COUNTY NEWS.

Ed Fedricks has returned from Texas.

Ben Stimel and Mark Patty drove over from the Oaks, Monday.

Jimmy Dolan and family started for their ranch on the Folix, Monday.

Men are at work making adobes for the new school house. The building will be erected directly east of the court house.

H. H. Hanning, of White Oaks, has a new store, new drugs and a new trade, and is selling goods cheaper than the cheapest.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Young and family and Mrs. C. A. Buford, of White Oaks, were visiting relatives in Lincoln the first of the week.

Lucius Dills, at one time probate judge and at another time prosecuting attorney, of Wheeler Co., Texas, will probably locate in Lincoln.

J. C. Laey, of Goshie county, Texas, passed through this place with his family, Tuesday, on the way to the ranch of his brother, A. P. Laey.

Jim Brent called us out of the office the other day to see his fine riding horse. Jim is one of the best shaped men, when riding, in the county.

During this warm, but pleasant, weather, it is well for the people of Lincoln county to remember that the GOLDEN ERA is increasing its circulation wonderfully.

J. P. C. Langston, of White Oaks, was at the county seat the last of the week, and while here managed to sell his spring wagon and came pretty near trading horses.

Geo. T. Perkins and J. S. Whatly, both of Greenville, Hunt Co., Texas, are looking the county over. Mr. Whatly is a stockman and is thinking of locating with us, if a suitable ranch can be found. By the way, ranches are away above par now.

We understand that John Joy's property has been attached near Lake Valley and that Judge Newcomb, Joy's attorney, says that he can get no one to go his bail. Joy was sentenced at the last term of court to five years in the penitentiary for stealing cattle.

Mr. A. N. Clonney sold a portion of his ranch through Jake Miller, who had it bonded to Lieut. H. DeLany, a brother of J. C. DeLany, at the Post, for $1,500. We believe it is Lieut. DeLany's intention to live on the ranch. We welcome him as a resident of Lincoln county.

It will be seen by the new apportionment that there are 1,223 scholars in the county and the rate per scholar is $5.30. The Superintendent has the grand total figured at $6,555.90. We make it $6,561.30 or $5.40 more than the Doctor's. Lincoln is put down for $852.31, and we make it at the rate he fixes, for 159 scholars, $853.03. Who's wrong?

Quite a number of improvements have been made here during the last six months. The new addition on Johnny Hurley's property and that of Capt. Baca, the new rooms put up by Mrs. Ben Ellis; the new dwellings of Scipio Salazar, J. J. Dolan and Rocco E. Millio, the new school house and we understand George B. Barber will soon erect a new office. These buildings are, or will be, made of adobe, and we think it does very well, indeed, for slow going Lincoln.

Of all the business houses in El Paso none carry a larger and finer stock or have the confidence of the people more completely than Lightbody and James. Their specialty is men's wear, embracing clothing, boots and shoes, hats, shirts, underwear, trunks and valises, comfort blankets. They have just completed a large building where they make suits to order. Samples of goods and blanks for self measurement sent to any address. All mail orders promptly filled.

LIGHTBODY & JAMES,

Seven hundred sheep were killed one night last week on the Carrizozo range. The sheep belong to Arcadio Sais of this place, but Dionisio Chavez has been overseeing the herd. Some time ago J. A. Alcock, manager of the Carrizozo company, paid Chavez $3,800 for his ranch, with the understanding that Chavez was to move his sheep out of the country. It seems that Chavez still owns water close to the ranch sold to Alcock and that instead of driving his sheep out of the country, he has repeatedly drove them on his former range. It is barely possible anyone will ever know who killed those sheep.

P. Roberts & Co., whose liberal advertisement appears in another column, have greatly enlarged their facilities for freighting and can, at a moment's notice, furnish from one to twenty wagons (mule teams). Their rates are one and one-fourth cents to points south of White Oaks; to Ruidoso, one and one quarter cents; east of Lincoln, to Roswell, one and one half; south of Ruidoso from one and one eighth to one and three-quarters cents per pound. These are certainly liberal rates.

MARRIED.

The marriage of Mr. Solomon Montano to Miss Flora Perea, was solemnized at the Catholic church in this place, Saturday morning at ten o'clock, by Rev. G. M. Garnier. The bride was dressed in white swiss, white kid gloves and slippers, and was the emblem of happiness. The groom wore a dark suit and looked like he was perfectly satisfied with his choice.

