Candidates campaign at forum

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

"The purpose of this forum is to be informed voters," said Jackie Rawlins Wednesday at a Ruidoso Federated Woman's Club candidates' forum.

"We need to ask questions, not be led by emotions," she added before introducing 19 county candidates and a spokesman for one state candidate.

With three minutes each, candidates gave brief biographies and listed experience and qualifications. Some even revealed why they entered politics.

"I guess my father's part of the reason I'm in politics," said Dennis R. Nosker, Republican candidate for county commissioner District I. Seeking public office for the first time, Nosker, son of County Commissioner Ken Nosker, said he's "well-enough informed" to do a good job.

John A. Hightower, Democratic candidate for county commissioner District II, recalled his 1979-84 term when he served on the commission with Ben Hall and Thomas P. "Cotton" McKnight.

"They're both Republicans, I happen to be a Democrat, but we got along," said Hightower, praising Hall.

"He's one of those guys who could tell you to go to hell and you'd look forward to the trip," quipped Hightower.

A lifelong county resident, Hightower said he's proud of his "fair and honest" record.

State Representative Ben Hall, unopposed in his bid for re-election, said he's enjoyed his two years of serving an area that includes Ruidoso and Artesia.

"I will continue to do the best I can to serve the people in my district," said Hall.

Hall praised Hightower as an "exceptional" county commissioner.

Bill Karn, Republican candidate for county commissioner District III, told of his experience on the Ruidoso Village Council where he was on the Grindstone Canyon dam oversight committee, lobbied successfully for several causes and served on the Village Water Board.

A 14-year Ruidoso resident, Karn said his family has had a home here for 31 years.

Lerry Bond, write-in candidate for Lincoln County Sheriff, said his four years' experience as an employee in the Sheriff's Office has provided experience in law enforcement and knowledge of the law. He said he has worked for two sheriffs, Ernest Sanchez and Tom Sullivan.

"I know the county and I know the people in the county," said Bond. "I'm very much pro law enforcement," he added.

Yvonne Lanelli, speaking for Bill Humphries, Republican candidate for state land commission, said her candidate wants to remove the land office from politics. Lanelli said Humphries advocates a constitutional board with six-year terms to oversee the office charged with overseeing 9.2 million acres of state trust land.

The Republican probate judge candidate warned that his name will be on the ballot as John Watt Page, although everyone knows him as Jack.

"I never go by John unless my wife gets mad at me," joked Page. The Texas native said he received a Master's Degree from Texas A&M, served in the military, taught school and was a school administrator before retiring in Lincoln County.

"The day after I retired I moved here," said Page, adding he's here to stay.

County Tax Assessor Marian Schlarb, a Republican, thanked the Democratic party for allowing her to run unopposed for re-election.

Schlarb said she will continue to run the county tax office in a "legal and orderly" manner.

Jim Nesmith, Democratic candidate for Lincoln County Sheriff, told of 20 years' experience on the Roswell and Ruidoso police departments. He said he retired as a shift commander with the local department.

Probate Judge Lee Jacqueline Martin, a Democrat, said she's asking for a second term in that office.

"I feel I have done a good job as probate judge and would appreciate your vote," said Martin, a 25-year resident of the county.

Magistrate Judge J.R. "Jim" Wheeler is running unopposed for re-election in Division II.

Wheeler said he is a "lifelong Republican" and a "conservative," and spent 18 years on the Albuquerque Police Department. He has served as magistrate judge since 1976.

Don Samuels, Republican candidate for Lincoln County Sheriff, said he spent 1 1/2 years as a state trooper in Texas and has completed over 1,600 hours of instruction in law enforcement. Samuels said as a federal employee he carried top security clearance and travelled all over the world.

He said he gained administrative experience with a trucking company where he supervised 500 employees.

"I enjoy working with kids," noted Samuels, who has coached and refereed youth sports. He said he owns a toy store, is Warrior Booster Club president, a Kiwanis Club board member, on the village personnel board and a vestryman and lay reader in the Episcopal Church.

Ralph Dunlap, Democratic candidate for county commissioner District I, listed unity, roads and water as major issues facing the county commission.

"We must continue to try to keep water I consider rightfully ours in Lincoln County," said Dunlap, who spent 30 years as county extension agent.

"Above all I'm dedicated to progress in Lincoln County," said Dunlap.

Democratic candidate for county treasurer, Barbara Langley, listed experience in various county offices that has acquainted her with county procedures. She said in her present job in the Sheriff's Office she converted recordkeeping to the county IBM computer.

Langley, who is married and has two children, said she has an associate's degree from New Mexico State University and worked in an accounting office before joining the county staff.

Langley said she is familiar with state statutes governing the treasurer's office.

"I will work with dedication and efficiency to the best of my ability," said Langley.

Coleta Elliott, Democratic candidate for county clerk, said she has been married to County Commission Chairman Bill Elliott "39 years, nine months and eight days," and has three children and five grandchildren.

"I'm qualified to be your Lincoln County clerk," said Elliott, a 19-year resident of the county. She listed secretarial experience including 15 years as secretary of the Fawn Ridge Water Association.

Elliott, just back from an election school she attended as the guest of the Secretary of State, said she has long been involved in elections and Please see Candidates, page 2A

Track owners seek financial solution

Operators of Sunland Park and Ruidoso Downs race tracks are keeping quiet on their efforts to raise $3.75 million needed to bail out the debt-plagued facilities, according to a report in the El Paso Times.

Jockey Club directors, who own the Ruidoso-Sunland Inc. stock, reportedly met all day Monday in El Paso, Texas.

Rick Henson, general manager of the tracks, said he could not talk about the meeting.

Ferd Slocum, president of the corporation, reported recently the group is continuing to look for ways to make a $1 million payment due Fortuna Properties Inc. of San Diego on October 1. The tracks were purchased from Fortuna for $15 million in 1978 after the New Mexico Racing Commission failed to renew Fortuna's license.

Jockey Club directors paid $5 million down and agreed to annual $1 million payments.

Directors were asked to secure a loan through The Bank of Ruidoso, but apparently those efforts were unsuccessful.

"A solution is imminent in the next few days," said Slocum in the Times story.

Slocum was unavailable for comment this morning.

"Barbershop Quartet Singing At Its Best"

The Ruidoso Harmony Festival is set for 8 p.m. Saturday, October 11, at Ruidoso Middle School. Barbershop quartets and choruses from El Paso and Lubbock, Texas, and Alamogordo, Roswell and Santa Fe will perform during the event. Tickets are available at Chancellor's Ltd., House of Kelham, Mountain Arts and the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce. Admission is $5 for adults and $3.50 for children under 12. The event is sponsored by the Spirit of Ruidoso.

Group hopes Sports Complex will benefit from its own funds

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

The Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Commission, during a regular meeting Monday, adopted rules and regulations for use of the Eagle Creek Sports Complex and agreed to ask the Ruidoso Village Council to earmark certain sports revenues for maintenance and improvements of the new fields.

Secretary Rick Davis, presiding in the absence of Chairman L. Ray Nunley, said he'll appear before the council October 28, and ask that revenues generated through concessions, fence advertising, donations and league entry fees be earmarked for the sporting complex expenses.

"That money should go to the Parks and Recreation Department," remarked Commissioner Dick Shaw, adding the department should also consider asking for lodgers' tax funds. He noted that advertising, by far the biggest item in the lodgers' tax committee's budget, is the last item on the list of acceptable uses for those funds.

Department Director Bobby Bailey said the intent is not to make money, but to "help the softball program survive." He suggested that softball league members be on hand for the council meeting to voice support for the request.

The big expense facing softball leagues is cost of electricity on the three fields, and Bailey said Monday he's "negotiating the price on the final bill" for the season.

"The best we can hope for is $750 a month," said Bailey. He revealed that the final bill he has apparently questioned was over $1,500.

Bailey said the high electric bills are a result of the company's policy of billing by "kilowatt demand" over and above kilowatt usage. He said kilowatt hours used on the big bill were billed at about $250 and the remainder was "demand usage."

Last month Bailey explained that demand usage is when all lights are turned on at once. He said each pole has a separate switch, so the fields could be alternated as discussed at last month's meeting.

Complex rules adopted include details, deadlines and special requirements of reserving the sports complex for tournaments.

The commission also briefly discussed possible changes in the concessions at the municipal swimming pool.

voter registration. She recalled coming up with a plan to present election schools throughout the county in 1974.

Elliott is president of the Lincoln County Democratic Women, secretary of the county Democrats and secretary of the New Mexico Democratic Women.

Jim Wooldridge, Democratic candidate for county commissioner District III, said he was raised in Roswell and has lived in the Ruidoso area since 1972.

"I've cowboied over a lot of the county," noted Wooldridge. He said he studied agricultural economics at NMSU, has operated several wrecking services and has worked for the county and the Police Department.

Wooldridge owns and operates D&J Construction.

"I'm real concerned about working for the people of the county," said Wooldridge. "I think I can do you a good job," he added.

