On the side

Lightning causes a power outage

A bolt of lightning struck Otero County Electric Cooperative's main transformer on Biscuit Hill Friday afternoon, knocking out service to Alto and shutting down the line to Carrizozo.

Buddy Guthrie, area supervisor for the cooperative's north district, said close to 4,000 people were without service for about 25 minutes. Carrizozo lost power again later that night when a breaker malfunctioned.

"We moved in a portable station and by early Saturday were in good shape," he said.

MRS neighbors need money, too

David Leroy, former nuclear waste negotiator, called on the Clinton Administration to free grant money for states to create their own evaluation and participation in activities regarding the Monitored Retrievable Storage (MRS) facilities.

Leroy's letter was written to Hazel O'Leary, Secretary of Energy, and was his last action before leaving office.

Leroy writes that the grants should be offered New Mexico and Oregon first, and could be extended to Colorado, Nevada, Oklahoma, Utah and Wyoming.

Officials from the activist organization Greenpeace called the action to seek federal funds "a bribe to state governments."

In the past, Village of Ruidoso officials were denied grant money to monitor the Mescalero MRS progress.

Farriers show their stuff here Tuesday

Need a new pair of shoes? Area resident Sally Canning will be presenting a live horse-shoeing demonstration at 9 a.m. Tuesday, July 13.

The demonstration will be at the old stone house on the Canning property on Sudderth between the old King's Liquor and Country Club Drive.

Canning will have several Belgian horses shod during the demonstration.

Good News for Ruidoso...
 We've got a new mayor!
 Congratulations to Mayor Jerry Shaw

Ruidoso installs its 1st woman mayor

by CHARLES STALLINGS
 Ruidoso News Staff Writer

For the first time in the history of Ruidoso - a woman will wield the mayor's gavel.

Councilor Jerry Shaw was sworn in as the village's number one politician during a special hour long meeting early last Friday at village hall.

Shaw replaces former Mayor Victor Alonso who quit his post May 10. Shaw also was the first woman councilor for the village.

Councilor J.D. James was named new mayor pro tem and former village manager Frank Potter and Joe Gomez were voted into the two vacated seats.

Former mayor pro tem Barbara Duff called the special meeting to order after waiting for Councilor Bill Karn, who did not attend.

The village councilors, on a motion by Councilor J.D. James, opted to hold the meeting in open session rather than closed to the public.

The motions to fill the vacated council positions began with the unanimous selection of Potter for councilor.

James said he nominated Potter because he has 26 years experience with Ruidoso municipal government and at one time was the president of the state village managers organization.

Shaw, in seconding the motion, said Potter's experience would be most helpful in the short period.

Village clerk Tammie Maddox administered the oath of office.

Shaw, nominated by James and seconded by Councilor Frank Cummins, was then unanimously voted in as mayor and was officially sworn in by Maddox.

Shaw said she realized if she didn't win the election for mayor in March, she would be out. And if she didn't accept the mayor's position, she could have had two more years on the council.

"But that's the chance you take in life, and I accept that challenge," Shaw said. "I hope to show I can be a positive force for the village ... and believe communication is the number one goal. We're going to have open government. I welcome all suggestions, I need your help."

Shaw suggested her vacated council seat be filled and opened the floor to nominations.

Joe Gomez was then unanimously approved for councilor on the nomination by Cummins and a second by James.

James was then appointed mayor pro tem, replacing Duff, on a nomination by Cummins.

Earlier, the position of village attorney, filled by Patricia Ortiz, was eliminated by unanimous vote.

Shaw made the motion to eliminate the position of in-house attorney immediately with two weeks severance pay and begin developing a request for proposals for a contract lawyer. James seconded the motion.

Former councilor Al Junge said the village's past experience with a contract attorney was costly because of a lack of control.

James said he was aware of past costs and the enormous amount of litigation conducted at the time. He said steps would be taken to be more cost effective.

Fee hikes could spell the death of ranching

by DIANNE STALLINGS
 Ruidoso News Staff Writer

An increase in federal grazing fees will signal the end to the ranching community in Lincoln County and to ranching across the West, warned the chairman of the county's rural affairs committee.

Chairman Bill Hays told county commissioners Tuesday that Howard Shanks of the Southcentral Mountain Resource, Conservation and Development Council, is preparing a survey to send local ranchers to gauge the impact an increase in grazing fees on federal lands will have on their operations.

"Fifty percent will be out of business, if our area follows the rest of the West," Hays said. "That will impact county revenue and tax the base."

Don't mess with it

"We want to go on record as favoring the existing (grazing fee) formula, because we realize once it is broken, the increases will continue. It may start with a 33 percent jump and then keep going up until it's $7-$8 and we will no longer be a ranching community."

The fee is paid by ranchers to the federal agency that administers the land in exchange for being allowed to graze livestock. It is based on the consumption of vegetation by the sheep, cattle or horses and is tied to current market conditions and other measurable factors.

Commission Chairman Monroy

"Fifty percent will be out of business if our area follows the rest of the West."

Bill Hays, County Rural Affairs Committee restrictions will severely impact towns.

Let's get together

"I'm glad they're more aware," he said. "We may be able to join forces and take a stand."

"People all over the nation are starting to wake up that this isn't just a West problem or rancher problem. Land is being taken out of production and restrictions imposed because of the wetlands protection, endangered species protection and the clean air and water act," Hays said.

The committee is using Catron County's land use plan as a base and adapting it to Lincoln County, he said. The plan will set up land use regulations and give the county more standing in decisions regarding federal property within its boundaries.

Commissioner Wilton Howell told Hays while he's aware the sooner the county has a plan in place, the better its position.

"I'd rather we work on it six months and come up with one that doesn't invite lawsuits," said

Howell. "Let's do it right the first time."

He was referring to the county's past attempt to use an interim land plan to pressure federal agencies into consulting the commission before embarking on major programs. Attorneys later said the plan would not stand up in court.

Hays said the commission missed a previous opportunity to comment on a resource management plan for the Roswell district of the Bureau of Land Management. That plan contains proposals to turn into a park a site where many apparently believe an unidentified flying object crashed, he said.

"Not as individual commissioners," Howell said.

But as a commission and that's now in the record. Hays said. "We will have a recommendation for you in time."

About open meetings

Responding to new and stricter requirements for calling and conducting public meetings, Lincoln County Commissioners voted to cut down the notification time needed for special and emergency meetings.

County manager Andy Wynham explained that new rules approved by the State Legislature took effect June 16. Public boards no longer can add items to their agenda for official action after the agenda has been set.

Agenda rules & regs

Acting on Wynham's recommendation, the commission approved a resolution that requires a proposed agenda for the regular monthly meetings of the commission to be available at least 24 hours before a meeting, instead of during the week before a meeting. A sentence requiring 10 days notice for any other regular meeting was deleted.

Changes affecting the date of a regular scheduled meeting will be mailed to media that has submitted a written request, at least seven days prior to the new meeting date, according to the resolution.

