Warriors tame Wildcats, 29-7

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

The machine is gradually getting into high gear.

Ruidoso High School's defending state AAA-division champion football team may not be playing quite to the level of last year's squad, but Friday night's 29-7 win over visiting Tularosa showed the Warriors are on the right track.

Ruidoso, now 3-1 on the season, started slowly but took a 14-0 lead and went on for the victory.

The Warriors stopped two Tularosa drives in the first quarter, one reaching to the Ruidoso 17.

But Ruidoso came on strong in the second quarter, driving 55 yards in nine plays for the first touchdown.

Chuck Daniels threw over from the three for the touchdown. Garret Henson kicked the extra point and Ruidoso led, 7-0, with 7:16 left in the second quarter.

Toby Rue set up the touchdown by returning an intercepted pass to the Warrior 45.

Jeff Willingham connected with tight end Bryan Richardson for 15 yards to the Tularosa 40.

Some good running by Daniels, Billy Harrison and Willingham brought the ball down to the three before Daniels went over for the score.

Ruidoso scored again on its ensuing series.

Willingham connected with Henson for 14 yards to the Tularosa 46. Two plays later, Willingham again found Henson for 26 yards to the 20.

From there, Willingham weaved his way through a host of Wildcat defenders for the touchdown. Henson's kick was good and Ruidoso led, 14-0.

Tularosa scored its first touchdown after Ruidoso fumbled on its 15.

Three plays later, the Wildcats scored on an 18-yard pass. The extra point was good, but Ruidoso took a 14-7 advantage into the lockerroom at halftime.

A good punt return by Rue set up the Warriors' third touchdown.

With the ball at the Tularosa 14, Kirk Taylor ran for six yards before Willingham went over for the score for the seven.

Henson's extra-point kick was good and Ruidoso led, 21-7, with 15 seconds left in the third quarter.

Ruidoso added its final touchdown in the fourth quarter, thanks to some deception.

On fourth down, Ruidoso set up to punt, but Harrison took the snap and ran up the middle for 36 yards and a first down at the Wildcat 31.

From there, Willingham found all-state split end Brian Davis at the right sidelines for a 31-yard touchdown pass.

The extra point conversion snap was high. However, Rue threw a pass to Willingham for the two-point conversion and Ruidoso led by the final 29-7 score.

The Warriors gained 351 yards total offense to 138 for Tularosa.

And perhaps the brightest spot in the Warrior attack was the improved running game, which gained 190 yards.

Willingham led the rushers with 76 yards in six attempts. Harrison added 68 yards in seven carries.

Daniels had 34 yards in seven carries and Taylor had 14 yards in four carries.

Willingham completed 10 of 18 passes for 161 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions.

Rue probably played his best game of the season, intercepting two passes, throwing the two-point conversion and returning the ball well.

Lineman Carl Bowden and Daniels each had one touchdown called back. Daniels' was called back because of a penalty and Bowden's score was called back after the ball was ruled dead following a fumble.

"Yes, there's improvement," said Warrior head coach Cooper Henderson. "We're playing more as a team."

"But we know we still have to make a lot of improvement. If we continue to show improvement over the next two games (Portales and New Mexico Military Institute), we should be ready for district play."

Ruidoso will travel to Portales Friday, September 26, for a 7:30 p.m. game with the Rams.

WARRIOR NOTES-Willingham was named the Golden Helmet winner by the coaches. Other weekly awards went to Alan Kirgan, defensive player of the week; Bowden, offensive player of the week; and Dusty Beavers, kicking game player of the week.

Ruidoso's Kirk Taylor (27) rambles for yardage against Tularosa Friday night. Taylor and his teammates topped the visitors, 29-7.

Feds plan to offer $6.5 million toward airport construction

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

Contract administrator Fred Heckman told the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission (SBAC) Thursday that the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is sending by bus an offer of grant for $6,598,620. With the local share of $733,180, to be paid from state funds, that offer will bring the total available to $7,331,800, said Heckman.

"With this amount of money we will have Phase I constructed," said Heckman. "We will be able to immediately advertise for bids," he added.

Heckman said the FAA will attempt to make the amount higher. He added with the $6.5 million federal grant, the monies derived from future disposition of the Ruidoso Municipal Airport will be allocated to Phase 2 of the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport (SBRA) construction.

"We don't lose Phase 1," remarked Heckman. He said Ruidoso's investment of funds derived from the retirement and disposition of the municipal facilities has been delayed by a negative referendum petition, causing some to fear the SBRA project could suffer a similar delay.

Heckman explained in a telephone conversation early Monday that the offer of funds doesn't ensure that all of the grants will be available. He said the FAA transmitted the offer to be ready for signatures on the last day of its fiscal year, September 30.

He said SBAC has asked for $7,331,800, and the FAA is gathering all available funds to try to allocate that amount.

While confirming his statement of Thursday, Heckman said early today (Monday) that a federal allocation won't be definite until midnight September 30.

Heckman said final work on FAA funding for this fiscal year will be announced on September 30, adding that commission chairman Ken Nosker and vice-chairman Tim Morris have both been authorized to sign any last-minute grants.

Morris said he'll be in the Dallas-Fort Worth area on that day, touring the Dallas Fort Worth Airport and meeting with FAA regional officials.

