

Kiener's Lookout

By JOHN DICKINSON SHERMAN

KIENER'S LOOKOUT is not really its name at all. It is merely a fire lookout station on the top of Twin Sisters Mountain in Rocky Mountain National Park, and Walter Kiener is the man on watch for forest fires. Nevertheless Walter Kiener's outlook is unique. For right across Tobacco Valley looms the dark, sheer East Face of Long Peak. "King of the Rockies." And it is there that was enacted last winter the grim struggle between man and mountain that thrilled the mountaineers of the world. That dread East Face did not stop Agnes Valle and Walter Kiener. But altitude and storm killed Agnes Valle after the summit was won, crippled Walter Kiener for life and led to death Herbert Sorland in an attempt at rescue. And from his lofty perch on the Twin Sisters Kiener looks out day after day and night after night on these very places. (Picture No. 2.)

Rocky Mountain is the most popular of all the national parks. Tobacco Valley, at the foot of Long Peak, is its south entrance. The Twin Sisters sit Tobacco's cap on the east; the crest of the vast granite heap is the park boundary. Hundreds each season climb the Sisters for the magnificent view, the alpine flowers, the fantastic (ibexlike). This season thousands instead of hundreds have worn deep the steep and narrow trail. It is the Twin Sisters plus Walter Kiener. Men and women of prescient lives are fascinated by the tragic and thrilled by the heroic.

Tobacco—Land of the Dwellers in the Mountain Tops—is 9,000 feet up in the Colorado Rockies. The south Sister rises to 11,534 feet; its Twin to 11,436 (No. 2). If your eyes are good you can just see from Tobacco Kiener's Lookout on the bare granite summit of the north Twin. His sheltered cabin is hidden from sight.

Long Peak rises to 14,235 feet. Its slopes are deeply scarred by ancient glaciers. It was not ascended until 1908—and then with great difficulty from the west and by way of The Notch. Finally was found a comparatively easy trail from Tobacco Valley, which enabled men, women and youngsters to safely travel with competent guides. About a thousand visitors a year make the ascent. But but more than six winter ascents have been made.

The famous East Face of Long Peak

rises 2,455 feet from Chasm Lake in East Gorge. It is mostly sheer. It was believed by all mountaineers to be impossible of ascent. In 1922 a Princeton professor made the ascent. Since then it has been climbed several times by experts. The dotted line shows the only way up (No. 1). All of these ascents were in summer.

It was this winter ascent of the East Face that challenged Agnes Valle. The daughter of a wealthy Denver man, she had chosen a business career and was secretary to the chamber of commerce. Mountaineering was her avocation and she could justly boast that no man in the Colorado Mountain Club could outdo her. Walter Kiener is a Swiss who had established a reputation in the Alps before coming to Denver about two years ago. He has done much climbing in the Colorado Rockies and had frequently been the companion of Miss Valle.

Agnes Valle, Elmer Eppich and Kiener left Denver Saturday, January 10. Sunday at 9 a. m. they reached Timberline Cabin (11,500 feet up on the regular trail). At 10 a. m. the two climbers left for Chasm Lake and Miss Eppich returned to Tobacco Valley. Darkness found the two climbers only part way up the East Face. After a favorable day the thermometer had dropped to 14 below and the wind had risen. They decided to climb up rather than down. They reached the summit at 4 a. m. Monday.

There is no shelter there; they had to keep moving. The regular trail down is on the west slope. They chose a shorter route down the north slope. Few have been over it, even in summer. They had both used it. There is no trail. By 9:30 they had descended about 750 feet.

At this point, the most difficult of this dangerous route, Miss Valle lost her footing and slid down over rocks and snow for 150 feet. She assured Kiener she was not hurt. But it was found that her feet and hands were partly frozen. With Kiener's help she went on a hundred feet or more. Then she was exhausted, though unbroken in courage.

Kiener left her for help at 10:30 a. m. He reached Timberline Cabin at 1 p. m. There he found a relief party of four men: Herbert Sorland, Jacob Christian, Hugh Brown and his son, Oscar Brown. Leaving Oscar Brown to keep the fire going, Kiener led the others back up the mountain. Just above timberline (11,500) Hugh Brown had to drop out. At 11,600 feet Herbert Sorland, twenty-three years of age, could not keep up and was sent back. Kiener and Christian—he had given up hope of returning alive—reached Agnes Valle at 4:30. She was dead—and had been for hours. The two men got back alive to Timberline Cabin at 7:30 p. m.

