MINES IN SOUTH-ERN NEW MEXICO.

New Mineral Discoveries in Dona Ana County.

The New Mexican has the following concerning new mining discoveries in Dona Ana county:

The well which is being driven south of Carlsbad for oil is down 1,500 feet.

A six foot run of ore was struck in the Graphic mine at Magdalena, in Socorro county.

S. T. Bitting and Samuel B. Smith of Carlsbad, Eddy county, are sinking a discovery shaft on their copper claims in a canon branching off from Dark Canon, about two miles west of Thayer's ranch in Eddy county.

E. A. Hershberger has been appointed manager of the new copper mining camp in Caballero canon in Otero County. He has established the camp and will put a number of men to work as soon as the machinery arrives which is expected every day. Air drills will be used. Many claims have been staked in that section.

The Pacific Union Smelting company of San Francisco, is erecting a 50-ton furnace at Lordsburg, Grant county, and will be ready to receive ore by the end of this month. The Lena Mining and Milling company is putting in a 25 ton furnace and a 150 ton concentrator. It will receive ore by the first of November. Lordsburg is rapidly becoming one of the most important mining centers along the Southern Pacific railroad.

There is considerable mining excitement in the Potrillo mountains in southern Dona Ana county. The Bisbee road is to cross these hills and the professional prospector with his pick and grub stake has discerned a future for those mountains. Copper has been found there very rich in value, also gold, silver lead and a fine quality of marble. Old timers of La Mesa, who have spent much of their time and some of their surplus cash in these hills, claim that placer gold exist in them. Judge E. A. Chaffee and Lewis Goodman of Las Cruces, have lately located twenty acres of marble and will organize a company to work the quarry. Citizens of Las Cruces and San Miguel, a small settlement near La Mesa, have located twenty acres of fine marble. Hon. Frank L. Oliver, ex-county commissioner of Dona Ana county, has located several lode claims and is doing considerable development work. John P. Casey and Lewis Goodman have jointly located several good copper prospect.

SCARE AT SILVER CITY.

A dispatch from Silver City to the El Paso Herald Oct. 3rd says: It was reported during the past few days that it was the intention of the smelter trust to shut down the smelter at this point in the near future, but the officials at the works deny that anything of the kind is contemplated. It is a well known fact that the Silver City reduction works have all the ore they can handle and are at the present time working on the erection of a new furnace of two hundred ton capacity per day which is very badly needed to handle the large shipments of to the works from all parts of the southwest. The mining industries of this section have been experiencing a steady and substantial boom for some time and at the present time from the enormous amount of development work which is going on in all parts of south-western New Mexico and especially in Grant county, the output be greater than ever before in the next year.

EVOLUTION AND RELIGION.

During the last forty years the educated world has been quietly adopting a new theory of human origins, and it is now very generally assumed that the descent of man, as Darwin sketched it, must be accepted broadly as the scientific teaching on the subject. Man was evolved, so science would have us believe, like other species of animals, from lower forms of life. His structure is too closely allied to that of other species known to science to permit the idea that he is a separate creation, disconnected from them. As a denizen of the earth, as an animal among animals, science gives him his place in nature, and suggests that his origin, hidden away in the inaccessible distances of the past, may have been reached not by a creative fiat, but by a gradual process. . . . Science has carried the day again; in her cool and imperturbable way, not by fulminations, nor by the inimitable rallery of Huxley, but by the slow accumulation of evidence and the patient study of facts she has won over all who think, and in a few more years, as ever, the unthinking will have followed the thinkers. . . . Christ never based his teaching about man on the story of Adam and Eve; he never referred to those "first parents," as they are called. He never spoke of the Fall. He never uttered a truth which in any way depended upon that reputed fact. We recognize his reverence for Scripture. He knew the law and the prophets by heart, but he carefully avoided the traditional theory of the origin of sin. And as a result of this divine reticence, his teaching, his views of man, of sin, of redemption, remains unaffected by the most remarkable revolution which has ever occurred in the conception of human origins. . . . Man in the process of evolution is the interesting, but visionary, theme of science. Man evolved is the concrete and practical theme of religion. Christianity lets the question of organic origin severely alone. It can accept whatever is proved in that line. Its own task lies in a region which no science can disprove. Christ plants his truth, nay, is himself planted, in that moral and spiritual order. "However, O man, you came to be, what you actually are is a being that can stand in relation of sonship to God." That is Christ's ground of appeal. As himself the Son of God, revealed in the fullness of time, i. e., in the evolutionary course of history, he appears among men, to bring them to their Father. If he had advanced Darwin's theory to nineteen centuries ago he would not have accomplished that object; but the accomplishment of his object is not, and cannot be, affected by the theory which modern science for the moment favors.—R. F. Horton, D. D., in London Christian World.

