WHAT MINING PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT OUR DISTRICT.

Properties of the Eagle and American Companies.

(Mining Reporter.)

Two mining companies, under the same management and having practically the same stockholders, are carrying on extensive operations in this county, where their holdings include several groups of mines which are classed as substantial producers. These are the Eagle Mining and Improvement Company and the American Gold Mining Company, both under the management of John M. Rice, with M. S. Gaylord as general superintendent, both of whom are stockholders. While their several camps are separated from each other by a few miles they are all near the line of the El Paso & Northeastern railroad, in the vicinity of its Capitan branch. The properties of the Eagle M. and I. Company comprise the Old Abe and South Homestake in White Oaks district; the Hopeful in Bonito district and the Rialto in Nogal district. The Old Abe mine was operated for a number of years by a company in which Messrs. Hewitt, Ferguson, Watson and Hoyle were largely interested. These parties sold the property to the Eagle M. and I. Company, but not till they had taken approximately $1,000,000 therefrom. The Old Abe has a vertical shaft 1,375 feet deep, with crosscuts from it to the veins. The main vein is said to be about forty feet wide; the ore therein running an average of $8 per ton. A second vein opened by the same workings ranges two to five feet wide; whose ores are claimed to average $50 per ton. The two veins are parallel and about forty feet apart. The country rock is a granite, quartzite and porphyry, the vein matter being quartz, bearing free gold, which at greater depth carries an iron sulphide which is also rich in gold, partially free. On the property is a twenty-stamp mill which is operated on about fifty tons of ore daily. About 60 per cent of the saving by the mill is made on the amalgam plates, the pulp passing from the plates to Frue vanners. Appliances are being put in here to treat the tailings by pneumatic cyanide process, controlled by the Colorado Iron Works.

The South Homestake, adjoining the Old Abe, has a 680-foot shaft, and is on a different vein, but has the same kind of ore. This property likewise has a twenty-stamp mill, which is being put in working order and being provided with equipment for pneumatic cyanide work. It is expected to be operating soon. The record of production of this mine is said to have reached half a million dollars.

The Hopeful, situated near Parsons, and nine miles from Walnut station on Capitan branch, comprises a group of three claims, the development thereon showing an ore body 300 feet wide, and traceable 4,000 feet between granite walls. The ore is a porphyritic quartz, carrying gold partially free. Development consists of 750 ft of work from a 150-foot shaft. Most of the ore is oxidized, carrying flour gold. A small mill has been erected here, wherein 10,000 tons of ore were milled, from which $37,000 were saved. The tailings carry $3.50 to the ton, which will be cyanided. It is stated that a large crushing and cyanide treatment mill will be erected here, and that an electric power plant will be put in at White Oaks and power transmitted to the Hopeful to operate the mill.

The Rialto, in Nogal district, is 2,000 feet from the Hopeful, but on the opposite side of a high ridge. There are three parallel veins on the Rialto, 300 to 400 feet apart. The first is 335 feet wide, as demonstrated by three crosscuts from three shafts which are 35 to 110 feet deep; the second is said to be 500 feet wide; the third, it is claimed, is 145 feet wide. The ore in the three veins is estimated to average $4 per ton. The plans are to erect a

It is said that the ore here will average $40 per ton. A fifty-stamp mill is being erected. Twenty stamps will be new, the others having been in use there before. This mill is being erected by the Colorado Iron Works and will be equipped for amalgamation and cyanide work. There are 7,000 feet of work on the American and Helen Rae groups. Superintendent M. D. Gaylord of the two companies was in Denver last week having tests made at C. M. Fuller's plant and at Burlingame's to verify conclusions previously arrived at as to treatment methods required. These tests include cyanide treatment for the pneu-cyanide plant in Nogal canon to treat this ore.

The American Gold Mining Company has two properties in the Nogal district—the American and the Helen Rae. The former has a 375-foot shaft, with development therefrom, showing a vein one foot to twelve feet wide between granite and diorite. Ore is being hoisted from No. 2 level at 167 feet depth. On this property is a fifteen-stamp mill, operating on twenty tons of ore per day, the recovery of gold amounting to $40 per ton on the plates. The Helen Rae, having the same vein as the American, is opened by a 900-foot adit level with a winze which sinks sixty-seven feet below the adit. At a higher point a shaft sinks from the surface 220 feet, cutting the adit 700 feet from the entrance.

matic method. Specimens exhibited by Mr. Gaylord of free gold from the Old Abe and other groups were remarkably fine.