Democratic candidate Gerald Dean Jr., seeking the magistrate judge Division I post, said he is concerned that the court system provide an effective protection for its citizens.

"We cannot let criminals take rights from us as private citizens," said Dean. He added schools must be freed of the influences of drugs, and advocates dealing with sellers to the full extent of the law.

"I believe with honest sincere people in office we can take care of these problems," said Dean.

Magistrate Judge Alfred Leroy Montes, seeking re-election to the Division I bench, is finishing his eighth year in that job. A Republican, Montes said he also served four years as municipal judge.

Montes said he grew up in the Hondo Valley, spent two years in military service, two years in college and moved to Capitza when he married his wife, Rose Montes.

He has worked for the police department, corrections department and as assistant director of the Fort Stanton training school.

"I believe I have done the people of Lincoln County a good job—a fair and honest job, and I will continue to do that," said Montes.

County Clerk Fran Siddens, Republican county clerk candidate, said she is proud of her accomplishments over the past two years.

Besides overseeing all elections, Siddens said her office is responsible for recording documents, and she has instituted a one-day turnaround on recording documents.

Siddens said her office serves as an information center.

"Although we don't tell anybody where to go, we try to get everybody to the right place," said Siddens.

"Pride, planning and professionalism have been my guideposts for the past two years," said Siddens. She said she wants another term to complete projects she has begun.

Shirley Goodloe, Republican candidate for county treasurer, apologized for being late to the forum, blaming the federal government.

"They instituted the 55 miles per hour speed limit," she joked. Goodloe, a county rancher for 33 years, has five children and five grandchildren.

Goodloe said she became interested in politics as a youngster when her grandfather was a county commissioner in Texas.

With her children grown, Goodloe said she has the time to devote to the job of treasurer, and can work with the "good staff" in the office.

Most questions after the candidates spoke were directed toward county commissioner hopefuls. They were questioned on the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission, continuity in the county offices and on county roads.

Candidates for sheriff were asked who each plans to appoint as undersheriff, with both Bond and Samuels answering they'll decide when elected.

"I will run the Sheriff's Department—there will be no undersheriff," answered Nesmith, who later explained he'll use current deputies as district supervisors and save the cost of an undersheriff. Representative Hall reminded the group of 11 constitutional amendments and a $35 million bond issue also to be decided on November 4.

State Representative Ben Hall (at the podium) is among 18 candidates to speak in a forum at the Ruidoso Federated Woman's Club Wednesday. Hall, Republican candidate for the state Legislature, is unopposed in his bid for re-election. Jackie Rawlins (standing, right) coordinated the program.

P & Z members complete agenda with eye on rules of order

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

The Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission (P&Z) got a quick lesson in parliamentary procedure Monday, before disposing of a short agenda and discussing proposed changes to the sign ordinance.

After hearing from village clerk Leon Eggleston on how and when to make motions, commissioners carefully, and according to Robert's Rules of Order, approved a variance, a vacation of right of way and a replat request.

Commissioners agreed to notify Crown Point Corporation, whose representative didn't show up for a commercial development review, that action will be taken on the company's mobile reception center during the next P&Z meeting.

Chairman David Smith recalled the mobile buildings in the Pinecliff Subdivision have received two temporary approvals, with the second expiring in August. A request for a temporary extension of that approval was on Monday's agenda.

Smith said when P&Z granted an extension for the mobile buildings to remain in use members specified "this would be absolutely the last time."

Enforcement officer Sandy Hall proposed several changes to the sign ordinance, and the commission asked her to refine those suggestions with the help of village attorney John Underwood. The ordinance will again be discussed in an upcoming P&Z meeting.

In other regular business the commission:

—Approved a three-foot, six-inch south side property line variance for new construction on Lot 20, Block 1, 4th Addition to Airport West. Ken Ramey, agent for owner S.M. Monroe, admitted started construction on the open carport before obtaining a building permit, and said he'll get the required permit. Commissioners specified that the carport remain open, and Commissioner John White opposed the variance.

—Recommended allowing a vacation of right of way on Juniper

Circle and Forest Lane after hearing owner Jace Ensor report that structures built in village roadways have been in place for at least 15 years. Ensor said he was unaware of the encroachments when he purchased the Pine Tree Park property four years ago.

Commissioner Ken Carr recommended charging 25 cents per square foot for the 912 square feet, but Hall said the Ruidoso Village Council has established 50 cents per square foot as a minimum. The commission will recommend that the council approve the transfer of right of way for the 50 cents minimum charge. Commissioner Ellen Long opposed the vacation of right of way.

—Approved a replat of lots 11 and 12, Block 3, Sunny Slope, after hearing Tim Collins report that the "house wasn't built quite like it was planned and ended up on the property line." Hall said the village building inspector asked that the owners, Richard Lee and Mary Lou Word, obtain a building permit for additions to the original house.

—Postponed discussing White's suggestions for changes to the P&Z manual until a proposed manual can be distributed and reviewed.

—Adjourned and heard a presentation by Pleas M. Glenn Jr. of the State Land Office and John P. Petronis, president of Architectural Research Consultants, Inc., on development plans for Moon Mountain, a 620-acre tract of state trust land bordering Ruidoso village limits.

Petronis said his firm is taking a long-range look at the tract that has been identified as having a potential for future development. He said his studies indicate the land could best be utilized as a planned area development.

Both Petronis and Glenn said the market isn't right for such a development, but said the plans will be set for construction in 10 to 20 years.

Commissioners J.D. James and Eddie Nichols were absent from Monday's meeting.

Gymnastics a 'viable' program now, says Parks & Rec director Bailey

Bobby Bailey, director of the Parks and Recreation Department, said Monday the three-and-a-half year old gymnastics program continues to grow and has reached the "break-even point" financially.

Bailey said this fall Coach Robyn Johnson has registered 115 gymnasts, including the 13 members of the Ruidoso Mountain Tops team.

"As long as a program can break even, that's what we look for," said

Bailey.

He added the Ruidoso Village Council has supported the program budget with staff, building and insurance even as it was building to its present size and strength.

September is usually the biggest revenue-generating month, and Bailey said this September gymnastics fees amounted to over $2,000—up $500 from last September's tuition revenues.

"I look for gymnastics to continue to be a viable program," noted Bailey, adding that interest in the sport is on the upswing.

Bailey commended Coach Johnson and her staff, who were asked to operate on a "skeleton crew" about eight months ago.

"They're carrying a heavier load than they ever were, and with a smaller crew," said Bailey.

Street boss

Mike Beyer, head of the village Street Department, takes over the reins of the second largest municipal department. Beyer joined city staff last week as supervisor of the department's 19 employees. The Street Department is currently paving areas of Ponderosa Heights where sewer lines were recently installed.

State Bar members convene at Inn

The State Bar of New Mexico is celebrating its 100th year as it has its annual convention at the Inn of the Mountain Gods this week.

The convention started Wednesday and will continue through Saturday, October 11.

Participants will gather for a final dinner and dance dressed in the fashion of the territorial and turn-of-the-century days.

U.S. Senators Jeff Bingaman and Pete Domenici are among the speakers at the convention.

Eight new Bar Commissioners and next year's officers are being sworn in at the convention.

Police chief discusses family violence

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

"Spouse abuse is epidemic—it's not something that just happens in the movies and on TV," said Ruidoso Police Chief Richard Swenor Tuesday.

Swenor told the Altrusa Club that family violence is a crime. He noted that October, designated as Crime Prevention Month, is a good time to educate the public to the serious crime of domestic violence.

And that crime is happening in Ruidoso just as it does in big cities. Swenor said Ruidoso police respond to an average of 20 family disturbance calls a month.

Even as he was preparing his speech for Tuesday's meeting, Swenor said a disturbance occurred in front of the police station. He said a woman being chased by an angry husband jumped from her car and ran into the station.

"She didn't even turn off her car," noted Swenor. He said she was so frightened she "just bailed out."

It's no wonder victims of family disturbances are fearful, since in the U.S. last year nearly 4,000 women were beaten to death by their male partners, said Swenor. He said statistics indicate a woman is beaten every 18 seconds, while documented violent crimes occur only every 24 seconds.

Family members involved in such volatile situations are not the only ones who fear for life and limb. Swenor said last year in the U.S. 61,000 police officers were injured, and of that number 35 percent were assaulted while responding to domestic disturbance calls.

Swenor said of 78 police officers killed in the nation last year, 20 died on family dispute calls.

In a recent survey of college graduates, 25 percent of respondents approved of striking a marriage partner on "appropriate occasions," said Swenor. Since such attitudes are part of a cycle of violence leading to child abuse as well as spouse abuse, Swenor said an informed public is needed to begin to change that view.

Although the police department can intervene and offer temporary resolutions to family disputes, education is the key to any long-term solutions, stressed the chief.

In New Mexico, police can make an arrest without the victim filing a complaint, said Swenor. He said an officer observing injuries can detain the suspect with probable cause that those injuries were caused by that suspect.

Swenor said police officers undergo extensive training in crisis intervention at the state police academy.

