THE COMPROMISE MINE and SHAFT

AN EIGHTH INTEREST IN THE FAMOUS COMPROMISE SOLD.

Wayne Van Schoyck, who is interested in a number of mining properties in this and the Gallina district has just purchased an eighth interest in the Compromise Mine from Harry C. Crary.

H. C. Crary will be remembered by the EAGLE readers as the original discoverer of the rich ore bodies of this property, and the party who purchased the prospect from Jones Taliaferro for the sum of $1,500. The EAGLE has not learned the consideration for which Mr. Crary closed out his interest, but understands it to have been well up in figures.

The reader may well understand that the Compromise is considered a bonanza when an interest may be sold at most any time for a handsome sum when at the same time knowing the property to be in litigation. This is the property for the possession of which Dye & Childers are now suing and whose claim will be heard at the December sitting of the District court at Socorro. A spirit of move seems to have struck this camp, and nothing can stop it, the decree has gone forth and we must move. The resources are known and capital is after the results.

HOW TO SELL ORE.

Some Hints as to Proper Methods of Dealing with Smelting Concerns.

Mining Reporter

Rich ore when shipped to a smelter should always be sampled at the mine and sacked, and its true value declared to the railroad that transports it. This may result in a higher shipping rate, but then the carrying company insures it, and will pay its value in case of wreck, or in case of stealing. But in reality there is no danger of loss by stealing if the railroad is properly advised of the high value of the mineral. There is much unnecessary worry among miners about their ore. Reputable transportation companies like the railroads cannot afford to lose goods committed to them, and in addition, when they know goods are of high value they always take extra precautions for their protection. It is the same with smelters. There was a time, twenty years or more ago, when there were just causes for suspicion of a few concerns, whose managers were unscrupulous. But there is absolutely no foundation for such ideas now. The standing of the well known smelters is today as high as that of any banking concern that ever existed. They could not afford to have any other kind of reputation. Sample your ore before shipping, ship it in proper condition and with due regard to all the business formalities, get duplicate bills of lading from the railroad, keep one of these and mail to the smelter, and then await the returns in peace. If the weights and assays do not come up to your own, write at once courteously and ask for a re-sample. It will always be made and without extra charge. Of course mistakes may occur, but the chances are a thousand to one that it will be in your sample and not in that of the smelter. It is their business to sample correctly. An error in that part of their work is felt as a disgrace, just as would be a mistake in addition in a bank clerk, and the man who makes it is instantly discharged. It is always advisable in shipping a small lot of rich ore, to request the smelter not to use it until you have had the opportunity to examine the returns and accept them. This is often done. Above all things make complaint courteously, and never fail to acknowledge it when the returns (as they often will) exceed your own expectations.

As to prices remember that no smelter can afford to pay as high a price proportionately for a small lot of ore as for a large one; do not expect it. Remember again that the reduction company depends for its business and profits on the consignments of yourself and other miners, that the small producer of to-day is often the large producer of to-morrow, and that it wants your mineral and is always ready to pay as high a price for it as its business necessities will permit.

A DOLLAR A PIECE.

It is said that the cigars smoked by King Edward VII cost one dollar a piece and are made especially for him still he is reported to have cancer of the throat caused by smoking.

TON OF GOLD.

What the Money Value is of That Much Metal

A correspondent asks this paper for the value of a ton of gold, to settle a controversy, says the P.C. Miner. This is a frequent topic of inquiry and dispute, and many different and confusing statements are made about a ton of gold. The confusion arises from the difference between troy and avoirdupois weights, but confusion is unnecessary.

A ton contains 14,000,000 grains. A grain of fine gold is worth $0.043066322. Hence a ton of fine gold is worth $6,029,285.08. Gold, as it is mined or used by man, is practically never fine, and the value of a ton of gold as it comes from the mine or the mint would have to be calculated from the degree of fineness.

A ton of $20, or other United States gold coin, being 900 fine, would be worth 90 per cent, of fine gold value, $5,426,356.57. No account is taken of the slight theoretical value of the alloy Gold worth $18 per troy ounce, the price paid by merchants and bankers in many California districts, is 871 fine, and at this market rate a ton would be worth 87.1 per cent of the fine gold value. Klondike gold comes down by the "ton" frequently, according to newspapers. It generally runs from 700 to 850 fine. El Paso News.