The ceremony was solemn but grand and lasted fully half an hour. After they were made man and wife all proceeded to the residence of the groom, where dinner was awaiting the many guests. Col. Beall presented the bride with the wedding cake, then health was drunk to the bride and groom and good wishes for a long and happy life were given. Wine flowed freely, and the dinner was as fine a one, as was ever set before a hungry printer. By request we took our seat at the head of the table and after a couple of hours we made way for others. This was also by request.

The festivities of the day wound up with a grand ball in the evening, where some sixty couples enjoyed themselves till three o'clock the next morning.

We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Montano will live to a good, ripe, old age and in years to come they can look back and truthfully say that they are not sorry for the step taken on Saturday, June 13th, 1885.

APPORTIONMENT OF SCHOOL FUNDS.

The Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Lane, kindly sent us the following for publication, and also the officers of all schools in the county. We have published the names of the officers in another issue, and for want of space we are compelled to leave it out. There is only one new district formed since its publication that of Tulareosa River. The officers are: Wesley Fields, director; D. M. Easton, clerk; John Walters, treasurer. It will be noticed by the following apportionment, that there are 1,223 scholars reported in the county, and the money to be paid out for schools, is $6,555.90.

I. Alexander G. Lane, County Superintendent for Lincoln county, pursuant to the requirements of Section 7, Chapter LIII, Laws of 1884, do hereby certify that I have duly apportioned the school fund of said county on this third Monday of June A. D., 1885. The amount subject to such apportionment, as reported by the County Treasurer, is $6,555.90. The total number of school age, as reported by the several Boards of School Directors, entitled by law to the benefits of said fund, is 1,223. The rate per scholar is $5.36.05, which is apportioned to the several school districts as follows:

Dist. No.	No. of Scholars	Amount
1	159	$852.31
2	32	439.56
3	30	160.81
4	102	546.77
5	85	455.64
6	no children
7	131	702.22
8	150	804.07
9	26	139.44
10	83	444.92
11	49	262.66
12	42	225.14
13	no children
14	67	359.16
15	39	209.05
16	29	155.45
17	33	176.89
18
19	76	407.39
20	no report
21	40	214.42
	1,223	$6,555.90

District No. 7 is directed to prorate its money with district No. 18 (50 children) after payment of joint school debt contracted before division of district No. 7.

District No. 8 which is reported with having no children, is a school district by statute.

District No. 10 is directed to pay to district No. 22 its proportion of money for 35 scholars is $187.61 as agreed by directors.

District No. 18 which is reported with having no children is a school district by statute.

District No. 18 has 50 children, part of 131 in district No. 7, from which it receives its fund.

District No. 22 is a division of district No. 18, from which it receives its fund for 35 scholars. The odd seven cents is given to smallest district No. 9.

WHITE OAKS-June 16th, 1885.

MARRIED.-It is rumored that on Tuesday night, by J. B. Collier, J. P., at Mr. Jerry Hocradle's, in Dry Gulch, Mr. Lloyd Schell to Miss Liana Allen.

A Mexican named Chavez came in here one morning last week and said some one had killed about 500 sheep of his near Three Rivers. Who it was, he was unable to learn, as they were killed during the night. The sheep it appears were being grazed on shares for Mr. Sais, of Lincoln.

Great credit is due U. Ozane, by the people of Lincoln county for the efficient way in which he is helping to transfer our mail from Carthage to Red Canon. The Stage Company's stock having been attached by J. H. Crane, of Carthage, for debt, Mr. Ozane, with his stock, is filling the gap.

Among the arrivals in town during the past week were J. W. Poe, D. Provost, Jeff Grumbles, Jim Wilson, Walter Church and others too numerous to mention.

Last Wednesday the remains of Sidney Moore who was wounded and died at Nogal, recently, were buried in the White Oaks cemetery. There was a large turnout of the White Oaks people at the grave where Mr. M. Branham officiated.

At a meeting of the Homestake Gold Mining Co., held here on Wednesday, June 10th, the following board of directors for the coming year was elected: Messrs. Harrison, Howard, Wells and Chester, of St. Louis; Gov. Stover, of Albuquerque, and Messrs. Weed and Dye, of White Oaks. There will be an election of officers in St. Louis on Wednesday, June 17th.

ROSWELL-June 15th.

