transfer called for eventually zoning the land as R-1 (single-family residential), however Dacy asked for an R-2 (multi-family residential) designation on the land. P&Z approved the R-2 zoning, but their decision was overturned by the Ruidoso Village Council, said Davis. Dacy appealed the council decision in court, leading to Grisham's order of Monday's administrative review. Commissioners Monday again applied R-2 zoning to the land, in spite of hearing from witnesses who favored commercial or single family residential zoning on the property. Chairman Mike Callaghan warned attorneys Gary Mitchell and Ron Harris of time limits on their presentations, however after Mitchell explained that only evidence from the P&Z meeting will be allowed in any future court action, more time was allotted. "We believe the property should be zoned commercial because that's its highest and best use," said Mitchell, who represented Dacy. Harris, representing White Mountain Development, called for zoning the tract R-1 because much of the surrounding area is residential. Mitchell called appraiser Dan D. Swearingin as an expert witness, and Swearingin reiterated his finding that the "highest and best use is commercial" for the land which once was the site of the municipal water treatment plant. "Times have changed," said Dacy, in explaining why he formerly asked for R-2 zoning, but now is requesting a commercial designation. He said he once had developers interested in constructing apartments on the three-acre tract, but there is no longer any interest in such a development. Harris urged commissioners to follow the 1976 Master Plan and reminded them of restrictive covenants on the property. He said the small amount of commercial and multi-family areas near the unzoned land was achieved through a planned unit development, and cautioned commissioners against implementing spot zoning. Commissioner Martin Rose reminded witnesses that P&Z doesn't consider either economic impacts or restrictive covenants in making decisions. "We're here to pick the highest and best use as it relates to the safety and future growth of this village," said commissioner Don Shaw, before recommending the R-2 zoning that was unanimously approved. Another item before the commission Monday was a public hearing on a request to rezone lots 1-4 and 28-28, Block C, Ruidoso Springs Subdivision from R-2 to C-1 (light commercial) was denied based on terrain, traffic and parking problems. John Shaw, representing the property owner Carrol W. Collier of Brownfield, Texas, said the area has been used for commercial ventures for 25 years—listing a go-cart and miniature golf course as two past uses. Davis said he had a letter opposing the zoning change, and Mike Radziejewicz, owner of some adjoining property, was at the meeting to protest the change. He cited traffic and noise problems caused by previous commercial uses on the land. Another neighbor, Alma Russell, testified that she has no objections to the change. She recalled commercial uses on the riverfront property beginning with a carnival in 1961-62, and wondered how the R-2 zoning ever was implemented. In other business Monday, commissioners: —Approved a request by Greg Carey to eliminate several parking spaces from his office on Lot 4, Block 1, Cree Meadows Country Club Subdivision. Carey said changes in utilization for his building should decrease his parking requirements, and by the change he will be able to save several large trees. —Approved a 1' 7" rear lot line variance for an addition on Lot 10, Block 4, Green Meadows Addition requested by Earl Dawdy. —Tabled discussions on outdoor displays until the next regular meeting. —Were reminded of public hearings set for 3 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. today (Thursday), April 10, in Village Hall. —Heard of a joint workshop with the Ruidoso Village Council at 4 p.m. Friday, April 11.

Suicide seminar for adults

The seminar on youth suicide at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 17, at Ruidoso High School is for teachers and interested parents in the Ruidoso Municipal Schools district. Parents are asked not to bring students and pre-school age children to the seminar, which is being sponsored by "The Ruidoso Committee on Youth Suicide Prevention." Byron King, a state expert on youth suicide, from Southwest Mental Health Services in Las Cruces, will be the guest speaker. Students will be dismissed from school at 2 p.m. on April 17 so teachers and staff from Ruidoso Municipal Schools may attend the conference. A story in the April 3 edition of The Ruidoso News stated students were invited to attend the youth suicide seminar on April 17. The News regrets the error.

Club council considers fire safety

Smokey Bear Forest Service district ranger Steve Makowski told the members of the Service Club Council (SCC) Monday he would like to activate the "red flag alert" program. About seven years ago the Committee For Insuring Ruidoso's Environment (ComFIRE) actively participated in a program that warned local residents when environmental conditions that could lead to a major forest and structure fire were present, Makowski said. But, since ComFIRE services were only required "two or three days in the spring," committee members lost interest and the program ended, Makowski said. Makowski told SCC he would like some organization or community volunteers activate the program. ComFIRE members must be alert to conditions in the environment which might be conducive to a major fire. When the danger of a major fire is imminent, ComFIRE members are expected to alert the community, Makowski said. After businesses are informed of the fire danger by ComFIRE members they are asked to display red flags or insignias during the fire alert, Makowski said. The SCC told Makowski they would study the possibilities of activating ComFIRE. In other business the SCC: —Received a report on the Spring Wing Ding Fling Thing which will be Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10, at the Sierra Mall. —Heard a report on the First International VOLKSMARSCH in Ruidoso, Saturday and Sunday, April 19 and 20, which is being sponsored by the Ruidoso Federated Woman's Club. —Heard a report on the MEAL CARE program from MEAL CARE chairwoman Charlotte Jarratt. Jarratt said from 5 to 7 p.m., Tuesday, April 29, volunteers in the MEAL CARE program will sponsor an "April Shower" at the Adult Recreation Center to inform the public about the MEAL CARE program and to accept shower gifts. Jarratt told the SCC the set price for meals provided by MEAL CARE will be $2.50. MEAL CARE will serve meals on Monday and Friday at the Adult Recreation Center. The MEAL CARE program also will deliver meals to people who cannot come to the Adult Recreation Center on Monday's and Friday's, Jarratt said. Members learned the first day MEAL CARE plans to serve meals at the Adult Recreation Center will be Monday, May 19. Dignitaries and the public will be invited to a special ceremony to mark the serving of the first meal by MEAL CARE, Jarratt said. —Ralph Dunlap discussed the Lincoln County Fair with SCC members. Dunlap said the Smokey Bear Stampede is scheduled for July 4 and July 5 in Capitan. Dunlap told the SCC about the proposed Junior Rodeo at the Lincoln County Fair. He also discussed the Lincoln Pageant Committee's Art and Flea Market scheduled for

May 17, and the Billy The Kid Pageant, scheduled for August 1 through August 3, in Lincoln. Dunlap told the SCC the Billy The Kid Pageant has been presented since 1940. It is one of the oldest annual pageants in America that is still active. Dunlap said this year will mark the 40th year in a row the "Duke" of the Hondo Valley, Daniel Agnew Storm, has played Buckshot Roberts in the pageant. Storm first played Roberts in the pageant in 1946. —Calvin Cowden asked for book donations for the Friends of the Ruidoso Public Library book sale May 5-10. —Optimist Bicycle Safety and Bicycle Rodeo posters were given to SCC members. —Jean Stillman discussed Texas Appreciation Day, which is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. Saturday, June 28, in the Sierra Mall parking lot. Stillman said organizations who wish to have a booth at the event should contact her. Spirit of Ruidoso is sponsoring the event. Stillman said booth space will cost $40. —Ruidoso Police Investigator Lanny Maddox said he had processed over 1,000 children in the police department's child identification program. One of the purposes of the program is to assist law enforcement agencies throughout the country with the proper identification of a child should he or she be kidnapped or disappear for one reason or another, Maddox said.