Heckman noted the SBAC will be prepared to accept any funds the FAA identifies at year-end by having a commissioner in Lincoln County and one at regional headquarters.

Morris reminded the commission that a contest to design a logo for the regional facility will end on September 25.

Commissioner Benny Coker of Capitan said his village trustees named Tom Hilburn to act as judge, and Nosker said the county appointed Jackie Spencer.

Heckman said the Mescalero Apache Tribe, not represented at the SBAC meeting, was conducting a tribal council on Thursday and would act on the commission's request for $100 in prize money and a judge for the contest. Heckman said $1,000 in back payment due the SBAC would also be discussed at the council.

In other regular business Thursday the commission:

—Heard Morris report the Village of Ruidoso passed a new resolution accepting the joint powers agreement with other governing bodies that make up SBAC.

—Agreed to a suggestion by County Clerk Fran Siddens that SBAC minutes be placed in a special file and microfiched rather than recorded after hearing of a recording fee.

—Heard a report on funding from Heckman.

—Agreed to possible changes in the joint powers agreement suggested by a legal advisor in the FAA after hearing SBAC attorney Steve Sanders explain that the FAA lawyer said SBAC can apply for grants but has no power to accept grants.

"We are dedicated to cooperate with them (FAA)," said Nosker. "If they want the commission to stand on their heads I'm sure they will," he added.

—Heard an engineering report from Earl Cook of Leadshill-Herkenhoff, airport design engineers. Cook said his firm is preparing bid documents for an FAA review, working with road engineers hired by Lincoln County and consulting with Otero Electric Cooperative's engineers.

—Heard Nosker report progress on the access road, with the first public hearing set at 7 p.m. Tuesday, September 30, perhaps at the Alto Lakes Country Club house.

"Had we (SBAC) been the lead agency we'd have had all that done two months ago," remarked Nosker.

—Agreed with Nosker's suggestion that Heckman and Sanders attend meetings of the various governing bodies to help commissioners make presentations. Morris said he asked Heckman to attend the last meeting of the Ruidoso Village Council meeting.

"It comes back to money," noted Nosker. "It's like you personally authorize payment of money," he added.

Hospital administrator Moore reflects on experiences here

by LINDA PONDER
News Staff Writer

"It's hard to leave here, I've had many opportunities in the past and I've stayed nearly 10 years," Ken Moore said in a recent interview.

"The current trend in health care is for administrators to stay three to four years at each hospital. The industry changes so fast it creates a stagnation to stay too long."

Moore resigned last week as the administrator of the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital (RHVH).

Moore's administrative career dates back to 1973 serving as assistant administrator at Tigua General Hospital, El Paso, Texas. From there he served an administrative internship at Saint Joseph Hospital, El Paso, in 1974.

He returned to Tigua General the same year as acting administrator. In 1976 he went to Gerald Champion Hospital in Alamogordo as assistant administrator.

"Whoever gets the position of administrator here will be extremely lucky," Moore continued. "We're in a solid financial condition this year. We're survivors here, as is Ruidoso. I will miss this group tremendously. They are a pleasure to work with even in the worst of times. I have urged them to give the same support to my replacement."

Over the years a "top notch" team of professionals has been melded together, along with improved technical facilities, to rate the hospital first class.

Moore hopes to return in five to seven years, being very optimistic about the future of RHVH. He believes there will either be a new health facility at that time or renovations on the present site.

During his administration, RHVH has never taken any second choices, Moore stated, every decision has been the first and best

Trustees in Downs will meet tonight

The Ruidoso Downs Trustees will conduct a regular meeting at 7 p.m. today (Monday), September 22.

The meeting will take place in the municipal building in the Village of Ruidoso Downs.

Items on the agenda include:
—Approval to send Sgt. Cary to attend supervisor's class.
—Resolution 86-16 for Cablevision.
—Executive session.
The meeting is open to the public.

The Ruidoso Connection

Joan Olson (standing, right) registers District 10 Altrusans Friday at the Inn of the Mountain Gods. More than 200 members of Altrusa International "plugged in to the Ruidoso connection" for the weekend conference. Marilyn Hanks (seated, right) is also at the registration desk to help welcome conferees from Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.

choice. "When you're considering saving lives, you always have to take first choice," Moore said. "I truly believe we've saved a lot of lives. The board believes in that and will continue."

"It will be hard to find another board that works as well as this one does," Moore said. "They are a group of people who will always pull together for a common cause." Moore termed the medical staff as "excellent," and said all of this makes it extremely hard to leave. Moore will be going to Delta, Colorado, as administrator for the Delta County Memorial Hospital. His immediate plans are to focus on Delta Hospital, a relatively new facility, as they have their own, unique set of problems, according to Moore. The present administration there were inefficient and left a "huge" cash deficit that might not meet the present payroll. He believes it will be a challenge and intends to do the best job he can for them.

Moore believes someone new can come into RHVH and get more accomplished than he can at the present time. He is now looking at what is good for the hospital and the community.

He has always appreciated the community, having felt obligated to furnish the community with the best services available. He said he is grateful to the Lincoln County Commissioners for helping him meet his obligations to the residents of the county.