Notice for special meetings, called by the chairman or the majority of the board, was reduced to

In other business

In other business, the commission:

—approved a replat (new layout) on Fox Run subdivision using four lots as collateral against completion of about $6,000 in road work by the owners.

—directed Wynham to work with Ruidoso village manager Ron Wicker on developing a cooperative road work agreement with the town's street department.

The agreement would allow the county to use the village's hot mix plant and some chip seal equipment when it otherwise might be idle. In return, the county might handle some other work for the village or pay for the use.

—approved an amendment to the county's anti-litter law that will allow the deputy who enforces the ordinance to cite persons who leave trash to accumulate within 200 feet of a property line or right-of-way. That should cover a neighbor who contends a mess is too close or debris visible from public highways, commissioners said.

—directed Wynham to check the county's lodgers tax ordinance to determine whether it specifically excludes the Bonito Lake Campground operated by the city of Alamogordo.

"Our ordinance exempts certain government facilities, but I think it was aimed at things like jails, not a campground," Wynham said.

Village loses on county land pockets within city limits

by CHARLES STALLINGS
 Ruidoso News Staff Writer

Foot dragging by Ruidoso village officials continues to cost taxpayers thousands of dollars in lost revenues.

It may take several years to recoup village expenses from annexing Carrizo Lodge and the property along Carrizo Road. While other areas slated to be annexed could be bringing income to the village immediately.

The Stroud Building is one example where money is being lost from two different areas — a failure to annex and a failure to keep current records on what properties fall within village boundaries.

Village councilors have diligently pursued annexation of Carrizo

Lodge at the request of the lodge owners. The owners want to cure a brown water problem and officials want to bring in tax money to the village.

At a snail's pace, the village planning and zoning department has been working for years on annexing other county pockets of land surrounded by the village that could bring in huge revenues in property tax to Ruidoso.

The Stroud Building is inside one of those pockets. Councilors and village officials have been aware of this pocket and have planned to annex the property.

But the movement is not nearly as swift as the Carrizo annexation.

According to public records, last year the Stroud Building paid $19,027.50 in property tax at the 1992 rate of $26.38 per thousand. That money entered county coffers.

If that building, surrounded by village property, was annexed as planned, property tax would have been $41.95 per thousand, with the village also receiving a hefty share.

The Stroud Building pays regular village water and sewer rates.

According to village officials, rates should be double for property owners who live outside the village, but use Ruidoso utilities.

Stroud's water bill last month was $559.52, and sewer bill, $150.76 for $710. Doubled, the charge would leap to $1,420, since the building is not located in the village limits.

Village employees in the utility department said they were unaware that the Stroud building was not in the village limits until The Ruidoso News brought it to their attention last Thursday. Apparently, the village manager or planning and zoning department didn't pass along that knowledge to the utility department.

The Stroud Building has been paying county property taxes since 1987 when the building, land and improvement, was valued at $1,342,041. In 1988, the land jumped to $2,516,949; down to $1,792,913 in 1989; stayed the same in 1990 and 1991 at $1,287,247; and jumped nearly $800,000 in 1992 to $2,075,598.

The council has said that it intends to annex all pockets of unincorporated properties within village limits.

Unlike the Stroud tract that costs the village money by not annexing, the B.J. Watkins subdivision, also under consideration for annexation, would cost the taxpayers money to bring that subdivision up to municipal code.

In the mid-80s, when a master plan was discussed, debated and finally adopted, a commitment was made to annex all pockets of unannexed land in village limits.

According to village officials, there is no priority list to determine which tracts should be annexed first.

Meanwhile, village officials work leisurely toward annexation while the village continues to lose.

Other villages in the state experiencing similar problems split responsibilities. Whomever is hired as a contract attorney handles routine litigation such as foreclosing on liens. Any suit of consequence would be assigned to another attorney. The contract attorney has no stake in major lawsuits being filed.

Ortiz, in a failed bid to keep her job, argued that the position of in-house attorney has cost the village less than $40 per hour. She said the cheapest lawyer in the village cost $60 per hour.

Ortiz said by having an in-house attorney for the past two years, the village has warded off litigation that would run up attorneys' fees, by handling matters before they reached litigation. She indicated the reason for eliminating her job may be personal.

Resident Genevieve Sewell asked how the village could save money with a contract attorney, noting the past high costs.

James said a legal secretary could handle some routine paper work.

Village manager Ron Wicker said he would like to see the new contract lawyer spend one day a week at village hall to conduct business. According to local lawyer's fees, that would be a minimum of $500 a day.

Councilors agreed that a committee should draft the RFP guidelines for council discussion and approval.

Following a board shuffle, Councilor J.D. James (left) becomes the new mayor pro tem replacing Councilor Barbara Duff. Frank Potter (center) and Joe Gomez accepted the two councilor positions vacated by Ron Andrews, who resigned, and Jerry Shaw when she became mayor. Mayor Shaw replaces former mayor Victor Alonso who quit his post in April. Shaw, who had two and one half more years to serve as councilor, will now have to run for mayor in March to stay on the village board. Councilors Potter and Gomez also will have to run again in March if they want to keep their same seats on the Village Council.

New, restructured council to meet Tuesday

by CHARLES STALLINGS
Ruidoso News Staff Writer

Tough decisions will greet a new mayor and two new village councilors during Tuesday's regular meeting at village hall.

Mayor Jerry Shaw may be familiar with the issues, but new councilors Frank Potter and Joe Gomez will have to study several items that previously were discussed in closed meetings.

Public hearings include an appeal of planning commission approval for construction of a human services building in a pine studded area next to the downtown business district.

The council will rule if the planning commission erred in its recommendation to approve the plan.

There were two bidders for the office. Don Elwell from Roswell was the successful bidder, although his bid was substantially higher than a local woman, who proposed using an existing building.

Elwell currently is building facilities in Silver City and Truth or Consequences for the human services department.

Elwell and county human services director David Devitt pressured the council during its last meeting to throw out the appeal.

Devitt further lobbied Councilor J.D. James by letter. He severely criticized the protesters' attempts to stop the project on that wooded site by calling their criticisms subjective, errant, personal in nature, moot, and not substantiated.

Councilors were concerned that due process had not been given protesters who appealed the commission decision. They allowed the appeal to stand until Tuesday's meeting.

The other bidder, a local woman who did not want to be identified at this time, was upset that the only notification that she has ever received from the human services department was a letter over a year ago notifying her that her bid was not selected.

Several protesters, who live in a residential area next to the wooded site and want to save the trees there, contacted the bidder to find out details of the bidding process. Only then did the woman learn that she was the low bidder by a substantial amount of money.

Confused and disturbed, she vowed to start an investigation of the proposed bid award that would cost the taxpayers about $100,000 more and would extend the term of the lease from six to eight years, an option she was not offered.

Devitt wrote James that Elwell has been a successful bidder to contract several office facilities in the state.

The local woman said she had gone to an architect to draw up plans, made modifications in lighting and traveled to Santa Fe. She said her proposal was to use an existing building, but that human services officials have their minds set on a new building.