School board nixes lunch hike

Parents of students in the Ruidoso Municipal Schools (RMS) system and teachers in RMS will not have to pay more for school lunches the rest of this school year. RMS associate superintendent Mike Gladden proposed the cost of lunches be raised 10 cents in the district. Gladden told the board a boost in the cost of school lunches would help pay for part of the five percent pay raise for non-certified staff that was recently mandated in state legislation. Gladden proposed the price of lunches be raised from $1.10 to $1.20 in grades one through five, from $1.25 to $1.35 in grades six through 12 and from $2.00 to $2.10 for teachers and adults. Members of the Ruidoso Board of Education did not approve the 10 cent lunch increases. The members seemed to agree since the lunch program was not operating at a loss, and the community was experiencing difficult economic times, a 10 cent increase in the cost of school lunches in the system would not be proper at this time. In other business the board: —Opened bids for new band uniforms. The lowest bid for 120 new band uniforms was about $49,000. —Awarded a $16,000 contract for a new sprinkler system for the Ruidoso High School multi-purpose field to Accent Landscape Company of El Paso and Las Cruces contingent on their business prospectus. —Certified the results of the bond election on April 8 were valid so the bonds could legally be issued at a later date. —Awarded a $7,900 contract to Rulif-Jones and Associates of Roswell to audit the Ruidoso Municipal Schools systems financial records for the current school year. —Opened bids for athletic supplies for the 1986-1987 school year. —Called for bids on instructional supplies for the 1986-1987 school year. —Called for bids on janitorial supplies for the 1986-1987 school year. —Approved budget increases of over $11,000. —Approved multiple budget transfers. —Approved a motion to grant certified instructional personnel an across the board $2,200 pay raise for the 1986-1987 school year—regardless of years of service or additional degrees or educational hours—to insure complete payment of the $2,200 raise to RMS by the state. —Approved the employment of John Fuseller as bus driver for at least the rest of the school year. —Discussed methods to compensate non-certified personnel who worked more than 40 hours in a week. —Discussed personnel in executive session.

—Approved a motion to dismiss RMS students for spring break March 23 through March 27 in 1987, the same time most schools in the state and the Southwest will dismiss their students for spring break. —Heard a report on the 2 p.m., Thursday, April 17, program on suicide prevention at Ruidoso High School, which will be open to RMS staff, professionals and interested parents in the Ruidoso area. Schools will be dismissed at 2 p.m. on April 17. —Heard comments from Steve Makowski on the substitute pay situation in RMS. Non-certified personnel are paid $26 per day to substitute and degreed substitutes are paid $30 per day to substitute in RMS. About three-quarters of the 50 people who substitute in the RMS system have degrees, according to RMS secretary Kathy Garrett. Makowski said in his opinion substitute pay was so low in the RMS system substitutes were "babysitters" and not teachers. He said it was unfair to pay such a low salary to people who were actually considered self-contracted employees in the eyes of the IRS. Makowski said he did not believe RMS could maintain high standards of education with such a low substitute pay scale and no long-term substitute pay schedule. Makowski's wife is a substitute in the RMS system.

Samuels bids for Sheriff

Don Samuels has announced his candidacy for the position of Lincoln County Sheriff. Samuels, a Republican, believes the future of Lincoln County depends on our youth. "Following many years of working with young adults, I'm keenly interested in developing programs which will encourage teen-agers and our youth to participate in positive activities," said Samuels. "We need to give them healthy outlets for their spirited energy." Samuels, owner of the Rocking Horse Toy store in Ruidoso, combines the use of his diploma in Business Administration with his eagerness to please the young in his successful business venture.

Samuels lists as qualifications for the position of Sheriff his 11 and one half years as a Texas State Trooper, working the past four years through the Attorney General's Office. He currently holds an Advanced Certificate in Law Enforcement. He has years of experience assisting several Texas sheriff's offices in criminal investigations and arrests. Formerly, Samuels worked on federal government contracts, requiring "secret clearance" and extensive overseas assignments. Early in his career, he was involved in oilfield trucking, at one time owner of a Southwest based trucking company. Samuels has been active in the Episcopal Church, sponsoring youth groups, serving as Sunday School Master and Teacher, Vestry member, Junior Warden, Lay Reader and Acolyte Master. He has worked "diligently" in Little League programs as a coach and a referee. In his residing communities, he has been a Rotary member for ten years and is currently serving on the Personnel Board for the Village of Ruidoso. Samuels is an avid fisherman and enjoys family skiing with his wife, Sheri, and daughters Amanda, 16 and Dona, 12.

DON SAMUELS

The candidate believes his experience in law enforcement and community involvement will be a tremendous asset to Lincoln County. "I want the families of this area, and their kids, to call on me in times of trouble and know I am their ally... to realize the law is working on behalf of all our citizens," he concluded.

Lodgers select leaders

by GARY BROWN
News Writer
The Ruidoso Lodgers Association elected by acclamation its new officers for the year, at its monthly meeting Tuesday in the Ruidoso Public Library. Clabe Webb is the new president. Buddy Carter is the vice-president, Kathy Sheets is the secretary, Dixie Brown is the treasurer and Walterine Hughes, Merrifon Newton and Hank Evaro are directors. Bill Rawlins is the outgoing president. The new officers will begin their terms at the annual meeting May 13, at Cree Meadows Country Club. The association members also decided to present a letter to the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors asking them to consider not giving out the toll-free telephone numbers of local lodgers and referrals to prospective tourists. "It's unfair to the rest of us who don't have toll-free numbers," Rawlins said. "Naturally, tourists are going to call toll-free numbers ahead of regular numbers because it's free." The Ruidoso Lodgers Association would like the chamber to give out the regular numbers of the lodgers in the area, instead.

Warrior tracksters ready for Roswell

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's boys and girls track teams will be facing some of their toughest competition of the season when they compete in the Roswell Invitational Saturday, April 12.

The meet will be at the Wool Bowl. It will begin at 10 a.m.

Ruidoso will be competing against some of the better AAAA-division teams in the state during the morning-afternoon invitational. AAA- and AA-division schools also will compete in the meet.

Scoring a lot of points against these teams may be hard, but the Warriors are ready.

"We hope to improve our times," said Warrior head boys coach Ronny Maskew. "We're going to try and place in as many events as we can, but we also hope to improve our times."

"We're going to try and win as many races as we can," said Warrior head girls coach Jim Hofstad.

The Warrior boys are fairly healthy for the meet, but some of the Warrior girls are sick.

