Old Abe.

What the E. & M. Journal's Special Correspondent Says About the "Abe."

Old Abe.—This mine at White Oaks, located in 1883, has been worked off and on by the present owners since the last of 1890. The new 2-compartment shaft is down 1,050 feet. From 850 ft. to 900 ft. all the work was in ore and at 1,050 the pay streak was found with a very short drift. All levels run north about 200 ft. and show a very regular vein from 8 in. to 13 in. wide with an average value of $175 per ton.

A number of seams from the vein have been followed and large pockets of free milling ore have been found; also pure gold masses weighing over 7 lbs. Near the surface beautiful specimens of wire gold in gypsum were found. The pay streaks run north and south and in turn cuts metamorphosed shales, granite and porphyry and at the lowest level is absolutely dry.

The present management is in the hands of one of the principal owners, J. Y. Hewitt. Development is kept well in advance of the stoping necessary to supply the 20-stamp mill which gets about 20 per cent of the value on the plates. The tailings will go to a 50-ton cyanide plant just completed. There are estimated to be 10,000 tons of tailings on hand, estimated to yield about $6 per ton. A new direct action hoisting plant from Griffith & Wedge, of Zaneville, O., with a capacity of 2,500 feet, will be put in within 60 days.

Water is pumped about a mile through a 3-in. pipe. Fuel comes from the company's coal lands 2 1/2 miles distant, where is a 4ft. seam of coal. This coal is delivered at the works for $1.75 per ton, and is supplied at White Oaks at $3.75 per ton. The Old Abe property is reported to have produced over $650,000.

A. R. De Finest, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by M. G. Paden.

EX-COAL OIL INSPECTORS IN THE TOILS.

Solicitor General Bartlett, for the territory of New Mexico, has filed suit in the district court of Santa Fe county against W. E. Martin and his bondsmen, H. B. Cartwright, J. S. Duncan and Charles Springer. The complainant recites that defendant, Martin was appointed territorial coal oil inspector March 2, 1897, qualifying on the 18th, for one year. Defendant received during his term of office $4,770.06, of which he was allowed to retain $2,000 as emoluments, the remainder to go to the territory for school purposes. Complainant alleges that defendant has not turned in any moneys, and asks judgement for $2,770.06, with interest from April 6, 1898.

The solicitor general also filed a similar complaint against M. S. Hart, now a non-resident of the territory, and his bondsmen, M. J. Crowley, J. J. Pace, A. A. Jones and J. S. Clark, H. G. Coors and John Hill. Hart was appointed coal oil inspector in February, 1895, and served until April, 1897. He received $9,137.17, of which he was to retain $4,000. No moneys have been turned into the Territorial treasury by Hart, and the solicitor general asks judgement for $5,137.17, with interest from April 1, 1897.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARNS, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by M. G. Paden.

Democratic Controversy.

A Racy Correspondence Between Perry Belmont of the New York Democratic Club and W. J. Bryan.

Belmont to Bryan.

"New York, March 5.—Hon. W. J. Bryan, Lincoln, Neb.—In arranging toasts and responses at the banquet of the Democratic club on Jefferson's birthday, April 13, the committee are most desirous, if your engagements will permit your attendance, to have you select such subjects as you prefer to discuss in your own way, within the limit for all speeches of twenty minutes. Please wire reply.

"PERRY BELMONT, President
 "RICHARD CROKER, Chairman."

Bryan to Belmont.

"LINCOLN, March 13.—Hon. Perry Belmont, Democratic club, New York: Invitation received. Remembering that you openly repudiated the Democratic platform in the last campaign. I desire to know before answering your invitation, whether you have since the election publicly announced your conversion to the principles set forth in that platform.

"(Signed) WILLIAM J. BRYAN."

Belmont to Bryan.

"I have just received your reply: "Invitation extended to you on behalf of Democratic club. Individual opinions have not been considered in issuing invitations to celebrate the birthday of Thomas Jefferson.

"(Signed) PERRY BELMONT."

Bryan to Belmont.

