Motorists caught

by KATHLEEN McDONALD Ruidoso News Staff Writer

An arctic blast from Canada took Ruidoso by surprise Monday and dumped about six inches of wet snow, sending motorists into ditches and children into yards to play.

Ski Apache received 11 inches in it's first snow. It came much earlier than last year's first flakes on Nov. 5. The village didn't accumulate any snow last year until Dec. 16.

After a low of seven degrees in Ruidoso overnight, much of the white stuff had melted down by midday Tuesday. But more is possible this weekend, KBIM-TV Roswell weatherman Cam Moore said.

"It looks like we're in a pretty cool pattern, and a wet pattern too," Moore said Tuesday. "Another storm is moving in from the northwest. It looks like on Saturday and Sunday, in the mountains of New Mexico, we'll be getting more snowfall."

This coming front, however, shouldn't be as cold as Monday's, he said.

The wet snow caused problems for trees still holding leaves, causing them to droop and hit power lines around Ruidoso. This caused a 1.5-hour power outage in the Ruidoso Downs River Park area, police Chief David Hightower said.

Some other lines sparked, but none resulted in fire. Texas-New Mexico Power Company received six calls associated with the sparking lines, which were cleared of snow by a service man, said company clerk Lesley Schaffer.

Ruidoso police reported seven accidents after the snow started accumulating around 4:30 p.m. Only one of the accidents, at 6:47 p.m. on Wingfield Street, resulted in injuries, and they were minor, police said. Three other motorists had to be pulled from ditches or pushed out of the road.

In Ruidoso Downs, five cars lost control, mainly near the racetrack and Champions Run area on U.S. Highway 70. No injuries were reported.

Monday's winter blast was caused by an unseasonably cold arctic high pressure system that moved down Sunday from Canada. It was then met by a strong upperlevel low disturbance moving in from the Northwest, Moore said.

Although uncommon, October snowfall is not unknown to the south central mountains and high plains, Moore noted.

Ski Apache gets nearly a foot

Ski Apache got a jump on its snowmaking for the 1996-97 season when a storm blew in cold temperatures and dropped 11 inches of natural snow Monday.

The ski area fired up it's 46 snow guns at 9 a.m. Tuesday and sprayed manmade snow on the slopes throughout the day, said Riker Davis of Ski Apache.

Eager to take advantage of the favorable weather conditions, snowmaking crew chief Denny Grover cut short his vacation to return to the mountain and direct the snowmaking efforts.

In a matter of hours, the shortsclad Grover went from putting up a sailboat in San Carlos, Mexico to donning a parka, gloves and ski caps and making snow at Ski Apache.

The area has 46 snowmaking guns, and the capability of making snow on 19 of its 55 trails. Ski Apache will resume full-time snowmaking Nov. 1. Davis said.

At other ski areas in the state. Santa Fe received the most, 16 inches. Taos and Angel Fire both got a foot of snow, while Sandia Peak received 10 inches and Sipapu had eight. In Colorado, Keystone ski resort opened one trail Monday.

Mescalero Apache Tribe President Wendell Chino changed coats Friday when he endorsed Republican Senator Bob Dole for U.S. president.

Chino has traditionally been a Democrat supporter, a spokesperson said.

But as Chine told Dole, U.S. Sen. Pete Domenici, Gov. Gary Johnson and a crowd of about 7,000 gathered for a Dole rally in Albuquerque Oct. 18, he switched his support and recommended tribal members join him in endorsing Dole for president.

Chino is the only state Indian leader to support Dole for president. All 21 other tribal leaders endorsed Clinton at a meeting with the president Oct. 15.

"The Indian tribes of New Mexico are sovereign nations, and Mr. Chino has the prerogative to choose who he wishes to support," said Pueblo of Acoma Gov. Ron D. Shutiva on Tuesday.

An attempt to reach other tribal leaders for comment was unsuccessful.

"It was a surprise for Wendell Chino to endorse Bob Dole, but I also think it wasn't a surprise that 21 other Indian tribes endorsed Clinton," said Clinton's statewide campaign office manager Anne Uhring.

Chino said he asked Clinton for a meeting while he was in New but Clinton never Mexico, responded.

