A representative of Community County Systems briefed the Lincoln how the comprsion Thursday about Lincoln County Medical Center, if the county sold the hospital

After the presentation, commissioners were noncommittal, pointing out they already have a 10 -year manout they already have a 10 -year man-

Community owns the hospitals in Roswell and Deming, said Brian Dunn. The for-profit company specializes in acquiring full service hospitals in non-urban areas, he said. He pointed out urban areas, he said. He pointed out and Robert Dole both serve on the company's board of directors.

He told commissioners services would not be reduced, that physician recruitment would be aggressive and special tax levy now paid each year by county property owners. The tax generates slightly less than $$ 1$ million
with the majority going to the hospita and a smaller portion to a county ealth clinic in Carrizozo.
But Gary Mitchell, chairman of the community board that oversees the operation of the county hospital, was keptical Monday.
"I know what for-profit hospitals do throughout the nation," Mitchell said into general scheme is that they go tal, then branch out so hospitals in smaller communities can be feeder routes to the main hospital. In this case, it would be Roswell.
"Typically, they then cut back services in those smaller hospitals. They tion centers before a patient is shipped off to Roswell. They make promises to the public that it won't change the quality of health care, but it does. After , theyre in it for the money.

OUR OPINION

The spirit of county

 commission cooperation?The spirit of cooperation that resounded throughout the Courthouse in January flew out the window at last Thursday's commission meeting over something as simple as the consent agenda.

The consent agenda is a list of "routine" items that a governing body can pass with one motion without having to discuss each individual item.

The word "consent" implies the consensus of the members of the governmental body. If one member disagrees then the governmental body no. longer has a "consent" agenda.

Commissioner Wilton Howell wanted to remove an item that had to do with the overspending on budgets regarding base course for road improvements as well as overspending in operating the jail.

Perhaps the road improvements overspending should have been on the consent agenda, but anything regarding the jail situation, an emergency situation as declared by the county commission itself, should be discussed in a public meeting.

Even if it had not been as crucial as it was, Commissioner Howell should have the right to remove an item from the consent agenda without the backlash of his counterparts. Instead, they suggested he have a secret meet ing with the county manager to get answers to the questions regarding the jail.

The vote against a commissioner's request to remove an item from the consent agenda is rude and unprofessional. It insults not only that commissioner but the public as well.

The commission has an obligation to discuss and the county residents have the right to hear any topic that could potentially cripple the county, which includes the detention center.

We know that none of the county commissioners have that 'we-could-get-a-lot-done-around-here-if-it-wasn't-for-those-pesky-county-residents" attitude.

But sometimes, when commissioners fight over something as simple as a consent agenda and then encourage private meetings with the county manager, we have to wonder.

Escape From Slavery

Harriet Tubman

One hundred fifty years ago, slavery. But her own freediom. wasm't enough. She rislred her life 18 more times to rescue other slaves.
She became the most famous conductor on the Underground Railroad, leading about 800 people to freedom.
Life as a slave
Harriet Tubman was born a slave in Bưcktown, Md., in about 1820. She wa named Araminta, but called herself
 Harriet in honor of her mother. Her Green and Benjamin Ross, had 10 other children. The young." Harriet hated housework. On the plantation most of her work was outdoors, chopping wood or laboring he fields. This hard work made
When she was about 12, a slave tried to escape. The overseer ordered her to help tie up the runaway so he could be whipped. Harriet refused to move.
The overseer was so angry he hit her in the head with a two-pound weight.
Harriet never fully recovered.
For the rest of her life she had very bad headaches. She had spells that put her deeply asleep without warning. She could not be over.

Barriot Thumanan was an amaintig woman. Not only did she free hundreds of slavea, she alas helped the Unlon Asmy, and worked for. worrints rethe, the elderty, and for sethoo

Erowing fears

When she wes about 29, Farriet's master died. She heard she was going to be sold to a plantation furthe south. This had already happened to B Blave of here sent
The further south slaveis were sent, the more unfriendly territory they wouid have to cross to escape to
Also, Harriet was scared of the trip. When slaves werse gent south they wer often chainea together she was afraid she would be strulck by pne of her might be shot so she wouldn't slow down the rest of the chained slaves. Therescape
Harriet tried to persuade her husband, John Tubman, a free man, to go north with her. He refused.
She talked three of her brothers into eicaiping with her. But before they had gone very far, they became frightened and made her return to the plantation with them.
In 1849, Harriet decided to escape on her pwn. Her father had taught her how to survive in the woods. She had heard about sympathetic people, good hiding places and the best route to take, She as ready to take the ris
She had to travel she made it. She reached the free state of Pennsylvania and continued on to Canada.

Moses of her people

Not one single person Harriet Tubman led was recaptured or killed. Everyone trusted her strength of character to get them through the journey.
If even one person became frightened and turned back, everyone else would be in much greater danger. To keep anyone who tried to to back.
Slave owners feared her so much Siave owners feared her 80 much that they put out a reward of $$ 40,000$ that they put our capture.
She became known as the "Moses of her people." Moses was a man from the Bible who
to freedom.
Harriet Tubman usually made her trips south in the fall and the spring. She spent the summers working odd jobs such as cook or dishwasher to earn money for her rescue missions. She brought several of her family members to freedom. On one trip back, she found that her husband had remar.
In 1857, she was finally able to bring her parents to freedom. She saved enough to buy an old horse and wagon to carry them. Before, she had only people who could handle the hard trip.

The Underground Rallroad The Underground Railroad was: system of Becret routes and hidi escaping from the South to freedom in the North. There were many brave, caring people who helped rumaway slaves escape to freedom.