Then at intervals struggled in men whom the drift and gale and flying snow and bitter cold of the winter night could not keep back. Each had started as the snow reached him that Agnes Valle was in danger on Long Peak. By 10 o'clock had arrived Tom Allen, assistant superintendent of the park, and Jack Mosman and Walter Finn, park rangers. At 4:30 Tuesday morning Superintendent Roger W. Toll (consist of Agnes Valle) arrived from Denver, with Edmund Rogers, George C. Bernard, William F. Ervin and Carl Blackrock, veteran mountaineers of the Colorado Mountain Club. Daylight found them all trying to keep from freezing about a fire kept burning on top of the cabin stove. To recover Agnes Valle's body was impossible. At 0:30 all descended to the valley.

Then it was discovered that Herbert Sorland was missing. Volunteers—Cecy Rockwell, John Sherman, Ed Andrews, Jack Dillon, Warren Rutledge and others—risked their lives in the vain search that was made below timberline.

Not until Thursday could Agnes Valle's body be reached. It lay at an elevation of about 12,300 feet on the north slope, 200 feet back of the edge of the East Face, and about 50 feet above the perpetual snowdrift on the edge of Boulderfield—which is in plain sight from the valley, suggests a flying bird, and is sometimes called "The Dove." Two skis were placed end to end and a third lashed across the joint. The body was strapped to these skis and carried with the aid of ski poles. Eight men carried the body across Boulderfield, relays taking part at frequent intervals. Further down a toboggan could be used.

At Timberline Cabin flattered the American flag, worn and frayed from the winter storm. Agnes Valle had done patriotic service overseas during the World War. They took down Old Glory and laid it across her body. And so came back Agnes Valle from Long Peak to Tobacco Valley.

Walter Kiener, badly frost-bitten and partly snow-blind, was driven to Denver for medical treatment; several operations were found necessary. Agnes Valle's father paid the hospital bill. The national park service gave him the lookout station. The body of Walter Sorland was not found until February 25—in the Valley, within a stone's throw of the main road and of shelter. Kiener's official gaze must pass over the spot several times a day. And he cannot look at Long Peak without seeing "The Dove."

Master Craftsman

Either the burglars in France have exquisite sensibilities or the press agents are adepts at the profession. Consider the case of a burglar who broke into a home, packed up all the valuables ready to take away, and then found that the tenant was no other than the famous Mme. Dutour, a lady whom he had seen many times grating behind the footlights at the theater. With remorse, he thereupon left everything he had planned to take, and added this note: "I would not for anything in the world give you pain. But you must permit me to carry off some photographs. Your radiant beauty and your equal goodness of heart will forgive this petty larceny."

Heavy Inheritance Tax

Perhaps the oldest and certainly the most drastic of inheritance tax laws in the world is that of the Igorot tribes of the Philippines. When an Igorot tribesman dies, half his property is sold off and the proceeds used to defray the cost of a canoe or walk. The endeavor being smoked into a mummy in a burial chair, sits by and views the wry, one of woe and feasting and utter abandonment to the carnal pleasures—save those of virtue, which is not known to the Igorots and if perpetrated would entail the death penalty. American government is the sole upholding influence against these tribes.

NEW MEXICO For All, All For NEW MEXICO

Willard H. Clifton, alleged slayer of Alexander Fashion, has been placed under arrest by Sheriff Noland and is being held without bail in Asteo.

The resignation of M. E. Noble, who was elected city attorney of Las Vegas some time ago by the city council, was accepted at a special meeting of that body the last week.

The city council of Carlsbad met last week and let the contract for an addition to the Carlsbad sewer system, to Roy Ivick, of Seminole, Texas, his bid being $20,000.19, which was $11.79 below the estimate of City Engineer Hancock.

The New Mexico Pipe Line Company of Artesia has another 55,000-barrel storage tank on route which will be installed at the company's loading dock. This will be the second large tank to be installed in Artesia by the company.

Hill Leo, alleged kidnaper, was arrested in the sand hills near Artesia and is being held in jail for a hearing. It is alleged that Leo attempted to kidnap a 10-year-old girl of Hagerman. A quantity of ammunition and several guns were found in his possession when taken into custody.

