THE CAPITAN MOUNTAINEER

SEVENTEENTH YEAR NUMBER 8. CAPITAN, NEW MEXICO, APRIL 30, 1921. SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.50 A

The Coming Contest.

There will soon be a political contest on in New Mexico that will be looked to with much interest. It is the race of Republican candidates for the nomination for United States Senator to succeed H. O. Bursom, who was appointed by Gov. Mechem to take A. B. Fall's place until a special election is held this fall, which will probably be in September. It is said that there are a few avowed Republican candidates in the field seeking the nomination, who are Mr. Bursom, the present incumbent, Judge H. H. Holt of Las Cruces, and Capt Burton Mossman of Roswell. They are all representative and strong men in the party. But there are many considerations surrounding Mr. Bursom that makes him the logical and deserving candidate. In the first place he is more identified with the people of the state than any other man in the party and has fairly earned the title of a commoner. He came from humble surroundings, but by his native ability and indomitable energy his environment could not hold in check his ambition and his success. Through his political acumen and force of character he long ago became his party's acknowlegeded leader, and though as a candidate for office he has been defeated, but it is not probable that under the circumstances and conditions then existing any other man could have had a stronger following. As a political organizer and leader Mr. Bursom has not an equal in New Mexico. Among his great achievements and successes in leadership was the nomination of Judge Mechem for Governor. Bursom's judgment of a suitable candidate has already shown itself to have been eminently correct, as so far Judge Mechem is making a model governor. Governor Mechem appointed Mr. Bursom U. S. Senator to serve until a special election is held and he will be in the field for the nomination and it is up to the Republicans of the state to determine whether he will be nominated to succeed himself or whether they will prefer one of the other candidates. We believe that Mr. Bursom will be the party's choice when it is expressed in convention. He deserves this recognition at the hands of the party and it would be almost a surity of his election.

White Line Time Change.

On and after Sunday, April 24th, a number of changes will be made in the train service on the E. P. & S. W. Lines, which automatically changes the schedule of the White Stage Company's Passenger Car.

Trains No. 7 and 8 will be discontinued for an indefinite period and the running schedule of the Golden State Limited Trains No. 3 and No. 4 will be shortened several hours between Chicago and Los Angeles.

Golden State Limited Train No. 3 west bound will (on and after April 24th) arrive in Carrizozo at 9:25 a. m., El Paso at 1:05 p. m. and Los Angeles at 1:10 p. m. the next day. The schedule of the Golden State Limited Train No. 4 east bound remains unchanged.

The White Line Passenger Car schedule effective Sunday, April 24 will be as follows:

Leave Roswell 4:15 a. m. (stopping twenty minutes for breakfast at Bonito Inn, Lincoln,) arriving in Carrizozo at 9:15 a. m., connecting with Golden State Limited Train No. 3, arriving in El Paso at 1:05 p. m.

Returning leave El Paso at 12:50 p. m. on Golden State Limited Train No. 4, arriving in Carrizozo at 4:35 p. m., take White Line Passenger Car at Carrizozo depot, arriving in Roswell at 10 p. m., stopping twenty minutes for supper at the Bonito Inn.

Lincoln County High School Notes Capitan, N. M.

Dramatic Club.

The Lincoln County High School gave a play on the evening of the 22nd entitled "Peaceable's Husband, in which about fifteen stars featured. The play was a three act comedy, full of action, humorous, and alive with interest. Standing room was at a premium. The stage was beautifully decorated with curtains and draperies, and the soft lights reminded one of the Hippodrome of our sister city on the Eastern coast. Miss Mildred Peters, our Spanish instructor, directed the play with the skill of a professional which was very apparent in the general plan of the entire program and the general acting of the participants in the play. All credit is due her for the success of this event. The receipts of the play were $68.15, which will be used to defray the expenses of our approaching commencement exercises to be held on the evenings of the 19th and 20th of May. Any balance left over will go towards extension of the High School Library. Our Library has been increased nearly three hundred volumes this year. The fifty dues collected at the last play were expended for the for the purchase of three volumes of "Larned's History for Ready Reference and Topical Reading;" leather bound, and covering the work of recent history from 1898 to 1910.

Over ninety percent of the entrants to the State examinations for the 8th grade held in April passed with credit. This speaks for itself. Momentous steps are being taken for more extensive instruction in all departments of our school, making it more difficult to obtain credit and promotion. This the administration feels is essential to a well regulated and efficiently governed school, and will eventually bring the school to rank with the best in the West. Four years English are absolutely required for graduation after this year regardless of the credit a pupil may have.

In the paper issued during the week of the 20th of May a complete report of all the activities of this school will appear for the benefit of all those interested in Education.