"The residents of the county have been exceptionally good to us by voting for the mill levy every year. I hope they continue to provide in that fashion."

The mill levy has made it possible for the hospital to provide staff, equipment and services that would otherwise be unattainable.

When Moore first arrived at RHVH, a lot of tough decisions had to be made. Some decisions were fought, he reflected, but a certain amount of resistance was expected. Some challenge to new ideas is expected from hospital workers, because of their intelligence and dedication, Moore opined.

"Sometimes you wonder why you stay in this field," he smiled. "Then a life is saved and you know why."

Moore said he will miss all of the people he has gotten close to here. He is especially grateful to the Hospital Foundation membership, and said they are critical to the hospital.

"They will be the springboard to future projects at this hospital," Moore said. "They are a good group to receive input from."

Moore encourages everyone to remain associated with the group. "Honestly," he concluded, "I would like to come back at a future date. I've retained property here with that in mind."

Moore has compiled an extensive list of professional achievements since coming to RHVH. He's served as chairman-elect for the Board of Directors of the New Mexico Hospital Association (NMHA), and has served as a board member; secretary-treasurer; executive, education and legislative committee member; and budget committee chairman of NMHA.

Moore was a 1985 nominee for membership on the American Hospital Association Small and Rural Hospital Council, an advanced member of the Hospital Financial Management Association, and has been chairman of New Mexico Health Systems Agency-District VI from 1983 to present.

Other achievements include membership in the New Mexico Health Systems Agency Secondary/Tertiary Planning, 1980-82; the New Mexico Statewide Health Coordinating Council, 1984-present; the Medical Facilities Task Force, Statewide Health Coordinating Council, 1984; the Plan Development Committee, Statewide Health Coordinating Council, 1985; and the American College of Hospital Administrators.

Moore was a member of the Board of Directors of New Mexico Health Resources, Inc., in 1981-84, and the Board of Directors of the New Mexico Division of the American Cancer Society, 1980-82.

The administrator's civic accomplishments include service at several levels of the Ruidoso Rotary Club including holding the office of president, 1985-86.

Moore was a member of the Board of Directors of the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce, 1984-85; was president in 1984-85 and crusade chairman in 1980-81 of the Lincoln County Unit, American Cancer Society.

He served as co-chairman of the Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Commission in 1982-84 and was a member of the mayor's Ad Hoc Committee to the Planning and Zoning Commission of Ruidoso.

Davis Jr. Presenting Friday's keynote address is author, psychologist and naturalist Dr. Shiri Brunell (right). Brunell is the author of "I Hear Bluebirds."

Feds turn down local flood aid requests

Ruidoso doesn't qualify for federal assistance to repair damages from June flooding, said village manager Jim Hine Friday.

Hine said he was informed by letter that the area would receive no flood relief through the Federal Emergency Management Administration (FEMA).

Although the letter came through a state office, Hine said he has received no word yet on state funds that could be allocated through the Civil Emergency Preparedness Division (CEPD).

County Manager Suzanne Cox said she received similar notification, but Ruidoso Downs Clerk Jo Ann Jenkins said that village already was turned down for both federal and state assistance.

Lieutenant Governor Mike Runnels, then acting as governor, visited Lincoln County soon after June's floods. He and representatives from FEMA and CEPD conducted a flood meeting in Roswell and also flew over flood-ravaged areas of southeast New Mexico.

According to a report in the El Paso Times on Friday, Eddy County and Carlsbad have been told they "aren't needy enough to qualify for state aid to handle flood damages from June's heavy rains."

Ruidoso, after assessing damages in early July, requested $187,000 in flood relief, while Ruidoso Downs asked for $45,000 and the county for $50,000.

County OKs federal airport money

by LINDA PONDER
News Capitan Bureau

Lincoln County Commissioners agreed to "accept" grant monies from the Federal Aviation Administration to reimburse New Mexico State University for its interest in the site of the proposed airport and to support Phase I development for the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport.

In a special meeting Friday, commissioners authorized acceptance of the grants by the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission (SBAC) and for SBAC to act on behalf of Lincoln County in the disbursement of these grants.

Commissioners had entered into an agreement with SBAC in January 1978, but the word "accept" had been deleted from the original agreement.

During discussion commissioners Bill Elliott, Ken Nosker and A.W. "Gnat" Gnatkowski were given an update on the progress of the proposed airport by Fred Heckman of SBAC. He stated that the Federal Aviation Administration will not loan money to the Village of Ruidoso but will loan money to SBAC.

"Our goal is to get a fully operational airport by November 30, 1987," Heckman said. "If everything goes as planned we should begin construction by this November. It will really bring a lot of business to Capitan, since we expect a lot of construction workers will want to live there during construction."

A plan is currently under way for the Village of Ruidoso to sign the current airport over to SBAC so they can use it for collateral for the monies needed to begin construction, it was reported.

In other business the commissioners accepted the tax setting order.

Democratic Women to convene at Inn

Democrats from throughout New Mexico will gather Friday and Saturday, September 26-27, for the fall meeting of the New Mexico Democratic Women at the Inn of the Mountain Gods.

Election '86 is the theme for the convention, expected to draw Democratic candidates for state, national and county offices.

