Samuels is seated as sheriff; speaks of plans

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

"I've been wanting to be sheriff for years," said Lincoln County Sheriff Don Samuels soon after taking office Friday.

Samuels, who took the oath of office in ceremonies in District Court Friday morning, said he has missed law enforcement since leaving the Texas Department of Public Service and was pleased to be "fortunate enough to be elected" Lincoln County Sheriff.

The new sheriff said he has no plans for any sweeping changes of the Sheriff's Department.

"I'll have to look at each and every phase of the operation," said Samuels, but "for the time being" no changes are planned.

While admitting that he had heard of some possible resignations among Sheriff's Office staff, Samuels said he had no official word on any staff members quitting.

As of Friday morning Samuels had not named a chief deputy, but said he had "seven or eight very good applicants." Samuels said he had set himself no deadline for filling the chief deputy spot.

Sheriff Samuels confirmed Sunday that two men have declined the chief deputy position.

Samuels said he hasn't yet reviewed all the evidence in the highly publicized McKnight murder case, but plans to do so in the very near future.

"As long as there's any possibility of any evidence being found it will remain open," said Samuels.

Although Samuels' campaign manager, John Cooper of Tinnie, was at one time a McKnight relative, Samuels said that case had nothing to do with his running for office or his choice of campaign managers.

Samuels said he sought the sheriff's office because he wanted to be sheriff.

And, as of 10 a.m. Friday, Samuels is the Lincoln County Sheriff.

Sheriff race cost the most

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

Candidates for county offices spent well over $17,000 in campaigns preceding last November's general election with would-be sheriffs topping the list.

According to financial reports filed 30 days after the election, write-in candidate Lerry Bond spent more than $3.85 each for the 994 votes he garnered in the race for Lincoln County Sheriff.

Republican Sheriff Don Samuels' 2,085 votes cost him about 81 cents each while his unsuccessful Democratic opponent, Jim Nesmith, spent less than 50 cents per vote. Spending by all three sheriff candidates was close to $6,000.

Bond reported $2,049.38 on the 30-day report, bringing his total campaign expenditures to $3,831.89. He reported additional contributions of $354.20, upping his total he received to $2,949.20.

Samuels, the new sheriff, reported $669.42 in additional expenses and $1,045 in new contributions on the 30-day report. He reported spending a total of $1,698 and receiving total contributions of $1,945.

Nesmith reported spending and receiving less than $500 for the entire campaign.

In the three county commissioner races, the three winning candidates outspent their opponents, with Democratic Commissioner John A. Hightower outspending Republican J.O. Payne more than six to one.

Hightower, who received 2,049 votes, reported spending $3,140.35 on his campaign, while Payne reported expenditures of $522.07.

Commissioner Ralph R. Dunlap, a Democrat, reported total expenses of $1,621.39 to his opponent, Dennis Nosker's, $921.17. Dunlap won with 2,403 votes to Republican candidate Nosker's 1,720.

Two injured in Cedar Creek accident

Two people were treated Tuesday at Lincoln County Medical Center (LCMC) with injuries they received in a two-vehicle accident on Cedar Creek Road, according to Ruidoso Police reports.

Irene Mitchell, 25, of Ruidoso, a passenger in a 1977 Chevrolet driven by Ruidoso resident Annette Lopez, 25, was transported to LCMC by Alto Ambulance. A passenger in the second vehicle, Carole N. Marsh, 42, of Beaumont, Texas, was also injured, said police.

Lopez was westbound on Cedar Creek, and Clyde R. Marsh Jr., 45, of Beaumont was eastbound in his 1984 Chrysler, reported police. Marsh reportedly saw the westbound car and hit his brakes, causing his vehicle to slide on the icy roadway and collide with the oncoming car.

Police said Marsh was cited for driving left of center.

Be a part of New Mexico's 75th birthday celebration

Tomorrow, January 6, the State of New Mexico will be 75 years old. You can make tomorrow evening a night of enchantment by participating in the State Diamond Jubilee Committee's "Light of Enchantment" commemorating the event.

New Mexicans (and visitors) are asked to step outside at precisely 8 p.m. and light a candle, match or flashlight—thus becoming a "human candle" with the State of New Mexico as a huge birthday cake.