Two or three wagons unloaded freight at W. H. Cosgrove's store this week and more are coming.

Judge Stone and Col. Milne are now cutting their first crop of alfalfa, which they say promises a fine yield.

Messrs. Jones and Wallace came in to-day from Las Vegas, where they disposed of their horses and are now on their way to the lower country.

M. L. Pierce and family with Mr. John Wildy, left yesterday for the Penasco ranch. Miss Lina Tucker will take charge of and run the hotel in Mrs. Pierce's absence.

Harvesting has commenced in this vicinity at Mr. Liles, who is cutting oats with a brand new Buckeye reaper (self rake) just brought down from Vegas by Mr. Ballard.

We noticed a couple of "prairie schooners" standing in front of F. P. Gayle's saloon a day or two since and we are satisfied our "neighbor" is now prepared to pilot any number of "schooners" across the bar that his customers may desire.

W. E. Anderson's family moved down to Roswell a few days since and occupy Mr. Goodin's house. They will remain here until Mr. Anderson's residence, which he is building on his ranch, is completed. We only regret that they are not permanently located here. Mrs. Anderson and Miss Sallie Smith, her sister, are intelligent and accomplished ladies and their removal makes a welcome and desirable addition to our circle of society.

Mr. Geo. B. Barber and Col. Cronin passed down a few days since and returned to Lincoln Friday. Colonel, as usual, gave us a pressing invitation to attend his wedding, which we would be glad to do, but the Colonel is so indefinite we can't never get him to give us the place, date nor anything satisfactory in connection with the matter and we have come to the conclusion that somebody's fooling him or that he is wilfully misrepresenting himself.

Jno. Bonny is sojourning at Roswell for three or four days. He came down to attend to a little business (a pony race) with Barney Mason, which was run here Saturday. John is out something on the race. We couldn't learn just how much, but he says he did not think to pull his saddle off; he forgot his quirt. Barney played off on him, and Buckskin (his horse) got so excited he couldn't run, &c., but he is confident he can beat Barney a half mile in the near future, and we believe he can and will.

I WANT JUSTICE.

SAN PATRICIO, June 13th.

One of your correspondents was present when the justice of the peace had court Saturday, June 13th. A case pending between Don Jose Chaves y Sanchez, plaintiff and Pablo Miranda, defendant. Said defendant made a written contract for six months labor of one certain orphan for the sum of $81. Commenced labor March 31st., 1885, to be paid in merchandise. Worked one month and twenty days. Defendant testified that he demanded a few cents in money; plaintiff refused to give the demand and he carried the hired boy away and said he would not let him work any longer, as he could not get the necessities he needed. Plaintiff says: "Pay me what you owe me and all is right." but finally Don Jose sues him on contract for damages to the amount of fifty dollars, failed to prove any damages. Don Jose Chaves' lawyer, in his high-toned speech said the reason he specified fifty dollars in his claim was that he did not know how much it would amount to, but he asked the old judge on the stool to figure it up for him. At one dollar and fifty cents per day for twenty-one days, amounting to thirty dollars and fifty cents. Now comes the show. When parties appeared this morning court opened, a few minutes recess was given to let the parties have a chance to regulate their grievances, but the parties instead of regulating made it worse, because they got very much excited. Don, the plaintiff, got so hot the old man on the stool had to call order. Then the court opened again the hear from the defendant. He said he was very ignorant and could not protect himself in law and did not know what to do. The justice adjourned court for three hours to give the defendant a chance to take a boat down the Ruidoso to import a lawyer to defend him. Come on time but the high-toned counsel for plaintiff made a bluff at the justice threatening to report him to the next grand jury, but the bluff did not stick. Court opened again to investigate the matter and the court ordered them to proceed. The counsel imported for the defense tried for non suit but was unsuccessful. The witnesses got through finally by a heap of squabble from the fact that counsel on both sides knew all technicalities in law that order had to be called a great many times. The plaintiff boiled all over so that it was impossible to keep him on his seat. Now comes the high-toned counsel for plaintiff: "I have a right to open and close." He made his remarks and sat down, then arose the man from down the river and his principal speech was in reading law, but he shot some pretty sharp words, plaintiff's able counsel started in again and I did think that the roof would blow off the house, as he snorted and waived his hands very much trying to get on the best side of the justice of the peace, after threatening him to the grand jury. As he was about to wind up his famous speech, the counsel for the defense spoke a word to him giving advice. He answered that he did not need any advice of his stamp. Then a knock down between the two able counsels in the court room, the defendant floored the plaintiff's counsel. It was a draw fight. The man on the bench fined one $10 and the other $5, then they took a wash and commenced again and closed the panorama. I could have got more down on paper, but the case was very exciting. One of the counsel lives in Frank Lesnet's precinct, the other here in our precinct, No. 2, San Patricio. It took me in eyes, ears and mouth. Fines remitted; made up friends. ADAM.