Cindi Harrison and Dari Stierwalt have been sick, and if they can not compete, the Warriors will be hurting.

Harrison took second in the 800 meters in last weekend's Portales Invitational. Stierwalt is a fine hurdler, 400-meter runner, long jumper and relay runner.

But Hofstad will have 800-meter-3,200-meter standout Sonya Urdiales back.

Eva Montalvo and Tabby Williamson are other good distance runners.

Freshman Linder Rad also has a good chance to score some points in the hurdles and help on the relays.

"I think our best chance to score will be in the distance races," Hofstad said.

The Warrior boys will have distance ace Gabe Tam back from an illness.

Tam has best seasonal times of 4:40.6 in the 1,600 meters and 10:01 in the 3,200 meters.

Another Warrior with a chance to score points is senior Ivan Scott in the 800 meters and 3,200 meters.

He has scored in both events in most of the meets this season. Scott took second in the 3,200 meters and fourth in the 800 meters at Portales.

Javelin thrower Jeff Willingham, pole vaulter Verlon Edwards, 400-meter hurdler Russell Easter and sprinters Michael Williamson and Brian Davis have good chances to score points.

Willingham has a best of 171-3 in his event this season. Edwards has gone 12-0 in the pole vault and Easter has done 43.7 in the hurdles.

Williamson has run 11.46 in the 100 meters and a school record 52.66 in the 400 meters.

Davis did not run last week, but should have a good chance in the 200 meters.

The Warriors will have Davis, Willingham, Williamson and Chuck Daniels in the 400-meter relay.

Davis, Williamson and Daniels will join Matt Evans in the 800-meter relay.

The medley and 1,600-meter relay quartets will be decided today.

Other Warriors with chances to do well are Evans and Jeff Maxwell in the discus, Charles Smith in the 3,200 meters and Mark Airington in the high jump.

Ruidoso High School's Jeff Willingham Portales Invitational. Willingham was fifth huris the javelin during competition at the with a 155-3 throw.

Schwab developing into top ski racer

by GARY BROWN
News Sports Writer

Neely Schwab has developed into one of the top ski racers in New Mexico.

The 12-year-old Ruidoso Middle School student and Ruidoso-Sierra Blanca Ski Racing Team member was third in three categories, fourth in one and seventh in another at the Junior Olympics Nationals in Winter Park, Colorado, late last month.

Schwab took third in the slalom, combined and dual slalom events, fourth in the giant slalom and seventh in downhill. She was the only Ruidoso-Sierra Blanca skier in the competition.

Currently racing in the J-4 class, Schwab has been an outstanding skier over the past few years.

"I guess my favorite event is the slalom," she said. "Because it's fun and I'm better at it."

Schwab and her teammates will conclude the season with a meet in Loveland, Colorado, Saturday and Sunday, April 12-13.

Neely also is third in the 1985-86 11 and under girls age class racers

McDonald's Championship combined points standings.

She has scored a total of 319.25 points.

The local ski racer also won a first and second in the Junior Olympics Nationals two years ago, competing in the J-5 class.

Besides Schwab, a number of other Ruidoso-Sierra Blanca ski racers have done well this season under the guidance of coaches Scar Ward and Lisa Maue.

They shined at the Preter Memorial Championship in Crested Butte, Colorado, March 21-22.

Kristin Leslie took first in the J-5 giant slalom women's competition and second in the J-5 slalom competition.

Anne Dorgan was fourth in the women's J-4 slalom competition. Katie Graham was sixth in the same event.

Dorgan was fifth in the J-4 giant slalom and Graham was sixth in the same event.

Brook Henderson took 20th in the men's J-4 slalom event.

Among the older ability-class skiers, Vince Tognaci and Jesse Foster are racing in J-1 and J-2 competition, respectively.

They competed in mid-series events this season and probably will be racing in the qualifier and trophy series next year.

"We have to travel the furthest of any team in our division," Maue said. "Our kids have consistently met the challenges and hassles of traveling, waking up early, racing, driving home and going to school the next morning."

"We race against some of the best teams in the country and we more than hold our own—we win."

So the future looks bright for the 16-member Ruidoso-Sierra Blanca Ski Racing Team.

Neely Schwab is one of the top skiers for the Ruidoso-Sierra Blanca Ski Racing Team. She is a Ruidoso Middle School student.

Linder Rad (at left) has been one of the Ruidoso High School girls track team's best athletes this season. The freshman is a standout hurdler and relay runner.

Reduced flow of blood to the heart doesn't always cause angina pain. Cardiologists can now measure this "silent" ischemia so patients can be treated.

Experimental laser technique is being used in plastic surgery to erase the fine lines above the lip. Works better than chemical peeling, says a doctor who performs this procedure.

The same drug—pentoxifylline—that helps increase blood flow to the legs is also being used with older patients to increase blood flow to the brain in hopes of warding off senility, according to researchers at Vanderbilt University.

Tularosa to have tourney

There will be a six-pitch softball tournament in Tularosa Friday through Sunday, April 11-13. The tournament will be at the field on the west side of town.

There will be a $100 fee per team. Each team also must supply two balls. Trophies will be given for the top three teams, plus all-tournament players and the most valuable player.

The Trackers' Norman Joplin (center) tries to pass the ball over a Ghostbuster player during Sunday's action in the Mescalero All-Indian Men's Six Foot and Under Basketball Tournament. The Ghostbusters won, 96-53.

Local boxers ready for state tourney

David Ordaz and Joey Aguilar of the Las Pintas Boxing Team (LPBT) will compete in the New Mexico Golden Gloves Tournament tonight through Saturday (April 10-12) at Albuquerque's Civic Auditorium.

Competition will begin at 7 each night.

Ordaz, a twice-bronze medalist in the National Junior Olympics Tournament, will compete in the 166-pound open class. Aguilar is scheduled to go in the 147-pound Junior Olympics class.

"Devy probably will compete," said LPBT coach Larry Malgreen. "There are at least five or six other boxers in his class in the state."

"I'm not sure if Joey will be able to compete. They may not be any boxers in his class, but you never know."

Ordaz has been bothered by the flu recently, but is fairly healthy now.

"We're working on his timing now," said Malgreen.

Ordaz has boxed against one other New Mexico 166-pound boxer in the past, Lee Mastoya.

However, Mastoya may not be able to compete this weekend because of an injury.

By Gary Brown

Lon Nunley had a great football career at Ruidoso High School and he followed that up with a similar one at the University of New Mexico (UNM).

Nunley, who graduated from Ruidoso in 1962 with all-state honors and a berth on the South All-Star team, played as a defensive lineman for UNM for four seasons.

At a recent Lobo sports banquet, Nunley won the Chuck Cummings Morale and Spirit Award and was the winner of the 1965 Weightlifter's Award.

He was one of only three four-year lettermen on the Lobo team and was second on the team in tackles last fall (80).

And now Nunley is thinking about playing professional football, whether it's the National Football League, United States Football League or Canadian Football League.