- Agents were people who helped the fugitives.
- Conductors led fugitive from one another.
- Etations
were places to hide along the way.

in many difforent wiyis, Harriet Tubman
worked ill her iffe for peopte in need.
Soldier for the Union
Harriet Tubman served the Union
Army as a:
- nurse a guide - spy

In 1869 she married a soldier who had erved in the black regiments in the Union Army, Nelson Davis.
He died of tuberculosis in 1888, wh he was only 44. She was about 68 .
Fiarriet Tubman tried for about 30 years to obtain an army pension. Finally, she was awarded $$ 20$ a month.

n Auburn

Aubman moved to Auburn, Narin, with them. She had been worried about how they would handle the freezing
Canadian winters.
Many of her powerfil friends, such as New York senator William Seward, lived in Auburn, so she felt it was Sen. Seward place to live. Sen. Seward, tolped her make shared it with people in need, the sick, aged and homeless.
A teacher in Auburin, Sarah Bradiond wrote about Harriet Tubman's life. The author gave the money from the book sales to Harriet.
With this money, ahe was able to pay on her mortgage and also buy 26 acres of land;
In 1903, she gave buildings and the 26 acres to the A.M.E. Zion Church to be used as a home for the aged.

Dental hygione

Can you imagine not brushing your teeth for a day? How about a week or a month?
Unfortunately for most doge. and cats, unclean teeth are a reality and one that can lead to serious health problems such as heart liver and kidney disease, according to the American Veterinary Medcal Association.
"Take Pet Dental Health to Heart, ${ }^{n}$ is a key message of the "Pets Need Dental Care Tbo" cam paign celebrated in February as part of the National Pet Dental Health Month.

The 1999 observance marks the fitth year of the award-winning pet dental health campaign co sponsored by the AVMA, the Amercan Veterinary Dental Society and Hill's Pet Nutrition Inc.

Periodontal disease is a bacteria, infection that, if left untreated can lead to pain and tooth loss, asid Ellen Logan, DVM, president of the American Veterinary Dental Society and a senior scientist in the Department of Advanced Research at Hill's Science and Technolog'y Canter:
"In addition, the bacteria that cause oral disease have the potential to infect other vital organs, causing serious, potentially life threatening health problems," she said.

Build up of plaque and tartar leads to periodontal disease, which affects more than 80 percent of adult dogs and 70 percent of adult cats.

＂Cider with Rosie＂
One of the most beautifully written memoirs of English rural life comes to Masterplece Theatre in an adaptation of＂Cider with Rosie，＂Laurie Lee＇s luminous tale of his Cotswold boyhood．

Set in 1918，the film conjures up a world of earthy warmth and beauty as it follows Lee＇s renowned tale from childhood to adolescence and the awakening of manhood．Published in 1959，Cider with Rosie has sold six million copies and immortalized Slad Valley，the Cotswold Hills district that has become part of the English literary landscape，much like Thomas Hardy＇s Wessex or Wordsworth＇s Lake District．
Juliet Stevenson heads the cast as Laurie＇s＂disordered，hysterical， loving＂mother，Annic．Emily Mortimer portrays the cerie Miss Flynn，a local beauty tortured by hèr promiscuity and by messages from her dead mother．The screenplay is by Mortimer＇s father，John Mortimer（Mystery！ ＂Rumpole of the Bailey＂．），who draws on a wealth of Lee＇s singularly memorable characters，including the warring grannies，Miss Crabby the schoolmarm，the shell－shocked soldier，the eccentric uncles，and the cider－ dispensing siren，Rosie．

Lee himself provides narration－recorded before his death at age 82 in 1997 －featuring observations about village festivals，the first day of school，a church outing，a hushed－up murder，the first kiss，and other ordinary and extraordinary incidents．
Set in the years immediately after World War I，＂Cider with Rosie＂ captures a vanished era．＂I belonged to that generation which saw，by chance，the end of a thousand years＇life，＂wrote Lee of his upbringing with eight siblings and a single mother in a semi－feudal world of candle－ light，tiorse carts，and profound solitude．
Lee＇s father was expected to return at war＇s end or from his civil service job in London．But he never went back．＂Mother struggled to keep us clothed and fed，and found it pretty hard going，＂wrote Lee．But she kept going and going，with an oddball spirit that makes her one of the most endearing figures in print．＂Deserted，debt－ridden，flurried，bewildered， doomed by ambitions that never came off，yet our Mother possessed an indestructible gaiety which welled up like a thermal spring．＂

The two－hour presentation of＂Cider with Rosie＂on Masterpiece Theatre airs Sunday，February 28th at 9：00 p．m．Masterpiece Theatre． repeats Fridays at 11：00 p．m．

Family, pop royalty join Shania Twain in CBS special

By Tony Atherton

oTVData Features Syndicate
There's quite a difference between the snow-covered bush of northern Ontario and the sandy beaches of Miami. It's almost as great as the one between Shania Twain's impoverished childhood in Timmins, Ontario, and her current status as an international superstar and six-time Grammy nominee.
These contrasts are reflected in Shania Twain's Winter Break, airing on CBS Wednesday. March 3.
The special, featuring guest stars EIton John and the Backstreet Boys, was taped at two special outdoor Miami concerts.
The program also includes footage of Twain taped in her Ontario home town in January. Twain uses these chilly Canadian segments to reflect on her roons and to introduce her guests.
The Timmins tapings gave Twain a chance lo look up old friends and visit with her vounger sister and two broth ers. Twain cared for her siblings for three years after their parents died in a 1987 car accident.
"Giuing bick was great." says the 3 . year-old singer. who now shares a Florida home with her husband. music producer Jeff Liange.
In addilion to her visit home, what sets the show apart is Twain's choice of guest wars. John has been one of her idols since she was a child, she explains
"I've just wanted to sing with him and meel him and just be with him for a long, long time," she says. "So much of my lostening time has heen to his records.
Jolin and ' wailn swap hit singles in a duet pertormance of his "The Way You Lank Tonight" and her "You're Still the One."
Twain's other guests, the Backstreet Boys. are always, in a way. part of her tour.
"They just give me a lot of energy, and I listen to them a lot before I go onstage to get me all pumped up." she adds.
Twain should get pumped just keeping track of her phenomenal record