"We have a secret weapon at the Ruidoso Police Department," noted Chief Swenor. He said two nationally certified police chaplains, Father David Bergs and the Reverend Cleve Kirby, are available around-the-clock to accompany officers on potentially explosive calls.

His department currently makes use of a small group of trained volunteers, but Swenor said a family crisis hotline soon to be in operation will help.

"There are a lot of people out there who don't know where to turn," he said, adding that hotline volunteers will be able to listen and offer available resources. He said his department is looking forward to working with the group (Family Crisis Center) planning to staff a 24-hour crisis line.

Noting that the local line will be a big help, Altrusan Geri Collins said a 24-hour HELP line is currently available by calling 1-437-8680 in Alamogordo. Collins said local resources are notified of the caller's needs and return calls.

"As our society becomes more complex it's a strain on all of us," said Swenor, adding that economic stress, alcohol and drugs all are contributing factors in violent crimes within families.

"We've got to break that cycle," said Swenor.

Food dealers' course continues sessions today

A two-day, first-of-its-kind in New Mexico, retail livestock feed dealers' short course is scheduled to continue today (Thursday), October 9, in Ruidoso at the Swiss Chalet.

The program, which began Wednesday, deals with animal nutrition, advertising, marketing, employee relations, regulations, taxes and the handling of drugs and pesticides in retail stores.

The short course is being organized by the Cooperative Extension and is co-sponsored by the New Mexico Grain and Feed Association. A registration fee to help cover costs is being charged.

A number of Extension Specialists and faculty members from the New Mexico State University College of Agriculture and Home Economics are conducting the program. Extension personnel include Larry Foster, extension livestock specialist; Ron Parker, program leader for livestock production and marketing; Al Norman, dairy specialist; Mike English, entomologist; Bob Coppedge, community development specialist; Jerry Schickedanz, program director; Neil Burcham, swine specialist; Joe Armstrong, horse specialist; and faculty members Herman Kiesling and Robert Roberson. Charles Pfeifer, New Mexico Department of Agriculture, will review procedures and regulations pertinent to feed stores.

Vic Worley, of Sunmark Grain in Portales and president of the New Mexico Grain and Feed Association, and Pete DeBorde, of White Mills in Roswell and vice president of the association, will preside at different segments of the short course.

John Bonner, representing International Minerals Corporation of Terre Haute, Indiana, will talk about animal implants and B. Gary McKenna of the same company and location will address the group on display room merchandising and advertising. Dr. Darrell Salisbury, with Coopers Animal Health of Kansas City, Kansas, will discuss the handling and storage of drugs, vaccines and pharmaceuticals.

Establishing charges for services and product pricing will be addressed by Gary Creighton, Purina area sales representative of Las Cruces. Marilyn Wilson, chief of the Las Cruces bureau of the State Taxation and Revenue Department, will talk about sales and withholding taxes.

According to Foster, feed dealers serve as information sources for many of their clients and the aim of the short course is to help the dealers do a better job. This, in turn, will help the agricultural industry as a whole.

FRESH BROCCOLI

You may have noticed that many of my vegetable recipes are extremely simple and use a limited amount of additional ingredients. There really is a good reason for this. An abundance of ingredients and complex cooking procedures do not always produce superior vegetable dishes. On the contrary, appropriate... instead of plentiful additions are the key to wonderful vegetables. Vegetables are wonderful edibles. Anything that you add to them should compliment the freshness and flavor instead of smothering it. This broccoli recipe is unbelievably simple and yet the seasoning is perfect. I cannot claim to be the originator of this recipe, but remember... half of being a great cook is being a superb imitator. You'll love this recipe for broccoli. It reminds me of something you would be able to get in a fine French restaurant.

Fresh Broccoli (serves 8)

2 large heads of broccoli
½ cup melted butter juice of 2 whole lemons
salt and pepper to taste

Wash and trim broccoli according to your preference. Steam or cook broccoli in a small amount of water until vegetable is tender-crisp. Be careful not to overcook broccoli so that it loses its lovely bright green color. When the color begins to dull, you are losing the flavor. When you have achieved desired doneness, drain off excess water. Add melted butter, lemon juice and salt and pepper to taste. Toss until broccoli is well saturated with lemon butter sauce and serve immediately.

Correction is reported

An error was made in identifying a student at White Mountain Elementary School in a photograph in the October 6 edition of The Ruidoso News. In the photograph of the school's second-grade good citizens, the student at far right in the back row is Dawn Hightower. The News regrets the error.

Quick action saves life

Early cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) initiated by police officers responding to an early morning call, is what saved the life of Bill Knox (pictured in center) according to doctors James Hopper and Lance Kirkegaard. The police officers continued CPR until the Advanced Life Support Unit arrived to take over. Pictured here with Knox well on his way to recovery and ready to go home, are the ones who "acted quickly and saved a life." Front row, from left, are Sherry Mlner, Bill Knox and Evelyn McKinney. Back row, from left, are Dean Alexander, Doug Riggs, Tim Simmerman, Dave Perkins, Hopper and James McBride. Not pictured is Kirkegaard.

Engagement

John E. and Joyce C. Taylor of Bent announce the engagement of their daughter, Patti Johanna Taylor of Ruidoso, to Kerry L. McMillin. McMillin is the son of Dale and Jeana McMillin, of Fort Madison, Iowa. The couple plans a ceremony at 3 p.m. Saturday, October 11, at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Mount, with a reception following at the church. Friends and relatives are invited.

Schools offer ACT test

American College Test (ACT) exam, available to anyone in the community, will begin at 8:15 a.m. Saturday, December 13, in the cafeteria at Ruidoso High School.

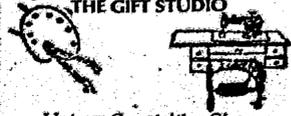

The ACT assessment is used for acceptance of students into college.

Study packets and registration packets are available in the counselor's office at Ruidoso High School.

Regular registration deadline is Friday, November 14. Fee for testing is $10.50.

Kiwanis charter night

Officers in the newly formed Ruidoso Kiwanis Club were officially sworn in (above) as the club had its charter night Tuesday at Cree Meadows Country Club. Officers include (from left) Thurman Hux, director; Jozach Byrd, president; Roland Ramos, treasurer; Chester Stone, secretary; Cleve Kirby, director; Don Samuels, director; Dick Mound, director; and Roy Briggs, director. Featured speaker for the evening was Kiwanis International S.W. District Governor Jesse Najera (photo at left), who later presents Byrd with the club's official charter.

The Silver Lining

Anniversary Celebration for Mildred and Herald Pope
After the parade Saturday, I went down to the sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mildred and Herald Pope, held at the Fellowship Hall of the Community Methodist Church in the Gateway.
Among those present were three of the couple's four sons and their wives: Richard and his wife, Alberta, from Albuquerque; Roger and his wife, Dixie, from Santa Fe; and Robert and his wife, Margaret, from Ruidoso Downs. Ross, the other son, sent his love and best wishes from New York State.
Grandchildren present were David, son of Robert and Margaret, and Kari, daughter of Roger and Dixie.
Herald and the former Mildred Moody were married October four, 1926 at Mount Pleasant, Michigan by the Reverend McKenzie in the Methodist Church of that town. By stages they moved to Oklahoma, eastern New Mexico and finally to Lincoln County in 1950. Herald had a long career as horse trainer and ranch manager, and is proud of his son, Robert, who at one time was rodeo photographer of the year.
"That boy is a top horseman," said Herald. He also had words of praise for his grandson, David, a ranch manager in Cook Canyon.

"Davy can just about read a horse's mind," said Herald with a smile.
A Poem Written For Mildred and Herald
Beginning the welcoming ceremonies and the invocation, a poem, especially written for the honored couple by Michael Dean Higgins, teacher of music in the Springer public schools, was read by Lydia Rodgers, wife of the Reverend James C. Rodgers of the Methodist Church.
The five verse poem begins:
"These sixty years have sped so fast 'tis hard to conjure all that's past....."
And ends:
"For sixty years of love have passed unto each other—the love holds fast."
The Reverend Mr. Rodgers began by saying:
"We come together as friends and relatives...and congregation...in humility and thanksgiving before God—to reflect upon the meaning of their lives together...to re-affirm their commitment to one another...and to ask God's blessings on their continued relationship."

The Reverend Mr. Rodgers then offered a prayer for Mildred and Herald beginning:
"Our Heavenly Father in your wisdom you brought Herald and Mildred together into the joy of marriage, and in your grace you have sustained them through these sixty years together. We give you thanks for the memories and the lessons of these years. For the joys and celebrations. For the friends."
And finally the Reverend Mr. Rodgers offered the following benediction, after asking The Lord to enrich the couple with His grace and spiritual benediction—that they are:
Nourished by understanding, warmed by friends, fed by loved ones, matured by wisdom, tempered by tears, made holy by caring and sharing, blessed by God—that they now go forth forevermore in peace.

