ALLIED TROOPS ARE INVADING BULGARIA

ANGLO-FRENCH FORCES FROM SALONIKA JOIN SERBIANS NORTH OF GREEK LINE.

FRANCE AT WAR ON BULGARS

Austro-Germans Press Forward but Move Slowly Because of Strong Resistance and Much Rain.

London.—Strumitsa, in Bulgaria, has been occupied by the allied armies of Great Britain, France and Serbia, according to official advices from Salonika telegraphed by the Reuter correspondent at Athens, Monday morning.

London.—The French government has announced the existence of a state of war between France and Bulgaria. This follows the British declaration which was made the previous night.

Almost coincidentally with the announcement from Paris comes the report from Athens that the French troops in Macedonia are engaged with the Bulgarians, who number 40,000.

Already many thousands of the British and French troops who were landed at Salonika are on their way to form a junction with Serbians or to take up strategic positions against the Bulgarian advance.

Weather Aids Serbians.

Hard pressed by Austro-German troops estimated at about 280,000 men, on the Save-Danube front, and fighting at various points on the line to hold back the Bulgarians, the Serbians are anxiously awaiting the assistance of the Anglo-French troops, but they are being favored by the weather conditions and by the natural defenses of the country, and the progress of the invaders has not been pronounced.

The Germans, however, claim to have taken the heights south of Belgrade, while along the Danube the army of General von Gallwitz is pushing the Serbians back.

The Bulgarians also lay claim to a rapid advance into Macedonia, although the French are already reported to be in contact with them at Giyogell, while both the French and British continue to land troops at Salonika.

No Italian Assistance Yet.

Neither Russian nor Italian assistance has yet developed, but the Italians have begun a more vigorous have captured Pregrasina, an important advanced point of the fortified Riva group on Lake Garda. This will be of indirect aid to Serbia, preventing as it does the movement of any more Austrian troops from that frontier.

The Germans have taken the offensive south of Riga and forced the Russians out of their positions, capturing a large number of prisoners and some guns. On the rest of the eastern front the offensive remains in the hands of the Russians, who are attacking west of Dvinsk, in the center and to the south of the Pripiet river.

There is somewhat of a lull in Flanders and Champagne on the western front, probably the calm before another storm of shells. Activity for the moment has been transferred to Lorraine, where the French report the capture of a trench north of Reillon, and to the Vosges, where the Germans have again withdrawn from Hartmanns-Weilerkopf, which has changed hands many times.

Greece May Abandon Neutrality.

Athens.—The energetic action of the entente allies and the opening of actual hostilities between Bulgaria and Serbia apparently are rapidly modifying the attitude of the Greek anti-war party. There is credible authority for the statement that King Constantine is preparing to go to Salonika in the near future, and it is said in circles usually well informed that Greece will abandon her attitude of neutrality as soon as the concentration of troops is completed and army arrangements perfected.

16 Killed When Car Goes into Creek. Randolph, Kan.—With ten bodies recovered from the half submerged passenger car of a Union Pacific motor train which went through a bridge here Saturday, estimates of the total casualties were placed at 16 dead and two scores injured. Sixty-five persons were in the car and only four escaped injury when it plunged into Fancy creek and was half buried deep in mud and water. The train consisted of one passenger car and one combination baggage

EXTEND RECOGNITION TO GEN. CARRANZA

CONDITIONS GETTING BETTER

Letters Were Addressed to Gen. Carranza, "Chief Executive of De Facto Government in Mexico."

Washington.—Diplomatic relations between the United States and Mexico were formally renewed Tuesday, after a lapse of two years and eight months, by the formal recognition of Venustiano Carranza as the chief executive of the de facto government of Mexico.

Secretary Lansing and the ambassadors from Brazil, Chile and Argentina and the ministers from Bolivia, Uruguay and Guatemala, constituting the Pan-American conference on Mexican affairs, met and decided upon the form in which their respective governments would present recognition and fix the time for the act.

Form of Recognition.

Each government will address to General Carranza a letter or note of recognition to be delivered to Eliseo Arredondo, personal representative of General Carranza here. Mr. Arredondo, who is a first cousin of Mr. Carranza, will leave here Wednesday or Thursday to convey in person the letters of recognition from the several governments.

With the decision on the form of recognition, the Pan-American conference on Mexican affairs adjourned.

Improvement in Mexico.

Since recognition was agreed upon a week ago, official reports show that a material change for the better has taken place in Mexico; that railroads and telegraph lines are being rapidly repaired and the conditions are fast becoming normal in many places. Thousands of troops hitherto under General Villa have taken advantage of the offer of amnesty and laid down their arms and Secretary Lansing and the Pan-American diplomats feel that a fair start has been made toward restoration of peace and reconstruction, the success of which depends now upon the administrative ability of Carranza and his advisers.

Assurances have been given by Carranza that foreigners will be protected in their lives and property; that claims will be paid; that amnesty will be given to political enemies who swear allegiance to the new government, and that there will be no persecutions of the clergy. The American government is hopeful that these promises will be fulfilled.

MEXICAN BANDITS WRECK TRAIN

Several Reported Dead Near Brownsville on Monday Night.

Brownsville, Texas.—The south-bound St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico passenger train was wrecked seven miles from Brownsville Monday night, supposedly by Mexican bandits. The engineer, three United States soldiers and several passengers were killed; according to a report of the wreck reaching Brownsville, telephoned by a negro passenger, who walked to his home four miles from town, after the wreck.

