Group unhappy with forest management

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

Peter Mocho, president of the New Mexico Cattle Growers' Association, confirmed Friday that his organization is involved with various government agencies in an investigation of the U.S. Forest Service's management of the Lincoln National Forest.

But Mocho was unable to give details of the study, explaining the association's executive vice president, Denny Gentry, is handling the investigation. Mocho said Gentry was in Lincoln County on Friday for a meeting relating to the investigation; however, Gentry couldn't be located for comment.

In a telephone interview, Mocho said the association has received many complaints over problems in the Lincoln National Forest, "most of it having to do with rights of way access." He said ranchers complain that grazing permit numbers have been reduced drastically if they fail to make concessions.

"They've (U.S. Forest Service) been a little power mad down there," said Mocho. "They've been presumptive about their rights," he added.

An item in the association News Letter dated September 11 quoted Mocho as saying: "preliminary reports indicate that the problem will point directly at an over-zealous Forest Supervisor, and at least one District Ranger." According to the News Letter report charges have ranged from coercion and extortion, to manipulation of the forest permittees organization.

"We don't even know what the allegations are," said District Ranger Steve Sams, who heads the U.S. Forest Service Smokey Bear District.

Alice Eppers, assistant to U.S. Representative Joe Skeen, said a representative from Congressman Skeen's office attended a meeting and listened to members of the Cattle Growers and the Public Lands Council, a national and state organization for permittees of Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management land. But she said Skeen staffers are not involved in a formal investigation.

Eppers said a representative from Senator Pete Domenici's staff also was a guest at the meeting.

Scott Alley of Senator Jeff Bingaman's office said she wasn't familiar with the issue, and knew of no involvement of a member of the senator's staff in an investigation.

A Lincoln County rancher, Carolyn Leitzman, is most familiar with the issue. She recently placed two U.S. Forest Service employees under citizen's arrest when she found them five miles into her posted land near Carrizozo.

Leitzman, owner of the O Bar O Ranch, said she was "fed up" with the continuing trespassing by members of the Forest Service when she took the two men into custody, confiscated their vehicles, allowed them one telephone call and then hauled them into the Sheriff's Office in Carrizozo.

Charges were filed in magistrate court.

According to the Cattle Growers News Letter the Forest Service wants to condemn part of the 10,000 acre ranch to gain easier access to the Lincoln National Forest.

The Forest Service has also been in the news recently over a special permit issued to the paving contractor on the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport. That permit, discussed during a meeting of the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission, allows the contractor to obtain paving materials from a Forest Service site.

Area sand and gravel company owners, along with State Representative Ben Hall, have questioned why the Forest Service allowed the permit, saving the contractor thousands of dollars by buying from the government rather than through free enterprise.

Rams edge Warriors, 6-0

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's varsity football team could not hit the scoreboard against the visiting Portales Rams Friday night and lost a hard-fought 6-0 contest.

Ruidoso, now 1-4 on the season, played excellent on defense, particularly in the second half.

But the bigger Portales line prevented the Warriors from mounting many offensive threats.

The only score of the game came in the second quarter when Portales' Ray Cordova sprinted 18 yards into the endzone for a touchdown with 9:18 left in the half. But the extra point was stopped, but Portales had all the points it would need for the victory.

The Rams came back with another drive late in the second quarter, driving to the Warrior 22.

But an eight-yard loss, two incomplete passes and a two-yard loss gave the Warriors the ball back with seconds left in the half.

On the last play of the half, Warrior quarterback Michael Swanner ran 25 yards on a keeper to the Portales 44 before time ran out.

The first half was a quick one, only taking 35 minutes in actual time.

There were no penalties in the first quarter, and that quickened the action.

The Warrior defense buckled down in the second half and played outstanding ball.

Ruidoso held the Rams to four yards in three plays on the opening series of the second half.

On the following series, Ruidoso drove from its 25 to the Portales 37 before having to give the ball up on downs.

The big play in the drive was a 22-yard run by tailback Matthew Griego to the Ram 49.

On the next play, Swanner hit Jeff Arvizu with a six-yard pass to the 37.

But Swanner lost eight yards in the next two plays and the Warriors had to punt.

Neither team mounted a good drive the rest of the third quarter, but the Warriors had their chances in the final quarter.

Ruidoso drove to the Portales 35 early in the final quarter before giving the ball up.

After stopping the Rams on the next series, the Warriors got the ball when Sean Moore blocked a Portales punt.

From the Portales 44, Swanner hit Arvizu with a pass which the senior split end caught on the Portales 30 and ran down to the three before he was tackled.

However, the officials ruled Arvizu stepped out of bounds on the 25 for a 19-yard pickup.

But four running plays netted just seven yards and Portales took over.

Ruidoso had one last chance to score late in the game.

Ruidoso drove to the Portales 30, getting a crucial 14-yard pass completion from Swanner to Eric Ford which gave the Warriors a first down.

On the next play, however, Swanner's pass was tipped and intercepted by a Portales player, ending the Warriors' last threat.

Both Griego and fullback Jef

Sherwood ran well for the Warriors.

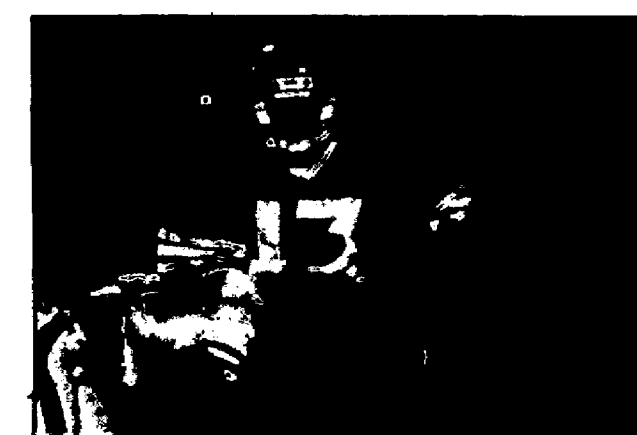

"I felt the defense played excellent in the second half," said Warrior head coach Cooper Henderson. "We stopped them pretty much in the second half."

"But we didn't play with a whole lot of intensity in any aspect of the game in the first half."

The Warriors will have a bye this week before opening District 3-AAA action at Deming Friday, October 9.

"Deming is tough (they're unbeaten)," said Henderson. "But we feel like we're capable of beating Deming and we're looking forward to that game."

WARRIOR NOTES-In other games involving District 3-AAA teams over the weekend, Deming crushed Clint, Texas, 35-6; Silver lost to Mayfield, 28-0; Coble lost to Lordsburg, 22-21; and Socorro was nipped by Los Lunas, 8-6.