GUADALUPE OIL FIELDS.

Three carloads of well-boring machinery came in from Los Angeles, Cal., last night and will at once be loaded onto wagons and taken down to the Guadalupe county oil fields belonging to the Consolidated Oil and Fuel Co., of which S. H. Newman is the authorized representative in dealing with the public.—Optic.

PECOS VALLEY WOOL.

J. F. Matheson of Carlsbad has purchased about 100,000 pounds of wool for the fall and winter run of the scouring mill, the principal clips coming from the Turk, Hon. Mayers, and Brudenell flocks.

NEW MEXICO RANGES.

They Will Save the Cattle of Kansas and Missouri This Winter.

(Rocky Mountain News.)

The eye alike of the cattle speculator and the legitimate stockman is now closely and significantly scrutinizing the cattle situation in Missouri and Kansas.

In both of these regions there is practically no winter feed for stock, corn being a failure and hay short and scarce a drouth condition which has pulled the price of cattle down from $15 to $25 to from $7 to $12 per head. All of the big stock shipping centers are cattle congested, the farmers anxiously seeking sale for stock they can not winter.

It is estimated that in these two states hundreds of thousands of cattle will be thrown upon an ever falling market by the time snow fairly flies. There exists, however, a partial remedy for the Missouri and Kansas farmer and big money for cattle buyers in the magnificent New Mexican range grass crop of this season. From Trinidad, Colo., along the line of the Santa Fe railroad to the Texas state line is enough grass to winter feed and fatten ten times the number of cattle contained in Missouri and Kansas. If, therefore, the Santa Fe railroad would grant what is known as "starvation stock rates" and thus allow the shipment of these now cheap cattle to New Mexican grazing grounds at an average transportation cost of $4.50 per head, a market would at once be opened whereby the Missouri and Kansas farmer would escape the total stock loss; the cattle buyer reap large profits next year, the Santa Fe railroad do from $500,000 to $1,000,000 of new business, and a more or less permanent stocking of New Mexican ranges with excellent cattle grades be inexpensively achieved.

WILL MAKE BRICK

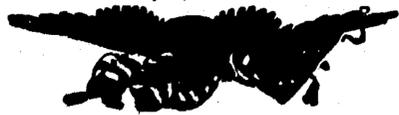

OF WHITE SANDS.

A company has been organized at El Paso to make brick from the white sands of Otero county. Tests at El Paso have given a fine quality of white brick almost as hard as marble. Thus the industries of Southwest New Mexico increase. Let the good work go on.

The Las Vegas Optic never fails to notice suggestions from whatever quarter dealing with questions of social or governmental reform. STATEHOODERS LUKEWARM.

Pie Patriots Loath to Surrender Their Places at the Public Till.

Special to the El Paso Herald.

Albuquerque, Oct. 3.—Delegate B. S. Rodey has returned from Santa Fe where he spent several days with the leaders of the administration discussing the statehood convention and the appointment of postmasters and other officials. The administration leaders were lukewarm about the statehood convention but when it came to discussing the division of pie they were alert. Mr. Rodey and J. S. Duncan decided finally that the postoffice at East Las Vegas is to go to F. O. Blood, formerly of San Marcial, and for a time business manager of the Las Vegas Record. Some other place is to be found for his strongest opponent. As to the Santa Fe postoffice Mr. Rodey lent his ear to the opposition to Postmaster Simon Nusbaum who promised to accede to the wishes of the administration when it comes to filling the place next year and thus far Postmaster Nusbaum has the administration with him. Some difficulty has arisen over the postmastership at Las Cruces. Rodey is disposed to favor Papen but there are some members of the administration who would prefer to see some other man appointed. The postoffice at Silver City is also an apple of discord. The federal receivership at Santa Fe, at present held by E. F. Hobart, is wanted by Major Fred Muller, of Rough Rider fame, and he can have it if he promises to forswear allegiance to T. B. Catron and come over solidly to the Otero crowd. There are other strong applicants for the place however, but this much is certain, that Hobart will not be endorsed for reappointment for he has proved himself too close when it came to political matters. The administration only half trusts Rodey who is said to still have a warm spot for the man who nominated him for delegate the Hon. T. B. Catron.