Four companies of United States infantry were rushed to the scene on a special train, followed by two troops of cavalry. The news threw Brownsville into the wildest excitement and activity in army circles was almost immediate.

Conference on Farm Credits.

Chicago.—The third national conference on marketing and farm credits is to be held in Chicago Nov. 23 to Dec. 2. The call for this meeting is issued by the general committee of the National conference on marketing and farm credits, and by the National council of farmers' co-operative associations. At this meeting representatives of agricultural, educational and banking interests of every section of the United States will be brought together to frame legislation necessary to secure an easy flow of money to agricultural operations, to secure the standardization of farm products and encourage the organization of agriculture.

New Commander in Gallipoli.

London.—Major General Charles Carmichael Monro has been appointed to command the Dardanelles expedition in succession to General Sir Ian Hamilton, who is returning to England to make a report. This announcement is made to the war office.

It has become known that the financial agent of Germany recently made the Texas Warehouse and Marketing department a proposition to purchase through this department, 1,000,000 bales of cotton at a price 20 cents above the market price then prevailing. This offer was not accepted because it was made on condition that the cotton be delivered in Bremen.

A demand for $50,000 in gold was made upon E. C. The penalty for failure to pay the ransom was the death of all cattle on the ranches.

Governor General Francis Burton in his message to the Philippine legislature describes the era in the islands preceding the beginning of the present administration in Washington as extravagant and careless. Economies and reforms brought about in 1914-15, he declared, have averted bankruptcy.

A plea for a navy which would make the United States able to face any other world power, and a $10,000,000 merchant marine, to be used as a naval auxiliary in case of war, was made by William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, in an address before the Kansas City commercial club.

Johnny Williamson Killed.

A telegram was received here last Sunday by Walter Gray, from Douglas Arizona, that John Williamson had been killed there at 5 o'clock that morning. The only particulars that could be learned concerning the affair was that Williamson was killed in a rooming house in Douglas by a man named Messenger. On Monday word was received that the burial would take place at Carrizozo Tuesday afternoon and several of Mr. Williamson's Capitan friends attended the funeral.

Death of Mrs. C. M. Kyle.

Editor Mountaineer:—I have received a letter from Wintersboro, Texas, telling me of the death of my mother, Mrs. C. M. Kyle. She died Oct. 2, 1915, at the age of 89 years and 3 months. No particulars concerning the cause of her death was given in the short message, but she has been in poor health for a year past.

Death of Mrs. C. M. Kyle.

Saturday the Carrizozo basket ball teams play return games with the Lincoln county Hi H School teams. The Capitan boys succeeded in beating the Carrizozo boys 3 to 5 in the game with them at Carrizozo three weeks ago. Their girls ran up a score 33 to 15 against the Capitan girls the same day. These return games promise to be even more interesting, for the Carrizozo boys and the Capitan girls are anxious to reverse their scores of three weeks ago and even up.

Mr. Franklin, Carrizozo coach, will bring his teams up Saturday morning. Tennis games will be played during the morning. The basket ball games will be played at 2 p. m. The teams will return to Carrizozo immediately after the games.

The basket ball game between the girls' teams from Hondo and the Lincoln County High School last Saturday afternoon resulted in a score of six to five in favor of Hondo. The Hondo guards played well and kept the Capitan score down. Although the ball was at the Capitan goal the greater part of the time due to the good work of the centers and guards the forwards were unable to put the ball thru the basket and thus the score. Nina Talley made three field goals for Hondo. Lola Phillips made one field goal and Jenny Boone made three free throws for Capitan.

On the whole the game moved very slowly. There were few fouls called. Fumbles were frequent. The players could not seem to hold the ball when it came to them.

Mr. R. C. James, a former teacher here refereed the game. The Capitan boys and girls entertained the visitors at the circus Saturday evening, and later at an informal dance in the Physics Laboratory of the High. Mr. Howard and Mr. Nighthower played for the dancers who seemed to enjoy themselves there as well as at the basket ball.

John L. Bryan jr., delivered his hog crop to Mr. Riley, of Carrizozo, Monday. We suppose John will be out of a job now for awhile. But John needs a rest after so strenuous a summer.

The many friends of the veteran school teacher J. E. Koonce will be pained to hear of his illness. He came to Lincoln Monday suffering with an attack of appendicitis and expected to be operated on, but at this writing he is resting well and expects to escape an operation. We don't know how many appendix Mr. Koonce has.

Our Deputy Sheriff has been busy the past week serving invitations on our citizens to go to the capital next week to serve on the grand and petit juries. Your correspondent had rather go hunting, so sent his regards to the Judge.

Several of our citizens are cleaning up their rifles for the opening of the hunting season next Monday. Wallace Gumm and his apple crew, expect to start Sunday so they will be on the ground Monday morning. Deer and turkey are said to be very scarce this season, but after Wallie gets through hunting them they will be still scarce, as he is a mighty hunter.

ALMOST FAINTED WHILE STANDING

And Suffered Dreadfully From Headache, Backache and Dizziness. Says Now That Women Are Foolish To Suffer and Tells Why.

New Augusta, Miss.—In relating her experience, Miss Irene H. Craft, of this town, says: "I have been troubled for a long time with female weakness. I was irregular... and was down in bed about all the time. I had chills and fever with these troubles for at least a year, and a great deal of dizziness, headache and backache. When I was sick at each month, I had to stay in bed all the time, because my back would ache and my head would swim so that I would almost faint if I stood on my feet.

