Old airport money is needed now

Funds from the sale of the Ruidoso Municipal Airport will be needed in current contract periods to get the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport (SBRA) operational by November 30, 1987.

Sierra Blanca Airport Commission Chairman Tim Morris, Ruidoso Mayor Lloyd L. Davis Jr. and village manager Frank Potter met with FAA Southwest Region officials Friday in Dallas, Texas.

Morris said Saturday that Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) officials indicated no more federal funds are available this year for the SBRA project.

FAA has allocated about $6.5 million so far toward the multi-million-dollar replacement for the Ruidoso Municipal Airport.

"We'll have to use our $2.7 million on this next phase," said Morris.

Commissioners, during recent meetings, discussed budgeting the $2.7 million value of the municipal airfield into passenger side items in the next stage of airport development. Most passenger facilities are not eligible for general participation in levels as great as aircraft side development.

The Village of Ruidoso, in partnership with FAA on the Ruidoso Municipal Airport, is expected to contribute the value of the local airport into the SBRA. Voters last February approved a .50 percent gross receipts tax to pay that obligation.

Morris said SBAC will have to come up with funds to develop non-eligible items—including parking lots, permanent terminal building and hangars.

"We really found out yesterday that it's not realistic to build a permanent terminal over the next two years," said airport contractor administrator Fred Heckman during a public meeting Saturday. He said the need won't be there, and commissioners will consider placing temporary passenger facilities at the regional airfield.

"Our funding is always changing," said Morris, noting there are other funding sources being identified. "We're going to go with as much program money as possible," he added.

Getting first!

What happens when airport opens?

What now?

A small group of Ruidoso Municipal Airport users at a special meeting Saturday had a lot of questions for members of the Sierra Blanca Airport Commission (SBAC).

Although the meeting was called to discuss developing T-hangers for monthly rental at the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport (SBRA), many of the people at Ruidoso Municipal Administrative Center Saturday wanted to know if they'll be allowed to move their own hangars from Ruidoso Municipal Airport to the regional facility on Port Stanton Mesa.

Plans to move the Ruidoso airfield operations to SBRA took one step closer to reality when bids on airfield lighting and paving came within the budget last week, and airport users want to know if, when and how they'll be affected.

It was learned at the meeting that from nine to 15 pilots or airplane owners were encouraged to build and maintain their own hangars at the municipal airport. Commercial operator Merle Miller said he was "induced" to construct his facility with the understanding it can be moved to the regional airport.

"That's what was implied then—now where do we stand?" asked Miller.

Several airplane owners said they need overnight hangar rentals rather than monthly storage facilities. Discussions on T-hangers at a recent SBAC meeting were limited to options surrounding facilities for monthly leases.

Carl Anderson said his plane flies in and out of the local airport often, but he has no need for a monthly rental, noting that most small airports provide overnight plane storage.

Commissioner Conrad Buchanan admitted that issues raised have not yet been addressed by the commission. Contract administrator Fred Heckman said the time has just arrived for considering those issues. He said the commission has been concentrating on developing the airfield side, and will now turn its attention to passenger and user facilities.

Chairman Tim Morris explained that Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) funding will not be provided for taxiways from the 8,100-foot runway to private areas. He asked attorney Steve Sanders to explain alternatives being considered for developing the rental T-hangers.

Sanders said the hangars at the Ruidoso airport could be moved, the SBAC could develop and build hangars, the project could be completed by private enterprise on a lease-purchase agreement or the land could be leased for a private contractor to build, maintain and lease the storage facilities to users.

Two airport hangar contractors, Ed Garland and Burgo Gill, were on hand for the meeting. Sanders asked them if they would be interested in bidding on a lease-purchase, and both indicated they might.

Morris said he has received 25-30 letters from users interested in hangar rentals, and Heckman said he, too, has received inquiries.

But the people at Saturday's meeting were more concerned with discussing privately owned and nightly rental facilities.

Miller and others asked about a transition period, wondering if the Ruidoso airport will shut down the moment the regional airport is open.

"I was led to believe that once the new one the old one closed," said Miller, and Heckman agreed that was a good assumption. But Heckman said a transition period is possible.

"I haven't been able to get a straight answer as to how much apron is going to be there ... how many square feet available to us," noted Miller, who was invited by Morris to see complete design plans in the office of Mike Davalos, Ruidoso village engineer. He also invited Miller and others to attend SBAC meetings, the next at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, May 21, in council chambers of Ruidoso Municipal Administrative Center.

"I don't have time on Thursday," said Miller. "I'm not a commissioner and I'm not a board ... I can't run down here and go through plans that thick," he added. Miller said Morris told him to come to Saturday's meeting to get his questions answered.

"I'd like to know what to expect."

Gazette will trace history of Constitution

The Liberty Gazette begins, on page 9A of today's issue of The Ruidoso News, its journey through the development 200 years ago of the Constitution of the United States.

The Gazette will appear each Monday in The News until the end of September, and will report on events 200 years ago which led to the formulation and adoption of the U.S. Constitution.

The project is the idea of Farmington historian Gary Mahan, Ph.D., and is intended to raise the public's awareness of the significance of the Constitution and its 200th anniversary.

The Gazette also will appear in newspapers in Iowa, Nebraska, Connecticut, New Jersey, Montana, Georgia, Illinois and other papers in New Mexico.

"It is commendable that Mahan, along with six other Johns Hopkins Fellows of American History, have chosen newspapers for this project," said New Mexico Press Association manager Rob Piggott in a press release announcing the project. "It also is commendable that New Mexico—the often forgotten and missing state—is the locale which has produced this project."

Groups schedule meetings

The Ruidoso Village Council has scheduled a budget workshop for 8:30 a.m. Thursday, May 21, in council chambers of the Ruidoso Municipal Administrative Center. Council workshops are open to the public.

The Sierra Blanca Airport Commission will meet at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, May 21, in council chambers of the Ruidoso Municipal Administrative Center. Commission meetings are open to the public.

Bang!

Chuckwagons West Jamboree opened with a bang Saturday evening as this Old West sheriff maintains law and order at the Flying J Ranch. Standing room only crowds were on hand for an evening of chuckwagon chow and western music provided by chuckwagon musical groups from South Dakota, Arizona, Colorado, as well as the Flying J Wranglers of Ruidoso.

No school for Nob Hill students June 4 and 5

The Ruidoso Board of Education voted to release Nob Hill Elementary School students from attending school Thursday and Friday, June 4-5.

Requested by school Principal Roger Sowder, the board action will facilitate clearing classrooms of furniture and supplies in areas that will be remodeled this summer.

In other business, the board: —Hired Frank Cannella as principal of White Mountain Elementary School (see story in the Thursday, May 14, edition of The News).

—Hired Superintendent Sid Miller report on a budget hearing last week. The budget for next year was tentatively approved and the hearing officer from Santa Fe was "very, very complimentary" of both academic and athletic endeavors at the schools, it was learned. "We felt good about it," Miller said.

—Approved several budget transfers to close out the 1986-87 school year.

—Opened bids on janitorial supplies for the 1987-88 school year and referred them to the administration to determine which to accept.

—Opened bids on instructional supplies for the 1987-88 school year and referred them to the administration to determine which to accept.

—Called for bids on maintenance of office machines.

—Accepted the resignation of Rhonda Spaulding, high school secretary.

—Hired Mary Montes as high school secretary.

—Accepted the resignation of Naomi Chowdhuri Tyler, Special Education instructor at White Mountain Elementary School.

