NO. 68 IN OUR 46th YEAR 450 CENTS

Governor says 'no' on funds, 'no' on N-waste

After several weeks Mayor Victor Alonso finally has an answer from Governor Bruce King. The village has sought King's endorsement to its application for a federal grant to track the progress of the Mescalero's study in building a Monitored Retrievable System (MRS) nuclear waste temporary disposal site on Indian land. The tribe has received a $100,000 grant from the Department of Energy (DOE) to explore the feasibility of building the MRS.

The village is making application to the DOE for a like amount to monitor the tribe's progress in the study and to ensure that the village and the area residents are allowed to voice their opinion of the proposed facility. On Friday the Mayor received the following letter from the Governor:

"Dear Mayor Alonso:
I have received the Village's proposal for a federal grant to propose a Monitored Retrievable

Storage facility for high-level nuclear waste in your area. Rather than seek federal money to oppose this project, I would prefer to offer you the full resources of my administration for this purpose. As you know I am adamantly opposed to high-level nuclear waste coming into New Mexico, whether on or off Indian lands, whether temporarily or permanently. What I hope to do is to encourage the federal government to stop funding any studies whatsoever of these facilities in New Mexico and to seek storage locations close to where the waste is being generated in other states. My fear is that additional publicity about federal grants, whether for or against, will simply feed the perception that those facilities are possible in our state. I believe our state Environment Department and Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department, with the help of the Attorney General, can provide you all the information and ammunition you need to stop this idea cold. It may also be wise to encourage your area legislators to propose a resolution in the next session of the legislature putting the state completely on record in opposition to high level waste storage. I would be happy to give such a resolution my wholehearted support.

Yours truly,
Bruce King

When contacted by The News,

Mayor Alonso expressed his satisfaction that the Governor had supported the Village's position in opposing the nuclear dump. "I would rather have the governor's help in fighting this than the $100,000 grant," he said. "Perhaps he has funds to help us in our tracking efforts."

Councilor Ron Andrews said that while he appreciated the governor taking a stand on the side of

One man killed in accident

A Mescalero man was killed and three people injured in a one-vehicle accident early Sunday morning in Mescalero. Richard Rice, 41, of Mescalero was pronounced dead at the scene. Robert Rice, 16, the driver of the vehicle, and passengers Jan Treas and her six-year-old son, Michael, were all injured. The three were transported to LCMC where Rice and the Treas youngster remain in stable condition today. Jan Treas was transferred to University of New Mexico Hospital in Albuquerque. The accident, reported about 7:30 a.m., was on Highway 6, right across from the Clowdero highway on the Mescalero Reservation.

Also this weekend, Ruidoso Police were called to the scene of a rape in the early morning hours of Sunday. The victim reported the incident to a convenience store clerk and the clerk called police. She reported that the attack occurred over several hours and that she escaped by spraying her assailant with mace. Before dawn a suspect was in custody. The suspect who was arrested and is being held in Lincoln County jail is Juan Candelario Herrera, 22, a Mexican national who holds a work permit. Police said Herrera, when arrested, had scratches on his chest and near his eyes and had an odor of mace. In another incident a gun-wielding assailant demanded the return of $15 that he had overpaid on a gas purchase earlier in the day. Gateway Texaco attendant, Anthony Ballard gave the man $15 and he left, only to return a few minutes later and say that he wanted no trouble just his money. He was driving a Cadillac with California license plates.

Members of the Ruidoso Board of Realtors sock it to one another during Saturday night's variety show and awards banquet at the Inn of the Mountain Gods.

Gary Lynch wins the whole thing

by FRANKIE JARRELL
Ruidoso News Editor

Lynch, a multi-million dollar producer for the year, was named salesperson of the year, top producer of the year, hustler of the year and lister of the year. Lynch, the broker for Gary Lynch Realty, went on to take home the Pink Crane Award, an award that carries with it a traveling pink flamingo of unknown origin. "I'm not giving this one up," said Lynch with a big grin. Rookie of the year went to Ed LeBlanc of Coldwell Banker-SDC. "Let's Get On With The Show" was the theme for the variety show, planned and coordinated by Cindy Lynch, Realtor of the Year. Members of the Ruidoso Board of Realtors, who made a total of 664 sales during 1991 for a total of $41,052,197, let their hair down Friday and socked it to each other in a show stage a la "Laugh-In." Glen Crane of Lela Easter Real Estate and Doug Siddens of Coldwell Banker-SDC were masters of ceremony, and gave a whole new meaning to the expression "playing a little golf" in their mini-roles as golfing Realtors. Susan Miller of Century 21-Aspen Real Estate played the piano as more than a dozen real estate professionals danced and sang to "There's No Business Like Show Business." "Golfing in the Snow"

Area schools send a message to Santa Fe

by DIANNE STALLINGS
Ruidoso News Staff Writer
Collective bargaining for public employees and improved financial support for rural education districts topped the agenda Thursday during a meeting between members of the Ruidoso School Board and State Rep. John Underwood (D-Ruidoso). The meeting had been called by Underwood to consult the board before he leaves for the special session of the State Legislature, scheduled for January 21 in Santa Fe. School Supt. Mike Gladden said Underwood set a precedent by asking for the meeting.

JOHN UNDERWOOD

No state representative ever asked for a meeting before," agreed Board President Lynn Willard. His hair ruffled from the brisk wind outside, Underwood arrived a bit late. In his usual rapid-fire style, he told the audience of school administrators and teachers that the legislative session could be an important one for Ruidoso and other rural school districts in New Mexico. "Educational funding is being attacked, collective bargaining is becoming an issue," he said. "I met with Corona officials last night. Unless I meet with you, I don't know how to represent you on the issues and we'd be letting the state set the course of education in New Mexico." Willard said the board has been told it is likely Gov. Bruce King will sign a collective bargaining bill in 1992. But Underwood told board members his understanding is that only budget issues are to be discussed in the January special session. "We believe (collective bargaining) would be a real problem for a district our size and with our level of funding," Willard said. He's confused by King's seemingly pro-union stance on one hand and his wife, Alice King's Summit on Education goals on the other. "The board agrees entirely with those goals, but we think there's a conflict with collective bargaining," Willard said. "We feel we have representation from our staff now. We feel (collective bargaining has) no place in the public schools because the budget is fixed in the legislature. We have no way to increase it." "Twenty-four percent (of the local budget) goes for administration and programs and 76 percent for teachers salaries." If collective bargaining was initiated, the district would have to hire a negotiator for $15,000-$20,000 and each grievance filed would cost $3,000-$5,000 to process, Willard said. "You're talking money that could go to programs and staff salaries," he said. "I feel it would be a real hindrance to our education program." "We're asking you to vote no on