"I really doesn't matter to me which team I could play for," Nunley said over the telephone from Albuquerque. "My agent is taking care of that."

"I guess I'd rather play for a warm-climate team than a cold-climate team, but I'm wide-open."

The 6-1, 230-pound former Warrior probably would play either middle linebacker or outside linebacker in the pros.

Nunley has a couple of memories which stick out from his college career.

Former Ruidoso High School grid standout Lon Nunley hopes to play pro football.

"I guess one would be my freshman year when we went 10-1," he commented. "I hadn't been on a team like that which won that much, even though we still didn't get to go to a bowl game. Our only loss that year was to Brigham Young."

"Another highlight was playing Nebraska in my senior season. We lost (35-7), but it was a lot closer than that most of the game. It was awesome."

Even if Nunley plays professional football, he still plans to come back during the off-season and get his degree in finance.

So Lon Nunley has plenty of plans for the future. And anyone who saw him play in high school would not be surprised at that.

Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Department Director Bobby Bailey plans to help local softball teams work out schedules once the new Eagle Creek Sports Complex is completed.

But he wants the leagues to elect officials and select teams as quickly as possible.

The seasons are scheduled to start later this spring.

Golfers will play at Eunice

Ruidoso High School's boys and girls golf teams will compete in the Eunice Invitational Friday, April 12.

The Warriors are coming off a busy weekend where they competed in tournaments at Las Cruces and Artesia.

Ruidoso's boys, in particular, did well at Artesia, shooting a 341.

Trevor Giles shot an 82 to lead the Warriors at Artesia. He also led the Warriors' effort in Las Cruces' Dona Ana Invitational, shooting a 32.

Other top Warrior boy players include Martin Espinosa, Chris Long, Paul Hamilton, Garret Henson and Matt Beatty. Some of the Warriors' top girl players include Karen Gunn, Marci G. Sandstrom and Hilien Gardner.

"Stormy Edwards' team won last Sunday's benefit golf tournament at the firm of the Mountain Golf for the High School team."

Edwards and teammates Charlie Becharoff, Lee Miel and Mike Morris won a playoff over Scott Beatty, John Crow, Michael Silva, John Hall and Jeff Elliott.

Both teams had a 39 during the regular play. Ken Means' team shot a 68 for third place.

Soccer league to begin Saturday

The Ruidoso Soccer Association's spring season will begin Saturday, April 12, at White Mountain School.

The matches will begin at 10 a.m. There will be competition in the under-14, under-12 and under-11 divisions.

Ruidoso's under-14 Road Warriors team lost a 4-1 match to the Alamogordo Warriors Saturday in Alamogordo league action.

Hemansh Puri scored the Road Warriors' goal. Joe Moore was the goalie.

Two of the Road Warriors have made all-star teams.

Michael Whitehead made the Alamogordo All-Stars under-11 team. Don Sany made the Maxwell under-12 All-Star squad.

Both teams will play for the State Cup later this spring.

Ruidoso netters fall to strong Rockets

by GARY BROWN Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's boys and girls tennis teams neared the end of their away-match season by losing to Goddard by identical 8-1 scores Monday in Roswell.

Ruidoso, now 1-3 in boys play and 1-2 in girls play, will play its last district away-match today (Thursday), April 10, at Lovington.

The Warriors will open the home season Tuesday, April 15, against Artesia.

The young Warrior netters got a boys doubles victory from Zach Swalander and Glenn Westergren, and a girls singles win by Melissa Henderson to prevent a Goddard sweep Monday.

Swalander and Westergren topped Sean Davis and Tye Sims, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2, in the top doubles match.

Other boys doubles competition saw Eric Collins and Dusty Skellett fall to Steve Shanor and Gabe Villegas, 6-4, 6-3; and Jeff Arvizu and Jeff Schmidt lose to Kirk Dominic and Jeremy Crow, 7-5, 6-2.

Boys singles action saw Swalander lose to Sims, 6-3, 6-4, in the first match.

Other singles competition saw Westergren lose to Davis, 6-3, 6-4; Collins fall to Shanor, 6-2, 6-1; Skellett lose to Dominic, 6-1, 6-0; Jeff Arvizu lose to Villegas, 6-2, 1-6, 6-1; and Brian Harris fall to Crow, 6-0, 6-1.

In girls play, Henderson took an exciting 7-5, 7-5 win over Mary Walker in the fourth singles match for Ruidoso's only victory.

Other girls singles matches saw Marnie Warlick fall to Anne Crouther, 6-2, 6-2; Mikki Roller lose to Laura Core, 6-3, 6-3; Candi Makowski lose to Shannon Murphy, 6-0, 6-2; Lori Morrow lose to Maria Newbold, 6-3, 6-3; and Shannon Griffin fall to Jenni McCrea, 6-0, 6-0.

Girls doubles action saw Warlick and Roller fall to Core and Murphy, 6-3, 6-1; Henderson and Morrow lose to Walker and Newbold, 7-5, 6-2; and Makowski and Griffin lose to Crouther and McCrea, 6-0, 6-0.

"Even with our team losses, I feel that our youngsters showed improvement over last week," said Warrior coach Mike Crocker. "I am especially proud of the doubles play of Warlick and Roller against the two-year all-stars of Core and Murphy. Swalander and Westergren are beginning to get some momentum in to their doubles game, also, as evidenced by their win over Goddard's Sims and Davis.

"Overall, these young teams are doing a fine job."

LL baseball has signups

The Ruidoso Little League baseball program will have final signups from 6 to 8 p.m. tonight (Thursday), April 10, at Nob Hill Elementary School.

There will be a $15 fee per youth and a $25 fee for two or more youths from the same family.

Youths must be at least eight years old by August 1, and not more than 13 by the same date.

The draft day will be Saturday, April 12, at the Little League field. All players must attend the draft, which will start at 9 a.m.

The season will begin Monday, April 23.

MEET DAVID!

With ten years of banking and systems support to his credit, David Dunlop, Data Processing Officer, is a valuable asset to First National Bank.

David moved to Ruidoso almost four years ago from Albuquerque, where he participated in processing seventeen banks there for Boeing Computer Services. David really enjoys his two small children and many weekends finds himself acting as "Mr. Mom," so his wife, Darlene, can fulfill her role as a nurse for Hondo Valley Hospital. Once in a while, he slips away to feel the freedom of dirt-biking. David just recently joined Ruidoso's Lion Club.

David says, "My job is fascinating because it encompasses all areas of internal banking. My fellow workers here have a clear understanding and knowledge of the interrelationship of each department ... we really have a great group of people."

Litter campaign picks up

The Keep Ruidoso Beautiful Committee is gearing up for two weekend clean-up campaigns, set for April 26 and 27, and May 3 and 4.

The committee hopes to reduce litter in the village and Lincoln County, change attitudes and behavior about litter, change beliefs that litter is expected and accepted and develop programs that involve all segments of the community.