Cadet Harold Hurd, Jr., of the N. M. M. I., today received official notice from the war department of his acceptance for entry at the West Point Military Academy, with orders to report on July 1st, for physical examination and entry. Cade Hurd was born in Roswell and the news of his preferment will occasion general pleasure.—Roswell News.

Mr. Witt Sears, one of our enterprising garage men, has had a concrete floor put down in the front department of his garage building, which adds much to the building. He says this improvement is not all that he will put in, that he will soon add others to improve his building and increase his capacity for business.

United States Public Health Service.

The hospitals operated by the U. S. Public Health Service have steadily increased, both number and capacity, since March 3, 1919, when the Act of Congress authorizing the Service to provide hospitalization for patients of the War Risk Bureau became a law. On that date the Service was operating 22 hospitals (all belonging to Marine Hospital Service) with a total of about 1,500 beds; on June 30, 1920, it was operating 50 hospitals with more than 12,000 beds; on Jan 1, 1921, 58 hospitals with about 14,000 beds; and March 5, almost exactly two years after it took hold, 60 hospitals with 17,650 beds. All the beds have never been occupied at one time, there having usually been a margin of about 6 per cent reserved for newly arriving patients and a varying number of untilled beds in newly acquired hospitals and installed wards. On March 5 the total of the unoccupied was about 12 per cent. The 61 hospitals include 12 for tuberculosis patients, 7 for neuro-psychiatrics, one for epileptics, and one lepers.

Hospitals put into operation since June 1, 1920, comprise seven for general patient—at Baltimore, Staten Island (N. Y.) Lake City (Fla.), St. Paul, Minneapolis, Fort Thomas (Ky.) and New York; three for tuberculosis patients—at Tacoma (Wash) Otsui (N. Y.), and Camp Kearney (Cal.); two for neuro-psychiatric patients—at [illegible] (Tenn.) and Augusta (Ga.); and a leper hospital at Carville, La.

The remaining three are in the Government Hospitals consist of "War Risk" beneficiaries and of earlier beneficiaries of the Service (merchant seamen, light house attendants, Coast and Geodetic Surry employes, etc). The War Risk patients numbered about 4,500 on Jan. 1, 1920; 6,500 on June 30, 1920, 9,700 on Jan. 1, 1921; and 12400 on March 5, 1921. The other beneficiaries numbered about 2,350 Jan. 1, 1920, 2,800 on 1, 1921, and 3,150 on March 5, 1921.

The foregoing figures apply only to hospitals operated by the Public Healt Service. As the demand for hospitalization has outrun the capacity of the Government hospitals, the Service has been compelled to place many of its patients in civilian hospitals, where they were cared for under contract. The number of these contract patients has risen from about 5,000 in Jan. 1, 1920, to 10,500, on March 5, 1921, nearly all being War Risk patients.

The personnel of the Service has kept pace in most respects with the increase of the hospital work. It now comprises about 3200 physicians; 150 dentists 1400 nurses, 400 reconstruction aides and 125 dietitains. The nurses are still about 300 short, in spite of the efforts of the Service to recruit them. Additional dietitains are also needed.

Amendment to Certificate of Incorporation of the Ruidoso W ter Users' Association

The Ruidoso Water Users' Assogiatio, a corporation of New Mexico doth hereby certify as follow:

That as the corporation does not actually operate for pecuniary profit; and the object of its existence is the mutual benefit of its members, it has been deemed advisable to amend its original articles of incorporation by surrendering the right to issue capital stock, and to change its powers to that of a mutual association as provided by chapter 75 of the Laws of New Mexico of 1909, governing the organization and management of Water Users' Association.

That the manner of acquiring funds for the operation of its irrigation works of all kinds and expenses shall be as otherwise provided in the original articles of incorporation and its by law!

Said change having been declared by resolution of the board of directors of said corporation to be advisable, and having been duly and regularly assented to by the vote two thirds in interest of the stockholders having voting powers, at a meeting duly called by the board of directors for that purpose, and at which meeting there were present a majority of the stockholders in interest of the said corporation; and the written consent of the stockholders is here to appended.

The registered office of the corporation is located in Glencoe, Lincoln County, New Mexico; and the statutory agent therein and in charge thereof upon whom process may be served is J. V. Tully.

In Witness Whereof, said corporation has caused this certificate to be signed by its president and secretary, and its corporate seal to be hereto affixed this 16th day of December, A. D. 1920.

Passes Into the Seventh Year.

The Capitan Mountaineer has entered into the seventh year of its publication. It seems but a short time since the first issue was printed and that six years have away with wonderful rapidity During the six years of the papers existence not singgle issue has been omitted, but at times is has taken a hard pull "to get by". Now that we are starting in on anolher year we would be glad if all our subscribers whose subscriptions expired at the end of the last year would come in and renew for the coming year, and if convenient pay for it in advance as it will be a great help in keeping the paper going through the hard times we are now having We would also be glad if those who owe for the past year or a longer time would come in and pay or send in the amounts already due. We need money and would certainly appreciate such assistance on the part of subscribers.

