MANILA THE WORLD'S BEST GOVERNED CITY.

U. S. CONSTRUCTIVE COLONIZATION.

U. S. Senator Beveridge Says the Police Government of the Philippine Capital Surpasses St. Petersburg, Berlin or that of any American City.

The following declaration from United States Senator, Albert J. Beveridge, in the Saturday Evening Post, of Nov. 16, will be of interest to those who are acquainted with George Curry, formerly sheriff of this county, and who is now Chief of Police of Manila, the capital of the Philippine Islands; and also to those of the EAGLE's readers acquainted with Joseph Keith, who is one of Mr. Curry's staff officers. In the Senator's discourse on constructive cononization he says:

"Constructive colonization has always acted as an improvement on the conditions of the country from which the colonizers come. So it is that the regeneration of Calcutta and Bombay sowed the seeds of the regeneration of Birmingham and Glasgow. So it is that renovated Manila will send back many an American ashamed of the condition of his own town. So it is that the police force of the capital of the Philippines, unsurpassed in appearance, efficiency and discipline in the world, will have an inspiring effect upon the guardians of order throughout the United States. For the American police of Manila, in appearance, equipment, discipline, manner and efficiency, are not equaled by the police of St. Petersburg or Berlin, not equaled by the guardians of the law in any American city, and would probably be selected in a competitive review of the world's constabulary as the finest body of men of the kind in existence."

STOCK NEWS.

The Littlefield Cattle Co. is breeding both Hereford and Shorthorn stock for a grading of their immense herd of 60,000 head of open range cattle.

J. J. Hagerman has a tract of 15,000 acres near Roswell, in alfalfa and expects to be able to fatten and market about 8,000 head of young beef cattle therefrom.

The Slaughter Hereford Home farm has now, 1,200 head of superb Herefords, the males including the celebrated Ancient Briton and the Duke of Bredwell, the latter animal costing Mr. Slaughter $5,000.

R. F. Barnett sold a carload of good young cow horses to George Slaughter this week at private terms. Mr. Slaughter will winter them on the alfalfa ranch and take them to the Panhandle ranch in the spring.

Al Garrett shipped four cars of mutton sheep to Kansas City last Tuesday evening. Mr. Garrett says his ranch is so situated that he can ship as well over the Rock Island as the Santa Fe and expects to try the new line with his next shipment.

Charles Ilfeld, of Las Vegas, delivered 10,000 mutton sheep to Hamilton & Brown of Midland, last Sunday, the transfer being made at Al Garrett's ranch, northwest of town. It was the intention of the new owners to ship the sheep to Kansas City by the Santa Fe, but owing to the experience of some other shippers in getting cars, they were started to Midland, Texas, overland and will be shipped from there by the Texas & Pacific.—Record.

DAY--BONNY COPPER CAMP.

This Trans-Pecos Eldorado is East and Near the Pecos River--Shipments Now Begginig.

Among other happenings in the new camp the Roswell Record says:

"Captain Sansom, the Woodruffs and J. H. Carper have a group of claims and some of these gentlemen left with the Hallam-Skipwith party on Monday while the remainder left on Tuesday. They will have a force of men at work for the next month.

Blaine Richey and the Hamilton Bros. established a camp at the "diggins" Monday and may continue work indefinitely.

Day & Bonny have two carloads of ore on the dump and expect to ship the initial car in a few days.

There is no question but there is some high grade ore in that locality. The assays run from $40 to $100 per ton from the surface croppings.

W. S. Peters has received a shipment of machinery, including hoist, trackage, buckets etc., for the development of his Jicarilla property. Freighters took it out, Saturday.

KELLEY'S DREAM.

Taken By a Court Stenographer from a Recital, delivered at An Impromptu Banquet, In Lincoln, Last Week.

Last night I was invited, by an honest friend of mine To partake of a little supper, and drink some beer and wine. We had our lobster salad; we drank our wine and beer; Till I had a dizziness in my head, and an awful fulness here.

