EDITORIAL

Man should plead guilty to elk charges

The other day, our editor came out of her house to go to work and stopped in her tracks when she saw a majestic bull eik walking down the side street. It glanced at velvet rack.
As she stood motionless, it came closer and began grazing in her front yard. It made her think about how this community was buitt in the elk's domain, and wonder if the wild animals just figure it's still the woods and they're going to graze here.
Although this editor has seen thousands of elk here and throughout the West, this bull was still an awesome sight, especially since it was so close. She was honored that the elk chose to ignore her stand it anymore and tried to go get her camera, he trotted off into the woods.

It's hard to imagine someone taking the opposite reaction, and choosing to shoot such a majestic elk just because it was in their yard.
A rash of calls and comments have been received by this paper concerning Jeff Morgan; the Ruidoso man who shot a bull elk in his yard. All the comments have been against Morgan. Many of the people had deyeloped a personal connection to this particular elk. After watching it graze in their yard many times, they almost saw it as a protector. They expressed outrage about Morgan's action.
Morgan admitted his guilt to this paper. He said, " knew I had screwed up big time," and "I m stupid, made a mistake. igot a stupid ldea. He said he didn'
He sure wouldn't have meant it had the buliet struck one of his neighbors and killed them, either.
Unfortunately, Morgan apparently didn't feel bad enough to simply admit his guilt and pay the consequences for his stupidity. Yesterday, he pled in nocent in magistrate court to charges of unlawful kill nocent in magistrate cout to charges of unian ing of an elk and negigent use of a weapon.
What makes it more upsetting is, Morgan asked for a court-appointed attorney. Papers filed in court show he's on welfare to the tune of $$ 800$ per month, so he automatically gots a free attomey.
it's sickening that all these people who hate what Morgan did, now have to pay for his court costs so he can fight charges he publicly admitted to earlier.

The best thing you can do now, Mr. Morgan, is to change that plea to guilty. And the best thing the judge or jury can do is to put you in jall for awhile and sequences of shooting a rifle in a residential neighborsequences of shooting a rifle in a residential neighbor-

Now, there are those who are suggesting that the wooden street signs, with all the work in olved, be removed and replaced with the more antiseptic, cold, and completely without charac ter, metal street signs used in most cities.
Each morning as I look out of my bedroom window I see such a sign on the corner where spire me to plan a full day's work and only reminds me that I must keep the grass trimmed around the sign.
Perhaps a little background about the wooden signs and why they enterred the picture might be helpful to those like me who think of them as part of Ruidoso's atmosphere. The fact that the metal sign is easer to read is a moot point.
It all started about 12 years ago. SomeoneI can't recall who - approached the Ruidoso Rotary Club with the fact that many of Ruidoso's

I accepted the job of planning how to accomplish the job. Mr. Martin Rose, a Ruidoso Rotary member, did most of the hard work. His job was to visit virtually every street intersection to determine if a sign was needed and on which corner it would be installed. He and I agreed on which intersections would be checked using a village map for guidance. Three-by-five inch decisions were made. Several coats of special paint were applied to each street name. The names, in white, showed up very well against the grain of the posts. Upon Rujdoso High School students are not isolated from the world of gangs, said Principal Ron Hodges. Neither is any other high school.

"It is naive not to believe there is gang activity there is gang activity everywhere. It's a sign of the times," Hodges said. Hodges said.
A dress code at school prohibits forms of dress associated with gangs, so the situation Hodges said. The dress code, which became school policy in 1993, prohibits the wearing of any clothing, jewelry, emblem, badge, sign or other items that refleot membership with any gang. The prohibitens extends to

Most students adhere to the policy, although some who have displayed bandanas folded in certain ways and tucked in their pockets, etc., have been given warnings. Others quickly put on their costumes once out of school.
Any suspected-gang related activity can lead to expulsion, Hodges said. This year alone, three students were expelled for their gang-like behaviors. Two of the former students now reside in prisons for criminal activity they were later convicted of, Hodges says.

