

THE LIBERTY BANNER.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY BY ALLIANCE PUBLISHING CO.

J. G. WHARTON, Editor and Business Manager.

The constitutional convention that was held last September, and that brought forth that remarkable constitution which does not provide for a public school system, is called to reconvene at Santa Fe in August.

Mr. McGrorty retires from the revenue collectorship at Santa Fe and Mr. Hughes takes his place. Though no charges were ever brought against McGrorty, and he is credited by the department at Washington with being one of the most efficient officers in the service, his place was demanded by the present administration for a good party worker, and of course, he had to go.

The San Juan County alliance has made arrangements with a firm at Durango, Colo., to handle all the produce of its members at a commission of 5 per cent., and to sell them goods at greatly reduced prices. The firm advances 50 per cent. of the value on all produce stored with them for sale. Thus, are the alliance membership in San Juan county getting in shape to benefit by organization.

The recent school apportionment in San Juan county was at the rate of $1.44 per capita. The largest amount received by any district was $102.80; two others only got over $50; three, over $40; and seven less than $30. There are seventeen districts in the county. Is a school system as important as not? Statehood is all New Mexico needs, and that the follows who are urging statehood under a constitution which does not provide a public school system, even as good as the one we now have, can each have an office and provide for his relations are some of our efficient officials at the present.

Two Worthy Officials.

Treasurer, Ortiz Y. Salazar, and auditor, Alarid, of New Mexico, are also managers of our territorial prison. Manager Alarid has relatives employed at the penitentiary as follows: Two sons, two nephews two brothers in law, and three cousins; while manager Ortiz has relatives employed as follows: One son, who draws $75 a month as Secretary of the penitentiary board while he clerks for a Santa Fe dry goods house, one nephew, one brother in law and two cousins. The total salaries of the two families amount to $9,000 a year. A pretty good showing for a territory; but think of a state government run by such worthies.

The Editor of the Socorro Chief, claim must be a literal descendant of the Kentuckian who offered to swear that a horse was sixteen feet high, simply because he had so asserted by a clip of the tongue, and could not get back on his word. Having charged this paper with publishing an advertisement of the Akron, Colo., lot a swindle, he stands to it and re-asserts the charge, notwithstanding our denial, and the fact, patent to all our readers, that no such advertisement is now in the Banner, nor ever was. But, believing his consanguineous connection with the ancestor before mentioned, not only modifies his guilt, but offers a very strong extenuating circumstance, we are disposed to drop the matter without requiring the intervention of a notary.

The people of the United States have had much during the past ten years of Civil Service Reform. It has occupied a prominent place in political platforms, and is the theme which has inspired democratic and republican orators on all occasions. President Harrison declared his belief in the doctrine on assuming his high station, and those who believe in the innate virtue of mankind, had hopes, that he was sincere, and that his promises would be in accord with his avowed principles; but again his confidence has been misplaced, for not a shadow of it is left on the minds of any as to the actual position of this administration respecting the civil service of the government, and that position is, that all civil offices should be given as rewards for party service. It is a sad commentary upon our citizenship that the above facts can exist, and yet no perceptible detrimental effect result to the party of which President Harrison is the acknowledged head. It is of no use to look to past administrations for a precedent. The fact that a predecessor has been equally culpable does not offer a single iota in extenuation; but rather argues that from repeated avowals of civil service reform, and as repeated ignoring of such avowals, the masses of the people have been made to regard such occurrences as having no other significance than making a show of party consistency. Just think of a policy of government being outlined by its president, and the attention of the masses called to its great efficacy as an ameliorating factor, and then of that same president giving aid, countenance and every encouragement to the defeat of that policy, and laboring to inaugurate a policy exactly the reverse of the former. If any ordinary citizen becomes a candidate for some small office proclaiming his course as to the performance of official duty, and after his election adopts a wholly different policy, he is denounced as a scoundrel and unworthy of respect or confidence; yet, the president of this great republic can do that very thing—making his declarations through the medium of a message to our national legislature with all the solemnity incident to such occasions, and afterward direct all the forces of his administration to defeat the policy so loudly proclaimed, and still be regarded a great and good man. "Rome, thou hast lost the breed of noble bloods."