Shania Twain
sales. Her 1995 album The Woman in $M e$ and her 1997 release Come On Over have both gone multiplatinum.
At last count, The Woman in Me had topped II million in sales. a figure only three other women have achieved with a single album: Whitney Houston and two of Twain's Canadian compatriots, Celine Dion and Alanis Morissette.
Twain says she loves the fact that Canadian female singers have been so successfub internationally, and it doesn't surprise her.
"I never thought that being Canadian was ever going to stop me. Sure, when you come from another country there's always a period of breaking through," she says. "Canadian artists should have no anxiety about that You have just as good a chance as anybody else to make it in another country if you want to become an international artist.
In fact. Twain's down-home Canadian roots have proven something of an asset in the United States. The media seem enchanted by the notion of a sexy chanteuse who knows how to plant trees, hande a chain saw and jump-start a car
Twain says she's used to bucking stereotypes, including those that assume because she presents a sexy, navel-baring image onstage and in videos, she is more sizzle than steak.
"You don't have to mask your femininity just because you're capable of doing a lot of other things," she says.
their wedding, Johnny is stalked by an undercover police officer in Newsfadio, alring Tuesday on NBC.

TV PIPELINE

By Taylor Michaels  oTVData Features Syndicate

Q: You were wrong when you wrote that Roddy McDowall never did a TV series. I clearly remember he did one with Stephen Collins. -Martha L. Piercy, Charlotte, N.C. A: I received similar letters from a number of readers who apparently saw an incomplete version of my answer. To recap: A reader asked if McDowall had starred in a late 1960 s TV series. I replied that his first series role was in 1974's Planet of the Apes. Tales of the Gold Monkey, the show you recall, Martha, premiered in 1982. P.S. to one anonymous reader. McDowall was not in TV's My Friend Flicka.
Q: Did Margaret Colin (from the recent Lifetime movie The Secret) once play the part of Margo Hughes on As the World Turns? It was a long time ago! -R.B., Fort Myers, Fla. A: Colin - who's only 41, for Pete's sake - created the role of Margo Montgomery (later Hughes) in 1981. She left the show in 1983 and, for my money, no one since has equaled her.
Q: Is the actor who plays "The Biscuit" on Ally McBeal the same guy who played Pee Wee in the Porky's movies? -G.R.C. via e -mail.
A: No. Peter MacNicol plays John "The Biscuit" Cage on Ally. That was Dan Monahan in the Porky's movies.
Q: The African-American nurse on Becker looks very familiar to me. Was she once on a children's show? What else has she done? -Kathy Kurowsky via e-mall.
A: You must be remembering Hattie Winston, who plays Nurse Margaret Wyborn in Becker, from her old role as Sylvia on The Electric Company.
She later played Nurse Toni Gillette in Nurse and maid Gloria Davis in the ABC drama Homefrom. Her film cred its include Clara's Heart and Jackie Brown.

TRIVIA

Henry Fonda believed he gave his best film performances in The Grapes of Wrath, 12 Angry Men and The Ox-Bow Incident.

Roddy McDówall
Q: Is that David Brisbin, who played Mr. Errast on Hey Dude, portraying one of the children's doctors on ER this season? -Megan via emall.
A: Yes, Brisbin, who is married to series cast member Laura Innes, began playing Dr. Babcock late last season.
Q: Whom did Demi Moore play on General Hospital, and when? Nicholas Snowten, Charlotte, N.C. A: In 1983, shortly before making a splash in the feature comedy No Small Affair. Moore played Jackie Templeton on the long-running soap.
Q: What was the 1970s sitcom starring Cleavon Little as a hospital orderly (and bookle)? -Phyllis Sthemeley, Maple Shade, N.J.
A: As Dr. Jerry Noland, Little was the only original cast member who survived three sweeping cast changes on Temperature's Rising during that ABC sitcom's 1972-74 run. His costars variously included James Whitmore, Paul Lynde and Alice Ghostley. Send questions of general interest to TVData Features Syndicate, 333 Clen St. Glens Falls, NY 12801, or e-mail to tvpipeline@tvdata.com. Only questions selected for this column will be answered. TRIVIA
Susannah Harker (Pride and Prejudice) so enjoyed playing an aviatrix in Heat of the Sun (PBS' Mystery!), she decided to take up flying.