The state's levy has been fixed at 5 1/2 mills, State Auditor Juan N. Vigil recently announced. Last year it was 4 1/2. The increase of 1 mill is required for general purposes, no change being made in the rate for roads and schools from last year. The 5 1/2 mills is distributed as follows: General purpose, 4; common schools, 1/2; roads, 1.

Plans are well under way for the annual alfalfa festival in Artesia, and at a recent meeting of the committee in charge the dates were set for Sept. 23, 24 and 25. Owing to the splendid condition of the valley crops at this time, it is believed that the exhibit will be the best of the kind ever seen in this part of the Pecos country.

The concrete paving has been finished on Federal Aid Project 146-A, the first section of the Navajo highway out of Gallup, according to State Highway Engineer James A. French, who has just returned from Gallup. The concrete covers only about a third of the total length of this project, 8.40 miles. The rest is to be graded.

The Industrial Employment Survey report recently issued by the U. S. Employment Service of the U. S. Department of Labor at Denver, states that practically normal conditions in industry in New Mexico are causing employment for most all resident workers. The moderate surplus of principally unskilled transient laborers will probably be absorbed in the near future in cotton picking soon to commence. Industrial plants all operating with labor in connection with apple picking with the supply ample. Apple picking now in full swing in the Roswell district is absorbing many of the transient unskilled workers. Picking of a large cotton crop in the southeastern section of the state will commence about Sept. 20 and indications are a slight shortage of workers will be felt about Oct. 1. Normal building programs are under way in the larger cities and local building mechanics are well employed, the supply being ample. General construction and highway work continues quite active and indicated to be the source of considerable employment for the next few months. Normal seasonal activities are noted in the lumbering industry in the Bernallillo district, especially at the sawmills and increasing in the woods. Oil field work is increasing and much new development is under way; labor in connection with oil work is increasing during the month to six days a week.

Wheat growers in the vicinity of Cimarron estimate the value of the 1925 crop at over $30,000 at the present time. A large part of the acreage is under the Eagle Nest dam. There are now indications that the acreage will be doubled during the coming season.

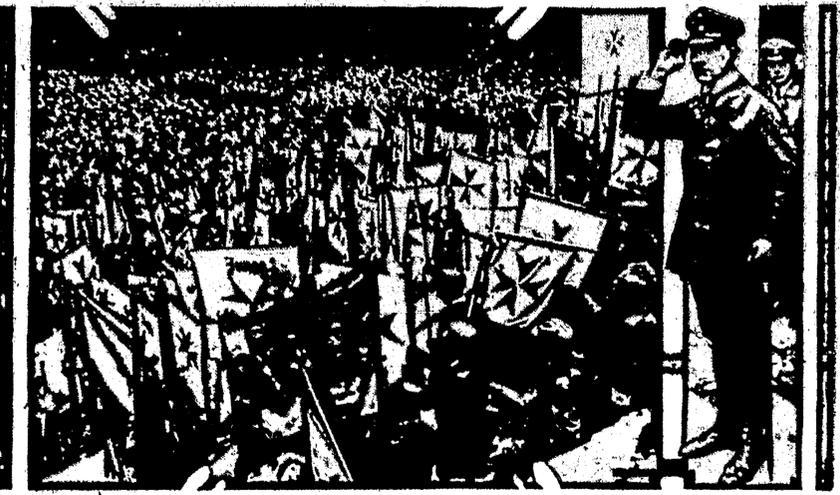

St. Michael's College at Santa Fe opened its term with the largest enrollment in its history. Boys attending are from Mexico City, Chihuahua, Juarez, Sonora, Mexico; Miami, Globe, El Paso, Flagstaff, Ariz.; Gallup, San Mateo, N. M.; El Paso, Tex.; Bonanza, Hilo, Oreg.; Watrous, Wagon Mound, Monro, N. M.; Aguilar, Chama, Alamosa, Colo.; Park View, Taos, Ojo Caliente, N. M., and other points.

Concrete has been poured into the moulds for the dam at Santa Rosa, which will enable the town to have a hydro-electric system, according to City Engineer Chester Campbell. Four hundred cubic yards of concrete will be necessary for the completion of the dam, which should be ready for use by the end of October. Work on the power house will begin immediately after and the water system will also be completed by the end of this year.