REGISTERS A KICK.

A Taxpayer Thinks the Commissioners Exceeded Their Authority.

Editor CAPITAN PROGRESS:

If you will permit me space in your paper to make a few statements in regard to our Board of County Commissioners, I submit the following to the residents and taxpayers of Lincoln county.

In the first place, the Honorable Board has been looking for "something to do" and they have finally succeeded. They have stepped into the shoes of the governor and have pardoned a man who was sentenced to jail under the road laws of 1901, in order to save the taxpayers the enormous sum of $15.00, his board bill. They have given the sheriff to understand that if he would kick out prisoners who were sentenced by the district court and let them go it would be all right. This is a direct stab at justice and encouragement to criminals and those who will not work and who get their living by preying upon others.

If the taxpayers could see the bond and specifications of the contract for the court house repairs they could have some idea of how the Honorable board is looking after the interests of the taxpayers and "saving expenses."

It is high time for the district court to have the Honorable Board account for its doings and show where it got its authority to act as governor, district judge or in whatever other capacity it saw fit to stretch its authority.

Yours respectfully,

L. B. WALTERS,

J. P. Precinct No. 1.

It is much to be regretted that such stuff as the foregoing should get into print. While Mr. Walters has his grievances the same as other people, he should not charge a board of county commissioners with impossible action as he has done in the matter of pardoning a prisoner. The pardoning power is outside the province of a county officer and certainly nobody has been pardoned by the board of commissioners. And again the board could not afford to lay themselves criminally liable by advising a sheriff to disobey the orders of the district court.

As to the bond and specifications for contract for court house repair, both bond and specifications should be on exhibition subject to the examination of any taxpayer who desires to see them, and it is very doubtful if any member of the board or either of the firm of contractors would object to showing them to anybody.

This criticism is made with due deference to Mr. Walters opinion in the matter, but we certainly think he is mistaken in the charges against the commissioners, who have always acted in a spirit of the greatest fairness and executive judgment in all matters pertaining to the affairs of the county and the welfare of its people. It is a mistake to rush into print with a personal grievance and it is hard to retract a statement in cold type.

EDITOR AHEAD AS YET.

Editor Wharton of the White Oaks EAGLE is more than holding his own in the statehood controversy with Delegate Rodey, formerly of Canada.—El Paso Daily News.

Paul Kruger, the Grand Old Man of the Transvaal, is failing rapidly and must soon surrender his beloved land to a successor to govern. Death would have no terror for this famous old patriot if he could see his country rid of England's tyranny before the hour of dissolution is upon him.

Dr. H. G. Miller has gone to Carrizozo ranch to spend a few days of rest and recuperation.

W. J. Henley, Sr. and Chas. Henley, his son, were in the city Monday looking after legal matters.

A. Schinzing returned from Lincoln yesterday where he went to look after business before the commissioners.

Dr. J. F. Mains was called to Chicago by telegram this week on business matters of importance. He will be away a week or so.

Jas. M. Simms and Will White have gone to Oscura Mountains near Estey City to do annual assessments for Ziegler Bros., Doherty, Simms and Wharton.

Mr. and Mrs. Crary have returned from Estey City. Mr. H. visited the Burro and San Andres districts while away and says those camps must soon attract more attention among mining men and prospectors.

MINES AND RANCHES SOLD.