Other committee goals include making the public aware of ordinances that regulate littering and clean-up efforts, and stimulating the community's desire to do positive things to improve the village's appearance.

Committee chairman Sue Taylor urged citizens to participate in the cleanup by filling out the volunteer/litter pickup request form (right).

"Ruidoso has reached an important crossroads," she stated. "Because revenues are down and public funds are scarce, our beautiful village is suffering from a terrible litter problem."

She noted that the problem extends into the county, and the help of as many people as possible is vital to success of the project. "To make Ruidoso the truly desirable 'Playground of the Southwest,' let's all get together and help make it a better place to live... and certainly a cleaner, happier and more pleasant place to visit," she stated.

The committee plans, with the cooperation of the village Sanitation Department, to urge residents to dispose of large trash items, or call the village at 257-4090 and have them come and gather the items.

The committee is planning several other facets of the on-going clean-up campaign, including distribution of flyers and litter bags and planting of wildflowers, according to member Barbara Downs.

Sponsors are needed to "adopt a cop" by pledging financial support for the Special Olympics. Money collected will fund the state event and also be used in training Special Olympians for the world-wide event in July 1987. To make a tax-deductible contribution, contact Corporal Oscar Villado or Corporal Roxann Pfeffer at the Ruidoso Police Department, 257-7365.

The Silver Lining

by Daniel Agnew Storm

The Silver Lining
by Daniel Agnew Storm
Two Inspiring Events
Over the weekend I was honored to be present at two celebrations, I will long remember. One was the fortieth wedding anniversary of William and Charlotte Jarratt, Sunday at the Womens Club. The other was the funeral services for my long time friend, Frederick Scott, Monday in Mescalero. Let us first go over the services for Frederick.

Frederick Scott
This July second will the sixtieth anniversary of our arrival at Mescalero in our old 1917 Vette car, where we stayed all four days at the annual fourth of July celebration. From that time, the Mescalero Apache Indians and the Storm Family have been close friends. Frederick is one of the many old timers I remembered from these early days; and his family gave me the honor of being one of his honorary pall bearers.

Just before the services, his daughter, Bernice Scott, came up to the front of the church and put her arm around me and said: "My father always thought a lot of you, and always spoke of you. He always read your stories."

The sincerity of this act of kindness will live with me always.

Prelude music was played by Mrs. Joan Huse, including "There is a Green Hill Far Away," and "Just as I am."

Two of Frederick's favorite hymns were sung by the congregation assembled in the Dutch Reform Church: "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Great is thy faithfulness."

The Reverend Mr. Bob Schut read favorite selections including the twenty third psalm: "The Lord is my Shepherd," and the one hundred and twenty-first psalm: "I to the hills will lift my eyes..."

The Reverend Mr. James Huse, said that Frederick was a long time friend, very dearly loved: "He loved God, and we all loved him. Now he has stepped from his long life among us out into ethereal life with our Lord."

The Reverend Mr. Schut said that Frederick was a quiet man with not much to say, that he worked faithfully in the church and read his Bible constantly, that folks coming to his home at meal time found him praying and reading his Bible.

"Eighty-five years ago," said The Reverend Mr. Schut, "Fred's life was conceived, and for nine months, he lived in his mother's womb. Then at birth he entered into his eighty-four years of life among us. Somewhere during that eighty-four years an immortal life was conceived within Fred's being. And now he has been born into supremely joyous immortal life in Heaven with Our Lord."

At the gravesite in the Mescalero Cemetery, Fred's presence was strong among the large gathering, and the deep fondness for our dear friend and loved one was shown and felt in many ways.

His nephew Vernon Scott, spoke in the Apache language thanking everyone for all that they had done on behalf of his uncle.

Nathaniel Chee paid tribute to Fred as a Christian man who followed the way shown to us by Christ Our Lord, and asked his listeners to follow Fred's example. Nathaniel sang many Apache hymns in the Apache language; and some translated out of the English into Apache, including "When the Roll is Called up Yonder, I'll be there."

During a lull in the graveside ceremonies, a young lady Laura Scott, came up to me with a folded rainbow colored blanket, the most beautiful I ever saw and said, "This is from the family."

Sixty years of fondest friendship was enfolded in this priceless gift. It all was the beginning of a sixty-year anniversary.

Driving back through the pine trees on either side, as in sixty years ago, I could feel the presence of our mother, Joe, Lynn and Mark, and also of Eve Ball. The Reservation has become a sacred place, the home of treasured friends.

Happy Anniversary To William and Charlotte Jarratt
Saturday afternoon the Womens Club building was crowded with folks wishing a happy fortieth anniversary to William and Charlotte "The Georgia Peach Blossom"

Jarratt.
Charlotte was born in Jonesboro, Georgia, close by Tara, the plantation which figured in the movie "Gone with the Wind." Her father was Grover C. Crumby and her mother the former Annie Oglesby.

William was born in Loraine, Texas, near Colorado City, to A.D. Jarratt and the former Mary Jena Norcross.

William after starting out at Camp Roberts, California wound up on Atba, one of the Aleutian Islands. Here he spent two years helping build the only air field on the Aleutian chain. In Fort Benning, Georgia, in 1946, he was giving parachute training, and stopped by Georgia Baptist Hospital to visit a friend.

The Georgia Peach Blossom was there studying to be a nurse. They were married in Douglasville, Georgia, April six, 1946.

"We traveled for three years," says Charlotte, "and then moved to Tucson Arizona."

Here they lived for twenty two years where William was a commercial building contractor, building churches, schools, and office buildings.

In 1970, they moved to Ruidoso. William, after a long time as a commercial builder began building houses. Their home is a round house, something that is surely a new venture in home building. The home is a show place attracting visitors from everywhere.

Charlotte was director of the Senior Citizen Center from its beginning in 1975 till 1979. She was chairman of the committee to establish the Care Center here. She is president of the Ruidoso Womens Clubs, District four.

She is chairman of Mealtime Incorporated, which will begin serving meals on the nineteenth of April Mondays and Fridays to the elderly at homes and at the Care Center.

It was great to see so many well wishers at the reception; you could see the appreciation shining from William and Charlotte throughout the afternoon. William's million dollar smile is brighter than ever; and Charlotte's charm and beauty grows more lovely with the years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamilton asked Charlotte the secret of such a happy marriage, and Charlotte could only answer that their marriage has all the elements of true and lasting love: appreciation, consideration, and devotion. We wish this great couple many happy returns of the day and all God's Blessings.

Edith Rigsby sends thanks

Our beloved friend Edith Coe Rigsby, after having spent some time in the hospital, is now back home in the Ruidoso Care Center feeling fine.

Edith wishes to thank everyone for being so kind to her during her stay in the hospital.

"Everyone has been so wonderfully kind," said Edith. "The hospital staff, and all you folks from all over this mountain neighborhood. I thank you for the kind words, the visits, the flowers, and especially your prayers."