Advance in Oil Prices.

Oil is advancing in price very rapidly. A prominent broker in Beaumont offered last week 36c per barrel for 100,000 barrels of crude oil in storage, and agreed to put up a forfeit of $1,000 as a guarantee of good faith. Several reasons may be assigned for the upward tendency in prices of the Beaumont product, prominent among them being the fact that many of the wells on Spindletop are not producing oil because of the fact that they are not connected with pumping machinery, and as the molders in several of the Beaumont machine shops have been out on a strike several weeks, there is no telling when the connection can be made. As a result of the molders' strike much confusion has resulted, notwithstanding the union molders' places were filled at the beginning of the strike with non-union men, but now and then when a piece of machinery is turned out by a non-union molder and sent to the union men to be finished they refuse to handle the output of the non-unionist's skill.—El Paso News.

Hogg Says Beaumont Will Produce Twenty Years.

In an interview Gov. Hogg takes a very optimistic view of oil situations bearing upon the productiveness and longevity of Spindletop Heights. He says probably 90 per cent of the casing in the wells are split or cracked, and that the trouble being experienced from the presence of water in the wells is due to the fact that the casings are split and cracked. Mr. Hogg says there are 400 producing wells on 200 acres of proven territory. He calculates that within each acre of land held in this rock are over 300,000 barrels. "Now on this basis," said he, "make your calculations. How long will it take to haul this quantity of oil out? It takes 160 barrels to a carload. Twenty cars will carry 3,200 barrels. Three of these large trains each with 60 cars every twenty-four hours of the year, pushed to their utmost capacity, will carry off annually 3,240,000 barrels of oil, and that at the present rate of hauling the oil it will require twenty years to exhaust the field."—El Paso News.

A Hunters Experience.

Mr. Peterson had quite an experience in killing a lion. The lion had been making visits to the pasture and killing young calves so he decided to lay for the beast. He finally caught sight of him just as he was in the act of springing on a calf. He fired and the animal fell, and supposing that he had killed it, he started to approach. When he got up within a few feet of him the lion made fight, and he had to take to a convenient tree, where he could reload his gun. He then fired a fatal shot.

Lincoln County Postmasters Sent to Penitentiary

D. Perea, embezzler of funds from post office at Lincoln was sentenced to 2 years and 2 days by Judge McMillan, U. S. court at Socorro last week, also Bert Rowland for a like charge for six months, Rowland was former post master at Capitan.

The most sacred doctrine of the Republican party, a doctrine sanctified by the blood of the party's first president, is that ours is "a government of the people, for the people, and by the people." In the light of this doctrine no genuine Republican will attempt to remain in office when he has been voted out by a majority of a single vote, much less when he has been voted out by a majority of several hundred votes.—Socorro Chieftain.

Lincoln county Republicans could profit by such consistent political honesty as the Editor of the Socorro Chieftain suggests.

More Water.

John Owens and Frank Hall have struck a fine stream of water in the well near the Gallo Spring. They were offered $2,000 in cash for the well the next day after they struck water. They have in that vicinity the finest ranges in Lincoln county.

THE COUNTY BOARD.

NOGAL NEWS.

Regular Correspondence.

We are very quiet. Election fights and bets have been called off. No one to tell you how industrious wife is, or to kiss the babies. It is strange how little interest some people take in us after election; and how limited other symptoms of benevolence and charity become. These things are only biennial and are precursors of the regular election.

The Nogal Republican is hibernating, editor Lightfoot having resigned and will start Saturday for Old Mexico.

The Adams mine under the management of C. C. Bourne, is putting in some new machinery and will soon begin developing.

L. H. Rudisille was in the city Thanksgiving and attended the exercises at the public school. The school has now an enrollment of 94 and is doing good work. Our teachers attended Association meeting at Capitan last Saturday.

No sickness or marriages to chronicle at this writing though conditions are favorable for marriages, as some amended motions have been filed awaiting the decision of the girls. The Friday night hops are regular. More anon.

OPTICIAN.

