

Semi-Official Vote of Lincoln County, N. M., Nov. 8, 1904

PRECINCT	DELEGATE	COU'CIL	LEGIS.	SHERIFF	TREAS'R	CLERK	ASSE'OR	JUDGE	SUPT.	COM. 1st	COM. 3d
No. 1 Lincoln	61	120	49	61	132	31	163	83	107	75	118
No. 2 San Patricio	64	80	17	69	90	42	118	85	76	69	92
No. 3 Los Pallas	30	39	4	42	38	42	37	44	36	47	33
No. 4 Picacho	43	20	4	44	19	26	37	38	25	40	23
No. 5 Rabenton	11	44	11	42	11	42	28	25	28	25	13
No. 6 Richardson	15	24	12	20	29	18	31	15	34	21	28
No. 7 Jicarilla	19	34	3	27	28	28	33	40	14	35	17
No. 8 White Oaks	76	62	70	62	80	58	81	52	98	38	87
No. 9 Capitan	91	95	15	88	112	88	114	98	102	81	118
No. 10 Ruidoso	25	45	6	24	52	23	53	27	48	24	52
No. 11 Nogal	48	35	1	48	36	48	36	59	23	15	68
No. 12 Bonito	57	20	17	65	26	65	28	72	18	57	39
No. 13 Corona	25	26	23	28	28	23	8	44	34	13	19
Total	565	644	87	594	695	530	773	678	664	624	664
Plurality	79			101			243	74		40	51

THE EXCHANGE BANK

WHITE OAKS, NEW MEXICO.

Transacts a General Banking Business—Issues Drafts on all Principal Cities of the World—Accords to Borrowers every accommodation consistent with safety. Accounts solicited.
INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS.

Educational Column

The majority of the school districts in the county are now supplied with teachers and the schools are moving along at a satisfactory pace. The fine weather we are having this autumn should certainly count favorably toward full and regular attendance of pupils.

The White Oaks school is progressing in a way that is gratifying to both teachers and patrons. Prof. Stevenson has an advanced class to which he devotes an hour before and another after the regular school hours, in this way not using the time which should be and is devoted to the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, under his immediate supervision. Since Prof. Stevenson has been in charge, the school has, for the first time, been thoroughly graded and the work is conducted in the most systematic and comprehensive manner.

The lower grades from first to fourth are in charge of Miss Covington, with an enrollment of seventy-six. The large attendance makes very laborious work, but Miss Covington is proving herself a thorough teacher, giving her time and capabilities to the work in a most conscientious way. A lady familiar with the best methods and results in primary teaching in the east visited Miss Covington's school a short time since and her verdict was "excellent." Said she, "I wish all the parents could be made to realize what an excellent teacher they have in Miss Covington."

It has been truly said that "the success of the man depends largely upon the habits of childhood, both mental and physical." A very important fact which the majority of teachers do not take into account is that slipshod, careless personal habits indicate slipshod, careless thinking. When the home environment of the pupil is system and good discipline this element of careless physical habit is not so much in evidence in the school. But the conditions in the majority of the homes in this frontier country could not be classed as well disciplined and systematic, therefore the teacher must not only supply the deficiency in the home teaching but overcome the habits of carelessness and indolence fostered in the home. One teacher in speaking of the difficulties found in a rural school which was put in her charge said: "Oh, the carelessness, the awkwardness and utter lack of all discipline exhibited in my pupils! When they sit they loll, when they stand they loll and when they walk they loll!" To overcome these careless, slipshod physical habits requires the utmost kindness and patience and the most persistent and cheerful effort. Yet it is worth the effort, for with the improvement of the physical habit comes improvement in the mental habit of the pupil.

During the first session of school in the new school building of White Oaks the pupils and teachers of the three departments contributed money with which a handsome large flag was bought and every school day during two years of school the flag was floated from the small tower on the school building. The janitor made it his duty to care for Old Glory and daily took it down and put it up.

What teacher will start the effort for a flag on every school house in the county?
A spirit goes out of the man who means execution, which outlives the most antihy ending.

All who have meant good work with their whole hearts, have done good work, although they may do before they sign it. Every heart that has beat strong and cheerfully has left a hopeful impulse behind it in the world and bettered the conditions of mankind.

One of the familiar figures of White Oaks is about to pull himself loose and hike him to furrer parts, where the wicked never cease from troubling and the bad man, without pretense of provocation shooteth up the town about once a week, or as often as the moon affecteth his bile. Jackson Phynis Gutwallader Langston, a citizen of this place since 1880, will leave, with Mrs. Langston, for Tucuman where they expect to make their home for the future. It is understood they have located a homestead near that metropolis of Quay county and Langston will cultivate the succulent beet and the acquaintance of the political and religious aspect of that benighted region.

Sam Nied, after several weeks sojourn at Vera Cruz, Pyron and the country over beyond Nogal, returned last evening to see if his wife had "rustled" anything for Thanksgiving. It was easy to observe three blocks away by the dimension of Sam's 7x9 smile, this morning that she had.

Winter Underwear. Come to us for your winter underwear. We have a nice line of reliable goods just received from the eastern markets and at bottom prices.
ZEALON BROS.

THE OUTLOOK

A Weekly Newspaper Devoted to the Interest of White Oaks and Lincoln Co., N. M.

Published Every Thursday.

Lee H. Rudisille, Editor and Pub.

Entered as second-class matter, September 8th, 1904, at post office at White Oaks, New Mexico, under the Act of Congress of March 3d, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE.
One Year (in Advance) . . . $1.00
If not paid inside 6 months . . . 1.50

Will Shute, is the name of an express messenger on one of the Texas railroads. No danger of train robbers holding that fellow up.

Benjamin F. Johnson, the newly elected school superintendent of Chaves county, died of tuberculosis at Roswell four days after his election.

There are at least two women in New York city claiming to be the wife of Louis Mormonstein. And yet there are people who say there is nothing in a name.

The democrats can at least console themselves that they will be permitted to live and worry along somehow for four years more under republican hard times, and high tariff, and the gold standard, not to mention all the other ills brought upon the country by republican extravagance and profligacy, as long as there is a comfortable surplus accumulating in the United States treasury unto the long looked for day when they shall come into power, and debts are not accumulating beyond the ability of the country to pay, they can probably stand it like the rest of us, even if they must do some tall kicking the while.

The cabinet makers are once more busy but strange to say we have not yet heard the names of either Thomas Tuggart or William J. Bryan mentioned as a possibility.

Col. Brock, of Westharford Texas, has gone into fancy bee culture. He claims some of his fancy stock cost him more than their weight in gold. If the weight is reckoned from the business end of the bee when it is mad, they must have cost him a mint of money.

The Chicago University several months ago offered a free scholarship to the boy who could carry off first honors in an oratorical contest, to be open to all the high schools in the west. This contest took place in Chicago last week, and the prize was won by Robin Gould, son of Col. George T. Gould, formerly of this territory, but now of El Paso. The boy was born in Las Vegas while his father was engaged in newspaper work at that place, and has always shown great talent in declaiming.

All parties indebted to us are requested to settle their accounts before January 1, 1905. After that date they will be placed in the hands of a collector. Taliaferro Mercantile and Trading Co.

OUR NEW LEGISLATURE.

The following is a list of members of the next New Mexico Legislature, as shown by the election returns:

- First District, Colfax, Mora and Union Counties, Jeremiah Leahy.
- Second District, San Miguel, Leonard Wood and Quay Counties, D. C. Winters and John S. Olark.
- Third District, Taos, Rio Arriba and San Juan Counties, Alexander Read and Malaquias Martinez.
- Fourth District, Santa Fe County, Thomas B. Catron.
- Fifth District, Bernalillo, McKinley and Sandoval Counties, Nestor Montoya and W. H. Greer.
- Sixth District, Valencia and Torrance Counties, J. Francisco Chaves.
- Seventh District, Socorro and Sierra Counties, W. E. Martin.
- Eighth District, Grant, Dona Ana, Luna and Otero Counties, Charles E. Miller.
- Ninth District, Grant, Dona Ana, Otero, Lincoln, Chaves, Eddy and Roosevelt Counties, Charles L. Ballard.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

- First District, Colfax County, M. B. Stockton.
- Second District, Mora County, Cristoval Sanchez.
- Third District, Union County, F. L. Wright.
- Fourth District, Leonard Wood and Quay Counties, M. C. de Baca.
- Fifth District, Santa Fe County, R. L. Baca and Ramon Sandoval.
- Sixth District, Taos County, J. G. Martinez.
- Seventh District, Rio Arriba County, Jose Amado Lucero.
- Eighth District, Taos, Rio Arriba and San Juan Counties, Granville

Pendleton and Maximino Duran. Ninth District, Bernalillo County, Celestino Crollot.

Tenth District, Sandoval County, Cornelio M. Sandoval.

Eleventh District, Bernalillo and McKinley Counties, Thomas N. Wikerson.

Twelfth District, Valencia and Torrance Counties, Silveiro Mirabel and Carl A. Dalies.

Thirteenth District, Socorro and Sierra Counties, H. H. Howard and E. L. Ludlow.

Fourteenth District, Dona Ana and Otero Counties, Florencio Luna.

Fifteenth District, Grant and Luna Counties, Colin Noblett.

Sixteenth District, Dona Ana, Grant, Luna and Otero Counties, James W. Hannigan.

Seventeenth District, Chaves, Eddy, Roosevelt and Lincoln Counties, George F. Ellis.

This gives nineteen seats to the republicans and five to the democrats.

As to the democratic minority in the Council, Charlie Ballard, of this district, and about three others will constitute the manageric, the rest having gone down in the cyclone.

In the House they have fared but little better—just here and there a spared but solitary monument to mark the path of the tantalizing twister.

There will be enough of these however to keep the republicans on their good behavior and do the wind work.

J. M. Rice, of the Eagle mining company, and Mrs. Rice were in Monday from Parsons. He reports the new mill now completed and in fine running order, as a test run amply demonstrated. This mill is an Elpass of the roller type and was put up by Fairbanks, Morse and Co. of Denver, Colorado, with a capacity of fifty tons of ore per day. An American amalgamator will be used in connection with the rollers. The plant is intended to be run in connection with the Hopeful, or Parsons, mine. That this new enterprise will be a success there is no reason to doubt, as the ore runs a good average, is practically inexhaustible and can be mined for one dollar per ton. Mr. Rice has industriously labored for years to put eastern capital into Lincoln county mines and to inspire others with his own sublime faith in their productiveness and certainly deserves success.

WANTED:—Hides, Sheep Pelts, Wool and Goat skins. We will

TALIAFERRO

Mercantile and Trading Company.

DEALERS IN

GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

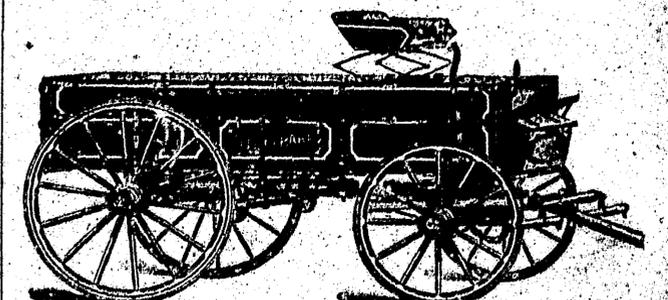

Sole Agents for Chase & Sanborn's Coffee, Hamilton & Brown's Shces, Famous Monarch Canned Goods.

WE CARRY A FULL LINE OF Schilling's Baking Powder, Teas, Spices, Extracts.

MONEY CHEERFULLY REFUNDED IF GOODS ARE NOT FOUND AS REPRESENTED.

STUDEBAKER WAGONS,

Buggies and Spring Wagons, all kinds at

DALL MANN

WHITE OAKS, - NEW MEXICO.

May no one strew tacks in the path of the happy couple who were married in an automobile.

On raising the lid off the Panama canal no temper worth mentioning has been disclosed.

Young couples who are married in automobiles are always exposed to the danger of an early falling out.

Portugal has a new cabinet, but Portugal is too orderly to have any right to expect to attract public attention.

The woman who has posed as the late Jay Gould's widow continues to die frequently, and the mourners are few.

Reginald Vanderbilt paid $650 for a box at the Chicago horse show. He could have got a pretty good horse for that.

As a discourager of the boll weevil the Guatemalan ant is acknowledged to be one of the worst failures of the season.

Old-fashioned marriages were made in heaven. A marriage ceremony recently was performed over the telephone. Hello!

It appears that most of the nations are willing to have another Hague peace conference if it is possible not to interfere in their affairs.

A Chicago park visitor gave a monkey several drinks of whisky. The monkey should resist this foul attempt to make a man of him.

Now that Boston has set the seal of approval on "Earsfal," the late Dr. Wagner has indeed good reason to feel spiritually encouraged.

Some scientist will happen along presently to tell us that the Japanese are so healthy because the kiss as a form of salutation is unknown in Japan.