I endured this for about three years. Finally, I began to doctor with a doctor. He did not help me much. Then he recommended Cardui, and I began to take it. I took about one bottle and felt much better. I have taken a whole lot now, and feel just all right. I have no backache, headache, or dizziness now.

I think women are foolish to suffer when they can take so helpful a remedy as Cardui, and I surely praise it to every one.

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Such earnest statements as the above speak for themselves, and we receive thousands of similar ones every year.

A Rival to Kelly. "How did that baseball player ever get the nickname 'Catcher'?" "Because he slides so."

A HINT TO WISE WOMEN. Don't suffer torture when all female troubles will vanish in this air after using "Feminine" Vaginal Cream.

SERENADERS IN HARD LUCK

Princeton Students Meant Well, but Evidently It Was Not Their Night to Make a "Hit."

One night not long ago four Princeton boys went gaily forth to serenade two belles of the town. Arrived at the house of the fair ones, they took their stand under the correct window, as they thought, and for some time made the night more or less melodious.

They were just preparing to leave when a door opened and the jolly old father of the girls appeared. Had it been light they might possibly have seen a twinkle in his eye.

"Boys," said he, "we are much obliged, that is, I am much obliged, for I happen to be alone tonight. I am sorry to say that the family in New York, but I thank you for coming. Maybe, if you come again you'll have better luck. But in the name of old Princeton, boys, if you do come when the girls are here, don't play to the bathroom window!"

What Mamma Said. Little pitchers not only have long ears, but wide mouths sometimes. One of these is in Buffalo, and when the bell rang the other day, she went to the door, where she found some ladies.

"My dear," said she, "will you please tell your mother that we would like to see her?"

The child departed silently, and after a while returned, sat down and silently watched the callers.

"Well," said she at length, "and what did mamma say?"

"Oh, dear," she said, "I don't want to, but I wove I must."

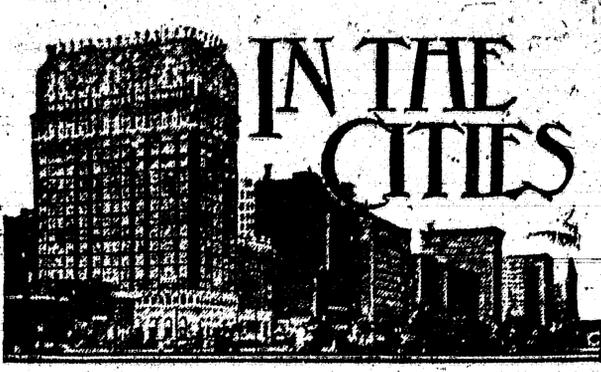

HARD ON CHILDREN When Teacher Has Coffee Habit. "Best is best, and best will ever live." When a person feels this way about Postum they are glad to give testimony for the benefit of others.

A school teacher down in Miss. says: "I had been a coffee drinker since my childhood, and the last few years it had injured me seriously."

"One cup of coffee taken at breakfast would cause me to become so nervous that I could scarcely go through with the day's duties, and this nervousness was often accompanied by dizziness, depression of spirits and heart palpitation."

"I am a teacher by profession, and when under the influence of coffee had to struggle against drowsiness when in the school room."

"When talking this over with my physician, he suggested that I try Postum, and I purchased a package and made it carefully according to directions; found it excellent of flavor, and nourishing."

Lady Nicotine of Chicago Wins an Oklahoman

CHICAGO.—"A woman is only a woman," quoted Edward A. Kaselle of Tulsa, Okla., from Kipling, "but a good cigar is a smoke." "That being the case," replied his friend, Clifford Outhouse of the auditing staff of the Hotel Sherman, "come on down and I'll buy you a good one."

Of course he meant a cigar. So the twain descended to the cigar stand, which was presided over by a blonde Lady Nicotine, whose real name is Mayme Hoskins. "What'll you have?" queried Outhouse.

But the mind of Kaselle had strayed from Havana to Arcadia at sight of Miss Hoskins. He mopped his fevered brow with the quarter cigar Outhouse had purchased for him and essayed to smoke his handkerchief.

Every day after that he earned the respect and admiration of "Front" and his brethren by the princely manner in which he purchased cigars and cigarettes.

Finally Mr. Kaselle told of his affection and promised faithfully if she would say "yes" he would keep the smoke out of the curtains. And Miss Hoskins could not gainsay her cavalier.

But, alas, the money he had spent in the purchase of cigars and cigarettes since he began his suit had eaten up all his available cash.

So Young Lochinvar, who had come out of the West like the original, had to go back to recuperate his broken fortunes. For several months he toiled and spun and smoked "three-fer" stogies. Then fortune smiled on him, and he struck oil on an Oklahoma farm.

The other day Miss Hoskins received the following telegram: "Come to Tulsa right away. Bring a box of my favorite cigars. We'll get married right away."

Gotham Girls Find New Ways of Making Money

NEW YORK.—Some of the young women who work their way while studying in this city have found new fields for earning more money than the women employed along regular lines.