Executive board members will be honored at a special reception at 7 p.m. Friday, at the Inn, and registration for workshops and a business session is set from 4-7 p.m. Friday, and again from 7-9 a.m. Saturday.

Santa Fe Mayor Sam Pick, state Democratic Party chairman, will be the keynote speaker for a banquet at 6 p.m. Saturday.

Art Trujillo, New Mexico's national committee man, will speak during the noon session.

New state officers will be selected during the annual business meeting from 10 a.m. until noon.

For further information, or to register for Election '86, contact Coleta Elliott at 258-4455.

Aspenfest Ball is set

The second annual Aspenfest Ball is set for 8 p.m. Saturday, September 27, in the Wendell Chino Ballroom at the Inn of the Mountain Gods.

Music by Stage Coach, the crowning of a king and queen and several unique door prizes will be features of the Aspenfest Ball.

Every ticket holder will have the chance to win one of two custom-designed, limited edition rings, designed exclusively for the Lincoln County Democratic Women (LCDW) by goldsmith Tim Wishard. The rings are made just once a year, when commissioned by the LCDW.

Wishard designed the man's and woman's 14-karat gold rings last year. Both feature aspen leaf designs in gold, and the man's ring has a turquoise stone and a 10-point diamond.

The delicately crafted aspen leaves on the woman's ring are dotted with six three-point diamonds.

A gold aspen leaf tie tack with a three-point diamond will also be given at the ball.

Tickets for the Aspenfest Ball are available from LCDW members for $10 each, or by calling LCDW president Coleta Elliott at 258-4455.

LCDW also is sponsoring a fifth-grade poster contest throughout Lincoln County, with Aspenfest Ball posters designed by the youngsters on display in area businesses. Elliott said the artist creating the winning poster will win a $50 U.S. Savings Bond, with the second and third place winners receiving certificates.

Judges for the posters will be Inez Marrs of Fort Stanton, Barbara Langley of Carrizozo, Ralph Dunlap of Lincoln, Gerald "Junior" Dean of Capitan and Coleta Elliott of Ruidoso.

"This is not a political event," stressed Elliott, adding the ball is designed to complement all the other festivities during Aspenfest.

Coleta Elliott, president of Lincoln County Democratic Women, displays custom-designed aspen rings to be given as door prizes at the Aspenfest Ball set for 8 p.m. Saturday, September 27, at the Inn of the Mountain Gods. The 14-carat gold rings were designed by goldsmith Tim Wishard, and crafted only once a year for the Aspenfest Ball.

The Dreamer by Dan Storm

Happy Birthday To Lucy Mattocks
On September seventeen, Harold Mattocks, a good and faithful son, and also a very fortunate man indeed, telephoned his mother, Lucy Mattocks, back in Mercer, Pennsylvania wishing her a happy birthday.

Lucy was born September seventeen, 1897 in Mercer, Pennsylvania to the former Lucinda Davis and William Hinkson.

Harold was grateful to hear that his mother and his father, Harlowe Francis Mattocks, now both age eighty-nine, are doing well and enjoying each day to the fullest. They will celebrate their seventieth wedding anniversary next February the twenty-eighth.

We congratulate Harold on the blessing of having his parents in good health and spirits; and we wish Lucy Mattocks many happy returns of the day and all God's blessings.

Wedding of Lucy Montes and Julio Sandoval

It was an honor to be present last Saturday at the wedding of Lucy, daughter of Cleofas and Johnny Montes of Glencoe; and Julio Sandoval, son of Andres and Anita Sandoval of Las Cruces.

Best man was Richard Soltero, cousin of the groom; and matron of honor was Cathy Montes, sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by a cousin to the bride, LeRoy Montes, Justice of the Peace of Capitan.

After the ceremony an ancient religious custom was observed when the bride's grandmother, Lucia Romero, administered the benediction to the couple, anointing them with holy water from the church while they knelt in reverence and gratitude.

The ceremony was held between rows of the half-century old apple trees of the Montes orchard. Two hundred and fifty folding chairs extended from a long table decorated with flowers and a wedding cake.

The trees laden with ripening apples of crimson and gold formed a rural cathedral archway for the ceremony and the fine dinner which followed. At the long table the bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and grandmother of the bride Lucia Romero.

A feature of the occasion were songs accompanied on the guitar by Branda Rue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rue.

She sang "We Walk Down the Path of Life, Together, We Will Be Forever."

Also, "One Day At A Time" song in Spanish "Un Dia A La Vez", and "I Give To You The Red Rose, Which Will Bloom For Us Forever." Closing with "I Love You More Than Life Itself."

Brenda composed all these songs except "One Day At A Time." She is a member of the Ruidoso High School band, and sings and plays for many occasions. Brenda will go a long way in the music world.

I have known Johnny and Cleofas Montes and their mother and father as good friends for many years. I was here when the Montes orchard was planted along in the early thirties; and it was a happy experience to be present under these same trees at this joyful occasion.

It was fine to see so many old friends and to make new ones.

Lucia Montes gave me a blessing with the holy water. Praying that my life would proceed with health and all God's blessings.

Warrior spikers rally for victory over Socorro

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

If you were at the Ruidoso High School gymnasium Saturday, you probably thought you were watching three different Warrior varsity volleyball teams.