The women at the St. Paul party who allowed their hostess's husband to examine their stockings in search for missing money were not blue stockings.

The governor of Guam announces that his people need school books. Owing to the mildness of the climate they will continue to get along without trousers.

Empress William says art is partly a devious road that leads far away from the true ideal of beauty. He must have been looking over some horse show posters.

A scientist of Sicily announces that breathing coal dust will cure consumption. Why didn't he discover a cure that would be within reach of the patient of moderate means?

In accordance with his previously expressed wish, no women were allowed at the funeral of Col. Boyd at Norristown. We wonder if any woman regrets that he is dead.

A wild rumor has gained credence to the effect that Oom Paul Kruger buried a lot of gold somewhere in Africa before his banishment. No doubt the Boers will bore for it.

Jealousy caused a Nyack, N. Y. boy 3 1/2 years of age to murder a little girl. Bill some people don't believe there is anything in the claim that a man is old and worn out at 25.

A man tells us that no great success is ever achieved in this world by kicking. If he will accompany us to the football field in a few weeks we will compel him to change his tune.

Bandit Raisul has caused it to be known that he would like to capture another foreigner. He will hardly have a chance. The brevity of Perdicar's fame shows that it doesn't pay.

Our grandfathers used to claim that if whisky were a poison it was a very slow one. But nowadays when the chief ingredient of whisky appears to be wood alcohol the action is somewhat accelerated.

Jacques Marie Joseph Maurice des Rosters de Balaine took out naturalization papers in New York the other day. He'd better cut a lot of it out if he expects to keep up with the procession over here.

The clergymen of the country have been asked to preach on the subject of peace, and many of them are complying. The sermons may not stop the war, but they ought to have a good effect on the choirs.

Just as it is well that all men don't wear the same woman for a wife, so it is fortunate that the man who is crazy about baseball doesn't take the same vivid interest in football, too. Otherwise the work of the world never would be done.

The London Times reports that there is a serious overproduction of Scotch whisky, with a consequent fall in the price. The Scotch whisky is not so good as the Scotch whisky.

The London Times reports that there is a serious overproduction of Scotch whisky, with a consequent fall in the price. The Scotch whisky is not so good as the Scotch whisky.

The revolutionary movement in Brazil has been completely crushed and order restored.

The French postal department has decided to replace its mail coaches by electric motor cars.

Mrs. Will Carleton, wife of the poet-author, died suddenly on the 11th inst. at her home in Brooklyn.

The Santa Fe railway is estimated to have lost $1,000,000 by the recent floods in New Mexico and Arizona.

The bill to abolish capital punishment in Vermont passed the house of representatives by a vote of 163 to 83.

William Mayer of Mount Carroll, Illinois, lost his horse by letting on Parker and committed suicide by hanging.

The St. Louis World's Fair officials have repaid to the United States treasury the entire government loan of $4,600,000.

Thomas Richardson, magistrate of Henry county, Virginia, was found frozen to death on the public highway a few days ago.

Nine scouts of the constabulary and one American attached to the hospital corps have been killed in an ambush on the east coast of Samar.

Serious anti-vaccination riots have taken place in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Troops were called out and seven persons killed and thirty wounded.

A bronze statue of Robert Treat Paine, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was unveiled at Taunton, Massachusetts, on the 15th inst.

It is officially announced that the Seoul Pusan railway was completed. Traffic will begin December 1st. The time between Tokio and Seoul will then be fifty hours.

William L. Douglas, the newly elected shoe-maker governor of Massachusetts, gave the Democratic state committee $34,200 for campaign expenses and thinks he got off easy.

The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway into Wichita, Kansas, opened for business November 13th. Contracts have been let for the construction of 522 miles of road from Wichita toward Kansas City.

President Roosevelt will recommend to Congress that authority be given the Philippine commission to revise the tariff now in force in those islands. Since it has been in effect many changes have become necessary for the development of the islands.

Rev. Dr. Herbert Welch, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Mt. Vernon, New York, has been chosen by the trustees as the new president of Ohio Wesleyan university, succeeding Rev. J. W. Bashford, who last spring was elected a bishop.

The Chinese government has undertaken, in return for certain concessions as to remission and calculation of interest, to pay a whole of the national indemnity of 1901 on a gold basis. The powers are certain to accept the proposals, which are unexpectedly favorable.

The missionary committee of the Methodist Episcopal convention at Boston voted unanimously to appropriate $1,220,000 for missionary work during the coming year, and that this sum be so divided as to give $701,500 for work in the foreign field, and $518,500 for domestic work.

The American consul at Kharput, Dr. Thomas H. Norton, has been instructed to proceed to the Turko-Persian frontier and watch the operations of the Turkish and Persian authorities who have undertaken to arrest the murderers of the American missionary, Rev. B. W. Labaree, who was killed in April last.

The straw vote in the American colony of Mexico City, which was participated in by many of the colony, demonstrated conclusively the choice of Roosevelt for President. All had supposed that the colony would go overwhelmingly Democratic. The result was: Roosevelt, 355; Parker 215; Swallow 13; Debs 10; Watson 4.

A Vancouver, B. C., newspaper says that Dr. Neil S. Phelps, of Battle Creek, Michigan, the scientist and former millionaire, who mysteriously disappeared a year ago, has been quietly living in Vancouver nearly the whole of that time under the name of Dr. Fields. His identity was discovered by a photograph published in a Chicago paper and he suddenly disappeared.

The following are among the appropriations made by the Methodist Missionary committee at the conference in Boston: For colored work, mostly in the South, $27,500; for work among whites in Alaska, $8,000; in California, $7,500. During the week a total of nearly $1,537,000 was appropriated to mission work carried on in thirty foreign countries and in sixteen languages in the United States.

At Pekin, November 12th the American, Austrian, German, Russian and Belgian ministers were received in audience in the forbidden city, and presented the dowager empress with autograph letters from their respective rulers, congratulating her on her birthday. The other ministers will present letters later. The dowager empress will send her portrait to the rulers who noticed her birthday.

Gabriel Syveton, the Nationalist deputy who struck War Minister Andre in the face during the debate of November 4th in the French Chamber of Deputies, was arrested on the 10th inst. as he was about to take up his position for a duel with Captain Cahil, who is an intimate friend of General Andre and who is supposed to represent him. The arrangements contemplated the use of pistols and two shots each. M. Syveton's arrest begins the criminal prosecution for assaulting General Andre.

Secretary Hay has received assurance, not official, but sufficient, from Great Britain and Mexico, that they stand prepared to negotiate arbitration treaties with America on the lines of that recently concluded between France and the United States. Germany is ready to negotiate a treaty, and the Italian and Swiss treaties are almost complete. It is known that a number of the countries in Central and South America stand ready to negotiate similar arrangements with the United States.

Economizing Water Supply.

The New Mexico experiment station is making the study of irrigation problems its chief line of work; and among other problems is studying the most economical amount of water necessary for the production of crops.

There are three directions says a recent bulletin in which even an approximation to the least amount of water necessary for producing a full crop would prove very valuable.

The first is in pumping. Here each inch of water added above what is absolutely necessary increases materially the cost of producing the crop. Whether the crop is produced at a profit or a loss may depend on the use of a few inches of water more than is absolutely necessary.

The second is in estimating the size of the storage reservoir for the irrigation of a given area, or the area, which is irrigated from a reservoir of given size. In either case each acre-foot of water can only irrigate a certain area of land, and if a third more water than necessary is used, then the area which can be irrigated from the reservoir will be decreased one-third.

The third is in enabling us to economize in the use of the water of our present canal system. There is scarcely an irrigation system in New Mexico, or anywhere else, where there is not more land that can be easily reached than there is water for under the present methods of irrigation. If the amount of water used could be materially decreased without decreasing the crop yield, it would then be possible to increase the acreage under cultivation in that locality.

In many places in other states, the people have found that they can do with very much less water than they formerly thought was possible; and such a thing may some day happen in New Mexico.

Not only would a more economical use of water permit the enlargement of the cultivate area, but it would save the man who has located on low land from being damaged by the seepage from the excess of water used by his neighbors above. Much of the alkali in the irrigated districts is due to the waste of water, either from over irrigation or from leaky ditches.

The experiment station is experimenting on wheat and alfalfa. This year one of the principal objects in the wheat experiments was to find out whether different amounts of water supplied after the wheat began to head had any marked effect on the yield, and if so, which amount was most economical.

One set of six plots was irrigated once a week a. or heading, receiving thirty-five acre inches of water per acre in seven irrigations, and gave an average yield of eighteen bushels per acre, another was irrigated once in two weeks, received twenty-nine acre-inches per acre in five irrigations, and one-tenth bushel per acre, yielded sixteen and six-tenths bushels per acre; a third was irrigated once in three weeks after heading, received twenty-five acre-inches per acre in four irrigations, and yielded fifteen and one-tenth bushels per acre, and a fourth set consisting of two plots received eighteen acre-inches per acre in three irrigations, and yielded ten and three-tenths bushels per acre. All of the plots received an irrigation at sowing, another in April and the third the middle of May when the wheat began to head.

From these results we would infer that eighteen acre-inches was not enough; and as the ten acre-inches over twenty-five only gave three bushels of wheat more, it would seem that twenty-five acre-inches was the most economical amount used. It is only by repeating such experiments year after year that we will finally learn just what amount to use. After heading the set of plants irrigated once a week received usually four acre-inches of water each week, but they generally lost in the moisture content of the first six feet of soil until the wheat was out. Practically none of the thirty-five acre-inches applied penetrated below the fifth foot. The detailed results of these experiments will soon be published as a station bulletin.

The results of the experiments with alfalfa will form the subject of later press bulletins.

New Solicitor General.

The New Mexican prints the following sketch: George W. Prichard of White Oaks, Lincoln county, who has just been appointed by Governor Otero, solicitor general of New Mexico, is an attorney who has been a member of the New Mexico bar for twenty-five years. He was born at New Harmony, Indiana, the son of James E. Prichard, who was a judge on the bench for a number of years and whose father was a soldier in the War of 1812. Colonel Prichard's mother, whose maiden name was Martha Downs, died when he was but a lad. His family on both sides were Kentuckians, whose ancestors came from Virginia.

Colonel Prichard's early education was derived mainly from private tutors. He graduated from the literary and law departments of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, leaving that institution in 1872. He at once entered upon the practice of his profession and was successful from the start, being noted in his early youth for his eloquence. He practiced law at Little Rock, Arkansas, for some years after graduating. Governor Powell Clayton of that state appointed him lieutenant colonel of the Arkansas militia.

In 1878 Colonel Prichard was a candidate for presidential elector on the Republican ticket, a rare honor for so young a man. In 1879, Colonel Prichard came West in quest of health and settled at Las Vegas, in this territory. Twice he was elected to the Legislative Council and served his constituents in an efficient and creditable manner, and made an enviable record for honesty and carefulness.

In 1885 President Arthur appointed him United States attorney for New Mexico, which position he filled creditably and efficiently until the Cleveland administration appointed a Democrat to the post.

born a resident of White Oaks, Lincoln county, and has been engaged in the practice of his profession, always taking a strong interest in territorial politics.

Romeroville Sanitarium.

A Las Vegas correspondent gives the following details of the proposed new sanitarium near that city as follows:

Dr. Frederick W. Seward, of Goshen, N. Y. and Dr. W. T. Brown of Lancaster, Wisconsin, have purchased the magnificent Romeroville ranch property four miles below this city, and will immediately establish a tent, cottage and pavilion sanitarium of the most scientific and up-to-date nature. The ranch consists of 3,000 acres, part being under irrigation, the rest covered with pine and cedar forests. The big two-story ranch house, known throughout the territory as the Mansion, was built years ago by Don Trinidad Romero, every stick of timber being freighted from Chicago. It cost $25,000. There are a number of tenant houses, stone barns and large pastures. The location, in full view of the main range of the Las Vegas mountains, is ideal.

Dr. Brown is the physician who was at the head of the plan for reopening the Montezuma as a sanitarium. The proposition proved unsatisfactory because the physicians who intended to put $100,000 into it could secure a lease only subject to a sale should opportunity arise. Those noted physicians who were interested in the Montezuma scheme will send their patients instead to the Romeroville institution.

Dr. Seward is ranked as one of the greatest climatological specialists of the East. Every year he is appealed to by scores of eastern physicians to decide the localities in the West to which patients are to be sent. He is the owner of the "Interpines," the beautiful "Invalids' Home" at Goshen, New York. Twenty-eight years ago, Dr. Seward, a broken down invalid, came to New Mexico. He remained for four years and was entirely restored to health. Since that day he has always been the loyal friend of New Mexico and says that during the years since he left the territory, it has been his most cherished ambition to be able to establish a sanitarium in New Mexico.