A young western girl who occupies a flat on the upper West side, "Yes, I do other things besides blacking boots, but it was that particular branch of my trade which attracted attention and got me my clientele. I mend and clean gloves and renovate the wardrobes of men, women, children and dogs. My clients all admit that it was the bootblack that attracted them. Women hate to go to a bootblack and sit in their high chairs while they have shoes polished. I learned this from one woman, so I had some cards printed which read: 'Visiting bootblack and valet.' Then I went to prosperous-looking apartment hotels, and after finding out the names of the residents, sent up my card."

Across the hall in the same flat house live three more girls who are working their way. One is from Pennsylvania, one from Texas and the third from up state. "I clean parlors," said the New York girl. "I suppose you might call me a visiting parlor maid, for that is just what I am. There are many ladies who live in apartment hotels who, while they cannot afford to keep a personal maid, are willing to pay someone to come once a week to give their rooms a thorough cleaning. There I come in." The girl from Pennsylvania found her field in the apartment houses with kitchenettes as a cook and general houseworker. She has all the work she can do, and declares that she is well paid for it. "My work is buying and selling second-hand lace and jewelry," the girl from Texas admitted. "I didn't originate the work. It might be called an inheritance. I make a good living out of it."

No Wonder Reading Residents Used More Water

READING, PA.—For some weeks the city water bureau noticed an amazing increase in the amount of water used in this city. Inspectors and registrars alike were unable to account for it. People who seldom used water except to wash in had been indulging in amazing quantities. Men who had not used it as a toilet for a long time had been forsaking bars and clinging to water attachments in public places in lieu of pumps.

Analyses of the water discovered a peculiar taste. It was like three fingers of Bourbon diluted to the eighth degree. This failed to solve the mystery, however, as no end supposed for a moment that a distillery had been located near any of the reservoirs, nor that the local W. C. T. U. had been carrying on a Carrie Nation crusade in the neighborhood of the numerous city dams.

By accident the key to the puzzle was found. One of the inspectors of the state health board, patrolling the water shed, found several elder mills along the Maiden creek, which supplies the city, were dumping the waste and pulp from the apples used in making cider into the stream. This pulp, fermenting in the shallow places, produced the alcoholic juice that lent its peculiar applejack flavor later noticed in the city water.

Even the fish showed the effects. Fishermen reported that the fish would not bite, but seemed to be running around recklessly in the water and indulging in antics that no fish in its right mind would think of.

Cupid Is Banished by Topeka Y. W. C. A. Official

TOPEKA, KAN.—A Pennsylvania girl, Miss Clare Armstrong, has the distinction of having chased Cupid out of the Topeka Young Woman's Christian Association building. Miss Armstrong recently reached Topeka and the day she came Cupid had to get out and stay out. She tore up Cupid's parlor and turned it into a matter-of-fact office.

The trouble all started several months ago when Miss Margaret Dice, then secretary of the association, announced one day that Cupid's parlor was to be abolished. Cupid's parlor consisted of a small room on the main floor which had been dedicated since the erection of the building to the use of the young women who roomed at the building as a place in which to entertain their men friends. It was properly equipped with big rocking chairs, soft settees and cosy nooks and there was a pair of curtains hanging at the door which could be drawn all about but not quite together.

DAIRY

PICKED UP IN THE COWYARD

Kindness Is Relished by Stock More Than Most Succulent Feed—Salt Is Absolutely Essential!

It is expensive to let a cow fall in her milk because of the lack of proper feed.

In feeding a milk cow a corn ration, reduce the ration at first indication of fattening.

Better run a dairy without a dog than have one that is irritable to the cows. Many kicking cows are caused by the dogs nipping at their heels.

Jersey Cattle on Pasture.

They relish it more than the most succulent thing you can put before them. Unless you are willing to give time and attention to valuable stock, don't be too anxious to acquire such. Remember, however, that any animal must have rational treatment to give good results.

While fodder, when given out of doors, should be fed in feed racks and not on the ground, it is imperative for the ground surrounding the racks to slope away in all directions and often it would be better still if tiled drained.

To keep a bull good-natured he should be raised with the other stock, allowed to run in a paddock where he can see the rest of the herd. With this treatment he will seldom become cross.

Do you keep plenty of salt where your live stock can get at it all the time? Remember that this is absolutely essential to good health in a horse, cow, hog or sheep, as in a human being.

What kind of water do your milk cows drink? Remember that a big proportion of the water they drink is converted into milk, and therefore ought to be wholesome.

The best milking pail is the one so constructed as to reduce to a minimum the amount of dirt falling into the milk during the process of milking. The small top pail may have some objections, but its advantages are so in evidence that it is rapidly being adopted by our most prominent dairymen.

IMPROVING THE DAIRY STOCK

- 1. Treat cows gently and avoid excitement.
2. Be regular in time of milking.
3. Keep stables clean, well-lighted and ventilated.
4. Weigh the milk of each cow at milking time.
5. Get your neighbor to share with you in owning a Babcock milk tester, and test the product of each cow.
6. Discard the animals which have failed at the end of the year to pay for their keep.
7. Breed your cows to a purebred, registered dairy bull from a family having large and profitable production of butterfat.
8. Raise well the heifer calves from cows, which for one or more generations have made large and profitable production of milk and butterfat.
9. Breed heifers to drop their first calves at twenty-four to thirty months of age. Give cows six to eight weeks' rest between lactation periods.
10. Join a dairy cattle breeders' association. It will help you keep posted and in touch with the best and most modern ways of managing your dairy herd.

Investigate the Pasture. When a cow turned out to pasture does not give as much milk as you expected, do not blame the cow without investigating. Sometimes it is the fault of the pasture.