Plans have been completed for the building of the new refinery of the New Mexico Pipe Line Company at Artesia and boring tests for the foundation of the building were recently started.

At a meeting of the officers of the Curry County Farm Bureau at Clovis, plans were completed for the holding of the annual fair and the dates set for Oct. 1, 2 and 3. Owing to the abundance of fruit and the good condition of the crops it is believed that the exhibit will surpass anything of the kind ever shown in the county.

The "Young German Order," a large and influential organization in Germany, is here seen holding patriotic exercises on the sixth anniversary of the adoption of the constitution. At the right is Captain Waurum, leader of the order.

Charleston, Made Refined, Gets O. K. of Teachers

The American Society of Dancing Teachers in convention in New York gave official approval to the Charleston, deciding that it should be refined and the high kicks and knee dips eliminated. Some of them are here seen witnessing a comparison between the original Charleston (left) and the modified dance.

Bride Was a Nun for Thirteen Years

Thirteen years ago Miss Maria Hirst of Philadelphia decided to become a nun. She entered the nunnery of the Congregation of the Sacred Heart. Failing health induced her to ask her release from her vows by a petition to Pope Pius XI, through the archdiocese of Philadelphia, which was granted. Now she has just become the wife of Webb Lovering, a member of a well-known family in the Quaker City.

BIG MAINE PROJECT

On September 14 Maine will hold a state-wide referendum on the so-called "Quoddy project," a huge plan for hydroelectric development by which the 80-foot tides of Passamaquoddy Bay, between Maine and New Brunswick, will be utilized to develop more than half the electric power now supplied by Niagara falls. At present the Maine law prohibits the exportation of electric power from the state. The map shows Passamaquoddy Bay.

MOLNAR ACCUSES HER

FORT STANTON

R. S. Fagan and family are in El Paso on a short vacation.

Bill Clark and Bill Hale tramped the elusive dove last Sunday and each brought in their limit of birds.

Miss Clarice Bahman, nurse, left last week for her home in the East. She is resigning from the service on the expiration of her leave.

Mr. George Bonebrake stopped off a few days' visit with W. C. Hendren this week. He was returning from Los Angeles to his home in Washington, D. C.

Capt. William Nicholson was elected president of the Fine Arts Dramatic Club at a meeting held last week. Frank Wells and R. L. Courtney were also nominees for the office.

A round-up of range cattle and change to other pastures was accomplished at the Fort during the past week. Cattle are in excellent shape and the range appears favorable for plenty of grass during the winter months, according to W. A. Wunsch, farm superintendent.

The Trowel Club elects officers for the ensuing year last Thursday. They are W. A. Wunsch, president; William S. Howson, vice president; and Jefferson D. Harrison, secretary. The club plans an entertainment for the patients of the hospital wards, and also the Seaman's Social Club and other patients, early in October.

School opened at the Fort last week under the direction of Miss Merle McClure, Denton, Texas. There are fifteen pupils this year at the Fort. It will be remembered that Miss McClure taught in the Capitan schools last year.

Ben Cosper, wife and mother, returned last Tuesday from a short vacation to El Paso and the Elephant Butte Dam. Ben is slated for an "end man" in the coming Minstrel show. Mrs. Cosper is also enlisted in the show.

Work on the new golf course has been at a stand still during the past week, due to the absence from the Fort on vacation of some of the more ardent supporters of the game. It is hoped that the greens will be ready for play in another two weeks.

The nurses gave a tacky party in their quarters for the people of the parade Thursday night. The enthusiasm with which all entered into it undoubtedly made it the double success that it was. It was an evening of hilarity.

Interest at the Fort is centered in the Minstrel show to be given in connection with the annual Halloween party on Saturday night, October 31. Mr. Stephen J. Hennessey is in charge of the Minstrel show. Parts have already been assigned, and work will begin within ten days. This will be a different show from any that the Fort has yet attempted, and from the enthusiasm shown there is no doubt of its success. It will be remembered by the old timers that Mr. Hennessey put on a show similar to this but on a smaller scale, about seven years ago, that was a most decided success.

Roswell.—Claude Simpson, who has been re-elected secretary of the Southern New Mexico Association, has already started plans for an enlargement of the advertising activities of the association for the coming year. The officers and directors of this association plan to inaugurate a group advertising campaign.