J. O. Nabours Makes An Important Deal.

J. O. Nabours, the prominent Oscura ranchman, has just closed a deal with eastern capitalists that will probably result in the greatest financial enterprise of his life. He has sold a two thirds interest in his group of mines in the Oscura and Burro districts, also a two thirds interest in his Oscura ranches and his herds, he remaining manager of the ranches at a good salary. The deal was made through D. M. Estey of the Estey Mining & Milling company, and the New Mexico headquarters of the new syndicate will be at the new town of Estey City. The ranches are to be immediately stocked with graded cattle, and the mines are to be opened as soon as process of treating the ore is available.

Mr. Nabours is well known to many EAGLE readers and they will no doubt all be pleased to learn of his well merited success.

Dr. J. K. Bishop, dentist, who has been practicing his profession here the past year will go to Roswell where he intends locating for the purpose of practicing his profession. Dr. Bishop is an artist in his line and White Oaks will regret to lose him.

District court commenced at Carlsbad, Eddy county Monday, the 7th. Col. G. W. Prichard, District Attorney left for that point last week. The regular term begins at Roswell, Chaves county the 21st inst. and at Lincoln, this county, Monday Nov. 4th.

Dr. Miller will preach at Plymouth church Sunday, Oct. 13. Subject at the morning service will be, "Whence? and the mission of the discourager;" in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, "A great opportunity, or Paul's reason for remaining at Ephesus." Everybody welcome. Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

Postmaster John A. Brown presented the editor with a number of October peaches grown in his yard, this year, that can not be equalled any where except in New Mexico. They are a third larger than the eastern variety. They are well rounded, a beautiful yellow with a tinge of red on the sunny side, juicy and the flavor is par excellence.

The lecture by Dr. Miller for Tuesday night of this week was postponed until next Tuesday night Oct. 15th. The subject is "Cleopatra, or the great woman and queen of paganism." Of late years the character of this wonderful woman has been portrayed by the great queens of histrionic art, Sarah Bernhardt, Fanny Davenport, Maud Adams and Ellen Terry.

PROSPEROUS NEW MEXICO.

During the year ending December 31, 1901 there will have been actually constructed in New Mexico between 500 and 600 miles of railways. The outlook for the year 1902 is still brighter. A great portion of these railways is through country that is rich in the precious and useful metals and several new mining camps have been located during the past nine months and many more will be located during the coming year owing to these railroad extensions. Railroad building and new mining operations go hand in hand in New Mexico, one industry benefiting the other. There are mountains and mountains of low grade ores in the territory, that will become available and yield richly with cheap transportation. New Mexico is coming rapidly to the front and no mistake about it. New Mexican. Still the New Mexican is always kicking because nobody will invest in a territory. Statehood argument, that.

ROOSEVELT AND THE SOUTH.

Political circles in Washington are interested in a statement that President Roosevelt is contemplating a radical departure in the matter of Southern patronage. It appears that several months ago the then vice president had a long talk with Booker T. Washington in regard to prevailing conditions in the South—political, industrial and social. A few days ago President Roosevelt summoned Mr. Washington to the White house and renewed the conversation, seeking the advice of the Southern negro leader as to what was best for the negro, the South and the nation. Mr. Washington is said to have informed the president that the so-called Republican party in the South was composed of men devoid of character, standing or influence; that they were mere patronage dispensers who claimed to control the negro vote but used it as a tool, doing nothing for the advancement of the colored race, and that the best thing that the president could do for the South as a whole, and for the colored race, was to cut loose from these trafficking, politicians and give his appointments to men of character and standing, regardless of their politics. It is said that the president leans strongly on the direction of this advice. It is also intimated that the late President McKinley was of the same mind, but had been prevented from taking any direct steps by certain pledges in the line of "practical politics" made for him during the convention and campaign of 1896. No such pledges hamper the new president, and he is free to enter upon any changes in Southern appointments that he deems wise. He could have no better certificate of character for his administration than to bring down on it the criticism of the gang of disreputable traders which constitutes the managing machines of the Republican party of the South.—Denver News.

THREE TO FIVE THOUSAND NECESSARY.

General Corbin who has just returned from the Philippines says that Military control will be necessary yet for five to seven years. It is his opinion that there will be little or no colonization from this country and advises that no one should go there to make money who does not possess from $3000 to $5000. The lumber industry he says will never become a great one in the archipelago.