Remember, it was the Democrats who pushed for massive social programs. Now, the President wants to cut these programs because of the deficit, so we plan to raise...

HELL?

no, taxes.

Inside the Capitol by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—Help select the crew for the new Titanic.

That's what we'll be doing when we go to the polls in November to decide who's going to serve in the state's 38th Legislature. The new governor, as you understand, is automatically named captain of that ill-fated vessel.

Here's the major reason why things are actually going to be that tough, so you won't just say this is more of Old Man McCaffrey's mumbling and grumbling.

In the face of warning signals about likely declines in the price paid for oil and gas, the state of Louisiana faced facts and cut its overall budget by 12 percent. In Texas, a state that depends on income from the oil and gas industry even more than New Mexico does, the cut across the board their Legislature enacted was right at 13 percent. In Oklahoma, they were even gutsier; they cut state spending by 16 percent.

Now it stands to reason that the signals of distress that moved these nearby states to take this kind of action were perceptible also to New Mexicans. Our Governor and our lawmakers, however, went in a direction diametrically opposite to the one those other states took.

Instead of cutting government, New Mexico increased it. For education, which makes up almost three-quarters of the state's annual expenditures, we upped spending by 11 percent. For the remainder of state agencies, we went up by 5 percent.

You might summarize those facts by saying that, given the very moment at which lawmakers and the chief executive should have looked budget-cutting directly in the eye, they blinked. From the Governor, that's no surprise; he had already told us he wanted to spend so much that it would have taken something like $350 million per year in tax increases to satisfy him. To many that sounds like a form of madness had afflicted him, but almost no one was surprised. But for legislators who call themselves conservatives to take this direction is mind-boggling.

Since conditions that gave rise to the decisions by other states to cut back have not improved since our elected leaders made the choice of ignoring such facts completely, the 38th Legislature that convenes for the first time next January 20 will be faced with the lousy job of making the cuts needed to get the state into the shape that should have been achieved this year, plus making the extra cuts that will be needed then. Instead of applying the axe in two sets of cutbacks that allow a year's healing before the second of them must come, these poor souls are almost certain to face the need to package up all this bad news and deliver it in one fell swoop at the start of 1987.

When all that has to be done, the deck of the old Titanic could very well seem like not such a bad place to be.

Editorial

Part of the responsibility for maintaining an awareness of fire safety is up to us "everyday citizens," and in a particularly dangerous season such as the one we are approaching, that responsibility becomes vital.

Federal, state and local fire suppression agencies assume the major role in attempting to prevent, watch for, and suppress fires here, but much can be added by the involvement of concerned citizens.

That involvement was provided several years ago by the ComFIRE committee (Committee For Insuring Ruidoso's Environment). The committee served as a public information interface between fire suppression agencies and the general public, with an emphasis being put on "translating" the technical talk of those agencies to language we all can understand.

Forest Service officials have indicated they would like to see the ComFIRE committee reactivated. We agree.

An organization with a minimum amount of time could reactivate the committee's "red flag alert" program. That program spreads the word when the danger of wildfire is imminent, and activates a network of private radio-equipped drivers to watch for signs of fire.

A group of concerned citizens, in monthly meetings, could take advantage of the expertise and technical advice available through local fire agencies and fill the gap the lack of ComFIRE has created.

If you think you can be a part of a new ComFIRE, contact the Forest Service at 257-4095. We in Ruidoso who are surrounded by beautiful forests also must take responsibility for protecting ourselves and those forests from fire.

Let's meet that responsibility.—DJP

Reporter's Round

By Frankie Jarrell

Welcome back!

Those two words sounded pretty good to me after my vacation last week. It was great to be home.

Coming home, getting back to work and settling into my daily routine reminded me of the large group of people who divide their time between race tracks as a regular part of their life.

Many of these folks live in the Ruidoso area for a part of every year—working with horses and going about their business just like those of us who spend the whole year here.

But I wonder how welcome they feel upon returning to Lincoln County every spring. Sure, the business people are glad for the extra customers, and that helps us all—but does anybody extend a cordial greeting, and a hearty "welcome back" to our part-time neighbors?

If that hasn't happened in the past, it will happen this spring. A group of area residents have banded together to welcome back the horsemen, horsewomen and their families.

"The horse people are important to Ruidoso and we want them to know we're glad they're here," said Dub Holt recently. That's why he and a group he has gathered are planning a big "Welcome Back" barbecue on May 24.

Holt, a member of the Ruidoso Village Council, and his group plan to kick things off with a "Welcome Back Horsemen" banner to be stretched across Sudderth Drive.

And what better way to welcome these folks back to town than with a big, old-fashioned barbecue.

Festivities on May 24 will begin with a free barbecue from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Sierra Mall parking lot.

Planners are going to share host duties with everybody who's glad to have Ruidoso Downs Race Track here in Lincoln County. They'll be giving locals the opportunity to provide tickets for the special guests being honored at the barbecue.

Holt said plenty of tickets will be available for sale for locals, too.

Besides serving barbecue and all the trimmings, Holt and his committee have planned musical entertainment and free drawings at the big event. Although food will be served only until 8:30 p.m., music and entertainment will continue until 10 p.m.

"How would you like to see some of the jockeys compete in a stick horse race?" asked Pat Breedlove at a planning meeting Monday.

Plans well on the way, and ticket distribution will begin soon, but it's not too late to get involved.

Besides Holt and Breedlove, the Welcome Back Committee includes Barbara Downs, Diane Myers, Cal Cowden, Dub Williams, Bill Elliott, John Jeffers and Carolyn Henson.

They've already enlisted the support of the villages of Ruidoso and Ruidoso Downs, the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce, Spirit of Ruidoso, Sierra Mall, Kelley's and several barbecue restaurant operators.

It's not too late to jump on the band wagon by calling a member of the committee and volunteering to help or arranging to purchase tickets.

Those tickets will be sold for just $4 each, and businesses will be encouraged to include their names on the complimentary tickets they buy for horsemen.

So, perhaps for the first time ever, we'll have a chance to say "Welcome Back" in a big way to a part of the population that is very important to Lincoln County.

Let's do it. We'll be glad we did.

Letters to the editor

DEAR EDITOR:

As a working parent, I would like to take time out to tip my hat to Sally Canning and Mike Hainer, and their staff at Robin Hood Day Care and Learning Center.

They have a genuine love and concern for the children, and not only do they engage them in constructive play, but they have excellent teaching methods, designed for the different age groups. Participation in the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation Hop-A-Thon, various field trips, and parent programs are a few of their activities.

I can probably speak for most working parents, when I say that leaving a small child to help with family income is very hard, especially with all the media coverage of child abuse. Parents must make a choice of whom to leave their child with, and pray that it is the right one. I honestly feel that I made the right decision in placing my child in the hands of Sally, Mike, and their staff.

My child has not suffered from my daytime absence, but is continuing to grow into a well-rounded, happy, and secure person thanks to their help.