Hospital decorating contest

Department doors were decorated for the holidays at Lincoln County Medical Center. "Best Overall Winner" was the Respiratory Therapy door.

Voted "Most Original" door in the Lincoln County Medical Center door holiday decorating contest was the Surgery entry.

The door welcoming new patients to the hospital, the Admitting Office, received an award as the "Most Festive."

Chamber board handles end-of-1986 business

The Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors conducted their last regular meeting of 1986 last Wednesday.

Members were encouraged to attend the mid-year retreat on Saturday, January 10, in Las Cruces at the Mesilla Valley Inn Best Western.

"This is an important event," said Bill Hirschfeld, board president. "We need as many board members as possible to attend."

Besides chamber members, others invited to attend the retreat were village and county officials, key school personnel, attorneys and "anyone else who would like to come," according to Sunny Hirschfeld. The suggestion was made that Mesalero Apache tribe representatives also be invited.

Among topics to be discussed at the retreat are a financial review of 1986 and the budget for the new year. There will also be an exchange of ideas for future chamber projects to help boost the local economy, and ways to increase current chamber membership.

In other business, the board: —Welcomed Mary Bradley, of the Village Bookie, as the newest member of the board.

—Heard the results of the Christmas lighting contest.

—Appointed Barbara DiPaolo as the board representative to chair the Art Festival. Charlie Smith will act as co-chairman.

—Appointed a three-member permanent Art Festival Advisory Committee consisting of Charlie Smith, Florie Wilson and Pat Crown to "investigate year-round art related activities."

—Learned that there are four new and eight reinstated chamber members, bringing the total year-end membership to 375.

—Heard Bob Bailey's suggestion that the existing airport land be used as a winter-spring jai alai arena. Further discussions will take place at the retreat.

—Learned that there has been "favorable response" to the telephone efforts made by local ski shop owners to keep media in surrounding areas informed of our ski conditions.

—Learned from Robert Boverie that Ski Apache personnel have been "extremely courteous and good to customers."

—Learned from Boverie that the winter ad campaign in the Texas markets has been "very successful." He also stated that the $25,000 intended for the Albuquerque area has been delayed for summer since there were "no good winter ideas" and they want to "see how the budget is" at the end of the fiscal year.

Record crowds

Bumper-to-bumper traffic is shown in Midtown during the holidays. Village engineer Mike Davalos said a counter installed on Sudderth Drive recorded 19,373 cars December 29, 21,589 vehicles December 30 and 18,078 cars December 31. Davalos said the counter had to be rolled up Christmas week because of snowy streets. Traffic counts for the week of December 14-20 totaled 67,192. (Photo by Darrell J. Pehr.)

Warrior boys will play Tularosa after losses to Roswell, Artesia

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's boys varsity basketball team is hoping to regain its touch when the Warriors travel to Tularosa Tuesday night, January 6.

The Warriors are 4-4 on the season after losing to powerful Roswell, 67-43, Saturday night, and Artesia, 73-44, Wednesday.

Against Tularosa, Warrior head coach Gene Segura probably will start Alan Kirgan and Kirk Ryan at guard, Jeff Willingham will be the swingman, and Brian Davis and John Walker will be the forwards.

"We're struggling right now," Segura remarked. "It seems like after the Portales game (a 57-37 Warrior victory two weeks ago), we went and played our three poorest games of the season in the Lovington Tournament.

"The Roswell game was just a continuation of the way we played in the tournament. But I still think we have a good ballclub."

Against the undefeated Coyotes Saturday night, Ruidoso stayed close for a quarter and a half before Roswell pulled away.

Roswell led, 12-8, at the end of the first quarter and increased that to 20-13 midway through the second period.

However, the swift Coyotes then outscored Ruidoso, 13-7, for a 33-20 halftime advantage.

The Coyotes increased their edge in the third quarter, outscoring Ruidoso, 18-8, for a 51-28 advantage. Ruidoso battled the visitors tough in the final quarter, scoring 15 points to Ruidoso's 16.

Kirgan led the Warrior scoring with 12 points. Toby Rue and Ryan each tallied nine points and Walker scored six.

