ON THE SIDE

Marketing partners meet this Thursday

Thirty potential marketing partners for the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce have been invited to the first annual Mountain Summit at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 27, at the chamber office in the Ruidoso State Bank on Mechem Drive.

Chamber Executive Director Joan Bailey said the brainstorming session will focus on creating a network for the business community to pool resources and knowledge.

"The goal is to make one big marketing splash for this area," Bailey said.

Review of U.S. 70 project today

Proposed improvements to U.S. 70 from State Road 48 east to the Rio Ruidoso Bridge will be previewed from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 26 at the Ruidoso Civic Events Center.

Construction on the 5.8 mile project is slated to begin next August. It will include reconstruction of the four-lane section and resurfacing and widening of the two-lane portion of the roadway.

A continuous left turn lane would replace the existing raised media in the four-lane section. Shoulders would be widened on the two-lane section. Other safety improvements, utility adjustments and drainage modifications also are planned. No additional right-of-way would be needed.

The public can view the project from 6 p.m. - 6:30 p.m., a formal presentation is set from 6:30 p.m. - 7 p.m. and public input will be accepted until 8 p.m.

Hearing on garbage March 11

The Ruidoso Village Council will delve into some garbage March 11.

Councilors and Mayor Jerry Shaw on Tuesday approved March 11 as the date for a public hearing regarding Ruidoso's solid waste woes and the service provided by the Lincoln County Solid Waste Authority. The SWA is a consortium of all the village and county governments in Lincoln County.

The hearing will be held at 6 p.m. Tuesday, March 11 at the Ruidoso Civic Events Center. If the center is unavailable, a new site will be named.

Breaking ground

Library and Ruidoso officials gathered Monday for the ground breaking ceremony for the new, larger library to be built next to village hall. Work is on schedule and officials hope to see it open by Thanksgiving. Ruidoso voters approved a bond issue to cover the cost of construction.

District Judge Parsons' daughter chosen by gov to replace him

By Dianne Stallings

Like father, like daughter the saying sort of goes. Ruidoso lawyer Karen Parsons will be taking over the gavel and district judge's chair when her father, Judge Richard A. Parsons, retires after 12 years in office. Her father will administer Parsons' oath of office on Monday, March 17 in Carrizozo.

Gov. Gary Johnson announced his choice for the Division Three, 12th Judicial District judgeship Friday from a list of three lawyers recommended for the job by a committee. Parsons will serve until the next general election.

Johnson selected Jerry H. Ritter of the district attorney's office in Alamogordo for the Division One seat, left vacant when Sandra Grisham failed to muster enough votes last November to keep the office. Ritter was selected over James Waylon Counts, who was appointed when the fourth judgeship was first created in the 12th district, but lost his bid for election in 1994, and over Wayne A. Jordan, Grisham's husband, who ran unsuccessfully for the fourth division office two years ago.

Parsons beat out two other attorneys recommended by the state's Judicial Nominating Committee for Parsons' chair, former Ruidoso municipal judge Charles Hawthorne and former assistant attorney general Marc Prelo.

"I was just thrilled, humbled and overwhelmed,"

Karen Parsons said Monday. "It was a great day" Friday.

As far as handling the new pressures of being a judge, Parsons said, "I hope I handle it with a lot of patience, open-mindedness and enthusiasm."

Parsons, a Republican like the governor, also is the daughter-in-law of State Rep. Dub Williams (R-Glencoe), who introduced the governor's proposed state gambling bill in the state Legislature last month.

Judge Parsons said he was delighted with the governor's selection of his daughter. He'll stay around long enough to show her the files and where the staples are, but she'll be learning on the job, he said.

"She, in my judgment, was the most qualified," Parsons said. "She's a very hard working person and she has a great temperament."

Judge Parsons thought his daughter's chances were good from the beginning, "but then, you never can tell."

The majority of Karen Parsons' practice has focused on family issues such as divorce, child custody, adoption, estate planning, personal injury, probate, real estate and other civil litigation. Her resume listed limited experience in criminal and juvenile cases, which account for about 50% of the

Legislators use up last chance for bills

By Helen Gaussoin
News capitol correspondent

Legislators flooded the House and Senate floors with bills before last week's deadline for bill introductions, exceeding the total introduced during the last 60-day session by hundreds.

While legislators can continue to introduce memorials and resolutions, the midpoint of the session is the deadline for new bills. House members this year introduced 1,341 bills compared with 1,146 in 1995, and senators introduced 1,245 bills, compared with 1,141 in 1995. The total for this "long session" is 2,586 compared with the long session two years ago when the total number of bills was 2,287. State lawmakers meet for 60 days in odd years and 30 days in even years.

Legislators also introduced more than 100 "dummy" bills, bills with vague titles and no content that are traded out for real bills as the session progresses.

While state senators introduced an average of about 30 bills each, House members introduced a more restrained average of about 19 each.

Both of Lincoln County's legislators exceeded the average for their chamber. Rep. Dub Williams, R-Glencoe, introduced 27 bills, as well as a House joint resolution. Sen. Pete Campos, D-Las Vegas, introduced 86 bills and one Senate joint resolution, however, 72 of the bills ask for special appropriations for local projects.

Among the legislation introduced by Campos:

— Senate Joint Resolution 5 would ask voters to decide whether the state constitution should be amended to add a magistrate to the Judicial Standards Commission, which currently consists of two justices, two lawyers and five citizens.

— Senate Bill 894 would require the state to provide counties with funding for road maintenance.

Ice covers roads throughout county

By Dianne Stallings
Ruidoso News Staff Writer

Drizzling mist and cold temperatures sent cars slipping and sliding on icy roads across Lincoln County Tuesday.

Icy conditions prompted schools to close or delay opening Tuesday, but no serious injuries were reported by local law enforcement agencies.

Fenders were bent on Brady Canyon, Pott Drive and Sunny Slopes in Ruidoso. County road department crews said Gavilan Canyon, Palo Verde and roads in the Alto Lakes Subdivision were hazardous and being salted. Traveling was even tough for county trucks, said department secretary Kim Roper.

"There's not much you can do on ice except drive slowly and be careful," she said.