We congratulate these two great friends and wish them all God's blessings.
The newly formed Ruidoso Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars got off to a good start, with Commander Harry Griffin in charge, last Monday night at the American Legion Hall in Ruidoso Downs.
The name of the post was settled at "the Jerome Don Klein Post number 7022." Meetings are to be held the second Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the American Legion Hall at Ruidoso Downs. All veterans interested in joining the organization are cordially invited to attend.

Ruidoso faces winless Tigers

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

"Remember 1984" should be the battle cry for the Ruidoso High School varsity football team when it travels to Hot Springs Friday night, October 10, for the District 3-AAA opener.

The defending state AAA-division champions will play the winless Hot Springs Tigers at 7:30 p.m.

But in case Ruidoso decides it will have an easy game on its hands, the 5-1 Warriors should remember the 1984 game when Ruidoso barely won, 15-8.

The unbeaten Warriors were trailing the underdog Tigers, 8-7, in the second half before Warrior tailback Michael Williamson broke through a hole, spun off a Tiger defender and ran in for the touchdown.

It was one of the Warriors' lowest offensive outputs of the 1984 season. But Ruidoso head coach Cooper Henderson does not think his team will be overlooking Hot Springs.

"Yes, the players will be ready," Henderson said. "It's the first district game and there's no doubt we'll be ready to play."

And the Warriors have been ready most of this season.

Ruidoso is second-ranked in the Associated Press state poll (behind Lovington) and is coming off a 47-6 victory over New Mexico Military Institute (NMMI).

The Warriors have scored 179 points and given up just 77. Ruidoso has gained over 300 yards in every game this season except the 28-19 loss to top-ranked Lovington.

Senior quarterback Jeff Williamson has thrown for 11 touchdowns and run for six more. Split end Brian Davis has caught eight touchdown passes and run for two more.

Wingback Bubba Miller, tight end Bryan Richardson and split end-kicker Garret Henson also have been top receivers.

Fullback Billy Harrison is the state's sixth-leading rusher and has scored two touchdowns, including a 53-yard run against NMMI last week.

Kirk Taylor and Chuck Daniels have shared the tailback spot this season.

Tackles Jason Hill (205 pounds) and Gene Mowdy (230 pounds) and guard Carl Bowden (230 pounds) anchor a big Warrior offensive line.

Defensively, Bowden at middle linebacker, tackle Colby Day and end Matt Evans have been leading standouts for the Warriors.

Last week the Warriors stopped all nine NMMI third-down attempts.

What are the team's goals this week?

"We're going to try and get our best productivity of the season on offense and to play more physically than we have all year on defense and in our kicking game," Henderson answered.

Hot Springs does have some good athletes, particularly quarterback Phillip Silva, a 165-pound senior.

"He's a good option quarterback," said Warrior assistant coach Mike Speck. "He's the one we have to stop."

The rest of the Tiger backs are small, but fairly quick.

Tackle Scott Whittemore is the biggest offensive starter at 220 pounds. Tackle Ray Ashbaugh is the biggest defensive starter at 255 pounds. Whittemore also could see some action at defensive tackle.

Following are the probable starting offensive and defensive lineups for the Warriors (weight and class included).

Offense: Quarterback, Williamson, senior, 165; fullback, Harrison, senior, 165; wingback, Miller, senior, 160; tailback, Daniels, senior, 165, or Taylor, senior, 160.

Tight end: Richardson, senior, 160; tackles, Hill, senior, 205, and Mowdy, senior, 230; center, Sean Parker, senior, 165; guards, Eric Eastep, senior, 155, and Bowden, senior, 230; split end, Davis, senior, 180.

Defense: Middle linebacker, Daniels; outside linebackers, Matt Griego, junior, 140, or Jef Sherwood, junior, 165, and Dusty Beavers, sophomore, 185.

Tackles, Sean Moody, senior, 170, and Day, senior, 155; ends, Evans, senior, 205, and Sean Moore, junior, 167; cornerbacks, Alan Kirgan, senior, 148, and Taylor; safeties, Williamson and Miller, or Toby Rue, senior, 130.

WARRIOR NOTES-The Warrior junior varsity will play Silver City at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, October 11, at Mayfield High School in Las Cruces.

Ruidoso varsity volleyball player Ashley McIntosh (right) goes for the ball during Tuesday's match with host Hot Springs. Ruidoso lost in five games to the defending state champions. Ruidoso will play Cobre Saturday.

Warrior jvs, freshmen will play this weekend

Ruidoso High School's junior varsity and freshman football teams will compete this weekend.

The Warrior freshmen, 1-2 on the season, will host Goddard at 6 tonight (Thursday), October 9.

Ruidoso's 0-5 junior varsity will travel to Mayfield High School Saturday, October 11, for a game with the Silver City Colts.

Last week the Warrior freshmen dumped Tularosa, 35-8, for their first win of the season. The Warrior junior varsity played Artesia tough before losing, 18-12, last Saturday in Artesia.

Spikers lose heartbreaker to Tigers

by GARY BROWN
News Sports Writer

Frustration and heartbreak were the end result for the Ruidoso High School varsity volleyball team Tuesday night.

The Warriors lost to defending District 3-AAA and state champion Hot Springs in five games on the winners' court. Ruidoso is now 1-1 in district play and 7-3 overall.

Ruidoso will host Cobre Saturday, October 11, in another District 3-AAA match.

The Warriors came back twice against Hot Springs only to lose the final game, 15-3.

Hot Springs won the first game, 15-8, but Ruidoso rallied for a 16-14 victory in the second game.

The Tigers took the third game, 15-2, before the Warrior again rallied for a 15-12 victory in the fourth game.

In the fourth game, Ruidoso jumped off to a 4-0 advantage before Hot Springs rallied for a 5-4 Warrior edge.

Ruidoso took a 7-5 edge but the Tigers came back to tie the game, 8-8, and 9-9.

But excellent play by Mikki Roller and 5-9 Kerry Gladden brought the Warriors back for the victory.

Hot Springs dominated the final game, jumping off to a 3-0 advantage and never trailing.

"It wasn't the best game we've played all season, but I think it's the best we've ever played against Hot Springs," said Warrior head coach Pixie Arthur.

"We didn't have a real intense team effort. Not everybody was on at the same time. We had some real bad serve receive mistakes, but I think we can beat them here at home (Saturday, October 25)."

Now the Warriors must look forward to Cobre Saturday. The junior varsity match will start at 1 p.m., with the varsity contest following it. Cobre lost to Silver City last week in three games.

"The games were close," Arthur said. "I think Cobre might be a little bit stronger than Deming."

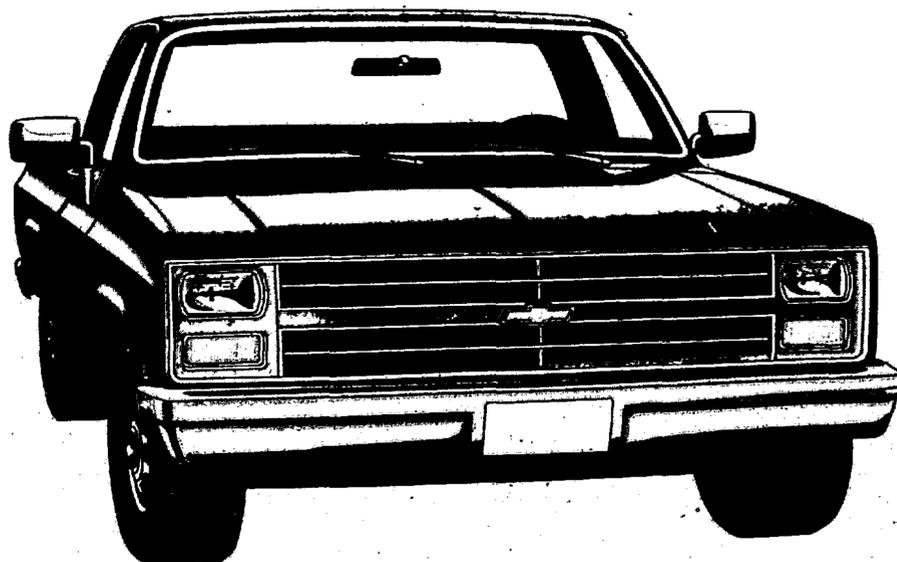

The Warriors defeated Deming in the district opener last Saturday, winning in four games.

"We played excellent against Deming," Arthur said. "That was our best match of the season."

WARRIOR NOTES-The Warrior freshmen and Ruidoso Middle School A and B teams will travel to Capitan today (Thursday), October 9, for games with the Tigers. The first match will start at 3:30 p.m.

Around Sports with Gary Brown

Are there any University of New Mexico (UNM) football fans left? The way the Lobos are going this season, you may be able to count the number of their fans in this area on your fingers by the end of the season. UNM is 0-3 in Western Athletic Conference (WAC) play and 0-5 overall this season. The Lobos have been outscored 94-76 in conference action 145-102 overall.