—Hired June LeCrone, Special Education instructor at White Mountain Intermediate School.

—Reviewed the administrative policy on requests for student placement.

—Hired Board President Stormy Edwards request that a letter be sent to the Village of Ruidoso and Cree Meadows Country Club thanking them for the high school tennis and golf teams' use of their facilities.

—Hired Miller announce that a meeting of the board is scheduled for noon Thursday, May 28, for opening of bids on the remodeling of Ruidoso Middle School.

—Conducted an executive session.

Farris, Dashing Phoebe return in Go Together win

Don Farris, one of the top horse trainers in the nation when he announced his retirement in 1985, returned to the winner's circle at Ruidoso Downs on Sunday when Dashing Phoebe ran down Flow Of Cash to post a narrow victory in the $11,500 Go Together Handicap.

Ruidoso Downs will host an extended schedule for the upcoming Memorial Day weekend with programs slated Friday through Monday beginning at 1 p.m. each day. Friday's program spotlights trials for the Rio Grande Kindergarten Futurity and will offer a Twin Trifecta pool expected to reach

The first thoroughbred stakes race of the season is featured on Saturday when veteran sprinters meet in the $10,000-added Barlaris Handicap. On Sunday, the Fine Loom Handicap and the $230,000 Kansas Derby share the marquee. Monday's special holiday card presents the prestigious Memorial Day Handicap, a three-quarter mile event that hands out more than $20,000 in prize money.

Sunday's Go Together Handicap featured a full field of quarter horses headed by Dashing Phoebe and Flow Of Cash - two of the best older racing mares in the nation. When the gates flew open for the 350-yard showdown, Dashing Phoebe was forced to make up ground after running into traffic problems in the first few strides.

"She got bumped from both sides," jockey Jerry Nicodemus said. "I ran into a little trouble leaving the gates and it took her a little while to catch up."

Nicodemus said he was "probably a shoulder or a half-length" behind Flow Of Cash in the early stages of the race. "She ran a real game race, having to catch that other mare."

Dashing Phoebe stuck her head out on the final jump to win the Go Together and $6,900 in prize money. The win boosted her career earnings to nearly $535,000. The final time racing into a mild headwind was an incredibly fast 17.36 seconds. "I wasn't looking forward to running quite that hard," Nicodemus commented on the clocking. "That's real fast ... too fast." Dashing Phoebe is owned by Art Shahan and the San Jose Cattle Co. of Pleasanton, Texas.

Farris was making his first trip to the winner's circle since announcing his retirement after the 1985 season at Ruidoso Downs. He spent the past two years heading a thoroughbred breeding operation in Kentucky for racing mogul R.D. Hubbard. "It feels great to be back," Farris quipped as he accepted the Go Together trophy.

Flow Of Cash, who raced as an entry with Dash S Shadow, checked in second under rider Alex Baldillez followed by Josies Super Sound, Lady Lucky Friday, Silky Plan, Savy Edition, Dash S Shadow, Racy Renee, Susans Pie and Reach Together.

Flow Of Cash is trained by Dwayne Gilbreath for owners B.F. Phillips and Minnie Wood of Frisco, Texas.

Sunday's Go Together victory marked Dashing Phoebe as one of the leading candidates for champion honors from the American Quarter Horse Association this year. She was beat out for the 3-year-old title last year by Roy Browning's speedy filly Heavenly and will have to contend with Flow Of Cash throughout the summer to remain a viable choice.

Racing wrapup

Top Kansas Derby qualifiers

Ronas Ryon (top) and Kiddin N Streakin (below) are shown turning in the two top qualifying marks for Sunday's $230,000 Kansas Derby. Quarter horse specialist Jerry Nicodemus rides Ronas Ryon (winner of the $2.5 million All American Futurity last year), who recorded the second-fastest qualifying mark. Kiddin N Streakin, ridden by Jacky Martin, was the fastest in the Derby trials. Ruidoso Downs Race Track will feature an extended schedule of racing this weekend with programs slated Friday through Monday (Memorial Day) beginning at 1 p.m. each day.

Kansas Futurity field is finalized Saturday

Dash For Speed, a first-time starter campaigned by Blakeman Farms of Ft. Worth, Texas, beat out 118 young quarter horses in Saturday's Kansas Futurity trials at Ruidoso Downs to share the top qualifying spot for the 350-yard showdown scheduled May 31.

Saturday's program featured the final 13 time trials for the $490,000 Kansas Futurity, a Grade I event that kicks off Ruidoso Downs' quarter horse Triple Crown. A total of 3,347 fans wagered more than $366,000 on the afternoon card.

Jockey Steve Fuller piloted the unknown filly Dash For Speed to a major upset over odds-on favorite Shoot Yeah in Saturday's 4th Kansas division. The final time for the 350-yard neck verdict was 17.435 seconds. Larry Keiter trains Dash For Speed for Bob Blakeman and Thomas Bradbury.

Four races later, Chickazita rewarded her owners with the exact same clocking while drawing out to a half-length winning margin under rider Kevin Cogburn. The filly was the only horse supplemented to the Kansas Futurity trials at a cost of $10,000. C.R. Potts of Irving, Texas, owns the daughter of Zevi trained by Jerry Lazenby.

Chickazita gained the attention of racing fans last month when she was beaten by only a neck for the winner's share of the $200,000 Sun Country Futurity at Sunland Park.

Shoot Yeah, winner of the Sun Country and third in the West Texas Futurity at Sunland, checked in third on the qualifying list with a final time of 17.485. Liese Gulliksen of Lawton, Ok., owns the Easy Jet colt. Shoot Yeah already has earned $85,000 for the '21-year-old Oklahoman.

In a red-hot performance, jockey Fuller also qualified the final two horses in Saturday's divisions. By Yawl was timed in 17.505 while finishing second to Chickazita. Robert Dimmitt conditions the gelding for Donald Jackson of Muskogee, Ok.

Fuller was back in the winner's circle in the next race with Lady Pass Oak, a Duane Hartsell trainee owned by Oak Hill Trio. The partnership is headed by Jean Loreant of Franklin, Texas. The Pass Em Up filly went wire-to-wire in 17.525.

The five horses will join the five qualifiers from Friday's first 13 divisions in the final of the Kansas Futurity, which hands its winner $163,000. Friday's qualifiers include: Elans Special, 17.535; Holymolytsastreaker, 17.630; Eye For Cash, 17.635; Easy A Win, 17.735; and Special Volley, 17.740.

Elans Special is top qualifier Friday for Kansas Futurity

Jockey Alex Baldillez booted Elans Special to a 1 1/2-length winning margin in the final trial division on Friday's program at Ruidoso Downs to earn the top qualifying spot in the upcoming Kansas Futurity.

The afternoon racing program featured 13 time trials for the $490,000 Kansas Futurity - the opening leg of Ruidoso's quarter horse Triple Crown. Only the five fastest horses from the 350-yard divisions advanced to the Grade I event scheduled for May 31. The final five qualifiers earned their positions from another 13 heats slated Saturday.

Elans Special, a chestnut filly sired by Special Effort, tripped the timer in 17.535 seconds after leaving the gates as the 7-5 favorite. John Buchanan saddled the Texas-bred miss for Dr. Lindsey D. Burbank of Leesburg, Florida.

Burbank is hoping Elans Special will follow in the footsteps of her father Special Effort, who is the only horse in 24 years to have won all three legs of Ruidoso's Triple Crown.