Police, school officials break up Mid School gang

by BUDDY BAKER
Ruidoso News Staff Writer
The spectre of teenage gangs has reared its ugly head in Ruidoso. However, due to firm responsible action by school officials coordinated with swift action by the Ruidoso Police Department, the threat has been eliminated, for now. The trouble began with the admission some months ago of a new student from out of state. According to police reports, that eighth grade student, Brian Campbell, came from an area where he had experienced being a part of and organizing gangs, began to organize a gang at Ruidoso Middle School. School and police authorities said that Campbell, who is now in custody awaiting a December 30 hearing before District Judge Richard A. Parsons, has great charisma and manipulative skills. Many of the students he recruited in both middle and high school were told that they were joining a club dedicated to social activities and protection — protection for younger children — it was never made clear from what the younger children were going to be protected. Initiation into the "Club" reportedly consisted of standing erect against the wall with the inductee's hands clasped behind their head and having Campbell hit them in the stomach area. One initiate was taken to the school nurse with broken ribs after such an induction, according to police records. Soon after this incident was discovered by Paula Papponi, principal of Ruidoso Middle School, Campbell was questioned by police. At that time it was hoped to have him admitted into a program for evaluation and help. Unfortunately this failed and he was soon back in the school exercising his organizational skills. In the meantime, Ruidoso Police Detective Sgt. Lanny Maddox, commander of the Criminal Investigation Division, was meeting with school officials and planning a strategy to combat the problem. He met with both Papponi and Ruidoso High School principal Michael Kakuska, and then had a three-hour session with students in both of the schools. All of the students that were suspected of having taken part in the gang were present. Meanwhile Campbell had allegedly attacked his mother and fled. A warrant was issued for his arrest and he was apprehended. Police recovered a "Daisy" air-pistol from Campbell that looks identical to a real 45 Automatic Colt Pistol. It would be impossible for an expert to reach a quick decision as to whether or not it was real, said police. Campbell is awaiting a hearing on December 30 to decide what action will be taken. Since Maddox met with the students and Campbell was arrested, sources in the student body say that the gangs are no longer present. Maddox was pleased with the cooperation that he received from the students in both schools. "We have some great kids," he said. "We got a lot of positive assistance from them." "We wanted the students to realize that, unlike large gang-ridden cities like Los Angeles, we have a handle on problems as they develop and are prepared to attack those problems at the core with the cooperation of school administrators," Maddox said. He emphasized in the meetings at both schools that gang members are not tough, but depend on other members to shore up their courage. Kakuska also was also pleased at the results. He said that it is nice to live and work in a community where the school and police can work together to solve a common problem. Principal Papponi of the middle school said she has 500 wonderful students and her greatest desire is to protect them. "I am thankful that we have

Boy stops explosive situation

A Ruidoso youngster found some dynamite Saturday and reported it to the police before it caused any damage. Scott Gossett, the 7-year-old son of Michael and Bobbie Gossett, 108 Santa Rosa, found some wires protruding from some rocks in a vacant lot behind his house. Police investigated, hauled the rock to the firing range and detonated it with another explosive. Scott was honored with a badge and a "Smoky" teddy bear from the State Police.

First prize winner will receive one hundred dollars, second prize is seventy five dollars, and third prize winner gets fifty dollars. For further information call 378-4422.

Emergency numbers listed

Emergency help is just a local phone call away for most areas of Lincoln County, says Maggie Bohks, emergency services coordinator for the county.

"During a recent county commission meeting, it was stated that for Agua Fria residents to reach their fire services, it would be a long distance call, but that's not the case," Bohks said.

She provided the following emergency numbers to reach law enforcement, fire and ambulance:

Alto, Alto Village, Bonito and Sun Valley.....	258-5608
Ancho, Carrizozo, Oscura, Three Rivers and White Oaks.....	911/648-2341

the village he feels that it is naive to have the village fight the battle at the federal level.

Councilor Bill Karn wasn't pleased.

"I think it is ridiculous to tie up all of our resources at the state level," said Karn.

"Governor King controls those agencies and I fail to see what they are checking on now. He (King) apparently misinterpreted our letter the first time and now does not want us to take our case to the feds," he added.

"That is totally illogical. We have seen no action from the state agencies."

Because the next scheduled meeting of the Village Council falls on New Years Eve, the Council will be meeting in special session at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, December 17, in council chambers at Ruidoso Municipal Administrative Center.

collective bargaining legislation. We don't feel this has a place in our school system."

If such legislation seems sure to pass, Willard asked Underwood to work to include a local option clause to leave the decision up to the staff.

"We don't want it mandated," Willard said. "We have enough mandates from the legislature."

Board member Susan Luterman said she understands the historic need for union representation in industries such as steel, coal and auto manufacturing.

"But the product here is our children. It could become organization versus education and there is no place in our school system for that (distraction)," she said.

Underwood said he believes in keeping the option open for teachers because situations differ from district to district.

"The decision to go into education is usually not a monetary thing. On the other hand, teachers do not want to be mistreated."

Collective bargaining should not be too appealing locally since Ruidoso teachers are in the top five in the state in terms of salaries, he said.

What bothers him is that he likes to draw circles on issues and unions like to draw lines, Underwood said.

Collective bargaining probably will be pushed through the legislature by votes from Albuquerque. But he may be able to use his vote and that of other rural areas as leverage for the inclusion of a local option clause, Underwood said.

Willard said the other major concern of the board is the decline in proportional state spending on education and the lopsided financial favoring in the funding formula of more heavily populated districts.

The educational share of the state's annual budget dropped last year to about 48 percent from 52 percent two years ago.

That much of a drop has a significant impact on the amount of money coming into the district, Willard said.

"I don't believe schools spend frivolously," he said. The Ruidoso

Substation could solve county fire worries

by DIANNE STALLINGS

Ruidoso News Staff Writer

A substation may solve the problem of fire protection response time for residents of subdivisions east of Ruidoso Downs.

A plea for help from Agua Fria and Palo Verde residents to the Lincoln County Commission last week resulted in a meeting with fire inspector David Rubio from the state fire marshal's office, said county manager Nick Pappas.

"They're thinking about the fire marshal's office authorizing a substation in the general area of Fox Cave, that's about seven miles from Ruidoso Downs and seven miles from the existing Glencoe fire station," Pappas said. "The Palo Verde-Glencoe volunteer fire department has a truck to put there, but they will need to recruit people for the station."

"The fire district will receive extra money, $9,000, from the state to operate the station. It could be serving the unincorporated area by January 1 with the adoption of a resolution by the commission at its meeting Tuesday (December 17)."

The problem with fire protection came to light two weeks ago when Agua Fria and Palo Verde residents appealed to Ruidoso Downs trustees. They asked the village to allow the Downs department to respond to fires in the subdivisions even though the developments fall within the Glencoe district.

The Downs station is five miles away from the subdivisions compared to the Glencoe station, which is about 12 miles further east.

In the meeting with the county commission, subdivision spokesman Gerald Ames said for years residents assumed they were part of the Ruidoso Downs fire district. They were unaware that when the Glencoe department was reactivated 1 1/2 years ago, the subdivisions fell under that department's protection.

Residents said if the Ruidoso Downs fire district was expanded to include Agua Fria and Palo Verde subdivisions, they feared the trustees might try to use the service as leverage to annex the developments.