Ruidoso quarterback Michael Swanner (17) handles the ball against Portales Friday night. Portales won, 6-0, as Ruidoso's record dropped to 1-4.

Three indicted by grand jury

A Lincoln County grand jury, meeting in Carrizozo Thursday, handed down indictments naming three individuals, according to Harry Wilcox, Jr., senior trial prosecutor for the 12th Judicial District Attorney's office.

Wilcox said the grand jury heard evidence and issued "true bills" in cases involving Adolfo Alex Garcia, of Ruidoso Downs; Darren L. Pauley, Albuquerque; and Milton Norris Farus, Ruidoso.

"If a jury does return a 'no bill' then I won't be able to comment on a case at all," said Wilcox, unwilling to discuss at least two other cases that had been scheduled for review on Thursday.

Wilcox said Swanner was named in indictments alleging two counts of criminal sexual contact of a minor, a third-degree felony. Both counts allege the contact to be with a victim 12 years of age or younger, according to Wilcox.

He said he'll ask for an arrest warrant in the Farus case.

Garcia was indicted on three counts stemming from a head-on collision that left two Oklahoma people dead. Charges include vehicular homicide, a third-degree felony carrying a maximum penalty of a $5,000 fine and/or three years in the penitentiary; improper passing; and no insurance, said Wilcox. He said a traffic misdemeanor carries a maximum penalty of 90 days in jail.

The grand jury indicted Pauley on one count of unlawful taking of a motor vehicle, a fourth-degree felony; and a count of larceny over $100 but less than $250, a misdemeanor with a maximum penalty of one year in jail and/or $500 fine, said Wilcox.

Another grand jury session is scheduled for Monday, October 5, said Wilcox.

Domenici backs airport fire funding by feds

Senator Pete Domenici is working with Sierra Blanca Airport Commission (SBAC) members to clear the way to obtain federal funding for fire protection at the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport (SBRA).

Domenici announced last week he has urged the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) to take action that would permit federally funded on-site fire protection at the regional air field under construction on Fort Stanton Mesa.

He has asked FAA to waive its fire protection funding eligibility requirement that an airport have scheduled service using aircraft that carry at least 30 passengers.

"All the commuter services in New Mexico use planes seating fewer than 30 passengers," said Domenici in his announcement. "As a result, I am requesting that the FAA waive SBRA this waiver so it can receive fire protection funds," he continued.

Stabbing autopsies released

Autopsies on the bodies of two people who died on July 3 in Ruidoso indicated the two died as a result of stab wounds.

Steve Nunez, deputy medical investigator with the New Mexico Office of the Medical Investigator, said Thursday the autopsy report on Constance J. Schiller lists a stab wound to the chest as the cause of her death, and homicide as the manner of death.

He said an autopsy report for Jose S. Jimenez lists two stab wounds to the chest as causing his death, with the manner of death undetermined.

Jim Stover, Lincoln County deputy medical examiner, said a homicide finding means somebody else stabbed Schiller.

"Undetermined means they don't know if somebody else stabbed him (Jimenez) or he stabbed himself," said Stover.

The two were fatally stabbed during an argument in front of Something Special, 2204 Sudderth Drive, according to official reports. Jimenez was 41 and Schiller was 43.

Witnesses told police that Jimenez entered Something Special, where Schiller worked, and the two went out front where they had an argument and "scuffle."

Ruidoso Police were called at 7:10 p.m. and by the time they arrived the two subjects were reportedly lying on the lawn, having suffered "multiple stab wounds." Police said the two were transported to Lincoln County Medical Center where Schiller was pronounced dead at 7:29 p.m. and Jimenez was declared dead at 8:55 p.m.

"We don't know who stabbed who first," commented Stover in July.

The Lincoln County Sheriff's Office (LCSO), the lead agency in the case, has apparently continued its investigation. Neither Sheriff Don Samuels nor LCSO investigator Paul Wersich could be reached for comment.

Post office to replace boxes

The U.S. Postal Service has announced plans to remove and replace neighborhood mailbox units.

According to a news release from R.B. Chamberlain, Ruidoso Postmaster, the boxes will be replaced over the next two months, and affected customers will be notified and can pick up mail at the main Post Office, 2917 Sudderth Drive.

Chamberlain said the changes are planned "in the interest of improving safety" for customers and mail carriers.

Village of Ruidoso planning administrator Margaret McDonald Lahey said Friday she hadn't been contacted by anyone with the Postal Service regarding the plans to move the boxes. Lahey, who wasn't a member of village staff when the neighborhood boxes were first installed, said she isn't familiar with the requirements.

Mother Earth Smiles A Welcome To The Fall

Right on time, on the morning of the twenty-third of September, the glorious season of fall arrived in the Mountain World bringing a radiant smile to the face of Mother Earth.

Without being in a hurry to push summer out of the picture, the Season of the Harvest came in with a calm and peaceful cheerfulness, with touches of its own colors near and distant, high and low.

Just on the very day, that Woodbine vine that adorns the little cliff by the highway just up the way from Fox Cave—just past River Ranch Kampground—on the right, came out in pure crimson fall colors.

Across the way to the south along the steep mountainside, you could see the sunlight yellow and light orange shining amongst the green of the oak brush—the first fall colors of the year.

On up the way, the royal purple of the New England Fall Daisies blended with the gold of three or four kinds of yellow orange and golden daisies all along the wayside celebrating the first day of fall. I cannot remember these flowers on taller stems or with their colors brighter or in greater abundance.

Farther up approaching Biscuit Hill, the sunflowers and the golden-rod, beaming and shining in the mellow sunlight, cheered you as they joined in the early fall pageant. Then up ahead loomed the hills beyond Ruidoso Downs, all in a veil of lavender and light purple haze.

This airy purple mantle of the hills sends a little chord of joy ringing through your heart. It casts all the world below into glow of dreamy contentment and thankfulness. Drifting down from the hills the purple-tinted haze casts the river trees—turning just a touch of gold—and the fields and mountain meadows into its spell of enchantment.

The river sparkles and shines, crystal clear, as it sings and murmurs a song to the fall, blending its softly rushing notes with the light wind harp tones of the branches of walnut and oak overhead.

The Mountain Glows in Majesty

Early fall casts its magic on Sierra Blanca. The mountain looms upon your sight clear and carefully outlined in the blue sky—seeming so close this time of year. Somehow all the features of Our Mountain are clear to your sight—all the little slopes and upland meadows and steep ramparts; renew their acquaintance with you here in the vivid clearness of the early fall.