Ruidoso was outshot at the free throw line. Roswell made 15 of 28 charity attempts. The Warriors connected on seven of 11.

Eric Bland and Miguel Gutierrez each scored 21 points for the Coyotes.

Ruidoso's loss to Artesia came in the consolation game of the Lovington Tournament. The Warriors finished sixth in the eight-team field.

Ryan, Davis and Kirgan each scored 10 points to lead the Warriors.

Garret Henson added eight points. Walker and Rue each scored six points.

As in the Roswell game, Ruidoso did not get many foul shots against Artesia.

Artesia made 21 of 31 charity attempts to just four of seven for Ruidoso.

Segura expects Tularosa to be tough.

"They'll probably try and run a lot," Segura said. "They're a guard-oriented offense and they probably can shoot the lights out in their home gym."

Following the Tularosa contest, Ruidoso will host Lovington Friday, January 9, and travel to Goddard Saturday, January 10.

Ruidoso's John Walker (30 in light jersey) goes for a rebound against Roswell in Saturday night's boys varsity basketball game. Ruidoso lost, 67-43, to see its overall record drop to 4-4.

Warrior girls beaten by Socorro; to host Goddard Rockets Tuesday

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's girls varsity basketball team got off to a slow start and that proved fatal as the Warriors lost, 68-62, to host Socorro Saturday night.

Ruidoso, now 1-5 on the season, will open its home season Tuesday, January 6, against Goddard.

The junior varsity game will start at 5:30 p.m., followed by the varsity contest.

Against Socorro, the Warriors fell behind, 44-26, at the end of three quarters. However, Ruidoso outscored Socorro, 26-14, in the final quarter to close the gap.

Ruidoso trailed by a 14-8 score at the end of the first quarter. Socorro led, 30-18, at halftime.

"We just didn't play with the kind of intensity we needed in the first three quarters," said Warrior head coach Sergio Castanon. "They (Socorro) were kind of big, and we needed to be intense."

Tammy Osborne led the Warrior scoring with 15 points and Veralyn Platta added 14. Amy Osborne scored 12 points and Zeba Morris tallied eight points.

"They were pretty tall," Castanon said of Socorro. "They had one girl about 6-0 and another about 6-10. They probably were their leading scorers."

The Warrior junior varsity picked up its first victory of the season against two losses, defeating Socorro, 55-45.

Shala Gosdin scored 11 points and Ellen Graham added 10 points for the Warriors.

When the Warriors play Goddard Tuesday night, they will be looking for their first victory in three tries this season against the Rockets.

Ruidoso lost to Goddard, 53-52, in a consolation game of the Goddard Tournament. The Warriors lost a later contest by a 64-47 score.

Amy Osborne, Platta and Berdine Smith will be the Warrior guards. Tammy Osborne and Morris will be the forwards.

Ruidoso's Brian Davis (right in light jersey) puts the ball up against Roswell in Saturday's boys varsity basketball game. The Warriors lost, 67-43, and will travel to Tularosa Tuesday.

Rec cage meeting set for Tuesday

The Ruidoso Parks and Recreation Department will have a meeting for its winter basketball league at 7 p.m. Tuesday, January 6, in the White Mountain Intermediate School gymnasium.

The purpose of the meeting will be to set starting dates, determine team fees and discuss the general overall season.

The Chiefs won the championship last season, defeating the Shockers, 74-69, in the title game of the season-ending tournament.

League officials believe at least five teams will compete in the league this season.

Schmidt wins three matches for Warriors in Carlsbad

Jeff Schmidt again was the top performer for the Ruidoso High School wrestling team in a four-team meet in Carlsbad Saturday. The 105-pound wrestler won two matches by pins and another by a forfeit.

Ruidoso competed against Tucumcari, the Carlsbad varsity and the Carlsbad junior varsity.

Schmidt pinned one opponent in the first round and the other in the third round. He is the defending District 3-AAA champion at 98 pounds.

Heavyweight Jason Hill also did well, taking a pin victory and a forfeit victory. In his other match, he lost, 3-1, to Carlsbad's varsity wrestler.

Ruidoso lost the team matches to Tucumcari (40-24), Carlsbad's varsity (56-5), and Carlsbad's junior varsity (38-26).