They do not want to be annexed into Ruidoso Downs and pay higher property taxes for unimproved service, Ames said. But the Downs has indicated that it would have to be paid to act as backup for Glencoe for fires in Palo Verde or Agua Fria.

Ames told commissioners it would be financially foolish to build another substation when Ruidoso Downs is so close. But that appears to be the quickest and most workable solution in Rubio's view, Pappas said.

A meeting between Glencoe fire chief Angel Chavez and residents of the two subdivisions scheduled for last Thursday was canceled. But Chavez plans to be at the commission meeting Tuesday, December 17.

Meanwhile, a petition is being circulated by area residents, which could act as a trigger for the resolution, Pappas noted in a letter to the commissioners included in their meeting packet. He added that a second substation conceivably could be established in San Patricio.

Pappas also has included in the commission packet a letter from the Ruidoso Fire Department, which proposed to take official responsibility for fighting fires in four unincorporated pockets around the village. In exchange they would expect the county to pay an annual payment and a per run charge to offset the cost of the service.

Pappas told The Ruidoso News that he received a Ruidoso delegation (including village manager Ron Wicker) last week to discuss what to do about those areas that have been receiving fire protection from the Ruidoso village fire department.

Village officials have indicated that the arrangement must end unless the department is financially compensated, Pappas said. It would affect Carrizo Canyon, Cherokee Bill Canyon, Paradise Heights and Cedar Creek. "Ruidoso has been saying that with budget restraints, they can't run down there," Pappas said. In a report by Barry B. Cole, the department listed 29 responses out of jurisdiction in 1990 and 12 through April 30, 1991.

"Some of the options are for the county to get a cooperative agreement with Ruidoso, pay them a flat annual fee for coverage or pay them on a per call basis."

Pappas said another option is for departments that cross district lines under a contract agreement to fight a fire to bill the home owner's insurance company independently for $250-$500 as the cost for responding, he said.

"It's done a lot in other states. That's how many departments make their money," Pappas said.

"They could bill for the response, buy a truck and station it at the Ruidoso fire house just to respond to those areas, or they could set up a substation."

Other possibilities discussed during his meeting with Ruidoso representatives and Rubio were for those unincorporated areas to be annexed by the village, for the residents to form their own fire districts and for the county to buy a truck and pay the Ruidoso department $20,000 a year for two firemen to respond to fires.

and "Beer Gut" featuring the "unknown soloist."

While MLS members sold more than $44 million in property this year, they produced much more than that since production is calculated on the basis of both sales and listings sold. For instance, a $50,000 listing sold by the agent would earn $50,000 for listing sold and $50,000 for a sale for a total production figure of $100,000.

Lynch was among nine multi-million dollar producers honored Friday. They are Karon Z. Petty, Doug Siddens, Peggy Jordan, Bill Rickard, Richard Loverin, Susan Miller, Wayland Burk and Jackie Covington.

Million dollar producers include Sue Taylor, Lisa Dinkins, Kathy Garber, Nancy Lore, Cindy K. Lynch, Scott L. Roser, Joe Zagone, Marge Woodul, Bill Pippin, Harvey Foster, Barbara Willard, Glen Crane, Frank Kolb, Joel Rutten, Jackie Donahue, Rose Peebles, Alyce Van Tussenbroek, Gary Caughron, Patricia Paulger and Carolyn Henson.

Also Friday, Citizen of the Year Steve Stroud was introduced. He was presented with that title earlier in the year by the Board of Realtors.

Nominees for the rookie of the year award included Bill Newman and Sherry Turner.

For lister of the year, nominees were Richard Loverin and Susan Miller.

Miller also was runner up for hustler of the year.

Top producer finalists were Miller, Richard Loverin and Karon Z. Petty.

Nominated for salesperson of the year, were Miller, Petty and Doug Siddens.

Wayland Burk and Siddens were the other finalists for the Pink Crane Award.

Jenny Hart was the curtain girl and Carol and Dennis Martin provided dance music after the show and awards.

"What's happened is that politics got into the act. It's like a mobile, tug on part and it all starts to move," he said. Since he has joined the legislature, he has seen that "for every action, there's an over-reaction."

On a positive note, Underwood said he sees party lines dissolving in the legislature's renewed dedication to education.

"Perhaps the true wall is between the rural and urban instead of between political parties," Underwood said.

Gladden, several teachers and administrators said the legislature needs to live up to the tenets of an education bill passed in 1986. That bill established several mandates, such as smaller class sizes, but the legislature failed to approve the money necessary to carry out those goals, they said.

One of the areas is all day kindergarten, which already is an option that is attractive to Ruidoso, but not properly financed by the state, Gladden said.

If the legislature wants districts to move to all-day kindergarten classes and half day classes for four-year-old children, it needs to allow districts to set their own timing and must provide enough money, he said.

A child taken care of well as a four-year-old won't require the security-related expenses in later years, said Nob Hill Elementary principal Roger Sowder.

"I think they will see the results in years to come," he said.

"I feel a tremendous change in elected officials," Underwood said. "I think they're hearing from people at home that voters are tired of the government spending on everything but education. The legislature has implemented only about one-third of the projects contained in the senate education bill enacted five or six years ago."

If legislators do not respond, they could wake up in 1995 "and everybody will have moved way past us," he said.

Underwood still would like to see the state enact a lottery and video gambling bill to help finance education, health and social services.

"If the hall has been dropped, it's been in those two areas," he said.

Money is tight in the state budget, but enough is there to do the necessary job, Underwood said.

"When my personal checkbook is tight, I tend to take care of the things that are a necessity and life is simpler. Money is available for those."

Underwood invited school or community groups to visit the legislature. Contact his office to arrange for passes and copies of bills being considered.

"Part of the problem is that people have a very unreal expectation of what one person can do when elected," Underwood said. "I'm only one. There's 112 others. I work hard and try to catch them early in the morning when they're more likely to go along with what I want."

But he's bothered by surveys that show a heavy majority of voters consider their state legislators unethical. He urged voters not to abandon their legislators after electing them, but to take an active role on issues.

Sugarbaker leads Christmas pet parade

by DIANNE STALLINGS
Ruidoso News Staff Writer

A tan, curly-haired cocker spaniel with a loving, gentle nature is this week's prime candidate for adoption at the Lincoln County Humane Society shelter.

Sugarbaker is a neutered, three-year-old male, who is good with children and other dogs.

"He was kept outside by his previous owners, but should really be an indoor dog," shelter manager Randy Basch said.

"He is not housebroken, but cockers are intelligent and agreeable. He's very neat in his cage and I don't think it would take long with some attention and loving reinforcement."

Sugarbaker was released to the shelter by his former owners about two weeks ago.

Since he already is neutered, his adoption fee will be $27.50 to cover his rabies shot and city license.

Sugarbaker is one of three purebred, buff-colored cocker spaniels in the shelter, Basch said. Two more were brought in Tuesday out of a total of 18 new animals dumped by uncaring owners. Thirteen were puppies, Basch said.