COAL OUTPUT

The coal output at Blossburg is only limited by the lack of miners. There are now about four hundred men at work at the Gardiner and Blossburg mines, but General Manager Van Housen says he could put three hundred more skilled miners to work at once as they have the demand for the coal and the mines are sufficiently developed to admit of it. Raton Reporter.

THEE YAQUIS STILL FIGHTING.

The Yaqui Indians of northern Mexico are still giving that government a great deal of trouble. There are at least 600 fighters still engaged in the state of Sonora according to estimates recently made by the Mexican government. They are divided into small bands of 20 to 30 each and their mood of warfare is similar to that practiced by the Boer in South Africa.

NEW MEXICO'S DELEGATE TO CONGRESS.

New Mexico's delegate to congress and the White Oaks Eagle are having a wordy tussle over the New Mexico statehood question, the Eagle, taking issue with the delegate in his cry for statehood. The Eagle claims that most of those in favor of statehood are men looking for fat jobs when a change is effected. To a certain extent the Eagle is right. A better defense of the statehood position could be made than that of Rodey, who presented an argument in a very poor manner. New Mexico must indeed have extremely poor Congressional timber, to send such a man as Rodey to Washington. If he can not talk better than he can write, he can certainly exercise but small influence on Congress. Industrial Record.

A REMEDY FOR ANARCHY.

Des Moines Leader: The platform of the anarchist is:

I don't want law; I don't want order; I don't want government; I don't want official protection; I want to be left alone.

The New York Telegraph suggests taking the anarchist seriously, and granting his prayer, saying to him:

The courts are closed to you. When a highwayman assaults you, the police won't protect you. When your house takes fire and your wife and children are threatened with a hideous death, the firemen will not come to extinguish the flames. When the hoodlum breaks your windows with brickbats you can go to no court for relief.

An application of one dose of this remedy is guaranteed to cure the most aggravated case of anarchism.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. is now rocking in the blissful rocking chair of matrimonial happiness. He was married on the 9th inst. to Miss Abbey Green Aldrich, daughter of United States Senator Aldrich. The wedding took place at Warwick, N. J. at Aldrich's summer home.

GOOD SENSE FROM THE JOURNAL-DEMOCRAT.

We enter a protest in the name of the people of New Mexico against a policy now being pursued by two or three papers in the territory of referring to certain other New Mexico papers which differ from them in matters of local politics as "anarchistic sheets!"

If this childish practice concerned only those who are guilty of it, the people would pass it over as simply silly; but unfortunately it concerns all of us. It is well known to all those who know anything at all of New Mexico that there are no anarchist papers in this territory, and no people here who believe in the doctrine of anarchy. But if eastern people learn from the columns of our own papers that some of our most prominent journals are "anarchist sheets," they will put it down at once that the New Mexico People are followers of Emma Goldman. This might not be the case in other sections of the country, but the eastern people seem to be ready to believe any "fool" story they hear about New Mexico.

Hereafter when some "esteemed contemporary" proves to be a little too much for you, and you want to get even with him, you would better "make mouths at his sister." That might put a greater strain upon your intellectual machinery than to call him an "anarchist," but it would not give the territory a bad name. Journal-Democrat.

A PREMATURE PROPHET.

This much has already been established by the Schley court of inquiry, that the Democratic party will not ask Admiral Schley to be its candidate for president. New Mexican.

How do you know old wisdomatic? The reach of your calibre is short of the distinguished place of prophet for the democratic party of this country. Your elevation stops at the altitude of the words anarchy and sorehead. You have used these two low expressions so much and so indiscriminately of late that people are beginning to believe that you are the original stripe of the sore-headed anarchist. How is it anyway, are you suffering from inflammatory rheumatism or gout? Or do you naturally hate everything and everybody? Which do you consider the nearest the place of a gentleman in Journalism yourself or the devil? It is a wonder you don't hire an attorney to prosecute you for libel, slander and anarchy to relieve your conscience. But there is the rub again, have you got a conscience?

President Roosevelt has begun to show the people that he is the president of the nation and not of the republican party only.

A SHEEPMAN'S OPINION.