"I might plead previous engagement as a reason for declining, but that would be equivalent to saying I would come but for the engagement, but frankness compels me to add another reason. I appreciate the compliment which the Democratic club pays me in extending the invitation, but I do not understand how individual opinions can be ignored at a political gathering. You are president of the club and represent the club before the public. Your position upon public questions was well known in 1896 and your telegram indicates your position has not been changed.

"My position upon public questions is also well known. Antagonism between our positions is so great that we cannot with propriety join in a political banquet given in honor of Democracy's patron saint. Jefferson stood for certain well defined principles. If your views are correct reflections of his ideas, I fear my voice would sound a discordant note at your banquet. If, on the other hand, the Chicago platform applies (as I believe it does), Jeffersonian principles to the present conditions, then your conspicuous presence at a Jeffersonian banquet would not honor the memory of the world's greatest Democrat.

"Do not misunderstand me. You may be right and I may be wrong, but I take it for granted we are equally conscientious, and I trust I may not show myself less courageous than you. You proclaimed to your fellow citizens in 1896 that my election on the Democratic platform would endanger the nation's welfare. You will pardon if I suggest that a banquet be preceded over by you will injure rather than aid the Democratic party. I believe in harmonizing personal differences, but the difference in principle cannot be harmonized and, in my judgment, no party advantage is to be derived from political communion between Jeffersonian Democrats, who stand upon the Chicago platform and Republican allies who masquerade as Democrats between campaigns in order to give more potency to their betrayal of Democratic principles on election day. Yours truly, W. J. BRYAN."

To this reply of Bryan's Belmont defends his position and his remarks are somewhat caustic. Mr. Belmont said:

New York, March 21,
 "Dear Sir—I have just received your letter of the 18th instant, in which you describe those who declared in 1896 that your election to the presidency on the Chicago platform, would endanger the nation's welfare as the Republican allies who masquerade as Democrats between campaigns in order to give more potency to their betrayal of Democratic principles on election day."

Mr. Belmont goes on to state that before answering the "unwarranted letter" he had instituted a suit against a New York newspaper on account of an alleged libel in which he was characterized as "a higher-priced man than the floater who sells his vote for two dollars on election day," and continues: "Your purpose to be equally defamatory is obvious. Your skill in the use of words forbids the plea that in your letter you intended them through ignorance."

Mrs. Place was electrocuted in New York last week. She was the first woman to meet death in the electric chair.

Hanna, Muck's agent and ruler, has told Reed to curb his presidential aspirations for the present and support McKinley, promising the Czar the president's aid in 1904.

There is some talk of tacking Roosevelt on the tail of the Republican kite next year. Truly will, no doubt, strenuously object to being carried to a political graveyard through the vice presidency.

General Mills seems to be making his contentions good on the "embalmed beef" question. The investigating committee is finding plenty of evidence the last few days to show that our soldiers had to fight on empty stomachs or subsist on nauseating beef.

Three state assemblies, Utah, Delaware and California, have adjourned without electing United States Senators. Another, Pennsylvania, very probably will follow suit, as a dead-lock exists and its session is constitutionally limited to April 20. The proposition to elect senators by popular vote will receive a great boost from these failures, and should be adopted.

The poetical production given below is said to have won the prize for its author for the best appeal poem to subscribers; "Lives of poor men oft remind us honest men won't stand no chance. The more we work there grow behind us bigger patches on our pants. On our pants, once now and glossy, now are stripes of different hue, all because subscribers linger and don't pay us what is due. Then let us be up and doing; send in your mite however small, or when the snow of winter strikes us we shall have no pain at all."

A Divided Tammany.

Bryan to Attend a One-Dollar-a-Plate Banquet in New York.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.
 New York, March 23. The following messages chime beyond all doubt the presence of Colonel William J. Bryan at the so-called one dollar banquet planned to celebrate the birth of Thomas Jefferson Wednesday evening, April 19:
 "Nashville, Tenn., March 23.—To Eugene V. Brewster, 26 Court Street, Brooklyn: Nineteenth satisfactory if necessary, but prefer 17th. Answer to Birmingham.
 W. J. Bryan."
 "New York, March 23.—To W. J. Bryan Birmingham, Ala.: Nineteenth is the only date satisfactory to all.
 EUGENE V. BREWSTER."