The Useful Penny.

Introduction of the penny transfer in the operation of the Indianapolis street car system, which caused the Indianapolis Traction and Terminal company to supply itself with 8,000 pennies the first day, brought to the mind of J. J. Mahoney, superintendent, a story of the eighties when Tom Johnson, afterward mayor of Cleveland, was treasurer, and a supply of pennies in the hands of the company helped to stop a run on a bank. Mr. Mahoney has been connected with the Indianapolis street car system for a long, long time.

In those days passengers dropped a nickel fare in a box and sometimes they put in five pennies. The company was usually overstocked with pennies and had to send them to the United States mint to get rid of them. The pennies were put in bags. It happened that the company had a lot of bags full of pennies when a run started on a bank. There was a great throng of people at the bank demanding and getting back their deposits. Through an understanding, the bank and the street car company resorted to camouflage. Several street car employees were called in and directed to carry the bags of pennies into the bank. It was an impressive sight, as bag after bag was passed through the cashier's window, and Mr. Mahoney says it had the desired effect.

Treasure From the Jungle.

The most costly, and scientifically the most noteworthy, animal in the grand collection of the New York Zoological society in Bronx park is the pigmy hippopotamus, of which there are three specimens. Not only are these the only captive pigmies in this country, but anywhere in the world, except a pair captured at the same time and now in Europe. Even skins and skeletons are so few as to be regarded as great prizes by museums. Its habitat is apparently restricted to the hinterland of Liberia, where it roams restlessly through the forests and haunts small streams, making resting places of hollows under the shaded banks. This rare little beast from an unknown land is a true hippopotamus, but a midget in size beside the huge amphibian with which we are familiar. One might make a dozen of them out of the bulky carcass of that old Behemoth Caliph, the monarch of the herd at the zoo. The male of the pigmy is fully adult, yet stands only 30 inches tall, and weighs about 420 pounds.

Garlic to Be Imported.

Because of the scarcity of food in Europe and the difficulty of transportation, the war board discouraged the importation of food products from Europe, hoping to save them for home consumption and to save tonnage. Garlic from Italy was included under this general prohibition until the Italian government represented that great financial loss would result; due to the vast acreage planted with garlic in Italy. The supply of this year's yield would be far too great for home consumption. Due to this, the war trade board issued a permit for the present year, with the understanding that after January, 1918, fewer acres would be planted to garlic, but would be devoted to the cultivation of other food products, which would be used for home consumption.—Italian-American News Bureau.

Bismarck's Head Sold Cheap.

An iron head of Bismarck was recently sold to the New York war savings committee for transformation into munitions. The iron chancellor's metal duplicate was appraised at $9, paid in War Savings stamps, and within two hours was on its way to a munition factory. The owner, who refused to give his name, declaring that since the war he had been so embarrassed about its possession that he hesitated to dispose of it as refuse, fearing the cynical comments of the junk collectors of his neighborhood.

Local Patriotism.

"The extent to which all classes of society have brought their patriotism into practice has been marvelous," was a remark made by Field Marshal Sir Evelyn Wood, V. C., in a recent conversation.

As an instance of this he mentioned how cheaply yet efficiently a wounded soldiers' hospital, within a stone's throw of his residence at Harlow, was run.

Sir Evelyn is actively interested in its management, and his daughter works there every day as a pantry maid, along with others similarly stationed in life. The cooking is done by three ex-cooks, who will not accept a penny for their services. The whole laundry work is done free of charge.—London Times.

Ancient Cameo Sold.

Probably executed for that patron of the arts, the Roman emperor Hadrian, a superb cameo of the head of Medusa, wonderfully carved from a brss of translucent chalcedony, was sold at auction here, recently, bringing 1,750 guineas (about $9,760). It was a classic reminder of a classic sale, for it formed part of the incomparable Marlborough gems which realized, en bloc, 55,000 guineas in June, 1875, passing to the late David Dromilow, of Battledon Park. The collection was formed by George, third duke of Marlborough, and comprised gems which had belonged to such famous connoisseurs as Thomas Howard, earl of Arundel; William, second earl of Bessborough, and Philip Dormer, earl of Chesterfield.—London Telegraph.

Aerial Compasses.

Many difficulties had to be overcome in the production of a satisfactory compass for aerial work. Chief among these was that of neutralizing the magnetism of the engine (and in particular the magneto), and of preventing the effect of centrifugal force, which caused the card or dial inside the compass to swing in a direction quite independent of north when the airplane was banking on a turn. However, a truly excellent compass is now in use.

After Rum Runners.

Windsor, Ontario.—Reports that numerous small craft from the American side of the Canadian river, believed to be engaged in "rum running" are operating at night without lights and without permission led to an order by A. T. Montreuil, collector of customs, placing a special patrol on the Canadian side.