The Warriors won in five games, 15-1, 15-6, 13-15, 12-15, 15-9. However, Ruidoso had to rally in the fifth game for the match victory and a 4-1 season record.

Socorro (also called the Warriors), jumped off to an 8-1 lead in the final game before Ruidoso got going.

The Warriors fought back to close the gap to 9-3, and then scored 12 straight points for the victory.

Senior All-District 3-AAA standout Ashley McIntosh served the last four points for the victory.

Ruidoso started the match out like it was going to blow the visitors out of the gymnasium.

With senior All-District 3-AAA standout Kerry Gladden and sophomore Dari Stierwalt dominating action in the front line, Ruidoso jumped off to a 7-0 lead and an eventual 15-1 victory in the first game.

The second game was more of the same as Ruidoso won handily, overcoming an early 2-1 deficit.

But Socorro came alive in the third game.

They jumped out to a 4-1 advantage and increased it to 12-4.

Ruidoso fought back, closing the gap to 12-7, and eventually 14-13. But the visitors then scored a single point to clinch the game victory.

The Warriors gained a 9-7 lead in the fourth game and increased it to 11-3.

However, Socorro outscored Ruidoso, 7-1, for the game victory, forcing a final game.

And the Warriors rallied just in time.

Shannon Lee and McIntosh both had five serve points in the final game for Ruidoso.

Mikki Roller and Stierwalt both had four in the second game, Lee had six in the third game, McIntosh and Lana McClure each had five in the fourth game, and Lee and McIntosh each had five in the final game.

"I was proud of the way the kids came back in the final game after being behind," said Warrior head coach Pixie Arthur. "They hit the ball better and showed a lot of teamwork.

"I think the play of Kerry Gladden and Dari Stierwalt was the key. And McIntosh again served the winning point for us.

"Mikki Roller and Lana McClure passed the ball well."

But Arthur still saw room for improvement.

"I don't think our players have the killer instinct," she said. "When we got them down, we should have put them away."

Now the Warriors will take to the road, traveling to Las Cruces High School Tuesday, September 23, and Portales High School Friday, September 26.

The Portales match was originally scheduled for Saturday, September 27.

But right now Arthur is thinking about Las Cruces, an AAAA-division school.

"They're probably a little stronger than Socorro and Artesia (another Ruidoso victim)," she remarked. "It should be a real good match."

Against Las Cruces, the freshman match will start at 4 p.m., followed by the junior varsity and varsity matches.

Ruidoso's Kerry Gladden goes for the ball during Saturday's volleyball match with Socorro. The Warriors will play Las Cruces Tuesday in Las Cruces. Friday Ruidoso will visit Socorro. The 5-9 all-district senior was a standout as Ruidoso won in five with the Rams.

Ruidoso High School varsity volleyball players huddle during their match against Socorro Saturday afternoon. The Warriors won in five sets to raise their record to 4-1. They will play the Las Cruces Bulldogs Tuesday afternoon in Las Cruces.

Tam takes first for Warrior harriers

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Anytime Gabe Tam is in a Ruidoso High School cross-country uniform, the Warriors' chances of doing well in a meet are good.

Tam took first in the individual competition in Saturday's Pecos Valley Invitational in Roswell, running a 15:14 over the rugged three-mile course. He was sixth in last season's state AAA-division meet.

Ruidoso finished sixth in the 10-team varsity competition, scoring 104 points. Tam did not compete in last week's season-opening Alamogordo Invitational because of an injury.

Other Warrior finishers were Sergio Hernandez, 20th in 18:02; Paul Garcia, 27th in 18:51; Daniel Martinez, 33rd in 19:11; Hamilton Carter, 34th in 19:17; Michael Randolph, 38th in 19:55; and Manual Corona, 45th in 21:12.

Only the top five finishers from each team count in the team scoring.

Carlsbad won the boys varsity competition with 60 points. Roswell was second with 65, New Mexico

Military Institute was third with 77, Tucumcari was fourth with 94, Hobbs was fifth with 97 and Clovis was seventh with 161.

"I think our runners did pretty well considering we had three guys who hadn't run before," said Warrior coach Ronny Maskew. "They showed tremendous improvement since last week.

"Gabe did just fine." Ruidoso will compete at Las Cruces' Mayfield High School Saturday, September 27.

Warrior jvs fall to Artesia

Ruidoso High School's junior varsity football team gave visiting Artesia a tough battle before losing, 40-18, Saturday night.

Ruidoso trailed just 21-18 late in the third quarter. However, the Bulldogs put the game away with three touchdowns.

The first Warrior touchdown came on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Michael Swanner to Clint Walker.

Swanner added the second

Ruidoso touchdown on a 10-yard run as Ruidoso trailed, 13-12, at halftime.

Ruidoso's final touchdown came on a 15-yard pass from Swanner to Sean Moore with 3:54 left in the third period.

The final Warrior touchdown ended a long drive which saw some strong running by Matt Griego.

Ruidoso, now 0-3 on the season, will travel to Tularosa Saturday, September 27, for a 2 p.m. contest.

Jv volleyball team wins again

Ruidoso High School's junior varsity volleyball team picked up its fourth victory of the season against one defeat when it defeated visiting Socorro Saturday.