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

The broom factory in the Mesilla valley is crowded with orders. Mrs. Henriques Ciellos, of La Luz, Dona Ana county, committed suicide by taking rough on rats.

One of the sons of Herman Greenwood, Bosque Saco, Dona Ana county was drowned in the Rio Grande.

Las Cruces note: Eugene Stephens ordered last week, a 3,000 horizontal tiger cane mill with two eighteen foot cook evaporators. Will make molasses and sugar for home consumption.

The health officer of Mesilla appeared before the board of county commissioners and stated that a pest house be established for that town. The health officer showed that there are about twenty five cases of small pox now in Mesilla, and that the disease is on the increase.

Rev. J. A. Allison of Farmington, returned last week from Colorado, where he has been engaged several weeks in the work of organizing Farmers' Alliances, making a very successful trip, organizing three sub ordinate alliances, and arranging the preliminary for establishment of a number of others. These organized were at Mancos, Montezuma county, and at Hay Gulch and Pine River in La Plata county.—Index.

Mesilla mention: Halton Brothers are employing every idle man in the valley, and can not find enough men and teams to perform their labor. They are running their self-binder harvesting wheat; threshing machine threshing wheat; two hay bailers; bailing hay; planting broom corn; hoeing and cultivating broom corn and nursery, hauling wood to station for the agricultural college, etc.

A Mysterious Affair.

Oroverton, Texas, June 25.—Great excitement was caused here last night by the suicide of beautiful young Annie Turner, daughter of Judge John S. Turner. The excitement was intensified when the father took the pistol from the hands of the dying girl and killed Professor Davis. Nothing is known as to the cause of the tragedy.

Horses for England.

Cheyenne, W. T., June 25.—A gentleman just arrived from New York says a gigantic syndicate is forming there to buy in the west 50,000 head of horses for the British cavalry. Lord Wolsley guarantees a market for that number of accept ably animals.

Colonel J. J. Garnett, late of the United States army, is at the head of the project and will operate from Cheyenne.

The Pecos River Railroad.

Dirt was broken on this road yesterday at this place, and one hundred teams are at work. Mr. Judy, the general manager of the road says he will build ten miles by the first of July. Fifty car loads of steel and as many as forty car loads of ties have already arrived. This company means business, only two or three months have passed since the company was organized and they are already at work pushing the work pushing the road through to Eddy and will complete it through to that place by the first of October.—Pecos News.

[Las Cruces Republican.]

Announcements. I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Assessor of Lincoln County. Subject to the nomination of the Democratic Convention. Thos. W. Henley.

Mr. Harry R. Hills passed down yesterday to Fort Stanton. New Goods including gingham, calicos, cottons and a nice line of notions at P. G. Peters.

Judge S. S. Terrall, ex-probate Judge of this county, was married on June 4, to Miss Ernestine Berry, of Dallas Texas. John Deere plow points, all sizes C. L. Pearman, White Oaks.

Mr. John Aaron has his hoister in place on the Mary Ann, and Mr. A. N. Price has contracted to do considerable development work. A full line of spring and summer goods just received. Styles and prices to suit everybody. Goodman Zeigler & Co. White Oaks.

Come to the barbecue and bring all your folks; and, if you are averse to a wetting, it might be well to bring slickers and umbrellas. "What fools these mortals be." Buck must have seen that somebody was going to pass Young & Tallaferrero's store and not buy.

Mr. T. B. Wilson, an old timer at Nogal, is here from Eddy, mixing with friends and enjoying our mountain atmosphere. You can get a fine quality of tea at P. G. Peters. A good rain, the first in several months, fell here Tuesday. A few showers before but this was the first to do any good. The indications are good both for grass and crops as rain from now on will produce plenty of both.