Here's to you, Robin Hood Staff! Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,
CARRIS REDDEN

DEAR EDITOR:

Why do you print letters from visitors who are not smart enough to stay away from sales pitches. Enclosed is a letter from Marvin Kelsey who admits he was stupid enough to go back to Chateau de la Shay "again". He is what is called a typical "Moocher" looking for "something for nothing".

Instead you should print articles that show that the company brought several million dollars to the town, provided jobs to our economically depressed area and last, but not least, showed what America is made of. Sales, yes sales, the only field that thrives on depression, recession bull or bear markets. What Chateau de la Shay is offering is a lifetime of fun on your vacation. You can come to Ruidoso as many do year after year or you can exchange what you have and travel. I have owned timesharing for 10 years, sold and managed resorts for four years and still manage three units. You get what you pay for. So look at the positive side of timesharing not the "Jerks" that come up "again" for free gifts, but the industry that is trying to make people happy. Sure you purchase a week of property, but can most of us afford a "condo" and then do we want to be frozen in one locale??? Not me, I love to be able to select from around the world when I want to travel. If anybody wants to do the same, call me 258-5840.

Let's boost Ruidoso,

DEAR EDITOR:

I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to all the sponsors who made it possible for Robert Strohline to compete at the 15th Annual National Handicapped Ski Championships in Jackson Hole, Wyoming, as was mentioned in the April 3 issue of The Ruidoso News.

One comment was made to me in regards to Robert's handicap, and I really want his sponsors to receive a little information on his affliction. For those who understand and know about CEREBRAL PALSY, Robert has this disease in his right leg. Strenuous activity is a must to keep the muscles from deterioration; and without this activity, his doctor tells us that he could end up in a wheelchair by the time he reaches 40. His number one love-SKIING, and sports at school, have helped control his movements immensely.

Robert is a true athlete. He always cheers his fellow competitors on, helping other special kids in their needs, never thinking of his own. I was so touched when he offered to give me one of his gold medals he won in Jackson Hole. I know those medals mean a great deal to him and that he had worked real hard to earn them. That gesture I accepted in behalf of his sponsors.

May I once again acknowledge the support that the people of Ruidoso give to causes of this nature. My sincere thanks to the following sponsors: CHARLIE KEMP, KALEIDOSCOPE, JOHN and VOLANDA KITTRELL, GRAY and CINDY LYNCH, CREE MEADOWS COUNTRY CLUB, RUMOURS, ASPEN REAL ESTATE, RAYMOND REEVES, PRIME TIME, EVELYN'S, BEN FRANKLINS, SIERRA BLANCA MOTORS, LAZY T. Sunland Park Hoofbeats Holly Locks posts stunning victory in Downs at Albuquerque race

When 20-1 longshot Dark Thunder won the $200,000 West Texas Derby it was the only exciting highlight of the week for Sunland Park. For Sunland Park, the highlight was a thrilling race for the $200,000 West Texas Derby. On Sunday (April 6), the gelding, owned by a private party, won the Derby by a nose. The West Texas Derby is the premier race for American Saddle Quarter Horse Yearling Sale at Sunland Downs. On Sunday (April 6), the gelding, owned by a private party, won the Derby by a nose. The West Texas Derby is the premier race for American Saddle Quarter Horse Yearling Sale at Sunland Downs.

Trainer Paul Smith and jockey O.A. Martinez combined to win two consecutive races on Saturday (April 5). They won with Laines Monaghan in the sixth, then came back in the seventh with Prince Rex. Friday was a good day for horses coming out of the No. 4 post position. Six of the day's 12 races, including the first four, were won by the No. 4 horse. The No. 4 and No. 2 post positions were also paired six times in quickie payoffs. They also were the first two across the finish line in the 12th-race trifecta. Leroy Coombs had the best weekend of any jockey at Sunland Park this season, when he rode eight horses into the winner's circle, including three each on Friday (April 4) and Saturday (April 5). The performance earned the veteran rider Jockey of the Week honors as he climbed to third place in the standings. Jannie Hunt and Danny Sorenson also rode three winners on Friday. Paul Smith and Gerald Marr shared Trainer of the Week honors with three wins each. Marr moved into third in the rankings, while Smith climbed to eighth.

Holly Locks, under jockey Don Munsell, rallied from ninth at the top of the stretch to earn an easy victory in the featured 11th race sprint Friday afternoon at The Downs at Albuquerque. Sent to the post at odds of 13-1 in the stakes caliber field, Holly Locks showed no early speed and lagged well behind the pacesetters Tamy's Drone and Lady Wynn. Munsell found room between horses at the top of the lane as Holly Locks flew through the stretch to get the win by five and one-half lengths over Miss Jubilation with Classical Glass finishing third. Le Femme Handicap winner Peachy Manners was fourth in the field of 11. Trained by Temple D. Rushton, Holly Locks picked up her first win at the meet in seven tries. The victory by Holly Locks tosses a new hat into the ring for the April 18 $25,000-added La Primavera Handicap. Peachy Manners and Miss Jubilation, along with five others in the race, made their last starts in the Le Femme Handicap and were using this race as a spring board to the La Primavera. With the upset win by Holly Locks and the strong showing by newcomer Classical Glass, the La Primavera looms a wide open affair. Holly Locks covered seven furlongs in 1:25.2 and returned $29.80, $12.40, $10.20. Miss Jubilation paid $6.40 and $4.40; Classical Glass returned $6.40 for the show. The $2.00 exacta 8-10 was worth $215.00.

Two jockeys take triple wins

Jockey Jannie Hunt and Danny Sorenson each scored triple wins on Friday's program at Sunland Park, with Hunt making his third victory in a dramatic winner over Sorenson in the day's feature race. Friday's main event spotlighted six sophomore thoroughbreds chasing a $2,000 allowance purse over 6 furlongs. Sorenson went forward on emergency favorite Jesse Jim, while Hunt took the assignment aboard Foreign Saint, who won the second place at 7-5. Sorenson sent Jesse Jim out to match strikes for the lead with 11-1 outsider Jefe Honey to the head of the stretch before the dark horse fired and faded from contention. Hunt reserved Foreign Saint just off the pace of the two horses in the half-mile mark, moving up on the leaders around the turn to clear alongside Sorenson for a gutsy stretch battle from the top of the lane. The photo-finish camera separated the two horses putting Foreign Saint in front by a nose.

Trained by Jose Dominguez for owner Urban Dominguez of El Paso, Foreign Saint's win was worth $1,620. The final time was 1:17.1 seconds. Sorenson's effort aboard Jesse Jim earned $94 for owner Charles Smith of Arlington, Texas. Cliff Lambert Jr. does the training. Miss Dalia Lady, at 22-1, finished third under Salustio Burgos. Leroy Coombs also joined Sorenson and Hunt in riding three winners on Friday.