I bade my host good night, went home and went to bed, And confidentially,—I dreamt that I was dead. I saw the day for repentance had now forever gone; I saw an angel far above, as I was beckoned on and on. I went on with a person who had on roller skates, And very soon she ushered me, before the Golden Gates.

Old St. Peter was there, and I asked if I might come in; He says, oh, no, for you are accused of that gluttonous sin. I said no more, but walked away with my head bowed down with shame, And St. Peter's clerk, who sat close by, wrote "Lost" beneath my name.

The next who came, was a Frenchman; born in gay Patee, Who from drinking gin and absinthe, was a piteous sight to see;

And he said "Ze Petey, Ze Petey, one great wrong I never could do,

I gets no monee on ze earth, so I comes up here to you.

I used to live in ze Canada; one grand, magnificent living I tried;

I failed—so in ze St. Lawrence river, I commit ze suicide."

"Well," says old St. Peter, "your chances are but small; I might have overlooked the suicide, but from Canada, that settles all,"

So the Frenchman, saw St. Peter, had his case down most too fine;

So just like myself, he, too, got along in line.

The next case was a Dago, who when he was alive, Sold very bad bananas, as many as twelve for five.

And he said: "De Gooda, De Fatha, De Peta, I gota up here to you;

I gota de monk and the organ, an I maka de plenta de mon. I been-a one gooda de man; I no-a de lie or de steal; Nor, on-a de sidewalk I no-a trow-a the banana peel."

"Oh, no," says Old St. Peter; "your gains were ill-gotten; Your peanut shucks were empty, your bananas often rotten; So get the gone, Italian; why comest thou to me?

You served the devil, while on earth—go see if he'll serve thee."

So the Italian saw St. Peter, had his case down just to a nine, So just like the Frenchman and myself, he, too, got along in line.

Next came an ancient damsel, a marching down the aisle, And she saluted St. Peter, with a very gracious smile.

And she says: "Goodness, gracious Peter, here I am after gossiping all these years;

I know you'll let me in—of that I have no fears;

So get me a pair of your golden wings, and a crown and a shield, and then

I'll not be afraid, as I was on earth, of those naughty, naughty, men."

"Oh, no," says old St. Peter, "no angels wear false hair;

And you've got no sons nor daughters, you'd be a stranger there.

So the ancient damsel saw for ere and ere, she'd have to repine,

So just like all the rest of, she, too, got along in line.

The next came an ancient darkey, and he says:

"Good Mass Peter, hyer I is; I know you'll not despise me kaze I'ze black,

For I've sung your songs, and hummed your hums, for many a long year back.

I'ze been in heaps of trouble, I'ze been through care and strife,

And I doan believe as how I eber, stole a chicken in all my life."

KELLEY'S DREAM.

"Oh, no," says St. Peter, "you never repented 'till you were about to die,
And you never stole a chicken, when the chickens were roosting high."
So the darkey saw that in heaven, as a light he'd never shine,
So he added all his blackness, to the tail end of our line.
The next one was a sheeny, with a satchel in his hand,
And right in front of St. Peter, he boldly took his stand.
And he says: "Avansky, gazandy, Peter, I tell you what I'll do,
I've got diamonds fit for the angels, and I'll auction them off to you.
I won't sell them on the installment plan, for that would be a sin.
But I'll let you have them for half price, if you'll only let me in.
I used to run a cloding store, my goods were neat and strong,
And for you I had an overcoat, but I forgot to bring it along."
"Well," says St. Peter, "you must surely know,
That you'll have no use for on overcoat, where you're about to go."
So the sheeny saw out of St. Peter, he couldn't make a dime,
So just like all the rest of us, he, too, got along in line.
The last that came, was the best you ever saw; a son of Erin's Isle,
And he saluted St. Peter, with a very dizzy smile.
And he says: "Well, well, Peter, but shure you do look swate,
Now just have your head clerk there, show me over to me sate.
"Oh, no," says St. Peter, "your case must first be tried,
And you must show your passport, before you get inside."
"Well, well, hurry up then, or for supper I'll be late."
And purposely he threw his old slouch hat, inside the Golden Gate.
"Go get your hat," says Peter, "you sacreligious lout."
And Pat stepped inside the gate, and locked St. Peter out.
Then through the keyhole, loud he cried, "I'm master here," says he,
"But I'll Give Up Heaven, Kays and All,
If You'll 'SET OULD OIRELAND FREE.'"