But the storm and low clouds sitting over Ruidoso Monday and Tuesday didn't deliver the area's most desired winter dividend — snow.

A Ski Apache spokesman said no snow fell on the mountains.

"It was just an ice storm," she said, but the road to the resort was salted and passable Tuesday.

Schools in Hondo and Corona closed down for the day. A two-hour delay was declared for schools in Ruidoso and Capitan with hopes the mercury would creep higher by mid-morning.

The Ruidoso Police Department noted the temperature hit a low of 16 degrees early Tuesday.

Conditions in Carrizozo were windy and icy, but school started on time. The county Sheriff's

Bill offers 50-year lease of Fort Stanton to county

Final wording in House Joint Resolution 17 about the future of Fort Stanton provides for up to a 50-year lease of the historic fort to Lincoln County, but requires approval by the state of a master plan.

The resolution, drafted by the Legislative Council Service, notes that the state's property control division wants to lease the fort and its 1,324 acres to the county. The lease may or may not include neighboring Camp Sierra Blanca, scheduled to be used as a state juvenile offender environmental camp.

Fort Stanton, about 12 miles northeast of Ruidoso, was closed in March 1995 as a state hospital and is being used for at least the next 18 months as a minimum security prison for women.

The resolution does not mention any financial assistance from the state, and specifies that the fort won't be leased to the county until the state no longer needs it.

The county commission has not come up with any specific use for the fort complex, but members of a group called Operation Old Fort Stanton are working to create a living museum there with demonstrations and re-enactments.

local district judge's time. She noted only one trial in front of a jury, but about 24 civil cases in front of judges.

Parsons said criminal work won't be a big problem.

"I was a police science (criminology) major, so I'm very familiar with criminal law," she said. "I worked with the district attorney's office in Albuquerque while I was in college, so it's not that foreign to me. It will be a challenge and I will have to work real hard, but I don't see that as a real problem."

When queried about the basis for the selection of Parsons, the governor's office sent a news release listing her background. Parsons currently is a partner in Parsons, Bryant and Morel P.A. She graduated from Ruidoso High School and received her bachelor's degree from New Mexico State University. She has served as secretary/treasurer for the Lincoln County Bar Association and is a member of the state bar association.

She frequently lectures for classes in Ruidoso schools and teaches People's Law School classes at Eastern New Mexico University in Ruidoso.

Ritter is an assistant district attorney and senior trial prosecutor for the 12th Judicial District Attorney's Office. He graduated from Cloudcroft High School and received his bachelor's degree from New Mexico State University. He earned his law degree from the University of New Mexico. He served on the Committee on Delivery of Legal Services to People with Disabilities, and the Natural Resources and Indian Law Sections of the State Bar of New Mexico. He volunteers his time as district committee member on behalf of an Alamogordo troop of Boy Scouts of America.

Office received a report of one minor accident on State Road 48, because of road conditions Monday evening. Capitan's roads were "sheets of ice," said Village Clerk Deborah Cummins. Coupled with fog, the icy weather kept residents at home and off the roads, she said.

A spokesman for the Hondo school system said administrators didn't want school buses on the roads because of the black ice. In Corona, "trees were hanging with ice," a school official said.

In Ruidoso Downs, one car slid off the road and two cars collided in separate minor accidents connected to the ice. Police officials reported back roads were slick, but crews were applying salt. Water service was shut off to a few businesses and homes in Ruidoso Downs for a couple hours Monday and again Tuesday, but not because of the weather. Town utility employees were working on a new fire hydrant at the Wal-Mart construction site on U.S. 70.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Free shots delayed until March 4

A free inoculation van scheduled to be in Ruidoso today (Wednesday) was delayed by icy road conditions and won't be in town until Tuesday, March 4.

The Ruidoso Rotary Club arranged for the visit by the state Department of Health van as part of its awareness program for preschool children, who can receive free inoculations against common childhood diseases.

The van will be stationed from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the free parking lot just east of the McGary Studio building on Sudderth Drive.

Cats come up missing in Ruidoso

A rash of cat disappearances has at least one animal control officer worried that cat-nappers may be at work in the Ruidoso area.

Good-looking animals may be sold as purebreds and mixes could end up in a laboratory somewhere.

"We've had probably eight people call about cats in the last month," ACO Tom Armstrong said. "It does seem like something is going on. They're asking about cats they've had for years and years."

He hasn't found dead cats on the roadway, Armstrong said.

"The situation seems strange to me. I've had a couple of Ruidoso people call me in the last week about it. I feel something is going on."

Employees at the Lincoln County Humane Society shelter on Gavilan Canyon Road said they haven't seen any increase in lost cats reported.

nance whenever the state turns a road over to a county for upkeep.

Among legislation introduced by Williams:

— House Bill 399 is the governor's plan for legalizing gambling in the state. It has been amended extensively by the House Business and Industry Committee and now allows Indian casinos and video gambling machines at horse race-tracks and, after one year, at veterans and fraternal clubs. It also allows charities to hold "casino night" fund-raisers twice a year.

— House Bill 579 exempts private organizations that run public hospitals from the Open Records and Open Meetings Act. The exemption is being sought by administrators of Presbyterian Healthcare Services, which runs the Lincoln County hospital, because their lawyers are concerned the private corporation might be forced to open its meetings to the public. Under an amendment, local hospital boards would be subject to the acts, but the Presbyterian board would not.

— House Joint Resolution 17 ratifies the proposed lease of Fort Stanton to Lincoln County, with or without Camp Sierra Blanca. Senate Bill 1107, sponsored by Campos, authorizes the state to spend $1 million to use Camp Sierra Blanca as a youth boot camp.

Lou Ann Duvall

Lou Ann Duvall, 42, of Midland, died Monday, Feb. 24 at her home.

Funeral services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 27 at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Midland, with Dr. Jarrel Sharp officiating.

She was born July 25, 1954, in Hobbs, to Marvin and Mary Witcher. She graduated from Hobbs

High School in 1972 and earned a B.A. in Secretarial Science from Angelo State University in 1976. She moved to Midland in 1976 and worked for Bank One from February, 1980 until June, 1996.