Alex J. Wyatt, Refracting and Manufacturing Optician, 119 Dearborn Street, Chicago, is expected to arrive here in a few days, and will be pleased to meet any who may need his services.

A CORRECTION.

We are sorry it is necessary to correct the statement in last week's Eagle that connection had been made between the old and the new shafts at the North Homestake.

This connection is only between the new shaft and a hole recently sunk near it, and the development is not such as we thought was being done.

What is there in the President's message encouraging to statehood? The answer is nil.

W.R. Hearst, the country's biggest newspaper man, is in Mexico looking after his ranch interests.

CHILDREN SOLD IN HUNGARY.

People Without Children Go to the Foundling Hospital to Buy the Waifs.

The Hungarian authorities are taking decisive steps to put a stop to an extraordinary system of selling children which prevails to a large extent in the central provinces.

Once a month childless persons appear in a large foundling hospital in Temesvar where they seek out the children that suit them and depart after paying a sum of money for their purchases.

On a recent occasion 30 children, ranging from one to nine years, were disposed of in this way without sufficient guarantee being given that the purchasers were respectable people who would treat the children properly. The most beautiful children were those most sought after, especially fair-haired girls, as these in Hungary are rare.

In three cases circus people bought six children to bring up as acrobats. In one case a millionaire sought a boy to bring up as his heir, as he had disinherited his own son. The authorities now insist on the most careful investigations into the status and motives of the purchasers.

The news has got abroad in Hungary that there is a ready market for children in Temesvar, and the mothers of illegitimate children are eager in many cases to send their unhappy offspring to an institution where they have such prospects.

MOTHERHOOD

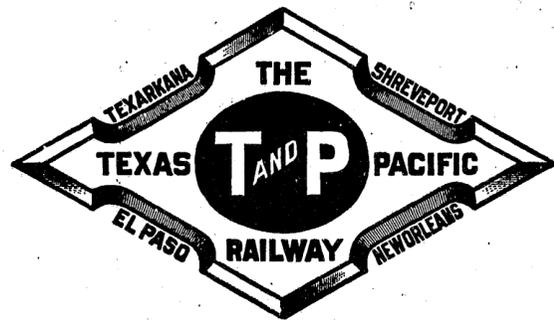

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

143 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901. In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theford's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 21, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again. Mrs. J. W. C. SMITH.

THURSDAY DEC. 4, 1902.

Statehood Fight.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The contest over the omnibus statehood bill began upon the meeting of congress. As soon as the senate adjourned there was a conference in Senator Hale's committee room, attended by Senators Allison, Aldrich, Hale, Platt of Connecticut, Cullom, Lodge, Hanna and Beveridge, the latter the chairman of the committee on territories.

These gentlemen represented the Republicans who are opposed to the omnibus bill admitting Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona, and it is understood a bill admitting Oklahoma only. The friends of the omnibus bill were also active and claim the names of 15 Republican senators pledged to support the omnibus bill, which with the Democrats, will insure its passage. It is probable a Republican caucus on the subject will be held.

People Must Stand the Raise.

A few days ago when a number of railroads, led by the Pennsylvania, raised wages of their employes, the press of their country was loud in praise of the generosity of the big railroad corporations. But it transpires that the roads had no idea of dividing their profits with the men who made them; they expect some-body else, including railroad employes, to pay for much vaunted generosity of the roads.

News comes from New York that in order to recoup themselves for the increased pay allowed employes the railroads will advance their freight rates on all classes of goods, but the principal increase will be saddled on the staple necessities of life food and clothing. In this way the employe will be made to pay back into the coffers of his employers the increase wages they have allowed him. For unless the merchant is willing to take the increase off of his own earnings he will have to raise the price of his goods and the railroad employes do not expect the merchants to stand for any increase in their wages.

Carlsbad's Phantasmal Argus.

Just as an example of the oppressiveness of a republican administration, the "party of the rich man":

"The officials of the Pennsylvania railway lines west of Pittsburg have given notice that the wages of all employes receiving less than $200 per month, would be advanced 10 per cent to meet the increase on the eastern system of the Pennsylvania. The advance was unsolicited. It will effect about 40,000 employes."—Carlsbad Argus.