Holymolytsastreaker, recent winner of the $130,000 West Texas Futurity at Sunland Park, nabbed the No. 2 qualifying spot under 26-year-old rider Mike Lidberg. Brent Davidson conditions the son of Streakin Six for owners Tommy Hoyt and Kenneth Brown of Powderly, Texas.

Lidberg rode the chestnut gelding to a 2 1/2-length winning margin in the 10th trial division to stop the timer in 17.630 seconds. The strong performance kept his perfect race record intact. Holymolytsastreaker remains undefeated in four appearances and holds earnings of $57,000.

San Antonio horseman Bob Weik made the qualifying list with Eye For Cash after the filly daylighted rivals in the sixth division with a final time of 17.635. Eye For Cash was named by Weik after losing sight in one eye from an accident last year. Jeff Williams rides the filly for trainer Hugh Tucker.

Easy A Win, the chestnut gelding who won the Trinity March Futurity at Trinity Meadows, turned in the fourth fastest time in Friday's Kansas Futurity elimination heats. The son of Easy Request checked in second to top qualifier Elans Special with a 17.735 time. Lea Short trains Easy A Win for owners Ed Pitcock and Robert McHam of Lubbock, Texas. Mike Short, her husband, is the rider.

Mr Deck Lark and Special Volley tied for the fifth berth. A special drawing Saturday morning will determine which horse advances to the final. Both posted 17,740 times while winning their divisions.

Mr Deck Lark is owned by San Angelo native Joe Hudgins. Scott Morse gave the leg-up to West Coast rider Danny Cardoza. Jacqueline Spencer of Alto campaigns Special Volley. Billy Wainscott rode the Special Effort filly for trainer Brent Davidson.

A projected $60,000 Twin Trifecta jackpot goes on the line this Friday at Ruidoso Downs as the track hosts an extended racing schedule for the Memorial Day weekend with programs Friday through Monday.

Friday's card features trials for the Rio Grande Kindergarten Futurity, while Saturday's action is capped by the $10,000-added Barlaris Handicap - the first thoroughbred stake of the season.

The $230,000 Kansas Derby and the Fine Loom Handicap share the marquee on Sunday. Monday, it's the prestigious Memorial Day Handicap offering more than $20,000 in prize money.

Ruidoso racing fans were cheering Clarence Scharbauer's Alysheba down to the wire in last weekend's Preakness at Pimlico.

The race was shown live over the track's monitors. After Alysheba's win in the Kentucky Derby, Scharbauer now has a good chance at joining an elite group of owners who have campaigned Triple Crown winners. A native of Midland, Texas, Scharbauer has been active in quarter horse racing for many years and has had six finalists in the All American Futurity.

In two days of trials for the Kansas Futurity, Jacky Martin and Jack Brooks won seven races as a team, but failed to qualify for the futurity finals with any of the seven horses. Their lone qualifier was Shoot Yeah, who turned in the third fastest time (17.485) finishing second to top qualifier Dash For Speed. Shoot Yeah was purchased at last year's All American Sale for $15,000. Since that time, the Easy Jet colt has won the $200,000 Sun Country Futurity and collected third-place money in the West Texas Futurity.

During Saturday's Kansas Futurity trials, jockey Steve Fuller qualified three of the finalists for the Grade I race. Among the mounts Fuller qualified is Dash For Speed, who tied for the fastest time with a 17.435 clocking alongside Chickazita. Fuller also booted home By Yawl with a 17.505 and Lady Pass Oak with a respectable 17.525. Steve has some major decisions to make before the 26th running of the Kansas Futurity on May 31.

Together Handicap was led by the legendary 20-year-old mare Go Together, who is owned by Harriett Peckham. The 350-yard dash was won by Dashing Phoebe and regular rider Jerry Nicodemus. Don Farris trains the mare for Art Shahan and the San Jose Cattle Co. of Pleasanton, Texas. Dashing Phoebe won the race in a scorching 17.36 - the fastest time among all the 350-yard races run over the weekend.

New Mexico's home-bred program got a shot in the arm when trainer Bill Leach qualified Hennessy Hope in trials for the $230,000 Kansas Derby scheduled to run this Memorial weekend at Ruidoso Downs. Hennessy Hope, who is owned by Sue & Bill May, is a son of Easily Smashed out of the mare Miss Jubilation. He's one of the few New Mexico-breds to have qualified for a Grade I event at Ruidoso Downs.

Sunday's post parade for the Go

Jockey/Trainer Standings

The riding and training team of Jack Brooks and Jacky Martin ran off with the weekly honors in their respective divisions at Ruidoso Downs over the weekend after making seven trips to the winner's circle.

The extraordinary showing, however, was little consolation for the duo. All of their victories came over two days of trials for the $490,000 Kansas Derby. Despite winning more than a fourth of the 26 divisions, none of the winners nabbed a qualifying spot in the final of the race that kicks off the mountain track's quarter horse Triple Crown.

They did qualify Shoot Yeah with a second-place finish to Dash For Speed. The Easy Jet colt recorded the third-fastest time among the finalists and will be a strong choice to capture the event after winning last month's $200,000 Sun Country Futurity at Sunland Park.

Martin's riding fete took him to the No. 1 spot in the jockey standings with eight winners from 33 mounts this season. More than half of the horses he has ridden have finished first, second or third.

Former leader Luke Myles checks in second on the rider's list with four wins. Joe Martinez, Nicky Wilson, Jeff Williams, Jerry Nicodemus and Mike Lidberg each have three victories. Nine riders have two win pictures over the first five days of racing.

Brooks has a three-win advantage over his nearest competitor Brent Davidson, who has saddled four winners. Davidson is followed by Bill Leach, Hugh Tucker and John Buchanan with three winners each.

Five trainers have two wins to their credit: Jerry Lazenby, Johnie Goodman Sr., Lewis Germany, Arnold Simmons Jr. and Roy Marcom.

After sending out seven horses, Don Farris made a popular trip to the winner's circle following a two-year absence from Ruidoso Downs. His charge Dashing Phoebe posted a narrow come-from-behind victory in Sunday's Go Together Handicap.

50th anniversary

The children of Margaret and Johnson Stearns have announced a celebration of their parents' 50th wedding anniversary, set for 1 p.m. Saturday, May 23, at Nogal Canyon in Pennsylvania Canyon (in case of bad weather, it will be at the Carrizozo Country Club). The two were married in 1937. Guests to the celebration are asked not to bring gifts, but to write down a special memory or story and bring it to the party so that it may be included in a scrapbook.

Girl Scout convention delegate

Jane Deyo was elected along with Janet St. John of Carlsbad as delegates to the 44th National Girl Scouts of the USA Convention, to be in Portland, Oregon, in October. Deyo and St. John were selected during the recent Zia Girl Scout Council Annual Spring Council Meeting at the Roswell Inn.

Ruidoso boys get three firsts; freshmen lead girls

Edwards, relays victorious

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Getting first-place efforts from pole vaulter Verlon Edwards and two relay teams, the Ruidoso High School boys track team took third in the state AAA-division meet at the University of New Mexico's track stadium in Albuquerque Friday and Saturday.

Lovington won the team title with 56 points. Belen edged Ruidoso with 43 to the Warriors' 42. Bloomfield had 33, Grants had 25, New Mexico Military Institute had 18, Silver City had 16, Taos had 15, Albuquerque Academy had 11 and Kirtland Central had 10 to round out the top 10 teams.

Edwards won the pole vault with a 13-2 effort, not missing until 14-0. He beat the second-place finisher by six inches.