Mrs. Duvall married Powers Duvall on Feb. 14, 1982 and was the loving mother of one daughter, Ashley. She was a Sunday school teacher at St. Luke's United Methodist Church and a troop leader for the Girl Scouts of America, Troop 186. She was a member of Chi Epsilon Epsilon sorority in Midland.

Mrs. Duvall was preceded in death by her father, Marvin D. Witcher, on Sept. 24, 1990.

She is survived by her daughter, Ashley, of Midland; by her loving mother, Mary, of Ruidoso; her brother, Marvin D. Witcher, Jr. and wife, Debbie, of Midland; several aunts, uncles, and cousins; and a host of friends.

Pain may be eliminated for millions

(SPECIAL) — A drug that is exciting researchers in the treatment of pain has been formulated into a new product known as "Arthur Itis," and is being called a "Medical Miracle" by some, in the treatment of debilitating conditions such as arthritis, bursitis, rheumatism, painful muscle aches, jointaches, simple backache, bruises, and more. Although the mechanism of action is unclear, experiments indicate that Arthur Itis, relieves pain by first selectively attracting, and then destroying the messenger chemical which carries pain sensations to the brain, thus eliminating pain in the affected area. Arthur Itis, is available immediately without a prescription in an odorless, greaseless, non-staining cream or new easy applicator liquid form. Arthur Itis, is guaranteed to work or your money back.

Some myths and facts about why water pipes break, freeze

Just ask the hundreds of Rocky Mountain Region homeowners who have suffered frozen and broken water pipes this winter, causing insured water damage averaging $1,500 each: It can happen to you, too, if you don't know why water pipes freeze and break.

A frozen and broken water pipe is a preventable catastrophe, so why are so many people suffering?

"Many homeowners aren't sure if what they think they know about frozen and broken water pipes is myth or truth," suggests Regional Manager Nancy Barnett, Western Insurance Information Service. "If you're relying on myths, you could be the next victim. Let's debunk some of these myths, so you'll know how to protect your home."

MYTH: Because there's rarely dramatic news coverage of damage caused by frozen and broken water pipes, such damage must not be on the same scale as a natural disaster and not worth the worry.

TRUTH: While the damage is important to the homeowner, each individual loss (commonly totaling $50,000) rarely receives public attention because homes are damaged one at a time. However, when those homes are added together, insurance companies pay an estimated $450 million a year to U.S. homeowners for insured damage caused by water released when pipes rupture due to cold weather. That's a more damage to more houses in a single year than most hurricanes or earthquakes cause.

MYTH: Pipes break where the ice forms because of the outward expansion of the ice.

TRUTH: It's not the radial expansion of ice against the wall of the pipe that causes the break, it's the water pressure that's created between the ice and the closed faucet. As the ice grows toward the faucet, literally thousands of pounds of water pressure builds within that enclosed space, leading to pipe failure. Usually, the pipe breaks where little or no ice has formed.

MYTH: Letting the faucet drip during extreme cold weather keeps the warm water from freezing in the pipes.

TRUTH: Water can freeze even with a slow flow. However, it is important to let the faucet drip, because opening a faucet will provide relief from the excessive pressure that builds between the faucet and the ice blockage when freezing occurs. Make sure both the hot and cold water lines contribute to the drip, since both can freeze. If the dripping stops, leave the faucet open, so if the pipes have frozen, water pressure won't break the pipes.

MYTH: Pipes are coldest at the ends and warmest in the middle.

TRUTH: Studies have shown that water pipes typically freeze at the center, with ice growth proceeding toward the ends. That's because the middle of the pipe often isn't protected from the cold. When the entire pipe is insulated, the heat located at the pipe ends is spread more evenly throughout the pipe, the rate of heat loss is slowed and the completion of an ice blockage is delayed. By leaving cabinets that enclose water pipes open, you allow the home's heat to travel to the pipes.

MYTH: You have to worry about frozen pipes only during subzero temperatures.

TRUTH: Water pipes can freeze anytime the outside temperature approaches 32 degrees Fahrenheit and/or the house's interior temperature falls below 55 degrees Fahrenheit, so keep your home warm.

MYTH: Wind has little to do with frozen water pipes.

TRUTH: Many frozen and broken pipes are associated with wind and air leakage on uninsulated pipes, either from unintentional air leakage through a hole or crack in the building or from intentional vents in unheated areas, such as crawlspaces and attics.

Russians in Ruidoso

Two educators (center) from St. Petersburg, Russia, visited Eastern New Mexico University-Ruidoso last week enroute to the national conference of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education in Arizona. Dr. Vladimir V. Laptev and his wife, Lilia Lapteva, talked with Dr. Jim Miller of ENMU-R (far left) and Dr. Larry Byrns, dean of the College of Education and Technology at ENMU-Portales (far right). Dr. Laptev is director of research for Russia's largest teachers' college. His wife is assistant principal of an international school in St. Petersburg.

Campos urges review of changes to Medicaid

Sen. Pete Campos (D-Santa Rosa) says the public needs to carefully review proposals to implement managed care for Medicaid recipients.

Campos said he is concerned about the effects the proposed changes may have on rural health clinics and hospitals, and particularly on patients with behavioral health problems.

"We need to do everything possible to get control over the spiraling costs of Medicaid in the New Mexico, but not at the expense of the poor, elderly and those with disabilities," Campos said. "Shifting to a managed care system, in which private companies assume that risk and are responsible for ensuring that Medicaid recipients should receive the care they need, can be a responsible way to reach that goal."

"However, we should consider phasing in a rural and metropolitan Medicaid managed care pilot program to work out the kinks that will arise with providing health care services through this plan," said Campos, who represents Lincoln County.

About 241,000 New Mexicans receive health care through Medicaid. Of those, about 57,150, or 24%, are elderly and disabled, but their expenses account for about 59% of the Medicaid budget.

"Several proposals are before the 1997 Legislature to ensure that the care provided Medicaid patients remains good and to ensure that rural clinics and hospitals continue to be able to treat Medicaid patients," Campos said. "If our rural hospitals lose Medicaid patients because the managed care companies aren't using those hospitals, then they may have financial trouble and be less able to serve their communities," Campos said.