Weather and Crops

So far this month Capitan and vicinity has received its full share of moisture, running from light showers in some parts to more than an inch in others. Some people say the ground could stand a little more moisture, while others believe we have had sufficient, as what the stockman and farmer needs now is plenty of warm weather to dry and cure range grass and mature growing crops, and a continuance of late rains will result in earlier frosts, which will can be due.

Base Ball Season Closed

The base ball season at the Fort is at a close. Uniforms have been called in and nothing and nothing remains but base ball talk. It was a successful season with fifteen games won and four lost. The management wishes to thank the patrons who helped make the season a success by their support. Base ball at the Fort has always been primarily for the entertainment of the patients who are admitted free to all games; but it has received such splendid support from the Fort personnel and outsiders that it has been possible to play a much better brand of

School Notes

Wm. H. Kitzberg, Supt.
 The enrollment of the whole school now has reached one hundred and fifty four. Sixty-six of these are in the High School room. More are still to come.

There are nine members in the senior class—seven girls and two boys. They will meet to organize their class next Tuesday morning.

We have an increasing list of boys and girls who would like to come here to school if they could find a place to work for food and board. Are there not other towns where some boy or girl might not get in?

So far there has been a beautiful spirit of co-operation and good will throughout the whole school.

The Chaves County Cotton
Carnival

Great preparations are being made at Roswell for the entertainment of visitors from southwestern New Mexico at the Third Annual Chaves County Cotton Carnival to be held Oct. 9, 10 and 11. From the time the carnival opens with the big parade Thursday morning until it closes Saturday night there will be something going on to entertain the visitors. There will be so many kinds of amusements that man, woman and child will be pleased.

The big rodeo will be held at the dall park each day would be a big celebration in itself, as would the polo games between the Man-tary Institute and the University of Arizona for the championship of the southwest.

There will be three bands to furnish music, morning, afternoon and night. Prize acts by professional gymnasts, Ferris wheels, merry-go-rounds and other events that will add to the pleasures of the visitors. The carnival is much larger than ever before this year. For instance, a $1,470 Studebaker coach will be given to the Carnival Queen whereas last year it was a $200 diamond ring.

The automobile show will be a great drawing card. This is the largest auto show ever given in New Mexico. A tent 190x100 has been secured and all the space has already been taken by auto dealers.

Agricultural exhibits are receiving much attention and will show the best of the fertile Pecos Valley.

Magee Waives Hearing

Carl C. Magee, editor of the State Tribune, appeared Friday in the justice court of Melios Ar-chibique at Las Vegas, where he waived preliminary hearing on a charge of murder in connection with the death at Las Vegas of John B. Lasseter.

He entered a plea of not guilty and was bound over to the district court under bond of $20,000.
The bond was immediately furnished and approved.

Chester Hunter, district attorney, appeared for the state, and Magee was represented by R. H.
Hanna, Fred Wilson and T. Neal.

Urge National Park

The establishment of a national park on the Pajarito Mesa, west of the Rio Grande, between Santa Clara canyon and Cochiti was urged at a public meeting held at Santa Fe by the national parks

by Congressman Temple of Pen-sylvania, Saturday night.

The Pajarito Mesa is dotted with the ruins of prehistoric inhabitants of the southwest, cliff dwellings perched on the walls of canyons and crumbled pueblos.

Big Mining Deal in Lincoln County Put Through by N. Y. Company

New Mexico Oil News
The mining industry in New Mexico has recently been given a decided boost when C. E. De-gner and Fred Maryott of New York, president and vice president respectively of the Southwestern Mining and Smelting Company, acquired several thousand acres of land in Lincoln county, near Capitan.

The land acquired by the company is said by those who are in a position to know, to be the richest mineral lands in the state.
The principal minerals are iron,
silver, lead, copper, uranium,
gold and platinum.

The fact that Mr. Degner and Mr. Maryott have more than a million dollars for the development of this land shows their faith in New Mexico. Both men are practical mining men and have shown their business ability in acquiring this property.

Development of the property will probably be started this fall.
The company is considering making Roswell its headquarters.

Twelve New Oil Locations
in Pecos Valley

Roswell, Sept. 15.—Twelve new locations have just been made in the Pecos Valley oil field, and drilling will be started at once, some of the drilling rigs being on the ground. Other locations are being looked up by oil men and there are indications that at least 20 new wells will be underway by the first of the year.