PRESERVATION OF RAILROAD TIES.

Of a number of creosoted beech ties laid in the roadbeds of two Alsace-Lorraine railroads in 1868, about eighty-six per cent, were in use in 1897. In another German district only thirteen per cent, had to be renewed after thirty years service; these were treated with a mixture of creosote and zinc chloride.

NABOUR'S RANCH SOLD.

It is announced from El Paso, Texas, that the large ranch near Estey City, N. M., will pass into the hands of a Boston syndicate. The company was represented in the deal by G. Pray Smith, of Boston, and J. M. Bryson, of Battle Creek, Mich. The new owners will take charge of the ranch at once. This is a very large and valuable property located in the Tularosa valley at the foot hills of the Oscura mountains and extends a distance of twenty miles along the river. The ranch is only a short distance north of Major Fewels' ranch and consists of $5,000 acres of patented land under fence with an unlimited amount of outside pasturage. The fencing of this large tract of land cost $50,000. There are at present about 500 head of cattle on the ranch, but the company will soon stock it with 2,000 head of thoroughbred cattle, it being their object to make it a thoroughbred ranch.

EL PASO MID-WINTER CARNIVAL.

El Paso is preparing for another great Mid-winter Carnival to be given January 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1902. This will be the second annual event, and will be the greatest entertainment ever given in the southwest.

The "sunshine in January" that so delighted the thousands of visitors in El Paso last year will take thousands more there and the coming event is expected to surpass anything ever given in the southwest, you can get a glimpse of Mexico at El Paso and this, with the Mexican bull fights, is something that other cities can not afford. To see the ancient city of Juarez Mexico is worth the expense of the trip and since the railroads have promised a very low rate from everywhere thousands will attend, there will be a miners' convention, medical and teachers' conventions, the largest cattle exhibition ever given in Texas, besides the regular program.

El Paso is a famous town and has become famous as an entertainer and at the coming Mid-Winter-Carnival the border metropolis promises the most extravagant free show, fiesta and general jubilee ever seen between New Orleans and Los Angeles. The Carnival association is now preparing the program, which will be published soon.

ORDER TERRITORIAL BOARD EQUALIZATION

Raise of 10 per Centum on All Real Estate and Stocks Of Merchandise In Incorporated Towns, and 15 per Centum on Stocks of Merchandise Outside Incorporated Towns.

The following is an exact copy of the order sent out to collectors and treasurers of the respective counties:

"It appearing to the Board from the assessment rolls furnished to it by the Territorial Auditor from the different counties in the Territory, that the scale of valuation of real estate and improvements therein situated in incorporated cities, towns and villages, and upon the stocks of merchandise therein, has not been made with reasonable uniformity as compared with the amount of other classes of property by the different county assessors of said counties. Now, therefore, this board, in order to adjust and equalize the said assessment as the same appear upon the assessment rolls of each county in the Territory to the uniform amount of ten per cent in addition of the present assessment on real estate and improvements thereon and merchandise situated within the limits of all incorporated cities, towns and villages, and it is further ordered that all stocks of merchandise upon the assessment rolls of each and every county in the Territory situated outside of the limit of incorporated city, town or village, be and the same is hereby raised to the amount of 15 per cent of the present assessed value thereof, the same to be added to the present assessment as to the same appear upon the assessment rolls of the several counties of this Territory for the purpose of adjusting and equalizing the assessment rolls of said counties, so that the same will be of uniform value throughout the Territory. The Territorial auditor is hereby directed to send certified copies of this order to the different county collectors in the various counties of the Territory.

I hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of the proceedings of the Board of Equalization.

W. G. SARGENT,
Territorial Auditor"

Jas. Reed has a number of fruit trees in his yard that are hanging full of ripening fruit that is as pretty as nature's painter can make it. This community would be full of orchards if water could be had for irrigation.

There was a large and attentive audience at Plymouth church last Sunday night, who spent a very profitable evening listening to the poems of home and childhood by Eugene Field, as read by Mrs. Tuttle. Dr. Miller interspersed the reading by remarks about the Poet and his character and the poem that was read. Miss Kitty Buford sang his "Little Boy Blue" very effectively. The service brought back the days of childhood and home and mother; those days which are still sweet and helpful to us all.