"In addition, I'm concerned that patients who have behavioral health problems may not be properly served by a managed care program and for that reason, I'd like to see those patients remain with the current plan for at least a few more years," Campos concluded.

If 'a little child shall lead them' we'll just follow Robert Temple

No, we're not being facetious; Robert Temple is the 11-year-old fifth-grader who did everything right last week after getting separated from his father and finding himself lost in the rugged country near Hale Lake east of Ruidoso Downs.

Because he did everything right, the intensive night-time search mounted by White Mountain Search & Rescue and other volunteers had a happy ending. Robert's pre-arranged rifle shot signal led the rescuers to his camp shortly after midnight on Feb. 19.

It was a miserable night to search, one of continuous rain mixed with sleet, heavy mud and almost impossible visibility. But the searchers found the youngster in good shape - dry, well-fed (so was his dog) and happy he didn't have to spend the night in a little tunnel he had dug.

Betty Beachum, the field coordinator for the rescue, had high praise for Robert; she called the boy the "perfect subject" if a search was necessary. He was wearing a rain-repellent jacket, carried food and water, and had his dog along for company.

Robert had lived in Ruidoso for only five months, and the landscape was far different from the country around Freeport, La., where he had spent lots of time hunting with his father, Mike. (He and Mike had agreed long ago on how to signal if they became separated - three rifle shots, a pause, then three more shots.)

What Robert did particularly right, when he found he was lost, was to stay put. He dug in, built a fire, cooked himself and his dog Spiket some food, then waited. That's something for all of us who live in mountainous Lincoln County to remember. Even a short Sunday afternoon hike this time of the year can end tragically. Beachum noted that three other searches during the past year ended with the recovery of bodies.

Robert's rescue had some other positive results, said Beachum. Several volunteers who helped in the search (including Robert's dad) have expressed an interest in joining the search and rescue group.

Sinkholes plentiful in Carrizo Canyon

TO THE EDITOR:

(This letter was written to Ruidoso Mayor Jerry Shaw and copied to The Ruidoso News).

If you would get around town more often and remove your blinders I am sure you would also hit the same sinkholes that us working class residents hit with our vehicles every day. Re: The Chamber of Commerce and Carrizo Canyon.

Since Wal-Mart is still part of our village, now would be a good time to fix it. I would hate to have you wait too long and have you take another bond issue and raise taxes again.

Would this be done with taxpayers' money or is it in the bid when work is performed by a private contractor? Thank you in advance and I need an address to send the mechanic's bill for my wheel alignment.

No nukes here, if you please

TO THE EDITOR:

Do you want a nuclear waste dump in your backyard? Do the Mescalero Apache want a nuclear waste dump in their front yard?

How will this dump impact the pristine areas of Lincoln and Otero counties, the national forests, the wildlife, the quality of life? Will the gamblers come to the casino? Will the ski buffs come to Ski Apache? Will the hunters and fishermen come? Will hunters pay to hunt a dump area? Will tourists still frequent the area? Will the dump impact property values? Will the appeal of the cool mountain air be the same?

What will this nuclear waste dump cost us and the State of New Mexico? Will New Mexico become the Land of Enchantment and nuclear dumps?

I don't want a nuclear waste dump within 500 miles of my home!

I offer these thoughts to ponder in your idle hours.

Awesome Ruidoso

TO THE EDITOR:

Our community is awesome! I want to say thank you to all the wonderful, caring people who gave endless hours of help when our friend Cathy Jones was in need.

To the faculty of teachers, administration and volunteers of Ruidoso schools, your overwhelming support, caring and kindness was unforgettable.

Time to tour the trash scene

TO THE EDITOR:

The next time you send a reporter to cover a story at village hall, have that person travel Mechem Drive and observe the trash lining the road. But look closely at the gully on the corner of Cree Meadows across from Century 21.

Come to think of it, maybe the Village Councilors should travel this route.

But then again when only 12% of the voters are concerned enough to vote (last election 2/4/97) then the apathy displayed by our officials only reflects the mood of the voters.

Folks, what's happened to our civic pride? We are a tourist-driven economy and it won't take long for the tourists to start noticing the trash and junk around our town. You can build all the ball-fields in the world, but if the players and families have to drive through trash to get to the parks it won't be long before they go elsewhere.

Pride is civic and personal - it's an attitude.

Start a new trash cleanup campaign

TO THE EDITOR:

Trashing "River City"? It has been upsetting to see some locals and tourists casting bottles, wrappers, sacks, and cups about.

The beautiful qualities of "River City" are compromised by these careless acts. As today's youth are so attuned to the environment... why would they not care for our parking lots, streets, and sidewalks (as well)?

We all need to mount a fresh new campaign - fill our trash bins and not our walk ways with junk. Indeed, many "trash-taggers" are loose among us. Lets all turn a negative to a positive by helping to keep Ruidoso clean. Its a beautiful city... it's your city. Lets keep it orderly and clean.

POLICY

The Ruidoso News encourages letters to the editor, especially about local topics and issues.

Each letter must be signed and must include the writer's daytime telephone number and address. The phone number and street or mailing address will not be printed, however the writer's hometown will be included. The telephone number will be used to verify authorship. No letter will be printed without the writer's name.

Letters should be 500 words or less, be of public interest and should avoid name-calling and libelous language. The Ruidoso News reserves the right to edit letters, as long as viewpoints are not altered. Shorter letters are preferred and generally receive greater readership.

Letters may be hand delivered to The News office at 104 Park Avenue or mailed to P.O. Box 128, Ruidoso, NM 88345.

The News has the right to reject any letter.

Two notable Ruidoso area women remembered

Charlotte Craig fondly remembered

Many kind remembrances and expressions of fond affection were shared at the visitation Feb. 20 at the LaGrone Funeral Chapel for Charlotte Darlene Craig, who was called home by our Lord on Feb. 17.

A member of a well-beloved Ruidoso family, Charlotte was active in community affairs and was one of the first volunteers working with the Ruidoso Downs Senior Citizens Center.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burgess, were longtime friends of the Storm family.

For many years I stopped by the filling station owned by Charlotte and her husband, Tony, in Ruidoso Downs. It seemed I arrived there just when a tire was about to go flat, and Tony and Charlotte would fix me up with a tire. They even gave me a couple of extra tires as a present.