"Our technique wasn't bad, but the intensity just wasn't there," Warrior head coach Gerald Ames said.

The Warriors will compete in the Bowie Tournament in El Paso, Texas, Friday and Saturday, January 9-10.

Ruidoso tied Roswell, 33-33, in its only previous dual match of the season.

The Dreamer

by Dan Storm

Seburn Neatherlin

Services were held December thirty-one at Forest Lawn Cemetery for Seburn O. Neatherlin who was called Home by Our Lord on December twenty-nine.

The Reverend Cleve Kirby, in charge of services, recited a poem by Edgar A. Guest entitled "Everyone Liked Him."

Neatherlin's daughter Glo Lane feels that this poem by her favorite poet speaks well for her father, for, in Glo's words,

"I never heard him say anything but good about anyone. He was a devoted and loving father and we were all a very close family. Our father was a quiet man, and very kind and helpful to everyone."

Seburn was a diesel mechanic by trade, and was in Puerto Rico on a construction project when World War II was declared, and he was sent back to the States.

During World War II, Seburn was in civil service in San Francisco working on submarine motors. Then after the war he returned to his native West Texas and had his own mechanic shop in Quitaque, Texas. Later he was caretaker of the Tulla Recreation Lake in Tulla, Texas.

When his daughter Glo and her husband, Alton Lane, returned from their homestead experience in Idaho, and took over The Ruidoso News in 1970, Seburn and his wife, Orby, began looking toward Ruidoso. About 1972 they arrived here.

Proud of his daughter Glo, who was a linotype operator on the paper and proud also of his son-in-law, Alton, editor and publisher—Seburn pitched in and helped out with The Ruidoso News. He carried the papers about town and over to Captain and helped out in all kinds of ways.

I say Seburn was proud of his daughter and well he should be...she was a linotype operator when she was not yet fourteen, working on two papers that were published in Quitaque. One was the Quitaque Post, and the other was the Turkey Enterprise.

Glo began filling in one season during the Christmas Holidays, and then continued on afterwards as she rapidly learned the linotype keyboard. Her later experience on papers in Plainview and Olton, Texas, prepared her well for helping carry The Ruidoso News through one of the interesting chapters in its colorful history.

Seburn and his wife, Orby, loved Ruidoso and made many dear friends here. We all rejoice that our dear friend has gone on to join loved ones with our Lord in Heaven.

Happy Birthday
To New Mexico

This will reach you on the eve of the seventy-fifth birthday of New Mexico, The Land of Enchantment, The Sunshine State, and the Land of New Life, to name just a few of the titles of our forty-seventh state.

On the sixth of this month it will be seventy-five years to the day that president Grover Cleveland signed the papers to make states out of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona.

Although one of our younger states to be added to the flag, New Mexico itself as a territory of the United States, a state of Mexico, and before that a colony of Spain—before all this Mexico's history goes back to the year 1640. It was in 1940 that our state celebrated its Cuaueto Centennial or four-hundredth birthday.

So in a way we are one of the oldest and one of the youngest with a long and colorful history and a future even more colorful than its past.

Next time or so we will go over a few of the highlights of our beloved state. And for now let us wish New Mexico many happy returns of the day and all God's blessings.

The year in photos

News staff writer Linda Ponder snapped this photograph of a bull rider preparing his mount during rodeo action this summer in Capitlan. Rodeos in the county and in Mescalero every summer attract large crowds.

Stephanie Schroff and her spaghetti lunch are the subject of this Frankie Jarrell photograph. Taken in August, the photograph shows just how much fun a 16-month-old can have, given the right ingredients.

Ruidoso Mountain Tops assistant coach Moe Masters gives eight-year-old Kendra Eggleston pointers during the State Optionals Gymnastics Meet in Santa Fe last

May. The advice must have been good, as Eggleston went on to capture five ribbons for her efforts in the meet. (Photo by Frankie Jarrell.)

News sports writer Gary Brown captured the excitement as Chuck Daniels (right) hands off to Matt Evans during the Ruidoso Warriors' third-place effort in the 800-meter relay during the state track meet in Albuquerque last May. Other members of the team were Michael Williamson and Brian Davis.