The final reply from the Democratic standard bearer of 1896 set all the producers of the dollar affair wild with delight, especially as the Nebraska has promptly refused to attend the Croker-Belmont ten dollar dinner.

The opponents of Richard Croker say tonight that Colonel Bryan will confer with John C. Sheehan and James J. Martin Saturday, either at Hot Springs or Little Rock, Ark., about the organization of a movement within Tammany Hall to secure delegates to the next Democratic National Convention from New York, pledged to support the Colonel for a renomination to the presidency.

This may mean also, as some Tammany members feared to day, the beginning of an open break between the followers of Croker and Sheehan. From the day that Sheehan was ousted as leader of Tammany, he and his friends have been counting on the day when he might be rehabilitated. They have been quietly at work among such members of the organization as have been denied official preferment by Mr. Croker. Whether this is the proper time to strike may be determined at the proposed Bryan-Sheehan meeting.

It will be recalled that very soon after Mr. Croker in an authorized interview declared free silver as an issue to be dead, and also announced himself to be a champion of expansion, Mr. Sheehan made this statement:

"I have no apology to offer for supporting William J. Bryan on the Chicago platform of 1896. Bryan is a great Democrat and a patriotic American. I am opposed to expansion. The Chicago platform is good enough for me."

In submitting these views, Mr. Sheehan made it clearly understood that he stood for these issues publicly and persistently declared by Colonel Bryan. Mr. Sheehan has had a special invitation to the Bryan banquet and Chairman Brewster hopes he will accept. Mr. Brewster said to day of the reported conference between Colonel Bryan and Mr. Sheehan, fixed for next Saturday:

"Such a meeting would mean the overthrow of Richard Croker as leader and perhaps the elimination of Tammany Hall as a factor in national politics. The positive assurance that Colonel Bryan is to be with us on April 19 has increased the demand for tickets to such an extent that I do not know that we shall be able to accommodate all who apply. Up to late this afternoon nearly 1,000 have asked that seats be reserved for them at tables at the Grand Central Palace. We are getting telegrams calling for seats for parties numbering as high as 12 every hour."

Continuing, Chairman Brewster said: "I have just received a telegram from a wealthy ranchman in Las Vegas, N.

M., asking that no reserve seats be for him and a party.

"We are assured that we will have with us Chairman Jones of the Democratic National Committee, former Governor Atgeld of Illinois, Governor Fingree of Michigan, Major Jones of Toledo, Mayor Chase of Haverhill, Mass., and any number of orators. Croker, Belmont, Whitney, Flower and ex-Senator Hill have not been invited to our banquet, nor will they be so far as I know."

Chairman Brewster, together with Chairman Boulton of the Committee of One Hundred, received several estimates from caterers to day as to the cost of the dinner and the menu.

Should the number of guests reach 3,000, as the promoters of the feast believe it will, an even larger hall than the Grand Central Palace may be had.

The controversy between Perry Belmont, chairman of the New York Democratic club, and William J. Bryan has attracted national attention. It seemed to be the purpose of Belmont and Croker to entrap the Nebraskan into accepting the invitation to the banquet, and, after getting him there, dose him up on anti-silver tonic. But the game failed, and Belmont was placed in a rather embarrassing position in a correspondence that followed, wherein Bryan declared that Belmont and his ilk were "Republicans masquerading as Democrats," and were not the proper cattle to mix with in the celebration of Thomas Jefferson's birthday. An opposition banquet has been arranged and Colonel Bryan has accepted an invitation to be present; and, though this will be only a dollar-a-plate banquet, it promises to be more entertaining and enthusiastic than the ten-dollar-a-plate banquet of Belmont and Croker.

Serious fighting around Manila and up and down the Pasig river in the Philippines. Telegraphic reports all tend to show that the American forces are massing to overwhelm Aguinaldo and his army, and by one quick, decisive blow end the war. This may be done if the insurgents will only stand and fight, but the indications are that they will take to the swamps and continue a guerrilla warfare indefinitely.