Reports come from the Ruidoso that so far as heard from the fruit crop there was killed last Monday and Tuesday nights by the freezes. Reports coming from the Hondo and Tinnie neighborhoods are that the fruit crop there is not entirely destroyed; that while it has been badly injured there will be fruit raised in that vicinity, if not destroyed hereafter.

A party of prospectors from Coleman county, Texas, left for their home yesterday after being in this vicinity about a week. They were J. E. J. Pepper, H. H. Pepper, J. H. Newman and J. M. Williams. J. H. Newman and J. M. Williams filed on land in the Jicarilla country and will return in a few months to make improvements. The two Messrs. Pepper will also return here in the fall and will buy land and settle among us. All these gentlemen made a favorable impression here and they will no doubt make desirable citizens.

Albert Rhode has intalled an electric light plant in his garage building which furnishes a fine light for night operations. It is understood the school board will negotiate a deal with him to furnish light for the school building.

Arthur Pepper was here Wednesday from his ranch near Arabela. Arthur only comes to Capitan about twice a year and that is when business calls him here. He is one of our old "stand bys" and we always glad to see him.

L. W. White made a trip to Carrizozo Monday in response to a summons to serve as petit juror in the district court. He was excused on account of the nature of his business.

Dried Mummies as Medicine.

Animal products were much used in medicine from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century. Dried mummy was a favorite remedy. The importation of mummy was an industry of some commercial importance and several writers of that day caution against the use of spurious mummy, giving directions as to what distinguishes the good from the poor product. There was much substitution, and one dealer was found to have done an extensive trade in bodies dried in imitation of the genuine article.—National Geographic Society Bulletin.

Art of Staining Glass.

Fifty years ago the old secret of staining glass, which was lost with the decline of art in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, was rediscovered and, with the aid of chemistry, has made remarkable progress. This is shown by the fact that today the glass-stainer disposes of more than 5,000 different pigments, while in the twelfth century, the golden age of glass staining, only 12 colors were known.

Choice of Subject.

Invention in painting does not imply the invention of the subject, for that is commonly supplied by the poet or historian. With respect to the choice, no subject can be proper that is not generally interesting. * * * There must be something, either in the action or in the object, in which men are universally concerned, and which powerfully strikes upon the public sympathy.—Sir Joshua Reynolds.

Powder Puffs Replace Sugar.

Since the French sugar ration was increased and restaurants have resumed serving it, Paris women are converting their sugar boxes into powder-puff cases. The carrying of sugar in little gold boxes was a fashionable war fad. The new use for the boxes is said to have originated with a Rue de la Paix jeweler who saw in the rising sugar ration a decline in the demand for his wares.

Man's Debt to the Horse.

Not only has the horse inhabited the earth for many millions of years, but throughout the ages he has made the world ring with tales of equine valor. From Pegasus, the winged steed, who aided Bellerophon in slaying the monster, Chimaera, down to the 10,000,000 horses which helped the allies to win the World war, they have served man well, and artifices purchased his safety with their lives.

W. B. Payne's House Burned.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Payne in Capitan was burned yesterday afternoon, with nearly all their household effects and clothing, and without insurance. The family was at their restaurant at the time the fire was discovered and have no idea how it originated. It is a great misfortune to the family and they have the sympathy of the whole community.

Booze Peddlers Arrested.

Sheriff Harris, Deputy Sheriff W. A. Read and Antonio Vega arrested two men yesterday just south of Carrizozo in a car, having their possession between 200 and 300 quarts of whiskey. They were taken to Carrizozo and placed in jail to await the arrival of federal officers. The men refused to give their names and would talk very little, but said however, they lived in Oklahoma. They are supposed to have brought the whiskey from El Paso.

John E. West the well known merchant of San Patricio was in Capitan yesterday enroute home from Carrizozo where he had been attending court.

Ed Hongland one of the best citizens of the Ruidoso country was trading here yesterday.

John M. Penfield, the Lincoln merchant, was here Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Burch and son Earnest arrived last week from Arizona and will be here for some time.

Chas. A. Siringo in came Thursday afternoon from Roswell and left yesterday morning for Carrizozo where he is a witness in a case to be tried there next week. Mr. Siringo spent the winter in Roswell selling his books and met with success. He will soon return to his ranch near Santa Fe, where will probably put in the summer. He will return to Capitan, however, for a short visit before leaving the country and meet many of his old friends and acquaintances.

Robert T. Freeland was over Monday from his sheep ranch in the Jicarilla country. It is lambing time at his ranch, and he stated that the cold weather for the past week would likely cause considerable loss in the lamb crop. He said that there would be about 1200 lambs in his herd but he expects a heavy loss. Mr. Freeland became a subscriber to the Mountaineer while here.