Chino has requested that U.S. Attorney John Kelly be removed from office, following Kelly's forced shutdown of Casino Apache Sept. 24. All 10 of the other Indian casinos in New Mexico have been allowed to stay open pending appeals of court rulings saying they are illegal. Chino complained earlier this month that Kelly and the court's treatment of the tribe has been unfair.

knows John Kelly, and I think he respects what Mr. Kelly is trying to do and respects the power of the court system," Uhring said. "The president very specifically said it's in the courts now, and it's for the courts to decide."

Just two weeks ago, Chino was ready to endorse President Bill Clinton for re-election, he said. But after looking into records, Chino, a former co-chairman of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Reorganization Task Force, concluded Clinton has failed to implement the task force's 4-year-old recommendations.

"I believe that Indians and not Washington bureaucrats should lead the reformation of the BIA and the Indian Health Service. If you have never lived on a reservation, then you cannot understand the issues we must live with every day. And you will not know how to fix the problems," Chino said at the Dole rally. "Bob Dole shares that belief. To date, four years after the forming of the BIA Reorganization Task Force, our recommendations for such reforms have had virtually no action by the current administration."

Indians by stopping a bill that would have allowed the U.S. government to tax tribes without their consent, he said.

"Senator Dole and Senator Domenici were willing to treat us with the same sovereign government status as they treat other countries," Chino said at the rally.

Chino, who issued scathing comments about the president's snub of Indian leaders at his New Mexico reception on Oct. 13, the day before Columbus Day, was the only New Mexico tribal leader not invited to a subsequent meeting with the president. But, as he told the rally crowd Friday, "I am glad that my statements of earlier this week prompted President Clinton to alter his plans and actually meet with my fellow New Mexico tribal leaders.

The reason he is switching his support to Dole, Chino explained in his prepared speech, is because of Dole's record of supporting Indian issues and wanting to create a probusiness environment for Indians. His decision was not solely based on Kelly's actions shutting down Casino Apache, Chino said.

The three-week-old casino Dole and Domenici, on the other closure has forced the tribe to "President Clinton personally hand, have shown their support of eliminate 400 jobs and cut back funding of educational programs on the reservation, Chino said.

Chino said that Dole's voting record shows: - he voted for increases in the BIA Loan Guaranty Program during the Reagan and Bush administrations:

- and, without those increases Dole supported, more than $250 million in economic development programs for Indians wouldn't have happened in the past 12 years. Economic development on the Mescalero Apache Reservation has included the Inn of the Mountain Gods, a timber mill and convention center.

"Rhetoric, political posturing and bureaucratic band-aid programs from Washington are not going to allow the American Indian people to enjoy the equality our fellow citizens enjoy," Chino said in "Sovereignty, closing. self-determination, personal responsibility, equality, character and the freedoms Bob Dole and American Indians fought for side-by-side in world wars are what make America great.

"The Mescalero Apache Tribe is proud to endorse Bob Dole as our next president of the United States.

The Republican senator from New Mexico was introduced by Lincoln County Commissioner Monroy Montes, as a legend in politics.

Ruidoso News Staff Writer Leaders of two citizen support groups for Fort Stanton say they must work together if the effort to creats a museum and history center at the fort is to succeed.

But during the third meeting of Operation Fort Stanton, members of the two groups seemed to have trouble figuring out how that can be actionalished.

At a previous Operation meeting, Virginia Jones, who heads Priends of Fort Stanton and the associated Fort Stanton Historic Foundation Inc., invited the Operations group to join her organization.

Operations president Sally Burkstaller turned the invitation around Thursday, inviting Jones' group to join her. The fort is located 12 miles northeast of Ruidoso.

Burkstaller said Operation Fort Stanton has more than 400 members. About 50 people attended the Thursday meeting, showing that volunteers are willing to contribute their time, she said.

But after listening to some of the and living history center with enactments and trail rides, Jones' husband, Lonnie Lippmann, questioned if the historical integrity of the fort could be maintained with all of the activities being proposed.

Burkstaller assured him preservation of the historic aspects of the fort is the first emphasis. Lynda Sanchez, writer, teacher and anthropologist, told Lippmann she wouldn't remain associated with the Operation group if "heritage" tourism isn't the primary focus.

Real estate agent Cindy Lynch, who handles legislative issues for the local Realtors association, threw her support with Burkstal-

There's nothing I want more," Burkstaller said. "I implore you to join us. When we have another workshop, let's have it together. We both want the fort preserved."