A prominent, sheep raiser of New Mexico, in discussing the sheep situation this season, is reported to have said: "There is a wide difference of opinion as to lambs in New Mexico. The feeder is offering today $1 per head, the raiser is holding for $1.50 per head and has lots of good grass and water, therefore there will be little done in the sheep and land trade this season. The banks of this section will carry sheepmen of any consequence for one year, and will loan up to $1 per head on all sheep at five to ten per cent, so I can not see that there will be many one dollar lambs sold in New Mexico this season. We never had better grass and more water or even better lambs, since I have been in this section of the country."

DEMOCRATIC CONTROL.

Chaves county, New Mexico, people own $521 worth of property per capita—according to the property assessments—exclusive of railway and telegraph assessments. Chaves county has never had anything but democratic government—Mark its progress.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Attorneys, Lund & Watson, went to Lincoln.

We have one of the best public schools in the territory.

Chas. B. Smith, Allen Lane, Allen Curtis and Silas May are duck hunting at Red Lake.

Miss Rice and Miss Grace Austin were here to attend the ball Thursday night.

Scott, kookkeeper for El Capitan Land & Cattle Co., was in to attend the ball Thursday night. He returned home Friday morning.

C. J. Reily of Denver, is putting in an elaborate steam heating plant for the government at Ft. Stanton marine hospital. The government has recently awarded $20,000 for this purpose.

Juan L. Reyes the EAGLE's mechanical foreman who has been in the service of this paper for four years has surrendered his position to accept an employment at Alamogordo where he will teach Music and Spanish. Mr. Reyes is a thoroughly competent musician and a reliable business man, and a number one printer of good habits. The EAGLE wishes him a successful career in his new field.

Mrs. S. Vandervort and Mrs. S. C. Ellis who have been visiting relatives here for the past four months, left Tuesday morning for their respective homes, Chicago and Washington. Miss Mabel Stewart accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Ellis, to Washington, where she expects to spend the next two years at school. Dr. Ellis will meet Mrs. Ellis and Miss Stewart in Buffalo, where they will spend a week visiting the Pan American.

A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS MAN.

Hon. Scipio Salazar, member of the board of county commissioners of this county, was in Capitan yesterday and while in town called at the Progress office. Mr. Salazar feels that he is one of the most fortunate men in Lincoln county as he is today completely out of debt, having this week paid the last he owed, which was in round numbers $7,121.00. Besides this he still has his ranches, sheep, etc., left. All of this he has accumulated since he came to Lincoln county.

This record shows Mr. Salazar to be a thorough business man, and is conclusive evidence that the people of Lincoln county made no mistake when they elected him county commissioner.

THE NORTH HOMESTAKE.

Last Saturday at Lincoln, the North Homestake mine, mill site and 40 acres of land, belonging to the Apex Gold Mining Co. was sold at sheriff's sale for taxes of 1894-5-6, amounting to $18,00. Wm. Watson of this city, bought the property for the full amount of the judgment, interest and costs.

L. G. Brockway of Lynn, Mass. who came here last July, representing some of the stockholders of the Apex company, after staying here some time, went to Cal., where he remained until last week when he returned here meeting attorneys Watson & Lund at Lincoln.

After the sale the taxes for the years 1897-8-9 and 1900 were paid, amounting to $5,100.

Mr. Brockway returned home Tuesday. He expressed himself as well pleased with White Oaks and that it is the intention of his company to work the North as soon as all claims against the property are settled. There are two judgments and a suit yet to be disposed of, but nevertheless he thinks it possible to dispose of these and get to work in a little while. He will return here in a short time.

THE STARK FRUIT NURSERY.

John H. Skinner, owner of the Stark Fruit Nursery of Bonito, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Skinner has lived in Lincoln county for twenty years, and is one among other orchardists who have demonstrated that the mountain section of Lincoln county is the finest fruit country in the world. He has been engaged in the fruit business for twelve years, and has one of the best orchards in the county. His nursery stock is brought here from Louisiana Missouri, which section of that state has a climate almost exactly the same as this particular section of New Mexico. His trees have a great advantage over stock from other places which have to become acclimated before a thriving condition is reached.

Mr. Skinner can be reached by letter at Angus, N. M., and those interested in the fruit business will find him ready to supply their wants in most everything in nursery or orchard stock adapted to this climate.

EL PASO MID-WINTER CARNIVAL.

El Paso is preparing for another great Mid-winter Carnival to be given January 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1902. This will be the second annual event, and will be the greatest entertainment ever given in the southwest.