New Method of Cattle Stealing.

Last week the Standard reproduced an article from the Kansas City Star, headed 'The Rustler is Gone By.' The author of the article was conceded an authority on the subject, but it is evident, from a kind of rustling that has been discovered in these parts, that he is unacquainted with up-to-date methods of cattle stealing. One of the most prominent ranchmen in this section was telling a Standard reporter of "the latest" methods of bovine pilferers, which he found to be practiced in his pasture. The method was simply one to gradually get a herd of steer yearlings and was worked in the following manner: Sucking calves would be cut and ear marked in the mark of the legitimate owner and thus allowed to go with their mammys until weaning time, when the calves would be swiped, the ear marks changed and the thief's brand put on them. Naturally, when the time came to brand the calves on the ranch, the employees, seeing that a calf bore the ear marks of the ranch, would take no further particular notice, assuming that the calves had been branded and cut. The thief would keep tab on events and proceed as hereinbefore stated.

It behooves our stockmen to keep on the lookout, for the "rustling" business which has been kept down pretty well for some six years in this section, thanks to the Cattle Raisers Association's efforts and those of its vigilant representatives, bids to enjoy a revival.—Roswell Record.

White Oaks EAGLE,

Dear Editor:—I notice in your issue of October 17, a quotation from the El Paso News, the value of a ton of gold, in which I notice an error in pointing off the multiplication of 14,000,000 gr. (correct) by $0.043066322 (correct) equals $602,928.508 instead of $6,029,285.08.

As most readers would accept the statement as correct without verifying it, I thought I would call your attention to the fact.

Very truly,
A Reader.

The famous compromise case is to come up for trial at Socorro, during the U. S. term, which convened there on the 25th inst.

Walker Hyde called at camp yesterday.

N. O. Rowland is a business visitor at Carrizozo, today.

Ed. Homan and S. S. Doak, were Nogal visitors, Sunday.

Manager Doak was a business visitor to White Oaks, Sunday.

E. L. Chase, spent Sunday with his family in White Oaks.

Nothing New in mining at this camp. The work on the Ia. and N. M. M. and M. Co. property is progressing nicely.

Rich Hust went home Saturday and did not get back until Monday noon, on account of being sick. We are glad he is back and O. K. again.

Wm. Hust has left us. Sorry to lose Will. We understand he is going to work for a widow. Some of Will's friends should look after him a little.

Ed. Homan, of the Nasby at Nogal is with us looking after the work on the "Flower Girl." Ed. is a regular sailor to climb out of the shaft on a rope. Ask him about it.

We cannot understand why the R. R. or S. W. Mer. Co. do not get a P. O. established at Carrizozo. We presume they are there to do business, and this would certainly add to their business.

The annual meeting of the stock holders of the Ia. and N. M. M. and M. Co. will be held at Nogal, Dec. 10th, 1901. We expect ten or twelve prominent business men from Des Moines, Waterloo and Webster City, Iowa, will attend the meeting.

Nogal is looking up. They have actually repaired and fixed the church so it is quite comfortable. The writer attended church before and after, and knows whereof he speaks. That is not all; they have school with Miss Jackson, of Estey city in charge, who I understand is giving good satisfaction.

Thanksgiving Service.

We have arranged to have a Union Thanksgiving service at Methodist church, Thursday at 11 a. m. The choir has some special music for the occasion and we hope to make it a profitable and interesting service. All are most cordially invited to attend. S. B. Allison, P. C.