SOAP TALK

OLTL star reveals

 real-life secret romance
By Candace Havens

orvota Features Syndicato
They've been engaged since August, but Erika Page (Roscanne, One Life to Live) and country music star Bryan White have been keeping it a secret.
They both wanted to tell their families in person, and that happened over the Christmas holidays. The couple will have a long engagement and plan to marry in two years.
In other news: Roark. (Mike, Days of Our Lives) and Maria Critchlow welcomed their new son into the world on Jan. 25. Baby Critchlow was still waiting for a name at press time.
Roark says his son is "already a big "kid with blond hair." The Critchlows have two daughters, Jara Shae and Reign Eden.
Another Guiding Light favorite is returning to the show. Fletcher (Jay Hammer) is coming back to Springfield for several episodes in March. After Fletcher left town with their daughter, his wife, Holly (Maureen Garrett), made a real mess of her life. He may be coming back to help her pick up the pieces. He always was her voice of reason.
Dear Candace: Luke and Laura (Anthony Geary, Genie Francis) used to be my favorite characters on General Hospital. Lately, their lives have gone off the deep end. I sometimes think they are both nut cases. I feel sory for poor Lucky (Jonathan Jackson) to have such crazy parents.
Could you please tell me why Luke and Laura have changed so much? -Mary Ruth Enlow, Demotte, Ind.
Dear Reader: Luke and Laura have never been a normal couple. Their relationship goes in cycles, and it is definitely in a downward spiral at present.
Dear Condace: I missed what happened with Michelle Thomas, who played Callie on The Young and the Restless. She looked healthy to me, and she had such a wonderful voice. Could you please tell me what happened? I miss her. -Ruth Brandel, Cary, Ill.
Dear Reader: Thomas died of cancer in mid-December. No one, not even the show's producers, had any idea she was so ill.

Fox's tomb-opening special is 'not your mother's Egypt'

By John Crook

"Show me the mummyl"
That seems to be the driving philosophy behind Opening the Lost Tombs: Live From Egypt, a two-hour special premiering Tuesday, March 2, on Fox.
Originating from Cairo at $3 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. Egypt time, the special presents the exploration of a tomb in a small pyramid that had been undisturbed for more than 4,000 years. Maury Povich is the host.
"Only 15 percent of the Giza Plateau has ever been excavated," executive producer Peter Isacksen says, "so there's 85 percent (still) beneath the sands. We are going into a tomb that Dr. (Zahi) Hawass' team is excavating."
Hawass, undersecretary of state for Egypt's Giza Plateau, says he fully briefs any camera crew members before entering such tomb areas, and he hopes to limit the number of crewmen who will actually enter the tomb.
"(I) tell them, 'Don't touch. Don't make a big flashlighting on any painting,' " Hawass explains. "We are going to be very careful in trying to enter sites like this."
Questions of taste, of course, hover around the project, which Isacksen characterizes as "not your mother's Egypt.
"We're going to show it in a really new, inventive, Foxlike way," he says. "You can do it with graphics, with tone ... with music. It's not dry. We're passionate about this thing, and we're going to do it that way."
Supervising producer Nancy Stern cuts to the chase: "We want to find a sarcophagus that has a mummy in it!" Another Egyptologist, Dr. Emily Teeter, who is working on an upcoming Discovery Channel special about Cleopatra, says viewers shouldn't hold their breath for anything exotic.
"The premise of (the Fox) show is quite curious," Teeter says. "The monument that they're onening has stood and has been availute for several thousand years. So from an academic point of view, we don't have a lot of faith that this is going to be particularly interesting."

What Does Medicare Cover?

Medicare is designed to cover the cost of heallit care for senior citizens and the permanenily disabled. That includes eye heallh care, too. Each year, the patient must pay an annual deduclible, currently $$ 100$, before Medicare will pay for any services. After the amnual deductible is satisfied, Medicare will pay up to $80 \%$ of the doctor's covered services when the care of a licensed optometrist is necessary for a health related condition, symptom or complaint. The patient is responisible for a $20 \%$ co-payment plus any charges not covered by Medicare. If the patient has supplemental insurance, sich as Blue Cross/Blue Shield, AARP, or Medicaid, it may cover the cost of the deductible and co-payment. Our office will bill Medicare and accept payment directly from them if the services qualify for Medicare coverage. We will also bill the supplemental insurance company.

Anyone with a history of diabetes or headaches, for example, would be covered for $80 \%$ of the cost of a comprehensive examination and diagnostic testing. Medicare will also cover services for medical eye problems such as blurred vision, clouding, spots or flashes of light, glaucoma, cataracts, macular degeneration, eye injuries; eye pain, eye infections and other eye disease. Medicare will cover $80 \%$ of the cataract surgery and one pair only of glasses after cataract surgery. Medicare will not cover routine vision analysis, eye glasses or contact lenses not related ta cataract surgery,

At the Family Vision Center our doctors treat eye conditions as well as diagnose them. Medicare also approves these expenses. If you have any ques-: tions about what eye health expenses Medicare will cover just call us at 257 . 5029 and we will be happy to discuss them.

Community owns the hospitals in Roswell and Deming, said Brian Dunn. The for-profit company specializes in acquiring full service hospitals in non-urban areas, he said. He pointed out urban areas, he said. He pointed out and Robert Dole both serve on the company's board of directors.

He told commissioners services would not be reduced, that physician recruitment would be aggressive and special tax levy now paid each year by county property owners. The tax generates slightly less than $$ 1$ million
with the majority going to the hospita and a smaller portion to a county ealth clinic in Carrizozo.
But Gary Mitchell, chairman of the community board that oversees the operation of the county hospital, was keptical Monday.
"I know what for-profit hospitals do throughout the nation," Mitchell said into general scheme is that they go tal, then branch out so hospitals in smaller communities can be feeder routes to the main hospital. In this case, it would be Roswell.
"Typically, they then cut back services in those smaller hospitals. They tion centers before a patient is shipped off to Roswell. They make promises to the public that it won't change the quality of health care, but it does. After , theyre in it for the money.

OUR OPINION

The spirit of county

 commission cooperation?The spirit of cooperation that resounded throughout the Courthouse in January flew out the window at last Thursday's commission meeting over something as simple as the consent agenda.