Jones agreed it's necessary to appoint someone to be liaison between the two groups and it would be beneficial to have some mutual meetings of key committees from each group.

Jones' group recently met with representatives from a half dozen state departments and several federal agencies to review possible funding avenues. They also are incorporating the foundation as a non-profit entity, she said.

Burkstaller said she's also been busy. She and several friends handed out fliers on Fort Stanton, which was closed as a state hospital in March 1995.

And she went to Santa Fe to ley said. corner state officials and legislators, Public Lands Commissioner Ray Powell seemed especially interested. Burkstaller said.

"It's incredible," Burkstaller said. "Every day I go to the mailbox and find letters of support and I receive phones calls. It's so encouraging."

Burkstaller appointed members to several different committees, including a speaker's bureau to talk to clubs and other groups about plans for the fort.

Lincoln County Commissioner Bill Schwettmann said the county can help with grant writing when the time comes, but first the state must release the fort to the county government to eliminate some of the requirements that arretgo steep for most groups. Let it snow!

We can't complain — but we do. Brrri we how when we walk out the door of our homes.

Yuk! we complain as we sidestep slushy snew. But when we take a child's viewpoint, we remember the beauty of snow and how fun it is to play in.

And when we take a skier's viewpoint, we remember how fun snow can be even when you're an adult. And when we take a businessman's point of view, we remember that the white stuff drives our winter economy.

Then the snow and cold is a little easier to take. We all know too well what a drought of snow can do to the winter economy — as well as the summer. So let it snow!

Signal epidemic infects Ruidoso TO THE EDITOR:

This is a warning to the citizens of Ruidosol There is an epidemic here in Ruidoso that seems to be spreading. At first I wasn't too worried as it seemed to be affecting vehicles with black and white license plates only. But it has now infected vehicles with yellow and red licenses as well.

In case you aren't aware of the symptoms, they evidently start by making the turn signals inoperative. Afterwards it seems to slow your vehicle to the point that it can go no faster than 15 mph. As a precaution I would suggest, oh maybe at least once a week or so, to check your signals — you could do it in the privacy of your own yard or garage so no one will know if you are a carrier. ·

I hope this warning has not been too frightening!

Vote yes on Amendment 7

TO THE EDITOR:

An important proposal to help protect our safety on county roads and bridges is coming up before voters in the next month.

In the Nov. 5 general election. voters will be asked to approve amendment #7 to the New Mexico State Constitution which would allow counties to borrow money to purchase equipment for road and bridge construction and repair, as well as to buy land for open space and trails. Unlike many cities, county government currently has no authority to issue bonds for these purposes, a common method of financing these purchases. A simple "yes" majority vote through-out the state would give all the counties this authority.

all the Bound selected in 1816 (1916)

At the same time, the amendment provides that voters would have to later approve any specific decision to borrow money to make these purchases.

The amendment is critical at this time as our roads fall into worse and worse repair. Increasing populations in many of our small counties has put an incredible burden on county services like road repair. Unfortunately, county budgets are stretched to their limits. This amendment would give counties the ability to plan shead and purchase equipment vitally necessary for road and bridge repair, helping to protect the lives of our families.

We encourage all citizens to vote OR amendment #7 on Nov. 5.

Help make school bus rides safe from school poses few dangers. It is not, however, risk-free! Many thousands of children are injured each year, some fatally. If children are taught common safety practices at home as well as at school, many, if not all, of these injuries can be prevented. As parents, we, too, can help by keeping safety ever-present in our daily routine.

TO THE EDITOR:

Oct. 20-26 is National School Bus Safety Week, sponsored by the National Safety Council and the National Highway Transportation and Safety Administration — a time when we can begin to focus our attention to our safety practices In a recent edition the person in relative to School Bus and owner of a house on Aspen Circle, I and remind them to always stop at would be satisfied just to have lids curbs or edges of parked cars and look left-right-left before proceeding across a street or intersection (even if there is a crosswalk, light or crossing guard). Also, instruct your children to never walk behind a school bus and to keep a distance of 10 feet in front or 6 feet to the sides of the bus when entering the bus or exiting from it.