A promotion to encourage the adoption of the dogs and cats in the overcrowded shelter is set for 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday, December 18, Basch said.

"Everything adopted that day will be sponsored for neutering and spaying," he said. That cost is the major expense associated with adoption.

The society requires all animals adopted from the shelter to be neutered and spayed to prevent the production of more unwanted litters that may be abandoned or have to be destroyed.

This past month, the shelter has been inundated with unwanted puppies from owners who failed to have their pets altered. They dump the playful pups at Basch's door, even though they know that adoptions are limited, especially in the winter.

The pace has been steady, eight animals on Monday, 18 on Tuesday and four before noon on Thursday, and most were puppies.

During the same period, only two animals were adopted.

To try to reduce the numbers in the shelter and find loving homes for the animals, the promotion December 18 will include many more extras.

"A person will be able to adopt a fine companion for the cost of the rabies shot and city license," Basch said. "They not only will receive a free neutering procedure for their new pet, the animal also will be given a free grooming from Hondo Valley Kennels and a free physical examination from area veterinarians. The owners will receive a free leash and training book, a free video rental from Video U.S.A., a free pizza giant slice from Pizza Rio and a 10 percent discount on animal accessories at Clutter's Pet Shop.

And for coming out to see the animals, Daylight Donuts and Furr's have donated coffee and doughnuts."

The residents of the shelter include golden retrievers, a black flat coated retriever, a rough collie, several shepherd mixes, a greyhound, a hunting hound, many blue heeler mixes, a leopard dog-heeler mix, a white terrier, a white spaniel mix and several other types.

The selection in the cattery is equally as broad in color, hair length, size and type.

For more information about Sugarbaker or any of the other dogs and cats, call Basch at 257-9841 or stop at the shelter on Gavilan Canyon Road.

County wants to know more on N-waste plan

by DIANNE STALLINGS
Ruidoso News Staff Writer

Representatives of the Mescalero Apache Indian Tribe have been invited to the Lincoln County Commission meeting Tuesday to present new information about the possible storage of nuclear waste on the reservation adjoining Ruidoso.

The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. in the commission room of the county courthouse in Carrizozo.

The commission has been asked by Dave Dale, organizer of the Sacramento environmental group, to approve a resolution opposing the construction on the reservation of a monitored retrievable storage (MRS) facility. The MRS would house spent nuclear rods from power plants primarily along the East Coast.

Also on the agenda, Bob Grassburn, from the New Mexico State University extension service, will update the commission on the status of the Iron Horse study he is coordinating. The Iron Horse is a proposed railroad to connect the airport with tourist and commercial centers around the Ruidoso area.

The meeting Tuesday looks like a long one. Some of the other agenda items include:

—A report by the road review committee on five streets in Alto Village that the county says it is unable during the winter to maintain because of steep grades.

The commission has received a letter from the attorney representing the Alto Lakes Golf & Country Club protesting the wording on signs the county installed that warn drivers to travel at their own risk. The Alto residents contend the signs are detrimental and unnecessarily detract from the value of property in Alto.

—Employee health insurance. The commission is being asked to pay a larger portion or 100 percent of the premiums for the insurance.

—A request for commissioners to consider increasing ambulance rates in the county and for setting aside a portion of the property tax levy each year for the purchase of ambulances and other major equipment on a regular basis.

—A review of the county's 1990-91 fiscal year audit and the administration's response to cited deficiencies.

—A review of short and long range improvements for county facilities and how they may be financed.

—A proposed amendment to the county's purchasing policy based on an attorney general's opinion that commissions, under the state's Open Meetings Act, may not approve unauthorized purchases by telephone.

Ruidoso State Bank President Tom Battin announced the promotion of Ann Phillips to Loan Administration Officer and Jean Stoddard to Personnel Office.

Ann Phillips worked as a private consultant for several years before joining Ruidoso State Bank in November.

Phillips' 17 years of lending experience includes work with the Farmers Home Administration, Ruidoso Bank Corporation and a previous tenure at Ruidoso State Bank. She currently serves on the New Mexico Small Business Administration Advisory Council.

Jean Stoddard joined Ruidoso State Bank in June of this year as secretary to the president.

Stoddard previously spent 10 years in loan operations at the Smith County State Bank and Trust Company in Smith Center, Kansas.

"We are proud of the experience and expertise that Ann and Jean offer our customers," said Battin.

Frank Crawley of Crawley Construction was voted "Builder of the Year" when Lincoln County Home Builders Association installed new officers for 1992 last Tuesday during the group's annual Christmas party at the Swiss Chalet in Ruidoso.

Glen Remington of Remington Homes is LCHBA's new president, and Bob Dolgener of Eagle Creek Construction will fill the vice president slot. Carol Lynn Phelps, from C&L Lumber, is the new secretary-treasurer.

Jerry Holder was named "Associate of the Year."

Tim Hoyt of Blue Spruce Construction was recognized during the meeting at the president of the state organization.

EDCLC board meets in Corona

The Economic Development Corporation of Lincoln County (EDCLC) had its November board meeting in Corona.

Prior to the meeting, the board toured Huey's Metal Service Center, an expanding manufacturing plant located in Corona and servicing the southwestern United States.

Members of the EDCLC board were impressed with the quality of workmanship, the diversification in products and the pride the Huey family has in their small but growing business.

EDCLC has headquarters in the Stroud Building on Mechem Drive.

EDCLC members and others on hand for the group's November meeting in Corona pose for a picture at Huey's Metal Service Center.

Clarification

Steve Gordon, whose wife, Paula Gordon, owns and operates Paulette's Intimate Apparel in LeClaire's Mountain Village, wants everyone to know that Paulette's will be open late on Christmas Eve for last minute shoppers.

Gordon also said the apparel shop is fully stocked with a good selection of lingerie, and is not a catalog store, even though catalogs are available, along with the merchandise in stock.

Local named to state board

L. Ray Nunley has been appointed to the State Nursing Board by Governor Bruce King.

Nunley, a long-time Ruidoso resident, is the pharmacist at Wal-Mart Pharmacy.

He is active in community and civic affairs, including the Lion's Club.

Local H&R Block office wins Award of Excellence

The Ruidoso office of H & R Block recently received the Award of Excellence as the outstanding office in the Alamogordo district. The award was presented to David and Cynthia Whatley, owners of the Ruidoso office, during the annual owners convention in Albuquerque.

According to a news release, attendees from New Mexico and Texas spent several days with corporate executives discussing tax changes for the coming season. Emphasis was given to expansion of the IRS electronic filing system and the Rapid Refund Program offered by Block.

Whatley said the refund system worked very well this year with many area residents using the service. He expects the service to be even better this coming year.

Social security number requirements expanded

One or more of your tax dependents may need a social security number for the first time this year.

According to a news release, for 1991, you must show on your federal tax return the social security numbers of all dependents who are age one or older by the end of the year. The age was two or older for 1990 returns.

If you have a dependent without a social security number, you can obtain one by filing Form SS-5 with the Social Security Administration.