Jefferson Reynolds was appointed Territorial Treasurer by Gov. Otero, but the council refused to confirm the nomination; so Samuel Eldred holds over.

A race war was in progress in Arkansas a few days since. Nine Negroes were killed and a number pretty badly scared.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

The Roswell Record in speaking of the Methodist minister from this place says: "Rev. T. L. Adams, of White Oaks, will preach next Monday evening at the Methodist church at the usual hour. Mr. Adams is a forceful speaker and logical thinker."

An exchange says that a Missouri publisher of a country paper has a farmer for a subscriber who gets drunk every time he comes to town and pays a years subscription to the paper. He now has the paper paid for until 1931. If our local saloon man will handle that brand of whiskey we will run his ad gratis.

Stockmen are becoming alarmed in southeastern New Mexico for fear the ranges are overstocked to such an extent that cattle will necessarily suffer severely before the grass rises, unless the spring rains are earlier than usual. Cattle are not in good condition in Eddy county, and March weather will finish quite a number of them.

E. R. Clinch has been a sufferer the past week with rheumatism, and has been compelled to "lay off" from mill duty. Mr. Clinch will start soon for Ojo Caliente, Mexico, where he expects to receive beneficial results from those hot baths. LATER: Mr. Clinch is so much improved today that he has given up his trip to Mexico.

J. O. Nabours was in from his ranch Saturday and took home with him several dozen mining location blanks. Mr. Nabours says the country round him is alive with prospectors and that while they are locating mining claims all over the mountains he will join them, and in case some fellow strikes it, he may have an adjoining claim. He has two patented properties: one, silver, located in the White Mountains near his home ranch, which is very rich in silver and carries some gold; the other, a copper property, is 25 miles west of his silver mine, in the eastern foothills of the Ocaras, only a few miles from the survey of the new road now building into the White Oaks country. This copper property has a shaft down nearly 100 feet, and has several hundred tons of rich ore on the dump, which he will begin to ship to the smelters at El Paso as soon as the rail road is prepared to receive freight at its nearest station, which will be at or near the Malagras. The lowest assay yet made on this property shows a general average of $32.00 per ton.

The poorest mail service in the United States has been forced upon the people of this community. Throughout December the service was miserable, the mail often being 8 to 10 hours late. The people of White Oaks are getting extremely tired of such conditions. The fault is traced directly to the contractors, who make their bids so low that it is impossible for them to operate the lines themselves, and therefore they are sublet to natives who are totally incapable of performing the service satisfactorily. Since Monday of this week the mails have been from 10 to 12 hours late, and passengers, who happen to miss connection with Lane's passenger line are frequently compelled to walk into town, the teams giving out entirely several miles out. We shall certainly rejoice at the arrival of the rail road for this relief alone.

W. M. Atkinson returned Monday from the big stock convention at Fort Worth. He reports a big time there, but only few sales. Curtis & Davidson of Portales sold all the D E yearlings at $19.00 per head. Sug Robinson sold all the 1's, 2's, and 3's from the Hat ranch on private terms. He also sold 1000 two year heifers at $20.00. During the convention, Col. C. C. Slaughter was offered $10,000 for his celebrated bull Sir Bredwell recently purchased at Kansas City. Up to the close of the convention he had not decided to accept.—Roswell Record.

Geo. Hopkins and S. W. Stanley, who, as the representatives of a California company, recently purchased the Independence mine in the San Andreas mountains, New Mexico, and are making extensive preparations to work the property. A force of men will be put to work at once and they expect to make a shipment of high grade copper ore the first of next month. The property is situated 33 miles northeast of Las Cruces.—El Paso Times.

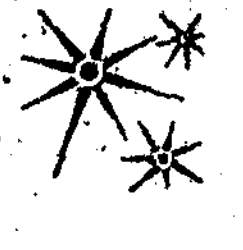

From the Denver Republican the Eagle learns that Minor D. Gaylord, an old resident of Nogal, is connected with a company which is working a very rich mine in Old Mexico. Mr. Gaylord is superintendent of the property and tells of the fabulous wealth his company is finding. The Eagle is always glad to learn that former citizens of Lincoln county are prosperous.