News staff writer Shirley Bowington was on the spot to record this moment in sledding action as Corrina Caldwell takes to the air off a bump. Frequent snowstorms late in 1986 kept sledders and skiers busy.

Business

Ramifications now open year-round

You won't find assembly-line clothing and jewelry in "Ramifications." This store features hand-woven wearables designed and created by owner, Ann Haile, a Carlsbad weaver.

To provide just the right unique accents, the store also offers accessories such as jewelry, by other New Mexico artists.

For two years, Ramifications has been open only during the summers. Now, the new store, located at 2603 Sudderth Drive (next to the Hock Shop), will be open year-round. Manager Linda Wright extends a warm invitation for people to stop by, browse and enjoy the fine work of these Southwestern master craftspeople.

George's Rainbow Gifts features collectors' items

"The items in our store appeal to collectors," said Ann George, of Rainbow Gifts. "For an example, we have some 18th Century collectors' pieces that were souvenirs at the coronation of Napoleon."

She also stated that her husband, Don, is a "semi-retired" interior designer, and much of the collection came from buying trips, with the future gift store in mind. Rainbow Gifts is located across from Rainbow Trout Lake on Carrizo Creek Road, in the same building as Ann George's real estate office, Resort World.

"We're pioneers," she answered when asked how long she and her husband have lived in the Ruidoso area. They moved here from Amarillo, Texas, in 1977, and feel they are natives. Husband, Don, has owned and operated Atelier, interior design.

For more information, Ann George may be reached by calling 257-7786.

Text, graphics come alive at Copywriter Publishing

"We're not in the business to replace the print shops," said Ken Davis, owner of Copywriter Publishing. "We're to enhance them."

He and wife, Dottie, have recently opened a small office across from the Post Office, which houses their Apple McIntosh Plus computer and Apple Laser Printer. They specialize in page processing and desktop publishing—by combining computerized text and graphics to produce crisp, distinct images through the laser printer. By using a digitizer, they can also reproduce photographic images.

"It's cheaper to do small jobs here," said Davis. "From the original concept, we can produce the artwork and layout, then the person can go to the printer to have large quantities printed."

Some of the applications possible with the McIntosh are customized greeting cards, newsletters, mailing labels, logos, brochures, multi-copy invoices, flyers, coupons, personalized envelopes and stationary, ad layouts and restaurant menus.

"We will also maintain each customer's documents on computer disk at no additional charge," said Davis. "This greatly reduces set-up charges for any future printing of the document."

Ken and Dottie Davis, who moved here in August from Midland, Texas, said they had been "coming to Ruidoso forever"—since they were children.

Davis' background is in engineering and physics in the oilfield.

Copywriter Publishing is located at 2930-A Sudderth Drive, across from the Ruidoso Post Office. For more information call 257-5765.

Bros. Ski Emporium has rental ski equipment

"Quality equipment, professional service and affordable rates—that's our motto," said Jeff Maul, owner of Bros. Ski Emporium. "That says it all and is what the whole thing's about."

Bros. Ski Emporium, located at 2801 Sudderth Drive, carries Head, Swallows and Nichizawa skis, as well as Raichle and Weinmann boots. The store has been in operation for three and a half years seasonally, but, as of Thanksgiving weekend, opened its doors for year-round business. Shop hours are regularly 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Fridays until midnight.

The Ruidoso News / 9A

Lincoln County officials lined up after swearing in ceremonies Friday (from left) are Assessor Marian Schlarb, Clerk Fran Siddens, Treasurer Shirley Goodloe, Judge

Richard Parsons (who conducted the ceremonies) and commissioners John Hightower, Ralph Dunlap and Bill Karn.

Commissioners sworn in, make board appointments

by LINDA PONDER
News Staff Writer

In their first meeting, the newly sworn-in Lincoln County Commissioners elected a chairman and made county board appointments.

Commissioner John A. Hightower was selected by fellow commissioners Bill Karn and Ralph Dunlap to represent the commissioners as their chairman. Dunlap was chosen as the vice chairman.

Overturning a decision by the previous commissioners, Hightower, Dunlap and Karn decided to renew the county's membership in the New Mexico Association of Counties. They appointed Karn as the representative to that group. A mid-winter conference is scheduled in January.