To make matters worse, UNM quarterback Billy Rucker was admitted to the hospital after Saturday night's 27-10 loss to the University of Hawaii. Rucker was hospitalized with what a hospital spokesman called a "non-serious" neck injury. Going into the Hawaii contest, Rucker was ranked third in the country in total offense. UNM hasn't had a winning season since 1982 (when the Lobos were 10-1 and did not go to a bowl), and it's looking extremely doubtful if it will have one this season. The other New Mexico Division 1-A school, New Mexico State University (NMSU), has not done much better. The Aggies are 1-2 in Pacific Coast Athletic Conference action and 1-5 overall. They have scored 47 points while giving up 104 in conference play. NMSU has scored 105 points and allowed 213 in all its games. Thus, it hasn't been a good season for New Mexico college football fans. But that's not completely unusual. More often than not, the two Division 1-A schools have had their problems in years past. Perhaps the next few years will bring better fortunes.

Undefeated Brave gridder's to take on Portales today

Ruidoso Middle School's football team will attempt to raise its record to 3-0-1 when the Braves play at Portales today (Thursday), October 8. The contest will start at 3 p.m. Ruidoso is coming off an impressive 20-6 victory over Moriarty last week. Previously, the Braves tied Dexter, 14-14, and defeated Hagerman, 14-0. The Braves jumped off to a 12-6 halftime lead against Moriarty and scored a late touchdown and two-point conversion for the final margin. "Portales should be tough," Ruidoso head coach Terry Wharton said. "They should be as good or better than Moriarty was. Portales beat us last year."

Sergio Hernandez (left) and Gabe Tam have been the top runners for the Ruidoso High School boys cross-country team this season. Tam, a senior, has finished first or second in the individual standings in every meet. Sophomore Hernandez has consistently been the Warriors' second finisher.

Harriers to run Saturday

Ruidoso High School's boys cross-country team will compete in the Gadsden Invitational Saturday, October 11. The meet probably will start at 10 a.m. The Warriors finished fifth in the Carlsbad Invitational last week, with senior Gabe Tam taking second in 15:28. Other Warrior runners who have done well recently are Sergio Hernandez and Daniel Martinez. Ruidoso will host its own invitational Thursday, October 23.

Tiger gridder's ready to play this weekend

Capitan High School's varsity football team will open district action Friday, October 10, at Reserve, while the Tiger varsity volleyball team will play at Dexter Saturday, October 11. Capitan's football team is 3-3 on the season, having lost to powerful Dexter, 31-6, last Friday. Reserve has dominated district action the last few years, but fell to surprising district rival Cloudcroft, 12-0, last week. The Tigers have been led this season by quarterback Troy Padilla, Doug Eckland, Kerry Clements and Jay Eldridge. Capitan does not have much depth, but does have good size in the offensive and defensive lines. Capitan's junior varsity volleyball team beat visiting Hondo Tuesday night, winning three of five games. The Tiger varsity lost to Carrizozo last Thursday, but has won four matches this season.

Warrior jvs defeat Tigers

Ruidoso High School's junior varsity volleyball team moved its record to 8-2 with a 15-13 victory over host Hot Springs Tuesday afternoon. Ruidoso never trailed in either game. However, the Warriors had to withstand a Tiger rally in the second game, leading 8-3 and 10-6 before Hot Springs tied the game at 13-13. Tara Miller served the final two points for the Warriors. "We did our Jekyll and Hyde thing again," said Warrior junior varsity coach Jim Hofstad. "But volleyball is such a momentum sport, and we came back eventually to win. Tara Miller served very well."

Local soccer teams tie

Nobody won and nobody lost in Otero County Soccer Association play Saturday at White Mountain School. The Ruidoso Road Warriors under-10 team tied its opponent, 1-1; the under-12 Road Warrior team tied, 1-1, and the under-14 Road Warrior team tied, 4-4. Danny Schrader scored the under-12 team's only goal. Action will continue Saturday, October 11, in Alamogordo.

Correction

Due to an error, the number 14 and number 16 games will not be counted in The Ruidoso News' football contest this week. The News regrets the error.

Cage meeting is set

There will be a meeting of Ruidoso basketball officials at 7 p.m. Tuesday, October 14, at the office of Richard Mound, C.P.A., at 1009 Mechem Drive in The Paddock Shopping Center.

Miss Mescalero Donna Peso and Miss New Mexico USA 1986 Heather Howell of Farmington wave from a float in Saturday's parade. Howell will be present at the crowning of her successor during the Miss New Mexico USA pageant November 18-22 at the Inn of the Mountain Gods.

The Ruidoso High School Warrior 24-Karat Gold Marching Band performs at W.D.V. Horton Stadium Saturday during the Aspenfest parade. The Warrior band took first in the high school band competition in the parade.

Lanny Maddox waves a smoking revolver after a shootout with the "bad guys." Richard Silva and Maddox were "good guys" while John Jeffers and Robert Boverle played the parts of the "bad guys" in one of several shootouts Saturday in Midtown.

Also scheduled to play during the festival were James and Cindy Hobbs of Flying J Ranch and the Larry Buchanan Band. The music attracted many listeners.

Bluegrass, chili and Western shootouts bring sounds, smell and sights of Aspenfest alive

This is it, the real McCoy. Pots of homemade chili gurgled while judging took place Saturday afternoon at Tall Pines RV Park. The event drew crowds anxious to taste chili and experience the chili cookoff's colorful atmosphere.

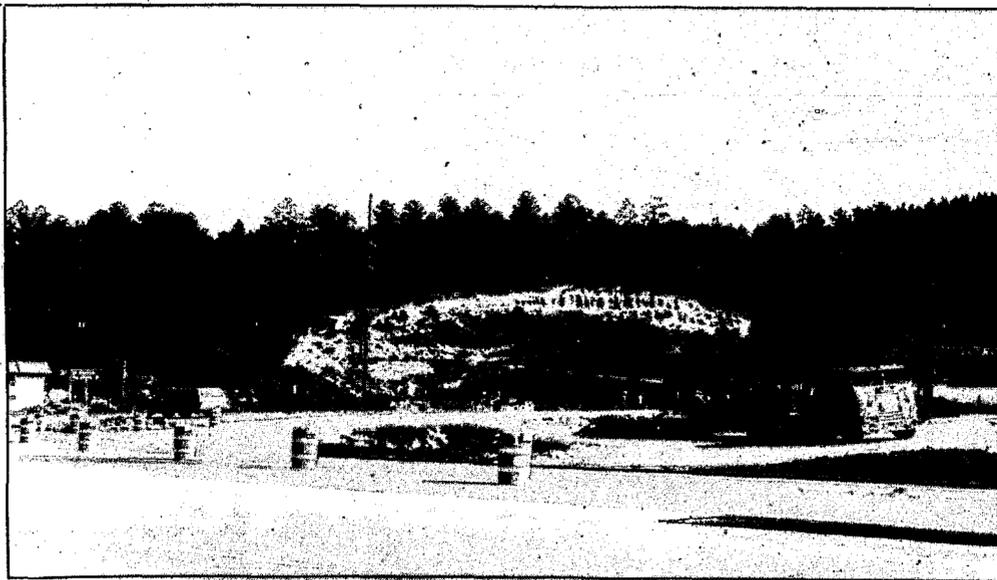

Saturday's Aspenfest Street Festival was accented by the Ruidoso Gymnastics Association Arts and Crafts Fair (above). Dozens of vendors displayed their wares, created by hand for the most part. Meanwhile, things were a little different at the New Mexico State Open Chili Cookoff where some competitors went to great lengths to attract the eye of the judge (right), like this beer-tab-suit-clad exhibitor of Ben's Independent Texas Chili.

Announcer Tex Scofield (left), the "official mouth of the chile world," kept the crowd excited during lulls in the bluegrass festival. He discussed "chill-eye" cookers and their "chill-eye cooking apparatus," then introduced the White Mountain Dreamers, including David Perkins playing the "banj-eye," and world champion fiddle player Ricky Boen (above).

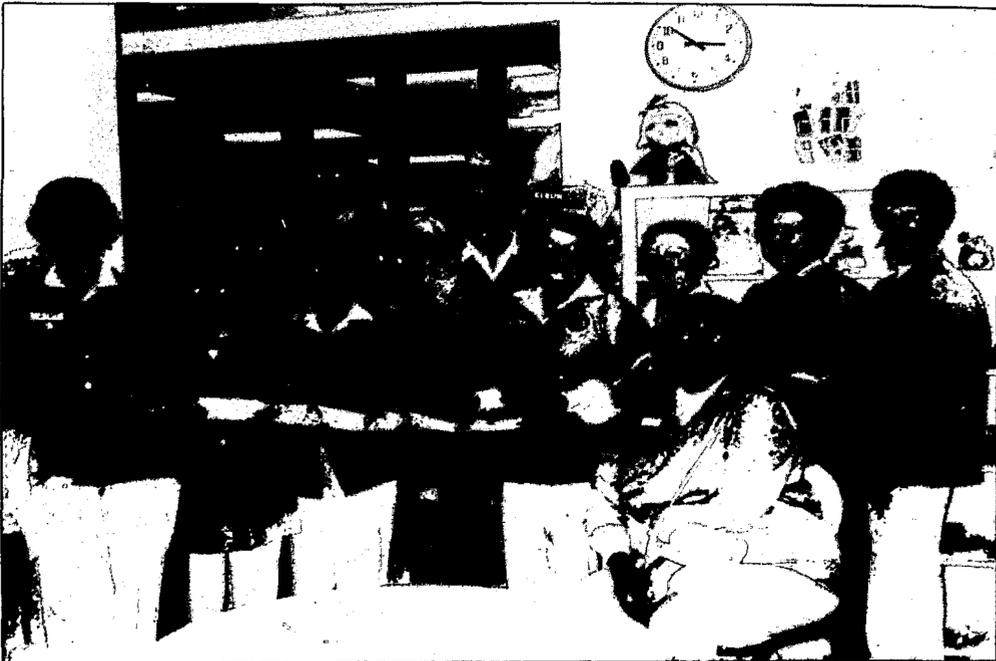

Working on the Y

Construction crews continue work at the traffic Y on Sudderth Drive and Highway 70. The State Highway Department is completing a contract to widen turn lanes and install a traffic signal at the intersection. Lou Medrano, district engineer, said today (Thursday) the projected date of completion for the project is about six weeks away. "That's highly dependent on the weather," said Medrano.