The El Paso Times in its column on "Mines and Mining" says: "A large quantity of machinery is being shipped into the White Oaks country both for placer and quartz mining. At least two large plants will be erected in that section during the present year, one in the Jicarilla mining district, the other in the Jarillas."

SHOT THROUGH THE HEART.

Andy Crawford, colored, of Three Rivers, accidentally shot himself through the heart with a 44 Winchester rifle last Saturday morning while unloading some drill steel at his copper mine on Three Rivers. It seems that Andy had among other things in his wagon two guns which were thrown into the wagon loose among boxes of provisions, drill steel, picks, shovels, etc., and in unloading them he took hold of the Winchester in order to push it back out of the way of some other parcel of the load and accidentally struck the hammer against a piece of steel, discharging the rifle, the ball passing through his heart.

Andy was well known in this county and has ever borne the name of an upright citizen. The copper prospect which he has been working is said to be one of the best properties of the kind in this country and has been continually sought by numerous different parties for several months, but its owner refused to part with it and has been engaged in developing it himself. Crawford has a family who reside at present in Tularosa.

White Oaks is on the eve of the greatest mining activity and general business prosperity known here since the 30's, when this canyon was full of miners and prospectors from head to tail, and when the scarcity of the coin of the realm made "dust" legal tender in exchange of the necessities of life. Being situated right in the heart of the mineral belt of New Mexico, mining men naturally look this way for the investment of capital in mining properties. If White Oaks had been located in Colorado in close proximity to some mining district, generally known over the country, on or near a rail road, where investors in and developers of mining properties could have reached it with out crossing a desert a hundred miles wide on a rawhide stage line to reach it, we would today be a city ranking in wealth and population with Leadville, Cripple or Denver. And now that this greatest of obstacles (isolation) to the development of the mineral resources of a country has been partially removed, White Oaks is in position to make the town of southern New Mexico. It is a fact generally accepted among the promoters of the E. P. & N. E. enterprise that the Rock Island is to connect with their line at this place. When this already well advanced plan is carried out the future of White Oaks will be determined. Gold, coal, iron, copper, lead, silver and marble in quantities that insure their development, none of them further than a few hours ride from White Oaks, are only waiting the completion of the new road to start on their journey to the mines, smelters and other places of consumption.

The Sacramento country is the ideal timber and potato region of New Mexico, but if it is mineral you are after you must come to the White Oaks country to find it. The Alamogordo Chief man should have a map of New Mexico before him, when commenting on this wonderful land of timber and spurs in order that he may avoid misleading localities. The Sacramento country is not the White Oaks country, neither has any portion of Lincoln county been annexed to Alamogordo since the recent adjourning of the New Mexican legislature; rather

Hon. H. B. Fergusson left this morning for Albuquerque, via San Antonio, by Paul Mayer's special stage.

Spring Dressing is different from the weariness caused by labor. The last is cured by rest; the first requires a few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla to cure it.

That distress after eating is cured by Hood's Pills. They do not gripe. 25c.

Residents of White Oaks took advantage of the large snow fall and filled their cisterns, which will furnish them with soft water until the rainy season.

My mother suffered with chronic diarrhoea for several months. She was attended by two physicians who at last pronounced her case hopeless. She procured one 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and five doses gave her permanent relief. It takes pleasure in recommending it as the best on the market.—Mrs. F. E. Watson, Aiken, Ala. Sold by M. G. Padon.

Dr. Padon was called to Nogal Tuesday afternoon to attend N. Bruning, who was suffering from a severe attack of fever. The doctor remained with his patient Tuesday night and left him much improved yesterday morning.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has Lame Back and Weak Kidneys, Malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to Liver and Kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures Constipation, Headache, Fainting Spells, Sleeplessness and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at Dr. M. G. Padon's Drug Store.

Love and a Cough Cannot be Hid.

It is this fact that makes the lover and his sweetheart happy, and sends the sufferer from his cough to his doctor. But there are hidden ills lurking in impure blood. "The liver is wrong," it is thought, "or the kidneys." Did it ever occur to you that the trouble is in your blood?