The other two Warrior wins came in the 400-meter relay and the 1,600-meter relay.

Rusty Shelton, Chuck Daniels, Garret Henson and Brian Davis ran a 43.24 to edge Belen for the 400-meter relay title.

In the 1,600-meter relay, the Warriors set a state record of 3:22.63, with Davis' brilliant 48.5 final leg overcoming Belen and Lovington.

Other members of the 1,600-meter relay team were Shelton, Daniels and junior James Hall.

In the shorter relay, Davis put on a strong closing finish to nip Belen's Jack Cole by four hundredths of a second.

The 1,600-meter relay win cinched third place for the Warriors.

Going into the race (the final one on the AAA schedule Saturday), Ruidoso trailed Bloomfield by one point.

Bloomfield did not have a team in the finals, but Ruidoso still had to place to beat out the northern school.

The quartet responded with a school-record time, beating the Warriors' previous seasonal best by more than five seconds.

Ruidoso was in third place before Davis' sizzling anchor leg.

The win brought a roar from a group of Warrior supporters in the stands and ended the meet on a high note.

Ruidoso got second-place performances from Jeff Willingham in the javelin (179-4, he also finished second last season); Davis in the 200 meters (22.27); and the 800-meter relay team (1:29.08).

The 800-meter relay time was another school record. Shelton, Daniels, Henson and Davis made up the quartet.

Willingham had a best of 191-4 entering the javelin competition, but Belen's Bill Avery won the event with a 189-5 toss.

In the 200-meter final, Davis was second to Lovington's Howard Lackey who had a 22.03. But Davis gained a measure of revenge by overhauling Lackey in the 1,600-meter relay.

Other Warrior performances saw Jef Sherwood finish sixth in the pole vault with an 11-8 vault; Gabe Tam take sixth in the 1,600 meters (4:35.0) and seventh in the 3,200 meters (10:11.0); freshman Ira Sago get a non-scoring 4:45.0 in the 1,600 meters; Daniels take sixth in the 200 meters (23.21); Todd Morris throw a non-scoring 149-9 in the javelin; Mark Alrington leap a non-scoring 6-0 in the high jump; and the medley relay team of Billy Harrison, Bubba Miller, Hall and Sergio Hernandez run a 3:49.49 in the trials Friday.

"I think all our first places were highlights," said Warrior boys head coach Ronny Maskew. "Our 1,600-meter relay team improved five seconds and that's amazing. We beat teams we hadn't beaten before."

The third-place effort was Ruidoso's best ever in the AAA division. Previously, the highest finish was a fourth-place effort in 1985.

Ruidoso's Verlon Edwards sails over 13-2 in the pole vault to win that competition at the state track meet in Albuquerque Saturday. Edwards' effort was one of three Warrior first places in the meet.

Patton, medley relay excel

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

The 1,600-meter medley relay team finished fourth and Dorley Patton was fifth in the 300-meter hurdles to lead the Ruidoso High School girls track team at the state AAA-division meet in Albuquerque Friday and Saturday.

Ruidoso finished with four points. Robertson won the championship with 52 points and Tucumcari was second with 49.

Bloomfield had 26, Silver City had 25, Aztec had 23, Cobre had 23, St. Pius had 17, Lovington had 15, Hot Springs had 12 and Belen had 10 to round out the top 10 teams.

Patton, a freshman, broke her own school record with a 48.21 in the hurdle finals Saturday. She put on a strong finish over the final three hurdles to gain the fifth place.

She had set the previous school record in the Friday trials, running a 48.53.

The all-freshman medley relay team of Patton, Stacey Lee, Shaia Gosdin and Ardena Comanche finished fourth with a 4:32.57 time.

Robertson won the medley in a state-meet record time of 4:18.15.

Comanche brought the Warriors from fifth to fourth with her 800-meter leg, running a 2:33.0. She also ran a strong leg in the relay trials Friday with a 2:34.0.

Comanche also ran in the 3,200 meters, finishing eighth in 12:56.0. She also finished eighth in last season's state meet.

Other Warrior efforts saw Lee run 12.94 in the 100 meters and 27.03 in the 200 meters in the Friday trials, narrowly missing the finals in both events.

Cindi Harrison finished ninth in the 800 meters in 2:34.0, and freshman Chantel Bowen leaped 4-10 in the high jump.

"I think we did great," said Warrior girls head coach Jim Hofstad. "We did better than we expected to do."

Comanche and Patton won the district titles in their respective individual events last week.

Five of the six Warrior girls who competed at state were freshmen. The other (Harrison) is a junior.

Ruidoso's Marnie Warlick hits the ball in first-round girls singles action at the state high school tennis championships at Albuquerque Academy Friday. Warlick lost to the eventual champion, 6-3, 6-3.

Ruidoso's Shala Gosdin (center in dark uniform) takes the baton from teammate Stacey Lee in the girls medley relay at the state track meet in Albuquerque Saturday.

Gosdin and Lee teamed with Dorley Patton and Ardena Comanche to finish fourth in 3:32.57. Patton also took fifth in the 300-meter hurdles.

Warlick loses to eventual champion

by GARY BROWN
Sports Writer

Despite losing her first-round match in the state tennis championships at Albuquerque Academy Friday, Ruidoso High School sophomore Marnie Warlick gained a moral victory.

Warlick lost in the girls singles competition to St. Pius' Michelle Mastrovito, 6-3, 6-3. However, Mastrovito went on to win the title with a 6-0, 6-0 victory over Deming's Jennifer Diaz.

Unfortunately, Mastrovito may stand in the way of Warlick's hopes for a state title two more seasons. The St. Pius athlete is a freshman. Portales' Denise Tarango, who defeated Warlick for the district title last week, also got beat in the first round.

"She's (Mastrovito) better than

Denise," said Warlick after her match. "I felt my serving was good. "It wasn't good at the start of the match, but it was at the end."

Other AAA-A division state title matches saw Todd Kjeldgaard of St. Pius beat teammate Dominic Rodriguez, 6-2, 6-4, for the boys singles title; Renee Benavidez and Dave Fleming of Silver City defeat Albuquerque Academy's Sam Stark and Jim Hutchinson, 6-7, 6-4, 6-3, for the boys doubles title; and Lana Wagner and Kristin Kjeldgaard of St. Pius defeat Margie Pacheco and Theresa O'Neal of Deming, 3-6, 7-6, 6-4, for the girls doubles crown.

State flower

A yucca stands tall in Lincoln County, one of the most common plants of the lower elevations in the county. Its crown of flowers provides a springtime burst of bright white. The yucca is the state flower of New Mexico.

Recreation in the county

Golf, tennis and playground facilities are available just outside Carrizozo at this recreation area, dedicated in 1973 to Dr. and Mrs. A.N. Spencer "in appreciation of their continued interest in im-

VOLUME I

Week of May 13-19, 1787

NUMBER II

The arrival of His Excellency General Washington in Philadelphia increases our hope that the Convention will be a success. His Excellency is the Greatest Man in America, and he has now thrown his immense influence into the struggle for a stronger federal government.

Doctor Benjamin Franklin, and the Financier Hon. Robert Morris of Philadelphia add further luster, and along with Gen. Washington form a mighty triumvirate of reason, wealth and honor which will serve to direct the good works of this Grand Convention.

The States are to be applauded for appointing fifty-five gentlemen who truly represent the Collective Wisdom of the Continent. They have as much talent, knowledge and patriotism as any group of Delegates ever gathered, either here or in Europe. Our hopes are high that these gentlemen will prove to the World that this New Country can solve her problems in a rational manner.