Afterwards I would stop by on my way home from my radio program and play a tune or two for Tony and Charlotte on the banjo.

Charlotte Craig will always hold a found spot in our hearts, and we rejoice that our dear friend is united with loved ones who have gone on before, in Heaven with our Lord.

presented Jane with a plaque reading, "Given with grateful thanks to Jane Deyo for 23 years of dedicated service to her Lord and the Episcopal Church in Lincoln County, February 23, 1997."

As a prelude, Jane played "Prelude on Hyfrydol" by Gordon Young, and as postlude "Prelude in Classic Style," by Gordon Young.

After church services a reception was held in the parish hall for Jane.

Ron Harris and his son, Neil Patrick, sang "A Summer Song" and "Wild Montana Skies." Stan and Sandy Thomas sang a favorite sorority song of Jane's college days.

Jane was born in Boston to Rufus Cushman and the former Clara Morse, whose forefathers came over on the Mayflower.

She and her husband, Alden Deyo, also a descendant of people who came over on the Mayflower, arrived in Ruidoso from Lubbock in 1973. The next year they established The Aspen Tree, which has become a landmark store for books and gifts.

Jane's helpful spirit and sunshining personality - plus the high quality of the store - have drawn folks from all over the nation.

Jane is moving to Madison, Wisc., to be close to her daughter, Janet Pugh.

Well knowing the fond spot she holds in our hearts, Jane will keep in touch with her many friends in the Church of the Holy Mount, and in her beloved Ruidoso. We all wish Jane all good fortune and God's blessing in what she calls "my new adventure."

RHS Chess Club's attitude translates into two state titles

by JOANNA DODDER
Ruidoso News Editor

When some of the Ruidoso High School chess club members started out, they called their knights "homicles."

They have progressed from a group of kids seeking a lunch-time diversion to state champions who regularly beat their parents a long way since they started their first out-of-school competitions a year ago.

In fact, both the junior varsity and varsity teams are now state champions, after winning their respective divisions at the New Mexico U.S. Scholastic Championships Feb. 15. Now they're looking to place at the top of another state chess federation, the N.M. Activities Association State Championship, in April. In between, they'll host the district meet March 15. Nearly all of their competition comes from class 4A schools, while RHS is class 3A. In the state championship, each team beat out 10 other teams with 70 individual competitors.

It was the JV team's first major competition, and it won by a mere half point (proving that every team member's points count). The varsity team was a "runaway victor," the coach said.

Like athletes, they need stamina to be winners. Chess could be called the marathon of academic competitions, as competitions can easily run all day.

"It becomes an endurance test," relates coach Galin Farrington, who teaches English and Psychology classes during regular hours. After a long early-morning bus ride and a quick breakfast, the players jump right into their games. An estimated 20% of the players suffer headaches two-thirds of the way through a high school competition, Farrington said. They eat a lot throughout the day to keep their energy up between matches. And they bring aspirin.

"You have to be a mathematician," Farrington adds. "In the first 40 moves of chess, there are more combinations (of moves) than there are molecules in the universe."

So what special qualities propelled the RHS teams to victory? Ironically, the main reason may be their coach's lack of emphasis on winning.

"I like to think the kids have a really good time doing it, and that's why they do so well," Farrington says. "I feel winning is a byproduct of good moral and ethical development."

The chess club rules are stricter than what is required by the school district: Farrington has a "no pass — no play" rule. He even checks out students between semesters, and if they're failing a class at the time, they're out of the club until their grades come up. The tough requirement led to the club's loss of its #1 sophomore player, who would still have been eligible for any extracurricular athletics.

"If you do something extra (extracurricular), you should be able to do what's required first," Farrington explains of his philosophy, adding, "There are situations we don't tolerate here we see in other schools."

The students know what Farrington expects of them, and they live up to his expectations of good sportsmanship, if the observations of other chess coaches are any indication. The second-place Laguna coach called the team's behavior "stand-out." Others at the state tourney called the team "classy," recalls Farrington and team player Sellina Steed.

"We really don't gloat when we win, and we really enjoy playing the game," Steed explains.

"Our shirts are larger than life," and maybe that makes the team play "big," cracks fellow teammate Christina Knight, who gets a kick out of her chess-appropriate name.

Farrington has acquired a few chess books for the library to help out the team, as well as a great assistant in Don Dye, who coached Portales to more than one state chess championship during more than 20 years as its coach.

Now, the varsity members are good enough to help coach the newcomers while they pack into Farrington's room at school with their lunches every weekday. And it's clear they are having fun.

CARRIZOZO NEWSLETTER

FFA team places 7th at state

By Briton Goad
Carrizozo High School

The Carrizozo FFA Parliamentary Procedure Team placed 7th at State Parliamentary Procedure Contest at Eastern New Mexico University in Portales Jan. 27.

The team members are Kari Shafer, Robert Shafer, Katie Hightower, Mollie Hightower, Bryan Hightower, Eldon Offutt, Tara Earwood, and Briton Goad.

The contest teaches the fundamentals of Parliamentary Procedure, enhances students' communication skills, and builds teamwork.

Only 14 teams qualified, which is 25% of the teams in New Mexico.

School meats lab operations approved

At the January school board meeting, a proposal for operation of the meats lab was approved. A fee schedule was established: beef $100, pigs $45 (no cure), lambs $40, deer and antelope $40, and elk $75.

Wild game will be processed only if space is available and instructional time permits. If pork is added to wild game, the current market value for pork will be charged.

Public notice via the newspaper will be given about when the lab will be in operation. Animals will be butchered on a first-come, first-served basis. To reduce the expenses associated with operating the meats lab, and to ensure a balanced ag curriculum, the facility will be operated on a limited basis. In the fall, butchering will be coordinated with the fair season, and time permitting, the hunting season. Butchering will also be scheduled for the spring.

Canyon CowBelles list poster contest winners

Canyon CowBelles is pleased to announce the winners of the annual Beef Poster Contest. This year's theme was, "Things We Can Learn From a Cow and a Worm."