Purify this river of life with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Then illness will be banished, and strong, vigorous health will result. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best known, best endorsed and most natural of all blood purifiers.

Nervousness—"My mother suffered from nervous weakness and loss of appetite. My trouble was impure blood, disordered stomach and sleeplessness. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured both." J. J. V. GEBHART, Box 170, Middletown, N. Y.

Dyspepsia—"For six months my system was out of order with dyspepsia and impure blood. Spent lots of money in vain, but Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me thoroughly for $1." J. S. ZASTA, Genoa, Neb.

Malaria—"I was a soldier, and after typhoid fever, I had fever and ague, rheumatism, and nervous prostration so that I could not work. Nothing helped until Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me completely so that I was up to time now." J. H. STILLMAN, Chesham, Pa.

Scrophula—"For months I went to hospital for treatment of scrophulous ulcer without results. They said it was the worst they ever treated. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla. Twelve bottles entirely cured me." CHAS. G. URMAN, Needham, Mass.

Diphtheria—"My little nephew was troubled for two years with sore throat and tonsillitis. Was threatened with diphtheria but Hood's Sarsaparilla warded it off. He is now entirely well." IZZY G. REED, Oak Hill Ave., Waterbury, Conn.

Poor Health—"I never saw anything better than the way Hood's Sarsaparilla lifted me up. It sharpened my appetite and gave me a new lease of life. I can work every day." FREDMAN N. BERRY, Meredith, N. H.

Ziegler Bros. are very busy this week receiving their Spring and Summer Stock of Dry goods, Clothing, Carpets etc. etc. The way goods are coming in it looks like they are expecting a boom.

The Hopeful group of mines, including the famous Parsons, on the Bonito has been sold to an eastern syndicate. Particulars not known, though this information is direct and reliable. This is good news to the people of White Oaks as it has been generally understood here that Mr. Johns would devote his entire attention to the operation of the North Homestake as soon as the Parsons deal was closed.

It is very hard to stand lily by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The drugist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by M. G. Padon.

Winter is dying hard, as was evidenced by a huge blizzard Monday. It began snowing early Monday morning and continued, with slight interruption, all day, the ground being covered to a depth of 8 inches.

Track laying is to begin on the E. P. & N. E. on the 3rd. of next month. The grading is just about completed between Alamogordo and Tularosa, and by the time the rails are laid to Tularosa the grading on this side of that place will be well advanced.

John W. Owen, Joe. A. Gunn and Walter G. Fawcett returned from Las Cruces last Friday evening. They had gone the week previous as witnesses in the Ravenoraft murder case. Ravenoraft was found guilty, the jury bringing in a verdict of murder in the second degree.

Walter and Walker Hyde are just finishing a handsome five room residence on their splendid ranch on Three Rivers. The boys have been at work on this building for more than two months, and when it is completed it will be one of the most comfortable homes in that section of the country.

J. C. Clippinger, Harry S. Comery and Jos. Reel left Monday morning on Will Linn's special stage for Alamogordo, at which point they will meet M. D. Gaylord, when they will start to Old Mexico, state of Sonora, where Mr. Gaylord is superintendent of a mining property. The mine is reported to be very rich and the White Oaks trio will be employed in its operation.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Tinnen had the sad misfortune to lose their seven weeks old baby girl last Friday night. The little one was taken with a severe cold on Wednesday the 22nd, and rapidly grew worse until 9 o'clock Friday night, when death relieved its suffering. The funeral took place from the residence Saturday at 3 o'clock p. m. The Eagle joins friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved parents.

ance: The design is plain, and were it not that you have intervened in your abuse reference to opinions upon public questions as opposed to your own, to the Democratic club of which I am president, and its supposed celebration of Jefferson's birthday, I should have left your offensive statement unanswered.

"The Democratic club of New York has a membership of nearly 2,000 democrats, who all hold to the main principles of democracy, while their opinions are not fundamental, but merely local or transitory, like many of the vain conceits you have yourself espoused. But some of these 2,000 members is a Republican. As for myself, I never voted for a Republican candidate for either a great or a small office.