Value of New Mexico Oil
Output

The net value of the oil produced in New Mexico has been fixed by the state tax commission at $131,171.80 for San Juan county and $69,763.32 for Eddy county for the first six months of the year. This figure represents one-half of the value of the gross production after deducting the royalties, so the market value of the oil produced in these two counties is more than twice the taxable valuation.

Better BUICK owners
are Masters of the Road

Once you have driven the 75 horsepower, 75-mph-an-hour Better Buick:

Once you have wheeled over some particularly tough hill—in high gear—gaining speed all the way!

Once you have observed the way it assumes the lead in traffic:

Once you have accepted, on some open road, the challenge of some car that boasts of speed, and have seen the Better Buick leave it farther and farther behind;

Once you have checked its economical gasoline consumption against your friends' cars—

Then you will realize fully that the Better Buick, with its 75-horsepower Valve-in-Head engine, gives you power—speed—and inex-pendable performance like no other car you have known.

The best way to discover how very much the Better Buick has added to the pleasure of driving is to drive a Better Buick. We have one waiting for your telephone call.

PAUL AND THE PHILIPPIANS
JAILER

LESSON TEXT—Acts 16:16-40.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved"—Acts, 16:31.

PHILIPPIAN TOPIC—The Story of an Earthquake.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Conversion of the Jailer.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
Conversion of the Jailer.
YOUTH PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
The Gospel in Philippi.

I. Paul and Silas in Jail (vv. 16-23).

1. The Occasion (vv. 16-24.)
As the missionaries went from day to day to the place of prayer they were accosted by a young woman possessed by a spirit of divination. She was owned by a syndicate of men who derived large gains from her soothsaying. This act of the woman became a great annoyance to Paul, who in the name of Jesus Christ commanded the evil spirit to come out.
The evil spirit immediately obeyed.
When the demon was cast out of the maid, her supernatural power was gone, therefore, the syndicate of revenue was dried up. This was so conspica-cious to her owners that they had Paul and Silas arraigned before the magistrates on the false charge of changing their customs. This was playing the hypocrite for it was not custom, but illicit gains that had been interfered with. There is always trouble ahead when you interfere with wrong business. Without any chance to defend themselves Paul and Silas were stripped and beaten by the angry mob and then remanded to jail, and were made fast by stocks in the inner prison.

2. Their Behavior in Jail (vv. 25).

They were praying and singing hymns to God. It seems quite natural that they should pray under such conditions, but to sing hymns is astonishing to all who have not come into possession of the peace of God through Christ. Even with their backs lacer-ated and smarting, their feet fast in stocks, compelling a most painful position in the dungeon darkness of that inner prison, and with the morrow filled with extreme uncertainty, their hearts went up to God in gratitude.

3. Their Deliverance (v. 26).

The Lord wrought deliverance by sending a great earthquake which opened the prison doors and removed the chains from all hands. The earthquake was not a mere coincidence, but a miracle. Earthquakes do not throw all bolted doors open, and unclasp the doors from men's hands.

4. The Conversion of the Jailer
(v. 27-31).

The jailer's sympathy did not go out very far for the prisoners, for after they were made secure he went to sleep. The earthquake suddenly aroused him. He was about to kill himself, when Paul arrested him that the prisoners were all safe. This was too much for him. What he had heard of their preaching, and now what he experienced, caused him to come to a humble inquirer after salvation. He was convicted of sin and felt the need of a Saviour. Paul clearly pointed out the way to be saved: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." The proof that the jailer was saved is threefold:

1. Transformation From Brutality to Tenderness (v. 33).

He who a little while ago could with impunity lay on the cruel lashes is now disposed to wash and mollify the wounds of the prisoners.

2. Confession of Christ in Baptism
(v. 36).

Those who have really been convicted of sin and have experienced the saving grace of God delight to confess their faith in Him under whatever circumstances.

3. He Set Meets Before Them (v.
34).

4. His Whole Household Baptized
(v. 33).

5. The Magistrates Humbled (vv.
35-40).

1. Orders to Release the Prisoners
(vv. 35-39).

The earthquake brought fear upon the magistrates which moved them to give leave for the prisoners to go.

2. Paul's Refusal to Go (v. 37).

The ground of his refusal was that their rights as Roman citizens had been violated. They demanded public vindication. The magistrates were guilty of serious offense. Paul was willing to suffer for Christ's sake but he used the occasion to show them that persecuting men who preached the gospel was an offense against the law of God and man.