The county alliance meets July 10, at Eagle Creek. There is no food and parties bringing teams will have to bring feed with them. Nogal is all right. Three arrivals in one week and they have come to stay. Two girls and one boy is about the right proportion, as young ladies are in demand hereabouts. The girls can be seen at the domiciles of Mrs. Littleton and Jose Torres, and the youngest at Thos Brown's on Tortolito.

Red mineral paint, boiled linsed oil, lard oil, castor oil and gasoline. Stewart of White Oaks. The people of this vicinity who know Harry Williams best, express satisfaction that he has been pardoned. They think his conviction was wrong in the first place and that he was not guilty as charged. He has always borne a good reputation here and was sober and industrious. A new lot of dress gingham at P. G. Peters.

Bill Henley and Lute Jennings propose to settle a quarrel which has been on all springs as to which of the little mares is the quickest. The race is to be a square, thorough contest one quarter of a mile. Be on the ground at 10 o'clock if you want to see them go through. Bring your hides, pelts and eggs to A. Henley & Son, and be sure you will get top prices. Lower Penasco, June 21. Editor Banner: No rain yet. Our school is in operation now with Mr. J. L. Prichard as teacher. Cattle holding their own. I send one more name from here for your subscription list, will try to get some more when it rains. Wm. York.

While Young & Tallaferrero's customers are counting their gains other customers are counting their losses. Poor things. All persons who desire to take stock in the Liberty Banner Publishing Co., should send the amount which they desire to invest in shares to W. L. Reeves, Nogal, N. M.

Weed, N. M., June 10. Ed. Banner: Mrs. Julia Tulk, wife of James Tulk, died near Weed, June 13, of typhoid pneumonia. She leaves a husband and five small children, the youngest only four months old. She was a loving wife, a devoted mother and a kind, true friend. The bereaved family has the sympathy of all in their sad affliction. A Friend.

"My dear" said Mr. Marpeany to his wife, "her's a report that a mad dog has been running around loose to-day, I hope you won't go out on the street." Mrs. Marpeany: "I don't care if there were twenty mad dogs running around I am going to see those new chattles at Young & Tallaferrero's"

We finish this week the publication of the proceedings of the meeting of our commissioners court, sitting as a board of equalization. As we thought the matter of assessment might interest many of our readers we gave place for it. This we do without any pay simply that our readers may not miss anything of affecting their interests. The court meets again next week and all who want probate on assessment should place the matter before the court at that time. Take your eggs to A. Ridgeway, White Oaks.

Ulcerated Sore Throat. Two years ago I had Ulcerated Sore Throat, and was so weakened and reduced in flesh that my friends thought it impossible for me to recover. I was attended by the very best physicians, but their endeavors to relieve me were futile. My mother seeing Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) so highly recommended, decided to give me a course of it, and after taking the first bottle I was greatly relieved, and after taking several bottles I was entirely cured. I have not had any signs of a return of the disease since. Cliff Bloxton, Williamsburg, Va.

THE GREATEST HE EVER SAW. Mr. W. J. Colman, a prominent citizen of Gainesville, Fla., writes the following under date of Feb. 10, 1890: "I contracted a severe case of Contagious Blood Poison that gave a great deal of trouble, and baffled the physicians of this place. I was finally advised to try Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and I can say, with great pleasure, that a few bottles of it has entirely cured me. I have no hesitation in saying that S. S. S. is the grandest blood medicine I ever saw, and cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering as I was." Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free, Swift's Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

THE BALL GAME. The Eddy Team Vanquished by the Roswell Champions.

Thursday noon found us in the new and only Eddy and, thanks to the hospitality of the Eddy club, comfortably located. Thursday afternoon was devoted to practice, as was also Friday morning. At 2 o'clock the first game was called by L. O. Fullan, the umpire, with the Roswells at the bat. They scored 5 runs and Eddy followed scoring 4. At that time it was thought we were going to have a close game, but the Eddy boys lost their grip and the score began to go up for the Roswells, until the 4th inning they made 17 runs discouraging the opposition so much that they became as the word goes "rattled."