As drivers, we should watch for children and youth walking to school and on hicycles, especially at intersections and driveways. Young bicyclists have a tendency to dart out of driveways without looking for traffic. We should slow down and watch for children and youth playing and gathering near bus stops and be aware that children and youth are often running late and only have one thing in mind — getting to the stop. Therefore, safety is, unfortunately, not com-monly a forethought. When you see red lights or yellow lights flashing on a school bus, stop your car for loading and unloading, and do not begin to drive until the lights stop

Our children are our most precious resource for the future. Let's work together to prevent these types of injuries. Remember, together, we CAN make a difference!

Firing sparks Hondo assault charges

by PAMELA GROMWELL Ruidoso News Staff Writer

The firing of Hondo Valley Schools business manager Abdel Ibrahim on Sept. 26 has led to violence and the exchange of accusations between Ibrahim and Superintendent Barbara Casey, and her husband Frank Casey.

At a special meeting on Sept. 26, the Hondo School Board voted unanimously to fire Ibrahim. He had been the business manager for one year.

Casey put Ibrahim on a leave of absence Sept. 20, and she banned him from school premises to block his access to the computer and paperwork, she said. Ibrahim claims he was banned to prevent him from protecting his records from Casey's tampering.

Ibrahim defied the ban twice. once to hand-deliver a request for due process to Casey, and again in the company of former superintendent Margarito Uranga because Uranaga wanted to visit with employees.

Casey went to the police after Ibrahim's second visit to the Hondo campus on Oct. 14, alleging that Ibrahim made "contemptible comments" to another employee about Casey's marital status.

"He asked if I still loved him (Ibrahim) and said he would marry me after Frank was dead," Casey said.

Taking the comment as a veiled threat, Casey and her husband reported the incident to state po- said the investigation is still in the Frank Casey went to Ibrahim's house that evening, Oct. 14, and a violent confrontation ensued.

Two days later Ibrahim filed battery and criminal trespass charges against Frank Casey, and Frank Casey filed assault and battery charges against Ibrahim in Roswell Municipal Court. According to court records, both men pleaded innocent and both cases will go to court.

Casey claims Ibrahim invited him into his house, then grabbed fit came to a bead when the school's extennal auditor was here Sept. 17 and 18. We (Casey and Ibrahim) had a confrontation over something he (Ibrahim) wanted nie to. say was general practice that was not? * true. **

Ibrahim claims that when he answered Casey's banging on the door, Casey looked violent so Ibrahim tried to shut the door. Ibrahim claims Casey forced his way into the house and proceeded to beat Ibrahim up in front of his 7year-old son. 📑

School allegations

Barbara Casey said Ibrahim was terminated for causes related to "discrepencies in the district's financial transactions." She could not say if any money was missing from school accounts.

Ibrahim's attorney Richard Hawthorne said the school board's hasty action may have violated

Ibrahim's right to due process. "We feel he's been wrongly terminated," Hawthorne added. "They didn't have just cause."

If the outcome of a termination hearing does not satisfy Ibrahim, he is prepared to file a wrongful termination suit against the Hondo School District, Hawthorne said. Casey and the school board have failed to follow correct termination procedures, Hawthorne said.

No date has been set for Ibrahim's termination hearing, Casey said.

Ibrahim charges that Casey's inexperience as a school administra-tor and finances has led lies to make several mistakes and only in his termination, but also in her ad-ministration of the Hondo Valley Schools: Casey is a state legislator and former teacher, and this is her first year as a superintendent.

Ibrahim has his own concerns about the district's finances under Casey's administration, he said.

Ibrahim has accused Casey of using school time and resources to manage her legislative and campaign work as House Representative of District 58 in Roswell.

"That's the most ridiculous thing I've heard in my whole life," Casey responded.

Casey has served six terms as Dist. 58 state representative and is competing against Dara Dana to keep her seat in the coming elec-

Casey said she had suspicions about the handling of Hondo's school money since she took the job of superintendent in July.

"It came to a head when the school's external auditor was here Sept. 17 and 18," Casey said. "We (Casey and Ibrahim) had a confrontation over something he (Ibrahim) wanted me to say was general practice that was not true."

Ibrahim said the confrontation was over an internal control procedure the auditor recommended for the 95-96 school year. Casey believes Ibrahim wanted her to tell the auditor that these procedures are in place for the current school year, though they are not, she said.

Ibrahim believes that confrontation was just a matter of miscommunication or misunderstanding.