"There are too many buildings reclaimed by the FDIC sitting empty now," she said.

"Here's a situation where the little guy goes to a lot of time and expense to put in a government bid and then is not considered in the least."

In other issues, two public hearings are continued from past meetings regarding a state certificate for towing businesses and a minimum standard requirement for the airport.

In the wings waiting for the airport ordinance to clear, are airport leases for Hido Enterprises, Inc. and United Helicopter, Inc.

The council also asked the village staff to bring past contracts that may be in violation of the current minimum standards ordinance.

Under regular items, the public will hear discussions about the Short Street bridge for the first time. The issue to date has been handled only under closed session.

The bridge was built with the approval of the village council after a flood wiped out the existing road and redirected the river.

Because of a number of problems with the bridge, mainly that it is unsafe and unsightly, the village planning and zoning department initiated action to correct those problems at the owners expense.

The owner, for fear of being landlocked, has said she doesn't have a lot of money but was forced to hire an attorney because of an inability to communicate with village planner Cleatus Richards.

She was not advised that she could appeal Richard's decision to the planning and zoning commission without legal advice.

The property is along the main area targeted for The Riverwalk.

Richards will ask the council to pursue legal advice.

The council will be asked to approve lodgers tax fund requests for special events for 1993-1994.

The Lodgers Tax Advisory Board approved $12,525 of $19,800 requested.

The board denied requests of the Ruidoso Lions Club, $300 and Castle Mountain Tour Services, $1,500.

Three groups withdrew their requests, Ruidoso Arts and Film Commission, $1,500; Friends of Arts/Music (play), $1,500; and Art Fest USA (apple/chili).

The board approved funds for The Golden Aspen Rally Association, $1,500; Sierra Blanca Amateur Radio, $1,500; Rocky Mountain Music Entertainment; $1,500; Friends of Arts/Music (pop); Lincoln County Cowboy Symphony, $1,500; Museum of the Horse, $1,500; All American Festival, $875; C of C Greeters - Jubilee, $1,500; and the Chili Society - NM Open, $1,500.

According to village clerk Tammie Maddox, the lodgers fund has a total of $30,000 allocated for special events. The advisory committee adopted a policy to limit the initial allocations to $15,000. Applications for the second $15,000 will be available after September. Lodgers tax chairman Bob Carey will be present to make the recommendation from his advisory board and answer questions from the council.

In other business the council will consider:

—the purpose and use of the Civic Events Center.

Downs board to meet tonight

The Ruidoso Downs Board of Trustees will conduct their regular monthly meeting at 7 p.m. tonight at the Ruidoso Downs Volunteer Fire Department Building.

The board is scheduled to hear from Art Reagan concerning the fencing of an alley way, issue plaques to fire department members, issue a plaque to Ida Hale, hear from building inspector Tom Armstrong and approve the new fire department bylaws.

The board will also consider the approval of the monthly reports from the villages various departments.

Routine school board agenda

The agenda for the Ruidoso School Board meeting Tuesday is light and consists mostly of routine items.

Starting at 7 p.m. in the public meeting room of Ruidoso High School, the board members will hear a report from Superintendent Mike Gladden on goals the board set for 1992-93.

Other items on the agenda include a budget increase for a suicide prevention and intervention program, approval of bus drivers contracts, and a call for bids on concrete replacement at the high school and for disability access projects at Nob Hill playground, White Mountain Elementary and Horton stadium.

Recommended by Gladden for employment are John Fritsch as a student assistant coordinator at Ruidoso Middle School and Jack Nelson as a counselor at the same school.

McGary art set for DC show

Sculptor Dave McGary will be exhibiting 18 images of Native Americans July 26 through July 30 in the Russell Senate Rotunda in Washington D.C. The exhibit will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, with as many as 5,000 visitors expected to view the Lincoln County artist's work.

Senators Pete Domenici and Frank Lautenberg have invited members of the Congressional Arts Caucus to a reception honoring McGary on Tuesday, July 27.

McGary's interest in art was encouraged during his youth. As a teenager he was singled out by the sculptor Harry Jackson to study the art of bronze making in Italy.

Upon returning to the United States, he secured a job at a prestigious foundry in Tesuque. For the past decade McGary has run his own bronze finishing foundry near Ruidoso. His work is well-known throughout the United States and in many foreign countries for its historical content and attention to detail.

Ag tourism maps available

Tourists wanting to get off southern New Mexico's beaten paths can visit an ostrich farm, a winery or 20 other sites, now that a new agricultural tourism map is available.

"Explore New Mexico's harvest Trail" is a combination placemat and brochure developed by New Mexico State University's Center for Hospitality and Tourism Studies. The map is the result of a $25,000 state economic development grant initiated by State Representative William Porter (D-Dona Ana).

About 18,000 maps are being distributed to restaurants, chambers of commerce, welcome centers, hotels and motels, said Priscilla Bloomquist, agricultural tourism project director at NMSU.

Some are printed flat and some are folded. The map traces the southern end of the 300-year-old El Camino Real Corrido that stretches from Arroyo to Sunland Park.

Trash revenues fall short for special pickups

by DIANNE STALLINGS
Ruidoso News Staff Writer

The monthly cost to the Lincoln County Solid Waste Authority of providing extra service such as picking up pine needles, limbs and brush, could be as high as $8,110, according to a memorandum from general manager Joe Lewandowski.

But the authority doesn't collect a penny for providing that service, or for hauling away carpets, appliances or going back to clean up after bears.

That may have to change to keep the authority in healthy economic shape.

Lewandowski broke down the number of service calls received during the last month as part of his manager's report to be presented to the authority board today.

The authority will meet at 10 a.m. in the recycling center on Second Street in Ruidoso Downs.

"This area of our authority is the area I have the biggest concern about," Lewandowski wrote. "Our costs are extremely high in this area with no revenue to support it."

He will come up with some suggestion on how to handle the situation by the board's August meeting, he said.

Under the breakdown, Lewandowski showed 32 cleanups around containers; 60 bear/animal cleanups; 135 extra emptying of containers; 169 pine needle pickups; 83 limbs and brush pickups; and 63 miscellaneous (carpets, appliances).

The authority already has enough containers in stock (30-35) to handle new customers it will be taking over from Southwest Disposal in July, he wrote.

Lewandowski has set a goal of 75 dumpsters a month to be repaired now that a system has been put together at the recycling center.

Recycling director Kerry Krum-siek had good news for the board in his report for the year.

His department exceeded its projected annual sales figure of $26,750.

Total sales hit $29,174, representing 357,843 pounds delivered and sold. About 548,000 pounds was taken in at the center, putting the monthly average at slightly under 23 tons.

Included in agenda items is a letter from the State Department of Finance and Administration giving interim approval to the authority's $1,040,561 budget for 1993-94. The budget reflects a beginning cash balance of $124,519 and excess revenue over expenses of $82,415.