STOCK NEWS.

Despite the dry weather cattle are in good condition.

Stockmen in the eastern part of the county are busy with the round-ups.

Mr. Geo. Peppin, of this place will be the Post butcher at Ft. Stanton for the coming year. He takes charge July 1st.

Pat Garrett is watching the line that divides Texas and New Mexico near the Panhandle, to see that diseased cattle do not come through.

Our correspondent from Penasco says that that country is not half stocked, according to the rules laid down by the District Protective Association.

Byron Hathaway, of the stock yards quotes prices for grade Hereford bulls at $45@75, against $75@100 last year. Good time to buy bulls.—[Drivers Journal.

The Kansas City Live Stock Record that says Dr. Trumbower had recently inspected some thirteen car-loads of cattle going into Kansas; several car-loads going into New Mexico, two to Utah, and four to Colorado, and he issues permits to intermediate railroad company's to transport these cattle to the points designated. It is believed now that things are in shape, that cattle which are accompanied by clean bills of health will have no difficulty in reaching their destination. So far as known, certificates of inspection of Dr. Trumbower, the United States Veterinary Inspector, will assuredly be recognized in all the States and Territories of the West.

On Wednesday morning Ab Blocker, who has been on the North Fork for several days with a herd of cattle, started the herd eastward to take the trail established by agreement at Dallas. The herd numbers about 3,000 head, and is a part of the drive being taken to the capital syndicate pasture in Dallam county, being a first installment of the 21,000 head contracted to be delivered there by John R. Blocker. The foreman of this herd was warned several times that he would not be allowed to pass through the Panhandle ranges with the herd, but smiled grimly and came right along, as he had been told to take a certain route and go through. That was what he was going to do. He was not met by any armed force, but by the "medicine" of the law—the medicine was good and the young man from the south was "hacked." The herd was served by the sheriff with a writ of injunction to prevent its entering upon the U-U range. After finding this would "stick," Mr. Blocker concluded to go around that range and proceed; but was informed that as soon as his herd approached adjacent ranges, other injunctions would be served to like effect. Representatives from every ranch in the Panhandle were here, and imparted the information that should the first cordon be passed the second was ready to place the injunctions, and also to convince the driver of the determination to stop the driving through whatever cost by legal means, and prevent the destruction that former years have seen. After waiting a few days for instructions from below, Mr. Blocker wisely turned his herd toward the trail. The medicine is good, and drivers north will do well to keep faith and stick to the trail. It is not expected here that this will be the last attempt to pass, but the news will be carried to Mary on the approach of each and it will be turned. That's what—[Panhandle.

In addition to the quarantine law which requires inspection of cattle entering Arizona, there has lately been brought to our notice a recent enactment governing the water rights, and privileges of the holders of the same, and debarring parties from turning loose herds of cattle to rustle for both water and grass. This is an extreme modification of the proposed Terrell enactment in Texas to determine the number of stock a man should graze on the commons by the number of acres he owned or controlled. The scarcity of water in Arizona is some excuse for a law that would not be regarded as harsh here, but it is nevertheless a modification of the Terrell enactment for the herd.

News Letter From Penasco.

UPPER PENASCO JUNE 6th 1885.
Editor Golden Era:

There has been some excitement in our vicinity recently on account of the reported Indian outbreaks. No Indians have been seen in our neighborhood. There have been no hunting parties south of the reservation line this season, if so your correspondent has heard nothing of it. Maj. Llewellyn deserves great credit for the way he manages the Indians. We all have the utmost confidence in the integrity and ability of Maj. Llewellyn to control his Indians. The only danger apprehended here of an outbreak from the Moscalero reservation, is that some hostile Indians may succeed in getting on the reservation and induce some of the Indians there to go on the war path with them, but we have been assured that every precaution has been taken to prevent this. Some renegades from other agencies have already been captured by the efficient Capt. Branigan and Indian police. Should there be an outbreak, it is generally conceded that the hostiles will find quite a different officer to deal with in the person of Maj. VanHorn than "Old Vic" and his murderous band had a few years ago.