The new owners have already ordered a supply of Walker tents and the work of building cottages and preparing the place for the reception of patients is to begin at once. It is proposed to prepare accommodations for an unlimited number of patients.

The Next Legislature.

The New Mexican gives the following as the probable make-up of the next Legislative Assembly:

- First District, Colfax County—M. B. Stockton.
Second District, Mora County—Cristoval Sanchez.
Third District, Union County—F. L. Wright.
Fourth District, Leonard, Wood and Quay Counties—M. C. de Baca.
Fifth District, Santa Fe County—R. L. Baca and Ramon Sandoval.
Sixth District, Taos County—Juan G. Martinez.
Seventh District, Rio Arriba County—Jose Amada Lucero.
Eighth District—Taos, Rio Arriba and San Juap Counties—Granville Pendleton.
Ninth District—Bernalillo County—Seferino Crollott.
Tenth District, Sandoval County—Cornelio M. Sandoval.
Eleventh District, Bernalillo and McKinley Counties—Thomas N. Wilker.
Twelfth District, Valencia and Torrance Counties—Silvester Mirabel and Carl A. Dalles.
Thirteenth District, Socorro and Sierra Counties—H. H. Howard and E. L. Ludlow.
Fourteenth District, Dona Ana and Otero Counties—W. H. H. Llewellyn.
Fifteenth District, Chaves, Eddy, Roosevelt and Lincoln Counties—George F. Bills.
Sixteenth District, Socorro and Sierra Counties—H. H. Howard and E. L. Ludlow.
Seventeenth District, Grant and Luna Counties—Colin Neblett.
Eighteenth District, Dona Ana, Grant and Otero Counties. Still in doubt but it looks as if James W. Hannigan, Republican, is elected by a small majority.
Nineteenth District, Chaves, Eddy, Roosevelt and Lincoln Counties—George F. Bills.
Twentieth District, Socorro and Sierra Counties—H. H. Howard and E. L. Ludlow.
Twenty-first District, Santa Fe County—Thomas B. Catron.
Twenty-second District, Bernalillo, McKinley and Sandoval Counties—Nestor Montoya and W. H. Greer.
Twenty-third District, Valencia and Torrance Counties—J. Francisco Chaves.
Twenty-fourth District, Socorro and Sierra Counties—W. E. Martin.
Twenty-fifth District, Grant, Dona Ana, Luna and Otero Counties—Charles E. Miller.
Twenty-sixth District, Grant, Dona Ana, Otero, Lincoln, Chaves, Eddy and Roosevelt Counties—Charles L. Ballard.

The Zuni Reservoir.

John B. Harper, chief engineer of the construction of the Zuni Reservoir, while in the city yesterday, gave a New Mexican reporter some interesting facts in regard to the big dam and reservoir, which when completed will store water for the irrigation of about 1,000 acres of Indian lands. "Work is progressing have done so far. Considerable labor has been expended on the dam, which is considered by experts to be quite an undertaking. When completed it will be 400 feet long, seventy feet high and 300 feet in thickness at the base. It is made of dry rock with earth filled in by hydraulic washing. It will be about a year and a half before the dam and reservoir are completed, and about two years before the entire system is finished. The labor is all being done by Indians from the Zuni pueblos, and they are good workers.

"The building of the dam and reservoir is more of a test than anything else, as it is being constructed under typical New Mexico conditions, which consist principally of a lava flow on top and softer formations underneath, so that the success of it will mean much to the territory, outside of the irrigation of the 6,000 acres of reservation land. With its successful completion, I expect that the government will make appropriations for the constructing of several other reservoirs throughout the territory. We began work in February of this year and everything has gone splendidly up to date."—Santa Fe New Mexican.

Reservoir Protests Withdrawn.

A Roswell dispatch says that the protests entered against the building of the Hondo reservoir, twelve miles from Roswell, by Frank G. Tracy, president of the irrigation company of Carlsbad, and the Water Users' Association of Carlsbad, have been withdrawn.

The official withdrawal papers are now in the hands of United States Attorney Bien at El Paso. This removes the last doubt as to the building of the reservoir. The building of the reservoir will greatly enhance the future prosperity of the country and the entire valley.

The news was received with rejoicing by the citizens. Many had invested thousands of dollars here in property with the thought that the reservoir would be built. It will also mean that the flood waters of the Hondo will be caught and Roswell will be immune from the floods thereafter. The cost of the reservoir will be $240,000.

New Corporations.

Incorporation papers were filed at Santa Fe on the 8th inst. by the Cimarron Mountain Mining Company, capitalization $2,000,000. The incorporators are Quincy A. Smith, George W. Stone, Charles C. Hopkins and Franklin S. Porter of Lansing, Michigan. These are also directors in addition to John Morrow and Thomas D. Leib, also of Michigan.

The Surety Investment Company of Albuquerque, capitalization $50,000, and headquarters at Albuquerque.

The Traction Land and Improvement Company of Albuquerque, capitalization $25,000; headquarters at Albuquerque.

Governor Otero has appointed George W. Prichard of White Oaks, Lincoln county, solicitor general of New Mexico to succeed the late General E. L. Bartlett.

Governor Otero has issued a Thanksgiving Day proclamation naming Thursday, the 24th day of November, A. D. 1904, as Thanksgiving Day and a public holiday within the limits of the territory of New Mexico.

A Roswell dispatch of the 12th inst. says: The largest artesian gusher in this section of the valley was brought in to-day eight miles from this city and is one mile from Egerman's big orchard. The depth is only 481 feet but there is a river of water gushing high over the casing.

The Santa Fe Board of Trade recently passed strong resolutions urging Delegate to Congress Bernard S. Rodey to work for the passage of the bill to establish a national cliff dwellers park west of Santa Fe. The general land office has withdrawn from settlement this land sought to be set aside.

The Moffitt Mining and Milling Company has filed incorporation papers at Santa Fe, the directors and incorporators being John H. Moffitt, president; Abraham Campbell, secretary; Kingston, Sierra county, and Michael J. Cunningham, treasurer, Blisbee, Arizona. The principal place of business is the mining camp of Kingston. Capital stock, $300,000.

A Santa Fe dispatch of November 11th says: According to an announcement made to-day by Willard S. Hopewell, manager of the New Mexico Fuel and Iron Company, the work of laying the steel will commence next week on the Santa Fe Central branch of twenty-six miles to the Hagan coal fields. The junction will be at Moriarity and the terminus at Hagan.

George M. Slaughter at Roswell received word from St. Louis saying his lot of Shorthorns had taken the first prize at the World's Fair and his lot of two-year-old Herefords the second prize. This same lot of Shorthorns took the first prize at the Royal Stock Show, and the same Herefords took the third prize at the same time. Slaughter's Herefords are famous throughout the entire West.

A Santa Fe dispatch of the 14th inst. says. Only three counties thus far have filed their official election returns. The figures changed the totals but not the result on the congressional delegate election. Valencia county gave Senator W. H. Andrews, the Republican candidate, 1,821 votes; George P. Money, the Democratic candidate, 6; Bernard S. Rodey, Independent Republican candidate, 31 votes. Luna county gave Andrews 154, Money 124, Rodey 71. Santa Fe county, Andrews, 1,310, Money 1,151, Rodey 254.

The New Mexico Territorial Medical Society is to be reorganized. The societies represented in this body are those of Albuquerque, Roswell, Las Vegas and Silver City. The laws that will govern the new organization are those laid down by the American Medical Society and are considerably different from those which have been used in the past. Dr. F. J. Fitzgerald is attending to this particular business for the local organization, which is composed of twenty-one members and which is entitled to one representative in the territorial body.—Albuquerque Journal.

WASH BLUE. Costs 10 cents and equals 20 cents worth of any other kind of bluing. Won't Freeze, Spill, Break. Nor Spot Clothes. DIRECTIONS FOR USE: Wiggle-Stick around in the water. At all wise Grocers.

EXPOSITION AT PORTLAND, ORE.

Great Event for the Northwestern States Next Summer.—Buildings to Cost Half a Million.

The Lewis and Clark Exposition will open at Portland, Oregon, on June 1st next. More than one-half the buildings are already under roof and will be completed before January 1st, says William E. Curtis in the Chicago Record-Herald. The rest of them will be ready for business early in the spring. A considerable part of the exhibits are coming from St. Louis, and the buildings will be ready for their installation as soon as they arrive, shortly after December 1st.

Compared with St. Louis the Portland Exposition will be a miniature, but it will equal those of Buffalo, Omaha, Nashville, Atlanta and Charleston. It is to be a million-dollar exposition. Five hundred thousand dollars has been contributed by the state and $500,000 by citizens of Portland of every class and quality. There are more than 3,000 stockholders. Half a million will be spent in buildings, about $350,000 in the improvement of the grounds, and the remainder will be working capital. The government of the United States has made a very liberal appropriation, and all of the Northwestern and Pacific states are taking an active and generous interest in the enterprise.

The site of the Exposition is about two miles from the city—twelve minutes by trolley cars from the center of things. The fence encloses 185 acres of land and 350 acres of water—a lake with an island which furnishes a key of the landscape scheme. Surrounding the lake is a group of low hills, the foothills of the mountain range that embraces Portland, and upon them the buildings will be placed. It is a superb location. The view from any part of the grounds is the same as that from the Mountain park of Portland, almost without a parallel for beauty and grandeur. Nine snow-capped peaks bound the horizon, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Feet. Mt. Ranier 14,528; Mt. Adams 12,402; Mt. Hood 11,225; Mt. Jefferson 10,200; Mt. Pitt 9,760; Three Sisters (South Peak) 10,200; Mt. St. Helena 9,750; Mt. Thielsen 9,258; Mt. Scott 9,128.

The Olmstead brothers of Boston laid out the grounds and allotted fifty acres for buildings, twenty acres for concessions, ten acres for a sample farm under the management of the Oregon Agricultural College, sixty acres for the live stock show, and sixty acres upon the island in the lake for Indian villages and amusement grounds. Wild West shows, war dances, Indian sports, cattle roping, broncho riding, cowboy races, and other features of outdoor life peculiar to the plains and mountains of the United States.

Railway Building.

Statistics for railroad building during the present year show that the southwestern states have maintained the supremacy they have enjoyed since 1901. During the year a total of 4,714 miles of road have been constructed, and of this mileage 1,804 miles were constructed in the section mentioned, or more than one-third of the total.

The Northwestern states come next in importance in this connection, with 683 miles, and then the Gulf and Mississippi valley states with 603 miles. The Pacific states are fourth with 561 miles.

Ask Your Druggist for Allen's Foot-Ease.

"I tried ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE recently, and have just bought another supply. It has cured my corns, and the hot, burning and itching sensation in my feet which was almost unbearable, and I would not be without it now.—Mrs. W. J. Walker, Camden, N. J." Sold by all Druggists, 25c.

Bridget, you must be more careful with your dusting. I declare I could write my name upon the piano.

"Deed, ma'am, it's yarsilf has the gran' eddycayahun!"

TEA

"Wasn't it dreadful!"

"Yes."

"Did she know it?"

"Probably not."

The less any man has to say about the high opinion he has of himself the better.

Do not believe Pico's Cure for Consumption has an equal for coughs and colds.—JOHN W. BOWEN, Treaty Springs, Ind., Feb. 18, 1904.

Probably the rolling stone doesn't care to pose as a misanthrope, anyway.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, soothes the gums, reduces inflammation, always cures, never hurts. It is a wonder.

Bachelors define marriage and misery as synonymous.

FRANK BOOK FOR MEN who are in need of medical aid. Address E. E. Emmet, 208 Nassau block, Denver.

Blubb—So you patronize the races, eh? Did you ever go broke? Blubb—No, but I've come home that way.

When STURGE'S SKI-SANDY (The Chamberlain Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Remedy) is used, it cures the most stubborn cases of Catarrh of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. It is a wonder.

The man who has the sting of the bee on his brow usually has the sting of it on his nerves.

JEST NUTS

What He Wanted.
The Tramp—"Say, mister, would you kindly give me $10 to get something to eat with?"
The Parson—"What, $10 to get something to eat with? Why, my good man, I never pay more than 50 cents for a meal."
The Tramp—"That's all right, mister; but I want to get a set of false teeth. See?"

Other Side of it.
Him—"I think a man should marry a girl he has known from his childhood."
Her—"Yes, but if a girl knew a man from childhood she would probably know better than to marry him."

Looking Ahead.
The Senior Partner—I don't see how you can charge the money you've spent on that impecunious young fellow up as business expenses?
The Young Lawyer—That's simple enough. He has a rich uncle that is sick, and there's going to be a lovely contest over his will.
Forced to Stop Drinking.
"How did he stop himself from drinking?"
He didn't. It was the work of his friends.
"And how did they accomplish it?"
"They took advantage of his stinginess and quit inviting him to drink."