The winner

"Pink Shop" grand opening

Obituary

Lee Ware

Lee Ware died Monday in Dallas, Texas, after a lengthy illness. He was 71.

Ware retired from the oil and gas business and moved with his family to Ruidoso from Texas in 1977. While here he continued his interest in horses and real estate and served for a time as a director of Ruidoso State Bank. The Wares lived in Ruidoso and Alto, and left the area in 1983.

Ware is survived by his wife, Maureen, of the family residence; and son, Steve, of Dallas.

Services were Wednesday, followed by interment in Restland Cemetery in Dallas.

The family request that memorial donations be made to Preston Hollow Presbyterian Church or the charity of their choice.

Letters to the editor

SANTA FE—Does anybody seriously expect Garrey Carruthers to operate on a Toney Anaya budget?

It's always something of an exercise in futility for an outgoing governor to prepare the budget that must be presented to the Legislature three weeks or so after he leaves office, when he doesn't even know who it will be that succeeds him. This year, given the fact that many of the votes cast in the governor's race are almost certainly going to be repudiations of the outgoing administration, that task seems even less sensible.

You can feel that realization in presentations about what amounts of money will be needed for the 1987-1988 fiscal year now being made to the Legislative Finance Committee. These discussions are open to the public, so it is possible for us to know what the numbers are in such instances. There is another budget, however, to which we have no access. Since it is prepared by the Department of Finance and Administration, which is an intimate part of the Anaya system, it is almost certainly even less likely to have anything to do with reality.

If Ray Powell should be elected, he isn't going to have the attitude toward government Anaya has either.

In the first place, the man now in the governor's chair has told us over and over again that we have already cut government back as far as it can go. Of late, he has even been heard mumbling about calling a special legislative session to appropriate more money for crime-fighting—though he has not yet told us where he thinks the additional $5 million he talks about for that purpose is to come from.

If either Powell or Carruthers agree with the idea that state government can't be shrunk further, we are in serious trouble. When we choose such a man, if we do, we will be letting ourselves in for four more years like the ones we are just coming out of, as from a bad dream. It would be hard to think of anyone in the state who honestly wants anything like that.

So, while budgets prepared in the last year of any administration are usually more pro forma than real, that's especially true this year. We go through the paces, but what is said hardly matters, since it is all going to have to be done again sometime between November 5 and the last day of the 1987 legislative session.

It's possible to see the divergence in these two budgets, one representing the ideas of legislators and the other the ideas of administrators, more dramatically than usual this year. The LFC has asked department heads to present, along with their more or less imaginative requests, a detailed proposal for cutting their expenditures down to 15 percent less than they are in this fiscal year. Though we don't see the proposals made to DFA in detail, we have been told they gross out at 18.5 percent higher than the expenditures for this year.

Thus, the difference between "what we'd like to have," as told to DFA, and "what we'll do if you force us to," as told to LFC, is something on the order of 33 percent of a full year's appropriation. That's impossibly divergent, of course, though you could hardly find a more dramatic presentation of two contrasting philosophies of government than these two sets of figures represent.

One difference is that most of those on the LFC will still be members of the Legislature in 1987, while all those agency heads making proposals to the DFA, and most of those in the DFA to whom they are made, will be out in the cold.

Even though Powell has told us that if he is elected, we will hardly notice the change-over from Anaya to him, there is no way he could afford to keep any of the key members of the present administration. What the citizens are voraciously hungry for is change, not continuity.

What's frightening is that we haven't been told, in any concrete way, what either of these men truly contemplates changing. That means that between the day after the election and soon after January 1, a whole new apparatus of state government has to be planned, revealed and put into place.

That's what happened last time we elected a new governor, and look what we got.

This coming year, every decision is going to be ten times more crucial than it was in 1982, but we're being asked to choose between the two candidates as an act of almost blind faith.

DEAR EDITOR:

Golden Aspen Rally 1986 in Ruidoso was considered a big success by motorcyclists who registered and attended the event and participated in the activities. We wish to thank you and the entire staff at Ruidoso News—especially Linda Ponder who had the Golden Aspen Rally assignment and did an excellent job of reporting.

We wish to thank all the townspeople who gave their time to assist us at the Swiss Chalet and Taste Freez donations of free breakfasts for Wednesday poker run rally; The Chamber of Commerce for answering calls all year; John Jeffers as an honorary judge with Buster and Charlotte Hill and Joanne and Bill Staggs of Hobbs, N.M., our regular officials; all members of TMRA—Texas Motorcycle Riders Association—who donated daily hours throughout the rally; The Lodgers Association (especially McMahon of the Brown Bear Lodge); Jeanie Stillman and other spirit of Ruidoso members; Ruidoso Greeters Association; Elks and Lions Club; restaurants; merchants; Police and Sheriff Departments; the staff at Carrizo Lodge and Restaurant; our two new directors, Skip Maul and Adrian Matkin; and just everyone who gave us their support. Also thanks to CMA (Christian Motorcycle Association) for their daily services, and Walt Hughes, Stagecoach mgr., who did a ton of free copy work for the rally.

After talking to several friends who purchased over one thousand dollars each in turquoise jewelry and antiques (one from Arizona—the other from Michigan) during their time at the motorcycle rally, it was nice to know direct from them many merchants made good sales from this year's event being "back in town"...And by advertising in our program book next year, when called for an ad, the shops and lodgers may match the restaurants' business during motorcycle week!

And, I must mention Ida, at Sitzmark Chalet—Lodgers could follow her promotional example during the summer and be full for the motorcycle rally, like she was, in September. That lady is a constant promoter of Ruidoso activities.

As you know, Connie Brown, my co-chairman in Golden Aspen Rally and her great husband, Howard, received a tough challenge in April regarding Howard's health. It was necessary for them to spend three days each week through the 3rd week in September at the V.A. Hospital in Albuquerque for his treatments...with Connie making this her 1st priority, of course, she still managed to do her job for Golden Aspen Rally... "You done good, Connie"...And I'm happy to report Howard is responding to his treatments and improving every day!

The motorcyclists really commented on the friendliness of the town toward the touring biker and they like it! Already getting calls on 1987 so we'll be calling early for next year's Golden Aspen Rally trophies and ads.

FLO MAUL,
Golden Aspen
Rally Association

DEAR EDITOR:

The Ruidoso Shrine Club had a busy schedule during the latter part of August and September. Our Hospital Crusade and our yard sale were both successful. We wish to thank all of the merchants who allowed us to solicit funds (Hospital Crusade) at their locations. Shriners were at both Safeways, Sierra Mall, Bennett's and Wal-Mart during the drives.

Due to adverse weather conditions, we held the yard sale at two different times and locations. This too was successful. We thank both Safeway managers for allowing our yard sale at their locations. In addition we would like to thank all of the people who contributed so generously to the Hospital Crusade and to our yard sale, the Shriners who worked the crusade and yard sales and the medias who made our fund drives known to the public, i.e. The Ruidoso News, KREE/KTMT KOAW and Channel 11 TV.—Again Thanks.

LEE ONSRUD
Vice President
Ruidoso Shrine Club

DEAR EDITOR:

Well it sure feels good to have the Ruidoso streets filled again with all those new, smiling, friendly, fun loving faces. Thanks to the Aspenfest committee who has worked so hard to make sure the motorcycle rally came back to our village and once again a successful event, I applaud you.

There is only one thing you forgot while making your list of things to take care of, to make sure the rally would be a success for years to come—The State Police.

Is it time to send our elected officials a serious and to the point letter? For what you ask? Stop harassing, intimidating and singling out Ruidoso's primary source of income—Tourist.

Have we made someone mad up at the state capitol, or are the roads leading to Ruidoso always going to be lined with road blocks on a "big weekend"?

It's hard enough to survive in business as we all know, what with mother nature and the present state of our area's economy. Maybe it's time we take a long hard look at our elected officials and ask ourselves, are they really looking out for our best interests.