The Argus has evidently overlooked the fact that these same Pennsylvania railway lines have raised freight rates to an extent that their increase in income from this source will net the roads $40,000,000 above the increased expense of the wage scale. Clever piece of business this, but the employes' increase of hire is added to the merchant's freight except the difference $40,000,000 to the roads, and it winds up just as most other schemes of the kind, the consumer of goods pays it all in the end. Truly this is republican prosperity.

Almost Artesian.

Water rose to within 40 feet of the top to the Chapman-Ludlam well Monday morning. The water was cased off a little below 500 feet and only a short distance was made until a stonger flow of water was struck and it rose to within 40 feet of the surface. The water has not been analyzed but is thought to be a good quality. While this does not at all discourage oil prospects, it at the same time has demonstrated the best question that White Oaks is the best watered town in this county. With a reasonable amount of trenching this water could be thrown to the surface and run into town by gravity. Messrs. Chapman and Ludlam pay no attention to the water and are going right down for oil. However, if oil is never struck, this well will be a valuable property.

Not the Old Abe.

A. B. McKie, until recently the proprietor of the Industrial Record, of this city, states that it is on the sale of the Helen Rae mine, and not the Old Abe mine, that he claims a commission. He says his attorneys already have the papers drawn and the suit will be filed at once. He claims $15,000 commission.—El Paso Herald.

Makes Business Good.

The large farmers in the interior and planters throughout Mexico say they do not care if the dollar falls to 30 cents, as only the city merchants and importers want gold. They urge that the depreciated silver keeps the dollars in the country and makes business good.

Republicans have now given it out as certain that there will be no trust legislation this winter. Nobody expected it. But republican leaders might say, if they want to, that it is not the intention of the republican party to ever attempt any legislation of this character. Anti-trust legislation, if it comes at all, will come through democratic agitation. The President may favor anti-trust legislation, but he is not the republican party and his wishes will probably never be consulted.

W. H. H. Llewellyn, Otero's candidate for speaker of the lower House of the territorial Assembly, has been shelved and Nestor Montoya, editor the Americana at Albuquerque, substituted; Montoya is sheriff Hubbell's candidate.

Officials at Santa Fe have ordered many improvements in and about the ancient capital, since the statehood Committee visited them. New side walks are being put down and the free delivery mail system installed. Scared up mabe, might lose the capital.

Governor Otero's annual Thanksgiving pardon was this time given to Elesio Sena, murderer, a convict, sentenced to life imprisonment in the territorial penitentiary from Mora County in 1890. Thus is another atonement for the murder of his fellowman properly rendered. But the poor devil who fell into an early grave is still dead.

There will be no district or county court in Socorro county this fall. Funds are short.

Our mail service is again bad. It is not once in the week that we get eastern mail on time. If it is not one thing it is another that throws the train late at Carlsbad. Sunday's mail got in at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

We regret to chronicle the demise of Mrs. I. N. Bailey, who departed this life the 18th inst. She had been in poor health for several weeks, but her death was a shock to her many friends here. Her mother, Mrs. Gray, of Wellington, Kansas, reached here a few days before she died. Mrs. Bailey was 47 years of age, but the cares of life shown lightly on her brow, and she seemed a young woman. She was a good neighbor, a dutiful wife, and a true woman. From Picacho.

Regular Correspondence.

Messrs. Clements and Baird have gone over to the new railroad to explore the country and try to find a suitable location for their sheep.

The sheep camp of Mr. J. G. Shipp who is attending to several herds in this district was stolen out last Friday. This is the second time that Mr. Shipp has had his camp robbed in the last two months.

We regret to note the death of the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Baird. The circumstance is peculiarly sad on account of the absence of the father, who has not even yet learned of the sad occurrence.

The public school at Picacho has been closed for a week on account of measles among the children. Twenty-seven scholars being in bed at one time. The school reopened on Monday.

Miss Sallie Clements has returned from Portales where she has been at school. We are glad to see her name on the Picacho school register.

The report comes to us of the discovery on the public highway of a newly born infant, we have been afraid to travel the road since for fear we might also find one. The child was at once adopted by some Mexican.

A social party met at the house of Signor Estolano Sanchez, on the Hondo, and enjoyed an all night dance in honor of the bride and groom, whose names we have failed to learn.

THANKSGIVING AT PARSONS.

Bonito Valley Items.

Correspondence.