Karn was selected to represent the county on the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission, replacing former Commissioner Ken Nosker.

Nearly all other boards remain the same with the exceptions of Irene Barham and Kay Suktemeler being added to the Carrizozo Health Center Advisory Board, John Clem was excluded, Patsy Sanchez will replace Walton Wilson on the Lincoln County Personnel Board for District II, the appointment for District III will be made at the next meeting. The District I board member remains Israel Miranda.

On the Southeastern New Mexico Economic Development District, Dunlap will replace former Commissioner A.W. "Gnat" Gnatkowski. Karn will take Gnatkowski's seat on the Lincoln County Fair Board.

In other business Friday, the commissioners:

—Heard a report from Nosker on the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport. He said the dirt work on the airport will begin on or about Friday, January 23. "We're under budget at this point," Nosker said, "and money left from Pac I will go into Pac II. There are no local funds involved at this time." Nosker wished Karn "all the success in the world" and hoped everything remained on schedule. He concluded, "I truly believe that it's going to be a good airport with regular commercial flights someday."

—Approved Nosker going as a representative to the water hearing in Santa Fe Thursday and Friday, January 8 and 9, concerning the litigation of the airport well.

—Approved hiring temporary help in the county manager's office.

—Approved a change in the paving assessment contract to include McCarty Construction doing the base course on Eagle Creek Road.

Inside the Capitol

by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—New Mexico's government, put into the hands of a new chief executive this week, needs above all else a quality of management it has not had in many years.

The necessity for the sort of hands-on control it must now have arises from several factors. One is that it has been allowed to drift, almost rudderlessly, through some good financial years; those flush times have ended now—in fact, they ended months ago, yet the direction of government has not been changed to acknowledge that shift. Another is that this change, from a year-after-year control by Democrats to a new experience in having a Republican at the helm, is a time when some inside the government will feel tempted to see what they can get away with. Only a firm hand on the rudder will get us through such a period.

Because that's so, it may not be out of place to make some suggestions more or less directly to Governor Carruthers as he assumes the top role. We see from this point of view at least three manners of procedure that he will have to handle correctly from this first moment off the mark if the changeover is to provide what the citizens of New Mexico need. The first is a clear grasp on what is strategy and what is tactics in the government he now heads.

His most immediate predecessor was never able to distinguish between those two. He evidently understood that the governor is to be the state's strategist, but he could not then bring himself to let go so the tactics could be overseen by those he named for that purpose. As long as every major decision has to be made in the office of the governor and his top assistant, strangulation is bound to result. It did, and Carruthers now has a chance to correct that condition.

The second thing he must work hard to keep control of is the knife that must clearly be wielded as the size of our governing mechanism is cut.

Carruthers has told us repeatedly, and clearly has committed himself to giving us this, that he intends to "streamline state government." That means his early weeks and months in office are going to be devoted to discovering what can and should be slashed.

There's plenty there that falls in to that category. Anybody who is thoughtful who serves on the state payroll will tell you that is so. But slashing is something that must be done with care.

It shouldn't be attempted prematurely. Further, it must be approached ruthlessly, in the sense that courage must guide the taking of whatever steps are logically seen to be called for; but still with ruth, or caring, for the humans who are affected by it.

In fact, it's a lot easier to talk about firing people than it is to do it when the time comes.

Thirdly, there is the problem of what would be called, if this were merely a business, a change in "corporate culture."

That phrase hasn't been too long in use in the world of business, where it was once thought that anyone who served well in any company could simply move to another and be equally successful there. The sociologists of business know, however, that each company is different from all others; each has its own approved attitudes and mannerisms and even pace of procedure, which are unlike those of others.

The same is true in the political arena. Republicans, who will occupy most of the top jobs in the state from this point till the next four years are completed, really are different from Democrats. That difference is much more than skin deep; in reality, it is philosophical, and thus basic. When they take charge, therefore, a major shift will be required by those employees they inherited, already ensconced in their safe state jobs; and a major difficulty in explaining the changes to be looked for is to be expected with them.