JERRY COOLEY
P.S. Why not play "Miami Vice" on Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday, if you just have to, and leave the majority of our tourists alone.

DEAR EDITOR:

These comments are in response to Mr. Heckman, Sierra Blanca Airport Commission, who recently stated in an issue of The Ruidoso News that Capitan can expect much business from airport construction workers. True, these workers may prefer to live in Capitan rather than Ruidoso as it is a quieter place, has an excellent school, and has a lower sales tax. Mr. Heckman, why don't you encourage these workers to live and buy in Ruidoso? I am sure the Ruidoso merchants would appreciate the business.

If Capitan has an influx of construction workers I can see where the business community will benefit, especially in the rental of trailer spaces, in the rental of motel rooms, and in the sales of liquor, wine and beer, and groceries. Other business in the Village will benefit to a lesser degree. Possibly a job or two will open in the services area, no doubt at minimum wage.

I see no advantages to the average Capitan resident except a slight increase in gross receipts tax which would be of help to the Village if spent wisely. I do see some disadvantages:

1. Increased usage of our limited water supply.
2. Additional load on our already overloaded sewage system.
3. Increased traffic and congestion.
4. Possibility of additional work for our local policeman and the Sheriff's Department.
5. An additional workload for our post office. Since all monies collected go to the U.S. Post Office, this will be of no benefit to the Village.
6. Additional children in school. These workers will not pay property taxes so that is no help.

Increases in population and the corresponding growth are fine for the businesses; not always for residents in general. Unless the growth and expansion are managed wisely, carefully, and with the general population in mind, our lovely little Village could develop into just another ordinary American town with unsightly urban sprawl.

Very truly yours,

DEAR EDITOR:

Congratulations to Ruidoso VFW Post 7022.

We have one of the finest facilities in the country in T. or C. N.M., to take care of our well-deserved veterans. Large sums of money were spent to renovate the Carrie Tingley hospital to convert it into a veterans' center.

There were rumors that the veterans' center was in jeopardy for lack of residents. Headlines read "Veteran's Center needs residents to stay open."

Now comes the Marketing Services Division of the State Economic Development and Tourism Department saying the division will attempt to put the product together with those that need it. A colorful four-color brochure is suggested to make the public aware of the quality of the Center. This is supposed to give it the extra boost needed to speed up the process to reach resident capacity. It further states the need for a brochure with strong sales language is clear. The brochure is to be the main marketing tool in attracting new residents. Budgeting could be a problem as the E.D. & T.D. works on a matching fund system.

The New Mexico veterans' clubs could do the job without the frills or cost. There are enough club members of the various veterans' organizations to comb the bushes of every corner of the state to come up with enough New Mexico veterans in need of the services offered by the Center. We should not have to go outside of New Mexico to find residents for the Center. It was established by New Mexico with priority to those who served the State as well as the Country.

If we can't do it for our old buddies then let's turn it over to E.D. & T.D. to do it for us.

Racers in Sunday's White Mountain Challenge Cup near the beginning of the sharp switchbacks of Ski Run Road. Some 66 cyclists from across the state and Texas entered the steep road race, which began at Eagle Creek Sports Complex and ended at the parking lot of Ski Apache Resort. Weather during the race was foggy and cool.

The leaders in Sunday morning's Challenge Cup keep a brisk pace just after the start. Nationally ranked cyclist John Frey is second from right, and winner Jason Straugh is the rider in the black suit. Frey was delayed by a flat tire, but still managed a sixth-place finish, while Straugh's time of 49:05 beat second-place finisher Scott Romero by more than a minute.

The thin air at 9,700 feet made recovery after the race somewhat prolonged for some, but most cyclists indicated they enjoyed the race and race conditions. Fog shrouded much of the course and temperatures were cool. Event coordinator Galen Farrington called the conditions "perfect for a hill climb."

Challenge Cup winner Jason Straugh, of Santa Fe, pushes for the top of Ski Run Road for about two-thirds of the way through the 12-mile event. The twisty climb saw speeds range from an all-out downhill burst at the finish to walking-speed crawls up some of the steepest inclines.

Cyclists pedal to Ski Apache Resort in Sunday morning Challenge Cup

A total of 66 bicyclists braved the height of Sierra Blanca, cool weather and fog in the White Mountain Challenge Cup Sunday.

Jason Straugh of Santa Fe was the overall winner and men's 18-34 age group winner. He covered the 12-mile distance from Eagle Creek Sports Complex to Ski Apache Resort in just 49:05.

"The course wasn't that hard," the slender bicyclist said. "This is definitely one of the top five hill climb courses in the state."

"The gravel on the road did bother me a bit. I had to come to almost a complete stop each time I went over the gravel. I think I may have lost 45 seconds off my time because of it."

Scott Romero of El Paso, Texas, was second in the overall and 18-34 competitions in 50:30. Dwayne Fritz of Las Cruces finished third in 50:57.

Ruidoso High School student Jesse Foster won the men's 13-17 competition in 57:00. Foster is a member of the local Alpine Shifters club.

Chris Donahue was second in 1:01:07 and Ruidoso's Chad Nielsen was third in 1:01:37.

Paul Forsyth won the men's over-35 competition in 52:14. Mike McGrath finished second in 53:36. Don Donahue finished third in 58:57.

Saila Miettinen of Albuquerque won the women's competition in 59:54. Renee Towns was second in 1:20:54. Tammy White took third in 1:30:57 and Wylize Temple finished fourth in 1:42:01.

Chip Temple, 14, was the youngest competitor, finishing in 1:18:12. J.N. Corley was the oldest finisher (43), as he finished in 1:11:26.

The race was conducted in cool temperatures of around 50 degrees. There also was a great deal of fog around much of the course.

But that apparently did not bother the cyclists.

"For cycling, it was perfect for a hill climb," said Galen Farrington, coordinator of the event.

"The event went super. It was far better than we expected. The cyclists are making plans to come back next year."

The race drew some top competitors.

John Frey competed for the national team this year. He was eighth in the national team trials.

He finished sixth Sunday, but was hampered by a flat tire.

Medals and trophies were given out to the top finishers.

A number of local merchants and individuals made donations to the race.

They were Roswell Schwinn, Outdoor Adventures, Safeway, the Ruidoso High School cheerleaders, Pioneer Savings & Trust, Ruidoso Athletic Club, Bennett's, Ski West Sports, Ruidoso Lodgers' Association, Dr. Paul Echols, River Tire and Auto, Ski Apache Resort, River Park KOA Kampground and High Country Insurance.

Ruidoso's Jesse Foster rests after competing in the White Mountain Challenge Cup Sunday. Foster won the men's 13-17 junior division in 57:00.

Horses are ready to race Saturday at Sunland

Horse racing fans will be greeted by two new types of wagering, a remodeled clubhouse and free parking when Sunland Park kicks off its 28th season Saturday.

Ruidosoan Kent Beatty, the former announcer at Blue Ribbon Downs in Sallisaw, Oklahoma, will be calling the races for the 1986-87 meet, which features 89 days of racing with programs every Friday, Saturday and Sunday through May 3. The first field breaks from the gates at 12:30 p.m. each day.

A total of 165 trainers have been approved for stalls during the upcoming racing season. The horses began arriving on the track's "backside" September 22 and started workouts over the mile-long oval the same week.

Conditioner Fred Danley and jockey Mike Lidberg, who walked off with the training and riding championships last season at Sunland, will be returning to the Southern New Mexico track to defend their titles.

When Sunland Park opens its gates October 11, more than 1,600 horses will be on the grounds. Both quarter horses and thoroughbreds are featured in a stakes schedule comprised of 42 events offering more than $300,000 in added prize money.

The schedule includes such nationally famed quarter horse events as the $275,000 Sun Country Futurity, the $200,000 West Texas Futurity and the $100,000 West Texas Derby, plus the Southwest's premier thoroughbred race - the $300,000 Riley Allison Futurity. Sunland Park will host live simulcasts of the Breeders' Cup from Santa Anita November 1 and the Kentucky Derby from Churchill Downs May 2.

Saturday's opening program is highlighted by the mile-long Mr. Vale Handicap, which traditionally brings out a strong field of veteran thoroughbreds racing for an $8,000 added-money purse. Sunday, quarter horses take center stage in the first leg of the Savannah Swinger Series contested at 350 yards. Sunland will feature free general admission and parking both days, along with special prices on food and drinks.

The track's clubhouse is being refurbished for the upcoming season with a color scheme anchored by a massive tile floor and new carpeting currently under installation in the 28-year-old facility. Parking has been restructured into four separate categories this season, with a new area reserved for free general parking.

Sunland Park will offer five separate types of exotic wagering for the 1986-87 season in addition to straight win, place and show betting. The Exacta and Twin Trifecta will be introduced this year to complement the Daily Double, Quiniela and Trifecta wagers.

The Exacta ticket is a winner when the holder picks the the first-and second-place horses in the exact order. The Twin Trifecta is a relatively new wagering concept that offers the opportunity for extremely large payoffs to fans selecting the first three finishers in the 3rd and 4th races each day.