Playful pup would make a great family pet

by DIANNE STALLINGS
Ruidoso News Staff Writer

Her big sad eyes have won the hearts of volunteers and workers at the Lincoln County Humane Society shelter.

CHINOOK

Dropped with her sister at the shelter in May, Brownie the Labrador mix is about a year old and is extremely playful.

"If her new owner will be away during the day, Brownie will need either access to a yard so that she can run off some of her energy or some training," said shelter manager Esther Harper. "She hasn't been given the attention she needs. An owner willing to spend time with her will help. She's very bright."

Brownie also is sponsored for the cost of her spaying, which is the major expense associated with adoption. All animals adopted from the shelter must be spayed or neutered, a requirement of state law, village ordinance and society policy, to ensure they don't contribute to the pet overpopulation problem.

In one of the outside pens, Chinook, a white chow mix found wandering in the Capitan area, is ready for adoption.

"He has a real mellow personality," Harper said. "He loves to be hugged and is very affectionate. He'd be good with children. He's a little intimidated around all the barking dogs."

Other past pets still waiting for adoption include Adobe, a golden Akita Inu/shepherd mix. She would be a splendid companion for a woman, but apparently, was abused by a man and does not respond well to men.

She is sponsored, as are Sugar, a lab mix with cropped ears, and Kiko, a shepherd mix, who both were previously featured. A woman from Texas saw their photographs and was moved by their stories. Six-toed Chickums, a fox terrier/smooth collie mix, also is sponsored and is very loving.

The shelter desperately needs foster homes for new litters of puppies. Without a safe place for them to stay while protective shots take effect, they could be exposed to disease. Recently, two dozen pups had to be destroyed when they became infected at the shelter.

Foster homes keep puppies for two weeks to give them a chance at a healthy life.

Don't forget the The Ruidoso News garage sale, Friday, July 30, and Saturday, July 31. All proceeds go directly toward sponsorships for the dogs and cats.

Prospective members and volunteers are invited to attend the society's board meeting at noon July 21 at the Texas Club.

For more information about Chinook, Brownie or any of the other dogs and cats, call 257-9841 or stop at the shelter on Gavilan Canyon Road.

Comfort is key at Cafe Carrizo bar

People want to go where everybody knows their name.

At least that's what it says in the Cheers theme song.

That's also what Six Pack, bar manager at the Carrizo Cafe, says.

"The ambience that we are trying to create is one where you feel comfortable," said Pack.

Pack said that comfort in his bar is a number one priority, even to the point of introducing people to one another.

To give an example of that, Pack said that a group of 20-25 people were in the lounge recently celebrating a 60th birthday. Along with the party goers were also other bar patrons. By the end of the evening, they were all mingling together and having a good time, said Pack.

To further explain the comfort and excitement he wants to create, he tells a story of when he was a card dealer in Las Vegas.

Pack was dealing cards in a low stakes game, when he noticed one of the players looking around in bewilderment. Pack asked the man if everything was all right.

The man looked at him and all he could say was that he was amazed that he was actually in Las Vegas.

Pack said that he had been working for so long that Vegas seemed a little mundane to him, but the man had made him think.

"I don't know who he was, or anything about him, but he changed the way I do business today," said Pack. "I want everyone who comes into my place to feel like that and to feel comfortable."

That feeling makes the Cafe's lounge a little different according to Pack.

"The thing from my point of view that the Cafe Carrizo has to offer is a unique lounge," said Pack.

But of course there is more to the Cafe Carrizo than just a cocktail lounge.

The Cafe is open for lunch and dinner and features a diverse menu ranging from the traditional beef ribeye steak to peppercorn quail to southwestern favorites like fajitas.

"Our menu has a broad range," said general manager Dan Howerly. "It goes from traditional American cuisine to southwest specialty items."

The southwest items on the meal fit in well, with the general look that the Cafe is attempting to create.

"There is kind of a southwestern flair here," said Howerly.

That flair could be due to the history of the building itself.

The Cafe is a part of the historic Carrizo Lodge which has been in the area since 1869. Cafe management carefully made sure that the building kept its original look.

The building was first used as an addition in the retirement benefits for the commander of Fort Stanton.

From that point on, the lodge

has held various functions including hosting a girl and boy scout camp, square dance school, a retreat and currently an art school.

Cafe Carrizo also works with the Lodge by working with conventions and other events.

Overall the Cafe is ready to host parties from two to 350 people, such as the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet.

"We're more than willing to cater to private parties," said Howerly.

Basically, the Cafe Carrizo has a little bit to offer for everyone.

Cafe Carrizo is open seven days a week, 11-2 and 5-9 Sunday through Thursday and 11-2 and 5-10 on Friday and Saturday.

The Cafe's cocktail lounge opens at 4 p.m. The lounge hosts happy hour 4:30 to 6:30 on Mondays through Fridays. During that time, the lounge will feature 2-for-1 deals on appetizers and discount drink pricing.

The Cafe Carrizo is located at the historic Carrizo Lodge.

Zuni celebrates birthday

The Zuni, Ruidoso's only Native American Native Arts Store, is celebrating its first anniversary in Ruidoso.

Located in La Claire's Mountain Village, Midtown at the Night, The Zuni specializes in hand-made Native American arts.

According to a news release, Linda Kakuska, the first woman from the Zuni Pueblo to ever own and operate a retail store off the reservation, is proud to bring to Ruidoso only the finest in Native American art.

Although the vast majority of her art comes from the Pueblo, she also has works from various other tribes throughout the Southwest. Here you can find the finest pieces of jewelry, pottery, fetishes and fine art. Without middle men to go through and many items presented to you upon consignment from the artists, The Zuni is able to give you retail jewelry at reservation prices.

On Saturday, July 17, as a way of saying "thank you" to Ruidoso and all of her customers, Linda will be giving a 10 percent discount in addition to her already low prices.

The Zuni will also be holding a drawing for one lucky customer to receive a pin pendant specially made by her mother, Ruby Gohachu.

"So come by and help Linda celebrate her first anniversary," invites a news release.

"While visiting The Zuni, spend some time with Linda learning about Zuni culture and arts."

Amanda and Robert Kakuska pose in front of their mother's store, The Zuni. Both are wearing the traditional Zuni costume.

Miller adds to her awards

Susan Miller, associate broker with Century 21 Aspen Real Estate of Ruidoso, has recently been notified of her top level production in the Century 21 system which consists of approximately 80,000 sales associates.

According to a news release, Miller was ranked the number one producer in New Mexico and was ranked 119 in total production throughout the United States for the 1992 sales year. This is the highest level of achievement ever earned by a Century 21 agent in New Mexico.

She has lived in the Ruidoso area since 1962, taught in the Ruidoso schools for 19 years and has been in full-time real estate sales for 12 years.

After owning her own company for five years, Miller has been associated with Century 21 Aspen Real Estate since 1987.

H&R Block announces IRS changes

H&R Block, Inc., announced June 17 that the Internal Revenue Service has decided to continue notifying tax return preparers who offer electronic tax filing if a taxpayer owes a federal debt.