The "sunshine in January" that so delighted the thousands of visitors in El Paso last year will take thousands more there and the coming event is expected to surpass anything ever given in the southwest, you can get a glimpse of Mexico at El Paso and this, with the Mexican bull fights, is something that other cities can not afford. To see the ancient city of Juarez Mexico is worth the expense of the trip and since the railroads have promised a very low rate from everywhere thousands will attend, there will be a miners' convention, medical and teachers' conventions, the largest cattle exhibition ever given in Texas, besides the regular program.

El Paso is a famous town and has become famous as an entertainer and at the coming Mid-Winter-Carnival the border metropolis promises the most extravagant free show, fiesta and general jubilee ever seen between New Orleans and Los Angeles. The Carnival association is now preparing the program, which will be published soon.

JUAN BAUTISTA BARRERAS KILLED.

Infatuation for Another Man's Wife Resulted in Death With a Bullet Hole Through His Heart.

Last Thursday night between half past eight and nine o'clock, Juan Bautista Barreras, an employ at the Old Abe coal mine, was shot and instantly killed by one Curley Carroll, a saloon man in business at Gallo Lake, on the line of the El Paso Rock Island rail road.

The killing occurred in a long cabin on an alley between White Oaks Avenue and Livingston street, and east of W. O. B. & L.
 Company's lumber yards. The Cabin was until recently occupied by Frances Marrujo whose household effects are still in the cabin.
 The evidence introduced before the Coroner's Jury showed that Mrs. Marrujo had left her key with Mrs. Marcus Bueno, and that Mrs. Bueno made a date for herself and Mrs. Placido Guevara
 with Carroll and his partner, Ed Hartly, Carroll and Hartly were in town together from the rail road. They entered this cabin about 8:30 o'clock, and a few minutes later according to the evidence of Mrs. Placido Guevara
 before the Coroner's Jury, Barreras came to the window of the cabin, struck a match and looked in, after which he went to the front door kicked it open and entered the room at the same time abusing and threatened Mrs.
 Bueno, with whom it seems he also had an engagement. Carroll asked Barreras to stop, saying in spanish esperate amigo, quickly following his salutation was the report of his revolver and Barreras fell on his face across the door with a bullet hole through his heart.
 Following this the four inmates of the cabin escaped by jumping over the body of Barreras and out at the door into the darkness.
 Carroll and Hartley went to the Little Casino saloon and called for money they had deposited there earlier in the evening. A five dollar gold piece was droped by one of them as they were dividing the money, the coin rolled under the counter and the owner or owners left without search and were not seen any more until 5 o'clock next morning when Hartley showed up at the livery stable and asked for his and Carrol's horses which had been placed there Thursday evening. Nothing was suspected of them until 7 o'clock and up to which time the body of Barreras had not been discovered.

The body was discovered by a miner who was passing from off his shift about 7 o'clock. He noticed a pool of blood near the door of the cabin, and pushing in to see from whence it came saw a dead body lying on the floor inside the door; he reported to Dr.

 Paden and a Coroner's jury was immediately summoned and returned the following virdict:

VIRDICT CORONER'S JURY.

We, the undersigned, Justice of the Peace and Jury, who sat upon the inquest held this 14th day of October, 1901, on the body of Juan Bautista Barreras, found in precinct No. 8, of the County of Lincoln, Find that the deceased came to his death by reason of a pistol shot "a 45 calibre," in the hands of one Curly Carroll, on the night of Oct. 8, 1901.

Barreras' wife was absent visit-home of the dead man before he came to White Oaks. A brother, the mother and other relatives came up the following day and attended the funeral which took place from the Koch undertaking parlors.

Carroll and Mrs. Marcus Bueno left the city Thursday night and neither of them have been heard of as we go to press. Officers are after them and it is thought they will be brought in for trial.

A CARD OF THANKS.

It will be practically impossible for me to see everyone and personally thank them for their kind and liberal support last Thursday evening, and I take this method of expressing my appreciation of their good will of which I was the thankful recipient; and particularly do I thank Mesdames Sager and McCourt for their efforts in my behalf. Not only do I thank the generous hearted people of White Oaks for this particular manifestation of their regard, but I wish to express my lasting obligation to the music loving people of the town, who have ever shown a due appreciation of the assistance I have rendered in a musical way, and only for business reasons does it become necessary for me to sever my connection with them and leave a town
 and people, who, for seven years, have made life worth living.