This year's poster contest helped students learn how to better conserve precious resources by identifying natural animal ability and behavior, and applying the concepts to their own lives. Cattle and earthworms were chosen for this lesson because nature provided them with unique capabilities that allow them to use resources efficiently. Earthworms help return to the soil those nutrients necessary for new plant growth. As ruminants, cattle turn grass and other forages into high-quality food for humans, making use of vast resources that would otherwise go unused for food produc-

Doctor's discovery may end obesity

HILTON HEAD, S.C. — A doctor has discovered that an ingredient found in a small fruit grown in Asia, combined with an ingredient praised by the U.S. Department of Agriculture can help cause significant weight loss.

In a study published in a prestigious American medical journal, Dr. Anthony A. Conte, M.D. reported that the formula, now called Bio-Rex 3000, caused patients to lose more than twice as much weight as a control group on the same fat reduced diet. Neither group was instructed to decrease the amount of food they ate or to increase their exercise levels. An article published in the American Journal of Clinical Nutrition confirms that you don't have to reduce the amount of food you eat to lose weight, provided that you limit the fat.

Scientists suggest that the mechanism behind the weight reduction may include decreasing sugar cravings and interruption of the "Krebs Cycle", an important step in the body's fat storage process. "The best part of this unique discovery is that it is not a drug, but a safe dietary food supplement" says Dr. Conte. The Asian fruit, called garcinia, is similar to citrus fruit found in the United States with one big exception — it may help some people fight obesity! While Dr. Conte's study may be preliminary, the exclusive North American distributor, Phillips Gulf Corp., is calling the Bio-Rex 3000 supplement "Nature's Ideal Diet Aid."

According to a spokesperson for the company, Bio-Rex 3000 is now available on a limited basis through pharmacies and nutrition stores or call 1-800-729-8446. © 1997 Phillips Gulf Corp. Bio-Rex 3000 is available locally at: LONG'S UNLTD DRUG 721 Mechem Ruidoso 257-3882

Weather delays hoop playoff game until tonight

by LAURA CLYMER
Ruidoso News Sports Writer

Slick road conditions prevented the Corona Cardinals from flying south for a first-round District 3A boys playoff basketball game versus Carrizozo Tuesday.

The game was rescheduled for 6 p.m. tonight (Wednesday), weather permitting. Gerald Horacek's Grizzlies are the No. 2 seed. The winner of the Carrizozo/Corona contest plays the winner of Mountainair and Vaughn Thursday.

If the Grizzlies defeat Corona, they will host the Thursday game at 6 p.m. If the Cardinals triumph, they will travel to the Mountainair/Vaughn winner.

Thursday's winner faces the district's top team, Fort Sumner, in Fort Sumner Saturday for the District 3A championship.

Senior Willie Silva leads the Carrizozo charge along with teammate Justin Serna. The Grizzlies have played .500 ball since the new year, and sport a 9-12 overall mark.

District 3A's top two teams meet up with the best from District 5A in the Region D Tournament, which will include regular-season champ Hondo Valley. The Eagles are 14-7 overall, and the No. 1 seed from the 5A.

Omar Barragan's team earned an easy ticket to the district finals and to the Region D Tournament, thanks to a forfeit by Lake Arthur. Hondo and Lake Arthur were to play Thursday in Hondo, but Lake Arthur wasn't able to field a team because of a disciplinary decision.

Behind the scoring of Joshua Candelaria and the rebounding of Jeffrey Sanchez, the Eagles posted a 3-0 District 5A mark.

"They seem to be coming together right now," Barragan said of his team.

A victory Saturday allows the Eagles to continue playing in front of a supportive home crowd. The District 5A tourney champ hosts the Region D Tournament.

"One of our goals is to come out as the top seed, then host the regionals and hopefully go to state," Barragan said.

Tigers play the waiting game
By virtue of their the second-place finish, the Capitan Tigers earned a first-round bye in the boys District 6AA Tournament.

The Tigers sewed up the runnerup spot with a 55-49 victory over Cloudcroft Friday in the regular-season finale for both teams. Capitan climbed even with the victory at 11-11 overall.

Gerald Montes' team awaits the winner of Cloudcroft and Dexter for a 7 p.m. Thursday tipoff in Capitan for a second round District 6AA tourney game.

Thursday's winner advances to the finals in Tularosa against the No. 1 seed Wildcats. A victory also means a trip to the Region G Tournament hosted by the 6AA District champ. The District 5AA champion and runnerup - Lordsburg and either Hatch Valley or Animas - travel to the District 6AA winner.

In the regular season, the Tigers split with Cloudcroft and downed Dexter twice, but it doesn't matter to Montes who visits the Tiger gym Thursday.

"It doesn't make a difference to me - just as long as we take care of our business," Montes said.

BASKETBALL

Since their move up to the Class AA level, the Tigers have been unable to advance past the Thursday game. A homecourt advantage might help Capitan achieve that goal this year.

"What's the key to playing on Saturday? Play hard. Play as a team. Just do the things we've been doing the last three weeks," Montes said. "We've got to show up. It doesn't matter who is here. Sometimes, we're our own worst enemy."

The return of Raymond Harris and Eric Ferguson - both back from illnesses - adds much-needed depth to the Tigers' post play.

Ferguson will join Cody Turnbow, Eric Helmstetter, Garydon Silva and Kris Davis in the probable starting lineup for Capitan Thursday.

Montes can turn to four Tigers for support off the bench in guards Jason Montes, Eddie Sedillo and James Robinson, and in forward Raymond Harris.

"If we just play hard and take care of business, we'll be alright," Montes said.

Beavers closes out wrestling career with third-place showing

by LAURA CLYMER
Ruidoso News Sports Writer

There's no time like the present to work on the future.

That's the philosophy of Ruidoso wrestling coach Jerett Perry, whose wrestlers will begin their off-season weight program just a week after they finished their season at the Class A-AAA State Wrestling Championships last Friday and Saturday in Albuquerque.

The young Warriors placed 16th of 26 teams at the state meet, behind the third-place finish of senior heavyweight Brad Beavers.

"Our objective is to build tradition, and we took a big step toward that this year," Perry said. "Without the support of the community, we don't feel we would have been as successful as we were."