Capitol meeting

Jonathan Morgan of Bosque Farms, Michael Blackwell of Roswell, Sen. Bingaman, Ward and Jennifer Daniels of Roswell. NYLC is sponsored by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, an organization that brings outstanding students to Washington to see the process of government first-hand.

Area construction is up for the month, down for the year

by BUDDY BAKER
Ruidoso News Staff Writer

Construction permits issued by the Village of Ruidoso in November increased over November last year, but the year to date total is lagging behind 1990.

The 11-month figure for 1990 was $9,320,676 while during the same period this year $8,253,637 in construction permits have been issued.

This indicates a drop of $1,067,039 or 11 percent for the year to date from the 1990 figure.

Comparing last month with November 1990 shows that single family construction was off 32 percent at $508,000.

Residential additions and alterations increased 50 percent to $163,480.

New commercial construction last month was $170,000, while there was nothing in this category in 1990. Commercial additions and alterations more than doubled at $54,000, while condominium construction was $95,000 compared to none in 1990.

State-wide figures show that for the first eight months of this year, construction starts are off 21 percent from the same period in 1990. In Ruidoso for the same period they were off 18 percent, indicating that the area is holding its own in a declining state economy.

Noted among the November permits was one for $91,184 issued to Clem Clutter to repair damage sustained in September to his pet store and office.

Following are the permits issued in November with the owner, contractor, address, type of construction and estimated costs listed:

Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

WASHINGTON —A nutrition organization was hopeful that a nutritionally complete "hi-tech" food tablet would help erase world hunger problems, until a study revealed that one of the ingredients could cause significant weight loss.

Although other studies and scientists may not agree, researchers in Europe found that the ingredient, a natural plant colloid, actually caused people to lose weight, even though specifically instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, according to one study published in the prestigious British Journal of Nutrition. Researchers in an earlier study had speculated that the weight loss was due to a decrease in the intestinal absorption of calories.

While the project of National Dietary Research, aptly named Food Source One, would not be used to successfully fulfill its original goal, the formula which has since been improved with other natural colloids has been a windfall for some overweight people. A Daytona Beach, Florida woman fighting a weight battle for 12 years used the product on the recommendation of her physician and lost 30 pounds. She stated, "Not only have I lost 30 pounds but my cholesterol has dropped from 232 to 143. I have two closets full of clothes which have not fit me in two years that I can now wear." In a separate report, a telephone interview revealed that a Wilmington, North Carolina pharmacist lost 14 pounds in 3 weeks on the product and was never hungry.

Food Source One tablets are part of National Dietary Research's comprehensive plan to bring a rapid end to obesity in this country. A variety of nutritionally sound diet plans, specially prepared by NDR, accompany each bottle and provide a natural, drug free alternative for confronting the problem of obesity.

Downs celebrates Christmas with a party

The Christmas spirit filled the community of Ruidoso Downs Thursday night as young and old alike gathered to celebrate the holiday and meet with the jolly old man in red.

The Ruidoso Downs Ladies Auxiliary planned the event which included the lighting of the community Christmas tree, several numbers by the Sierra Stombers of Nancy Shaver's dance studio, carols by the whole audience and requests for Santa Claus. Evelyn Jenkins provided Christmas music on the organ for the group.

Slick Graham and his group also performed for the guests to dance. The band called Kicking Country includes Pat, Hoyt and Dale Graham and Arnold Adams. Special guests Stacy Wozny and Joe Moore, Ruidoso High School students, also performed.

Auxiliary president Shirlene Fitzner said she was really pleased with the turn out for the first community Christmas party. She said they hope they will be able to improve it for future years.

Santa's arrival at 7:30 p.m. highlighted the night as children lined up to tell him what they wanted for Christmas. The true meaning of Christmas was not lost, though, as the Rev. Michael Bush of the Ruidoso Downs Baptist Church told the group to sing happy birthday to Jesus on Christmas morning.

The auxiliary made sacks of peanuts and fruit for the children. They also provided refreshments for the celebration.

Kendra Martin (upper left) waits for Santa Claus to arrive at the Ruidoso Downs community Christmas party Thursday night. Santa (left) is escorted into the party by Downs Mayor Bonnie Addy. After settling into a chair, Santa (above) meets a few of the youngsters and finds out if they have been naughty or nice.

'Tis the season

Kindergarten students in the classes of Eva Clarke and Connie Forrest performed for parents Friday during one of Nob Hill's Christmas programs. They sang, recited and shook out a rhythm with bells and maracas.

Sharing memories of Christmas past

Snow Decorates Our Mountain For Christmas

This is being sent to you on December 12, and all the Vale is fresh and bright under a blue sky, after a full day of steady rain.

It snowed all day on the mountain on the 11, forming a complete gown of pure white, shining pearly and gold under a bright sun, in celebration of Christmastide in the mountain land.

Here in the Vale the Christmas spirit is bright and cheery all through the shining piñons and cedars. A light west wind is singing a Christmas song through the branches of the river trees, and Mother Earth is whispering a prayer of welcome for the approaching birthday of our Infant Saviour.

The Cedar Home For the Nativity

Forty years ago our mother was preparing the Church of Saint Anne in Glencoe for Christmas. Our friend Elfego Polaco was helping us. Mother and small figures of Joseph, Mary and the Christ Child that had been a feature of our Christmas celebration for many years.

Elfego said, "I am going to bring you a little home for sacred little ones—a Nacimiento."

Nacimiento is the Spanish word for Manger scene or Nativity scene.

A few days later Elfego brought a little shelter fashioned with Cedar boughs, about a foot and a half high with an arched roof. We placed a small electric bulb inside for a star shining down upon the sacred figures. Then we placed this inside the church. The next year Elfego showed me how to make this little shelter, and for every year since that first time, the little Cedar Nativity Home was been placed in the Church.

by Daniel Agnew Storm

This past summer Elfego Polaco was called Home by Our Lord. Today I send up a prayer to thank to Elfego in Heaven. His spirit will be there in the church on Christmas day rejoicing with the spirits of our Mother and all our loved ones.

Memories of Early Christmas Days

Today as I look out to the hillsides full of close-growing piñons and cedars, and a few pine fir up near the top of the mountain, while I see these hosts of live Christmas trees and inhale their Christmas fragrance—through memory's miracles I am back fifty one years ago under my first Christmas tree at the age of a little over one year of age.

This was in our little home in Valdez, Alaska. The snow was high outside and the wind was singing around the eaves of the house. The Christmas tree reached high into the room, and to my young eyes seem to take the whole room. It was a Sitka Spruce, to our own blue and ingleman and silver spruce.

The tinsel and shining ornaments we see on our Christmas trees today were on this tree, along with long strings of cranberrys, and paper chains, also still popular today.

The tree was lighted by small candles in tin holders fastened to the twigs of the tree. The candle flames baked out the fragrant incense of the tree which filled the room. It seems that fragrance is in the little sun room with me right now as I send you these messages an hour after high noon, after 71 years. Today the Christmas lights which have replaced the candles through the years, give off enough heat to bring the same evergreen incense into the room.