General admission is $1 with grandstand reserved seating available for $3.50. Admission to the clubhouse is $5.25. Every Friday is Ladies Day with free general admission for ladies. Senior citizens receive free general admission each race day along with active-duty military personnel. Sunland Park is located five blocks west of the Sunland Park exit on Interstate 10 in El Paso, Texas.

For more information on Sunland Park call (505) 589-1131. A free booklet entitled "Horse Sense" offers an easy-to-follow guide to horse racing and wagering. Write for a free copy: HORSE SENSE, P.O. Box 1, Sunland Park, N.M. (88063).

Big Bold Boz, owned by Jackie Spencer, was the winner of last year's Riley Allison Futurity. This year's $300,000 Futurity will highlight the 89-day season at Sunland Park racetrack, which begins Saturday, October 11.

HOW WAS SCHOOL TODAY? WHO CARES?
 I WAS JUST ASKING IT'S MY NEW PHILOSOPHY... "WHO CARES?"
 FROM NOW ON, NOTHING BOTHERS ME WHO CARES? WHO CARES?
 WE SHOULD ORGANIZE A FOOTBALL TEAM, MARCIE WE CAN'T SIR... WE DON'T HAVE COSTUMES UNIFORMS WHATEVER
 I DON'T WANT TO PLAY FOOTBALL SIR... IT'S NOT FEMININE ENOUGH! NOT FEMININE ENOUGH!!
 WHAT DO YOU WANT TO DO, TIE A RIBBON AROUND THE BALL OR SOMETHING? LOOKS CUTE DOESN'T IT?
 I'LL HOLD THE BALL, SIR, AND YOU KICK IT... MARCIE, I'M NOT GONNA KICK A BALL THAT HAS A CUTE RIBBON TIED AROUND IT!
 I'LL BET THE ICEBOX WOULD "REFRIGERATOR" WHATEVER AND MARCIE ISN'T SAYING FOOTBALL ISN'T FEMININE, CHUCK... ISN'T SHE SOMETHING? IF I LIKE TO PLAY FOOTBALL, DOES THAT MEAN I'M NOT FEMININE, CHUCK?
 WHAT DO YOU THINK, CHUCK? HUH? WHAT DO YOU THINK? WE'RE SORRY... THE NUMBER YOU HAVE REACHED IS NO LONGER IN SERVICE..
 SEE THAT SQUIRREL? HE'S BEEN STORING UP FOOD FOR THE WINTER... I'LL BET YOU NEVER THINK ABOUT THAT, DO YOU?

Obituaries

Jonathan Cajé

Jonathan Joseph Cajé, of Mescalero, died October 5 in Mescalero. Cajé was born July 19, 1959, in Mescalero where he lived all of his life. He was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Mission. Survivors include his mother, Adeline Torres; father, Cecil Kinzhurna; brother, Edgar Torres Jr.; and sisters Leola Cajé, Sharon Duffy, Marcella Cajé, Aveline Torres and Dorothy Torres, all of Mescalero. Rosary was recited Tuesday and Mass was said Wednesday in St. Joseph's Mission, with Father Larry Gosselin officiating. Burial followed in the Mescalero Cemetery. Arrangements are by LaGrone Funeral Chapel of Ruidoso.

Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital following a lengthy illness. Haddix was born March 27, 1928, in Fort Worth, Texas, and was a member of First Christian Church, the D.A.V. and was a charter member of the local V.F.W. He served Ruidoso Lodge AF & AM as Worshipful Master in 1972. He was a retired saddle maker and leather worker. Survivors include his wife, Maxine, of the family residence; daughters Jacque Haddix of Ruidoso and Andrea Haddix of Denver, Colorado; mother, Bessie Edmonson of Ruidoso; and brother, Robert Haddix of St. Maries, Idaho. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. today (Thursday), October 9, at First Christian Church with the Reverend Ken Cole officiating. Burial will follow in Forest Lawn Cemetery with Ruidoso Lodge 73 AF&AM giving the service. Pallbearers will be members of Ruidoso Lodge 73 AF&AM. The family suggests memorial contributions be made to the Ruidoso Hospital Auxiliary, P.O. Box 3-C-D, Ruidoso NM 88345. Arrangements are by LaGrone Funeral Chapel of Ruidoso.

Hartz seeks Supreme Court seat

HARRIS HARTZ

Harris Hartz is a candidate for New Mexico Supreme Court Justice. The candidate, a Republican, has no previous political experience, and said he is running for the position because his goal is to be a judge. Hartz has extensive experience in criminal law, including serving as executive director of the Governor's Organized Crime Prevention Commission in 1977-79; legal counselor for that group in 1976-77; and service as an Assistant United States Attorney in Albuquerque in 1972-75. He graduated from Harvard Law

School in 1972 Magna Cum Laude. Hartz has had a private law practice in Albuquerque since 1979, specializing in commercial and personal injury litigation. He is a shareholder and director in the firm of Miller, Stratvert, Torgerson & Schlenker, P.A. Hartz seeks the office of Supreme Court Justice because of the challenge and importance of the position. He believes the Supreme Court can take a leadership role in dealing with issues such as the handling of convicted criminals being let out on bond, as in the Dena Lynn Gore case in Artesia; the issue of search warrants by phone when expediency is necessary; consideration of the insanity plea; dealing with concerns raised over the rising number and expense of lawsuits, especially frivolous lawsuits; and working to ensure that common sense is applied in Supreme Court decisions, and that decisions are adequately explained to the public. Hartz, who grew up in Farmington, said he'd always be sure to maintain ties with areas in New Mexico outside of Albuquerque and Santa Fe if he's elected to the Supreme Court. "There's a lot more to New Mexico than Albuquerque and Santa Fe," he commented. The candidate and his wife, Deborah, have two sons, Jacob and Andrew.

For the record

Ruidoso police activities

September 20—Mike Hudson of Alto reported an assault incident in which he "scuffled" with a customer he saw place a package of "Moist and Meaty Dog Food" under his shirt. Hudson said the suspect fled on foot.

September 20—Christine F. Marazzi of Ruidoso reported that someone entered her 105 Kirkman Circle home and ransacked every room.

September 20—Dana Lynn Cary of Ruidoso reported she was verbally assaulted in the Safeway parking lot on Sudderth Drive.

September 20—Dave Mason of Ruidoso reported a 1981 Toyota Corona belonging to Jessie L. Hawkins was damaged while parked at Ruidoso Chevron waiting to be serviced. Mason said unknown persons entered the unlocked car, broke the steering wheel cover guard and apparently attempted to "hot wire" the engine. Damage was estimated at $150.

September 22—Jo Kelly of Roswell reported she was verbally assaulted at her Roswell College of Cosmetology office in Ski West Center.

September 22—Ray Thomas Willholte of El Paso, Texas, reported vandalism at 307 Rayman Buckner Drive. He said unknown persons opened the meter box and turned off the power causing food worth about $65 to spoil in the refrigerator, and perhaps ruining the refrigerator valued at $500.

September 24—John B. Mazzarelli of Alto reported two credit card slips accepted for $10 at the Fina Station on Mechem Drive were apparently forged to be submitted as $20 each.

September 24—Sergeant T.J. McBride of the Ruidoso Police Department reported two glass windows were cut with a glass cutter and broken at Holiday House Restaurant, 310 Sudderth Drive.

September 24—Louis Hair of Olton, Texas, reported a burglary at 107 Kirkman Circle. Canned goods and food items were reported missing and a window screen was reported broken. Damage was estimated at $100, and value of missing items was estimated at $10.

September 24—Gena Rehdantz of Alto reported someone apparently illegally entered the Get Your Shirt Together shop through the bathroom window. Nothing was reported missing.

September 24—Carole Trapp of Ruidoso reported her pickup was damaged, apparently by wind, while parked at the 7-11 at 2207 Sudderth Drive. Damage was estimated at $100.

September 26—Tammy Hightower of Alto reported she was injured by a customer at Cheers Lounge where she is employed as a bartender. Hightower was taken to Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital where she was treated and released for a cut on her arm.

September 26—Sheldon Divly of El Paso, Texas, reported that 15 to 20 asbestos shingles were pulled off his Ruidoso residence, 305 Spring Road. Damage was estimated at $150.

September 28—Octabio Apodaca of Roswell reported a 1981 burgundy Pontiac Trans Am stolen from the parking lot of the Super 8 Motel. Apodaca reported the keys were not in the locked vehicle parked in the lot about 10 p.m. Thursday, September 27, and missing at 8 a.m. Friday, September 28. Apodaca said entry might have been gained through the loose T-top. The vehicle has New Mexico license plate #JB748, expiring in 1987, and NCIC #V763504775. Value of the missing car is estimated at $7,900.

September 29—George Brooks of Ruidoso reported a door was destroyed on a storage room at 312

Hull Road. Brooks said damage, estimated at $100, was apparently caused by a motorcycle or bicycle ramming into the door on the house belonging to Ray McNeil of Midland, Texas.