Cold as Ice

Wrestlers at the state meet might have felt tingly sensations in their feet at Tingley Coliseum, host location of the championships. That's because an inch of cardboard and an inch of wrestling mat separated the wrestlers from the icy surface below. (Tingley Coliseum is the home of Albuquerque's professional hockey team, the Scorpions.)

"The mats were frozen. They couldn't even roll them up," Perry said.

Two propane heaters located in the corners of the floor area spewed warmth at the participants.

Beavers said he wasn't bothered by the chilly mats, but Perry wasn't amused.

The icy mats lit a fire under the first-year Warrior coach, who is collaborating with Ruidoso principal Ron Hodges on a proposal for Ruidoso to host the 1998 Class A-AAA State Wrestling Championships.

Shiprock's slippery wrestler

Beavers entered the tourney seeded second in the state for heavyweights. The 270-pound Warrior cruised through the first two rounds, pinning his opponent each time.

Beavers stuck the entries from Wingate and St. Michael's in the second period of each match Friday.

In Saturday's semifinals, however, Beavers met up with the tourney's No. 3 seed from Shiprock, Gilbert Dale. The Shiprock wrestler had studied Beavers well, and knew of Beavers' strong lateral throws. Two times Dale escaped from Beavers, and went on to post a 6-3 decision.

"I didn't finish a throw," Beavers explained. "I tried the same throw twice and he knew what I was going for and he maneuvered out of it."

It helped that Dale was shorter than Beavers, Perry said. The Shiprock wrestler used his lower center of gravity well.

"Brad had a really hard time tying up with him. He was having a hard time throwing him, executing his notorious throw," Perry said.

After his tough loss to Dale, Beavers salvaged third-place honors with two more pins versus the St. Pius and Albuquerque Academy entries.

"Brad was happy, but I think he knew he should

Tall Tigers wax the Warriors in first round of girls playoffs

by LAURA CLYMER
Ruidoso News Sports Writer

The Ruidoso girls basketball season ended in Truth or Consequences Monday with a first-round District 3AAA playoff loss to Hot Springs, 73-49.

Ruidoso posted a 5-17 overall mark.

The Warriors, who finished tied for third in the district with Cobre and Santa Teresa, were the odd women out when a pair of coin tosses flipped them to the fifth seed, and sent them traveling to T or C Monday for a meeting with the No. 2 seed Tigers.

The tiebreaking coin toss resulted in Cobre (No. 3 seed) hosting Santa Teresa (No. 4) in the other first round district game.

The results of the tiebreaker didn't put a smile on Ruidoso coach Dwayne Rogers' face - only a lot of questions in his head. The coin toss took place at Silver High School, and Cobre was the only school besides Silver to have a representative at the flip.

"Any time that happens, I always smell a rat," Rogers said.

Rodent or no rodent, the Warriors went to Hot Springs Monday, where they faced a team they had played just 48 hours earlier.

As they had in Ruidoso Saturday, the Tigers prevailed - their height and experience proved too much for Rogers' Warriors Monday.

"They played as hard as they could," Rogers said of his girls' efforts. "We played as hard as we could. We gave it a very good effort."

Ruidoso stayed close until Bailey Bishop and Priscilla Rojas got in foul trouble. That's when the Tigers' big players really took over.

"Hot Springs is big. They post up well. They've got three or four inches on us in the post. You can't coach height," Rogers said.

Jana Morris' 17 points paced the Warriors, who also received a solid effort from Denise Rodella.

"Denise shot the ball with authority. She played last night (Monday) the way I thought she was capable of playing all season," Rogers said.

No off season for the Warriors

The Warriors made great strides this season, considering they snipped a 40-game losing streak in December and won four more times after that.

"We broke some ground," Rogers said. "Sometimes you have to be content with that."

"More than that, we made an impression on the district that we're going to be a better basketball team. The girls played hard, but we have to do that every time."

As basketball commentator Dick Vitale might say, the Warriors need "PT" - playing time - in the off season.

"We have to play our best game all the time. We're still learning how to play the game. We're still real green," Rogers said.

"Between now and November is when everyone gets better. If we work hard, we can be as good as we want to be," he added.

Ruidoso senior Brad Beavers wrestled his way to a bronze medal at the Class A-AAA State Wrestling Championships in Albuquerque.

have beat Dale," Perry said. "Brad showed a lot of character. We're going to miss him tremendously. He'll be successful at whatever he does."

Beavers closed out his senior season with a 24-5 overall record, including 16 pins.

His wrestling career might not be over just yet. Perry is busy putting together a wrestling highlight film of Beavers. Several junior colleges have expressed an interest in Beavers.

In all, four Warriors made it to the second day of wrestling. Sophomore Richard Gray missed the fifth/sixth-place match in the 130-pound division by one match.

Junior Seth Bassett battled back through the loser's bracket to finish 2-2 in the competitive 152-pound division. Again, just a match away from placing.

"Seth Bassett is the most intense wrestler in the state of New Mexico. We just need to polish up some of his skills," Perry said of Bassett.

Individual results for the Ruidoso entries at the Class A-AAA State Wrestling Tournament, Feb. 21-22 in Albuquerque (Weight class, name, record at state):

- 103-pounds - Dusty Justice (0-2).
- 112-pounds - Cade Hall (1-2), lost to Robertson; pinned Leija of Bernalillo; lost to Santa Teresa.
- 119-pounds - Stephan Pietrangelo (0-2).
- 125-pounds - J.J. Rue (0-2).
- 130-pounds - Richard Grey (2-2), lost to Moriarty, 16-0; pinned Tohatchi; pinned next opponent (unknown), lost to Bloomfield, 8-6.
- 140-pounds - Edward Misquez (0-2).
- 152-pounds - Seth Bassett (2-2), lost to Kirtland Central (No. 3); pinned Engelbrecht of NMMI Engelbrecht; defeated unknown foe; lost to unknown foe.
- 160-pounds - Matt Ward (0-2).
- 171-pounds - Jason Leadingham (0-2).
- 189-pounds - Trey Brantley (0-2).
- 215-pounds - Johnny Adams (2-2), advanced through two rounds on byes; pinned by Yancy of Moriarty; pinned by Powell of St. Pius.