MODERN WARFARE.

The English Nation Only Training in An Up-To-Date Way.

The Journal Democrat says: Newspapers correspondents who learned in South Africa the potency of modern rifles and cannon and the uselessness of lances, swords and bayonets have been scandalized during the recent army maneuvers in France and Germany at seeing attacking armies march forward in close array within distances that are perfectly impossible. Lord Roberts has stated that the Mauser rifle is efficient within one and one-half miles and the modern cannon within six miles. Yet the attackers in both the French and the German maneuvers advanced serenely within 400 or 500 yards distances which should have led the umpire to pronounce the whole body of assailants dead. Boer defenders at that distance would have filled the whole lot of them with lead. The French and German officers made frontal attacks in close order, neglected cover and committed all the tactical and strategic sins which the British in South Africa now try to avoid.

The continental armies have not, in fact, learned the lesson of the South African war their practice is far behind their equipment. The English army, it is claimed, is the only army in the world that is now training in an up-to-date way. At Aldershot recently, during maneuvers, the attackers had to confront moving dummies that hopped up and down behind breastworks, moving batteries and moving armored trains while bogus shells exploded under their feet, forcing them to take cover. Real conditions were fairly well reproduced. The old style of fighting in which your enemy in dense masses shows himself bravely—comes up to you with gleaming bayonets, drums beating and colors flying—is obsolete. Hereafter the business will be finished, as a rule, while the combatants are a mile apart and individuals are hardly distinguishable.

THE BIBLE AND THE NEWSPAPERS

It seems strange that some people are so ignorant as not to know that the system of Bible chronology as it appears in the text was compiled by Archbishop Usher in the latter part of the seventeenth century. It was placed in the Bible margin for convenience, but never with a thought of its being considered authoritative. It has no more divine sanction than the maps which have been published in Bibles. It has whatever weight its own accuracy gives it and nothing more. This explanation would hardly seem to be necessary, but it is. Some of the daily papers in Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, etc.—papers well known and of great reputation—have opened up their batteries on the Pilgrim Quarrelies mainly for declaring that the Bible chronology by Archbishop Usher is "absolutely worthless."

These papers call this "a new departure." It is—to them. It is not new, however, to the veriest tyro in the Sunday school. For years the Pilgrim Series has taught that the Bible chronology is unreliable, that the story of creation is not intended to be scientifically accurate in its statements, that the story of the fall is looked upon by some as literal, by others as allegorical, etc. It is a pity that in religious matters so many of the secular papers can not speak without blundering. They are up to date in many things. They never would send a reporter to a baseball or football match unless he were familiar with every detail of the game. Without any trouble they could lay their hands on a man to report a prize fight. But when it comes to Biblical or ecclesiastical matters it is pitiful to see them mistake an innocent, well-known truth for a heresy.—X.

SLAUGHTERED AND BURNED.

Forty-five American Soldiers Slaughtered and Horribly Mutilated by Filipinos

Manila, Oct. 2.—The latest advice from the island of Samar give horrowing details of the slaughter of the members of company C. Ninth infantry, last Saturday at Balangiga. It states that the presidente of the town, claiming to be friendly, led the assault in person.

On hearing of the slaughter, Colonel Isaac D. DeRussy of the Eleventh infantry started for the scene immediately with a battalion. The body of Captain Connel had been tied at the heels, saturated with kerosene and partly burned. Forty-five bodies have been buried in a trench, leaving seven unaccounted for. The charred remains of many were recovered. In numerous instances the bodies had been badly mutilated. Three hundred Macabees will also be dispatched to the scene of the massacre on board the Legashi, which is delayed by a typhoon.

these papers is largely in excess of the clubbing rate given above, and any one desiring to secure two papers (the EAGLE and any one of the others named) for a little more than the price of one should take advantage of this liberal offer.

THE COMMONER.

[Mr. BRYAN'S PAPER.]

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic, and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his reviews of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.

The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and WHITE OAKS EAGLE together for one year for $2.00. The regular subscriptions price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.50.