Hodges said he shares a zero gang tolerance philosophy with Ruidoso Police Chief Lanny Maddox, and suggests that a great majority of students do too.

Ruidoso public services Ree use by many who live outside of town

As the Village of Ruidoso prepares for budget hearings Thursday and Friday, village officiais are coming up with some interesting figures on the use of village services by residents outside of the village.

At the Ruidoso Public Library, for instance, less than half the users are viltage residents. It is the only public library in the county and, therefore, offers a public ibrary in the county and, therefore, ofiers a village, $39 \%$ are residents of the unincorporated parts of the county. Another $15 \%$ are Ruidoso Downs residents, and $4 \%$ are from Mescalero, and $1 \%$ come deris, and from Bent.

Last year, the county contributed $$ 4,000$ to the budget of the library, a budget that exceeds $$ 100,000$. The library is in need of more money for expansion and staff, as an average of eight new library cards are issued every day

The Lincoln County Humane Society animal shelter is also the only animal shelter in the county. About $20 \%$ of the animals are brought in from unincorporated areas, another $7 \%$ from Ruidoso Downs, and 8\% from Capitan.

The Village of Ruidoso is the only local government entity that helps fund the shelter, to the tune of $$ 30,000$ last year. The shelter is always in the red, and now it is losing one of its major sources of revenue, a thrift shop.

The village government also has other public services used by many people outside of its limits, such as the cemetery and swimming pool.

The village now has many more needs than ft can fund. For example, its wastewater treatment system is in dire need of repairs that cost more than a million dollars. Yet the viliage is struggling to set aside just $$ 150,000$ in next year's budget for emergencies, beyond the $1 / 12$ of its budget the state requires it to set aside.

Meanwhile, the county government has an estimated $$ 2.8$ million in surplus in its general and road funds, and it's only required to set aside $$ 1.1 \mathrm{mil}$ fion. That doesn't count the surplus in other funds that must remain in those funds; such as $$ 843,000$ in the building maintenance and expansion fund, $$ 657,000$ in its Medical Center fund, and $$ 346,000$ in its Carrizozo clinic fund.

With the realization that $70 \%$ of the county's money comes from the Ruldoso, Alto and Ruidoso Downs area; and the observation of the above statistics; we once again urge the county to sit down and talk to Village of Ruidoso officials about future cooperation. It seems the county is most able at this time to help fund public services used by county residents.

Wendell Chino is legendary leader TO TEE EDTTOR:
As a visitor to your cammunity for the last 25 years, I have seen your town in good times and bad. I can remember the heyday of Ruidoso Downs; it was great, but let's face it - horse racing, real estate, and the general economy in the 1980s.
I might say that I am a native Now Mexican and lived in the four corners area. I know what happened with the oil bust and the recession that followed; I was forced to relocate to Arizona in orforced to relocate to Arizona in order to make a living. My hope is to der to make a living. My hope is to come back to New Mexico romedsy. in Lincoln County and have been following your two controversies, gaming and the nuclear storage site.
I would like to state that I have known Mr. and Mrs. Chino longer than I have known about Ruidoso. Mr. and Mrs. Chino are the most honorable people that I have ever nown. My family and I feel privilaged and honored to have had the friendship of these two great people for over 25 years. When the people for over 25 years. When the hat Mry. Chino will be regarded as that Mr, Chino wil be regarded as times pist and present. No chief has done so much for his people with honor, integrity, and courage. For over 40 years, Mr. Chino has battled with 10 presidents battled with 10 presidents - Truman to Clinton - the DepartTruman to Clinton - the Department of Intarior, and the State of ment of Intarior, and the State of New Mexico. He has won those battles because his greatest wreapon has been the truth; and his only motive has been to misure that no this country have the same rights that are given to the rest of the people under the constitution, nothing mose.
I see the racetrack calling for a level plaving field. Well, I guess if the tracks can get gaming machines then the Indians should get betting then the Indians should get betting windowa bet their casinos. That's what I call level. The oniy analogy I can see in this controversy is hise McDonald's crying foul beeause Col. Manders chicken has hurt this is just busineas.
I know Ruidose needs Mr. and Mrs. Eulbhard and the city ehould people here; it's vital, but not in a anner that cuts off your nose to spite your face. Ruidoso needs the jobs and revenue that the racetrack generates for four months; but you also need the jobs and revenue that months out of the yoar. It seams that the city fathers have forgotten that the Mescalero tribe has been supporting Ruidosa and the surrounding area for over 100 years and will for the next 100 yetars Who can say that? If Ruidoso. thinks there should be a winner, the fact is, Ruidoso will be the only loser, no matter what. The folks of this community should ask their elected officials to exercise a little common sonse. A reality check might be in order. Why are you might be in order. Why are you the fire of hate and discord with your neighbors? All you have to do is read the newspapers and its attack after attack on the Mescalero and Mr. Chino. All based on hearsay, innuendo, and rhetoric. Disregarding the real facts of evidence. Mr. Joe Skeen is a good example, after shooting his mouth off; his face is yet to be seen with anything to back up his words. Just like the rest. If Ru
If Ruidoso wants to share in the prosperity that the Mescalero are presenty enjoying, then invite them to come and spend their money in your town. Every dollar that comes into town changes hands three to five times before it leaves. I mean to say a dollar spent in a store in turn is used to pay someone's wage which is used to pay bills or saved at the bank; who then lends it out for now cars, homes or whatever.