A reception will be given to Dr. Miller by the Y. P. S. C. E. on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3rd, at eight o'clock, at the Congregational church. A literary and musical program is being prepared, and a pleasant evening is planned for. The society extends a most cordial welcome to all.

A. C. Storms, sold a mining claim on Eagle Creek, to W. N. Hightower, consideration $800.

Prof. Bradford, bought 24 head of stock cattle, from Dave Cramer, here last week, paying him $23.75 each.

Court is over, and those serving as jurors, witnesses etc., have returned home and have assumed their various domestic duties.

W. N. Hightower sold, this week, a one third interest in one of his Eagle Creek mining claims to a Mr. Garst, for $1,000. He also purchased mining interests from Thomas West to the extent of $300.

I beg to apologize to the court, and juryman in the Louis Vega case, as after I wrote the article, two weeks ago, I had a chance to serve under Judge McMillan, as juryman, for four days in the Hall murder case, and I found that Judge McMillan is as fair in his rulings as I have ever seen in my life. He certainly does use great judgment in his rulings for both sides, and seems fair and impartial. I have but one complaint to make, and that is the miserable quarters assigned to the use of the juryman. The room was small and ventilation very imperfect. Many of us came home with heavy colds and might have been brought down by pneumonia.

Leslie Ellis and family are up from Lincoln to spend Thanksgiving with relatives. Mrs. Ellis and the children will stay until after Christmas.

The governor and his henchmen will busy themselves during the next two months trying to convince President Roosevelt that the territory of New Mexico is well governed. Big job.

Major Llewellyn says that he is not a candidate for collector of customs at El Paso and gives for his reason for so declining that his office of district attorney is a better paying position than that of collector of customs.

The defeat of Tammany has caused little grief among the democracy of the country, as the rank and file of democracy is opposed to machine politics in every form and character, and that they were convinced that Tammany's rule was corrupt was shown by the cast of ballots.

The EAGLE office force will take a holiday from today noon to noon tomorrow. The EAGLE has never missed an issue since the paper was founded and has had few holidays, so if you don't find us at headquarters from today noon to 12 o'clock tomorrow, don't be uneasy as we will be on deck at the time stated and give the news for the following week.

There is a little more than $90,000,000 deposited in the banks of the state of Kansas. According to bank statistics, and the assessors returns, a little more than $3,000,000. Who pays the taxes? This is at the rate of 21 in 516 returned for taxation. Suppose the farmer should return one horse or one cow for each 26 head owned. Kansas would be volcanic and the farmer would even be condemned from the pulpit. No wonder socialism is rampant in Kansas.

Judge Parker pretty well cleaned up the docket for Otero county. Only one prisoner left in jail.

The Chinese exclusion law is now a thing of the past and the almond-eyed orientals may flock to America in droves, and may do the "washee" and the "cookee" without molestation.

The New Mexican says truly that the reputable republican newspapers in the territory, without exception, sustain the present territorial administration; some of the respectable democratic papers do so also. Enough said. —Las Vegas Record. Yes plenty considering whence it comes.

Under the Otero administration property has depreciated in value, taxes are almost beyond reach by the masses of the people and there has been an extravagant use of public moneys. There has been no reference in the legislative acts to the interests of the people.—Optic.

Someone has explained the significance of the editorial "we." It may have a variety of meanings. For example, when you read "We expect our wife home today," "we" refers to the editor; "We are a little late with our work," includes the whole office force, even the devil and the towel; in "we are having a boom," the town is meant; "we received over 1,000,000 emigrants last year," embraces the nation; but "we have hog cholera in our midst," means the man who takes our paper and does not pay for it is ill.—X

You must remember that some of your readers have friends, even in White Oaks, and the same readers, at least a majority of them, know that there is no cause for jealousy and that none exists between the citizenship of Capitan and that of White Oaks, they of the one city, rejoicing in the growth and prosperity of the other, your logic to the contrary notwithstanding. And we may add further, that nobody at all is jealous of you—So knock away until your knocker tires, and when you are through look around you and see if you have not knocked yourself hardest of all. Knocker knockles knock

Governor Otero has called a meeting of the county assessors and boards of county commissioners of the territory to assemble in Santa Fe in January, to confer with the territorial board of equalization for the purpose of securing a more equitable rate of taxation. This call of the governor for the purpose stated, is an admission that the machinery of the territorial government is badly out of plumb, and must of a necessity be doctored. Still the republican spokesman and the Governor tell us that the territory is well governed.