Mr. J. A. Browning Upper Penasco, bought seventeen head of cattle from Mr. John S. Mullett, Agua Chiquita, a few days ago. Consideration $15 per head.

Col. W. C. Warren has sold his ranch and cattle in Perk Spring canon to the Garst Bros. Consideration $10,500. The Garst Bros. own the famous Blue Water ranch and have the finest stock of cattle in this county without any exception.

The Camp Bros., relatives of Col. Warren, have secured ranches and located here. If they have any truits of the Colonel, they will certainly make good citizen and such men we welcome to our locality.

There is a large acreage of small grain planted here this season, likewise on the Agua Chiquita and 12 Mile Canon, which looks well and bids fair to make fine crops.

Messrs. Windsor & Fardham are gone to El Paso on business but are expected back in a few days.

Mr. Wm. Reynolds, an old acquaintance of Mr. H. C. Tison, is making the latter a visit.

Messrs Hyatt, Haldin, Hunter and Daugherty were over at the Mal Pais salt lake after salt during the greatest Indian excitement. They all got home right side up with care. Did not see any Indians, neither did they hear as much over there about the outbreak and the depredation as we heard here, showing that the further such reports go the more they gain.

Dr. Howard Thompson, the new appointed physician for the Mescalero and Jicarilla Indians has expressed his willingness to attend medical calls in our section of country when not engaged at the Agency. The Doctor is said to be an incessant worker, having treated more Indians during the short time he has been at the Agency than the two Agency doctors did during their whole residence there.

Now your correspondent desires to indulge in a few remarks in regard to your "Reporter." Who is the reporter proper whose communications are headed Agua Chiquita and Penasco? Every person here knows. Did he write those articles. Ah, No! I have some of Mr. Reporter's writing and there is as much difference in the orthography of it and the articles signed Reporter as there is in day and night. Well, then he evidently has a private secretary. O, yes, and we know him, to Reporter proper reminds me of a mandarin was speaking of literature some time ago. The gentleman said: "I am not much of a speller, reader nor writer, but a better grammarian than I am never picked up a book in this neck of woods." It is common for men whose positions justify them to employ private secretaries and to dictate to their secretaries what they desire written. Does our Reporter do the same? I think not. He probably does like a certain officer did during the late war who was ambitious to be classed among the bravest of the brave, but every time he went into an engagement he would fall to the rear and yell to his men: "Give 'em h—ll boys." That certainly is all Mr. Reporter can do in dictating to his Secretary to sit back and say. That good; give him h—ll.

I wonder if the Secretary reads the documents to the Reporter proper for his approval. I presume not, as Mr. Reporter could not comprehend if he did. In the first place we will notice Mr. Reporter's communication in the GOLDEN ERA of March 12th, 1885. Only one side is given. As everybody here knows, facts are misstated and that animus spirit exhibited from beginning to end which is only shown by the most jealous and prejudice. In the second place, we will notice a communication in the 10th ult., dated the 11th, in which some glaring misstatements appear. I will only notice one item: "Cattle are in fine condition, but the country is stocked. If more are brought in, all will suffer." This I take the liberty to deny. The country is not stocked, according to the apportionment made by the District Protective Association, of which Mr. Reporter is a member, but his private secretary is not, for reasons best known to himself and the members.

In the third place we come to the communication in the ERA of the 28th ult., dated 23rd, and written about the 20th. We will not connect the Reporter proper with this notwithstanding it is signed Reporter. How much general news is contained in all the communications signed by Reporter, I leave the public to judge. Mr. Secretary goes on with his article of the 23rd ult., being "susquipedalia verba," resorting to billingsgate to unload his pusillanimous carcass at Rudis indigesta moles, of the vilest vituperations. Your French quotation, Honi soit qui mal y pense, Mr. Secretary, I would advise you to adhere to. You will certainly profit by it. Your advice to "never go back on your friends or relatives," reminds me of a certain doctor who was prescribing for a suspicious patient. The patient asked the physician to take some of the medicine first. The M. D. said: "Doctors prescribe remedies but never take them." So it is with you, Mr. Secretary, you can give advice but never take it. Had you always observed the advice you give on this occasion how different you would be from what you are. You even had the audacity to say some of your friends prescribe this and some that. You go on to say but we only thought you had the "cacothos scribendi." This disease seems to be hereditary with you, Mr. Secretary, and I think it has broken out in a new place. I cannot say that I have heard your friends offer any prescriptions for you, but I can say that I have heard a number of our citizens, say at various times, that they believed there was periods when you was non campus mentes. Now, if you can convince me that this was your condition when you wrote those communications, I will willingly, and without hesitation, retract all that I have said or written concerning you.