I was surrounded by candy canes, home made fudge, and a little musical instrument made of small metal pieces of different lengths which you played with a small hammer. A colorful musical top whirled and played a Christmas tune. There was a little drum of singing greenish blue, and a little red horn. My brother John was there and Father and Mother. Their voices singing to the accompaniment of the small portable church organ echoed through the room.

Outside the windows the snow birds are singing themselves on the bare twigs of the Apricot tree—my companions of life ever since my first Christmas.

Little Corina, the Storm Ranch cat, is dozing in the sun right next to her window. Clouds are moving in overhead casting the Vale in Christmas mood of sunshine and shadow.

All the mountain world is rejoicing at the approach of the Birthday of Our Infant Saviour. Let us all join together in the sacred joy of Christmastide, and in gratefulness to God.

Nice to meet you Santa!

A little girl discusses with Santa Claus what she would like for Christmas at the Ruidoso Downs Christmas party Thursday night. Many youngsters had the opportunity to get their requests in to the busy man and in return got a bag full of goodies.

RHS cagers take third in tourney

The Ruidoso Warriors boys basketball team got off to a great start to the season with a third place finish in the Cotton Classic Tournament at Hagerman this weekend.

The Warriors played their first round game on Thursday against Eunice and came up with a 77 to 66 win after three close quarters. The team dominated the boards with 44 rebounds and had 23 steals.

"This was a great way to start the season. It was a lot of fun," coach Norman Wright said.

Eric Evans and Wally Murillo led the way in scoring with 20 points each. Jaime Ordorica scored 14 points in the game. Evans also had 16 rebounds.

Murillo had 10 rebounds as did Jeff Cox. Ordorica, Murillo and Robert Sayner each had four assists in the game. Murillo also led the team with eight steals followed by Ordorica with five and Evans with four.

The next round of the competition put the Warriors up against the host team Hagerman. The Warriors came up on the short end by three, losing 56 to 59.

Wright said the team was in foul trouble the whole game and shot poorly, including a missed three pointer at the buzzer that would have tied the game.

"It was a very disappointing game after a great start on Thursday. We've got to learn to play with more emotion and enthusiasm to make things happen on the court,"

Wright said. Sayner was the high scorer for the game with 16 points including 10 of 11 free throws. Evans had 12 points. Jeff Chapman had eight rebounds, and Murillo had seven. Murillo also had five steals.

The Warriors finished the tournament strong with a win against Elida, 73-66, for the third place win.

"We started slowly, but a steal and a dunk by Eric Evans ignited us in the second quarter. We dominated the second half. It was a good comeback after Friday night's loss. Our press forced 30 turnovers for Elida," Wright said.

Evans was the high scorer with 22 points while Ordorica had 14, and Sayner had 10. Evans also led the way in rebounds with 11 followed by Cox with eight. Murillo had seven.

Cox had five assists, and Sayner had four. Murillo had seven steals, followed closely by Evans with six.

Evans and Sayner also earned places on the all-tournament team. Evans had a total of 54 points, 32 rebounds and 12 steals. Sayner had 31 points, 12 assists and made 13 of 15 free throws.

Warrior basketball fans will have a treat Friday as the team plays Artesia at home. Tip-off will be at 5:30 p.m. with junior varsity and varsity games. The team will then have a break until Jan. 2 when the Wildcat Classic begins in Lovington.

Warrior girls place fourth at Carlsbad meet

The Warrior girls basketball team had a good weekend at the Carlsbad tournament and placed fourth out of eight teams and had a player named to the all-tournament team.

The Warriors won the first game of the tournament by beating Lovington in a close one. The final score was 49-47. The top scorer for this game was Kansas Miranda with 22 followed by Amy Wishard with 10. Michelle Morris had five.

The team then went on to play Carlsbad but lost by the score of 51-

28. At half time the Warriors were only down by eight. Top scorers for the game were Wishard with nine, Cicelee Makowski with seven and Morris with six.

The girls then played Roswell for their fourth place finish. Again the game was close at half time with the girls down by six. The final score for the game was 25-46.

Miranda was top scorer with 10, followed by Wishard with eight. Lalena Valliant had six points. For all the games Miranda and Wishard led the way in rebounding. In the game against Roswell Makowski had four rebounds.

Miranda was also named to the all-tournament team.

"We played well, but the other teams caught up with us at the end," Coach Jody Blanton said.

"We had a good weekend. It was just another tough tournament. Carlsbad and Roswell are both big 4A schools. Our biggest problem was that we just couldn't shoot well," she said.

Blanton said the girls were taking the shots they should have, but they just couldn't hit the basket.

The team was able to cut down on the number of turnovers which was a goal they had set, Blanton said.

The team will have a break in games until Jan. 4 when they face Goddard for a second time this season. The next home game will be Jan. 9 against Artesia.

Blanton said the girls do need a break because they haven't had the time to review the film of the games and evaluate what corrections need to be made. She said some of the girls also need a break because they didn't get one between playing volleyball and starting basketball.

Matmen come on strong at Cobre

The Ruidoso Warrior Wrestling team competed in the Cobre Invitational Tournament this weekend. The Warriors were led by Poncho Portillo at 160 pounds.

Portillo won all three of his matches defeating Rodriguez of Cobre and Maese of Mayfield by pins. In the finals Portillo defeated Nabor of Morencia by a close score of 7-6. Portillo was Ruidoso's first champion this year.

Shane Eidson also was impressive defeating Silver City's Salas who was the 20 team Las Cruces champion on Dec. 6 and 7. Eidson then lost to Jaquez of Gadsen by a pin resulting in a second place finish for Eidson.

Eidson wrestled very well in his first outing of the year, said coach Gerald Ames. Sam Gumbert also finished second at 130 pounds, by avenging an earlier loss to Rudy Lucero of Silver City. Gumbert pinned Lucero in four minutes and 36 seconds. He then lost to Zeek Torrez in the finals ending a very successful tournament for Gumbert.

He is coming along very quickly for a first year wrestler, Ames said.

Wrestlers who finished with a 1-2 tournament record.

Contributing to the 64 points earned by Ruidoso were Gunner Johnson (103), Jerry Romero (125), Chris Carusona (135), Mario Sanchez (189). This team point total is the highest scored by the Warriors in the Cobre tournament in the last three years.

Also gaining experience in their tournament were Jose Pierto (0-2), Victor Cocchiola (0-2), Joe Zinn (0-2).

Ames said this year's team has been very strong considering their youth and lack of experience. He said the competition this weekend was the first time since 1986 that the Warriors have had three men in the finals of a major tournament.

The tournament was dominated by the strongest teams in the southern part of the state and was a good experience and test for the young Warrior wrestling team, Ames said.

The winner in the eight team tournament was Mayfield with 148 points. Ruidoso was eighth with 64 points, but was only four points behind number seven Las Cruces which had 68.

The next action the Warriors will see will be on Jan. 4 at the Oñate Invitational in Las Cruces.