There are, it must be reported, notable men who have refused the Call to serve. Patrick Henry of Virginia, Wille Jones of North-Carolina and Samuel Adams of Massachusetts, all have declined the Honor. Their anti-nationalistic views are well known, and it may be to the benefit of all that they have refused for they could have caused disruption and disharmony in solving our Nation's problems.

It will be objected that The Interior of our Country is not represented. These back country people are known to be contentious, and if ignored could be troublesome again. Last year John Sevier and his band of seceders in North-Carolina came to Congress and demanded recognition for the new State of Franklin, which the Backwoods people of Virginia wished to join. We think they will study the Convention results with suspicion.

Their Excellencies Thomas Jefferson and John Adams, our Ambassadors to France and England will be missed, but we expect them to be in very close contact with the Delegates. Mr. Jefferson's views on our Country's direction are known to coincide with those of the Honourable James Madison, his fellow Virginian, so Mr. Jefferson will be attending in spirit if not in body.

We feel the States have chosen their delegates fairly and well, and we are Greatly Satisfied with the beginnings of this Notable Assemblage of American talent.

Plautus

Book Praises Strong Executive

The Honourable John Adams of Massachusetts has recently undertaken to publish A Defence of the Constitutions of Governments of the United States of America. In View of the recent Unhappy Events in his State, this volume will prove both usefull and entertaining to Concerned Citizens.

For the refinement of the science of Government, the Hon. Mr. Adams answers the objections of that eminent French philosopher, M. Turgot, who holds that greater power in Central authority is the only means to avoid confusion in government. The Hon. Mr. Adams draws on His familiarity with the best Historians, both Ancient and Modern, to demonstrate that Governments in which power reside in One Authority will surely deteriorate into Tyranny; and that power divided between two equal authorities, as between the aristocrat and king in Ancient Greece, will merely replace Tyranny with a Continual revolution in Government. Rather, to avoid such traps and snares, Power must be divided between three branches of Government; those being the Executive, the Legislative, to be composed of an upper and lower house, and the Judicial. And for the stability of this Government, each of these must have an Equal share in Power, as well the Power to Counter Decisions by the other branches. In the Hon. author's thoughts, the Massachusetts Constitution represents the most reasonable system of Government.

The Hon. Mr. Adams provides copious Instances, both Ancient and Modern, to illustrate his arguments, and He considers the writings of the most Eminent Modern Philosophers on Government. Although some may question His Defense of a strong Executive, as favoring too much of Monarchy, the Work of the Hon. Mr. Adams will most surely prove to be a Timely one. All friends of Sound Government will affirm the value of this volume.

Free Postage Privilege

Congress has extended the Privilege of free postage to all members attending the Constitutional Convention. Gentlemen may send and receive letters and packages free of charge, in the same way as Members of Congress do.

A Proper Hanging

All the citizens of Philadelphia applaud the Hanging yesterday of the Burglar, Robert Elliott. The City has been for too long the haunt of idle Ruffians and persons of mal-disposition. The Supreme Executive Council has acted with great Clemency in these matters but its Patience must have a limit. In the last Week, the Council reprieved Alice Clifton who murdered her own Infant, and spared the lives of Jacob Dryer, the Burglar, and Barak Martin, who is guilty of Dryer, on condition that they leave Us.

It was greatly hoped and expected at the conclusion of our Revolution that a new Society would make Crime a thing of the past. There is no reason for Crime in a Republican Society. There is Work for every Hand and a Generous Support for the Worthy Poor. But these hopes have long been dispelled. What defect of the Mind causes a Mother to slaughter her babe, or inspires a Man with a love of Fire? We may hope that the Progress of Time and Science may someday reveal the Answers and that honest Citizens may someday live without fear of Crime, but until that Happy Epoque, the hangman must earn his Wages.

Lafayette for Liberty

America surely has no greater friend in France, if not in all Europe, than the Marquis de Lafayette. None can forget his service at Brandywine, Valley Forge and Yorktown, nor his role in bring French men and arms to America's aid during the darkest days of the late War.

It should surprise no one that the Marquis remains a friend of liberty and the Rights of Man, not only by his continued interest in American affairs, but also in his own exertions to bring such Blessings to his own land.

News of the Annapolis convention and of the pending meeting in Philadelphia fills the Marquis with satisfaction. Trusting in the good sense, knowledge and liberality of the American people, Lafayette also warns against acting incautiously or in haste, for any wrong measure taken now "would hurt not only the consequences of the United States, but also the cause of liberty in all parts of the world."

The Marquis is a figure of great interest and influence here. Faced with a grave financial crisis, King Louis XVI has convened an Assembly of Notables of the realm, directed by the Finance Minister, Charles de Calonne. In his opening speech, M. Calonne called for financial reforms and new taxes to relieve the national debt. Lafayette responded with a Sensational speech, attacking financial Corruption in the Highest Circles, and calling for reduction of needless government expenses. This speech, reprinted in newspapers and pamphlets, has won Lafayette praise from friends of Liberty and Equality, but scorn from many others. Even the Queen, Marie Antoinette, it has been reported, has denounced Lafayette to her friends, saying he was playing for an audience outside France, and especially for his American friends, and denouncing his opinions as coming, not from France, but Philadelphia.

The full effects of Lafayette's attack are not yet known, but at least one result is that the King has fired M. Calonne. It is uncertain whether his successor will have the power or the will to carry out necessary reforms. Lafayette's stand is far from popular with the artificial aristocracy that infests this nation. The crisis here increases, and Lafayette is certain to play a major role as events unfold. All Americans should wish the Marquis well and pray that France may see the light of Liberty and embark on a course toward republican government.

Indian Murdered!

Authorities arrested Jared Reagan last week near Pittsburg on suspicion of having murdered an Indian. During an investigation he denied the charge, but Three Witnesses substantiated the allegation, making it necessary to put him in Confinement.

The Superintendent of Indian Affairs, fearing the consequences of Retaliation on frontier settlers, had the Chiefs of the nation to which the victim belonged, who were near and about here, assembled, and informed them of what had happened, and that the prisoner (who then was shewn to them) was charged as being the murderer. He urged the Chiefs to prevent their young men from committing any violence on the innocent, as such retaliation might prove to be very dangerous to them. They have promised to keep their young men from committing any depreations, and appeared well satisfied with what had been done.

Some months must pass before the prisoner can be brought to trial, when a Jury of his Peers will determine whether he is guilty or not.

Buckley's Bill Defeated

Capt. Peter Buckley of Colchester astonished the House of Representatives today when he brought in a Bill that no person should publish any Speech, act or doing of the General Assembly without Permission first obtained on penalty of Twenty Shillings lawful money. Such was the Surprise that so Open an attack should be made on the ancient Privileges of a Free People that the entire House sat in complete Silence for five minutes, until the witty General Throop spoke, as follows, "This bill has struck the house dumb, and I think it best that they should remain so, and then there would be no need of such a bill." Col. Seymour asked why the House should have voted recently to add a Gallery to the chamber if the Publick were not to be allowed to Hear the General Assembly. "Let the Truth be published," he concluded, "and let every one take care that what he says may bear the public inspection." Capt. Buckley's bill was roundly defeated and we may hope that no Publick Assembly will ever again attempt to Hide their Business behind the Cloak of Silence.

Washington Salutes The Troops

Washington Arrives in Philadelphia!

All doubts may now be laid aside as to whether His Excellency, General Washington, will serve as a Member of the Convention to revise the Articles of Confederation. Yesterday, to the great Joy of all, he arrived in this city.