Mr. E. G. Shields, the Eddy pitcher, seemed to have lost his cunning, and our boys batted him all around, while on the other hand Parsons and Joyce's skill as a battery was too much for the Eddy's. In the 6th inning on Friday, H. L. White went into the box and fanned them out two successive innings, with Bob Little to catch, which he did in good shape. Lee Wells pitched for Roswell in the 9th inning and the Eddy's made 6 runs bringing their score up to 21 to 47 for Roswell. On Saturday the game opened strongly in favor of the Roswell boys. Eddy was allowed to put in a catcher from Black River, whom it was expected would strengthen their battery, but he was no better than Lane, the regular pitcher perfectly. The score of the two games played was as follows:

ular Eddy catcher, and in the second inning he was sent out to center field. Fred Joyce did fine work in box on Saturday. Ralph Parsons is sure a dandy catcher, Lee White was always sure on the first base, and Al Kane and Larry Fisher were at home and always ready to take the ball and base runners in, on second and third, in fact Roswell had a strong and sure team, both infield and outfield, a fact which the Eddy

Table with 2 columns: Innings, Roswell, Eddy. Rows for 1st and 2nd games.

The Eddy boys at the end of the 7th inning gave the game to Roswell.

THE HOOSAC TUNNEL.

A Quick Trip on a Locomotive. Billy Goff's pet tore through the tunnel in less than ten minutes, says The...

Ever ride through the Hoosac tunnel on a locomotive? Let me try to tell about it. You dive into a black hole...

At long intervals the trackmen patrol the darkness to provide against obstructions on the rails, and you get a glimpse of them with their dark lanterns.

The electric lamps that have been put up for some distance are part of an experiment to see if it will pay to light the whole tunnel.

Trout-Fishing in Idaho. A letter to The Chattanooga Times from Pocatello, Idaho, contains the following: I never know what it was to me before.

The place was in a wide valley, through which ran the Portneuf. The tent was put up by a big spring on the bank of the river.

WAGS AND ROAD HORSES.

Harvey Brown, of Carroll county, D., relates some of his experiences and observations to the Rural New Yorker.

In 1866 I bought a pacing filly, four months old, for which I paid $30. It was sired by a large, well-formed stallion, with finely-developed bone and muscle.

Next I raised a full brother—pacer and trotter which I sold for $275 when three years old. Next was a filly sired by King's H atoga; a trotter which I sold for $60 when four months old.

Next was a colt sired by Scott's H atoga, for which I was offered $250 before he was two years old. Some time after that I traded him at that price for other stock.

Next was a bay which I sold when three years old at $150; since that time $230 have been offered for him. Next was a gray for which I received $50 when three months old.

The next was sired by "Hazard," son of Lexington—$25 insurance. I sold him for $125 in the fall of 1881, when two years past.

As a result of breeding this pacing and trotting roadster or all-purpose mare of unknown blood, to large, well-boned, and muscular roadsters, fast, all-purpose horses, we have for the...

LAW IN ARIZONA.

Desperadoes Ruled Tombstone in the Early Days, but They Had No Show in Tucson.

An old resident of California who has seen some very queer things and many changes, says The San Francisco Chronicle, got talking the other night of a trip he made to Arizona some years ago, just about the time of the Tombstone boom.

"It was quite extraordinary," he said. "The country was full of desperadoes and bad gamblers, and they were very dangerous, too. They ruled Tombstone at that time.

"I think I see you before, no?" The culprit admitted that he had been there on several occasions.

"You was in Tucson, mein friend; $200." The man was complaining bitterly after he paid the fine.

"Why," said the prisoner, "in San Francisco they would only fine me $4 or $10."

"You say this court is prejudiced against you and you won't get a fair trial? You want a change of venue, mein friend? I jost fine you $300 for contempt of court to begin with, Now, we'll proceed with the trial."

The Poem of Boom Town. This is a town as dead as the tomb; it died from the cause of too much boom!