You wonder whether or not the Mountain gives you a clear picture of itself here in the fall so that you will remember it fondly all through the snowy winter.

An Early Autumn? A Snowy Winter?

Here in the vale you can just barely see touches of fall today, the twenty-sixth of September. Out past the flag on the hillside to the south, there is just the barest touch of lemon yellow and light orange in the oak brush. This is a shade early, yes. And yet other signs are late. The peaches, plums and pears are late in ripening in the orchards. The summer birds are still sending their notes through the glens and over the fields.

Early or late, the autumn and winter will be unusually beautiful this year. So let us thank the Good Lord for our many blessings.

The new roof on the Ruidoso Care Center is only one of the visible physical improvements going on this fall. Others include decoration and renovation.

Improvement made to Care Center

by BONNY CHRISTINA CELINE
News Staff Writer

Some changes are being made to the physical structure of the Ruidoso Care Center.

The Center, owned by Horizon Health Care of Albuquerque, has put on a new red roof. Construction was finished in August, and the cost was $20,000.

The Care Center presently houses 60 residents, and they have room for about 25 more at this time.

Their next project is a total interior refurbishment, according to Administrator Patsy Fox. This refurbishment will include new wallpaper, paint and new draperies in the patient rooms, dining hall, offices and nurse's station. Also in the plans will be kitchen floor coverings and a new social services office.

The color scheme will be aquas, peach, tans, browns and green. "We called in an interior decorator," explained Fox. "The new look will be real pretty."

This is the first interior refurbishing since the Center's start in 1980. Physical plant supervisor Tim Reither is working with Fox on the renovation.

"We're going to do a little reconstruction, enlarge the patient lobby and put in a fireplace," said Reither. The interior upgrading will cost $165,000, and will be completed by the end of December.

The next stage for the Care Center's improvements will be an exterior renovation, costing around $200,000. This will include painting and landscaping, a partial road built around the facility, fence work, and a new patio. "Exterior work should begin at the end of winter, and hopefully will be completed by the end of March," said Reither.

Warrior spikers edged by Portales in five games

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Ruidoso High School's varsity volleyball team pushed powerful Portales to the edge before losing in five games Saturday in the Warrior gymnasium.

Portales, which took second in the state tournament last season and is ranked first in the state this year, won 15-8, 14-16, 15-11, 12-15, 15-6.

Ruidoso is now 5-4 on the overall season and has lost to Portales three times.

The Warriors will get back in District 3-AAA action with a match at Deming Saturday, October 3. The Warriors are 1-0 in district action.

In the opening game of Saturday's match, it looked like Portales was going to blow the Warriors off the court.

The Rams jumped off to a 12-1 lead before the Warriors fought back to make it respectable at the end.

But Ruidoso came on strong in the second game.

Portales took a 4-0 edge, but the Warriors came back to take a 5-4 lead behind good serving by Jennifer Jimenez and Tara Miller.

Portales scored the next two points, but the Warriors pulled ahead to a 12-6 advantage.

The Rams battled back to close within one point at 13-12. However, Ruidoso came back for the 16-14 victory.

"Between games I just told the players to relax and play their game," said Warrior head coach Pixie Arthur. "They were nervous. But then they played the kind of game we're capable of playing."

The third game saw Ruidoso jump off to a 5-2 lead, but the Rams came back with four straight points for a 6-5 lead.

Ruidoso grabbed a 9-6 lead before Portales scored seven straight points for a 13-9 edge.

The Warriors closed to within three points at 14-11 before the Rams got the game-cinching point.

Ruidoso forced a fifth and final game with a 15-12 victory in the fourth game.

The Warriors' Dari Stierwalt highlighted the fourth game with some excellent spiking.

The final game saw the visitors take a 4-1 advantage and lead from then on.

Ruidoso closed to within one point twice after that, but the Rams clinched the match victory with nine straight points.

"Yes, I feel it was our best effort of the season," Arthur said. "It was a real team effort."

"It was kind of a moral victory since the first time we played them, they totally dominated us. We had a real solid team effort and I can't single out anybody."

The Warrior junior varsity fell to Portales in three games. Ruidoso is now 2-3 on the season and Portales is undefeated.

Ruidoso's A and B junior varsity teams will host the Dexter Demons at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 29.

The Warrior B junior varsity team will play the Dexter junior varsity, while the Warrior A junior varsity will meet the Demon varsity.

Brown, Cooper win Williams tourney

Phil Cooper and Doug Brown shot a blazing 61 in the final round to win the championship flight competition in the Johnny Williams Memorial Partnership Golf Tournament at Cree Meadows Country Club Sunday.

Cooper and Brown, from Prosper, Texas, had a 188 for the three-day tournament. They carded a 62 Friday and a 65 Saturday.

Jerry Staggs and Jake Broyle finished second at 193. They entered the final day tied with Cooper and Brown but shot a 66.

Rodney Torres and Pete Sierra tied with Leroy Gooch and Dan Wimberly for third, both teams shooting a 198.

"We played well because my partner (Cooper) shot a lot of eagles in the tournament," Brown laughed after the competition was over.

In first-flight competition, Randy Pipkin and Curtis Howard won the title with a 201.

Mike Massey and Doug Bass tied for second with Mike Emmerson and Ken Walker, both teams carding 202s.

Steve Heinsch and Keith Sparks won the second-flight crown, shooting a 208. Wayne Savage and Earl Dawdy finished second at 212.

Billy Neace and Rusty Shaw won the third-flight title with a 214.