Now, Mr. Editor, in justice to your correspondent and our community, I ask space for the above. When Gen. Andrew Jackson was challenged to fight a duel by Mr. Swan, a young attorney from Virginia, the General refused, on the ground that Swan was not a gentleman, notwithstanding Gen. Jackson fought several duels before and after. For the same reason I decline to take any further notice of any correspondence, that our noted Ananias may be connected with.

HOUSEHOLD CORNER.
BROTH FOR THE SICK OR DELICATE
Put in a small saucepan with a lid, a teacup of water, a small piece of fresh butter and half a teaspoonful of Liebig Company's Extract of Meat. Let it boil up well and the broth is ready.
FOR INSTANTANEOUS IGNORATION
—Take a slice of bread with a little Liebig Company's Extract of Meat spread thinly upon it.
TO POACH EGGS.—Fill a large, flat saucepan to about three inches high with boiling water, in which dissolve some salt, and break fresh eggs into it, so they do not touch each other—boil them till the white has set, but not hard, and serve on a hot plate.
CELERY SAUCE.—Pick and wash two heads of celery, cut into pieces an inch long; stew until tender in a pint of water with a teaspoonful of salt. Rub a large spoonful each of butter and flour together till smooth. Stir into this a pint of cream; put in the celery and let it boil up once. Serve hot with boiled poultry.
WINE FOR SEASONING.—Must be prepared a week before needed. Take one pound of best raisins, grated rind and juice of a fine large lemon and a pound of powdered loaf sugar. Melt the sugar in two quarts of water in a porcelain kettle. Boil and skim for half an hour, and while boiling add by degrees the raisins and lemons. Put the mixture in stone or glass; let it stand three days, stirring to the bottom twice a day. Strain through a linen bag, bottle tightly, sealing the corks.
DEVILLED HAM.—Take six tablespoonful of the above wine, two of best vinegar, one dessert spoonful of currant jelly, a large lump of butter and cayenne to suit the taste. Slice the ham very thin and put it in the chafing dish, having mixed the dressing together, pour it on the ham and let them cook together for a few moments, stirring it well, when it will be ready to serve. A nice dish for luncheon.
TO PREPARE TERRAPINS.—Throw a dozen into a pot of boiling water, when the nails come off easily take them out and open. Remove the head gill and sand bag—be very careful not to break the two latter named. Quarter the terrapin and all the rest cut up, not too fine. Put them on to boil with the blood you have saved and a pint of water. Let it boil slowly till tender, add a pint of cream mixed in a large tablespoonful of browned flour one pound of best butter. When this boils add four hard boiled eggs, chopped fine, a pint and a half of the above wine, salt and pepper to taste and serve very hot.
CALVES HEART STEW.—Boil in salt water until tender, chop it tolerably fine, add the water it was boiled in and set it on the fire again. To one heart add two hard boiled eggs, chopped fine, a little parsley, one onion and two ounces of butter, one tablespoonful of browned flour mixed with half a cup of cream. Season to taste and serve hot. Onion and parsley may be omitted.
RISSOL OF BEEF AND PORK.—Chop fine equal quantities of beef and pork, make a nice pie crust, roll it out and cut it into pieces about three inches square. Season the meat well with salt and pepper, put a large spoonful on each piece of paste, and roll them up so that the rissoles will be three inches long and about an inch in diameter. Pinch the ends to close them and fry in boiling lard. For those who do not like fries, spread a layer of butter on the inside of the paste to keep them a little moist and bake instead.