The Warriors won in three games, 13-15, 15-12, 15-10.

In the final game, the Warriors trailed 6-3 and 9-5, before rallying for the victory.

Stacy Mobley and Lori Walker each had four serve points for Ruidoso in the first game. Mobley had seven in the second game and Ginger Parker had five in the final game.

The Warrior freshmen lost to Socorro in two games, 15-12, 15-8.

Ruidoso's junior varsity and freshmen will join the varsity in competing at Las Cruces High School Tuesday, September 23. The first match will start at 4 p.m.

Freshman gridders drop opener to Roswell, 34-0

Ruidoso High School's freshman football team opened the season on a losing note Thursday night, losing to visiting Roswell, 34-0. The Warriors drove to the 15-yard line twice against the powerful AAAA-division Coyotes, but could not score. Roswell broke out to a 21-0 halftime lead, mostly with a strong passing attack. The visitors added 13 points in the second half. "I think the team moved the ball several times," said Warrior head varsity coach Cooper Henderson. "The team ran the ball well," said Warrior assistant coach Rocky Willingham. "Kenny Trapp, our fullback, ran well and played real hard. Quarterback Rusty Silva passed the ball well." Willingham also praised the efforts of linebacker Logan Stirman and defensive ends David Dickinson and John Winans. Ruidoso will host Alamogordo at 8 p.m. Thursday, September 25.

Beatty, Wimberly win member-member title

by GARY BROWN Sports Writer

Dan Wimberly and Kent Beatty captured the Alto Lakes Golf and Country Club Member-Member Golf Tournament men's championship flight title Sunday, shooting a 177.5.

The winning duo had a 55.5 in Friday's first round, a 62 in the second round and a 60 in the third round. Men's competition only had net scores.

Dwight Andrews and Hayes Mitchell carded a 183 for second place. Virgil Marsh and Bob Walter were third at 188.5.

"We didn't particularly putt well," Beatty said after the final round. "But we were close enough not to have to all the time."

Bob Kille and Doyle Morgan tied with Wayne Lundquist and Rod Fraser for fourth place, both teams shooting a 189.

Kaki Schwettmann and Cindy Carroll won the ladies gross title with a 240. Jean Riddett and Eloise Cannon won the net crown with a 179.5.

In men's first flight action, Joe Sanders and Bob Cauthorn tied with Tommy Harper and Jeff Raley for first. Both teams had a 184.

Dan Harden and Glenn Scallorn tied with Bill Macey and Charlie

Denton for third, both teams shooting a 185.5.

In men's second flight action, C.D. Richards and C.R. Patterson won with a 184.5 score. Don Riddett and Doc Cannon were second at 186.

A total of 34 mens teams and 11 women's teams competed in the tournament.

NOTES-The tournament was the last of the season at Alto. Cree Meadows Country Club will have the New Mexico Seniors Golf Tournament today (Monday), September 22, and Tuesday, September 23. It also will host the Johnny Williams Memorial Partnership Tournament next weekend.

Fishing report

Rio Ruidoso: The fishing is fair. Some trout are being taken on grasshoppers and worms.

Bonito Lake: Some trout are being taken with worm-marshmallow combinations and fireballs. The fishing is generally slow.

Alto Lake: Some trout are being taken with worm-marshmallow combinations and fireballs. The fishing is generally slow.

Ruidoso Warrior 24-Karat Gold Marching Band Drum Major Londa Miller leads the band in play during halftime of Friday night's football game with Tularosa.

Tiger gridders win; spikers fall to Elida

Capitan High School's football and volleyball teams had mixed luck in competition over the weekend.

The Tiger varsity football team edged host Hagerman, 8-7, Friday night. However, Capitan's varsity volleyball team was defeated by visiting Elida, 15-8, 15-7, 15-10, Saturday.

Capitan rallied for the football victory over Hagerman, raising its season record to 3-1.

Greg Smith caught an 18-yard pass from quarterback Troy Padilla in the final quarter for the Tigers' only touchdown.

Kerry Clements then ran in for the two-point conversion and Capitan had a victory.

Hagerman scored in the third quarter on a three-yard run by Robert Dunnahoo. Dunnahoo also kicked the extra point for a 7-0 Hagerman advantage.

The Tigers will host Springer Friday, September 28. The game will start at 4:30 p.m.

Capitan's volleyball team found the going rough against Elida.

"They're (Elida) an outstanding team," said Tiger coach Bill MacVeigh. "All of our players are about the same. We've got a lot of sophomores."

Capitan's junior varsity lost in two games, but the standout Tiger eighth-grade team won in two games.

The Tigers will host the Tigerette Invitational Saturday, September 27. Six of the eight teams entered competed in last year's state tournament.

High Country Motors

New auto dealer is pleased to be here

by SHIRLEY BOWINGTON
News Staff Writer

"Ruidoso has a great future," said Bob Pry, the energetic new owner of High Country Motors—Ruidoso's new Chrysler-Plymouth dealership.

"I first got the idea for an ownership here while visiting friends in Ruidoso early this year. There's great potential here," stated Pry. He then started his own survey, followed by a proposal to the factory and a more in-depth survey by Chrysler.