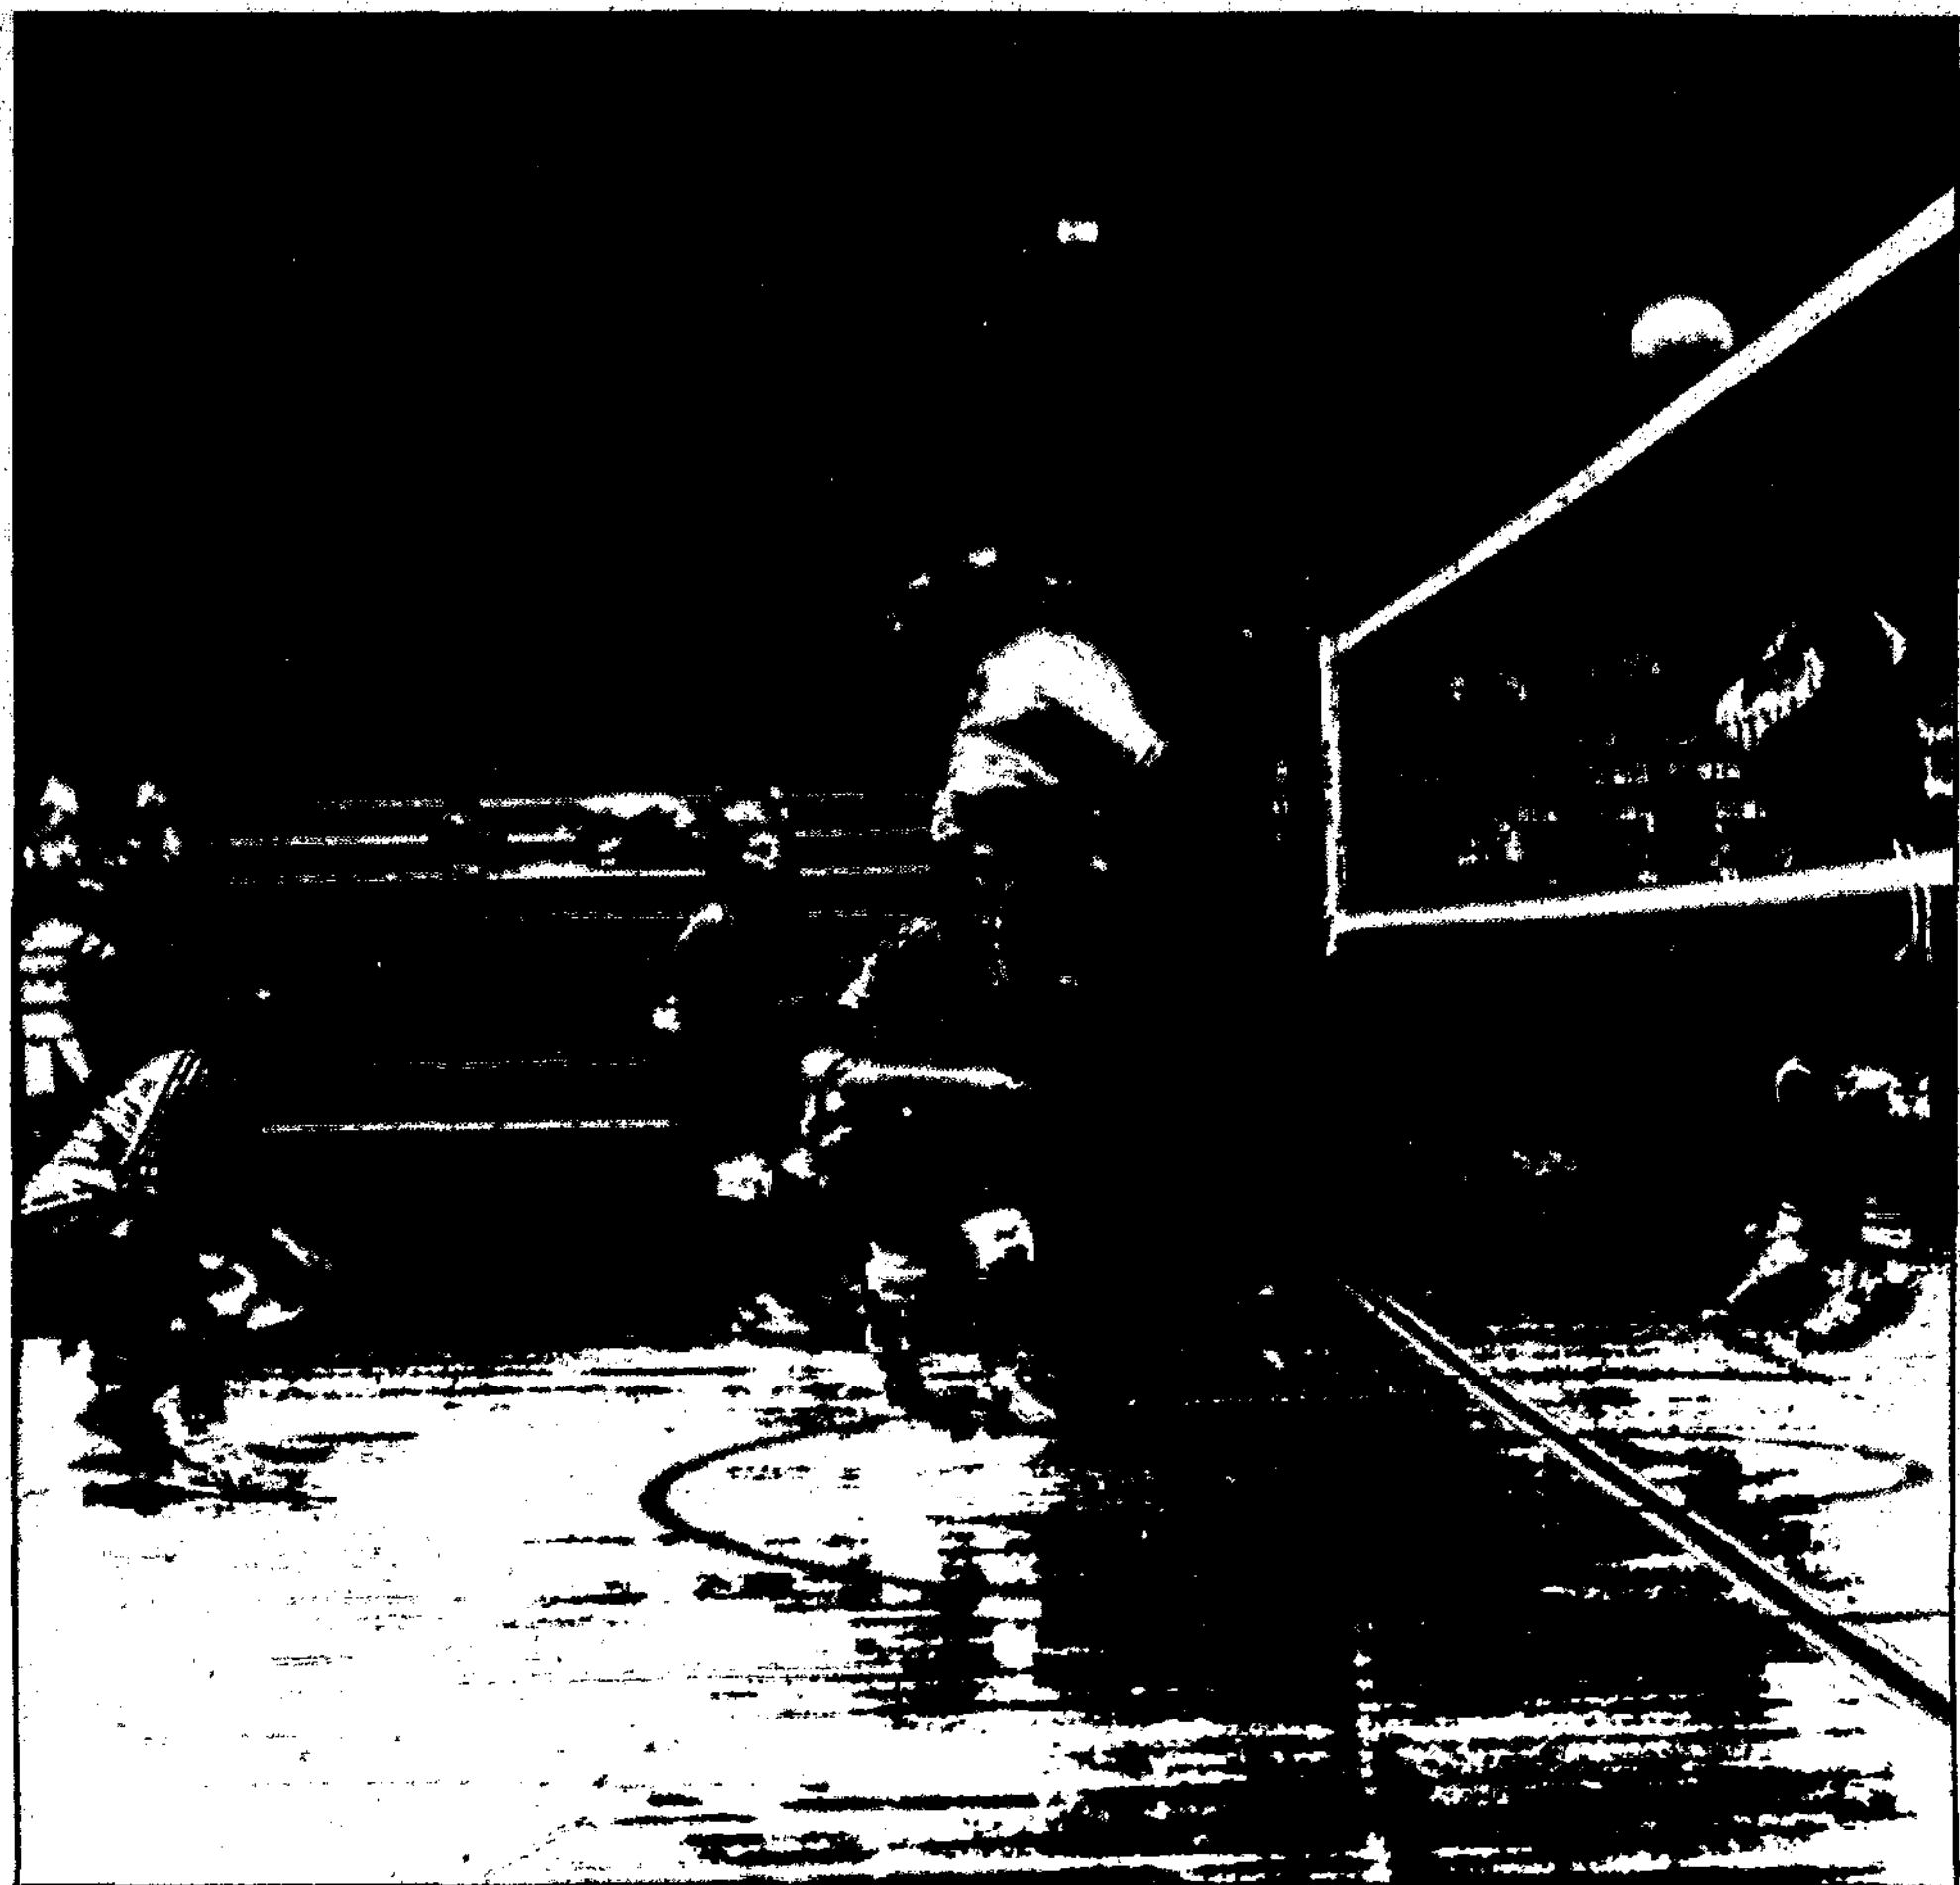

Jerry Green and Terry Papen won the fourth-flight title with a 173 score (it was net competition).

A total of 86 teams competed in the tournament, the last at Cree Meadows this season.

NOTES-Mike Neace Sr. made a hole-in-one in Thursday's practice round. He made it on the second hole par four double eagle.

These golfers competed in the Johnny Williams Memorial Partnership Golf Tournament Friday through Sunday at Cree Meadows Country Club. A total of 86 teams competed in the tournament.