Keep Herd Record Sheet. Keep track of the profitable cows by keeping a record sheet for your herd. Record the daily feed and production and occasionally have the milk tested for butterfat.

Satisfactory Dairy Returns. Good care of good cows, a properly balanced ration, including liberal use of corn silage and comfortable quarters, insure satisfactory returns.

The horses soon got loose from the buggy and ran away. They ran over Mr. Gunnell's gate and one of them was badly cut on the wire. Mrs. Mocho and the baby were not thrown out of the buggy nor hurt, but she is now in a serious state, nervous prostration caused by the shock.

He has been returned to the same work he had last year, though it has been changed some by taking from it in certain parts and attaching territory in other directions. The changes made puts Capitan in his work, and he will preach here on a month. Bro. Lewis evidently went to conference with a good report of his last year's work, as a re-assignment means an approval by the conference. With an understanding of the field of his labors to commence with, he will be enabled to do better work this year than last year. The Presiding Elder, Rev. H. M. Smith, has also been returned to this district.

Jim Woodland, from the Black ranch, spent a day or two this week with his Capitan friends. Jim's duties as carpenter for the ranch have required his time for the past two months on the lower end of the range, but he is through with that work now, and will make his visits here more frequent during the fall and winter.

ALMOST FAINTED WHILE STANDING

And Suffered Dreadfully From Headache, Backache and Dizziness. Says Now That Women Are Foolish To Suffer and Tells Why.

New Augusta, Miss.—In relating her experience, Miss Irene H. Craft, of this town, says: "I have been troubled for a right smart while with female weakness. I was irregular . . . and was down in bed about all the time. I had chills and fever with these troubles for at least a year, and a great deal of dizziness, headache and backache.

When I was sick at each month, I had to stay in bed all the time, because my back would ache and my head would swim so that I would almost faint if I stood on my feet.

I endured this for about three years. Finally, I began to doctor with a doctor. He did not help me much. Then he recommended Cardul, and I began to take it. I took about one bottle and felt much better. I have taken a whole lot now, and feel just all right. I have no backache, headache, or dizziness now.

I think women are foolish to suffer when they can take so helpful a remedy as Cardul, and I surely praise it to every one.

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, why not give Cardul a trial?

SERENADERS IN HARD LUCK

Princeton Students Meant Well, but Evidently It Was Not Their Night to Make a "Hit."

One night not long ago four Princeton boys went gayly forth to serenade two belles of the town. Arrived at the house of the fair ones, they took their stand under the correct window, as they thought, and for some time made the night more or less melodious.

They were just preparing to leave when a door opened and the jolly old father of the girls appeared. Had it been light they might possibly have seen a twinkle in his eye.

"Boys," said he, "we are much obliged. That is, I am much obliged, for I happen to be alone tonight. I am sorry to say that the family's in New York, but I thank you for coming. Maybe you come again you'll have better luck. But in the name of old Princeton, boys, if you do come when the girls are here, don't play to the bathroom window!"

What Mamma Said.
Little pitchers not only have long ears, but wide mouths sometimes. One of these in Buffalo, and when the last time the other day, she went to the door, where she found some ladies.

"My dear," said one, "will you please tell your mother that we would like to see her?"

The child departed silently, and after a while returned, sat down and silently watched the callers.

"Well," said one at length, "and what did mamma say?"

"She said, 'Oh, dear, I don't want to, but I suppose I must.'"

HARD ON CHILDREN

When Teacher Has Coffee Habit.

"Beat it, beat it, beat it will ever be." When a teacher feels this way about Postum they are glad to give testimony for the benefit of others.

A school teacher down in Miss. says: "I had been a coffee drinker since my childhood, and the last few years it had injured me seriously.

"One cup of coffee taken at breakfast would cause me to become so nervous that I could scarcely go through with the day's duties, and this nervousness was often accompanied by deep depression of spirits and heart palpitation.

"I am a teacher by profession, and when under the influence of coffee had to struggle against drowsiness when in the school room.

"When talking this over with my physician, he suggested that I try Postum, and I purchased a package and made it carefully according to directions; found it excellent of flavor, and nourishing.

"In a short time I noticed very gratifying effects. My nervousness disappeared, I was not irritated by my pupils, life seemed full of sunshine, and my heart trembled no longer.

"I attribute my change in health and spirits to Postum alone."

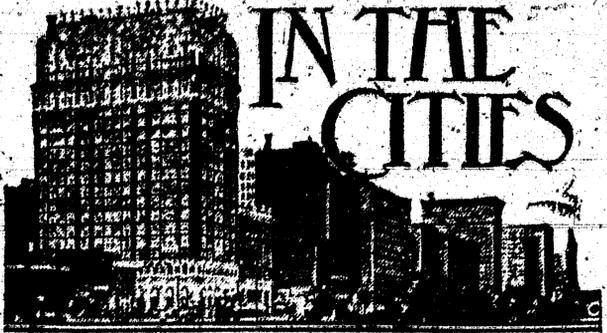

Names given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum, Cream—the original form—must be well boiled. 15c and 35c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 35c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

"There's a Reason" for Postum. —said by Green.

Lady Nicotine of Chicago Wins an Oklahoman

CHICAGO.—"A woman is only a woman," quoted Edward A. Kaselle of Tulsa, Okla., from Kipling, "but a good cigar is a smoke." "That being the case," replied his friend, Clifford Hill Shorman, "come on down and I'll buy you a good one."