Helping Out the Doctor.
Doctor (politely, but looking at his watch with visible impatience)—Pardon me, madam, but my time is not my own. You have given me all your symptoms in sufficient detail, and now, perhaps, you will kindly—er—ah—
Husband (not so considerably)—Marja, he doesn't want to hear your tongue any more. He wants to look at it.
A Hard Knock.
"There's an awful row on in the ladies' literary club."
"What's the matter?"
"Why, the president requested Grace to write an article on her personal reminiscences of the civil war."
"Well?"
"Well, Grace claims she wasn't born until ten years after the war was over."—Detroit Free Press.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

THE REASON.

Mr. Jackson—I want to get a divorce.
Lawyer—Has your wife left you?
Mr. Jackson—Dat's just de trouble. She won't leave me.

Two Viewpoints.
Mr. Hoamley—I had a dream about you last night, Miss Pechis. I dreamed that you and I were married, and—Miss Pechis—Well, well! Isn't it funny how circumstances alter cases?
Mr. Hoamley—How do you mean?
Miss Pechis—Well, that wouldn't have been a dream if I had had it. It would have been a nightmare.

Couldn't Stand That.
Frayed Fogarty—I'm much obliged to yer, lady, but dat old suit won't do fur me, nohow.
Mrs. Goodart—Why not? It's almost new, and it will keep you warm; it's certainly big enough for you.
Frayed Fogarty—Dat's de whole trouble. It'd be so baggy on me it'd make me look like a British cook or somethin'.

Making No Insinuations.
Barnes—When Howes came to the city he was honest and unsophisticated.
Shedd—And now he is a competent thief?
Barnes—I didn't insinuate anything of the kind. I was only thinking that he is now worth half a million.—Boston Transcript.

Off Cay.
Miss Newage—What was done at the New Woman International progressive club to-day?
Bachelor Girl—Nothing. You see, Mrs. Sweetie happened to come in with her baby, and before we all got through kissing the little cherub it was time to adjourn.—New York Weekly.

A Free Translation.
Mrs. Hornhand—I notice hyer in th' paper that th' deaf an' dumb people had a fancy doin's an' cake walk 'other night in taown.
Farmer Hornhand—I wisht ye'd hush! I s'pose that's one o' them dumb-dumb balls ye hear about whenever they's a war.—Baltimore American.

A Treat in Prospect.
Bronco Bill—Just before Roarin' Dan was lynched he said he hoped he would meet all de boys in heaven.
Grizzly Pete—Did, eh?
Bronco Bill—Yes, an' de boys said dey hoped so, too, so dey could have de fun-ny lynchin' him over ag'in.—Judge.

One on Mamma.
Anxious Mother—My dear, you should begin to think seriously of marriage. I was married at your age.
Fretful Daughter—Yes, I know you were, mamma; but grandpa says you were at my age for nearly five years, so I have plenty of time yet.

He Was an Optimist.
Jack—Congratulate me, old man. Miss Fusslegh has made me happy for life.
Tom—Indeed! When is the wedding to take place?
Jack—Never. She refused me.

In the Car.
The fare register says "Out 50." What does that mean?
"I guess it means the conductor is out 50 cents. Anyway, he looks short."

Losing No Time.
Guttersnipe—Please, mudder wants sixpence on this 'ere fryin' pan.
Pawnbroker—Hallo! It's hot!
Guttersnipe—Yus, mudder's just cooked 'is sossiges an' wants the money for the beer!—London Punch.

At it Again.
Maude—You say, Clara, you paid only a quarter for having your tan shoes dyed. Why, they charged me 50 cents.
Clara—Did they? Well, I suppose they charge according to the size.

Received with Fitting Honors.
Mrs. Suburb—Doral Doral! Daughter—Yes, ma.
Mrs. Suburb—Run to the piano and play "Hail to the Chief." Here comes

He Paid the Freight.
Wife (at breakfast)—Here's a letter for you, dear.
Husband—But it's addressed to you.
Wife—Yes, but it's for you, just

FORGOT HIMSELF.

A Wise Young Woman.
He—It is true, darling, that I haven't a penny that I can call my own just now, but my father is worth a million, and—
She (interrupting)—Excuse me, but is your mother living?
He—No.
She—Oh, you dear boy! Will you do me a favor?
He—Sure. What s it?
She—Introduce me to your father.

Business Methods in a Story.
The artist—What are you at now, old man?
The author—A football story.
The artist—And the hero wins the game with a ninety-yard run, of course?
The author—Not this hero; he simply corners the ticket market and lives easy ever afterward.—Town Topics.

Time Needed.
Wife—"Breakfast will be served in about fifteen minutes."
Husband—"Why, I thought the cook had everything ready."
Wife—"So she has; everything but that new 'instantaneous breakfast food.'"

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

And He Was "It."
Judge Lueders—There isn't any evidence against this man, officer. Why did you arrest him?
Officer Green—Well, there wasn't any evidence against any one else, your honor, and I had to arrest somebody.

Safe.
"Your pa and ma are going to take you to Europe with them, aren't they?" asked the caller.
"Yes'm," replied the little boy.
"And aren't you afraid?"
"No'm; I ain't afraid o' nothin'. I'm been vaccinated."

Helping Out the Doctor.
Doctor (politely, but looking at his watch with visible impatience)—Pardon me, madam, but my time is not my own. You have given me all your symptoms in sufficient detail, and now, perhaps, you will kindly—er—ah—
Husband (not so considerably)—Marja, he doesn't want to hear your tongue any more. He wants to look at it.

A Hard Knock.
"There's an awful row on in the ladies' literary club."
"What's the matter?"
"Why, the president requested Grace to write an article on her personal reminiscences of the civil war."
"Well?"
"Well, Grace claims she wasn't born until ten years after the war was over."—Detroit Free Press.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

Turned the Boys Heads.
Professor George H. Howison, the head of the philosophy department of the University of California, has startled the college community by declaring that the large number of women students attending the university is inconsistent with the attainment of high scholarly ideals.

An Honest Opinion.
Mineral, Idaho, Nev. 14th.—(Special.)—That a sure cure has been discovered for those sciatic pains that make so many lives miserable, is the firm opinion of Mr. D. S. Colson, a well known resident of this place, and he does not hesitate to say that cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. The reason Mr. Colson is so firm in his opinion is that he had those terrible pains and is cured. Speaking of the matter he says:
"I am only too happy to say Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me lots of good. I had awful pains in my hip so I could hardly walk. Dodd's Kidney Pills stopped it entirely. I think they are a grand medicine."
All sciatic and Rheumatic pains are caused by Uric Acid in the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy Kidneys, and healthy Kidneys strain all the Uric Acid out of the blood. With the cause removed there can be no Rheumatism or Sciatica.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe, and we shall have to remove a small portion of the brain before the operation is entirely over."
"Don't remove any more than is absolutely necessary," pleaded the anxious wife. "Poor George hasn't any to spare."
Hopeless.
Optimist—I suppose you consider yourself unlucky because you weren't born with a silver spoon in your mouth?
Pessimist—Well, if I had been born that way this life wouldn't bother me.
Optimist—Of course not.
Pessimist—Yes, it would just have been my luck to have the spoon choke me to death.

None to Spare.
"Your husband will pull through, madam," the surgeons said, "although the injury to the skull is quite severe,

WHAT MAY BE BOTH.

A boy and girl: A belle-boy.
A Chinese song and dance: Hop Sing.
Men dead, but not repaired: Some widows.
A poet maid as well as born: A poetess.
Lost and won at the same moment: A battle.
Done with teeth or without: Gum chewing.
Fragile and not in firm: Old people's teeth.
A security and an insecurity: A lean on a building.
Prospective tow and expected heal: A flaxseed poultice.
Stopping and going at the same time: Hotel guests.
In a final account and a continued story: Added interest.
A mile around and only a yard in side: A graveyard fence.
A well-founded and groundless terror: An approaching cyclone.
A religious influence and an influence without religion: A sinner-cure.
A confirmed and unsupported rumor: One his landlady can't get rid of.
Level-headed yet stuck on himself: A Washington postage stamp on a letter.
Putting on airs and putting off heirs: A healthy, wealthy, old bachelor.
A profane and an innocent expression: The expression of dom-ure eyes.
Extra-ordinary and common: The half-hour editions of the afternoon papers.
Greatly longed for, yet directly contrary to one's inclination: Blaine from a sick bed.—Tom Fullory in Chicago Record-Herald.

LE DAVID'S "FILOBOFY."

Self-Ma'd menn wuz blazme gore Mekannicks.
If a woman likes a Puppi she's moron likely to like a Babby; an if she likes a Babby she's a heap moron likely to have a lot of good to her somewhere, no matter what the Sols Sirkle sez.
The Pore are Bruthers. The Ritche Lay no Relashuns.
It enny Thing, a reel ritche Man, wen he dize, he dize jest a loetle shade deadern enny other sort o Mann.
P. S.—Yore Uncle David is not outeb.
I am credably informed that there is a new altum of typewriter operation now as the "touch sistum." The discovery is not Nu. I have noun a heap of Men who have made a livin all their lives operatin by the Touch Sistum.
There is a heap of men goan throo life an never dinkivars the grate truths that wen a Shirt is Dirty on the Koua, itt is dirty All Over.—Uncle David, in Field and Stream.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

A widow is awful knowing to know so little.
No woman has red enough hair to call it so.
It takes a girl's little hand to start a big squocca.
One of the very best investments a man can make with his money is not to lead it.
It's funny how much coal a small furnace can use up when it can't even be made to burn.—New York Press.

DINKELSPIEL'S DEFFYNISJONS.

Der meaning of Flattery is der kind words our friends say about peoples ve deand like.
Der meaning of Enchayment is der National bubbles vich rise mittin us ve learn dot a rival has fell down vumped his ambition.
Der meaning of Charity is ven red begianing at home and offershose and valts outid is der neighbors getting.
Flassee is to hal ven from der gro-

Coats and Walking Skirts.

The habit coat which will accompany the walking skirt bids fair to be plain, and the sleeves, like those in most garments, will be moderate. An effective model of light weight mustard brown cloth is trimmed with passementerie braid. The skirt is hung in small box plaits, with the exception of the front breadth, and attached just about the knees with little clusters of braid loops. The bottom of the skirt is trimmed with rather an elaborate pattern done in the braid, but at this point the plaits are left free. The bolero has reversible fronts faced with silk in the same tons and embroidered with the passementerie, the coat fastening with passementerie loops and buttons. The sleeves are gathered into the cuff by means of a row of small box plaits taken in the material half way between the shoulder and elbow. The cuff about the hand is trimmed with passementerie.

Shoe Lore.

Slippers run to gayety and high heels. Some of the new ones have eight straps. Cuban heels are more fashionable for walking than French heels. Many women are wearing a plain-vamped shoe without a tip. Dull kids will be more fashionable this season than for some time. Patent leather is the thing for dress occasions, but is not durable for hard wear. It seems true that toes are becoming more pointed than for several years past. In high dress shoes cloth uppers are in good taste. Bronze slippers, buttoned with a strap across the instep and worked with bronze beads, are modish. As for stockings, extreme open-stitch styles are demode, and a fine but plain woven hose is the correct thing.

Joy of the Boudoir.

One woman who uses a costumer in her room says that it is the joy of her life. A costumer always needs explanation, for no one is quite sure of it by its proper name. It is the clothes hanger with a central pole and prongs of one kind or another at the top. The woman who uses them says that she keeps her outdoor wraps, which she is constantly using, on the costumer, has them always at hand, and does not have a remorseful conscience because they are not tucked away in the closet. Anything she wishes to have conveniently at hand she puts on the costumer, including the clothes which she removes when she retires at night. One of these in the best wood costs $5. It can be finished in enamel to match chamber sets if desired.

Misses' Tucked Coat.

Tucked coats worn with belts that confine them at the back and sides are exceedingly becoming to young girls and are among the latest and most attractive models shown. This very excellent example is adapted both to the costume and to the general wrap and to the many materials of the season, but is shown in a mixed brown cheviot trimmed with brown velvet edged with fancy braid. The long lines of the front, provided by the tucks which pass over the belt, add greatly to the style and make a specially noteworthy feature. The sleeves are the new ones that are full at the shoulders and are finished with roll-over cuffs. The coat is made with front, back and under-arm gores and is finished at the neck with a simple roll-over collar. The sleeves are full and are plaited into bands that are concealed by the cuffs. The belt is adjusted over the back and fronts to the center tucks, where it passes through openings left for the purpose and is closed invisibly. The quantity of material required for the medium size is 3 yards 27 inches wide, 3 1/2 yards 44 inches wide or 2 1/2 yards 52 inches wide, with 1/2 yard of velvet and 1 1/2 yards of braid to trim as illustrated.

Ivory in Fashion Again.

Ivory toilet sets have once more come into fashion after years of neglect. During which time silver-toilet sets have been in vogue, which again by tortoise-shell sets mounted in gold, at present the apex of extravagance and fashion.