with Gary Brown

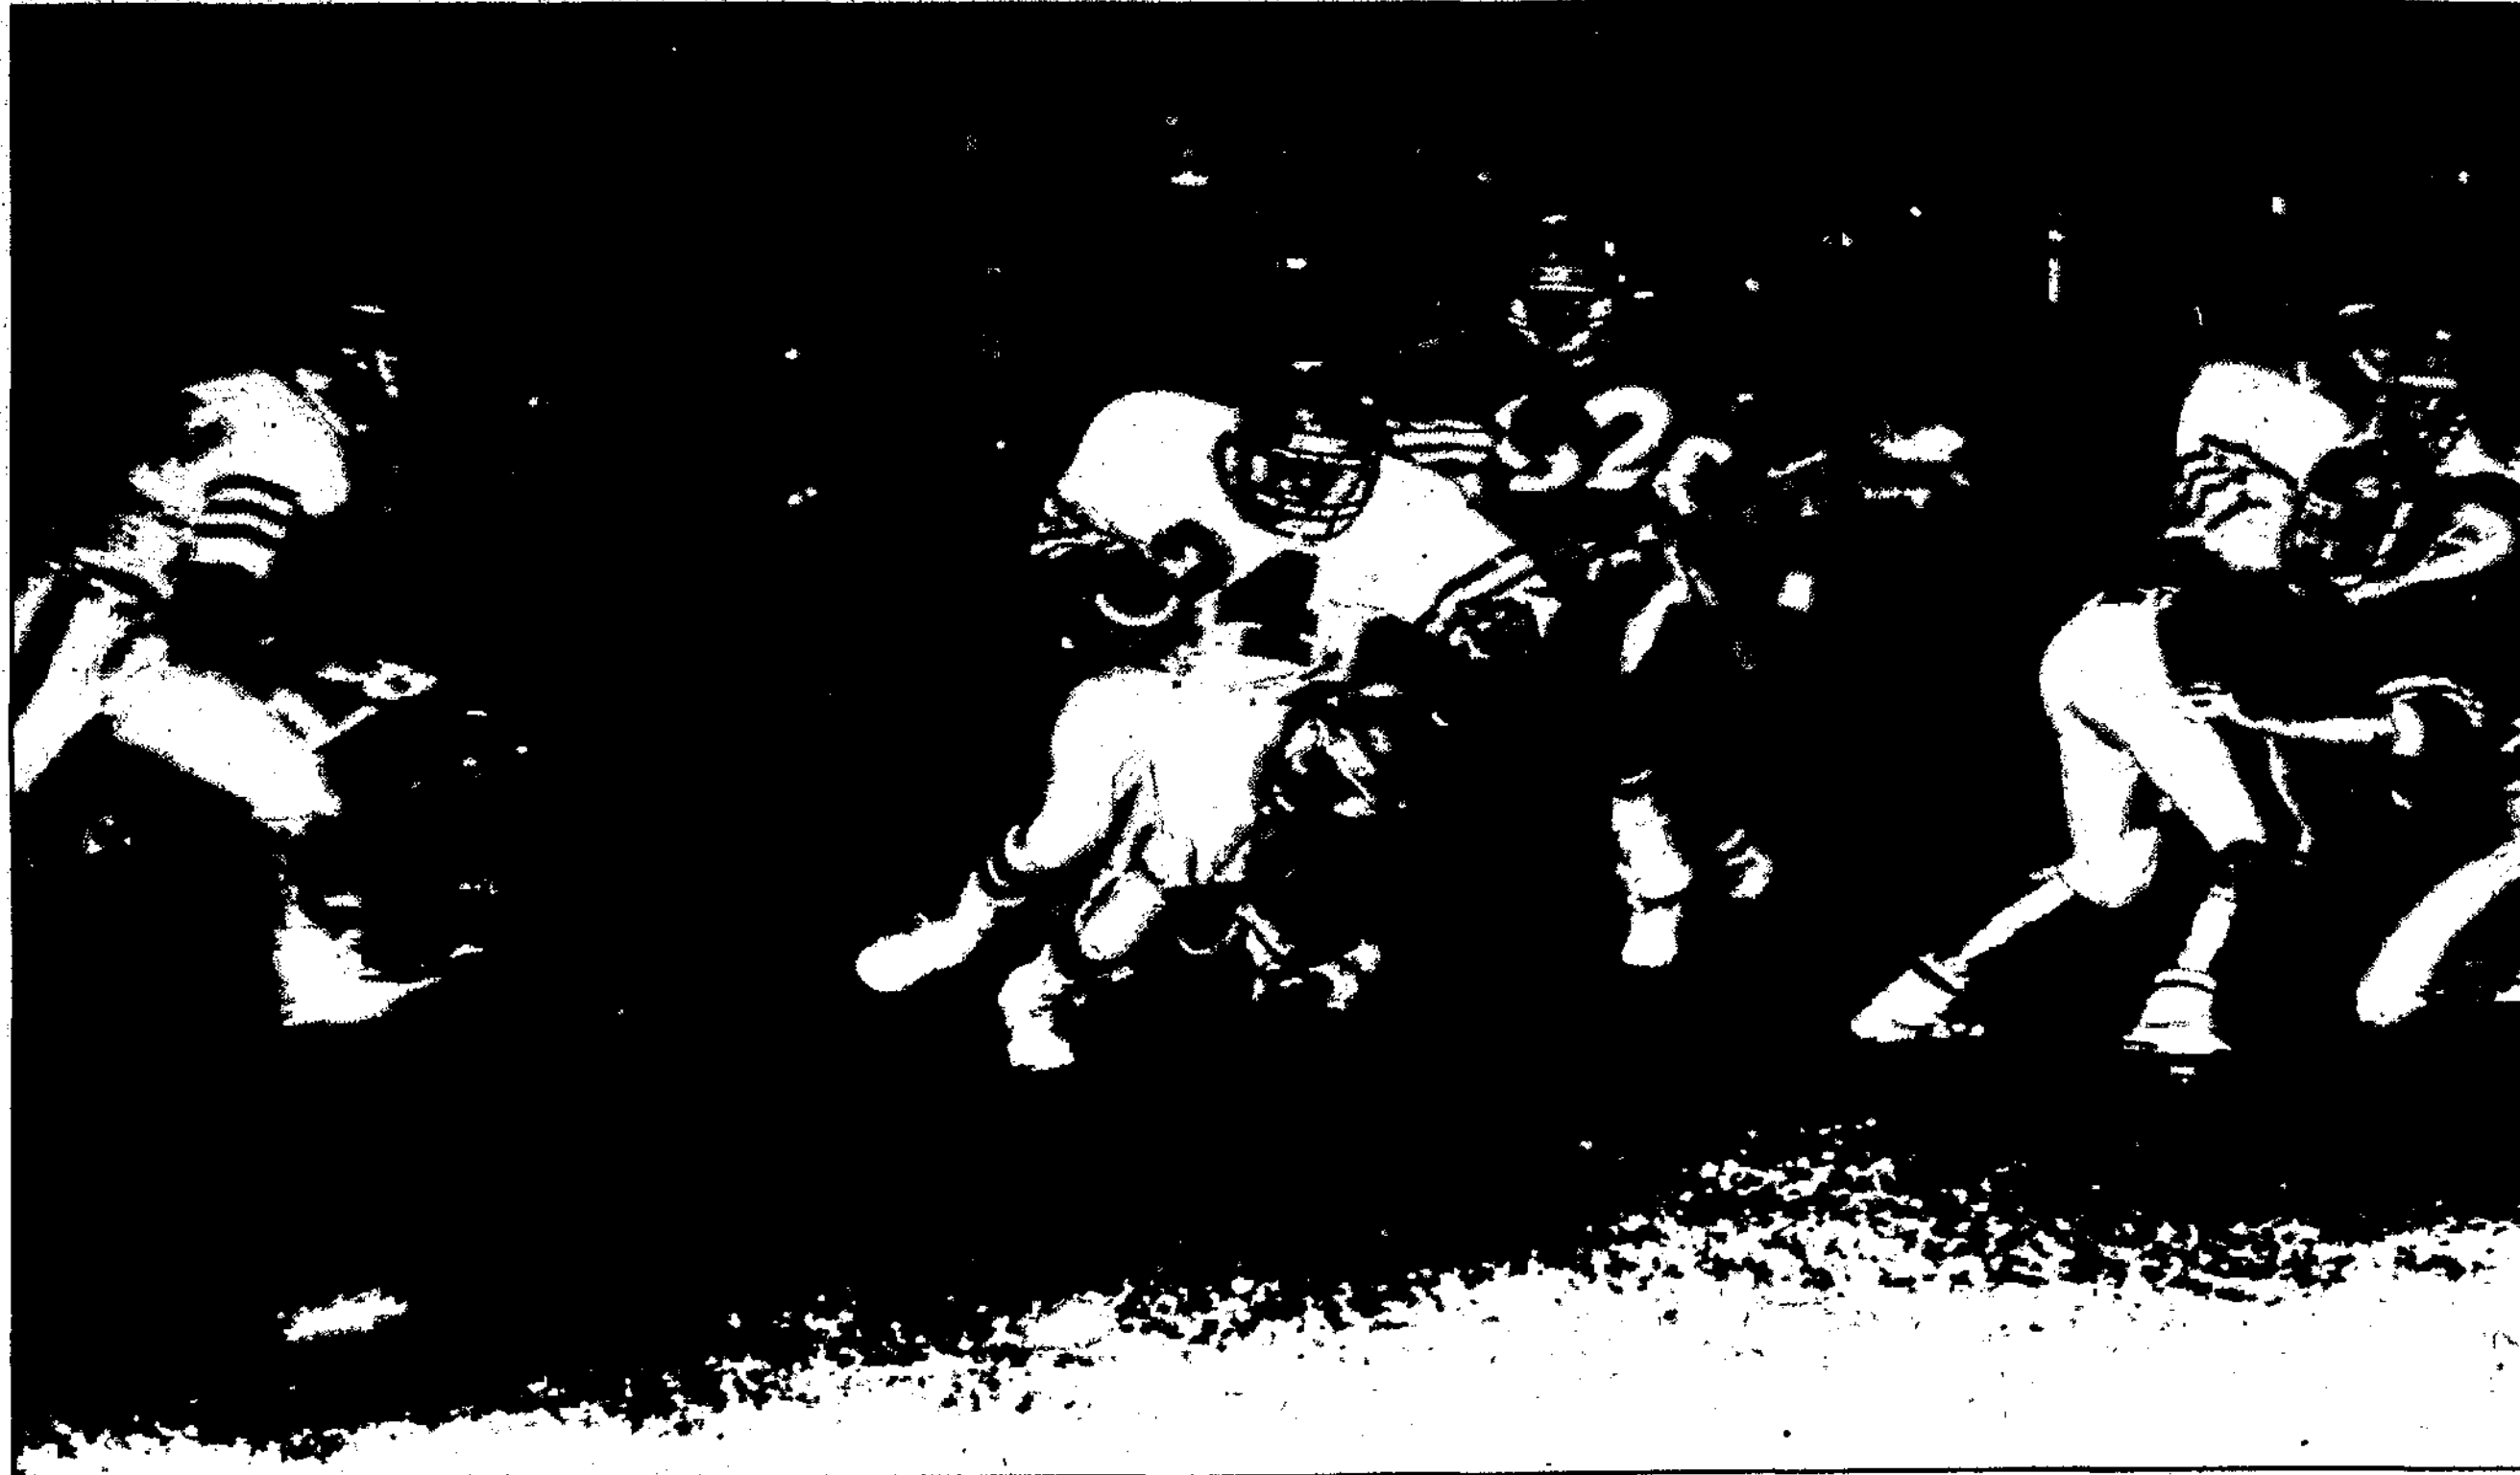

What's a person to do on Sundays with the National Football League strike on (as of this writing)?
No football on Sunday. That's like no turkey dinner on Thanksgiving.
Sundays I'm used to sitting down and watching six hours of football and not worrying about Monday's paper until later that evening.

Now, what's there to do on Sundays without that in the fall.
The major-league baseball season (including playoffs and World Series) probably will last for around another month.
After that, it's high school football Fridays, college football Saturdays and nothing Sundays.
Here's hoping the strike gets settled soon.

Ruidoso's Willingham family is well represented in the Eastern New Mexico University football program this season.
As mentioned in this column last week, former Ruidoso High School quarterback-defensive back Jeff Willingham is a freshman on the Greyhound football team.
Jeff's brother Rocky, who was an assistant coach for Ruidoso last season, is coaching Eastern's defensive ends and punters this season.
A 1977 graduate of Capitan High School, Rocky also is a graduate student in physical education-biology.

Sports activities this week

Tuesday: Ruidoso Middle School A and B volleyball teams to host Dexter, starting at 3 p.m. Capitan High School junior varsity volleyball teams to host Hondo, starting at 6 p.m.
Thursday: Ruidoso High School freshman football team at Tularosa, starting at 6 p.m. Capitan High School varsity and junior varsity volleyball teams at Carrizozo, starting at 5:30 p.m.