In a news release dated June 16, the IRS stated that it has amended its September 1992 decision to eliminate the direct deposit indicator which notifies the electronic filer whether the taxpayer's request for a direct deposit of the refund will be honored.

According to a news release, the consequences of the IRS decision are significant to H&R Block Tax Services' electronic filing and Refund Anticipation Loan (RAL) programs because the direct deposit indicator helps control the risk of loan losses and, therefore, encourages participating lending institutions to make RAL's under relatively favorable terms to the company's clients.

The original IRS decision to remove the direct deposit indicator was in response to the growing incidence of fraudulent tax returns filed electronically in previous years and with the assumption that eliminating the indicator would curtail future losses resulting from fraudulent refund claims.

IRS statistics suggest that various screening methods and other safeguards implemented during the 1993 tax season by the IRS, the tax filing industry and the participating lending institutions were effective in curbing losses associated with fraudulent electronically filed returns.

Culinary group initiates program on Mescalero Apache Reservation

The American Culinary Federation (ACF) and the ACF Southwestern New Mexico and Texas Chapter have started the first Mescalero Apache Indian Apprenticeship Pilot Program in the United States.

According to a news release, this is the first time the ACF has ever conducted this program on an Indian Reservation.

"This opens the doors for all Indians in the United States to have this program on their Reservation," reads the release.

"The Mescalero Apache Tribe has been very instrumental in developing this program."

The program will be taught at the Inn of the Mountain Gods in Mescalero. With the help of their resort hotel, Inn of the Mountain Gods and their managing staff, this program will be open to young and old — Mescalero only.

The classes will be taught at the hotel by executive chef James Muldowney, as well as 43 members of the ACF Southwestern New Mexico and Texas Chefs Association.

This three-year program includes 6,000 hours of study.

When the apprentices complete this program, they will graduate as "Certified Cook." They will receive diplomas from the American Culinary Federation and the U.S. Department of Labor.

The ACF is registered by the Department of Labor, registry number N-900-93 in Washington, DC.

This program is so dramatic because, not only theory is taught, but hands-on classes will also be taught at the job site.

The American Culinary Federation has placed the name of the Mescalero Apache Tribe as well as our chapter's name in the National Archives as the first Native American Apprenticeship Program in the United States.

Lottery winner

Lincoln County Medical Center administrator Valerie Miller proudly receives a check for $145,000 for the hospital. The check comes from the Reading Foundation, which was set up by Mrs. Verne D. Reading of Odessa, Texas, before her death in 1983. Reading and her husband, George, were summer visitors to Ruidoso and set up the foundation to continue contributions to the community after their death. Presenting the check to Miller are Robert Searls (left), William Dean and W.L. "Sunny" Edwards who are all officers of the foundation.

Governor King names Barnes to state board

Letha Barnes has been appointed by Governor Bruce King to serve on the New Mexico Board of Barbers and Cosmetologists.

Barnes and her husband, Tom, own Olympian University of Cosmetology in Alamogordo and live in both Ruidoso and Clovis.

She has been president for the Board of Cosmetologists for the past three years and served as vice president during the two prior years.

A new law was passed in the 1993 legislative session which combines the Barber Board of Examiners and the Board of Cosmetologists into one Board effective June 18. The board will license and regulate the barbers and cosmetologists as well the establishments in which they work.

Barnes is a native New Mexican who attended Eastern New Mexico University and owned Curry County Beauty College in Clovis from 1982 to 1984. Since 1984 she has helped to supervise as many as 32 other cosmetology schools in the Southwest.

She currently serves on the board of directors for the National Cosmetology School Trade Association (AACCS) and as an evaluator and Workshop Instructor for the National Accrediting Commission of Cosmetology Arts and Sciences.

She will be visiting Fairbanks, Alaska, and Las Vegas, Nevada, this month on behalf of the accrediting agency.

Memorial services honor Pauline Jenson

Memorial Services for Pauline Jenson

Memorial services were held July 6 at Church of the Holy Mount, Ruidoso, for Pauline Jenson who was called Home by Our Lord on July 1.

Lay Eucharist Minister Dr. Ron Annala read from the book of Isaiah: "The spirit of the Lord God is upon me because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings to the meek..."

Also, the Twenty-third Psalm: "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want..."

And from the First Epistle of the Apostle John: "Behold what manner of love the father hath bestowed upon us that we should be called the sons of God..."

Father John Penn read from the Gospel according to Saint John: "Jesus saith unto her, I am the resurrection and the life..."

After welcoming the congregation to the celebration of the life of Pauline Jenson, Father John read the following prayer: "O God of grace and glory, we remember before you this day our sister, Pauline; we thank you for giving her to us, her family and friends, to know and to love as a companion on our earthly pilgrimage. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see in death the gate to eternal life so that in quiet confidence, we may continue our course on earth, until, by Your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

Organist was Dr. Jim Fenimore and communion servers were Ron Annala and Susan Penn.

In the homily Father Penn described Pauline as a great lady of kindness of heart, courage and Christian faith, that she loved her family, her friends and her Lord.

Happy Birthday to Gerald Tully

This is being sent to you just at sundown on July 7 and will reach you on July 12, the eighteenth birthday of Gerald Tully.

Gerald Mack Tully and his twin sister, Geraldine, were born on this date in 1903 in Fort Stanton to James V. Tully Sr. and the former Ora Gilmore. Others born to this union were Fred, Susan, James V., Tully Jr. and Kivas.

At the age of three Gerald was brought to his present home, the Hat "T" Ranch in Glencoe. In those days, the highway ran past his present home. You may see the original general store and post office building there between the house and the road.

Gerald went to school at the old Bonnell Ranch School which stood near by where Saint Anne's Chapel now stands. Later he went to Tularosa High School and then attended New Mexico State University.

A ranchman since boyhood, Gerald had wide experience in many other fields. For a while, he was a school teacher in San Patricio. He worked on The King's Highway over in the Mimbres Mountains and fought forest fires in the Mogollon Mountain country and worked in gold and silver mines in the same region.

In 1920, the highway was moved to the north side of the river, and Gerald helped their father in the general store and post office.

Many Years in the Contest Roping Arena

From his life as a cowboy and ranch-man, it was a natural step to the Rodeos. In 1928 he began entering contests in steer roping and team roping. He has entered contests all over the southwest and has risen to the very top. He kept active in roping contests long after men his age had retired.

The Annual Gerald Tully Roping at the Tully arena at the Hat "T" Ranch is an event which brings ropers from all over the west.

In the Cowboy Hall of Fame in Colorado Springs is one of Gerald's old saddles, with a notation that Gerald is one of the all-time great contestants in the roping field.

Happy Marriage Blesses His Life

On November 9, 1940, Gerald's star of good fortune shone brightly when he was married to the former Wynema Hutchinson in Saint Anne's Chapel, Glencoe. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Ted Howden, and our mother played the organ.

They have four children, Gerry Tully, Toni Barrow, Pam Bernard and Tricia Tully-Mitchell and seven grandchildren.