The consent agenda is a list of "routine" items that a governing body can pass with one motion without having to discuss each individual item.

The word "consent" implies the consensus of the members of the governmental body. If one member disagrees then the governmental body no. longer has a "consent" agenda.

Commissioner Wilton Howell wanted to remove an item that had to do with the overspending on budgets regarding base course for road improvements as well as overspending in operating the jail.

Perhaps the road improvements overspending should have been on the consent agenda, but anything regarding the jail situation, an emergency situation as declared by the county commission itself, should be discussed in a public meeting.

Even if it had not been as crucial as it was, Commissioner Howell should have the right to remove an item from the consent agenda without the backlash of his counterparts. Instead, they suggested he have a secret meet ing with the county manager to get answers to the questions regarding the jail.

The vote against a commissioner's request to remove an item from the consent agenda is rude and unprofessional. It insults not only that commissioner but the public as well.

The commission has an obligation to discuss and the county residents have the right to hear any topic that could potentially cripple the county, which includes the detention center.

We know that none of the county commissioners have that 'we-could-get-a-lot-done-around-here-if-it-wasn't-for-those-pesky-county-residents" attitude.

But sometimes, when commissioners fight over something as simple as a consent agenda and then encourage private meetings with the county manager, we have to wonder.

On Feb. 17, a meeting of most of the fire managers in New Mexico took place in Albuquerque. Strategies to defend cur state from wildfire in the cor state from widifire in the the safety and welfare of the community from hazards and dangers imposed by trees on public lands.

Most important, he covered the legal ramifications resulting from failure to provide this protection. For example, a $$ 6$ against the city of Albuquerque recently, resulting from a hazard tree that killed a young

To the editor:
While both Democrats and Republicans in the United States Senate were describing the conduct of William Jefferson Clinton, the President of the United States of America, as deplorable and indefensible," a majority vote could not be mustered to find him guilty of perjury nor of bstructing justice.
Will he now be "rebuked" for his conduct? Will this Congressional Record as the consuressional hecord as the Thomas Jefferson once said, "When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry, a hundred."

The forester expressed the need for our village to have an urban forester. Salaried or con tracted, the forester would cre of immediate and long-rang planning for forest health and public safety in tree and fire related matters. "The cost of even a single liability litigation would pay for this position

Sadly lacking wa representation by our elected and appointed officials. While some did respond to invitations with regrets, it seems a better representation could have ccurred.

Responses given by those attending verify there is a lack of right-of-way responsibilities and liabilities, The issues of utility easements, associated hazard tree removal and liabilties are very muddled.
This month, California's largest utility settled a lawsuit being charged with starting a forest fire in 1990. The charges consisted of starting a fire due to negligence in trimping and not removing a dead tree. The utility settled for more than $$ 8$ million.

Ruidoso has many hazard trees and the problem will only become worse with the current dry period. ...Ruidoso dodged a builet during the damaging wind storm of Jan. 26. How long can our luck hold? When will our lepiders acknowledge will our leaders acknowledge imposed by an overgrown forest of diseased, dead and dying trees? Where is the leadership required to unite the entire community in addressing and solving these long-ignored solving these long-ignored Is this sthis organization crying wol, or are we, with profestion to the dangers we all face in another dry year while living in a forested community? We all know there are risks involved in living in this beau? involved in living in this beau. risk for residents and our business community.

It seems very unwise to refuse to undertake every reasonable effort to reduce the risk of wildfire, loss of property, and loss of life with resulting litigation. All of us, residents itigation. All of us, residents from witdfire and hazard trees. We are also entitled to a positive management program that assures a future with a healthy and vibrant forest

This is reality, not fantasy.

Escape From Slavery

Harriet Tubman

One hundred fifty years ago, slavery. But her own freediom. wasm't enough. She rislred her life 18 more times to rescue other slaves.
She became the most famous conductor on the Underground Railroad, leading about 800 people to freedom.
Life as a slave
Harriet Tubman was born a slave in Bưcktown, Md., in about 1820. She wa named Araminta, but called herself
 Harriet in honor of her mother. Her Green and Benjamin Ross, had 10 other children. The young." Harriet hated housework. On the plantation most of her work was outdoors, chopping wood or laboring he fields. This hard work made
When she was about 12, a slave tried to escape. The overseer ordered her to help tie up the runaway so he could be whipped. Harriet refused to move.
The overseer was so angry he hit her in the head with a two-pound weight.
Harriet never fully recovered.
For the rest of her life she had very bad headaches. She had spells that put her deeply asleep without warning. She could not be

When she wes about 29, Farriet's master died. She heard she was going to be sold to a plantation furthe south. This had already happened to B Blave of here sent
The further south slaveis were sent, the more unfriendly territory they wouid have to cross to escape to
Also, Harriet was scared of the trip. When slaves werse gent south they wer often chainea together she was afraid she would be strulck by pne of her might be shot so she wouldn't slow down the rest of the chained slaves. Therescape
husband, John Tubman, a free man, to go north with her. He refused.
She talked three of her brothers into eicaiping with her. But before they had gone very far, they became frightened and made her return to the plantation with them.
In 1849, Harriet decided to escape on her pwn. Her father had taught her how to survive in the woods. She had heard about sympathetic people, good hiding places and the best route to take, She as ready to take the ris

Moses of her people

Not one single person Harriet Tubman led was recaptured or killed. Everyone trusted her strength of character to get them through the journey.
If even one person became frightened and turned back, everyone else would be in much greater danger. To keep anyone who tried to to back.
Slave owners feared her so much Siave owners feared her 80 much that they put out a reward of $$ 40,000$ that they put our capture.
She became known as the "Moses of her people." Moses was a man from the Bible who
to freedom.
Harriet Tubman usually made her trips south in the fall and the spring. She spent the summers working odd jobs such as cook or dishwasher to earn money for her rescue missions. She brought several of her family members to freedom. On one trip back, she found that her husband had
remar.
In 1857, she was finally able to bring her parents to freedom. She saved enough to buy an old horse and wagon to carry them. Before, she had only people who could handle the hard trip.