"If there was any other problem or build-up, I don't know about it,' Ibrahim said.

"A lot of things were done that shouldn't have been, and things should have been done that weren't," Casey said, "I felt like he wasn't cooperating. He had trouble, dealing with the fact that I was the boss and he wasn't."

Students can get lottery money for scholarships

The New Mexico Lottery handed over $836,270 in September 1996 lottery ticket sales to the State Treasurer on Oct. 10 for use in funding education in New Mexico.

Of this total, $501,762 or 60% goes to the Public School Capital Outlay Fund. This fund does not benefit every school in New Mexico. It is money set aside strictly for school districts in dire need of improved or enlarged facilities which cannot fund construction themselves.

Schools must apply for these capital outlay funds after meeting seven eligibility requirements.

The remaining 40% of lottery proceeds, or $334,508 for September, go to the Lottery Tuition Fund. This fund provides tuition assistance for New Mexico residents attending New Mexico colleges and universities.

Students who graduated from high school in May 1996 are the first class of students eligible for the scholarships. Disbursement of funds to eligible students will begin in### 1997.

Enrollment increases at university this fall

by PAMELA CROMWELL

Ruidoso News Staff Writer Ruidoso's Eastern New Mexico University added 16 students to the roster this fall, raising enrollment 3% from 516 to 532.

The average student is taking a few more credit hours this year, but the six average credit hours show most of the students are still parttime. Students are taking a total of 3,030 credit hours, up 10% from last fail's 2,759 hours, ENMU director Jim Miller said.

"We've seen a steady increase in enrollment since 1991," Miller said. "I'm glad we're continuing to grow at a time when not all colleges around the country are growing."

While Eastern has primarily attracted adult learners in Ruidosp, the college is seeing a few more recent high school graduates sign-ing up for college here, Miller said. "Most of our students are work-

The biggest obstacle to enrolling new students in Ruidoso is the lack of child care, Miller said. Many adults going back to college need someone to look after the children while there is clear. while they're in class,

"We probably could have grown more if we were able to identify quality late afternoon and evening childcare," Miller said.

ENMU's facility is also about to increase in size. Within the next month, construction will begin on three new high technology televi-sion classrooms, Miller said. These classrooms will be sided into the remaining space at the back of ENMUs one year old location in Sierra Mall.

The loss means the Warriors have to win their next two games to make the Class AAA state football playoffs. Ruidoso is 3-5 overall and 1-1 in district play.

The Colts scored on two long pass plays that went for touchdowns and a 95-yard fumble recovery for a

"They had three big plays that really hurt us," Ruidoso coach Les Carter said. "They never put together a drive. The kids played well. We had an opportunity to win the game and didn't do it."

Silver took a 6-0 lead late in the first half on the first of two bombs for scorés.

Ruidoso pooched the second-half kickoff and recovered the ball on the Silver 14-yard line. After moving the pigskin to the 5-yard line, the Warriors fumbled. A Silver defensive player scooped up the loose ball and scampered 95 yards for the score.

"It came down to the team that made the least mistakes would win and that's what happened," Carter added.

Ruidoso's only score came in the second half when sophomore quarterback Corey Saenz completed a middle screen pass to Josh Varnadore for a 22-yard TD pass play.

The Warriors have a week to heal from the Silver game.

"We've got a lot of kids that are beat up and sore and tired. We're going to take care of that this week," Carter added.

Ruidoso's next game is at Cobre Nov. 1. In order to make the state playoffs, the Warriors must win their two remaining games.

Is there any truth to the notion of a "home court" advantage? How about a "home course"

In a collective voice, the Ruidoso cross country team answers with, "The Hill."

The Hill will come into play Thursday when the Warriors host 10 other cross country teams for their annual Ruidoso Invitational. and the Warriors are convinced that the 175meter-long hill nestled in the 3-mile-long course will separate them from the rest.

"Psychologically, the girls think they can pass a lot of other runners on The Hill," explained Ruidoso cross country coach Ronny Maskew as his runners tackled The Hill during practice Monday.

When you get used to doing something tough, it's not so bad....Not many teams prac-tice on a hill like this," he said. The Warriors run The Hill every week. In preparation for Thursday's meet, the Ruidoso runners made four trips up and down the onetenth of a mile incline Monday with the temperatures in the 30s and snow spitting. Sometimes they run it as many as eight times in one practice.