Thenerer controversy that is on evaryoners lips, nuclear wastel I said about the nuclear waste debate that is going on here. P've read everything from Buck Rogers to information from antiquated encyclopedias or old high school books in your noweppapgr.
The Chernatyl and Three Mile Island disasters ware caused by a bomb, you have radioactive fall out. I am sure you have all heard that term, it simply has to come down and sottle somewhere. This is where the disaster accurs. Depending on the mount released; will determine the cize of the disastor you have. The type of explosions that occurred at Chernobyl were not like thase that occurred at Nagasali or White Sands in the 1940s. They were caused by rupturing turbines; used to generate elecrricity, cooling coils, and steamlines that could no longer stand the heat. So if you insist on wortying about this lind of disaster, don't look to the east; but rather at Palo Verde Nuclear Power Plant in Phoenix, Ariz., where a radioactive cloud can as Mr. DuQuette put it, that's and as Mr. Duquette put

As for the real danger, here it is. In order to have a bomb-type disaster you must make a bomb. This requires a great deal of skill and technology. First you must create a chamber to create an implosion, then feed it a radinactive element like tritium. In short, a very sophisticated triggering device that can start the plutonium to react, then tritium to feed and maintain the chain reaction, and you then have a nuclear bomb. This is why a nuclear weapon costs millions of dollars to make.
Nuclear spent fuel rods are U232. This is bomb grade material and it's the reason every Third World country wants a nuclear power plant. Presently this material is sitting around the country protected by chain link fences. This is the reason we must act promptly to get this material in the proper storage facilities. I think all proper storage facilities. I think all we have to do, is see what just hap pened in Oklahoma City to know would hate to hear anyone from here say, "We should have done something when we had the something chance.'
As for
As for the environmental question, it really gets down to one thing; U232 has a half-life of approximataly 25,000 years. The containers have a life of $5,000-10,000$ cainers have a life of $5,000-10,000$ years. Its a problem, but remember this is a 40-year project; secondiy, any time, and when your naighbors in western New Mexico get their spaceport it can be shipped to the moon.