One of the reasons for Gerald's long and active life is his following the rules of good physical condition. He is an all-around athlete, playing baseball, basketball, bowling and other sports.

Gerald has had a life-long fondness and appreciation for horses. And his horses respond to his good treatment and consideration, thereby forming a great man-and-horse team.

Gerald is a Christian gentleman, a devoted husband and father, and a good friend and neighbor.

We wish Gerald and his twin sister many happy returns of the day and all God's blessings.

Clinic says 'yes' to b'ball 'no' to AIDS

Two University of New Mexico athletes hosted a clinic at Mescalero Friday in an effort to educate kids about basketball and AIDS.

The combination may seem a little odd, but UNM basketball player Canonchet Neves and former track athlete Willie Goldsmith did their best to combine the two for a program sponsored by the Mescalero Health Education Department.

The clinic was promoted as a basketball clinic, but was designed to have the athletes share information on the Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS).

"What we are doing is some basic AIDS education with the basketball clinic," said Barb Johnson of the Health Education office. "It gets through to the kids better than just sitting them down and giving them a lecture."

During the clinic, the athletes were able to work in some information about the disease and how to prevent it.

"They can throw out a message here and there, and the kids are more likely to remember it because they're having fun," said Johnson.

Johnson also said that it is important for the kids to see that people are trying to live a healthy lifestyle.

"Obesity is a major problem on the reservation, and exercise is one of the cures for that," said Johnson.

If the kids start to exercise young, according to Johnson, then it most likely would become a lifetime activity.

"If you develop a healthy lifestyle when you are young, it will become a lifetime activity," said Johnson. "Activity is the key."

But, Neves was not brought to the reservation only because he is a healthy athlete.

Neves is a Native American from the Narragansett tribe and is one of about three Native Americans playing in division I NCAA basketball.

Neves said that means he has to do as much as he can for people.

UNM basketball player Canonchet Neves and his exercise partner stretch out before the basketball clinic at Mescalero that Neves conducted.

"I guess I have been put in the role of a role model for kids," said Neves. "That means I have to act like one, because it is important to people."

Neves was a part-time starter for UNM for the 1992-93 season and averaged 7.7 points per game while averaging 3 rebounds per game. He transferred from Detroit Mercy College after his sophomore year.

Goldsmith was a three sport athlete at Valley High School in Albuquerque and was a member of the track team at UNM in the early 1980s.

Second Warrior golfer qualifies for big tourney

by KENT BEATTY
Special to The News

Warrior golfer Ryan Wall will join teammate Jeffrey Chapman at the Maxfli Sun Country PGA Championship in Socorro later month via a narrow one shot victory in the district qualifier Friday, in Roswell.

Wall's excellent 74 at NMML's golf course, was better than any other 15 entrants in the 16-17 year-old age division. Carlsbad's Jason Howl was one back at 75 as well as a couple of Goddard players.

The Championship, slated for July 28-30, at New Mexico Tech, will feature the state's top junior golfers in the 12-13, 14-15 and 16-17 year-old divisions as well as the pee-wees for 11 year-olds and under.

Wall and Chapman will not be strangers to course, which should help the two seniors-to-be. Both have played two junior tournaments there this year, and Chapman won his age division there on July 15 with a 76.

Wall's score at NMML was his best-ever tournament score. With three holes to play at NMML, Wall and Howl were tied for the 16. Ryan missed the greens at no. 16 and no. 17 but saved par with good chips and made a regulation par on the 18th while Howl three-putted.

His performance at the Institute was reminiscent of his 78 during the Leroy Gooch Invitational, which ultimately gave the Warriors their first-ever Gooch title.

After the Maxfli Championships, both youngsters are slated to play in the Cree Meadows Match Play on August 2-5. Chapman will then head to Little Rock, Arkansas, to represent New Mexico in the Insurance Youth Golf Classic.

The school golf season will begin for the first time in September with a split season. The Warriors will play at least two tournaments this fall, so they won't miss as much school in the spring. Traditionally, high school golf teams state-wide miss as much as two days a week during April, because of the inavailability of golf courses on weekends for High School tournaments.

Rodeo

Things turn messy (above) at the Mescalero Apache Rodeo as a rider and clown race for their lives from a big bull. A rider (above, right) skillfully takes the turn in the barrel racing event, as another rider hangs on to his hat in the bull riding. All of these events were a part of the final day of rodeo fun at the Mescalero Apache Rodeo over the Fourth of July weekend. Also included in the festivities was a ceremonial in which six young maidens officially came of age on their way to womanhood.

Senior golf event starts today

The New Mexico Seniors Golf Association will be playing in a tournament this Monday and Tuesday at Cree Meadows Country Club and The Links at Sierra Blanca.

The seniors will be at Cree Meadows on Monday, with a luncheon at 1 p.m. following the play, and at the Links on Tuesday. About 100 golfers are expected for the tournament.

Apache open deadline nears

Monday, July 12 will be the last chance for Junior Tennis players to sign up for the Apache Junior Open Tennis Tournament.

The tournament will run July 16-18 at the Inn of the Mountain Gods. Singles and doubles events for boys and girls aged 12 through 18 are scheduled in this USTA sanctioned event.

For more information, contact the tennis pro shop at the Inn of the Mountain Gods at 257-5141, extension 7425.

All-Stars get second chance

The Ruidoso Little League All-Star team played Saturday in its first All-Star Tournament appearance but was shut out 8-0 by the Noon Optimist team from Roswell.

The Ruidoso All-Stars will now move into the loser's bracket to play the Valley team, made up by kids from Dexter, Hagerman and Lake Arthur.

The two teams will play at the Ruidoso Little League Field Monday night at 5:30 p.m. The loser in this game will be out of the tournament, while the winner will play on Tuesday at 5:30.

The game will be played as a part of the second round in the New Mexico All-Star Regional Little League Tournament.

Other teams included in the tournament are Artesia, Lions Hondo of Roswell, Eastside of Roswell, Tularosa, Alamo little league, Tularosa, and Alamo Optimist.

Racing

Shes Gotcha, Number 7, charges in from to Cream To The Top, Number 10, to post a neck-length win in the Grade III $16,325 Go Together Handicap Saturday, July 10, at Ruidoso Downs. The filly is a Texas-bred daughter of Sail On Bunny. Jockeyed by Luke Myles, the four-year-old chestnut ran the 350 yards in 17.62 seconds. The Jimmie Claridge trainee is owned by Victor Lozano of Denver City, Texas.

Shes Gotcha nabs first stakes in Go Together 'Cap

Veteran rider Luke Myles continued his hot streak as he guided Victor Lozano's Shes Gotcha to a neck-length victory in the Grade III $16,325 Go Together Handicap, Saturday at Ruidoso Downs.

The 4-year-old daughter of Sail On Bunny broke fourth from the gates, but came on strongly in the final stages of the 350-yard race to edge Cream To The Top at the wire. The time was 17.62 over a muddy track.

Myles, who won five Rainbow Futurity Trial heats on Thursday, had ridden Shes Gotcha only once before climbing aboard Saturday.