An occasion long to be remembered by the participants, was the Thanksgiving dinner at J. M. Rice's Eagle Hall, Parsons.

Some eight families were represented but so genial and hospitable were host and hostess that it seemed like one family. Thirty-two sat down at one long table in the spacious hall, and were served all the dainties of the season to be found in El Paso. Nor was the feast entirely of material things, but a "Feast of reason and a flow of soul," also, the Reverend Mr. Johnson of Chicago, responded to a toast "The divide," delivering a very eloquent address, complimenting our host on his wonderful success in starting his mining enterprises in this country, and prophesying all kinds of good to come to us in the near future.

The dinner closed by all rising and singing America as the most fitting Thanksgiving hymn.

Music and games followed until a late hour, and all enjoyed a royal good time. The guests were as follows:

Rev. S. M. Johnson, Mrs. Blodgett, Mr. Hall of N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Pettibone, and daughter, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gumm White Oaks; Dr. and Mrs. Dryden, Dr. and Mrs. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Garst. Mr. and Mrs. Pray, Mr. and Mrs. Doak, Mr. and Mrs. Austin, and Miss Grace Austin; and Mrs. Stephens of Kansas City.

The announcement was made at the Thanksgiving dinner that a very large endowment had been pledged for a college in our vicinity. The institution is to propagate christian ideas, undenominational, accentual American history, its great men, and ideas to the front, treating of the dead past of Grecian and Roman literature and heroism in outline only. The Eagle will receive more details of this excellent movement which means much for our beautiful valley from quarters better prepared to give the full details.

Last Tuesday evening the Angus school house was the scene of a most successful as well as enjoyable basket social. A short literary and musical programme was prepared and a fish pound which afforded much amusement. A cake was given by vote to the most popular young lady and was awarded after a close contest to Miss Mae Gilmore. Fifty dollars was cleared and will go to help complete the new school house.

Methodist Church.

Regular preaching services at the Methodist Church next Sunday. Subject for morning hour: "Stewardship;" subject for evening hour: "The Fruitless Repentance."

The Missionary Rally service by the children of the Methodist Sunday-School last Sunday evening was a grand success. The children rendered their parts in a manner to reflect great credit upon their faithful instructors, Mrs. Leighnor and Miss Nettie Lee.

The large congregation present manifested their appreciation by good attention and a liberal contribution at the close.

Dr. Henry G. Miller has gone to Globe, Arizona to assume the pastorate of the Congregational Church of that city. We greatly regret to lose Dr. Miller, not only as a very highly esteemed minister, but himself and family as residents of White Oaks. A strong protest from this Congregational Church was sent the superintendent of congregational missions against his leaving this work, but to no avail. He is to take charge of a difficult work in connection with the pastorate of his church. The plan is to develop an institutional church, embracing club rooms, reading rooms, to give boys and young men both social and literary advantages with high moral influences. Mrs. Miller and Ray will go to Globe about New Year.

MOOSE AND LOCOMOTIVES.

When They Come Together, Which Happens in Maine, There Is Always Trouble.

The spunky and stubborn bull moose has again been defying the locomotive in Maine, with the usual disastrous results—to the moose. This time a whole moose family was wiped out in about ten seconds, making a great waste of big game and a lot of work for the section men, says a Bangor (Me.) dispatch in New York Tribune.

The engineer of a freight train on the Bangor & Aroostook road, as his locomotive rounded a sharp curve on a down grade, saw a big bull, a cow and a calf. He sounded the whistle, expecting to see the whole family make a break for the woods, but they stood their ground, and the bull, with a snort of defiance, braced himself for the combat, swinging his great antlered head as though he expected to toss the locomotive skyhigh.

The shriek of the whistle sent men scurrying over the tops of the cars, setting brakes, while the engineer had the brakes on locomotive and tender clamped up so tightly that the wheels were sliding and smoking over the rails. The speed of the train and its momentum were too great, however, to be overcome in the short distance, and down swept the fast freight upon the heroic moose family. There was a crash and a crunching under the wheels, while blood spattered over the boiler head, and fragments of moose went whirling through the air.