Record handle is set Sunday at Albuquerque comes on the heels of a record weekday handle of $630,632 wagered on Friday's 12-race program. The all-time record is $82,045 set on April 28 of last year. The $22,706 is the most wagered at this year's Spring meet and

Jockey Steve Renteria takes five wins in Saturday's program at the Downs

Jockey Steve Renteria found a home in the winner's circle Saturday afternoon at The Downs at Albuquerque as the veteran rider earned five victories from his eight mounts on the 12-race program. The five wins is the most ever by a jockey in a single day at The Downs at Albuquerque. Renteria began his string of victories with his second mount, Anna's Chief in the third race ($9.50), after finishing second in the second race. He did not have a mount in the fourth race, but came right back to win with Surah Beauty ($6.80) in the fifth and Call Back ($6.60) in the sixth. He did not ride in the seventh and eighth races, but picked up his fourth win in the ninth race with Grossann at $9.80.

Renteria's mounts finished third in both the 10th and 11th races before getting his fifth win in the twelfth with Raise A Rep at $16.40. From his eight mounts of the afternoon, Renteria tallied five wins, one second, and a pair of thirds.

Cesar T. takes Derby at Sunland

Danny Sorenson blew in a 4-length margin aboard Cesar T. in an elimination trial for the $24,000 Riley Allison Derby on Saturday at Sunland. The victory over the track's one-mile course, run in a time that tied the seasonal record for that distance, marked Cesar T. as the horse to beat for the fifth running of the Derby on April 20. Sorenson stalked Tellen Ssie through the early stages of Friday's Derby trial, making his move around the final turn to take command of the route at the head of the stretch. He raced unchallenged by the remaining 11 horses through the final 1 1/2 furlongs, steering past the grandstand to stop the timer in a very fast 1:30.1 seconds. Sunny Lester, part of a three-horse entry, finished second with Salustio Burgos at the helm. Another three lengths back came O'Brien with Arturo Vallejo in the irons. Special Command and Tellen Ssie were eliminated from the Derby final, with the top 10 numbers advancing to the stake. The remaining qualifiers in order of finish are: Mr. Nicholas, Diamond County, Yu Snake Yu, Spangely Red, Carry Back Dancer, Diamond's Dream and Over the Edge. Jockey Leroy Coombs continued his hot streak that started on Friday when he rode three winners on the 12-race card. Saturday's program found the veteran in the winner's circle for another three races, which could boost him into the top three of Sunland's jockey standings.

Shawns Pawn noses out the competition in the $15,100 Cibola Handicap Sunday at The Downs at Albuquerque. With jockey Tommy Swan up, the horse earned $9,060 for owners Larry Schwartz and Judy Swan.

Dark Thriller (behind the No. 5 horse) won the $108,885 West Texas Derby Sunday at Sunland Park Race Track, covering the 400 yards in 1:28.33 seconds. Jockey Lynnell Rutherford was up for the win.

Cibola Handicap winner Shawns Pawn

Shawns Pawn added another statistical triumph when she posted a narrow victory over Head Wind Handicap winner Sissy Salls in the $15,100 Cibola Handicap Sunday afternoon at The Downs at Albuquerque.

Under jockey Tommy Swan, Shawns Pawn broke an 8 1/2 slow in the 400-yard dash, but she rallied strongly in the final 100 yards to beat her rivals by a nose over Sissy Salls. Highweight at 126 pounds, American Moon finished third, and the neck back with Jet Dancing fourth in the field of 10.

The Patrick Swan trainee has made two starts at the meet, finishing in a dead heat with Miss Passera for an allowance win before her stakes tally. This was the first stakes win for Shawns Pawn, since the Helen Mathison Handicap last year at Santa Fe.

Owners Larry Schwartz and Judy Swan picked up the $9,060 check as the winner's share of the purse while Sissy Salls earned $3,020 for her owner Harry Fitzgerald.

Shawns Pawn negotiated the 400 yards in 28.86 seconds and returned $7.00, $3.00 and $3.20. The 2-1 favorite, Sissy Salls, paid $1.00 and $3.20. American Moon Fan paid $3.20 for the show. Sunday's crowd wagered a meet high $77,786. This total is the second highest ever at the Spring Downs at Albuquerque meet and comes on the heels of the weekly handle record set Friday when $536,531 was wagered on the 12-race program.

The all-time record handle at the Spring meet is $852,045 set on closing day (April 26) last year.

Dark Thriller takes West Texas Derby

Sunday's 15th running of the West Texas Derby at Sunland Park resulted in a major upset with 40-1 outsider Dark Thriller holding off a strong bid from Viking Royale to win by a nose.

The 1986 renewal of the stake offered the richest purse in the history of the Grade III race—$108,885, with $54,443 going to the winner.

Top qualifier Loquendi went postward as the 8-5 favorite to win the 400-yard dash, with Black Gold Championship winner Real Moody second (5-2) and Joyous Bug third at 3-1.

Viking Royale broke on top of the 19-horse field coming out of the No. 5 post under rider Gary Sumpter.

Two doors down, jockey Lynnell Rutherford quickly caught the leader aboard Dark Thriller as Classy Comment made a strong bid on the rail with Mike Short at the helm.

Viking Royale appeared to fade somewhat midway through the race, but came on strongly in the final yards to make a valiant bid for the winner's share. The photo finish camera put Dark Thriller in front by a nose, with Viking Royale another head in front of third-place finisher Classy Comment. The final time was 1:28.33 seconds.

The trio of favorites were never a factor in the race. Joyous Bug left the gates sideways. By the time Jockey Martin got the filly in line, she was out of contention.

Loquendi came out a step slow on the break, and last running came when Terry Layton signaled Real Moody to the middle of the track, eventually finishing fourth. It was a good effort for the gelding, who recovered from a slight stumble on the home.

Dark Thriller's win was worth $54,443 to owners Viva Magallon and her son Martin Jr., of Colorado City, Texas. Don Blaines trains the son of Mr. Dark Jet.

In the winner's circle following the race, Blaines said he purchased Dark Thriller as a birthday present for Viva Magallon in the 1985 All American Sirenet Quarter Horse Yearling Sale at Blaines Downs for a bargain $1,200.

Viking Royale finished $28,000 for owner J. Harry Blaines for the Vikingo gelding for J.A. Blaines of Tyler, Texas. Classy Comment collected third-place money of $10,000. Bill Haines trains the gelding, whom he bought from J.H. Johnson of Dalhart, Texas.

The remaining order of finish for the West Texas Derby with purse money earned: 4th - Real Moody, $7,500; 5th - Joyous Bug, $5,000; 6th - Viking Moon, $4,500; 7th - Joyous Bug, $3,750; 8th - Terrell, $3,750; 9th - Easy An Angel, $3,000; and 10th - Loquendi, $1,000.

Racing resumes next weekend at Sunland Park with 12-race programs being through Sunday beginning at 11 p.m. each day. Blaines' program is highlighted by trials for the $25,000 Sun County Futurity, with some of the top juvenile quarter horses in the nation facing off down Sunland's 250-gardist nightway.