"The board of governors and the president of so large a Democratic organization endeavored to represent officially the wishes of the majority, which was that the coming anniversary of the birthday of Jefferson should be celebrated this year by the organization as in previous years. To recall those principles and traditions with which his name is so indelibly associated tends to bring about a revival of Democratic control based on public questions, the control of which are not transitory.

"To the explanation I made that individual opinions have not been considered, you reply that you do not understand how individual opinions can be ignored at a political gathering. You you proceeded to contradict your opinions with mine to emphasize your antagonism, and finally declared that you and I cannot with propriety join in a political banquet given in honor of Democracy's patron saint.

"Your contention is that the Chicago platform applies Jeffersonian principles to present conditions, and that because I criticized the platform in its application to conditions existing three years ago, and then resisted your candidacy for the presidency, therefore my presence at the proposed dinner would not honor the world's greatest Democrat. These words of events will probably prove your understanding of the relations of individual opinions to Democratic gatherings, and it is therefore not required of me now to indulge in a long discourse of these relations in your position of temporary to permanent questions.

"On returning from the Chicago convention I explained my course in a public address to my constituents, and justified my protest on the ground that legislation and executive action in enforcing the Chicago platform would be an assault on wages and savings, bring on the slavery of the masses, and impair the obligations of contracts. I therefore contended wherever I had an opportunity that last issue by the United States on the change ratio of 16 to 1 would be the grave of international bimetallicism and that if Europe opened its mints at 15, and this government persisted in the ratio of 16, the result would be as in 1831, and the United States would be left with only a subsidiary currency.

"I answer you as an individual, and not as committing the organization of which I am president.

NOTICE OF FORFEITURE.

To Benjamin H. Dye. You are hereby notified that I the undersigned Co-owner with you have done the necessary assessment work for the year 1898, on the Comprohio Mine or Lode located in the White Oaks mining district on the East slope of Baxter Mountain—and you are hereby notified that unless you contribute your proportion of said expenditure within ninety days (90) of the end of this notice by publication, your interest therein will be forfeited and become the property of the undersigned. THE LARGEST RANCH IN THE WORLD. Scientific American. The largest ranch in the world is located in Texas, and it consists of more than 3,000,000 acres, or about 5,000 square miles. The States of Rhode Island and Delaware could not contain this immense ranch. About a dozen years ago, states The Ladies' Home Journal, when Texas needed a new State capital, the legislature adopted a novel plan to get it. A promise was held forth that a vast tract of unsullied land would be given in exchange for a suitable granite building at Austin. Senator C. B. Frewell and John Farwell formed a syndicate in Chicago and built the capital, possession of the immense domain.

Subscription Rates.

The subscription rates of the WHITE OAKS EAGLE are as follows: One Year $1.50, Six Months 75cts, Three Months 50ct Single Copy 6cts. If not paid in advance $2.00.

THE delights of an evening spent around a well-lighted reading table are not half understood. An illustrated magazine with its wealth of illustrations, its stories of adventure and love, its descriptions of travel which carry you to the remotest ends of the earth, and its instructive articles for young and old—these are the first requisites for your own enjoyment and the entertainment and proper education of your children. To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, Both Together One Year for Only $ 2.10

In this way you secure your own home paper and an illustrated magazine at a price that is only about a fourth of what some of the illustrated magazines sell for. For three years The Cosmopolitan has undisputedly claimed that it reached the largest clientele possessed by any periodical, daily, weekly or monthly, in the world. It was The Cosmopolitan which sent Julian Hawthorne to India to let the world know the real horrors of famine and plague. It was The Cosmopolitan which established at its own cost a great Free Correspondence University which now has over 20,000 students on its rolls. It was The Cosmopolitan which offered a prize of $1,000 for the best horseless carriage and prize for best plans for public baths, and best arrangement of sewer and pipe systems for cities. It was The Cosmopolitan which let the presidents of great schools and universities seriously discussing the defects of existing educational systems. It is The Cosmopolitan whose enterprise is always in the lead in advancing the world's civilization.