The Underground Rallroad The Underground Railroad was: system of Becret routes and hidi escaping from the South to freedom in the North. There were many brave, caring people who helped rumaway slaves escape to freedom.

- Agents were people who helped the fugitives.
- Conductors led fugitive from one another.
- Etations
were places to hide along the way.

in many difforent wiyis, Harriet Tubman
worked ill her iffe for peopte in need.
Soldier for the Union
Harriet Tubman served the Union
Army as a:
- nurse a guide - spy

In 1869 she married a soldier who had
erved in the black regiments in the
Union Army, Nelson Davis.
He died of tuberculosis in 1888, wh he was only 44. She was about 68 .
Fiarriet Tubman tried for about 30 years to obtain an army pension. Finally, she was awarded $$ 20$ a month.

n Auburn

Aubman moved to Auburn, Narin, with them. She had been worried about how they would handle the freezing
Canadian winters.
Many of her powerfil friends, such as New York senator William Seward, lived in Auburn, so she felt it was Sen. Seward place to live. Sen. Seward, tolped her make shared it with people in need, the sick, aged and homeless.
A teacher in Auburin, Sarah Bradiond wrote about Harriet Tubman's life. The author gave the money from the book sales to Harriet.
With this money, ahe was able to pay on her mortgage and also buy 26 acres of land;
In 1903, she gave buildings and the 26 acres to the A.M.E. Zion Church to be used as a home for the aged.

P()OP SCOOP

y Dinnne Stalingos RUDDOSO NEEYS STAF YRITER

The Lincoln County Humane Society will be the recipient of proceeds from the annual "Cross Your Heart Cup" race at Ski Apache teday.

For-those who don't ski, you can help the society by showing up at $6 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. at Casa Blanca Restaurant for a lively auctions of items from ski suits and sweaters to can: dles and free dinners at local restaurants. The after-the-race party at the business on Mechem Drive will include the showing of the video and the announcement of the winners of the race and costume competitions.

Skiers show up on the slopes in wild costumes to race down the ski resort's NASTAR course from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The entry fee is $$ 10$ per person.

Medals for the fastest woman skier in several different categories are awarded.

Prizes for best costumes, best from in the gate, biggest flirt and the infamous "Tbotsie" äward for men, usually draw laughtek and crowds to watch the fiun

A costume parade, an after the race party and door prizes also are part of the day's roster of fun activities.

Dental hygione

Can you imagine not brushing your teeth for a day? How about a week or a month?
Unfortunately for most doge. and cats, unclean teeth are a reality and one that can lead to serious health problems such as heart liver and kidney disease, according to the American Veterinary Medcal Association.
"Take Pet Dental Health to Heart, ${ }^{n}$ is a key message of the "Pets Need Dental Care Tbo" cam paign celebrated in February as part of the National Pet Dental Health Month.

The 1999 observance marks the fitth year of the award-winning pet dental health campaign co sponsored by the AVMA, the Amercan Veterinary Dental Society and Hill's Pet Nutrition Inc.

Periodontal disease is a bacteria, infection that, if left untreated can lead to pain and tooth loss, asid Ellen Logan, DVM, president of the American Veterinary Dental Society and a senior scientist in the Department of Advanced Research at Hill's Science and Technolog'y Canter:
"In addition, the bacteria that cause oral disease have the potential to infect other vital organs, causing serious, potentially life threatening health problems," she said.

Build up of plaque and tartar leads to periodontal disease, which affects more than 80 percent of adult dogs and 70 percent of adult cats.

＂Cider with Rosie＂
One of the most beautifully written memoirs of English rural life comes to Masterplece Theatre in an adaptation of＂Cider with Rosie，＂Laurie Lee＇s luminous tale of his Cotswold boyhood．

Set in 1918，the film conjures up a world of earthy warmth and beauty as it follows Lee＇s renowned tale from childhood to adolescence and the awakening of manhood．Published in 1959，Cider with Rosie has sold six million copies and immortalized Slad Valley，the Cotswold Hills district that has become part of the English literary landscape，much like Thomas Hardy＇s Wessex or Wordsworth＇s Lake District．
Juliet Stevenson heads the cast as Laurie＇s＂disordered，hysterical， loving＂mother，Annic．Emily Mortimer portrays the cerie Miss Flynn，a local beauty tortured by hèr promiscuity and by messages from her dead mother．The screenplay is by Mortimer＇s father，John Mortimer（Mystery！ ＂Rumpole of the Bailey＂．），who draws on a wealth of Lee＇s singularly memorable characters，including the warring grannies，Miss Crabby the schoolmarm，the shell－shocked soldier，the eccentric uncles，and the cider－ dispensing siren，Rosie．

Lee himself provides narration－recorded before his death at age 82 in 1997 －featuring observations about village festivals，the first day of school，a church outing，a hushed－up murder，the first kiss，and other ordinary and extraordinary incidents．
Set in the years immediately after World War I，＂Cider with Rosie＂ captures a vanished era．＂I belonged to that generation which saw，by chance，the end of a thousand years＇life，＂wrote Lee of his upbringing with eight siblings and a single mother in a semi－feudal world of candle－ light，tiorse carts，and profound solitude．
Lee＇s father was expected to return at war＇s end or from his civil service job in London．But he never went back．＂Mother struggled to keep us clothed and fed，and found it pretty hard going，＂wrote Lee．But she kept going and going，with an oddball spirit that makes her one of the most endearing figures in print．＂Deserted，debt－ridden，flurried，bewildered， doomed by ambitions that never came off，yet our Mother possessed an indestructible gaiety which welled up like a thermal spring．＂