Since his election as a Delegate from Virginia, rumors have spread that he had declined to attend. Many Virginians, as well as gentlemen from the other states, have importuned him to serve, under the apprehension that only his Presence would secure a successful result. Inclining to these Entreaties and ever mindful of his Duty, our First Citizen left Mount Vernon last Wednesday.

When he crossed the Schuylkill at Gray's Ferry, he was met by Colonel Samuel Miles, Commander of the Light Horse, which formed his official Escort. As the General entered the City, the Artillery saluted him with cannon fire and the bells of Christ-Church began to peal. The Citizenry pressed round, greeting his arrival with Loud Cheers, which he acknowledged with Republican Restraint, inclining his head slightly, now this way and now the other.

The General alighted at the boarding establishment of Mrs. Mary House, where he was to lodge. Although this is one of the most Genteel accommodations in the City, many in the Crowd were troubled that our First Citizen should reside in a place not suited to his Dignity. Others argued that in a Republic there can be no distinctions of rank and thought it proper that Mr. Madison was already a guest of Mrs. House and that his Dignity was no less than the General's.

This ticklish Question was being hotly debated by the Populace when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris came upon the Scene. Mr. Morris, who is perhaps the Richest man in America, had already invited the General to stay at his Mansion at 190 High-Street, the finest House in the City. The General, fearing that the Convention may be of long Duration and unwilling to impose himself, had declined this Kind Invitation, but now Mrs. Morris added her Supplication in such Form that no Gentleman could have denied her. General Washington therefore ordered his servants to remove his Effects and moved on up the Street to the Huzzahs of the Crowd. A strict Regard for the Truth compels us to report that the General's Servants murmured not a little bit at this Turn of Events and that Mrs. House did not take the General's Defection with the Disposition of a Stoic.

It is to be hoped that the General will enjoy his Stay in Philadelphia. The Morris Mansion in which he resides is built of Brick, has three Storys and is provided with a separate Kitchen, Washhouse and Stables for twelve

AN ESSAY

On the causes of the variety of COMPLEXION and FIGURE in the HUMAN SPECIES. To which are added STRICTURES on Lord Kaimes's discourse, on the original diversity of mankind. By the Reverend Samuel Stanhope Smith, D.D., Vice-President, and professor of moral Philosophy in the college of New-Jersey, and member of the American Philosophical Society, held at Philadelphia for promoting useful knowledge.

Hon. Edmund Randolph

Randolph Goes to Convention

His Excellency, Mr. Edmund Randolph, intends to leave the city soon for Philadelphia to attend the Federal Convention. Mr. James Madison, also among the honorable delegates, has written to Mr. Randolph begging his early attendance. Mr. Madison believes that, since Virginia was so forward in urging that a Convention be held, Our Commonwealth should be ready with a plan in hand when the other delegations assemble. Mr. Randolph told your correspondent He believes the Articles of Confederation should be amended, but that in the past few weeks His contemplation of the business of the Convention has been hourly interrupted.

In Philadelphia Mr. Randolph will join our illustrious fellow citizen, George Washington. The COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA has chosen its leading citizens to attend to our Nation's Needs. If other delegations are of the same quality, what happy consequences must follow for true friends of Federal Government!

Horses. On either side are two of the finest Gardens on this Continent. These Comfortable Circumstances may even ease the General's Rheumatism.

After being installed at the Morris home, General Washington went to call upon Dr. Franklin, the President of Pennsylvania, whose Age and Infirmary do not permit him often to leave Home. When it was noised about that the General and Dr. Franklin had last met in the fateful year of 1776, the Common People immediately began to talk of this Meeting as a Wonderful Portent for Good. So may it Prove.

Congress Is Ignored!

The House of Representatives voted 70 to 39 not to honour the latest Requisition by Congress. Of all the Deputies only the Honourable Jeremiah Wadsworth was man enough to call the State to its Duty. All else complained of the great burthens of the Taxes already being Collected in Connecticut, evincing more Fear of the Voters than Concern for the Public Welfare. Of all the Arguments used against paying what we owe to Congress, none was more specious than that the Convention now sitting in Philadelphia makes it Inadvisable to act upon the Request of Congress. The Impression grows Daily that Congress, in calling the Convention, signed its own death Warrant and will over the next Weeks become indeed so Feeble that a total Revision of the Articles must be undertaken.

New Hampshire Representation

The People of New Hampshire are wearied of both Constitutions and Conventions. The learned-Reverend Jeremy Belknap wittily observes that Constitutions are with us as Almanachs are to others. We make a new one every Year, and make them worse each Time. As for Conventions, we have had too many and Last Autumn felt their harm. While the General Court was in Session, a mob of some 200 unruly Spirits met in Convention in Londonderry to draw up a Petition to the House of Representatives complaining of Debts and Taxes and Demanding an Issue of Paper Money. When these Demands were not immediately granted, the mob marched to Exeter under the Command of one Joseph French and surrounded the Meetinghouse where the Government then sat. The President of New Hampshire, John Sullivan, the Hibernian General who once braved the Savage Iroquois in His own Lair, defied the uncivil Crowd and routed them the next Day with repeated Calvary Charges. Their Leader, French, was Captured, Begged for Mercy and has been pardoned. President Sullivan has rightly called upon the Good People of the State to abjure further Conventions because of their Tendency to overturn and destroy all Constitutional Authority and Government.

It must be assumed that the General Court will send a Delegation to Philadelphia but it would surprise No One if Our Delegation arrived late, as Our Commissioners arrived late at the Annapolis Convention. Whoever wants to go, should also expect to Pay His Own Expenses. Pres. Sullivan would be the Best Man to go, but must remain at Home to protect His Political Position. Although he is Popular for having suppressed the Frenches, many still hold it Against him that he acted as Attorney for the Allen Family in their recent Fraudulent attempt to claim more than Half the State because of a Charter granted ages ago by the English Crown to one of their Ancestors. It is expected instead that the General will impose upon his Friends and Political Ally, the handsome Nicholas Gilman, Esq., who Currently serves in Congress, to ensure that New Hampshire is heard on the side of those who wish to strengthen the Articles. On the other hand, the General's inveterate rival, the Hon. John Langdon, may also go to Philadelphia since he is willing to pay his own expenses and those of his Fellow Delegates.

Notwithstanding this Generous Offer, the Rewards of attending the Convention will undoubtedly prove too meager to induce the Hon. Benjamin West to go, despite the Entreaties of those who Believe his Legal training would be of benefit. He has recently rejected the Position of Attorney-General because he complained that the Salary was "a small Pittance."

said Jim Hatton, who has had a hangar at the Ruidoso Municipal Airport for 10 years. "We've supported this airport," added Hatton. He said he wants to know when and if he can move his hangar, and how much it will cost.

Bill McCarty congratulated the commission on "getting the airport basically from an antelope field to a reality," adding he didn't think it would happen so soon.

"Y'all go ahead with all your new stuff and in a year or two we'll be glad to come along," said McCarty. "It's going to have a major impact on us," said Miller, pushing to know when and if he can begin moving his commercial hangar, as well as raising questions as to who will be allowed to operate at SBRA and what limitations will be placed on operators.

"Right now we don't even know who's going to operate the airport," said Buchanan.

Several people continued to question why their situation had never been discussed.

"We're putting something on the back burner that is actually a front burner thing," said Miller.