Some people say it is the interest we feel in the Japanese at this moment that has brought back the ivory toilet sets, into favor, but others declare it is simply the moment for ivory. A jeweler says that there is another cause, and that is that ivory is not quite so expensive as it was. It is being used either plain or carved, and sometimes delicately colored with art nouveau tints and designs.

Blouse or Shirt Waist.

Plain shirt waists always are in demand and always fill a need. This one shows the new sleeves that are full at inches wide, 7 yards 44 inches wide box plait at the center front. The model is made of Russian blue Stellan mohair, stitched with corticelli silk, and is worn with a belt and tie of black taffeta. All waisting materials are, however, appropriate, the many mercerized cottons, as well as wool and silk.

The waist consists of the fitted lining, which is optional, fronts and back

The back is plain across the shoulders, drawn down in gathers at the waist line, but the fronts are gathered at their upper edges, also, a forming becoming folds. The sleeves are in shirt style, gathered into straight cuffs, and at the neck is a regulation stock.

Novelty From Paris.

"Tilleul" is the name Parisians apply to the greenish yellow or yellowish pale green called after the linden tree. It is seen in the smart brocades which imitate old-fashioned colors chiefly seen now in scraps of hoarded satin or brocade velvet, or in some hereditary garment handed down by a long-pedigreed colonial dame. One cannot say tilleul is strictly becoming to the majority of women, but a pronounced brunette, with a clear, high color, may safely venture upon wearing this fashionable new shade near her face without the aid of a lace assistance. It is seen in the narrow waistcoats of dressy broadcloth costumes.

About Muffs.

Muffs are a very important item in the fashionable girl's winter outfit; and the new ones are just as quaint and old-timey as are the smart effects they accompany. There are the familiar flat pouch-shape, the round pill low, bigger than ever; and nowadays they term the Victorian what used to be called the granny muff.

A very fascinating novelty combines a handbag and muff; the bag is mounted invisibly in the top of the muff, just a jeweled clasp peeping out to indicate its whereabouts. Others in the same style show merely a purse, but either form is in the height of fashion.

Beautiful Irish Lace.

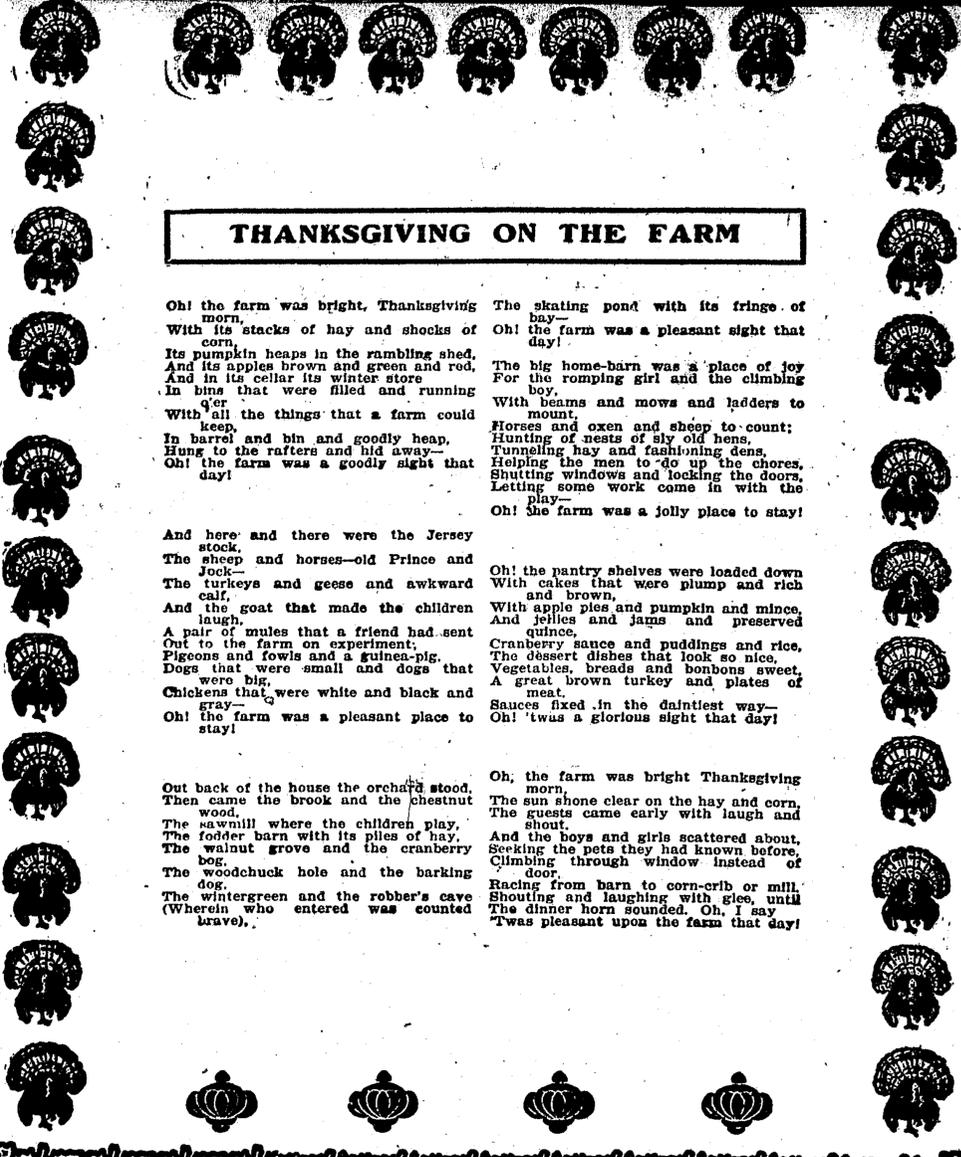

The newest thing in Irish lace might better be called French-Irish. It has the beauty of the work of Irish crochet, treated after the wonderful fancies of the French. It's a wonderful combination. For the Irish work only a few patterns—the shamrock predominate—and make them over and over; while Paris indulges in marvelous, daring flights, and illumines everything she touches with radiant changes.

Cloth Collars.

One sees a few cloth collars in the shops, handsomely embroidered by hand and applied with curious little motifs. They come in white, black and a few colors; and make a lovely accessory to the cloth gown of similar shade. Deeper than these is a white cloth collar that reaches the proportion of a shoulder cape, embroidered with handsome padded Easter lilies.

A New Fad in Ties.

Grass-green tape ties in white can vas golf and tennis oxfords are a late summer fad at the country clubs, balls and tennis courts. Both men and women have taken to wearing

THANKSGIVING ON THE FARM

Oh! the farm was bright, Thanksgiving morn, With its stacks of hay and shocks of corn. Its pumpkin heaps in the rambling shed, And its apples brown and green and red, And in its cellar its winter store In bins that were filled and running With all the things that a farm could keep. In barrel and bin and goodly heap, Hung to the rafters and hid away— Oh! the farm was a goodly sight that day!

The skating pond with its fringe of bay— Oh! the farm was a pleasant sight that day!

The big home-barn was a place of joy For the romping girl and the climbing boy With beams and mows and ladders to mount, Horses and oxen and sheep to count; Hunting of nests of sly old hens, Tumbling hay and fashioning dens, Helping the men to do up the chores, Shutting windows and locking the doors, Letting some work come in with the play— Oh! the farm was a jolly place to stay!

And here and there were the Jersey stock, The sheep and horses—old Prince and Jack— The turkeys and geese and awkward calf, And the goat that made the children laugh. A pair of mules that a friend had sent Out to the farm on experiment, Pigeons and fowls and a guinea-pig, Dogs that were small and dogs that were big, Chickens that were white and black and gray— Oh! the farm was a pleasant place to stay!

Oh! the pantry shelves were loaded down With cakes that were plump and rich and brown, With apple pies and pumpkin and mince, And jellies and jams and preserved quince, Cranberry sauce and puddings and rice, The dessert dishes that look so nice, Vegetables, breads and bonbons sweet, A great brown turkey and plates of meat, Sauces fixed in the daintiest way— Oh! 'twas a glorious sight that day!

Out back of the house the orchard stood, Then came the brook and the chestnut wood, The sawmill where the children play, The fodder barn with its piles of hay, The walnut grove and the cranberry bog, The woodchuck hole and the barking dog, The wintergreen and the robber's cave (Wherein who entered was counted brave).

Oh, the farm was bright Thanksgiving morn, The sun shone clear on the hay and corn, The guests came early with laugh and shout, And the boys and girls scattered about, Seeking the pets they had known before, Climbing through window instead of door, Racing from barn to corn-crib or mill, Shouting and laughing with glee, until The dinner horn sounded, Oh, I say 'Twas pleasant upon the farm that day!

Uncle Isaac's Matchmaking

"Well, I declare!" said Aunt Nancy Winters, "I never did see a turkey fat up nice'n that one! I tell you, Pa, it's too good for jest you an' me to set down to. Hadn't we ought to invite somebody to help eat Thanksgiving dinner?" Aunt Nancy paused in her task of stripping the feathers from the turkey in question, and beamed placidly upon Uncle Isaac through her gold-bowed "speas." Uncle Isaac Winters rubbed his hands together gleefully, and a genial smile overspread his face. "Jest like you, Nancy, to think about somebody sharin' your blessin's. To be sure, to be sure, have somebody in to help dispose of that feller. Who'll you invite?" "Well," said Aunt Nancy, reflectively, "I've a notion to ask Marietty Peabody, poor, lonesome old maid! I don't know as there's a soul in the village that would enjoy a nice piece of breast meat an' sage stuffin' an' Hubbard squash an' mashed potatoes an' gravy an' mince pie an' pumpkin pie better'n she would. I do believe she lives pretty slim sometimes."

early an' help fix things for dinner an' then you an' her could visit longer, she said. "Well," said Aunt Nancy, "that's real good of Marietty. There'll be quite a lot of work fixin' the vegetables an' such, an' I guess she can help me quite a little. I'm real glad she's comin', poor soul!" The next morning when Uncle Isaac, in his Sunday clothes, came into the kitchen and lifted his chin high so Aunt Nancy could adjust his collar button and necktie, the dear old lady said: "If I was you, Pa, I'd look all over the meetin'-house an' pick out the lonesomest-lookin' person there—anybody you think ain't invited nowhere to Thanksgiving dinner—an' ask 'em to come along home with you."

hospitable soul was filled with conflicting emotions. She resolved upon a desperate move. "Marietty," she said when she returned to the kitchen, "I guess that cabbage is chopped fine enough now. Won't you jest step into the settin'-room an' put some wood in the stove." Marietta stopped chopping cabbage and filled her arms with wood from the wood box. She looked very nice in her best black dress and lacetrimmed apron. The warm kitchen had given a flush to her cheeks and the pink ribbon at her throat was very becoming. She went through the dining-room and into the sitting-room. Aunt Nancy, listening intently in the kitchen, heard the sudden dropping of the armful of wood. "My sakes alive!" she said, "whatever shall I do. They'll both get mad an' go home most likely. Dear, dear, what did Pa go an' ask him for?" In the sitting-room the wood lay on the rag carpet at Marietta's feet. She stooped to pick it up, but Silas was already gathering the sticks together. In some awkward way their hands touched, and they looked at each other. "Marietty," he said, "can't we overlook the past? Can't we be friends again?" His earnest dark eyes were looking into hers with the old look. Marietta held out her hands, and he caught them in his. The next moment his arm was around her and she was crying softly upon his shoulder. He was smiling at her in the old way which used to be so pleasant to her until that misunderstanding came between them. He took her hand and led her into the sunny kitchen where Aunt Nancy was about to take Uncle Isaac to task. The good old people started in astonishment as Marietta and Silas entered hand in hand. The lovers looked ten years younger. "Aunt Nancy," said Silas Plummer, "you an' Uncle Isaac have made a real Thanksgiving for me."

Aunt Nancy sighed a motherly sigh, and looked thoughtfully at the big turkey lying across her lap. "Pears to me Marietty done a foolish thing when she give Silas Plummer the mitten the way she did years ago. I wish she was married an' settled down in a home of her own. Silas would be a good provider an' Marietty she's a neat housekeeper—neat as wax—an' seems to me they could be real happy together."

Uncle Isaac sat down on the edge of the wood box and looked at Aunt Nancy's kind old face. "S'pose we try an' make a match betwixt 'em," he suggested. "It's high time that old spat of their'n was cleared up. Let's see—it's as much as ten year, ain't it, since they quit speakin' to each other? I say let's ask 'em both here to dinner to-morrow an' see how it'll turn out."

He was smiling at her in the old way which used to be so pleasant to her until that misunderstanding came between them. He took her hand and led her into the sunny kitchen where Aunt Nancy was about to take Uncle Isaac to task. The good old people started in astonishment as Marietta and Silas entered hand in hand. The lovers looked ten years younger. "Aunt Nancy," said Silas Plummer, "you an' Uncle Isaac have made a real Thanksgiving for me."