Final approval came based on the plans for a new airport, local road construction and improvements, the presence of Safeway and Wal-Mart, and the acquisition of several acres of land by Furr's about a year ago, said Pry.

Though this project actually began in early spring, it has only recently become fully operational due to local "red tape" which Pry calls "an up-hill challenge." There are already several 1987 models on the showroom floor.

High Country management philosophy stresses good service. This prompted the recent installation of a new state-of-the-art service facility, headed by Gene Charsha. "I brought him with me from the Datsun dealership in El Paso. He's an excellent mechanic who can fix anything," said Pry, proudly.

Pry, a 20-year veteran of the auto industry, remains positive. "The response here has been phenomenal."

He admits "it's difficult to get a feel for a new market—the figures aren't there. I'm accustomed to an existing dealership." Pry sold Airway Dodge in El Paso, Texas, about a year and a half ago. "I thought I was ready to retire," he laughed. Before that, he was associated with North East Datsun, also in El Paso.

Prior to his auto industry career, Pry was in law enforcement for 12 years—four with the Department of Treasury and eight with the Kansas City (Missouri) Police Department.

He left law enforcement because of stress and frustration. He enjoys the automobile sales business because of the interaction with people.

"You establish a good rapport and your customers often become your best friends," he said.

When asked how he is adjusting to a small town after life in El Paso, he enthusiastically exclaimed, "It's great! The air's clean and it's a terrific place to raise my children."

Photos of Sherry Pry, sons Michael, 9, and Kevin, 11, decorate a wall of his office. When asked about them, Pry said, "My wife and boys arrived here from El Paso about two weeks ago. The boys love it here. They're already in football." Like most parents devoted to "bread-winning" he is concerned when business steals time away from his family. "I missed their football practice last night and will probably miss it again tonight. I really hate it."

A brief telephone interview with Sherry Pry reveals that although she finds Ruidoso "lovely and nice," she finds herself "bored" here, and plans soon to become involved in community activities. She seems more than her self-proclaimed "just a professional volunteer," as she was a founding member of the El Paso Child Crisis Center, the first of its kind in Texas. The center is a shelter for children to the age of six who are either abused or in danger of becoming abused in any way. She was also instrumental in creating the "Miner Mums," a morale booster club for University of Texas athletes. Though she admits that Ruidoso is quite an adjustment, with time and community involvement, she's sure she will love this area as much as her husband and sons do.

Editorial

In America, we have an edge on most of the rest of the world—we choose our leaders by our votes.

But that freedom of choice is lost when a voter doesn't vote.

The last day to register to vote in the November 4 general election is tomorrow—Tuesday, September 23. You must be properly registered to have your vote count in November, so be sure your registration is up-to-date.

Contact the Lincoln County Clerk in Carrizozo or any village clerk to register, or update your registration.

We'll be choosing county, state and federal lawmakers when we go to the polls in November. Whoever is elected to those positions of leadership will have an effect on our lives.

Register, or make sure your registration is in order for the November election. Take advantage of your freedom to vote—your vote makes a difference.—DJP

Inside the Capitol

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—Political writers need never be lonely. Just drop a hint of criticism about any hard-running candidate and you'll find yourself awash in visitors.

So when this column passed along a selection of the charges being made against Garrey Carruthers in a new book by Corrales resident Jeff Radford, the reaction was immediate. Carruthers and an aide wanted a confab—now.

Radford's charges are not new to the Carruthers team, of course. They have in their files a document from two years ago in which Radford listed what he called "disclosures of improper and/or illegal actions by the U.S. Department of the Interior regarding coal development in New Mexico." The book that has since been completed is mostly a fleshing out of that outline, which the author originally produced shortly after leaving the federal payroll in disgust over what he saw as serious wrongdoing by Carruthers and others.

The Carruthers campaign staff also has ready for distribution 17 pages of extremely detailed responses to Radford's slimmed set of charges, which only run to eight pages in their original form.

The man who raises these charges, Jeff Radford, is a trained newsman of considerable experience, who will be seen by some as a sorehead—which the Carruthers people would like us to believe—or by others as a legitimate whistleblower. In cases of this kind, a truly objective judgment is hard to come by.

Certainly the response to his accusations appears to be comprehensive. It is dense with bureaucraticese, of which this sentence can serve for a sample: "All of the coal Unsuitable Criteria were applied in the land use planning process or as part of the EIS process which is perfectly acceptable according to section 3461.3(b) of the coal management regulations." That sort of talk makes the head reel, and suggests that somebody has said, "If you can't really answer all these charges, at least confuse readers into thinking you have."

And that touches on what's most disturbing about this long-winded set of responses to the Radford charges. These were, after all, prepared, almost surely at the orders of Carruthers, then occupying the fairly exalted post of Assistant Secretary of Interior, by the very people the accusations have been made against. That makes them very self-serving, in a kind of cover-your-own-fundament way.

What's more, there is a feeling in these pages of the vast resources of a whole federal department being turned loose to wipe out this single lonely soul back home in New Mexico. To some, that smacks of the U.S. dropping the atom bomb during a war with Luxembourg. This approach could create more sympathy for Radford, who certainly did at least get Washington's attention, than he otherwise might have had.