Morris, who manages the Ruidoso Municipal Airport, as well as chairs the airport commission, said after the meeting he wasn't surprised by the issues raised by users. He said information will be available to users within the next 30 days.

Heckman said a meeting will be called soon to discuss issues raised Saturday.

Three killed in wreck near Carrizozo

Three Albuquerque residents were killed and six people injured Sunday afternoon in a two-vehicle accident on U.S. Highway 380 outside of Carrizozo.

The driver of a 1970 Oldsmobile 98, whose name is being withheld pending notification of relatives, was fatally injured as were two of his passengers, Jorge Nevarez, age unknown, and Francis Padilla, 31, according to the New Mexico State Police report.

Police said the three were pronounced dead at the scene by medical examiner Rosemary Zink. Critically injured and airlifted to

University of New Mexico Hospital were two other passengers in that vehicle, Raul Serrano, 19, and Pepa Pascual Nevarez, 23, both of Albuquerque, reported State Police officer Steve Standridge.

Charles Sanchez, 33, driver of a 1978 Ford, and his three passengers, Ellen Sanchez, 38; Charles Sanchez Jr., 3; and Deon Valdez, 14; all were taken by ambulance to Lincoln County Medical Center, said Standridge.

A spokesman for Lincoln County Medical Center reported early today (Monday) that the Sanchez and Valdez youngsters were treated and released Sunday, and Charles and Ellen Sanchez are in stable condition.

Official reports indicate the Oldsmobile was headed east on U.S. 380 at a high rate of speed, entered a dip in the road, then went airborne causing the driver to lose control when the vehicle hit the ground and slide into the westbound Sanchez vehicle.

Officer Standridge reported that alcohol was involved in the Oldsmobile. He said seatbelts were installed but not used in both vehicles, but, in his opinion, would not have prevented the fatalities.

Mescalero traffic switch begins this week

A major traffic switch is planned this week on the Highway 70 construction between Mescalero and Apache Summit.

According to Clifford V. Bryan, project manager for the State Highway Department, traffic will be channeled onto a one-way, one-lane road for eastbound traffic and a similar configuration for westbound traffic. The one-way, one-lane roads will be about four miles long each.

Both lanes will be posted as no passing zones for their entire lengths.

This traffic pattern will be in effect throughout the summer and until the second phase of construction is completed.

"Motorists should use caution in the area and are reminded to obey warning signs and flag-persons' instructions," Bryan added.

Corn Construction Company of Colorado is the contractor on the $10.5 million project which has been under way since August 1986. Completion is projected for July 1988.

All decked out in Esprit fashions, these DECA students will model during the DECA Esprit Extravaganza fashion show and sale from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, May 24, at Ruidoso High School. DECA, raising funds to pur-

Planning and Zoning will meet today

The Ruidoso Planning and Zoning Commission has scheduled its monthly meeting for 3 p.m. today (Monday), May 18, in council chambers of Ruidoso Municipal Administration Center.

Items on the agenda include:

- Request from J.E. Marsh for a five-foot west side lot line variance and a 13-foot, eight-inch rear lot line variance to replace a carport at Lot 57B, White Furr Subdivision.
- Application from James R. Lawless for a 19-foot front lot line variance to replace a carport with a garage on lots four and five, Block F, Ruidoso Acres Subdivision.
- Request from Don and Linda Roberts for a nine-foot north side lot line variance and a replat of Lot 1, Block 4, Juniper Hills Subdivision.
- Zone change request by Eugene Duval to change the property known as KOR Campground from single-family residential (R-1) to multi-family residential (R-2).
- Request from Kenneth Kamrath for lot line variances, vacation of right of way and replat on lots 1-4, Block O, Ruidoso Springs Subdivision.
- Discussion on frequency of meetings.
- Adoption of planning policies document and planning policy statement one.
- Progress report and review of zoning ordinance.

The regular meeting will be preceded by a workshop session at 2 p.m. Both the meeting and the workshop are open to the public.

DECA's Esprit Extravaganza is Sunday

by FRANKIE JARRELL
News Staff Writer

"DECA a l'esprit!" means DECA has spirit, and that DECA spirit, ignited at DECA nationals in New Orleans, Louisiana, is the spark for a DECA Esprit Extravaganza fashion show and sale from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, May 24, at Ruidoso High School.

Esprit fashions will be modeled by DECA students and offered at outlet prices. Refreshments: beignet, crepes and chicory coffee, will carry out the New Orleans-style French theme of the fashion extravaganza.

Tickets, priced at $2, are available from DECA students and at the door.

"We're excited about it," said DECA sponsor Eddie Parker. His students echoed that enthusiasm. Besides hoping to raise funds to purchase five MacIntosh Plus computers for the DECA classroom, students are learning a lot about business.

"We're learning a chain of command," noted Parker. He serves as CEO (chief executive officer) for the Esprit Extravaganza. Students, led by a management team of their peers, are divided into advertising and promotion, merchandising and inventory control, security and food services divisions.

Jason Hill, Randy Jones, Chris McAdams and Todd Morris serve as the management team, with department heads formulating plans and budgets for their approval. The managers report directly to the CEO, Parker.

Many of the departmental and management reports are prepared on the computer, said Parker, displaying computer-generated promotional materials the students are distributing throughout the village.

Communications skills are being honed through the chain of command reporting. Departmental reports were video-taped last week, so that students could view all the parts of the whole Esprit project.

"It brought everything together," said Hill.

"The emphasis is on learning," said Parker, explaining the debriefing process that will follow the fashion show. He said students, not only will evaluate the project, but will also determine the "learning outcomes" of the whole experience.

The Esprit Extravaganza is being produced as Ruidoso DECA's Pepsi Learn and Earn project for 1987-88.

Past successful Pepsi projects have been state and national winners for Ruidoso DECA. Until the past two years, Parker's students were among the top eight in national competition for the preceding 10 years.

Those projects have earned Ruidoso DECA national attention and a great deal of Pepsi stock, given as an incentive to top national winners.

"We have more Pepsi stock than any school in the nation," said Parker, who was keynote speaker at the Pepsi Learn and Earn breakfast at DECA nationals this spring.

Ruidoso DECA has continued to win the Pepsi Learn and Earn competition at the state level, although the past two projects haven't placed in the top 10 at nationals.

Parker and his students are confident the Esprit Extravaganza will turn that around. They expect to bring home another first place trophy in Pepsi Learn and Earn competition at next year's national convention.

The Dreamer

The First Day
Of The May Full Moon

On the evening of the twelfth, after a light rain, there appeared at the house a favorite cow, Spot Neck, followed by a tiny calf born that morning. Full of life, he made a jump and slipped on the wet road and fell down. He jumped to his feet and followed up onto the grass, looking back over his shoulder with bright eyes filled with the pride and joy of life.

The next morning, the first day of the full moon, was like something out of song. The sky was all rose and gold, with the green world reflecting a touch of these colors. Where was the newborn calf? It so happened that on April twenty-four, a little heifer named Tiny Joy was born. In the middle of the field below the house you could see two tiny red and white figures. There was Tiny Joy lying close to the new little calf who was sound asleep stretched out soaking up the early rays of the sun. Tiny Joy arose and slowly went over to the little half brother and looked down upon him, and seeing he was alright lay down close beside him.

The new little bull goes by the name of Moon Boy. The season of the little newborn calves brings us very close to Heaven; and the two infant calves cast a charm upon the early day, setting the tone for a day full of joyful enchantment.

The winter moisture helped by unusually good May rains helped the full moon in its work of giving new life to the children of Mother Earth.