Hondo wins its season opener

The Hondo basketball teams are off to a good start this season with a victory against Corona last week.

In the boys' game, Hondo won 49 to 43 with the top scorer, Fermin Herrera, making 13 points. Herrera, who is a sophomore, also had three assists in the game. Top rebounder was James Salas, a junior, with 14 rebounds.

The Hondo boys team is young and has no seniors out this year, but they do have a 1-1 record for the season. The new coach is Dan Pendergrass.

The girls team also has a new coach, Kay Sharbutt, who has led them to a 2-1 record for the season. The team soundly defeated Corona by the score of 40 to 26.

The top scorer in the game was Erica Copeland, a freshman, with 16 points. She also had one assist on the night. The top rebounder was Celena Copeland, a senior, with five rebounds and one assist. Melissa Montoya, a senior, also had one assist during the victory.

Curry presented some proposed goals of the organization.

EDILBERTO MATE ANOVER JR. of Ruidoso will be leaving for Army basic training after Christmas.

The Ruidoso soldier graduated from high school in Wilmington, California, and attended L.A. Harbor Junior College in Harbor City, California. He decided to join the Army "to serve my country."

For more details about Army jobs for high school graduates, call Staff Sergeant Juan Ortiz at 437-8973 in Alamogordo.

SantaCops busy

In the last days before Christmas SantaCops activity is reaching a fever pitch. Ruidoso Police Detective Cpl. Lou Wardwell, coordinator for the program, praises the community for the active support shown the program this season.

More than a 100 people attended a variety show on Friday evening and donated $252. The program was a showcase of Ruidoso talent. Masters of ceremony were Betty Bennett and Cem McClellan.

One of the highlight events of SantaCops season took place Sunday evening with the children's party at the Elk's Lodge. Santa paid a visit and talked to all of the children. Hot dogs with fixings were served, and the children were presented with a gift bag. Before departing to the North Pole Santa paid a visit to several children at the hospital.

SantaCops volunteers shopped at Wal-Mart after the party in order to help Santa. Wal-Mart opened the store to accommodate the shoppers.

Upcoming events include a pot luck supper at SantaCops workshop, Sierra Mall, on Tuesday evening. Afterwards SantaCops will wrap packages and assemble food boxes. Delivery of gifts and food boxes begins this weekend.

DERMATOLOGY NOTES

ACNE is the scourge of teenagers and sometimes of women in their 40's. The most important thing to do is find a program that controls the problem and stick to it. Fundamentally important to the treatment is washing the skin morning and night with a good antibacterial soap and then not picking at it. If this by itself is not enough there are some over the counter preparations of benzoyl peroxide that should be applied at night after washing. Cystic acne can result in permanent scarring of the skin. So if simple measures do not control this infectious disease go to your doctor who may put you on an antibiotic and or Retin A. If that is not enough he may elect to put you on the drug Accutane which is the only thing available that really can cure the problem. This drug has to be used with extreme caution in females since it causes birth defects in 100% of babies born to women who take the drug in early pregnancy.

Don't drive drunk

How easy it is to get in a car, turn the key in the ignition and turn that big piece of metal into a killing machine. That's just what happens when anyone whose judgment is impaired by alcohol or other drugs gets behind the wheel of a car.

This newspaper wants the public to know as much as possible about drinking and driving — what driving under the influence (DUI) means, what happens when you're arrested and how the police and court systems work in the case of DUI. That's why we've used so much time and space to educate our readers about drinking and driving in our recent series by staff writer Buddy Baker.

These are some of things the DUI series showed:

—There's no magic amount of liquor and drugs that makes you "drunk" or over the legal limit; it depends on your metabolism, so just be aware that alcohol and drugs go right into your blood and affect your ability to react and make decisions.

—If you're stopped for DUI, you immediately lose the privilege of driving, and you can lose your vehicle if you're convicted.

—Being arrested for DUI will be the most expensive drink you've ever had — costing from $300 on up.

—A lot of people arrested for DUI spend some time in jail, and in every case their lives are impacted by the loss of a driver's license, the expense, the time in jail and/or in the First Offender's driving class.

We know that many people who are arrested are embarrassed by having their name in the arrest log and published in police and court reports in the newspaper.

Well, those are the bad things, but here's the good part: we have a choice, and that choice is simple — drink and drive or don't.

Choose not to drive under the influence — designate a driver, call a friend, stay home when you drink or don't drink at all.

It's time to put the brakes on the drunk driving problems that plague this state.

Louisians couple changes retirement plans

TO THE EDITOR:

We have taken several trips to the west over the past three years in search of a place to spend a large part of the rest of our lives. After carefully considering Montrose and Durango, Colorado, and Santa Fe and Silver City, New Mexico, we drove into the beautiful mountain Village of Ruidoso this past summer. In this exquisite town, we found friendly people, affordable housing, gorgeous vistas, great weather — simply put, we found THE place we wanted to live.

Immediately we contacted a Realtor who began to search for both a home and business for us to purchase. We were seriously making plans to come to Ruidoso. That's when we came back to Louisiana and put our home on the market — Then we read of Mr. Wendell Chino's plans to turn this beautiful area into a nuclear waste dump.

We changed our plans.

Oh, most everyone thinks that Mr. Chino just wanted the money for the feasibility study — most everyone thinks that's the case, but we don't know that for sure. Mr. Chino has the perfect right to do whatever he wants on the land over which he has dominion. It should stop there, but we can't be sure it will.

So, we will take our plans and our investment dollars elsewhere.

Who loses? Everyone. We lose our magnificent mountain paradise. Ruidoso loses two people who would buy, pay taxes, etc. The state loses revenue. The Inn of the Mountain Gods loses; we won't eat there now. Ski Apache loses; we won't go there now. Yes, everyone loses. How sad for all of us.

Opposition growing over N-waste storage

TO THE EDITOR:

Wow! Oppose the Mescalero Apache Nuclear Waste Dump (MRS) and you lose your name. Kill you, mug you, shoot you, cut your phone lines, take away your job, a small price to pay for expressing your opinion as a free person.

Is this really America, NO! Enough is enough. Patience is soon to expire. The ratcheting-up of emotions is approaching critical mass.

Millions of Americans and thousands of Native Americans are about to be seen, felt and heard on the horizon. Americans and Native Americans are joining hands to oppose the MRS site. The bonding between the people is consistent with identification of a common enemy, MRS and those who support it.

The reservation vacuum which allowed the human rights violations to occur has been transformed into a fish bowl with many eyes peering in. Political violence had best be carefully evaluated.

A recent poll taken on the Mescalero reservation by a tribal member showed 95 percent of the people opposed the MRS. They are afraid to stand up against the leadership's pro MRS position. Fear with due cause.

No one has the sovereign right to unilaterally initiate a deadly MRS site anywhere. Sovereignty without responsibility will soon perish from the earth, and it will. The MRS is a devastating and permanent danger to all living things. Anyone, or any people who support MRS or any nuclear waste dump are the most vile enemies of Nature.