Of course he meant a cigar. So the twain descended to the cigar stand, which was presided over by a blonde Lady Nicotine, whose real name is Mayme Hoskins. "What'll you have?" queried Out-house.

But the mind of Kaselle had strayed from Havana to Arcadia, at sight of Miss Hoskins. He mopped his favored brow with the quarter cigar Out-house had purchased for him and essayed to smoke his handkerchief.

Every day after that he earned the respect and admiration of "Front" and his brethren by the princely manner in which he purchased cigars and cigarettes.

So Young Lochlavar, who had come out of the West like the original, had to go back to recuperate his broken fortunes. For several months he ladd and spun and smoked "three-fer" stogies. Then fortune smiled on him and he struck oil on an Oklahoma farm.

"Yes, I do other things besides blacking boots, but it was that particular branch of my trade which attracted attention and got me my clientele. I mend and clean gloves and renovate the wardrobes of men, women, children and dogs. My clients all admit that it was the bootblack that attracted them. Women hate to go to a bootblack and sit in their high chairs while they have shoes polished. I learned this from one woman, so I had some cards printed which read: 'Visiting bootblack and valet.' Then I went to prosperous-looking apartment hotels, and after finding out the names of the residents, sent up my card."

Across the hall in the same flat house live three more girls who are working their way. One is from Pennsylvania, one from Texas and the third from up state. "I clean parlors," said the New York girl. "I suppose you might call me a visiting parlor maid, for that is just what I am. There are many ladies who live in apartment hotels who, while they cannot afford to keep a personal maid, are willing to pay someone to come once a week to give their rooms a thorough cleaning. There I come in." The girl from Pennsylvania found her field in the apartment houses with kitchenettes as a cook and general houseworker. She has all the work she can do, and declares that she is well paid for it. "My work is buying and selling second-hand hats and jewelry," the girl from Texas admitted. "I didn't originate the work. It might be called an inheritance. I make a good living out of it."

No Wonder Reading Residents Used More Water

READING, PA.—For some weeks the city water bureau noticed an amazing increase in the amount of water used in this city. Inspectors and registrars alike were unable to account for it. People who seldom used water except to wash in had been indulging in amazing quantities. Men who had not used it as a tippie for a long time had been forsaking bars and clinging to water attachments in public places in lieu of pumps.

Analyses of the water discovered a peculiar taste. It was like three fingers of Bourbon diluted to the eighth degree. This failed to solve the mystery, however, as no one supposed for a moment that a distillery had been located near any of the reservoirs, nor that the local W. C. T. U. had been carrying on a Carrie Nation crusade in the neighborhood of the numerous city dams.

By accident the key to the puzzle was found. One of the inspectors of the state health board, patrolling the water shed, found several cider mills along the Malden creek, which supplies the city, were dumping the waste and pulp from the apples used in making cider into the stream. This pulp, fermenting in the shallow places, produced the alcoholic juice that lent its peculiar applejack flavor later noticed in the city water.

Even the fish showed the effects. Fishermen reported that the fish would not bite, but seemed to be running around recklessly in the water and indulging in antics that no fish in its right mind would think of.

TOPEKA, KAN.—A Pennsylvania girl, Miss Clare Armstrong, has the distinction of having chased Cupid out of the Topeka Young Woman's Christian Association building. Miss Armstrong recently reached Topeka and the day she came Cupid had to get out and stay out. She tore up Cupid's parlor and turned it into a matter-of-fact office.

The trouble all started several months ago when Miss Margaret Dice, then secretary of the association, announced one day that Cupid's parlor was to be abolished. Cupid's parlor consisted of a small room on the main floor which had been dedicated since the erection of the building to the use of the young women who roomed at the building as a place in which to entertain their men friends. It was properly equipped with big rocking chairs, soft settees and cozy nooks and there was a pair of curtains hanging at the door which could be drawn at most but not quite together.

There was a storm of protest. The girls threatened to go on a strike. Many of them said they would leave the building if the beau parlor was taken away. Miss Dice consented to wait until the arrival of Miss Armstrong. But that young lady, upon her arrival, gave Cupid the final swat.

The Desired Consumption.
"I'm troubled with a sense of fullness after eating," said the dyspeptic.
"Good heavens!" exclaimed the healthy gourmand. "Isn't that what you eat for?"

The Main Thing.
"Seems strange to me how many various sorts of inquiries the news papers have about cats."
"Why so?"
"In my circle all a man wants to know about a cat is if it's good."

Investigate the Pasture.
When a cow turned out to pasture does not give as much milk as you expected, do not blame the cow without investigating. Sometimes it is the fault of the pasture.

Keep Herd Record Sheet.
Keep track of the profitable cows by keeping a record sheet for your herd. Record the daily feed and production and occasionally have the milk tested for butterfat.

Satisfactory Dairy Returns.
Good care of good cows, a properly balanced ration, including liberal use of corn silage and comfortable quarters, insure satisfactory returns.

DAIRY

PICKED UP IN THE COWYARD

Kindness is Refreshed by Stock More Than Most Succulent Feed—Salt is Absolutely Essential.

It is expensive to let a cow fall in her milk because of the lack of proper feed.

In feeding a milk cow a corn ration, reduce the ration at first indication of fattening.

Better run a dairy without a dog than have one that is irritable to the cows. Many licking cows are caused by the dogs nipping at their heels.