"Just the fact that this is our turf helps us a lot," Ruidoso sophomore Erica Romero said. "We know we can run The Hill because we practice on it.

The Warriors say they have another advantage: Cisco Bob. The former Ruidoso running standout and Olympic hopeful is literally in step with the Warriors during practice.

Seniors Becenti Platero and America Sandoval both say it helps to have Bob running along with the team. His encouragement rubs off on the Warriors.

'He'll look at us while we're running and tell us whether we need to pump our arms more, or whatever," Romero added. The Warriors can learn from observing Bob's work ethic, too, Maskew said.

Ruidoso is taking full advantage of Maskew's expertise, Bob's pacesetting and workouts that include The Hill.

The boys team has run well together all season, Cross country aficionados know the importance of "running with the pack" for scoring purposes. As a result, the Warriors have become a formidable team, posting their best finish in years at the Lubbock Invitational. There, Ruidoso took fifth place of 67

Romero has led the girls team, finishing in the top five in five of mix meets. The girls and boys have set their sights onwinning the district 3AAA title. Ruidoso hosts this fall's district meet Nov. 8, and that's why district foes Silver and Cobre won't be invited to Thursday's meet.

"I really don't want them to run the course," said Maskew, reasoning The Hill will be an advantage for the Warriors.

Ruidoso enters its meet with fresh legs. The Warriors are coming off an open weekend. The last time Ruidoso ran was Oct. 12 at the New Mexico Military Institute Invitational, where the boys took second and the girls placed fifth.

Six quad-A schools are entered in Thursday's Ruidoso meet. Alamogordo, Clovis, Hobbs, Carlsbad, Roswell and Goddard will join Class AAA's Artesia, NMMI and Ruidoso. Class AA neighbor Tularosa heads up the mountain to compete also. For the first time, Texas Clint High School will run at the Ruidoso meet.

Ruidoso and Clint both ran at the Lubbock Invitational where Clint swept the boys and girls team titles.

The girls varsity race starts the action Thursday. They race at 3 p.m., followed by the boys varsity race at 3:40 p.m. The girls junior race is set for 4:15 p.m. with the boys junior varsity race at 5 p.m.

Maskew expects the weather to warm up by Thursday, but if it doesn't, the boys and girls junior varsity races will be run together. All races start and finish at the football practice field at Ruidoso High School.

CI-Soccer team earns trip to playoffs

by Laura Clymer Ruidoso News Sports Writer

A pair of victories last week guaranteed the Warrior soccer team at least a tie for the district championship and a trip to the state soccer tourney, At the start of the season, not many predicted the youthful War-riors would make this trip. But Signud Schmitz's Warriors are Wising up fast. The Ruidose Warrior soccer team proved it learns from its mistakes with wins last Thursday and Saturday. The Warriors blanked Hatch, 7-0 Thursday, and then followed that up with another district win, a 5-1 decision over Silver Sat-

"I only said one thing to them at practice. You can't let anyone get in the way of your mental game, and they took it to heart," Ruidoso coach Sigrud Schmitz said.

The Warriors, now 10-4 overall and 4-1 in districts, found themselves reeling with frustration after a 4-0 loss to Santa Teresa Oct. 12. In that game, the normal jockeying for position turned downright nasty and dirty. The Desert Warriors' physical play provoked Ruidoso into retaliating instead of playing soccer, Schmitz said.

... The objective heading into last week's games was to stay mentally in the matches, Ruidoso team cocaptain Piper Adamian said last week.

The Warriors did exactly that.

Ruidoso put the clamps on Hatch's solid passing ability Thursday from the opening kickoff. Schmitz had a good idea his ready to play. All the way from St. Augustine Pass outside of Las Cruces to Hatch High School, the Warriors didn't utter a word to each other on the bus.

Senior co-captain Jimmy Stover scored three times against the Bears. Adamian added a pair of goals. Gerald Gomez and eighthgrader Ryan Blackmon each scored a goal.

Four Warriors hit the net in Saturday's 5-1 victory over Silver. Stover had two, while Gomez, Adamian and eighth-grader Sean Sebastian each tallied a score.