LEGAL NOTICE
TWELFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
COUNTY OF LINCOLN
STATE OF NEW MEXICO
RUIDOSO STATE BANK, a New Mexico banking corporation, Plaintiff, vs.
NANCY HONEYFIELD, and the ESTATE OF CHARLES S. GAYLORD, Defendants.
 No. CV-98-169

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MASTER SALE
 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned Special Master will, on the 10th day of March, 1997, at 9:00 AM at the front entrance to the Ruidoso Village Hall at 313 Creo Meadows Drive, Ruidoso, New Mexico, sell and convey to the highest bidder for cash, all right, title and interest of the Defendants, NANCY HONEYFIELD and the ESTATE OF CHARLES S. GAYLORD, in and to the hereinafter described real estate to the highest bidder for cash.

The property to be sold is situate in Lincoln County, New Mexico and is more particularly described as follows:
 Lot 18, Block 5, BIG COUNTRY SUB-DIVISION, Lincoln County, New Mexico, as shown on the Plat thereof filed in the office of the County Clerk and Ex-Officio recorder of Lincoln County, New Mexico, February 8, 1973, in Tube No. 478.

The foregoing sale will be made to satisfy a judgment rendered by the above Court in the above entitled and numbered cause on February 4, 1997, being an action to collect a Promissory Note and to foreclose a Mortgage on the above described property, which Mortgage secures that note.

Proceeds from the foregoing sale will be utilized to satisfy the judgment against the Defendants as follows:
 (1) Principal amount of $14,133.62;
 (2) Accrued interest in the amount of $1,868.39, and accruing at a per diem rate of $4.07 until paid;
 (3) Late fees in the amount of $581.02;
 (4) Insurance in the amount of $12.60 through September 4, 1996;
 (5) Attorney's fees in the amount of $1,338.00 through January 29, 1997 together with costs of Court in the amount of $82.00;
 (6) Costs of sale, together with any additional sums Plaintiff may be required to pay during the pendency of this action.

In addition thereto, the bidder at such sale will be responsible for paying the Special Master's fee of $213.88 and costs of sale, including those of publication.
 Any judgment creditor has the right to bid at the sale and to apply all or any part of its respective judgment to the purchase price in lieu of cash.

PET CORNER

These pets are currently up for adoption at Lincoln County Humane Society
Call 257-9841

Woodrow is an adorable and endearing 8-year-old Yorkshirer terrier who already is neutered. He would be a sweet lap dog for those cold winter nights and has plenty of years left to play and to become a special friend.

Annabella is long-legged 3.5-month-old shepherd/airedale who is bound to grow up to be a big girl. She's been babied since arriving as a stray at the shelter and has won the hearts of employees. She's be great on long hikes.

POOP SCOOP

by DIANNE STALLINGS

Ruidoso News Staff Writer

Every pet owner should keep an emergency first aid kit at home for their special friends.

Prevention for Pets Magazine suggests a list of 14 items to have on hand based on recommendations from veterinarians:

- your vet's telephone number, as well as weekend or nighttime coverage;
- gauze rolls or pads;
- absorbent cotton;
- scissors with rounded tips;
- hydrogen peroxide;
- hydrocortisone ointment;
- eyewash;
- rectal thermometer;
- tweezers;
- syringe without the needle for giving oral medicine;
- anti-diarrheal medicine for dogs and cats;
- upset stomach medicine for dogs only;
- antihistamine liquid;
- and a clean, white sock to slip over an injured paw, to keep a wound and your floors clean until bleeding is stopped.

Other helpful hints offered include how to test for dehydration or internal bleeding.

For dehydration, gentle lift the skin along your pet's back. It should snap back into place, but in dehydrated pets, the skin loses elasticity and it will stay up in a ridge. See your veterinarian immediately. It's an emergency.

Internal bleeding may show up as blood in a pet's vomit or urine. Or the pet may be listless and have pale pink or white gums.

To test, press a finger against a pet's gums and if they don't turn pink after a momentary whiteness, it could have lost large amounts of blood. This also is an emergency and the pet should be taken to a vet immediately.

In case of external bleeding, the magazine pointed out direct pressure points that will stop the flow.

They are:

- the upper inside of the front leg will help control bleeding of the lower forelegs;
- the upper inside of the rear leg will help control bleeding of the lower hind legs;
- and the underside of the tail. Pressing there helps control bleeding of the tail.

Forget applying a tourniquet, the magazine advises. Limbs are lost because the blood supply is cut off for too long a time.

Five warning signs of illness in a pet include:

- a lump on the pet's skin;
- if the pet seems unusually short of breath;
- if it experiences a sudden change in appetite;
- if a pet starts losing weight;
- and if it drinks often and urinates more frequently.

My newspaper. My commercial. My direct mail.

They don't have quite the same ring, do they?

Our customers take us personally. And advertising messages are an important reason they turn to our pages.

Unlike other media, newspaper readership increases on key advertising days...because of the ads, not in spite of them.

People want to see the ads and are willing to pay to see them in our pages.

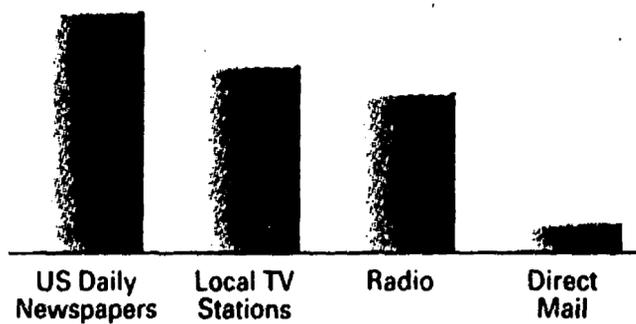

Consumers frequently doubt ads in other media and go out of their way to avoid them. They find direct mail the least believable. And TV viewers, on average miss 62% of all commercial by switching to another station or leaving the room.

Other advertising arrives uninvited into the home. Our ads are welcomed.

Get more impact in the newspaper.

Believability of advertising in the media***

On a scale of 1 to 5

Newspapers are the most credible, trusted advertising medium. Every week more than 7 out of 10 adults turn to our pages and rely on our ads.