Nuclear Waste Dumps are Nature's Holocaust.

Dog owner is paying fine, but under protest

TO THE EDITOR:

I am sending my $16 for court cost on the vicious dog charge that I was found guilty of in Judge (Harold) Mansell's (Village of Ruidoso Downs) court. I am paying this fine under protest because I was told for one month by the judge that he could not hear this case, since it involved other city employees. Three days before the trial, I was told that he would hear the case. Whose decision was this? I will never know.

I was going to appeal this decision, but since it is Christmas, I am going to put my money where it will make someone happy.

Since I know my dog is not vicious, and Judge Mansell also knows this to be true, since he has met her and has petted her. I am very confident that my dog will harm no one unless she is harmed by them.

She has never been loose nor has she ever been accused of being loose.

The fact is that my private property was intruded on by an uninvited person.

Please be content that a tax paying resident of 20 years has been hurt by unfair politics in your city court.

Judy Miller
Ruidoso Downs

EDITORS NOTE:

Mansell was unsure if he could hear the case because the complainant is married to a village trustee, upon checking with other judges and an attorney/Judge/Mansell learned that, as the elected Municipal Judge, it was his responsibility to hear the case. Mansell said he simply ruled according to the Village ordinance.

Brighten holidays at Assurance Home

TO THE EDITOR:

The children, staff and board of directors of Assurance Home are deeply grateful for the support and kindness shown to our children during the holidays and all through the year.

Since the holidays can be an especially painful and lonely time for the abused and neglected children we serve, we are asking everyone to remember our children again this year when mailing out Christmas cards.

This gesture of care and concern that our children receive from the community goes a long way in helping make this season a brighter one.

Christmas cards may be mailed to:

Any bid may be submitted with the intent to qualify the Bonds for municipal bond insurance. If the Bonds are qualified for municipal bond insurance and the successful bidder desires to purchase municipal bond insurance, premium and disclosure costs and expenses associated with acquisition of municipal bond insurance will be the sole responsibility of the successful bidder.

The best bid for the Bonds will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid, if any, from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of the Bonds to their maturity dates at the interest rate or rates specified in the bid and Bonds will be awarded on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the District.

The Bonds will be awarded to the best bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any, and subject to the right of the Board to reject all bids. If there are two or more equal bids at not less than par and accrued interest which are the best bids received, the Board shall determine which bid is to be accepted.

The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the Bonds (February 1, 1992) to the date of delivery. The Bonds will not be sold for less than par and accrued interest nor shall any discount or commission be allowed or paid on the sale of the Bonds. Upon delivery, the deposit of the successful bidder (without accrued interest) will be credited on the purchase price and the balance shall be paid in federal funds. The applicable CUSIP numbers will be printed on the Bonds; provided that an incorrect CUSIP number printed on any Bond or the absence of any CUSIP number on any Bond shall not constitute cause to refuse delivery of the Bonds.

The Bonds will constitute the general obligation bonds of the District, and shall be payable from general ad valorem taxes which may be levied against all taxable property within the District, without limitation as to rate or amount.

The District has prepared a Preliminary Offering Statement and Notice of Sale dated as of November 1991, relating to the bonds which is deemed by the District to be final as of its date for purposes of allowing bidders to comply with Rule 15c-12 of the Securities Exchange Commission ("the Rule"), except for the omission of certain information as permitted by the Rule. The Preliminary Offering Statement is subject to revision, amendment and completion in a Final Offering Statement as defined below. Copies of the Preliminary Offering Statement and the bid form may be obtained from the District's Financial Advisor, Hanifen, Imhoff Inc., 500 Marquette N.W., Suite 1350, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87102, telephone (505)247-9851. The District will prepare a final Offering Statement ("Final Offering Statement") as soon as practicable and will provide to the successful bidder 50 copies of the Final Offering Statement on or before seven business days following the date of the award to the successful bidder. The Final Offering Statement will be dated as of the date of delivery of the Final Offering Statement to the successful bidder and will be final as of that date. The District authorizes the successful bidder to distribute the Final Offering Statement in connection with the offering of the bonds.

The validity and legality of the Bonds will be approved by Madrall, Sperring, Roehl, Harris & Sisk, P.A., Albuquerque, New Mexico, Bond Counsel, whose approving opinion, together with the printed Bonds and a complete transcript of the legal proceedings, including a certificate stating that no litigation affecting the validity of the Bonds is pending, will be furnished to the purchaser without charge. The delivery of the bonds is also subject to the approval of the Attorney General of the State of New Mexico.

The District will covenant to take all actions which may be required of it for the interest on the Bonds to be and remain excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes, and to not take any actions which would adversely affect that exclusion, under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The approving legal opinion of Bond Counsel will include an opinion to the effect that under existing law (a) the interest on the Bonds (i) is excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes, (ii) is not treated as an item of tax preference for purposes of the alternative minimum tax imposed on individuals and corporations under the Code; and (b) the Bonds (i) are not "private activity bonds" as defined in Section 141(a) of the Code, and (ii) are "qualified tax-exempt obligations" as defined in Section 265(b)(3) of the Code. Bond Counsel will not independently verify the accuracy of the certifications and representations made by the District.

The Code prescribes a number of qualifications and conditions for interest on state and local government obligations to be and remain excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes, some of which, including provision for rebate by the issuer of certain investment earnings to the federal government, require future or contained compliance after issuance of the obligations in order for the interest to continue to be so excluded from the date of issuance. Non-compliance with these requirements could cause the interest on the Bonds to be included in gross income for federal income tax purposes and thus to be subject to regular federal income taxation retroactively to the date of their issuance.

Code provisions applicable only to corporations (as defined for federal income tax purposes), which currently impose an alternative minimum tax on 50% of adjusted net book income (on 75% of adjusted current earnings and profits for taxable years beginning after 1989) in excess of other alternative minimum taxable income, may subject a portion of the interest on the Bonds earned by certain corporations to that corporate alternative minimum tax. In addition, under the Code, interest on the Bonds may be subject to an environmental tax imposed on certain corporations, a branch profits tax imposed on certain foreign corporations doing business in the United States, and a tax imposed on excess net passive income of certain S corporations.

Under the Code, the exclusion of interest from gross income for federal income tax purposes can have certain adverse federal income tax consequences in other respects for certain taxpayers, including among them financial institutions, certain insurance companies, recipients of Social Security and Railroad Retirement benefits, and those that are deemed to incur or continue indebtedness to acquire or carry tax-exempt obligations. The applicability and extent of these other tax consequences will depend upon the particular tax status and other items of income and expense of the owner of the Bonds. Bond Counsel will express no opinion regarding such consequences.

The purchaser of the Bonds, by submitting its bid, agrees to provide a certificate including information as to bona fide initial offering prices to the public and sales of the Bonds and a certified determination of yield on the Bonds under the Code, as and at the time requested by the Financial Advisor and Bond Counsel.

DATED at Ruidoso, New Mexico this 26th day of November, 1991.