If he found any one in this neck

we failed to learn who it was.

Ex Senator A. B. Fall, spent

first appearance here in many years. He was looking after his cattle interests.

A telephone wire has been engaged here this week strung up a house on the west. It is a hard road job. This wire will connect the depot with the section house in case of an emergency. The wires already strung are property of the Mountain States Telephone Co. The special wire will avoid tugging up a cable.

W. C. Hinchey, a small stock raiser and farmer in the Buca Canyon district, was in Capitan Thursday. He stated that the soil in his fields was powder dry for three feet beneath the surface at the regular planting time, so he did not plant until late, and very little at that. The late rains caused the grass to come up in places where the roots were not dead, so it might have been worse. On the east slope of the Capitan mountain, he said, one-fourth of the forest timber was dried out and virtually dead.

The early mornings are gradually becoming a little sharp.
Single from the school house chimney one morning this week was a gentle reminder that the first frost will soon be due. It may be light, and do little harm to growing stuff; but the farmers are anxious for warm weather till their crops mature.

Sheriff Kelsey made a couple of trips to the lower end of the county this week to investigate matters connected with the peace of the county.

A brother of Burt Provine who had been visiting him, left Sunday morning for his home in "Old Kentucky." He enjoyed his visit, especially the mountains, although they have some respect ones in his home state.

June it would have been a bless-

next year should put the farmer on his feet once more.

How Much Are Poor Roads Costing You?

$5,000,000 of America's 18,000,000 motor vehicles are recognized as an economic necessity on the farm.

Is your car giving the full efficiency of which it is capable—and at the lowest cost per mile possible?

Not if you are jolting over bumps and ruts. Not if you get stuck in the mud.

In addition to the time you thus lose along the way, you also pay from one to four cents a mile more in gasoline, tire and repair bills than you would pay on permanently paved highways.

Think, too, how many so-called improved roads have gone to pieces within the past few years, thereby piling up huge maintenance and rebuilding costs.

Contrast all this with the record of Concrete Roads—the roads that have repair built out and maintenance built in. Firm, rigid and unyielding, free of bumps, ruts, holes, mud and dust, they are, in every way, the most economical roads.

Tell your highway officials you want more Concrete Roads. Such an investment will pay you big dividends year after year.

Let us give you all the facts about Concrete Roads, including the experience of other communities. Ask for our free booklet, "C."

Location of Ores

Revealed by Smoke

Over the entrance to the principal mine of a lead company in Arizona hangs a portrait of "Antonio, the Cave Finder," an employee who roams about the underground passage puffing cigarettes, says Popular Mechanic Magazine. He keeps close watch of the smoke as it drifts away, and if he sees it disappearing through tiny breaks in the rock formation, the workings are extended in that direction, which often leads to inner caves, rich in ore. Minerals in this region seem to have been deposited in cavities which lie in an approximately horizontal plane. The mine in and to have been enlarged by more than half a mile in this manner. Tunnels are driven under the caves and the ore is dropped directly into the cars that carry it out of the mine.

SOUR CREAM DISHES

When one has a cupful or two of sour cream it is nice to know several ways of using it.

Doviled Eggs.—Cook six eggs in the shell until hard. Cut into halves lengthwise, remove the yolks and mash with a fork, adding enough thick sour cream to moisten. Add mustard, salt and a little red pepper. If the cream is too sweet add a dash of lemon juice and put the mixture back into the whites.

Sour Cream Pie.—To one cupful of sour cream add two-thirds of a cupful of raisins chopped, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of vinegar, one tablespoonful of flour, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, the yolks of the two eggs, and a little salt. Bake in one crust and use the whites of the eggs for a meringue.

Hermits.—Take a cupful of thick sour cream, two cupfuls of brown sugar, one cupful of chopped raisins, two-thirds of a cupful of butter, two well-beaten eggs, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg, with flour to make a dough so stiff as can be stirred. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a well-greased pan, leaving plenty of room to spread. A raisin or nut may be added to each to garnish.

Quick Cream Cookies.—To one cupful of sour cream add one cupful of sugar, one egg, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, with salt and flavoring to taste. Drop by spoonfuls on well-greased pans, pat out and sprinkle with sugar, adding a nut or a raisin. Bake in a quick oven.