Ruidoso took a 3-0 halftime lead, then put it away in the second half with two goals in the last 15 minutes. The Warriors and Colts tangled in rain, sleet and hail throughout most of the game,

As the team heads toward the postsesson, leading scorers Stover and Adamian are getting the support the Warriors will need from their teammates.

If like it because our distribution of scoring is evening out," Schmitz

Ruidoso News Sports Writer The Capitan football team did unto the Reserve Mountaineers as others have done to the Tigers this

The Tigers, plagued most of the season by turnovers, forced three Mountaineer miscues and turned them into scores. The turnovers combined with Capitan's defense vaulted the Tigers past Reserve, 39-7, Saturday in the District 3A opener for both teams.

Capitan improved to 3-4 on the season, while Reserve fell to 2-5. After a sluggish start, the Tigers played well on both sides of the ball, said assistant coach Pat Ventura, who stepped into the head coaching duties for Ed Davis. Davis Jest missed Saturday/s/game betause of family emergency. He left Capitan Friday and was expected to return Tuesday.

"All season we've played in game worked. Our running game spurts. Saturday, we finally played the whole game," Ventura said.

It took a turnover of their own to get the attention of the Tigers. Capitan coughed up the ball deep in its own territory midway through the first half of play. Reserve recovered it and went in to score for a 7-0 lead.

"I think it kind of woke us up." Ventura said of the miscue, the only turnover of the game for the Tigers.

After the alarm sounded, the Tigers didn't hit the snooze button. Capitan rattled off 18 straight points to take a 18-7 halftime lead. Ventura credited both the Tiger offense and defense. The Capitan defense stymied the Reserve offense and gave it's offense the hall in good field position.

Capitan didn't let up in the second half either. The Tigers scored 21 points in the third and fourth Senior quarterback Steve Wilson led the Tigers with three touchdowns. Another senior spearheaded the Capitan defense attack. The Tigers welcomed back Jayson McSwane, who has been hobbled by knee problems all season. McSwane played most of the game on the defensive side of the ball.

"The kids played hard. They finally believe that they do have the potential to play with anybody," Ventura said.

The Tigers take a break from district play when they host the Alamogordo sophomore team at 2 good field position.

Neither group was instructed to decrease the amount of food they are or to increase their exercise levels. An article published in the American Journal of Clinical Nutrition confirms that you don't have to reduce the amount of food you cat to lose weight, provided that you time the fat.

Scientists suggest that the mecha-nism behind the weight reduction includes decreasing sugar cravings and interruption of the "Krebs Cycle", an important step in the body's fat storage process. "The best part of this unique discovery is that it is not a drug, but a safe dietary food supplement says Dr. Conte. The Asian fruit, called garcinia, is similar to citrus fruit found in the United States with one big exception-- it may help some people fight obesity! While Dr. Conte's study may be preliminary, the exclusive North American distributor, Phillips Gulf Corp., is calling the Bio-Max 3000 supplement "Nature's Ideal Diet Aid."

CRUISING FOR RUINS THE It's been more than a house of the same since the Mayas ruled in south Mexico and Central America, but today a cruise industry has brought the wooders of that astonishing civilization back to life for the modern visitors. A number of formerly remote sites in Mexico, Belize, Honduras, and Guatemala are now accessible, thanks to some purts of call that didn't even exist a few years ago. Many area cruises feature at least one excursion to a Mayan historical site. For travelers who want more, there are itineraries designed entirely around the exploration of Mayan ruins and culture. In addition to well-known Mayan sites on the Yucatan Peninsula, travelers may be surprised by other temples and pyramids that can seem to appear out of nowhere, suddenly looming above the lush tropical forest. Mayan descendants often serve as guides.

Cruising is a wonderful, relaxing way to visit many exciting destinations on one trip. You don't need to pack and unpack between hotels and meals are varied and plentiful. If you have chosen a cruise for your next adventure, whether to visit Mexico and Central America or to travel on other waterways of the world, come talk to our travel agents at WORLD DIS-COVERY TRAVEL, 1009 Mechem Drive, IN the Paddock. You won't pay a fee for our services and you can hear all about our experiences. Phone: 258-3838.

Some emergency tips for pets recently were published by "Prevention for Pets Magazine," ranging from how to give medicine to pets to how to check your pet's pulse.

And experts answered the often-asked question about the dangers of chocolate to pets.