Wishing all that is best for the people and the town, hoping that I may have an opportunity to visit occasionally, I again thank you.
 Sincerely yours,

JUAN L. REYES.

ORE SHIPMENTS HAVE BEGUN.

FIRST CARLOTTED BY S. I. SHIFFER FROM WHITE OAKS OVER THE EL PASO RAILROAD.

The first shipment of ore from the White Oaks district was made on Monday, Sept. 10, by S. I. Shiffer, of the El Paso & Northeastern Railway Co. The ore was shipped to the smelter at Cerrizozo, N. M. The shipment was made by a special train, and the ore was loaded by hand. The shipment was the first of the season, and it is expected that many more will be made in the near future. The White Oaks district is one of the most productive in the El Paso region, and it is expected that the output will continue to increase in the coming months. The El Paso & Northeastern Railway Co. is doing a fine job of handling the ore, and it is hoped that the company will continue to improve its service in the future.

DR. MILLER'S LECTURE.

Rev. H. S. Miller delivered an excellent lecture Tuesday night at the Congregational Church: "The Coming of Paganism." A well-filled house greeted the speaker, and listened with rapt attention to the stirring and eloquent manner in which the subject was handled.

It was shown in the lecture the interior of the temple occupied by women and boys, after their desires were satisfied, and the women then, according to the custom of the East, were bound to the pillars of the temple, and their hands were fastened to the top of the pillars, and they were left to die a slow and painful death. This was the fate of the women who were sacrificed to the gods of the East.

WHITE OAKS MERCHANT.

Jones Tullafetro Says Building of Albuquerque Eastern Will Restore Albuquerque Prestige in Lincoln County.

The only passengers on yesterday morning's flyer who alighted in Albuquerque were Jones Taliaferro, the prominent White Oaks merchant, and his wife and child. It was necessary for them to remain in the city until last night, when they went south, homeward bound. Mr. Taliaferro and family have been spending a month at the Pan-American exposition, which they enjoyed exceedingly.

The gentleman called at the Journal-Democrat office yesterday to renew old acquaintance. He expressed the greatest interest in the proposition to build the Albuquerque Eastern road. He said that if the road were completed Albuquerque would get back the trade from the White Oaks country, which since the building of the E. P. & N. E., has been going to El Paso. Further more, Mr. Taliaferro believes the proposed line will be the direct means of developing one of the richest mineral sections in the entire west. The gentleman is something of an authority on minerals. A year or two ago he sold to great advantage a valuable mining property in the Jicarilla mountains. He is interested in other promising locations in the Gallinas.

Mr. Taliaferro is enthusiastic over the outlook for Lincoln county. Like all other residents, he greatly regrets that the Rock Island gave White Oaks the go by, but with the road within six miles, he thinks the bustling little city has splendid promise for the future.—Journal-Democrat.

DON'T SHOW YOUR ROLL.

August Reiterer, a German, was slugged and robbed at the railroad crossing at the north end of town at about halfpast ten Monday night. The holdups relieved him of his watch, chain, pen knife, trunk key and $82 in cash. Mr. Reiterer states that he arrived in town that evening from Springer, and that some time between ten and eleven o'clock he stopped in a saloon on the east side of the track. In paying for a glass of beer he displayed his money. He then left by way of the road for this side of town, and when near the crossing was set upon by two men who felled him to the ground by a blow, with some heavy instrument, below the right eye. They then rifled his pockets, with the result as stated above.

RATON.

From The Reporter.

A new movement is being made towards Hematite camp. This was always one of the best parts of this mining district but very little work has been done there for several years, but now Mineral hill, a good part of the camp, is to be thoroughly exploited. The indications there are so promising that a company is being organized and incorporated to regularly mine in the locality.

The Smithfield company has its new machinery in place and are ready to push their work ahead. The Senate-Bobtail is the principal property belonging to the company and is one of the best in the camp. It has been quite a producer in a small way, but the Smithfield company intend to open up the ore bodies and expect to get larger and better results. Some of the richest ore ever found in this district, was encountered in this property and superintendent Spurr will work it for all it is worth.