For an article in Hearst's Chicago American, criticising the decision of Judge Haney in a gas case and imputing corrupt motives to the court, the managing editor of that paper, Mr. Lawrence, has been sent to jail for forty days on a charge of contempt of court, and the reporter who wrote the article, Mr. Cranfield, for thirty days. The cases against the business manager, and assistant city editor were dismissed. The case against Mr. Hearst and the two cartoonists were continued until they could be brought into court.

The El Paso Foundry and Machine Co., are now shipping smelter machinery to the New Mexico Lead Co., in the San Andres district.—Industrial Record.

G. L. Ulrich has been appointed a member of the McKinley memorial committee and has been instructed to solicit funds for the McKinley monument, from the people of Lincoln county.

The personel of the last Lincoln county grand jury was probably the best we have ever had, and the work the body did was something to be proud of. Fifty-one bills were returned, and nearly all the work brought before the jury disposed of. John H. Canning of this place, was the foreman, and handled his charge, we are told, with great and good judgment.

The EAGLE's special correspondent, from Capitan, last week, evidently believed the Exchange Bank, in some way influenced the grand jury in its report requesting that the treasurer and collector be instructed to deposit the county's funds in some bank. Some bank does not necessarily mean the Exchange Bank of White Oaks, as there are many other banks beside the White Oaks Exchange Bank, who are banking, and could easily come under the head "some bank." The correspondence further states in this connection that Capitan is to have a bank soon, etc. The EAGLE is pleased to hear this good news, as depositors may then be accommodated at home, and not forced to El Paso, Alamogordo, and other places to transact their business. But speaking from my worthy correspondent's view of the matter, suppose when the Capitan bank is started, that the treasurer and collector, refuse to put the county's money on deposit there? What shall we do with him then? Hang him?

Correspondence.

Mr. Editor:—I will tell you a little about our knotch in the mountains at Estey City, and it looks as if they had made the right selection and if they guessed at the location they hit it pretty well, as the Estey company now has twenty miners at work taking out ore, and seem to have commenced in earnest this week. They are uncovering great beds of ore that seem to lie from a few inches to a few feet under the surface. The company intends to commence this week to put ore into the bins. The Sunflower Copper Mining Co. has over one-thousand tons of ore uncovered and ready to deliver. The Larned, Kansas, Co., that owns a large number of mines in this district, are ready to commence delivering their ore as soon as wanted.

I. R. Cox, who represents the great San Antonio Co., is ready to make a contract to deliver twenty thousand tons of ore as soon as his company says the word: so it looks as if the company here needed even a larger plant than they now have. The people thought they were building it large but it looks as if they would not be able to treat half the ore offered. There is a great opportunity here to lease mines on a very profitable basis for the miners, paying a very small percent for the mines, giving the balance to the miners for taking out and delivering the ore. The company is even offering to buy the ore of the leasers at the mines. Watch the progress of our city on the mountainside.

A. S. Mayes is erecting a commodious meat market and expects soon to be doing a very nice business.

J. M. Bryson, the hustling mining broker, is building a large double office. He is so pleased with Estey City that he intends to make it his permanent residence, and he is ready to handle any good mine that is offered. He has bought over forty mines and prospects the last few months and says that he will look well after any business left in his charge, in this part of New Mexico. Mr. Bryson expects his wife and little daughter, Nona, here at an early date, and we think that they will be so pleased with our little city and the climate as to remain permanent residents.