Calling it a tasty toxin, the magazine stated it is dangerous to pets when eaten in large quantities. especially baking chocolate.

Below are some of the other tips listed.

When trying to locate the pulse cines: of a pet, the inside of the back thigh where the leg joins the body is the best place. The normal pulse for cats is 110-170 beats per minute and for dogs, 70-150 per minute.

The magazine writer's recommend using carrots and hard rubber toys to help keep pets' teeth clean.

When a pet has bad teeth, bacteria can enter the blood stream around the gums and could settle on the heart valve. They recommend brushing or scrubbing the teeth daily.

Bad breath also can be an indicator of a more serious problem.

A urine-like smell might mean kidney disease.

A sweet scent could indicate diabetes, coupled with a pet drinking or urinating more than usual.

A foul mouth order could mean a liver disorder, if the pet also is vomiting, has lost its appetite, has a swollen stomach area or yellowing of the eyes or gums.

A short list of house plants that could hurt your pet includes philodendron, dieffenbachia, yew, caladium, spider plant, cyclmen, foxglove, holly, mistletoe, azalea and rhododendron.

But bottom line, house plants should be placed when pets can't reach them.

To give pets prescription medi-

- wrap a towel around a cat's chest to ensure its feet are blocked:

- place the palm of your hand over the bridge of the pet's nose, circling the muzzle with your thumb and middle finger and fitting behind each upper canine tooth:

— gently press the lips against the teeth to make the pet drop its

- with the other hand, put the pill on the back of the tongue and hold the pet's mouth closed, stroking the throat until it swallows;

- as soon as the medicine is in place, gently blow in the cat's face and it will swallow as a reflex, or wait until it licks its nose, a signal it has swallowed.

Not So Pretty In Pink

Conjunctivitis — sometimes known as pinkeye — is an inflammation of the membrane that covers the white of the eye and lines the underside of the eyelid. This membrane contains tiny blood vessels. When it is irritated, these blood vessels enlarge and become more prominent. This is what makes the eyes appear pink.

Many kinds of irritation can cause this condition, including infection, allergies and environmental irritants. Infectious conjunctivitis — whether caused by viruses of bacteria — can be very contagious.

Giant papillary conjunctivitis is one form of the disease that can affect contact lens wearers. It can be caused by the lens itself, deposits on the lenses, or a problem with the contact lens solution. Replacement of the lenses or changes in the lens care routine may be needed to combat this condition.

There are other diseases that can lead to pink looking eyes. Some of these can result in more serious problems, unless detected and treated. It is always wise to seek a professional evaluation for pink or red eyes.

Scientific American Frontiers

"Inventing the Future"

From the futuristic Media Lab at MIT to the dusty, overcrowded game preserves of South Africa, and from the brains of humans to robots that think, viewers explore the extremes of nature and invention on Scientific American Frontiers, America's premier science magazine series. Science aficionado Alan Alda returns for the fifth year as host and guide for the series.

The season opens with "Inventing the Future" in the state-of-the-art Media Lab at MIT where host Alan Alda spends a fascinating week with the world's foremost "technoguru." Nicholas Negroponte, and a team of scientists that is literally "inventing the future." Viewers accompany Alda on an exploration of an environment in which desks, rooms, cars. musical instruments, and even a virtual dog interact with human beings. This program departs from the series' traditional format of exploring several aspects of a single theme and concentrates solely on Negroponte and his work on interactive technology at MIT.

"Inventing the Future" on Scientific American Frontiers will air Friday, October 25th at 1:00 p.m.

Masterpiece Theatre

"Bramwell II"

Dr. Eleanor Bramwell, the empathic, committed, and iconoclastic young doctor who debuted on Masterpiece Theatre in the spring, returns for four new episodes in "Bramwell II." Jemma Redgrave reprises her role as the scion of affluent Dr. Robert Bramwell (David Calder), an adoring father who's nonetheless mystified by his daughter's devotion to the Thrift, the infirmary where she ministers to residents of London's slums. Russell Baker hosts the broadcasts.

"Bramwell II" is based on actual case histories from the Victorian era. while Dr. Eleanor Bramwell is modeled on real doctors of that period.

"Bramwell II" on Masterpiece Theatre will be broadcast Sundays at 9:00 p.m. beginning October 27th. The series repeats Fridays at 11:00 p.m.