He Gave an Illustration.
"So you say you were once chased by the Indians?" said Ethelinda to her bashful lover George.
"Yes," replied George "three of us were chased an entire day by a band of hostiles."
"And you received no injury?"
"No. We got away from them but it was a pretty tight squeeze."
"A what?"
"A tight squeeze."
"What's that?"
"You don't know what a tight squeeze is?" Well, er—that is to say—By Jove, you know—I, er—guess it's about time you did know. I—er—will give you an illustration."
And he did.
Bobby laboriously lugged a pail into the parlor, where the family was assembled, and asked his maternal grandmother to kick it.
"Why should I kick it, Bobby?" grandma inquired in amazement.
"Just to amuse pa," said Bobby.
"He said he would give $10 any time to see you kick the bucket."

CHOLERA is now raging in portions of Spain.

JOHN MAGNI, of Cincinnati, ate fifty-two raw eggs, shells and all. Now, this is no eggs-ageration.

GLADSTONE, the Premier of England, has resigned, and it is thought by some that Earl Salisbury will be the Premier of the new government.

GEO. W. JULIAN, our new Surveyor General, thinks that a general change in the land department is needed. He says: "I would rather have raw hands, if honest, than very smart men who are dishonest. You can train up new hands but it is a difficult thing to reform chronic rascality."

THE New York World has raised by public subscription, nearly $70,000 for the pedestal upon which the statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World" is to stand. It has done all this inside of three months, and the donors number nearly 75,000 persons. Think what a world of people have responded to the call of one paper!

CHIEF JUSTICE VINCENT has arrived in the territory, and the people of Las Vegas, although the judge refused a public reception, are showing their respects. Mr. Vincent was in Scotland when he learned of his appointment, and now that he has had a long rest from business cares, we hope he will make things hum as Chief Justice of our progressive territory.

IF THE much talked of war between England and Russia had taken place, it would have been a great help financially to the United States. But we are not heathens; we have our faults and they are grave faults, but we are not so bad off that we are driven to the desperate extremity of getting our bread and butter out of the life blood, the murder, the savage destruction of other men and women who love their wives, their children and their country.

ROMULO MARTINEZ has been appointed United States marshal for this territory, vice Morrison removed. Martinez was once spoken of very strongly for Governor and is now the present sheriff of Santa Fe county. He is a man fully capable of filling the position of marshal of this territory and is a Democrat out and out. President Cleveland's appointment's in this territory so far, have suited the majority of the people very well we believe. Keep up your lick, Grover. There's a good many offices yet that need Democrats in them.

THE question of American citizenship of residents of Germany continues to be a subject of discussion between the German government and that of the United States. The tenure of United States citizenship is the point that cannot be agreed upon or settled between the two Governments, under the naturalization treaty of 1868. Recently the German authorities command certain young men, American citizens, some of German parents naturalized in the United States, to leave Germany because they, while living with their parents in Germany, could not be called upon to perform military service. The American Minister protested against the order as in violation of the treaty. Then the German foreign office made a basis for future action under the treaty, and this was that German fathers, naturalized in America, who return to Germany and remain more than two years, will be regarded under the treaty as having given up their American citizenship. The United States authorities claimed that this assumption was only tenable when it was evident that such parents had no intention of returning to the United States, and to this the German foreign office...

J. B. FORAKER is the candidate on the Republican state ticket of Ohio for governor, being nominated last Thursday.

"THERE are many grown-up men in Maine," says Neal Dow, "who have never seen a grog shop or a drunken man." The Boston Post suggests they were probably blind from their birth.

"HIGH-BINDERS" is the name given by St. Louis papers to a class of Chinamen who let themselves out to murder people. A case was tried recently in that city where three Chinamen were hired to kill a brother Mongolian, the sum paid being $600. Another high-binder was hired to come from San Francisco to do dirty work, but he was arrested as he got off the train.

AFTER nearly going into bankruptcy the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette succeeded in raising $100 which was used in fixing a salute when John A. Logan returned to Washington. The New York World thinks the money could have been better expended had the able editor turned his powder fund over to the poor of Cincinnati and sent a small boy down to the depot in Washington with a squirt-gun to salute the conquering Illinois hero.