Getting the ballcarrier!

A group of Ruidoso High School varsity football players converge on a Portales ballcarrier in Friday night's varsity football game. Portales won, 6-0.

Ruidoso will have a bye this week and will resume action Friday, October 9, at Deming.

Warrior jv gridders defeat Tularosa, 15-8

The Ruidoso High School junior varsity football team evened its record at 2-2 with a 15-8 win over visiting Tularosa Saturday.

The Warriors scored first on a four-yard pass from Rusty Silva to Victor Castaneda in the first quarter. Michael Swanner kicked the extra point and Ruidoso had a 7-0 lead.

Tularosa came back in the third quarter and scored a touchdown and two-point conversion to go ahead, 8-7.

But the Warriors came back in the final quarter for the victory.

Swanner ran 25 yards for a touchdown that finished a long drive.

Daniel Candelaria scored the two-point conversion for the final points of the game.

"We put a lot of young players in the game," said Warrior assistant coach Ridge Bowden. "We didn't play with as much intensity as we liked, but it was still enough to beat Tularosa."

Ruidoso's junior varsity will resume action Saturday, October 10, against Silver in Las Cruces. The game will start at 4 p.m.

Braves beat Hagerman, 14-0

Ruidoso Middle School's football team played a complete game against host Hagerman Thursday, but the outcome of the game could have been determined on the opening kickoff.

Ruidoso's Jose Marquez returned the opening kickoff 75 yards for a touchdown as the Braves went on to a 14-0 victory.