As for the real documented facts: cact - aroot of this nuclear Mexico.
Fact - Nuclear technology was borm in New Merico and New Mexico brought the world into the Fact - New Mexico Public Service invasted and helped build the Palo Verde Nuclear Powror Plant so New Mexico could share in the elec-government and the mining industry help create this problem. Fact - Nuclear waste is being created in every New Mexico town and city that has a doctor's office or hospital; and if its going to your local dump you got real problems. Not hypothetical.
Fact - No disaster like Chernobyl, Three Mile Island, Nagasaki, or Hiroshima was caused by nuclear waste starage.
Fact - Mr. Chino and the Mogones with the courage and guts to accept the challenge of aaving this great United States from itself. Of course, I am not talking about the back sliders that your paper likes give so much press to.
Fact - This project will be monitared and built under strict guidelines set down by the U.S. De-

Fact - This could be a $$ 2$ billion project that can mean in the very munity itself $$ 00$ million to the comanity itself
Fact - It's going to bring new companies, jobs, stores, visitors, families to Ruidoso.
Fact - People are not going to top coming here because of nuclear than nuclear power plants an nuclear power plants.
Fact - rhoenix is presently the fastest growing city in the United in growth. Palo Verde Nust Texas Power Plant hasn't scared anchoar away. Plant hasn't scared anybody Fact Fact - Ruidoso needs a healthy and diverse economy; with this dard of living for its citizens and Mr. Hubbard's many entarprises will succeed.
Fact - Fort Stanton has just been closed. Lincoln County needs jobs.
Fact

Fact $\rightarrow$ These facts and statements can be verified at your local library. These facts ware not uals, agitators detractors ar cracipot envirommental newsiettors, In cloging I think Mr Chino the Mescalero tribe should be and landed for showing courge and leadership in bringing New Mexico and the rest of United States into the 21st Century, Mr. Chino is the finest example of what a leader should be. New Mexico's leadership would be well to look at Mr. Chino and see what makes a legend.

Sunday, 14th, 3:00 p.m.
This one-hour special explores the issue whether the United States is doing a responsible job of educating its children for the 21st century. In search of the answer to this question, host Louis Rukeyser discovers a startling consensus among business leaders, scholars, and the Clinton administration: If we do not quickly and effectively address the crisis in our schools, we are on course for both social and economic disasters.

Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, New Mexico

We spend $$ 220$ billion on public schools, and millions more on lawyers fighting about how we spend it. How dorwe raise that money? What does it buy . . . or not buy? And what are the results? This program is called "It's Your Money," but, more importantly, they're your children, and our nation's future.

READING, WRITING AND  RUKEYSER

The time: the Napoleonic Wars of 1809. The place: the rough plains of Spain. The man: Richard Sharpe.

Ther p-and-comer in Wellington's army during Britain's baties against the French, relurn to Masterplece Theater in three all-new action-romance adventures programs are each two hours in lengh.
The magnetic Sean Bean (Palriot Games) returns in the title role of the series, based on the best-selling books by Bernard Cornwell. If you missed Theater in November 1993, don't worry ~ here's the story so far Born in a brothel, Sharpe was brought up on the streets and joined the army as a boy. In an act of heroic daring, he saved the life of Wellington, then known wasn't easy: the officers disliked Sharpe because he wasn't upper class, and his men didn't respect him because he was no better socially than they were. But Sharpe proved himself through skill and daring on the batlefield and overcame their prejudice. He also fell in love with Teresa (played by Spanish guerrillas fighting Napoleon
"Sharpe II" on Masterplece Theater will be broadcast Sundays at 9:00 p.m.

[^0]:    The general obligation bonds were viewed as the only reliable source of funding for the multipurpose fields during a Monda meeting of seven school administra tors and village staff members.
    Tagged onto the project may be a walking/jogging track looping the property, an additive receiving general support by those at the meet ing. Jackson said the track's cost could possibly be covered by the $$ 1$ million bond.
    The group

    The group further agreed, how ver, that private donations, independent funding sources, cont op portunities would be explored for the whole project
    Likewise, legislative funding for the entire recreation center projec would continue to be pursued despite this year's rejection.
    The development is planned on 17 acres behind Sierra Vista and White Mountain Elementary schools.
    The joint-powers community group met Monday for the first time Please see Flelds, page 2A