COMMISSIONER SPARKS of the land office at Washington has been looking into the Maxwell land grant, and finds evidence of unmistakable frauds. He recites the history of the land and says that the commissioners instructions to the surveyor general that a "disinterested deputy should be selected to make the survey who has had no connection or business transaction referable to the interests of the owners of the grant," appear, however, to have been ignored by the surveyor general, and his neglect of such instructions does not appear to have been disapproved, for the contract for the survey was given to a brother of the alleged owner of the grant, and the alleged owner himself was the bondsman, and this contract, obnoxious as it seems to me, to the public morals and official obligations, was approved and patented. No decision was rendered by the commissioner on the boundaries or otherwise in the case before issue of the patent, but the patent was summarily issued without formal decision and without opportunity being afforded adverse parties of protestants to appear to the secretary of the interior or invoke his supervisory judgment. In conclusion Commissioner Sparks recommends that suitable action be taken looking to vigorous prosecution of the suits now pending in the district of Colorado, and that a new suit be commenced in New Mexico, where the greater portion of the lands lie, to set aside the patents already issued under this grant.

NOT HERE FOR THEIR HEALTH! During the Indian excitement Frank H. Winston, of Grafton, issued cartridges from his store free, while the Israelite firm of Blum Bros. raised the price on them.—[Black Range.] "VELL, Jake, ve don't kill some man dis time."

The Extent of the British Empire. The British Empire covers nearly a sixth of the land surface of the earth. The entire surface of the globe is estimated at 197,000,000 square miles, of which a little more than a quarter, or 51,500,000 square miles, are land, and the total extent of the British Empire is 8,900,211 square miles, which may be tabulated thus:

	Square miles.
Great Britain and Ireland	121,115
Indian possessions	1,558,754
Other Eastern possessions	20,000
Australia	3,151,344
North America	3,620,500
Gulfonia, etc.	100,000
Africa	270,000
West Indies	12,707
European possessions	129
Various settlements	95,171
Total	8,900,211

The population of this enormous empire is estimated at 310,225,000 souls, and well was it said to be "a power which has dotted the surface of the whole globe with her possessions and military posts, whose morning drum-beat, following the sun and keeping company with the hours, circles the earth with one continuous and unbroken strain of the martial airs of England."

The new Governor, Edwin G. Ross, struck the territory Sunday morning and hurried on through to Santa Fe where he took the oath of office Monday morning. Democrats, don't you breathe easier.

THERE are thirteen complete and distinct city tickets in the field at Albuquerque, if we can believe the Journal. The Democrats intend running a straight ticket, so the odd dozen must be composed of Mugwumps and Republicans. No! Republicans never want office. Neither does a duck ever want to swim.

IN a recent interview upon the propriety and the expediency of passing a new bankrupt law by congress the Hon. Samuel J. Randall said "that while congress has the constitutional right to enact such legislation, he don't believe it is wise, because it affords a cover for deceit and fraud. He says he never knew of a man who failed and couldn't make reasonable terms with his creditors if he wanted to act honestly." The average business man will echo this sentiment. The man who has failed and says: "I have done my best, and am willing to do my best, to pay you" will always get terms. The bankrupt laws of the past have been simply schemes to enable men to rob with impunity.

A REPORT reached this place Tuesday that a band of Warm Spring Apaches from Arizona were on the war-path and had killed seven freighters near Three Rivers. Capt. Pratt was ordered to have his company in readiness, so as to move at any moment. The order has since been revoked. We learn by letter from Ft. Stanton that no trouble is anticipated and that the cavalry, ordered out some time ago, are in the neighborhood of Tularosa and Three Rivers. The report that reached this place was to the effect that the Warm Spring Apaches and the Indians on the Mescalero reservation were the warmest friends and that if the Arizona Indians were really on the war-path, trouble in this county would be unavoidable. But this is a report, started, no one knows how.

RUIDOSO—June 9th.

Editor Era:

DEAR SIR.—As I. X. Peck has dropped his quill I will try and give you a few pointers from the Mill and its surroundings.

The crops are about all in and we are having fine weather. Grass is fine and everything is moving along in the best manner possible.

Everybody is pleased with the President and new Governor, and all of the people in this vicinity are making preparations for a grand blow out on our National holiday, the Fourth of July, and everybody is cordially invited to participate. I wish to inform all that will accept this invitation to bring a well filled lunch basket. Those that do not bring their own lunch will be supplied from a stand for that purpose on the grounds. There has been a string band engaged for the day and a dancing floor will be put up in the grove just below the mill for those that wish to trip the light fantastic. Not wishing to misrepresent anything I will say that the old proverb holds good in this instance. That those who dance must pay the fiddler. Come one, come all, and let us have a good old time picnic. LARGO