On the little birthday apple trees, given by Wilbur Conley in memory of members of our family, the bright new green of new growth—you could almost see it grow before your eyes. And the tiny apples appeared like magic with the huckle notes of the pinon jay, robin and song sparrow and canyon wren.

Golden Rain

Just after sundown a great mass of clouds to the west, extending all up to the sky, cast the vale into a gloaming of light gold which glowed over the green of meadow and hillside. All down through this great airy golden curtain, the golden streamers of rain were flowing down. The lightning flashed in the giant cloud, seeming to be at home in its natural color. The thunder boomed and mumbled following the jagged spear of a lightning flash, making you feel somehow that the thunder had a golden sound. Another lightning flash lit up the entire cloudy, misty, rainy western sky of pure light ephemeral gold—this time not a jagged javelin appearing through the soft cloud mass—this time a silent explosion of bursting red fire which lighted up the entire sky from horizon to horizon.

The thunder rumbled and mumbled, and then the world turned silent. The gold in the west held you in its spell as slowly the gold gave way to dark purple, and in a twinkling the gloaming turned to twilight.

Not a sound was to be heard in all the valley, and then the owl over at the cliff said "Too Whooh. Too Whooh." The cloud to the west began moving around to the north and settled over Lincoln. The twilight began turning to dusk, when down at the spring at the old ranger station, which is now on Gerry Tully's place, you could hear the frog singing his first song of the year while seated on the mossy brink of his spring pond: "Beee Waaa. Beee Waaa." Beware of what?

Seeming to answer up from the grass in the yard came the first notes of the year of the crickets strumming to their singing. A cool breeze came in from the clouds moving in from carrying to you the fragrance of new leaves—cottonwood, walnut, apple, and many more blending with the sweet breath of the lilacs.

Light drops of rain came pattering and the frog, the owl and the crickets were now silent with the fall of early night. To the east the full moon was light gold through the light maze of clouds.

And so ended the first day of the May full moon—full of promises and messages of a happy summer.

Rainy May

In times past we always expected May to be the driest of the year, with the rain not arriving until July.

Today, in early afternoon of May sixteen, you are in a mountain world of glowing green, with mist and very light rain in every direction. The very mist itself is green—reflected up from the emerald meadows and river trees.

There is a deep contentment all through the Mountain Land—as all the world breathes a prayer of thanks to Our Lord.

High schooler honored at world science fair

Ruidoso High School senior Hamilton Carter has done it again. After being awarded at the local, state and nation levels for his work in science and engineering fairs, Carter took a first place Thursday in international competition in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Carter's project, "Experiments in Accelerator Dynamics," took first place at the International Science and Engineering Fair.

He was awarded a first-place prize of $250 and a plaque from the Vacuum Technology Division of the American Vacuum Society. Ruidoso High School will receive a plaque and $500.

'Harvey'

Rehearsing a scene from Ruidoso Little Theatre's upcoming production of "Harvey" are Ron Harris and Roger Sowder. "Harvey" is set to open with a benefit performance at 8 p.m. Thursday, May 28, on the second floor of the Ruidoso Financial Center. Performances will continue Friday and Saturday, May 29-30, and again June 4-6 and June 11-13. Tickets are available at Don's Pharmacy and Schlotzsky's.

Arrangements are by LaGrone Funeral Chapel of Ruidoso.

Opinion

Editorial

Summertime in Midtown Ruidoso means pedestrians and automobiles everywhere.

On busy weekends this summer, traffic will be thick with motorists searching for parking spaces, dropping off shoppers or trying to get through to go to the racetrack.

Pedestrians will dart from store to store, occasionally dashing across the street, often without pausing to use crosswalks.

What can be done to ensure this meeting of cars and people will remain safe and happy throughout the summer?

The entrances to Midtown are guarded by big yellow signs, crested by flashing lights, warning of the pedestrian-congested area. Heed them.

Crosswalks traverse Midtown at regular intervals. They are clearly marked. Use them, if on foot. Respect them, if behind the wheel.

Midtown is an exciting area to visit. Take the time to travel the area safely. Don't spoil your visit.—DJP

Inside the Capitol by Fred McCaffrey

SANTA FE—Since the start of the year, euphoria and optimism have poured down on our capital here like so much New Mexico sunshine.

As time goes on, however, it becomes clear that there is another side to that happy picture. There are—change the metaphor—a lot of potholes on the highway of state government.

Our chief executive and legislators alike are—or should be—reading the latest financial report of the state with considerable interest. Between them, these people, when planning for the next fiscal year, acted as though “onward and upward” were the watchword. With figures now in for the first quarter of this calendar year, it's clear that was an unrealistic choice.

Here are some highlights (lowlights?) from the report the Department of Finance and Administration has prepared and circulated.

—“Year-to-date gross receipts taxes are $384.4 million, $11.6 million below the three-quarter estimate of $396 million” for the fiscal year that started last July. Then there is this ominous observation: “Analysts observe that the gap between estimated and actual quarterly revenues is widening.”

—“Year-to-date net personal income tax receipts are $132.5 million, $5.9 million less than the quarterly estimate.”

—And for severance taxes, “the year-to-date total is $51.6 million, or 48.9 percent, below the comparable period for last year.” (When contemplating that large drop, don't fail to note that receipts from last year were not very hot to begin with.)

There's not a word there that would justify all that happy talk we have been getting from the fourth floor of the Roundhouse, where we are mostly being treated to distractions to keep our attention off this depressing topic.

But to make sure you won't miss the glooming tone of this report, which is, be it noted, put out by a branch of the Carruthers administration itself, here's a whole paragraph to chew on. It is chosen, as you might expect, because it contains, in the sentence that begins with the words “The decline rate,” some of the worst bad news we have so far been treated to:

“Oil production in January, 1987, was 6.07 million barrels, off 11.2 percent from a year earlier. The decline rate exceeded the annual decline rate of 8.6 percent experienced from 1972 to 1973, the highest annual decline rate in state history. Deferred maintenance and abandonment of stripper wells are only minor contributors to the decline. The big factor is the lack of investment in exploration and development to offset the natural rate of decline from existing reservoirs. In 1986, 692 oil wells were completed, compared to 1009 oil wells in 1985. For the first quarter of 1987, 219 wells were completed, off 62 percent from completions for the first quarter of 1986.”

The only topic we have been discussing here is sources of revenue to the state. When you read that any one of these sources is off 49.6 percent or any other off 62 percent from the previous year, you know we are in trouble. Nothing that produces income can take a drop of that magnitude while justifying the state in increasing its expenditures.

At the same time, you must be aware that an increase in spending is just what the 1987 Legislature and the new man in the governor's suite arranged for us.

Why did they do that? Well, to put the response as charitably as possible, they must have hoped that things were going to get better.

These figures suggest—no, they prove—that the position of proceeding on mere hope was a mistake. Conditions are not improving; they are getting worse.

About the only encouraging sign the economists at DFA were able to locate this month is that the statewide unemployment rate fell from 9.6 percent to 9.2 percent in February. That, as you no doubt know, is still considerably above the rate for the nation as a whole. Besides, most of that small but gratifying improvement took place, not in the state outside Albuquerque, but in Bernalillo county alone, where the number of jobs went up from 240,000 to 243,000 that month. That does little to warm the hearts or pockets of the rest of New Mexicans.

Maybe next time you run into your local lawmaker you'd like to ask him or her to comment on these figures and what they suggest, as we move into that fiscal year for which legislators upped the budget so generously.