When a few rods further on the train was brought to a stop, it was found that all three of the moose had been killed, the carcasses of the cow and the calf being thrown some distance from the track, while the carcass of the bull had been ground under the wheels. At the next station the section boss was informed, and a crew was sent back to bury the moose family. The men said that the bull was a monster—one of the largest ever seen along the line of the Aroostook road.

A few days ago a train on the Intercolonial railway ran a race with a big moose which was promenading the track near Dalhousie Junction. The moose ran for half a mile or more at a surprising speed, and then, finding that the footing was bad on the ties, left the track and ran along in the ditch. Here the animal tried to jump a high wire fence, but struck half way over, and hung there while the train came up. One of the passengers says that the moose looked puzzled and ashamed when the train passed him.

Quick-Witted Pastor.

In Germany, recently, a country preacher was preaching a sermon, when suddenly he lost the thread of his discourse and, do what he would, he could not find it again.

The congregation was greatly embarrassed and was wondering what the matter was when he startled it by exclaiming suddenly:

"Pardon me, my brethren, for pausing in my sermon, but it seems to me that I smell fire somewhere—and—and it might be as well to see that it has not broken out in the church or in any of the nearby houses."

Before the words were all uttered the congregation was pouring out of the church, each family being anxious to make sure that its home was not on fire. It need hardly be said that the fire existed only in the pastor's imagination.—Stray Stories.

Wanted Pay for Ignorance.

Bridget—Oi can't stay, ma'am, unless ye give me more wages.

Mrs. Hiram Often—What! Why, you don't know how to cook or do housework at all.

—The End—

A COSTLY CIGARETTE.

The Confiding Young Man Who Smoked It Was Loser by a Very Large Amount.

Constantin Kardax, a young Pole, was going to the Imperial bank, in Warsaw, recently, with the intention of depositing a roll of rubles worth about $12,000, when suddenly he was accosted by an elegantly dressed man, who politely asked him if he could show him the way to the bank, reports a London exchange.

"I am going there," replied Constantin, "and we may as well walk together."

The stranger thanked him and offered him a cigarette, which he took and began to smoke. A few minutes later he became very sick and fainted in his companion's arms. When he recovered consciousness he found himself in a drug store, and soon saw that his elegantly dressed companion and his roll of rubles had disappeared. While he was wondering what had become of them, the druggist told him that he had certainly been robbed.

"Your companion vanished as soon as he brought you here," he said, "and, of course, he took the money with him. I suspected nothing at the time, but I soon noticed a peculiar odor from the half-burnt cigarette, which you held between your fingers, and when I examined it I saw plainly enough that you had been drugged."

FUTURE OF THE PANAMA HAT.

Recent Indications Point to the Abandonment of It as a Summer Headgear.

The future of the panama is a fit subject for speculation. Each man has his own method of curing a cold and preserving a panama, states the Chicago Tribune. Some declare that a careful course of kerosene followed by the use of a quart bottle of Florida water is the only method worthy of being followed, while others allege that the true student of economy will this year wind whole yards of bath towel fringes around the straw, and hand over the white elephant to the negro who attends to the furnace.

As a matter of fact the indications point to more or less of an abandonment of the panama by society people during the next year or two. It is expected that a return to the domestic straw with the addition of bands of quiet colors will be noted during the late days at Newport and Lake Forest.

It may be that the panamas will be brought out two years hence for the first of the presidential election parades, but one thing is almost certain, which is that the linoleum imitation at $2.98 has done much to discourage the wearing of the genuine article to any extent during next season.

RAILROAD SIGN LANGUAGE.

Signals Communicate What Needs to Be Said as Perfectly as It Could Be Told in Words.

It is not deaf mutes alone who employ the sign language. Railroaders have a tongue of this sort that, since railroading began, has been growing until now anything that needs to be said in it can be expressed as perfectly as in words, says the Philadelphia Record. The signals of railroaders are made with the hands and arms in the daytime, and with a lantern in the dark, the lantern signals, by the way, being comprehensible at a far greater distance than the daytime ones. The latter are made with one arm or with both, at the brakeman's option. To go ahead, to stop and to back are the leading ones. The arms moved horizontally and vertically make the two first signals; the back turned and the arms pushed out makes the last one. The main lantern signals are an up-and-down, a crosswise and a circular movement. There are, of course, a hundred other minor signals, and they are used differently in different parts of the country. But the sign language is the same everywhere.