"There was a little bit of a scramble at the start, but once I got away with her she really drew off at the end. She's a pretty tough little filly."

Trainer Jimmie Claridge

saddled Shes Gotcha to her first career stakes victory and said that the only thing that got in her way in the past was bad luck.

"She's always been running tough, but just had a lot of bad luck," said Claridge.

Glen Murphy scores triple in homecoming

1991 Ruidoso Downs' riding champ Glen Murphy returned to Ruidoso Downs for the first time in nearly a year and put on quite a show as he brought home three winners from six mounts.

The native of El Paso, flew in overnight from Louisiana Downs in Bossier City to ride Muhammad's Baby in the Sweetheart Handicap for trainer Larry Dunbar. Although Muhammad's Baby ran sixth, Murphy scored impressive wins in the fifth, seventh and eighth races. In the fifth, he guided even-money favorite Ready Teller to victory in the 400-yard quarter horse race.

He captured the six furlong seventh aboard Speed Alert and the 5 1/2-furlong eighth with Talent Connection.

Murphy spent the winter at Remington Park in Oklahoma City and has been based in Louisiana all summer. He said he plans on returning here in a few weeks to ride the remainder of the meet.

72-1 longshot pays off Sunday

Leapin N Wizzy was rushed to an uncontested early lead and under a masterful ride by jockey Melinda Clark went wire-to-wire to post a major upset in the $30,400 Sweetheart Handicap Sunday at Ruidoso Downs.

The speedy 5-year-old Texas-bred mare by Pukka Gent was dismissed at odds of 72-1 in the classy 12-horse field which included numerous stakes winners. Leapin N Wizzy had a two-length advantage heading into the first turn of the mile-contest and sustained the lead along the backstretch.

At the top of the stretch, 8/5 favorite Muhammad's Baby got within a length of the pacesetter, but her bid fell short and Leapin N Wizzy cruised home under strong handling for a 3/4-length victory. The mare set quick early fractions of :22.4, :46.3, but slowed the pace down to 1:12.3 at the six furlong mark to stop the timer in 1:39.4.

"She always breaks good so I shipped her as hard as I could," said Clark who notched her first career stakes win at Ruidoso Downs.

"The owners won't let you whip her, so I just kept showing her the whip and she kept on going."

Clark, a native of Tulsa, Okla., lost the mount on Leapin N Wizzy in June.

strong attachments but therapy is recommended to help her adjust to a new family and rebuild her self-esteem.

Her test scores have been in the low average range, but Veronica did well in a regular 5th grade class. She had been in the special education program and will need support and encouragement to continue her good work.

A single or two parent Hispanic family is needed to give Veronica the love, attention and security that has been missing in her life. She would do well with other children in the home. Her family needs to make a strong commitment to her, have positive parenting skills and the ability to set firm and consistent limits. Financial assistance may be available. NM 6/93

Congratulations to new mayor and councilors

Ruidoso has a new mayor, two new councilors and a new lease on life. It was refreshing to be in the audience for the "changing of the guard" when the council named Jerry Shaw as its new mayor and Frank Potter and Joe Gomez as councilors.

This village has muddled along far too long with inadequate and ineffective leadership, and the whole community will be the better for this fresh start.

In her first remarks as mayor, Shaw called on the council to work with her in harmony for the good of the community. She's pledged her administration will be one of open communication and open government — two things that have been lacking for the past three years. Friday's friendly meeting — without a closed session — was a positive step.

Mayor Shaw made history when she was sworn in as this village's first female mayor. She has the experience, the intelligence, the strength and the will for the job. She was the logical choice and we wish her well.

Councilor Frank Potter knows more about this village's infrastructure than any other one person in town, and he'll be able to use that knowledge as a councilor. On the other hand, as a former village manager, he knows the difference between setting policy and running village hall. That's an important lesson that other novice elected officials have learned the hard way.

Councilor Joe Gomez admits that his knowledge of municipal government is limited, but he'll make up for that with his maturity and business sense.

Congratulations to this village's first woman mayor, and her two colleagues. We wish them success, for it's in their success that our village will grow and prosper.

Here's the scoop on the golf course lease

TO THE EDITOR:

Ordinance Number 89-2, an ordinance for leasing of the tract of land known as the old airport tract to Jim Colbert Golf, Inc., to construct and operate an 18-hole golf course and to SWD Motels, Inc., to construct and operate a luxury resort hotel.

Of course the SWD hotel part of this ordinance has gone by the boards but the golf course part is still ambulating along.

If you are like me, you have heard all kinds of descriptions of the golf course lease, so I was able to get a copy of it. If for no other reason, I wanted to be informed. Regardless of the consequences, I think Ruidoso people need to be informed.

The old cliché that said "don't bother me with the facts, my mind is made up" may be true in this case.

Article 1, Section 1, gives the term of the lease to be 15 years with an additional option of 15 years and 20 years at the option of Colbert.

There is no two-way street on this. It is up to Colbert Golf as to whether the lease is extended or not, period. I'll have to admit, in all fairness that if I were Colbert, this is the way I would want it.

Section 2 describes Time and Manner of Payments.

In the years one to 15 Colbert is to pay 20 percent of all gross sales to the village if gross sales exceed $1.5 million per annum. Now the stickler in this, in so far as the Village is concerned is that $1.5 million is a whale of a lot of gross sales. Think about it. In a resort town high in the mountains, I would think I would be concerned about the number of days that weather would permit golf. I would think December, January and February would be impossible. Then another month somewhere which would make eight months of golf. Now if each golfer spent $35 to play a round of golf, including his cokes and his part of the golf cart, it would take about 42,857 golfers in that eight months to have gross sales of $1.5 million. Now that is a bunch.

So far, no payments have been made on the lease as I understand it, because they haven't grossed $1.5 million.

In all due respect, this is the kind of deal I would want if I were Colbert Golf, a Nevada Corporation.

Section 4 of the lease says the appraised value of the 160 acres leased to Colbert Golf approximates $2,550,000. Section 4 also says that the Village is to provide 200 acre feet of water rights reasonably necessary to keep the courses in top condition. I would want water rights if I were Colbert Golf. Long before Colbert, the Village paid $200,000 for approximately 64 acre feet of water rights so you can use your pencil.

Remember when the Village borrowed the money to clear that land of debt from the FAA? I think it was close to the appraisal price. If that borrowed money has an interest rate of 5 percent, it is costing us taxpayers $127,500 in interest alone on that much money. I'll bet we are paying more than 5 percent, too.

No, I can't argue about it, this is the kind of deal I would want if I were Colbert Golf.

One thing for sure, Colbert Golf sure prettied up that land with a real good golf course. Seems like everybody who plays golf there, likes it.

If you would like to check this lease out, it is public information; and you can ask the Village Clerk for a copy.

Visitors had so much fun, they're coming back

TO THE EDITOR:

After residing in El Paso for 32 years and having never visited the racetrack at Ruidoso Downs, my wife and I, with two guests from the State of Illinois, finally made the trip. What we discovered was a beautiful jewel made to shine more brightly by the fabulous treatment we received on June 25 while at the track.