The two－hour presentation of＂Cider with Rosie＂on Masterpiece Theatre airs Sunday，February 28th at 9：00 p．m．Masterpiece Theatre． repeats Fridays at 11：00 p．m．

Family, pop royalty join Shania Twain in CBS special

By Tony Atherton

oTVData Features Syndicate
There's quite a difference between the snow-covered bush of northern Ontario and the sandy beaches of Miami. It's almost as great as the one between Shania Twain's impoverished childhood in Timmins, Ontario, and her current status as an international superstar and six-time Grammy nominee.
These contrasts are reflected in Shania Twain's Winter Break, airing on CBS Wednesday. March 3.
The special, featuring guest stars EIton John and the Backstreet Boys, was taped at two special outdoor Miami concerts.
The program also includes footage of Twain taped in her Ontario home town in January. Twain uses these chilly Canadian segments to reflect on her roons and to introduce her guests.
The Timmins tapings gave Twain a chance lo look up old friends and visit with her vounger sister and two broth ers. Twain cared for her siblings for three years after their parents died in a 1987 car accident.
"Giuing bick was great." says the 3 . year-old singer. who now shares a Florida home with her husband. music producer Jeff Liange.
In addilion to her visit home, what sets the show apart is Twain's choice of guest wars. John has been one of her idols since she was a child, she explains
"I've just wanted to sing with him and meel him and just be with him for a long, long time," she says. "So much of my lostening time has heen to his records.
Jolin and ' wailn swap hit singles in a duet pertormance of his "The Way You Lank Tonight" and her "You're Still the One."
Twain's other guests, the Backstreet Boys. are always, in a way. part of her tour.
"They just give me a lot of energy, and I listen to them a lot before I go onstage to get me all pumped up." she adds.
Twain should get pumped just keeping track of her phenomenal record

Shania Twain
sales. Her 1995 album The Woman in $M e$ and her 1997 release Come On Over have both gone multiplatinum.
At last count, The Woman in Me had topped II million in sales. a figure only three other women have achieved with a single album: Whitney Houston and two of Twain's Canadian compatriots, Celine Dion and Alanis Morissette.
Twain says she loves the fact that Canadian female singers have been so successfub internationally, and it doesn't surprise her.
"I never thought that being Canadian was ever going to stop me. Sure, when you come from another country there's always a period of breaking through," she says. "Canadian artists should have no anxiety about that You have just as good a chance as anybody else to make it in another country if you want to become an international artist.
In fact. Twain's down-home Canadian roots have proven something of an asset in the United States. The media seem enchanted by the notion of a sexy chanteuse who knows how to plant trees, hande a chain saw and jump-start a car
Twain says she's used to bucking stereotypes, including those that assume because she presents a sexy, navel-baring image onstage and in videos, she is more sizzle than steak.
"You don't have to mask your femininity just because you're capable of doing a lot of other things," she says.
their wedding, Johnny is stalked by an undercover police officer in Newsfadio, alring Tuesday on NBC.

TV PIPELINE

By Taylor Michaels  oTVData Features Syndicate

Q: You were wrong when you wrote that Roddy McDowall never did a TV series. I clearly remember he did one with Stephen Collins. -Martha L. Piercy, Charlotte, N.C. A: I received similar letters from a number of readers who apparently saw an incomplete version of my answer. To recap: A reader asked if McDowall had starred in a late 1960 s TV series. I replied that his first series role was in 1974's Planet of the Apes. Tales of the Gold Monkey, the show you recall, Martha, premiered in 1982. P.S. to one anonymous reader. McDowall was not in TV's My Friend Flicka.
Q: Did Margaret Colin (from the recent Lifetime movie The Secret) once play the part of Margo Hughes on As the World Turns? It was a long time ago! -R.B., Fort Myers, Fla. A: Colin - who's only 41, for Pete's sake - created the role of Margo Montgomery (later Hughes) in 1981. She left the show in 1983 and, for my money, no one since has equaled her.
Q: Is the actor who plays "The Biscuit" on Ally McBeal the same guy who played Pee Wee in the Porky's movies? -G.R.C. via e -mail.
A: No. Peter MacNicol plays John "The Biscuit" Cage on Ally. That was Dan Monahan in the Porky's movies.
Q: The African-American nurse on Becker looks very familiar to me. Was she once on a children's show? What else has she done? -Kathy Kurowsky via e-mall.
A: You must be remembering Hattie Winston, who plays Nurse Margaret Wyborn in Becker, from her old role as Sylvia on The Electric Company.
She later played Nurse Toni Gillette in Nurse and maid Gloria Davis in the ABC drama Homefrom. Her film cred its include Clara's Heart and Jackie Brown.

TRIVIA

Henry Fonda believed he gave his best film performances in The Grapes of Wrath, 12 Angry Men and The Ox-Bow Incident.