Roosevelt Appoints Democrat

Goode Jones, Twice Governor of Alabama to be United States Judge for Northern Tennessee.

Washington, Oct. 7. - President Roosevelt today appointed Ex-Governor Goode Jones, of Alabama, to be the United States district judge of the middle and northern district of Alabama, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge John Bruce. Ex-Governor Jones has always been a democrat, and was twice chief executive of his state. He was General Gordon's adjutant general during the civil war. In 1896, as a gold democrat, he supported Palmer and Buckner. It is understood that Booker T. Washington, the well known negro educator, was one of Ex-Governor Jones' supporters. He has not only aided Washington in his efforts to elevate the negro, but he opposed the negro suffrage amendment incorporated in the Alabama legislation. Representative Thompson, an Alabama democrat who learned of Ex-Governor Jones' appointment from the president expressed satisfaction over the president's action. "Governor Jones," he said, "is not only one of the ablest lawyers in Alabama, but one of the most highly esteemed citizens of the state. This act of President Roosevelt will place him in the same high esteem in the south in which the late President McKinley was held."

Wheeler's Bravery.

Wheeler's charge at the battle of Shiloh was said by General Grant to be one of the most splendid exhibitions of human bravery he had ever witnessed, and a feat which roused admiration among both armies was when the intrepid little general accomplished the destruction of Rosecrans' provision train after the battle of Chickamauga.

On Dec. 30, 1863, General Wheeler attempted and successfully carried out one of the most daring, perilous and important duties ever assigned a cavalry commander. He crossed the Tennessee river in the face of a division of cavalry under General George Crook, drove back and worsted the troops that guarded the Federal trains of 600 mules and 1,000 wagons and captured the whole, with 1,500 prisoners.

While he was thus engaged Rosecrans' cavalry, 8,000 strong, swept down upon the Georgians. The latter charged and repulsed the northerners, capturing the forts and destroying the bridges near Murfreesboro, and then, as full of fight as at the beginning of the engagement, they turned and put to rout General Hooker and the Eleventh and Twelfth corps that came riding down at the moment to reinforce the Yankees. - Chicago Journal.

"Only a Printer."

Some of the World's Greatest Called Themselves Such.

Our Companion.

"He is only a printer." Such was the sneering remark of a leader in a circle of aristocracy the codfish quality. Who was the Earl of Stanhope? He was only a printer. What was Prince Edward William and Prince Napoleon? Proud to call themselves printers. The present Czar of Russia and the Duke of Battenburg are printers, and the Emperor of China worked in a private printing office almost everyday.

William Caxton, the father of English literature, was a practical printer. What were G. P. Morris, N. P. Willis, James Gale, James Parker, Horace Greeley, Charles Dickens, James Buchanan, Simon Cameron, Schuyler Colfax and George W. Childs? Printers, all, and practical ones. Also Bayard Taylor, the poet.

Mark Twain, Amos Cummings, Bret Harte, Opie Reid, Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer and writer, are plain printers, as were Artemus Ward, Bill Nye, Petroleum V. Nasby and Sut Lovingwood. Senator Plumb was a printer, and so is James S. Hogg of Texas, and the leader of the science of philosophy in his days made it his boast that he was a printer.

In fact, thousands of the most brilliant minds in the country are to be found toiling in the publishing houses of large cities and towns. It is not everyone that can be a printer brains are absolutely necessary.

Caleb Powers on Trial.

The second trial A ex-secretary Caleb Powers, as accessory to the murder of Governor Gobel, began the 8th Judge Cantrill read an affidavit, filed by the prisoner's attorneys setting forth "the alleged partisanship of the court, that the Judge is a candidate for Senator and deeply prejudiced against the defendant personally, as well as politically." etc.

Commonwealth's attorney Franklin argued that the affidavit was a mere recitation of the prisoners conclusions and opinion over his alleged inability to get a fair trial. Colonel Campbell delivered a bitter speech against those who thus reflected on the court.

Judge Cantrill refused to vacate the bench, saying the affidavit should have been filed before the judge had taken any action in the case. He refused to discuss the sections of the affidavit which related to himself, but denied that the jury in the former trial had been unfairly chosen.

The defense and the Commonwealth then proceeded with the trial.

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic, and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his reviews of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.

The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and WHITE OAKS EAGLE together for one year for $2.00. The regular subscriptions price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.50.