If this were just a case of one man, who might be just a kind of out-of-his-gourd troublemaker, saying one thing, while those he attacks swear to the exact and diametrical opposite, we might have a case of a Mexican standoff, or "you pays your money and you takes your choice."

But there still remains the problem of what was said, not just by Radford, but by that investigating team from the General Accounting Office. These folks aren't exactly the be-all and end-all of government either, but they certainly are more objective than Carruthers or Radford are likely to be on this point. Their report clearly said this coal-leasing program Carruthers now vigorously defends failed to follow the intent of federal law and violated prudent financial-management principles. Further, there is the fact that the program was precipitously cancelled, though Carruthers would have us believe it was a very model of the way government should be conducted.

Nobody wants to accuse candidate Carruthers and his associates of anything unfairly. Still, it's clear why they would issue blanket denials in this matter, but it doesn't seem equally compelling that the specific points raised by author Radford could be, each and all, as the Carruthers group would have us believe, total fabrications.

And even if they dispose of every one of Radford's charges, singly or en masse, we are still left with legitimate questions about Carruthers' service in Washington, which he has told us will give us a preview of how he intends to conduct himself when he moves into the Roundhouse.

Letters to the editor

DEAR EDITOR:

I've read with great interest the many Letters to the Editor regarding the proposed increase in gross receipts tax, and I just have to say something! Bully for the Turners who can afford a home in Alto Village and one in Dallas, and don't have to worry about such trifles as sales tax. Some of us are not so fortunate and have to count our pennies. Texas may have a higher sales tax than Ruidoso; however, food items and medical expenses are not subject to Texas sales tax. Whether the new airport will do great things for the Ruidoso economy remains to be seen. I know it will cost this family more money.

For instance, two weeks ago we had to go to El Paso on business and while there shopped in a grocery store. Our total bill was $130.54 on which we paid $1.53 on non-food items. In Ruidoso, the sales tax would have been $7.83, and with the proposed gross receipts tax increase would be $8.49. Not a great difference for one time, but over a period of a year, it mounts up. Also, gasoline was 79.9¢ per gallon; in Ruidoso it was 86.9¢ per gallon.

Not only the sales tax colors our purchasing in Ruidoso. The fact that we often cannot find what we want even after running around to several stores, has a bearing.

Clothes are often trendy and very expensive and I have no use for curios. I cringe every time I see the fanfare for another fast food/Mexican/barbecue/steak or seafood restaurant, or art gallery/antique/curio shop. When these businesses close their doors for a lack of business, they go out with a whimper. If one doesn't care for this type food or cannot afford the prices, the choices of a restaurant are limited. It appears to me that the mini-depression Ruidoso suffered recently, should tell the Chamber of Commerce, the Village Trustees, and the merchants something. Sure, encourage the tourists, but don't slam the doors in the faces of the locals. If all locals, and I refer to residents of Capitan, Carrizozo, Nogal, Hondo Valley, etc., shopped in Ruidoso, their purchases would help take up the slack when the tourists are not here. I know many of the area people who shop in Roswell, Alamogordo, or El Paso because of the reasons I've mentioned above.

This is a beautiful area with many things to offer not only to the tourists, but people moving here for a permanent home. Have you taken a good look at your village lately? I think it is becoming tacky-tacky.

Sincerely,
DOROTHY D. SMITH

COSMO CORNER
September 21 through September 27 By Madame Leona

LIBRA
(September 23 - October 22)
Rake the yard. Your block is having a contest to see which yard has the most colorful leaves. It's also a good way to clean up the falling down mess.

SCORPIO
(October 23 - November 22)
Take inventory of your entire personal possessions. You've been looking for something out of the ordinary to do. Besides, the list may come in handy.

SAGITTARIUS
(November 23 - December 21)
Resist the urge to add more clothes on your credit card. Your credit limit is getting pretty close to the top. It's difficult when there are such good sales.

CAPRICORN
(December 22 - January 20)
Try giving someone who is always glum a nice smile and a warm sentiment. He may not feel better, but it's still a kind thing for you to do.

AQUARIUS
(January 21 - February 19)
Put away that sharp garden tool as you and your spouse carry on a vocal discussion. This type of tool is meant for garden digging, not for grave digging.

PISCES
(February 20 - March 20)
Teach and learn a little more diplomacy. Tell your kids they can't always watch what they want, but you don't always have to watch what you want.

ARIES
(March 21 - April 20)
When opportunity knocks, make sure you're not out to lunch. Something big is in the works for you, but you should watch your p's and q's. Be patient.

TAURUS
(April 21 - May 20)
You are in urgent need of a black wall in your house. Find the longest wall, take down all the pictures and move the furniture. Use paint and a brush.

GEMINI
(May 21 - June 21)
Goals for the week: get up early one morning and do laundry. Have your hair spiked. Clean behind the water heater.

CANCER
(June 22 - July 22)
Put yourself in the proper state of mind to be able to do something you do not wish to do at all. Once you've prepared yourself, go to your task.

LEO
(July 23 - August 23)
Someone from your past will appear out of nowhere. You will be uncertain if his intentions are positive or negative. It could be okay for you.

VIRGO
(August 24 - September 22)
Be prepared for another bout with your mother's compulsive behavior. She is seemingly incapable of happiness when she can't be doing some weird act.