Jersey Cattle on Pasture.

They roll it more than the most succulent thing you can put before them. Unless you are willing to give time and attention to valuable stock, don't be too anxious to acquire such. Remember, however, that any animal must have rational treatment to give good results.

While fodder, when given out of doors, should be fed in feed-racks and not on the ground, it is imperative for the ground surrounding the racks to slope away in all directions and often it would be better still if the drained.

To keep a bull good-natured he should be raised with the other stock, allowed to run in a paddock where he can see the rest of the herd. With this treatment he will seldom become cross.

Do you keep plenty of salt where your live stock can get at it all the time? Remember that this is absolutely essential to good health in a horse, cow, hog or sheep, as in a human being.

What kind of water do your milk cows drink? Remember that a big proportion of the water they drink is converted into milk, and therefore ought to be wholesome.

The best milking pail is the one so constructed as to reduce to a minimum the amount of dirt falling into the milk during the process of milking. The small top pail may have some objections, but its advantages are so in evidence that it is rapidly being adopted by our most prominent dairymen.

IMPROVING THE DAIRY STOCK

1. Treat cows gently and avoid excitement.
2. Be regular in time of milking.
3. Keep stables clean, welllighted and ventilated.
4. Weigh the milk of each cow at milking time.
5. Get your neighbor to share with you in owning a Babcock milk tester, and test the product of each cow.

6. Discard the animals which have failed at the end of the year to pay for their keep.
7. Breed your cows to a purebred, registered dairy bull from a family having large and profitable production of butterfat.
8. Raise well the heifer calves from cows, which for one or more generations have made large and profitable production of milk and butterfat.
9. Breed heifers to drop their first calves at twenty-four to thirty months of age. Give cows six to eight weeks' rest between lactation periods.
10. Join a dairy cattle breeders' association. It will help you keep posted and in touch with the best and most modern ways of managing your dairy herd.

Going It Too Hard

We are inclined nowadays to "go it too hard;" to overwork, worry, eat and drink too much, and to neglect our rest and sleep. This fills the blood with uric acid. The kidneys weaken and then it's a siege of backache, dizziness, nervous spells, rheumatic pains and distressing urinary disorders. Don't wait for worse troubles. Strengthen the kidneys. Use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Notes from Mountain View.

Porter Gunnells has arrived home. He has been working in the Valley near Roswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arley Stewart, who have been visiting relatives at this place have returned to their home at Ancho.

Mr. John Mocho and wife happened with a very serious accident Wednesday. They were driving when, from some cause, the horses began to kick; one of the horses got his legs over the lines, jerking Mr. Mocho over the dash-board of the buggy and cutting a bad gash on his face. The horses soon got loose from the buggy and ran away. They ran over Mr. Gunnell's gate and one of them was badly cut on the wire. Mrs. Mocho and the baby were not thrown out of the buggy nor hurt, but she is now in a serious state, nervous prostration caused by the shock.

Miss Omah Dorsey, of Cactus Flat, and Mr. Hammons, a young man from the Lone Star State, went over to Carrizozo Tuesday and were united in holy wedlock.

The Mexican people had a dance at the Richardson school house Saturday night which was largely attended, many of the American people being present.

A. H. Hayes left for Jicarilla Sunday to be gone several days.

Mr. Ep Casner has moved his family back to Aroyo Soco.

Prof. Moss, who is teaching the Encinoso school, has been sick, and made a trip to White Oaks this week to consult a doctor.

Clarence Bruce, of the Richardson neighborhood visited in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Bettie Hayes has been on the sick list the past week.

Rev. E. D. Lewis, the Methodist preacher, has returned to his home in Carrizozo from conference held in Marfa, Texas. He has been returned to the same work he had last year, though it has been changed some by taking from it in certain parts and attaching territory in other directions. The changes made puts Capitán in his work, and he will preach here on a month. Bro. Lewis evidently went to conference with a good report of his last year's work, as a re-assignment means an approval by the conference. With an understanding of the field of his labors to commence with, he will be enabled to do better work this year than last year. The Presiding Elder, Rev. H. M. Smith, has also been returned to this district.

Jim Woodland, from the Block ranch, spent a day or two this week with his Capt. friends. Jim's duties as carpenter for the ranch have required his time for the past two months on the lower end of the range, and he is through with that work now, and will make his visits here more frequent during the fall and winter.

Down in the southwestern section of Texas a gentleman by the name of Patten was running for the state senate. His partner, being very much interested in the election, took an active part in the campaign. One day he met a young man from the forks of the creek, and after inquiring about his father, mother and the rest of the family, discussing the weather, crops, stocks and things in general, said: "Well, Bill, is the old man going to support Mr. Patten this fall?"

The young ruffie scratched his head and after some little hesitation replied: "Well, I don't know, sir, but I think not, sir; you see he's having a darn hard time supporting himself, sir!"—Mack's National Monthly.

Weather Signs.

"Hunks are very thick on the corn, and it looks as if we would have a long, cold winter," said the weather sharp.

How Did Aunt Mary Do It?

Bobby is long on quaint remarks. One day his mother offered him a pickle, which he rejected. "Better take one," she urged. "Aunt Mary made these pickles." Bobby turned to them with a new interest. "Did Aunt Mary really make those?" he asked. Being assured that they were Aunt Mary's, he took one of the pickles in his hand and examined it with admiring curiosity. "How did Aunt Mary get all these little warts on 'em?" he asked.