Following Marquez's touchdown, Micah Whitlock ran over for the two-point conversion and Ruidoso had an 8-0 lead.

The Braves added their final touchdown with two minutes left in the game when Whitlock went over from one yard out.

Whitlock set up his own touchdown with a 60-yard run.

Ruidoso is now 1-1 on the season in A play. The Brave B team will travel to Capitan Thursday, October 1. The A team will travel to Moriarty Saturday, October 3.

Warrior harriers take 13th at Las Cruces

Ruidoso High School's boys cross-country team finished 13th out of 18 teams in a meet at Mayfield High School in Las Cruces Saturday.

Senior Clint Bibb was the highest Warrior finisher, finishing 50th in 17:13.

Sergio Hernandez finished 51st in 17:05, Daniel Martinez was 73rd in 18:05, Michael Randolph was 88th in 18:27, Jason Willins was 93rd in 18:54 and Chad Kizer was 102nd in 19:52.

A total of 120 runners competed in the meet.

"Everybody improved their times a good bit from what they've been running," said Warrior coach Ronny Maskew. "It was a real tough meet."

The Warriors will compete in a Carlsbad meet Saturday, October 3.

Softball starts

The CoNads were the top Lincoln County team in a coed softball tournament at Eagle Creek Sports Complex Saturday, finishing third.

The Spuds from Las Cruces won the tournament with the Roswell Ball Busters taking second. The Clubbers, another Lincoln County team, finished fourth.

A coed fall season will begin Sunday, October 4, at Eagle Creek Sports Complex.

Anyone interested in playing in the league can call Tim or Vickie Eckerd at 378-4279.

Tigers lose

The Capitan High School varsity football team lost to host Springer, 32-9, Saturday afternoon.

The Tigers are now 1-4 on the season and will host Dexter Friday, October 2. The game will start at 4:30 p.m.

Capitan's only touchdown against Springer was on a three-yard run by Jarrod Martin.

Opinion

Inside the Capitol

by Jay Miller

SANTA FE—Did you ever wonder who decides what picture will go on commemorative postage stamps?

The answer is—a committee. That makes sense considering that there appears to be no rhyme or reason to the choice of subject matter. The hard thing to believe is the amount of time put into the task and how far in advance the decisions are made. Some time ago, Gloria Chavez Tristani and Ymelda Chavez Dixon began an effort to promote the issuance of a postage stamp in honor of their father, former U. S. Senator Dennis Chavez. They wanted the stamp to be issued next spring during the centennial celebration of the Senator's birth on April 8, 1888.

The sisters have now learned that all stamps were decided upon for 1988 and 1989 before they ever got started. The current plan is to get approval for a stamp to be issued at a later date but with an announcement being made next April.

Since the stamp can't be issued on the Senator's 100th birthday, his daughters are suggesting that a very appropriate year for issuance, because of Chavez' Hispanic heritage, would be 1992 to coincide with the 500th anniversary of the discovery of America.

What a great idea! I can think of no one better than New Mexico's Sen. Chavez to be the first Hispanic so honored by our country.

Chavez was a man of many firsts. He was the first Hispanic and the first native New Mexican elected to the U. S. Senate. He is the first and only New Mexican to have a statue in the U. S. Capitol Building. For more than thirty years he was the highest ranked Hispanic in the federal government. He served New Mexico as a U. S. Senator longer than anyone else ever has.

Since his death in 1962, many people have used many words to describe the Senator: My word is courage.

Born in a home with a dirt floor and too poor to ever go to high school, Chavez worked until he was able to obtain admittance to the prestigious Georgetown Law School at the age of 30.

At the time of his death he was Chairman of the Senate Public Works Committee which made the decisions on federal aid for dams, highways and federal buildings. Of even more importance to New Mexico was his chairmanship of the Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, which handled 60 percent of the federal budget. New Mexico's many defense installations were due in no small part to the influence of Chavez.

Besides his 31 years in our nation's Capitol, Chavez spent seven years in the New Mexico Legislature. The accomplishment in which he took the greatest pride during those years was his introduction of the first bill to provide free textbooks to the school children of New Mexico.

In my mind, Chavez's greatest first, one which required unbelievable courage, is not an accomplishment a person often hears about when the conversation turns to the Senator.

It was 1950 and the height of the McCarthyism era. Demagogues with no regard for truth or constitutional principals were indulging in widespread character assassination. It was a time of hysteria, when nothing but political jeopardy could attend those who aligned themselves against these forces. Few were the voices crying out against this vicious trend.

On May 12, 1950, one such voice did speak out. Dennis Chavez rose on the Senate floor and said, "I should like to be remembered as the man who raised a voice—and I devoutly hope not a voice in the wilderness—at a time in the history of this body when we seem bent upon placing limitations on the freedom of the individual."

Chavez proceeded to denounce McCarthy's favorite witness, Louis Budenz, for his "dubious testimony" and to chastise him for doing so under the "shield and cloak" of the Catholic Church.

Many of Chavez's colleagues felt this was the beginning of the end of McCarthyism. Because of the Senator's leadership, others dared speak out. As one of those senate colleagues characterized it, "Senator Chavez's contribution to restoring the American heritage that day can never be measured."

Editorial

The changing of police chiefs is a tremendously important event in a small town.

The process of changing one chief for another can be done properly, or botched in a big way. Whether good or bad is up to those handling the change—a town's elected officials.

Ruidoso Police Chief Richard Swenor announced his resignation in mid July, to be effective October 15.

The Ruidoso Village Council, the group that will confirm or reject Mayor Lloyd L. Davis Jr.'s selection from a field of candidates, will meet Tuesday night for their last meeting of September. They will meet just once again (October 13) before the chief steps down.

Yet, the council agenda for Tuesday night includes no mention of a discussion of candidates for chief, nor the appointment of one.

This is troublesome for two reasons. If the council waits until the October 13 meeting to name a chief, the new head of police will have just one day to work with the present chief before shouldering the substantial responsibilities the job entails. Even if Swenor remains with the force as a lower-ranking officer, as he has said he will, it is unfair and unprofessional to expect him to spend time smoothing the path for his successor after his resignation becomes effective.

Secondly, leaving the discussion of the decision to the last minute keeps the entire decision-making process away from public attention. Our elected officials will be choosing another public official whose role will very much affect the public. The process by which that person is chosen should be done before the public.

The choice of a new chief of police is a big step for any community. We encourage the council and mayor to make every effort to ensure the decision is a good one, and to open the discussion to the public Tuesday night.—DJP