W. W. Worcester who runs the Estey Hotel, is full of business and he wishes now to double the room he has. He is giving excellent satisfaction. The arrival of the Worcester family to our camp was a great blessing. The whole family are workers.

Mrs. D. W. Roberts, Sr., is away for a few doys, visiting friends. Her genial company is greatly missed. Capt. Roberts is faithfully looking after the company store, and the business is constantly on the increase.

Rev. E. R. Ball preached an eloquent sermon last Sabbath on the subject of death, and handled his subject in a very masterly way, and all of his hearers were much interested. Our Sunday School is progressing finely and is increasing in number and we have about sixty dollars in the treasury. The loving little daughters of I. R. Cox sing a song for the school every Sunday in a pleasing manner, and they receive a great deal of praise from all who hear them. Very soon now, we are going to ask for a nice little church with a good bell in the steeple. We have just submitted the necessary papers for the completion of the organization of the school board for our city and precinct, and we expect to have a school house erected within the next thirty days. We have nearly forty children in our district.

J. O. Nabours calls often at our camp and seems to be as happy as a lark, as he expects soon to add at least a thousand head of cattle to his present stock as well as from four to five thousand Angora goats. G. Pray and Rossie Smith and J. M. Bryson have taken an interest with him and Mr. Nabours is planning to make his ranch the leading high grade stock ranch in the territory.

Our precinct is now an established fact and we have it legally organized. J. C. Bender has been elected justice of the peace. J. H. Tweed, the deputy sheriff of San Marcial, is now a resident of our little city, and is doing all of the company's freighting.

Rossie G. Smith, the jolly, substantial Boston boy, who is looking after the assaying for the company, is as happy as a bee on a fresh flower. He is receiving a great amount of mail and we all wish he would bring his belle of New England to our camp, as she must have some of his genial nature or he would not continue such a deep interest. We will all turn out and have a bee to build Rossie a nice little cabin as soon as he says the word.

Mr. Estey seems to have an eye for the general welfare of all.

A. D. W. Tucker, the expert bookkeeper and accountant, of El Paso, is here arranging the books, and we all wish he could be retained here permanently, as he is a good, genial fellow.

Several more families have arrived in the last few days. C. W. Smith, of Larned, Kansas, spent Sunday in our city with his wife and little children.

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and WHITE OAKS EAGLE together for one year for $2.00. The regular subscriptions price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.50.

The Carnival.

El Paso is preparing for another great Mid-winter Carnival to be given January 14, 15, 16, 17, and 18, 1902. This will be the second annual event, and will be the greatest entertainment ever given in the southwest.

The "sunshine in January" that so delighted the thousands of visitors in El Paso last year will take thousands more there and the coming event is expected to surpass anything ever given in the southwest, you can get a glimpse of Mexico at El Paso and this, with the Mexican bull fights, is something that other cities can not afford. To see the ancient city of Juarez Mexico is worth the expense of the trip and since the railroads have promised a very low rate from everywhere thousands will attend, there will be a miners' convention, medical and teachers' conventions, the largest cattle exhibition ever given in Texas, besides the regular program.

El Paso is a famous town and has become famous as an entertainer and at the coming Mid-Winter-Carnival the border metropolis promises the most extravagant free show, fiesta and general jubilee ever seen between New Orleans and Los Angeles. The Carnival association is now preparing the program, which will be published soon.

IN GOOD TASTE

The man who can go into a store and buy an overcoat or a suit ready to wear, and who uses good taste and judgment in the selection, is better off than one who must depend upon his tailor. He sees how each garment fits. He examines them in general and in detail, and judges of their use in his case. And best of all, he is saving money. If any one doubts the truth of these assertions, let him come to us. We are ready to prove it. The following prices mean a saving on overcoats. If the prices please you, come in and see the garments. They will please you better:

Fine Melton Overcoats, former price, $10 now $7.50. Strictly fine Melton, former price, $12 now $10. Extra fine Cheviot, $15 now $12. Fine Ulsters from $7.50 up.