To streamline and to set a new direction at the same time will give Carruthers at least as much work as it is possible for him to undertake. It would be appreciated if the ordinary citizens let him get on with those jobs, without making too many other demands on him during his first year or so in office.

Besides, if he can only establish good management in the many buildings that house our state employees, that alone will be enough of an achievement for his whole four years in office.

teams about to come searching for us. Luckily we were okay.

We didn't stop to consider the possibilities before we ventured past the boundaries that were put there to keep skiers in a safe area. If the Search and Rescue, Ski Patrol, State Police and Forest Service were to have to come searching for us, not only were we putting our lives on the line, but other people's lives also. So we would like to apologize for the irresponsible act, and warn of the dangers of this action.

Editorial

Volunteering time, money and gifts is what sets Christmas in Lincoln County apart from so many other communities.

Area businesses and individuals, once again this year, came out strong in donations of money, gifts and—maybe most important—their time to those less fortunate during the holiday season.

Ruidoso Downs restaurateur Michael Tellez, his staff and Ruidoso Downs Village officials made a big difference in some people's lives when they gave away 98 dinners Christmas Day.

A whole list of people helped out their neighbors in the Happy Holidays Benefit Drive, but the effort seemed to be spearheaded by Charlie Kemp, Danny Garcia and other Ruidoso firefighters, and the Ruidoso Police Department. They aided more than 100 families with food, clothing and gifts for Christmas.

Laura Ashley, Arlene Brown, Gary Hall and Bobby Parsons got together and formed the Committee for the Sober Ride Program. That effort resulted in holiday revelers having the choice of taking the "Topsy Taxi" home, rather than risking a drive home "under the influence."

Red Meador set up a long distance phone line at the Ruidoso Care Center so that residents could make holiday calls to family members.

Many others pitched in, too.

Neighbor helped neighbor in a community-wide spirit of holiday giving—Lincoln County style. The whole community dramatically showed that we care for our own.—DJP

Letters to the editor

DEAR EDITOR:

On behalf of my mother, Mrs. Edith Rigsby, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Staff & residents of Ruidoso Care Center, Dr. Annala and staff at Ruidoso Hospital, and all of the many friends and relatives in Ruidoso.

I hope to convey my deep appreciation to the many, many people that have contributed so much love and friendship over the years. I would like to thank the many people that donated time, money & material to building the Edith Coe Rigsby Patio at the Ruidoso Care Center. As I was fortunate enough to be in Ruidoso at that time, I know how pleased my mother was to see this project become a reality. I was amazed at the participation and generosity of everyone. The dedication was a real gala that she enjoyed immensely. She was so pleased that the residents now had a place outside to enjoy the sunshine and fresh air from the cool pines. She always enjoyed the Sunday church groups and the singing they provided.

I think the one thing that I remember most about my mother was her sincere appreciation of life and people. She was always thrilled when friends and relatives came to visit, and recount the happy times they had shared in Ruidoso. Young and old, she always had a pleasant smile and friendly disposition. In her heart, she truly loved people and she welcomed the opportunity to share this love.

In closing, I would personally like to thank everyone for being so much a part of my Mother's life, and for making her last years so enjoyable. It has been impossible for me to be there, and yet, I knew in my heart, that she was loved and very well cared for. Thank you all very much. May you have a Blessed Christmas and a Very Happy New Year.

My Best Wishes to All,
BETTY BOYCE LEE

DEAR EDITOR:

On behalf of the children of Assurance Home, I would like to express our deepest appreciation for all the kindness shown us this past holiday season.

We are truly thankful to be located in this part of the State where there are communities like Ruidoso that are full of loving and caring people. In this respect, the abused and neglected children we serve are very fortunate.

Thank you again.
Gratefully yours,

Letters to the editor

DEAR EDITOR:

This letter is as much of an apology as a warning to all skiers.

Recently, we skied out of the ski area boundaries in search of one spot where no one had skied. We were so sure of where we were going that it seemed there was no chance of getting lost. But because of the trees and snow we took a wrong turn and after a little while, we realized that there was no way of getting back—we were lost.

After seven long hours of exhausting hiking and skiing, we got lucky and came out in South Fork in Bonito. We called home to find out that there were worried people and