Since we were novices, naturally we asked many questions and directions from the many available staff members. From our initial contact with the parking attendants to our office visit with Mr. David Keiter (who assisted us in making arrangements to meet our jockey friends, Teresa Briggs), every person we contacted seemed to go out their way to be helpful.

We were greatly impressed with the Ruidoso Downs' personnel. They were at all times very friendly, courteous, polite and eager to be of assistance. As a result, they made our stay at Ruidoso Downs a very pleasant, enjoyable and a much fun outing.

We departed from the racetrack with the feeling that we were treated as royalty, and the red carpet was laid out for us.

During our long drive home to El Paso, we discussed our visit to the Downs. We concluded that the Ruidoso Downs management is doing an excellent job in the training of their personnel in the area of public relations. Mr. Keiter was extremely gracious and helpful in all matters, especially in making arrangements for us to meet our friend, Jockey Teresa Briggs.

In our opinion, Mr. Keiter was the epitome of all the wonderful staff members that we met.

The sole purpose of this letter to the editor is to let the citizens of Ruidoso know what a wonderful time we experienced at beautiful Ruidoso Downs on our very first visit to the track. As a result, we definitely plan on return trips to the Downs in the near future.

Let's protect this area's natural beauty for future generations

TO THE EDITOR:

We were hiking a wilderness trail near Ski Apache in the area of Sierra Blanca — sometimes known as the Mountain of the Gods by the Mescalero Apaches.

We stopped to rest and survey the beauty of the forest, the mountain meadow full of wildflowers of every color and the magnificent views over the mountain ranges.

We spoke in awe of the magnificence of the natural wilderness, more randomly perfect than the greatest landscape artist could achieve. We spoke of the fact that no two blades of grass, no two finger prints, no two leaves are quite alike. No computer could ever be big enough to contain the infinite variety of nature.

We spoke of the news we heard in England last spring — that seven years after and 2,000 miles away from the tragic error of Chernobyl in Russia, farms in England and Scotland are still being subsidized by the British government because the soil is poisoned with nuclear fallout. The livestock still is unfit for human food.

Can we please save our natural wonders for a heritage for our children?

The building of new nuclear power plants has stopped in Great Britain mainly because of the problems of nuclear waste and the enormous cost of dismantling spent reactors.

"Innocence Lost: The Verdict"

Last year, one of the largest child sexual abuse cases in the country concluded its first trial. After nine months of testimony, Robert Fulton Kelly, owner of the Little Rascals day-care center in Edenton, North Carolina, was found guilty on ninety-nine of one-hundred counts of child sexual abuse. Kelly was sentenced to twelve consecutive life terms, one for each of the children he was convicted of molesting.

"Innocence Lost: The Verdict," a two-part Frontline Special Report, is the culmination of the three-year-long examination of the history and prosecution of this case.

In 1991, Frontline broadcast "Innocence Lost" which meticulously detailed the tangled roots of the charges against seven people, the claims and counterclaims, and the poisoned atmosphere which consumed Edenton's once-peaceful, church-going community of five thousand.

Now, in "Innocence Lost: The Verdict," Frontline returns to Edenton for the long-awaited trial of Bob Kelly, the first of seven separate trials.

Part I of "Innocence Lost: The Verdict" begins in an empty courtroom as the jurors in Kelly's trial deliberate. Using footage from the original broadcast with added material never used, the program outlines the earliest history of the case — how it all started.

Part I of "Innocence Lost: The Verdict" concludes with the medical evidence presented in court. As there was no other evidence to the alleged crimes, the results of medical examinations were eagerly awaited. The charges were clear and terrible: sodomy, rape, knives, forks, and needles inserted into the children. But the medical evidence was contradictory, and ultimately, opinions were split and inconclusive.

In the end, without any definitive physical or material evidence of abuse, without adult eyewitnesses, without the therapists' appearance in court, the heart of the case would be the children's testimony.

Part II of "Innocence Lost: The Verdict" focuses on the testimony of the twelve children who took the stand, the questioning by prosecutors and defense attorneys, and the jurors' decisions on what they heard.

Since cameras were forbidden in the courtroom when children and parents testified, their testimony, in this program, is read by adult narrators and depicted through courtroom drawings. At the time they testified, the children were three years older than when the alleged crimes occurred.

Finally, through the perspectives of five jurors, the program examines how, after three-and-a-half weeks of deliberation, the jurors finally address their doubts about the state's case and resolve on a conviction. Bob Kelly is found guilty on ninety-nine of one-hundred counts. His conviction is a vindication for the parents, but a shock to other defendants now facing their own trials.

Finally, "Innocence Lost: The Verdict" examines the predicament of the six remaining defendants in the case, which has dramatically changed since Robert Kelly's conviction.

"Innocence Lost: The Verdict," a Frontline Special Report, airs Tuesday, July 20th at 8:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. (Part I) and Tuesday, July 27th at 8:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. (Part II). Each part is two hours.

McMahan's Term Policy is always to offer the lowest terms available anywhere on home furnishings. Monthly payments in this brochure are calculated on the basis of approximately 30 monthly payments or less. Optional credit life and casualty insurance available. Other payment arrangements may be made to suit your individual needs, as McMahan's carry all their own accounts. America's credit leader in terms since 1919.

Delivery Policy: Never a charge for delivery at McMahan's anywhere in California, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico, on any purchase from McMahan's.

Prompt decisions on credit extension based on ready availability of information on your occupation, credit record and history of paying habits. Terms offered are subject to credit approval of applicant by McMahan's.

NOTE: THE SALES TAX % & INTEREST APR IN YOUR AREA MAY BE DIFFERENT THAN RATE USED IN EXAMPLES. PLEASE SEE TERM CHART DISPLAYED AT YOUR LOCAL STORE. SATISFACTORY SERVICE INSURANCE APPLIES TO SECURITY AGREEMENT PURCHASES THAT INCLUDE CREDIT PROPERTY INSURANCE. THE MASTER POLICY AND CREDIT PROPERTY CERTIFICATE CONTAIN SPECIFIC COVERAGES AND EXCLUSIONS. THE EFFECTIVE DATE IS 11/1/86 FOR CA, 1/1/89 FOR AZ, CO, NV, NM, TX.

PRICE COMPARISONS: The advertised prices in this advertisement are only for a limited time. The other retail price shown under the X, example $179.50, would have been the price if McMahan's paid a supplier the same cost charged another retailer and we marked up the retail price using McMahan's usual and customary mark up for product in that category. Some price comparisons are made to prices other retailers refer to in advertising as their regular price or the manufacturer list price. McMahan's advertised prices are not meant to infer that McMahan's ever previously sold the product at a higher price. Only when McMahan's quote Sale Savings do we mean that the product has been previously sold by McMahan's or another retailer at the higher price. Some advertised prices are compared to prices in effect after the promotion period.