Sweet Potato Pie.—Take a cupful of sour cream, one cupful of sugar, one pint of mashed sweet potato, the yolks of four eggs, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half a nutmeg; salt all well mixed together. Bake in one crust and spread with strained honey while hot.

Graham Muffins.—Take one cupful of sour cream, one cupful of graham flour, one teaspoonful of soda and one tablespoonful of sugar, a beaten egg, all well mixed. Bake in buttered graham pans.

Cour Cream Dressing.—Take a cupful of sour cream, add a bit of salt, sugar and cayenne, and mix well. Pour over sliced cucumbers or shredded cabbage.

Cream soups, which are so nourishing, may all be made with skim milk, adding little more butter to the flour when blending.

Everyday Dishes

Dried salt pork has gone out of style, except in farm homes, where it is served at its best. A few slices of good fat—and a steak of lean (pork) cut into half-inch slices and fried in its own fat until crisp and brown, then the gravy thickened with flour and well-browned—a cupful or more of milk added and the gravy is ready to serve with the pork and nicely baked potatoes. Such a dinner will be found appetizing and agreeable once in a while on a cool day. A coleslaw will be good to serve with such a dinner. Shred the cabbage and serve with a hot boiled dressing poured over it.

Po-povers.—Beat two eggs until very light, add gradually seven-eighths of a cupful of milk, a cupful of flour, a half-teaspoonful of salt; beat all together ten minutes with an egg beater, then add half a teaspoonful of melted butter. If skim milk is used add a teaspoonful of butter.

Cream of Tomato Soup.—Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter, add three and a half tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until smooth; add a teaspoonful of salt, a teaspoonful of chopped onion, then a pint of canned tomatoes, mixing all. Add soda and onion, using a fourth of a teaspoonful of soda. Boil, then strain and pour this, after slightly cooling, into a cupful and a half of milk. Reheat and serve hot. Do not let the soup boil.

Coffee Cup.—To a pint of strong coffee, strained through a cloth, add one-third of a teaspoonful of almond flavoring and beat to the boiling point in a double boiler. Add two beaten egg yolks, two tablespoonfuls of cream and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Stir until it thickens to a custard, remove and cool, pour into a serving pitcher with a pint of sweetened tea-cold whipped cream, a quart bottle of charged water, and a pint of shaved ice. Serve in tall glasses, place a little shaved ice in each, then some coffee, then twice the quantity of charged water, and on top the whipped cream.

Mintade.—To two cupfuls of water add one bunch of mint cut very fine and the juice of six lemons. Let stand one hour. Strain, chill and add sugar syrup to sweeten, and two quarts of ginger ale. Serve at once with cracked ice.

liced pineapple added to chopped or shredded cabbage, with a good salad dressing, makes a most delightful combination.

Mrs. Lee Suffered From All These Troubles, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well

Terre Haute, Indiana.—"I was weak and run-down and in such a nervous condition that I could hardly do my work. I was tired all the time and dizzy, had no appetite and could not sleep. I tried different medicines for a year but they did not help me. Then my husband saw the ad. for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and bought a box for me. I had practically no suffering when my baby boy was born and he is very strong and healthy. ### Weak, Noble Creatures

In this world there are thousands of weak, noble creatures who fancy that sacrifice always must be the last word of duty; thousands of beautiful souls that know not what should be done and seek only to yield up their life, holding that to be virtue supreme. They are wrong; supreme virtue consists in the knowledge of what should be done, in the power to decide for ourselves where to should offer our life.—Masterlinck.

Wild Rose Makes Dainty Confection

Dog roses, sacred to Queen Alexandra, which are now furnishing the most glorious floral feature of the hedge rows in England, possess delicate merits sadly neglected in these days. Most country housewives know that many dainty preparations can be obtained from the hips of the wild rose, but it is less widely known that a preserve of the blossoms is also employed in village confectionery, as well as among the north Germans. These flowers are still considered a luxury by the Chinese, and Sir John Davis, describing a feast given to him at Shanghai, mentions a ragout of dog roses dressed whole. He disapproved of the celestial and ambrosial dish, and therein differs from old John Gerarde, who affirms that wild roses are greatly to be desired as a culinary vegetable, "as well as for their virtues and goodness in taste, as also for their beautiful color."—London Post.