Equatorial Michigan.

Representative Billy Wilson, who dwells in Chicago, found himself in the upper peninsula of Michigan doing some fishing and hunting. While there he conversed with the guide that he had hired in order to have somebody around to talk to. "Must get mighty all-fired cold up here in winter," remarked Wilson one morning. "Yes, it often gets av'ry down to 45 below zero," replied the native.

"Don't see how you stand it," said the congressman. "Oh, I always spend my winters in the South," explained the guide. "Go South, eh? Well, well! That's enterprising. And where do you go?" "Grand Rapids," said the guide.—Collier's Weekly.

LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO

DESCRIPTION OF THE RESOURCES AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS, ETC.

Captain a Trading and Shipping Point for a Large Territory.

Lincoln county is just a little southeast of the center of the state. Its altitude ranges from about 5,000 feet at its lowest parts to the top of Sera Blance in the Mascalero Indian reservation, which reaches an elevation of 11,882 feet, said to be the highest point in the state. The elevation at Captain is 4,348 feet.

Lincoln county has an area of 4,659 square miles, approximately 2,000,000 acres, of which 624,000 acres lie in the Lincoln National forest, which covers the central part of the county—its mountain ranges.

Lincoln county has a population of about 10,400. Settlers are furnished free of charge from the National forest all of the timber that they need for every purpose (wood, post, building logs, etc.), the principal timber is pine, cedar, pinon and juniper.

There are many springs in the mountains, running streams in some of the valleys and in many of the others an abundance of well water may be had at a depth of from 10 to 20 feet, while in some parts of the county there are wells—in use several hundred feet deep. Not only does the water vary in depth but also in quality. However, very little would be considered bad, usually the nearer the mountain the better the water.

There is a flowing artesian well one and one-half miles northwest of Captain, depth 360 feet.

Lincoln county has 96 miles of railroad, one line passing through the county from north to south, with a branch line running out from this main line at Carrizozo terminating at Captain, which is the trading and shipping point for more than half the people of the county.

In addition to the railroad service we have daily, two mail and passenger autos running through Captain. The Lincoln county high school is located at Captain. The building is a two-story brick. In addition to the regular course, domestic science, manual training and the commercial branches are taught.

All schools in the county run seven months or longer.

There are two church buildings in Captain which have just been completed.

Captain is surrounded by rolling prairie and forested mountains, the nearest point of Lincoln National forest being four miles out.

The office of the supervisor of the Lincoln National Forest is located at Captain.

Where running water may be had, irrigation is practiced and in such districts apples and alfalfa are the principal crops, while in the non-irrigated districts beans, oats, barley, corn, potatoes, etc., are the principal crops.

The extent of the stock industry of the county can best be estimated by the number given in for taxation (it is safe to say that this will not be an over estimate), which is as follows: 4,623 horses, 299 mules, 32,118 head of cattle, 200,547 sheep, 17,130 head of goats. All hogs valued at $2,114. The tax roll also shows 2,275 acres of coal land in the county valued at $31,967, and 2,255 acres of other mineral land (gold, silver, copper, lead, zinc and iron) valued at $71,197. The above valuation does not cover the improvements on the mineral lands.

Climatic-Health Conditions: Altitude, aridity and preponderance of sun shine, combined with its latitude, gives Lincoln county one of the best climates to be found anywhere. From season to season, from year to year, it is one of the most attractive features that the county has to offer. Generally the winters are short and mild, the summers cool and delightful, and, except in the higher altitudes, the people follow their usual pursuits throughout the year. It is on account of these wonderful climatic and health conditions that the United States government located their great Marine hospital and sanatorium at Ft. Stanton, only five miles from Captain.

In spring, May 6th; average date of frost in autumn, October 5th. Average hourly wind velocity, 6 to 10 miles. The altitude at Ft. Stanton is 6,231 feet. The figures taken here will perhaps be a fair estimate of conditions over the county at that altitude, the lower the altitude the lighter the precipitation, and at the higher altitudes the heavier the precipitation, as will be seen from records kept at the following places: Nogal Lake, altitude 7,144 feet, annual average precipitation 21 inches; South Fork, altitude 7,725 feet, annual average precipitation 33 inches. (Ft. Stanton, five miles south of Captain, Nogal Lake, seven miles west, and South Fork, fourteen miles southwest.)

We have from reliable sources the following data on the annual average yield of some of the non-irrigated crops grown in the mesa district, west of Captain, for the past five years: Corn, 25 bushels per acre; beans, 600 pounds per acre; barley hay, (fed on the farm not weighed) estimated at two tons per acre.

There are instances of a much heavier yield than that given above, one farmer producing on 23 acres of land 25,200 pounds of beans one year, and another producing 5,000 pounds of four-acres last fall.

We have a good local market for all farm products grown here, the price of beans ranging from $3.50 to $7.00 per cwt., with an average price of $4.00, and corn ranging from $1.55 to $2.00, with an average price of $1.65, and other farm products in proportion.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think it more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. RESCH, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Certain elements are necessary for building stout bodies and active brains. The great majority of these all-important elements for life and health are supplied by Nature in her field grains, wheat and barley. But white flour products lack these essential elements—Why?

Because the miller to make his flour look white and pretty throws out about 4/5ths of the mineral content of the wheat necessary for building brain, nerve and muscle.