Aunt Nancy stared at him in amazement. "Isaac Winters," she said, "be you clean gone crazy? Why, the very idee! A pretty Thanksgiving! It would be, wouldn't it, with them two glarin' at each other an' never sayin' a word! My! my! you don't know Marietty Peabody, I guess, or Silas Plummer either, if you think you could pacify 'em at this late day."

"Well," said Uncle Isaac, meekly, "you know best, Nancy! you always know best. I thought mobby it would work all right, but that's all a fool man knows about such things. Think I'd best hitch up an' drive down to invite Marietty? Jest as soon as you want I should."

"Aunt Nancy," said Silas Plummer, "you an' Uncle Isaac have made a real Thanksgiving for me."

Aunt Nancy turned the big turkey over laboriously. "Why, yes, Pa," she said, "you better go. Give Marietty my compliments an' ask her to spend Thanksgiving with us. If she's goin' to meetin' to-morrow she'll likely ride home with you in the cutter."

When Uncle Isaac returned, an hour later, he remarked: "Marietty seemed awful tickled about your invite. Nancy, an' she said she wa'n't goin' to meetin'—she hadn't a say."

She looked proudly up at the tall figure at her side. Love was in her eyes—love and pride. And in the face of Silas Plummer was a look of happiness which had long been a stranger there. The dinner was a great success. The big turkey was roasted to a delicious brown, the cranberry sauce was rich crimson, the mashed potatoes white as snowdrifts, and the Hubbard squash a golden yellow. The mince pie was Aunt Nancy's best, and the coffee was of her famous brewing. It was a glorious dinner, and Uncle Isaac said so after the guests were gone. "But land, Nancy! I believe them two wouldn't have known the difference if it had been plain salt pork an' Johnny-cake. My! my! to think what a good matchmaker I am. It's just amazing, ain't it?" And Aunt Nancy smiled serenely

...out of the 924 towns in the en-
...Two thousand pri-
...schools are in operation, and
...employ the services of 3,000 native
...The inhabitants there are
...only Oriental people who have ac-
...Christianity and shown aspira-
...toward civil liberty. It is a good
...erial for western educational meth-
...to work on, shows good progress
...and with better still in prospect
...the years go on.

Chinese in South Africa.

William Evans, formerly protector of
...in the Straits settlements,
...was induced by the British gov-
...to go to South Africa to su-
...intend the arrangements connected
...with the importation and the housing
...of the Chinese in South Africa, has ...used any longer to remain there.
...said he would never consent to be
...slave driver, and that the conditions
...under which the Chinese worked in ...South Africa were indescribable.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING

HIS YOUNG WOMAN APPEALED IN VAIN FOR HELP.

When Hope had Almost Settled Into Utter Despair Relief Came from an Unexpected Source.

Mrs. Emma Heidbreder, of No. 1828
...street, Burlington, Iowa, whose hus-
...and is an employee of the Rand Lumber
...Co., tells a story of pitiable suffering:
...“For about five years,” she says, “I
...had a host of physical ills that kept mean
...and puzzled the doctors. Some...times I thought I was going into ...consumption. At times I was so weak that ...I could not comb my hair or even wash
...my face. Then excruciating pains ran ...across my thigh and I had to be ...carried to bed screaming in my agony.
...I could no longer do my work and the ...rain upon my husband's purse was ...very heavy. I craved food but what I
...e only gave me discomfort. My liver
...was torpid, and often I had to be carried
...to the door for air to save me from suf...focating.”

“The worst was the pain which seemed ...as if my thigh were being pushed out of ...my body. The best doctors could do was
...to deaden it by narcotics. Once they ...thought I could not live for more than ...two days. In one of my worst attacks,
...a friend said: ‘Why don't you try Dr.
...Williams' Pink Pills? They are the ...only thing that ever helped my rheuma...tism.’”

“I took his advice. After using one
...box I felt better, and I continued to use
...the pills for three or four months with
...steady improvement until I was well.
...For four years I have been able to do all ...my household work, and no longer have
...to take medicine for any serious trouble.
...I gave one box of Dr. Williams' Pink ...Pills to a man on crutches because of ...rheumatism and advised my market
...woman to buy a box when she was com...plaining of the same trouble. I heard that
...it was soon able to throw his crutches
...away, and she told me she had got rid of
...the rheumatism by the use of one box
...and could not thank me too much.”

Testimony multiplies as to the mag...nificent curative powers of Dr. Williams'
...Pink Pills for Pale People in cases of ...rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous head-
...ache, palpitation of the heart and all ...forms of weakness in either male or ...female. They are sold by all druggists
...throughout the world.

The little girl was describing a foot...ball game. “There was a lot of men
...fightin' over a yeller squash,” she said,
...“but I don't know which of 'em got it.”

TEA

There's plenty of money to smooth the little difficulties that happen; they do happen.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best.

“All worn out and tired of life, are you? You'd better see a doctor.” “Oh, I'm not in such a hurry to die as that.”

Kabo Corsets Get Grand Prize.

St. Louis, Oct. 16.—It has been an...nounced that Kabo Corsets, made by
...the Kabo Corset Co., Chicago, have ...been given the Grand Prize and high...est award by the board of judges at
...the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

It is so much easier to deceive our...selves than it is to deceive our neigh...bors.

A Marvel of Relief St. Jacobs Oil

Safe and sure for

Lumbago

and Sciatica

It is the essential virtue of penetration in this remedy that carries it right to the pain spot and affords a prompt cure.

limbs were badly swollen. One doctor told me it would finally turn to Bright's disease. I was laid up at one time for three weeks. I had not taken Doan's Kidney Pills more than three days when the distressing aching across my back disappeared, and I was soon entirely cured.”

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. W. C. Milburn Co., Buffalo, N.Y.

HISTORIC FAKES

Capture Money of American Sightseers in London.

Not long ago a more or less official investigation was made into the history of the picturesque Fleet street barber shop in London that for years has been described by its proprietor as “formerly the palace of Henry VIII. and Cardinal Wolsey.” The investigating committee's “findings” have just been made public, says the correspondent of the Washington Post, and they prove conclusively that the place never was a “palace” at all and that neither the much married sovereign nor his much-tried prelate ever lived there.

This is an uncommonly interesting development, because it means that of the three London establishments that Americans practically support because they believe them to be interesting links with the past, two are absolute “fakes.” And it has been pointed out in the London press only recently that while the third of these places has real claims to historic interest, its right to the distinction of the strength of which it has been a gold mine to its owner is open to a lot of doubt.

To the thousands of Americans who have visited and patronized the quaint little waste paper establishment in Portsmouth street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, that is called “The Old Curiosity Shop immortalized by Charles Dickens,” it may be rather a shock to hear that—its proprietor's assurances to the contrary notwithstanding—the building is no more the one where Little Neil and her grandfather lived than the Fleet street barber shop is a former residence of Bluff King Hal.

And though it seems a pity to upset a pleasing tradition, investigation proves that while “The Old Cheshire Cheese” in Fleet street may have been visited by Dr. Samuel Johnson, it almost certainly was not one of his favorite haunts and not the scene of his favorite symposia with Boswell and Oliver Goldsmith. Yet probably nine out of every ten Americans who visit London make a point of either lunching or dining at the “Cheese” in order to see “Johnson's Seat” there, just as nine out of every ten pay visits to and increase the revenues of the “Old Curiosity Shop” and the “Palace of Henry VIII. and Cardinal Wolsey.”

“Mamma, is that all the pie I can have?” “Yes, dear. It is quite enough for such a small boy.” “Then, mamma, please cut it in two pieces and give me
one piece at a time.”

TILL NOON.

The Simple Dish That Keeps One Vig- orous and Well Fed.

When the doctor takes his own medicine and the grocer eats the food he recommends some confidence comes to the observer.

A Grocer of Ossian, Ind., had a practical experience with food worth anyone's attention.

He says: “Six years ago I became so weak from stomach and bowel trouble that I was finally compelled to give up all work in my store, and in fact all sorts of work, for about four years. The last year I was confined to the bed nearly all of the time, and much of the time unable to retain food of any sort on my stomach. My bowels were badly constipated continually and I lost in weight from 160 pounds down to 88 pounds.”

“When at the bottom of the ladder
I changed treatment entirely and started in on Grape-Nuts and cream for nourishment. I used absolutely nothing but this for about three months. I slowly improved until I got out of bed and began to move about.”

“I have been improving regularly and now in the past two years have been working about fifteen hours a day in the store and never felt better in my life.”

“During these two years I have never missed a breakfast of Grape-Nuts and cream, and often have it two meals a day, but the entire breakfast is always made of Grape-Nuts and cream alone.”

“Since commencing the use of Grape-Nuts I have never used anything to stimulate the action of the bowels, a thing I had to do for years, but this food keeps me regular and in fine shape, and I am growing stronger and heavier every day.”

“My customers, naturally, have been interested and I am compelled to answer a great many questions about Grape-Nuts.”

“Some people would think that a simple dish of Grape-Nuts and cream would not carry one through to the noonday meal, but it will and in the most vigorous fashion.”

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Look in each pkg. for the famous little book, “The Road to Wellville.”

harqueter, says the Lahore Tribune. A convoy of seagulls fly seaward early in the morning, sailors and fishermen know that the day will be fine and the wind fair; but if the birds keep inland—though there be no haze hanging out toward the sea to denote unpleasant weather—interested folk know that the elements will be unfavorable.

Traits of Future Typical American.

Patriotic, religious, devoted, po-tical, industrious, artistic, literary, honest, enduring. From the Irish, patriotism; from the Scotch, religious fervor; from the Jew, family devotion; from the Scandinavian, industry; from the Italian, art; from the German, honesty; from the French, quickness; from the Indian, endurance.—Chicago Journal.

Mestiza Girls.

The Mestiza girl of the Philippines is noted for her beauty and for her graceful dancing, in her dress she affects bright colors. She will wear a skirt of burning red, with a gorgeous undergarment, over which she dons a waist of silken texture, dark and ornamented with the gay and beautiful “plina,” which is thrown over her shoulders.

“Meanest Man” Again.

A man at Wexham, England, was given $5—wherewith to buy a wreath for the funeral of a friend of the person who had given the $5. Instead of buying a wreath, the fellow went out to a cemetery, stole a wreath there, left it with the mourners and pocketed the $5. But his act was discovered later.

They Were Welcome.

While a Georgia editor was addressing an audience fifteen cabbages were thrown on the stage. “I thank you, ladies and gentlemen,” he said. “My garden was killed by the recent blizard and I have a large family to support. All that I need now is a basket.”—Atlanta Constitution.

Appropriate.

In a church at Birmingham, England, recently, the singing was postponed while the organist went out to wake up the organ blower, who had fallen asleep. Then choir and congregation went on with the well known hymn, “Art Thou Weary, Art Thou Languid?”

Bolivian Chefs.

In Bolivia a chef indulges in front door gossip. His stove is portable, being made of a great stone hollowed out, with two openings, one at the side for fuel, the other at the top for the earthen sauceman; and he sets it up in the street, outside the door.

Where Insects Stop Navigation.

The worst insect-infested neighborhood in the world is the coast of Borneo. The streams of that region are, at certain seasons, un navigable because of the clouds of insects which fill the air and make life unbearable.

Comparative Production of Steel.

It has been computed that for every 100 tons of pig iron consumed for all purposes the quantity of steel produced is approximately:—In Great Britain, 63 tons; in Germany, 75 tons; in America, 80 tons.

Makes Study of Memory.

Ewald Hering, of the German university at Prague, who has just celebrated his seventieth birthday, is noted chiefly for his important discoveries relating to the physiology of memory.

Prevents Wife From Shopping.

To curb his wife's extravagant propensities a citizen of Budapest is in the habit of keeping her locked up in a room of their house except on Sunday, when the shops are shut.

Bellows of the Aztecs.

The Aztecs operated bellows for the forges in the old Mexican copper mines by opening them with the hands and pushing them together with feet.

All Love Admiration.

No truthful woman will admit that she'd rather be a violet hidden in the woodland than an American Beauty in a florist's window.

But She's Posted on Scandals.

A woman understands how to tell a funny story even less than she understands how to understand it.—New York Press.

Slaughter of Song Birds.

Three million song birds are killed each year for the purpose of adorning women's hats with their plumage.

Foothing the Police.

English motorists now carry confetti, which they sprinkle on the road in the vicinity of police traps.

Thought for School Boys.

The boy who does not go to school does not know what Saturday is.— Maitland D. Babcock.

Rate Multiply Rapidly.

In three years the progeny of a pair of rats, under favorable conditions, will number 1,000.

Change Color of Plumage.

Parrots change their brownish gray plumage to pure white in winter.

factories of hairpins is at Fainswick, a village in the Stroud valley, at the foot of the Cotswolds. There are no fewer than three hundred persons employed in turning out these trifles of the boudoir, and hundreds of automatic machines are in constant operation transforming miles of wire into tons of finished pins.—London Engineer.