Roddy McDówall
Q: Is that David Brisbin, who played Mr. Errast on Hey Dude, portraying one of the children's doctors on ER this season? -Megan via emall.
A: Yes, Brisbin, who is married to series cast member Laura Innes, began playing Dr. Babcock late last season.
Q: Whom did Demi Moore play on General Hospital, and when? Nicholas Snowten, Charlotte, N.C. A: In 1983, shortly before making a splash in the feature comedy No Small Affair. Moore played Jackie Templeton on the long-running soap.
Q: What was the 1970s sitcom starring Cleavon Little as a hospital orderly (and bookle)? -Phyllis Sthemeley, Maple Shade, N.J.
A: As Dr. Jerry Noland, Little was the only original cast member who survived three sweeping cast changes on Temperature's Rising during that ABC sitcom's 1972-74 run. His costars variously included James Whitmore, Paul Lynde and Alice Ghostley. ## OLTL star reveals

 real-life secret romance
By Candace Havens

They've been engaged since August, but Erika Page (Roscanne, One Life to Live) and country music star Bryan White have been keeping it a secret.
They both wanted to tell their families in person, and that happened over the Christmas holidays. The couple will have a long engagement and plan to marry in two years.
In other news: Roark. (Mike, Days of Our Lives) and Maria Critchlow welcomed their new son into the world on Jan. 25. Baby Critchlow was still waiting for a name at press time.
Roark says his son is "already a big "kid with blond hair." The Critchlows have two daughters, Jara Shae and Reign Eden.
Another Guiding Light favorite is returning to the show. Fletcher (Jay Hammer) is coming back to Springfield for several episodes in March. After Fletcher left town with their daughter, his wife, Holly (Maureen Garrett), made a real mess of her life. He may be coming back to help her pick up the pieces. He always was her voice of reason.
Dear Candace: Luke and Laura (Anthony Geary, Genie Francis) used to be my favorite characters on General Hospital. Lately, their lives have gone off the deep end. I sometimes think they are both nut cases. I feel sory for poor Lucky (Jonathan Jackson) to have such crazy parents.
Could you please tell me why Luke and Laura have changed so much? -Mary Ruth Enlow, Demotte, Ind.
Dear Reader: Luke and Laura have never been a normal couple. Their relationship goes in cycles, and it is definitely in a downward spiral at present.
Dear Condace: I missed what happened with Michelle Thomas, who played Callie on The Young and the Restless. She looked healthy to me, and she had such a wonderful voice. Could you please tell me what happened? I miss her. -Ruth Brandel, Cary, Ill.
Dear Reader: Thomas died of cancer in mid-December. No one, not even the show's producers, had any idea she was so ill.

Fox's tomb-opening special is 'not your mother's Egypt'

By John Crook

"Show me the mummyl"
That seems to be the driving philosophy behind Opening the Lost Tombs: Live From Egypt, a two-hour special premiering Tuesday, March 2, on Fox.
Originating from Cairo at $3 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. Egypt time, the special presents the exploration of a tomb in a small pyramid that had been undisturbed for more than 4,000 years. Maury Povich is the host.
"Only 15 percent of the Giza Plateau has ever been excavated," executive producer Peter Isacksen says, "so there's 85 percent (still) beneath the sands. We are going into a tomb that Dr. (Zahi) Hawass' team is excavating."
Hawass, undersecretary of state for Egypt's Giza Plateau, says he fully briefs any camera crew members before entering such tomb areas, and he hopes to limit the number of crewmen who will actually enter the tomb.
"(I) tell them, 'Don't touch. Don't make a big flashlighting on any painting,' " Hawass explains. "We are going to be very careful in trying to enter sites like this."
Questions of taste, of course, hover around the project, which Isacksen characterizes as "not your mother's Egypt.
"We're going to show it in a really new, inventive, Foxlike way," he says. "You can do it with graphics, with tone ... with music. It's not dry. We're passionate about this thing, and we're going to do it that way."
Supervising producer Nancy Stern cuts to the chase: "We want to find a sarcophagus that has a mummy in it!" Another Egyptologist, Dr. Emily Teeter, who is working on an upcoming Discovery Channel special about Cleopatra, says viewers shouldn't hold their breath for anything exotic.
"The premise of (the Fox) show is quite curious," Teeter says. "The monument that they're onening has stood and has been availute for several thousand years. So from an academic point of view, we don't have a lot of faith that this is going to be particularly interesting."

What Does Medicare Cover?

Medicare is designed to cover the cost of heallit care for senior citizens and the permanenily disabled. That includes eye heallh care, too. Each year, the patient must pay an annual deduclible, currently $$ 100$, before Medicare will pay for any services. After the amnual deductible is satisfied, Medicare will pay up to $80 \%$ of the doctor's covered services when the care of a licensed optometrist is necessary for a health related condition, symptom or complaint. The patient is responisible for a $20 \%$ co-payment plus any charges not covered by Medicare. If the patient has supplemental insurance, sich as Blue Cross/Blue Shield, AARP, or Medicaid, it may cover the cost of the deductible and co-payment. Our office will bill Medicare and accept payment directly from them if the services qualify for Medicare coverage. We will also bill the supplemental insurance company.

Anyone with a history of diabetes or headaches, for example, would be covered for $80 \%$ of the cost of a comprehensive examination and diagnostic testing. Medicare will also cover services for medical eye problems such as blurred vision, clouding, spots or flashes of light, glaucoma, cataracts, macular degeneration, eye injuries; eye pain, eye infections and other eye disease. Medicare will cover $80 \%$ of the cataract surgery and one pair only of glasses after cataract surgery. Medicare will not cover routine vision analysis, eye glasses or contact lenses not related ta cataract surgery,

At the Family Vision Center our doctors treat eye conditions as well as diagnose them. Medicare also approves these expenses. If you have any ques-: tions about what eye health expenses Medicare will cover just call us at 257 . 5029 and we will be happy to discuss them.