Paid for Daughter's Opportunity.

That his 17-year-old daughter might get her chance on the stage, a well-known English stock broker guaranteed the whole of the expenses of a new production, conditionally upon his favorite being given, and trained, for the leading role. The venture cost him over £7,000, but the young lady has since earned a creditable theatrical reputation.

Kept Out Witches.

In England, up to comparatively recent times, horseshoes were extensively used almost everywhere as anti-witch charms, and the custom is not even yet an extinct one. No witch, it used to be said, could enter a building over the door of which a horseshoe—or, better still, three horseshoes—had been affixed, prongs downward.

Oil Little Used in Russia.

Notwithstanding the large production of petroleum in Russia the use of illuminating oil in the country is small.
It has been limited by a tax on refined oil. Recently the Baku refiners have petitioned the government to abolish this tax on refined oil for home consumption and to substitute for it a tax on all crude oil produced.

About the Wedding Dress.

A host of superstitions center about the wedding dress. Some stitches should be set in it by the bride herself on her wedding day—she should “sew her own joy in it.” But the groom should never be allowed to see the bride in her wedding dress until he meets her at the altar.

Men With Feminine Tastes.

Whenever a man is found to have tastes commonly considered feminine, he is almost sure to be a distinguished personage. For instance, Sir Walter Scott, Mohammed, Dr. Wolsey, Richelieu, Montaigne, Pierre Loti and the poet Gray were all excessively fond of cats.

A Most Humane Man.

Lawyer—Judge, this man couldn't maltreat a horse. He's the kindest of men to animals. Why, he feeds his dog on nothing but tenderloin steaks.
Only the other day he beat his wife black and blue for forgetting to feed the dog.—Judge.

Meritorious Plea.

A Los Angeles woman is seeking a divorce because her husband beat her when she tried to read her poems to him. The husband will probably defeat the suit if he is wise enough to plead self-defense.—Washington Post.

Asphalt in Sicily.

Immense deposits of marketable asphalt have been discovered near the town of Cordeone, Sicily. An Anglo-Italian syndicate is now being organized for the purpose of exploiting these deposits.

Paper Printed in White.

The latest thing in Paris journalism, a paper bearing the title of L'in-visible, made its appearance on the boulevards on October 5. It is printed in white ink on black carbonized paper.

Felt Pity for the Hens.

Harry was visiting in the country and, seeing some feathers scattered in the poultry yard, he said: “Grandma, can't you do something to keep your hens from unraveling?”

Great Britain's Shame.

If the paupers in Great Britain were arranged in a procession, four abreast, it is computed that the procession would be nearly 100 miles in length.

Irish Eggs the Best.

Irish eggs are richest of all, better than English or Danish, and British pastrycooks always try to buy them, as they go further.

New York Girls Must Smoke.

It's funny how a girl's lips can smell of tobacco smoke when she has been in a room alone with a man.—New York Press.

European Food for Powder.

In time of war France puts 370 out of every 1,000 of her population in the field; Germany, 310; Russia, 210.

Exercises with a Drum.

A Chicago girl gets her exercise by beating a drum every morning. She likes it, but her neighbors don't.

World's Most Beautiful Things.

The three most beautiful things in the world are roses, white butterflies and a woman's heart.

Birds Unable to Fly Backward.

Strange as it may appear, it is a fact that no bird possesses the power to fly backward.

Happiness Thrown Away.

There's enough happiness thrown away to make the whole world contented.

THOUSANDS HAVE KNOWN TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

To Prove what Swamp-Root, the Great Kidney Remedy, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of this paper May Have a Sample Bottle Sent Free by Mail.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, fatal results are sure to follow.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most, because they do most and need attention first.

If you are sick or “feel badly,” begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.
Swamp-Root will set your whole system right, and the best proof of this is a trial.

DEAR SIR:

“Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.
I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water to-day and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.
I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs.
Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers
I am,
Very truly yours,
I. C. RICHARDSON.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but it promptly cures kidney,

EDITORIAL NOTE.—In order to prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured.
The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. In sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in this

WE WANT YOUR NAME and will send you prospectus SUCCESSFUL GOLD, SILVER, COPPER, LEAD, ZINC AND QUICKSILVER Mining Companies, if you will send us your name and address. Mining Maps Free. ARBUCKLE-GOODIE COMMISSION CO., 325 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo.

A curly-haired chap, aged five, confided to some visitors in an aggrieved tone: “It's enough to drive a man crazy to have his mamma get up in the middle of the night and spank him ‘cause he wants to talk.”

TEA

Tasting tea is a whole occupation; coffee another.

The taster picks-out your tea and puts the price on it.

In every package of Schilling's Best Tea is a booklet: How to Make Good Tea.

“Wigs says he would share his last dollar with a friend. But Wigs is too prudent ever to be caught with his last dollar.”

Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children.
Successfully used by Mother Gray, nurse in the Children's Home in New York, cure Constipation, Feverishness, Bad Stomach, Teething Disorders, move and regulate the Bowels and Destroy Worms. Over 80,000 testimonials. At all Druggists, 30c. Sample FREE. Address A. S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Insurance policies are not issued against the fires of genius.

FOR SALE.

Horses, Mules, Harness; One and Two-Horse Baggage Wagons; Landaus, Berlins, Hansons and Four-Wheel Cabs, Victorias, Ton-Seated Passenger Coaches, at reasonable prices for cash. This is surplus equipment purchased on account of the World's Fair.
Address D. Jamison, Superintendent Passenger and Baggage Department, St. Louis Transfer Company, Broadway and Spruce street, St. Louis, Mo.

“Where would you advise me to go to have my voice cultivated?” “As far as possible.”

TEA

is good for a too-busy man;
it makes him forget his business.

liver and bladder troubles, the symptoms of which are—obliged to pass your water frequently night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brickdust or sediment in the urine, headache, backache, lame back, dizziness, poor digestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, skin eruptions from bad blood, neuralgia, rheumatism, diabetes, bloating, irritability, wornout feeling, lack of ambition, loss of flesh, sallow complexion, or Bright's disease.

If your water, when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or bottle for twenty-four hours, forms a sediment or settling or has a cloudy appearance, it is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is for sale at drug stores the world over in bottles of two sizes and two prices—fifty cents and one dollar. Remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The genuineness of this offer is guaranteed.

COUPON.
Please write or fill in this coupon with your name and address and Dr. Kilmer & Co. will send you a Free Sample Bottle of Swamp-Root,
the Great Kidney Remedy.

Name.....
St. and No.....
City or Town.....
State.....
Mention this paper.

WE WANT YOUR NAME and will send you prospectus SUCCESSFUL GOLD, SILVER, COPPER, LEAD, ZINC AND QUICKSILVER Mining Companies, if you will send us your name and address. Mining Maps Free. ARBUCKLE-GOODIE COMMISSION CO., 325 Olive Street, St. Louis, Mo.

The result might have been different if the Hull fishing fleet had been prepared.

TEA

Isn't it queer that Solomon didn't know tea!

Sometimes a woman has one tone of voice for family use and another for callers.

Lewis' “Single Bldndr” straight 5c cigar. The highest price 5c cigar to the dealer and the highest quality for the smoker. Lewis' Factory, Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Bacon—Which do you think is the best talker—the or his wife? Mr.
Bacon—Well, do you mean for quality or quantity?

“ALL SIGNS FAIL IN A DRY TIME
THE SIGN OF THE FISH NEVER FAILS IN A WET TIME!”
WHY DON'T YOU WEAR
TOWER'S
FISH BRAND
SLICKER
AND KEEP DRY?
BEGGS' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP cures coughs and colds.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment

Is a positive cure for Piles.

Medicated with Thompson's Eye Water
W. N. U.—DENVER.—NO. 47.—1904.

When Answering Ad

Fall Suits!

See the very attractive line of Fall and Winter Samples, of E. V. Price & Co., Chicago, we are showing this season. Over 500 samples to select from.

Suits to Order from $14 up.
Pants to Order from $4 up.

Also have a full stock of Ready-made CLOTHING which we are closing out at very low prices. YOURS FOR BUSINESS.

ZIEGLER BROTHERS.

WHITE OAKS, NEW MEXICO.

THREE-BUTTON DOUBLE-BREADED SACK SUIT.

A few Boys' Two-piece Suits, to close at cost and less at Wiener's.

Our Xmas goods will soon arrive. Don't buy until you see them. Talaferra Mercantile and Trading Co.

Judge Philatus Smith arrived from Chicago last evening. He goes out to the Jicarilla to day to resume work on the Hawkeya group of mines.

Col Prichard went to Santa Fe last Sunday to take charge of his new office—that of Solicitor General of New Mexico. He may be gone for some time.

Hats, Underwear and Shoes, at low rock prices. Just call, I'll do the rest. S. C. Wiener.

We have just received a large shipment of shoes from the Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis. These are good shoes and we are selling them very cheap. Ziegler Bros.

We have a full line of everything kept in a general store. To cash buyers we are making interesting prices. Talaferra Mercantile and Trading Co.

Ed. Comery came down from the Comery Bros. Ancho ranch a few days ago to make one of his periodical visits. While in town he looked in at the Outlook office with his cheerful, wide open smile for a few minutes.

Groceries at low rock spot cash prices, will make it an object to try me. S. C. Wiener.

The most enjoyable ball of the season was put on at the town hall Thanksgiving night. The music and dancing was like that of White Oaks in her palmest days.

Clarence Goddard, deputy United States mineral surveyor, returned to day from the western part of the territory where he has just completed a large government contract survey of public lands. After a few days rest he will go to the Jicarilla to run out and plat several mining claims in that promising camp for patent.

His Plausible Sagacity, M. D. Lincoln, the trim, blond rooster of the Hon mountains, is exchanging genial courtesies with his White Oaks friends this week. He says Gallinas are bound to get through the winter all right, and that he will be able to copper all the mining claims in the county next spring.

Dry Goods, Notions, Blankets, Quilts, etc., must go. Prices talk—cash also. S. C. Wiener.

Mrs. Charles Anderson who will be pleasantly remembered by many as an old time resident of White Oaks, came in on Wednesday evening's stage accompanied by her daughter Lois, now Mrs. Don McDonald. Mrs. Anderson has been seriously afflicted for a long time and has come back to see what our climate will do for her relief. The family will occupy the Wilson residence opposite Lattells on Livings' street.

Millinery—balance of stock at cost and less, if you want it. S. C. Wiener.

Capt. John Lee has bought the Langston property and will make it his home in future. He moved his family in from Lee addition last week and will try the luxury of city life for a season as well as so avoid all danger from washouts (it will be remembered that the captain, after sailing the wide seas over, from Nantucket to Bombay, and crossing every ocean from the Antarctic continent to Greenland's icy mountains, came near being drowned in one of White Oaks' dry arroyos last summer. While being a firm believer in the theory that there is a tide in the affairs of men, he does object to taking them at the flood ever since that moving incident.

Nice fat Beef by the quarter 4c per pound at Treat's

The best Coffee in the county at 20c, 25c and 30c per pound equal to 25c, 30 and 35c per pound—just try them, at Wiener's.

ANGUS F. EMS.
Mr. P. G. Peters returned from Captain last week, where he spent several days moving his stock of goods and invoicing. Miss Imogene Peters made a visit to Parsons last Friday. Rev. Wyloy filled the Baptist appointment at Angus last Sunday.

There is to be a Christmas tree at Angus. Bring your presents and your sweetheart and have a good time.

The Angus school will furnish an appropriate program.

Prof. Harper now reports an enrollment of about sixty pupils.

Mr. Dalton and his daughters Cora and Minnie of Nogal were visiting old friends in Angus this week.

Grandma Reynolds is visiting friends in Angus. Mr. Miller who came here last summer for his health is reported to be very low. He is now at Alto.

Will Hightower has been hauling ore to the Wiggins mill this week.

Mrs. H. C. Harper who is teaching at Parsons, spent last Sunday at her home in Angus.

Prof. Griffith, who is teaching at Las Pallas came on business last week. He left the school in charge of Mrs. Griffith.

Mrs. Coleman and her husband came over from Capitan last Sunday and were pleasant callers in Angus.

It is reported that our thriving town will have telephone connection with her sister towns as soon as the lines can be constructed.

Captain P. L. Krouse, our genial county commissioner, was calling on friends in Angus the first of the week.

A number of young people from here attended the ball at Ft. Stanton last Friday night.

Miss Sallie Copeland returned from Nogal last week where she had been visiting friends.

Advertised Letter List.

The following is a list of unclaimed letters lying in the post office at White Oaks, New Mexico, for the month ending Oct. 31, which if not called for in thirty days will be sent to the dead letter office at Washington, D. C.:

Senior Trinidad Marteny. Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say advertised. JOHN A. BROWN, Postmaster.

Notice for Publication.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Land Office at Roswell, N. M., Nov. 3, 1901. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the U. S. Commissioner at his office in Lincoln county, New Mexico, on December 20, 1901, viz: Philip H. Blanchard, upon Homestead Application No. 1135, for the W^{1/2} NW^{1/4} and W^{1/2} SW^{1/4} Sec. 28, T. 7 S., R. 12 E. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: William A. Yates, of Richardson, N. M.; William E. Blanchard, of White Oaks, N. M.; Robert Leslie, Jr., of White Oaks, N. M.; Robert Leslie, Jr., of White Oaks, N. M. HOWARD LELAND, Register.

Notice for Publication.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Land Office at Roswell, N. M., Nov. 3, 1901. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the U. S. Commissioner at his office in Lincoln county, New Mexico, on November 20, 1901, viz: William A. Yates, upon Homestead Application No. 1135, for the W^{1/2} NW^{1/4} and W^{1/2} SW^{1/4} Sec. 28, T. 7 S., R. 12 E. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: William A. Yates, of Richardson, N. M.; William E. Blanchard, of White Oaks, N. M.; Robert Leslie, Jr., of White Oaks, N. M.; Robert Leslie, Jr., of White Oaks, N. M. HOWARD LELAND, Register.

Notice for Publication.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Land Office at Roswell, N. M., Oct. 10, 1901. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the U. S. Commissioner at his office in Lincoln county, New Mexico, on November 10, 1901, viz: William A. Yates, upon Homestead Application No. 1135, for the W^{1/2} NW^{1/4} and W^{1/2} SW^{1/4} Sec. 28, T. 7 S., R. 12 E. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: William A. Yates, of Richardson, N. M.; William E. Blanchard, of White Oaks, N. M.; Robert Leslie, Jr., of White Oaks, N. M.; Robert Leslie, Jr., of White Oaks, N. M. HOWARD LELAND, Register.

Mineral Application No. 30.

U. S. Land Office, Roswell, New Mexico, September 15, 1901. Notice is hereby given that M. G. Paden, George W. Prichard and John M. Whitcomb have Claim bearing gold, situated in the Jicarilla Mining District, Lincoln county, New Mexico, and described by the field notes and plat on file in this office, as mineral survey No. 1135, in T. 5 S. R. 12 E., unsurveyed, said survey No. 1135, being described as follows:

TRACT A.

Beginning at Cor No 1, a porphyry stone 24x12x6, set 12 inches in the ground with mound of stone chiseled 1—1135 and 5—1135. Whence the 1/4 cor on the S side of sec 34, bears S 1 deg E. 932.3, 8 ft. No other bearings available. Thence N 89 deg 4 min W Va 12 deg 41 min E 411.5 ft to corner No 2. Thence N 47 deg 39 min E Va 12 deg 16 min E 421.1 ft to cor No 3. Thence N 20 deg 26 min E Va 12 deg 36 min E 678.3 ft to cor No 4. Thence S 29 deg 58 min E Va 12 deg 27 min E 497.8 ft to cor No 5. Thence S 20 deg 27 min W Va 13 deg 42 min E 215 ft to cor No 6. Thence S 46 deg 37 min W Va 13 deg 27 min E 427.8 ft to cor No 1, the place of beginning. This tract is segregated from the balance of the location by M. S. 1145, Zulu Lode. Area 6.670 acres.

TRACT B.

Beginning at cor No 7 on line 2—3 of M S 1145, Zulu lode, at No 51 deg 15 min E (given in the field notes of survey as N 50 deg 55 min E), 193.6 ft from cor No 2, a granite stone 24x18x8 inches set 12 inches in the ground, with mound of stone chiseled 7—1135. Whence cor No 4 of tract A of this claim, bears S 6 deg 27 min W 322.2 ft. Thence N 6 deg 27 min E Va 12 deg 20 min E 1187.7 ft to cor No 8. Thence N 20 deg 19 min E Va 12 deg 35 min E 621.3 ft to cor No 9. Thence N 1 deg 5 min W Va 12 deg 44 min E 166.1 ft to cor No 10. Thence N 10 deg 57 min E Va 11 deg 53 min E 582.8 ft to cor No 11. Thence N 43 deg 57 min E Va 12 deg 27 min E 559.2 ft to cor No 12. Thence N 52 deg 18 min E Va 12 deg 22 min E 530.3 ft to cor No 13. Thence N 57 deg 20 min E Va 12 deg 28 min E 771.7 ft to cor No 14. Thence S 81 deg 20 min E Va 12 deg 37 min E 618.7 ft to cor No 15. Thence N 28 deg 36 min E Va 12 deg 55 min E 771.7 ft to cor No 16. Thence N 1 deg 26 min E Va 12 deg 58 min E 533.8 ft to cor No 17. Thence N 53 deg 32 min E Va 12 deg 36 min E 1503.7 ft to cor No 18. Thence N 65 deg 13 min E Va 11 deg 58 min E 1119.9 ft to cor No 19. Thence N 3 deg 21 min E Va 12 deg 7 min E 1001.7 ft to cor No 20. Thence N 24 deg 9 min W Va 12 deg E 632.8 ft to cor No 21. Thence N 20 deg 24 min E Va 12 deg 11 min E 639.6 ft to cor No 22. Thence N 5 deg 36 min E Va 12 deg 35 min E 1238.3 ft to cor No 23.

Thence S 89 deg 34 min E Va 12 deg 19 min E 412.5 ft to cor No 24. Thence S 9 deg 11 min W Va 12 deg 25 min E 1518.7 ft to cor No 25. Thence S 16 deg W Va 12 deg 13 min E 371.2 ft to cor No 26. Thence S 10 deg 7 min E Va 12 deg 45 min E 1117.5 ft to cor No 27. Thence S 3 deg 41 min W Va 12 deg 9 min E 640.8 ft to cor No 28. Thence S 62 deg 14 min W Va 12 deg 14 min E 1238.0 ft to cor No 29. Thence S 55 deg 40 min W Va 12 deg 54 min E 1339.4 ft to cor No 30. Thence S 1 deg 37 min E Va 13 deg 5 min E 435.5 ft to cor No 31. Thence S 28 deg 38 min W Va 13 deg 5 min E 768.5 ft to cor No 32. Thence S 75 deg 38 min W Va 13 deg 13 min E 1002.8 ft to cor No 33. Thence S 53 deg 10 min W Va 12 deg 37 min E 614.9 ft to cor No 34. Thence S 58 deg 9 min W Va 12 deg 24 min E 313.6 ft to cor No 35. Thence S 53 deg 55 min W Va 12 deg 39 min E 392.3 ft to cor No 36. Thence S 10 deg 51 min W Va 12 deg 35 min E 580.7 ft to cor No 37. Thence S 00 deg 50 min E Va 13 deg E 1004.4 ft to cor No 38, in an arroyo, course NW Thence S 20 deg 18 min W Va 12 deg 30 min E 621.3 ft to cor No 39. Thence S 6 deg 37 min W Va 12 deg 16 min E 1321.4 ft to cor No 40. On line 3—4 of M. S. 1145, Zulu lode. Thence N 20 deg 50 min W Va 11 deg 50 min E 200.3 ft to cor No 41. Thence S 51 deg 15 min W Va 12 deg 47 min E 338.7 ft to cor No 7, the place of beginning. Area Total 6.670 acres. Tract B 1135.

NOGAL MERCANTILE CO.

SLIGH & CANNING, Proprietors.

CARRY A COMPLETE LINE OF—

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

First-class Goods at Reasonable Prices.

STRICTLY ONE PRICE TO ALL.

Nogal, New Mexico.

On the south are South Ancho Placer, Paden and Prichard claimants, M S 1145 Zulu lode, Peters and Price claimants, segregated this claim into tracts A and B. On the east El Oro, East Ancho, Paisano and Pino Verde, placer claims unsurveyed, American Placer Company et al claimants. On the north North Ancho Placer, unsurveyed. American Placer Company et al claimants. On the west the Conservative Placer, unsurveyed, G. C. Hopkins et al claimants, The Villa del Lobo, East Rico and South Rico Placers, unsurveyed, American Placer Company et al claimants.

Any and all persons claiming adversely, any portion of said surface ground, are required to file their adverse claims with the Register of the United States Land Office, at Roswell, in the Territory of New Mexico, during the sixty days, the period of publication hereof, or they will be barred by virtue of the provisions of the Statute.

HOWARD LELAND, Register.

Mineral Application No. 21.

United States Land Office, Roswell, New Mexico, September 15, 1901. Notice is hereby given that M G Paden and George W Prichard, whose postoffice address is White Oaks, New Mexico, have this day filed their application for patent to the surface ground of the South Ancho Placer Claim bearing gold, situated in the Jicarilla Mining District, Lincoln county, New Mexico, and described by the field notes and plat on file in this office, as mineral survey No 1135 in T 5 S R 12 E unsurveyed. Said survey being described as follows: Beginning at cor No 1 a porphyry stone 24x20 x 4 set 12 inches in the ground, with mound of stone chiseled 1—1135. Whence the 1/4 cor on S of sec 34 T 5 S R 12 E bears S 3 deg 4 min W 683.6 ft Thence N 12 deg 13 min W Va 12 deg 26 min E 1397.4 ft to cor No 2. Thence N 50 deg W Va 11 deg 19 min E 42 ft to cor No 3. Thence N 36 deg 35 min E Va 11 deg 19 min E 313.3 ft to cor No 4. Thence N 12 deg 13 min W Va 11 deg 19 min E 1097.4 ft to cor No 5. Thence N 89 deg 4 min W Va 12 deg 41 min E 411.5 ft to cor No 6. Thence S. 12 deg 13 min E Va 12 deg 16 min E 2557.6 ft to cor No 7.

Thence S 89 deg 49 min E Va 12 deg 26 min E 410.1 ft to cor No 1, and the place of beginning. Area, 23 473 acres. Adjoining claims so far as known: On the north the Ancho Placer Claim of this survey, Paden, Prichard et als claimants. On the east mineral survey 1145, Argonaut lode; Peters and Price claimants. On the northeast El Oro Placer Claim, unsurveyed, American Placer Company, claimants.

Any and all persons claiming adversely, any portion of said surface ground, are required to file their adverse claims with the Register of the United States Land Office, at Roswell, in the Territory of New Mexico, during the sixty days, the period of publication hereof, or they will be barred by virtue of the provisions of the Statute.

HOWARD LELAND, Register.

Professional Cards.

A. H. Hudspeth, John Y. Hewitt
Hewitt & Hudspeth,
Attorneys-at-Law

GEO. W. PRICHARD,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

WHITE OAKS, NEW MEXICO,
Practice in all the courts of the Territory.
MINING LAW A SPECIALTY.

GEO. B. BARBER,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
LINCOLN, NEW MEXICO.
Practice in all the courts of the Territory.

J. E. WHARTON,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
ALAMOGORDO, NEW MEXICO.
Special attention given to cases in Lincoln as well as Otero county.

HOTEL OZANNE,
WHITE OAKS, NEW MEXICO,
Now open for business. Clean beds and an excellent cuisine awaits the traveling public.

Santa Fe Central Railway.

IN CONNECTION WITH

El Paso-Northeastern System

Shortest line between El Paso, Texas, and Santa Fe, New Mexico and all points in Northwestern New Mexico and Southwestern Colorado.

SANTA FE AND TORRANCE.

We make close connections at Torrance with the Great Through Rock Island Passenger Train.

SOUTH BOUND.		NORTH BOUND.
STATIONS.	LEAVE DAILY.	STATION.	ARRIVE DAILY.
Santa Fe	8 15 a m	Santa Fe	5 00 p m
Donaciana	8 35 a m	Donaciana	4 40 p m
Vega Blanca	9 00 a m	Vega Blanca	4 15 p m
Kennedy	9 25 a m	Kennedy	3 50 p m
Clark	9 45 a m	Clark	3 30 p m
Stanley	10 25 a m	Stanley	2 55 p m
Moriarty	11 00 a m	Moriarty	2 30 p m
Molotch	11 25 a m	Molotch	1 55 p m
Estancia	11 50 a m	Estancia	1 30 p m
Estancia	12 50 p m	Estancia	12 50 p m
Willard	1 25 p m	Willard	12 20 p m
Progreso	1 55 p m	Progreso	11 50 a m
Blanca	2 30 p m	Blanca	11 30 a m
Torrance	3 20 p m	Torrance	10 45 a m

Leave El Paso via E P-N E System 7.25 a m
Arrive Santa Fe via Santa Fe Central 8.00 p m
Leave Santa Fe via Santa Fe Central 6.00 a m
Arrive El Paso via E P-N E System 6.00 p m

FOR FULL PARTICULARS CALL OR AGENT OR ADDRESS

NOTICE!

I am here to stay—I want your trade—I am satisfied with a small profit. If prices are an object I'll get it. Just try a change.

S. C. WIENER.